Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year

In the opinion of the editors, this week the following records are the

SINGLE PICKS OF THE WEEK

Strong beat and sweet blending on this with-it teen tune "I've Got to Have a Reason" by the Dave Clark Five. Guys have quite a hit list and here's one more (Epic 5-10114).

Bob Crewe, who undeniably has set many trends for this generation, intro's his Bob Crewe Generation swinging through "Music to Watch Girls By" by Sid Ramin (DynoVoice 229).

Joe Cuba and his sextet are at another sizzling party and swinging their "Oh Yeah" there. Lots of boogalooing will take place to this one (Tico 490).

SLEEPERS OF THE WEEK

The Hardy-Worthit Players, and especially Bill Minkin impersonating Bobby Kennedy, will delight the nation on this imagined recording session of "Wild Thing" (Parkway 127).

Terrific reprise by new Verve artist Arthur Prysock of "You Don't Have to Say You Love Me." Cut is from the guy's new album and a soulful reading it is (Verve 10470).

Happy, newtime, oldtime arrangement of the marvelous "Cabaret" title song. The deck is highly infectious as tooted by King Richard's Fluegel Knights (MTA 115).

ALBUMS OF THE WEEK

Frank Sinatra is heading for his second recorded million seller single with "That's Life" and therefore this "That's Life" album should be a blockbuster. Also included are "Winchester Cathedral," "What Now My Love" and "I Will Wait for You." And that's life (Reprise F/FS 1020).

Two-thirds of this trio — i.e. Eldee Young and Isaac "Red" Holt—used to be two-thirds of the Ramsey Lewis Trio. The new third is pianist Hysear Don Walker. They all lay down groovy jazz-r/b sounds on the package. "Wack Wack," "Monday Monday," "Sunny" (Brunswick BL 7/54121).

It had to happen—and it did. Rudy Vallee has dusted off his megaphone and gone back to the recording studio to say "Hi Ho Everybody." Songs are from new bags and old and range from "Winchester Cathedral" to "The Whiffenpoof Song" (Viva V 6005; V 36005).

Racusin Heads RCA Record Division

Marek Serves As Veep

Appointment of Norman Racusin as Division Vice President and General Manager, RCA Victor Record Division, effective Jan. 1, 1967, has been announced by Charles M. Odorizzi, Group Executive Vice President, Radio Corporation of America.

Racusin, Division Vice President and Operations Manager of the Record Division for the last seven years, succeeds George R. Marek as General Manager.

Odorizzi said that Marek, who will reach normal retirement age in July, 1967, has agreed to continue to serve the Record Division as a Vice President of the Radio Corporation of America. Marek will serve on Racusin's staff with responsibility for coordination of special record projects, including RCA Custom packages and Broadway productions, and will continue to be active in talent relations.

"The tremendous expansion which is taking place in the record business, both in this country and abroad, provides a solid base for the continued growth of both RCA Victor Records and the record industry as a whole," Odorizzi said.

"Mr. Racusin's experience in all phases of the Record's Division's activities, including responsibility for manufacturing, marketing, finance, artist and repertoire, and research and development, eminently qualifies him to lead the RCA Victor Record Division through the exciting growth period ahead."

With RCA 17 Years

Racusin assumes the top position with the RCA Victor Record Division after 17 years of service with RCA. A native of Johnsonburg, Pa., he attended Pennsylvania State College where he was a member of the basketball team and became a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He was graduated with honors with a B.A. degree and thereafter received his M.B.A. with distinction from the Harvard Graduate School of Business Administration in 1943.

Racusin served in the Army from 1943 until 1946, attaining the rank of captain. During two and one half years with Headquarters, South Pacific and with the United States Occupation

Forces in Japan, he was awarded a Bronze Star for his role in preparing the logistics plan for the invasion of Japan and the subsequent conversion to an occupation plan.

Before joining RCA, he worked in the research department of E. F. Hutton and Company, stock brokers, and as treasurer of a Philadelphia drug concern. He joined RCA in 1950 as budget analyst for the Record Division and by 1956 was named Controller. In 1957, he transferred to the National Broadcasting Company, serving as Director of Budget, Pricing and Planning for the NBC-TV network.

In January, 1959, he became Director of Business Affairs for NBC's television network, and in December of that year, he rejoined the Record Division as Operations Manager. A month later, he was appointed Division Vice President and Operations Manager.

For the past three years, Racusin has been Chairman of the Executive Committee of the Record Industry Association of America.

Racusin lives in New York with his wife and two children.

Norman Racusin

Marek, also a New Yorker, joined RCA Victor in 1950 as Manager of Artist and Repertoire with a background as a musicologist, writer and Vice President and Account Executive of a major advertising agency. In 1957, he was appointed Vice President and General Manager, RCA Victor Record Division.

Marek, who for a number of years was music editor of Good Housekeeping Magazine, is author of a number of books including a new biography of Richard Strauss.

Project 3 Inks ITCC Deal

NEW YORK — Enoch Light, President of the new Project 3 — "The Total Sound" — label has announced that Larry Finley of ITCC has made an exclusive, long-term deal with the diskery for 4-track and 8-track cartridge release.

First 4 in Deal

Deal, which will include for the U.S. all Project 3 product, initiates with Project 3's first four album releases: "Spanish Strings," Enoch Light and the Light Brigade; "Heart and Soul Guitar," Tony Mottola; "Lou Davies and the Kissin' Cousins"; and "The Renaissance Quartet." These packages will be available in ITCC cartridge by the end of December, Light added.

Bakkemo Appointed

BURBANK, CALIF.—Marvin Deane, national promotion manager of Warner Bros./Reprise Records, announces the appointment of Clyde Bakkemo as Los Angeles promotion representative. Bakkemo succeeds Mike Shepherd who recently resigned.

Disney Dead

LOS ANGELES — Walt Disney, one of Hollywood's acknowledged geniuses, died at St. Joseph's Hospital last week, after an acute circulatory collapse. He was in the hospital for a "post-operative check-up" following surgery a few months ago to remove a lung tumor.

Disney, who created Mickey Mouse in 1928, built this success into successes in a number of fields, including internationally acclaimed feature films, amusement parks, games and records.

"Snow White" Landmark

Disney's greatest cartoon feature was perhaps his landmark "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs" and "Mary Poppins" is scoring as his highest grossing live feature. Production on a large scale is still going on at the Disney film empire.

Disneyland Records and Buena Vista Records, established primarily to accommodate the Disney product on home labels, have risen to high prominence in the last decade, reaching a peak with the "Mary Poppins" soundtrack LP.

Gil Rodin to Head A&R At Decca's New Coast Office

In a move to further expand the company's operation on all levels, Martin P. Salkin, Vice-President of Decca Records, a division of MCA, Inc., announces the appointment of Gil Rodin to the newly created position of Administrative A and R Director, West Coast Division.

Rodin assumes his new post immediately and will be based in Hollywood at a soon-to-be-announced location. Rodin's prime function will consist of the development and creation of new recording artists and projects for the Decca label, also utilizing the talents of independent production units.

Experienced Hand

Rodin brings knowledge and experience to his new position. He has been responsible both as producer and co-producer on many successful radio and television series and specials. Noteworthy among his many credits are the "Startime" series for NBC-TV in conjunction with Hubbell Robinson, one of the three Fred Astaire specials which won an Emmy, in association with Greg Garrison, and a Jack Benny special. More recently, he spent a year in Australia as production supervisor for Australian television, to assist them in bettering the quality of their TV output.

Joined MCA Three Years Ago

Three years ago, Rodin joined MCA as producer for their International Division. During this time, he produced a series of TV specials featuring the well-known Canadian comics, Wayne and Shuster, for the CBC.

Salkin stated, "This newest move is one more continuing step by Decca in further expansion of its operation in all areas. As in the past, we plan to make any feasible moves now and in the future that will insure Decca's continuing leadership as a major force in the progress of our industry."

London, Hi in 5-Year Contract Renewal

Hi Records' President Joe Cuoghi has signed a new, five-year renewal agreement with London Records Inc. for the American distribution of the Hi label.

The deal, set through London exec Walt Maguire, represents the continuation of one of the most successful distribution marriages in the history of the business. The original London-Hi deal was also one of the first of its kind, and set a pattern that has become a model in the disk scene.

It also was announced that Cuoghi has renewed his arrangements with London's publishing affiliate, Burlington Music, for sub-publishing rights in all foreign countries on the catalog of the Hi publishing subsidiary, Jec Music. The publishing end of the deal was negotiated by Cuoghi with Mimi Trepel, who heads up all publishing activity within the London operation.

In announcing the distribution renewal deal, which also includes the Hi subsidiary label, Moc Records, Cuoghi said that the firm is currently expanding in both country and the R&B areas. Hi has also just signed Charlie Rich, one of its most important recent talent acquisitions. Rich, who has enjoyed major hits on several labels, will have his records produced by Natalie Rosenberg, wife of his manager, Sy Rosenberg. An initial single is due out immediately.

Hi Roster

The Hi roster includes a number of top names. One of the best known of all is The Bill Black Combo, which helped the Memphis-based label get started on the right track with a dozen consecutive instrumental hits. Others include Ace Cannon, known for numerous hits topped by "Tuff;" and Willie Mitchell and "Jumpin'" Gene Simmons, whose biggest hits respectively were "2075" and "Haunted House."

The label will be pushing hard to establish a further identity in the R&B field. Newer acts in this groove now slated for the full promotional treatment are Don Bryant and Janet and the Jays. In the country area, Cuoghi also announced that A&R producer Bill Cantrel has just joined Hi with plans for several new country disking projects expected to take shape at once.

Taking note of an extremely active catalog, which currently numbers more than 30 albums, Cuoghi said that there would be increasing emphasis on LP product, with three new releases already set for release between now and Jan. 15.

Added Promo Man Terry

On another level, Hi has just brought in a full-time promotion man, Stan Terry, who will be based in Memphis and operate throughout the country. Terry will work exclusively on Hi product, which was previously handled by London's regional promo men. Their efforts are now being supplemented by the addition of Terry.

On the publishing front, London's Burlington affiliate, which has had the sub-publishing on all Jec material during the entire period of London-Hi cooperation, looks forward to a considerable expansion in the foreign publishing area. Previously, such American Jec hits as "2075," "Moving," "Tuff" and "Smoky, Parts I and II" have found particular acclaim in the overseas markets, both as instrumentals and with lyrics in the native language. Much more of this kind of activity is now being envisioned, according to Cuoghi.

Mayhew JFK Book

Little Darlin' Records chief Aubrey Mayhew has written a book, just out, "The World's Tribute to John F. Kennedy in Medallie Art" (William Morrow, New York, $12.95).

Mayhew reports 15,000 initial orders for libraries alone, and will be promoting the book via store autograph sessions and January appearances on the Lee Graham, Joe Franklin and "Today" shows, among others.

Said Mayhew, quite a Kennedy buff as well as a leading country music producer-entrepreneur: "It's a technical reference text, with over 500 photos which I took myself, mostly in my living room, with the kids running all around."

MGM Inks Nash

MGM Records has signed songster Johnny Nash, with his first release already out and racking up strong sales: "Amen."

Industry Salutes Decca's Milt Gabler On Jan. 20

NEW YORK — Plans have been finalized for a Special Luncheon "Salute to Milt Gabler" to be held Friday, Jan. 20, at the Hotel St. Regis Roof, 12:30 p.m. Cost will be $12 per person. The purpose of the luncheon is to honor Milt Gabler on his 25th Anniversary as A&R director of Decca Records.

A committee of execs from the music industry has already been formed and will hold their final meeting Thursday, Dec. 22. The present committee consists of: Johnny Marx, Charles Tobias, Howie Richmond, Tommy Valando, George Pincus, Joe Glaser, Chubby Goldfarb, Al Gallico, Budd Granoff, Al Brackman, Sonny Burke, Richard Voltter, Gordon Jenkins, Paul Orland, Eddie Wolpin and Sy Oliver.

Milt Gabler

Gabler's tenure as an A&R director at Decca has covered almost three decades, and in that span he has recorded virtually every type of record.

He has also been personally responsible for such gold record classics as: "Choo Choo Ch'Boogie" (Louis Jordan), "Mac Namara's Band" (Bing Crosby), "The Third Man Theme" (Guy Lombardo), "Glow Worm" (Mills Brothers), "Good Night Irene" (Gordon Jenkins & the Weavers), "A Little Bird Told Me" (Evelyn Knight), "Till I Waltz Again With You" (Theresa Brewer), "Love Is a Many Splendored Thing" (Four Aces), "Little Things Mean a Lot" (Kitty Kallen), "Volare" (Domenico Modugno), "Begin the Beguine" (Eddie Heywood), and "I'm Sorry" (Brenda Lee).

Among Artists Helped

The artists he has helped launch include the Ames Brothers, Bobby Darin, the McGuire Sisters, Bert Kaempfert, Sammy Davis, Jr., Billy Holiday, Earl Grant, Roberta Sherwood and Eddie Heywood.

Gabler started his record career at 17 as the founder of the Commodore Record Shop, which was the hub of the hot jazz universe of the '30s and early '40s. The Commodore at that time sold more jazz records than any record shop on earth. In fact, until foreign countries began to freeze their currencies the Commodore did a world-wide mail order business exceeded only by the likes of Sears Roebuck and Montgomery Ward. It was Gabler who formed the famed Commodore Record label and probably did more to popularize the superb jazz of the late '30s and '40s than any other single person.

In 1941, Jack Kapp induced Milt to come over to Decca as his assistant and within a few short years Gabler was producing such recording giants as Bing Crosby, Billy Holliday, the Mills Brothers, Fred Waring and Ella Fitzgerald. Today, Gabler is a VP of Decca and is also one of the founding fathers of NARAS, as well as serving on the national Board of Governors. For the past 20 years he has also been a member of the A.S.C.A.P.

Those seeking any further information regarding this affair can do so by calling or writing Budd Granoff, 45 West 56th St., NYC, CI 7-7230 or Johnny Marx, 1619 Broadway, NYC, JU 2-0970.

PAUL REVERE AND THE RAIDERS—Columbia CL 2595; CS 9395.

This rock pack welcomes the new year with reprises of a few of their recent hits—"The Great Airplane Strike," "Hungry" and "Good Thing."—and they also tear through some other Terry Melcher-produced tasties.

ART & SOUL

ARTHUR PRYSOCK—Verve V/V6-5009.

This crooner whose fan club grows and grows includes his first Verve single "You Don't Have to Say You Love Me" on his first solo Verve package. "Someone to Watch Over Me," "Everybody's Somebody's Fool," "How Did She Look."

IT'S ONLY LOVE

TOMMY JAMES AND THE SHONDELLS—Roulette (S)R 25344.

The guys indulge themselves in more rock and roll hanky panky on this second package, featuring their second single click. The other inclusions will keep the merriment at party peak. Perhaps a single or two here.

COLLECTIONS: THE YOUNG RASCALS

Atlantic 8134; SD 8134.

These fellows know how to cut a successful record for the current market and they rock right through these ditties including "Land of 1000 Dances," "Too Many Fish in the Sea," "Since I Fell for You." Teens will get in line.

THE BEST OF LUCK TO YOU

EARL GAINS—HBR HLP 8508; HST 9508.

ALIVE AND IN LOVE

SUE RANEY—Imperial LP 9323; LP 12323.

A SYMPHONY FOR SUSAN

THE ARBORS—Date TEM 3003; TES 4003.

Epic Coast Boom

Office's 1st 7 Months a Hit

In the seven months since Epic Records opened its Hollywood offices, the label's West Coast activity has been booming.

With Stu Phillips, Epic's West Coast Artists and Repertoire Producer, heading up the recording operations, a diversified, hit-making artist roster has already been established. In keeping with Epic's policy of growth and expansion, Leonard S. Levy, label's Vice President, announced this week the acquisition of four important new artists.

Highlighting the new additions is songstress Nichelle Nichols, known as Astronaut Uhura on the NBC Television Network series "Star Trek." A versatile performer, Miss Nichols' first dramatic role was in the off-Broadway production of "The Blacks." Subsequently, she starred opposite Burgess Meredith in the musical "Kicks & Co." She has appeared as a vocalist in such New York night spots as the Blue Angel and the Bon Soir.

When Miss Nichols sang at the opening of the Playboy Club in New York, Richard Rodgers was so impressed by her talent that he asked her to understudy Diahann Carroll in "No Strings" and eventually to star in the show's London production. However, when the show's opening in Europe was postponed, she accepted the starring role with the West Coast company of "Blues for Mr. Charlie." Miss Nichols has also appeared in several motion pictures and has had guest roles on numerous television shows, including "Peyton Place" and "Tarzan."

Three Teen Groups

Three new teen-oriented groups, the Badd Boys, the Kaleidoscope and Ian and Murray, also have joined the label's West Coast roster.

The Badd Boys (Bob Wall, Steve Conway, Joel Krasomil and Bill Combest) were given their name by noted entertainment personality Bill Cosby. Guntarists Bob and Steve met two years ago while both were attending high school, and at that time they started their own group, performing locally. Bill, the drummer, joined shortly thereafter, as did Joel, the bass player. All 18 years old, The Badd Boys made their professional debut in May, 1965, and their first record for Epic will shortly be released.

The Kaleidoscope plays an unusual type of music which they term "The Lizart Sound." The quintet's first Epic recording, "Please," coupled with "Elevator Man," was released last week. It has shown signs of being a sure hit via airplay over radio station KRLA in Los Angeles. The group is scheduled to perform Friday evening, December 16, as part of a Joan Baez Concert to be held at the Santa Monica Civic Auditorium in California.

Ian and Murray are talented actors as well. Both guitar players, they have a unique sound which combines the best of folk and rock. A single is slated for release shortly.

The talented vocal duo Jerry and Deborah joined Epic's West Coast artist roster in October. Their debut single, "Come On In," was received nationally with much acclaim, and a subsequent release is currently being planned.

Comedy Stars Score

Television personality Bob Crane has scored as an Epic recording artist. Star of the CBS Television Network comedy series "Hogan's Heroes," Crane is not only a talented actor and comedian, but an accomplished drummer. His first LP, "The Funny Side of TV—Themes From Television's Great Comedy Shows," achieved extraordinary sales. "The Theme from 'Hogan's Heroes,'" Crane's debut single for Epic, has just been released, and already signs of its being a big hit are apparent.

Rowan and Martin, the comedy duo, are another important addition to the label's Coast roster. Their debut LP, "The Humor of Rowan and Martin," was released this past summer, and was widely acclaimed throughout the country.

Young pianist Ronnie David has made a strong showing on the Epic label with numerous hit singles, as well as with his debut LP, which featured music from the Broadway shows "Mame" and "Sweet Charity." The album was recorded in collaboration with famed trumpeter Bobby Hackett. He also has a current single which couples two big Epic vocal hits, "Sunshine Superman" and "Almost Persuaded."

Epic's subsidiary label, Okeh Records, has also made an impressive showing in the West. Recent acquisitions include Larry Williams, Johnny Watson and Little Richard, whose current single, "Commandments of Love," is climbing fast up the R&B charts.

In addition, Epic and Okeh have acquired numerous master recordings, such as "Strange" by R&B dj Wolfman Jack and a soon-to-be-announced single by Canadian vocalist Jerry Palmer. Two new R&B groups, the Triumphs and the Autographs, are currently being recorded under the supervision of Stu Phillips and Larry Williams.

Ink Fe-Fi-Four

ALBUQUERQUE, N.M. — Stinger Talent Agency has signed a folk-rock group from Santa Fe calling themselves the Fe-Fi-Four Plus 2 to a long-term recording production contract with disk affiliation to be announced later.

2 Coast Artists Join Hickory

Hickory Records added two prominent West Coasters to its expanding artist roster last week with the signing of singer-songwriter Dorsey Burnette and of Gary Crosby, according to an announcement from W. D. Kilpatrick, Hickory exec.

Burnette, composer of "Tall Oak Tree," joins Hickory under a special production arrangement whereby he will produce Gary Crosby's disks for the label. Burnette has already sliced a pair of sides himself, and has produced six sides with Crosby. First singles for both are due for release shortly after the first of the year.

Coincidentally with his joining Hickory, Crosby has also been signed for a series of top TV guest appearances.

Darrow Exits C/P

PHILADELPHIA — Jay Darrow, formerly director of publishing and recording for Cameo/Parkway Records, has announced his resignation. Darrow will now concentrate on his writing career and currently has the Mike Douglas Epic record, "The Story of the First Christmas Carol."

During his brief tenure at Cameo/Parkway Records, Darrow concluded a world-wide sub-publishing deal with United Artists Music International, was instrumental in the creation of two new publishing subsidiaries, Certificate Music and Important Tunes and signed writers Jerry Jackson and Mickey Litt.

Al Rosenthal, President of Cameo/Parkway Records, commented: "The appointment of a new director for our music publishing firms will be announced shortly. The continued growth and development of our music publishing business is one of our top priority projects for 1967. We view with regret the departure of Jay Darrow and wish him well with his future activities in the music business. During his short stay with Cameo/Parkway we feel that he made a very substantial contribution to our operation."

Ross Jingling

HOLLYWOOD — Arranger-writer-producer Brian Ross, producer of "Talk Talk" by the Music Machine and "E.S.P." by Rain, has been commissioned by radio station KACY in Oxnard-Ventura to arrange, write and produce the station's new musical signature jingles.

Merrick Skips 'Breakfast'

NEW YORK — The musical adaptation of Truman Capote's "Breakfast at Tiffany's" came to an abrupt bad end last week when it closed after four local previews.

The New York version, a first musical libretto attempt by playwright Edward Albee who was called to Boston a few weeks ago by David Merrick, was at least the third script in a series of unfortunate on-the-road-mishaps.

TV faves Mary Tyler Moore, Richard Chamberlain and Sally Kellerman were all making their Main Stem debuts.

RCA, a principle investor in the production, had the caster rights and had already issued tunes from the show on singles by Vic Damone, Lana Cantrell and John Gary. These could become collector's items for show buffs and curiosity seekers.

Bob Merrill did the cleffing.

Brass Helps Make '66 Gold Year

By DAVE FINKLE

As usual for the music business, the year ending—in this particular case, 1966—was full of exciting goings-on with a healthy quota of hot new trends and brilliant novelties and new stars and big sellers, etc.

The big trend-setting names of the year were unquestionably A&M's Herb Alpert and the Tijuana Brass, Kama Sutra's the Lovin' Spoonful and King-Smash's James Brown.

Herb Alpert, of course, has been going strong for more than just the past year, but it seems that within the past 12 months his sound, his influence, the "A&M sound," has been dictating the way music should be right down to many, many TV commercials and right back again, as in this week's spate of "Music to Watch Girls By," the hot new instrumental based on the theme music used in Pepsi Cola ads.

This is not to mention the numerous take-off albums—take-offs of not only the Alpert musical approach, but even of some of the album cover art (that girl sitting in the middle of whipped cream. Remember?).

Sebastian Big Influence

Another enormously important influence on the music and disk scene of the year has been the Lovin' Spoonful and, especially, the Spoonful's writer-in-residence, John Sebastian. With the great success of "Daydream" (following the very successful first two TLS releases), the Spoonful established in the land a return of goodtime music, which can probably be explained historically as part of the camp trend and a reaction to the anti-protest tunes of late 1965, which were in turn a reaction to the protest tunes of mid 1965.

The Spoonful music, in bouncing along with lilt and ease (the Sebastian muse is extremely unforced), stressed a number of oldtime rhythm and arrangements and suddenly the record biz was harking back to the '30s and the '20s and making room for "Winchester Cathedral," by the New Vaudeville Band (Fontana) and others. This has become, as December closes, a trend of such significance that even the old vagabond lover, Rudy Vallee, has been lured by Viva execs back behind his megaphone.

One extremely exciting trend

during the year was that toward increased experimentation on wax—an outgrowth, undoubtedly of the Beatle influence where anything (or almost anything: see further on) goes on wax. This meant that the Lovin' Spoonful included revving motors on "Summer in the City" and the Beach Boys worked on "Good Vibrations" for a reported 10-month period. And on and on.

James Brown, the biggest name in the r/b field, sang a couple of number one tunes during the year and further signaled the importance of r/b artists on the pop charts—in fact, further signaled the disintegration of the r/b-pop barrier. Percy Sledge, Wilson Pickett and others r/bounced to the top of the charts.

1966 was also a year of big ballads. The biggest of them all was Frank Sinatra's "Strangers in the Night," which earned the veteran crooner his first gold record for sales topping a million. Eddie Fisher's "Games That Lovers Play" (RCA) and Dusty Springfield's "You Don't Have to Say You Love Me" (Philips) were others of the ilk.

Lyrics Became Cause

Lyrics became a big cause in 1966—a reversal in trend from the old nobody-listens-to-lyrics-in-pop tunes situation. Since LSD, the psychedelic drug, was such a cause, station personnel started scrutinizing mumbled lyrics for the possibility of meretricious verbiage. Anything with the title "trip" or "high" in it automatically was under suspicion. (Imagine the concern that greeted Cole Porter's "Ridin' High.")

One of the year's novelty smashes, "They're Comin' to Take Me Away, Ha! Ha!" by Napoleon IV (Warner Bros.), was the object of attacks by touchy groups who felt the record made cruel fun of the mentally disturbed.

This reactionary syndrome also appeared after news that John Lennon in an interview had stated that the Beatles were more popular than Christ. The Beatles also managed to stay in the news via endless press coverage anent their possible break-up. Apparently, at year's end, the foursome will continue to record, will not continue to make in-person appearances and will continue to be good copy. Incidentally, the Capitol foursome also racked up four gold records out of four single releases—"We Can Work It Out," "Nowhere Man," "Paperback Writer," and "Yellow Submarine."

The Beatles, by the way, won a best record of the year award in England for "Eleanor Rigby," a tune more anti-clerical than any statement they have made to reporters.

Although some tradesters were touchy on some subjects, they weren't on others and the unwritten ban on satirical albums imposed in 1963 after the assassination of President Kennedy began to be lifted. A number of writers and companies started to get their licks in on the Johnson family. Jamie released "Our Wedding Album," and Capitol issued "LBJ in the Catskills," and MGM foresaw "The First Family—1968."

And just out: Senator Bobby's "Wild Thing" single, on Parkway.

Another couple of phenomena of the year included a set of unlikely click disk artists—in widely varied bags. Staff Sergeant Barry Sadler of the Special Forces wrote and recorded, and RCA released, "The Ballad of the Green Berets" a sensational patriotic disk, which sold in the millions and which certainly seemed to reflect the general public's support of the Viet Nam war (despite the protest movement).

Mrs. Elva Miller, a California housewife who sang for a hobby, came to the attention of Capitol executives and soon was a household name, warbling in her unprofessional (by normal standards) but inimitable fashion. The middle-aged thrush, now enjoying a promising career, would probably have to be classified part of the camp trend if categorizing is necessary.

Another part of the camp trend was the highly successful "Batman" TV show, which spawned disk by-products in the way of singles and albumfuls of "Batman" music. "Tarzan," "The Green Hornet" and "Superman" (on Broadway) followed.

New TV stars, the Monkees, were a sensational rock outgrowth of this trend.

Senator Everett Dirksen succumbed to years of pleas from supporters and went into Capitol recording studios. As 1967 comes on, the venerable minority whip finds himself with matching chart single and album, "The Gallant Men."

Also clocking time in the studio were groups the likes of the Childhood of Lamp, the Kitchen Cinq, the Kachurs in the Rye, the Shadows of Knight, the Powers of Blue, Dr. West's Medicine Show and Junk Band and the Gurus.

In short, it was a year like any other year—scintillating and cock-eyed.

Darlings

Herb to Japan

Herb Alpert and his Tijuana Brass will extend their Australian tour to include their first personal appearance in Japan, according to Gil Friesen, VP of both Tijuana Brass Enterprises and A&M Records.

Group was originally scheduled to present 11 concerts beginning March 29 in Auckland, New Zealand and winding April 10 in Sydney, Australia. Now they will travel on to Tokyo April 11 and present four concerts, one of which will be a television simulcast, on the next four days, leaving Tokyo April 16 for Honolulu.

Hits are lost all the time! Sometimes they are made by accident. "Our Day Will Come" by Ruby and the Romantics was a "B" side, and so was Bobby Hebb's "Sunny." Right now, Scepter is losing the new B. J. Thomas. The "B" side called "My Home Town" (written by Mark Charron) could easily be a smash. So, Huey P. "Wack Wack," Young Holt, Brunswick, gets bigger and bigger . . . Don Grady is big in Seattle . . . WIBG, Philadelphia is giving heavy play to its "preview record," "Then You Can Tell Me Goodbye," Casinos, Fraternity. This is a very fine lyric and melody. I am certain this will become a HIT . . . "Nothin' Yet," Blues Magoos, is big in Cleveland and Detroit . . . "All," James Darren, WB, keeps looking good, with strong smooth music play . . . Judy Collins shows a dynamic, authoritative top 40 style and is getting strong reaction in Boston and New England to "Hard Lovin' Loser" on Elektra . . . "Walk with Faith," Bachelors, is a pick at WMCA . . . "Knight in Rusty Armor," Peter and Gordon, should go all the way, no doubt! . . . "Girl Watchers' Theme," Bob Crewe Generation has all the top picks and it should be a hit . . . "Winter's Children," Capes of Good Hope, Round, is very good . . . "Georgy Girl," Seekers, should be on every playlist, at least during school hours . . . Seeds is top 5 in L. A. . . Ditto for Bobby Darin . . . 2 of Clubs is #1 in Cincinnati.

Another Hebb Winner

"Love Me," Bobby Hebb, should be a very strong winner . . . Watch out for the power of "I Dig You Baby" by Jerry Butler, Mercury. The song made it by Lorraine Ellison in L.A. The new Lorraine Ellison, "A Good Lover," is station pick at WNOR, Norfolk . . . "Losers' Cathedral," David Houston, Epic, is a country hit, and is now going pop . . . Bill Gavin is very high on the great harmonies in "Snow Queen," Roger Nichols Trio, A&M, and feels they can be another Association.

Hottest New Trend

The hot trend is Latin Boogaloo. "Hey Leroy," Jimmy Castor, took off bigger than "Winchester Cathedral" in N.Y.C. and Charlie Fach says it should do 150,000 plus there alone which is amazing, and it is busting R&B like in San Francisco and in many markets. Every Joe Cuba on Tico is a monster in N.Y.C., the last one did 30,000 in Chicago with WLS, WCFL, and WVON, and hit #1 at WJLB, Detroit; and the new Joe Cuba, "Oh Yeah," is close to 75,000 in N.Y. . . . "At the Party," Hector Rivera, Barry (Hy Weiss), is on WMCA (Hector wrote "Oh Yeah"), so obviously something large is happening that should spread pop. Everyone is now trying to jump on the bandwagon.

This is the year of package goods. Albums are outselling singles this year. Album business is unbelievable!

For the record: "Knock on Wood," Eddie Floyd, passed 600,000 in sales and in four weeks it is #1 at KMJ, L.A.

Kirshner Has Another Monkees Hit

Don Kirshner, President of Columbia Pictures-Screen Gems Music Division and head of Colgems Records, distributed by RCA Victor, has scored again with his production of the second single release by the hot new musical group, the Monkees.

On the market for only three weeks, the recording has been met with strong reception, with both sides stepping out as hits. "I'm a Believer" is already near the top, while the flip, "Stepping Stone," is scoring, too.

Responsible

Kirshner was responsible for production of the group's first single, "Last Train to Clarksville" and album, "The Monkees." Both reached No. 1 in national popularity, with "Clarksville" selling close to 2,000,000 copies and the album accomplishing more than $1,000,000 sales. What made this feat doubly unusual is that both the album and single were the very first recordings to be released on the new Colgems label.

Kirshner is currently at work on a second Monkees album, and advance orders indicate that it will be an even bigger best-seller than the first.

Hot top from Milwaukee: LP, "Taste of Hawaii," Waikikis. Hot cut: "True Love."

Dandy Dan Daniel has a fine Christmas record out called "First Christmas Carol" on Cameo . . . Harry Harrison has "May You Always" on Amy . . . Joey Reynolds has "Santa's Got a Brand New Bag" on Swan . . . Bill Wright, Sr. has "Scarlet Ribbons" on Jamie.

Wrap-Up

"Out in the Rain," Seagulls, Date, broke in Miami, Washington, and in a number of other Southern markets . . . "There Goes My Everything," Don Cherry, Monument, is getting top play through the South, is certain to break with Chuck Dunaway in Houston, and is a Pick at KQV, Pittsburgh, where they often play class records . . . "Pretty Ballerina," Left Banke, looks very good . . . "Please Come Home for Christmas," Uniques, Paula, is getting top play . . . "Little White Lies," Motley Blues Band, is getting good Southern play . . . The new Vogues is "That's the Tune."

The new McCoys is getting all the top listings, its a Detroit giant off the WKNR Pick, and it looks very strong . . . "Deadend Street," Kinks, should hit . . . Jack Fine is pushing hard on "Usually You," Bobby Diamond, Columbia . . . "Gimme Some Lovin'," Spencer Davis, UA, hit #1 in England, and is getting tremendous picks all over now. Jim Brown is running hard now that Mel Turoff left UA.

Late: "Let's Fall In Love," Peaches & Herb, Date, went on WMCA, WDRC, WIST and more.

Parkway has shipped the answer to Senator Dirksen's record, "Wild Thing" (a No. 1 giant by the Troggs), by Senator Bobby the "K." A very funny record, it should do great . . . Bertha Porter, WDRC-Hartford, Picks Frankie Laine, Bobby Hebb, Peter and Gordon, Kit and the Outlaws, McCoys, Sam the Sham, Don Ho and the Casinos.

"The Skate," Dean Parrish, Boom, is busting at WMCA and is now being played at WDRC, WIBG, WFIL and many stations through the South . . . "Santa's Got a Brand New Bag," Joey Reynolds, is now being played at WDGy, WKDW, WIBG, WDAS, WHAT, WDRC and WMEY.

WB Inks Tokens

Push for Tim

Columbia Records is launching a full promotion campaign for singer Tim Rose, whose latest single, "I'm Gonna Be Strong," has just been released by the label.

The push has begun on the West Coast, where Rose is currently appearing, and will include radio-station visits and exposure to print media. Special information mailings have been sent to teen publications and the promotion staff.

Monument Announces Teen Label, Rising Sons

NASHVILLE — Monument Records' national field force met here last week and heard the label's President, Fred Foster, unfold ambitious plans for 1967, including the launching of a new teen-oriented label to be called Rising Sons Records.

Foster said creation of the label "will provide an outlet for contemporary teen product to meet the needs of the ever-changing teen market." In charge of A&R for the label will be Buzz Cason and Bobby Russell, whose feel for the teen bag has garnered the local producers solid success in recent months.

Foster said Cason and Russell will seek new talent and material and will be responsible for developing product for Rising Sons. The label will be distributed by Monument.

Formation of the label brings to three the number of labels in the Fred Foster group, joining Monument, the parent company, with diverse product, and Sound Stage 7, Foster's outlet for R&B product.

C&W product, which is released on Monument, has met with excellent reception since Foster announced plans in January of this year to enter the country field. He has developed Jeannie Seely, voted by Record World as fastest-climbing female artist of the year, and acquired Billy Walker, who has clicked on three consecutive singles and is currently at the top of the album charts, as is Seely. Both Seely and Walker have scored heavily with singles, too.

Sound Stage 7, under the A&R direction of John Richbourg, has rapidly established a name in the R&B field, and Foster credits Richbourg for much of the label's success. Foster feels Sound Stage 7's Joe Simon is rapidly becoming one of the top R&B artists in the country. Simon has also demonstrated the ability to cross over into the pop market.

On hand for the meeting here last week were Jack Kirby, Monument Vice-President; Bob Summers, Vice-President and National Sales Manager; Ed Hamilton, C&W promotion; John Richbourg, Sound Stage 7 A&R; Mike Shepherd, West Coast representative; Bob Rudolph, Mid-West representative; Woody Hinderling, Northeast representative; Ed Crawley, R&B promotion; Nancy Carter, Promotion Coordinator, and Mark-Clark Bates, President of the Cumberland Company, an advertising and public relations firm, which represents the Fred Foster companies.

Foster told his staff of plans for a full scale promotion of Boots Randolph, whose LP sales continue to lead the label's sales figures. Details of the promotion will be announced in January.

The young label chief told the field men of impressive strides made in the international division headquartered in Hollywood under Bobby Weiss, Vice-President in charge of international development in records and publishing.

Foster said acquisition of product by French artist Charles Aznavour accounts for a good portion of the success of foreign product. He noted that LP's acquired in several countries have been released under the Monument logo for sale internationally.

Summers told the field staff that sales for the second and third quarters of the year showed a marked increase.

Diversity a Key In Big 3's Biggest Yr.

Big 3 Music (Robbins-Feist-Miller) is currently closing the biggest year in its history with revenues up to a new all-time high and chart representation stronger than ever before.

Headed by Arnold Maxin, who took over the reins of the publishing organization in April, 1965, the Robbins, Feist and Miller catalogs in the past year have particularly enjoyed a dynamic resurgence on the contemporary pop scene and in the vital international music arena. As a result of the company's sustained diversity drive keyed to going wherever the action, is the Big 3 has also complemented its pop and international successes with a vigorous step-up in soundtrack and standard hits.

During 1966, recordings of some 20 Big 3 songs registered heavily on the trade charts. "You Don't Have To Say You Love Me," "Somewhere, My Love," "Ebb Tide," "Zorba the Greek," "Batman Theme," "Over Under Sideways Down," "Games That Lovers Play," "Happenings Ten Years Time Ago," "Try a Little Tenderness," "Lara's Theme," "In My Room," "Look Through Any Window," "Tar and Cement," "Can I Trust You," "Hurt," "Without a Song," "Georgia Rose" and "Dommage, Dommage" all enjoyed long rides on the charts, maximum exploitation, extensive album and performance use.

Looking toward future chart prospects, the Big 3 is currently promoting "Wednesday's Child" by Ray Conniff (Columbia). Peter and Gordon's "Knight in Rusty Armor" (Capitol), Paul Jones' "High Time" (Capitol), Cash McCall's "Lucky Old Sun" (Chess), "Walk Tall" recorded by the 2 of Clubs (Fraternity), Maxine Brown's "I Don't Need Anything" (Wand), "The Liquidator" by Shirley Bassey (United Artists), "Paradise" by Joe Sherman (Epic), the Stutz Bearcat revival of "Lucky Lindy" (Warner Bros.) and Boots Randolph's new release of "The Shadow Of Your Smile" (Monument). The company is also preparing major material from the upcoming "Sand Pebbles" and "Grand Prix" motion picture scores.

Global Build-Up

In the area of international exploitation, the Big 3 is enjoying a global build-up which has matched the measure of its booming pop program. During the past year, the company's foreign affiliates literally doubled the international exchange of hit copyrights and related music talent. The Big 3's world-wide publishing combine has been so successful in this kind of exchange that they are now operating on the basis of large scale foreign representation of complete catalogs.

Arnold Maxin, head of Big 3 Music, and Jay Lowy, Professional Manager, get together with songwriters Abel Baer and L. Wolfe Gilbert to discuss the pop revival of "Lucky Lindy." The Gilbert and Baer song, first launched in 1927 to celebrate Charles Lindberg's Atlantic hop, is logging air time once again as a result of the new novelty dinking by Stutz Bearcat on Warner Bros.

In line with this policy, significant deals for overseas representation have been wrapped up with Chardon Music, Faithful Virtue Music, the Bob Dylan and Yardbirds publishing interests. Recently, Francis, Day & Hunter, a major overseas affiliate, acquired the Beachboys' Sea of Tunes catalog for international use.

According to latest financial figures, the publishing organization hit a '66 peak of some 15% above the previous year in total revenues. In a recent quarter, the Big 3 also earned the largest slice of music performance fees in its history. With coin up, pop action zooming and its global traffic increasing, the Big 3 is confidently looking forward to a solid 1967.

RCA Tape Release

With the December release of 25 new Stereo 8 Cartridge Tapes, RCA Victor's Stereo 8 catalog passes the 400 mark for a total of 419 available packages. Included are four more Variety Packs, especially programmed for Stereo 8, which are not available in LP form.

Seasons Greetings ELVIS and the Colonel

From a recording studio or a rehearsal or concert hall—from the musical theater—from television and radio—the sound of music written and performed by talented people can be heard everywhere today. BMI in a little over a quarter of a century has developed an organization through which more than 10,000 writers and 7,000 publishers have chosen to license their music for public performance. And their number is increased every day. Through BMI new talents have found an audience. New music has been able to gain a hearing. New vitality has been brought to traditional forms of music. The result has been an enrichment of the store of music to which music users and the public have access.

Tallyrand Music Celebrates First Anniversary

NEW YORK—Tallyrand Music, formed by writer and artist Neil Diamond and producers Jeff Barry and Ellie Greenwich, celebrated its first anniversary the week of Dec. 12 with a track record that many a major pubbery would envy.

The firm and its one writer, Neil Diamond, started their string of hits one year ago with Jay and the Americans' "Sunday and Me," recorded in five languages. This was followed by Diamond's first hit as an artist, "Solitary Man." Then his number one "Cherry Cherry" which established him as an artist of both national and international stature. Diamond's present hit: "I Got the Feelin'."

Although Tallyrand has no professional staff, it has been unable to keep up with the demand for Diamond's material in both the United States and England. A case in point was the recent Monkees session. Don Kirshner, president of Screen Gems music publishing subsid, requested Neil and several other top outside writers, as well as his own Screen Gems staffers, to submit material.

Diamond's "I'm a Believer" won out.

Buyout Offers

As for the future, it's no secret that several buyout offers have been made for Tallyrand from older pubberies looking for the younger firm's access to the current pop charts.

Speaking for the partnership, Diamond stated that "as Tallyrand's success has grown, so has the amount of time we've been forced to devote to its management. For the publisher with a large professional and administrative staff this poses no problem, but for creatively-oriented people these distractions are a very serious handicap and are the only reason that we've considered any of the offers made."

Until a final decision is reached, Tallyrand is going straight ahead with planned projects. Barry, Greenwich & Diamond will be off to England in February to meet with top artists there and are currently negotiating their first motion picture and television assignments.

Ray Anthony's Space Label

LOS ANGELES — Ray Anthony has just started his own record company called Space Records.

Ray received a piece of fan mail from a woman with whom he had gone to school in Cleveland. She is the mother of one of a group of five boys in their teens who call themselves the Troyes. The name of the hit is "Rainbow Chaser" b/w "Why."

The following distributors are set so far: Main Line, Cleveland, Inc., Cleveland, Ohio; Fenway Distributors, Pittsburgh, Pa.; and Music Merchants, Detroit, Mich.

Stage Review

'Cabaret' Click

NEW YORK—Every once in a while you see a show that is so sound of idea and so well done that you wish it could have been even better that it was. In other words, you wish it could have been great instead of just very good. "Cabaret," the new musical at the Broadhurst, is just such a rare bird.

The show is an adaptation of Christopher Isherwood's "Welcome to Berlin" reminiscences, which were adapted by John van Druten 15 years ago for Julie Harris' memorable "I Am a Camera." Playwright Joe Masteroff has played two ill-starred romances in Berlin during the early days of the Third Reich against the frenzied, unnatural activity in a local, degenerate, garish cabaret (an unforced symbol of life then and perhaps now).

The cabaret setting, presided over by a demonic emcee (beautifully etched by Joel Grey) and peopled by tough, disinterested b-girls and grim pleasure-seekers, is fully realized down to phones on the tables and a clutch of blackly humorous, vulgar musical numbers.

Where director Hal Prince's production falls and where it has to be strongest is in the playing of the two major parts —the young lovers, Sally Bowles and would-be American author Cliff Bradshaw. The revelations the characters undergo in their disparate reactions to what goes on around them are the crux of the play. And, as written by Masteroff, they are meaningful (if necessarily short-hand) revelations. Ex-Otto Preminger starlet Jill Haworth (and the word "starlet" applies, not to status in show business, but to abilities) and Bert Convy play the roles. Both are inadequate.

Lotte Lenya and Jack Gilford warmly play an older couple plagued by the prospects of a mixed marriage as Nazism is on the rise.

Major contributions have been made by costumer Patricia Zipprodt, set designer Boris Aronson and choreographer Ronny Field.

The score is by Fred Ebb and John Kander, and with the assistance of orchestrator Don Walker, they have succeeded in recreating the era with a strong, stinging ring of authenticity.

Columbia has the cast, produced by Goddard Lieberson. Prospects should be very good, since the show is shaping up well at the box office. Also, the popularity of the title tune will help as well as will the quality of a number of other ditties.

Levy - Roulette Catalog To Philips' Cassette System

NEW YORK—Morris Levy, President of Roulette Records, became the total stereo tape cartridge entrepreneur this week when he announced that he had elected to go with the Philips music cassette system. Levy stated that he has concluded a licensing agreement, covering his entire recorded catalog, where Mercury Record Corp. will manufacture and distribute music cassettes of Levy-owned recorded music.

"I have followed the success pattern of the Philips cassette since it was introduced in Britain and continental Europe over two years ago," Levy said. "I have watched the growth of interest in the music cassette since it was introduced by Mercury in the U.S. at last summer's N.A.M.M. show. I feel it is time that the elements of all catalogs within Roulette be exposed to the tape cartridge buyer via the Philips system. I am proud to be joining what I feel is a permanent and important media of tape cartridge reproduction."

In elaborating upon his licensing agreement with Mercury, Levy said that his building sales on four-track and eight-track through I.T.C.C. further encouraged him to join those who were represented in the Philips cassette medium. In the Mercury pact, Levy includes all material on the following labels: Birdland, Tico, Rama, Gee, Alegre, Roost, Squire and Roulette. Levy estimates that somewhere between 600 and 700 albums are made available for cassette in the combined catalogs.

12 Cassettes Due

In confirming the release, Irving B. Green, President of Mercury Record Corp., stated that he and Levy plan to release 12 cassettes sometime in mid-January. A heavy emphasis will be placed upon the immediate inclusion of important Latin and Spanish-American catalog items in the Levy catalogs, Green stated.

The Roulette family of labels in the second important catalog of recorded music to swing to the Philips cartridge trend in the past month. Early in November, Peter Fabri, president of Musictapes, announced that he would release his first cassettes through Mercury early in January, 1967. Fabri committed the catalogs of the following release to possible cassette release: Chess, Checker, Cadet, Musicor, Crescendo, Gene-Norman Presents, Hi-Fi, Starday, Prestige, Everest, Concertapes, Elektra sound effects series, Mahalo, Monitor and his own Musictapes catalog.

Linkletter Discusses ABC 'Bible' LP Click with Press in New York

NEW YORK—Art Linkletter met the trade press last week to discuss his successful new album, the 20th Century Fox-ABC distributed "For the Children of the World Art Linkletter Narrates the Bible," inspired by the Old Testament, of course, and more immediately the current blockbuster 20th-Fox movie.

The famed TV personality (with the highest rated daytime show, "Art Linkletter's House Party") noted that he had been plugging the package via gifts to the kids on his show.

ABC Prexy Larry Newton said that this exposure had been, so far as he was concerned, the most important contributing factor to the album sales take-off which last week resulted in orders of 65,000 and which, Newton predicts, will pass the half million mark by February.

Linkletter reported that he plans to hype the package in early January in a segment of his show, concentrating on visual aids—stills from the film, etc. His "family" image, he stated, should continue to be a boost with the "6-60 crowd" ABC is after.

Package retails at $4.79 and $3.79, although originally it was to be a budget item.

Linkletter did the Merv Griffin show and the Johnny Carson "Tonight" show while in

Art Linkletter
At ABC 'Bible' Press Party

New York. He also appeared on a few local radio shows and plans to spend a lot of time making similar visits cross country.

Newton said that the picture has only opened in a dozen or so theaters across the country and will open in 16 more by the end of the year. Further openings will follow slowly, which means sales should mount for a number of years (rather than building with a saturation release and then falling off quickly).

It was also mentioned that the Linkletter package has boosted the 20th-Fox soundtrack and vice versa and that the picture is helping the packages and also vice versa.

Dave's promotion comes as he observes his 25th year in the phonograph record industry, dating back to Philadelphia, Pa., where he started in the distributing business.

Tarsia Returns

PHILADELPHIA—Joe Tarsia, who exited the post of engineering department chief of Cameo/Parkway Records in 1964 to become an audio consultant, has returned to that position, announces Cameo/Parkway President Al Rosenthal.

During his hiatus as an audio consultant, Tarsia numbered among his clients the CBS-TV Jerry Blavatt show, Tony Bennett tent concerts, Basin Street East nitery and many industrial shows. He also designed and constructed custom audio systems.

Epic Releases 3 Big Pop LPs In Dec.

Epic Records is releasing three unique popular albums in December: "The Eggplant That Ate Chicago" on the Go Go label, and "Original TV Adventures of King Kong" and "Goodtime Happening" by the Broad Street Strutters and Singers on Epic.

The Eggplant That Ate Chicago" by Dr. West's Medicine Show and Junk Band is the first album release on the Epic-distributed Go Go label. Due to the enthusiasm generated by the group's smash single, "The Eggplant That Ate Chicago," the LP was rushed for immediate release.

Included, in addition to the title tune, are such as "Patent Medicine," "How Lew Sin Ate," "Modern Day Fish" and "Weird."

Dr. West's Medicine Show and Junk Band sound is a combination of jug band, folk and rock. Among the instruments they use are the guitar, kazoo, tambourine, washtub bass, washboard, '49 Buick car bumper, Taiwan finger piano and Tibetan temple blocks.

On Epic . . .

On Epic, "Original TV Adventures of King Kong" features four episodes from the "King Kong" animated television series. Included are "Dr. Who," "The Treasure Trap," "Under the Volcano" and "The African Bees."

When the "King Kong" television series made its debut in September, Epic released a single featuring "The King Kong Theme" and "Tom of T.H.U.M.B. Theme" from the show. Renewed interest in this popular gorilla has made both the "King Kong" show and the record a favorite among children.

The Broad Street Strutters and Singers, under the direction of Frank Hunter, bring a happy, lively, vivacious sound to records in their LP "Goodtime Happening."

Utilizing the Mummies sound reminiscent of the fabulous '40s, the group sings and plays such familiar tunes as "Charley, My Boy," "I Want to Be Happy," "Let Me Call You Sweetheart" and "If You Knew Susie Like I Know Susie," among others. A festive album, "Goodtime Happening" brings the bubbly fun of champagne to records.

Sinatra 'Life' Prompts New LP

BURBANK, CALIF. — Sales reaction to Frank Sinatra's newest single "That's Life," with over 350,000 in sales, has disposed Frank Sinatra and Reprise Records to put together an album bearing the same name.

Contemporary Feel

Since "That's Life" has such a contemporary feel, the LP concept—with selections like "I Will Wait For You," "Winchester Cathedral," "The Impossible Dream," "You're Gonna Hear From Me," "Sand and Sea," "Somewhere My Love" — has been designed with the same sales-provoking appeal.

Available for Xmas

This new Sinatra package was shipped to Reprise distributors on an "as soon as possible" basis. "The intention was to make this album available for the extra Christmas business," said Mo Ostin, Vice President and General Manager of Reprise Records.

Merc's Big Cartridge Issue

CHICAGO — Mercury Record Corporation fortified its position in the national distribution of 4-track and 8-track cartridge tapes with releases on both systems last week.

19 Additional Tom Bonnetti, Product Manager of Mercury's Recorded Tape Products, announced that he is releasing 19 additional tapes of the 4-track tape plus an additional 22 tapes on 8-track cartridge.

Tom emphasizes that the release, which includes key albums from the Limelight, Philips, Smash, Fontana and Mercury Record catalogs, again attempts almost simultaneous release of tape cartridge with current record album.

"Winchester," Too

He cited, for instance, the inclusion of the current best selling album, "Winchester Cathedral" by the New Vaudeville Band, which is being made available on both 4-track and 8-track as a specific attempt to bring to the cartridge buyer the current hit record.

Gary Lewis in Army

Leaves Backlog Of Lib Records

Gary Lewis, leader of Gary Lewis and the Playboys, exits the musical scene this month to begin basic training with the United States Army at Fort Ord, Calif.

Lewis, after establishing his group the Playboys as a major musical group and selling over 500,000 single records, has this to say about his departure: "It would have been great if Uncle Sam had held off a few years, because the Playboys and I were really getting our feet on the ground. Nevertheless, I still look forward to basic training and my stint in the service. I have made a number of new singles and albums that are going to be released by Liberty Records on a scheduled basis while I am away. So when I return at least my fans will recognize the voice."

Gary Lewis

Gary's latest single, "Where Will the Words Come From," and LP, "Golden Greats," are now available.

Last with Sullivan

Gary made his last professional appearance as a civilian on the "Ed Sullivan Show" a few weeks ago. He sang a medley of his greatest hits such as "This Diamond Ring," "She's Just My Style," "Count Me In," "Save Your Heart for Me," "Everybody Loves a Clown" and "Green Grass" and then received a farewell kiss from a young female fan, Cindi Palmer, winner of a national Gary Lewis contest.

When asked about his plans after leaving the service, Gary said: "I want to continue recording and making personal appearances and would also like to do more feature film work. I'll only be 23 when I get out, and I seriously doubt; that I will be ready to retire."

Even though Gary has departed for the Army, audiences across the country will be able to see Gary during the coming weeks on the Dick Clark "Where the Action Is" national television show. Gary toured, during November, '66, with the Clark group hitting 30 cities in 28 days.

"I've been lucky during the past two years, I know that," says the songster. "There are many groups around trying to establish themselves. I feel fortunate that fans liked the Playboys' sound and bought our records. I owe a great deal of thanks to everyone who has made my short career, up to this point, a successful one. I will be back, you can bet on that!"

Burton Friends Set Up Fund Drive for Fellowship

NEW YORK—The Friends of Robert J. Burton moved into high gear last week in their drive to raise $100,000 for the institution of a fellowship for research in copyright and other forms of showbusiness law at Columbia University.

The Burton drive will culminate in a dinner next March 21. A committee of executives representing all branches of the music and record industry is soliciting subscriptions to the dinner at $50 per plate, or $500 per table of 10. A sell-out will assure realization of the goal of $100,000 to establish the fellowship in memory of the late Judge Burton.

Committee chairman Morris Levy, taking note last week of the impending holiday season, said that a subscription to the dinner represents the ideal tax-deductible Christmas gift, in that $35 out of the total $50 subscription is tax deductible. The recipient of the grand total of the subscriptions will be a young law student, to be selected later, who elects to pursue studies in copyright law or areas related to that.

Levy said that the mailing of 1,000 solicitations is now under way, and that more mailing pieces will go out as names to be solicited are provided by various elements within the industry. He stressed that the mailings are being timed so that the pledging of the subscriptions can be effected during the forthcoming holiday season, allowing plenty of time to claim the tax deduction during calendar 1966.

At Imperial Ballroom

The dinner will be held in the Imperial Ballroom of the Hotel Americana in New York City, and is being described as one great social evening with outstanding entertainment. At least three top attractions are expected to perform, the first of which will be announced shortly.

Levy added that more than 15% of the $100,000 goal has already been achieved, with incoming subscriptions expected to soar in the immediate weeks ahead as the mail invitations are received and accepted.

DGG's Boehm Ends Visit, Waxes Opera

NEW YORK—At the end of January, MGM's Deutsche Grammophon exclusive artist Karl Boehm will be completing a five-month stay with the Metropolitan Opera Company at Lincoln Center and will return to Europe. Shortly afterwards he is scheduled to conduct recording sessions in Prague of Mozart's opera, "Don Giovanni," for DGG in co-operation with Supraphon.

The Chorus and Orchestra of the Czech Philharmonic will provide the background for soloists Dietrich Fischer-Dieskau as the Don of the title, Ezio Flagello as Leporello, Martti Talvela as the Commander, Birgit Nilsson as Donna Anna, Peter Schreier as Don Ottavio, Martina Arroyo as Donna Elvira, Alfredo Mariotti as Masetto and Reri Grist as Zerlina.

Sure Seller

PHILADELPHIA — Two of the city's best known traditions are blended in a new record album created by Leonard Rosen for his Sure Record Co.: John Philip Sousa and the Ferko String Band, "The World-Renowned Ferko String Band Plays Sousa."

Sure Records is the nation's leading producer of string band records. Distribution of the Sure label is handled nationally by David Rosen, Inc.

Demonstrations Inspire Single

The recent demonstrations on Hollywood's Sunset Strip by thousands of teen-agers protesting the 10 p.m. curfew (for those under 18) has inspired a song and a record by the Buffalo Springfield that is creating tremendous excitement on the West Coast.

Tune, called "For What It's Worth," was recorded by the Buffalo Springfield recently, and Coast deejays started playing the record immediately. Atco is shipping the new disk to the rest of the country.

"For What It's Worth" is a Buffalo Springfield eye-view in song of what the demonstrations were all about on the Sunset Strip. Tune was penned by Stephen Stills, one of the members of the group, a few days after the most recent demonstrations.

Lifesize Mrs. Miller Versatile Display

HOLLYWOOD—Success may not have spoiled Mrs. Miller, but it certainly has led to some of the most unusual contests ever staged between record retailers.

It all started with the Mrs. Miller life-size full-length window display distributed to retailers along with her new album, "Will Success Spoil Mrs. Miller?" The display looked so much like the Claremont, Calif., housewife that many dealers decided to find out what customer reaction would be if the display were put in places other than windows.

Of the hundreds of spots that retailers found for the display, the two most interesting came from the San Francisco area. In one instance, Mrs. Miller cruised the city standing in the back seat of a foreign car and sticking out of the auto's sun-roof with her new album in hand. At last report the automobile was still touring the city with the Capitol songstress.

In the second case, Tower Records of San Francisco found Mrs. Miller particularly effective. The display was placed out on the floor of the store to attract the attention of consumers. About two hours after its initial placement, a customer in her late 40s was browsing up an aisle, intent upon reading the liner notes of albums. As she neared the end of the featured merchandise aisle, she accidentally backed into a display. She turned around suddenly and there was Mrs. Elva Miller. Capitol reports that she fainted!

Nashville Invades B'way

By DAVE FINKLE

NEW YORK — Sometimes it isn't easy for a reviewer.

Liberty's new Nashville musical, "A Joyful Noise," at the Mark Hellinger, has at least four show-stopping numbers, fresh music by Oscar Brand and Paul Nassau, a cast of startling and stunning talent (and that includes singers and dancers in addition of the featured players), dancing to knock your eye out.

In light of all this genuine entertainment (keeping an audience gleeful for one-half of its stay in the theater), it seems cruel to have to report that the story of "A Joyful Noise," (which really boils down to no story at all) is a rather silly, unreal exercise about an idealistic country singer who falls into the hands of a slick agent and almost sells out before he comes to his senses.

Well, it's really not worth talking and thinking about. And perhaps if nobody does, the overwhelming worth of the musical portions of the show will override the show's woes and turn it into something that becomes a big word-of-mouth hit and a joy to watch just because of all that talent.

Opry Figures

Back to the story for a fleeting moment. One of the plot turns brings the cast to the stage of the Grand Ole Opry, where Broadway recreates Nashville in high, loving spirits in songs ("Fool's Gold," perhaps a nominee for country hitdom; and "Bare Foot Girl") and dance (a take-off of tap-dancing square dancers).

Nassau and Brand have written other lovable ditties, too. Churchill is publishing the tunes and work on them could mean hits.

And now to the cast. John Raitt as the straight-singing troubador sings smartly. Karen Morrow comes on to sock that song and snap out that comedy line with what is becoming her usual aplomb. Dancer Swen Swenson, as the agent, slithers properly. A newer girl, Leland Palmer, who can dance, sing, make funny faces, almost runs away with the show. Star quality here.

It's good to know all these people are around and hopefully they will all be rewarded by audiences who don't buy their tickets by the "hit or miss" method.

Liberty has a "first caster" project to be excited about.

Peters Branch Mgr.

CHICAGO—Frank Peters, a veteran of the Chicago record business since 1951, has been appointed Branch Manager of Merrec Distributing here replacing Burt Loob, who has resigned. Merrec is the Mercury Record Corporation branch locally covering Illinois and Indiana.

Peters began his record business career with Capitol Records in Chicago as a salesman. He moved to the Columbia Record Division of Sampson Company, Chicago, where he worked as a salesman from 1952 until 1959, when Columbia Records opened its Chicago branch. Peters remained with the Columbia branch until 1963 as a Chicago area salesman. He left the record business for a year, returning in March 1964, as Mercury Label's regional man in the midwest, headquartered in Chicago—a post which he leaves to assume management of Chicago Merrec.

Shangris' Signing

Mercury Record Corp. President Irving B. Green adds his signature to contracts bringing the Shangri-Las to the Mercury Label. Standing: Shadow Morton, producer of Shangri-Las sessions, Betty Weiss, personal manager Larry Martire, Mary Weiss and Marianne Ganser. A single, "Sweet Sounds of Summer" and a "Golden Hits," LP were recently released by the girls on Mercury.

Eastern Album

Danish-born Victor Borge has recorded a "premium" record telling Hans Christian Andersen fairy tales and accompanying himself with piano selections of Danish folk songs of the period.

The LP was created for Eastern Airlines as a bonus by-product of Eastern's sponsorship of the film, "Hans Christian Andersen," starring Danny Kaye, on the ABC-TV network recently.

Country Classic?

Husky Music, Ferlin Husky's namesake publisher under the Long Banner, is watching the progress of a tune that appears to be becoming a country classic: "There Goes My Everything," on which Husky shares co-publishing. The top version thus far appears to be by Jack Green, but a number of other artists are interpreting it, including Margie Bowes, Loretta Lynn, Jean Shepard, Ray Price, Sue Raney and the Bill Vaughn Voices. Song was written by Dallas Frazier.

Wart Ballad Out

MTA Records has released "The Ballad of Walter Wart" by the Thorndike Pickledish Choir with an exclusive leasing arrangement with Golden State Recorders in San Francisco.

Plans are in the works for merchandising of Walter Wart sweat shirts and tee shirts and also for a feature cartoon serial of the "Adventures of Walter Wart."

Club Review

Sylvia Syms L'Intrigue Charmer

NEW YORK—Sylvia Syms, whose most recent release is on Prestige Records, opened last week at L'Intrigue for a three-week engagement.

Dramatizing tunes from Broadway's "Mame" and Hollywood's "One Night in the Tropics," Miss Syms also sang a comedy folk spoof on Hugh Hefner and a "bunnie." The latter provided proof of Miss Syms' versatility and put a delightful finishing touch on an audience-appealing stint.

Grammy Awards Changed to March 2

The date for this year's Grammy Awards, originally set for Tuesday, March 7, has been changed to Thursday, March 2, according to an announcement from George Avakian, President of the Record Academy.

Moving up of the date will give the producers of the Academy's television show, "The Best on Record," additional time to line up this year's winners for the annual spectacular to be aired early in May. It will also avoid any conflict with the NARM convention scheduled for the following week in Los Angeles.

Record Academy Trustees and Governors have completed the screening of nearly 5,000 entries submitted for consideration for this year's Grammy Awards, the most coveted of all prizes in the recording field. Within a few weeks, the entire Academy voting membership will be receiving ballots and lists of eligible records for their first round of voting. Their votes, to be tabulated early next year by the independent accounting firm of Haskins and Sells, will determine this year's finalists.

A second round of voting will then decide the winners in each of the 42 categories, covering the entire gamut of recorded music and sound. These will be announced on the new March 2 date at glamorous, star-studded awards ceremonies held simultaneously at the Beverly Hilton in Beverly Hills, the New York Hilton in New York and at sites, still to be determined, in Chicago and Nashville.

Wright Exits NARA, to Minit; Shields Acting President

NEW YORK — Ed Wright, President of the National Association of Radio Announcers (NARA), has announced that he will be exiting this post shortly to become General Manager of Liberty Records' Minit label.

Del Shields, Executive VP of NARA, as well as Record World Jazz Editor and WLIF-FM, New York, deejay, will take over as Acting President until the formal election in Louisville, Ky., this August during NARA Convention time.

In a statement to Ken Knight, Chairman of the Board and Member of the Executive Board of the National Association of Radio Announcers, Wright wrote: "As President of NARA, I have been proud to see over the past 16 months all promises of the New Breed platform either fulfilled or well into the development stage. It has not been an easy task. But during this period, we have seen NARA emerge as an organization with the entire industry alerted to our plans and our goals.

"It is with deep emotion and only after long and deliberate thought . . . do I come to this decision . . . I have been offered a position of General Manager of Minit Records with the Liberty Recording Company. This will necessitate my resigning my position as Program Director of WABQ in Cleveland and will further call for my relocating in California. In accepting, it indicates NARA has made giant steps in that the President is being requested to head an important department of one of the leading record companies. I realize it will tax all of my resources. I know if I'm to be successful, I will need the help and cooperation of all the members, both regular and associates of NARA."

Accepts with Regret

Replied Knight: "It is with extreme and sincere regret that the Executive Board of NARA is notified of the impending resignation of the President Ed Wright.

"An organization is only as strong as its leader. And during the 16-month term of his presidency, Ed Wright has offered demonstrable proof of his leadership, talent and ability in forging the many interests of NARA into a solid and cohesive organization.

"We have seen NARA rise under his leadership to stand on the periphery of stepping into its promised place as one of the important organizations representing the interests of radio announcers and the recording industry."

NARA is currently submitting an idea to Washington in the school dropout program. The organization has proposed buttons saying "I'm a standout—not a dropout" and "I'm no fool—school is cool," which NARA has designed. If Washington turns them down, NARA will next petition record companies to manufacture the buttons, which NARA will distribute.

Alan Dale Book

QUEENS—Singer Alan Dale, currently at the Boulevard, has written a new book, "Anatomy of Rebellion," out this month. His autobiography, "The Spider and the Marionettes," was published not long ago.

Chappell Opens Earleon Music

Earl Shuman and Leon Carr, the songwriting team responsible for the off-Broadway musical "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty" two seasons ago, have entered into an agreement with Chappell & Co. Inc. for the formation of Earleon Music, a firm to be jointly owned by Chappell and the two writers.

The first major Carr-Shuman work whose score will be published by Earleon is the new musical version of "The Last Holiday," which first appeared as a J. B. Priestly screenplay in 1949 starring Alec Guinness. The new production, to be produced by Edgar Lansbury, has a Broadway target date for the fall of 1967.

Also to be included in Earleon is the team's title song for "The Subject Was Roses," the movie version of which goes before the cameras next summer. Lansbury is also the producer of the film.

Carr and Shuman have enjoyed much recent success on the disc front. Currently, they have recordings on the market or about to be released by Barbara Streisand, Perry Como, Mike Douglas, Vic Damone, Johnny Mathis, and Steve Lawrence. In addition, they are the composers of "Confidence," originally from the "Walter Mitty" score and now the official CBS football song used in connection with the telecasts of all National Football League games.

Under the new agreement Chappell, Carr and Shuman are on a non-exclusive basis which allows them to continue writing under assignment from certain other entities. It is emphasized, however, that all the work turned out by the pair which is not otherwise tied up will go into Earleon. A sustained effort will be made to build the firm, with the possibility that other writers will be brought into the fold at some later time.

Shuman, who started his cleffing career when he won a first place in the erstwhile "Songs for Sale" TV series, said this week that there is now considerable interest in re-staging "Walter Mitty" as a regular Broadway production.

The following Thursday, Elliot and Mendell will guest at University of Southern California Law School to speak on "The Tape Cartridge Explosion" as part of their course on the legal aspects of the music and recording industry.

R&B BEAT

WHERE IT'S AT

The hottest trend going is the "Latin Boogaloo" and "Latin Soul" (the Latin-R&B record). "Hey Leroy, Your Mother's Calling," Jimmy Castor, Smash, produced by Johnny Brantley, has taken off bigger than "Winchester Cathedral" did in N.Y.C., and sales should top the 150,000 mark there by far. It broke in S.F. and other markets. Then Morris Levy's "Oh Yeah," Joe Cuba, Tico, is heading for 100,000 in N.Y.C. The last one, "Bang Bang," did 30,000 in Chicago, and went all the way in Detroit. Hy Weiss' "At the Party," Hector Rivera, Barry (Hector wrote "Oh Yeah"), looks big in N.Y. Fat Daddy is very high on "Fat Mama," Tito Puente, Tico.

BLUES SMASH OF THE WEEK: "Cross Cut Saw," Albert King, Stax, came from nowhere to #3 at WVON, Chicago.

HIT OF THE WEEK: "Are You Lonely For Me," Freddy Scott, Shout. Bert Berns and Effie Smith never lost faith in this one, and now it's all the way in home in Miami (#1), Chicago, Cleveland, St. Louis, etc.

CHOICE RECORD OF THE WEEK: "I Dig You Baby," Jerry Butler, Mercury.

BREAKOUT OF THE WEEK: "Look At Granny Run Run," Howard Tate.

Hot Hits Around the Nation

There is tremendous juke box activity nationally already on "Tip Toe," Robert Parker, Nola, as Dover Music of New Orleans expects to go well over a million with "Tell It Like It Is," Aaron Neville, Parlo . . . "Alvin's Boogaloo," Alvin, hit #1 at WVON, Chicago and top 3 with Crown Prince (McKinley Williams); Willie Martin and Larry Hargrove at WRBD, Ft. Lauderdale, and at WAME, Miami . . . "Just Can't Please You," Jimmy Robins, is over 100,000 in sales nationally.

"Wack Wack," Young Holt, Brunswick, is a giant R&B and pop in Washington . . . Donny Brooks, Larry Daly, Steve Byrd, Sonny Hopson and Billy Fox all report the Artistics as the hottest record in Philadelphia . . . WHAT reports "Everything's Wrong," Cooperettes, Brunswick, is a breakout, and Georgie Woods feels it will be a smash.

Bill Curtis, Bill Williams, Wes Dickinson, Robbie D., WCHB, Detroit, are heavy on: J. J. Jackson; Soul City; Dionne Warwick; Marvellos; Hesitations; Van Dykes; Flamingoes. Hits: Jimmy Ruffin; Artistics. Sales: Emperors; People's Choice; Bobby Bland; Drifters.

Flush: "Man or Mouse," Jr. Parker, Duke, hit #2 at KNOK, Ft. Worth-Dallas, and, "Tell Daddy," Clarence Carter, is #1 with Jerry Thomas . . . The Jr. Parker is a giant in Houston.

Jimmy Bishop, WDAS, Philadelphia . . . Picks: Etta James; "Don't It Make You Feel, Kinda Bad" — Radiants; "Xmas Presents"—Sol Burke; Freddy Scott; B. B. King; 5 Stairsteps.

Man-Size Hit From Mancha

"Don't Make Me a Story Teller," Steve Mancha, Groovesville, looks good in Detroit and is spreading . . . "I Wanna Be Your Baby," Jimmy Gilford, Solid Soul, should become a big thing . . . George Leaner reports that "Shy Guy," Billy McGregor, is top 15 and over 12,000 in Chicago, and he has shipped it nationally for Onederful . . . Delecardos is top 10 for Atlantic in Chicago . . . Bobby Bland is selling very well in just about every market.

Luther Dixon came up with a very strong record with Tommy Hunt on dynamic called, "The Biggest Man." It is the station pick at WWIN, Baltimore, WIMO, Cleveland and others. . . Tom Johnson and Herb Campbell, KSOL, San Francisco, confirm the hit reaction in NYC on "Hey Leroy," Jimmy Castor.

STRONG REACTION: "Love Me," Bobby Hebb. This is a very fine record . . . "All About Love," Garnet Mimms, UA, looks good . . . Matty "The Humdinger" Singer, ABC promo man in Philly, is working the "B" side of the new B. B. King, "Waitin' on You."

Jazz

Taking Care of Business

By DEL SHIELDS

The Birth of a Trio

Jazz, possibly more than any other idiom, produces and evokes an almost fanatical loyalty among its followers for the practicing artist.

There are those died-in-the-wool fans who first heard Coleman Hawkins blow "Body and Soul" some 30 years ago and to this day will say that Coltrane can blow until "Godot" comes and he still cannot compare to the Master.

Basie can keep Freddie Green,

Del Shields

add a drummer and gather all the all-star musicians in the world. But no band of Basie's will ever equal the band that had Lester Young as its lead saxophonist. And it can go on and on. This loyalty is almost indefinable, but it is a harsh reality in jazz. So when a few months ago, the news broke that one of the most enduring partnerships in jazz was about to be dissolved, that of Ramsey Lewis, Eldee Young and Red Holt, the cries and howls were heard across the country.

Harsh words were directed at Ramsey and equally harsh criticism was leveled at the drummer and bassist who had plied their trade for over 10 years and produced some of the leading best-sellers in jazz.

Big Tumult

Very few fans took the time to recognize that in any association there can be disagreement and many times gentlemen of the jazz world agree to disagree. But in my experience, I have never heard the tumult that followed the break-up of this trio.

Since that time, Ramsey has continued to produce best-selling records and replaced his old friends with new faces and the sound of Ramsey continued.

But what happened to Red Holt and Eldee Young?

Wack! Wack! My man, Wack! Wack! Liberally translated, very well thank you.

Eldee and Red were two excellent musicians too good to pack up their instruments and slip into the oblivion of becoming local cats again, while reliving the grand old days when they were with Ramsey.

They made the decision to continue their work, aware that attempting to strike out on their own, there would be the constant comparing, as well as accusations that they were capitalizing on their association with Ramsey.

Even with all of these handicaps, Eldee and Red pursued the right course. They looked around for a capable third member to add to the group. A few pianists were not willing to take the gamble feeling that being the part of a well established two thirds group would not allow them the musical freedom they needed. Others just felt that going to join a group that had left such a popular leader would be a losing proposition.

Finally they met Hysear Don Walker. This youngster out of Evansville, Ind., had somewhat of a fine reputation around Chicago as being a swinging pianist. However, he had not had any broad professional experience. Yet, Eldee and Red felt that his style could be blended with theirs. And so Don Walker, became the third member of the trio.

Hard To Come By

Material for a new group is always hard to come by. But the guys knew that originality is the key in this business. If not, then take a standard and redo it your way. In their case, they produced "Wack! Wack!" The single broke across the country thus leading to the release of their album under the same title.

Their signing with Brunswick was also a wise choice since they had a chance to go with a company that is aware of the need to extensively promote and whose R & B track record is among the best.

And so the story goes, a new trio was born. A new single hit the charts and a new album began to get liberal play around the country.

As to their bookings, Queen

Booking Agency tells me that the group is solidly booked through April and at very good prices. Wherever the group plays they are meeting old friends and creating new ones.

I don't know all of the particulars involved in the break-up of the original group. Frankly it is neither my concern nor my interest since I personally have great admirations for the three musicians as human beings as well as artists. And I play records of both artists on my radio show.

What does endear me to Red and Holt is that they understood they had something to offer. And attempting to embark on their own was not an easy decision to make. But make it they did and they are Wack! Wack! thank you.

Too many times the break-up of a group has been an irreplaceable loss in jazz. Many musicians could have set down and made a decision to go into a new direction or perhaps add a new face and continue their careers.

A Glad Welcome

In the Young-Holt Trio, we are very glad to welcome them and hope that the beginning of new careers for them will continue and they will remain as consistent with hits and appeal as they did with their former association.

In the meantime, "Wack Wack" is getting bigger and better and it has been on the basis of combined efforts of R & B and jazz jocks throughout the country who have made it so. Thus, again it proves that jazz is still on the march and still growing. Wack! Wack!

Hawkes to Prestige

BERGENFIELD, N.J. — Cal Lampley, A & R Director of Prestige Records, announced the signing of Billy Hawkes to a long term contract.

Hawkes is a folk-blues singer, harmonica player, organist and composer. His first album will be released shortly. Prestige plans an all-out promotion to launch this new performer.

Impulse LP Hit In Los Angeles

The Impulse album, "The Spellbinder," by Gabor Szabo, reportedly is the No. 1 jazz album in Los Angeles. This marks the first time Impulse has ever had to use their California pressing plant; and a single is being pulled from the album, "Witchcraft."

WACK WACK

THE YOUNG HOLT TRIO—
Brunswick BL 54121

The debut album of the former Ramsey Lewis sideman. The title is a single that has already shown chart action. The album is a pure delight. "Song for My Father," the Horace Silver classic, is a swinger and "Red Sails in the Sunset" a moving, probing excursion. The boys have extended their style beyond the former Lewis sound.

TIME WILL TELL

JOHN ANDERSON—Tangerine 1506

The increasing attention of the big bands is now focused in this album composed of West Coast swingers. Anderson, an arranger and trumpeter, has earned some impressive musical credits. He has worked with Basie, Benny Carter and Ray Charles. And in this his first big band album he impresses as a talent with ability to orchestrate with understanding and technique. "Time Will Tell," "I've Grown Accustomed to Your Face" and "Flame on the Desert" are impeccable.

Piano Pair

Ferrante and Teicher, United Artists piano twosome, rough out an arrangement during a recent session for their new album, "A Man and a Woman." Current F&T single of the movie theme is spreading nationally as the duo's hottest single effort this year. Both records come as hot follow-ups to the current Ferrante and Teicher album, "You Asked For it!"

Toys at Mercury

Barbara Parrott, Barbara Harris and June Monteiro, the Toys, look on as Mercury Records VP and Director of Recorded Product Charles Fach (seated) adds his signature to their new exclusive pact with the label. Also participating in the signing were (l to r) the girl's attorney, Felix Ziffer, producer-arranger Alan Lorber who will produce the Toys' sessions, and their manager Vince Marc. The Toys commence a two-week engagement Dec. 20 at the Shoreham Hotel in Washington, D.C., and will have a single release shortly after the first of the year.

Howard Thaler, counsel for the Conference of Personal Managers, West, is in New York for two weeks for meetings with President Richard Gabbe, board of directors and attorneys of the Conference of Personal Managers, East, to discuss pending merger of the two organizations.

Blanca Rosa Gil:

Little Girl, Big Voice, Bigger Future

NEW YORK—Velvet Records' Blanca Rosa Gil started her career in Venezuela, where she worked for over six years. A great voice with deep feeling gained her the applause of the Venezuelan fans.

A native of Cuba, she went back to her country, full of hopes which were realized to a great extent on Pumarejo's TV show, "Escuela de Television." Her song was "Sombras" (Shadows), and from then on Blanca was a success in her country. Step by step her fame went from one country to another, her name soon becoming known throughout Latin America.

Her recordings maintained high sales, and they were recorded within a short period of time. And then "Hambre" (Hunger) came and Blanca Rosa suddenly went up the charts higher than ever before. The song was prohibited in several countries, and this news travelled as fast as lightning.

Town with 'Feeling'

Blanca Rosa was born in Perico, a small town in the province of Matanzas, Cuba, which she called "a little town with great feeling." Blanca Rosa is now in New York, performing at El Liborio Restaurant, after a smashing success in Santo Domingo, where she performed at Hotel Embajador and on TV, and in Puerto Rico in the Montecasino Hotel and on the "Rambler Rendezvous" TV program presented by Tony Chiroldi. From New York she will perform at the Million Dollar in Los Angeles for three days.

Blanca Rosa Gil & Tomas Fundora.

Then, a few free days to spend with her daughter.

After gaining top popularity with the Latins, Blanca Rosa has an ambition which we think she is able to fulfill: to sing for the American public in their language and gain their recognition. Why don't you try with "Hambre" (Hunger) in English Blanca Rosa?—Tomas Fundora.

Rivers at Remo

Johnny Rivers, whose LPs "Changes" and "Johnny Rivers' Golden Hits" are among the best-sellers and whose recent single, "Poor Side of Town," was the country's #1 hit, will appear at Italy's San Remo Song Festival in late January. Joining him on the European trip will be Lou Adler, his record producer.

Ink Guardsmen

Capitol Booking head Ron Terry announces that the agency has signed for long-term exclusive representation the Royal Guardsmen, currently hot with their Laurie single, "Snoopy Vs. the Red Baron."

London's 3 LP Specials

London Records has announced a special pre-Christmas rush release of three albums, headed by the London LP debut of Margaret Whiting in London. Miss Whiting has been riding the charts with her single of "The Wheel of Hurt."

Miss Whiting's album, also "The Wheel of Hurt," has been issued, according to London National Sales & Distribution Manager Herb Goldfarb, to tie in with the peak of the Christmas selling season.

Other Specials Set from Label

The two other London year-end specials are "Joan Sutherland Sings Noel Coward" and the now-famed "New Year's Concert," 1967 edition, by the Vienna Philharmonic Orchestra under Willi Boskovsky. Opera star Sutherland lets down her hair in a collection of renowned Coward songs, in which Coward himself makes a surprise guest appearance. The recording has already become a major hit in England.

The Vienna Philharmonic recording marks the stereo preview of this year's New Year's Concert, in which the orchestra renews its time-honored tradition of a brilliant year-end performance of the waltz music of Johann Strauss. Maestro Willi Boskovsky is successor to the orchestra's late conductor, Clemens Krauss, as perhaps the world's leading interpreter of Strauss music.

Bernstein Honored For 'Hawaii' Score

One of the nation's most prolific composers Elmer Bernstein, last week received what he considers one of the highest testimonials of his career in the form of a "grateful Aloha" from Hawaii's Governor, John A. Burns, in tribute to Bernstein's score for the United Artists picture, "Hawaii."

In a personal letter to Bernstein on behalf of the citizenry of the country's 50th state, Gov. Burns praised the noted musician for his painstaking research into the authentic music of the Islands, starting with the religious and festive chants of the early Polynesians through the stirring days of ancient Hawaiian royalty.

Burns congratulated Bernstein for his lofty accomplishment with his "Hawaii" score, recently released as the original soundtrack on United Artists Records, and added, "You have contributed greatly to the public appreciation for authentic Hawaiian music and we are most pleased by the care with which you approached this assignment."

Bernstein also has composed the music for Cecil B. DeMille's "The Ten Commandments," "The Man with the Golden Arm," "The Great Escape," "To

... Pupi y su Charanga de triunfos en Venezuela ... René Moreti de Remo Records grabó con el Ing. Cartagena un "elepé" dentro de un gran misterio ... ¡Esperemos! ... Las distribuciones en esta ciudad, están cambiando de manos, con un ritmo acelerado y en círculo vicioso ... Por supuesto, nos viene a la mente aquello de "aquellos vientos trajeron estas tempertades" ... Los viejos sistemas son inoperantes en momentos en que los distribuidores tienen que ser expertos en promoción, distribución y mercado; ello trae como resultado una competencia discreta y más leal ... Se está moviendo muy bien el "Viva Arsenio" de Arsenio Rodríguez y su Conjunto Afro-Cubano ... Celia Cruz triunfando en Méjico en un espectáculo, y muy cerca de este sitio, triunfa también la Sonora Matancera.

Agradecemos las felicitaciones pascuales de Kubaney, el Maestro Belisario López, de Gema Records, Andrew Ortíz, de Bego Records, Continental Recording Company, Alfredo Munar, Spanish World Records, Fábrica Venezolana de Discos C.A. (Favedica) y otras que iremos citando próximamente.

Lend an Ear ... In English

Sonia López will be performing in San Antonio and Chicago this week. CBS Columbia recently released an LP by this singer in which "Inocentadas" is included, and the package going up. Songs from the pens of Rosendo Montiel, Homero Aguilar and other great composers were included in this fine recording ... Enrique Guzmán spent a few days in bed, ill, but it did not stop him from performing in his TV show in Mexico (of course ... in his bed). A new LP by this singer will be released by Columbia in a few days.

Bego released a new single by Eva Flores, in which Eva is great on "Yo Soy" b/w "Palabras del Cielo." Musical arrangements by Alfredo Munar. Mary Pacheco will record for this label in a few weeks, and a new recording by Puerto Rican singer Raffi Don will be released shortly. Bego is having a nice international catalogue. Good!

"Oh Yeah" keeps going up the charts and Joe Cuba is very happy about it ... We heard a new recording (Gema) by Los Guajiros, which is great and is intended to break in the American market (R&B). Julio Gutiérrez is the director of this group ... We congratulate Velvet and Iglesias Records for the nice press cocktail party for Blanca Rosa Gil, her label and distributor in New York ... Raúl Marrero is increasing his popularity constantly. We are expecting the release of a new recording by this artist, announced by Montilla a few months ago ... Recordings by Sonia, Félix del Rosario, Ramón Gallardo, Rafael Colón and Johnny Ventura are kept in back orders ... With the growing influence of Latin music in the American pop field and the increasing emergence of singers from Latin America, Epic has just signed three talented interpreters of tropical music—Los Melodicos—David Ortíz, Robertito García and Montito Rivera, all native Puerto Ricans now living in New York. Their first LP, "Tu Me has de Querer," will be released next month. Their first single has just been released—"Mia no Mas" b/w "Nos Queremos los Dos."

Kubaney recorded a new LP by Nelson Padrón, titled "Nelson and his Crazy Drum" ... A new album by Felo Bor will be released in a few days ... We heard a sample of a new record by Sonora Matancera, which will be released by MRVA in two weeks ... The "Cuban Guantanamera" by Sonora Matancera is unforgettable! ... Pupi and his Charanga are a success in Venezuela ... Al Santiago is recording for his new label ... René Moreti from Remo Records and V. Cartagena from Studio 76 were recording very secretly last week. What could it be? "Viva Arsenio" by Arsenio Rodríguez and his Afro-Cuban group is selling well ... We deeply appreciate Christmas cards from Kubaney, Belisario López, Gema Records, Bego Records, Continental Recording Co., Alfredo Munar, Spanish World Records, Favedica and others we will be mentioning.

"Hello Dolly" will be presented at the Odeon Theater in Buenos Aires, Argentina, starring Libertad Lamarque and Nélide Roca with Lucio Milena and his Orchestra.

A very good instrumental in which the musical arrangements and the new La Playa Sextet style result in a brilliant fusion of rhythm and melody. "¡Papas Fritas!" is included.

Geo. Morgan To Starday

MADISON, TENN. — Don Pierce, President of Starday Records, announced the signing of country music star George Morgan to an exclusive contract as an artist and song writer.

Morgan's long career started when he wrote and recorded "Candy Kisses" which became a number one best seller. He followed with many other hits on Columbia such as "Room Full of Roses," "Cry Baby Heart," "I'm in Love Again," "You're the Only Good Thing," "Almost," and many more.

Morgan is a star of the Grand Ole Opry and makes his home in Nashville with his wife Anna and five children, and is booked by the Moeller Talent Agency in Nashville.

Pierce announced immediate sessions for Morgan who'll be working with Starday A&R chief Tommy Hill.

Morgan also is an accomplished song writer, and he is commencing to compose enthusiastically for Starday's publishing firm which is repped from the Starday Town House in Nashville by Judy Myers.

George Morgan & Don Pierce

Hal Neely, Jim Wilson and Charlie Dick, the merchandising sales and promotion swingers at Starday, are planning an all out promotion campaign to kick off Morgan's first single which is due in January and an album which is scheduled for February

"Very Excited"

Morgan said "It's a brand new ball game for me and I'm very excited. Those guys at Starday are really on the move and I like to be with a label that specializes in my kind of music." He went on to say that his association at Columbia had been a happy one and his parting was on an amicable basis.

Chart Checking

Jimmie Klein, agent for Connie Smith, Warner Mack, Stu Phillips, Lonzo and Oscar and other big country names, is pictured checking his artists' progress on Record World charts.

LHI Forms C&W Dept.

Having formulated definite plans during the recent country music convention in Nashville, Lee Hazlewood has announced the entry of LHI Records, the company that he shares joint ownership with Decca Records, into the country music market with the appointment of Donnie Owens as an executive producer of C & W product for release on the new label.

Timed to the announcement of the appointment, LHI last week released Owens' first produced country single for the label, Virgil Warner's "Crying Shade" c/w "Out of My Hands."

Owens brings an extensive music business background to his new assignment. He will do most of his recordings in Phoenix, Ariz., giving him access to a previously untapped country music market of songs and artists.

Owens in Parade

Buck Owens has been set to ride in Rose Bowl Parade on the Monterey float. Owens is the first country artist to be invited to participate in the New Year's Day parade.

Tree Music Sets World-Wide Expansion Plans

NASHVILLE — Plans for a major, world-wide expansion were announced by Jack Stapp, President of Tree Publishing Co.

The announcement mapped plans for Tree's expansion in 1967 throughout the world, with Tree subsidiaries planned in several major foreign countries. Establishment of these subsidiaries, to be known as Tree International, will mark the first time any Nashville-based music publishing firm has operated wholly independent, completely-owned branch offices outside the United States.

Stapp and Lee V. Eastman of Eastman and Eastman, one of the leading copyright law firms in the nation, who will act as legal representative for Tree International, have planned a world-wide tour to set up independent companies in England, France, Italy, Germany, Australia and Japan, beginning January 17. Interviews for staff and management personnel are currently being conducted by the company in each of the foreign countries.

Stapp outlined several reasons for the expansion of the company, including the growing acceptance of the "Nashville Sound," improved systems of transportation and communication between the countries, and the growth of Tree at the local level. Stapp said: "The music in our catalogue has already received outstanding acceptance world-wide, and all indications point to an increasing international appeal and acceptance of Nashville's music to the point where it no longer knows geographic boundaries. Tree International's scope will enable the organization to have simultaneous publishing and promotion of its product throughout the world."

Growing Market Abroad

Stapp also commented on the growing market abroad for all types of music, to the point where, today, many foreign markets rival our domestic music market. "Green, Green Grass of Home," for example, a Tree tune which enjoyed considerable sales success in the United States, was recently recorded by Britain's Tom Jones and is currently England's #1 record in sales performance and sheet music.

Local growth of Tree Publishing Co., owned by president Jack Stapp and Executive vice-president W. D. "Buddy" Killen, has continued to spiral at such a rapid pace that the firm not only has a staff of 42 full-time exclusive writers, but has received 55 BMI awards in its 13-year existence.

Foley Tour Smash

NASHVILLE—Red Foley has returned from a highly successful tour of Japan, Tapei, the Philippines and Okinawa.

Foley, who has chalked up almost 40 years in show business and records for Decca, was frequently treated to standing ovations following performances during his recent travels.

Desilu Picks Up Wagoner Show

NASHVILLE — The highly successful Porter Wagoner TV show, now shown in some 85 markets and which debuts in color the first of the year, has been picked up for syndication by Desilu of Hollywood, effective Jan. 1.

Don Howser, who mc's the show, reports that in 96% of the markets it goes into it holds down the number one rating for its time period.

Royal Greeting

NASHVILLE—Did you know that the first Christmas tree in America was erected in 1847 in Wooster, Ohio; that Bible scholars generally agree that Christ was actually born in September; and that Christmas seals were begun in 1903 in Copenhagen, Denmark?

Duke of Paducah

You would know these and many other interesting observations concerning the most joyous of holidays if you were on the Christmas mailing list of the Duke of Paducah and his wife, known offstage as Brentwood, Tennessee's Whitey and Pauline Ford.

The annual Christmas letter sent out by the Fords has been a highlight for its recipients each of the past 10 years and the subject may include a wide array of facts, legends, theories, sidelines and traditions dealing with the Yuletide season. Anticipation is strong as to what the subject of this year's letter will be, but no hint is available from the Fords.

Oh, well, we'll know soon, for Christmas is only . . .

Surprised

Eleven successful years as a buyer and advocate of Nashville's country talent were celebrated on a recent weekend when the officers of Nashville's Moeller Talent, Inc., flew to Minneapolis to host a surprise birthday bash for Ray Perkins (above), owner and co-operator along with his brother Abe of the city's Flame supperclub. The Flame has continuously and exclusively purchased country talent from the Moeller organization on a year-round basis since 1955.

Grave View Of Movie - Making

HOLLYWOOD—"They told me that this movie would make my spine tingle, but I didn't know they'd bend it in the process."

That quote was attributed to funnyman Don Bowman as he was carried from a newly excavated grave on the set of "Ghost Party." Bowman, who stars with Ferlin Husky and veteran spooksters Basil Rathbone, Lon Chaney and John Carradine in the country music-oriented Woolner Brothers Production, was called on to hop into the open grave in feigned fright. The strained back he developed in the exercise was all too real. The ailment, however, didn't haunt him to the extent that shooting was delayed at the producers studio.

"Ghost Party" is a $500,000-plus endeavor exercising the talents of Bowman and Husky, the comedy team which sparked "Las Vegas Hillbillies," an earlier production of the Woolners'. Shooting began Nov. 30 and is slated to be completed around Dec. 20. The script, two-and-a-half months in preparation, deals with the misadventures of Husky and Bowman when they are forced by a storm to take refuge in a haunt-infested mansion. Cameo singing appearances will be made by Merle Haggard, Sonny James and Molly Bee.

Talent arrangements for Bowman-Husky were completed by the Hubert Long Talent Agency.

NASHVILLE REPORT

By PAUL PERRY

One day 13 years ago a well-rounded youngster just home from the Korean war stopped off at the Cincinnati Studios of WLW-TV, sang a couple of numbers and was hired as a regular on the Midwestern Hayride which originates there. The first of the year Kenny Price leaves that show to hit the road on the heels of his mammoth Boone outing of "Walking on New Grass." And to follow-up on his latest, "Happy Tracks."

While visiting with Kenny a couple weeks back he had more to say about his 10-year-old-boy, who was named the outstanding knot-hole baseball player in the state of Kentucky this year than about himself. It's understood that Kenny's personal manager, Bobby Bobo, prexy of Boone Records, will supervise his bookings. When asked whether he plans a move to Nashville, Kenny replied, "Not yet, but it could happen later on."

Hank Snow along with his Rainbow Ranch Boys Band, Johnny Johnson, Cubby Wise, Jimmy Crawford and Jimmy Widener, are at this moment in the war-torn republic of South Viet Nam. The vet RCA Victor artist is on an 18-day government-sponsored trip of entertaining G.I.'s through the 30th of the month. Accompanying Hank and his boys on the tour is Hank's minister son Jimmie Rogers Snow and his wife Carol Lee (she's the daughter of Wilma Lee and Stoney Cooper). Hank said just before leaving that he was booked all over the south portion of Viet Nam and emphasized that he'd been in this business for more than three decades, but was more excited about this tour than any he had ever made.

Leon Rhodes who's been playing lead guitar for Ernest Tubb during the past six years has exited the Texas Troubadours. The reason is said to be the strenuous work schedule of travel dates being exercised by the troupe. Leon prefers to stay home for a while and work sessions as well as a few dates.

From Bakersfield, Cal., comes word that Buck Owens just purchased the downtown Bakersfield Hotel as well as a large-size ranch on the coast. This makes two coast ranches owned by the Capitol hitster as well as one in Bakersfield. And from all indications apparently the jocks are switching from "The Fugitive" to the flip side on Merle Haggard's latest which is "They Told My Story." Merle currently has the nation's biggest LP, "Swingin' Doors."

70-year-old John Lair, who broke into radio in 1930 and originated the Renfro Valley Barn Dance and Gathering years ago, was in town this past week huddling with Hal Smith and Ray Price. Hal and Ray purchased the show last year and have big plans for it in 1967. John conveyed the news that he is donating many of the items he has in his museum at Renfro Valley, Ky. to the Country Music Hall of Fame Museum here. What a show that was that WENO Radio and the local Muscular Dystrophy Association put on Dec. 17. It was the sixth annual WENO-Muscular Dystrophy Christmas Party which was solely for the entertainment of muscular dystrophy handicapped patients throughout the area and was not for the public. The hour show featured Grandpa Jones, Harold Weakley, Hank Williams, Jr. and Dottie West with her band the Heartaches. The performance was broadcast and included old Santa himself.

Not since the early stages of "Almost Persuaded" and "There Goes My Everything" has one song had so many people talking around here as has the new Jimmy Newman offering, "We Lose a Little Ground." Both the Newkeys folks who published it as well as Decca Records are readying for a big one. Hot rumor here has NBC-TV taking off the "Swingin' Country" program. If this is true, then that coupled with the cancellation of the Roger Miller program will be quite a blow. Elvis Presley, who still does the majority of his disk work here, was through town last week to visit with Col. Tom Parker on his way to Memphis.

Tree Music—Dial Records Prexy Jack Stapp will head for Europe Jan. 17. Mainly a business trip.

And Eddy Cummings has resigned here as local head of the Gerard Purcell Booking Agency.
