WHO IN THE WORLD

Engelbert Humperdinck, whose Parrot Record Of 'Release Me' Earned A Gold Record, Has Won The MOA Award for Most Popular Record of Year. His Story This Issue.

In the opinion of our readers, this week the following records are the

★ SONG OF THE WEEK

Exciting, spicy interpretation of "Live for Life" (Unart, BMI) by tanga Carmen McRae and Herbie Mann on hot flute (Atlantic 2451).

Jack Jones takes his "Live for Life" (Unart, BMI) at a lilting, leisurely pace. Smart bow for him on RCA (RCA Victor 47-9365).

Ferrante and Teicher tinkle brightly through "Live for Life" (Unart, BMI) as a chorus gives sumptuous reading (United Artists 50-228).

★ SINGLE PICKS OF THE WEEK

The Monkees have a terrific new ditty in "Daydream Believer" (Screen Gems-Columbia). It has a magnetic melody and lyrics (Colgems 66-1012).

Ray Charles gets about as much soul into "Yesterday" (Maclen, BMI) as is possible. This reading is one of the classics (ABC 11009).

"(The Lights Went Out in) Massachusetts" (Nemperor, BMI) is the newest in the hit chain of Bee Gees songs. Again a different-sounding love ode (Atco 6532).

The Box Tops are seeing a "Neon Rainbow" (Earl Barton, BMI) on what looks and sounds like their second big single release (Mala 580).

★ SLEEPER PICKS OF THE WEEK

Louis Armstrong has a new gal to chat and scat about, "Rosie" (Shamley, ASCAP), and the public ought to flip for the Dixie delight (Brunswick 55350).

The American Breed have a happy ditty here on "Bend Me, Shape Me" (Helios, BMI) as they pledge undying love to their girl (Acta 811).

Teens will "Keep on Dancin'" (Mills, ASCAP) when they groove to this beat from new team, Harper and Rowe, who make the right young sounds (White Whale 258).

The Gents are a talented new group, who could score heavily with their first cut, "I Wonder Why" (Tobi-Ann, BMI), on new label (Normandy 91067).

Bootlegging Rise

ASTORIA, QUEENS — DA Hogan's office, after a six-month investigation, has cracked down on a ring counterfeiting millions of dollars worth of long-playing records and then selling them on the open market.

Detectives raided a record-pressing plant in Astoria, Queens last week and arrested three men. They also confiscated 50,000 counterfeit copies of RCA Victor's best-selling record, "The Sound of Music," worth an estimated $250,000, plus counterfeit RCA labels and record jackets.

Inspector Paul Vitrano said the operation extends into several states and that more arrests are anticipated.

Many Labels Counterfeited

There were several hundred different varieties of labels, including many Latin American items, also found on the premises as well as about 200 stampers for different records. Among other finished records found on the premises and believed to be counterfeit copies were "Happy Together" by the Turtles originally released by White Whale Records and "Hypnotized" by Linda Jones released under the Loma label.

Latest Humperdinck Honor:

MOA Award to Engelbert For Top Op Recording

His forte: the ballad. His motto: sincerity. His name: Engelbert Humperdinck—the only artist on the British Charts with three single records to his credit today.

"Release Me" sold well over 1,000,000 copies in England and earned the star a gold record. "The Last Waltz" is now on its way to reaching the million mark in England.

His acceptance in America on Parrot Records is proving phenomenal. He has just been awarded the MOA Annual Award for the Most Popular Record of the Year in Coin-Operated Phonographs for his performance of "Release Me." "The Last Waltz" is climbing all charts in the states, too.

Engelbert was born in May, 1940, in Madras, India, where he spent his first six years. His parents then decided to return to England, making a home for themselves and their 10 children in Leicester. Throughout his childhood he sang and played a variety of instruments.

Engineer for a Time

On leaving school he became an apprentice engineer, but this vocation was rather short-lived. Armed with a little money won in a talent show, Engelbert set off for London to begin a show business career. Things went slowly for a while.

Then came a change of luck. Engelbert sang a song he had written to his friend Gordon Mills, Tom Jones' manager. Gordon loved the number and immediately arranged for Engelbert to record it. Result: Decca Ltd. signed Engelbert in June of '66. Decca also chose him to represent them at the famous International Song Festival at Knokke-Le-Zoute, in Belgium.

As Shakespeare said, "What's in a name?"

Another Way To Get GOOD & PLENTY

RCA Great Britain to Mftr., Distrib Victor in UK in '69

RCA Great Britain, Ltd., announces it will take over the manufacture and distribution of RCA Victor records in the United Kingdom and Eire from Decca Record Company, Ltd., effective June 1, 1969.

RCA will build a record pressing plant in the United Kingdom and establish its own distribution organization, according to Norman Racusin, Division VP and General Manager, RCA Victor Record Division.

He said English Decca will continue to manufacture and distribute RCA Victor records during the phase-out period, ending May 31, 1969.

Racusin said: "The importance of this market makes it desirable for RCA to have its own manufacturing and marketing operation there."

Will Assume Responsibility

He said RCA Great Britain, with the establishment of its own Record Division, expanded into phonograph recording operations in 1966 in the British Isles. This Division will assume complete responsibility for making and selling RCA Victor records in this market.

The termination agreement between English Decca and RCA Great Britain provides for an orderly transition of operations during the phase-out period, he added.

Racusin said the two companies also will cooperate to make sure dealers are apprised of the changeover arrangements and are adequately supplied with RCA Victor records.

FAR FROM THE MADDING CROWD SOUNDTRACK—MGM 1E/SIE-11 ST.

Richard Rodney Bennett is the composer of the moody, bold music accompanying the new Julie Christie epic movie. Bennett has obviously imbued himself with the feeling of Thomas Hardy's southwest England, for the themes are folkish and subtle.

Johnny Keating, who has a penchant and knack for brassy, jazzy themes, has provided just that for the track to this current depiction of the recent British train robbery. Jackie Lee does the vocal on "Born to Lose."

A couple of new electronic instruments take the lead on these original melodies. The Moog synthesizer is the important new sound discovery. Richards plays around with timing too on the bands, which are named after precious stones.

Local Promo Man of the Week: Ray Milanese of Marnel, Philadelphia, does not have to yield to any man in Philadelphia as the top distributor promo man. He is loved not only by all the deejays, but also by the other promo men, the dealers and everyone in town. This guy is executive calibre.

Old Pro National Promo Man of the Week: Juggy Gayle is so out of sight that every young kid in the biz should aspire to mellow into his category. The guys in radio would rather have dinner with Juggy than just about anybody in the nation.

Congratulations to Bob Gaudio for producing a very fine record on "Valley of the Dolls," Kathy Keegan, Compass. Bob wrote it with Jacqueline Susann, and it's the only authorized title song from the film.

Predictions That Just Came Through

"Nobody But Me," Human Beinz, Capitol. Philly sales 35,000, just confirmed on phone as a hit at WKYL-Cleveland . . . "I Found a Reason," the First Edition, on Reprise confirmed as a solid hit by WCOL-Columbus . . . "Until It's Time," Nancy Sinatra flip, is Top 5 in Seattle, confirmed as a giant at WCOL . . . "Boogaloo Down Broadway," Fantastic Johnny C, Phila-La—this column alone told you it would be a monster. 45,000 sold in Philly, a giant on WMCA, went on WIXY in Cleveland; Hartford, Columbus, etc. . . . Big Flip Tip: WKYC and WCOL report that the B side of the Tommy James, "Love is Closing in on Me," could be a #1 record. WKYC-Cleveland now confirms San Francisco and Boston on Scott McKenzie . . . As predicted, the Rose Garden is a complete national smash.

Report from Dennis Ganim: Stations playing "Beautiful People," Bobby Vee, are: WBZ, WLS, KQV, WPOP, WTIK. There are some stations splitting play.

Bob Baker has left WPDQ, Jacksonville, where he served as PD. He is available and we know that he is a top-notch airman.

Art Roberts of WLS, Chicago, is interested in syndicating his tremendous oldie show, "Hey Baby, They're Playing Our Song." It has a tremendous mail pull. The Record Museum of Philadelphia pulled 2,800 letters.

Another Giant from the Hot Carolinas

Jack Gale, WAYS, Charlotte, and WKIX, Raleigh, went and did it again: "Same Old Fatman," San Francisco Earthquake, broke wide open in sales. This is a great sound from this New York group.

Hits at WLS: Billy Joe Royal; Wilson Pickett.

Steve Shulman has left Roulette. He covered Philadelphia and Baltimore, and is a very good man.

Dick Clark, Where Are You?

If Dick Clark's Bandstand were still on network TV, the hits picked by Dean Tyler and broken by WIBG (all of which are hits in Philadelphia because of fantastic teen dancers who have worked up fabulous dance routines to these numbers) would be national hits in one week. For example: "Get Down," Harvey Scales, Atlantic; "Nobody But Me," Human Beinz, Capitol; "Some Kind of Wonderful," Soul Brothers 6. The only Folk and Country Report From Europe . . .

By MURRAY KASH

It's hard to know where to begin, there has been so much happening on the folk side in this country. Take the first week in October. Nearly every night has scheduled folk concerts at the major London venues. The internationally famous Clancy Brothers and Tommy Makem had the Royal Albert Hall in an uproar from the moment they came on stage. Two nights later, the Incredible String Band (two lads, Mike Heron and Robin Williamson), who truly live up to their group title, had a packed house at the Queen Elizabeth Hall roaring for more. They played about 13 different instruments including the sitar, Chinese sticks and other assorted exotic instruments. These boys, who record for Elektra are composing and performing the most original and exciting music, outside of the Beatles, on the musical scene today. A number of their songs were described visually by two attractive young ladies, doing part-Oriental, part-modern dances on the stage beside the boys. It made for a feast of sight and sound. Talk has it that an American tour is in the offering.

Murray Kash

The other famous Irish group, the Dubliners, did a stint at the Royal Albert Hall, to every bit as enthusiastic a house as the Clancys. Surprisingly, folk fans still had enough money to fill the Hall Saturday night for an evening with Tom Paxton. Tom was in top form, with a whole batch of new compositions, plus some of the old. It was just like a cosy night-club atmosphere, even though there was well over 5,000 in the audience. That's showmanship, natural and friendly. On the other side of London town, Josh White and his daughter, Judy, were entertaining. I couldn't cover that, too, but the reports were good.

Country-wise, it's been busy as well. We've had visits from Hank Locklin and Jim Edward Brown on our "Country Meets Folk" BBC weekly radio series. Now we're looking forward to visits from more American artists. Meantime, this program is a good showcase for our British talent, like the Hillsiders (who made such a hit in Nashville), Jamie, Jon and Jerry, Gordon Huntley and the Westernaires, plus many others. M.C. and folk singer Wally Whyton ties the show together, with chat and tunes, James Lloyd covers the country/folk activities in the clubs and I handle the reviews on all the latest folk and country disks.

Of the American country stars, Don Gibson's "All My Love" (RCA); "Laura," Leon Ashley (Fontana); "The Storm," Jim Reeves (RCA), are the leading disks at the moment. Others include Clinton Ford's "Big Willy Broke Jail Tonight" (Pye); and "Women Do Funny Things To Me" by the Tumbleweeds (Ace of Clubs).

MIDEM - Tropics

Additionally, three trophies will be awarded to the singer, both male and female, and the group of singers having sold the most records. A fourth trophy will be awarded if it turns out that an instrumental group will have sold more records than either the male singer or the female singer or the group of singers.

Presentation on Jan. 27

The presentation of the trophies will be made during the Gala Evening on Saturday, Jan. 27.

Prognosis is that the 1968 MIDEM meet will indeed be The Summit Meeting of the World of Music. It is estimated that around 3,000 (as compared to 1967's 1,016) will attend, and that 40 countries (the first meet had 22) will be represented. Four thousand songs are expected to be presented, along with 400 artists and stars. Not to mention 500 journalists.

Record World En Brasil

By ROBERTO NUNES

De ahora en adelante estaré en esta columna dejándoles conocer todo lo referente al Brasil y su vida artística. Por acá tenemos muchos tipos de música, siendo la más popular la Samba, nuestra música nativa con un ritmo traído por los negros del Africa, hace cientos de años, durante la época de la esclavitud. Durante ese tiempo alguien creo un nuevo ritmo que años después fué conocido como Samba. En nuestros días existen ya varias variaciones de ella, tales como: el Balanco, Balla nsamba, Samba Romántico, Samba de Carnaval y otras. Son en extremo populares otros ritmos, tales como el Mambo, el Merengue, la Cumbia y otros ritmos latinoamericanos que se oyen mucho en Rio. Tenemos al mismo tiempo muchos intérpretes de canciones de corte "yeah-yeah" tales como Roberto Carlos, Rossini Pinto, Wanderlea y además una nueva estrella del canto que está "barriendo" en el país. Se trata de Edson Wander, que se encuentra grabando para Copacabana Records. En el próximo artículo les contaré un poco más sobre estos populares artistas del Brasil. Bye!

Triste y Merecido Final De Los 'Piratas'

El mundo del disco latino se conmovió tremendamente en la mañana del pasado miércoles con la noticia sensacional de que finalmente los elementos indeseables que han estado disfrutando por largo tiempo del talento y las inversiones económicas de las empresas disqueras de New York, fueron sorprendidos por la ley en el sucio manejo del pirateo a los éxitos del momento: los de Blanca Rosa Gil, Felipe Pirela, Johnny Ventura entre otros del sello Velvet, Ramp RCA y Columbia.

Gente sin escrúpulos que le huyen a la clara luz del sol para trabajar en la sombra, a puertas cerradas, explotando el esfuerzo y la decencia ajena. Docenas de miles de discos han sido decomisados, varios "piratas" a la cárcel; compañías distribuidoras que han protegido a estos delincuentes, ganando mala reputación y desprestigio; y empresas prensadoras cerradas definitivamente por orden de la Ley.

La prensa hispana ha publicado ya sus fotos y sus nombres. No vale la pena mencionarlos. De ahora en adelante podrá trabajar tranquila la gente decente que labora y triunfa en el negocio del disco. Mi felicitación a Fernando Iglesias por su valiente y decidida labor en este lamentable caso.

Siempre," "Dónde Irás" y otras. Arreglos y dirección musical a cargo de José Gay, Ernesto Duarte y Sergio Elgun . . . Oímos unas grabaciones del sello Mac del Perú . . . ¡Formidables! . . . Eliseo Valdés de Musical Records lanzará parte de este catálogo por acá . . . Henry Armenteros mantiene vigentes en su oficina artística a lo mejorcito del talento latino en Estados Unidos. Entre ellos: Tito Rodríguez, Joe Quijano, Ray Barreto, Johnny Colon, King Nando, Joe Bataan, Willie Colon, Raul Marrero, Ray Terrace y Wilfredo Figueroa . . . Las Hermanas Huerta disfrutan de gran popularidad en el Oeste de los Estados Unidos, sin embargo la influencia de este dueto ranchero mexicano no se hace sentir en el este. Lamentable! . . . Al fin parece que vendrá Rolando Laserie a Estados Unidos, después, de solucionados los problemas de su visado.

Lanza el sello Belter en Argentina un "elepé" de Lola Flores recitando con acompañamiento de guitarra por Antonio González y en el canto por Benni de Cádiz. En este "álbum" se han incluido: "Requiem por la Muerte de García Lorca," "Romance de la Viuda Enamorada," "Noche," "Duda y Hora," "Romance de los Ojos Verdes" y otros poemas de Rafael de León. Lola venderá de seguro con gran fuerza esta grabación, ya que siendo artista de gran versatilidad, sus triunfos no solo atesoran fuerza en el canto y el baile Español sino en todo lo relativo a sus diferentes expresiones. También acaba de sacar este sello una grabación "sencilla" de Daniel Riobobos interpretando "No" y "Cuando Estoy Contigo" . . . Ha roto "records" de venta en Uruguay el "álbum" de Los Cinco Latinos titulado "En Un Rincón del Alma," editado por Discos Quinto en Argentina y por Velvet en el mercado Venezolano y en el estadounidense respectivamente. Velvet se apresura a lanzar rápidamente el último "elepé" de estos intérpretes titulado "Los Cinco Latinos Tangos" que también está disfrutando de altos niveles de ventas en varias localidades. Discos Quinto de Buenos Aires se encuentra preparando un "album" del conjunto músico-vocal La Nueva Generación, después del éxito alcanzado por el sencillo conteniendo "Solo se Vive dos Veces" y "Todos Aman a mi Nena."

Está muy bueno el nuevo "album" de Palito Ortega editado por la RCA. En él se incluyen "hits" del mercado norteamericano con letras en Español del propio Palito . . . Se está moviendo muy bien la nueva grabación de Vicentico Valdés en el sello United Artists, que contiene entre otras "Buscar" de Pupi Hurtado y "La Felicidad" de Palito Ortega . . . Salió al mercado la grabación de Marta Casañas interpretando poemas dedicados a la Cuba del Exilio. Muy bueno! . . . Aumenta la popularidad del Gran Trío en Nueva York . . . Actuará próximamente Raphael en Puerto Rico. Se rumora que Telemundo le contrató para actuaciones en Enero . . . Tito Rodríguez se encuentra en jira por Santo Domingo . . . Y ahora . . . ¡Hasta la semana próxima!

Panadisco, S. A. (Discos Panamá) prensará las marcas Mack de Perú, Velvet de Venezuela y Modiner de Miami. También se montará gran firma disquera en Panamá, subsidiaria de firma norteamericana y que fabricará las matrices en Panamá y no en el Norte como se hace hasta ahora.

Raphael, continúa con Hispavox (Dicesa Centroamericana) así como ha comenzado el sello español danés por finalizados los rumores de que el juvenil astro dejaría Hispavox.

Daniel Santograba para Indica, el sello centroamericano, un lindo "Elepe" que está concluido a fines de este mes.

Carlos Lico el nuevo cantante que le está ganando muchos "45" a Sisa se mantiene en buenos lugares con "Adoro."

Armando Manzanero se ha iniciado una tremenda ofensiva de popularidad y se asegura que en pocos días ocupará los primerísimos lugares en centroamericana.

Los Monkees, los 4 melodiosos que se han impuesto en Centroamérica marcan en buena posición "El Tema de los Monkees," la juvenilidad se encuentra enloquecida con la serie de TV de estos artistas.

Palito Ortega, el juvenil cantante argentino, tiene muy buenos resultados en sus interpretaciones: "La Felicidad," "Digan lo que digan" y "Poco puedo darte."

Muy buen suceso artístico ha ocasionado el primer disco sencillo lanzado por el costarricense Paco Narrete denominado "Bazazz" o. 1.

Al Hirt colocó en primer lugar su original disco "Marionetas en la Corda" que después de muchos años ha cobrado vida en la radiodifusión.

El "Elepe" "Casinó Royal" de Artistas Unidos está siendo muy bien promovido por Dicesa y la Empresa de Películas Urbini, S.A.

Marco Antonio Muniz está anunciado en Costa Rica para el 12 de Octubre corresponde

WB Bows Canada Distrib

In line with Warner Bros.-Seven Arts Records, Inc., expansion plans, coupled with its parent company's recent merger with Seven Arts, the recording firm has opened a fully self-contained distribution center in Canada to be known as Warner Bros.-Seven Arts Records of Canada, Ltd.

Record firm, headed by J. K. "Mike" Maitland, has long planned its own facility in the lucrative and growing Canadian market. Its new division will headquarter in Montreal, have a branch office in Toronto and will handle all distribution, sales and promo functions for the company. It will also originate recordings in Canada for both the local and worldwide markets.

Maitland to Montreal

Maitland arrived in Montreal Monday (16) for the official opening of the Canadian company, accompanied by Phil Rose, International Director, Ed West, Vice President-treasurer, Murray Gitlin, Comptroller, and Leon Cabat, President of Vogue Records in Paris, France.

The new WB-7 Arts operation will distribute WB-7 Arts label, as well as Reprise, Loma and Vogue Records, all of which are subsidiaries to the WB-7 Arts diskery.

The Canadian operation will be headed by General Manager Ken Middleton. Comptroller will be Joe Edwards, national sales and merchandising manager will be Clyde McGregor and promotion will be headed by Claude Ranallo. Toronto branch manager is Bob Martin.

Following his Canadian sojourn, Maitland planed to New York for meetings with company execs before returning to his Burbank quarters.

Hole Breaking Thru

Five new talents are breaking through with Sam Cooke's "Bring It on Home to Me," produced by John Dee, on Epic Records. The name of the group is Hole in the Wall, and they all sing and write their own original material.

'Hair' Music Hip, But Plot Bal

NEW YORK—No less than the New York Shakespeare Festival Public Theater is producing "Hair," the musical about misunderstood hippies against the world that RCA is recording.

RCA is getting the best of the deal, since the music by Galt MacDermot is the best thing about the show, which, as an examination of the hippie element, obviously by hippies, is rather immature.

As the reckless play unfolds its tale of a couple of Village friends facing separation when one of them is drafted, it becomes apparent that the authors believe hair is, indeed, the dividing line between the square and the hip. If you've got long hair, you're with it; if not, woe unto you. (Heaven help the bald in this philosophy.) The play, which has endless episodes and mixed media appurtenances, boils down to a case of claiming you can tell a book by its cover or a brain by the length of what adorns its scalp. No can do.

A five-piece band composed of Greg Ferrara, Steve Gillette, Jimmy Lewis, composer MacDermot, Leonard Seeds gives a modern urgency and lilt to the score, especially in a marijuana dream sequence, and that spirit will be welcome on disk, where it will stand apart from its distorted context. —Dave Finkle.

Gents First Normandy Artists

NEW YORK—Normandy Records has made its introduction on the music scene with the arrival of a record by a group called the Gents, recent winners in the Battle of the Bands contest.

Latter is a project of participating members of the U.S. Junior Chamber of Commerce (Jaycees), informed label President Charles (Charlie) K. Dreyer last week. Adding that the Utah-born fivesome is also the first national winner of the recently devised contest. The boys' first Normandy deck is "I Wonder Why" b/w "Moonlight Sonata."

"It's especially remarkable, I think, aside from the fact that it's a darn good record," Dreyer went on, "because the first side, 'Wonder,' is in the rock vein; while the second is a straight rendering of the 'Sonata'—one of the boys is a concert violinist. They're all fine musicians."

A Pick of the Week

He continued: "In Salt Lake City, KCPX has made their record Pick of the Week and are playing both sides, back to back. KOVO-Provo is also playing both sides, back to back."

The Gents—all Mormons—are being set for TV appearances in the near future.

The Normandy Vice President is Tony Canosa; and working in the A&R Department (although Dreyer also has charge of production) is Ray D'Ariano. The label—located at 331 Madison Ave.—is about to announce more signings and releases, and is looking for new talent.

Dreyer previously worked for the Jaycees, had done pr work and also managed some groups while gaining the right experience for his entry into the music business on a full scale.

Film Review

'Camelot' a Beautiful Musical

"Don't let it be forgotten/That once there was a spot/For one brief shining moment/That was known as Camelot."

That's how Alan Jay Lerner's lyric goes to the title song from the Warner Brothers-Seven Arts film version of his Broadway show composed with Frederick Loewe, "Camelot." Unfortunately, Camelot and King Arthur's dream of chivalry get short, decidedly unshrill in this visually beautiful but overlong production that has as its nitty gritty rather tacky romantic triangle involving Arthur (Richard Harris), his queen, Guenevere (Vanessa Redgrave) and the favorite knight of both, Sir Lancelot (Franco Nero).

The intermission comes as the knights Arthur has accumulated impressively take their first glimpse of the Roundtable. When we return, "Jance" and "Jenny" have been having an affair for every knight-knows-how-long, and that about it for Arthurian dreams and the Roundtable—until the latter is smashed when the boys turn rowdy and decidedly unchivalrous.

Harris Fares Best

In other words, in this script by Lerner (directed by Joshua Logan), we get a little of Camelot's glory and too much that is hoary (sic). We also get three faltering leads. The Italian Nero is the least effective, singing well but playing the French Lancelot a too much of a buffoon for us to believe Guenevere's love. F as good-looking as the original white knight warrants—in one profile to-profile shot with Miss Redgrave, he looks like Topo Giglio, the Italian mouse. Miss Redgrave's face has the length and depth of an old kitchen door, and she is no vocal match for the original Guenevere, Julie Andrews. Harris fares best, although early on he is given to cutesy camping and, in general, too much staring off into space and speech-making. Still, his bombast is going to make a lot of people think he's great.

Happily, "Camelot" is one of the most elegant looking and sounding films of recent years. The sets and costumes are sumptuous, and it has been exquisitely, lushly photographed in muted colors by Richard Kline. And there is the magical, wondrously appropriate Arthurian music, which is always worth hearing again (the sound track album is on Warner Brothers, and Columbia has re-packaged the original Broadway caster). Every song is a gem.

—Doug McClelland.

Taking Care of Business
 by Del Shields

Horace Silver received the Jazz Culture Award, the seventh, awarded by the Jazz at Home Club, USA, in Philadelphia on Sunday, Oct. 22. The club also honored Record World for its "In Depth Jazz Reporting." Al Grey and Bobby Brown were cited, too.

The occasion was the annual banquet given by the club where tributes are paid to outstanding jazz musicians.

Horace has thus joined Jimmy Smith, Clark Terry, Duke Ellington, Nina Simone and

Del Shields

Rev. John Gensel, previous honorees who had received this important award. The club is the most influential and active in the Delaware Valley—who do much to continue the art of jazz active in that area. And recently have joined with other clubs across the country in helping to develop programs to expand jazz.

More than 400 persons paid $7.50, and were treated to a quality affair. Thus proving that jazz can be equally at home in a setting banquet style, as it is in a dark club.

Philosophy for Living

What is extremely interesting is that part of the philosophy of the club is to give to musicians who are living a part of their just due. Too long have members of the jazz world kept their compliments silent until the death of a musician. What the Jazz at Home Club is doing should be a constant reminder to all of us that a man would prefer his roses while he is living. We have often thought too much has been said of jazz men when it is too late.

Horace's selection this year comes after compiling one of the most enviable records of any active jazz musician. He has written well over 90 compositions. Many of them have become jazz staples and others have become standards in the playing book of jazz musicians.

Among his better known works are "Blowin' the Blues Away," "Senor Blues," "Doodlin'," "The Preacher," "Nica's Dream," "Sister Sadie," "Doin' the Thing," "Moon Rays," "The African Queen," "Sweet Sweetie Dee," "Opus De Funk," "Filthy McNasty," "Lonely Woman," "Juicy Lucy," "Cape Verdian Blues," "Strollin'," "Nutville," "Let's Get to the Nitty Gritty" and "Jody Grind."

He ranks among the best-selling jazz artists today.

A review of Horace's career reveals that all of his writing has been purely in the jazz context. He has not had the opportunity or perhaps may have refused offers to write in a more commercial vein. Certainly there are those who might say that he would or could be more successful had he developed more of a commercial approach.

What is significant is his present role has been earned by taking charge of his affairs and applying the yardstick of "taking care of business." He never allowed himself to be over-recorded. He refused to release material until he was certain it reflected his highest musical standards.

Through the years he has led a number of groups. And with the change of personnel was still able to continue the Silver sound.

Among the outstanding men who at one time were part of the Silverites are Carmell Jones, Joe Henderson, Teddy Smith, Roger Humphries, Blue Mitchell, Junior Cooks, Gene Taylor, Roy Brooks, Louis Hayes, Art Farmer, Teddy Kotick, Clifford Jordan and Hank Mobley. The group represents some of the most talented musicians in jazz and reflects again the desire of Horace to always present the best.

Sometime ago, Barbara Gardner, one of the certified members of jazz reporting and criticism, wrote an enlightening article on Horace. She pointed out that the popular saying "nice guys finish last" is not true at all when applied to him.

We agree.

The Jazz at Home Club met at the Park Sheraton Hotel in Philadelphia on Oct. 22 and presented Record World with the JAH Award for "In Depth Reporting in the Jazz World." Del Shields, top, left, of WLIB-FM and Record World Jazz Editor, accepted. At right, Bobby Brown, member of the Philadelphia school system and Wild Bill Davis' group, was also honored by presenter Chett Carmichael, President. Below, Horace Silver, receiving congrats on being named "Jazz Musician of the Year"; and, from left: Shields, Milt Buckner, long-time Hampton sideman, and Jimmy Witherspoon. Also honored was Al Grey, veteran Basie sideman, for "Outstanding Musicianship."

His niceness could never be interpreted as a weakness. He is regarded highly among his peers. He enjoys a legion of devoted and loyal fans. There are record companies seeking him every day, offering exclusive contracts for his writing and playing services.

As an innovator—since this is how we measure what a man has brought to jazz — it was Horace who brought back the "soul sound" to jazz and legitimized it. His introduction of the soul sound is probably forgotten by most of the latter-day saints who has twisted the meaning of soul and label every product in America from lipstick to gasoline with it, but he is the founding father.

Horace's tribute this Sunday was shared by others. Milt Buckner, former longtime Hampton Sideman; Al Grey, ex Gillespie, Basie and Sammy Davis trombonist; Jimmy Witherspoon, Bobby Brown, who works with Wild Bill Davis, and Billy Taylor lauded his efforts and the club in making this program possible.

If any lesson is to be gained from this affair, it might be that jazz musicians are really people and deserve to be recognized.

Jon & Robin's Big Breakout

DALLAS, TEXAS — Jon Abner, Sr., President of Abnak Records, expects that the new Jon & Robin single release, "I Want Some More," looks like the label's biggest record to date.

Jon & Robin

The record (which follows the duo's previous click, "Do It Again, a Little Bit Slower") is already "50% ahead in its first two weeks of release over the same period on the earlier Jon & Robin single," Abner told Record World. "Futhermoe, it is breaking all over the country."

Break-out locations mentioned were Dorchester, Shreveport, Atlanta, Dallas-Ft. Worth, New Orleans, Newark, Miami, Oklahoma City, San Antonio, Memphis, Charlotte, Buffalo, Albany, Cleveland, Phoenix, Pittsburgh and Nashville.

Jon & Robin will be touring to promote the record throughout November, visiting Shreveport, Houston, Oklahoma City, Terre Haute, Tifton (Ga.), Monroe, La., and Dallas. Abner mentioned that Jon & Robin "are extremely grateful to all the radio stations for all their help."

Airplane Inventive But Too Loud

NEW YORK—Going to hear rock and roll groups these days is like wandering into a room where a lot of people are talking at the same time. Everybody gets to chattering just a little louder than everybody else in order to get attention. Loudness is substituted for effectiveness.

It's a shame that a group as good and as inventive as RCA's Jefferson Airplane has succumbed to this practice, but so they did at last week's Hunter College concert. Their song-bag of blues-slanted love songs was delivered at such a volume that a large faction of the teen audience screamed for decibel mercy. (It should be noted that the discontented were countered by a segment who wanted the music even louder; so volume remained status quo.)

The Jefferson Airplane does have two things that no other rock group has—Grace Slick and Marty Balin, who are the lead singers and who both have almost infallible performer's instincts. What it amounts to is that they have conviction in their material and in their abilities to do the best by it. Grace Slick has a feminine strength and Marty Balin has a gritty James Dean appeal (that could make him a likely choice for the lead in the upcoming musical version of "East of Eden," were he and the casting office so inclined).

MGM's Paupers opened the evening. They did their "Magic People" and "Black Thank You Package," also too loud. And they played numerous other pieces which evidenced originality.

Both groups used protoplasmic lighting effects that became monotonous.

—Dave Finkle.

Brown, Bernstein Good Concert Duo

NEW YORK—Marc Brown and Elmer Bernstein gave a well received violin and piano recital in Town Hall on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 22, to benefit the Walden School, which both attended.

Bernstein, the well known film ("The 10 Commandments," "Man with the Golden Arm," "Hawaii," etc.) and Broadway (the incoming "How Now, Dow Jones") composer, provided an unobtrusive, pleasant piano complement to what was mainly Brown's day. Latter, a spe-

Low-Sal Productions Set

ATLANTA, GA.—Bill Lowery, Buddy Buie and Paul Cochran announce the forming of Low-Sal Productions to operate as a subsid of the newly formed Low-Sal Music Co.

The music company was kicked off in a big way when its first copyright, "I Take It Back" (recorded by Sandy Posey on MGM), reached the Top 10. The new Low-Sal Production Company anticipates an even bigger initial success with the release of an album and a single by the Candymen on ABC Records.

Each one of the owners will function in different capacities in order to give the operation a well balanced foundation. The management of Low-Sal will be directed by Lowery, who has enjoyed tremendous success and received numerous awards through the years with his various publishing firms. Under his guidance, Lowery Music has become one of the nation's most respected independent publishing companies. Buie will guide the creative aspect of the company while Cochran heads all promotion. Buie produced the current Candymen album, and is noted for his songwriting abilities. Among his success in this field are Sandy Posey's "I Take It Back," Tommy Roe's "Party Girl" and the new Candymen single, "Georgia Pines." Cochran, too has long been successful as a concert promoter in the South but is now devoting all his promotional abilities to the success of the Low-Sal operation.

The company will operate from the Gearhart Building in Atlanta, and will employ a complete staff guided by office manager Bobby Langford. The New York firm of Sicilia Associates, Inc. will handle public relations, and is at the present time undertaking a massive promotional build-up on the Candymen.

Hip Pocket Label Adds to Releases

PHILADELPHIA, PA.—Best-selling recordings by Five Americans, Van Morrison, Spanky and Our Gang, Keith, Lesley Gore and Jay and the Techniques have been added to the initial list of Hip Pocket Records to be released this Fall by Philco-Ford Corporation.

The complete list of 24 HPs was announced today by Vincent F. Novak, new products planning manager for Philco-Ford's Consumer Electronics Division, which introduced the wafer-thin, 3 7/8-inch, 45 RPM disks last month as part of a new concept in portable music for the youth market. Hip Pocket Records are being promoted nationally, separately and in conjunction with Philco-Ford's Model 1376 mini-radio/phonograph, which weighs less than two pounds. HPs carry a manufacturer's list price of 69 cents each, while the miniature, two-speed phonograph and radio combination is listed at $24.95.

Songs which have been best sellers on either standard 45s or albums are included in the new releases. The company does not have its own artists and repertoire, Novak noted.

Novak, a specialist in TV commercials, displayed a polished touch that only occasionally seemed lacking in sensitivity. Although this could be attributed to the giddy sameness in a program of sonatas and sonatinas.

Lyn Roman's first record for Dot Records was released on Oct. 27: "The Penthouse" b/w "Born To Lose." Her musical arrangements have been written by George Siravo, Jim Tyler, and Leroy Glover.

Casey Stengel is one of 1967's great contributors to country music: he discouraged Charlie Pride's major league career with the New York Mets, and on his way home to Montana from N.Y., he stopped off in Nashville to honor Red Sovine's request, was intro'd to Chet and four weeks later was an RCA Victor artist.

Convention Placards: "Keep your Country Greens!" Didn't they? Jack Greene walked off with Best Artist, Single and Album and Dallas Frazier's Song of the Year was involved in all of them: "There Goes My Everything."

Eddy Arnold, according to his manager Gerry Purcell, was interrupted in performance at the Cocoanut Grove in Los Angeles so that NBC-TV could close-circuit televise from Nashville the presentation and acceptance of his award as "Country Music Man Of The Year." His wife Sally accepted for him.

Roy Acuff had fun presenting the "Best Album" award. He stood and chuckled while everyone waited for him to announce "There Goes My Everything." Roy plans one more trip to the Far East before '68. He's only toured TWICE in the past 12 Months.

Wesley Rose is a psychological golfer. He defeats his opponents with words, heckling on tee and green. Says they can do it to him all they like. That's the way he learned to play the game.

Loretta Lynn had the edge on all other girl singers this year in winning Top Female Vocalist. She had THREE fan club presidents, the Johnson Girls, from Wild Horse, Col. Loretta will tell you they're a big factor in her career.

Once in a Lifetime: Two Country Music Hall of Famers were born and raised in Panola County, Texas! Tex Ritter and now Jim Reeves.

Did newest living Hall of Famer Red Foley start on his long road to that lofty perch of professional importance with a guitar in his hand? Nope! A trombone! But in succession, Clyde Julian Foley became the red-headed Kentucky Briarhopper, comic funnyman, bass singer, featured act on the Opry, Decca Records and "Ozark Jubilee" with the first nationally televised country show, then headlong into the Hall of Fame. He had, among many other "firsts," the first record ever made to be No. 1 on both the pop and the country hit parades at the same time ("Cattanooga Shoe Shine Boy").

Tom starting shaping plans for a "Founder's Club" bash next year at convention-time, expressly for us old guys who started the disk jockey treks to Nashville in the late '40s and early '50s, actually before the official WSM Opry Birthday Party began. If you are a Marty Roberts, Nelson King, Bill Stanley, T. Tommy Cutrer, Grandpappy Ed Davis and like that, you can expect a letter. Be sure to let this corner or Tom Perryman know where you are if you're in the early crowd.

Slim Williamson's story must be the story of the decade in the country music biz, starting his publishing and record company in 1963 and now enjoying company of the Big Daddy of the Record Show, RCA Victor carrying the mail for him. Congrats to Slim, Chart Records and his Yonah and Peach Pubberies, and his organization!

Mickey Newberry, talented writer-performer-Acuff-Rose pac-tee, told me last week that as a kid, he used to mow my grass in Houston. Sorry I didn't recognize you, Mick!

Bill Hudson Associates — The Professionals

Beginning with the Music City U.S.A. Pro-Celebrity Golf Invitational at the Bluegrass Country Club near Nashville Oct. 13-15, the organization which calls itself "The Professionals"—actually Bill Hudson & Associates, Inc.—performed in advertising and public relations, with a little promotion on the side, as a fast-moving team of trouble shooters.

When the planning started months in advance for the Golf Meet, jointly sponsored by the Country Music Association, the Nashville Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the Nashville Tennessean, the Professionals were in the picture early with advance publicity which they spread to some 230 media within Tennessee and to selected cities throughout the nation numbering over 25.

A press luncheon was held two weeks in advance of the event and questions from the audience were satisfactorily answered. They were then in a position to know what to expect and how they would cover the meet when it arrived.

Plans were very specific when it came to documenting the affair, and the Professionals left no stone unturned or possible event uncovered. Every key hole on the course, every golfer sure to make a showing for the crowds, every local and outside celebrity was in a position to be photographed should a newsworthy event take place.

In addition, they planned for all the press to have a place available for filing telephone news, for typing stories, for changing film and just to rest. A five-room house trailer was arranged for by the Hudson firm in the early planning stages and came in for heavy use during the golf meet. More than 60 news media representatives were accommodated at one time or another.

During the actual meet, the firm still functioned as a public relations firm and covered the news events for the sponsors, filing daily stories and photographs, wrap-up materials and bios for those agencies which were unable to attend.

Nor did the Professionals forget the electronic media. Radio was provided for with supplies of tape on hand and interviews with stars.

Working from seven o'clock in the morning until the last shows were over during the four-day event (often after midnight), the group was still on call for any last-minute effort needed. When the simulated radio towers for the WSM Grand Ole Opry Delayed Network booth didn't show up, they were located and in place within minutes. When registrations ran far over expectations and the special buttons for identification were beginning to run out, a special rubber stamp of distinctive design was used for the remaining deejays registering.

Case of the Missing Backdrop

Typical of the kind of response offered by the Professionals was the case of the missing backdrop for the WSM Show. The sponsor of the entire convention was putting on his own show and the art work could not be found. The Hudson men grabbed one of the backdrops used by another organization, obtained permission, cut it up into several pieces and within minutes had a beautiful stage which looked as though it had been planned that way.

Of course, there were two different audiences to please, one consisted of the sponsors for the convention; the other, the fans, deejays and guests who were watching the live shows. No complaints were heard.

Margie's Awards

Margie Singleton, riding high on country charts with her current single recording of "Ode to Billie Joe" received the ASCAP Country & Western Award for her recording at the annual ASCAP Luncheon in Nashville recently. A similar award was presented to Leon Ashley and Don Tweedy for producing the record.

Miss Singleton also received the Record of the Month Award from Ster Records of South Africa in recognition of her recording of "Billie Joe" and the album "Country Music With Soul" which had been released in several foreign countries including South Africa. A single recording of "There Goes My Everything" and "Sooner or Later" have been released from the album in South Africa.

Hit with Hylo

John Capps, prexy of K-Ark, reports that he has a hit with Hylo Brown's record of "Daddy's Old Guitar." Also back on K-Ark's label is Larry Steel and the Wranglers. Two years ago Larry had a hit called "I Ain't Cryin' Mister," and he has just recorded upcoming release entitled "Hard Times."

'Anna' Follows 'Laura'

Leon Ashley sticks to girls with his new single of "Anna, I'm Taking You Home," the follow-up to his big hit "Laura."

The single of "Anna" is being released this week while "Laura" is still riding high on national and local charts. Distributors have been shipped over 60,000 records to assure the consumer demand can be met immediately.

The song was written by Ashley and his wife, Margie Singleton, as was "Laura." The publishing has been assigned to Al Gallico Music Co.

Miller Single Ends Merc Xmas 45 Ban

NEW YORK — The end of an eight-year policy ban on the release of Christmas singles from the Mercury family of labels will be marked this year with the release Nov. 10 of "Old Toy Trains" by Roger Miller on Smash.

The tune was written by Miller over two years ago as a holiday lullaby for the singer's then infant son and never intended for commercial release. The song was known, though, to Frank Leffel, West Coast promo rep for the label, who prevailed upon Roger to record it. Miller submitted the song to his A&R producer, Jerry Kennedy, and to Smash Director of Recorded Product Charles Fach, both of whom concurred that it was strong enough to surmount the usual problems surrounding singles aimed at the Christmas market.

Four-Color Sleeve

Smash Product Manager Rory Bourke is issuing the disk in a special four-color sleeve and will support its release with an aggressive merchandising and promotion campaign.
