Frank Sinatra sings the Teddy Randazzo-Victoria Pike "Rain in My Heart" (Razzle Dazzle, BMI) and there should follow a shower of coin (Reprise 0798).

The 5th Dimension describe "California Soul" (Jobete, BMI) on this Bones Howe production and the fans will love it (Soul City 770).

Hugh Masekela toots a spicy "Riot" (Cherio, BMI) and the instrumental has hefty chances of becoming a hugely successful click (Uni 55102).

Central Park West are a new group and they do quite a job with "Sweets for My Sweet" (Benner-Progressive, BMI), a Guardian production (Event 3301).

Johnny Nash should score with this follow-up to "Hold Me Tight." The new one is just as perky and is called "You Got Soul" (Johnny Nash, ASCAP) (Jad 209).

New Directions Gavin Theme

By JACK DEVANEY

LAS VEGAS, NEV. — Bill Gavin opened his Third Annual Radio Program Conference at the Riviera Hotel here Friday, Dec. 6, by welcoming radio and record company personnel on the note that both groups need each other and the hope that the conference would provide an opportunity for both to learn something of value from each other.

The meet started with an ex-

Record, Radio People Meet, Discuss Problems

cellent audio presentation prepared by Chuck Blore Creative Services tracing the history of radio from the early days of "live" programming to the advent of the playing of recordings to entertain the listening audience. The first session was devoted to "New Directions" in Radio Programming and in Recorded Music. First speaker was Dom Quinn, Program Director of WNEW, New York, who pointed out the new style of local radio and played examples of the specialized direction local radio is moving in the areas of "talk" radio, conference calls, etc.

John Barrett, Manager, KRLA, Los Angeles, said that local stations must make changes to eliminate the redundancy in radio and played samples of his station's humorous newscasts to illustrate his point.

Representing the music industry, Tom Dowd, A&R VP, Atlantic/Atco, talked on the subject of the directions being taken by the music industry with the infusion of youth in the business. Dowd's contention was that someone in the industry has to learn and communicate with youth, and this task falls to the young, independent producer. Dowd also illustrated the challenge involved in producing the singles artist with tracks from the new Dusty Springfield album, "Dusty in Memphis," including "Breakfast in Bed."

Composer-artist Jim Webb cited the importance of the writer in plotting today's new directions in music. Webb mentioned the creative freedom be-

(The awards presented to men in the radio and record business at the meeting are chosen through Bill Gavin's annual poll of radio executives, disk jockeys and record company executives.)

Jerry Wexler, when notified of his award, stated: "I am grateful at being named Record Executive of the Year. I will long treasure this honor."

1968 has been the greatest year for Atlantic in its history. Sales were up almost 100 per cent over 1967, until now the company's biggest year.

At Gavin Meet

Joe Smith: Top 40 'Demeaning'

LAS VEGAS — Joe Smith, Vice President, Warner Brothers-Seven Arts Records, indicted top 40 programming as demeaning the intelligence of a mature audience at the Bill Gavin Top 40 Radio Panel.

He claimed top 40 radio is "hooked" on the 12-year-old. Smith said that because top 40 is afraid of losing this 12-year-old audience, they refuse to play album cuts by such superstars as Barbra Streisand and Dean Martin.

Smith admitted that much of top 40 music is good, but said the framework they put the music in is "childish."

Millikin Runs Epic, England

The appointment of Chesley Millikin as Manager, Epic Records in England, has been announced by David Kapralik, VP, A and R, Epic Records.

Dave Kapralik, Chesley Millikin

Millikin will effect liaison between Epic artists, managers and independent producers in Great Britain and on the continent and will report directly to Kapralik. In addition, Millikin will scout and negotiate for artists and masters available for the United States and Canada. As well, he will coordinate administration for Epic Records and its artists in Great Britain.

Since August, Millikin had been field talent scout for Epic Records. Previously he had been manager of several groups, including the Epic artists Kaleidoscope, and had operated the Magic Mushroom, a teen nightclub in Hollywood. He is a resident of Ireland. According to Kapralik, Epic has really gone underground "since Millikin is a genuine leprechaun."

Col Pics, Screen Gems, Don Kirshner Settle

Columbia Pictures Corporation, Screen Gems, Inc., and Don Kirshner have settled all differences between them, and all the claims and counter claims in the pending litigation have been withdrawn. No further comment was available at press time.

outlets who have expressed interest in the show's music—the first legit score by Burt Bacharach and Hal David.

At the same time, Lipton announced that the album will be supported by a full-scale promotional effort. Encouraged by the enthusiastic reviews that greeted the show's opening, dealers throughout the country have expressed great interest backed by initial orders, merchandising cooperation and prominent display.

Roulette, Omega End Acquisition Talks

NEW YORK — Negotiations for Omega Equities Corp. (OTC) to acquire privately owned Roulette Records, Inc., and the Big Seven Music Publishing Companies here, have been terminated, according to an announcement by Morris Levy and Morris Gurlek, officers and major stockholders of Roulette and Big Seven, and Jerry M. Tenney, Omega President.

On Sept. 10, Tenney and

Levy announced that agreements in principle had been reached for Omega's acquisition of both companies for a combination of cash and stock valued at approximately $7.3 million.

According to their joint statement, "Negotiations have been terminated because of the possibility of adverse tax consequences if the acquisitions were to be consummated as originally contemplated."

Silver Board Chairman

HOLLYWOOD — Roy Silver has been voted Chairman of the Board of The Campbell, Silver, Cosby Corporation, at the First Annual stockholders meeting. Bill Cosby, Bruce Campbell, Sidney Kaiser and Joe Sutton were also voted to the Board of Directors at the meeting.

Columbia Switches On At Party for Three New LPs

Columbia Records Masterworks department recently hosted a party to introduce three revolutionary new albums just released on the label. On the three LPs, "the listener is carried beyond the scope of conventional classical music and transferred into the widest range of sounds."

Such was also the case at the party held at Columbia's 30th Street studio. Guests were treated to a "total environment" program that included performance of a "theater piece" performed by J Marks the artist responsible for "Rock and Other Four Letter Words," and his troupe. Marks also penned the Bantam book of the same title.

Terry Riley, the avant garde composer, performed a number of his works aided by a barrage of tape recorders, electronic equipment, keyboards and light-works. A specially prepared film was shown and guests danced to the music of a rock band playing on various levels of a scaffold that rose to the high beamed ceiling of the studio.

There was also a demonstration of the Moog synthesizer, the electronic instrument used on "Switched-On Bach."

The party was a highlight in the Columbia Masterworks department's current Bach to Rock promotional campaign designed to introduce the classics to a new audience while creating new recordings in the field which will have a special appeal to the switched on generation.

'Drummer Boy' Marches To New Beats in '68

Mills Music, publishers of the Christmas classic "The Little Drummer Boy" by Katherine K. Davis, Henry Onorati and Harry Simeone, confirms that there are now more than 170 versions of "The Little Drummer Boy" in release.

This year, besides being featured in albums by such artists as Robert Goulet, Perry Como, Patti Page and David Rose, "The Little Drummer Boy" has inspired a television special and a children's book. The special, entitled "The Little Drummer Boy," stars Greer Garson, Jose Ferrer and The Vienna Boys' Choir. NBC has scheduled it for Thursday, Dec. 19 at 7:30 p.m. The book, with four-color illustrations by award-winning Ezra Jack Keats, is published by Macmillan.

'Names' Announced for MIDEM

The 5th Dimension, Sergio Mendes and Brasil '66, Joe Tex and His Band and Bobby Goldsboro head the list of stellar American attractions signed to make personal appearances at the forthcoming MIDEM 3 Convention. Negotiations are now being completed for other names.

Meanwhile, Paris headquarters of MIDEM, the International Record and Music Publishing Market, announced that the European delegation of star performers will be headed by Maurice Chevalier.

MIDEM will take place next Jan. 18 to 24 in Cannes, France. Headquarters for the Convention will be the Martinez Hotel along the shores of the Mediterranean. Evening galas for which the major attractions are being announced will be held in the Palais des Festivals, also on the beachfront and the site of the Cannes Film Festival.

More than 3,000 persons are expected to attend this third edition of the highly successful international market, staged by Bernard Chevry. A 1969 innovation in the already successful MIDEM formula will be the staging of a number of panel discussions and symposiums, featuring the participation of a number of international experts on such subjects as copyright, international marketing of record product, promotion and exploitation of music on an international scale, and other timely subjects.

The 5th Dimension will be among the major headliners to appear in the grand opening international gala on Saturday evening, Jan. 18. Sergio Mendes, Bobby Goldsboro and Joe Tex will be part of the all-star roster for closing night, Friday, Jan. 24. A third international gala will be held on Monday (20), while Wednesday (22) will feature the grand international trophy award performance, during which the top-selling recording artists from numerous countries around the globe will receive the coveted MIDEM Trophy Award.

Cohan Memorabilia To Museum of N. Y.

A collection of scripts, manuscripts and memorabilia of George M. Cohan, "The Man Who Owned Broadway," has been presented to the Museum of the City of New York by Edward B. Marks Music Corporation, which last January acquired the George M. Cohan Music Publishing Co.

Included in the gift is a complete collection of all the music written, directed, sung and produced by Cohan, almost 400 songs, many being original editions.

In a joint statement, Sam Pearce, curator of the Theater and Music Collection of the Museum, and Herbert E. Marks, President of the music publishing company, expressed the view that so valuable a collection of Americana could best be protected in a museum. The reason the Museum of the City of New York was chosen is because within its Theater and Music Collection exists one of the largest repositories of theater memorabilia in the country, and because Cohan was most closely allied to Broadway and its music and stage.

Nepentha Party For WMCA Airmen

NEW YORK — Three new WMCA air personalities, Terrell Metheny, Chuck Browning and Lee Gray, were feted at Nepentha recently, as was Murray the K, who has returned to the station.

Over 500 top agency and client contacts were among those in attendance at the affair coordinated by Music Director Joe Bogart, voted Music Director of the Year, Top 40 category, at the recent 1968 Bill Gavin Radio Program Conference.

ROBERT FRANCIS KENNEDY A MEMORIAL

Columbia D2S 792.

This two-record memorial tribute to Robert F. Kennedy, packaged with care and respect, is a marvelous memento of the late Senator. One record contains excerpts from a number of Kennedy's speeches. The second record contains the St. Patrick's Funeral Service, during which Andy Williams and Leonard Bernstein performed.

WONDERWALL MUSIC

GEORGE HARRISON SOUNDTRACK—Apple ST 3350.

As the Beatles stretch out on their separate tethers, we find George writing, arranging and producing but not playing the score for a movie called "Wonderwall." Much of the music, as one might suspect, is Indian in flavor. Other is occidental. Moody and pretty.

THE ICE MAN COMETH

JERRY BUTLER—Mercury SR 61198.

Georgie Woods, the Philadelphia disk jockey, coined the term "ice man" to describe Jerry Butler's cool in delivering a song. On this package he coolly serves a number of R/Ballads he concocted with Kenny Gamble and Leon Huff and others. Butler photo enclosed.

LAUREL CANYON

JACKIE DE SHANNON—Imperial LP 12415.

Jackie continues to earn hits with her own songs and songs she didn't write. Her "Laurel Canyon" is here along with "The Weight." The innocent-looking blonde knows how to line out a song—frequently in a folkrock way—with savvy.

SOULFUL STRUT

THE YOUNG-HOLT UNLIMITED—Brunswick BL (7) 54144.

Infectious rhythms from the joie de vivacious Young-Holt aggregate which has grown from a trio to unlimited number. Sounds like a thousand jolly jazzists. "Who's Making Love?" "What Now My Love," "Little Green Apples" and their "Soulful Strut."

FABLES

FOUR JACKS AND A JILL—RCA Victor LPM/LSP 4103.

Harmonious, sturdy singing by the South African trio, who cull much of their music from their locale, and a pleasant change of pace the album makes. "Hey Mister," "Click Song," "Pata Pata," Huckleberry Ferry Land."

BACK HERE ON EARTH

GORDON LIGHTFOOT—UAS 6672.

Another folio of Lightfoot's fleet and compelling songs. The man is adroit without being slick and tuneful also without being slick. Lightfoot plumbs these depths and so will many others. "Unsettled Ways," "Marie Christine," "Cold Hands from New York," more.

LOVE IS

ERIC BURDON AND THE ANIMALS—MGM SE 4591-2.

These two disks fully exploit and explain the talents of Eric Burdon and the men he chooses to support him as the Animals. Burdon is interested in the blues and getting as far into them as possible. Two records, nine songs done at length.

NAMES OF MY SORROW

DEAN JONES—Dot DLP 25890.

Bittersweet songs of love and longing—Most of them recent. "The Name of My Sorrow," "When Joanna Loved Me" (Sung in "Joanna"), Natural Sounds." Dean, a fine and funny actor, is a fine and sensitive crooner.

SHAKE!

THE SIEGEL-SCHWALL BAND—Vanguard VSD 79289.

New blues that has the depth of old blues from the Siegel-Schwall Band. The fellows keep getting a vital blues sound in the grooves and their fans will keep an interest. Siegel or Schwall wrote most of the material.

WHEATSTRAW SUITE

THE DILLARDS—Elektra 74035.

Folk music in some mighty slick city duds. The sound is clean and alive. Dillard members Rodney Dillard and Herb Pedersen do almost all of the writing. "Nobody Knows," "I've Just Seen a Face," "She Sang Hymns Out of Tune."

PTOOFF!

THE DEVIANTS—Sire SES 97001.

Guys lay down an incessant hard blues that will intrigue the group followers. The package is calculated to turn the listeners on to the sound of the time and should succeed. "I'm coming Home," "Nothing Man," "Garbage."

DIDN'T WE

LOREZ ALEXANDRIA—Pazz 320.

Lorez' voice—velvet on velvet—on pretty things like "Didn't We?" and "Endless," and "Comet in the Sky," and "Psychedelic Bag." The girl curls up in the lap of a song and just purrs. Attractive, romantic chanting.

ZORBA

CLAUS OGERMAN—Capital ST 119.

Claus Ogerman has taken the John Kander melodies for new Broadway smash hit, "Zorba" and turned them into light and spritely ditties. "No Boom Boom," "Happy Birthday to Me," "Zorba," "The Top of the Hill," "For the First Time."

'Jungle Book' May Be First Kiddie LP to Win Gold Record

Disneyland Records' "Jungle Book" LP, in its Storyteller series for children, has qualified for an R.I.A.A. gold record. Label believes that this is the first time a record intended strictly for children has been so honored.

The record retails for $3.79, monaural or stereo.

Between them, the Disneyland and Buena Vista labels have three "Jungle Book" LPs, one seven-inch Little LP book-and-record, and three children's 29¢ titles. Buena Vista's soundtrack of "The Jungle Book," which retails at $4.79, utilizes the same master as the children's record except that the narration and dialogue are omitted and the pages of art work which accompany the children's record are not included. This record was released as an afterthought when it was found that there was a demand for the music from the sound track of "Jungle Book" by teenagers and adults who were't interested in the storytelling features of the lower-priced Disneyland LP.

The combined sales of the "Jungle Book" records on the two labels are now more than one and a quarter million.

The "Jungle Book" records are international hits; and in every country where the record has been released, it is among the top sellers. In England it has been on the top 15 LP list for more than 25 weeks (and this is also the children's storytelling version, competing with the Beatles, Rolling Stones and all the rest of the top LPs).

Like the other classic titles in the Disney Storyteller line such as "Snow White," "Cinderella," "Mary Poppins," "Winnie the Pooh," "Bambi," "Pinochio," etc., "Jungle Book" will take its place as a strong and steady catalog seller through the years and will enjoy another rise to hit-level sales when "Jungle Book" is re-issued several years hence.

MGM Pics, Records in Contest

NEW YORK — Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer has initiated a nationwide band contest in conjunction with the national release of "The Impossible Years," the new MGM "generation gap" comedy, now playing as the Christmas attraction at Radio City Music Hall.

The contest will enable youngsters to vie for the opportunity of receiving a contract with MGM Records as well as the national release of their first recording. Experts from the fields of music, theater and journalism will make up the judges to determine the winning group, which will be renamed "The Impossible Years" and will record under that title for MGM.

Some 36 cities across the nation will participate in the contest, sponsored by leading local radio and television stations in connection with music stores. All junior and senior high school combos and bands are eligible. Additional prizes of Royal "Swinger" typewriters and MGM cartridge tape players will be provided for local and regional winners.

The local contests will culminate in seven regional winning bands for finals to be held in New York in January.

Ruby, Romantics Ink with A&M

HOLLYWOOD — Allen Stanton, Director of A&R for A&M Records, has announced the signing of Ruby and the Romantics to a long-term recording contract on the label.

Stanton was responsible for their success in 1963-64 when they recorded on the Kapp label. The group consists of Ruby Nash, George Lee, Ronald Mosley, Edward Roberts and Leroy Fann. Stanton is in New York producing their first release.

Moments Big Time

Harry Finfer of Stang Records reports that his "Not on the Outside" by the Moments is selling very well, to the tune of 75,000 in New York City.

The record is charted at WWRL, WLIB, WDRC, WPOP, and is also being played at WWIN, WEBB, WOOK, WOL, WADS, WILD, WVON, WMPP. Re-orders are coming in from Baltimore, Philadelphia, and Chicago, among other areas. Good action is also indicated in Georgia and Dallas.

Sedaka Back with Bang

NEW YORK — After a 2½ year hiatus from the recording end of the biz, Neil Sedaka is back with a self-penned disk on the SGC label called "Star Crossed Lovers."

"It's an inter-religious romance record," says Neil, "and most timely for the Christmas season."

Though he's been very active writing and performing ("Working On a Groovy Thing" is one of his tunes), it's been a while since he has done any recording. However, he's an artist turned salesman now since "Lovers" has been getting some play, and is working closely with Lew Shapiro promoting the disk, which is number one in Australia. (Neil just returned from there.)

Sedaka travels eight months a year, and was working in Dayton when "Lovers" hit, so he postponed his next engagement (in Tokyo, no less) to do some personal promotion. Since he sings in five languages, he'll be in good shape when he leaves for Tokyo, Hong Kong, Manila and Bangkok soon, from whence he will return

Neil Sedaka contemplates (with anticipatory smile) his new SGC release, "Star Crossed Lovers."

Jan. 15, before leaving for Arruba. Then it's back to New York for a date at the Persian Room in February, as arranged by new manager Ken Martel.

It looks like "Star Crossed Lovers" heralds the return of Neil Sedaka as more than the excellent and busy composer he is. And he's enjoying it immensely.—Andy Goberman.

Perhaps the Next Teen Idol: Michael J. James, discovered by Bob Marcucci, "She Needs the Same Things I Need," on Uni.

Record Mayven Pick: "Can I Change My Mind," Tyrone Davis, Dakar. This R&B giant broke at WSAI, Cincy, off the pick. It's just great.

Monster Smash Broken First In Phila.: "Build Me Up Buttercup," Foundations, Uni. Our Mayven Pick is close to 20,000. Hit record.

Instrumental Pick of the Week: "Riot," Hugh Masekela, Uni. Mickey Mouse.

R&B Smash of the Week: "Hey Jude," Wilson Pickett.

Class Ballad of the Week: "Rain In My Heart," Frank Sinatra. (Teddy Randazzo and Victoria Pike did it again.) We were at the Atlantic table for the Sinatra-5th Dimension-Harry James-Feliciano show at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas (during the Bill Gavin Conference). We sat next to genius producer Rick Hall (Clarence Carter, etc.) who commented during Feliciano's performance to me that "Jose Feliciano is the GREATEST and most UNIQUE guitarist in the world." Jose uses the full hand. Paul Anka told me after his show at the Sahara (which drew five standing ovations led by WOKY's PD George Wilson and spouse) that he wrote Feliciano's next single, "Crazy World."

New Ray Charles: "When I Stop Dreaming." Paul Drew tells me this song was a smash at WAKE, Atlanta in 1960 for Paul and Bill Drake.

Excitement Pick of the Week: "Light In My Window," Smokestack Lightnin', Bell. Mitchell knows class and he picks this Bones Howe classic. The LP will tear up the country. This is the next Supergroup!

Overlooked Hit: "Hayride," Sat. Cartoon Show, Elf. Nashville, Memphis, Louisville, Worcester all prove this is a hit record.

Southern Regional Hits: Joe South; Jeannie C. Riley; John W. Ryles.

Sammy Davis Has a Hit: "I Gotta Be Me," Top 10 KHJ. I spoke to Sammy in Vegas. If you had any doubts that getting a hit record is important to him, forget them. It means everything to him. He got quite emotional about it, and the fact that this B side ballad came through. He had made noise with two ballads before, and had switched to uptempo.

Top LP Cut, WEBC, Duluth: "Apricot Brandy," Rhinoceros, Scott called us to pass along the word that this could be a giant. Smash From Dallas: Jimi Hendrix . . . Smash from Phila.: Paul Anka.

KOTN Confirms "Condition Red," Goodees, Hip. Smash in Pine Bluff.

Monster Top 10 Sales In Chicago and Milwaukee: Tommy James . . . This is a Top 2 Record.

Dusty Springfield: Now Top 10 WLS, Chicago.

Andy Kim is shaping up as a solid hit record.

More About Kenny Gamble & Leon Huff: So just as I've been predicting for many weeks, the charts exploded for them. Archie Bell and Jerry Butler hit with stars. My predictions for the Gamble-Ross song, "I'm Gonna Make You Love Me," by the Temptation and Supremes, were topped by what happened on the charts, like top 20 in just two weeks is just too incredible to believe. Never doubt a stone winner!

Kama Sutra has a goodie in "She's Not There," Road . . . The new Mitch Ryder, "Ring Your Bell," has a great track. This might do it.

Breakout From WEBC, Duluth: "Sweets For My Sweet," Central Park West (Big requests and sales). Big LP cut: "Society's Child," Spooky Tooth LP. Sales on "Loving You Is Killing Me," Silver Caboose, Buddah. Requests on "May I," Bill Deal. Tommy James is a monster. Flipped Rascals. "Take A Heart," Don Fardon. Top 10 is 3 Dog Night.

KQV, Pittsburgh, confirms Bob Seger at #12. Also Top 10 in Cleveland.

Jeannie C. Riley: Solid re-orders in Minneapolis, Atlanta, Charlotte, Memphis, Dallas, Houston, Cleveland, Cincy, and on WMCA, NYC. Her new LP, "Year Book & Yesterday," is out.

Pop stations on "This Is My Country," Impressions are: WQXI, KYA, WIBG, WQAM, WFUN, WIXY, WKYC, KLIF, KFJZ, WCFL, WDRG, WMPG.

Tremendous new Peggy & JoJo LP, "Soul Shake."
"Release Me," Johnny Adams, SSS, is over 225,000 and sells pop where played. Picked KGFJ, L.A.

We think Buddah has a hit in "No Not Much," Smoke Ring. On KOMA, KLIF, WDRG, KFJZ, WDRG, KYA. Watch this record. It has class!

"Condition Red," Goodees, Hip, made a number at WLS, Chicago. It's a complete smash at WSAI, Cincy and broke in Salem and Worcester. I say hit!

"Sweet Cream Lady," Box Tops, is breaking fast in Memphis. Strong.

New Archies is the pick at WKNR . . . "Sweets For My Sweet," Central Park West, looks potent. Broke in Duluth fast. On WMCA . . . Next Ohio Express is "Sweeter Than Sugar" . . . Next 1910 Fruitgum is "1910 Cotton Candy Man."

Pet Clark is selling very well in NYC. It has power . . . Sammy Davis on CKLW, WHBQ, WRKO . . . Otis Redding on CKLW, WRKO, WIBG, WFIL.

NOTES FROM THE UNDERGROUND

By CARL LaFONG

Now that FM underground radio has been established, which makes it mostly establishment, and the adjective (never adverb) underground passé, the way is clear for the liberation of other media.

A precedent has been set. It has been proven that audiences are intelligent, that they can appreciate good, creative, well-rounded musical use of the airwaves. Certainly, it was an experiment, but one with not much chance of losing, unless handled with incredible ineptness. The charts, right there and black and white, were the graven tablets. It took only guts, a little gambling, a basic knowledge of what was going on and the willingness to program without shuck.

The result, as everyone involved knows, has not gone unnoticed. Change has started to come, though there's not much evidence of it yet. AM radio has had to get hep—to keep up with what's really going on in order to project what their audiences are going to be into before too much time has passed.

WGBS in Miami has devoted five of its prime youth hours to hard rock, and has begun to eat into the shares of WQAM and WFUN. Those GBS listeners ain't coming away from Miami easy listening or country and western stations. It's the first AM station in a significant market to get into direct competition on with Top 40 radio, and you can be sure that a lot of programming as well as management people are going to be watching the station's performance closely.

The rumbles were felt last weekend in Las Vegas at the Bill Gavin meetings, where several discussions—formal and informal—took place among radio and record people on FM rock radio's impact on Top 40. One prominent program director of a potent East Coast bubble gum station expressed his vibrations: "I just have this feeling, you know, a gut feeling, that things are going to change for us very soon. And very fast. It's frustrating not to be able to document my intuition, but it's there, and it bothers me." He felt that his station's format would probably convert to hard rock, when the time comes, by first integrating more album cuts by artists like Steppenwolf, Judy Collins, Blood, Sweat and Tears, the Doors, the Byrds and so on, and later devote a portion of the day to hard rock—probably the evening.

That would seem to be the most likely way AM radio will use to catch itself up with what's happening; devoting the morning, work hours and drive time to those who are musically less discerning, and turning the evening and possibly early morning hours over to avant garde music.

With AM on it's way toward capitulation, the obvious next goal should be television, and why lines of demonstrators have not begun picketing local stations and network headquarters long before this is a curious question. But it is probably also part of the problem.

Radio was easy to bring around to reality in comparison with the task awaiting those who seek to reform the glass teat.

Changes are coming already, though. Small. But significant PBL, a near disaster last year in its first attempt to use educational television creatively with government and Ford Foundation support, bowed this year with a compelling documentary by filmmaker Art Barron, "Birth And Death." The two-hour essay juxtaposed the real experiences of a young couple preparing for and finally sharing the experience of the birth of their first child,

WBUS-FM: Progressive Station

MIAMI BEACH — Jerry Powers, Program Director of WBUS-FM, reports the growing success of his progressive rock station after a month into this new "thing."

The program—popular with nearby colleges—airs six days a week from 11 p.m. until five a.m., with an earlier start (at 10) Monday nights when there are in-person interviews and telephone calls. Station is playing a lot of LP cuts, info's Powers, like the Incredible String Band, the new Richie Havens LP, "1983," the Beatles, Spirit and Blood, Sweat and Tears, among others.

Ian Back From Film Scoring

NEW YORK — Verve/Forecast artist Janis Ian returned to New York Monday, Jan. 16, after three weeks in Madrid, where she wrote the entire score to her first movie, "Four Rode Out," produced by Sagittarius Productions. The movie stars Sue Lyon (Lolita) and Pernell Roberts (Bonanza).

Miss Ian will open at the Bitter End in New York on Christmas Eve (25) for a ten-day return engagement before entering studios in January to produce her second independent album for young duo Janey and Dennis. Phillips has set a January release date on Andy Robinson's first LP, produced by Janis.

Miss Ian's own recording plans currently call for her to record and produce her own fourth LP, possibly a double-album, in late February.

The new LP albums will be merchandised in a specially prepared sales kit Poncio said. The sales kits will be rushed to distributors throughout the United States and to foreign licensees for their salesmen.

With announcement of the new LP programming, the Sound Stage 7 label, a Monument subsidiary, adds a Joe Simon album to the label's growing catalog. In "Simon Sings" Joe Simon sings his latest hit, "Message From Maria."

Pickwick to Acquire Everest, Nat'l Merchandisers Rack

LONG ISLAND CITY, N.Y.—Cy Leslie, Chairman of Pickwick International, Inc., and Amos Heilicher, President, announced that agreements have been reached to acquire National Merchandisers and Affiliates, Inc., a record distributing and rack jobbing organization of St. Louis, Mo., and Everest Records of Los Angeles, a manufacturer of phonograph records primarily of classical music, for an undisclosed amount of Pickwick Common stock.

At the same time, it was revealed that in the six months ended Oct. 31, 1968, Pickwick scored the highest sales and earnings in its history for the 17th consecutive year. Net income rose 43% to $939,000 from $656,000 during the previous interim period. Sales were $17,652,000, a rise of 31% from $13,463,000. Earnings per share increased to 73.6¢ as against 51.5¢.

National Merchandisers and Affiliates, Inc., is composed of three wholesale record distributing operations (Mid-State Distributors, Commercial Music Distributors and Record Merchandisers), a rack-jobbing operation (Rak Sales) and a one-stop operation (Original One-Stop). National Merchandisers concentrates its activities in the states of Missouri and Kansas but also services several other states in the immediate area. For the ten months ended May 31, 1968, National's sales were $8,372,177 and its net income was $197,493.

The acquisition of National Merchandisers is regarded as a further expansion of Heilicher Brothers, Inc., a major wholesale record distributor and rack jobber in the Midwest headquartered in Minneapolis, Minn., and closely follows the acquisition for stock on November 7, 1968 of Mars Sales Corp., Des Moines, Iowa, a record service merchandiser with an annual volume of approximately $3 million.

It is expected that the additional depth of management represented by Heilicher Brothers, Inc., and its sophisticated business techniques will aid in the expansion of both National Merchandisers and Mars Sales. The Midwest acquisitions give Pickwick solid strength in the economic "heartland" of the United States.

No changes in management, method of operation or location of headquarters of Everest Records is contemplated at this time. It is the belief of Pickwick that the classical market offers an area of notable growth as the college population increases and the taste for classical music expands.

Three Bridges New Pubbery Name

NEW YORK — M.R.C. Music General Manager Al Peckover has announced the change of the name of the publishing operation's ASCAP firm from Emarcy Music to Three Bridges Music Corporation.

Peckover says that confusion has arisen in the past over the similarity of the name between the MRC-BMI firm and the Emarcy-ASCAP company and he and General Professional Manager Bob Reno made the decision to rename the ASCAP firm.

Named After Town

Three Bridges was chosen one rainy night as the publishers were traveling across England by train and floods wiped out the railroad tracks. Their train was stuck and eventually turned back to London. The last stop that they reached on the night of the downpour was, of course, the English town of Three Bridges.

UA, Music Makers Sub-Publishing Agreement

Mike Stewart, President of United Artists Music and Milton Herson, President of The Music Makers Group, Inc., announce that United Artists Music International, Inc.—the foreign publishing arm of United Artists—will represent Andrew Scott, Inc. and Renleigh Music Inc., the publishing divisions of The Music Makers Group, Inc., in foreign sub-publishing.

Included in this arrangement is the Johnny Mathis Catalog, which was recently acquired by the Music Makers Group, and the Flomar Catalogs, which were recently acquired from Scepter Records and Florence Greenberg. The catalogs contain many standards recorded by Mathis. Both Stewart and Herson agree that the foreign potentialities of the catalogs are tremendous in that they represent a broad spectrum of some of the top composers in today's market.

Cowsill Productions Expands

LOS ANGELES — It was announced by David Ray, General Manager of the Cowsill Production complex, that the company is planning a further expansion into the field of recording and sound.

The firm, which has headquarters at 9255 Sunset since its introduction to the Coast in September, is moving to larger quarters which will not only house its executive personnel, but its own recording studios and rehearsal rooms.

"We have been moving towards this area since our inception, and the only way for us to properly function is to incorporate our entire procedure under one roof," stated Bud Cowsill.

The building, a three-story on Wilshire, will house the publicity department of the firm, the publishing department—Cowsill Publishing, Inc. and the TV production end of Cowsill Productions. The second story will consist of recording studios and the third floor will be mainly rehearsal rooms.

The expansion will not only serve Cowsill Productions, for Bud Cowsill is planning on recording other groups there, and providing rehearsal space for any group requiring it. "I see as one of the main problems on the Coast a lack of rehearsal room. I hope to provide it," said Bud.

The move will become effective in February.

with the preparation for death of cancer by an old man. The Public Broadcast Laboratory seems to be materializing as the light at the end of the tunnel, despite the handicap of its limited ETV exposure.

And in San Francisco, veteran music critic Ralph Gleason has worked a deal to produce a series of rock documentaries on local ETV outlet, KQED. The first was an experimental study of the music of It's A Beautiful Day, a new Columbia band, and others planned will examine the sounds of the Ace of Cups, an all-girl rock band, and the Jefferson Airplane. It is not known whether the series will be distributed to other educational television outlets.

So the establishment of underground radio, a reflection of the improved (or degraded, whichever way you want to see it) taste of broadcasting's audience, an acknowledgement of general intelligence, has repercussions far beyond the advancement of better music.

The whole world is watching.

Heritage's Jerry Ross Cites 'Teen Power' Import

NEW YORK — Jerry Ross, President of Heritage Records and Jerry Ross Productions, urged manufacturers and retailers to beam a sizeable portion of their ad and sales promotion dollars directly to today's teenagers to attract the "teen power" buying strength of the 13-to-17 age group.

Ross, an active participant in all phases of operation for the Heritage label, including advertising and sales promotion programs, pointed out that the nation's 24,000,000 teenagers have a buying power of more than 11 billions of dollars annually, and by 1970 there will be in excess of 27,000,000 teens spending well over 16 billions of dollars annually—with the largest percentage on luxuries and entertainment.

"Recent buyers' surveys conducted by national department and discount chains," Ross noted, "indicate that the individual teenager spends between $300 and $1,000 a year, with a median purchase power of $500." Ross further estimated that "approximately 23% of that figure is being spent on records."

Special Attention Due

"With that kind of profit to be made," said Ross, "it is essential that the trade pay special attention to this market and plan individual campaigns aimed directly at the teenager.

"I would also suggest that in all planning of advertising and sales promotion budgets, special attention be paid to the amount of retail dollars that the teen market represents to the industry."

C, P & W at Benefit

Terry Cashman, Gene Pistilli & Tommy West, the writing-producing and artist team, were picked as the lead performers for the New York Multiple Sclerosis benefit at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel Dec. 8. C, P & W's most recent production is "Sweets For My Sweet," recorded by Central Park West on the Event label.

John Green of 'Oliver'

Prescription for Filmusical Spectaculars: Be Prepared

NEW YORK — John Green, Musical Supervisor and Arranger of Lionel Bart's "Oliver!", the Columbia Pictures musical which opened here last week, was in from his Coast base for the festivities and promotion on the multi-million dollar spectacular.

Talking with Record World, Green, also a noted composer, cited as one of the problems that certain screen musical extravaganzas were encountering—and there have been some problems lately—is that they try "to wing it." On "Oliver!", Green, choreographer Onna White, production designer John Box and director Carol Reed started work on the project years ago—in Green's case, two and half.

"First of all, we had to get Shepperton Studios in England ready to make this kind of big musical picture," Green related. "They'd never done anything like this before over there. We went in with every 'i' dotted, every 't' crossed. And we came in less than three weeks over schedule and relatively little over budget. Do you know what a feat that is on a production of this magnitude?" He gives much credit to producer John Woolf, too.

Green reported that "there is less than 15 minutes of film in the bin" (unused) and only four and half minutes of his music that wasn't used. "This film runs two hours and 29 minutes, plus an intermission, and there is two hours of music in it, plus the overture." Colgems is releasing the soundtrack album here.

He said there had been only four Americans on the production: Miss White, her assistant, Tom Panko, Green's music editor, Ken Runyon, and Green.

Now Producing, Too

For the first time, Green also is getting Associate Producer's credit for the currently shooting ABC-Palomar Pictures production of "They Shoot Horses, Don't They?", a film about marathon dance contests that is not a musical but employs much music of the '30s period for atmosphere.

Green, who has won four Oscars and 12 nominations, was at Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Pictures from '42-'46 as a staff composer, worked at Universal for a while and returned in '48 to Metro at filmusical master producer Arthur Freed's request as General Music Director and Executive in Charge of Music until '58. His films include "An American in Paris," "The Great Caruso" ("I was especially proud of that one"), "West Side Story," "Summer Stock," "Easter Parade," etc.

It was on "I'll Cry Tomorrow" in the mid-'50s that Green convinced doubting dramatic star Susan Hayward—and MGM star Susan Hayward — and brass — that she could do her own vocalizing in the Lillian Roth story. She did, won all sorts of awards and got a recording contract. This month "Susie" (as he calls her) opens at Caesar's Palace, Las Vegas, as the exhaustingly musical "Mame."

He is also proud of the award-winning Concert Hall series of MGM musical shorts he initiated in '51 with the MGM Symphony Orchestra—"I built that orchestra, pirating guys from all over the country. Those shorts had thick scripts. Each one took four months for preparation, but only one day to shoot." They were also pacesetters in the use of stereophonic sound in films.

Just as John Green has been, and continues to be, a pacesetter in the world of movie music.—Doug McClelland.

Max Asnas Dead

NEW YORK — Max Asnas, owner of Broadway watering-holes, the Stage, died last week of a heart attack. He was 71.

Dubbed years ago by Fred Allen as the "Corned Beef Confucious," Asnas was known and loved for his generosity, his sense of humor (which also was corned) and his food—not necessarily in that order.

The short, beaming proprietor recently sold his restaurant (capacity 84) for an amount estimated at $1 million.

Mann Casts $150,000 Shadow In Big Promotion Campaign

NEW YORK — As reported last week, Roulette Records President Morris Levy is launching a new label, Tomorrow's Productions, and is backing Shadow Mann with a $150,000 promotion budget, the largest Levy has ever given a new artist.

Tomorrow's Productions' first release, "Come Live With Me," produced by Ron Haffkine for Kelli Ross' and Art Wayne's Alouette Productions, is fast becoming one of the most talked about decks in the industry and Shadow Mann is building an overnight reputation as being a colorful, exciting performer.

Having made his TV debut last week on the "Upbeat" show in Cleveland, and having done the Hy Litt and Jerry Blavatt shows in Philly, the response to Mann has been enthusiastic. Shadow's segment has only been aired in about half of the 70-odd markets these shows are usually seen in, and in almost every case distributors report strong orders and re-orders along with tremendous phone response at the local TV stations from fans and promoters.

Responding to such strong initial reaction in the manner for which he is known, Levy is extending Shadow's cross-country promotion tour to include more television; in Levy's words, "If he's seen . . . he'll sell!"

This week, Shadow Mann is on the West Coast to meet with the Smothers Brothers and officials of two major TV net-

McEuen Combine Swings

William E. McEuen Productions, fast-building West Coast indie production and management combine, signed three new acts this week and revealed plans for new disks and featured bookings for the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band and the Sunshine Company, the firm's already established pacts.

The Dirt Band, to be featured in a Look Magazine spread early next year, along with the Taylor Twins, one of McEuen's newly-signed talents, has just completed cutting a live LP for Liberty Records at the Hollywood club, the Troubadour. The Dirt Band, just completed filming its featured role for the Paramount film, "Paint Your Wagon."

The Sunshine Company has been booked for a special ABC-TV network New Year's Eve blast from the Waldorf Astoria in New York, appearing in a featured spot along with Guy Lombardo and Gordon MacRae. Prior to arriving in New York on Saturday (28), the group will do a tour of remote Armed Forces bases in the South Pacific, with deejay Gene Weeda from Tuesday (17) to Sunday (22).

Meanwhile, McEuen announced the signing for management of comedy writer-comic, Steve Martin; the 18-year-old sister act known as the Taylor Twins, who will shortly cut a folk-based LP; and Mercy, a group from the northwest. Last week, McEuen signed singer-songwriter-guitarist Steve Gillette to the roster, which now also includes the British duo Harper and Rowe and Gregg Allman, West Coast blues singer and guitarist, and former leader of the Hour Glass.

Mercy, which features the songwriting of singers Kathy Smith and Tom Grant, have been signed to an exclusive pact by World Pacific Records. The deal was worked out by McEuen and Dick Bock, W-P chief.

Martin, who is now at the Troubadour, along with the Dirt Band, writes material for the Smothers Brothers television show and is soon expected to cut a comedy LP of his own. The Taylor Twins, from Salt Lake City, will also be signed to a label shortly.

In a first-of-its kind presentation, the 5th Dimension was awarded gold records for their current hit "Stoned Soul Picnic," by Frank Sinatra. Ceremony took place during opening night festivities at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas. The group is currently co-starring with Sinatra and Jose Feliciano at the Vegas nitery. Arnold Maxin

MGM In The 'Chips'

By DOUG McCLELLAND

NEW YORK — Although Arnold Maxin took over the Presidency of MGM Records only a few short weeks ago (retaining his duties at the helm of the Big 3 publishing firm), pronounced results are already in effect.

Gone is the Community of Labels concept, replaced by a concentration on MGM's three main labels: MGM, Verve and Verve/Forecast, a long, of course, with a few heavy independent labels continuing to be distributed by MGM.

As Maxin told Record World last week, "We're concentrating on our three main labels. That doesn't imply that we won't go into another label; but we're being more selective in keeping with our promotion and distribution capabilities. So far, this has worked to both our advantage and that of our artists. We've been able to concentrate more on them."

"We've had a very successful first quarter and will be in the black."

On the subject of new signings, Maxin stated: "Our main job at present is to make room for them. There will be signings, in all areas—some of it is going on right now. But again it will be on a very selective basis. It will be whatever will mean record sales."

More Emphasis on Progressive Rock

He continued: "I can say there will be more emphasis on progressive rock. We are going to build a staff of young producers who will work for the company. (We will maintain relationships with outside producers, too.) Richard Delvy, who is based on the West Coast, is the first new producer we have added to our staff. And there will be others soon."

Maxin noted that the film, publishing and record companies are operating much more closely than ever before. He also waxed enthusiastic about upcoming soundtrack album properties from MGM movies, particularly "Goodbye, Mr. Chips," the Peter O'Toole-Petula Clark roadshow attraction due for release late next year. Maxin said the album of the Leslie Bricusse score would be out in late summer of '69. Was there any problem getting Petula Clark, who records for Warner Brothers, on the MGM label for this package? "None at all," said Maxin. "It was all worked out beforehand. And Pet is a wonderful girl to work with."

Resurgence of English Pride

The story of "Chips," as movie buffs will recall, was filmed in 1939 with "Mr." Robert Donat (who won the Oscar for this performance) and as his "Mrs.," Greer Garson, who won stardom on the strength of this work. It follows the adventures of an English schoolmaster in to old age, and jerked many a tear in its time. Maxin feels it will again, now with music. "Something is happening in England," he opined. "There is a resurgence going on there, a resurgence of pride in their tradition and customs." What this sudden reversal could mean to the overall international music scene is interesting to ponder.

The label President also sees a trend in musicals—not only film, but stage—toward stronger story lines, with the music less advancing the story line than complementing it. Such is the case with "Mr. Chips."

Other important soundtracks for MGM are the current Anthony Quinn starrer, "Shoes of the Fisherman," with a score by Alex North, and just named one of the year's best pictures by Films in Review; plus such upcoming major properties as "Ice Station Zebra," starring Rock Hudson, score by Michel Legrand; and "Where Eagles Dare," music by Ron Goodwin, teaming Richard Burton and Clint Eastwood.

Other Labels' Artists Help

Maxin noted that the MGM family increasingly has also been able to utilize artists performing only on the soundtracks of MGM movies, as well as their records of these themes, for promotional purposes, even when they are not under contract to the diskery.

He cited Judy Collins, who sang in "The Subject Was Roses"; Lulu, ditto in "Hot Millions"; Ella Fitzgerald, the same for "A Place for Lovers"; and the Cowsills, who sang in "The Impossible Years"—only the latter group records for MGM Records.

Definitely on the upgrade, too, as Maxin sees it, in the upbeat MGM outlook is tape sales. "It's the young buyer," he reported. "It's the kid who controls the radio at home and the car."

Joanie Back on WB

BURBANK, CALIF.—Joanie Sommers has returned to the Warner Brothers label after a six-year absence, and has a new single out, "Talk Until Daylight" b/w "The Great Divide." The "A" side was written by Larry Cansler of the Warner music divisions, who also orchestrated and conducted for Miss Sommers.

Dot Pushes 'Greatest Roman'

HOLLYWOOD — Dot Records has initiated a mammoth advertising and promotion campaign following the hefty reaction being given Lyn Roman's new album, "The Greatest Roman of Them All." In two weeks following the album release, Dot is receiving heavy order response for the album.

Advertising support includes a heavy radio program, extensive trade space, enlarged album cover posters and a television promotional film that has been sent to over 200 stations, featuring the artist singing "Just a Little Lovin' (Early in the Mornin')" which has been lifted as a single from the album.

Miss Roman is currently working with arranger Artie Butler, and her producer, Gerry Granahan, before recording the love theme from "The Brotherhood," the Paramount Picture which stars Kirk Douglas and Irene Papas; following which she'll tape appearances on the Dean Martin, Joey Bishop and Merv Griffin television shows.

Producer George Edwards and director Curtis Harrington have set the singer to make her dramatic acting debut about in "A Sleeping Partner," which they'll make for Four Star International next year. Warren Beatty is being sought for "Partner."

Big Bourne 'Boy'

NEW YORK—Bourne Co. reports that "Mary's Little Boy Chile" by Jester Hairston is consistently being recorded for the Christmas Season by such top artists as: Harry Belafonte, Andy Williams, Jim Reeves, the Harry Simeone Chorale and the Lettermen.

Electronomusic

and Folkman take up the challenge and the result is some of the most virtuoso, florid music we have ever heard on the Moog. Hundreds of hours went into the devising of these sounds and into the final assembling of the finished "takes" which were built up from eight separate tracks.

"Switched-On Bach" is important to the industry for it represents a significant turning point in electronic music. It has opened the way to electronic music albums that have mass appeal, that can be dug by the general lay public.

Technically, the album marks the first stage in the development of the Moog Synthesizer's ability not only to imitate traditional sounds but new sounds that are equally valid. One wonders about the Pandora's Box Carlos and Folkman have opened, but one cannot help being intrigued by the scores the Moog may transform as it becomes an even more highly developed instrument than it is today.

Gloria Loring: Girl Who Has Everything

NEW YORK—Gloria Loring: If she's not Big-time, then indeed God never made little green apples, and it don't rain in Indianapolis in the summer-time.

Currently at the Persian Room, Miss Loring is that rare—sometimes, it seems, almost extinct—entertainer who has just about everything. She's willowy and lovely, a high-cheekboned blonde with just the slightest deviation here and maybe there for character, without which, after all, there is no true beauty. She's sexy, even in her current costume, a Brunhilde-inspired, a l m o s t campy blue gown with sequined breast plate and wrist guards—somehow appropriate, for even though Miss Loring is a beauty in a time when the big nose is the news, her overall style is a superb blending of the grand with the groovy.

And she can sing, with a range that can sting like a whip or lull like a church solo. Miss Loring has a pure, solid, vigorous pop voice that combines with "now" enthusiasm and excitement to fill in the generation gap as well as anyone I know singing today.

Superior Song Bag

In her current engagement, the gal sings mostly contemporary material, but it is musically superior of its ilk and appropriate to the more mature clientele at the Plaza. Outstanding are a moving "Didn't We?"; a firecracker "Goody Goody"; a delightful "Those Were the Days," incorporating other ditties in this "Cabaret" mood by Kurt Weill, etc.; and the amusing, beautifully "acted" "With a Little Help from My Friends," proving she has a flair for humor which should stand her well when the movies grab her about 10 minutes from now. She even makes palatable the pretentious but probably nitery standard-bound new "Did I Ever Really Live?" ("You're born, you cry, you smile, you die"—or something similarly revelatory).

The 22-year-old has just been signed by Stereo Dimension Records. If she can convince her peers that good looks don't automatically mean no talent and can keep the less attractive ringside females at bay, Gloria Loring has got it made.

—Doug McClelland.

Verve's Bill Medley has been signed by producer William Castle to sing "One Hundred Years," an original song, over the title credits for Paramount Pictures' prison drama, "Riot."

Johnny Podell, graduate of City College of New York and recently a booking agent, has been named Promotion Account Exec at Morty Wax Promotions.

Arranger - conductor J o e Scott, who did the new record session for the Four Seasons, also conducted the orchestra for the group's week-long appearance at the New York Waldorf Astoria's Empire Room. The engagement started Nov. 25.

Harry Woods, who wrote "Side by Side," "River Stay 'Way from My Door," "Try a Little Tenderness," etc., is at St. Joseph's Hospital in Phoenix, Ariz., where he was operated on for jaw trouble. Get well cards from friends would be welcome.

Billy Ver Planck is writing arrangements for new Buddy DeFranco album.

Producer-arranger Bob Halley and his wife, singer Cathy Carroll, became parents of a son, Ronald Scott, on Nov. 26.

Daken Broadhead, President, Allied Record Company, has become the principal owner in the 35-year-old Los Angeles-based custom record pressing plant.

Danny Harrison, BMI songwriter, announces that he has reaffiliated himself with Pappy Dailey. Danny's first album will be released after the first of the year.

Four commercials scored by composer-arranger Horace Ott, currently represented on the various best-selling charts with sides arranged for several artists, are to be aired on TV and radio shortly.

Doreen Goldstein, assistant to the President of Philip Leshin Associates, was wed to Daily News staff photographer Tom Monaster on Dec. 7.

Julie Budd and her producer, Herb Bernstein, made a flying trip to Los Angeles so that Julie could tape her first Jonathan Winters show on Dec. 11. The show will be viewed on Dec. 18.

Marlene Ver Planck tapes a "Girl Talk" (ABC-TV) show on Dec. 13 and will sing her recording of "Growing Up Gracefully."

Irving Spice is finishing up album sides with the Side Three for his Mohawk label.

Kasenetz-Katz Starts Million Dollar Promo on Super Cirkus

NEW YORK — Jerry Kasenetz and Jeffrey Katz, principals of the Kasenetz-Katz Associates production and music publishing complex, have earmarked $1,000,000 for a promotional campaign on the Kasenetz-Katz Super Cirkus, currently hot with "Quick Joey Small."

Taking what they term "the lessons of Walt Disney and P.T. Barnum," Kasenetz and Katz plan two major road shows for the group, one covering 20 states in the United States and the other roaming over 15 European countries, scheduled to kick off in the summer of 1969.

In February, Kasenetz and Katz will hold "conventions" in New York and London to present the group (composed of the 1910 Fruitgum Company, the Ohio Express, the Music Explosion, the Shadows of Knight and Professor Morrison's Lollipop) to the trade and consumer press, record distributors, promoters and radio and television executives. Promo films and press material will be distributed, followed by a live performance of the super-group at the New York meeting.

The road show itself will consist of two squads, one made of the five hit groups and the other—to be called the Super K Circus Group—composed of singers, dancers, musicians, clowns, acrobats and live animals to create the first "rock circus."

The overseas tour is in response to the British chart reaction to "Quick Joey Small." The Kasenetz-Katz Super Cir-kus' new American single, "I'm in Love With You," goes into release this week on Bud-dah Records with one of the largest pre-orders in the label's history.

Jumping off on a simultaneous merchandising program, Kasenetz and Katz are currently negotiating with seven major airlines for sponsorship of the Super Cirkus' overseas appearances as goodwill ambassadors. They are also conferring with comic book publishers, bubble gum trading card companies and major toy manufacturers for premium and merchandising tie-ins.

Kasenetz and Katz are negotiating with Broadway producers to bring the group back to the stage after the American and continental tours.

In addition, K and K have already gone into production on two television specials featuring the Cirkus with target air dates for Easter and summer. They are negotiating with television and major motion picture studios and prospective sponsors for the programs and for feature films. Kasenetz and Katz themselves, with all their groups, will be bouqueted on an upcoming "Upbeat!" TVer scheduled for taping next month.

Steed Inks Illusion

NEW YORK—The Illusion, a five-piece, self-contained East Coast rock combo, has been signed by Jeff Barry to his Steed label, announces Mark Alan, President of New Beat Management, Ltd.

The Illusion and, far right, Jeff Barry.

The Illusion has made numerous appearances in New York, at such as the Action House, Leone's, the Barge, Steve Paul's Scene, the Raleigh Hotel and Ungano's. They have been continuously featured at the Village Theatre, the Westbury Music Fair, the Singer Bowl and the Long Island Arena. The group has also made many college and concert appearances all over the states, and was featured last year on national tour with Mitch Ryder.

Jeff Barry, producer-songwriter who has produced and written hit material for the Monkees, the Ronettes, Andy Kim, Neil Diamond and the Archies, will produce the Illusion for Steed. He initially intends to release a single, album to follow. Barry, who feels that "The Illusion is long overdue attention on record," has written the A-side of the group's first single, "Did You See Her Eyes," backed with "Falling in Love," which was written by the Illusion. Record is slated for release in early January.

The Illusion is appearing at Ungano's, 210 W. 70th St., throughout December.

P. D. Q. Bach Concert At Philharmonic

NEW YORK—Vanguard artist P.D.Q. Bach (Professor Peter Schiekele) will be presented in concert at Philharmonic Hall Dec. 23, 28 and 31. These new works will be featured: "A Few MADrigals," "Toot Suite for Organ (3 grinders)" and "Concerto for Piano vs Orchestra (Elvira Muligan)."

Imperial Intro's New Artists Via College Press Meet

HOLLYWOOD — Imperial Records introduced its new Wichita Fall group to the people who buy records through the novel approach of holding a press conference exclusively for junior high, high school and college entertainment writers.

Eli Bird, National Sales Manager for the label, said the session was designed to aid school journalism instructors to expose their young writers to the press conference situations they will confront should they pursue careers in journalism. At the same time, he said, the potential readers of stories written as a result of the conference numbered in the hundreds of thousands.

The conference—held at the Press Club of Los Angeles—was co-hosted by the 7-Up Bottling Company of Los Angeles, represented by J. Walter Thompson, and by Los Angeles based ice cream chain, Baskin-Robbins.

To stimulate attendance at a conference for new artists, Imperial star Jackie DeShannon served as hostess and introduced the new artists to the young writers.

So that they would be able to react to the music of the Wichita Fall, their album, "Life is But a Dream," was presented to each of the participants. The reporters also received copies of the DeShannon new LP, "Laurel Canyon." Press kits were provided. Door prizes were awarded.

Dot Signs Young Browning

LOS ANGELES — With four appearances on the Arthur Godfrey network radio show under his belt and a repertoire of some 50 songs, 11-year-old vocalist Browning Bryant has emerged as a recording artist via Dot Records.

Bryant resides in Pickens, S. C., along a rural route some five miles out of the country. Local appearances brought him to the attention of the A & R Talent Agency, Charlotte, resulting in a contract with the firm and a career for the young man. Managers Bill Allen and Matt Renda rushed him to N.Y. for the Godfrey appearance, resulting in three encore performances.

The next logical move was to scout material. To this end, Nashville's Alex Zanetis and Jerry McBea collaborated on "Games That Grown-Up Children Play." Latter tune, backed with another Zanetis original, "Hey Little Girl," was co-produced in Music City by Dot's Bonnie Guitar and Zanetis. Browning's debut platter, now being rush released, is not a children's recording—rather, a powerful "message" geared to the adult market, from a child's point of view.

Guthrie at Carnegie Does Tasty 'Thing'

NEW YORK—Reprise's Arlo Guthrie did his thing at Carnegie Hall last week.

His "thing" is in the tradition of his father, plus Bob Dylan and others of the guitar-pickin', singin'-a-simple-song, wandering-minstrel school of folk music. Accompanied only by a bass player, Arlo played both six and 12-string guitar and one number on the piano, and sang some of his sometimes not-so-simple songs, including the renowned "Alice's Restaurant" (all about the multicolored rainbow roach this time) which was followed by long applause from the captivated crowd.

Always entertaining, Guthrie led his crowd through another of his well-known ditties, "The Motorcycle Song." Another number was a Jimmie Rodgers tune that sounded something like "My Mother, Queen of My Heart," performed expertly right down to the famed Rodgers yodeling.

Arlo Guthrie has his well-deserved hard core fans who filled Carnegie Hall and at the end called him back for three encores. Not such a small hard core. More like the whole apple's, his.—Andy Goberman.

Sky, Santos Score

NEW YORK—Patrick Sky, one of the last true performers of urban and rural folk, opened impressively at the Bitter End on a recent Wednesday (4).

He brought with him a composite of tales and songs which created the existence of an emotional bond between himself and the audience. You saw yourself forced to identify with each living line and verse. The weaving patterns and strums exemplified his Southern background. Later on you realized that you had just heard an original: Verve Forecast's Patrick Sky.

Running through an array of compositions, including works of Jimmy Webb, Jerry Jeff Walker and his own, was Larry Santos. A Bob Crewe protege (he penned the Four Seasons' hit, "Candy Girl"), Santos showed a bit more maturity in his own selections. A fine job was especially was done on especially was done on Webb's "Paper Chase."—John Sanna.

NAPP Formed to Give Concert Biz Transfusion

Reveals Prez Teddy Powell

NEW YORK—Teddy Powell, who produces about 150 pop, R/B and jazz concerts annually, told Record World last week that because of the rising costs of artists and the proliferations of concerts, the concert business is slacking off.

Powell plans to try to establish price ceilings, if possible, through the National Alliance of Promoters and Producers (NAPP), an organization of which he is President. "The agents ask more for an artist each time he sells him to you. Then the tickets price has to go up. The people just can't afford it and they're not coming."

NAPP was organized so that

Negro promoters who were losing acts as they moved into higher price brackets could find ways of combatting the problem. Powell said that he was making progress in this area. "We understand that acts want to get into new situations," he said, "but we want these acts to realize that we can handle them in these areas."

Powell's next show, which he is packaging for a two-night stand (New York and Newark), includes Nina Simone, Young-Holt Unlimited, the Sweet Inspirations and John W. Anderson (Kasandra).

"One of the only ways to make money these days," Powell noted, "is to catch an act on the way up—the way I am with John W. Anderson. I signed him a few weeks ago and now he has a record that could be a big hit."—Dave Finkle.

Scott & Benson on Move

NASHVILLE — The award-winning duo of Peggy Scott and Jo Jo Benson, who made hits of their SSS International renderings of "Lovers Holiday" and "Pickin' Wild Mountain Berries," keep the highways hot and the stages varied in their personal appearance schedules.

The remainder of December will see them in Tampa, Fla., the 18th to the 21st. The 24-26 dates shuffle them throughout Louisiana and the 28th will find them in Lexington, Ky. They'll be headlined Dec. 31 to Jan. 5 in Detroit.

Soul at Gate Continues to Click

NEW YORK — Soul at the Village Gate continues to be a rousing success. The past two shows have featured some of the fastest rising acts on the Rhythm & Blues scene.

Stax Records' Eddie Floyd, who first came to fame with his penning and recording of "Knock on Wood," was the star of the Nov. 25 show. His intense, nitty gritty presentations of his back-to-back hits, "I've Never Found a Girl" and "Bring It on Home to Me," left no doubt that he has found a niche in the world of soul. Appearing with him were the Pazant Brothers and the Exciters.

Marked for Stardom

Marked for stardom are Kapp's the Unifics, whose first recording, "Court of Love," went all the way on the charts and who have been wowing audiences across the country. Their fast, tightly choreographed numbers kept the crowd breathless.

Also on the last show was Solid State's Jimmy McGriff, whose latest offering "The Worm" is rising on the pop charts.—Joy Kincaid.

Esquires Have 'The Power'

NEW YORK — The Esquires are a hard-working group, but they took time from their schedule to stop by Record World last week with their latest Wand release, "You Got the Power," showing up very strongly, sales-wise.

Shown above, the Esquires (Gilbert Morer, Alvis Morer, Mill Edwards and Sam Pace) flank Scepter-Wand ace promo man Chris Jones, holding their latest on Wand, "You Got The Power."

The four-man group hails from Milwaukee, and has been together for three years. Their first hit, "Get on Up," and the follow-up "And Get Away" (produced by Bill Sheppard), were on Bunky Records, but the group was transferred to Wand a year ago along with other artists on the Bunky roster.

The boys expect to have their second album (perhaps a live recording) released after the first of the year.

Their itinerary will take them to North Carolina, then Chicago, then back to New York's Apollo Jan. 3, and from there they'll take off for Canada.

Kasandra in N. Y. C.

Supremes, Temptations Hour Blockbuster

Motown's Diana Ross and the Supremes and the Temptations scored heavily last week (9) in a precedent-setting NBC special, "TCB" (Taking Care of Business), the first prime-time television hour devoted to black rock performers.

The hour, produced by "Laugh-In" producers Ed Friendly and George Schlatter with Berry Gordy, Jr., acting as creative consultant, was a judiciously-tailored showcase for the popular Motown groups.

Showcased within the showcase was Diana Ross, who shone in the highlight of the program, a songless neo-African folkdance, choreographed by Donald McKayle. No easy set-up turn, the dance demanded great physical agility, and Miss Ross, considering that her terpsichorean abilities have never even been hinted at, was surprisingly adept.

Apart from the unexpected Ross solo, the hour primarily consisted of an arena reworking and blending of the groups' night club acts—an intermingling of their own pop hits and standards. Both groups acquitted themselves fancily in an array of colorful clothes and, in the cases of the girls, a never-ending variety of wigs.

The songs included "Baby Love," "Stop in the Name of Love," "Get Ready," "Ain't Too Proud to Beg," solos of "Eleanor Rigby" and "Somewhere" by Diana, "Do You Know the Way to San Jose," "I Hear a Symphony," "Hello, Young Lovers" and tunefully on like that.

Motown had the show's soundtrack in stores the day after the airing, and the package should be a blockbuster.

Atco Pacts Precisions

Atco Records announced this week the signing of the vocal group the Precisions to an exclusive, long-term recording contract.

The group, formerly on the independent Drew label, has had several chart records including "If This Is Love," "Why Girl," "Instant Heartbreak" and "A Place."

The members of the group, Michael Morgan, Dennis Gilmore, Billy Prince and Arthur Ashford, are all from Detroit and have been singing together for three years. The Precisions' initial record under the Atco label is "Into My Life," due in January.

Atco Signs Otis Rush

Atco Records has signed blues singer Otis Rush to an exclusive long-term recording contract.

He recorded his first sides for the label last week at the Fame Recording Studios in Muscle Shoals, Ala. Sessions were co-supervised by Mike Bloomfield and Nick Gravinities. They mark the first on which Rush, Bloomfield and Gravinities have ever worked together. Bloomfield and Gravinities agreed to A&R the Rush sessions at the suggestion of Jerry Wexler, Exec VP of Atlantic.

Bartley Back From London Success

Chris Bartley, Vando recording artist, has returned this week from London with his manager Bill Downs. Chris appeared in clubs and did one-nighters in the north of England.

Presented to Press

While in London EMI presented Bartley to the press and public with a cocktail party at the White House Inn. He will return to London and Paris in June when he will be the star of the junior-senior proms of the American schools. The school is attended by American children of parents who hold a position in some firm abroad, and after seeing Chris at a London club requested that he be signed for the proms.

Ott Services Pair

NEW YORK — Horace Ott, who arranged the Swordmen's recent R&B click, "Oh My Soul," has been signed by Ninandy Records to do the same chores for the duo's next single.

The arranger-conductor will also write the charts for a forthcoming RCA platter by the Insiders.

DESDE NUESTRO RINCON

Internacional

By TOMAS FUNDORA

(This column appears first in Spanish and then in English)

Regresó Andy Russell a Estados Unidos, después de triunfales actuaciones en Tailandia, las Filipinas y Taipan. Filmará un programa especial de televisión para Metromedia en California y planea grabar nuevos temas para Capitol dentro de pocas semanas . . . Al hacer contacto con Mario de la Piedra de Telesistema Mexicano, S.A., varios sellos nos informan que nadie parece dar detalles exactos en cuanto al "Festival de la Canción Latina del Mundo," que se espera haya de celebrarse próximamente en México. Los organizadores del Festival nos comunicaron que de La Piedra estaba a cargo de recibir todo el material destinado a dicho Festival. ¿Nos aclaran este asunto? . . . Gracias!

Lanzó Discomoda una nueva grabación de Raquel Castaños en Venezuela. Entre los temas figuran: "A todas Tomas por Tontas," "Romeo y Julieta," "Qué tiempo Tan Feliz," ("Those were the Days") y Se Fué" . . . Musart pone esta semana a la venta una nueva grabación de Lucha Villa titulada "Ay . . . Amor . . . !" . . . Actuarán próximamente en Miami, Lucho Gatica y Everardo Ordaz . . . Columbia está obteniendo ventas con "Borracho" del desaparecido Javier Solís . . . Salió esta semana a la venta el nuevo larga duración de Monna Bell en su nuevo sello: Musart . . . La RCA está vendiendo "Copitas Copotas" por Los Dos Reales, en el cual se incluyen: "Si Yo Fuera Rico," "El Arbol Caído," "Si Yo Fuera Presidente," "El Contrabandista" y "Corazón Libertino."

Everardo Ordaz Lucha Villa Raquelita Castanos Javier Solis

Se une al éxito logrado por Barbara y Dick con "Cuando yo Vuelva a mi Tierra," el cantante peruano César Altamirano, al incluir dicho número en su nuevo "elepé" lanzado al mercado por Iempsa en Perú, conteniendo sus éxitos "Juego de Amor" y "Ahora Sé." El mensaje de "Cuando Yo Vuelva a mi Tierra" quizás sea el más sincero de nuestras vidas . . . Peret y su Rumba Gitana, debe por derecho propio lograr ventas importantes dentro del catálogo Columbia. Un acierto! . . . Codiscos lanzó el instrumental "Panicali y los Exitos de Hoy" con una portada bellísima y un contenido logrado exquisitamente . . . Al momento de sacar a la venta este "elepé," pudieran haberle agregado al título . . . "Y de Ayer" . . . La interpretación de "Cuando" de Felipe Gil, en la voz de Carlos Lico es inolvidable. ¿Qué hará Capitol en Norteamérica con este número y con el "Soy" de Paco Chazona, también interpretado por el gran Lico? . . . Nos da la impresión que en esta gran empresa existen algunos ejecutivos que están durmiendo un gran sueño . . . a lo mejor hay que darles un buen gritooooo!!!

Agradecemos felicitaciones pascuales de: Billy Delgado de Tampa Records, Norah Catanzaro de Iempsa, Perú, Monument Records, Latin Records Dist. Assoc., Miami Records, Joe Danova y Regina Alcover, Columbia Records y Celia Cruz. Seguiremos mencionando a los buenos amigos!!! . . . Y ahora . . . Hasta la próxima!

El indiscutible mejor baladista Alberto Vazquez, está gustando enormidades con su versión a "La Rosa Negra," que sacó en un disco sencillo de cuatro selecciones, para Musart, para el cual fueron seleccionados también: "Amor No Llores," "El Amor Es Triste" y "Dalila." Esta última viene empujando durísimo. "Te Voy A Matar," es la canción más solicitada y más oída por los disco-aficionados. Esta creación de Marco Antonio Muniz, RCA, le ha vuelto a colorar en L.A. Algo especial y que está para recomendarse es la personal interpretación de Robertha a "Angelitos Negros" y también su excepcional creación a "Algo," la hermosa canción de Wello Rivas que es más que un poema. Estas pertenecen al álbum de Robertha que la Capitol llamó . . . "La Voz del Amor" y que contiene también "Amor No Llores," considerada de sus mejores, "Mi Verdad" ya colocada entre los éxitos, "Olvidate," "Aún," de "No Me Pidas Cariño," "Llorando Por Dentro" la triunfadora canción de los Hnos. Castro y otras más que están de maravilla y que sin duda se convertirán en éxitos de todos los tiempos. Por otra parte la Peerless invadió el mercado con el primer álbum de Marco Antonio Vázquez que se espera se venda como pan caliente, después del cañonazo que causará con "Amor Necio" en su disco sencillo que se mantuvo colocado en primer lugar por tres meses consecutivos. Después de oír detenidamente cada una de las nuevas selecciones de este nuevo álbum me es muy difícil separar una o dos canciones, todas están muy bien escogidas y muy bien logradas. De impacto comercial tiene, a "Caricia y Herida," "Ya Me Olvidaste," "Cosas Como Tu," "Ríete Ahora." Varias de los surcos pertenecen a la inspiración del propio Vázquez y el álbum titulado también "Caricia y Herida."

Cowsills' Live LP

The Cowsills recorded their first "live" album at the University of Illinois on Dec. 13. In charge of sound for the recording will be Hanley Sound Company. It will most likely be released in mid-April.

media in California and record some new songs for Capitol . . . Several labels are having difficulties contacting the organizers of the Festival of the Latin Song of the World, which is supposed to take place in Mexico shortly. We were informed that the person to contact was Mr. Mario de la Piedra from Telesistema Mexicano, S.A., but it seems that there have been some changes regarding this matter. Will the organizers clarify this?

Discomoda released a new album by Raquel Castaños in Venezuela containing "Those Were the Days," "Romeo and Julieta," "Se Fué," "A Todas Tomas por Tontas," others . . . Lucho Gatica and Everardo Ordaz will perform next month in Miami . . . Columbia is strongly promoting a new single containing "Borracho" by Javier Solís . . . Musart just released an album by Monna Bell . . . RCA is selling "Copitas Copotas," an album by Los Dos Reales.

Cesar Altamirano recorded "Cuando Yo Vuelva a mi Tierra" which is included in his new album released by Iempsa in Peru. This song is becoming a smash in several territories by Barbara and Dick on RCA and has possibilities of becoming as big as "Cuando Salí de Cuba" . . . Peret and his Gypsy Rhumba should sell big in the states. This great album was released several weeks ago by Columbia . . . Codiscos released in Columbia a great instrumental by Panicaly titled "Los Exitos de Hoy." Superb renditions and ditto repertoire! . . . Of course, the title reads "Hits of Today" and it could also read "and Yesterday" . . . "Cuando" (Felipe Gil) by Carlos Lico could be a smash in the states. This song was released by Capitol in a single which also contains "Soy" (Paco Chanona) that could also smash everywhere.

ing given the new young writers of today which, in his opinion, is resulting in the finest pop music ever written. Chuck Blore of Chuck Blore Creative Services played several of his firm's commercial spots and called radio the the most avant garde media of advertising where there is still plenty of room for experimentation. Comedian Pat Paulsen closed the morning session with a monologue on new directions, "In American Life."

Conyers on Communications

Friday's luncheon guest speaker was Congressman John Conyers, Jr., Member of the House of Representatives, Michigan First District, who spoke on the lack of communication between white and black America and radio's role as the medium to transport the message of communication. To stress the importance of radio, the congressman pointed out the fact that 100% of ghetto homes have radios in contrast to a much less percentage who subscribe to newspapers or have TV.

Friday's afternoon panel discussion was devoted to New Directions in Record Merchandising and In Audience Research. Representing the record industry were Irwin Steinberg of Mercury Records, Amos Heilicher of Pickwick International and Dennis Laventhal of Consolidated Distributors in Seattle.

Steinberg used a slide presentation to show the impersonal aspect of today's market which is primarily a rack market, and said the final commercial truth is in the marketing process and employing visual and audio exposure of the product. He also said that because of the impersonal market that exists today, the record business more than ever needs effective radio support.

John Sipple, Product Manager of Mercury Records, spoke on the need to fortify the gains made in marketing methods through creative services such as counter displays, tie-in promotions and TV exposure. Amos Heilicher explained his firm's use of computer ticketing which gives them daily figures on the movement of their top selling LPs.

In Audience Research, radio was represented by Kent Burkhardt, VP and General Manager of WQXI; Betty Breneman, Chief Music Counsel for Drake-Chenault; and Buzz Bennett of WTIK. Mrs. Breneman spoke on the Drake group of station's methods of using retail sales and requests as a guide to making up their playlists, and Entre todos los discos de última edición, hay uno que sobresale, que nos ha llamado la atención, no precisamente por los temas expuestos, cuanto por su intérprete.

El sello es uno de esos pequeños, que muchas veces pasan desapercibidos y en cuando hay una oportunidad crecen y se agigantan a tal punto que impresionan su desarrollo.

El Sello es DISNA, las canciones "Corazón Loco" y "Esperaré," y el intérprete Eduardo Erazo.

DISNA, parece que nació por la emotividad de unos cuantos muchachos de querer grabar exclusivamente con artistas jóvenes de nuestro país; de descubrir y dar a conocer nuevos valores, de hacer realidad en los acetatos las aspiraciones de aquellos artistas que quieren profesionalizarse y exteriorizar sus cualidades interpretativas en el folklore nacional o internacional.

"Corazón loco" es una apasionante historia de tres, en la que se narra la desesperación de un amor ilícito; y "Esperaré" una de las celebradas canciones de Manzanero que "encaja" en la tesitura de voz de Erazo.

Eduardo Erazo: la esforzada figura que como primera, segunda, tercera o cuarta voz siempre ha mantenido su nombre en la marquesina de los astros.

Joins Discos CBS

Argentine singer Daniel Riolobos, who became an internationally known star while living in Mexico, has just signed with Discos CBS, CBS International's Argentine subsidiary, in Buenos Aires. He recently won first prize in the Buenos Aires Song Festival with his latest single, "No Es un Juego el Amor." This single is being immediately released in the states and will be followed by a Columbia LP early next year.

By IRENE W. JOHNSON

Ray Crume, WAME, Miami, Fla., reports "Jordan River," Rev. Oris Mays, Songbird; "If I Can Help Somebody," Harmonizing Four, Atlantic; "Give Me More Faith," Willie Morganfield, Jewel; "Jesus Will Fix It," Caravans, Hob; "I Believe I'll Go Back Home," Davis Sisters, Savoy; "Precious Lord (Part 1 & 2)," Aretha Franklin, Chess; "Walls of Jerusalem," Nightengales, Peacock; "Someone To Care," Rev. Cleophus Robinson, Peacock; "I'll Wait Right Here," Rev. Charles Taylor, Hob; and "In That Little Town," Dorothy Norwood, Savoy, as the top 10 tunes in his area.

Irene W. Johnson

Happy to learn that Brother Ira Tucker of the Dixie Hummingbirds is doing fine and did not suffer injuries in a recent automobile accident.

Marvin Elder Jr., Southwest, Ohio, top 10 tunes are: "A Prayer," Rev. C. T. Nelson, Staff; "Pray for Me," Mighty Clouds of Joy, Peacock; "Blessed Assurance," Cassietta George, Audio Gospel; "No Man Is an Island," Dorothy Norwood & Singers, Savoy; "Free at Last," James Cleveland, Savoy; "Till My Change Comes," Gospel Harmonettes, Nashboro; "Steal Away," Galatians, King; "Stand Up and Be Counted," Meditation Singers, Checker; "The Lifeline," the Gospel Martinettes, Shiloh; "And What the World Needs Now," Cassietta George, Audio Gospel.

The Pilgrim Jubilees organized over 20 years ago in Houston, Miss. Having moved to Chicago in the early '50s, they got their big chance in the Chicago-recorded "Stretch Out" for Peacock Records and it was a tremendous success. Since that time they've had many big records. Sometime ago they recorded "My Soul" and for a long time they did not sing this song on concerts. Quite recently they chose to sing "My Soul" as a theme and it is breaking out anew as if it were a new release, so give it a listen, will you?

The Mighty Clouds of Harmony of Brooklyn, N.Y., are presently touring with the Mighty Clouds of Joy. The Clouds of Harmony with James Riley on lead is making a name for themselves everywhere they go as the "house wreckers." They appeared in Tampa, Fla., Sunday, Nov. 24, for Goldie Thompson.

George Tanner, KCIJ, Shreveport, La., is a 25-year veteran in radio. He was first on the air six years at KWKH (50,000 watts) then was at KCIJ 17 years ago when they first came on the air. He was at KTBS, KENT and KANB for four years doing R&B, jazz, gospel and a bit of country and western and is now back at KCIJ for the past four years. He has held No. 1 ratings in his area for 25 years and I hope he'll have continued success.

The top tunes in the Shreveport area as reported by George Tanner are: "Garden of Prayer," James Cleveland, Savoy; "Practice What You Preach," Violinaires, Checker; "Since Jesus Came into My Heart," Ernest Franklin, Checker; "I'm Glad," the Williams Brothers and Sis Lee Ida Brown, Songbird; "Nobody Knows," the Singing Corinthians, Songbird; and "If I Had a Hammer," Songbird.

Joan Golden, WLOK, Memphis, Tenn., reports "Plant My Feet," Savoy; "Somewhere Around God's Throne," Harold Boggs, Nashboro; "Someone Who Cares," Rev. Cleophus Robinson, Peacock; "God Never Fails," So. West Mich. Choir, Savoy; "Look Up and Live," James Cleveland, Savoy; "Just a Closer Walk With Thee," Gladys Knights, Motown; "Close to Thee," Inez Andrews, Songbird; "Sinner He's Calling," the Gospel Keys, Grace; "Institutional Choir," Atlantic; and "My Soul," Pilgrim Jubilees, Peacock.

Beechy Thompson and James Davis of the Dixie Hummingbirds are back on the road after a short illness.

Congratulations to Prof. Robert Banks, formerly of MGM Records, who has formed his own company, Robere Records, Inc., 195 First Street, 14K, Newark, N.J. a/c 201-484-7625.

At present he has three albums and three singles to be released at an early date. This company is solely owned by Prof. Banks. He has devoted over 25 years of his life to the production of gospel music. Joe Bostic in N.Y.C. and Joe Crand in New Jersey have been quite helpful to Prof. Banks, but more is needed.

On Friday, Dec. 20, the Anthony Hilliard Singers who record for Robere Records will appear at Christ Temple, Washington, D.C.; Sunday, Dec. 22, Ebenezer Bapt. Church New Orleans, La.; Sunday, Dec. 29, Lyons Chapel Bapt. Church—Luback, Texas. For dates on this group contact Prof. Robert Banks.

Dorothy Norwood and Her Singers currently riding high "The Stories Behind The Songs," Savoy, really took Washington, D.C., by storm on their visit recently. The famous Banks Brothers and the Back Home Choir of New Jersey, well remembered for the hit recording "Lord I Tried," have just recorded for Savoy.

The new Patterson Singers LP is now in Miami, Fla. on WAME. This release is on United Artists (Veep).

James Herndon and the Herndon Singers of Chicago made a successful trip to the East Coast, their first, on Nov. 17, appearing for Rev. Lawrence Roberts and congregation at the 11 a.m. service, First Baptist Church in Nutley, N.J., and then travelled on to thrill a large crowd in Washington, D.C., that evening. Pauline W. Lewis of WSID, Baltimore, and Calvin Hackett of WUST Washington, D.C., were on hand to MC special guests including Bill Coleman, Promotion Manager for Savoy Records.

Jerome Johnson, PD WERD, Atlanta, Ga., reports "You Better Get Right," Willie Morganfield, Jewel; "Oh Lord Why Lord," Los Pop Tops, Calla; "Someone To Care," Cleophus Robinson, Peacock; "Long Walk to D.C.," Staple Singers, Stax; "Strong Determination," Swanee Quintet, Creed; "Did You Stop to Pray," Gospelairs, Peacock; "Jordan River," Shirley Caesar, Hob; "Holy Ghost," I. Ellison Five Singing Stars, Hob; "Walk With Me," Erskine Faush, Jewel; and "Just a Closer Walk With Thee," Gladys Knight, Motown, as the top 10 singles.

WERD's Top Albums: "You Better Get Right," Willie Morganfield, Jewel; "Till My Change Comes," Gospel Harmonettes, Nashboro; "The Calm Was Restored," Rev. David Robinson, Jewel; "Hello Glory—land," Grace Gospel Singers; "Tuska Grace," Institutional Church Choir, Atlantic.

On Sunday, Nov. 10, the Swan Silvertone Singers and the Brooklyn All Stars were presented keys to the city at the Municipal Auditorium in New Orleans by the mayor of the city during a gospel concert.

Kitty Parham and her Stars of Faith have just completed a three-and-a-half-week tour of nine countries with "Jazz Expo '68" featuring Count Basie, Horace Silver, Muddy Waters, Carla Thomas and Dizzy Gillespie. The Stars of Faith represented the gospel field. In a recent conversation with Kitty I was told that it was a great success.

A new release on the International Youth Congress Choir of the Churches of God in Christ can be expected Dec. 16 on the Hob label. This choir is under the direction of Kitty Parham. The title of the LP is "Hold Out."

For dates on the Gospel Star Lite Review of 1969 featuring the Pilgrim Jubilees, the Violinaires and other groups to be announced later, write to Major Robinson, 1784 N. Dayton Street, Chicago, Ill., or call a/c 312-337-3282.

For dates on the Loving Sisters of Little Rock, Ark. write to Gladys G. McFadden, 2624 Cross Street, Little Rock, Ark., or call FR-5-4157. A new album entitled "A Tribute to Dr. Martin Luther King Jr." can be expected on Peacock by the Loving Sisters very soon.

For dates on the Dixie Hummingbirds and the Sons of the Birds write Beechy Thompson, 1522 Euclid St., Phila., Pa.

'Little Angel' a First

Henry Lewis, President of Henry Productions, Ltd., of Glen Burnie, Md., announces release of the company's first single on the Rae label: "The Little Angel in Our House," a Christmas single inspired by Lewis' three-year-old daughter, b/w "Sleep, Dear Child of Love," written, produced and performed by Lewis, and released in conjunction with the Cedarwood Publishing Company.

Henry Productions is an independent production firm, and will concentrate on producing masters by top talent, some of which the company will place, and some of which it will release on its own Balloon Records label. He has appeared at top clubs in the Washington, D.C., area for the last few years.

London Lowdown

By JEAN GRIFFITHS

LONDON—The documentary film of Bob Dylan's '65 British tour, "Don't Look Back," will be shown at London's Middle Earth club this week-end. The film also features Joan Baez and Donovan . . . "Ob La Di Ob La Da" is winning the race, so far, for the most covered track from the new Beatles album. The Marmalade's version on CBS seems hot favorite at the moment . . . the Beach Boys flew into London this week with long hair and beards very much in evidence. A reception at the London Hilton launches them on the start of their 10-day British tour. Released to tie in with their visit is the single, "Bluebirds Over the Mountain." Barry Ryan appears in the Beach Boys' concert for the first time as a solo artist. His record of "Eloise" got to No. 1, so this should give him all the confidence he needs . . . Liberty Records of London confirms they will hold the cost of their Budget line label, Sunset, at the current price of 17/6 and will not pass on the increased purchase tax . . . Grapefruit group have now broken away from the Apple complex and intend to go it alone. Their single, "Someday Soon," released here on Stateside was produced by Terry Melcher on his recent trip to London . . . Frank Ifield's opening at London's night spot Talk of the Town almost turned into a complete tribute to Roger Miller . . . The Tremeloes version of "I Shall Be Released" sounds like a hit from the word go . . . Billy Joe Royal is still looking for a chart entry this side of the Atlantic. Maybe his "Gabriel" will give it to him . . . Despite the untimely death of singer Joy Marshall, at her parents' request the Toast label will issue her last record, "And I'll Find You" . . . Murray Kash's new disk is a Pick of the Week with the English press . . . Gun in great demand now that their record, "Race With The Devil," has shot into the charts.

The rank and file will be there, and also Wendland's producer, Horst Hartmann . . . Christmas is inching in, and the first card to reach me was attached to a big ten pound Kosher salami which Dick Voltter of Shapiro, Bernstein mails me each Christmas . . . Peter M. Majewski rushed me an exciting tape of Friedel Berlipp waxing . . . "Bola Mexicana," which both Berlipp and Gunter Tilgert dreamed up. Not a bad dream! . . . Horst Fuchs really producing 'em these days. He just waxed one of Germany's leading comedians, Wolfgang Gruner. They're both laughing watching the sales roll in . . . Bernie Lang thanked and thanked me for making the breakout for his Archies in Germany. I had the Calendar record going away before Teldec decided to release it . . . Heinz Gietz, genius in music, just released a heartrending single on his Cornet label by famous actress Tilla Durieux . . . Holland Happenings

By WILL J. LUIKINGA

A promo campaign has been organized by Iramac's William Duys and Pim Jacobs for the best albums on the Saba-MPS and project 3 line. Coupled with big sales efforts, the action includes Urbie Green, Oscar Peterson, Eugen Cicero and Dave Pike. For this occasion Iramac released "a total sound promotion album," featuring Project 3's biggest artists . . . On Dec. 14 Holland is expecting the Beach Boys, who will do one concert and a television show . . . More and more American record companies see the interest in film clips of their artists. It's a very good means to promote the groups who can not come to the Continent. Bovema got a film of Steppenwolf with "Magic Carpet Ride" which has been placed on the television program, "Doebidoe" . . . MCA star Leapy Lee visited our country for TV promotion of his "Little Arrow" and his new album . . . Two Dutch groups presented their latest releases last week: The Cats with their second LP and Schlagergezelschap De Hyacint who presented their first single, "We Were As Happy As My Uncle Ray." The Cats could not get more publicity than they have already with their first place on the charts for the second week with "Lea" . . . Dureco's group the Gee Brothers did it again with their latest single, "Henry The Horse" . . . Phonogram's Label Manager John Ros rush-released new LPs by Tom Jones and John Mayall. Jones' LP, "Help Yourself," will be a tremendous seller without doubt, while Mayall's "Blues From Laurel Canyon" had good advance orders . . . Decca's long-awaited Rolling Stones album, "Beggars Banquet," was released Dec. 4 in Holland. Press reviews on the album were very enthusiastic and stated this was the best LP the group had recorded for a long time: The Equals visited Holland Dec. 5 to record their part of a national TV show. The group did their new record, "Softly Softly." . . . "Rudi The Red Nosed Reindeer" by the Steam Shovel has a very nice sound with hit possibilities . . . CNR Records is very busy now with three hits in the Dutch hit parade and moving to a new home in university town Leyden, between Amsterdam and Rotterdam . . . The Marvels were in Holland for a television show. Old-timer Eddy Christiani recorded an LP with 12 instrumentals, "Continental Tour." Label Manager Anco Dragt of CNR sold this album to Italy and France . . . Dureco released this week the first album of the 43-year-old Moe van Mil. This mother of 10 kids composed all the songs for this album. It could be a tremendous seller.

At Bill Gavin Meet, Las Vegas

their aim to have a balanced playlist so that the total sound and image of the station is always recognizable to the audience.

Buzz Bennett told how his station uses research and demographics to determine a hit quickly and consequently increase the frequency of airplay. He made the point that available statistics are usually inadequate and stations should innovate with research to obtain a knowledge of their market resulting in a successful operation.

Re Smaller Markets

Friday's activities ended with a cocktail reception hosted by Janet and Bill Gavin. Saturday morning's session was devoted to "Smaller Market Radio" and "Top 40 Radio." First speaker on the smaller market theme was Buddy Deane, KOTN, Pine Bluff, Ark., who named the need of qualified personnel as one of the major problems facing stations in smaller markets. Rod Tanner, PD of KOTN, said that smaller stations also do research and can give early reaction on a record and give record companies an experimental look at what is happening.

Woody Roberts, Manager, KTSA, San Antonio, said that most problems existing in smaller markets are with the record distributor, and the record companies are making a mistake by ignoring the smaller markets. Jim Davenport, Manager, WFOM, Marietta, Ga., also mentioned the problem of personnel and suggested smaller stations make a special effort to attract and keep competent personnel.

Guest speaker Douglas A. Anello, Legal Counsel, National Association of Broadcasters, warned of the legal hazards involved in contests and station promotions.

The most provocative discussion of the meet was the "Top 40 Radio" panel. Main theme of the discussion was expressed by Paul Drew, Program Consultant, WIBG, Philadelphia, who expressed the opinion that top 40 appeals to a minority audience; and Pat O'Day, Manager KJR, Seattle, who said that top 40 radio has become inbred and that good music stations are now dominating the market.

Bud Dain, General Manager of Liberty Records, brought up the problem of top 40 radio not playing album cuts, and the fact that most independent producers today want to record albums and not singles. According to Dain, most of the new groups are being broken via underground radio and airplay of album cuts. Dain felt the solution would be for top 40 music directors to contact labels and retailers to find out which particular cut is selling an album and use this as a guide to programming. (See separate story on page 3 for Joe Smith's comments.)

Closing note of the discussion—which was much too short—was expressed by O'Day and Drew: that radio and record personnel can be hopeful of future cooperation.

Saturday's luncheon speaker was Goddard Lieberman, President, CBS/Columbia Group, who brought up the question of how much attention is really paid to music by the people who are most deeply involved in it. He urged his audience to stop thinking about "product" and start thinking about music, especially because so many exciting things are happening in the new music.

In speaking to programmers, Lieberman asked that they don't play it safe all the time with records that are listed, numbered and charted but listen to the new things that they can share with their listeners.

Labels Deserve Credit

Tom Donahue opened the FM radio panel discussion with the remark that FM although not #1 in a market can still enjoy a healthy rating by catering to the 18-34 age group with good music. He also said record companies deserve credit for experimenting with new music while gambling on airplay. George Duncan, Manager, WNEW-FM, said that underground music does not exist as such, but FM took the records that AM radio was not playing and programmed them for an existing market.

Don Graham, National Promotion Director, A&M Records, called attention to the current importance of FM radio which is reflected in the price of time, and the fact that FM broadcasters will continue to experiment as they are not bound by tradition.

R&B Dj Salaries Discussed

At the Rhythm and Blues panel, the improvement of R&B disk jockey salaries was a major point. It was mentioned, though, that R&B stations themselves don't make sufficient income to make upped dj salaries feasible. It was further noted that when NATRA meets, station owner attendance is almost nil. Tom Donahue asked John Hardy of KDIA, San Francisco, why R&B stations weren't playing records by the blues giants, such as Albert King, whose LP Donahue's underground station broke into a hit. Hardy countered with: "We're long past that kind of thing," meaning that R&B is in a more contemporary groove.

Availability C&W Problem

The well attended Country and Western music segment conducted by WJRZ' Lee Arnold, brought out the fact that many country records are not available in urban markets, particularly New York. Wally Cochran of RCA Victor said he realized this, and would see that his distributors were more aware. Disk jockey Chris Lane felt there was a need to get the demographics to reduce the feeling that agencies and sponsors have preconceived notions about who is responsive to C&W music.

Another disk jockey, Biff Collie, spoke as a dealer, too, and mentioned the problem that one clerk can foul up sales "by not caring." Collie's own experience was that there were occasions when, knowing a record was available, he found that the record company had no knowledge of its existence.

Moon Mullins, also a dj, thought that the CMA should familiarize more people with C&W music at every label. CMA's Jo Walker mentioned the presentations made to agencies and time-buyers throughout the country in the past couple of years, at great expense to CMA, adding that CMA would nevertheless be happy to make available presentations—provided they were updated—to those interested.

Bill Farr, Columbia VP, noted that his label is making a concerted effort to beef up their Country and Western department, and is striving to know the customer better.

Another problem cited: some labels were felt to be cutting country artists too pop, thereby losing the country buyers. Another area to be worked on, it was voiced by some, is to have radio stations strive for better communications with rack jobbers and one stops in their areas.

Final panel discussion on

"Rockless Radio" was opened by the statement from James Hilliard, Manager, WIBC, Indianapolis, that top 40 radio was dead and stations should realize that the Storz-McClendon era is over. Harold Childs, Promotion A & M Records, stated that a large percentage of top LPs start on "good music" stations and label promotion men should pay more attention to these stations. Al Bramey, Melody Sales, San Francisco, felt that good music stations are not being creative, and the disk jockies should get management more involved in programming. Saturday night's banquet was MC'd by Gary Owens of KMPC, Los Angeles, and was highlighted by the announcement of the 1968 Men of the Year award winners. Sunday was devoted to a Gavin Correspondents Breakfast, a Program Directors Roundtable and a News Directors Roundtable.

Club Review

Paxton One of Best

NEW YORK — Elektra's Tom Paxton opened brightly at the Bitter End last Wednesday night (11) for a two-week engagement. He brought some old, some new songs of protest together with songs about love and children.

Paxton runs the gamut of emotions. His ability to look at a situation, interpret it and weave it into an emotional experience makes him one of the best. You could see the character take shape in each of his songs; the backward glance of sadness in "Ramblin' Boy," the fun and gaiety in "Bottle of Wine," his thoughts on society in "Mr. Blue" and his capacity for love in "The Last Thing on My Mind."

A voice of the future was heard in the form of Jubilee's Emmylou Harris. A distinct original style, displaying itself in a sort, bright, pretty frame, could describe Emmylou. This reviewer was totally involved, in her music and songs as well as her delivery. A talented as well as beautiful addition to the folk scene.—John Sanna.

BMI Releases C/W Catalogue

A 36-page catalogue, "BMI Country Hits 1944-1968," is being distributed by Broadcast Music, Inc., the performing rights licensing organization, to music users, including both broadcast and nonbroadcast BMI licensees, newspapers, publications and affiliated BMI writers and publishers.

The booklet contains annual listings of BMI-licensed award-winning country music songs, together with the names of their writers and publishers affiliated with BMI, which have gained national acceptance as measured by consistent appearance in the music business trade press. The lists begin at the year 1944, the first year during which meaningful charts were first devoted to juke box play, record and sheet music sales and broadcaster use of country music.

In 1967, BMI first applied the measurement of broadcast use solely to the selection of songs, writers and publishers to be honored with BMI Citations of Achievement for popularity in the country music field.

record world's NASHVILLE REPORT

By PAUL PERRY

Tom T. Hall, one of Music City U.S.A.'s supreme songsmiths, is rapidly becoming one of country music's top recording artists. Tom's "Ballad of Forty Dollars" is looking more and more like a number one platter for the fellow who penned such hits as "Harper Valley P.T.A.," "Hello Vietnam" and "I Washed My Face In The Morning Dew." He also received special citation during the recent Nashville Songwriters Association presentations.

Buses are making the news this week with Stonewall Jackson in the process of purchasing a new multi-modern job to replace his present van and Charlie Louvin's rig burning to the ground while he and his band were on tour in Oklahoma. A mechanic had taken Louvin's bus for repairs while Charlie was performing at the Canadian Club in Oklahoma City and on the way to return the bus it caught fire and was demolished before fire trucks could make it to the scene.

Paul Perry

Appearing on Joey Bishop's ABC-TV color-cast Dec. 15 was Mr. Guitar, Chet Atkins. Atkins picks on Mike Douglas' TV gig Dec. 23. Roger Miller has been in town for recording sessions under Jerry Kennedy's direction at Mercury. Miller, who waxes on the Smash label, will in the future place songs that he writes with his own publishing company as his pact with Tree has expired.

George Richey is leaving Columbia as A & R man to return to Hollywood and do the same job for Capitol. George had only resided here for six months.

A benefit show to be held in behalf of Eddie Hill is now being planned for January by WLAC-TV here and the Country Music Association. Hill is still recuperating from a stroke suffered last summer. . . . Lawton Williams has shifted his home base from Fort Worth to Nashville. Williams is remembered most for his writing of "Fraulein" back in 1957. . . . Alice Joy, who figured so big indirectly in the big hit "Harper Valley P.T.A.," has a new single on Pete Drake and Tommy Hill's Stop Records label.

LONDON — The Blueboys have been busy touring the U.S. Bases in Germany and Britain, and doing a few public appearances. Their one-hour show at The Ranch House in London played to a large, appreciative audience that braved the cold wind and rain. Bud Logan and the Blueboys have just had an RCA single release here with their visit, "What Am I Doing Hanging Around," that they featured during the program and in their "Country Meets Folk" radio appearance on BBC.

Supporting acts at the Ranch House along with the Blueboys were two top English country groups, the Johnny Young Four and the Tumbleweeds. The latter group have just finished a successful tour of Italy, and are looking forward to playing in the states and Canada some time during 1969.

Murray Kash

While more and more country records are getting air time on radio, the television companies are beginning to feature it as well. MC of the "Country Meets Folk" series Wally Whyton will be doing a regular weekly show for Tyne Tees Television in Newcastle, while popular country performer Lorne Gibson has a country show coming up in the New Year in Aberdeen for Grampian TV.

Saga very pleased with their sale of bluegrass specialists Tom and Smiley. Over 10,000 LPs have been sold in the last few months, and the orders are still pouring in. MCA reports a substantial increase in their country record sales since their massive campaign and release of six country albums in October. Visiting VP Dick Broderick was very pleased with the country music scene, and predicted more big sales for MCA artists like Conway Twitty and the Lonely Blueboys who are doing a British, Irish and Continental tour in March and April of 1969. This is just one of the venues lined up by promoter Mervyn Conn for the coming year. Also in the offing, an RCA package with Chet Atkins, Floyd Cramer and Boots Randolph, scheduled for February and March. Unlike their visit of several years ago, they will be playing to the public in places like the Royal Albert Hall in London. Should be a blockbuster!

Meanwhile, the International Country Music Festival, on April 5, 1969, for Wembley Pool has become the most talked-about event of the year. Record companies, music publishers, musical instrument manufacturers will all be displaying their wares on stands around the auditorium during the day.

In the evening, the three-hour show reads like a Who's Who of Country Music. The Box Office is being inundated by the public for tickets, despite the fact that they don't go on sale until the first week in January! Invitations have gone out to Marty Robbins, Johnny Cash, Bobbie Gentry and Glen Campbell, among others.

Pickwick busy turning out their country albums. Volume One of the British Country Music Festival has been selling well all over the country. A copy was sent to the Country Music Hall of Fame in Nashville, and in reply, the librarian sent a letter to Pickwick saying what a fine example it was of pure country music. Future albums by Pickwick on their Hallmark label by various British performers: Brian Chalker, the Kentuckians, the Big Timers and the Orange Blossom Sound.

'Harper' Aussie Gold

NASHVILLE — "Harper Valley PTA," already recipient of three gold records and a gold tape cartridge stateside in addition to a gold record in Canada, has now been certified for another in Australia.

The non-stopping hit—sung by Jeannie C. Riley on the Plantation label and penned by Tom T. Hall—is also cresting the charts in South Africa, Denmark and Sweden.

Rogers Joins Smith

Hal Smith Artists Productions announces the signing of Columbia artist David Rogers of Atlanta. David is currently riding the charts with his recording of "You Touched My Heart."
