Holiday Sales Bigger Than Ever in 1967

The Christmas selling season started remarkably well last week when the Friday and Saturday after Thanksgiving, traditionally big business days, were better than ever for a number of dealers. Record World contacted.

Ben Karol of King Karol in New York said, "It's the best Thanksgiving week-end we ever had. Everything coincided to make it perfect. The weather. The product. Percentage-wise the week-end was 40% better than the same week-end last year."

Ethan Caston of Wallich's Music City in Hollywood said, "We practically doubled our business over the last week."

Korvette's: Tremendous

David Rothfeld of Korvette's in New York said, "We had tremendous sales. Sales broke wide open for the season."

Charlie Simms of the White Front stores in Los Angeles said, "Business was very, very good."

New York's Sam Goody said, "Business was as usual and it was good."

Chappell Music To Be Sold Only 3 Firms Permitted to Bid Price May Be $40-50,000,000

NEW YORK — Chappell Music, one of largest music publishing firms in the world, is about to be sold and only three companies are being permitted to bid for it by the trustee of the Louis and Max Dreyfus estates, it was learned by Record World last week. The companies are ATV of London, Metromedia and Columbia Pictures.

The trustee, the Morgan Guaranty Trust Co. of N.Y., has indicated to other inquiring parties that bids from no other firms will be entertained. The reason for this limitation is that the trustee wishes to sell Chappell to an enterprise which at the moment is not engaged in the music publishing business so as to better insure the continuous employment of the present staff, most of whom were longtime associates of the Dreyfus brothers, who themselves were active in the firm until their deaths in their nineties. The thinking is that if Chappell were bought by a presently functioning music firm, the new owners would consolidate it into their own operation and use their own personnel.

When asked whether a trustee of an estate was not legally bound to get the highest price possible, a representative of the trustee replied that there was no such legal requirement.

Among Chappell Interests

The Chappell interests include not only the music publishing firms, founded by the Dreyfus brothers and built by them into one of the giants of the music publishing industry owning copyrights of great standards by such writers as Richard Rodgers, Oscar Hammerstein, Lorenz Hart, Cole Porter, etc., but also the Chappell Piano Co. in England and large real estate holdings, including prime locations on Bond Street in London. It has been estimated that the entire estate may be valued at between 40 and 50 million dollars.

The three companies designated to bid are now making their analyses and will very shortly submit their offers. If no satisfactory offer is made by any of the three, the trustee, it is reported, will then either name three more acceptable purchasers or offer the estate to the highest bidder.

Uni Buys Kapp Labels Separate Entities

As announced last week by Lew Wasserman, President and Chief Exec of MCA, Inc., latter's recently formed, successful Uni label has purchased Kapp Records and its subsidiaries.

Both the Uni and Kapp labels will be retained as separate entities in New York and Los Angeles, with the operation of both companies under the direction of Ned Tannen, Vice-President of Universal Records, Inc. Russ Regan will continue to head up the Uni label, while the responsibility and operation of Kapp will continue to be in the hands of the present management with David Kapp continuing in an advisory executive capacity and as an active producer.

The meeting for the announcement was chaired in New York by Berle Adams, MCA Vice President, who

Golden Records Buys Wonderland

NEW YORK — Golden Records has purchased the Wonderland children's line, 87 masters in toto, from Orpheum, Al Masler of Golden Records announced last week.

The records will be re-packaged and issued on the Golden Wonderland label.

Masler said he expects that most of the albums will be released before the end of 1968.

The first releases will feature such artists as Vivien Leigh, Cyril Ritchard, Noel Harrison, Sir Ralph Richardson, Robert Morley, Alec Templeton, Martyn Green and well-known children's writer Fiona Bentley.

Lloyd Leipzig Named Colgems VP

Colgems Records which has risen in little over a year of existence to become a top-grossing label, has set Lloyd Leipzig as Vice President of the Columbia-Pictures-Screen Gems recording division, announces Lester Sill, Vice President and General Manager of the diskery.

Leipzig will headquarter in New York City and will supervise the division's East Coast operation, working in tandem with Emil La Viola, Vice-President and General Manager of the Columbia Pictures-Screen Gems music publishing arm, and reporting directly to Sill who will continue to base in Hollywood. A major portion of his duties will be in maintaining liaison and working closely with all domestic and international divisions of RCA Victor which distributes Colgems globally.

Leipzig will also maintain liaison with the parent firm, Columbia Pictures, which now has rolling the most impressive array of productions in its long history. These include Lionel Bart's "Oliver," scored by the veteran Johnny Green; the screen version of the best-seller, "In Cold Blood" with music by Quincy Jones, and "McKenna's Gold," an outdoor epic with an all-star cast headed by Gregory Peck and music score by Dimitri Tiomkin, all forthcoming soundtracks. Jonie Taps is the studio executive in charge of music and soundtracks for Columbia producers throughout the world.

Leipzig will back-up Sill in continuing the close ties which have been established with Screen Gems successful television production organization, and with such major video shows as "The Monkees" and "The Flying Nun." Domestically, the Monkees are rapidly approaching the 15 million mark in album sales and the 10 million mark in singles sales, with comparative figures overseas, and have sparked the rise of Colgems. Sally Field—"The Flying Nun"—is shaping up to be another runaway hit act via her current single and album.

Leipzig came to Colgems after four years as Director of Creative Services for United Artists Records, where he supervised the activities of the Publicity and Advertising Departments for UA, handled artists relations and was liaison for the record firm with the parent film company and the music publishing arm.

Prior to UA, Leipzig served

MGM Profits Up 44% Over Last Year

Highest In History

NEW YORK—MGM Records profits were the highest in its 20-year history in 1967 with a figure 44% above the previous year, it is revealed.

The improved profit picture comes at a time when the trend within the industry seems to be moving in the opposite direction—higher sales but lower profits. This MGM Records profits information follows the release of the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, Inc., annual report which declared the fiscal year 1967 as a record sales year as well for the disk wing.

This is the second year in a row that MGM Records has established all-time highs in its upward trend in both sales and profits.

In accounting for the dramatic rise in profits as well as gross sales, MGM Records President Mort L. Nasatir (who took over the label's helm in 1965) said: "New talent, diversification and expansion have made MGM an industry leader and our plans are to stay out in front with new artists, new concepts and new promotional and marketing ideas."

Signed New, Hit Artists

In addition to the signing of the new hit artists of 1967 such as Janis Ian, the Mothers of Invention, the Cowsills, Every Mothers' Son, etc., MGM was most successful in recording new sales and profits in the international market, the pre-recorded tape industry, company-owned branch operations and the distribution of Deutsche Grammophon product in the United States.

Publishers - Labels Face Biz Crisis in London

LONDON—A crisis may be approaching in the British music business as of January, 1968.

The publishers have asked for an increase in the Statutory Record Royalty rate from 6¼% to 10%. The record companies represented by the BRPA (British Record Producers Association) have not only turned this proposal down but have refused to enter into any negotiation with the publishers, as represented by the MRS (Mechanical Right Society).

BRPA has instructed their members, as of Jan. 1, 1968, to deal only with publishing companies who will not only accept the old royalty rate of 6¼% but also grant various concessions such as sleeve allowance, etc., which are part of an agreement between MRS and BRPA which expires on Dec. 31, 1967.

The MRS was having a meeting of all its members Nov. 27 at PRS House to decide what definitive steps can now be taken by the publishing members of the MRS to protect their interests.

ABC Sets Jan. Meets

Repeating the successful format of its fall product meetings, ABC Records has firmed up arrangements for three regional distributor meetings to be held the first week in January, presenting new album releases from its owned and distributed labels.

Los Angeles is the site of ABC's first meeting, at the Century Plaza Hotel on Tuesday, Jan. 2, to be attended by Western distributors of the ABC labels. Attending from ABC Records' home office will be Larry Newton, Howard Stark, Loren Becker and Bud Katzel, joined by West Coast executives Jay Lasker and Irwin Garr.

On Thursday, Jan. 4, ABC will host a Midwestern distributor convention in Chicago at the Continental Hotel, attended by the four home office executives; and on Saturday, Jan. 6, New York City's Plaza Hotel is the location for the Eastern distributor meeting.

At all meetings, breakfast will be followed by a specially-produced audio-visual light show of new album product

Late Flast:

Before the MRS meeting, it was announced that Sir Joseph Lockwood and Sir Edward Lewis representing the record companies had agreed to meet William Ricketts and Alan Holmes representing the publishers and open negotiations regarding a settlement of the dispute on Dec. 1.

Pick Hits

SALVATION

ABC ABC/S 623.

New ABC push group, Salvation, bring some of their San Francisco stylings to wax here. They operate in the folk-rock school and use the basic tenets of that genre to compose and render raucous and sweet tunes.

THE BEST OF ARTHUR PRYSOCK NUMBER 2
Verve V/V6-5038.

Full voice and open wide is the Prysock mode of singing. And it couldn't be more valid with a ballad. "Full Moon and Empty Arms," "My Funny Valentine," "Let There Be Love," "All or Nothing at All." The best.

THE MAGIC GARDEN

THE 5TH DIMENSION—
Soul City SCM 91001; SCS 92001.

Out in their song garden picking posies, the 5th Dimension have found some pretty petals. The album has a prologue and epilogue to set off the musical happenings. "Paper Cup" is just one of the enticing cuts.

HUGH BASEKELA IS ALIVE AND WELL AT THE WHISKEY

Uni (7)3015.

Hugh's toot toots are with it, man, and on top of it. He's got his own "Son of Ice Bag" on the sides and he also takes a little Miles Davisish dive into "A Whiter Shade of Pale." "Up, Up and Away," "Ha Lese Le Di Khanna."

MEMPHIS GOLD VOLUME TWO

VARIOUS ARTISTS—Stax (S) 726.

I FEEL LIKE I'M FIXIN' TO DIE

COUNTRY JOE AND THE FISH—
Vanguard VRS 9266; VSD 79266.

This gang, who have a dedicated following, have a lot of fun in the recording studio and also pose a lot of pertinent musical questions as in the lead-off anti-Viet Nam song. Others are "Janis," "Who Am I."

IT'S GOT TO BE MELLOW

LEON HAYWOOD—Decca (7)4949.

The Haywood fellow who stresses the mellow tone and feel, steps out with his trio here and sometimes Leon sings and sometimes he just plays as on the two parts of "Ode to Billie Joe." "It's Got to Be Mellow," etc.

MAHARISHI MAHESH YOGI

World Pacific WPS 21446.

Maharishi Mahesh Yogi is the guru to the stars and as such is receiving a great deal of publicity he gratefully accepts as a way to spread his message: love wins over all. An album of interest.

TRY IT

THE STANDELLS—Tower A (S) 5098.

The Standells' piece of rock advice, "Try It," was controversial in some areas and so should get this new package from the boys plenty of attention. There are nine other attractive and properly gritty numbers included.

MISSION: IMPOSSIBLE

LALO SCHIFRIN—Dot DLP 3831;
DLP 25831.

Since "Mission: Impossible" darts around the globe for storylines, Lalo Schifrin has done the same for the score. The influence is Eastern European, Oriental, eastern and western excitement. Lalo also sits to the piano for a side or two.

ERNE FREEMAN HIT MAKER

Dunhill D(S) 50026.

A man of many musical moods—notes almost spring from his fingers when he raises a baton—Ernie shows what he can do with tunes, he's already done things for. "Strangers in the Night," "The World We Knew," "Red Roses for a Blue Lady."

COOL HAND LUKE

SOUNDTRACK—
Dot DLP 3833; SLP 25833.

Lalo Schifrin, who knows how to keep his very cool, has provided the tangy score from the new Paul Newman box office hit. Label may have missed a trick by leaving out the lyrics to "Plastic Jesus," the irreverent ditty Newman sings in the movie.

MAXINE BROWN'S GREATEST HITS

Wand WDM/WDS 684.

"All In My Mind," "O No, Not My Baby," "Funny," the superlative "We Can Work It Out," "It's Gonna Be Alright," "Ask Me," "I Don't Need Anything," "If You Gotta Make a Fool of Somebody," "Since I Found You" and other enticers.

GOODBYE AND HELLO

TIM BUCKLEY—Elektra EKL 4004;
EKS 7-1004.

For the most part, Tim Buckley doesn't care for today's society and he brings forth evidence, strung with poetry, to tell why. His major contribution on the disk is his title vision, an over-wrought but effective piece of folk-rock.

Groups Take Over N.Y.C.

NEW YORK — Groups were the order of the week last week hereabouts. Columbia, Mercury, Philips and Buddah Records all introduced their latest prides and joys in clubs around town.

Mercury introduced their big new push group the Ever-Green Blues Band at the Tavern-on-the-Green in a luncheon performance, and later in the week label subsidiary Philips Records unveiled its new gang, H. P. Lovecraft, at Steve Paul's Scene. The latter location, becoming increasingly popular for record industry bashes, was also the site of the introduction of Columbia's Blood, Sweat and Tears the previous evening.

One of the biggest hits was scored when Buddah bowed its family troupe, the Five Stair-steps and Cubie (the latter a three-year-old, scene-stealing drummer-singer-shingalinger), at an Arthur affair.

I'LL RELEASE YOU

JOANN BON AND THE COQUETTES—
MTA 1007; MTS 5007.

Steve Mason, the tireless devotee of the '20s and '30s, sings songs associated with Bing Crosby and Russ Columbo. The recreation of period sound is uncanny and warrants attention for Mason. "I Don't Know Why," "Ballin' the Jack."

NEW YORK—Jubilee Industries, Inc., reports substantial increases in revenues and profits for the year ended Sept. 30, 1967.

According to Jerry Blaine, President and Chairman, sales rose 21% to $6,004,564 from $4,959,684 the previous 12 month period. Earnings increased at a rapid rate to $407,286 or 70 cents per share, from $41,231 or 7 cents per share in 1966. There were 585,283 common shares outstanding in each year. There was no requirement for federal income taxes in either year because of the availability of net operating losses and investment credits.

Blaine attributed the sales and earnings increases to the addition of 10 compression presses, bringing the total to 34, and the automation of five additional injection moulding machines. Blaine said "Our major effort in 1967 went into increasing our sales and improving our manufacturing efficiency. These results show that our efforts were properly directed."

"In our current fiscal year, we are continuing to stress the increase of sales and further automation of manufacturing facilities. In addition, we will be following an expanded production program, which is already well underway," the executive concluded.

Lanier Joins Venture As Sales - Promo Mgr.

BEVERLY HILLS, CALIF.—William R. Stevenson, President of Venture Records, Inc., announces the appointment of veteran record executive Warren Lanier as National Sales and Promotion Manager.

Lanier's last two positions were in the executive promotion capacity with Decca and Motown Records.

Uni Buys Kapp

stated further that the acquisition makes Uni a force in the original Broadway cast album field since Dave Kapp has many solid connections in this area; Sal Chiantia of Leeds Music is a powerful show score publisher; and William Gallagher, coming to MCA Jan. 1 as VP, Entertainment and Leisure Time Marketing, has had great success merchandising show packages during his 15 years' tenure at Columbia.

Included among the subsidiaries and labels acquired by Uni are Four Corners of the World; Congress Records; Medallion; Trend and Kapp Audio Corp.

Decca, wholly-owned subsidiary of MCA, Inc., and a strong contributor to the MCA profit statement each year, will not be affected by Uni's expanded operation. Decca will continue to merchandise its product through company-owned distribution centers. Uni and Kapp will release through their present line up of independent distributors.

'Market Changing'

Wasserman stated: "The market for phonograph records is changing in character. New sales and promotion techniques are required, and new audiences must be reached. The automobile companies have proved that by introducing new models designed to appeal to the youth market they have increased their sales in that area without any loss of sales in other areas. We hope to achieve the same success in merchandising the Uni and Kapp labels, along with Decca."

The acquisition of Kapp Records now gives Uni and Kapp Records representation on both coasts along with a solid catalogue foundation that will enable the two labels to concentrate on the development of new artists, new material and new sounds.

Uni Records' "Incense and Peppermint" has been Number 1 on all of the charts and is approaching the million-dollar sales mark.

Kapp Records has catalogue of successful albums including the Roger Williams' albums; the original cast albums of "Man of La Mancha"; "Once Upon a Mattress"; "Man With a Load of Mischief"; Jack

Jones and a score of other leading artists.

Kapp Catalogue Full

The Kapp catalogue is filled with unusual recordings by artists like the Do-Re-Mi Children's Chorus; Louis Armstrong's "Hello Dolly"; the Gunter Kallman Chorus; Francoise Hardy and Raymond Lefevre. The Kapp 4 Corners of the World label is now recognized as a special outlet for recordings from all parts of the world.

Kapp's Country & Western catalogue is under the supervision of Paul Cohen. Country stars include Mell Tillis, Bob Wills, Cal Smith and country-folk-pop specialties by Billy Edd Wheeler.

The Kapp catalogue contains nearly 100 classical recordings including The Opera Without Words Series; The Trumpet and Orchestra Series by Roger Voisin and almost 100 rare recordings including a five-record set of the Debussy Piano Works.

BMI Announces 1st 25 Songs For Double Feature Payment

Twenty-five songs licensed for public performance by BMI have logged over one million feature broadcast performances and thereby became eligible for double performance payments.

This new policy was announced in June of this year by BMI President Robert B. Sour, who said: "BMI will pay double the normal payment rates for feature performances of each work which, as of Oct. 1, 1966, has had in excess of one million logged United States and Canadian feature performances during the time it has been in the BMI repertoire. This double payment, however, is not applicable to songs which are already receiving multiple credit as concert works, show music or movie works."

Dave Dee, Dozy, Etc. To Imperial

One of England's hottest groups, Dave Dee, Dozy, Beaky, Mick and Tich, has been signed to a long-term contract by Imperial Records.

Their first American single, "Zabadak," was released this week. They just completed a successful tour of Australia, New Zealand and the United States.

Warm Welcome

Trini Lopez was welcomed, American style, at the Tokyo International Airport upon his arrival for a 15-day tour of Japan and the Far East. This marks the first time the Reprise recording artist has toured the Orient. The advance ticket sales indicate SRO crowds from Tokyo to Manila and Sydney.

the ultimate question:
"WHO WILL ANSWER?"

#9400

RCA VICTOR

The most trusted name in sound

From the canyons of the mind we Wander on and stumble blindly
Thru the often-tangled maze of Starless nights and sunless days
Asking for some kind of clue —
A road to lead us to the truth, but
WHO WILL ANSWER?

Side by side two people stand,
Together vowing hand in hand
That love's imbedded in their hearts,
But soon an empty feeling starts to Overwhelm their hollow lives, and
When they seek the "hows" and "whys,"
WHO WILL ANSWER?

On a strange and distant hill, a Young man's lying very still. His Arms will never hold his child
Because a bullet running wild has Struck him down. And now we cry:
"Dear God, oh why, oh why?" But
WHO WILL ANSWER?

High upon a lonely ledge, a
Jeering crowds collect below to Egg him on with "Go man, go!" But Who will ask what led him to His private day of doom? And
WHO WILL ANSWER?

In the rooms with darkened shades,
The scent of sandalwood pervades the Colored thoughts in muddled heads,
Reclining on the rumpled beds of Unmade dreams that can't come true.
And when we ask what we should do,
WHO WILL ANSWER?

Neath the spreading mushroom tree,
The world revolves in apathy as Overhead a row of specks roars on,
Drowned out by discotheques. And If a secret button's pressed because
One man has been outguessed,
WHO WILL ANSWER?

Is our hope in walnut shells worn
Round the neck with temple bells?
Or deep within some cloistered walls
Where hooded figures pray in halls?
Or in old books on dusty shelves?
Or in our stars? Or in ourselves?
WHO WILL ANSWER?

If the soul is darkened by
A fear it cannot name — if the Mind is baffled when the Rules don't fit the game —
WHO WILL ANSWER?
WHO WILL ANSWER?

Blood, Sweat, Tears: Big Band Rock

NEW YORK—There's something new in Hyphen rock. It's a sub-division of jazz-rock: big band-rock.

The group espousing this form of contemporary music is Columbia's Blood, Sweat and Tears, who were introduced at a packed trade party last week.

The eight-man organization features a neat, boisterous brass section including a saxophone, a trombone and two trumpets. These gentlemen stand in front while usual rock staples, the guitarists, are stationed self-effacingly in the back. Al

Kooper, who left the Blues Project to form B, S and T, wails the vocals as he peruses the organ keyboard.

Right now, the group is already into something good with the big band fillip, especially on forthcoming single release "House in the Country" and a Randy Newman ditty, "Just One Smile."

Thus far, however, the thought of subtlety and shading has eluded the group. And the music, after a while, lost the effect it should have.

New Stones LP 'Landmark'

London Records last week issued a new album they feel is "a major landmark in the career of one of the record industry's most successful groups, the Rolling Stones."

Titled "Their Satanic Majesties Request," it is the 11th album to be issued by the Stones who have compiled a record-breaking sales record with their 10 preceding sets. All have topped the gold record mark of 500,000 units or the $1,000,000 figure at wholesale and all have been RIAA-certified. One of these albums, "Big Hits (High Tide & Green Grass)," has topped the two million unit mark and although two years old, it continues to be a best-seller. The Stones' first 10 albums in combination with the huge sales they have enjoyed with their hit singles are responsible for a total dollar volume to date of approximately $50 million.

Long regarded as one of the industry's most powerful "self-contained" groups (group which composes its own material) their new album displays the Stones in a new creative light . . . in the role of producers. "Their Satanic Majesties Request" is, therefore, a new dimension in recorded entertainment and was completely conceived, written and produced by the Rolling Stones.

Rather than merely a collection of unrelated songs, their new LP (which was nine months in the making) is a concept album, "an integrated and ethereal experience with a cosmic quality." It is a collage of modern teenage music; perhaps, it was suggested, the teen music of tomorrow.

The Stones and London Records have come up with one of the most inventive album color photography for the covers shot. This is the first time 3D photo prints have been used in which the figures move. 3D prints have been used before to create the illusion of depth. But the cover of "Satanic" features for the first time figures in 3D photography that actually move.

Artist-photographer Michael Cooper (who also designed the Beatles' "Sgt. Pepper" LP) staged, along with the Stones, the set for the 3D with movement cover photo. He also did the inventive art in the fold open faces of the four-face jacket. Cooper purchased the ingredients for the set and built it around the Stones at Pictorial Productions, Ltd., in Mt. Vernon, N.Y., one of the two places in the world that makes 3D prints (the other being Tokyo). Preparations for the photo in 3D and other art ran in excess of $25,000.

Cut in London, N. Y.

The album was cut in Olympic Sound Studios in London and Bell Sound Studios in New York and features original compositions by Mick Jagger and Keith Richard as well as the first composition by bass guitarist of the Stones, Bill Wyman, who performs his ballad in the LP. The selection is titled "In Another Land" and is being issued as a single by London in a special 4-color sleeve which bills the performer as a solo vocalist. This is the first time any of the Stones has been featured on a single along with personal rather than group billing on the label.

Money Music

People; Morning Glory, a group from S.F.—All these from Mercury-Philips-Smash. These groups all write their own material and are great. This is the new trend—go for the big LP without worrying about a hit single. H. P. Lovecraft has been selling without any airplay. The group plays all the 25 in-crowd hippie-type places.

"Walking in the Queen's Garden," Them, Tower, on KJR, WPGC, WTIX, WFUN, WPOP, KVIL, KLIF, KRUX, WFIL, KOMA.

Joe Kolsky flashes that there are big re-orders out of Pittsburgh and Baltimore again on Ronnie Dove. This is his biggest in a while. This could be another "Tennessee Waltz."

Kenny Gamble Writes-Produces Another Soul Survivors Smash
The title of the new Soul Survivors is "Explosion" and it will be bigger than "Expressway."

The New Sonny & Cher Should Be a Smash: "Good Combination."

WTIX, New Orleans, reports that the phones light up when they play "Mr. Starlight," Johnny Barfield, SSS, #1 in Columbus, Ga.; WNOX . . . "Break Away Girl," Sacred Mushroom, Minaret, pick WAAM, Ann Arbor, and all through the South . . . "Warm Sunny Sunday," Harry Deal & Galaxies, SSS, on WAYS, WKIX, WTOB, WORD Carolinas, and WNOX. Teeny-bopper special.

The new Mickey Murray is "Hit Record" on WAIR, WBBQ . . . RCA reports a tremendous spread of smooth music stations on "Ludwig," Al Hirt.

Sure Big Hit Record: "Spooky," Classic IV—Going everywhere.

5th Dimension LP "Magic Garden" best cuts: "Carpet Man" and "Ticket To Ride." Should be the next single.

Flash Christmas Smash: "Christmas Lullaby," Cary Grant, Columbia—Went on WMCA and CKLW . . . The new Vikki Carr is called "The Lesson."

Hot Scoop from Len Levy

At this point it is definite: "Dear Eloise," Hollies, is a hit record. The sales are coming in fine as of this week. The opening is not hindering it in any way. Len Levy is positive that the new Dave Clark 5 will be a giant. Title: "Everybody Knows." "It is bigger than top 3 in England, and is their biggest hit over there since their first one, "Glad All Over." It's a new sound and a new bag for the D.C. 5.

Class Record of the Week: "Excuse Me," Patti Page (Joe Niagara will have to play this or switch to WIP).

Best Smooth Music Personality on the Air Today: Ken Garland of WIP, Philadelphia. Ken has locked up Philadelphia completely with his charm, voice with a built-in smile and people-pleaser-personality . . . Congrats to my buddy, 28-year-old Allen Hotlen, who landed the plum of the year, the PD job at WIP.

We saw Jane Morgan at the Latin Casino with all the deejays. She burned it down to the ground. She now goes into a soul bag, and does the Ray Charles songbook. Jane works very hard. She is still at her greatest doing Edith Piaf songs in French. We told her we'd love to hear a recording by her in French of "Free Again," and she agreed she'd like to do it.

"Live for Life," Jack Jones, has hit the charts. Ferrante and Teicher is also getting much play . . . "Theme to Candice," Les Reed, Deram, and the UA version by Francis Lai are getting big good music play.

The new Last Word is called "I Wish I Had Time."

The new Joe Simon on SS7 is uptempo and this one will not only make it pop in the South, but will be a national top 10 smash.

Stations on "Skip a Rope," Henson Cargill: WDRG, WMCA, KFWE, WCAO, WMEX. Sales are there.

Correction: It is "Bird Song," Bergen White, Monument, that has to be listened to with the knowledge that it is really about a man who killed his wife and is in a hospital for the criminally insane. The lyrics don't say this, but in this context, the song takes on great beauty, poignancy and sensitivity.

LHI is back in action with ABC Distribution—"Does Anybody Know," the Handful. Also, "Angel of the Morning"—Danny Michaels.

Perky Murphy, KOMA, Oklahoma City, reports that Henson

Dirksen Christmas LP Gets Heavy Send-off

Major television and consumer magazine exposure has been lined up for Senator Everett McKinley Dirksen in which the Senator's just-released "At Christmas Time" album, on Capitol Records, is expected to receive powerful promotional support.

Kicking off what might well be called "Senator Dirksen Month," Look magazine carries a lengthy and detailed pictorial story on the Senator in its Dec. 12 issue. The story puts the spotlight on the Senator's recording session for his Christmas LP, which took place in New York last July.

New York ABC network flagship WABC-TV will screen for pre-holiday viewing a Senator Dirksen special, using live footage of the Senator at home and employing many of the cuts from the Christmas album as the background musical soundtrack. Special music and arrangements of carols is published by Chappell & Co. Inc. The program was produced by Lew Schwartz/Del Sol Inc. in association with Cochran-Mangum Productions, with Jim Cronin handling the actual producer-director assignment. The show is also being made available for holiday season syndication by WABC-TV.

In addition, the Senator will appear on the NBC-TV "Personality Show" on Dec. 7. The month-long round of promotional activities will culminate on New Year's Day when Dirksen appears as the Grand Marshal of the Tournament of Roses Parade in Pasadena, Cal., to be screened on NBC-TV. Later during the winter of 1968, ABC-TV will also do a news special on the Senator, part of which was filmed at last July's New York discing session.

The Dirksen Christmas LP was produced for Capitol by Arch Lustberg, on assignment from M. A. Mangum Productions, prominent indie production firm. John Cacavas conducted the chorus and orchestra, and also wrote the background music for the package. Both Lustberg and Cacavas were active in similar roles in the Senator's two earlier Capitol LP's, "Gallant Men" and "Man Is Not Alone." All music written by Cacavas for the three Dirksen LPs is published by Chappell.

Capitol itself is blueprinting a strong promo drive on the new Dirksen Christmas LP. Details on this aspect of the campaign are expected to be announced shortly.

Stroud Launches Ninandy Label

NEW YORK — Andy Stroud, head of Stroud Enterprises, has just launched his Ninandy label (the name is, of course, a compilation of Andy and Nina for Nina Simone) as the latest of his activities, which include management (wife Nina Simone, Scoey Mitchell, Montego Joe and Samuel Waymon) and publishing (Ninandy, BMI; Rolls Royce, ASCAP).

The first release from the New York-based label is Montego Joe's "Soul Man."

For his next project Stroud will cut Billy Taylor on an instrumental version of Taylor's tune, "I Wish I Knew How It Would Feel to Be Free," currently in release by Nina Simone on RCA.

Cutting Nina's Brother

And after Taylor, Stroud will record Samuel Waymon, who is Nina's brother and interested in the current rock scene.

Stroud, a musician earlier in his career before spending 15 years on the New York police force, says laughingly of his growing career in show business, "I still feel sometimes as if I'm playing cops and robbers."

Cheetah on Air

NEW YORK—A weekly radio show will emanate live on Thursday nights from Cheetah, Broadway and W. 53rd St., beginning Nov. 30.

The show, featuring the newest sounds of today's music scene as heard at Cheetah, will be broadcast over WKCR, the Columbia University-Barnard College station, from 8 to midnight.

The program also will bring Cheetah's upcoming Thursday evening "Talent Showcase" to its listening audience, as well as interviews with new young fashion designers, singers and instrumentalists.

Concert Review

Mancini Conducts Fine Program

NEW YORK — From the sound stages of Hollywood to New York's Philharmonic Hall came RCA's Henry Mancini on Nov. 26 to conduct the Washington National Symphony. The relaxed, multi-talented musician/composer brought his distinctive touch to orchestrations of his own works as well as the compositions of Bernstein, Bonfa, Newman and others.

Though the program consisted mainly of his movie and television music (e.g. "Moon River," "Mr. Lucky," "Pink Panther"), Mancini also took from the large selection of fine domestic and foreign film music, set them to his own arrangements and conducted them flawlessly. Notable were "Born Free," "I Will Wait For You," "Man with the Golden Arm" and "Laura."

For the younger generation he put together six Lennon-McCartney ballads written as he put it, "before they left this planet." Mancini also took to the piano to play favorites like "The Days of Wine and Roses" and "Charade." A highlight was a new arrangement of "Peter Gunn" which spotlighted a fine trumpeter named Bud Brisbois.

The latest Mancini LP is entitled "Encore" and contains much of the European and Hollywood film music from the concert program.—Karen Austin.

Wild Life Bill

Lulu Back in Town

Top Epic recording artist Lulu, whose No. 1 recording of "To Sir, With Love" has sold well over one million copies, returned to the United States on Nov. 27.

On this trip, she was set for appearances on Johnny Carson's "Tonight Show" (Nov. 28) and "The Joey Bishop Show" (Dec. 1) and "The Red Skelton Show" (to be aired on Dec. 26). Her film, "To Sir, With Love," continues to break records everywhere.

To coincide with this visit, Epic Records has released Lulu's second single, "Best of Both Worlds." Written by top songwriters Don Black and Mark London, this song gives all indications of being another hit. "Best of Both Worlds" and "To Sir, With Love" are both featured in Lulu's debut Epic album, "Lulu Sings 'To Sir, With Love,'" which is receiving tremendous sales reaction and is rapidly moving up on the national best-seller charts.

Currently one of the hottest recording stars in England as well as in the United States, Lulu appears regularly on the BBC-TV series "Three of a Kind" and has recently ap-

She also recently did a "special" in England with Steve Allen and Jayne Meadows called "Show Time," scheduled for airing here later. Lulu is hopeful she will get to sing "To Sir, With Love" on the Academy Awards telecast next spring.

Visiting Record World, Lulu said she would probably not have time to do another film until around next June. "And finding the right property is a problem, too," she added.

Gospel Time

By IRENE W. JOHNSON

Attention gospel deejays! This column starts this week exclusively in RECORD WORLD, and I am counting on your cooperation to help make our gospel corner a successful one. I hope you will send all news, photos and charts to me at 755 Donald St., Mobile, Ala.

Hats off to Richard Simpson, formerly with Vee-Jay Records and now an independent producer doing an excellent job for Atlantic Records, Peacock Records and Audio Arts. Here is a man who has made contributions too numerous to mention to the world of gospel music.

Hal Webman and Robert Banks at Verve Records have signed some very strong talent, namely, the Swindell Brothers, the Mighty Gospel Giants, Alice McClarity, Lloyd Reese, the Gospel Clefs and Clara Ward, with new releases expected in January and February.

John H. Bowden, producer for Hob Records, recently released a Christmas LP on their artists entitled "The Gospel at Christmas." A live LP on Shirley Caesar and Choir of Philadelphia can be expected very soon.

Bob Holmes of Nashboro Records along with Shannon Williams is very excited over the reaction received from all over on "If I'm Too High Lord, Bring Me Down" by the Consolers of Miami, Fla. Their newest singles on the Supreme Angels and Brother Joe May sound great.

The Mighty Clouds of Joy's newest Peacock Records release, "Somewhere Around God's Throne" b/w "Holy Ghost," is off and running like their other releases. "Blessed Quietness," Checker Records, by Ernest Franklin & Choir, is terrific gospel sound.

The Violinaires of Detroit are really going places but fast with a new sound in gospel music. They are truly an asset to the Checker family. Their latest, "You've Been Good to Me," is looking good. Some of the jocks feel it is as strong as "Old Time Religion."

The Violinaires, the Pilgrim Jubilees and the Gospelaire (Peacock Records) are presently touring the country with the Mighty Clouds of Joy. In January, Dorothy Norwood & Singers of Savoy will join this package of dynamite for the entire year of 1968. The Swan Silvertone Singers (Hob), the Davis Sisters, the Loving Sisters (Peacock), the Soul Stirrers (Checker) and the Blind Boys of Alabama (Hob) will begin their tour.

Savoy Records, with such artists as James Cleveland, the Caravans, Dorothy Norwood and Singers, Rev. Lawrence Roberts and the Angelic Choir, Rosie Wallace & Choir and so many others, as always have a strong line of gospel music. In a recent conversation with Herman Stevens, I was told to expect a new release by him on the Savoy label in the near future.

Jewel-Paula Records has several sermons to their credit and releases on many gospel groups and soloists. "How Sweet It Is" by Rev. O. L. Holliday of Houston, Texas, went over very big for them. At present, "Sick of Love" by Rev. Holliday looks great. The newest LP on the Traveling Echoes is getting action, too.

With the Yuletide season approaching, Verve's Christmas LP on a number of their artists entitled "Christmas Gospelodium," "Christmas Carols and Gospel Music" by Rev. Cleophus Robinson on Peacock Records and Rev. James Cleveland's new Christmas LP on Savoy should get a great acceptance from all gospel announcers.

Congratulations are in order for the Utterbach Concert Ensemble who along with their producer, Ben Jones, presented their first concert at Carnegie Hall on Friday night, Nov. 17.

Guillermo Alvarez Guedes

By TOMAS FUNDORA

MIAMI — Coincidimos con Guillermo Alvarez Guedes en la inauguración del Montmartre de Miami. De regreso de Europa, nuestro entrevistado lucía enérgico, alegre y cargado de un optimismo y sinceridad plenos que siempre la han caracterizado. Motivados por estos aspectos decidimos lanzarle al propietario de los Discos Gema, ciertas preguntas claves en estos momentos, obteniendo contestaciones que por su corte claro y conciso, muy alejado de las normales políticas de los entrevistados en este Mundo del Disco nuestro, atesoran unas cuantas verdades proyectadas con sencillez y sin rebuscamientos hipócritas. ¡He-las aquí!

Guillermo Guedes

¡Bueno! . . . la copia y pira-tería de discos se debe a que desgraciadamente se han refugiado en nuestro ambiente del disco toda clase de hombres, sobre todo algunos de muy baja categoría. La cobardía colectiva de los productores del disco les han servido de acicate, conjuntamente con la carencia de leyes apropiadas con las cuales puedan ser perseguidos por sus hechos. Ante este último escándalo en Nueva York, nuestra postura es de "esperemos-a-ver-que-pasa" . . . "vamos a ver en que queda lo del juicio y si resultan castigados, si son de verdad los piratas del disco de Nueva York" . . . "creo que siempre han habido más de unos cuantos" . . . "Nuestros planes en cuanto a qué haría Gema de resultar perjudicada por la copia de sus creaciones? . . . los dejaremos para el momento oportuno."

Mira, en el caso de Raphael se produce un fenómeno inexplicable. En ese género existen grandes talentos en este momento, sin ir más lejos, Avellanet, gran cantante puertorriqueño que ha logrado grandes triunfos y sobre todo consolidados, sin ser producto de especulaciones y campañas promocionales de todo tipo. Creemos que el éxito del cantante español se debe a la falta de ídolos que existe en nuestros países de habla hispana . . .

Bueno, Tomás . . . yo creo que durará muy poco este éxito! . . . Ah! ya eso es otra cosa . . . el precedente del caso con Hispavox es algo en extremo peligroso. De resultar vencedor Raphael con su postura ante el sello que le lanzó al éxito, se establecería una situación terrible, ya que en lo adelante ningún cantante se verá inclinado a respetar los compromisos contraídos con las empresas grabadoras. Gústete o no le gúeste a Raphael, el sello Hispavox ha sido el responsable de su triunfo . . . Bueno . . . fácilmente pudiera llamarle cualquiera "malcriado y malagradecido" . . . "Eso se lo dejo a su joven conciencia"! . . . Si, ya sé que está en el mercado la nueva grabación de este cantante . . . dicen que salió muy cara! . . . ¿Qué? . . . ¿De su estilo? . . . Te diré que a mí me da la impresión que es una combinación planeada de Olga Guillot, Lucho Gatica, Lola Flores, Antonio Prieto y Judy Garland . . . ¡más nada!

Sí, como no . . . yo creo que subir el precio de los discos traería una mejoría en la grabación y sus sistemas para producirla y aun más, podrían ser mejorados los actuales modos de efectuar la promoción de los discos, pero mientras exista la competencia desleal que impera en casi todos los mercados, de parte de productores que creen que la mejor manera de competir es bajando los costos y no subiendo la calidad, es extremadamente peligroso el hecho de subir los precios . . . "Mira, se está dando hasta el caso de firmas que se suponen serias y sin embargo están grabando discos a imitadores de estrellas continentales tales como Celia Cruz, Roberto Ledesma, Gran Combo y otros. Estos . . . por supuesto . . . no son piratas de ninguna manera . . . ¡son corsarios! (ya les bautizó Guillermo).

En cuanto al planeamiento de la entrada de grabaciones latinoamericanas en el mercado norteamericano, te diré que Gema ha estado siempre considerando esta posibilidad, de aquí que hayamos grabado dos versiones de la Guantanamera en el 1960, mucho antes de hacerse este número totalmente popular en todos los mercados internacionales y seguimos produciendo piezas de este tipo con

EL GRAN COMBO—Gema LPG 3052

Rompe todas las barreras el Gran Combo en esta grabación. El número que sirve de tutilo al "album" as incontentiblementeailable. Resaltan: "Baila mi Shing a Ling," "Ven," "Navidades a Gogo," "Boogaloo con Bajo" y "Sabor a Guaguanco."

Gran Combo is terrific in this album. Theme which gives the title to this album is great. Rest of repertoire is beautifully rendered.

Outstanding instrumental which will sell as well as their previous LPs in the series. Superb selections and renditions!

Julio Gutiérrez y sus Guajiros y el Gran Combo. El problema grave es . . . ¡distribución! . . . (aquí abre sus brazos ampliamente y una sonrisa se dibuja en su rostro) . . . y en eso estamos trabajando muy fuerte . . . ¡Los ritmos que actualmente están haciendose éxito en el mercado norteamericano no son más que desviaciones y proyecciones de los nuestros!

Bueno, mira Tomás . . . aquí lo que hay que hacer es trabajar fuertemente y sentirse en paz con uno mismo . . . ¡ese es el triunfo!

Se nos va Guillermo de las manos . . . a lo lejos vemos retirarse a un hombre que en franca lucha contra los "mediocres" no ha dejado de ser lo que tantos ambicionan . . . ¡honorable! . . . y ya lo dijo él . . . "se logra teniendo paz con uno mismo."

nas, con motivo dela premier de gala de la cinta "Acompañame".

Karina, una simpática española está gustando mucho a toda la juventud, los discos de ella de mayor éxito son: "Melo Dijo Pérez" y "Hierba Verde", Karina promete pronto brillar entre las grandes estrellas.

Monna Bell, ha gustado mucho con su "Hablame de él" que se esta vendiendo bien.

Y la revelación del final le este año 1967, lo has sido el compositor mexicano Armando Manzanero, un joven que está vendiendo mucho su creación "Adoro" y "Esta Tarde vi llover." El público se inclina mucho sobre el estilo e inspiración de Manzanero, que constituyó la revelación due este año.

Tom Jones' Parrot Promo

London Records this week will kick off phase one of a multi-faceted promotion campaign in connection with the forthcoming extended personal appearance tour here of Britain's Tom Jones. Jones opens his tour with a two-week engagement at New York's Copacabana on Feb. 15.

London's Parrot label, on which Jones' disks are released, has set up a heavy concentration of radio spot advertising in connection with the current "Tom Jones Live" LP, to commence this week in the New York market on WNEW and WWRL. The combination incorporates one of the city's top good-music voices and one of the top-ranked R&B oriented-stations.

Phase two of the drive involves a nationwide distribution of empty album covers and assorted display pieces for dealer in-store and window promotions. These merchandising units will promote Jones' entire Parrot catalog of six LP's, including the current "Live" entry, which was cut earlier this year at London's Talk of the Town Club.

During London's forthcoming 21st anniversary sales convention, to be staged at the Concord Hotel in New York's Catskill Mountains from Jan. 6-8, much attention will be devoted to coordinating the nationwide Tom Jones merchandising drive with all the distributors for the Parrot label.

Finally, the company plans a major function on the occasion of Jones' Copa opening, with press, radio and television people expected to attend. Immediately prior to his fortnight at the Copa, Jones will do the "Kraft Music Hall" TV show on Wednesday, Feb. 14.

Italian Items

By HARA MINTANGIAN

CBS Italiana will soon release the first single of actor Tomas Milian: "La piazza" b/w "Cavallo bianco." CBS will also host a cocktail party to present him to journalists . . . Ferri Franco and René (CBS Italiana) will soon record the opening and closing themes of the TV program "Le quattro stagioni." In January, Ferri, Franco and René, will also record the theme for a TV play, "Se te lo raccontassi," with the well-known actor Alberto Lionello.

On Dec. 9 the group I Nomadi will promote their new single, "Vola bambino," on the afternoon TV program for school children. "Chi sa? Chi lo sa?" . . . Al Bano will participate in the Festival of Sanremo, 1968, with his song "La siepe." Bano has sold 150 thousand records of his single, "L'oro del mondo" . . . It is said that Adamo will be soon in Milan for the opening night of the film "Les Arnaud." Adamo acts and sings in the film the song "Vivre."

Italian Decca has released the latest hit of Engelbert Humperdinck, "Last Waltz"

. . . Lumbroso, manager of Ariston publishing company, has been appointed by Midem to organize the Italian Gala. Six Italian record companies have apparently named the artists they wish to participate at said gala. It is the opinion of Lumbroso that besides the Midem in Cannes in January, a similar event should be organized in June in the U.S.A. to allow European companies to learn the point of view of Americans in their own country.

Iva Zanicchi will probably participate in the Festival of Sanremo, 1968, with the song "Per vivere" (To Live), composed by Umberto Bindi. It is also said that Fausto Leali will participate with "Non importa se," by Beretta and Intra.

For the approaching holidays, Carosello Records has released six LP Disneyland records of fairy tales. Each LP is accompanied by a book of 24 pages with colored illustrations containing the fairy tales and the songs sung in the record. The international slogan of the promotion of this series is: "Look at the Illustrations!"

Holland Happenings

By WILL J. LUIKINGA

A successful reception for press, VIP's and disk jockeys proved to be a fantastic introduction for the Deram Sound System. Producer Michael Dacre, Barclay, from Decca Records, London, was in Amsterdam to give all vital information on this new recording system, while a special team from Philips Hi-Fi International supplied the best sound-system possible.

Everybody was enthusiastic about the results.

John Walker was on Holland's no. 1 TV show, "Fenk-lup." He made a big impact on the Dutch girls . . . The London-single, "Hush Now," by Jimi Hendrix (recorded by PPX Productions), is a fast-climber, also due to the fact that Hendrix' group performed in Holland recently. "Hush Now" is expected to beat all previous Hendrix singles, chart-wise.

R & B fans are raving about the President single, "I'm Gonna Keep What I've Got," by Slim Harpo (from the U.S. Excello label) . . . Felice Taylor's British success, "I Feel Love Comin' On," is expected to be the first smash for the President label in Holland. Special promotion and a possible visit by Miss Taylor should bring the record high in the charts.

Dutch accordion player Johnny Holshuysen had a smash hit with the single, "Melodia." His first LP was introduced during a press reception in Amsterdam. This LP is already a fantastic seller after one week. Both the single and LP will be released in Germany soon.

German Vogue Records is having its headaches. Some key personnel has left, such as the sales manager Heinz Juergens, a very capable man; also, Larry Yaskiel . . . Leading German newspaper reporters have voted #1 female vocalist, for Germany, the Israeli songstress Esther Ofarim, and the #1 male vocalist, Udo Juergens. What happened to all the groups?

Taking Care of Business

by Del Shields

The response to some of our past columns in our endless attempt to draw attention to the lack of promotion has brought a surprising and interesting number of rebuttals and further comments.

Fred Norsworthy, one of the veteran promotion men in New York, who has also produced and knows his way around the field of records, offered an extensive letter we feel merits printing:

"The main idea of this particular letter is to impart yet another side of jazz.

Del Shields

"There are always two sides to a coin (or at least we are led to believe this), so we will discuss the jazz musician.

"He is not 100%, as you would like to believe. Unfortunately, there are many pitfalls which the musician himself makes. You mentioned how James Brown always takes care of business. Fine, but keep in mind that James has a business attitude and a brain.

Suffer From Problems

"Too many musicians who recorded in the past, or even today, suffer from severe narcotic problems. This narcotic situation causes even more problems than you can imagine. All this musician is interested in is MONEY right now. He has no regard for anyone or anything until he gets that fix. As a result, the music suffers. How many sessions have been issued with musicians just playing the blues? The whole album should not have been released in the first place, but the recording company has already spent advance cash and has to recoup at least some expenses.

"Now yet another factor. How many musicians after they record an album bother to play those tunes in public, speak into a microphone to the audience, meet the "squares" in a neat business suit instead of arriving casual styled, talk with normal verbs and nouns in place of 'hip dip' talk?

"Do they arrive on time, set an appointment at 10 a.m.? They arrive at 3 p.m. Do they go out and take care of business, visit retail record stores to see if they carry their albums? Jazz is a big business like you say; but to the jazz musician with a chip on his shoulder, no one understands him at all. He does not want to mingle with the squares, so he goes into his shell. Sorry, Del, but it's 1968 almost and that program went out in the '20s.

"Now suppose you have your own label. You record and release one of your artists who has a narcotic problem. Before too long, you have invested considerable finance. Where does that leave you after he has flown the coop?

Brown Covers All Fields

"Then you compare James Brown to other people like George Coleman or Archie Shepp. Brown constantly covers all fields to make sure that everyone gets his message regardless of whether they like his brand of music. The jazz musician seldom shows an active interest after the initial recording session except as a means to impress his latest girl friend. Those musicians who do take an active part sooner or later end up working 52 weeks a year, work in better clubs, appear on TV, not as much as they should but at least they get there (viz Ramsey Lewis for one), make personal appearances in major chain outlets, etc. In short, they take good care of themselves and business. Result: bigger sales and promotion.

"In night clubs most musicians arrive on time, talk to the audience and entertain them. But the balance show up late, with no talk, over-long sets, and they look and dress like Bowery tramps and expect everyone to understand it's all for art.

"I'm not saying that every jazz musician should take a

Train Negroes For B'casting

NEW YORK—Thomas F. P. Hoving proposed last week that public and commercial broadcasters work together to qualify more Negroes for responsible positions in broadcasting.

"De facto segregation in broadcasting is based on the old saw that qualified Negroes cannot be found," said Hoving, Chairman of the National Citizens Committee for Public Television. He suggested that the citizens committee and commercial broadcasters sponsor a special seminar workshop next summer.

"Together," he vowed, "we would seek out the brightest young people on campuses and in public television stations the country over and give them intensive and constructive laboratory experience based on the combined professional competence and wisdom of your people and our committee members."

Hoving told a luncheon meet-college degree or business course—but it would sure help them both mentally and workwise. If you need any kind of comparison, take baseball. Men like Willie Mays, Hank Aaron, Frank Robinson, Al Downing. Do they goof off? No, my man. They go out and meet the public, talk like crazy. They are in the ballpark ready to play at 1 p.m. or 8 p.m. unless they have an injury. They give of themselves 101% and still relate to their public. Jazz musicians should learn from baseball players how to succeed.

Not All Like That

"'Nuff said. Not all jazz musicians are like this: in particular, Billy Taylor, Oscar Peterson, Dave Brubeck, Herbit Mann, Jimmy Smith, Ramsey Lewis, etc., etc., etc. You get the message.

"I'm not saying that the recording companies are completely blameless, either. But if these labels will not hire people who know, understand and love jazz but instead hire college grads or Madison Avenue dodos en masse, then no wonder jazz is where it's at.

"So there. You will have nothing done until the people in charge do something about the whole mess. But please do not give up hope, at least until you see Welk & Shepp together. Then it's time to retire to your island or cave for good."

MGM Profits Up 44%

In the international arena, MGM took special steps to expand its world-wide position. The label set up its own MGM Records, Ltd. firm in London and entered into an agreement with Ricordi of Italy whereby it would have its own Italian label, Dischi MGM. In addition the company has hired special representatives and managers in the European, South American and Far East markets.

The MGM success in the tape industry has been one of shrewd diversification. In 1966, the company, under Mort Nasatir's guidance, established a policy of having product for all speeds and types of playback equipment in the tape industry. As a result the company has licensed ITCC to produce its four-track cartridges; Ampex to produce eight-track, cassette and reel-to-reel product and Playtape to produce its two-track music.

In branch operations the wholly-owned Metro branches in New York, Chicago and Los Angeles hit all-time highs in their sales and profit for 1967. Their success was due to the addition of a number of significant independent labels to their rosters, and increased activity on MGM and its subsidiary labels.

DGG Growth Dramatic

The growth in DGG sales has been most dramatic over 1967. The MGM Records staff has devised new marketing, promotional and advertising procedures for the always fine DGG product. So effective has this been that at one point in 1967 DGG reached number four in retail store over the counter classical sales.

In summing up, Nasatir stressed the importance of maintaining the company's position as an industry leader in the discovery and promotion of new artists. "We intend to make our slogan 'The Sound of the Now Generation on MGM Records' as appropriate in 1968 and 1969 as it is today."

Allens to Merc

NEW YORK—Chris and Peter Allen have been signed by Mercury Records. The long term, exclusive pact was announced by Mercury Executive VP Irwin H. Steinberg, following negotiations with the duo's agent, Dick Friedberg of Premier Talent Associates.

Leipzig at Colgems

Prior to UA, Leipzig served as personal manager and publicist for such top artists as Tony Bennett and Mitch Miller, and was also with Columbia Records and with major motion picture producers as an exploitation man.

Another major expansion move by Colgems is the hiring of Danny Davis as Director of National Exploitation.

Davis, a youthful veteran of all phases of the entertainment business, has long been considered one of the top promotion men in the industry. He comes to Colgems after stints with Uni and Colpix Records and was associated with Phil Spector in Spector's string of best-selling pop product.

Davis will supervise the growing Colgems network of independent promotion men and will be working closely with the RCA Victor promotion staff. Davis will headquarter in Hollywood, and will also be working with television and films.

Last week Colgems announced the promotion of Irwin Z. Robinson to the post of Vice President, Business Affairs.

The following is a breakdown of organizational plans for the near future:

1. The broadening into a complete record division in the next twelve month period. "This division will run the complete gamut of every category of recordings, from classical to popular to rhythm and blues to international to economy merchandise," said Leipzig. "We feel that this far-reaching aim is within our grasp, because, due to the fantastic success of our current operation, a wide scope of artists, material and ideas are being submitted to us from all over the world, and wide success of music publishing division.

"In addition, top creative executives at Columbia Pictures, and Screen Gems TV, increasingly aware of the mutual benefits that can be accrued from the close relationship that exists between the record arm and the video and film divisions, are guiding established and promising artists and projects into the division's fold."

2. Establishment of major Country and Western arm.

3. Continual addition to personnel roster of top talent in all phase of business.

4. Continued major drive on the Monkees.

5. Ditto Sally Field.

6. Further development of new acts, like the Lewis and Clarke Expedition, the Sugar Shoppe, Paula Wayne and Rich Little.

LP On Coast First

A&M Records' is releasing new contractee Lee Michaels' album, "Carnival of Life," on the West Coast only until January, when it will receive national distribution.

Kielson to RCA

NEW YORK—Linda Kielson has joined RCA Victor Records to work with Peter Levinson in the pop publicity department. Miss Kielson was formerly with Columbia Records.

Since "Break My Mind," Bobby Wood, MGM, hit #1 in Memphis. Bill has added the record to KAKC, WUBE & KYNO. He and I agree that this could be an overlooked national hit and he is testing it . . . Jerry Ragavoy tells me the new Miriam Makeba will probably be "Ring Bell" because of the Bill Drake action. The biggest jumping record this week is obviously the Beatles. Drake does not plan to program "Goin' Down," the B side of the Monkees although it is getting heavy play at stations like WIBG, Philadelphia. Drake is programming "These Are Not My People" from the Billy Joe Royal LP at KHJ.

Bell Records is shipping "Pray for Rain," Flash and the Board of Directors. Producer Dan Penn has covered the song exactly from his Box Tops LP. It is deliberately as close as possible to the LP cut . . . "Walk Away," Thompson Bros., Ivanhoe, went to #6 at WKY and is Top 20 at KOMA, Okla. City . . . The Country Joe & the Fish album on Vanguard has big sales . . . Challenge is thrilled with the big sales on the LP "Love Affair," Golden Leaves . . . The new Last Word is absolutely fantastic: "I Wish I Had Time" . . . "Yakety Yak," Sam the Sham, went on many stations in California and Seattle . . . Open letter to Clive Davis of Columbia: "Matchstick in a Whirlpool," Roman Numerals, is a potential hit that is getting lost.

Aretha, Rascals Spark Big Atlantic Singles Week

Atlantic Records had one of its greatest singles sales weeks last week, its biggest since last spring.

It was sparked by the fast-breaking Aretha Franklin hit, "Chain of Fools." Orders and re-orders for "Chain of Fools" topped the 500,000 mark in less than two weeks of the record's release. Atlantic's Chicago distributor, Paul Glass, ordered 91,000 of Aretha's blazing new hit in one week.

The Young Rascals' new single, "It's Wonderful," also burst solidly into the top sales bracket last week. Sales of the Rascals' disk were outpacing the lads' last release, "How Can I Be Sure," after a week on the market. Joe Tex' smash, "Skinny Legs And All" on Dial, was another seller, as well as the Bee Gees' "Massachusetts";

Hirt a Riverboat Hit

NEW YORK—RCA's Al Hirt (Burl Ives with a trumpet) and Pee Wee Spitelera (Buddy Hackett with a clarinet) kicked it around at the Riverboat here for the last couple of weeks along with the rest of the Hirt "Bourbon Street Saints Go Marching and Boogalooing In" sextet.

While dispensing the good-time music, Al and Pee Wee clowned around, bumping and grinding like burlesque mimics, and they even fooled during slower numbers like "Nancy With the Laughing Face."

I especially liked "Jazz Me Blues;" "Summer Wind" with Pee Wee playing a cool breeze against the hot zephyr of the Monument recording artist Billy Walker left last week for Germany where he'll be appearing until Jan. 5. Walker will play service clubs as well as many other appearances while spending Christmas and New Years away from home. Reportedly, Billy learned "Old Christmas Tree" in the German language before his departure.

Congratulations to local radio-TV-recording personality Ralph Emery and wife, Joy, who became the proud parents of a 6-pound, 13-ounce son Monday, Nov. 27, at St. Thomas Hospital here.

Ken Galloway has a new release on Delta Records titled "Fallen King," with early reports outstanding. Jim Halsey info's that plans are in the talking stage with one of the networks for a situation comedy starring Minnie Pearl. Minnie has been doing a number of network TV shows including the Joey Bishop show. Sonny James also did an expert job on the Bishop show a few days ago.

Boots Randolph, Chet Atkins and Archie Campbell from the local scene have been competing in the Perry Como Golf Tournament at Port St. Lucie, Fla.

Capitol artist Ferlin Husky, who has a terrific new single, "Just For You," is now spending some resting-up time with kinfolks and around Flat River, Mo. Ferlin, who recently spent some time in the hospital, will not make any more personals until after the first of the year.

Veteran tunesmith Hank Fort has signed a writer's pact with Milene Music, an affiliate of the giant Acuff-Rose organization. RCA Victor Records had Jimmy Dean in for recording sessions last week. Dean is reportedly all but set for the starring role in an upcoming TV series on NBC-TV.

Bobby Lewis came in off a busy personals slate long enough to record album and singles material for United Artists. The Roy Acuff Show, which along with the Smokey Mountain Boys, includes Roy, Jr., Shot Jackson and Donna Darlene, leave Dec. 17 for a tour of U. S. Military bases in the Caribbean area. Roy seems to make it a practice to entertain our service personnel at Christmas time. Recording artist Bobby Goldsboro has purchased a home in music city and plans to spend much of his time here, site of all his United Artists sessions.

Veteran Grand Ole Opry stage manager Vito Pellettieri was given a big birthday party last week by many of his friends in Nashville. Surprise gift was a color TV.

Justin Tubb and Band, who've been on an overseas tour since Oct. 3, has been set for 20 more days in the far East with Sheb Wooley. Future dates call for shows in Korea, Hong Kong, Bangkok, Taiwan and Vietnam.

MGM Records' Johnny Tillotson is scheduled for recording sessions here this month with Paul Tannen producing. Tree Music writer Jack Moran, who along with Glenn Douglas Tubb penned the Henson Cargill smash "Skip a Rope," is one of the happiest people around these days. (Jack has been blind since he was 14.)

The mother of singer Little Jimmy Dickens passed away a couple of weeks ago in Jimmy's hometown of Beckley, W.V., of a long illness. Unfortunately, Jimmy was on a European tour and could not make it back in time for the funeral.

Jerry Naylor, for the past few months a resident of Nashville, is moving back to his home in Encino, Calif. Naylor will commute once a month to still maintain his work with the TV show "Music City U.S.A.," which is filmed here.

Peer-Southern has announced the publication of the complete collection of songs made famous by Jimmie Rodgers, "The Father of Country Music," in a two-volume set entitled "The Legendary Jimmie Rodgers Memorial Folio." Mary Reeves and Clarence Selman, manager of her local office, just returned from a deer-hunting excursion with Happy Shahan in Brackettville, Texas.

WPLO Radio, Atlantic, deejay Mac Curtiss has himself quite a record on Epic in "Too Good To Be True." Platter was picked at KBOX in Dallas, KCKN in Kansas City and KGBS in Los Angeles, just to name a few.

Singer-writer Ed Bruce has signed an exclusive writers pact with Pamper Music and a similar contract with Hal Smith Artist Agency.

RCA's Cochran Encounters Flurry of Activity

NASHVILLE — Wally Cochran may be new to Nashville as RCA Victor Promotions and Sales Field Director, but little time has been spent in "getting adjusted."

On the heels of co-ordinating Victor's participation in the October Country Music Convention, he has been busy with a variety of promos for the company.

A "first" was attained for a Victor artist when Waylon Jennings appeared at Woolco Department Store's record department to perform with his group, the Waylors, rather than just sign autographs. Store officials were highly enthusiastic about the effect of last week's performance.

The same week-end Skeeter Davis helped open a new department store in Evansville, Ind., and the next day she was feted by brand-new All-Country WINN Radio in Louisville, Ky., by the celebration of "Skeeter Davis Day."

Ambitious Project

Still another and perhaps the most ambitious Cochran promo project will involve the "world's largest Christmas card" (12' x 5') signed by thousands of Nashvillians and being sent to Elvis Presley in time for the Yuletide.

Co-sponsored by this city's WKDA Radio and Music Land Record Shops, four sections of the card will be displayed at each of the separate shops and, after mass-signing by fans, will be assembled for shipping to Elvis. Prizes for the contest for two winners from each of the four locations will include personal letters and autographed pictures from Elvis.

NY NARAS Honors Sholes

NEW YORK—All-time A&R great Steve Sholes has been selected by the New York Chapter of the Record Academy as its honored guest for the first of a series of luncheon get-togethers.

Scheduled for noon Tuesday, Dec. 12, at the Hilton, the two-hour affair will not merely pay homage to RCA's Sholes, but will also serve as a social gathering for the local NARAS chapter members, who, in the words of Father Norman J. O'Connor, chapter prexy, "really don't get together as often as we should."

Eddy Arnold, a long-time friend of Sholes, and with whom Sholes produced a series of hits, will fly in from Nashville to mc the event. Brad McCuen has prepared a special slide presentation, highlighting the Sholes career since his days as office boy for RCA Victor and part-time saxist. Charlie Grean, another long-time friend, is acting as committee chairman.

NARAS members have already received their ticket reservation forms. A limited number of seats are being made available for non-members, who can obtain reservations forms by contacting the N.Y. NARAS office at PL 5-1535.

The Ray Griff Story

NASHVILLE—A few weeks ago Ray Griff demo'd a song titled "Your Lily White Hands" and sent it to Paul Tannen for a possible recording by Johnny Tillotson. Tannen and Tillotson both flipped over the demo and immediately signed Griff and released the song on MGM.

And so the major recording door was opened for Canadian Ray Griff.

For Griff the climb up the ladder of success has been a long, hard struggle, but the tenacity and determination which is characteristic of the Taurean temperment has stood him in good stead. He regards obstacles as a challenge and defeat non-existent.

Hails from Calgary

Ray hails from Calgary, Alberta, Canada. Since he was eight years of age, and playing drums in his school band, music has been his life. Ray plays guitar and piano and has composed songs which have been recorded by such as Eddy Arnold, Marty Robbins, Jim Reeves, Wayne Newton, Billy Walker, George Hamilton IV, Sheb Wooley, David Houston, Wilma Burgess, Dottie West, Connie Smith and others with a total of over 65 recorded songs.

Ray came to Nashville in 1964. By the time 1965 rolled around he and his new business partners, Carla Scarborough formed Blue Echo Music, Inc. The publishing company has been successful with the BMI award-winning song "Baby" at the top of the catalogue. Although Ray is very thankful for this success, his lifetime ambition to become an established recording artist has yet to be realized.

Miller Musical

Broadway engagement has been set for Philadelphia's Shubert Theatre, beginning Jan. 15.

"Here's Where I Belong" will mark the Broadway producing debut of Miller. In addition to his public image brought about by the success of "Sing Along With Mitch," Miller has long been recognized as an authority on songs, musicians, and singers. As an A&R man, first for Mercury Records and subsequently for Columbia, he was responsible for one million-selling hit after another.

Miller was instrumental in building the careers of such artists as Guy Mitchell, Frankie Laine, Tony Bennett, Rosemary Clooney, Johnnie Ray, Jo Stafford, Doris Day, the Four Lads and Johnny Mathis.

After ten years of discovering, recording and nurturing many of the big-name singers in America today, Mitch Miller conceived and recorded seven "Sing Along" albums which have sold a total of over 16 million copies.

Cap's Lathower

will make field trips to keep the A&R division more aware of product requirements, promotion activities and sales reactions in the field. He will also assist promotion by lending A&R support when required.

He will be A&R's primary source for suggestions from the field related to artists and repertoire, and will represent the A&R division both as chairman cast committee and as a member of the monthly album stock forecast committee meeting. In addition, Lathower will assist in all phases of A&R activity, including independent production deals and the purchase of masters.

'All in Family' Album, Single Involves Entire Atlantic Family

By MIKE SIGMAN

■ NEW YORK—As everyone who has been exposed to any form of the American media recently knows, the "All in the Family" phenomenon is spreading rapidly, and television's number one show may soon be Record World's number one record.

Last week the Atlantic "All in the Family" album was certified gold and shot up to 10 with a bullet on the LP Chart, while the just-released theme song, "Those Were the Days," recorded on Atlantic by Carroll O'Connor and Jean Stapleton, reached 59 with a bullet in its second week on the singles chart.

However natural it may seem in retrospect, it wasn't always obvious that the unique qualities that have made "All in the Family" the most watched and talked about TV show in recent years could be successfully transferred to the recording medium. A series of interviews with some of the Atlantic personnel directly involved with this success revealed the interesting story behind it.

The first Atlantic staffer to get turned on to the possibilities of recording "All in the Family" was Shel Kagan, A&R producer, Ph.D. and resident media scout. According to Kagan, "One night I was watching the show and I realized it would make a great album. I wanted to do something which had never been done before. Comedy albums have been done, but this is not just a comedy album; it's a total concept, a series of sculptured moments."

Kagan went to California to perform the difficult task of transferring a concept from one medium to another. He ended up spending two months making 70 edits and designing the entire package, from the cover to the enclosed booklet. After the LP came out and proved to be a success in every imaginable market (more on that later), Kagan got the idea to pull the opening theme song,

Two Retail Chains Slot 'Bangla Desh' Sales Specials

■ Two major retail chains have announced special plans for the selling of the "Concert of Bangla Desh" three-album set, and both hope their moves will encourage others to take similar action.

Byron Weiss, owner, and Bruce Bayer, buyer for the Record Center chain in Colorado announced that all proceeds from the albums and tapes sold in their stores will be donated to the Bangla Desh fund through UNICEF. The chain is comprised of 5 full-line retail stores and 6 Denver Dry Goods Stores with record departments, which Weiss leases. The album will be sold at the full list price of $12.98 ($14.98 for tapes).

Radio station KTLK-AM has also announced that it will provide public service time and other free air time to advertise the special campaign.

A different approach will be taken by the Record Bar chain, which includes 14 stores in the South and East. Owner Barrie Bergman and buyer Pete Smolen jointly announced that they will be selling the album at cost plus a small handling charge, bringing the total cost to $10.50.

A campaign will be launched to encourage people to donate the difference between this price and the list price to the Bangla Desh fund.

Country, R&B 1971 Trends; Solo Artists, Esp. Women Big

By GREGG GELLER

■ NEW YORK—To the record industry the year 1971 was noteworthy for both its diversification of popular musical styles and the homogenization of markets in which those styles had appeal.

Year's end saw the full flowering of a phenomenon that had taken root early in 1971 with occasional pop hits by such established country artists as Lynn Anderson and Ray Price (Columbia), Sammi Smith (Mega), Jerry Reed (RCA) and, finally, Freddie Hart (Capitol).

This week alone the singles chart includes such country chart regulars as Charlie Pride (RCA), Jerry Lee Lewis (Mercury), Merle Haggard (Capitol) and Johnny Paycheck (Epic), with Nashville "underground" leaders Kris Kristofferson (Monument) and Mickey Newbury (Elektra) also scoring in the pop market.

Whether this emerging country-to-pop crossover phenomenon will become as routine as the r&b-to-pop route has been over the years remains to be seen. Indications at present, however, are positive.

While r&b has long been a dominant force in the pop market, the year 1971 saw it increase its hold on the singles chart while making new breakthrough in the field of albums. Such seemingly established r&b acts as Marvin Gaye (Tamla), Aretha Franklin and Wilson Pickett (Atlantic) and Gladys Knight and the Pips (Soul) en-

NATRA Prez Shaw Black B'casting Chairman

■ CHICAGO — Curtis Shaw, President of the National Association of Television and Radio Announcers (NATRA), was unanimously elected Chairman of the 10-member Board of Directors of the Association for Black Broadcasting at an organizational meeting at the Regency Hyatt House.

The Association for Black Broadcasting is an organization of owners, managers, department heads and other supervisory personnel who are concerned with the profile and projection of black radio. The Association will provide a forum for discussion and illumination of common problems.

Shaw, who is also Operations Manager of Booth Broadcasting's WABQ Radio in Cleveland, said, "I am flattered by the position of Board Chairman because for the first time high level policymakers, both black and white, are unifying their ideas, experiences and resources for the purpose of bettering black radio. It is a matter of fact that the greatest number of owners and managers of black-oriented radio stations are white, and I want to clearly point out that the Association of Black Broadcasters is by definition of its membership areas an integrated group of concerned broadcasters."

In response to the question of Shaw's relationship to NATRA, he replied, "For years the National Association of Television and Radio announcers has concerned itself primarily with announcer-oriented problems. The Association for Black Broadcasting is concerned with managerial, operational and supervisory problems. I, of course, see a closely knit relationship between the two because the accomplishments of either will benefit black radio and as a result us all."

Dr. William V. Banks, President and General Manager of WGPR in Detroit, was elected President of the Black Broadcasting Association.

Augustin To UA A&R

■ HOLLYWOOD—Gerhard Augustin has joined the Artists & Repertoire department of United Artists Records and will also be a member of UA's Product Development Group.

Augustin served for two years as assistant to the Managing Director of the UA disc operation in Germany. Augustin was a pop disc jockey in Bremen in 1964 and hosted "The Beat Club," one of the world's longest running rock video shows. He has had a great deal of experience in the United States, working for KQED-TV in San Francisco, and was the recipient of a grant from Stanford University in mass communication.

Active Year for SESAC

■ The year 1971, in addition to marking SESAC's 40th anniversary, proved to be a highly successful one for the company, both from a national and an international standpoint. During this period, scores of new writers, artists and publishers signed with the licensing firm and helped produce a steady flow of SESAC copyrights on music charts both here and abroad.

One of the highlights of the anniversary year for SESAC was its announcement last July of the appointment of W. Robert Thompson as Exec Director of its extensive Nashville operation. Thompson, who had previously been associated with SESAC as its Director of Public Relations, left in 1966 to form his own label.

On Thompson

In announcing this appointment and Thompson's return to SESAC, the company's Exec VP and Managing Director, A. M. Prager, said: "SESAC is indeed fortunate to obtain the services of Bob Thompson, as his background is one that is uniquely suited to our growth plans in Nashville. We regretted his leaving previously, but he returns to us now with a more extensive knowledge of the industry."

Since his arrival on the Nashville scene this past summer, SESAC has garnered numerous new writers and publishers and has accelerated its impact on this important segment of American music.

Execs to Key Posts

During 1971, too, as further evidence of SESAC's recognized role of leadership in the music world, several of its executives were named to key posts in music organizations. W. F. Myer, its Director of International Relations who had served as President of the Gospel Music Association for three successive terms, was elected to serve on that organization's board of directors. In addition, its Director of Mechanical Licensing, Eddie Morgan, was named Secretary of the GMA and Charles Scully, SESAC's Director of Information Services, was elected a VP of the Country Music Association.

On the international music scene, SESAC continued its role as one of the world's foremost licensing organizations. The company has always placed heavy emphasis on the importance of the international ex-

Deane to Burlington-Felsted

■ NEW YORK — Eddie V. Deane has been named professional manager of Burlington and Felsted Music, according to Mimi Trepel, manager of the two London Records-affiliated publishing firms. The move reflects a steady expansion of operations for the two companies during the past year.

Deane's seasoned background includes activity as a writer, producer and publisher's representative. He has enjoyed successful past association with MGM, RCA and United Artists music publishing operations.

In the months to come, Deane's efforts will focus particularly on the development of multi-talents—people who can write, perform and produce all media.

The initial Burlington thrust will center on Shawn Elliot, who, besides appearing in the current Boston company of "Jacques Brel Is Alive and Well and Living in Paris," has written and performed a single released on London Records, "Child Is Father to the Man," and has also completed an album, "Tears for the Damned," for release early in 1972.

Deane will operate from the home base of Burlington-Felsted in New York.

J. Geils Sign

■ NEW YORK — Dee Anthony of Bandana, a management company whose roster of talent includes Humble Pie, Emerson, Lake & Palmer, King Crimson, Joe Cocker and many others, announced last week the signing of Atlantic recording artists the J. Geils Band.

posure of its vast copyrighted repertory and 1971 was no exception. During this period, its international department was extremely active in music circles throughout the world, offering its publisher-affiliates extensive promotion of all of the repertory in all of the world.

All of these concentrated activities, both here and abroad, resulted in another banner year for the SESAC organization and its more than 300 publisher-affiliates and marked the culmination of 40 years of constant growth and service to the world of music and to music users everywhere.

Howling Good Time at Record World

“Make It Up As You Go Along”:

Jac Holzman

■ (This interview with Jac Holzman was recently conducted by Elektra's Director Of Advertising and Publicity Bruce Harris)

Jac Holzman

Harris: What new directions has Elektra gone in musically in the past year or so? What are the new goals?

Holzman: Our goals are really no different from what they have been all these years. We're interested in achieving excellence of music and in making a profit simultaneously, something we've always been able to accomplish. As a result, we'll do anything that interests us as long as it's fun. Our only other goal is the recognition of the fiscal responsibilities we have to ourselves and to our artists.

With all the evolutions Elektra goes through, the fundamental principles which have guided us have not altered at all. Now, we have an opportunity through our new branch distribution system to maintain total creative control in the advertising and merchandising of our records. This means that we can now do what we were never able to do with independent distributors, and that is to have a responsive organism that fully cooperates at all levels with the marketing plan as laid out by our staff for each individual artist. One of the aspects of distributing through independents is that a dichotomy is easy to perceive. In several unique cases, we had independent distributors who functioned beautifully on our behalf. But more often than not, the independent distributor did not meet his responsibilities in terms of exposing new artists. He ran with whatever happened. And I can understand that, when it's in a glutted market that receives five to seven thousand albums a year, plus countless singles. The independent distributor is going to go only for those records from which he'll get the fastest reaction. One of the dangers of this is you lose new artists and that vital spark of creativity which has led them to bring their particular talents to the music business. In this important respect, I think that our ability to make use of a branch distribution system has brought more excitement and more competitive elements to the marketplace and has given new artists easier access to the ears of their audience.

I think that if there's one thing that marks Elektra as being particularly unique, it's the fact that we haven't moved in certain directions. We don't follow trends, and that's significant. While so many record companies are increasingly becoming no more than bankers and distributors of records—in much the same way that motion picture companies have become bankers and distributors of film product—we insist upon exercising creative control. The tendency these days at some record companies is to make production deals, give producers and artists money, and relinquish all creative control. That sort of thing doesn't require any intelligence. It requires only an adequate marketing organization. Where there is such a minimum of A&R judgment there is a maximum of crap table luck, and there's no opportunity for those companies to make a creative contribution. I think that an intelligent record company, one staffed by people concerned about and committed to the music and with marketing expertise, can really help an artist to achieve the goals that the artist has set out for himself. Total abandonment of creative control and then letting artists do whatever they wish in terms of making records is an abdication on the part of the record company of their creative role and ironically very often does a disservice to the artist himself. If an artist thinks he knows everything that is required, then he ought to start his own label and handle all those things himself.

Harris: What do you feel should be the extent of a record company's creative control?

Holzman: Part of the record company's creative function is to give artists some guidance. I'm not saying that we abnormally interfere with the artist's creativity, because we really don't, but we should be able to call attention to things which we think are in error, to go back and request re-mixes, or additional tunes, to insure the proper balance of elements.

We only exercise our judgment and taste to assist the artist in the creation of the music. Then, we turn our creativity to do all of the things that record companies have traditionally done, in the design of album covers and graphic images, in the construction of effective marketing campaigns, and so forth. I think that the fact that we haven't succumbed to the temptation to relinquish our creative involvement, the fact that we still have staff producers demonstrates that we are reachers for music rather than just recipients of things that are offered to us by managers and artists on audition tapes. What marks us is the fact that we generate and create music instead of simply finding it. I never want to see us lose that.

That's why we're not bandwagon jumpers. We don't sit around trying to suss out a trend and turn our energies into trying to duplicate that. We're not musical copycats. We have no grand plan of what we're trying to do, except on a day-to-day basis—to do the best that we can and to strive for those goals of quality that we've set out for ourselves. In the long run, in historical perspective, that is the trend of our operation.

Harris: How are changes in the music and its evolution reflected in Elektra's approach to merchandising?

Holzman: One of the things that I've noticed about the music business in the 21 years that I've been involved in it is that it never gets simpler; it always gets more complicated. Dealing with these increasing complications requires a great deal of energy and thought. What you're really talking about are novel ways we can establish artists outside of the normal methodology which has been employed by virtually all cognizant record companies. The company-sponsored artist tour is something which we have undertaken, as have Warner Bros. and United Artists. As yet, we cannot assess all its effects. But it certainly is expensive. I have grave doubts about the impact of a performance, no matter how dynamite it is, when it's by an unknown entity for one night in one marketplace. Artists really need the opportunity to build an audience over a period of weeks.

I've always felt the secret in terms of making an artist happen is having a well laid-out marketing plan which is communicated thoroughly to all levels of the company who are involved either directly or tangentially to the merchandising of the music. This demands better than excellent communication—of coast to coast, department to department, individual to individual—and a maximum concentration of efforts with all elements pulling in the same direction. Once you have accomplished this crucial first part of your marketing task, the next step is to find a starting

UA Training Program Headed by Bratnober

United Artists Records has initiated a national sales training program, according to an announcement made last week by President Michael Stewart.

In addition, Stewart noted the appointment of Charles Bratnober to the position of National Director of Sales Training.

Stewart stated that U.D.C., the record and tape distribution arm of United Artists, is now a major factor in national marketing and sales, with a very special growth pattern emerging in recent months through the acquisition for national distribution of the Polydor family of labels including Deutsche Grammophon. The UA sales training program has been instituted to train and develop a national sales force and to insure that key management posts are filled from within the organization in the future.

Charles Bratnober, a veteran of three years in various major sales capacities for the UA label, and 12 years of similar experience with Capitol Records, has been selected to head the newly-formed operation. Bratnober's initial project is the development of a training manual spelling out the UA marketing and sales philosophies so that a uniformity and cohesiveness exist in each UDC branch from coast-to-coast, as well as in the national office.

Bratnober will shortly embark on an extensive cross-country inspection tour of UDC branches. He will be implementing basic national sales policies and employee motivations for personnel throughout the nation during this trip.

Bratnober will be situated at the United Artists Records headquarters in Hollywood, and will report to UA's Vice President for Marketing, Michael Lipton.

Tom Jones Gets Key Boston Prom

BOSTON—Tom Jones' chart-riding "Live at Caesar's Palace" double LP package got a new blast of promotion this month in Boston, thanks to an outdoor billboard campaign, the brainchild of Len Gordon, branch manager, London Records New England, Inc.

Gordon, in a special deal worked out with the local reps of Rueben H. Donnelly Corp., purchased 14 of the billboards for the month of December

Col 'Sesame' LPs Pass Million Units

NEW YORK — Columbia's "Sesame Street" has passed the million-unit mark in all its configurations.

There are four price configurations that range from 99¢ to $4.98 and run the gamut from the seven-inch packages containing die cuts of two letters that retail for 99¢ to the $4.98 "Sesame Street Carry About Sets" that include five board books and records packaged in a sturdy carrying case with a plastic handle.

The original "Sesame Street Carry About Set" sales figures now total over 350,000 units and the original "Sesame Street" LP has now passed the 310,000 unit mark.

The new Columbia Sesame Street release, "The Muppet Alphabet Album," which marks the first time that a major record company has introduced a quantity of tactile learning aids in addition to visual materials to accompany the audio product, has already sold over 300,000.

throughout the greater Boston metro area.

In what amounted to a virtual "Tom Jones month effort, the Boston billboards were supplemented by a heavy schedule of print advertising in local papers along with radio spots.

So well-received was this local effort that the consideration now, according to Herb Goldfarb, London's vice president for sales and marketing, is to set up other similar billboard-dominated promos in various other specific markets around the country.

Riley Promo Head For Chess/Janus

NEW YORK—Al Riley has been named National Promotion Director for Chess Janus Records, label president Marvin Schlachter announced last week. Riley joined Janus Records as R & B Promotion Director in June of 1970 and became involved with Chess when the two labels merged a year later.

Riley spent six years with Liberty Records and its affiliate labels, leaving as National Promotion Director for Minit/Blue Note/Solid State Records. He began as a clerk at Liberty and subsequently rose to salesman in the greater New York area, branch promotion man, East Coast Regional Promotion Director for Blue Note/Solid State Records and National Sales and Promotion Director for Minit Records.

"Al Riley has made a substantial contribution to the success Chess/Janus has enjoyed on both the soul and pop charts. Under his direction, we will be able to give our artists even more of the concentrated promotion necessary to help establish them as major acts in the record market," Schlachter said.

Townsend to Speak At NARM

BALA CYNWYD, PA.—Robert Townsend, businessman, executive, and author of the best selling non-fiction book of 1970, will address the Opening Business Session of the 1972 NARM Convention March 6, at the Americana Hotel in Bal Harbour, Florida.

Townsend will speak on the topic "How To Stop the Corporation from Stifling People and Strangling Profits".

In making the announcement of Townsend's appearance, Jules Malamud, NARM Executive Director stated, "The topic and speech will be directly aimed at the convention theme 'The Challenges of Change', since the trend in the record business has been toward larger corporate structure through internal growth, acquisition and merger; and one of the industry's 'challenges of change' unquestionably lies in proper functioning within corporate structures."

Townsend, successful business executive as well as an able writer and lecturer, took the tiny, unknown Avis Rent-A-Car Corporation, and made it into the nation's best-known No. 2. Before cashing in a formidable pile of self-made chips when Avis was sold to ITT in 1965, Townsend spent 16 years reviving losing businesses, turning losses into profits, and managing what had been considered unmanageable situations for such corporations as American Express, Dun and Bradstreet, and CRM (Communications/Research Machines).

Townsend's speech will follow the Keynote Address on "The Challenges of Change" by Jerry Moss, President of A & M Records. A star chamber Presidential Panel will summarize the morning's program.

"Greenhouse," is scheduled.

Red Simpson returns to Capitol with his album called "I'm A Truck," following his hit single of that name; and Buck Owens and Buddy Alan duet on "Too Old to Cut The Mustard?". Debut albums for January include Sam Neely's "Long Road to Texas" and Formerly Fat Harry, a new group from England.

The Island label, distributed and marketed through Capitol, will release two debut albums: Mike Harrison and "Under Open Skies" by Luther Groxvenor.

LOVIN' YOU AIN'T EASY (Lapapala & Summerlea, BMI)

TEN YEARS AFTER—Columbia 45530

TO CLAUDIA ON THURSDAY (Mee Moo, BMI)

ROGER KELLAWAY—A&M 1321

DAY IN COURT (Unart, BMI)
A CHANGE IS GONNA COME (Kags, BMI)

Soulstress makes her label bow with an uptempo r&b ditty with a story to tell. Flip the Sam Cooke classic. Funky stuff.

VANITY FARE—DJM 70,029 (Bell)
THE BIG PARADE (Don Kirshner/ATV, BMI)
NOWHERE TO GO (Dick James, BMI)

Group's got a new Sedaka-Greenfield ditty that is alternately European and marching band in flavor. Delightful MOR programming.

L. J. WAITERS—Unity 2720
I'M SO LUCKY (Tepajo, BMI)
I'M A LONELY MAN (Lurobi, ASCAP)

Soul man really knows how to put across his song. Strong vocal performance builds, subsides, then builds again to a stirring climax. So fine.

RIVKA RAZ—Buddah 272
WHEN MY MAN RETURNS (Buddah/Hydov, ASCAP)
GROVE OF EUCALYPTUS (Buddah/Hydov, ASCAP)

From the hit Israeli "rock" musical "To Live Another Summer, To Pass Another Winter," a beautiful melody sung by a member of the original cast.

ANDY WILLIAMS—Columbia 45531
MUSIC FROM ACROSS THE WAY (Intersong/Chappell, ASCAP)

THE LAST TIME I SAW HER (WB, ASCAP)
 Andy's version of this Carl Sigman-James Last tune has already been a big hit in Japan. Knockout production makes side stand out.

BOBBY VINTON—Epic 10822
EVERY DAY OF MY LIFE (Morgan Shelley, BMI)
YOU CAN DO IT TO ME ANYTIME (Town Crier, BMI)

When Bobby comes up with a good song, he never fails to turn it into a hit record Bobby has come up with a good song! Jimmy Bowen produced.

FRANK MILLS—Sunflower 118 (MGM)
LOVE ME, LOVE ME LOVE (North Country, BMI)

DOWN FROM DOVER (Owepar, BMI)

ENOCH LIGHT AND THE LIGHT BRIGADE—Project 3 1412

MEL TAYLOR—Avalanche 36008 (UA)
DIAMONDS ARE FOREVER (Unart, BMI)
 Three versions of the instrumental theme from the new Sean Connery-starring James Bond film, each with something special to offer. The Ferrante & Teicher disc is simple, pleasant; Enoch Light's version is dramatic, booming; and the Mel Taylor rendition, as produced by the Ventures, is eery, space-age sound.

*John Lennon
Yoko Ono*

Happy Xmas (war is over), Love, John & Yoko.

VERY YOUNG AND EARLY SONGS

CAT STEVENS—

Deram DES 18061 (London).

Deram has cannily put a number of Cat Stevens songs never previously available in the states into a package. This is not the best of the Stevens crop of tunes, but neither is it merely a curiosity for Stevens fans. The 10 ditties can stand on their own and attract attention.

WOMEN'S LOVE RIGHTS

LAURA LEE—Hot Wax HA 708 (Buddah).*

"Women's Love Rights" put Laura Lee on the chart map, and now she follows with "Love and Liberty." Both songs are included in this album, which has a not-so-subtle theme of the difficulties of love in this age when man's relationship to woman is changing so radically. A comer.

MUSIC OF EL TOPO

SHADES OF JOY—Douglas 6 (Columbia).*

Technically this is not a soundtrack album, it being interpretations of the Alexander Jodorowsky score for the Alexander Jodorowsky film starring Alexander Jodorowsky. Martin Fierro is the man who did the re-conceiving necessary. Away from the blood, the music is tasty-nice.

R. E. O. SPEEDWAGON

Epic E 31089.

Tom Werman, who gets "special thanks" on the liner notes here, calls the music R. E. O. Speedwagon makes "grit-rock." That means hard and heavy with subtleties deleted. All tunes are originals and that includes "Sophisticated Lady," whom Duke Ellington wouldn't know well.

LARRY McNEELY

Capitol ST 851.

Larry McNeely tries it a little heavier than he has on the Glen Campbell TVer or on his first album. He wrote most of the music and it is Bob Dylan influenced. Dylan's own "Down Along the Cove" is included just so everybody gets the point. Should be a single lurking here.

CRAB TUNES

NOGGIN'S—Raccoon 8 (Warner Bros.).*

Mononym Banana joins with fellow mononym Earthquake and fellow Youngblood Joe Bauer as well as Bill Mitchell and Kenny Gill for a deceptive album. It doesn't seem to be together at first listen, but it comes together, in Thelma Ritter's immortal words, like two taxis in Times Square.

CHACKSFIELD PLAYS BACHARACH

FRANK CHACKSFIELD—London SP 44158.*

What the world needs now may not be another album in which a large and venerated orchestra plays the music of Burt Bacharach (sans the lyrics of Hal David), and yet there may be Chacksfield-Bacharach fans who have been hoping their two favorites would get together. The expecteds.

PAPA JOHN CREACH

Grunt FTR 1003.

Papa John Creach is having a big fuss made over him by the Grunt people, who have given unsparingly of themselves for this album. In-front and behind-scenes Grunters like Grack Slick, Jack Casady, Mike Lipskin and Stan Monteiro back-up the spry violinist-bluesman.

RARE EARTH IN CONCERT

Rare Earth R 534 D.

Rare Earth have always been able to get a generous dollop of excitement into their grooves and here's even more since it's an in-person appearance. They do many of their hits anew and newie, "Hey, Brother," as well as rock standards like "What'd I Say." Nifty keen packaging.

NATURALLY

JESSE HILL—

Wondering where Jesse Hill's been? No need to scratch your head anymore. Here he is on Blue Thumb, doing a mixture of the kind of thing he's always done and the kind of thing that goes down on Blue Thumb. Jesse is joined occasionally by friends on this jim-crack of an album.

BRING OUT THE SUN

BARBARA MAURITZ, LAMB—

Warner Bros. WS 1952.

Barbara Mauritz with her unignorable voice has stepped out to front Lamb, and it could make the difference. She would seem to have charisma and certainly transforms group's music into something extra dynamic. "Old-Fashioned Remedy," which is the first cut has the makings of a hit single.

THEME FROM SHAFT

THE VENTURES—

United Artists UAS 5517.

This is one of those block-busting Ventures formula albums. They take recent hits and a few of their own new compositions and mix them all together. If anything slows the package down, it will be the presence on the market of too many Shaft-pegged product. Usual saltiness.

COMING OF AGE

FIVE MAN ELECTRICAL BAND—

Lionel LRS 1101 (MGM).

Five Man Electrical Band include the kind of delicacy on this album that might not be expected from the "Signs" - "Absolutely Right" makers. but there is also plenty of that tough music and thinking to appeal to the growing fan ship. The album has that home-grown, home-made look, but doesn't need it.

RUBY JONES

Custom CRS 8011 (Buddah).

Well, look out, Genya Ravan. Here's Ruby Jones, wailing like she means it with horns and guys behind her wailing like they also mean it. There has to be a single here that the Buddah wizards can break, giving the quintet their chance in the sunlight of buyer's love.

TOP FEMALE VOCALIST (Singles)
#1 Aretha Franklin (Atlantic)

TOP NEW DUO (Singles)

composition categories, covering fields such as pop, country, rhythm and blues, classical, jazz, spoken documentary, etc.

In addition, craft nominations in five other categories, are being made separately by special committees of arrangers, engineers, art directors and annotators in all Record Academy chapters.

Deadline for receipt of the general membership ballots by Haskins & Sells Los Angeles is January 4, 1972.

As in previous years, Record Academy members participating in the general ballot will be limited in the number of fields in which they may nominate, and again have been reminded to base their selections solely upon artistic and technical excellence.

The nominations will be announced by the Record Academy on January 31, 1972, and will be followed by a second round of voting to select the winners. In this second round, the entire voting membership will be offered opportunities to vote in the craft categories as well.

The winners of the 14th Annual Grammy Awards will be revealed next March, many on the nationwide live Grammy Awards Telecast.

Hillside Stint

Metromedia's Hillside Singers will be doing their first television appearance when they appear on Dick Clark's Bandstand, December 25.

ready on the charts for some time, is receiving a substantial regional sales boost from each new opening. Gordon Bossin, Vice President of Album Sales and Merchandising, noted that reaction is so immediate that Los Angeles area sales are way up and Bell can feel the results of the Boston opening already.

The Los Angeles opening at the Mark Taper Forum on Nov. 4 met with such success that the company will follow the pattern set in New York of moving to a larger theatre by opening at the L.A. Ivar on Dec. 21. Other companies opened in November and are now playing to capacity audiences in London, England, Hamburg, Germany and Melbourne, Australia. "Godspell" bowed to a packed house on opening night at Boston's Wilbur Theatre, December 11.

In addition to those companies already in production, "Godspell" will open in Chicago in January, Washington, D.C. in March, and San Francisco in April. The Paris company, currently in rehearsal, will open late this month and 1972 openings are planned for Italy and Belgium.

"Moving from off-Broadway to the status of an international hit is a success 'Godspell' richly deserves," Bossin stated. "We are very proud to have our first show album offer such remarkable sales opportunities to our dealers."

Martineau Heads PTA's Concerts

NEW YORK—Premier Talent Associates announced last week the appointment of Mike Martineau as head of the Concert Division. Martineau will be particularly active in the burgeoning college area.

Before rejoining Premier, Martineau headed the Concert Division of the American Program Bureau in Boston where he was involved with jazz personalities and with the Original American Touring Company.

Earnings per share for the quarter rose 14% to 41 cents from 36 cents per share in the previous fiscal quarter ended October 31, 1970.

For the entire six month period, sales increased 19.8% or $56,181,282 as compared with $46,911,520. Net income showed a growth of 21.4% or $2,538,697 as against $2,091,697. Earnings per share for the period rose 17% to 62 cents from 53 cents.

"I am also pleased to announce," Leslie said, "that the Board of Governors of the New York Stock Exchange has approved Pickwick International, Inc. for a listing on the New York Stock Exchange. It is expected that the effective date of listing will be December 29, 1971."

Bell Ships Legrand's 'Song'

NEW YORK — Irv Biegel, Vice President and General Manager of Bell Records, announced last week the immediate release and major promotion campaign on a single by Michel Legrand from his score for "Brian's Song".

The highest rated made-for-TV movie in history "Brian's Song" received a 32.9 rating which reflected a 48% share of the audience or an estimated 41 million viewers. In addition, the rave reviews garnered by the single showing have caused considerable clamour to run the film in theatres. "Brian's Song"'s movie house debut is slated for December 23rd at the Mike Todd Theatre in Chicago.

Legrand's theme was singled out for mention in the reviews. The Los Angeles Times called it "more of a caress than musical punctuation" in a film of "delicate beauty".

Kal Rudman

Beverly Bremers. This is the week that was. This is the week that it hit the trade charts with big fat bullets and stars. Look for this record to go top 10. As you know, Beverly plays the lead role in "Hair" on Broadway - the part of Sheila. The record is over 19,000 in two weeks in Philadelphia. It is over 15,000 in Chicago off WCFL, it is breaking at CKLW Detroit. It has exploded in Nashville, Atlanta, Milwaukee, Phoenix and is still a giant in Pittsburgh. Beverly will be a big star.

Climax. This was our big tip last week and this week it picked up many heavyweight stations: KHJ, KQV, WHBQ, WGST (Atlanta), KAKC, KYNO. It went right on the charts at KOL Seattle, KLIF Dallas and KJRB Spokane. It exploded 22-8 WRKO Boston and is getting top three phone requests at WMAK Nashville and WIFE Indianapolis.

Rod Stewart is destroying the country on his 22-city tour. The single "Stay with Me" and the album should do 1,000,000 units or more respectively with no trouble at all. The two strong others on the album that I like are: "Too Bad" and "Memphis." They are both on side two.

Singing Dogs on RCA. Sales are well over 300,000 nationally and 50,000 in New York City. This record was cut in 1955.

"Bangla Desh" is the album of the year.

Cheech and Chong. "Santa Claus and His Old Lady" on Ode 70 is a giant, and no stations are reporting any objections from any listeners on the phone. It is a monster at KJRB Spokane, WRNO New Orleans, KLZ Denver where it is #6 in two weeks without any other station playing it; it exploded from 20-1 at KTSA in San Antonio in two weeks; most requested record at KFJZ Fort Worth; big at KCPX Salt Lake City. Just went on KLIF Dallas.

Air play tip of the week. "Softly Whispering I Love You" English Congregation on Atco. It went right on KHJ, WCFL, KAKC, KYNO. We salute Artie Mogull who shows that he is the #1 Champ.

Kal Rudman ear pick of the week: "We've Got To Get It On Again" - The Addrissi Brothers on Columbia. I think this is a smash lyric and track.

The songs they write are as great as the way they perform them. It went right on KOL Seattle. T-Rex. It is a monster in Seattle, exploding 25-19 KJR. It is now confirmed at KLIV San Jose and WIFE Indianapolis. New believer: KILT Houston. We say "look for the big heavies to go soon."

Guaranteed hit LP cut "The Way of Love," Cher on Kapp. A proven winner at WTKX New Orleans, now getting round-the-clock play at KLIF Dallas.

Grand Funk Railroad. The edited single, "Foot Stompin Music" is out and about. It is on many heavy stations as an LP cut and will be a smash.

Super class record of the week: "Brian's Song" - Michel LeGrand. Everyone who saw the great TV movie about Brian Piccolo and cried like a nut will get goose pimples when they hear this record. It will be a giant MOR and we believe top 40.

Sure shot: "Together Let's Find Love," the Fifth Dimension on Bell. It will be a giant R&B (and it is already exploding in Chicago) and it will be a giant top 40. We flipped over it.

Sure shot: "Mover 'Em Out," Delaney and Bonnie. Real smooth up-tempo winner!

Sleeper of the week: "Rock 'n Roll" - Detroit with Mitch Ryder Paramount label. It came right on CKLW Detroit at #27 and jumped 28-22 WKNR. Sales in Detroit are over 14,000. It came on as an LP cut at WGST and other stations. We say "Hit."

Demographic sensation: "Another Puff" - Jerry Reed on RCA. WIFE Indianapolis reports "big phone requests and surprisingly enough calls from teenagers outnumber those from adults. Apparently the anti-smoking campaign on TV and radio has really gotten the kids to relate to all this... and they really want their parents to quit smoking"...it exploded 38-18 KLIF Dallas who report, "it is an instant all-around demographic grabber and a sales smash!"...also WPDQ Jacksonville confirms that it is a smash.

Tammy Wynette "Bedtime Story" on Epic. WGST Atlanta says it will be a smash. Right on WOKY and WPDQ.

Apollo 100 on Mega. Exploded 25-16 WRKO, went right on KHJ, WHBQ, WOKY, WIXY, WPDQ.

Robert John. KJRB Spokane says "Hit." On the chart: KHJ and WPDQ. New stations: KAKC, WGST, KRIZ, WOKY.

Chilliwack on A&M, Went right on WRKO, WOKY, WPGC.

NARAS Seeks Trustee Awards Nominees

Members of the Record Academy (NARAS) were solicited this past week by the national awards committee to make recommendations for special merit awards, known as Trustees Awards, distinctive in that they do not always fall within the framework of the regular Grammy Awards.

In a special mailing, members were asked to recommend not only individuals who have made "an outstanding contribution in the performing or technical fields during the past year or over a period of time," but also "outstanding classical compositions, extended jazz works or electronic compositions, important reissues or unusually comprehensive newly-recorded projects."

Because such recommendations must attain a three-quarters vote of the National Board to receive a Grammy, the Academy has bestowed very few such high honors. Thus, NARAS members have been urged to use great discretion when submitting recommendations, and to accompany them with well-documented statements detailing the qualifications for their proposed awards.

Deadline for receipt of members' recommendations is December 31. Shortly thereafter chapter Governors will screen all entries and then pass them on to the National Trustees for their decisive votes.

London Records College Program

By GARY K. COHEN

NEW YORK—In a move to solidify their relations with college broadcasters around the country, London Records in New York has begun a college program. The program, begun by London's Ray Caviano, includes servicing and communicating with college and commercial progressive stations around the country.

In a Record World interview, Caviano indicated that he was mainly interested in ultimately reaching the consumer—the album buyer who is responsible for purchasing product. And he intends to use all available means for getting the consumer to buy his label's product—print and radio ads on all levels, including time buys of college radio stations. The label has been strong in the past—they had Cat Stevens, Ten Years After and the Stones, the former two at a time when not too many people were into them. And London's future is in the new black-oriented product, in addition to pop.

College Servicing

At present London services over 300 stations, with product for them going out at the same time as to the commercial stations. And, of course, with the stations London is not servicing, they maintain a policy of having a station call up and request an album they see mentioned somewhere else. (For example, London has a Stones Greatest Hits album that will be released the first of the year). Among Ray's projects are a tour of stations around the country—not just to see the station, but to meet the community, people, and to visit local merchants and try to determine what point-of-purchase merchandising is necessary for them. A key factor in doing this is communication—letters from stations are answered immediately, and the college stations get the same kind of equal treatment that commercial radio people get.

One of Caviano's possible goals is a rep program around the country. "First I want to see what colleges need first, and then fulfill their needs." He feels the regional rep system would improve communication between London Records and stations.

He also sees college radio as more than just a marketplace to expose new records. "I am interested in the people who will have the responsibilities of tomorrow—the future, the building of tomorrow. Colleges are extremely easy and pleasant to deal with, and in dealing with them, you find an honesty that won't necessarily be gotten elsewhere."

According to Caviano, the involvement with college radio has already paid off. The single they pulled from the Savoy Brown album, "Tell Mama," did not reach very high on the trade charts, and yet on the college station charts, the record got many reports. He has already shown where sales from the album were directly attributable to college station airplay.

London Records joins the group of labels who have realized that servicing the entire college market is important. Their program should be most successful.

WMOT-FM—Middle Tennessee State University in Murfreesboro, Tennessee, has now gone to 50,000 watts stereo. The date for the change was December 15. Their station's signal will now be heard over a far greater distance, and what the station programs will become more important. Music Director is Robert Mather; the stations' zip code is 37130 and telephone (615) 898-2800.

Miles, Heep To Make Tour

■ CHICAGO — Two Mercury artists will undertake extensive tours of the U.S. and Canada in the new year, it was announced last week by Mercury Records in conjunction with American Talents International.

Buddy Miles and England's Uriah Heep, both with albums on the national charts, will join together along with Warner Bros.' Deep Purple in Hollywood, Florida January 13 to start a 17-day tour that will take them as far north as Montreal, into Los Angeles, ending up in Boise, Idaho January 31. Although Miles and Uriah Heep split up at that point, the English group continues touring until the end of February. Highlights of the Uriah Heep tour include a stay at the Whiskey Au Go-Go in Los Angeles starting February 1, five days in eastern Canada and several days in the South.

In the meantime Heep has made personnel changes. The group's bassist Paul Newton and drummer Ian Clarke have left the group, the former for health reasons, the latter due to musical differences. Newton has been replaced by ex-Colosseum bassist Mark Clarke and Lee Kerlake, formerly a member of the National Head Band will take over on drums.

AMRA Sets Royalty Policies

■ NEW YORK — Rosalie W. Miller, executive director of the American Mechanical Rights Association (AMRA) announced last week the direct distribution of foreign mechanical royalties to the publisher and writer members of AMRA.

As a result of a reciprocal agreement with GEMA, the West German performing and mechanical rights society, foreign mechanical income due the AMRA members is now collected at the source by each local society in countries throughout the world, remitted to GEMA where statements are prepared for the individual publisher and writer and forwarded to AMRA for distribution to its members.

Identification of the works controlled by AMRA members (even those where lyrics have been translated into a foreign language) is achieved through the close cooperation of affiliated societies around the world.

Mrs. Miller explained that this unique service, which is available to each AMRA affiliated publisher and writer at no additional collection fee, will now enable many members to realize as much as 35% higher income. In addition, he will receive his foreign mechanical royalties six months to a year sooner than he might otherwise have received it.

Omega-Alpha & TIC Set New Merger Terms

■ NEW YORK—The Boards of Directors of Omega-Alpha, Inc., and Transcontinental Investing Corp. have agreed on modifications in terms for a proposed merger of Transcontinental Investing Corp. into Omega-Alpha, reveals James J. Ling, Chairman of Omega-Alpha, and Robert K. Lifton, Chairman of TIC.

Under the new terms Omega-Alpha will exchange 1.45 of its common shares for each common share of TIC. Also, 6.76 common shares of Omega-Alpha will be exchanged for each share of TIC convertible preference stock. In total, the transaction will involve approximately 11,500,000 of Omega-Alpha common shares.

Proxy material regarding the merger has been filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission and it is anticipated that meetings of stockholders of both companies will be held in January for a vote on the transaction. In addition to shareholder approval, the merger requires approval of certain lending institutions.

Upon completion of the merger Omega-Alpha will have assets of more than $350,000,000 shareholders' equity of approximately $75,000,000 and annual sales of more than $300,000,000. Omega-Alpha plans to seek listing of its common stock on a national securities exchange after the merger.

Phil Kahl Heads Big 7

■ Morris Levy has announced the appointment of Phil Kahl Vice President and General Professional Manager of the Big Seven Music Corp. publishing complex.

"I am most fortunate to have Phil Kahl with me. He's been active in both the publishing and record fields for many years and is very familiar with the Big Seven catalog through prior association."

Kahl's career goes back to the early '50's, where he served as Professional Manager of such music publishing firms as Red Evans Music, Joy Music and Walt Disney Music. After leaving Disney, Kahl became a partner with Morris Levy in Planetary Music and Patricia Music and also one of the original stockholders of Roulette Records.

Selling his interest in these companies, Kahl formed Diamond Records with his brother, Joe Kolsky, establishing at the same time two publishing companies with Wes Farrell.

In 1968, Diamond was sold to Edwin H. Morris, Inc., and both Kahl and Kolsky became associated with the new operation.

CLUB REVIEW

Midler Returns

■ NEW YORK—Bette Midler has returned triumphantly to Irving Haber's Upstairs at the Downstairs, the stage of which she has converted (through the deft festooning of Persian rugs and autographed pictures of Barbara Stanwyck) into the parlor of a small-town bordello as part of her never-ceasing and oft-reported search for sleaziness.

The woman, bra-less in her '40s drapery, is anything but sleazy in her choice and delivery of material. I reviewed her in the Oct. 16 issue of Record World and still feel the same way. She's an original and a powerhouse. Much of the material is the same this go-round, including her theme song, Buzzy Linhart's "Friends," although I was not quite satisfied with the subtraction of a couple of my favorites (Joni Mitchell's twin beauties "For Free" and "River," which Midler could put on the map) for some new songs that didn't quite measure up.

Try-outs

I refer to a tune called "Mr. Freedom and I," which I didn't understand, and Billie Holiday's "Tell Me More," which Midler put over in spite of itself. (She extended the last word—"enough"—for a breathtakingly poignant and sexy effect.

Of course, a performer has to try out new material and I appreciate that. It's merely that I missed a few I would have requested.

So, you can't please all the people all the time, but in Midler's case, you can come pretty close.

Incidentally, at the close of my last Midler review I wished her a fat recording contract. She's got it—with Atlantic—and will be cutting her first sides shortly, before accompanying Johnny Carson to Las Vegas in the spring.

Charles Fox

New Freedom in Film Scoring

By DAVE FINKLE

■ NEW YORK — Charles Fox, the film scorer and songwriter, was at Record World recently discussing changes.

He noted that the ways the movie and record industries have changed have prompted him to adapt and quite happily.

Having just completed the score for "Star Spangled Girl" (others include "Pufnstuf," "Barbarella," "Making It" and "Goodbye, Columbus"), he said that he now feels a new freedom in movies. "I'm so glad to be working in movies. For as long as I can remember, I wanted to write for the movies and now I'm doing it. I have always felt that in a movie the composer has complete control over what he wants the audience to hear, complete control over the elements.

Different Life

"There is a different life to each movie you do, especially in these days when film-making has become as realistic as possible. Each movie had different aims and each provides that particular moment in life that is distinctive. I try to write what in my heart I know is best for that moment. I like the fact that I have complete freedom as long as what I do makes the film work.

"The young film-makers are concerned enough that the trend toward the smaller and more personal movie is a good one. I don't go along with the idea that Hollywood is dying. If production is off in general, it's because the studios are regrouping and actually insuring a permanent Hollywood."

Focusing Attention on Movies

Because Fox considers himself a film scorer more than a songwriter, he has been focusing his attention on his movie work, but recently he formed a production company with his frequent lyricist, Norman Gimbel, which is to be known as Fox-Gimbel Productions, and which will have as its first artist-songstress Lori Lieberman.

Charles Fox

Fox feels that today's songwriter, facing the almost insurmountable competition of the songwriter-performer, must have an artist for whom he writes and whom he can use as a vehicle for his works.

Fox and Gimbel are currently cutting their first sides with Miss Lieberman, although they have no date on which product can be expected.

Although Fox has no feature length movie in store right now, he will be doing the music for the new TV sitcom, "The Chimp and I." He provided the music for "Love American Style" and he has a score to do for the made-for-television film, "Women in Chains."

Grateful Dead Live on WNEW

■ NEW YORK — The Grateful Dead recently made New York radio history as their December 5th Felt Forum concert was stereo simulcast over WNEW-FM radio. While the evening with the Dead recalled the live broadcast of the Fillmore East's closing night, this marked the first time in New York that an individual rock group was honored with an entire evening of prime radio time devoted to its live music. Under the auspices of WNEW Program Director Scott Muni and Music Director Mike Klemfner, the Warner Bros. recording artists played for a listening audience that Muni estimated to be close to 5,000,000 from 8 p.m. until 2:30 a.m.

In an effort to accommodate their legions of loyal fans, the Dead, who recently received a gold record for the two record "Grateful Dead" album, have been working closely with radio stations across the country so that their sell-out concerts can be heard by anyone with an FM radio. And to insure the high quality that is associated with the Grateful Dead, the band has been traveling with their regular engineer Bob Matthews, who has been supervising all the radio broadcasts. The Dead's stereo tour has encompassed three phases. Phase One saw the group broadcasting throughout the Midwest, with concerts in Minneapolis, Detroit, Chicago, Cleveland and Cincinnati; simulcast in stereo. Phase Two covered the Southwest with stereo transmissions from Dead concerts in Albuquerque, Atlanta and Los Angeles. The New York WNEW-FM concert was the second one during Phase Three of the Dead's new concept of radio promotion, with the first show in the series broadcast in Boston over WBCN.

Spark Lines Up Indie Distributors

■ NEW YORK—Spark Records has completed the establishment of a network of independent distributors reaching across the country, it was announced last week by Israel Diamond, Administrative Manager of the label.

"The most effective means of distributing product in today's market," said Diamond, "is through a system of independents spread across the nation, each with total knowledge of and familiarity with his own geographical area. We've acquired the best distributors in every territory," he stated, "each of whom will be working directly with Spark headquarters in New York. We feel this system is more effective than the more traditional set-up we had used since the inception of Spark Records last April, where ideas and decisions had to filter from level to level until coming to rest locally—which is, of course, the medium of proof."

Spark's distributor network is made up of: Records, Etc. in Boston; Summit Distributors, Chicago; Record Merchandising, Los Angeles; Heilicher Bros., Minneapolis; Skyline Distributing, New York;

Independent Music Sales, San Francisco; Best Records, Buffalo; Schwartz Bros., Washington, D.C.; Arc-Jay-Kay, Detroit; Arc-Jay-Kay, Dallas; Southland Distributing, Atlanta, and Tone Distributing, Miami.

Zynczak Exits Buddah Group

■ NEW YORK — Joseph Zynczak, former Vice President and house counsel for the Buddah Group, has announced his resignation from the company. Effective immediately, Zynczak joins the firm of Kurtz and Vassallo where he will continue to represent the Buddah Group as outside counsel. Kurtz and Vassallo is located at 598 Madison Avenue. Phone is 421-1870.

Argus Association

■ NEW YORK—Adam Salerno-Pat Riccio-James Cioffi Productions has become associated with Argus Record Distributors, Inc.

Lerner Charms at Y Opener

■ NEW YORK—Alan Jay Lerner appeared last week as the first speaker in this year's "Lyrics and Lyricists" series at the 92nd Street YM-YWHA. (He spoke Sunday and Tuesday, Dec. 12, 14.)

Lerner's speech, which he gave from notes, was supplemented by his singing as well as the singing of Bobbi Baird, Barbara Williams and J. T. Cromwell.

The host for the evening was series Artistic Director Maurice Levine and Richard Leonard served as accompanist.

Lerner's talk, as have been most of his predecessors, was revelatory—most usually in the area of his favorite work as opposed to what has been most popular with the public (e. g., he said that technically he is dissatisfied with all "Brigadoon" songs but one—"The Heather on the Hill").

Also revelatory was his vocalizing, which was easy and appealing, and which was distinguished by impeccable phrasing.

Among the other facets of his craftsmanship, Lerner reported (in what was overall a charming, erudite and true lecture) that the only time he ever wrote lyrics before a melody had been supplied was in the case of "Come Back to Me," the first lyric he wrote for "On a Clear Day You Can See Forever."

He called "Gigi" his favorite song from his catalog and indicated in his closing medley that close follow-ups are the title song from "Camelot," the title song from "On a Clear Day" and "I've Grown Accustomed to her Face," which he also noted was typical of the kind of song he puts in all his shows—a "recognition" song in which the hero recognizes his problem and either conquers or succumbs to it.

'Clown Town' TVer

■ Plans for the production of a pilot for a new network TV musical series, entitled "Clown Town," based on songwriter Gladys Shelley's tune of the same name, are under way. Pilot will feature Ethel Ennis and the music will be written by Miss Shelley.

We're playing this game to win.

This year the stakes got pretty high in the record industry.

Next year they'll be even higher. Success is mandatory; failure is intolerable.

We're playing the game now like there was no other record company in the entire world.

And we've got the people—and the artists—and the product—and the lines of communication—to make it happen.

'71 was a turning point for RCA Records. The RCA Recopoly board shows you why and how.

And 1972? We're playing to win all the way.

RCA Records and Tapes

Jac Holzman Discusses 1971 and the Future

point, whether it be the breakout of a single in a specific market, or establishing the availability of the artist to concentrate on personal appearances and promotion in that market, and then grafting the success you've felt in one area of the country onto others. Finding that starting point and capitalizing on it to the maximum is imperative. This is what we've been able to do in the cases of artists such as Carly Simon, Atomic Rooster, and Mickey Newbury, Elektra artists who've recently become somewhat established.

Harris: 1971 was another relatively stagnant year for the record business in the aesthetic sense as well as the financial. What do you think are some of the problems that contribute to the lack of direction in the industry?

Holzman: Well, it was a reasonably stagnant year in terms of bold new musical thrusts. However, I think the quality of records released in 1971 was overall somewhat better than anything we've seen in recent years. We didn't have any of those incredibly forthright, "wow!" albums that project new directions. What we had in 1971 was backing and filling. The thrusts had been made in prior years and some steam was being lost—but the general plateau of quality was substantially increased. Nevertheless there were classically great albums in 1971, but more importantly, the stagnancy of the music led to a re-focusing of attention on certain areas of music that were lost in the sturm und drang of the Rock and Roll Explosion of 1967-68. Certainly there is now a greater interest in jazz, classical, avant-garde classical, and certain types of exotic, ethnic music. There was time, for instance, this year to focus on a Scott Joplin Piano Rags album which we issued on Nonesuch, an album that might have gotten lost in the shuffle a few years ago, but is now an album that has sold amazingly well, abstract of the fact that it's a classical album. We confidently expect to do 60 to 70 thousand units. That's just one of the beneficial by-products of the backing and filling I was talking about earlier. Also, stagnancy has led to a vital search for new artists, something that will bring new blood into the business.

Harris: What do you think all this will lead to?

Holzman: Right now, the music suffers from a crisis of identity. But this crisis of identity is one we impose on ourselves. We all like to think we're going in the same direction, but it is precisely when we are without direction that some obscure artist appears somewhere—perhaps on a label that is famous or one that's unknown—and makes a miracle of his music, which makes everyone sit up and take notice. I think one of the good aspects of the music business is that we all look for and we all rally behind the artist who is able to create excitement by going in a new direction. And usually those are the artists who have successfully been able to combine and synthesize in their own music all that's gone before and then build something fresh upon it to extend it off into the future.

Harris: As the business evolves, what new roles do you see in the media—specifically FM radio and the underground press—having to fulfill to keep the music alive?

Holzman: I think that most of the media have failed because of a dangerous tendency to want to be "in" with what's going on behind the scenes. And the result has sometimes been a very unhealthy inbreeding of people who are chasing after "hip." Most record criticism that I read is worthless. In the first place, it's unmusical and doesn't leave you with the feeling that you know the artist and his music any better. Sometimes it doesn't even leave you with the feeling that the person who listened to the record liked it or not. More often than not, you'll see record reviews which say, "Such and such is a nifty record BUT . . ." The "but's" may not be that important. If the record leaves you feeling good, then anybody else who purchases the record may discover the same "but's" that you did, but leave that to them. I think that the function of the music critic is to say something new that adds to the music, not necessarily to discuss and analyze and stir the entrails of what the music already says on its own. Some of the best record reviews that I've ever read have been the short capsules that come in the letters to the editor of Hit Parader Magazine. When you read those, you have a feeling that the person writing really liked the record—he bought it and now he's merely rendering you his opinion. Professional criticism, to me, has always been suspect anyway. There are very few great critics and certainly the music business does not have more than its share.

FM radio has gone from an exciting infancy to a rather senile middle age without the excitement of youth that should have come in-between. There are perhaps a dozen really meaningful FM stations around the country. So much of what I hear in my own travels and in the extensive listening to FM radio I try to do strikes me as being nothing more than unprofessional musical masturbation. One of the better things about Top 40 radio is that music directors and program directors and disc jockeys make an A&R judgment in much the same way a record company does when they decide to play a record or not to play a record. FM, because it is financed substantially by advertising from record companies, tries to give everybody a "taste." The result is that the critical faculties of disc jockies and music directors are not often employed and that the airwaves are glutted with some pretty mediocre music.

FM Suggestions

I think that FM is particularly unsuccessful in breaking American artists. For some reason, FM still seems quite effective in two specific areas: 1) the introduction of English artists to the U.S., usually by the playing of imported recordings, and 2) informing an already interested public that there is a new record available by an artist who may be a favorite of many listeners. FM can serve as a valuable listening booth. But until FM can begin to create new artists out of its own ingenuity and out of the use of its own professional capabilities, I will be disappointed in the medium. There are, however, individuals in FM radio who obviously work at their jobs and enjoy them, who program meaningful segments of music, the segues of which are intelligent and apt, and who can create moods in the structuring of the tunes and the order in which they play them. For the most part, what I hear out there is reasonably careless programming of what's new mixed with a lot of tracks that I'm sure most of the public is bored with by now. If most of the audience owns the key Beatles and Stones and Crosby, Stills, Nash, and Young, and James Taylor albums, etc., then why constantly play them? Why not use that time to expose creatively new material which in the opinion of the station's music staff, makes a musical contribution? In other words, I'm asking FM radio to go a bit more out on a limb than they have in the past.

Harris: What do you think video cassettes are going to mean in terms of the total music business? Is it going to evolve into a new art form that eliminates discs and records as we know them, or will it exist side by side with them as something else?

Holzman: First of all, I don't think it's ever going to eliminate the phonograph record anymore than television eliminated radio. There are just so many times in your life when you don't want to see something and you don't wish to give your total concentration to a piece of entertainment. In the non-literal aspect, think back to radio where you had to supply the image that went with the Lone Ranger. That image was always far better than what you saw in the TV version years later. It's the same way with phonograph records. Phonograph records—and I believe emphatically that disc and tape are going to co-exist for at least another decade—are not going to be supplanted by cartridge television. In fact, I believe that the whole cartridge television thing has been blown disastrously out of proportion. It's very unfortunate that the major magazines of the U.S. chose in 1970 to indicate to the public that cartridge television was just around the corner. As a matter of fact, we are now no further along than we were in 1970. Until such time as there can be some standardization of systems, cartridge television is not going to be viable. We're not going to be in a sufficiently healthy economic climate in the immediately foreseeable future to create a situation where a lot of people are going to be able to spend upwards of $600 to $1000 for cartridge television to put into their homes.

Interestingly enough, this is an area where the Japanese may for the first time in our history decide the hardware race. I feel that it will be some kind of a tape system, but I also think that the EVR system, for instance, has already shown many of its impracticalities and that tape in sufficient quantities can be mass-duplicated at a price almost as low as the original, selecto-

Jac Holzman Dialog

vision process which RCA had developed using a coherent light source through a hologram embossed on poly-vinyl chloride.

Actually, I would look for the greatest immediate increase in video programming for the home to come through cable television, because the consumer already has the television equipment in his home, and the addition of an inexpensive adaptor which can be rented for a relatively painless amount on a monthly contract strikes me as being far more acceptable to the American consumer than the purchase of another major piece of hardware. I think, parenthetically, that there are great opportunities in cable TV for the exposure of new artists, opportunities that all of us in this industry should examine carefully, because when there are suddenly maybe a dozen additional channels added to the channels already available in a market, those stations are going to be voracious in their demand for program material to fill the hours of the day. And this is one area in which I feel the record industry can move in effectively in terms of making available, on some kind of mutually beneficial basis, special programming to fill those hours. This special programming can simultaneously entertain the public and promote our artists. I would, therefore, make a plea for consideration by television manufacturers of the inclusion of stereo in television sets. Personally, I know of no technical reason why multiplexing cannot be automatic on all TV sets and installed at the factory the same way it is in the FM stereo multiplex system for a radio.

Harris: What would your advice be to someone starting in the music business today?

Holzman: I think someone starting in the record business today should do what every good record executive does—which is to make it up as you go along.

Bagley Bows Sassy Smiles

■ NEW YORK — Painted Smiles is the stylish new label just born to Ben Bagley for his famous Revisited Series of tuneful tributes to the world's most illustrious composers and lyricists.

Bagley's own Painted Smiles label launches 10 Revisiteds in all. Seven are re-issues, three brand new ones.

First of the new discs is DeSylva, Brown & Henderson. In Bagley's own words, "DeSylva, Brown & Henderson is the perfect album to introduce by Painted Smiles label. Their songs reflect the sass and impudence of the Twenties and Thirties far better than any other composer I've revisited. Painted Smiles was a 1920 expression referring to anyone over thirty whose lips had been tarnished by the lies, de-cits and perverted sexual experiences one must undergo in order to survive in the Big City". This album features Cab Calloway, Blossom Dearie, Gloria DeHaven, Dorothy Loudon, and Charles Rydell. Arrangements are by Norman Paris.

Second of the three new ones is Vincent Youmans Revisited. There are 14 Youmans tunes, two of them rendered by top dramatic star Maureen Stapleton making her recording debut. In addition, there's Mary McCarty of "Follies" fame. Cab Calloway, Blossom Dearie, Gloria DeHaven, Dorothy Loudon, Charles Rydell.

The third new release is Ira Gershwin Revisited. The Gershwin greats are by Margaret Whiting in her recording comeback. Mary McCarty, Danny Meehan, Blossom Dearie, Charles Rydell, and re-introducing to America Ethel Shutta who's currently in "Follies."

The seven Revisited re-issues on Bagley's own new Painted Smiles label are Alan Jay Lerner, Cole Porter, Rodgers & Hart. Vernon Duke, Rodgers & Hart Vol. II, Harold Arlen, and Arthur Schwartz.

Anne Floating

■ LOS ANGELES — Capitol's Anne Murray will ride on the only Canadian entry in the annual Rose Bowl Parade on New Year's Day. Sponsored by the Province of Nova Scotia, the float will be a floral replica of the Blue Nose Schooner, Nova Scotia's national emblem.

Good Friends

'Truth' Garnering Airplay; LP Up

■ HOLLYWOOD — As Ray Ruff's debut Oak Records album, the deluxe, twin-disk Biblical rock opera "Truth Of Truths" climbs its way up the national bestseller charts, reports from all over the nation reveal some 70 AM and FM radio stations are playing the 100-minute package in entirety. According to Dave Chackler and Jack Nelson, marketing and promotional toppers for the fast-burgeoning label, the following stations are among those that have climbed aboard the bandwagon in key U.S. markets:

Baltimore: WACO, WAYE; Indianapolis, WIBC, WNAP-FM; Hartford, WDRG, WPOP, WICE; Philadelphia, WFIL, WIBG, WDAS-FM, WCAU-FM; Memphis, WMPS, WMC-FM; Nashville, WKDA, WMAK; Chicago, WCLF, WLS, WGLD-FM, WBBM-FM, WXFM, W D A I - F M ; Minneapolis, WDGY, KDWB, KQRS-FM, WCCO-FM, WWTC; St. Louis, KXOK, KADI-FM, KSHE-FM; Los Angeles, KRLA, KMPC, KGIL.

Other cities in which key stations are participating in spinning the entire production include: Boston, Little Rock, Augusta, Louisville, Pittsburgh, Wichita, Fargo, Cleveland, Milwaukee, Youngstown, Canton, Salinas, Sacramento, San Jose, Stockton, Oklahoma City, Charlotte, Shreveport.

VMI Taping

■ VMI, Inc. (Vegas Music International) United Recording Division was selected to tape the musical accompaniment portions for the Ed Sullivan Special AGVA Awards to be aired January 14. Portions of the opening and closing, special effects, play-on and play-offs were recorded in the United Recording studios Saturday, December 11 by the entire Ed Sullivan orchestra, conducted by Ray Bloch and produced by Robert Arthur. Bill Porter, president of VMI, was the engineer for the taping. This marks another first for the newly-formed complete entertainment and recording conglomerate in Las Vegas.

Dinnall on West

■ HOLLYWOOD — George Clements, President of West Records, has announced the signing of Carlton Dinnall, whose first release is "Something More."

Coffey Gold For 'Scorpio'

■ NEW YORK—Dennis Coffey has been putting down some of the most innovative guitar work around for the past several years. It was his wah wah guitar on "Cloud Nine" by the Temptations, and his leads can be heard on many of the best records of the Jackson 5, Gladys Knight, Wilson Pickett, Paul Anka and many others.

His riffs led to a contract as a soloist with Sussex Records, and last week Coffey earned his first gold record for the current smash single, "Scorpio." At the same time his "Evolution" album, released over a year ago, is just now starting to climb the charts.

Record World's Mike Sigman, Dennis Coffey, Record World's Mitchell Fink.

In a visit to Record World, Coffey outlined the simple reason why he is breaking at this time: "People weren't ready for this kind of music until recently. It took someone as big as Isaac Hayes with 'Shaft' to get them into that."

Coffey, who seems a little awed by his sudden success, will begin playing concerts on a more regular basis now, and is preparing a new album for Sussex. He has some new guitar ideas to try out on the public, and he hopes this time they'll be ready for them a little sooner.

Ienner Agenda

■ NEW YORK — C.A.M.-U.S.A. Exec Jimmy Ienner has announced the completion of a Raspberries LP for Capitol. The album will be released following a single release in January. Raspberries is a self-contained group which originates from Cleveland. Ienner produced the album at the New York Record Plant.

December 15 Ienner flew to Miami to coordinate production for the debut LP for Bang, a new Capitol group. A three-piece Philadelphia group, Bang is managed by Rick Bowen and produced by Michael Sunday. Album will be cut at Criterion Studios in Miami. C.A.M.-U.S.A. publishes all material for both groups.

McLean Concert Turns to Celluloid

■ NEW YORK—When I interviewed UA's Don McLean in the December 11 edition of Record World, he stated, "Film-maker Robert Elfstrom is making a film using 20 of my songs as a script. He'll then shoot visual sequences to coincide with the music, BUT I WILL NOT, REPEAT, WILL NOT, BE IN THE FILM." With this in mind, my temperature reached its boiling point as I walked into Wollman Auditorium at Columbia University fully prepared to enjoy a Don McLean concert. I was greeted with blinding lights focused directly at the audience, lights that were set up by the same Robert Elfstrom for the sole purpose of filming the same Don McLean. Now, I'll admit that a two dollar concert ticket is a rare treat in this town, but it doesn't give a performer license to abuse the privilege he so desperately works for.

Before McLean went on, the emcee, who all evening long was the recipient of boos and catcalls, told the audience that McLean would explain the annoyance. After three songs McLean, in a condescending manner, told of the film project he and Elfstrom have been working on for three years. He said something about "bleep" film companies not knowing what on earth they're doing when it comes to filming musicians. He does have a point there. With a dearth of films dealing with your favorite rock group on tour, Elfstrom and McLean might one day give us something that is sensitive and worthwhile, but I'll forever crusade against making a mockery of a concert performance at the expense of others.

The evening was then marred by a real "bomb scare" that halted the performance midway through McLean's set. Although the tempo of the show was disrupted, the scare served the purpose of taking everyone's mind off those dreadful lights. And with it all, McLean emerged victorious.

Firstly, he's not only very good, he's great. The combination of brilliant lyrics and beautiful melodies doesn't frequently grace our ears. McLean seems to achieve this with almost no effort.

Secondly, he has the uncanny ability, usually reserved for superstars, of leading his audience as if they were sheep, definitely a pied piper effect to be sure. Thirdly, and probably most important, "American Pie" (UA), well on its way to the top of singles chart, has created the biggest lyric controversy since "Paul Is Dead." This, undoubtedly, will have a major effect on our industry. It's a healthy sign when the general public begins to discuss lyrics. Although it appears at the outset that McLean will benefit greatly from the success of "American Pie," the industry will prosper to a far greater degree.

In an age when we have been taking cues from our British neighbors and letting them set the trends, McLean's emergence is a gift. He might make us think more seriously of our roots, and one day we should be glad to call him our own. I truly hope he thinks about the shambles of last Friday (10). It might just serve him well to reassess his attitude about public performances and the responsibility of an artist to his audience.

Folio Rushed

■ The Big Three Music Corp. is rushing out a folio of songs by the Hillside Singers to coincide with the release of the group's first album on Metro-media, "I'd Like to Teach the World to Sing (In Perfect Harmony)".

Over the Miles with Mylon

■ NEW YORK—How does it feel to be a newly-signed Columbia artist, have your first album for the label produced by Felix Pappalardi and be embarking on a sold-out tour with the Who?

According to Mylon, "I'm so happy I don't know what to do."

Mylon Lefevre is a member of the legendary first family of gospel. He has written and produced an uncountable number of top gospel tunes, but a few years ago he discovered that "the only way to communicate is through rock and roll." So he left the gospel scene and began the arduous task of trying to make it as a rock and roller. After some hard times, and a few unsuccessful albums during which his band, Holy Smoke, nevertheless stayed with him, Mylon landed a Columbia contract and began really getting it together for the first time.

Of course, it doesn't hurt to have Felix Pappalardi behind you, and, according to Mylon, "I learned more being in the studio with Felix than I could have in four years of college." The result is "Mylon," the first album with which he is completely happy.

Mylon, Columbia's Hope Antoon, Windfall's National Promotion director Richard Totoian.

As Mylon, who is managed by Windfall, sees it, his career can now only get better. A single will probably be released soon, and hopefully it will be

'Cold Bear' To Atco

■ NEW YORK—Atco Records has purchased a hot master called "Cold Bear" by The Gators. The single was obtained from Ullis Gaines, head of Gatur Records of New Orleans.

"Cold Bear", which has all the earmarks of a chart-topping side, has been rush-released by the label.

The deal was negotiated by Atlantic's A&R Director Mark Meyerson.

"Sixteen Tons," the song that knocked the crowd out at a recent press party. In any event, the former gospel singer seems in a perfect position to become a successful rock and roller.

'Black Nativity' Re-Opens Off-B'way

■ NEW YORK—Vinnette Carroll will bring back the celebrated "Black Nativity" which has been a roof-raising hit in 29 countries—for a run at the Church of the Holy Communion, 6th Avenue and 20th Street, December 21. This first extended engagement of Langston Hughes' gospel song play in New York City in ten years is sponsored by Miss Carroll's Urban Arts Corps and the N.Y. State Council on the Arts, with the cooperation of the Rev. Charles A. Elliott, rector of the Church of Holy Communion.

Professor Alex Bradford and his Bradford Singers, the show-stoppers of the Urban Arts Corps, productions of "Don't Bother Me, I Can't Cope" and "Bury the Dead", return to the gospel-singing roles they created in the original six-month run here of "Black Nativity", opening in December, 1961 at the 41st Street Theatre.

Miss Carroll is both director and narrator for the gospel play, as she was for the New York original and the subsequent tour.

Knight Day

■ LOS ANGELES — Even a well-oiled machine needs someone to throw the switch, and the master switchman these days is Terry Knight, manager-producer of Grand Funk Railroad, whose personal touch marks all GFR endeavors.

Knight flew to Los Angeles Saturday, Dec. 11 to inspect the Grand Funk billboard heralding the group's new best-selling album, "E Pluribus Funk." Approaching the Sunset Strip site in his limousine, Knight found the location not to his liking. Picking up the limo phone, he called his advertising representative to have the sign removed, at great expense, to a completely different prime position—and Knight hadn't even touched the ground! He then ordered the car turned around and headed back to the airport to catch the one o'clock flight to New York, where he arrived in time for a midnight supper with his wife.

Gayle McCormick, Kindred, Underhand In Free Concert

■ CHINO, CALIF.—Gayle McCormick and rock groups Kindred and the Underhand Band will headline a unique holiday concert behind prison walls at the California Institution for Men here Dec. 21, it has been announced by Reb Foster, of Reb Foster Associates, Beverly Hills, personal management firm.

The free concert is part of a radio and music program being instituted at the prison by Harvey Miller, former disc jockey and currently an inmate. With the support and approval of prison officials, Miller is launching a radio school for prisoners. Additionally, he hopes to stage free shows and concerts at the Institution, and the Dec. 21 affair is the first of what he hopes will be many such events.

Foster's participation is the result of a long-time friendship with Miller. Once himself a full-time disc jockey, Foster, whose client roster also includes Three Dog Night and Steppenwolf, became interested in the program when Miller contacted him from the prison and asked for help. In addition to supplying talent for the free concert, Foster is also helping stock Miller's record library.

Anyone having donations for the Miller project can call Bill Brock of the Columbia School of Broadcasting, (213) 469-3151, or contact Russ Howard, Correctional Officer, Box 128, Chino, Calif., or Harvey Miller, Program Director, KCIM, Box 128, Chino, Calif.

— Record World 1971 Year End Poll

GAR Intro's New Product

■ CINCINNATI — General American Records last week gave the Cincinnati music community fresh hope of becoming an important music center. GAR and President James P. Mills hosted a gala preview luncheon for national product to be released next quarter.

The theme of the presentation was local production. Bob Lanier, GAR's A&R Director, explained, "When General American moved to Cincinnati last February, its intention was to encourage local producers and artists to compete with artists and producers in other recording centers. This dream has now come true. All GAR product to be released in the first quarter of 1972 was produced completely by Cincinnati talents and in Cincinnati studios." Lanier then played parts of over 25 releases, all of which received enthusiastic applause.

GAR concluded their program by presenting Tommy Sears, one of the company's new artists. Backed by the Jerry Samuels III, Sears performed several tunes from his upcoming album. His first single, "Salvation Train," will be released in January. Also compimented were cuts from GAR's "Godspell" album, also to be issued in January.

CONCERT REVIEW

Beacon Off Beam

■ NEW YORK — The Beacon Theater has been known to present some unusual combinations of talent with satisfactory results, but last week's triple bill of Pharoah Sanders, Mongo Santamaria and Wayne Cochran was a classic example of a poorly-promoted concert.

Not only was there a very tiny crowd, but virtually everyone there had come to hear Columbia's Santamaria. Needless to say, this was very tough on Impulse's Sanders and Cochran, each of whom has much to offer a receptive audience, but whose musical styles are light years away from each other's and from Santamaria's. The result was a decent reception for the commercial and pleasant Latin stylings of Santamaria, and a totally inadequate chance for the other performers, particularly Cochran, to prove what they were worth.

Cochran, who has recently been signed to Epic and will have an album out on that label soon, is a top-flight live performer whose hard working methods and soulful vocals put him in a category with James Brown. He has a backup band of approximately 15 brass musicians, who are talented and together. It simply wasn't his crowd at the Beacon on this occasion, however, and try as he might (and he did), he couldn't get any chemistry going with the rude crowd. At any rate, when it was possible to hear some of the new songs he got into, they sounded fine. Let's hope he comes to New York again under better conditions.

CLUB REVIEW

Albert Collins Total

■ NEW YORK—Albert Collins became a professional entertainer in 1952. It took 16 years for the blues guitarist to be interviewed. That was in Los Angeles in 1968. "Not only was that my first interview, I think it was the first time anyone asked me a question," he said.

Collins spent most of these 16 years playing in his home state of Texas. Los Angeles and New York represented a myth. His recent engagement at the Gaslight Au Go Go brought him to New York for the first time in his life. He remarked, "I feel like a kid in this town. For the first time I'm learning a business. It's rewarding to have all these people come in and ask me questions. I think I'm learning more than they are."

His favorite is Albert King, although he's quick to add that he digs B. B. King and T-Bone Walker.

In the opinion of this reviewer Collins could play with the best of them. His act is never planned. He has an engaging way of playing while filtering through the audience. His six-man combo, which includes baritone and tenor sax, trumpet, bass and drums, moved freely about the club, playing to small clusters of people along the way.

Most of his material came from his new Tumbleweed album, "There's Gotta Be A Change," and the next time he graces this city's presence, be sure not to miss him. He's not just a conventional blues singer. He is definitely a total performer.

1971 Has Country, R&B Flavor

joyed the most fruitful year of their careers this year.

Meanwhile such relatively new r&b acts as the Chi-Lites (Brunswick), King Floyd (Chimneyville), Jean Knight (Stax), Denise LaSalle (Westbound), the Persuaders (Atco), Bill Withers (Sussex), Al Green (Hi), the Undisputed Truth (Gordy), and the 8th Day (Invictus) reached the upper regions of the singles chart for the first time.

Although the album chart has never been r&b's strong suit, artists such as Marvin Gaye, the Chi-Lites, Aretha Franklin and Isaac Hayes (Enterprise) made impressive inroads in the field that augur well for the future.

Folk-Style Trend

The final months of 1971 have also witnessed the resurgence in popularity of folk-style music with such artists as John Denver (RCA), Don McLean (United Artists), Joan Baez (Vanguard), Cat Stevens (A&M) and Jonathan Edwards (Capricorn) all checking in with hit singles. Kris Kristofferson and Mickey Newbury must also be counted in this category. And the signal event of the folk revival was, of course, the return of Bob Dylan (Columbia) to protest song.

Perhaps the most significant development on record in this year of women's liberation was the emergence of the female artist as a potent commercial entity. Appropriately enough, Carole King (Ode), long a creative force in the industry, led the way, followed by artists such as Carly Simon (Elektra), Melanie (Neighborhood), Helen Reddy (Capitol) and Olivia Newton-John (Uni), all of whom had chart singles and/or albums in 1971.

The sub-teenage market was strengthened and expanded this year by such groups as the Jackson 5 (Motown), the Osmonds (MGM) and the Partridge Family (Bell), and, as solo acts, their respective lead singers. Michael Jackson, Donny Osmond and David Cassidy. Which is not to say that records by these artists don't appeal to older age groups, but simply that they have helped to develop a new market for the industry.

Chart comebacks were made in 1971 by such important acts of the 1960s as the Beach Boys (Brother), Tommy James ( Roulette), Sonny and/or Cher (Kapp) and the Raiders (Columbia), who now appear ready to play a creative musical role in the decade of the 1970s.

Established super-groups such as Santana, Chicago and Blood, Sweat & Tears (Columbia), Three Dog Night (Dunhill), Carpenters (A&M), Bread (Elektra), the Who (Decca), Sly and the Family Stone (Epic), Grand Funk Rail Road (Capitol) and the Bee Gees (Atco) remained consistently big sellers in 1971. The Rolling Stones' (Rolling Stones) first album on their own label sold more copies than any of their previous releases.

Ex-Beatles George Harrison, John Lennon, Paul McCartney and Ringo Starr (Apple) sell more records today as solo artists than was possible for them as a group. This is also true of Neil Young (Reprise), Stephen Stills, Graham Nash and David Crosby (Atlantic), who still record as a group as well.

There will be those who characterize 1971 as a year of little, if any, direction in music and the record industry. They will argue that no new forms of musical expression captured the imagination of the mass record-buying public. It will be said that the industry spread itself thin in attempting to capture too many specialized markets.

However, it can be seen that there is remarkable strength and creativity in every current field of musical endeavor. If no new form has emerged, older, established styles have been refined and improved upon. And when a new form comes to dominate the musical decade of the 1970s, the year 1971 will be seen as a period of profound significance.

Electro Sound Sets Soviet Tape Plan(t)s

■ HOLBROOK, NEW YORK—Allen Weintraub, President of Electro Sound, a subsidiary of Viewlex, Inc., announced last week that Electro Sound has entered into an agreement with Melodia Music to supply turn key tape duplicating facilities to be installed in Russia for the mass duplication of magnetic tape cassettes that would be used initially for consumer entertainment.

All in the Atlantic Family

"Those Were the Days," written by Lee Adams and Charles Strouse, and "do it as an old timey song with a Dixieland band." He produced the O'Connor-Stapleton single in an hour and a half, and, to preserve the spontaneity so inherent in the song, had it released with no overdubs of any kind.

Kagan, who worked closely with producers Norman Lear and Bud Yorkin, as well as with the entire cast of the show, explained the success of the album simply by observing that "people who love the show and hate to wait until Saturday night can now play the record any time. And we got tremendous cooperation from the members of the cast, who made many appearances despite the enormous pressures of doing the show each week."

After Kagan had put the record together, the sales, promotion, merchandising and advertising approaches had to be worked out. In speaking with Dick Kline, National Promotion Manager, and Sal Uterano, Sales Manager, Record World learned that the sales and promotion campaigns were unique in the history of Atlantic. In Kline's words, "we, of course, had a built-in promotion in the show itself, and we aimed our campaigns wherever we felt we could hit the same mass audience that watches the show." The promotional campaign, which included many contests and unusual displays, was particularly unique in that each local promotion man was given the freedom to do what he felt was necessary to break the record in his territory. Philadelphia was the first area to reorder, and the rest of the nation, including r&b markets, country markets and every other kind of market, was soon to follow."

"But the biggest sales, according to Uterano, "are coming from family type stores."

Rolontz Talks

On the advertising end, Bob Rolontz, VP for Advertising and Public Relations, outlined his full-scale media campaign. He not only went heavily on the traditional trade and consumer ads, but he put ads in TV Guide, laid in spots on TV shows in many major markets, and even had billboards put in strategic locations in L.A. Other advertising aids included full color stand-ups and posters picturing Archie Bunker holding up the album, and, of course, the many TV and radio appearances made by the members of the TV cast.

Rolontz expects the "All in the Family" package to sell for at least six months, and both he and Kagan look forward to some kind of follow-up in the spring. Other "All in the Family" projects are also in the air, and the millions of fans of the show and the records can expect to be exposed to some surprises in the coming months.

Some people don't join ASCAP because they think they can't get in. We don't know whether to be flattered or annoyed.

Somewhere along the line, word got out that ASCAP was the Phi Beta Kappa of the music industry. And the only way to become a member was to be elected for outstanding achievement.

A look at our list of members didn't do anything to discourage it: Irving Berlin, Richard Rodgers, Burt Bacharach, Bob Dylan. (You get the idea.)

While we're flattered that many writers have this view of us, we're happy to admit there isn't a shred of truth in it. And if almost all the outstanding writers in the business seem to belong to ASCAP, there's a good reason.

Royalties.

ASCAP collects more royalties for its members.

You see, ASCAP is a performing rights society owned by its members—writers and publishers of music. As a result they're able to look out for their interests better than someone who isn't a writer or publisher. They have to account to no one but themselves.

So who do you have to be to join ASCAP?

Simple.

Any composer or author of a copyrighted musical composition who shall have had at least one work of his composition or writing regularly published or commercially recorded is eligible.

Any composer or author of a copyrighted musical composition who is not found to be eligible to membership in the participating class may be elected as an associate member.

Any person, firm, corporation or partnership actively engaged in the music publishing business whose musical publications have been used or distributed on a commercial scale, and who assumes the financial risk involved in the normal publications of musical works is eligible.

So if you're thinking of joining a performing rights organization, or have already joined one and are sorry it wasn't ASCAP, get in touch with Dave Combs in New York at (212) 595-3050. Or Herb Gottlieb in Los Angeles at (213) 466-7681. Or Ed Shea in Nashville at (615) 244-3936.

If the line's busy, hang up and call again.

After all, there are 30,000 of you and only three of them.

CONCERT REVIEW

Brewer, Shipley Carnegie Headliners

■ NEW YORK — Brewer and Shipley live on a farm in Kansas, but every once in a while they venture a trip to New York to give their large and growing following a new taste of their music. On their latest trip they headlined a show at Carnegie Hall (3), and again succeeded in coming up with a few pleasant surprises for the fans.

Playing most of the familiar songs from their first two albums and several things from the new "Shake Off the Demons," the Kama Sutra duo revealed a somewhat more driving sound than in previous concerts. Mark Naftalin, noted blues pianist who has appeared on their albums, played with them, and, when he could overcome the faulty sound system, added much to their sound. Highlights included "Shake Off the Demons," "Indian Summer" and "One Toke Over the Line."

Opening the show was Buddah's Steve Goodman, one of the best guitarists among the new wave of songwriter-performers. He played a diverse set, the outstanding numbers, a satire on country songs and the melodic and touching "Would You Like to Learn to Dance."

Mike Sigman

■ Gladys Shelley and Buddy Greco have written the new Mike Douglas single on MGM, "For a Little While She's Mine."

South African composer John Silberman of N. W. Ayer has written the music for a 30-second Bic Pen commercial, arranged by David Lucas.

Sam Coslow, President of Flamingo Music of Miami, has set two dates for rock group Hot City: the Climax in Miami Dec. 12-24 and with Alice Cooper at Pirate's World in Ft. Lauderdale Dec. 25-26.

Creek Symphony, William Morris Agency, Inc.; Jake Jones, Belkin College Concerts; Potliquor, Great South Artists; and David Rea, Premier Talent.

AMSTERDAM—N.V. Phonogram released the Chuck Mangione double-album "Friends and Love" (Mercury) and a single from the album, called "Hill Where the Lord Hides." There is much demand for this US chart item.

From Philips France N.V. Phonogram rushed out three versions of the "Jesus Cristo" hit. Though there are well over a dozen versions on the market now, it looks like the Peter MacLane record on Philips will be the winner.

Phonograms Decca Dept. reports fine sales for the Tom Jones "At Caesars Palace Las Vegas" double-album on Decca and the release of Engelbert Humperdinck's "Live at the Riviera" album.

British singer Daniel Boone (of "Daddy, Don't You Walk So Fast" fame) has a new record out in Holland, entitled "Mamma" (Penny Farthing).

On Nov. 3-4 Black Sabbath did two sell-out concerts in Rotterdam and Amsterdam, giving a tremendous boost to their "Masters of Reality" LP (Vertigo).

The Anglo/German Les Humphries Singers have a new hit in Holland with "We're going down to Jordan" (Decca). The record is currently 12 on the national hit parade.

Ex-rock singer Peter Koelewijn has a smash hit in Holland. Peter re-recorded a song called "Kom van dat dat af" ("Get Off of That Roof"), which he recorded in the late fifties for EMI and eventually earned him a Golden Disk. Peter recorded his new version for Philips and is currently in the Top 10.

French star Enrico Macias in Holland on Dec. 16 to tape three songs for a Saturday Night TV-show, to be transmitted on Dec. 18.

MILAN—With the song "Amore Caro Amore Bel o" ("Dear Love, Wonderful Love") penned by Mogol (lyricist) and Lucio Battisti (composer), the Italian artist Bruno Lauzi has reached the peak of his long career. "Amore Caro Amore Bello" in the No. 1 record in our charts and Lauzi's biggest hit. The name of this talented artist appeared on the musical scene 10 years ago, making his debut both as singer and composer on the CGD label. His first disc which climbed our charts was "Ritornerei," followed by "La Donna Del Sud." Many Italian artists have recorded his successful compositions, such as "Il Poeta" waxed by Mina and by Giorgio Gaber. As a lyricist Bruno was responsible for the Italian versions of Jacques Brel's songs, and for many of the songs of Serge Reggiani. Just recently he joined the publishing and record group Numero Uno.

MIDEM informed us that more than 300 firms from throughout the world have already registered for the 1972 edition of the event. The list of the Italian participants includes: Gruppo Editoriale Ariston, Beat Record Company (a new record firm with main office in Rome), Bixio Edizioni Musicali, Campi & C. S.p.A., CBS-Sugar and Sugarmusic, EMI Italiana, Fonit-Cetra S.P.A. and R.I.F.I. Record Company. Other Italian firms are expected to register within a few days, and the participation of RCA and Numero Uno seems certain due to the success they have had in past years at MIDEM.

Inc. Similar copyright problems have also delayed Lennon's solo record, "Luck Of The Irish," and there is no immediate intention of issuing, in any territory as yet. However, brighter news for George Harrison's Madison Square Gardens Live album, which is now confirmed for world wide distribution on Apple by CBS excepting the U.S.A. and Canada, where Capitol will handle it. The recording, which also features Ringo Starr, Bob Dylan, Leon Russell and Billy Preston, is a three-record album, complete with book package, and will be available immediately, at the suggested retail price of $12.98, in the U.S.A., with release here following shortly. Finally Klein revealed plans for a new Rolling Stones album, titled "Hot Rocks." This is an anthology of Stones music from the early days through to the present time, two "Sticky Fingers" tracks being included. Again, sadly, no definite plans for its U.K. issue, but ABKCO have confirmed that they will schedule it for Stateside shipping early in the new year.

A & M Records have appointed a creative director for their British operation, the post being taken by Californian, British resident Michael Doud. In an announcement made by A & M's European Director Larry Yaskiel and British Director John Deacon, Michael De May was also newly appointed, taking up the position of European co-ordinator, based in London. This reorganization will enable Yaskiel to concentrate on signing new British artists and the exploitation of all A & M product. He will continue to work out of the London office, reporting directly to president Jerry Moss.

Echo Intros Noise Reducer

■ NEW YORK—On the heels of introducing the revolutionary new automatic mixdown computer unit, "Digilog," which was developed and designed by Echo Sound Studios' president Nick Balsamo, the studio announced the addition of an additional feature known as the DBX 187 Noise Reduction System.

Considered to be the most advanced facility in its field, the DBX 187 eliminates tape hiss noise without effecting the sound reproduction on the tape. Its many uses include the re-processing of old tapes even on mixdown, in cutting master discs and is particularly effective in on-location recording.

Balsamo advises the DBX 187 is totally compatible with "Digilog" and its overall compatibility is simplified to the extent where no calibration is necessary with any tapes, regardless of their source.

The DBX 187 was used last week at Echo Sound Studios in the recording and videotaping of an exciting new rock group, Hemlock, and Balsamo praised the results of the sessions largely due to the effectiveness of the DBX 187 Noise Reduction System. Balsamo also

Who What?

■ HOLLYWOOD — What can honestly be said about Decca's Who at this point? They sold out the 18,500 seat Inglewood Forum 90 minutes after tickets went on sale. Their very presence in the facility caused one young lad to try and catapult over the turnstile to gain admission. Finally towards the end of the concert, the Who, in their blinding, blistering brilliance, had those 18,600 people on their feet for almost half an hour.

This report of the Who's effect is a result of the most dazzling musicianship displayed in this country over the past year. The songs, the arrangements and the total commitment to the material is so straight-forward. They came on, played, and, in every instance on this tour, conquered.

From "My Generation" and "Behind Blue Eyes" to a medley from the now legendary "Tommy," it was 1971's most memorable evening in rock. One crowning touch to be mentioned

Deep Purple are currently experiencing an unfortunate run of bad luck which commenced with vocalist Ian Gillian's illness last month. Gillian, now fully recovered, traveled with the rest of the group to Montreaux (South of France) to utilize the Rolling Stones' 16-track mobile recording unit for their next album. Their idea of housing it in the impressive casino was squashed, when during a Frank Zappa concert, the day before they planned to start recording, the place caught fire and a few hours later became a complete ruin. All Deep Purple members were amongst those who escaped unhurt and they now intend to switch the unit to the Montreaux Pavillion, expecting to complete the album by the end of this month.

No better Christmas gifts for Tim Rice and Andrew Lloyd-Webber than the gold and platinum discs for Superstar, presented to them by Anthony Grant, M.P., Parliamentary Under-secretary of State for the Department of Trade and Industry, at London's Inn On The Park Hotel earlier this month. Grant also paid tribute to MCA Records for the part they played in helping U.K. invisible exports.

Gershwin Spec To Daybreak; Astaire, Lemmon Star

■ HOLLYWOOD — Daybreak Records secured the much sought-after original cast record rights to the Bell System's Family Theatre 90-minute TV special, "Jack Lemmon in 'S Wonderful, 'S Marvelous, 'S Gershwin," which will be telecast over NBC-TV Jan. 17, it was announced last week by Daybreak President Sonny Burke.

Featuring the music of the Gershwins, George and Ira, the Daybreak recording stars Jack Lemmon and Fred Astaire, Leslie Uggams, Peter Nero supported by Linda Bennett, Larry Kert, Robert Guillaume and the orchestra of Elliot Lawrence.

The single 12-inch LP is being rushed into release so that it will be available at retail outlets nationally during the first week of January and highlights such all-time Gershwin evergreens as "Rhapsody in Blue," "Someone to Watch Over Me," "I've Got a Crush on You," "An American in Paris," "Concerto in F," "Oh Lady Be Good," "A Foggy Day," "They Can't Take That Away from Me," "The Man I Love," "But Not for Me," "They All Laughed," "Let's Call the Whole Thing off," "Embraceable You," a "Porgy and Bess" medley, "Fascinating Rhythm," and "'S Wonderful."

Daybreak will make the album available in Canada at the same time as the US inasmuch as the Bell Family TV special airs a week earlier, Jan. 11, in Canada. Internationally, the Daybreak original cast recording will be marketed in England, Japan, Australia, on the Continent, etc., within four weeks after USA distribution to take advantage of foreign TV dates now being set.

Daybreak Executive Vice-President and General Manager Bobby Weiss anticipates heavy interest in the LP in the USA and globally due to the combination of Gershwin song favorites with the blockbuster cast.

"We are very honored at Daybreak," said President and founder Sonny Burke, "to be able to bring to the world of Gershwin music lovers, one of the most outstanding musical tributes with a cast of all stars so beautifully dedicated to making this a most memorable recording event—thanks to the Bell Family TV Special."

Baldry Group

■ LONDON—John Baldry, recently returned from his debut American tour, has formed a new group.

Featured in the new lineup will be ex-Colosseum guitarist Jimmy Litherland; bassist Bill Smith and drummer John Dentith, both formerly with England's Million Trio. Also featured in the group will be pianist Ian Armit and guitarist Sam Mitchell, both of whom toured the States with Baldry this past summer.

The new band will be headlining at John Morris' new Rainbow Theatre in London January 12, kicking off a British tour which will take them to 15 cities. Present plans are for Baldry to return to the States in March for a comprehensive cross-country tour.

Following the New Year holiday, the group starts work on a new album which, like Baldry's first, will be co-produced by Rod Stewart and Elton John. Warner Bros. plans a March release to coincide with the tour.

If Visits

■ NEW YORK—If, a British brass-rock group which has released three LPs in this country on the Capitol label (the latest is "If III"), sent a couple of its members to Record World last week to report on current and future projects.

If is finishing up an American tour, and will be touring the Continent in the coming months. According to Dick Morrissey, "Everything's coming into shape. The band is more together now than it's ever been before. We want to do a live album for our next release."

ordinated between Daybreak Records, RCA, Rogers, Cowan and Brenner (in behalf of AT&T/Bell), N.W. Ayer, NBC-TV and the producers of the Gershwin TV special, Joseph Cates and Marty Charmin.

Burke, who coordinated and produced the transfer from the TV visual recording to the actual vinyl version, spent a total of more than 60 studio hours in effecting the transfer to the recorded release so as to obtain a maximum result with a tightly-edited melody-packed long-play.

The Gershwin recording on Daybreak will be one of three new albums scheduled by the Hollywood diskery as part of their January release.

CONCERT REVIEW

Poco Bright

■ NEW YORK — The Apple's rock fans have a way of taking over Carnegie Hall and making it their own for the evening: paper gliders, balloons, and friendly shouts pervade the venerable and otherwise stately hall, so that by the time the scheduled entertainment begins, the audience has already done a first-rate job of amusing itself.

Rarely, however, does lightning strike three times in a row as it did last week (6, 7, 8) when Poco brought their country-clean excitement to New York. The SRO crowd was little short of fanatical the night we heard the Epic band harmonize on their tuneful repertoire. While Poco's main movers, lead singer and guitarist Richie Furay and bassist Timmy Schmitt, were as prominent as ever on "Who's Your Next Fool?" and "What Am I Gonna Do?," the latter from the group's last Epic chartmaker "From the Inside," Paul Cotton did an exceptional job on his own numbers "Old Forgive" and "Railroad Days." Steel guitarist Rusty Young and a very fine drummer and singer George Grantham round out Poco's tight bright sound.

Whether they get together on a sweetly lyrical country ballad or pull out the stops on a fast and funky rocker, Poco is a remarkable band — on the brink of becoming as important to the great majority of record buyers as they already are the thousands of fans that heard them in Carnegie Hall.

Station owner Dana Kott acknowledges that "Olde Golde" has far exceeded expectations. With more than a dozen stations listed we were number one. In the survey before this, there were a number of time periods when our station didn't even show up."

Similar enthusiasm has been registered at KWWL-FM, in Waterloo-Cedar Rapids, Iowa, where operations manager Joe Arquette reported after 30 days, "We're already sold out several days a week. We had about 60 per cent of store radios tuned to KWWL-FM before 'Olde Golde' and now it's closer to 90 per cent.

Arquette added, "We've never had so much positive listener comment or mail pull. Our clients are getting results, so they stay on the air with us."

By MICHAEL CUSCUNA

Michael Cuscuna York every Wednesday through Sunday for another month or so.

■ Composer-pianist Randy Weston is back in New York for a short while. For the past several years, he has lived and created in Morocco, playing throughout Europe and Africa. He is currently making plans for his first album under a new agreement with CTI.

He will be appearing with his new trio at Mikell's, 97th St. and Columbus Avenue, New York every Wednesday through Sunday for another month or so.

Blue Thumb Records seems to be getting into more jazz lately. A new live Gabor Szabo album is planned. It includes a reunion with Charles Lloyd. They have just released a double album of the best of Ken Nordine's Word Jazz albums (I produced the reissue). And now the company has absorbed Chisa Records, which was formerly distributed by Motown. New Crusaders and Hugh Masekela discs are being readied for release.

At the Portuguese Jazz Festival recently, bassist Charlie Haden, of Ornette Coleman's group and leader of his own Liberation Music Orchestra, performed his "Song for Che" and expressed some anti-fascist political beliefs. Upon departure at the Lisbon airport, Portuguese Security Police grabbed Haden and took him in for four hours of questioning until an American cultural attaché came to his rescue.

Another new blues label has reared its head under the aegis of New Orleans recording engineer Parker Dinkins. The label Ahura Mazda has begun with a fine three album release that includes a Robert Pete Williams album, a Scott Dunbar disc and an electric blues album by Harmonica Williams.

Ahura Mazda is quite difficult to find in stores. The address is Box 15582, New Orleans, La. 70015.

Charles Mingus has completed his first new album for Columbia and is writing a special piece that will premiere at Lincoln Center in February for his second album. Ornette Coleman's first for Columbia is being finished up and will be released as soon as possible.

Bill Evans is planning his second for the label, and it should be a very special record because George Russell will be writing and arranging new material for Evans. Keith Jarrett has signed with Columbia and will be attempting some ambitious projects for his album.

In the reissue department, a double album of Charlie Christian material is on its way. And more than half of the set will feature recordings that have never been issued. Double record sets on Lester Young and Count Basie are expected from Columbia later in the year.

 This incredibly powerful album should reach everyone listener of jazz and progressive rock. It is the first real representation of McLaughlin's outstanding band with violinist Jerry Goodman and drummer Billy Cobham. The music is moving.

Marian Love To Mercury

■ CHICAGO — In an unusual contractual deal, Marian Love has been signed to a three-year exclusive recording pact with Mercury Records, by Irwin Steinberg, president of Mercury and the singer's manager, Arnold Mills.

According to Mills, the contract specifies that label will set up concert tours and club dates with other Mercury artists, with a minimum number of engagements guaranteed each year.

Miss Love will cut her first album in London next month, with Bill Gaff and Jimmy Horowitz producing. She'll fill concert dates in England during January, also set up by Mercury, Mills said last week.

Garner Firsts

■ NEW YORK—Erroll Garner is set for a series of appearances in 1972, each marking a first time for him:

February 7th to 20th, he will make his first appearance at the Regency Hyatt House in the suburbs of Chicago. On February 21st, Garner will open a week's engagement at the Ramada Inn in St. Louis. Again, this is his first appearance there, and his first St. Louis date in over a decade.

On March 11th, Garner will appear as guest soloist with the Orlando Symphony Orchestra, also a first time date.

Garner has just completed a series of recordings, which are being prepared for release early in 1972. The pianist is set for a concert tour of Europe in April and May of 1972.

Hayes Awarded

Stax artist Isaac Hayes was recently presented the Dr. Martin Luther King Nobel Peace Prize Replica by Operation Breadbasket's Milwaukee Chapter. Hayes was presented the Replica by Chapter Director John T. Whitherspoon during a Milwaukee engagement

Personaje de la Semana

(VIP of the Week)

■ Con solo 5 años en el medio disquero de México y ya su nombre es ligado nacional é internacionalmente por el vinculo profesionalismo, capacidad y don gente.

Agustín Hernández Aguirre, ingresó en el mundo del acetato en el año 1954; y experimenta los primeros albores de su pasión por el disco en dos distintas grabadoras, desempeñando el cargo de Gerente de Publicidad y Promoción.

Los imponderables del destino, lo hacen alejarse momentaneamente y es la ciudad de Guadalajara en donde desarrolla negocios personales. Pero esta nueva ocupación del capacitado profesional no lo desliga del disco, que ya lo tenía muy metido en el alma; y el 13 de Mayo del 70 (para ser exactos) retorna al Distrito Federal para hacer su ingreso a Discos Peerless de México como Gerente de Publicidad, Promoción y Relaciones Públicas.

Desde su incorporación, los conocimientos ya adquiridos van dando sus frutos y su capacidad profesional se pone de manifiesto en las promociones radiales a nivel nacional, programas de televisión a color, difusión en medios de prensa nacionales é internacionales, consiguiendo de esta manera sostener el prestigio de los artistas Peerless.

De esta forma Peerless de México, conforma paralelamente con el ingreso de Agustín Hernández, un equipo profesionalmente capaz y su crecimiento va en aumento, comparado con el de años anteriores.

En dos oportunidades, es el responsable de la promoción de la representante de México a Festivales Mundiales—Perú y EE.UU.—en donde precisamente México ocupa el Primer lugar con una artista Peerless.

Para Agustín Hernández—quien se manifiesta a nivel Peerless—, México no ha perdido absolutamente nada del mercado Latinoamericana; por el contrario, ha ganado mercado, tanto en Latinoamerica como en EE.UU. y Europa. Y es por esta razón, que se han suscitado constantemente los viajes del Presidente de la Compañía Heinz Klinckwort y del Sub-Gerente General Alejandro Zaldivar al extranjero. Quienes han comprobado que artistas como Marco Antonio Vazquez, Rosario de Alba—ganadora de dos festivales mundiales—Los Sonor's, Los Baby's, Los Solitarios y Los Freddy's, han traspasado el muro de las fronteras con amplia ventaja a su favor en popularidad y venta.

■ Entre las discretas actuaciones de siempre, se reunió el pleno de la Federación Latinoamericana de Productores Fonográficos en Guayaquil este mes pasado, y celebró su VII Congreso Latinoamericano de Productores Fonográficos y su Asamblea Ordinaria, en la cual se efectuó la elección de nuevas autoridades para la entidad. En esta oportunidad resultó electo con el cargo presidencial el buen amigo Néstor Norberto Selasco, ciudadano argentino y actual vice-presidente de la Cámara Argentina de Productores e Industriales de Discos Fonográficos y titular a su vez de la empresa Sicamericana de Buenos Aires, propietaria del sello Music Hall . . . Bueno, me encanta la idea de que Selasco sea presidente de esta institución que hasta ahora ha mantenido en general una conducta muy discreta y de altura (tan alta ha sido la altura que se ha perdido en el espacio). En primer lugar, estas sesiones entre caballeros del disco (muchos de ellos llevan el hacha y el cuchillo guardado en la manga del gabán) que se mantienen en total y absoluta secreto, no conducen a nada. La hipocresía en encarar los graves de los productores fonográficos hace que la Federación sea inoperante y solo de la oportunidad a sus miembros de saludarse y hablar un rato de negocios. Si en realidad quisieran hacer algo, debían atacar con la manga al codo en gran problema de los "royalties" y el lanzamiento de grabaciones tales o más cuales sin la menor autorización para hacerlo por algunos de sus miembros. La copia de los éxitos de otros sellos, per miembros de la propia asociación y todo género de irregularidades. En segundo punto y de extrema importancia, deben darle entrada también en esta asociación a los productores latinos de Estados Unidos que también tienen derecho de formar parte del organismo. Total, en Estados Unidos hay productores en extremo caballerosos y honestos como en Latinoamérica en general y también los hay tan "canallitas" como algunos de sus distinguidos y muy actuales miembros. Una verdadera federación sería un freno, a través de declaraciones públicas de mil irregularidades que se cometen cada año. Una verdadera y funcional federación terminaría con mil sinvergüenzas que se hacen cada año. Una verdadera y operante federación sería capaz de conceder verdaderos Discos de Oro a los artistas que verdaderamente lo merezcan. Ojalá al cordial Selasco se le permita operar energicamente por la federación. Ojalá se aimen a hacer algo que valga la pena, porque de no ser así, casi no es ninguna honra notable. el ser miembro o presidente de un organismo que no funciona en esta vida . . . solo se arrastra cobardemente ante situaciones que requieren una total y absoluta valentía para afrontarlas. De no ser así . . . sigan con sus Congresitos . . . ¡Total! . . . así se entretienen y se saludan.

Nestor Selasco

También se acaba de "piratear" descaradamente en Nueva York, las grabaciones larga duración "Serenata Moderna," "Estoy Solito" y "Dos Corazones" de José Miguel Class, el Gallito de Manatí, que mantiene en gran volumen de ventas. Hasta en esto sería útil una verdadera Federación de Hurford said that RCA is expanding its international activities to more effectively market its U. S. product in the Latin market and to fully develop its Latin artists in the U. S. and other countries.

Productores o Fabricantes. Siguen siendo los oportunistas y degenerados de siempre los que se aprovechan de la labor de los que trabajan y crean. Siempre ha sido más fácil robar que crear. ¡Hijos de Perras! . . . así, simplemente así, perdonenme, pero el otro nombre con el cual pudiera llamarles, es todavía más impublicable.

Grabó Lynn Anderson en Inglés, el tema argentino de Francis Smith "Estoy Hecho un Demonio" . . . Lanzó RCA en Estados Unidos a Palito Ortega en "Paz y Felicidad" y "Tengo Muchos Amigos" . . . Hasta en España se ha situado la cantante brasilera Martinha, a través de sus grabaciones en castellano. Ahora acaban de lanzar a Wanderley Cardoso en un long playing en el cual lucen con probabilidades de éxitos impresionantes los números "Alguien Debe Haber" y "Si Yo Pudiera Confesarte." La labor de Copacabana de Brasil en el mercado internacional es ostensible y está abriendo las puertas a sus artistas para el gran mercado latino, que suma millones de dólares en poder de ventas. Lamentablemente, no es la mejor empresa distribuidora quién distribuye a Martinha, Nelson Ned y Wanderley Cardoso en Estados Unidos. Sin embargo, cada uno de los ejecutivos de United Artists es un verdadero genio en su clase y categoría. La gran desgracia es que todos piensan diferente y jamás se ponen de acuerdo . . . Y ahí mismo . . . ¡se formó el titingó! . . . Otra empresa que está totalmente dormida es Columbia de España. ¿Qué esta haciendo con Julio Iglesias internacionalmente? (Continued from page 79)

Broadway, New York, N.Y. 11219. Sus primeras producciones serán "Nelson Feliciano cantando Junior Cordova" y una grabación de la Orquesta DeeJay. Bueno, ¡salud y suerte a ambos amigos! . . . Y ahora . . . ¡Hasta la próxima!

The Latin American Federation of Records Producers and Manufacturers celebrated their Seventh Congress in Guayaquil, Ecuador. They elected as their new President the well known Argentinian executive, Nestor Norberto Selasco, also Vice President of the Argentinian Association of Record Manufacturers and President of Sicamericana in Buenos Aires. Well, that is good news, but the Federation should work more effectively against all irregularities taking place all over Latin America. There are matters that should be faced without hypocrisy and in plain language, such as lack of payment of royalties, cover versions of hits by members of the association, releasing of recordings without proper authorization and several other big details that require guts to take into consideration and solution. They should also accept as members the several latin record producers and manufacturers from the states that have been trying to enter the organization without any results. I hope Selasco will consider his duties as president and really put this association to work. If not, well, you can always keep celebrating your annual events and enjoy the fun of seeing each other, but, for that, you do not really need an association. Just get together!

Three albums by José Miguel Class (Gallito de Manatí) have been bootlegged in New York, "Serenata Moderna," "Estoy Solito" and "Dos Corazones." This is where a real good association should work. And perhaps they could force the situation and get rid of these "hijos de perra."

Lynn Anderson recorded in English the theme "Estoy Hecho un Demonio" (Francis Smith) . . . RCA released a single by Palito Ortega containing "Paz y Felicidad" b/w "Tengo Muchos Amigos" . . . Martinha is also a success in Spain with her album recorded in Spanish. Copacabana, a Brazilian label that is moving their artists toward the whole latin market, is recording them in Spanish, and is also moving nicely cuts by Nelson Ned and Wanderley Cardoso. An album by Wanderley in Spanish, in which they include "Alguien Debe Haber" and "Si Yo Pudiera Confesarte," should sell big in the states as in Latin America. Well, it all depends on the way UA Latino take care of business, and it seems that in their kitchen, not everybody knows what's cooking! . . . Another giant label that is having beautiful dreams is Columbia from Spain. What are they doing with Julio Iglesias international? . . . Ariel Ramirez is a success in Mexico with his "Misa Criolla" . . . Johnny Albino will perform for two weeks in Haiti. From there, he will perform on Myrta Silva TV Show in Puerto Rico . . . Sammy Vargas and Ralph Lew created last week in New York their Lewgas Records and Music Co. at 1674 Broadway, New York, N.Y. 11219. Their first releases will be albums by Nelson Feliciano and Junior Cordova and a new album by Orchestra DeeJay . . . Next week we will be reporting from Panama, Colombia and Venezuela.

Los planes futuros de la compañía, como nos relata el cordial ejecutivo, son muy extensos, pero su mira está puesta principalmente en la incrementación total de los mercados extranjeros, en base a presentaciones, personales de los artistas Peerless, así como tambien el acercamiento simultáneo con las radios del mundo, paso que ha sido logrado ya parcialmente.

En su vida privada, Agustín Hernández conforma un matrimonio feliz al lado de su esposa y compañera María Luisa Fernandez de Hernandez, y de sus 4 hijos Agustín de 4 años, Monica Cecilia de 3, María Luisa de 2 y el pequeño Mauricio de solo 6 meses.

CLUB REVIEW

Detroit Swinging

■ NEW YORK—The kids at the Gaslight weren't the usual Greenwich Village club crowd. A little drunk and good-naturedly loud, they'd come to hear the kind of rock and roll that their older brothers and sisters had only a few years before taken for granted: immediate and driving, just electric enough to make its point, and through the roughness of its energy, as tight and well-thought out as a good watch or a fine highpowered engine. The kind of music that Johnny Winter and J. Geils churn out when they're sure the crowd is with them. Only, nobody boogies rock and roll better than Detroit, who'd come to New York that week (Dec. 8-12) to find that their old friends were surprisingly loyal and their new fans gratifyingly enthusiastic.

Mitch Ryder, Detroit's almost legendary lead singer and the voice in the foreground of those Detroit Wheels hits "Jenny Take a Ride" and the epochal "Devil With a Blue Dress," has laid back a little since his salad days several years ago. Good gigs and the right musicians have taken him an incredible amount of time and commitment to find. It's only been recently, since his band's new Paramount album has started to climb the charts, that he's begun to regain the confidence that he radiated as one of second generation rock's greatest frontmen.

As Good as Band

Which, of course, he still is, but Mitch told us that he appreciates now that a singer is only as successful as the band he plays with, and that the only kind of success that really means anything to him is the kind that will be a group effort. As Mitch put it, "Some guys couldn't take the hassles: the management shuffles and the money problems. Even the bass-player I got now has to play through a guitar amp. Now this band is starting to feel right, to go without us all pushing too hard. I think our album is doing what I hoped it would, re-establishing our reputation for playing what we know we do best. You know the Wheel's did that, but I don't want that kind of responsibility in Detroit. We've all got to work together to make it right."

And right it is. When Mitch took the stage at the Gaslight, that same old presence and self-confidence seemed to run through the music, and the power that a rock band can

CONCERT REVIEW

Havens Sellout At Chandler

■ HOLLYWOOD — Richie Havens' one-night appearance at Dorothy Chandler Pavillion was not only a sellout, but a triumph and a testimony to the artist's overpowering sensitivity and emotion as a performer.

The MGM star drew his material from his albums and included "What About Me," "Just Like A Woman," "High Flying Bird" and other favorites.

Havens' enthusiasm for what he is doing is clearly displayed in his singing and guitar playing (he had to change strings several times), but this did not in any way distract from the impact of his performance . . . nor did the two standing ovations he received.

Beautiful rhythmic support was offered by Paul Williams, lead guitar, Eric Oxendine on bass and Emile Latimer on congas.

■ HOLLYWOOD — The Jackson 5, in their only Christmas season appearance, gave a special performance at the Foundation for the Junior Blind at 5300 Angeles Vista Boulevard, Los Angeles, December 17.

have in a small club is a pleasure that the current generation of rockers, weaned on Woodstock, can too rarely enjoy. Detroit makes relatively new numbers like Johnny Winter's "Rock and Roll Hoochie Coo" or the Stones' "Gimme Shelter" roll with the same urgency that made Little Richards or Chuck Berry's old singles such blockbusters.

Steve Hunter can play just about any kind of guitar that a tune calls for, jamming on in ever tighter spirals while John Badjanek's drums recall the Wheels' specialties like "Little Latin Lupe Lu" or "Ooh Poo Pah Do," 'cause he was there. Detroit switches from the sweetest lowest of blues to the heaviest rockers, and it's all the same band, the same music. They play in a musical vocabulary that any teenager can call his own, but they don't sound like anybody but themselves.

Rhetoric aside, Detroit is a hell of a band, the most exciting I've heard in months and months, and if their commercial potential doesn't catch up to their talent, America's record buyers just got a hole in their souls.

CLUB REVIEW

Preston Excites Troubadour

■ HOLLYWOOD—Billy Preston, who appeared Dec. 8-14 at the Troubadour, proved to be an exciting booking.

Things are finally beginning to happen for this versatile performer. As one critic has said, "Lord knows he can write, sing, play and even dance with the best of them," and half-way through his act you begin to see what they mean. Preston is both visually and musically a professional showman. The A&M artist has been at one time or another sideman to the Beatles, the Stones, Ray Charles and others. His delivery of such tunes (some from his current LP, "I Wrote a Simple Song") as, "Summertime," "Hey Brother" and "Grandma's Hands" was sensitive and dramatic and reflects his years of dues-paying.

Sharing the bill with Preston was Prophecy artist Charlie Starr. He is a blind singer-guitarist who has an effective, unique style of playing and singing. His rendering of James Taylor's "Rocking on a Rainbow" and his original "Cornbread" were the highlights of his set. This was Starr's local debut, and by the time he finished his last song, you knew he was someone you were going to see again and again.

Campbell Dates

■ Glen Campbell will headline at Harrah's in Lake Tahoe, Dec. 24-27, and appearing on the bill with him will be The Goodtime Hour Singers and Larry McNeeley. Dennis McCarthy will be the music conductor.

Music City Hosts RCA Meeting

By RED O'DONNELL

■ NASHVILLE—RCA Records national sales, marketing and planning, advertising and promotion representatives and high-ranking officers of the company were in Nashville last week for a two-day year-end meeting.

It is a first for Nashville. Heretofore, the annual convention has been scheduled for New York or Los Angeles.

And it was a meeting where no sad songs business-wise are being sung.

"RCA Records has had a fantastic year," E. B. (Gene) Settler, vice president in charge of sales, said Monday night at a dinner at the Carousel Club.

"Our overall sales of albums, tapes and single records are up 24% as compared to 1970," Settler continued. The country music product has contributed greatly to this increase, Settler pointed out.

"We have just completed a Country Music Months (October and November) campaign," Settler said. "It was 36% higher than last year. The entire recording industry is only about 4% ahead in sales over 1971. So you can see why I say RCA is having a fantastic year. However, when you consider the artists on the label and the work Vice President Chet Atkins and his production staff is doing here in Nashville, I'm not surprised. You hear about recessions and slow economy, but so far RCA hasn't felt it."

What about 1972? "I see no reason why business shouldn't continue to improve. We are certainly hopeful."

The dinner, arranged by local RCA executive Wally Cochran, featured a stage show emceed by veteran funnyman Jethro Burns. Entertainers on the program included RCA artists Waylon Jennings, Dottie West, Jessi Colter, Kenny Price, Johnny Russell, Scotti Carson and Nat Stuckey.

is planning a lecture tour. Subject, "Stay Out of Show Business." . . . He quips. "I've had enough experience in that field." Good luck, Tex, and have a happy, happy.

Judy Lynn emceed the annual Nevada Junior Miss Pageant at Reno . . . She's currently headlining at Harrah's—also in Reno.

Birthdaying: Skeeter Willis, Freddie Hart.

Charlie Black, the "B" of M. G. B. Productions is in Canada as musical director for the new Blake Emmons TV series . . . Meanwhile Charlie's partners Ricci Mareno and Jerry Gillespie are elated over reaction to Jack Barlow's "Catch the Wind" and Tommy Overstreet's "Ann (Don't Go Runnin')", M. G. B. productions.

Jimmy Dean due at RCA studio Jan. 4-5-6 for sessions under direction of Jerry Bradley . . . Quote from RCA vice president in charge of sales Gene Settler picked up during the label's national sales-meeting here last week: "Our business for 1971 has been fantastic. Overall we're 24 per cent ahead of 1970's record sales, and our recently completed "Country Music Months" (October-November) campaign showed a 36% increase over last year."

Eddy Arnold is spending all of his time these days attending his 23-year-old son Dicky, who is recovering from serious injuries suffered in an automobile mishap Aug. 1 . . . "I'm the most expensive male nurse in the world," says Eddy. Dicky was partially paralyzed in the highway mishap but is recovering slowly.

COUNTRY HITS OF THE WEEK

SINGLE

TAMMY WYNETTE, "BEDTIME STORY" (Algee Music/Flagship Music, BMI). Here's another Sherrill-Sutton song for Tammy, who stays right in the groove that's given her hit after hit. The lyric is summed up very well by the song title. Epic 5-10818.

SLEEPER

WAYLON JENNINGS, "GOODHEARTED WOMAN" (Baron/Wheeling Nelson, BMI). Waylon does here what he does best. "Goodhearted Woman" is in the "Take Her" bag, which was so successful for the "Waylor." Medium tempo with strong electric bass and drum bass line. RCA 74-0615.

ALBUM

JOHNNY PAYCHECK, "SHE'S ALL I GOT." This contains the single "She's All I Got," which moved Johnny from a hundred dollar a week club act to a thousand dollar a night single. Noteworthy cuts are "He Will Break Your Heart," "You Touched My Life" and "She's Everything To Me." Epic 31131.

LOVE'S OLD SONG

BARBARA FAIRCHILD—
Columbia C31092.

Pretty miss and a very well-produced assemblage of MOR tunes like "Color My World," her single; "Tiny Drops of Water and Sunshine," "Another Lonely Night." Love's old song rarely sounded better.

THE DEL REEVES ALBUM

United Artists 6820.

Highlights of Del's latest effort is "Philadelphia Fillies," "The Best Is Yet to Come," "A Dozen Pairs of Boots" and a couple of new Gene Crysler songs, "A Rose Is Hard to Beat" and "The Lady They Replaced."

SWEET DREAMS

HANK WILLIAMS, JR. & MIKE CURB
CONGREGATION—MGM SE 4798.

Hank's new single, "Ain't That a Shame," came off this collection; another Fats Domino goody on the LP is "Blueberry Hill." Evidently Hank and the tracks are done in Nashville and the Congregation is overdubbed on the Coast.

HERE I GO AGAIN

BOBBY WRIGHT—Decca DL 75319.

This most promising artist has an ultra-nice selection of modern country songs. Especially listenable are the two singles "Here I Go Again" and "Search Your Heart." Everybody's album songs "Country Roads" and "Easy Lovin'" are also included

NASHVILLE REPORT

Eddy doesn't plan to return to work until his son is able to walk again. (He can now take a few steps). Arnold is booked for concerts at the Phoenix (Ariz.) Music Theater Jan. 26-29, "And," he says hopefully, "Dicky will be walking by that time." "I'd bet on it," he adds optimistically.

Barbi Benton, Playboy magazine, etc. tycoon Hugh Hefner's gal-pal, is taping some appearances for the "Hee Haw" series to be aired first three months of 1972 . . . Barbi doll joins in the joke-telling and participates in group-singing by the cast.

Charlie Rich's single, "A Part of Your Life," was co-written by his wife Margaret Ann and their 16-year-old son Allen . . . (All in the Family?).

Dixie (Mrs. Tom T.) Hall's family dinner at Christmas is going to be traditionally English—plum pudding and roast goose, "right out of the pages of Dickens," she says. Dixie is hip to such culinary art. She hails from Ole Blighty.

SESAC reports that 1971, its 40th anniversary, to be "highly successful," and credits its Nashville operation executive director (since last July) Robert "Bob" Thompson with a goodly measure of that success.

What's this talk about sportscaster Dandy Don Meredith cutting an album of country tunes for Columbia? . . . With Howard Cosell singing in the background, maybe???? Seriously, the deal's cooking but hasn't come to a boil or whatever happens when things are on the front burner.

BILL ANDERSON

Scores Again With Another Hit LP

COUNTRY ALBUM PICK

BILL ANDERSON'S GREATEST HITS, VOL. II. Highlighting the all-hit package is the fine country cut on Mike Settle's "But You Know I Love You" and the recitation that Bill says is his most requested number: "Where Have All Our Heroes Gone." Rounding out the "must stock" country collection is: "Get While the Gettin's Good," "Happy State of Mind," "Wild Weekend" and Bill's latest single hit, "Quits." Decca 75315.

COUNTRY (Billboard)

BILL ANDERSON

His Greatest Hits, Vol. 2

Decca DL75315

Anderson's Greatest Hits Volume One proved a heavy sales item, and Volume 2 offers all of that hit potential. His more recent giant singles are featured here and they include, "But You Know I Love You," "Quits," "Happy State of Mind," and "Where Have All Our Heroes Gone."

Cash Box Country IP Reviews

BILL ANDERSON'S GREATEST HITS, VOL. 2—Decca DL 75315

Having whispered his way to the top of the country charts most recently with "Quits," Bill continues to be one of the finest country vocal talents around. Along with "Quits," this LP contains the moving "Where Have All The Heroes Gone?" and "Always Remember," as well as eight other tracks as equally familiar to his wide legion of fans. Any up and coming country singer who requires a guide to the type of polish a vocalist should endeavor to achieve would do well to buy this album. Lots of other folks will be demanding it too.

And, of course it's #14 on the Charts!!

COUNTRY SINGLE PICKS

SKEETER DAVIS—RCA 74-0608
ONE TIN SOLDIER (Trousdale Music, BMI)
RACHEL (Crestmoor Music, BMI)

A cover on Coven's Top 40 hit. This is the theme from the movie "Billy Jack." Very uptown record for Skeeter.

PENNY DeHAVEN—United Artists 50854
ANOTHER DAY OF LOVING (Unart Music, BMI)

Prepossessing Penny has a ballad this time. She and producer Scott Turner penned this pleasing melody that gives Miss DeHaven a chance to show her ability to croon. Nice.

CLAUDE KING—Columbia 4-45515
DARLIN' RAISE THE SHADE (Al Gallico/Algee Music, BMI)

Easy-going Norro Wilson production that comes off extremely well. Sounds like a commercial outing for the King of Wolverton Mountain.

RED LANE—RCA 74-0616
THROW A ROPE AROUND THE WIND (Tree Publ., BMI)
SINGEREE (Tree Publ., BMI)

Here's a Red Lane tune that country stations can play whether they're hard or MOR. Red collaborated with ex-"Newbeat" Larry Henley to write the cut from the score of the MGM movie "Going Home."

TOMMY OVERSTREET—Dot 17402
ANN (DON'T GO RUNNING) (Buzz Cason Publ., ASCAP)
WITHIN THIS WORLD OF MINE (Famous, ASCAP)

Tommy is sticking with girls' names for song titles. Buzz Cason penned Tommy's new medium tempo release which is his third consecutive attempt to top the singles chart. His previous two made it!

RAY PILLOW—Mega 615-0055
SINCE THEN (100 Oaks Music, BMI)

Change of pace for Ray. This is a big sugar and syrup production on a ballad from writer Johnny Wilson. Ray handles the slow ones well.

KENNY PRICE—RCA 74-0671
SUPER SIDEMAN (Acuff-Rose, BMI)
FROM HERE TO THERE (Tree Publ., BMI)

A Record World suggested cut from the "Charlotte Fever" album. The cut is a Bobby Bond song about a back up musician who is for hire. Try it on listeners to see if it's too "inside."

MARTY ROBBINS—Columbia 4-45520
THE BEST PART OF LIVING (Mariposa, BMI)

Marty's steel player Bill Johnson wrote this pretty ballad. Big production with voices, horn and all. This release is closer to the Robbins sound that makes the gals swoon.

JIMMY GENE SMITH—Cartwheel A-205
MAMA'S CALLING (First Edition Publ., BMI)
DON'T LET GO (Roosevelt Music, BMI)

Excellent piece of country material written by Kenny Rodgers and Terry Williams of First Edition fame. Alex Harvey's LP cut rekindled interest in the song.

TEX WILLIAMS—Monument ZS7-8533
PRETTY IN BLUE (Blue Echo, ASCAP)

Ole time idea with a melodic tune. Tex's follow-up to "Nancy Ann's Hotel" is certainly a tearjerker but there's something likable about the record.
