TV a Boost to Male Singers' Disk Sales

By DAVE FINKLE

The effect television exposure has on record sales has always been debatable. Certainly over the years it's been proven that, although television appearances can support sales, they don't guarantee them.

But there does seem to be one area in which television definitely and forcibly supplements or even builds record artists — the male pop singer field.

Check the male singers with regular variety shows — reprise's Dean Martin, Columbia's Andy Williams, Capitol's Glen Campbell, Columbia's Johnny Cash and dramatic new TV star Tom Jones—and check the top-selling male pop singers and the lists will match closely. Right now Parrot's Jones, whose catalogue leaped to action shortly after his show bowed on ABC in the winter, has four albums on the 100, "This is Tom Jones," "Tom Jones Live," "Help Yourself" and "Fever Zone."

Campbell has "Galveston" on the charts and "By the Time I Get to Phoenix" and "Gentle on My Mind" on the Must Stock list. Johnny Cash is currently in the top 10 with "Johnny Cash at San Quentin."

Additionally singers who make frequent specials like Frank Sinatra keep their sales up (Sinatra usually ties his all-

Multiple Distribution For RCA Product?

NEW YORK — Multiple distribution of RCA Records product within the same cities throughout the country seems about to become an RCA policy.

It has been learned that ABC, Transcontinental and Handleman have received the go-ahead to directly purchase RCA product beginning Monday (18).

RCA's official statement last week when contacted by Record World was that no new distributor agreements had been made.

This statement may refer to the fact that companies named are essentially rack jobbers, although they are also involved in distribution. It should be pointed out, moreover, that RCA already has set a precedent for this type of multiple distribution in that it distributes the Camden line and the RCA tape line through its regular distributors as well as directly to large purchasers.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — A highlight of last week's NATRA Convention at the Washington Hilton was the ABC Records-hosted Thursday luncheon.

Presentation was followed by a five-minute standing ovation for King, and proved one of the most popular events at the whole convention.

It was a tribute, many opined, that was long overdue.

The Hit Song of The Year!

Steve Alaimo “ONE WOMAN”

Atco #6710

Arranged and Produced by HERB BERNSTEIN

Levine-Resnick-Berkman: Earth's Dynamic Dynasty

NEW YORK—The Artie Resnick-Joey Levine-Harold Berkman trio and their Earth label have reversed the process of building a record industry empire.

Ordinarily a label is announced, product issued and results awaited, with the sounds of heavy breathing coming from the executive offices. But in what they frankly admit is an attempt to establish a "dynasty," the trio have turned the process around.

They issued their first product only three weeks ago, at a distributors meeting held in New York. Prior to that they had (1) been purchased, by Transcontinental Investment Corporation (2) had themselves purchased two pubberies and a production firm (3) set independent production deals (4) secured their distributors and (5) become distributors for two other labels.

Last week LRB announced, in a joint statement with Abe Chyet, Product Manager of GRT, Inc., a three-year agreement giving GRT the rights to manufacture, distribute and sell Earth Records product in all configurations of tape in the United States, Canada and Puerto Rico.

How is it that—with the exception of GRT—all these events took place before product was issued or the charts were scanned?

"We're not sweating hits," says Berkman. "We've been able to make the deals we have because of our individual track records. Artie and Joey created 'bubblegum'. They wrote and produced most of the big 'bubblegum' hits. But they're not limited to it. To do what they wanted to do with music they had to have their own label. They're the creators and I'm the administrator. The industry knows about Artie's and Joey's talent. If anything is a sure thing, their talent is. People know there's going to be action and they got in at the very beginning. It's like a tip on a stock that's going to go up. You buy in front."

Concerning stock, the industry was first made aware of the LRB combine by the announcement of Berkman's Harbour Records label being acquired by T.E.C. (a wholly owned subsidiary of Transcontinental Investment Corporation). Following in rapid succession were (1) acquisition of The reservation production and publishing complex headed by Jimmy Calvert and Norman Marzano.

(2) The pacting of an independent production agreement with Scepter Records

(3) the pacting of young multi-talents like producer-writer-singer Steve Feldman and the delightfully kooky Lois Walden (4) Reservation's signing a production agreement with Scepter

(5) the announcement of Earth Records, to be independently distributed

(6) the announcement that Earth is distributing producer Bo Gentry's Life Records and Larry Maxwell's Peace Records and

(7) the unveiling of the first Earth product.

'Groupies' LP Included

The product includes Alan Lorber's LP documentary, "The Groupies," wherein Lorber put four of the top groupies together and let them rap about pop music, pop stars, themselves and the world at large. A blockbuster promotion and advertising campaign for the album includes heavy insertions in underground, trade, teen, college and consumer publications as well as a series of special radio spots, posters, streamers, mailing pieces and in-store displays.

Single product features Lois Walden's "One And Twenty," "Time To Get It Together" by Up and Adam Life Records' bow with "Make Believe" by Wind. LRB also announced a forthcoming LP of soundtrack music for Andy Warhol's "Lonesome Cowboys" (when the film goes into general release) and negotiations to record soundtracks of other Warhol films. Future product includes sides from Jimmy Calvert, Norman Marzano and Steve Feldman.

Creators Resnick and Levine wrote and produced "Yummy, Yummy, Yummy," "Sweeter Than Sugar," "Down at Lulu's," "Chewy, Chewy," "Quick Joey Small," "Mercy," "You Got the Love," "Run, Run, Run," "Yes Sir," "Down In Tennessee" and "Gimme Gimme Good Lovin'" for an approximate total of 10,000,000 records.

Administrator Berkman's experience in distribution, production, sales and promotion and his association with MGM Records, ABC Records and the Web IV group of record companies (he is credited with the rejuvenation of Bang and Shout via the top the "Cinnamon" hit) and his success with Harbour Records (Billy Shields' "I Was a Boy When You Needed a Man") prepared him for the establishment of the Earth Records "dynasty".

"We're doing things differently but we're doing them right," says Artie Resnick. "The rules say you form a company from Step 1 to Step 2 to Step 3. You're supposed to take it slowly and be cautious. We don't agree with that. If you're going to be big, you've got to think big and act big."

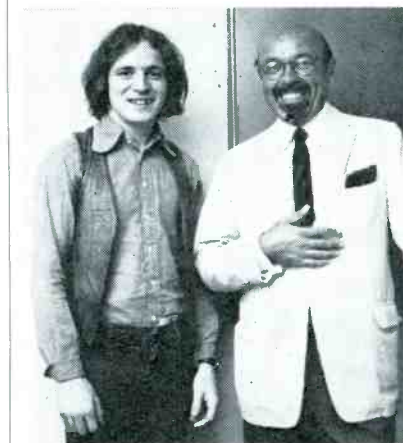

"Big," says Joey Levine, "bigger—biggest."

Atlantic Fetes Jack Bruce

NEW YORK — Jack Bruce, ex-member of Cream and now out on his own, was feted by Atlantic last week on the occasion of the completion of his album "Songs for a Tailor."

Bruce is backed on the package, due for release within three weeks, by George Harrison, among others.

After the press gathering the multi-talented performer left for England to prepare a film based on his album. He also plans to put together a group for concerts in England and America tentatively pencilled in for November.

I'VE GOTTA BE ME

TONY BENNETT—Columbia CS 9882.

Simply put, Tony Bennett is without parallel. There are other singers who sing as well some of the time, but it's only Tony who can sing a song like Tony Bennett. "Alfie," "They All Laughed," "Whoever You Are, I Love You," "I've Gotta Be Me."

3614 JACKSON HIGHWAY

CHER—Atco SD 33-298.

For her solo Atco album debut, Cher journeyed to Muscle Shoals to take advantage of those marvelous vibrations. Some mighty fine producers, engineers and musicians back her up on "For What It's Worth," "I Threw It All Away," "Lay Lady Lay."

DIMENSIONS

THE BOX TOPS—Bell 6032.

Soul deep and sales high singing from these guys. Needless to say, these fellows are among the best instrumentalists in the business of making music today and their tunes are always with it. "Soul Deep," "I Shall Be Released," "Sweet Cream Ladies."

SEVEN DAYS OF NIGHT

BARBARA ACKLIN—Brunswick BL (7) 54148.

Barbara lays down some exciting and completely irresistible soul sounds on this new album. The girl was in on the writing (with Eugene Record and Carl Davis) of many of the songs. Bacharach and David supplied others.

LOOKING BACK

JOHN MAYALL—London PS 562.

A good many British artists into blues rock have played with John Mayall at one time or another. On this set of tunes cut between April, 1964, and December, 1967, Mayall does his stuff with Jack Bruce, Eric Clapton, Aynsley Dunbar, Mick Fleetwood and Mick Taylor.

HURT SO BAD

THE LETTERMEN—Capitol ST 269.

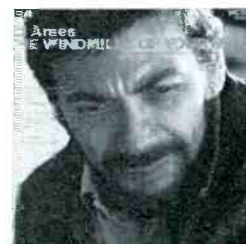

The fellows braid together ribbons of song for a pretty and contemporary package of ditties like "Sunny," "Hurt So Bad," "Here, There and Everywhere," "(All of a Sudden) My Heart Sings." Guys never sounded better.

THE WINDMILLS OF YOUR MIND

ED AMES—RCA Victor LSP 4172.

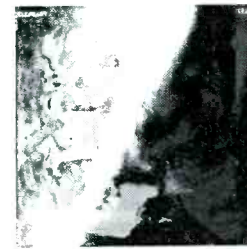

Lots of sweet singing from Ed Ames, whose albums never fail to please. He knows how to mix the old with the new. On this one it's all new—"(Sittin' on) the Dock of the Bay," "Traces," "The Windmills of Your Mind."

CRAZY ELEPHANT

Bell 6034.

These guys made fine and fa showings on charts with "Gimme me Good Lovin'," which closes out mod package. Preceding it are newies and new versions of "and "Somewhere." Watch for Kenny Cohen on flute.

WORKING!

BOBBY JAMESON—CRT 1

A real grabber of a aptly-titled album (really works) is full of moving and timely songs. One of the special inclusions is Jameson's own "Palo Alto." "I'll Be Your Baby," "The Weight," "Don't Think Twice."

TRUE GRIT

SOUNDTRACK Capitol ST 263.

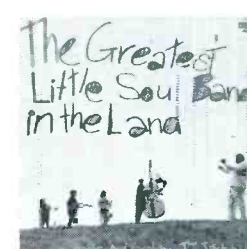

This package has a lot going for it. The movie is big and Glen Campbell, who's very big, sings the Elmer Bernstein-Don Black title ditty. Come Oscar time, this music will be way up front for award consideration.

THE GREATEST LITTLE SOUL BAND IN THE LAND

Congress CS 7000.

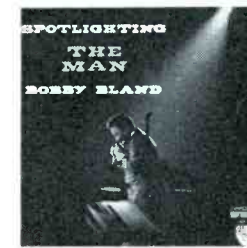

J. J. Jackson is the force behind and in front of this big and soulful aggregation. The music, if the titles of the songs are indicative, is the outcry of the urban slums—mourning, insistent. "Tobacco Road," "Tenement Halls," "Fat, Black and Together."

SPOTLIGHTING THE MAN

BOBBY BLAND—Duke DLP 89.

There are some great blues on this package. Bobby Bland has never been up-staged by any other performer when it comes to the blues and his readings of "Chains of Love," "Georgia," "Since I Fell for You," "Rockin' in the Same Old Boat" are memorable.

TRASH TALKIN'

ALBERT COLLINS—Imperial LP 12438.

Listeners will simply have to groove to the first couple of musical bars to become buyers. Albert runs the gamut of guitar emotions on the package on the likes of "Harris County Line-up," "Conversation with Collins," "And Then It Started Raining."

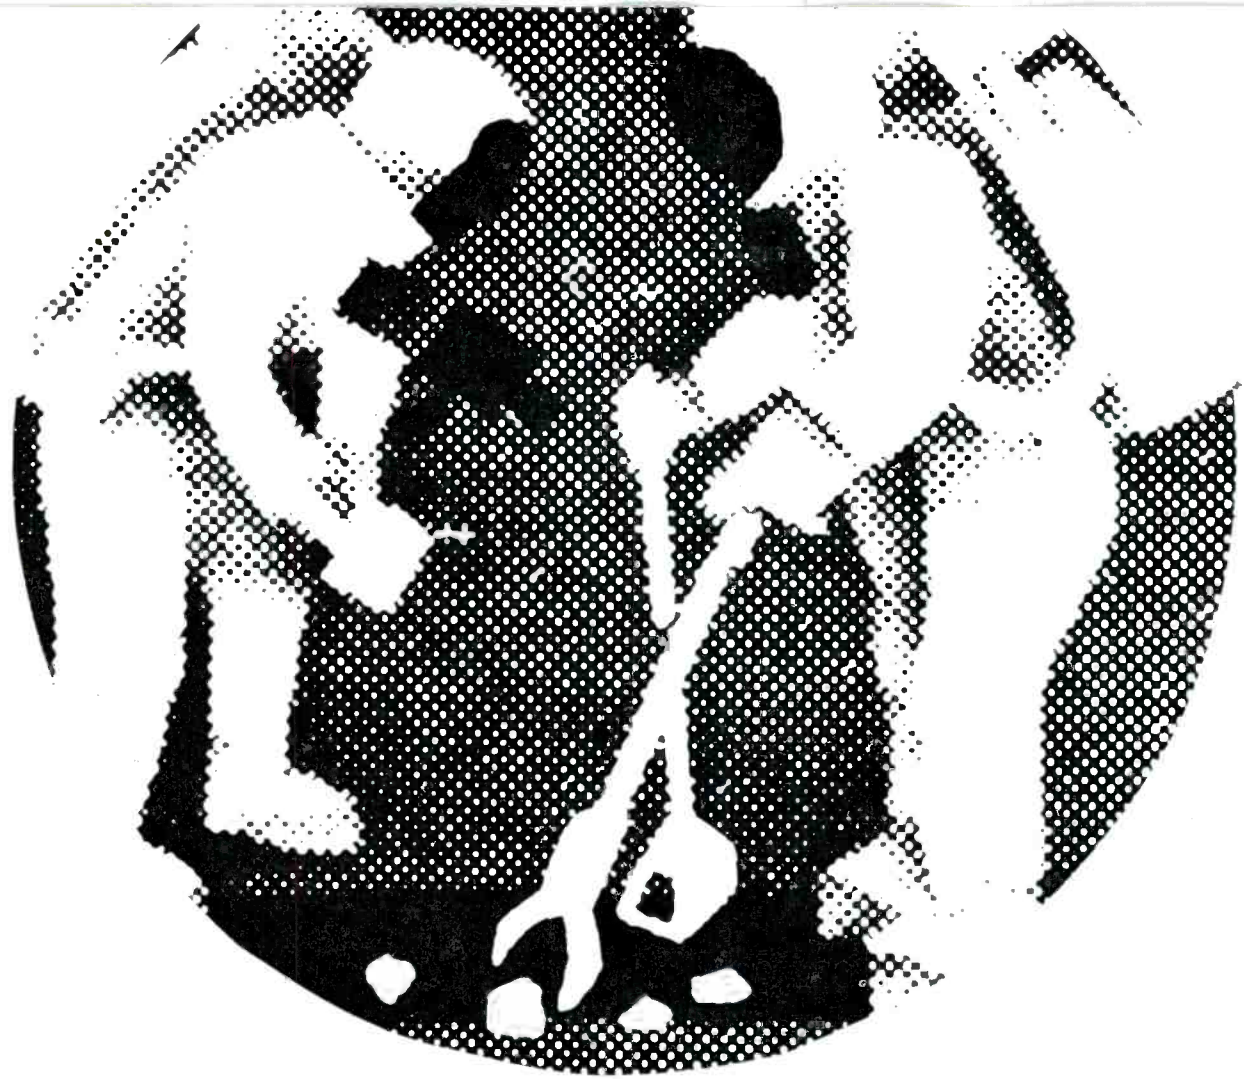

FOUR SAIL

LOVE—Elektra EKS 74049.

Always showing respectably, Love is due to explode to the top of charts any day. Almost any of the tight, funky cuts on this package could be the right rocket. "Robert Montgomery" does not seem to be about the movie star.

London Sales Record Set

London Records has just chalked up the biggest six-month sales period in the firm's 22-year history, according to Herb Goldfarb, National Sales and Distribution Manager. Beyond this, a new record was set in May, the biggest month in sales since London opened shop in 1947.

Meanwhile, last month became the biggest July for the company with August maintaining the record-breaking sales pace, Goldfarb said.

During the January to June half-year period, the firm took down six gold albums—four for Tom Jones and two for Engelbert Humperdinck. Both these Parrot label stars contributed heavily to the London sales explosion. Between them, the pair now owns seven gold LPs, Humperdinck having taken down his first last year.

The blistering pace was also markedly helped by the combined contribution of the London group's all-star family of heavy British rock acts, including Ten Years After, Alvin Lee and Company, Savoy Brown, the Moody Blues and John Mayall. Beyond this, newly released sets, introduced during the recent London-Hi Records anniversary sales convention in Memphis by Johnny Almond, drummer Keef Hartley, J. J. Worthington, Martha Velez (on the Sire label) and Ann Peebles (on the Hi label) have already generated strong action, as have the Flirtations, whose new LP, "Nothing But a Heartache," takes its title from the group's recent hit single.

Such diverse talents as Mantovani and Hi's Willie Mitchell, along with the firm's extensive phase 4 stereo, classical and opera catalogue, the latter including such standout names as Joan Sutherland, Renata Tebaldi and Birgit Nilsson, have all helped keep the sales pot boiling.

Meanwhile, Goldfarb flatly predicted a record-shattering second six months in '69, anticipating early blockbuster new releases for Tom Jones, Engelbert Humperdinck, the Moody Blues, and Mantovani, plus the immediately upcoming Rolling Stones LP, "Through the Past Darkly (Big Hits Volume II)," to sustain the record-breaking sales pace.

Kendall Leaves ABC

NEW YORK—Ken Kendall, Director of Publicity for ABC Records and subsidiaries in the East, has left the company. He will announce his plans shortly.

It's Hi Records

A typographical error in the headline for the Hi Records 10th birthday celebration photo layout in last week's issue caused the word "He" to appear in the headline instead of "Hi."

Album Reviews

THE JOYS OF LIFE

KAREN BETH—Decca DL (7)5148.

Pretty folk tunes from a new gal with a bittersweet soprano. Karen Beth writes all of her material, sometimes in collaboration, and interprets it clearly and sensitively. "It's All Over Now," "In the Morning," "Tomorrow's a New Day," "The Joys of Life."

GYPSY PEOPLE

JAN & LORRAINE—ABC ABCS 691.

Contemporary rhythms and combinations of singers and instruments and subject matter melded into an exciting first album. Jan and Lorraine more than get by with a little help from their friends. "Break Out the Wine," "Gypsy People." "Snow Roses."

BECAUD SINGS BECAUD

GILBERT BECAUD—London PS 556.

Somewhere between Aznavourland and Brel county lies Becaud territory. The soil there is rich, but the clouds are heavy and grey and the people troubled and moody. The songs here are "If Only I Could Live My Life Again," "The Show is Over for Tonight."

MGHTY GRAHAME BOND

Pulsar AR 10606.

Funky hard rock from this large, in many senses of the adjective, fellow. All the tunes were written by Billy Gamble and they have what it takes for underground and eventually above ground success. "Water, Water," "Oh Shining Love," "Stiffnecked Chicken."

This is one of The Hardy Boys.

(Saturday Mornings will never be the same again.)

RCA

LeGault to TA

Lance LeGault has been signed to an exclusive recording contract by TA Records.

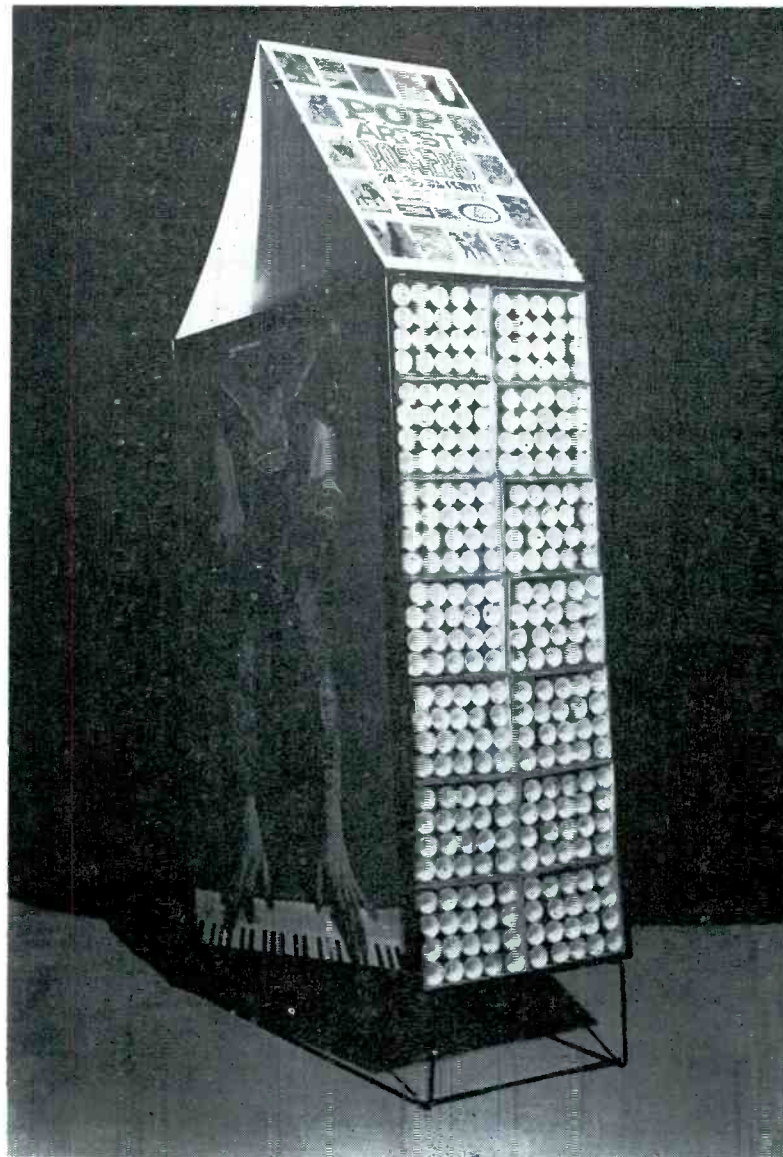

Announcement of the signing was made by Steve Binder, President, who disclosed that the singer-composer's first album is in its final stages of production and will be released in late September. It is being produced by Eddie Karem.

Low 'Fathers' Price

Chess Records has announced that "Fathers and Sons," a two-album package, will carry a suggested retail price of $6.98.

The low two-disk price, particularly with major artists from Columbia, Elektra, Mercury, and Stax Volt included, was set by Marshall Chess, Vice-President of Chess Producing Corp., "so as many people as possible can afford it."

7. "It's Getting Better," Mama Cass: Now confirmed Giant WTX, Top five WFIL & WIBG, added WSAI & KQV. Needs KHJ.

8. Three Dog Night is an out-of-the-ball-park Smash.

9. 5th Dimension is a giant. This proves as the Blood, Sweat & Tears proved earlier than you can take two and three singles out of a "million dollar gold" album and sell a million on each single—if those singles have it in the grooves. When a single from a smash LP doesn't go big, it is only because that cut is not a winner.

10. "Your Good Thing," Lou Rawls: #1 WQXI, Giant at WSAI, CKLW, WHBQ, WIXY, KYA, Miami, St. Louis.

11. "Share Your Love With Me," Aretha: Top ten WMCA, Smash WQXI, KILT, KXOK, CKLW, WABC. Hit WEAM.

15. "I Can't Get Next To You," Temptations: R&B giant owns Chicago, Phila., Detroit. On WLS, WMCA, WQXI, CKLW, WEAM, WKNR, KQV. Smash WQXI.

16. "What's the Use of Breaking Up," Jerry Butler: KQV, WLS, WFIL (smash), KLIF, WQXI. We are very proud of two boys from the streets of Phila. named Kenny Gamble and Leon Huff. They keep topping themselves. Unlike the great Norman Whitfield, they do not have the benefit of the Motown studios and musicians and organization or all those big giant artists. They do it in a little Philly studio with musicians they grew up with. Can you imagine what would happen if THEY had a Marvin Gaye and Temptations to cut? What they have done with a kid from Houston named Archie Bell is remarkable. The new one, "My Balloon Is Going Up" sounds like a Top ten Monster. The O'Jays "One Night Affair" is Top ten at WTX, N. Orleans and over 200,000.

17. "What Kind of Fool," Bill Deal: Hit WLS, on WQXI, CKLW, KHJ, WAYS, WKNR, KXOK, KJR, KYA, WHBQ, WRKO, WMCA. Top ten WAYS.

19. "Nobody But You," Clarence Reid: Smash WSAI & WQXI, WMCA, WEAM, WFIL, WLS, KLIF, WAYS.

20. "That's the Way Love Is," Marvin Gaye: Smash WQXI.

21. "I'm Gonna Make You Mine," Lou Christie: All the stations it needs.

Check: Tammy Wynette. Heavy WLS, WRIT, KXOA.

Goldners Form Firebird Label

NEW YORK — George and Sam Goldner, who've been successful together throughout the '50s and mid-'60s, are joining forces again with their new Firebird Record Corp., after being apart professionally for five years.

The label, to be located at 1650 Broadway, will have Sam Goldner as President, and George Goldner as Secretary-Treasurer. Firebird will be distributed independently and will concentrate on the recording of pop and R&B product for record and tape release nationally and internationally.

The first release, shipping immediately, is "Can't Wait Until Tomorrow" by Kim Tamango, and "Love" by the Will of the People, both produced by George Goldner.

The Goldners have been in the record industry for 22 years. They began the Gee label which struck gold with its first release, "Why Do Fools Fall In Love" by Frankie Lyman & the Teenagers. They also started Roulette Records, where their first two releases were "Party Doll" by Buddy Knox and "I'm Sticking with You." In 1957 they formed Gone Records and clicked with

"Could This Be Magic" by the Dubs. They also formed End Records' million selling "Cow-He's Gone" and "Maybe" by the Chantells.

More recently, Sam Goldner was associated with Gamble Records million selling "Cowboys to Girls" by the Intruders, while George Goldner was with Shadow Morton Productions and headed the operation which produced Janis Ian and the Vanilla Fudge.

Disney Children's Classics Now on Cassette, 8 Track

Disneyland Records' 12 most popular children's classics are now available on cassettes and 8 track cartridges.

Titles selected are: "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," "Mary Poppins," "Jungle Book," "Winnie the Pooh and the Blustery Day," "Bambi," "Pinocchio," "Cinderella," "Peter Pan," "Sleeping Beauty," "Three Little Pigs," "It's a Small World" and "Peter and the Wolf."

Jimmy Johnson, President of Disney music and record companies, stated, "There is no doubt about the great sales potential in children's tapes. We thoroughly researched our entry into the tape and cassette market, and feel certain our leadership position in children's and family entertainment will be further solidified by entering the tape field. Initial dealer and public reaction to our tapes and cassettes will guide our plans as to the future release on tape of additional titles in the Disneyland Records catalog."

Jerry Weiner, National Sales Manager, Disneyland Buena Vista Records, reports that Winnie the Pooh mobile hangers announcing the availability of Disneyland tapes and cassettes have been shipped to wholesale customers for distribution to retail accounts.

Denish NAL Marketing VP

NEW YORK—Art Denish has been appointed Vice President of Marketing at NAL, Larry Finley announced last week.

The appointment takes effect Aug. 25.

Denish had been National Sales Manager for Verve for the past five years.

Friedman Stresses W-7 Tape Involvement

Joel Friedman, Director of Marketing, in his speech at the several Warner Bros.-Seven Arts regional distributors meetings, stressed W-7's involvement with tape.

He noted of the "new magic four letter word, tape," "We will be dynamically involved in the sale and merchandising of tape."

"Don't underestimate the potential of the tape market," he said. "It's going to explode, not next year, or in the future, but now. If you don't have the personnel who are specializing in tape, I suggest that you get them now. If you aren't out beating the bushes for new customers, I think you're passing up some ready, waiting business. Every time your salesman call a dealer or a rack regarding a new hit LP, you ought to make certain that tape, too, is sold."

To bolster tape involvement Friedman mentioned tape display et al and the company's concern in establishing universal tape standards.

Ampex Hosts NARM Reception

Ampex Corporation, NARM Associate Member, will host a cocktail reception on Saturday evening, Sept. 6, at the 1969 Tape Convention of the National Association of Record Merchandisers, Inc. (NARM).

All convention registrants, both Regular and Associate, are invited to attend. This is the only social event on the purely business schedule of the tape convention, and precedes a dinner-meeting at which Donald V. Hall, VP and General Manager of Ampex Stereo Tapes Division, will be a featured speaker.

The cocktail reception will be held in the Regency Ballroom of the Fairmont Hotel in Dallas, Texas, the convention site.

Concert Review

Joan Baez: Remarkable Artist, Beautiful Person

NEW YORK—If beauty in song were to be defined in two words, those words would probably be Joan Baez.

Joan, a Vanguard recording artist, brought her delicate fabric of song, style and personality with her last Friday evening (8) before an appreciative and well-behaved audience at New York's Madison Square Garden, under auspices of Sid Bernstein. She was assisted by the Struggle Mountain Resistance Band whom she affectionately refers to as Jeffrey and Fondle. The concert's theme was resistance and most of her repertoire consisted of songs dealing with motives, moods and acts of the resistance movement.

Her best effort of the evening, though, was "Green Green Grass of Home" which she dedicated to her husband David who is in prison for draft evasion. Another good effort was a song she wrote about her younger sister's (Mimi) boyfriend as he was observed courting Mimi through her living room window, appropriately titled "Sir Galahad." Joan received numerous standing ovations, and was called upon for two encores. Joan Baez is truly a remarkable performer as well as a beautiful person.

—John Sanna.

Intrigues to S-M

NOTES FROM THE UNDERGROUND

By CARL LaFONG

Baba: Will Sales Materialize?

The United States and Western world is about to be served up another Eastern religious leader for consideration, but this time it may be a little different. Bhagawan Sri Satya Sai Baba, healer, teacher, inspiration to thousands of followers in India and throughout the East, is coming to America, probably within the next month.

The announcement was made last week in New York by Richard Bock, General Manager of World Pacific Records. Bock, who has worked with Ravi Shankar as well as produced many top jazz artists, gave a talk about Baba which, were it not coming from such a respected man, would probably not have been taken seriously by very many (and probably still was not taken seriously by some). The gist of the situation is that Baba, who claims to be the present incarnation of the Avathar (Divinity in Human Form), is a being who has reached the fourth level of consciousness (the mental level), meaning that he can materialize objects from thin air.

Bock showed a film of some of Baba's miracles, including a once-a-year celebration in which he brings forth (from his mouth) an egg-shaped, transparent piece of "concentrated spiritual material." Also shown was a demonstration of Baba materializing Vibhuthi, or Sacred Ash, to be given to devotees for spiritual and health improvement. In addition, Bock showed a ring which he said was materialized by Baba right before his eyes when he visited him. (This was shortly after Bock had had a heart attack, and since then he has felt "20 years younger.")

Another of Baba's reported miracles is the cure of a woman from Phoenix, Ariz. who was stricken with bone cancer and given only a short time to live.

The explanation of these occurrences? Baba has mastered the art of mind control. Since there is ultimately no difference between subject and object (mind and matter), if one has great enough knowledge and concentration, he can literally form things from the air, according to Baba.

Baba, Bock and World Pacific have put out an album, "Satya Sai Baba Chants The Bajans," consisting of chants similar to "Hare Krishna" (as in "Hair") but in their original form, not "commercialized." Also to be made available to the public will be a single (taken from the album), posters, pamphlets and a possible future publication of Baba's writings.

A man who materializes objects, cures the sick, a divinity in human form? Sounds weird, certainly. Most of the things he does conceivably could be explained in other ways. (He could have eaten the "concentrated spiritual material" and then forced it up at the right time; the cures could have been psychosomatic.) But upon thinking about how these miracles "really" happened, the alternate explanations sometimes get more far-fetched than Baba's explanation. Perhaps his reasoning is only weird to our Western minds, conditioned to accept rather cynical views of reality. In any event, when Baba arrives in the West, it should be interesting to see what happens. He will probably get his best response from college audiences.

One other interesting note: Baba doesn't accept money or material gifts. He only asks faith. And if you don't believe in him, that's OK, too, because we're all one, anyway.

Creedence Show

Creedence Clearwater Revival are to be accorded a new accolade Monday, Aug. 18, when they'll be honored during a full-hour segment of Dick Clark's "American Bandstand."

Creedence is the first group ever to be the subject of a full hour salute by the "Bandstand." The program is to be aired Saturday, Sept. 13.

Pete Seeger.

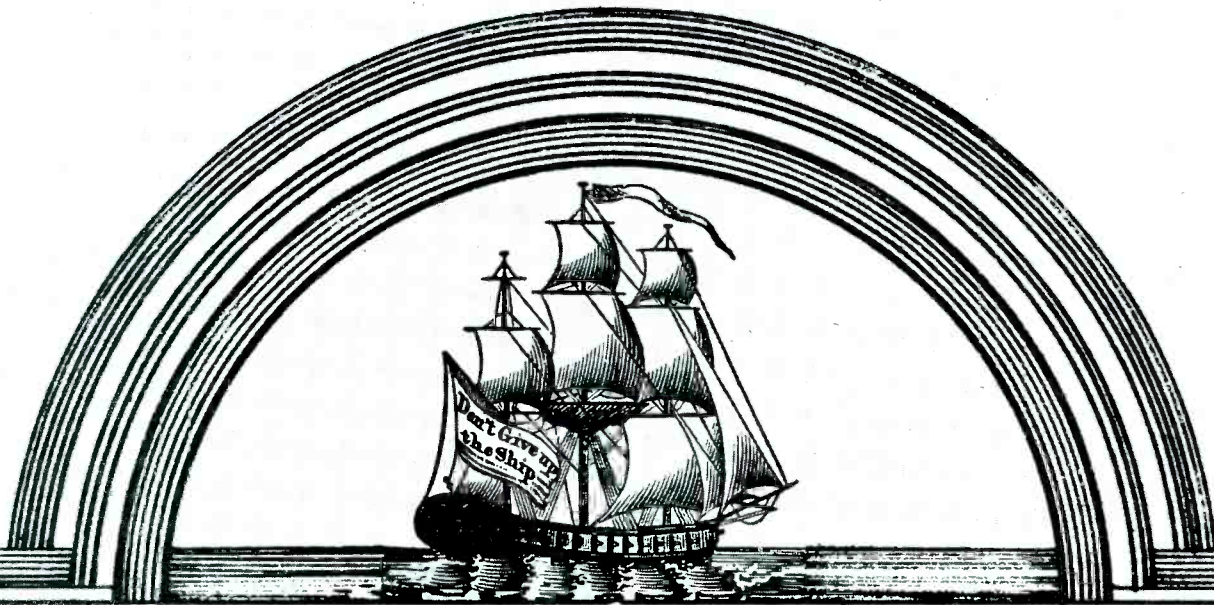

A folk institution whose influence on an entire generation of artists was capsuled by Joan Baez when she said, "Most of us owe careers to Pete."

He was walking picket lines and writing and singing songs of protest before most second-generation singers could talk. He was touring the country singing to audiences and involving them through his music while Dylan was still Zimmerman.

He was at the barricades before most people knew they existed. And he paid for his conscience by being blacklisted and branded "Commie." You've seen who listens to the second generation folk singers.

But in "Young Vs. Old," Pete Seeger's new Columbia album, he bridges the generations to talk to both about their problems with each other. Both'll be listening and buying.

Epic/Okeh Inks Otis, Son

Epic/Okeh Records has signed veteran R&B bandleader Johnny Otis to a production and recording pact.

The deal, as announced last week by Epic A&R Director Larry Cohn, also calls for the recording services of Otis' 15-year-old son, Shuggie, a multi-talented instrumentalist/vocalist who has been working with his father's band since he was four. The senior Otis will produce his son's dates as well as his own.

Otis, remembered for his "Willie and the Hand Jive" hit of the late '50s, had been in retirement for several years, emerging only a year ago to pick up his recording and live activities. The first single from the Johnny Otis show has already been completed and will be in release shortly.

Instrumental in the deal that brought Otis to Epic/Okeh were Cohn, Chuck Gregory, Director of West Coast A&R, and Associate Producer Mark Cohen.

Sam to Stroud

NEW YORK—Sam Waymen, Nina Simone's younger brother, has been signed to an exclusive writer-performer contract by Stroud Productions. He will record for RCA. "Hey, Love," his first single on that label, was released earlier this month.

In addition to writing material for Miss Simone, Waymen is preparing songs for several artists on Decca and on Wally Roker's Canyon Records.

Patmon, Young, Kirk Invictus Legal Counsel

DETROIT — The firm of Patmon, Young and Kirk functions solely as legal counsel to the Holland-Dozier-Holland label, Invictus Records, and not as business manager as announced in last week's special section on the new diskery.

ABA Action

NEW YORK—Lu Vason of ABA (Aries Booking Agency) was in town from his Oakland, Calif., base last week en route to the NATRA Convention, and stopped by Record World.

The agency books the Whispers, the Natural Four, Roger Collins and Bobby Freeman, and both manages and books the Tantalizing Tonies, the Hartfield Brothers, the Ambitions and the Mighty Marcells, he informed.

Vason is attending NATRA as an associate member and as VP of Willie Hoskins Productions, which produces the Natural Four, the Hartfield Brothers and the Tantalizing Tonies, with Hoskins arranging for the Whispers and Roger Collins.

Estos artistas que fueron descubiertos y lanzados al mercado por el joven director artístico Paco de La Barrera, siguen siendo toda una sensación en México. Los artistas más cotizados y de mayor impacto del año por aquellas tierras, que gracias al acierto y visión de Paco de La Barrera, pusieron otra vez en primer plano la música semi-clásica y romántica que iba desapareciendo por la influencia de los conjuntos y artistas de la nueva ola. En Los Angeles el público les ha dado su aceptación pero les hace falta una presentación personal para que sean apreciados en todo su valor.

Estas líneas aparecerán en la Edición Especial dedicada al "Día del Locutor" y quiero aprovechar la oportunidad para felicitar a los compañeros del micrófono con motivo de "su Día." La Prensa, la Industria del Disco, los Artistas y los Locutores, somos engranajes de un mundo individual en el que tal vez son los Locutores una de las partes más importantes. La labor de todos y cada uno de los hombres del radio y TV de California, está saturada de superación constante y por ello les auguramos un éxito mayor cada día. Gracias especiales para las etiquetas que me brindaron su ayuda para lograr producir la plana de California, dedicada a nuestros Locutores, y las que no lo hicieron, perdieron su oportunidad . . . y hasta la próxima que si no me voy a la luna les comentaré una serie de primicias del acetato que tengo en mi poder.

City Hall Tributes Puente

Ralph Lew, Roulette Records' Latin Department Director, reports that New York's Mayor John V. Lindsay announced a tribute to "the noted Latin-American orchestra leader, Tito Puente," was set for Monday, August 18, in City Hall Plaza. Mayor Lindsay will present the Bronze Medallion of the City of New York to Puente.

Puente, who records for the Tico label, was praised by Lindsay in this manner: "Tito Puente was born in the El Barrio section of Harlem 45 years ago of Puerto Rican parents.

'Born with plenty of music inside of me,' as he says. Tito went on to delight millions of music lovers with his Latin tempos. Today Tito Puente is indeed the 'good will ambassador of Latin music.'

The tribute is sponsored by the Mayor's City Hall Festival, supported by many community-minded companies, banks, etc., with a program of lunch-hour entertainment for government employees and others who work in the City Hall area. Lew pointed out that Puente is one of the top Latin sellers.

Starday/King Gets It Together

The purchase of King Records by Starday Recording and Publishing Company in the latter part of 1968 has resulted in a blending of two major independent recording and publishing companies under one corporate structure. Both Starday and King are the end result of a long evolution which began with a very specialized kind of musical activity—country and Rhythm & Blues.

A positive approach to future growth and development within the music industry, while maintaining an authoritative, aggressive position in current marketing strength, are prime requisites at Starday-King. Significant improvements and changes already in effect include:

Manufacturing and Office Facilities. The offices, factory and studio in Cincinnati and the executive offices and studio in Nashville have undergone an extensive up-dating and refurbishing program. The Nashville studio now joins Cincinnati with eight-track facilities plus other current recording equipment. New A & R, publishing and sales offices have been opened in New York and Los Angeles.

New Professional Personnel. Almost every department within the Starday-King complex is now functioning with new professional personnel with particular emphasis in the area of marketing and publishing.

Label Groups. For simplification and concentration in distribution, the Starday-King record labels are divided into two groups:

A. Starday Group (Starday, Deluxe, Look, Nashville, Hollywood).

B. King Group (King, Federal, Bethlehem).

Each "group" is a separate music spectrum, combining country, pop, R & B, jazz and documentary.

Talent. In addition to a star-studded talent line-up featuring James Brown, newly acquired recording acts for the Starday-King groups include Arthur Prysock, Redd Foxx, the Manhattans, Pat Lundy, Wayne Cochran, Bill Doggett, Marie "Queenie" Lyons, James Duncan and Dan Brantley.

Gospel-Spiritual Series. Under the direction of Bishop Richard Simpson, a new gospel-spiritual series is being developed and includes such names as the Mighty Clouds of Harmony, Harmonizing Four, Stars of Virginia, the Smith Evangelistic Choir and Institutional Church of God In Christ.

Album Repackaging. A complete re-activation and re-packaging program including electronic up-dating of sound and new concepts in album cover design has been initiated in answer to a growing demand for product by such all-time recording stars such as Albert King, Little Willie John, Freddy King, Hank Marr, Wynonie Harris, Champion Jack Dupre, Earl Bostic and many others.

Distribution and Marketing. In keeping pace with the changing needs of the marketplace, several new company policy changes have been placed into effect with Starday-King distributors thus making available the most profitable and contemporary distribution policies in the music industry. New record world Gospel Time

By IRENE W. JOHNSON

Gospel promoters across the country, especially those in the big markets, have a thing going on. They will no longer sign contracts to guarantee a group a certain amount. They make verbal agreements and then don't live up to those. Brooklyn, N. Y., Tampa, Fla., and Atlanta, Ga., are just a few of the many places I can name. The day is coming surely when gospel singers will have the same protection the R&B singers have when it comes to their bread. So promoters had better wake up and get themselves together before someone else will be doing their thing in their own front yard. A hint to the wise should be sufficient. Deliverance will come!

Garner LP Set Overseas

Foreign distribution of the Erroll Garner album, "Up in Erroll's Room," has been set by Octave Records, with Pye Records in England and with MPS Records of Germany, it was announced this week.

The Garner album, which was released in the U.S. on the MGM label, is being released for the first time abroad.

Pye will have exclusive rights to the album in England, Australia and New Zealand. MPS Records will have rights to the French, Dutch, and Belgian markets as well as Germany. Deals for distribution also are in the works with Triola of Scandinavia and Ricordi of Italy. Garner and his reps are mulling offers from Japan and South America to round out the world pattern.

This marks the first time Garner's product on Octave is being made available abroad on a market-by-market basis. In the past, since 1962, Garner had a world foreign releasing deal with Philips. His first three albums on MGM were available through MGM foreign affiliates. All Garner product on MGM now reverts to Octave Records, both abroad and in the U.S. and Canada, since the releasing arrangement with MGM has been terminated by Octave. Garner's pact with Philips continues to 1970.

Currently Sessioning

Garner currently is waxing a series of sessions, completing the first in New York, with plans to record additional material during his upcoming dates in San Francisco and Chicago. Garner's management is in talks for a new recording deal for his product for U.S. release.

Both Pye and MPS will release the Garner album before the end of September. MPS in Germany is rushing the album, since there has been considerable bootleg traffic on "Up in Erroll's Room" in Germany and Austria, which should be aborted by release of the authentic, quality product. Garner and Octave have assigned attorneys abroad to investigate the source of the bootleg albums, which are copies of the MGM album.

Garner was one of the first artists in the industry to set up an independent production deal, on Octave Records, making his first releasing pact with ABC-Paramount in 1961. Octave Records has been recording Garner since 1954, and has an extensive catalog which they are preparing for ultimate tape leasing, in addition to disks which will be recorded for current release. Octave recorded Garner's legendary "Concert By the Sea" in 1955, releasing the first volume of the concert with Columbia, now CBS Records. Octave is planning to release "Volume II, Concert by the Sea," in their new release deal. They have been holding the second volume, and will release it within the year.

Work also is continuing on Garner's catalogue of original compositions, and four folios of his originals will be available for the first time within the next few months.

Garner has been working with Cal Lampley and Nat Pierce in setting up the music catalog.

Garner's current recording in-the-works will feature Garner with different instrumentation supporting him, and relate totally to today's dance patterns and rhythms.

Canyon Label
Inks Turrentine

NEW YORK—Wally Roker, President of newly formed Canyon Records, has announced the signing of Stanley Turrentine to a long-term, exclusive recording contract.

Turrentine is one of the world's leading tenor saxophone players who has in the past recorded for such record companies as Blue Note, Impulse, Prestige and Atlantic. Handling the negotiations were Michael S. Gusick and N. Dennis Kaplan, of the New York law firm of Kaplan & Gusick.

Roker indicated that his label intends to record Turrentine in the contemporary and diversified styles typical of the current musical scene. Turrentine's first album for Canyon is scheduled to be recorded in several weeks and will be released soon.

Other artists on the Canyon label are "Big Daddy" Crimson, Irma Thomas and Tiffany Bolling. Miss Bolling, who is also a well known actress, will be starring in the new ABC-TV series, "The New People," premiering this fall and is also completing a motion picture, "Intimate Strangers," to be released by Commonwealth United Corporation.

'Jazz Me Blues'
Double Header

"Jazz Me Blues," the Tom Delaney classic of the Chicago-style jazz, makes a rare, though not unprecedented, double appearance on a Prestige album featuring the selected original recordings of Benny Goodman playing with some other veteran jazz players.

HOT DOG

LOU DONALDSON—Blue Note BST 84318.

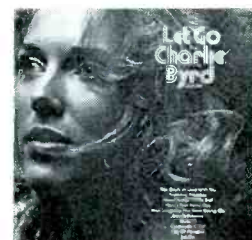

Lou's jazz impetus here is rhythm and blues. Two of the five selections have been tremendous R/B hits and the other three cuts also have an R/B undercurrent. Supporting Lou and his pliable sax are Ed Williams, Melvin Sparks, Charles Earland and Leo Morris.

LET GO

CHARLIE BYRD—Columbia CS 9869.

A man of quiet taste, Charlie Byrd makes something soft and simple of gorgeous melodies like "Let Go," "Here's That Rainy Day," "How Long Has This Been Going On," "This Guy's in Love With You." Neat, complicated fingering.

England. More product will be released—both new and vintage—and given concentrated promotion and sales emphasis.

At the same time, MCA-UK will expand their creative, promotional and marketing activities for locally produced English material. This concentration on the development of English artists and repertoire will be supported by all of the MCA labels in the U.S. who recognize the continuing importance of England as a developing ground for new talent. The new arrangement will provide the greatest possible promotional effort on all facets of the MCA record releases.

Broderick stated that, "The new contract continues the long-standing relationship that has existed between American Decca and British Decca as well as maximizing the use of marketing tools in the growing U.K. market.

"We are looking to our people at MCA-UK to bring us more product such as Little Arrows by Leapy Lee and artists such as John Rowles and the newly signed Topol (soon to star in the motion picture version of "Fiddler on the roof"). The Topol album will be released on the Kapp label here in the U.S."

Moody Produces Shorts

Doug Moody, former West Coast A & R man for Mercury and former VP of Kama Sutra Records in New York, and Tom Denove, young Hollywood film maker, have formed Sundial Cinema, Inc., and will produce short subjects of recording artists and groups. These 15-minute color films will be shown in clubs both here and overseas.

Warner/Reprise Meetings

Friedman, Director of Marketing, addressed himself to the merchandisers, saying, "Our growth during the coming years will outstrip every prediction currently being made" and offered his own prediction—a 35% increase in sales over last year's figures for the company.

Exploding Tape Market

"Don't underestimate the potential of the tape market," Friedman also said. "It's going to explode, not next year or in the future, but now."

Cornyn, Creative Services Director for the company, outlined sales and advertising campaigns to support the new product, noting that the label is investing more than $70,000 in newspaper and magazine ads to support the release.

The series of meetings began Aug. 8 at the Sheraton-Universal Hotel in Los Angeles, then moved to the Playboy Club in Lake Geneva, Wisc., Aug. 11 the Miami Springs Villa, Miami Springs, Fla., Aug. 13; and the Plaza Hotel in New York City, Aug. 15.

Each featured a three-hour presentation followed by lunch and meetings with local promotion personnel.

Anthology Album

Attendees were given a large envelope labeled "The 1969 Warner-Reprise Record Show" containing a double album of the same title—an anthology of performances by the labels' contemporary artists. The package also contained press kits on four artists new to the labels: Doug Kershaw, Ella Fitzgerald, Theodore Bikel and Bert Jansch. A collection of fall release album slicks was included, as were a large catalog of new releases and a miniature catalog of all product.

More specialized promotional material was given to distributors and rack jobbers—a 37-page merchandising manual and a large looseleaf notebook of advertising glossies.

As a follow-up to material distributed at the conventions, Warner-Reprise is also sending a set of eight new 22 by 28-inch posters of artists, a set of 46 LP divider cards, a set of singles divider cards, a set of easel-back album jackets, 20 by 20-inch blow-ups of three new album releases and other display materials.

For tape merchandising, the company is furnishing a mobile /standup sign reading "Tape Center" and clear plastic stick-on signs listing best-selling tape product.

With the exception of a Sinatra Family Christmas album, Reprise LP product shipping this week includes: Dean Martin's "I Take a Lot of Pride in What I Am"—his first new album in more than a year; Sammy Davis Jr.'s "The Goin's Great"; Arlo Guthrie's "Running Down the Road"; Bert Jansch's "Birthday Blues"; and the Vogues' "Memories." Additionally, label's first Theo Bikel LP, "A New Day"; a Tiny Tim children's LP—"For All My Little Friends"; and Kenny Rogers and the First Edition's "Ruby, Don't Take Your Love to Town."

Also, Reprise's first Ella Fitzgerald LP, "Ella"; Frank Zappa's "Hot Rats"; the Fugs' "The Belle of Avenue A"; Pearls Before Swine's "These Things Too" and Don Ho's "The Don Ho TV Show."

Sinatra Family Orders

Orders are now being taken for "The Sinatra Family Wish You A Merry Christmas," which showcases Reprise's Frank and Nancy Sinatra and marks the label debuts of Frank Sinatra, Jr., and Tina Sinatra. However, the album, which the company believes will be one of its major successes of the year, will be shipped later in the fall.

This week include: Rod McKuen's "Carnegie Hall Concert"; the Association's "The Association"; the Watts' 103rd Street Rhythm Band's "In the Jungle Babe"; the Blue Velvet Band's "Sweet Moments"; the Neon Philharmonic's "The Neon Philharmonic"; Doug Kershaw's "The Cajun Way" and the original soundtrack of W-7 Pictures' "The Learning Tree."

Reprise's September LP release includes: the Kinks' "Arthur"; Mephistopheles' "In Frustration I Hear Singing"; and Jethro Tull's "Stand Up."

Warner LPs also include: the San Sebastian Strings' "For Lovers"; Laurindo Almeida's "Classical Current" and Lorraine Ellison's "Stay with Me."

Michaels Exits London

Joey Michaels has left his promotion position with London Records' distributors in New York, and is mulling other offers.

TV Boost to Males

bums in with his specials) and singers who make infrequent specials like Elvis Presley can get sales going ("Elvis," the soundtrack of Presley's December special repeated last week, was one of the singer's biggest chart albums).

Country singers Buck Owens (Capitol) and Roy Clark (Dot) have certainly boosted their sales with their stints on CBS' "Hee Haw."

Due in the fall with a new variety show, Columbia's Jim Nabors will be worth watching. A sturdy seller since his first album release, Nabors should become even bigger if the theory being propounded here holds. Warners also hopes Don Ho's five Kraft specials pay-off on disk.

Distaffers Less Lucky

Distaffers don't seem to have as much luck with television, although it's difficult to say since fewer women have their own variety shows. Carol Burnett hasn't forged a record career for herself yet, although her recent Tetragrammaton album with Martha Raye is scoring and the label is going all-out to make her a record name.

Columbia's Barbra Streisand has regularly turned the soundtracks of her CBS specials into million-selling records.

In the fall Ranwood's Lennon Sisters and Atlantic's Leslie Uggams have variety hours bowing. It'll be interesting to see how they coordinate their disk activity with their shows and what the outcomes will be.

Another thrush with a couple of specials due in the fall is Scepter's Dionne Warwick. A retrospective Judy Garland hour is being worked on also.

For the men TV is a charm. The ones mentioned earlier may not be the only male singers who sell (Tony Bennett, Bobby Vinton, Ed Ames, Robert Goulet, Steve Lawrence, Donovan, Lou Rawls, the star of Dean Martin's "The Goldiggers," and Stevie Wonder do, too) but they are undoubtedly among the most prominent.

Paramount Paints Big Campaign for 'Wagon' Film

LOS ANGELES — Coordinating closely in every situation with their parent, Paramount Pictures Corporation, Paramount Records this week begins a many-faceted exploitation effort on their upcoming soundtrack album, "Paint Your Wagon."

The musical, which stars Lee Marvin, Clint Eastwood and Jean Seberg, is based on the 1951 Broadway musical by Alan Jay Lerner and Frederick Loewe. Five additional tunes were written by Alan Jay Lerner and Andre Previn for the screen version, which was produced by Alan Jay Lerner Productions. The film, which opens this October as a roadshow presentation, co-stars Ray Walston and Harve Presnell and features the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band. Joshua Logan directed.

Paramount Records, on behalf of their deluxe package which goes into release early in September, is planning a multitude of activity encompassing consumer and trade advertising, publicity and a myriad of merchandising aids.

To this end, Jack Levy, Paramount Records Ad-Merchandising VP, has arranged to tie-in with a series of seminars on the film, which the motion picture corporation has scheduled in key cities, beginning Tuesday (19) in New York. Paramount Records representatives in Atlanta, Chicago, Cincinnati, Dallas, Kansas City, Los Angeles, Philadelphia and San Francisco will also attend like gatherings in their own cities.

"Point being," said Levy, "is we have an apparent 'monster' album being readied for release. The pre-exploitation to be derived is of the highest magnitude. We want all of our men in the field to see firsthand what is being done by the film company—what they expect of us and how we can best work together to bring it all home."

The album itself is premium-priced and showcased with a full color inside-and-out double jacket, further embellished by the inclusion of a souvenir booklet.

Among Back-up Plans

Among initial back-up plans already placed into operation is the recording of 30 and 60 second radio spots with special budget allocations to each Paramount Record distributor. They will be utilized for time buys concurrent with the release of the feature. Ad mats for newspaper advertising, either in conjunction with the dealer or for direct placement by distributors, are also nearing completion. Elaborate in-store display kits for windows or overall store use is another major aspect of the campaign.

National trade and consumer advertising is now being prepared as is an elaborate press kit to be dispatched to newspapers and magazines throughout the globe by Paramount Records' publicity department.

Voting Next Month For Songwriters Hall

The Songwriters' Hall of Fame moved a step closer this week to naming the first major group of composers and their songs to the Hall. Following a period of extensive research, the organization's recently-named Song Selection Committee has prepared a list of nominees.

sales catalogs, order forms, point-of-sales merchandising aids, bus placards, national TV and radio exposure of artists along with mass-appealing album cover designs help further generate all-market sales penetration. Mona Baptiste: Heading Up

By GEORGE LeVAYE

MUNICH—Five German record firms have offered Trinidad thrush Mona Baptiste TV, club and, recording deals, but Mona is waiting for the right song before she goes into the recording studio.

Right now it seems as if a Vance & Pockriss song will be the "A" side. Her audiences are from six to 60. One of Mona's big plusses is her willingness to perform free at benefits.

Mona is based in Munich, and is constantly seen on German TV and in the local niteries as a star attraction. Her producer feels that she is an artist of note, and will follow in the footsteps of Lena Horne. Mona hit the active charts a few years ago in the German language; but with the start of her new recording setup, Mona will stick to her mother language, English, where she can milk the last drop out of a lyric.

One of the record companies interested in Mona's English recordings is Metronome in Hamburg, which is allied with Atlantic in the states. So all Mona needs is the right waxing, and there she goes on the USA charts.

Steve, Eydie Delight Arts Center

HOLMDEL, N.J.—Steve Lawrence and Eydie Gormé, RCA artists, filled the house at the spacious Garden State Arts Center here last Friday (8) and proved once again that their place at the top of the show business ladder is well-deserved.

After the preliminaries of the evening (a fine set by Woody Herman and the Thundering Herd, including contemporaries like "Hey Jude" and "Light My Fire"; comedy by Corbett Monica), Steve came out and captured the audience with "I've Gotta Be Me" and "My Way." And if he didn't touch everyone with his singing (though it seemed he did), he moved the rest with his beautifully humble way of thanking the audience for applauding each song. You could tell that here was a professional who hasn't forgotten what made him a star.

Then came Eydie, the gal with some of the most magnificent vibes in the business, and after a short duet, she treated the audience to an equally impressive performance with numbers like "This Girl's In Love with You" and her hit of yesteryear, "Blame It On The Bossa Nova."

And they saved the best for last, as they combined to do a

Songwriters Voting

Five nominees have been named for each decade of the 20th century from which the Board of Directors is expected to elect two for each decade for official entry into the Hall. Although the selection group has recommended election of two composers for each decade, this number could be varied up or down by the Board itself.

The Board is expected to meet in mid or late September to discuss the nominees and to vote on winners. Nominees are elected on the basis of their total output of songs, although in the case of a composer known mainly for a single song, the song itself may be accorded a special citation.

The Song Selection Committee consists of Nat Shapiro, Mordecai Siegal, Gerald Marks, Al Simon, and committee chairman, Russ Sanjek. The date of the full Board meeting in September, to be chaired by Songwriters' Hall of Fame president Johnny Mercer, is to be announced shortly.

medley of hits which included some harmonies by Eydie that were hard to believe. The audience loved them and they loved the audience.

Although the crowd was mostly adult, the young people there were just as enthusiastic and touched as the grownups by the performance. Steve and Eydie showed once again that no matter what happens in the music world, there will always be plenty of room for talents such as theirs.

Allen Wins Audience

NEW YORK—Michael Allen, a relatively new London artist, debuted at the Copa last week (7) and treated the audience to a rare combination of sincerity, desire and talent.

Mike opened with the Beatle favorite, "With a Little Help from My Friends," which seemed a bit stilted and forced, but he quickly settled down to a relaxed yet dynamic delivery which established exceptional audience rapport. His fine performance of "Never Will I Marry," from his first London LP, seemed to put him completely at ease and from then on it was a fine show.

Mike went through a series of numbers which were familiar but gave some relief from the songs one usually hears over and over again at night clubs. He sparkled on "Hard-Hearted Hannah" and "Where's the Playground, Susie?" And he was particularly adept at switching from a fast to a slow song without losing any momentum.

The closing number of the evening, Charles Aznavour's "You've Got To Learn," which also expressed Mike's own philosophy, provided the audience with Michael Allen at his best. The song will be included in his forthcoming LP, his second.

Allen is the kind of guy you root for. You'd want him to make it even if he didn't have the talent. And he has it.

Also on the bill was comedian Jerry Shane, who did a better-than-average monologue and was well-received.

Club Review

Jam Factory Scores

NEW YORK—The Electric Circus introduced a fabulous new group to the people of New York recently, one not yet with a record company—a situation that should be remedied soon.

Jam Factory played both songs they had written and their own terrific versions of tunes already existing. Their music was the foot-tapping type, or the kind that allows you to just stand there and smile. Influenced somewhat by Sly and the Family Stone, Jam Factory is a very versatile group consisting of guitars, an organ and horns. Each member is a fine musician and collectively they put on an ecstatic performance.

Gala Opening For Hank Williams Barbecue Pit

NASHVILLE — The first Hank Williams Jr. Barbecue Pit was opened with ceremonies here July 31. The opening festivities kicked off four days of celebration marking the beginning of a prospective nationwide chain of the eating establishments.

Nashville Mayor Beverly Briley headed a host of Music City government official and recording personalities and executives who helped Williams with the ribbon cutting. A crowd estimated at 500 people were waiting for the ceremonies, and the store served over 3,000 people the first day. Many of the customers received silver guitar charms, the guitar being the trademark of the food chain.

At a press party the night before the opening, Jim Ragan, the firm's Vice-President in Charge of Advertising, announced that three other sites were planned in the Nashville area. The second location, to be opened by Labor Day, will be located on Opry Place, directly across the street from the Grand Ole Opry House. Construction on this site has already begun. The third location will be in Hendersonville, Tenn., a suburb of Nashville. A fourth will be situated on Nolensville Rd. in Nashville.

Casey Jenkins, President of the firm, introduced Jack Favier to the press gathering. Favier is executive food director of Hank Williams Jr.'s Barbecue Pits, Inc. He will supervise the preparation of food and the training of personnel for all stores in the franchise operation.

P & S Acquires WJRZ

HACKENSACK, N. J.—Pacific and Southern Broadcasting Company have announced an agreement in principle to purchase the assets of radio station WJRZ.

In a joint announcement, DeSales Harrison, Jr., Chairman of the Board of P&S, and Lazar Emanuel, chief executive officer and General Manager of WJRZ, said the purchase price for the 5,000-watt AM station was $6.1 million in cash and that the transaction was subject to Federal Communications Commission approval.

"WJRZ will be a significant addition to the P&S family," said Harrison. "Through that station, we will be serving not only the important Bergen County area, but broadcasting a strong signal which is received throughout the nation's most populous and hard-charging market, including New York City, Northern New Jersey and parts of Connecticut."

"We are also very pleased with the opportunity of joining P&S," said Mr. Emanuel, who will become a Vice President of the group broadcasting company. "P&S has a programming expertise and a commitment to community service that will substantially improve our ability to serve the Bergen County area."

WJRZ will join WQXI-TV, AM and FM in Atlanta, WSAI-AM and FM in Cincinnati and KHON-TV, Honolulu, and its two satellites serving the Hawaiian market in the P&S family of stations.

Fruitful Inspiration For Warner Mack

NASHVILLE — A uniquely shaped fruit stand near Knoxville, gave fruit to an idea, added mileage to a trip and prompted a new hobby for Decca Artist Warner Mack.

En route to a recent show date, Mack spied the octagon-shaped fruit stand and knew immediately it was the type wing he had in mind for his new house under construction near Nashville. He drove on to Knoxville, played his date and thought about how he could describe the unusual design to his architect.

Deciding "one picture is worth a thousand words," Mack went out, bought a camera and drove 100 additional miles out of his way—just to snap a picture of the octagon shaped fruit stand.

The architect has the idea, Mack will get his house wing and is toying with thoughts of making photography his hobby, since he has a "used once only" camera.

Country From The Continent

By MURRAY KASH

LONDON — What a hectic time for Hank Snow in conjunction with his Continental tour. No sooner did he complete an RCA recording session with Chet Atkins in Nashville than he and the Rainbow Ranch Boys along with Willie Nelson, the Record Men and Johnny Darrell planed for London. Within 24 hours they were off to do a couple of U.S. Bases. On Saturday, Aug. 2, back to London to do a BBC "Country Meets Folk" radio show, then up to Liverpool for two concerts that very night. The next day, Sunday, back to London to do two shows at the Palladium. Up first thing on Monday to catch a flight to Oslo, the first stop of a Norwegian tour. BBC producer Bill Bebb was not too sure that he would be able to do a program, since the Hank Snow package arrived shortly before air time. But all went well, and the packed studio applauded with great enthusiasm Hank's offerings that included "I'm Movin' On," "I've Cried a Mile" and "I've Been Everywhere." Willie Nelson's rendition of his own composition, "Hello Walls," and Johnny Darrell's "Ruby, Don't Take Your Love to Town," were also very well received.

Murray Kash

Eddy Arnold is due to do a concert at the Royal Albert Hall in mid-September. The next country star scheduled to come to Britain is Buck Owens along with his Buckaroos Nov. 17-22. . . The popularity of Jim Reeves on this side of the Atlantic is as great as ever. Besides the BBC radio show devoted to his hit records in July, there is a Jim Reeves Spot each week in the "Country Style" programs; all the music papers carried columns on the fifth anniversary of his passing (July 31); and currently his single, "When Two Worlds Collide," is in Top 30 Charts, and his LP, "According to My Heart" is at number 2 in the LP Charts.

Irish TV producer John Murphy in London lining up country music talent for a series to be done from Dublin this autumn. This month's issue of Pop Music Express published in Prague has feature story on Bill Anderson, written by Miroslav Cerny, and write-up on Jerry Lee Lewis by Lillies Ohlsson. One of the British trade papers has a lengthy interview with Jo Durden-Smith, Granada TV producer who flew out with two British cameramen to film the Johnny Cash concert at San Quentin prison that was recorded and has just been released by CBS. The LP is getting lots of plays, but no showing of the film by Granada up until the present time. It's bound to have a top viewing figure, since Johnny has a tremendous following over here.

Allen to Board Of Cowboy Hall of Fame

Rex Allen, Western singing star, rancher and rodeo announcer, was elected to the Board of Trustees of the National Cowboy Hall of Fame as a representative from the State of California, Albert K. Mitchell Board Chairman of the national shrine announced.

Allen will serve as a California trustee with Governor Ronald Reagan, fellow entertainer John Wayne of Hollywood and ranchers John Baumgartner, Jr. of San Martin, Nelson Crow of Anaheim and Walter T. Rodman of Redwood City.

He will serve a six-year term on the Board and will be eligible at the end of that period for nomination to another term. Some 70 of the nation's civic, business and agricultural leaders serve on the institution's Board. Each of the 17 Western states is represented by the state's governor plus two or more prominent men in the state. Others on the board include three Trustees-at-Large representing all the states and two representatives of the Rodeo Cowboys Association.

Allen was recently named Rodeo Man of the Year by the Rodeo Producers of America and Canada. Allen's "Crying in the Chapel," "Streets of Laredo" and "Don't Go Near the Indians" were at the top of the record charts.

Ashleys Set Coast Tour for September

Leon Ashley, Margie Singleton and the Journeyman have completed a schedule for the month of September, which will carry them through Texas and the western states to California where their first show will be Friday, Sept. 12, in Los Angeles.

After Los Angeles, the duet will appear in nine other cities in California and along the West Coast marking the first tour to the Coast area by the country duet. According to Ashley, the shows were planned and scheduled in order to allow closer contact with the West Coast audiences who were instrumental in making Ashley's "Laura" a country standard.

The shows also will feature Jack Shaw, who records for the Ashley label and is enjoying success with his current release of "Dark Hollow." Free souvenir copies of Ashley releases will be distributed at all shows, arranged and booked exclusively by Marty Landau.

Djs Needing Copies

Any djs wishing copies of the new Ray Griff record, "The Entertainer," and the new Carl Dobkins, Jr. record "Pictures," may request them on station letterhead to Blue Echo Music, Inc., Suite 102, 1906 South St., P. O. Box 1223, Nashville, Tenn. 37202.

Mayhew Org Moves

NASHVILLE — The Mayhew Organization (including Little Darlin' Records and Mayhew Music Co., Inc.) is now located at 3402 Belmont Blvd.

Harden Signing

Bobby Harden is obviously happy about signing a recent recording contract with Starday-King Records. Looking on is the firm's National C&W Promo man, Charlie Dick. Bobby was formerly a member of the Harden Trio who are best remembered for their hit recording of "Tippy Hoeing."

Mercury LPs

On the Limelight label, Beaver and Krause have contributed their electronic music efforts to a number of chart rock albums. They put together "Ragnarok," their own tribute to the Moog synthesizer. Other Limelight LPs are "Running in the Summernight," the second album by the Mecki Mark Men, Swedish rock group; "Funky Skull," electronically-oriented package by Melvin Jackson, best known for his work with the Eddie Harris Quartet, and "Signals," an electronic album by the Percussions of Strausbourg, one of the first aggregations to record for Limelight.

On Smash, "Jerry Lee Lewis and Linda Gail Lewis Together."

Six albums herald the debut of Fontana's Living Presence stereo series which marks the ultimate in top sound created by a complex multi-track stereo recording system. The albums are "Neopolitan Nights," the Living Presence Orchestra; "Sousa Specials," Band of the Scots Guards; "Sweet Sax at the Cinema," Johnnie Gray and his Orchestra; "The Sophisticated Johnny Dankworth"; "El Bandito," by Chaquito and Quedo Brass; and "Can't Take My eyes Off You," The Voices of the Champaign Circle.

The Golden Johnny Cash

Columbia's Johnny Cash, whose records have consistently enjoyed simultaneous success both on the nation's best-selling country-music charts and also on the best-selling popular-music listings, continues on his winning streak with the certification of his "Johnny Cash at San Quentin" LP and "A Boy Named Sue" single as gold records.

Both the album and the single have been certified gold in less than eight weeks after release. Both the single and the LP are also enjoying great nationwide play and top chart action. Also within the past two months, "Johnny Cash's Greatest Hits" was certified as a million-dollar-seller of gold LP, adding to Johnny's musical "Golden Touch."

Johnny Cash has previously won gold records for his million-dollar-seller LPs "Ring of Fire," "I Walk the Line" and "Johnny Cash at Folsom Prison," and his best-seller LP, "Johnny Cash in the Holy Land," remains a consistent chart album.

Adding to this record-industry "gold," Columbia will be awarding to Johnny two Gold Guitar awards for his best-selling Country-Western singles "Folsom Prison Blues" and "Daddy Sang Bass," which have already exceeded the 300,000 sales mark.
