PROGRESS made in cooperative effort by NARTB to meet violent criticism by American Medical Assn. of alleged abuse of simulated doctors in commercials has drawn attention of dental profession. Organized dentists now asking similar steps to prevent purported abuse of "white coat" advertising messages extolling merits of dentifrices.

DESPITE persistent speculative stories that Robert E. Lee, FCC's newest Commissioner, is disciple of Sen. Joe McCarthy, it's ascertained that Mr. Lee's main senatorial support came from Sen. Styles Bridges (R-N. H.), Senate president pro tem. It's expected Mr. Bridges will spearhead confirmation drive for Mr. Lee at next session. Mr. Lee's colleagues, incidentally, obviously are impressed with new Commissioner's willingness to dig for facts and speak his mind.

WHOLE STORY hasn't been told, but it's learned that William B. Ryan decided to resign as BAB president effective Jan. 1 rather than originally planned Feb. 1 because of reaction to his confidential letter to board members Dec. 3. Mr. Ryan will continue to draw his $50,000 annual stipend through February 1955 when his five-year contract expires (story page 38).

UP POPS Robert J. Dean, KOTA Rapid City, S. D., as candidate for secretaryship of FCC, left vacant with resignation of T. J. Slowie, who served for nearly 20 years under Democratic control. Mr. Dean, who was leading aspirant for vacancy filled by Robert E. Lee but was fished out of post, is being supported by Sen. Francis D. Case, who led his campaign for commissionership. He reportedly still has his 55.5% interest in KOTA on block.

FCC ITSELF, it's believed, would be satisfied to have William P. Massing, veteran staffer, continue as acting secretary because he knows job and has performed it for years. But there are other candidates, including Lt. Col. William B. Campbell, Signal Corps and an experienced communicator, and Francis J. Murphy, prominent in Illinois Republican circles, aside from Mr. Dean.

WHEN NARTB tv Board meets in Phoenix next month, its major business will be consideration of format for proposed all-inclusive tv circulation project. One thing is certain: Recommendation will be that study, if undertaken, be placed in hands of outside organization, totally divorced from trade association.

EYEBROWS LIFTED on withdrawal of Crosley from vhf ch. 8 proceeding in Indianapolis and its switch to vhf ch. 13, taking on three other applicants. By withdrawing from 8, Crosley's last way open for contested grant to WISH, already recommended by examiner (story page 44). One of principals in WISH is former Democratic National Chairman Frank E. McKinney, while one of ch. 13 applicants is Republican National Committeeman Eugene Pulliam's WIRE. Some FCC members are curious as to why Crosley would drop out against one contestant and take on three others.

LIGGETT & MYERS, always heavy pur- chase of baseball radio coverage, retrenched on at least one major league club front for two reasons—(1) low popularity of team itself, (2) growing popularity of neighboring major league team. Stopper, however, was said to be originating station's request for same or perhaps higher rates from advertiser despite probable smaller regional network coverage.

ACTION taken by the Big Ten last week (story page 40), coupled with criticism by smaller college members, public resentment and threat of antitrust action, point to bitter battle at NCAA's convention in Cincinnati in January. Western Conference (Big Ten) is withholding details of its proposals for regional football tv control until convention time for "political and strategic" reasons, it was said.

NEWLY-ORGANIZED Ultra High Frequency Television Assn. will launch membership drive next month. Melvin A. Goldberg, acting executive secretary, will cover series of regional meetings arranged by founder-members in New England, Midwest and South, in fast three-week tour. Scope of organization presumably will be defined after that tour. UHFTA now has some 15 charter members, with Lou Poller, WCAN-TV Milwaukee, as president, and William B. Roberts, Washington tv attorney, as general counsel.

IT'S SURELY denied, but word seeping out of NARTB Television Code Board meeting is that enforcers are becoming restive over lack of final authority to slap down violators of program and commercial tenets. Important code board actions are subject to final decision of full Television Board, with possibility of outside pressures in case enforcers some day decide to make example of one or more subscribers.

EDWARD RYERSON, retired industrialist and president of Chicago Educational Television Assn., was in New York last week, screening applicants for general managership of educational tv outlet on vhf ch. 11 in Chicago. Upwards of 30 individuals—one from educational broadcaster ranks, others from educational institutions—have been interviewed thus far. Station has received FCC approval, is due to start operation next October.

SALES STORY

WHAT happened to department store sales in New York while newspapers were closed down and stores were flocking to radio-TV to get their sales messages across? Figures released Friday by Federal Reserve Bank of New York showed that in comparison with corresponding periods last year, New York department store sales for week ending Dec. 5 were down five per cent while for week ended Nov. 28 they were down seven per cent. During week ended Dec. 5, stores advertised heavily on radio and television because of strike which closed major newspapers (story page 37). During week ended Nov. 28, New York daily newspapers were not on strike and published regular editions with usual heavy run of department store advertising.

NCAA TV Plan 'Collapse' Predicted by Big Ten

"DISREGARD of the public interest can lead to disastrous consequences" and result in "entire collapse" of NCAA's controlled football TV program, Big Ten stated Friday (early story page 40) on four recommendations of policy by member schools unless plan is revised.

In statement proposing regional-type controls over TV, Western Conference served notice it "intends to press for a program" that will "better serve" sectional interests of football televiewers. NCAA's 1953 plan was described as containing this "major deficiency" and not providing public with a "satisfactory representation" of all conferences.

Big Ten's TV committee, whose recommendations were unanimously approved by its athletic directors and faculty committee, will meet at NCAA convention in Cincinnati Jan. 5. Objective will be to incorporate Western Conference regional plan into overall NCAA program.

MBS Plans to Outline Program Ideas at Biloxi

MUTUAL's program plans for 1954 will be outlined by network officials at MBS affiliates' convention Jan. 18-19 at Biloxi, Miss. [T-T, Nov. 30, Victor C. Diehm of WAZL Hattiesburg, Pa., chairman of Mutual Affiliates Advisory Committee, told affiliates Friday in closed circuit talk urging attendance at sessions.

Tentative agenda, he said, calls for MBS officials to present plans at Jan. 18 morning meeting, with affiliates discussing these and perhaps preparing own recommendations at closed session after luncheon. In final session, starting morning of Jan. 19, MBS authorities will be on hand to answer questions developed in preceding day's closed meeting of affiliates. MBS delegation, he said, will include President Thomas F. O'Neill; Robert A. Schmid, administrative vice president in charge of sales and advertising; Herbert C. Rice, program vice president, and Bert J. Hauser, co-op programs vice president.

Two Final Decisions; Other Actions by FCC

FINAL decisions to grant vhf ch. 7 to KLYN Amarillo, Tex., and vhf ch. 3 to KDAL Duluth, Minn., reported by FCC Friday as two permittels, and to turn down WFMID-TV Frederick, Md., and vhf ch. 7 WJON-TV St. Cloud, Minn., surrendered their permits to Commission.

KLYN ch. 7 grant was made possible by dropping of Texas Telecasting Co. and Pan-American Telecasting Co. from competitive hearing. KDAL won ch. 3 after competitor WBCD withdrew to seek allocation change for additional vhf channel [8*, Dec. 7].

WFMID-TV Frederick cited inability to get network service as reason for giving up 62 grant. WJON-TV St. Cloud returned ch. 7 grant after airspace subcommittee limited height of tower. Station felt higher building costs elsewhere unsound.

Two Initial Decisions Reported

TWO INITIAL decisions reported by FCC Friday, one recommending grant of uhf ch. 32 at Corpus Christi, Tex., to Coastal Bend Television Co., another proposing grant of uhf ch. 69 at Erie, Pa., to the Eastern Penna. Bend radio board. Grant may be possible by amendment to H. 1. Hunt's application (story page 31).[BT, Dec. 7]

Noble Foundation

GIFT of $2 million by Edward J. Noble, chairman of the board, of American Broadcasting-Paramount Theatres Inc. and board chairman of Life Savers Corp., to Edward John Noble Foundation, philanthropic agency, is being announced today (Mon.). Organized in 1940, foundation supports education, charities, hospitals and the needy in broad field.

Daytime Station Group Plans St. Louis Convention

DAYTIME Broadcasters Assn., formed recently to protect interests of daytime stations, will hold convention Jan. 8 at Lennox Hotel, St. Louis. Meeting is open to all daytime broadcasters and there will be no registration fee, according to Kenneth Patterson, WSTF Pekin, Ill., president. Attendance of at least 200 expected.

DBA's board will meet fortnight in advance of session to plan agenda. Main problem is described as centering around proposals to restrict hours available to daytimers, particularly on clear channels. Daytimers believed willing to settle on standard signoff times.

WFAI, WAIL Sales Lead Four Station Transfers

WFAI Fayetteville, N. C., was sold for $125,000 from John W. Rollins ownership to Philadelphia advertising man Ralph E. Hess. Application filed last week for FCC approval. CBS-affiliated station began in 1948, operates with 250 w on 1230 kc.

Also sold last week, pending FCC approval, was ABC-affiliated WAIN Winston-Salem, N. C., from George Walker interests to John Rigs and F. Robert Green for $80,000. Messrs. Rigs and Green are associated in ownership of WELM Elmira, N. Y. Station operates on 1340 kc with 250 w, began operating in 1937. Both negotiations were handled by Blackburn-Hamilton.

CBS-TV Buys DuMont Scanner

FLYING SPOT scanner for use in telecasting color slides was slated for delivery to CBS-TV over weekend by Allen B. DuMont Labs. Dubbed "Colorvision Scanner" by DuMont, new device will be used for colorizing titles, captions, credits, and photographic stills in color as part of CBS-TV's current experimental work on programming under NTSC-approved color standards, according to William B. Lodge, CBS vice president in charge of engineering. Mr. Lodge described it as performing same functions in color as black-and-white iconoscope chain when latter is used with stills.

WABC Praises Stores For Radio Use During Strike

IN UNUSUAL half-page advertisement in New York Times Friday, WABC New York praised New York department stores for their use of radio during 11-day newspaper strike in that city (see page 37). Ad expressed hope that radio was able to help solve "some of the pressing merchandising problems" facing stores.

WABC acknowledged that WABC had "learned a lot about the retail business" and "made a lot of new and valued friends among New York's shop owners and merchandise managers."

It also expressed hope that retailers "gained something too, specifically the knowledge that radio, used properly and at the right time, can sell a lot of goods to a lot of people. We look forward to keeping many of the pleasant friendships started this way."

UHF Study Completed by FCC, Doerfer Tells Md.-D.C. Group

UHF television stations are getting along "pretty good" but future of ultra-high operations will depend on program service and intelligent management, FCC Comr. John C. Doerfer said Friday in addressing Maryland- D. C. Radio & Television Broadcasters Assn., meeting in Washington. He said FCC has completed and soon will publish study showing economic status of stations [8*, Sept. 28].

Comr. Doerfer sketched findings which show uhf in many areas competing favorably with vhf and showing rapidly increasing share of sets having uhf tuners. He noted that make available comments on uhf future, adding FCC has issued 261 uhf permits of which 70, or 27%, are in pre-freeze markets. He recalled that 14 of 108 pre-freeze vhf's had lost money in 1952.

Commenting on healthy economic status of am radio, he recalled "everybody was ready to bury radio in April when I joined the Commission. Before the war, he said, 20% to 25% of am stations were losing money but last year only 16% lost money. He cited RETMA set output figures showing increasing set output (see story page 9). He repeated his November warning that broadcasters who are not prepared for individual relief from competitive hardships are actually inviting increased and paternalistic regulation [8*, Nov. 23].

Charles E. Smith, WBTO Cumberland, elected president of association. Other new officers: Joseph L. Brechner, WQAY Silver Spring, vice president; Les Peard, WBAL Baltimore, secretary-treasurer. Directors: Allen W. Long, WFMID Frederick; Robert C. Embry, WITH Baltimore; Ewell K. Jet, WMAR-TV Baltimore; Norman Berghorn, WNAV Annapolis; Carleton Smith, WRC Washington; Mr. Strouse, and Charles J. Truitt, WBOC Salisbury, retiring president.

Q. When is a half-dozen seven?
A. When it's a half-dozen... plus LAGNIAPPE.

But what's lagniappe? Well, lagniappe (pronounced lan-yap) is the seventh oyster when you've ordered six on the half shell. It's the extra pastry in a baker's dozen, and it's the draper's thumbwidth that is added to every yard of cloth. Lagniappe is the something plus that you're given when you buy... and it's a cherished tradition in the Deep South.

WJTV, Mississippi's pioneer television station, offers you lagniappe. What an advertiser buys is direct access into more than 30,000 TV homes in this rich central Mississippi market. What he gets is something more. He gets a constant awareness of WJTV television in the minds of the 100,000 readers of Mississippi's two state-wide newspapers, The Clarion-Ledger and the Jackson Daily News. WJTV's outstanding first-year performance... coupled with Mississipians' enthusiastic reaction to their first television station... resulted in 127,001 lines of front page, sports page and editorial page comment. In 30,000 Mississippi TV homes... in 100,000 Mississippi newspaper homes... WJTV is television. And the people in those homes are for advertisers a huge profit potential.

For quality television performance... plus lagniappe... WJTV is the right buy for advertisers.

Patterned after a Hollywood soundstage, the largest studio, by means of specially designed, electrically controlled folding doors, can be converted into 2 independent telecasting areas. QUIZ shows might be better off if they would just content themselves with being quiz shows. Simplicity of the type found, for example, in What's My Line on CBS-TV, seems the key to success in this format. The hope of finding a new gimmick that will make one show entirely different from the others often leads up a blind alley.

The search for something new has been pursued to a particularly dead end by the masterminds of Name That Tune seen Monday nights on NBC-TV. Ultimately, the contestants are asked to identify melodies played by the orchestra. Each correct answer is worth a certain amount of cash. Participants who really shine get a crack at a sizable jackpot. But a foot race is preeminent to all the standard quiz-show ritual.

The "new twist" in this case places each set of contestants several yards from the bell they must ring once they recognize the tune. There's a race to see which of the two contestants involved in each set can get to the bell first with the correct response. The dash is generally accompanied by great huffing and puffing on the part of the participants and cheers and good wishes from Red Benson, the show's quiz master, for the one who beats out his competitor.

It's all pretty pointless. The "twist" employed on Name That Tune is valueless since it has no bearing on the main point of the program, questionable as that point may be.

TAKE IT FROM ME
Network: ABC-TV
Time: Wed. 2:00-2:30 p.m. EST
Director Dick Linkroon
Producer: Alan Davie
Associate Director: Bob Foster
Writer: Archie Rosen and Coleman Jacoby
Stars: Jean Carroll with Alan Carney and Lynn Loring

THERE is nothing in the entertainment business quite as depressing as a bad comedy show. ABC-TV has made its contribution to programs which must be so categorized with Take It From Me, a half-hour Wednesday evening series starring Jean Carroll.

When the show got going last month, presumably it was intended to be another of the much-overworked domestic situation comedy types with Jean Carroll playing the scatterbrain mama, the conservative husband and Lynn Loring, the precocious little daughter. There was only a trace of this format in the Dec. 9 telecast. Miss Carroll, Mr. Carney and Lynn Loring were on hand to portray their respective characters but their relationship to one another and to the situations in which their writers placed them was unreal.

The show was thrown together. It lacked continuity, showmanship and the polish an audience justly expects of network productions.

Thorough exploration of one main theme in a half-hour show is a sizable assignment for the most competent writer. Three separate situations were written into the last week's show: Miss Carroll, and a group of doting mothers attend a recital to see their children perform; Miss Carroll and daughter meet Mr. Carney for lunch and run through the patterned bout with the waiter; Miss Carroll goes off to an afternoon lecture, is quite taken with the man on the campus and a dream sequence enlightens the audience as to what she thinks it would be like to be married to him.

Any of these three notions could have been developed into a half-hour script. Jointly they got nowhere. There was no cohesion between story lines. The effort to piece them together was totally unsatisfactory.

A sloppy script was not helped in the slightest by the performers. Miss Carroll is hopelessly miscast. As her supporting players appear on this series the same might be said of all of them.

BOOKS

IN LIGHT of current controversy over Sen. Joseph McCarthy's (R-Wis.) demand for equal time to answer President Truman's "McCarthyism"--and the networks' acquiescence to his wishes--Prof. Willard Pedrick's treatment of the law of libel as applied to radio and television seems particularly timely. Basis of the article lay in remarks made by the Senator on a telecast Oct. 27, 1952, and on a radio broadcast of Nov. 3, 1952.

Tracing the history of radio libel and the effects of Sec. 315 of the Communications Act as to broadcasters' liability (including lack of censorship over political talks), Prof. Pedrick conceives there are special problems in radio-tv. But he claims "they do not appear to be beyond the industry's capacity to solve" the problem. A "new twist" in the old industry "would do well to study the problems involved." He advances procedures for determining Right of Reply, explaining: "We search for a system that will give a fair hearing to the man whose reputation has been attacked on the air, licensed to a private industry and sold by it to the attacker. It would indeed be heartening if the broadcast industry would take the initiative in fashioning a system that will recognize for radio and television the right of self-defense." As one proposal, he suggests that broadcasters be permitted to demand financial responsibility from the attacker on his airplanes.

ACTUAL case histories are given in this work as an approach to radio receiver servicing, with 10 illustrated separate sections dealing with specific problems. Among them: "intermittents," "radio noise," "tracking of notes," "interference from other stations," "removal of interference.

The technician can readily apply specific examples to almost any service problem.

The protractor also can be used for the same purposes with the more familiar reflection charts or with the rectangular impedance plot.

Unsolicited Testimonial
EDITOR:  From time to time as I read through your very professional journal, I've wanted to write you and tell you what a very fine job I think you do.
I think my only excuse for not having done it yet is that we somehow take the good things for granted, and only sound off when we've got a gripe.
I like the reserved and dignified, yet wholly resourceful and complete coverage and presentation. Even your type face is dignified, yet wholly readable, and certainly in perfect harmony with your presentation of the facts.
Maybe it's because you have them so handily located, but I find myself reading your editorials before I read anything else in the book—something that is not true of any other publication I read. I rather think that the reason I read them first is that they are always stimulating and in good taste.
With renewed appreciation for your high standards of writing and reporting.

The Real Problem
EDITOR:  It was disappointing that your partisan editorial on "McCarty's Commercial Sustainer" [B&T, Nov. 30] did not contain a more precise definition of "when is a political talk." Did you classify H. S. T.'s radio address as pure "public interest"? . . .
Let's face the real non-partisan problem—"What is a political speech?" McCarthy set no precedent in demanding time; how much time, was the question. If, as you suggest, network fear measured McCarthy's time, it does them no credit. Perhaps, however, it was considered judgment. His demand merely points up a continuing problem. . . .
We can get along without your partisan opinions, but it would be difficult to get along without your magazine. Keep up your good work, "sans politics"!

[EDITOR'S NOTE: B&T pleads not guilty to the charge of partisanship. The editorial would have taken the same stand in the case of a politician of any persuasion, if circumstances had been the same.]

EDITOR:  I have been following with considerable interest and satisfaction the series of internal operation specialty articles B&T has recently run. I was particularly impressed with "What's Right and Wrong with Radio News," beginning at page 94 of your Nov. 30 issue.

EDITOR:  I have just read with interest Mr. Reed's article on radio news. I found it highly interesting, most informative and a substantial presentation of the radio news industry. . . .
We of the fifth estate are often criticized by our newspaper friends for only presenting a portion of the story. (As a matter of fact, this often becomes a major selling issue for the newspapers.) I do not feel that this is the case. It is my opinion that a very small percentage of the potential newspaper readers and radio listeners are interested in the minute details behind every story. I feel that the average person wants his news, perhaps like medicine, in small doses. . . .

The Allast Story
EDITOR:  In your issue of Nov. 10 on page 11, you have a story headed "Allast, Family Exercise Options on WHO-TV." The fact that there are so many Atlases in the broadcasting business has often resulted in confusion as to which Allast was interested in which project.

The first name in outstanding television production
IN THE newspaper business there is something called a "nose for news" which is recognized as an excellent characteristic for editors and reporters.

"Sales aroma," the term used by Fred Mitchell Thrower Jr., vice president and general manager of WPIX (TV) New York, might well be the television derivative.

Mr. Thrower believes first in high program standards, second that a program is only as good as it is salable, and that the two should never be allowed to live apart. This "sales aroma" business is his way of evaluating programs for WPIX.

This undoubtedly is a throwback to his many years in sales at NBC and as vice president in charge of sales for both CBS and ABC, experience which gave him ample opportunity to acquire a fixation that both sales and program departments should have equal voice in program matters.

At any rate, the "sales aroma" yardstick is getting results at WPIX. The station is riding high on a 35% increase in business over a year ago, with the SRO sign out on some of the station's top entertainment programs, with 38 of its 43 weekly news shows sponsored and with revenue from sports shows up 120% and for film programs up 140% from a year ago.

Ability to achieve such results at an independent tv station in a city like New York, where WPIX is in hourly competition with four network key tv stations and two others operated without benefit of network, and in his relatively short time at the station, is probably directly attributable to the fact that Fred Thrower has spent all of his adult life in the world of broadcasting. In fact, it is more than that, for he got his first job in the business in NBC's program department two years before he was eligible to vote.

Born in Florida

Born July 15, 1910, in Tampa, Fla., to Betty and Fred M. Thrower Sr., young Fred received his early education at Millersburg Military Institute in Millersburg, Ky. Then, with no nonsense about spending more time with theoretical education, Mr. Thrower hightailed it for New York to acquire practical knowledge on the job, earning while he was learning.

At NBC, young Thrower learned fast and as he learned what made the network hum he transferred his activities from programming to sales development and from sales development to sales. As an NBC account executive, Fred Thrower was responsible for billings of between $5 million and $8 million a year.

When NBC's two networks were separated and the Blue Network set up as an independent network, Mr. Thrower was made general sales manager of the Blue Network and eight months later he was appointed vice president in charge of sales, becoming, at 33, the youngest major executive of a national network.

Mr. Thrower remained at the Blue Network and its successor, ABC, for nine years, with a hiatus during World War II, when he was a lieutenant USNR on special assignment to the Army. During this period he had 27 months of foreign duty in the European and Far East theaters. Before the war, he had been for three years a member of the 101st cavalry, New York National Guard, Squadron "A."

Leaving ABC in 1951, Mr. Thrower moved to CBS as vice president in charge of television network sales. Last May 21, he became general manager of WPIX and, in September he was made vice president of the station as well.

Advertiser-Station Teamwork

Having grown up in the radio-television business, Mr. Thrower has had ample opportunity to gather some pet theories of his own about this business, one of which might be summed up in a strong appeal for a closer working relationship between advertiser and television station.

"There is too much opportunistic buying and too much opportunistic selling," he says, "without proper evaluation of advertisers' needs and stations' capabilities."

"We know our medium and our market, its potentialities and its shortcomings. The advertiser knows his product and selling problems. Close liaison between the two can assure the advertiser maximum results for his television dollars."

Fred Thrower and his wife, the former Marion Kendall of Montreal, live with their three-year-old daughter, Wendy, in Greenwich, Conn. His hobbies are horses, guns and the fishing rod "which I don't have time for except to read about in advertising agency reception rooms."

Out of his experience, Fred Thrower has gained a steadfast belief that the comparatively new medium of television has, in reality, only scratched the surface. At the same time he admits, however, that the quality of its programming will govern its future success.

"The independent station owes its reason for existence to its community," he observes, "and unless it tunes itself to community likes and dislikes, then its very existence will be in jeopardy."
THREE TIMES THE TIME IN DAYTIME

Put it this way: The average half-hour nighttime television show (all networks) costs $40,797 and gives you three minutes of commercial time. The same money put in NBC daytime TV will give you three quarter-hour shows on three different days totalling nine minutes of commercial time. In the clear light of day, it’s obvious that Daytime Dollars Buy More when judiciously placed on NBC Television.

AS television director of W. B. Doner & Co., Chicago and Detroit, Herbert Spencer Futran is a relative Johnny-come-lately to agency TV circles, but his production-writing ability stands him in good stead. It's a far cry, to be sure, from his early writing chores on “soap opera,” but as a 22-year veteran of broadcast circles, he has no complaints.

At Doner he now holds the title of tv director but also serves as account executive on those accounts using television.

Mr. Futran was born in Chicago on March 3, 1908. He mustered out of the U. of Chicago in 1929, taking up graduate work in philosophy.

Mr. Futran's first brush with radio came in Chicago during the 1931-32 season. Working on a freelance basis, he wrote the original Dr. Herman Bundeson Horlick Malted Milk Adventures in Health and later wrote-produced the Bundeson Hour, five days weekly, on WLS there. He was associated with Dr. Bundeson about two years, after freelancing previously, then joined Stack-Globe, now defunct advertising agency.

In 1935 he wrote a kids' show for Swift & Co. and later for Sears, Roebuck & Co.

To New York, Then Detroit

New York beckoned in the middle '30s and Mr. Futran hastened there to write soap operas and other shows. He stayed two and a half years then moved to Detroit. While there, he handled sales promotion and training aid activities for automobile companies (Nash, Ford, others).

In 1940 Mr. Futran returned to Chicago, doing freelance work but no radio — until 1942. In that interim he had been on retainer for Celotex Corp. and other firms on sales promotion. He wrote and produced the adventure-mystery series, Adventures of Omar, for Omar Flour. He wrote Woman in White in Chicago and then shifted to the West Coast for the program origination. He also did seven months on Ma Perkins and a tour of duty with United Productions of America.

After freelance activity, Mr. Futran joined Doner as a tv producer-writer and account executive. Today he works on the tv accounts of Marks Bros. (Tom Duggan shows) and Ruby Chevrolet and Atlantic Brewing Co.

He belongs, through Doner, to the Chicago Television Council and is active in the South-east Chicago Commission, a reclamation project.

Mr. Futran married the former Ada Golden in 1946. They have three children, Theo, Nancy and Eric. His family lives on Chicago's south side.

FCC Throws Spotlight On Late TV Applications

Commission field investigations are preludes to order for hearing involving 'good faith' of Enterprise Transmission Inc., former Buffalo vhf ch. 2 opponent, and grant of vhf ch. 13 at Asheville for WLOS-WWNC merger after drop of William W. Orr bid.

PREFACED by FCC field investigations of television bids which put into conflict the proposed mergers of earlier-filed applications, unique actions were taken by the Commission last week in calling for hearing on vhf ch. 2 at Buffalo, N. Y., and granting vhf ch. 13 at Asheville, N. C.

1. Commission designated for hearing the Buffalo ch. 2 application of Niagara-Frontier Amusement Corp., sole survivor there, and put into issue the "good faith" of Enterprise Transmission Inc., which dismissed its bid earlier in the week without explanation.

2. Niagara-Frontier then told FCC it proposes to buy WGR Buffalo for $1.45 million from Leo Fitzpatrick and I. R. Lounsberry and to give part ownership in its ch. 2 venture to former competitors Victory 13, TV Corp. and Niagara Falls Gazette Pub. Co. Latter would dispose of WHLD Niagara Falls.

3. Concurrent with dismissal by Enterprise, WGR, Victory and Gazette each had dismissed their ch. 2 applications on Tuesday, eye of the Commission's regular meeting day. Niagara-Frontier amended its application on Tuesday to propose the merger.

WBES-TV May Sell

Niagara-Frontier also reported that WBES-TV Buffalo, new outlet operating on vhf ch. 59, "has indicated that it may terminate its operation and sell its plant, and Niagara-Frontier has agreed in that eventuality to purchase said plant from the permittee."

Purchase price for WBES-TV, it is understood, would be about $500,000.

At Asheville, FCC granted vhf ch. 13 to Skyway Broadcasting Co., operator of WLOS there. Skyway proposes to give 30% interest to former competitor Asheville Citizen-Times Co., licensee of WWNC Asheville, and to reimburse another competitor, William W. Orr, in the amount of $5,000 for his expenses. Upon merger, WWNC would be retained and WLOS sold, FCC was informed.

The Commission stated its ch. 13 grant was on condition it is without prejudice to future action FCC may take on any application which is filed to effectuate the merger agreement. The applications of WWNC and Mr. Orr were both withdrawn on Tuesday, the same day the Skyway amendment was tendered.

Unusual procedures were taken by the Commission in its actions upon the Asheville and Buffalo cases. Both were under consideration by FCC on Wednesday morning but could not be resolved, it was learned.

Partly of concern was the agreement between Skyway and Mr. Orr, Commission sources disclosed. In the initial dismissal agreement dated Dec. 7, Skyway not only agreed to pay Mr. Orr $5,000 for reimbursement of his application expenses, but also to give him six months' option for purchase of a $10,000 minority stock interest and to retain him as tax consultant for eight years at $7,500 annually.

The Commission granted the Skyway bid late Wednesday after an amended agreement between Skyway and Mr. Orr was filed around 3:30 P.M. that same day. Announcement of the grant was reported Thursday afternoon.

FCC did not resolve its plan for hearing in the Buffalo case until Thursday when the hearing order was made public just before 5 p.m. The hearing order stated Niagara-Frontier had advised the Commission by letter dated Wednesday that it would waive its right to issuance of a pre-hearing McFarland notice should a hearing be necessary.

This waiver enabled the Commission to designate the hearing on Jan. 8, less than the 30-day limit for consideration of new applications, thereby affording Niagara-Frontier a form of umbrella protection from any new competitor before the hearing.

Ruling in the Asheville case was made by Chairman Rostel H. Hyde, Comrs. E. M. Webster, John C. Doerfer and Robert E. Lee with Comrs. Frieda B. Henneb and Robert T. Bartley present but abstaining from voting.

The Buffalo hearing order did not recite the Commissioners present or voting. Meanwhile, in other television auctions last week, FCC approved construction permits for vhf ch. 33 at Miami, Fla.; uhf ch. 18 at Baltimore, and uhf ch. 43 at Corpus Christi.

Ch. 33 at Miami went to Miami-Biscayne TV Corp., after the Commission dismissed the competing application of Television Corp. of Greater Miami for "lack of prosecution" and failure to file a timely reply to its pre-hearing McFarland notice.

Second FCC Dismissal

This action represented the second instance in which the Commission dismissed an applicant for failure to file a reply within the specified time to FCC's McFarland letter.

The dismissal provision has been incorporated in the McFarland notice since several months and has been cited by KIRO Seattle in an unsuccessful attempt to force dismissal of competing vhf ch. 7 by KXX and KVI there on the ground of alleged untimely replies [B&T, Nov. 23].

Fortnight ago, the Commission dismissed the vhf ch. 13 application of W. W. Lechner at Houston for failure to respond to the McFarland notice. Ch. 13 is in contest among KTRH, Houston Area Television Co., Houston Television Co. and Television Broadcasting Co. of Houston. The ch. 13 hearing began at FCC Friday.

Ch. 43 at Corpus Christi was awarded to independent oil producer H. L. Hunt, multimillionaire who is charter member in the new tv production firm of Facts Forum of Dallas [B&T, June 22]. Firm is producing tv series featuring members of Congress, including Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.), in debate.

Baltimore's ch. 18 went to United Broadcasting Co. of Eastern Maryland Inc., operator of WSID there.

FCC also designated for hearing in Washington beginning Jan. 8 the vhf ch. 10 applicants at Norfolk, Va. Contestants are WGH

Newport News, WAVY Portsmouth and Beach-view Broadcasting Corp., Norfolk.

Enterprise Transmission Inc. also reported FCC had "investigated" other television applications. These involved vhf ch. 7 at Pine Bluff, Ark., and uhf ch. 17 at Spartanburg, S. C. FCC granted ch. 7 at Pine Bluff to Central-South

S. Alabama, after dismissing the competitive bid of Gaylord Shaw on ground it was a delaying action [BWT, June 23]. Ch. 17 went to Sterling Television Co. at Spartanburg after withdrawal by BWT and BVT, Aug. 3, 29.

In its order calling for hearing on the Niagara-Frontier bid for ch. 2 at Buffalo, FCC set forth these issues:

(1) To determine whether Enterprise Transmission Inc. filed its application for ch. 2 assignment to Buffalo-Niagara Falls, N. Y., for the purpose of impeding, obstructing or delaying determination on any other application with which it may have been in conflict.

(2) To determine whether the above-mentioned application and the parties to the application have agreed to pay, directly or indirectly, consideration for the dismissal of the application.

(3) To determine, in the light of the record made with respect to the above issues, whether the charging of the fee and the granting of the above-entitled application in the public interest, convenience or necessity.

The Commission ordered further that "in the event that a grant is warranted on the basis of the record developed in the above hearing, such a grant shall be subject to the following conditions:

(1) That no construction be commenced until the antenna site and structure are first approved by the Commission with respect to safety to air navigation.

(2) That this grant is without prejudice to any other the Commission may take with respect to any future application which is filed to effectuate the agreement made on Nov. 2, 1958, between Niagara Falls Gazette Pub. Co., Victory Television Corp. and Leo J. Fitzgerald and J. L. Louhanserry (sole stockholders of WGR Broadcasting Corp.).

Broadcasting circumstances of the Buffalo case, the hearing order pointed out that prior to Nov. 2 the ch. 2 contest involved Niagara-Frontier, WGR, Gazette and Victory. Pursuant to an agreement dated Nov. 2, Niagara-Frontier was to be the winning bidder plus the merger agreement while the others were to dismiss their bids.

However, the order recited, when Enterprise filed for ch. 2 on Nov. 3, the Niagara-Frontier amendment was not tendered and neither were the mutually-exclusive applications not dismisssed. FCC's order continued that "on the basis of the Commission's investigation of the circumstances surrounding filing of the application of Enterprise Transmission Inc. to ascertain whether said application was in fact a filing in good faith, whether said application may have been filed for the purpose or hindering the granting of the application of Niagara-Frontier Amusement Corp., as amended, pursuant to the above-mentioned agreement, the Commission has been unable to conclude that the application of Enterprise Transmission Inc. was filed in good faith."

The order indicated further FCC is concerned "as to the circumstances surrounding filing of the application of Enterprise Transmission Inc., directly or indirectly, constituted additional consideration for the dismissal of an application not filed in good faith, and as to whether the granting of the above-entitled application would not subvert the Commission's policy and efforts to discourage the filing of so-called "strike" applications (i.e., one filed by an applicant not having the bona-fide intention of prosecuting the application, requesting a hearing (ch. 2, constructing a station to serve the community)."

Samuel B. Darlich, president and one-third owner of Enterprise, in a statement to BTV Thursday night, affirmed that his group was seriously interested in building a new tv station on ch. 2 and declared the hearing order's inference.

He contended Enterprise withdrew in order to speed an additional tv service to the Buffalo area. Referring to the above application, Mr. Darlich described it as "the better group, and we wanted to see them get on the air as soon as possible."

Reviews TV Interest

Mr. Darlich informed BTV of his long personal desire to get into television and pointed out that two of his department stores have experienced "good results" from adverting on WBES-TV, ever since it's inception in early September. The stores are Gens Bros., Niagara Falls, and Twinto Dept. Store in Buffalo suburbs.

Mr. Darlich's statement is Lee Wagner, founder of TV Guide, the fan publication now owned by Moe Annenberg.

Charles R. Diebold, president and one-third owner of WBES-TV, informed BTV of the uhf ch. 59 station has "no present plans to discontinue operation" but stated "no comment" when asked if Niagara-Frontier had made an offer of purchase.

The WBES-TV executive explained he had not seen the Niagara-Frontier statement in its amended application and it would have to speak for itself.

Mr. Diebold affirmed his belief that uhf can do an effective job locally and produce a good picture, but he indicated concern for uhf on the national scene. He admitted the three-months-old WBES-TV is not yet operating "in the black," but he has seen "some improvement" which he considered encouraging.

Informed that BTV had just contacted Mr.

Darlich of Enterprise, Mr. Diebold described him as a "very substantial and prominent citizen" and remarked that Mr. Darlich has a "genuine interest in television."

The WBES-TV executive said he knew "very well" all of the principals in all of the ch. 2 applications and described them as reputable and outstanding citizens. He felt it was unfortunate and mistaken that the Commission should question the intent of the Enterprise bid.

WGR and Niagara Falls Gazette Pub. Co. were the original contestents for ch. 2. They filed in mid-1952 when FCC resumed application processing on July 1 of that year, just after finalization of the reallocation plan in the Sixth Report. WGR early June of this year and Niagara-Frontier filed in July. Enterprise tendered its bid Nov. 3, according to FCC records.

Principals in the original applications were as follows:

WGR Broadcasting Corp. (WGR)—Leo Fitzpatrick, chairman of the board and 69.88%; I. R. Louhanserry, 25%; Niagara Falls Gazette Pub. Co. (WHDL Niagara Falls)—20 par. ch. 2, 50% owner. Presidents Earl C. Hull and R. T. Harold; Secretary-

Treasurer R. L. Bliss, 20%.

Victory Television Corp.—Six equal owners: President Donald W. Deutsh, 5%; owner Vctor & Co. retail furniture department store; Mr. Deutsh; Fred Frauenheim, president; treasurer of George J. Meyer Matt & Grain Corp.; Secretary Peter J. Croley, attorney; J. Eugene Stabaling, attorney; Norman Joseph, owner of transportation firms in Cleveland and Denver and truck lines.

Patrick J. McGroddy, president McKinley Liquor

Niagara-Frontier Amusement Corp.—President General Frederick Schoellkopf Jr., 10%; Vice President Richard Joseph Farricker, 25%; owner Gens Bros., Myron Kirk, vice president 10.6%; Barbara A. Schick, 20%; Herbert R. O'Connor, director 1.33%; Richard Joseph Farricker, 26.6%; Vincent F. Allen, 2.8%; J. Whitney Petersen, 2.8%; Seymour H. Knox, director 19%; Arthur Victor Jr., George M. Frauenheim, Peter J. Croley, J. Eugene McFmahan, Norman Joseph and Patrick J. McGroddy, Jr., will be directors, 10%.

Should Gazette exercise its option, the amended application stated, the WHDL license or its principals would take a 25% interest in Niagara-Frontier. This would reduce the proportionate share of the others, since new stock would be issued.

Niagara-Frontier increases its authorized capital stock from 5,000 shares at $5 par to 10,000 shares $10 par. Also issued are 5% unsecured debentures, May 1, 1958, in the amount of $500,000, to be increased to $1 million, according to the amended application.

Victory Television principals have taken 2,000 shares and $185,000 in debentures. When Gazette takes up its option, it will have like amount in stock and debentures. It proposes to sell WHDL, a Mutual affiliate on 1270 kc with 5 kw directional.

Acquires WGR Assets

The Niagara-Frontier purchase of WGR from Messrs. Fitzpatrick and Louhanserry entails a gross consideration of $4,150,000, of which some $455,000 will be recovered in liquid assets.

The sale agreement, also dated early November, calls for payment of $55,000 within five days of signing, and the closing date following FCC approval, and the balance of $795,000 in five annual installments of $159,000 bearing 3% interest.

Should Niagara-Frontier fail to carry out its plan to buy WGR, the present owners of the station would retain the $55,000 asliquidated damages and would acquire the right to purchase 25% of the total stock and debentures then owned by Niagara-Frontier.

Included among the WGR current assets to be transferred are 2,000 shares of CBS stock, listed at $81,952.87.

WGR is a basic CBS affiliate, assigned 5 kw on 550 kc, directional at night.

Niagara-Frontier's amended application set forth in detail its plans for the proposed ch. 2 station. Before purchase of WGR, it was planned that there would be 200,000 from sale of stock and $740,000 from debentures. Should Gazette not take $24,000 in stock and $185,000 in debentures, these investments will be returned to Niagara-Frontier.

Two year loan of $200,000 at 4% is available from Marine Trust, secured by the endorsements of Messrs. Goodyear and Schoellkopf, FCB.

Estimated construction cost of the ch. 2 station was given as $593,882, including cost of land already on hand. Of this total, $488,882 represents equipment from RCA, 50% of which is deferred beyond the first year's operation.

Broadcasting  Telecasting

As a result, the application said, Niagara Frontier will have available to it "cash in the amount of $1,036,000 and deferred purchase payments of $244,441 to meet the cost of construction and provide working capital." After acquiring a net cash outflow of $244,441 at closing date of $220,212 in view of acquired assets, Niagara Frontier "will have funds available to it, cash or deferred credit, in the amount of $1,036,000 to meet excess of the entire cost of construction of the proposed television station and the down payment under the purchase contract of WGR."

Regarding prospective purchase of uhf ch. 59 WBTV-TV there, the application stated:

In addition to the foregoing, WBTV, Inc., operating station WBTV on ch. 59 in Buffalo, has indicated that it will purchase, lease and sell its plant and Niagara Frontier has agreed that in eventuality to purchase said plant from the permitee. If the plant of WBTV is sold to Niagara Frontier, certain of the physical assets included in that purchase will be substituted for certain of the physical assets proposed in this application.

Such substituted physical assets would considerably enhance the date that the applicant herein could commence operation and would also tend to provide for a more efficient and economical plant. It is estimated that the excess costs involved in direct substitution over the costs shown in Section III hereof, will be not more than $75,000 and therefore indicated, as described on page 2 of this exhibit, Niagara Frontier will have excess funds available amounting to $65,000. The alternative possibility of the substitution of certain items of equipment would of course be subject to filing at a future time of an appropriate application for modification of construction permit and approval thereof by the Commission.

WBTV's studios are located in the penthouse of Buffalo's Hotel Lafayette.

Asheville Applications

Skyway Broadcasting Co., successful applicant for ch. 13 at Asheville, filed its initial post-thaw bid June 20, 1952, and went into contest with the subsequent July 1 application of Citizens Times Co., headed by Earl R. Bamford, part owner of WSKY Asheville. Asheville Citizen-Times Co.'s WWNC filed March 25 of this year to make it a three-way fight, but was withdrawn in August.

It was reported that Skyway and Citizen-Times proposed their merger initially Oct. 6, the date of the application by William W. Orr. Mr. Orr has been a public accountant for 17 years, his dismissal agreement with Skyway stated, 15 of which he has been in tax work and accounting for radio stations.

Mr. Orr told B*T he withdrew his application in order to speed a new local tv station there. "We need vhf in this area," he said.

Concern over changes in his dismissal agreement with Skyway, Mr. Orr said "I don't like to force employment on anyone" and preferred to let Skyway choose voluntarily who would be its tax consultant.

Mr. Orr acknowledged that he had "talked to the FCC investigators" when they were in Asheville but that their inquiry was "just routine."

Mr. Orr said he handles tax and accounting matters for stations in Asheville, Charlotte, Durham, and Raleigh.

The initial dismissal agreement between Mr. Orr and Skyway, dated Monday, was submitted to FCC Tuesday when Skyway also tendered its merger proposal with the Asheville Citizen-Times Co. Mr. Orr and WWNC dismissed their applications Tuesday, leaving Skyway clear.

The Dec. 7 Orr-Skyway agreement provided that Skyway would reimburse Mr. Orr $5,000 for his application expenses and gave him a six-month option to purchase 200 shares for $10,000. In addition, Skyway agreed to retain Mr. Orr or his firm for eight years as tax consultant at $7,500 a year. This fee covered services not to exceed 20 hours a month and were limited to tax return preparation, according to the papers on file with FCC.

This Dec. 7 pact also set forth that if Skyway did not receive a grant on or before Dec. 15, Mr. Orr was at liberty to refile and reapply. Skyway will take whatever steps are reasonably necessary (e.g. amending its application, dismissing its application without prejudice etc.) in order to insure that Orr's application shall be eligible for filing and be considered on a comparative basis with the application of Skyway.

This pact was amended on Wednesday, however, to provide only that Mr. Orr would be reimbursed $5,000 for application expenses. The Dec. 9 agreement, between Mr. Orr and Charles S. Britt, Skyway executive vice president, said Mr. Orr "has notified Skyway that he is no longer destitute of having an option to acquire stock and no longer willing to provide his services as tax consultant to Skyway as contemplated in the original agreement."

Consideration set forth in the Dec. 9 pact was $1.

Skyway's amended application stated its authorized stock of 15,000 shares will be increased to 16,000 shares, with the Asheville Citizen-Times Co. holding option until June 30, 1957, for 3,000 shares. Par is $25. Skyway now has a total of 3,300 shares issued. These are held chiefly by Charles M. Britt, Charles B. Britt, Jr., and John R. Britt.

The merger proposal explained that WWNC would be retained and WLOS given up. Asheville Citizen-Times Co. also is reimbursed $5,558.46 for its application expenses.

In mid-November, the Greensville (C. S.) News-Piedmont Co. became sole owner of the Asheville Citizen-Times Co. and WWNC following FCC approval to purchase of the newspaper-radio properties for a combined consideration of $2.3 million (BT, Nov. 16).

The News-Piedmont interests are headed by former U. S. Senator Roger C. Peace and include WBFC Greenville and 37.5% interest in WMRC principal. WMRC has been sold for $27,500 to WAKE Greenville (BT, Nov. 16) and received Commission approval last week (story page 48).

Mr. Hunt's grant for uhf ch. 43 at Corpus Christi resulted from his petition for prompt action following amendment from uhf ch. 22, the latter in comparative hearing with Coastal Bend Television Co. Latter continues in hearing status on ch. 22.

Details of last week's new tv authorizations follow:

AGENCIES’ 15% CUT ‘OUTMODED’—MOGUL

Agency president tells Philadelphia tv group that agency’s payment should be keyed to the business it brings in for the client.

TELEVISION Assn. of Philadelphia members were told that paying 15% commission for advertising agencies is an outmoded practice in an address by Emil Mogul, president of Emil Mogul Advertising Agency, at their December meeting at the Poor Richard Club.

"Many agencies and advertisers would like to upset the 15% commission, but they are bound by tradition. The rate in the advertising business is the same today as when the business started, and yet advertising costs have risen 40%.

"Agencies now perform many types of service," said Mr. Mogul, "and with the extra work involved with television, such as purchasing time, writing commercials and supervising it, it is impossible to render quality service on 15%.

"Agencies should be paid by clients, not media," said Mr. Mogul. "Advertising and selling are Siamese twins, and instead of 15%, agencies should get a percentage of sales. In the case where the advertisers do not sell anything, the agencies should be paid a fee for the job they perform and the amount of work done, the same as a lawyer or an accountant.

Mr. Mogul said there can be no uniform percentage of sales rate established for every client. A formula is worked out after the client is studied, and the percentage is figured individually.

Mr. Mogul said he has plugged for the percentage of sales on his accounts, and in the cases where he has such an arrangement it has worked out successfully for both his clients and himself.

EXCLUSIVE NBC radio-tv rights to the annual Rose Bowl football game on New Year’s Day at Pasadena, Calif., have been renewed for three years by the network for an estimated $1.5 million.

The contract, which gives NBC rights through the Jan. 1, 1957, game was signed last Tuesday by Harry Hurry, Pasadena Tournament of Roses president, and Victor O. Schmidt, Pacific Coast Conference commissioner.

The signers also approved Gillette Razor Co. as continuing sponsor for the annual coast-to-coast radio-tv coverage. Network negotiations were conducted by Lewis S. Frost, NBC Western Division director of public relations. It was reported that starting in 1955 the game possibly will be telecast in color.

The dinner and show, said to mark the first time a radio station had moved its talent to New York for a program of this scope, was designed as "a relaxing evening of entertainment" to give advertising executives a chance to "see at first hand the character of WJR programming," according to President John F. Pat, who introduced the program.

The show highlighted the WJR-CBS Make Way for Youth chorus under director Don Large and the WJR orchestra directed by Max Lieb, with an introduction by Bud Guest, WJR’s Wurlitzer Reporters, and featured musical numbers by Maureen Bailey, Marie Sabbe, Casey Clark, May Hawks and the Lazy Ranch Boys, the Jimmy Clark Quartet with Judy Carroll, Renee McKay, the Spellbinders mixed quartet, Fred Kendall and Marie Sabbe-Fred Kendall duets.

Controversy Doesn’t Necessarily Mean Business Bumps

ADVERTISERS who sponsor controversial personalities on radio and tv need not fear pressure groups will hurt their business. This is the belief of Miles Ark, president of Barr Manufacturing Co., Los Angeles retail clothing firm and sponsor of twice-weekly Cleo Roberts Reports on KLAC-TV Hollywood.

He said pressure groups who have disagreed with the commentator are “only a few people, but they make a lot of noise,” when they call the clothing company in an attempt to drive Mr. Roberts off the air. “They make five calls apiece and the sponsor thinks the sky’s falling on him. We can live with or without them.”

Texas Co. Takes Cotton Bowl

TEXAS Co., New York, will sponsor the Cotton Bowl football game in Dallas on New Year’s Day over NBC Radio and NBC-TV, starting at 1:45 p.m. EST. Kudner is the agency.

CONGRATULATIONS go to Harvey S. Firestone Jr. (2d r), board chairman of Firestone Tire & Rubber Co., from Brig. Gen. David Sarnoff, board chairman of RCA-NBC, at the 25th anniversary program of Voice of Firestone, now simulcast by NBC-AM-TV, on Nov. 30. ASCAP-Industry Debate Fruitless but Friendly OFFERS and counter-offers were made and rejected at last Monday's get-together of negotiating committees from the tv networks and ASCAP, attempting to work out terms for a renewal of the blanket tv licenses which expire at the end of this month.

Although a mutually satisfactory formula proved still elusive, it was reported that the meeting was held in a friendly atmosphere and that each side displayed a real desire to find a workable solution.

Committees are expected to meet again soon, although no definite date had been set.

The All-Industry Local TV Music License Committee's negotiating subcommittee is scheduled to meet with ASCAP representatives today (Monday) to continue explorations for a license formula for tv stations [BT, Dec. 7, Nov. 30]. Motion of the All-Industry Committee to have the Federal Court in New York set interim fees, pending the issuance and acceptance of station licenses, is almost certain to be heard this week after several previous postponements, it was said.

Judge John Clancy, who heard the arguments, was expected to hand down a ruling in the near future.

Agency Gets 'Wow' Bonus

IT'S NOT NEWS when advertising agency sends a client a Christmas gift; it is when a client sends its agency a Christmas bonus. (auto seat covers), Paterson, N. J., in appreciation for its cooperation during the past year. Mr. Mogul commented briefly: "Wow!"

STANTON HEADS NBC FILM DIVISION; SISSON AND HALLORAN ALSO RAISED

Changes last week are aftermath to the elevation of Robert W. Sar- noff to executive vice president of NBC.

CARL M. STANTON, director of the NBC Film Division, last week was put in charge of the division and Edgar G. (Ted) Sisson was named associate director, as a followup to the elevation of Robert W. Sarnoff, former vice president in charge of radio and television programs and programming for N. W. Ayer & Son, to report to Mr. Sarnoff, while Mr. Sisson, formerly in charge of radio and television programs and programming for N. W. Ayer & Son, will report to Mr. Stanton and assist in administering the division's over-all policy and its various departments, including sales, advertising and promotion, film and kinescope services, and production.

John E. Halloran, of NBC radio's advertising and promotion department, meanwhile was named assistant manager of advertising and promotion for the film division where he will aid Jay H. Smilin, manager of that department.

Mr. Stanton, with NBC since 1949, became director of the Film Division when it was established as one of NBC's three major operating divisions last March. He joined NBC as director of the television talent and new programs department, became director of tv commercial programming in 1951, and was appointed national program manager for tv network programs in 1952.

He previously had served with the old Lord & Thomas Agency in various capacities in Hollywood, Denver, and New York, starting in 1934, and when the agency became Foote, Cone & Belding he was named account executive on the American Tobacco Co. account. He later was radio director for Blackett, Sample & Hammert and radio-television director of its successor agency, Dancer-Fitzgerald-Sample.

Mr. Sisson had been with the Ayer agency since 1949. Before that he was with Pedlar & Ryan as vice president in charge of radio and television for nine years. He also served as head of the radio department of Lord & Thomas in 1936-38, and was with NBC in radio promotion in 1933-36.

Mr. Halloran was a continuity writer for WLW Cincinnati before moving to NBC, and previously was with the sales promotion department of Union Central Life Insurance Co. and with a Cincinnati advertising agency.

Screen Gems Forms Own Unit

ESTABLISHMENT of an animation unit within the television commercial production department of Screen Gems, New York, tv subsidiary of Columbia Pictures, was announced last week by Ralph Cohn, vice president and general manager.

CROSBY SAYS COLOR EASY FOR ITS VTR

Healey of Bing Crosby Enterprises sees no problem in handling color on the firm's magnetic tape recorder (VTR).

COLOR poses no problem for the Bing Crosby magnetic tape recorder, but there is no im mediacy since color tv to any degree is still a couple of years or more away.

This was the opinion of Frank C. Healey, executive vice president of the Bing Crosby Enterprises, upon his return to Hollywood last week after viewing the Prince ton, N. J., RCA demonstration of recording tv programs on magnetic tape.

"When the television and motion picture industries are ready for it, we'll be one to two years ahead of their needs," he said. "We are far enough advanced in our experiments in both black-and-white and color to say that not only will we provide television on tape, but we'll have color television on tape.

"Color presents no problem compared to black-and-white. Once a laboratory has a good black-and-white picture, color is easy."

Refusing to reveal what the technical improvements consist of and stressing that future showings to the press are scheduled "when our 'third generation' electronics are in opera tion—this is a matter of weeks," he repeated his statement of several months ago that the Crosby VTR (Video Tape Recorder) method of magnetic tape recording of color tv "will be ready as manufacturers can provide equipment to tv stations and receivers to the general public."

Describing the RCA demonstration as "very excellent, but different from our system," he asserted "we already know that we needn't apologize for either the efficiency or fidelity of our VTR color pictures." He implied engineers of the electronics division of the Crosby organization have practically solved the problem of reducing the excessive amount of tape currently necessary.

He felt, however, when color tv programs can be produced at a cost comparable to black-and-white tape recording, "there is no question but what color will assume its rightful leadership in the television as well as motion picture studios."

Mr. Healey declared that "tape recording in color will cost little more than any live tv on tape," and added, "Video tape recording promises to be about two-thirds less costly than any other process now used with film or kinescope."

The distortions that existed during the early black-and-white demonstrations of the Crosby VTR have been eliminated technically. The reproduced picture now is clear and sharp, he said.

The Crosby tape operates on 100-inches a second while the RCA system of color at 360 -inches per second, Mr. Healey pointed out. Both use a half-inch wide tape. As in the RCA development, pictures under the VTR process can be instantly viewed. The tape under both systems can be "wiped off" and re-used many times.

"Tape speed is most important," he said, pointing out that under the Crosby VTR a half-hour tv show uses 30,000-feet of tape while RCA uses 96,000.

LANDAU, ROSS PARTNERSHIP BUYS PSI-TV

Purchase of tv film distributor outfit is part of program to form a larger company early next year for saturation coverage of PSI-TV and Ely Landau Productions.

PURCHASE of PSI-TV, distributors of tv film products, by a partnership of Ely Landau, president of Ely Landau Productions, and Martin Ross, formerly president of Film Highlights Inc. and Emperor Films Inc., was announced last week.

Under the transaction, Messrs. Landau and Ross, under the name of PSI-TV, with Mr. Landau as president and Mr. Ross as secretary, obtain distribution rights to four 26-episode series of half-hour programs, consisting of China Smith, Schlitz Playhouse of Stars, Orient Express, and International Playhouse, 68 feature films, and the American Sports library.

Though no purchase price was revealed, it was believed the sum involved was about $600,000. The negotiations were completed by Mr. Landau currently produces four 15-minute tv film series, including The Passerby, Bill Corum series, Eva Gabor series and Man's Heritage, featuring Raymond Massey.

Mr. Landau told BWT that he also expects to effect an affiliation with a major production company to insure "a continuity in the flow of products." He expressed the opinion that the "most significant stumbling-block in the tv film distribution field is the lack of a continuous flow of tv film products."

In his new affiliation, Mr. Landau will concentrate on procuring new tv film properties and on financing them. Prior to establishing Ely Landau Productions one and one-half years ago, he served for several years as radio-tv director of Emil Mogul Co., advertising agency.

Mr. Ross has been active in the non-theatrical film distribution field for the past 18 years. He will retain his association with Film Highlights and Emperor Films.

Radio-TV News Aid In N. Y. 'Adequate'

Four out of five persons contacted in survey by Alan C. Russell Marketing Research were satisfied with news coverage and service by the media in newspaper strike-bound New York. But two-thirds of these persons qualify their answers.

Radio and television gave "adequate news coverage and service" during the New York newspaper strike that ended Tuesday in the view of four out of five persons contacted Dec. 8 by a survey of Alan C. Russell Marketing Research (also see story, Page 71). At the same time nearly two-thirds of these persons qualified their answers by indicating they had not received "all they wanted and perhaps expected," according to Alan C. Russell, president of the firm.

The survey showed specifically that 78% of radio listeners and 80% of television viewers believed the media "in the main did an adequate job." The sample was split 45% men and 55% women, inquiring into usual newspaper preferences, reading habits during the strike, major sources of news, and opinions or attitudes toward radio and tv as sources of news. "The results are not held to be a perfect cross-section sample of the city, nor to be representative of the entire population but should throw some light on the public attitude here."

Going into sources of news during the strike, the survey showed 84% used radio, 66% tv, 32% newspapers and 7% magazines, with 7% mentioning such miscellaneous sources as movies.

Degree of Radio Adequacy

Inquiring into adequacy of radio as a news source, the 78% deeming it adequate were classified as follows: Completely adequate 28%, adequate in most respects 17% and fairly adequate 35%. Major qualifications included "lack of completeness", "lack of lack of lack of diversity, features and columns; and certain persons even mentioned that they missed the ads (local)."

Television was classified adequate as a news source as follows: Completely adequate 29%, adequate in most respects 25%, and fairly adequate 28%. Qualifications were about the same as those for radio. Radio stations were classified by the survey as to the best job of providing news as follows: WNEW 17%, WCBS 14%, WQXR 10%, WOR 9%, WABC and WNBC 7% each, and WNYC 4%. As to tv coverage, CBS and NBC 35% and 32%, respectively, WARD (TV) and WPX (TV) each 6%, WOR-TV 4%, WABC-TV 3% and WATV (TV) 1%.

More Listen to Radio's Multi-Weekly Programs

Politz Radio Study Lauded by Fellows

THE POLIZT study on radio's importance in television areas (see feature article page 97) is the most significant effort yet made to state "the multiple attention factor" in aural broadcasting for the benefit of advertisers, NARTB President Harold E. Fellows said Friday in an address to the Detroit Adcraft Club.

"We have been saying, too, that radio is close to the people in the sense that it has become an essential part of American living," Mr. Fellows continued. "It is essential in the sense that most people would feel they could no more get along without radio than they could get along without refrigerators and motor cars and other modern conveniences which have taken on the character of necessities."

The outstanding finding of the report "is the demonstrable fact that radio and the American people remain inseparable companions," he said, citing study results showing radio audiences are constantly shifting throughout the day as well as accumulating.

He pointed out two major considerations against which the report's findings should be measured: (1) it is a study of individual people, not of homes, with emphasis on the motives (2) the study sought to describe radio, not to compare it with other media.

FCC Form Requirements Less, Md.-D. C. Broadcasters Told

COLLECTION of less essential information from broadcasters has been reduced, with FCC forms cut from 18 forms, 379 pages to eight forms, 52 pages, David E. Cohn, assistant to the director of the Budget Bureau, told the Maryland-D. C. Radio & Television Broadcasters Assn. at a meeting held Friday in Washington, D. C.

Recalling that the broadcasting industry grew largely because of the availability of economic information in the "rush days," Mr. Cohn said the present is now in an economic program "where no dollars are too few to save." These savings, he added, must be in fringe expenditures.

New Fee Charges

Interest is high in the new FCC fees to be charged under a Budget Bureau circular carrying out an Executive Order, he said [FST, Nov. 16]. The fees will reach the rule-making stage around the first of the year, he predicted, and be ready for publication around Feb. 1. FCC has been in consultation with the bureau on the fees to be charged, according to Mr. Cohn.

Temple W. Seab of the Washington law firm of Dow, Lohnes & Albertson, reviewed effect of the Internal Revenue Bureau order covering excess profits taxes on radio-tv operations [FST, Dec. 7].

Charles J. Truitt, WBOC Salisbury, Md., association president, opened the sessions Friday morning. Richard P. Doherty, NARTB labor, wages, reviewed developments in the labor field and discussed management problems relating to personnel functions.

The Dept. of Defense and National Bureau of Standards will participate.

BIG TEN MAKES ITS MOVE IN BID TO ALTER NCAA FOOTBALL TV POLICY

Western Conference athletic directors stand solidly behind plan for regional control of football telecasts. It's virtually certain their recommendations will go before NCAA's January meeting.

THE BIG TEN, a giant in collegiate athletic circles, last Thursday came to grips with football TV problems and flexed its muscles for a mighty effort to break—or at least relax—NCAA's two-year stranglehold on national television policy governing the gridiron sport [Closing Curtain, Dec. 7].

Athletic directors of the Western Conference voted unanimously in favor of the Big Ten TV committee's recommendations for regional control of football telecasts. The proposals late Thursday were virtually assured of being accepted en toto by faculty representatives of the conference who were to meet with the directors.

Action Came at Meeting

A news conference was scheduled for Friday [See at Deadline] at which time further details were to be made available. The TV action came during a four-day meeting of directors at Chicago's La Salle Hotel, ending Saturday.

The recommendations represent the unified stand of the Big Ten and will be submitted on its behalf at NCAA's annual convention in Cincinnati next month. As for 1954, the Western Conference will attempt to seek regional control over football videotapes—despite, or perhaps as part of, any NCAA action taken.

It offered such a resolution at NCAA's 1953 convention in Washington, D. C.

The Big Ten is counting on public sentiment, threat of lawsuit action and other factors to cause the NCAA to reverse or ease its policy of restricting collegiate football TV fare and limiting regional telecasts without express permission. But it realizes the task will not be easy—at least for 1954.

Details of the Western Conference TV committee's outline for regional controls were not announced, but it was known that the Big Ten is thinking along lines of (1) more TV revenue to its own universities by permitting advertisers to purchase rights for sectional games and (2) lower costs to these advertisers.

In addition to the Western Conference, many smaller football leagues and NCAA members are opposed to NCAA's controlled TV plan [B&T, Nov. 30, 23].

But the Big Ten is not tipping its hand in public on its course of action at the NCAA convention.

Bill Reed, publicity director and assistant commissioner of the Big Ten, told B&T merely that his conference seeks a policy which would be more "in the public interest" and reflect interest in sectional games.

Before the Big Ten took action, Mr. Payeur, member of the Western Conference television committee and athletics director at Northwestern, had stated:

"It may be that national control of college football television will not terminate at the coming NCAA convention... The present NCAA policy of control has not been satisfactory, I believe that many of the large universities—which provide the games televised—prefer regional control."

Athletic directors of the Western Conference reportedly discussed public criticism over lack of national interest in certain televised games on the 1953 NCAA TV schedule, acknowledging that sectional interest was something else again. NCAA-TV's so-called "Panorama" offerings Oct. 24 and Nov. 7 were branded a failure.

It was also pointed out that Purdue was the only Big Ten team which did not appear on the 1953 NCAA schedule. Each of five universities—Western, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana and Iowa—received about $25,000 from the Panorama coverage, it was revealed. Additionally, participants in single games drew an estimated $110,000.

The fact was brought out that NCAA paid participating universities about 21 cents on the dollar after costs of a survey of television on football and administration were deducted.

Athletic directors were apprised that the 1953 season opened with about 87 stations participating in the NCAA-NBC-TV—General Motors program, compared to 67 originally signed for the 1952 NCAA schedule.

In addition to Mr. Payeur, members of the Western Conference television committee are: Dick Larkins, Ohio State; Fritz Crisler, Michigan; Doug Mills and Charles Flynn, Illinois; and Kenneth (Tug) Wilson, conference commissioner. Mr. Crisler also represents the fourth district on NCAA's TV committee.

Pacific Coast Schools Win Latitude in Grid TV

THE NINE Pacific Coast Conference member schools were given permission Wednesday at the PCC's annual meeting in San Francisco to offer any games to television within rules of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. This power is in addition to the NCAA-sanctioned "game of the week."

Previously, Conference approval had been required before West Coast schools could apply to NCAA for right to telecast home games. NCAA will adopt its rules at the spring meeting. The Sportsvision Inc. yearly contract to film PCC sports events for TV release has been renewed.

NARDB's Day in Court

NARDB will present the industry's viewpoint on the college football television schedule, limited in most cases to one game per Saturday, at the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. conference of coaches and athletic directors to be held Jan. 5 at the Netherland Plaza Hotel, Cincinnati.

The plan to invite NARDB spokesmen was suggested by Dick Larkins, athletic director of Ohio State U. At NARDB it was stated the association understands it will appear 3-5 p.m. to state its case. Harold E. Follows, NARDB president, will present a 20-minute summary of the industry viewpoint. The meeting will then turn into a panel session. Answering questions will be George J. Higgins, KMBC Kansas City, chairman of the NARDB Sports Committee; Robert K. Richards, NARDB administrative vice president; and Thad H. Brown, vice president and counsel.

DuMont Cites Attendance

DUMONT Television Network last week followed up an earlier report on the effects of television on attendance at professional football games [B&T, Nov. 23] by circulating latest National Football League data pointing out that in the first 60 contests of the regular pro football schedule this fall, attendance was up 172,000 over that for the same number of games last year. Officials reported that the all-time league record was set in 1952 with 2,149,632 but predicted this figure would be surpassed this year. Fifty games of the regular league schedule are being carried over DuMont this season and distributed on more than 100 TV stations.
RUMBLINGS HEARD IN MANY QUARTERS ON BASEBALL BROADCAST LIMITATIONS

THERE seemed to be a lot going on last week about baseball coverage rights but the broadcaster would have found it difficult to put his finger on who was throwing the next pitch and from where.

Any "next" move could be coming from Sen. Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo.) who once again has been thrust in the limelight in the minor leagues' effort to limit radio and tv rights.

Or, action could be jelling at the Justice Dept. or conceivably among the club owners themselves.

In sequence these were the developments in three different cities last week:

- ATLANTA: The minor leagues went along with Sen. Johnson who is president of the Western League, a minor circuit, by adopting a resolution asking for a ban on major league baseball radio or tv broadcasts in minor league cities while a local club is at home or away [B*T, Dec. 7].

- WASHINGTON: Sen. Johnson met with Assistant Attorney General Stanley N. Barnes and other Justice Dept. officials of the antitrust division, presumably on the limiting of major league game broadcasts. The Senator and Justice officials kept mum about the conference.

- NEW YORK: Major league owners in their meetings failed to take up the Johnson-minor leagues resolution. The resolution was tossed to a committee for study.

Consensus of those close to the situation was that the baseball picture is being studied now in relation to the court decision on pro football broadcasts [B*T, Nov. 16].

Grims Decision

That decision, issued by Judge Allan K. Grims of U. S. District Court at Philadelphia, held a home team playing away from home may broadcast games of other league games into its territory—whether or not its own game is being brought to the home area; ruled illegal Article X's (of National Football League rules) provisions on radio noting that broadcasts of a football team may be brought into an area whether or not the home team is playing there and ruled illegal certain authority given the Commissioner of NFL to pass on the sale of television or radio rights.

Earlier, the U. S. Supreme Court had ruled organized baseball a sport and therefore not liable to prosecution under the anti-trust laws.

Sen. Johnson, chairman of the minors' radio-vm committee, unveiled his plan to the Atlanta meeting of minor league executives. The proposal would restore restrictions on radio-vm removed in 1951 at the suggestion of the Dept. of Justice.

His suggestions rekindled provisions of his bill (S 1396), as amended, which failed passage in the Senate last year. It would allow broadcasts at any time without consent if on a sustaining basis and would not place restrictions on any broadcasts by the majors by stations in major league cities. But, like the Atlanta plan, the bill would in effect permit baseball to restore restrictions (rule 1[9]) now in abeyance.

After the Justice Dept. meeting last Tuesday, Sen. Johnson, questioned by B*T, said that nothing of importance was discussed. He added that there was "very little news value" attached to the conference.

Sen. Johnson at the close of the last Congressional session had indicated he would either submit a new bill dealing with baseball broadcasts or revise his pending legislation when Congress convenes in 1954. But that was before the courts announced their decisions in the football case and on the sports nature of baseball.

During the discussions of baseball broadcasts, it has been pointed out that the pension fund in baseball is based mainly on radio-vm income.

The question of who "owns" the income from the sale of World Series radio and television rights—whether or not the money belongs to the major league baseball players or to the club owners—highlighted much of last week's joint meeting of American and National league owners in New York.

There was unofficial speculation that the tv rights, which now amount to $1 million a year under a contract (with NBC-tv and Gillette) which expires after the 1956 series, might there after be worth as much as $3 million a year.

NATRF ORDERS TV CODE MONITORING

Staff monitors and 'self-examination' by stations and networks to be used to investigate findings of 'too much commercialism.'

POLICING of telecasts to detect program and advertising abuses of NATRF's television code was ordered Thursday by the Television Code Review Board after a special two-day Washington meeting, called to study findings of a trial-run monitoring effort.

The check on network and local tv programs and commercials will take two forms—special observations by staff monitors and 'self-examination' by stations and networks.

Code board action was based, according to Chairman John E. Fetzer, WKZ-Tv Kalamazoo, Mich., on monitoring findings that "there is too much commercialism.

While the code group's action was described in guarded terms, Mr. Fetzer made this negative but pointed observation on the danger of violating code provisions: "Insensitivity on the part of broadcasters to the charges of public reaction obviously will not contribute to the industry's welfare and progress."

As to the "too much commercialism" finding, Mr. Fetzer said these abuses covered advertising messages that "in too many instances are exceeding the [code's] maximum lengths."

Showing increasing awareness of the dangers involved in any widespread failure to follow the code, the board discussed but did not make public its views on penalties for violators.

As far as can be learned no station has lost its right to subscribe to the code and display the code's seal nor has any such recommendation been made to the top NATRF Television Board which has final enforcement powers.

The code board's test-run monitoring activity has been conducted by Edward H. Bronson, NATRF director of television code affairs, and staff personnel. It has not been "conclusive on a nationwide basis," according to Mr. Fetzer.

Discussing Mr. Bronson's report to the code group, Mr. Fetzer said:

"We find that the majority of the subsriers to the code are abiding by the standards which they have adopted. This is particularly true in the area of general programming. There is every evidence that a sincere effort is being made to program the medium in conformance with the general provisions governing good taste prescribed in the code. Our survey was restricted to code subscribers, who will be told that they will make a special effort to control their operations according to tenets to which they themselves have voluntarily subscribed.

The main task we face as television broadcasters at the local and local level is to clean up bad commercials and restore length voluntarily subscribed.

Mr. Fetzer said the board will take four steps:

1. Send management of all stations and networks thus far monitored a full report on findings.
2. Broaden the monitoring operation to other areas on a nationwide basis.
3. Give all code subscribers “monitoring logs” of the type used by the staff monitors, recommending they monitor themselves.
4. The monitoring logs contain blanks for station, program, on the air time, six blanks for clapsed time of commercials in a program, three blanks for the time backdrop advertising is in view of audience, descriptive matter on visual advertising and time it is in view of audience, and product mentions other than in straight commercial, with description and number.

The code board approved a number of changes in code provisions governing office tenure and other routine matters. Thus far only one change has been made in the code itself—a minor change affecting treatment of animals.

Proposed code changes must go to the full Television Board, which meets in January.

Idaho Broadcasters Elect Hurt; Attendance High

EDWARD P. HURT, general manager of KFXD Nampa, was elected president of Idaho Broadcasters Assn. at a meeting held Monday in Twin Falls. Attendance set an all-time high of 84 despite icy highways, well ahead of the two previous meetings since the association was organized.

A shadow was cast over the meeting when word was received that Lee W. Jacobs, KBBK Baker, Ore., NARTB small-stations board member, had died from injuries received in an auto accident while en route to the JBA meeting (see story page 70).

Other officers elected were Donald A. Thomas, KRLC Lewiston, vice president, and Florence M. Gardner, KTFI Twin Falls, re-elected secretary-treasurer. Directors elected were Norman E. Bauer, KSPT Sandpoint; Clair B. Hul, KCID Caldwell; Frank C. McIntyre, KLX Twin Falls; Merrill L. Skinner, KXRC Rexburg. Henry H. Fletcher, KSEI Pocatello, retiring president, continues as a director.

NBC GROUP BRIEFS RTES ON COLOR TV

Workshop session is told something of how color costs will be determined, coming colorcasts, color experiments with products and lighting and films, by NBC group headed by Barry Wood.

COLOR television is a "challenge and an achievement at the same time, and who could ask for anything more," Barry Wood, NBC executive producer and color consultant, said Thursday evening at a workshop session of Radio & Television Executives Society, held in an ABC studio in New York.

Mr. Wood and associates at NBC—Dick Day and Norman Graint, color consultants; Dick Ward, director; Rod Davis, technical supervisor; Stan Parlan, color film consultant—described problems arising from adding color to video pictures and their progress in solving them to about 100 RTES members and guests.

During the first introductory year after FCC approval of the RCA system of compatible color TV, NBC plans to colorcast every TV network program to find proper color treatment for each show, Mr. Wood said, with NBC itself paying all costs above normal telecasting expenses. During that year NBC expects to learn about color techniques, he said, and will pass along findings to advertisers and their agencies.

No one can say today what color will cost, Mr. Wood stated. He said cost charts are being kept on all color productions. After six months or so and certainly by the end of the year, NBC will know how much color will add to TV production costs, he said.

Following this fall's experimental colorcasts of "Carmen," "Show of Shows," Comedy Hour, and other programs, NBC is planning to telecast "Amahl and the Night Visitors" in color at Christmas and to cover the New Year's Day Tournament of Roses parade in color as well, both contingent on special permission from the FCC, Mr. Wood reported.

Working with agencies, NBC already has experimented with colorcasts of more than 100 products—"foods, fabrics, soups, sedans"—Mr. Wood said. NBC technicians are working with ink, fabric packaging and makeup companies to develop formulas for obtaining the proper pictures through the camera.

Asked about the possibility of an advertiser using color commercials on a black-and-white program to save color production costs for the whole show, Mr. Wood said that this would be a top policy decision.

Lighting is responsible for about 60% of all color effects, according to the NBC experts, who said three to four times as much light is used for color as for black-and-white.

In films, the electronic producers can deliver the full color range of the film, Mr. Parklan stated, but if the original film is lacking in lighting, contrast or color harmony, the telecasting process will not improve it as its job is to reproduce accurately the original image.

He said chief requirement of a good color film are: Flat lighting, plenty of closeups and few sustained long shots, complementary colors, and positive separation between foregrounds and backgrounds.

54 Tv Outlets Back Move To Organize Program Heads

MOVE to form a National Assn. of Television Program Managers has drawn support from 54 TV stations in 29 states, according to Vic Campbell, program manager of WBAL-TV Baltimore and program director for the Hearst Corp.'s radio-TV division.

An organizational structure will be set up, he said, after results are available from a survey of interested stations. Mr. Campbell, author of the idea, said the association would provide the springboard for national strengthening of TV programming, benefiting stations, the industry as a whole in public affairs and educational and entertainment programming.

MEDIA MERGER BEARS ON TV CASE—FCC

Commission rules printing-business agreement between two newspapers is relevant to Shreveport vhf ch. 3 case in action upon KTBS petition for subpoena to require Times-owned KKKW to produce merger pact.

MERGER agreement between two local daily newspapers for publication of both by a single firm is relevant to mass media considerations in a competitive television case, FCC has ruled in the Shreveport, La., vhf ch. 3 hearing. Counsel involves KTBS and Times-owned KKKW there.

According to the text of a Dec. 4 ruling issued last week, FCC reversed a hearing examiner’s decision and approved KTBS’ request for a subpoena to require KKKW to produce a “merger” agreement between the Shreveport Times and Journal. KTBS contended the testimony of William H. Bronson, KKKW president, was insufficient respecting the agreement and that the pact itself be submitted. KTBS contended the agreement is relevant, FCC said, “because the two publishing companies publish the only major newspapers in Shreveport and because Times Pub. Co. Ltd. will be the business agent for both newspapers and control [KKKW] as well. Facts are desired as to the effect of the merger upon competition and upon the public and advertisers and the possible consequent increase in the degree of control over media exercised by Times.”

Cites ‘Picoayne’ Case

The examiner had refused to issue a subpoena for the agreement, citing the Supreme Court’s ruling in the New Orleans Times-Picayune case that joint publication did not violate the antitrust laws. FCC’s reversal decision, however, said Shreveport is a different city and the facts could not be assumed to be the same.

“In any event,” FCC said, “the law is clear that the Commission is not barred in its licensing procedures from considering the question of the effects of control of mass communication media merely because the activities relevant to this control have not been or could not be adjudged in violation of the antitrust laws. . . . It is equally well settled by Commission decisions too numerous to mention that control of the media of mass communication is a material factor of comparison between competing applicants for broadcast radio and television facilities.”

FCC refused KTBS’ request that the studio proposal by KKKW be put in issue because the parties stipulated at the start of the hearing not to do so. The Commission noted it initially had found the studio proposals of both to be satisfactory.

In two other television cases, FCC approved petitions for enlargement of the issues to determine whether the funds available to the applicants “will give reasonable assurance that the proposals set forth in the application will be effectuated.” The Commission approved this request by Superior Television Inc. in the vhf ch. 10 case at Corpus Christi, Tex., which also includes KEYS and KSIX there, and the petition of Sangamon Valley Television Corp. in the vhf ch. 2 case at Springfield, Ill., which also involves Capitol City Television Co. and WMAY-TV Inc.

Petitions Denied

FCC turned down a petition by Woodward Broadcasting Co. for review of an examiner’s decision refusing amendment of its application in the Detroit uhf ch. 50 hearing with Booth’s WLB L there. The Commission also denied petitions by Brush-Murphy Newspapers Inc. for review and reversal of certain examiner’s rulings in the uhf ch. 29 case at Canton, Ohio, also involving Tri-Cities Telecasting Inc. and WCMV Canton.

In the vhf ch. 8 case at Des Moines, FCC denied a petition by Cowles’ KRNT to enlarge the issues concerning availability of funds to competitor KSO. FCC said the funds are available to KSO despite the death of former sole owner Kingsley Murphy in March 1953.

WTRI (TV) Move Contested

WROW-TV Albany, N. Y., has objected to the application of WTRI (TV) Schenectady, N. Y., to move its main studio location to Menands, N. Y.

WROW-TV, uhf ch. 41 permittee, protested that if uhf ch. 35 WTRI were permitted to locate its main studio in Menands, adjacent to Albany, it would in effect become an Albany station. WROW-TV contends that this added competition in the Albany market “may well impair its ability to survive” and that “the public interest in the area will suffer.”

FCC Staff Puts Finishing Touches to Color Order

FCC’s staff worked last week at polishing up its final report and order on compatible color tv standards, but was unable to meet with the Commission due to the latter’s heavy schedule of other work. Paper work was virtually concluded on a final draft of the 20-odd page report, which will also contain two appendices that together run half again as many pages, it is understood.

When submitted again to the FCC at the next session on color (possibly this week), the report and order will be in final form and, it is believed, will be ready for adop-

Examiner Proposes Ch. 8 Grant to WISH

INITIAL decision proposing to grant vhf ch. 8 in Indianapolis to WISH was then issued last week by FCC Hearing Examiner Annie Neal Hunting.

The three competitors for vhf ch. 13 at Indianapolis, WIRE, WIBC and Mid-West Television Corp., have protested the Crosley channel change, asking FCC to disqualify the new bid for ch. 13 [BWT, Dec. 7].

The joint petition by WIRE and WIBC, contended Crosley’s ch. 8 dismissal petition did not disclose its intention to file for ch. 13 and “such failure to disclose . . . rendered the reason given by it as misleading.”

They argued further, “Considering the period of time during which Crosley’s application for ch. 8 was pending and the fact that the ch. 13 application, also long pending, are expected to be designated for hearing shortly, it appears inconceivable to [WIRE and WIBC] that the motions Crosley would have granted the dismissal without prejudice had he known all the reasons upon which the Crosley request was based.”

The examiner also protested that petitions for review was filed by Crosley with the FCC late last week on the ground “the petitioners are not parties in interest” to the ch. 8 proceeding.

Crosley argued that the sole and exclusive purpose of its petition for dismissal without prejudice of its ch. 8 bid was “to avoid the prohibition against the filing of another application, and that ‘full and adequate bases for the granting of such petition were set forth in complete candor.’” Principals in WISH: President C. Bruce McConnell (54.9%), Vice President Robert McLean (3.8%), Second Vice President Stefanos Anastasi (19%), Treasurer Frank McHale (5.4%), Secretary Earl J. Schmidt (14.53%), Vice President McKinney (6.5%), Vice President and Treasurer Frank R. McHale (5.4%), Secretary Earl J. Schmidt (14.53%), Vice President McConnell (7.9%), Treasurer Frank McHale (5.4%), Secretary Earl J. Schmidt (14.53%), Vice President Stefanos Anastasi (19%).

FCC Allocates Three New Vhf Channels

THREE additional vhf channels have been allocated by FCC following conclusion of rule-making proceedings. In final rulings, effective 30 days after publication in the Federal Register, the Commission added ch. 7 minus to Carthage, N. Y., ch. 13 minus to Bemidji, Minn. and ch. 12 to Ironwood, Mich.

At the same time, FCC amended the offset requirement of ch. 7 at Calais, Me., to minus, substituted ch. 11 for ch. 13 minus at Fargo, N. D. and substituted uhf ch. 33 minus for ch. 12 minus at Iron River, Minn. Ch. 11 at International Falls, Minn., was changed to plus.

WWNY-TV Watertown, N. Y., uhf ch. 48 permittee had announced in September that it had ceased construction pending disposition of the pending allocation of ch. 7 to nearby Carthage [BWT, Sept. 28]. John B. Johnson, president of the Brockway Co., ch. 48 grantee, said an application for the new ch. 7 facility at Carthage would be done.

In another action, FCC announced proposed rule-making to add a second vhf channel for Zanesville, Ohio, by allocating uhf ch. 18 minus to that city. The bid is supported by the petition of WHIZ-TV, uhf ch. 50 permittee there.

TEMPLE U. STUDY WOULD AFFECT FCC

The study resurrects the first Hoover Commission proposal that the chairman of agencies like the FCC have all administrative responsibility invested in their offices.

NEW procedures in independent government agencies, including the FCC, are recommended in the Temple U. Survey of Federal Reorganization submitted to President Eisenhower Thursday. The report would cut federal agencies from 70 to 30 or less but this would not affect the FCC's place in the government setup.

Dr. Robert L. Johnson, Temple president and former chairman of the Citizens Committee for the Hoover Report, made the presentation with Martin Moran, Temple administrative vice president and assistant director of the survey. Dr. Johnson was head of the International Information Administration before it was recognized last summer as the U. S. Information Agency program.

Importance of some agencies to the national structure was pointed out in the report. Citing FCC's color television rulings, the report said, "No other agency even superficially does the work of the independent agencies without recognizing the awesome effects upon our economy which their decisions may have."

In situations covering independent agencies such as the FCC, the report suggested all administrative responsibility should be placed in the chairmen, with the agency having an executive director responsible to the agency through the chairman. "The plural executive is at best inefficient and unworkable as to detailed matters," it was stated. "Furthermore, demands upon agency members for administrative supervision should be kept to a minimum through an executive director" (see box this page).

Administrative Procedure Office

An office of administrative procedure would be created under terms of the Temple report, having "powers and duties roughly similar to those of the administrative officer of the United States Courts." This office would handle supply problems, provide centralized personnel and management services, and furnish budget and accounting data. It also would examine procedures, collect information and possibly handle administration of Section II of the Administrative Procedures Act.

Number of members of independent agencies should be reduced where possible and a panel system created so a decision can be considered by three members named by the chairman, it was recommended.

The Temple group recommended executive and quasi-legislative functions of agencies should be carefully studied. They should be made more flexible to policy "and susceptible of uniformity to accord with changing circumstances and the objectives of the executive and legislative members of the government through grant of power to the President and his Cabinet to amend and supplement agency executive and quasi-legislative powers by written published directive. Effective only after reasonable notification and opportunity by a constitutional majority of Congress to veto," it was stated.

Contradictory directions and policies now inherent in the federal structure would be avoided, it was suggested. The alternative of transferring executive and quasi-legislative powers to the executive branch would be avoided, it was added, a step that would deprecate the value of agencies.

An agency board of review should be created, the report continues, to which decisions on other than violations of rules and orders would be appealable "as an alternative to, and with waiver of, such rights of appeal to the courts on questions of law as are now permitted."

The most practicable way of providing for the prosecution and judicial determination of violations of orders and regulations should be studied, according to the report.

High Court Case To Involve Tv Verdict

MAJOR case involving censorship of motion picture films—in which television is sure to become involved—was scheduled for argument before the Supreme Court of Jan. 4.

The cases are those of Superior Films Inc. v. the Film Censorship Division of the Ohio Department of Education (No. 217) and Commercial Pictures Corp. v. Regents of the University of New York (No. 274). Both are on appeal from a lower court decision upholding the right of state censorship boards to ban motion picture films deemed unfit for public showing.

"Discrimination" Pointed Out

Although briefs are due until a short time before argument, both firms have already pointed to what they term the "discrimination" in the light of a 1949 Circuit Court decision in Philadelphia holding that motion picture films shown on television may not be censored by state boards. This was Allen B. DuMont Labs. Inc. v. Carroll. The appeals court held that "under the circumstances," the Communications Act governing interstate commerce, it could not be touched by state motion picture boards of review [BT, Oct. 31, 1949].

In its brief asking for review, Superior Films referred to this decision and said: "Censorship applied to some of the media or vehicles of expression or communication while not to others such as radio, television, or telegraphing of motion pictures, and newspapers, purports to set up a classification without any reasonable basis of different characteristics. Such an arbitrary and capricious differentiation, as a matter of will not of reason, is invalid as a denial of equal protection of the law."

Also relied on in both cases is the famous 1952 Supreme Court decision in Burstyn v. Regents of the University of the State of New York, where the court held that the banning of "The Miracle" on the ground that it was "sacreligious" was illegal since the term was vague and indefinite.

Old Idea, New Name

PROPOSALS for placing additional powers within the office of the FCC Chairman are not new (recent Temple U. study story). The first Hoover Commission recommendation on the subject was placed before Congress via the White House. That proposal, in 1950, was rejected by the Senate [BT, May 22, 1950]. A second attempt met similar defeat in the 82d Congress when a Senate committee turned down the plan in view of the previous commission action.

The recommendations would have given the Chairman authority on executive and administrative functions, transferring it from the full Commission. The latter plan would have allowed the Chairman jurisdiction on the appointment and assignment of personnel in the immediate offices of the Commissioners [BT, March 29, 1951]. It is known that the Second Hoover Commission, appointed by President Eisenhower, has not yet considered FCC in its current research and investigations [Closed Cactus, Dec. 7].

WGRD Charges FCC Violated Due Process

Commission order that station must cease 4 a.m.-sunrise programming brings heated protest from Grand Rapids outlet.

CHARGE that the FCC violated "every canon" of due process was made last week by WGRD Grand Rapids in a petition for cancellation of a summary order that it cease operation before local sunrise.

Order, which was wired to the Grand Rapids station Nov. 17 stated that WGRD must refrain from operating between 4 a.m. and local sunrise because of "undue interference" to WING Dayton, Ohio. Both stations operate on regional 1410 kc—WGRD with 1 kw daytime only, and WING with 5 kw full-time, with directional at night.

WGRD said that for six years it has been operating before sunrise and that WING never complained before. WING, according to the WGRD petition, has commenced operations from 5 to 7:30 a.m. this year.

In charging that the Commission erred in ordering WGRD to cease pre-sunrise operations without notice, hearing or due process, WGRD said the Commission has issued no local licenses to what constitutes "undue interference," and that it has given WGRD no notice of what standards it used to determine "undue interference" to WING. WGRD also claimed that the order must be considered without a notice and hearing, as required by Section 316 of the Communications Act. It claimed its renewal licenses authorized it to commence broadcasting from 6 to 6:30 a.m. local time.

WGRD also claimed that WING's complaint of undue interference before local sunrise could not be sustained because FCC regulations define daytime protection from local sunrise to local sunset and nighttime protection from local sunset to midnight. Therefore, WGRD said, WING cannot claim any protection between midnight and local sunrise.

WGRD asked the Commission to recall the Nov. 17 telegraphic order if warranted, to institute "appropriate" procedures.

McCarthy-Taylor Hassle Comes to Subpoena Stage

BRIG. GEN. TELFORD TAYLOR, one-time FCC general counsel and former counsel to an educational tv group, collided last week with Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy (R-Wis.) and faced the threat of being subpoenaed before the Senate investigating subcommittee. Gen. Taylor was general counsel at FCC beginning in 1940. He left to serve in World War II and was chief U. S. war crimes prosecutor in Germany. In post-war years he served as special counsel to the Joint Committee on Educational Television and during the waning part of the Truman Administration was head of the 17-plant Administration. The Senator Thursday said his subcommittee will subpoena Gen. Taylor, who is on inactive army status and now practicing law in New York, about possible subversion and security leaks at KRON-TV, San Francisco. Said Sen. Taylor: "I will, of course, appear and respond to any Congressional committee subpoena that may be issued to me."

The run-in started with Gen. Taylor's address at West Point where he told cadets Sen. McCarthy's probing at the radar laboratory was "a most dangerous threat to the morale and efficiency of the army." The Senator then demanded West Point officials explain why Gen. Taylor was invited to speak and who invited him. He also made public a letter, said to be a photostatic copy, concerning a "flag" on Gen. Taylor's personnel file which read "unresolved questions of loyalty."

‘Derogatory Data’

Sen. McCarthy said the flag meant either an investigation was under way or one had been completed, but no findings made. He added, however, that such a marking did not necessarily indicate disloyalty but that there was "derogatory" information in the file. The Senator conferred with Civil Service Commission Chairman Philip Young on the general's employment file. Chairman Young said he assumed the marking on the file would stay "unless the commission takes action to remove it." He said the matter had never come up before the commission, and that there had been no Loyalty Review Board hearing.

NINE SALES WIN FCC APPROVAL

NINE radio-tn properties traded hands last week at FCC. Texas was the scene of several station sales including the transfer of control of KAFY-AM-TV Bakersfield and KXA Seattle. Control of the KAFY stations (51 2/3%) was transferred from Sheldon and Geneva Anderson to Charles Thiel. Harrold and The Chronicle Publishing Co. for $85,000. Chronicle Publishing Co. is licensee of KRON-AM-TV San Francisco, publisher of the San Francisco Chronicle and is offeree of 25% interest in KSBW-AM-TV Salinas.

Mr. Anderson, licensee of KCKO-TV Tulare, Calif., retains 8 1/3% in KAFY-AM-TV.

Control of KXA Seattle (50 4/20%) was transferred from the Gaylord family to Lawrence Briskel and 13 others for $107,000. Other station sales approved by FCC:

WPBC Minneapolis, Minn.—Transfer of control from People's Broadcasting Co. to William V. Stewart according to Arthur R. Sutton of 20 shares of stock to licensee corporation for $28,473.

WMRC-AM-FM Greenville, S. C.—Assignment of license from Textile Broadcasting Co. to WARE for $72,500.

WAGP Dothan, Ala.—Assignment of license to new partnership of Dothan Broadcasting Co. with John T. Hubbard giving up 1/2 holding for $73,000.

WBOX Clarksdale, Miss.—Assignment of license by Binary Ints. Jr. to his mother, Eunice T. Inte.

WOKZ Alton, Ill.—Assignment of license from WOKZ Inc. to Edward N. Paden. General Tele-

WIC Radio New York now purchases the property for $45,000, which it will lease to Mr. Paden for eight years with option to purchase for $14,500. assignment of license for uhf ch. 34 from Clyde Weatherby to Central Texas Television Co. Mr. Weatherby retains 33.33% interest in lieu of his expenditures totaling $50,000.

Assignment of license from Wolf family to William G. Kelly for $79,000.

Gatton Leaves Bond Post

HARRY GATTON, former radio manager of the U. S. Savings Bond Division, Treasury Dept., has resigned his government post to become administrative assistant to Sen. Alton A. Len- non (D-N. C.).

Mr. Gatton's former posts include that of managing director of WSI C Stateville, N. C. While at the Savings Bonds Division, Mr. Gatton was responsible for radio advertising designed to bring national support behind the drive to sell government savings bonds.

FCC Bureau, WANE Oppose Proposed Fort Wayne TV Grant

WANE Ft. Wayne, Ind., and, FCC Broadcast Bureau Chief Curtis B. Plummer have filed exceptions to an initial decision proposing to grant Anthony Wayne Broadcasting a new tv station on uhf ch. 69 there [B&T, Nov.2].

WANE took exceptions to numerous "Finding of Fact" by the hearing examiner, claiming that they are irrelevent, immaterial, prejudical and unsupported.

FCC Broadcast Bureau Chief Plummer took exceptions to the initial decision's failure "to fully set out the facts pertinent to the combination or 'consolidation' of the two newspapers, News Sentinel and the Journal Gazette," and secondly as to trade practices of Anthony Wayne partners, James R. Fleming and ex-governor Paul V. McNutt.

Mr. Plummer noted that the Journal Gazette's "consolidation" of its business operation with its only rival and the simultaneous institution of "forced combination rates" requiring newspapers to "bear a monopoly power exercised in its baldest form."

Mr. Plummer concluded that "the choice between the two applicants is a difficult one ... but that the last named firm ... serves the balance in favor of Radio Wayne [WANE]."

More Remote, Relay Bands Seen in FCC Plan

The Commission sets forth proposed amendments to Part 4 of its rules governing tv auxiliary channels to provide for additional services. Proposals involving Part 2 of the rules would allow exclusive bands.

IMPROVED auxiliary broadcast facilities for television remote pickup, relay and other purposes are foreseen in rule-making proposals announced by FCC. Additional studio-transmitter link channels for am and fm stations also would be provided.

The Commission set forth proposed amendments to Part 4 of its rules governing television auxiliary channels to provide for additional services. Supplanting an earlier notice of proposed rule-making concerning Part 4, the new order is for comments by Feb. 15.

The growth of tv stations, particularly uhf, was indicated as the basis for the ever increasing demand for auxiliary facilities.

The second proceeding, in which comments also are due Feb. 15, concern amendment-ments to Part 2 of the Commission's rules. Fixed and mobile allocations above 890 mc are involved.

In the proposed Part 4 changes, FCC plans to make available 10 channels in the bands 1990-2110 mc and 2450-2500 mc, 10 channels in the band 6875-7152 mc, eight channels in the 10000-10700 mc band and 20 channels in the 12700-13000 mc bands. Auxiliary channels would not be assigned to specific tv station channels (vhf 2-13, uhf 14-83), the Commission explained, but would be available for assignment on a case-to-case basis.

Available on Exclusive Basis

Only one channel in the 2000 or 7000 mc band and one in the 13000 mc band would be available on an exclusive basis, FCC said, while others would be available on a shared basis. Although no channels would be reserved for exclusive use by common carriers, the channels available to broadcasters would also be available to the common carriers when providing auxiliary broadcast service to tv stations.

FCC's earlier proposal to require a certain plane of polarization for each auxiliary channel was discarded in the new plan in order to permit maximum flexibility on the part of the licensees in the elimination of interference and more efficient utilization of available channels.

Other changes proposed point out requirements with regard to performance of equipment for the sound channels and provide for station identification by means of code or other modulating signal in the event the station is used for visual transmission only.

Meanwhile, in the second proceeding looking toward amendment of Part 2 of the Commission's rules, FCC proposed reallocation of the spectrum above 870 mc to "serve existing service needs and foreseeable developments in the use of microwave by various fixed and mobile services." Generally, exclusive use is to be substituted for sharing.

The proposed Part 2 amendments, FCC said, "are the result of Commission study of current frequency problems and look toward additional exclusive spectrum space for tv pickup purposes; exclusive space for common carrier.

mobile functions including additional tv pickup service, and other mobile nonbroadcast video pickup requirements; additional exclusive broadcast studio-transmitter link frequencies for am, fm and tv (sound only); additional common carrier fixed service spectrum space, particularly with respect to the needs of areas where the use of the common carrier bands above 3700 mc is not practicable; and additional exclusive, as compared to some present shared, allocations for the non-government fixed services now operating in the vicinity of 900 mc.

FCC's proposal would continue to allocate the band 890-940 mc to the industrial, scientific and medical (ISM) service primarily and would allocate the band 890-936 mc to common carrier fixed service, with the provision that ISM interference be accepted. The 936-950 mc band would be allocated to am, fm and tv (sound only) studio-transmitter stations, subject to accepting ISM interference between 936-940 mc. The band 950-960 mc would be allocated to operational fixed stations.

The presently shared mobile bands 3500-3700, 6425-6575 and 11700-12200 mc also are proposed to be divided equally for exclusive assignment to domestic public services on the one hand and the aviation, industrial, land transportation, marine and public safety services on the other.

Exclusive Fm Band Asked by Big Firms

REQUEST for 40 frequencies from the Citizens Radio Service to establish an exclusive Manufacturers Radio Service was made to the FCC last week by the Committee on Manufacturers Radio Use [BWT, Nov. 23].

If the Commission believes that the Citizens Radio Service should recoup these frequencies, then it should "re-examine" the fm band, the manufacturers' committee stated in its formal petition for rule-making.

Committee, comprising 56 of the largest U. S. corporations (Alcoa, Ford, General Electric, Bethlehem Steel, etc.) which already are authorized to use Special Industrial Radio Service frequencies for more than 3,000 mobile units, emphasized that "radio is a new production tool."

Based on a study made by the Ford Motor Co., one of the members, radio is now used for (1) protection, (2) railroad services and (3) materials handling.

Crowded Band

Reason for need to establish an exclusive manufacturers service is the belief that the IRS bands (five frequencies in the 152-162 mc band and 10 frequencies in the 450-460 mc band) are in danger of becoming crowded and overloaded. The manufacturers share these frequencies with other mobile users, the petition pointed out. These include power companies, petroleum companies, forest products firms, motion picture companies and the press.

In backing up its claim that manufacturers need their own frequencies, the committee produced two studies showing the requirements for radio systems in Detroit and in Los Angeles. Detroit, with 118 present or potential users of radio, was used to illustrate an area problem, requiring 40 additional exclusive channels. Los Angeles, with six manufacturing plants as the basis, was used to illustrate an industry problem, needing 19 additional exclusive channels.

Not only is the present need serious for additional frequencies, the petition read, but the growing use of automatic manufacturing ("automation"), largely using electronic principles, makes a "control" instrument essential. This means radio systems, the committee said.

The 127 manufacturers now using channels in the IRS bands are licensed for 6,537 mobile units, the petition declared.

The Citizens Radio Service is assigned 100 frequencies in the 460-470 mc band and these are "largely unused," the committee said. CRS was established in 1945 for individuals and companies not qualified for other services.

Wants 40 from CRS

The committee recommended that the FCC reassign 40 frequencies from the CRS band for the formation of an exclusive Manufacturers Radio Service. This should be in addition to the frequencies available on a shared basis in the IRS bands, the committee emphasized. It also asked that manufacturers permit the use of point-to-point microwave systems for "out-of-yard" operations, where a single company may operate more than one plant in an area.

Jeremiah Courtney, Washington communications attorney, counsel for the committee, claimed that the use of radio for manufacturing exceeded in importance that of broadcasting.

"In fact," he said, "its [radio's] usefulness to our manufacturing companies has become so great that in time of war, if a choice had to be made, it would probably be found that the nation could better afford closing down every

FTC Consent Order
Ends NEDA Practices

A CONSENT order terminating a trade-restraining combination among 350 wholesale distributors of electronic equipment and supplies, members of the National Electronic Distributors Assn. Inc., was announced last week by the Federal Trade Commission.

FTC described the practices, which the respondents agree to end although not admitting or denying having engaged in any law violations, as “restrictive, compulsive and coercive,” and prejudicial to the public and competitors of NEDA members. They tend to hinder competition and create a monopoly, FTC added.

FTC filed its initial complaint last April [B&T, May 11].

The goods involve electronic and radio parts and other equipment, radio receivers, and transmitters, and recording and sound equipment.

Although not prohibiting NEDA members, independently and not in combination with others, from doing any of the prohibited acts, the order forbids NEDA and members to enter into any combination or conspiracy to:

1. Arbitrarily restrict membership in the association by denying membership to wholesalers “for competitive reasons” or for any other reason not based on NEDA’s published or generally accepted standards governing admission of new members.
2. Compel manufacturers to sell only through NEDA members or through nonmember wholesalers they “recognize” as “established legitimate wholesale distributors.”
3. Prevent manufacturers from selling to wholesalers who are not NEDA members or who are not “recognized” as “established legitimate wholesale distributors.”
4. Compel manufacturers to prevent distributors against price decline on unsold inventory or to grant uniform discounts or terms and conditions of sale:
   a. Compel manufacturers to fix or maintain resale prices suggested by the respondents; or distribute “substantially identical” price lists for electronic equipment or supplies;
   b. Fix or maintain prices or terms or conditions of sale at which wholesalers sell or offer for sale electronic equipment and supplies;
   c. Give sales or promotional preference to the types of electronic equipment and supplies sold by manufacturers who agree to refrain from selling to nonmember distributors or nonrecognized distributors, or who agree to grant uniform cash discounts, terms and conditions of sale, or who agree to maintain resale prices and terms or conditions of sale suggested by the respondents.

Appeals Court Upholds Damages on Show Idea
U. S. COURT OF APPEALS last week upheld a lower court decision holding the creator of a radio program has a property right in his idea. The decision affirmed a $3,300 jury verdict to Washington advertising man Lloyd K. Belt.

The Appeals Court held “a person has such a property right in his own idea as enables him to recover damages for its appropriation or use by another when the idea is original, concrete, useful and is disclosed in circumstances which, reasonably construed, clearly indicate that compensation is contemplated if it is accepted and used.”

The U. S. District Court in Washington had held in favor of Mr. Belt who entered into a contract with Hamilton National Bank, which engaged Mr. Belt to produce the show, but later selected another producer [B&T, Dec. 22, 1952].

National Representative: WEED and CO.
FTC ENDS HEARING ON PROPOSED RADIO-TV TRADE PRACTICE RULES

RETMA President McDaniel reports his group unable to offer proposed rules for trade standards for high fidelity equipment. Hearing record to be open until Jan. 20, recommendations to come at a later date.

THE Federal Trade Commission last Monday completed its hearing, begun Oct. 8 [B&T, Oct. 12], on 31 trade practice rules for the radio-tv industry, proposed by the FTC on Sept. 10.

Up for most attention at the hearing were arguments on a proposed restricted definition of a television receiver, on materials of which radio-tv cabinets are made, on new standards of tv screen measurement and on manufacturers' re-use of cathode-ray tube glass envelopes.

Glen McDaniel, president of Radio-Electronics-Television Mfrs. Assn., at the close of the hearing reported that his group would not be able to offer proposed rules setting up trade standards for high fidelity equipment. He said differences among RETMA members on hi-fi standards and the lack of other standards for measurement of certain of its characteristics prevent RETMA from offering proposals on hi-fi at present which might be incorporated into the proposed FTC rules.

Paul Butz, assigned by the FTC to draw up the rules, was presiding attorney at the hearing, with Allen C. Phelps, assistant director of the FTC's Bureau of Industry Cooperation and chief of the Division of Trade Practice Conferences.

Mr. Butz said no more hearing sessions will be held, but that the record will be kept open until Jan. 20, before which time interested parties may submit suggestions by brief or in person at the FTC. After that date new trade practice rules will be drawn up in the light of what took place at the hearing and submitted to the FTC with recommendations for their promulgation.

Mr. Butz was unable to say when the rules will be submitted, but said that because of legal questions and the controversial nature of some of the 31 rules, more study will be needed than for industry rules where no such problems are brought up.

Rules Result of Conferences

The proposed new rules, which will revise and extend those promulgated by the FTC in 1939 for the radio set manufacturing industry, are the result of industry applications and general trade practice conference sessions held in June and September 1951 and in June 1952.

Mr. Butz was prompted to set the Jan. 20 date after heated argument between makers of radio-tv cabinet materials—the natural woods representatives on one hand and makers of wood fiber products, plastics and imitation wood-grain finishes on the other—on the proposed Rule 6 relating to cabinets.

Some of these manufacturers, notably makers of wood-grain finishes, said they had learned only recently of the hearing and were unprepared to present their full viewpoints at last week's session.

At issue were six prohibitions to Rule 6 requiring detailed disclosure of the materials of which a radio or tv cabinet is made—an issue which has plagued the furniture industry for years. Representatives of natural woods claimed that cabinets made of anything but wood in its natural state, if the material resembles wood, should be labeled as imitations of such woods, and that inferior woods be named as such. The makers of wood fiber products, plastics and artificial wood-grain finishes for these products felt no such label should be required.

In behalf of the latter group, Robert C. Keck of the Hardboard Assn. (hardboard is a wood fiber material), presented a lengthy paper on the merits of hardboard. This group also

HITS 'BAIT' ADS

THE Federal Trade Commission has entered a consent order requiring Sunset Appliance Stores Inc., Rego Park, Long Island, N. Y., and its officers, Joseph Rudnick and Morris Sobel, to stop "bait" advertising and other deceptive practices in sale of tv sets and air conditioners.

The FTC said the firm's broadcast advertisements offering reconditioned name-brand tv sets for $59 to $68 and reconditioned Mitchell air conditioners for $99 were not made in "good faith," but were designed to give Sunset a lead to sales prospects for the sale of "unknown brands at higher prices."

Last year, WDAY was swamped with 145,659 letters and postcards from its listeners! This is the equivalent of a letter or card from over 70% of the 211,550 families who listen regularly to WDAY—an average of slightly over 399 letters per day, including Sundays and holidays!

was supported by RETMA President McDaniel, who claimed organized pressure on the FTC by wood interests. He said his industry does not intend to become a "vehicle" for controversies which rightly belong to the furniture industry and that, anyway, the manufacture of articles with simulated wood surfaces is a practice "of long standing."

Non-labeling Attacked
Spokesmen for various consumer groups, among them a CIO union, the Better Business Bureau and various women's organizations, attacked non-labeling of cabinet materials, agreeing in general that the consumer has no other way of knowing what material goes into his radio or tv set cabinet.

Morton R. Galane, attorney for Allen B. DuMont Labs, presented a brief proposing an amendment to Rule 2 which would require that a television receiver not capable of receiving all vhf and uhf channels be labeled as a limited-channel set. He said the proposal also is supported by the Ultra High Frequency Association.

DuMont claimed many people who buy a tv set do so under the impression it will receive all channels with no additional accessories.

Dealer and distributor groups spoke out strongly against this proposal as did RETMA President McDaniel, who said DuMont's views were not those of the industry as a whole. He said such a rule would mean the 25 million sets now in the hands of the public could no longer be called tv sets unqualifiedly under this definition.

Mr. McDaniel and other industry representatives objected to FTC's proposed Rule 8, which would require a tv set's screen to be described by only its viewing area—the horizontal measurement of a rectangular shaped screen or the diameter of a circular screen—instead of the current practice of giving the measurement of the unmasked tube on a diagonal basis.

The RETMA president, who was seconded by other industry, dealer and distributor spokesmen, said the current method of diagonal measurement is "well understood and accepted by the public," and is necessary and has been used within the industry since the beginning. He added he did not believe dealers in intra-state commerce would abide by the proposed rule.

Claims Few Are Aware
Consumer groups, however, said that in their interviews of potential buyers, very few were aware of the diagonal measurement practice.

FTC's proposed Rule 11, which the tv set-making industry considers would be a heavy financial blow in its prohibition of the re-use of cathode-ray tube glass envelopes unless disclosure is made that they are used, came in for heavy criticism from the industry.

William F. Rueger of Sylvania Electric Products said such a practice would increase the costs of television receivers $34 million annually. DuMont's brief, including testimony of a DuMont engineer at the Oct. 8 hearing in which were cited the heavy costs to industry if set manufacturers are required to designate the glass tube envelopes as "used," was presented in support of the industry view.

RETMA's President McDaniel, in outlining industry objections to the proposed Rule 11, said RETMA had requested that Mr. Bute visit tube plants to inspect procedures used and conditions of manufacture. He offered RETMA's suggestion that the rule define a cathode-ray measurement of a rectangular shaped screen or the diameter of a circular screen—instead of the current practice of giving the measurement of the unmasked tube on a diagonal basis.

Mort Farr of National Appliance & Radio-TV Dealers Ass'n., Chicago, voiced dealers' objections to a recommended amendment (to proposed Rule 10), that tv sets placed in use by dealers as demonstrators and floor samples be designated as other than new sets. He said it would set a precedent since many other items are tried before sale, that such use is part of an established practice by dealers to test working order of sets and that such a rule would work extreme hardships on small dealers who are called upon to demonstrate their entire stock.

Pearson, ABC Must Stand Libel Suit, Says Court
COLUMNIST Drew Pearson and ABC will have to stand jury trial in a $450,000 libel suit involving a 1949 broadcast by Mr. Pearson over the network, according to a Supreme Court decision last week.

The Supreme Court denied a hearing to Mr. Pearson and ABC, from a decision by the U. S. Court of Appeals, which reversed a District Court judge who had found for Mr. Pearson and ABC, without a jury trial.

In a 1949 broadcast involving an income tax case against Dr. Bernard F. Gariepy, divorced husband of Mrs. Mary G. Gariepy, Mr. Pearson said Dr. Gariepy would claim $68,000 of his income was a "gift" from the Rev. Charles Coughlin, former radio priest, for alienation of Mrs. Gariepy's affections. Mrs. Gariepy sued, claiming the broadcast implied she was an unchaste wife.

COURT UPHOLDS 'DISLOYALTY' FIRINGS

An employer has a right to discharge an employee for disloyalty, rules the U. S. Supreme Court in a 6-3 decision upholding such action by WBTV (TV) Charlotte in firing union employees who disparaged its programming.

RIGHT of an employer to discharge an employee for disloyalty was upheld by the U. S. Supreme Court last week in ruling the action of WBTV (TV) Charlotte, N. C., in firing nine technicians who circulated a handbill maligning the station's operations and programs was not an unlawful labor practice under the terms of the Taft-Hartley Law. Three of the nine justices dissented.

In so ruling, the Supreme Court overturned a U. S. Court of Appeals decision which would have remanded the case to the NLRB (N. B. Taft, Nov. 24, 1952).

The case was based on a labor dispute between WBTV, owned by the Jefferson Standard Broadcasting Co., and the International Brotherhood of Electric Workers (AFL). WBTV's contract with 22 technicians ran out Jan. 31, 1949, and although the personnel continued on their jobs, they set up a picket line before the station, following an impasse in negotiations between the station and the union.

In August 1949, several of the technicians distributed 5,000 handbills disparaging the station and its operations under the heading: "Is Charlotte a Second-Class City?" This was termed "a vitriolic attack on the quality of the company's television broadcasts" by the Supreme Court majority. The handbill message made no mention of the pending labor dispute, and was signed only "WBT Technicians."

Ten employees, charged with sponsoring or distributing the handbills, were discharged in September that year. IBEW filed charges with the NLRB, alleging the firings were an unlawful labor practice. An NLRB trial examiner recommended the discharged employees be reinstated but the full board followed this recommendation only in the case of one employee. It found discharge of the other nine was not an unfair labor practice.

The union appealed to the Court of Appeals, which ruled the NLRB had not determined the "unlawfulness" of the employees' conduct which led to their dismissal. NLRB took this decision to the Supreme Court.

"In essence, the issue is simple," Justice Harold H. Burton wrote in the majority opinion. "It is whether these employees, whose contracts of employment had expired, were discharged 'for cause.' They were discharged solely because, at a critical time in the initiation of the company's new television service, they sponsored or distributed 5,000 handbills making a sharp, public, disparaging attack upon the quality of the company's product and its business policies, in a manner reasonably calculated to harm the company's reputation and reduce its income."

Justice Burton continued: "There is no more elemental cause for discharge of an employee than disloyalty to his employer. It is equally elemental that the Taft-Hartley Act seeks to strengthen, rather than to weaken, that cooperation, continuity of service and cordial contractual relation between employer and employee that is born of loyalty to their common enterprise."

Labor Practice Not Attacked

The attack on the company related to no labor practice, and it made no reference to wages, hours or working conditions, Justice Burton pointed out. "It was a continuing attack, initiated while off duty, upon the very interests which the attackers were being paid to conserve and develop. Nothing could be further from the purpose of the Act than to require an employer to finance such activities.

"The fortuity of the coexistence of a labor dispute afforded these technicians no substantial defense. . . . The handbill diverted attention from the labor controversy. It attacked public policies of the company which had no discernible relation to that controversy. The only connection between the handbill and the labor controversy was an ultimate and undisclosed purpose or motive on the part of some of the sponsors that, by the hoped-for financial pressure, the attack might extract from the company some future concession."

"In any event, the findings of the Board [NLRB] effectively separate the attack from the labor controversy and treat it solely as one made by the company's technical experts upon the quality of the company's product. As such, it was as adequate a cause for the discharge of its sponsors as if the labor controversy had not been pending."

The dissent, written by Justice Felix Frankfurter, for himself and Justices Hugh L. Black and William O. Douglas, took issue with the majority on the ground that the NLRB used the criterion "indescribable" for the technicians' conduct and that the Court of Appeals was right when it termed that word as "vague" and different from "unlawful."

Questioning whether Congress meant "disloyalty" to be treated as cause for discharge, Justice Frankfurter said much of the law that had been developed by NLRB and the courts in the 12 years preceding Taft-Hartley would be overturned if Congress had so intended.

"Many of the legally recognized tactics and weapons of labor would readily be condemned for 'disloyalty' were they employed between man and man in friendly personal relations," he said.

"... Furthermore, it would disregard the rough and tumble of strikes in the course of which loose and even reckless language is properly discounted."

Justice Frankfurter concluded: "... To treat the offensive handbills as though they were circulated by the technicians as interlopers to the sustained dispute between them and their employer is a very unreal way of looking at the circumstances of a labor controversy. Certainly there is nothing in the language of the Act or in the legislative history to indicate that only conventional placards and handbills, headed by a trite phrase such as 'UNFAIR TO LABOR,' are protected. In any event, on a remand the Board could properly be asked to leave no doubt whether the technicians, in distributing the handbills, were, so far as the public could tell, on a frolic of their own or whether this tactic, however unorthodox, was no more unlawful than other union behavior previously found to be entitled to protection."

The Supreme Court reported that WBTV began operating July 14, 1949, representing an investment of $500,000, and that Jefferson Standard suffered a monthly loss of $10,000 during the first four months of WBTV's operation.

During the controversy, Sterling L. Hicks, one of the WBTV engineers, was indicted and convicted of conspiracy in attempting to dynamite the station's radio tower. He was identified as business manager of IBEW Local 1229.

MARS Lowers Age Bars

MILITARY Affiliate Radio System (MARS), operated by the Defense Dept., has opened its membership to civilian applicants as young as 16 years old. First applicant to be admitted under this policy last week was a 17-year-old Maryland high school senior. Previously only members of the Armed Forces, Reserve Officers Training Corps, National Guard or one of the military reserve programs were accepted if under 21. Some 8,500 volunteer amateur radio stations take part in MARS training and drills. The radio system is set up to alert and integrate stations for official or semi-official use in the initial stage of any disaster or emergency requiring radio communication aid.

Huntley Sues for $200,000

CHET HUNTLEY, ABC radio and tv news commentator, has filed suit for $200,000 slander damages in Los Angeles Superior Court against Mrs. Edward Suchman, club woman and social worker, who was accused of calling him a Communist. The complaint charges that on many occasions prior to last Oct. 10 Mrs. Suchman told other persons, including some sponsors of news broadcasts that he was giving aid and comfort to the enemy, meaning Russia. At that time, the complaint adds, Mrs. Suchman referred to him as a "dirty, low-down skunk," and said it was her intention to "pull" sponsors away from him.
Red Hunt in Entertainment
Nearly Ended, Says Jackson

INVESTIGATION of alleged communist infiltration into the entertainment field has "just about scraped the bottom of the barrel," Rep. Donald Jackson (R-Calif.), chairman of a House Un-American Activities subcommittee, admitted fortnight ago after a closed one-day hearing in Los Angeles [CLOSED CIRCUIT, Nov. 16]. The hearing, however, did supply several new "identifications," Rep. Jackson said, mainly in radio and TV fields.

Three former radio writers appeared before the investigating group as "cooperative" witnesses. William L. Alland, now a theatrical motion picture producer, testified he had been a member of a "radio cell" of the Communist Party from 1946 to 1949, but quit because he "got fed up feeling like a criminal participating in their activities." Rep. Jackson said three undisclosed names for further investigation had been furnished by Mr. Alland's testimony.

Milton Merlin, 1952 president of Radio Writers Guild, denied Communist Party membership and said he had been "blacklisted" since charges were published that he headed an allegedly communist-dominated organization. He did admit joining various groups later termed communist-front, but stated he severed connections immediately afterward.

Max Nathan Benoff, writer of the former CBS-AM-TV Life With Luigi program, who testified last March he had been a Communist Party member for three months and left because it was a "dull outfit," appeared briefly to elaborate on previous testimony.

John Brown, radio-TV actor in CBS Radio's My Friend Irma, ABC Radio's Ozzie and Harriet and the former NBC Radio's Life of Riley, among others, stood on constitutional guarantees of the Fifth Amendment to refuse to answer committee questions.

SECRETARY of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson (r) presents Joe Kelly, form and food director of WHDH Boston, with the Corn Criers Bell on behalf of the Agricultural Club of Massachusetts. The award was for Mr. Kelly's promotion of the sale of corn in Massachusetts which resulted in more than 50% sales increase over the preceding year, maintaining the farmers' price at a profitable level, the station said.

Record Cost Planned

WHAT is believed to be the highest initial construction cost for a television station is specified by Hearst Corp.'s WISN Milwaukee in its application for vhf ch. 6 at Whitefish Bay, Wis., filed at FCC last week. Cost is estimated at $2.1 million, with estimated annual revenue estimated "in excess" of that amount. Also seeking ch. 6 is WMIL Milwaukee, which turned in its permit (for uhf ch. 31 [B+W], Dec. 7). WMIL's construction cost estimate, according to its bid, is $792,000; first year operating cost, $626,000; revenue, $880,000.

Call Letter Shifts Approved
For ABC, Storer, Harlingen

CHANGE of call letters of ABC's Los Angeles stations--KECA-AM-FM-TV--to KABC-AM-FM-TV was granted by the FCC late last week. Storer Broadcasting Co., which recently acquired KABC San Antonio where it owns KEYL (TV) was granted call letter change to KBGS-AM-TV while KBGS Harlingen, Tex., becomes KGBT-AM-TV. The latter is paid $7,500 by ABC to defray costs of advertising change [CLOSED CIRCUIT, Nov. 30].

The exchange of call letters will permit ABC to appropriately identify its West Coast stations by the call letter series KABC in the same way that its New York stations are identified by the series WABC. In the San Antonio case, the letters GBS are the initials of its owner George B. Storer.

Lewis Charge Brings Probe

GRAND jury investigation of gambling and sale of liquor to minors in St. Marys County, Maryland, was ordered last Monday by Judge J. Dueley Digges, of state circuit court, following charges on MBS by commentator Fulton Lewis jr. that violations of the law are unchecked in the county.

Judge Digges made the request at the opening session of the December grand jury in Leonardtown, instructing the jury that it is their duty to look into it and report back, taking any action the evidence warranted.

Streibert Gets Deputy

THEODORE C. STREIBERT, director of U. S. Information Agency and former board chairman of MBS, now has a deputy in the USIA. President Eisenhower has appointed Abbott McConnell Washburn as Deputy Director. He was a special assistant to Mr. Streibert before the appointment, which is subject to Senate confirmation in January.

ANDREW ALFORD Consulting Engineers of Boston has been elected to Radio Technical Commission for Aeronautics membership, it was announced last fortnight. Firm is active in radio aids to air navigation.
Am 'Blanket' Area Reduced by FCC

REDUCTION of the blanket interference area around standard broadcast stations has been effected by FCC in making final proposed amendments to its rules and engineering standards. Text of the changes was issued last week.

The revision establishes the 25 m contour, instead of the entire city, as the reference area for determining population percentage in the blanket area. It also specifies 1 v/m (1000 mV/m) as the blanket contour instead of 250 mV/m or 500 mV/m as heretofore. Population in the blanket area may not be more than 1% of the population within the 25 m contour, under the change.

Licensees are required to satisfy "all reasonable complaints of blanket interference" by listeners within the 1 v/m contour, according to the rules. The changes, which also include amended text for Sec. 4 of the standards, "Locations of Transmitters of Standard Broadcast Stations," become effective 30 days after publication in the Federal Register.

Amendments to Part 3 of the rules follow:

1. Sec. 3.14 is amended as follows: Add a new subparagraph (r) as follows:
   (r) Blanketing: Blanketing is that form of interference which is caused by the presence of a broadcast signal of 1 v/m or greater intensity in the area adjacent to the antenna of the transmitting station. The 1 v/m contour is referred to as the blanket contour and the area within this contour is referred to as the blanket area.

2. Sec. 3.2 is amended as follows: Redesignate subparagraph (g) as (h) and add a new subparagraph (g) as follows:
   (g) The population within the 1 v/m contour does not exceed 1.0 percent of the population within the 25 m contour: Provided, however, that where the number of persons within the 1 v/m contour is 300 or less, the provisions of this subparagraph are not applicable.

3. Add a new Sec. 3.88 as follows:
   3.88 Blanketing Interference. The license of each broadcast station is required to satisfy all reasonable complaints of blanket interference within the 1 v/m contour.

FTC Approves Trade Rule Softening Use of 'Free'

THE Federal Trade Commission Dec. 3 approved a new trade practice rule on use of the word "free" in advertising and other commercial offers which conformed to its statement of Sept. 18 softening its policy on "free" [B* T, Sept. 28].

The Sept. 18 policy was announced in FTC's dismissal of charges against Walter J. Black Inc. of using "free" to describe books given upon purchase of other books. FTC policy up to that time, in effect from early 1948, had restricted use of "free" to offers made with no strings attached.

Under the new FTC policy the use of "free" to describe merchandise given upon purchase of other merchandise is a fair trade practice only so long as the advertiser makes such condition clear and conspicuous in his offer.

New Personnel at FCC

SEVEN new attorneys and engineers reported for duty with FCC's Broadcast Bureau fortnight ago. They will work on television and other cases, it was expected. New attorneys are Charles Finley, John H. Vass, Arthur J. Schissel, Earl Walck and Edward Brown. New engineers are Clarence F. Heister and Robert C. Ochs.

Libel, Free Time Issues Explored in WIND Panel

LAW OF LIBEL as it applies to broadcasting and ramifications of the McCarthy free time issue were explored by Northwestern U. panelists on WIND Chicago’s Nov. 29 Forum of the Air.

The delicate position of broadcasters who are not permitted to pre-censor talk of political candidates but who are liable under state laws for libel uttered was recounted by Donley Fidderson, chairman of the university’s radio-television department, who served as moderator. Panelists included Willard Pedrick, professor of law, and Martin Maloney, assistant professor, radio-television department.

Mr. Fidderson noted an editorial in the B&T Nov. 23 issue and reported that the broadcasting industry, as interpreted in the editorial, is not pleased with the situation posed by Sen. Joseph McCarthy’s (R-Wis.) demand for equal network time to answer former President Truman. Speaking on the program titled “Character Assassination and the Law of Broadcasting,” Prof. Pedrick felt some sort of right of reply is a useful device and suggested an immediate recourse for those who feel they have been libeled over the air. He said the greatest need for this lies in the broadcasting industry.

Prof. Maloney felt the public interest is not greatly served by the right of reply, as in the McCarthy-Truman exchange, and said networks are placed in a confusing and harassing position.

Aeronautics Unit Probes Possible UHF Interference

INVESTIGATION of areas of possible interference from uhf television to navigation and communication frequencies was decided at a meeting of a special committee of the Radio Technical Committee for Aeronautics in Washington [BT, Nov. 16].

The Committee organized to (1) search out potential sources of interference to aeronautical signals and (2) gather data on any interference that may arise. The next meeting of the special committee, headed by A. R. Applegarth, National Aeronautical Corp., is in January.

Radio frequencies believed to be susceptible are the 108-152 mc band (localizer, visual range, communications), 328-335 mc band (glide slope) and 960-1215 mc band (distance measuring equipment). The committee believes spurious radiations from transmitters or receivers may interfere with these bands.

In addition to Mr. Applegarth, the following attended the meeting: H. W. Anderson, R. E. Estes, William Brown and E. B. Poritzky, CAA; A. Skrivesth and Louis Rein, FCC; C. M. Dorssey, Bendix; R. P. Wakeham, DuMont; J. E. Young, RCA; H. G. Towelson, GE, and Vernon Welch, Air Transport Assn.

Postpone Filters Deadline

BECAUSE a number of television stations have been unable to obtain video frequency filters to properly meet FCC’s specifications for upper sideband attenuation, the Commission has issued an order postponing the effective date of the requirement from June 1, 1953, until July 1, 1954. Sec. 3.687 (a) (2) of FCC’s rules requires that the field strength or voltage of the upper sideband radiated or dissipated by tv transmitters shall not be greater than minus 20 db for a modulating frequency of 4.75 mc or greater.

Winds Stymie Stations

STRONG WINDS that swept across the neighboring states of Colorado and Wyoming last week toppled the television towers of two stations that are due to begin operations this month.

In Denver, the 300-ft. tower of KOA-TV, located atop Lookout Mtn., crumpled to the ground Dec. 6, causing some damage to the transmitter building, after 80-miles-per-hour winds lashed the mountain top. Three operating stations here, KFEL-TV, KLZ-TV and KFBV (TV), had to suspend programming momentarily at various times because of interruptions caused by the windstorm. Damage of tower and buildings have been estimated at $25,000.

KFBV-TV Cheyenne, Wyo., saw 100-ft. of its planned 500-ft. tower collapse Dec. 8 as high winds which continued to plague the two-state area, brought down the tower that is in construction. No damage to transmitter building or other equipment was reported.

KOAV and KFCB-TV are to begin operations by Christmas. Don Searle, KOAV executive vice president-general manager, reported that around-the-clock repairs and equipment installation will enable the station to meet its target date.

KFBV-TV is rebuilding its tower in anticipation of a Christmas debut, William C. Grove, manager, said.

WOOD-TV Trades Channels, Goes to Maximum Power

WOOD-TV Grand Rapids, Mich., switched from vhf ch. 7 to ch. 8 last Tuesday and increased effective radiated power from 28 kw to full 100 kw. The channel change was one of 30 ordered by FCC in its final reallocation.

WOOD-TV's ch. 8 operation is from a new tower and transmitter installation 12 miles northeast of Grand Rapids. The new 1,000-ft. tower is on a hill 873 ft. above sea level. The antenna system cost $100,000. In the new $75,000 transmitter building is all new RCA equipment costing $300,000.

Unique feature of the change-over, according to WOOD-TV's chief engineer, Louis Bergenthal, was dual operation on both chs. 7 and 8 from Dec. 1-8 under special FCC authority in order to help set owners and servicemen in receiver adjustment.
Milwaukee Claims Top U.S. Set-Converter Sales

MILWAUKEE is the "top market of the nation" in sales of tv sets and uhf converters, reports the Milwaukee Journal (WTMJ-TV vhf ch. 4), which credits the advent of two uhf stations there, WCAN (ch. 25) and WOKY-TV (ch. 19), with causing the continued brisk set sales in that area.

A dropoff of tv set sales elsewhere over the nation, said to have been caused by anticipation of color television, has been reported in a survey by the AP. Tv set production was higher for the first nine months of 1953 than in any preceding similar period, according to RETMA tabulations.

WRGB (TV) Plans Ch. Shift

WRGB (TV) Schenectady, N. Y., plans to shift from its present vhf ch. 4 to vhf ch. 6 on Jan. 4, it was announced last Wednesday by Robert B. Hanna Jr., General Electric Co. manager of broadcasting. At the same time, WRGB will put into operation a new transmitting tower and antenna three times as high as the present antenna, according to W. J. Purcell, manager of engineering for GE broadcasting stations.

WNHC-TV Testing Ch. 8

WNHC-TV New Haven conducted a test of its new ch. 8 transmitter last Monday night in conjunction with a half-hour telecast on its ch. 6 facilities. According to Station Manager Edward C. Obrist, some 1,000 telegrams and calls were sent to the station, 88% of which reported that reception on ch. 8 was "excellent." Station officials said, however, that "many more adjustments must be made to the ch. 8 transmitter" before they will be prepared to call the tests "successful." Station plans a program on Wednesday titled What's With Channel 8? to keep viewers informed as to progress made toward its permanent transfer to ch. 8.

WLJK Charts Programs

WLJK DeKalb, Ill., held a two-hour sixth anniversary and re-dedication program Dec. 13. This signaled the start of a new program schedule and community service policies, George C. Biggar, president and general manager, announced last week. Mr. Biggar, who took over active management of the station Nov. 13, has inaugurated a news-on-the-hour policy, a daily children's program and stepped-up farm programming. Community discussion and quiz programs are planned.

Going Full Blast!

Here's a pretty sight for any economist (or advertiser) to contemplate. Within the 29 counties clustered around our Pivot of the Piedmont are the industrial plants of many of the best-known names in American business. Our neighbors include Cannon Mills, Blue Bell, Inc., American Tobacco, Dan River Mills, Vick Chemical, R. J. Reynolds Tobacco, B. C., Majud Hosiery, and many others.

Their plants today are going full blast, turning out goods for the rest of the nation—and creating the payrolls that give WFMY-TV viewers a constantly growing bankroll. (Last year, the buying power of these people topped $1,500,000,000.)

Sales opportunities are going full blast, too. Your share can be considerably increased by enlisting the help of the one television station these wage-earners watch regularly. It's WFMY-TV, of course.

Radio Outpaces Horse In Younts' Court Win

RADIO received judicial recognition as an important news medium and Jack S. Younts, president-general manager of WEEB Southern Pines, N. C., escaped jail sentence or fine last fortnight in Moore County Recorders Court, North Carolina.

Judge J. Vance Rowe adjudged Mr. Younts not guilty of a charge of careless and reckless driving after a four-hour trial. The defendant had been charged with violating a 1907 state law forbidding motorists from passing horses at more than eight miles an hour [BET, Nov. 23].

Mr. Younts had driven the WEEB station wagon to the scene of a fatal accident Nov. 17 in which 15 paratroopers were killed by a plane that went out of control. A BET article reporting Mr. Younts 10-hour job as the first reporter on the scene, and his subsequent arrest on a charge filed by vacationists out for a canter, was read into the court record.

Judge Rowe ruled Mr. Younts had the right as a broadcast newsmen to hurry to the disaster scene, adding that the plaintiffs should have left the road when they heard his deputy-sheriff's siren on the WEEB vehicle. The court commended him for his role in offering relief at the disaster scene and then collecting as well as making the facts available to all news agencies and to the world.

LEE JACOBS DIES AFTER AUTO CRASH

LEE W. JACOBS, 53, president of Inland Radio Corp. operating three Oregon stations, died last Monday from injuries received in an auto accident. Mr. Jacobs had been an NARTB board member-at-large, representing small stations, since April 1952.

The accident occurred just 15 miles east of his home in Baker, Ore., as he had started driving to Twin Falls, Idaho, to address the Monday meeting of Idaho Broadcasters Assn. (see story page 42).

Mr. Jacobs’ car skidded off the snowy highway and he was knocked unconscious.

Taken to a hospital in Baker, he recovered consciousness Monday but remained in a serious condition with a series of bone fractures and internal injuries.

He appeared to be rallying, but died Tuesday from lung congestion.

Born in Alameda, Calif., he was a World War I veteran. He moved to Baker in 1944, having managed KFJH Klamath Falls, Ore.

Surviving are his widow; a daughter, Mrs. Barbara Lockwood; his mother, Mrs. Mary Jacobs; a grandson, and a brother, M. L. Jacobs.

His affiliations included the Elks, American Legion, Rotary, Delta Tau Delta fraternity and Sigma Delta Chi, journalism fraternity. He was a journalism graduate of Oregon U., class of 1922.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Friday in St. Stephens Episcopal Church, Baker. The remains were taken to Portland for cremation.

Mr. Jacobs formed Inland in 1944 with the late State Senator Marshall Cornett. Inland acquired KBKR Baker and KLBM La Grande, Ore., and two years later built KSRV Ontario, Ore.

NEW YORK STATIONS RETURN TO NORMAL

Stations report billings up during the strike, but are reluctant to discuss figures. Lack of availabilities cuts off "considerable" revenue.

RADIO and television stations in the New York area returned to normal news programming last Wednesday following the end of the strike of six major New York daily newspapers on Tuesday. Stations generally had doubled the amount of time normally allocated to news during the period the strike was in progress [B&T, Dec. 7, also see Russell survey story, page 37].

Although stations acknowledged billings had increased materially as a result of the strike, most were reluctant to release figures. It was reported by spokesmen at many of the stations that the scarcity of availabilities cut off "considerable" revenue that might have been obtained, but this condition varied from station to station. Many stations said some advertisers were continuing with radio or television beyond the strike period, but it was "too early" to state whether they could be converted to regular advertisers.

A check revealed there were fewer availabilities for television than for radio, although several tv stations opened at hours earlier than usual to provide fuller news reports.

Turn Aways

All radio and tv stations said they were forced to "turn away considerable business," and gave preference to advertisers who had used the media in the past.

Largest amount of business by stations reporting their billings was on WNBC and WNBTV (TV) New York. A spokesman said these two outlets grossed more than $35,000 each during the strike period.

Bill Crawford, WOR New York sales manager, estimated that station gained about $35,000 in extra billings as a result of the strike. He added the station sold a number of spot announcements to the newspapers shortly after the dispute was settled. A spokesman for WMCA New York said the station had added about $30,000 in the 11-day period.

WEEU-AM-TV HOST TO 40 TIMEBUYERS

APPROXIMATELY 40 timebuyers representing 27 major advertising agencies in New York and Philadelphia, and members of the trade press, were guests Dec. 2 of WEEU-AM-TV Reading, Pa., to inspect the facilities and tour the area.

The group was flown to Reading in a chartered plane and met at the airport by Thomas E. The guests inspected the WEEU-AM transmitters and the radio and television studios, which included a main TV studio 75 feet long and equipped with a 90-foot mobile trolley for lights and a dimmer control board. After lunch the group was taken through the city to view the reception of the stations from dealer's and department store showrooms. The tour wound up with a cocktail party and dinner at Berkshire Country Club. Hawley Quier, president of Hawley Broadcasting Co., and Dr. Harrison F. Flippin, vice president of Reading Eagle Co., joined the executives at the club.

WABD (TV) Holds Sales Meet With Avery-Knodel Staffers

AN all-day sales meeting was conducted in New York last Tuesday by DuMont's WABD (TV) New York for out-of-town members of Avery-Knodel, national advertising representatives for the station. It was said to be the first time a local TV station had conducted a sales clinic for such a group.

The clinic, which outlined present activities and future plans with respect to programming, sales and promotion, was directed by Norman Knight, general manager of WABD, and Lewis H. Avery, Avery-Knodel president.

Other members of the station staff in attendance were Donald H. McCannon, assistant manager of the broadcast division and director of DuMont's owned-and-operated stations, and Werner Michel, executive producer for WABD and DuMont.

Avery-Knodel executives who attended included: I. W. Knodel, vice president; Arthur H. Sherin Jr., television sales manager; B. P. Timothy, secretary and Midwest sales manager; David H. Sandberg, director, San Francisco office; Charles C. Coleman Jr., Atlanta; William L. Snyder, Chicago, and Samuel F. Jackson and Thomas J. White Jr., New York.

PLANS for an expected March debut of increased power at WDIA Memphis from 250 W to 50 KW are prepared at a conference of station executives (B+T, Dec. 7). L. to r.: David James, productions director; Not D. Williams, program consultant; Christine Spindel, continuity chief; Willa Monroe, advisor on women's programs, and Bill Anderson, chief announcer. WDIA claims when the power increase is put into effect, about March 1, the station will become the first 50-KW outlet to be broadcasting exclusively to the Negro market. The broadcast day will be 21 hours, it was explained. Bert Ferguson, manager and co-owner, noted, "We are determined to not only protect our lead, but actually to become by all odds the most complete, the biggest, the most successful broadcasting service for Negroes in the world." A new transmitter building is under construction.

$350,000 in WCBS Sales

COMPLETION of sales estimated at $350,000 to 12 sponsors of radio K40 in Reading, Pa., New York was announced last week by Henry Untermeyer, the station's sales manager. New advertisers are the Lincoln-Mercury Dealers of America, Borden Co., Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. and the Hebrew National Kosher Sausage Co.

Weed Sees Top Year For Spot TV in 1954

PREDICTION that 1954 will be the "greatest year in spot TV" was expressed last fortnight by Joseph J. Weed, president of Weed Television, station representative firm.

"Not only will there be more stations going on the air," Mr. Weed said, "but the huge number of transmitters launched in 1953 will be in full operating stride with proven market data and coverage effectiveness. Particular gains will be noted in uhc, which, in 1954, will have greater public acceptance in markets where set owners were slow to conversion."

Mr. Weed voiced the belief sponsorship of local programs by national advertisers will increase in 1954, pointing out that through local shows, sponsors can have "full program identification not now offered by divided and fractionalized network programs offering just segments and announcements to time buyers."

NBC’s TV Sells Radio

In Closed Circuit Showings

NBC Radio Spot Sales offices in Hollywood, San Francisco, Chicago and Cleveland last Tuesday played host to approximately 130 agency and sponsor representatives at an "Electronic Spot Buying Demonstration," a closed circuit telecast emanating from NBC in New York.

Designed to acquaint national spot advertisers with WNBC's "chain lightning" selling power, the 45-minute telecast was built around the theme, "Good Times for Listening to WNBC--in the Morning, at Lunch, at Dinner and at Bedtime," presented by a capsule version of the station’s 24-hour program operation.

In mid-telecast, the "chain lightning" promotion demonstrated the merchandising tie-ups with chain stores and their blue chip advertisers through community salutes, walking billboards, etc.

The video presentation was accompanied by brochures listing WNBC coverage and audience figures and resumes on station personalities and their program spot rates. Richard M. Pack, WNBC's director of network operations, was in charge of the telecast and Charles College arranged the closed circuit long lines and reception facilities.

NATIONAL NEGRO NETWORK FORMED

Leonard Evans, Reggie Schuebel and John Wyatt team up to head this new project. Initial programming is already lined up.

NEW radio network to be called National Negro Network, composed of approximately 40 basic stations, is being formed by Leonard Evans, Negro specialist and consultant of Chicago, who is president of the new network, and Reggie Schuebel and John M. Wyatt, who are, respectively, vice president-treasurer and executive vice president of the network.

Miss Schuebel and Mr. Wyatt are partners of Wyatt & Schuebel, New York radio-tv agency consultant organization. Mr. Evans is an account supervisor at Arthur Meyerhoff Agency, Chicago.

The board will be composed of Cab Calloway and several representatives of some of the stations on the network, which expects to reach approximately 12 million of the 15 million Negroes in America.

The network has lined up four quarter-hours of daytime serials. The programming will be inaugurated with the Ruby Valentine series, starring Juanita Hall, sponsored by Pet Milk and Philip Morris in the 40 markets, effective Jan. 18. Another quarter-hour serial will include one featuring Hilda Simms, noted negro actress, in a social worker adventure series. Other two quarter-hours of programming are still being worked out. Additional plans call for half-hourly weekly shows as well as service dealing with special events of interest to negroes during the year. Among the half-hour shows planned is one entitled It's a Mystery, Man! starring Cab Calloway.

"The network is intended to be basically one of entertainment," President Evans told B&T, "and its purpose is to create a market for advertisers to sell their products to a specific group."

This is the first new development in the past...
WHATEVER factors determine the type, height and location of your TV Antenna Tower, you can depend on Blaw-Knox to give you more for your money. Does the job call for a self-supporting structure atop a mid-town building or a sky-scrapping guyed tower out in the open? Do you prefer a square design or triangular? Blaw-Knox builds them all—and every one is backed by more than four decades of experience in this field. If you are anticipating a TV license, write or phone today for capable engineering assistance with your plans.
10 years in radio in its search for new revenue, he maintained, asserting that the network will give national advertisers a high-quality coordinated network campaign with fine programming.

This list of stations signed with the network will be announced shortly, spokesmen said.

Northeast TV Network Begins

NORTHEAST Television Network will begin operations today (Monday), when three Massachusetts uhf tv stations—WWOR-TV Worcester, WHYN-TV Springfield-Holyoke and WTAO-TV Cambridge—inaugurate an off-the-air relay exchange of programs, it was announced last week. Program exchange idea, developed by Ansul Griswold, vice president and general manager, WWOR-TV; Charles deRose, general manager, WHYN-TV, and Frank Lyman, president, WTAO-TV, envisages ultimate expansion to include stations in all parts of New England and perhaps extending into New York and the Mid-Atlantic States.

ABC-TV to Rebuild Studio

AT AN ESTIMATED cost of more than $100,000, Studio E, ABC Television Center, Hollywood, is being refurbished completely. The theatre set, feature of Studio E since the early days of talkies when Warner Bros. occupied the lot, will be dismantled and the building stripped to the walls. It will be rebuilt into a modern tv studio with doubled audience seating for live origination programs. The first network show slated for the new studio after completion sometime in January will be Peter Potter Show, Sunday: 9:30-10:30 p.m. PST.

NBC-TV READIES ITS ‘PANORAMIC COORDINATION’

ABOUT the middle of January something new will be added to NBC's tv operations—"Panoramic Coordination"—which Leonard Hole, NBC director of production, described as an operating technique that will make television as fast, as flexible, and as adaptable as radio.

This new technique, Mr. Hole said, is made possible by the design of a new studio, 5H, on the fifth floor of the RCA Bldg., New York, which when completed, at a cost of about $750,000, will combine "the facilities of the most modern film studio with the ability to assemble and coordinate multiple origination from as many as ten outside sources at the same time."

Today, Mr. Hole explained, most remote tv pickups have to be made blind, without advance monitoring. The new setup will provide for control room viewing of "more remote tv pickup points than NBC now has equipment to cover," he said. Today, splitting sight and sound signals of a video program originating in an NBC New York studio is a time-consuming job. With the new facilities provided by 5H, it can be done instantaneously.

The new 5H makes that kind of operation completely feasible, as it is not now, Mr. Hole said. The new studio's "true significance," he said, is two-fold: "It makes possible a truly professional handling of operations which in many cases are performed today with difficulties, delays and uncertainty and it will widen the horizons of possible tv programming, making it a practical reality of program concepts which in the past have been only dream."

that by appealing to all types of advertisers, small as well as large, the broadcast media can attract a greater proportion of the total.

By coincidence Mr. Weaver’s expression of views on the advantages of offering participations and shorter time segments came on the eve of Friday’s scheduled meeting between a committee of NBC-TV affiliates and top NBC executives to discuss this very question.

Mr. Weaver conceded affiliates generally do not take too quickly to changes such as the shorter-segment sales plans, but he maintained that when they understand the purpose and realize that affiliates stand to make money as a result, then they recognize the advantages.

On the heels of Mr. Weaver’s elevation to the presidency—from his old post as vice chairman of the board and head of tv programs—and with the simultaneous promotion of Robert W. Sarnoff from vice president in charge of the Film Division to executive vice president of NBC, came a series of personnel changes.

Thomas McAvity, who has been in charge of entertainment programs, was placed in charge of tv network programs. He will report to Executive Vice President Sarnoff, while the following will report to Mr. McAvity: Davidson Taylor, director of public affairs, and Gustav B. Margraf, vice president for talent.

Carl M. Stanton, director of the Film Division, was placed in charge of that division, succeeding Mr. Sarnoff, and Edgar G. (Ted) Sisson was named associate director (see story page 36).

Frederick W. Wile Jr., vice president in charge of production, was assigned to Hollywood, effective Jan. 1, in the role of vice president in charge of tv network programs division, West Coast. Mr. Wile will report administratively to John K. West, NBC vice president for the Pacific Division, and report functionally to Mr. McAvity.

Earl Rettig, director of finance and operations, Hollywood, meanwhile was assigned to New York headquarters to take charge of production and business affairs for tv network programs, also effective Jan. 1. He will report to Mr. McAvity, while Leonard Hole, director of production, and William V. Sargent, division business manager, also will report to Mr. McAvity.

Executive Vice President Sarnoff meanwhile named Alfred K. Stern as his assistant. He has been assistant to Mr. Sarnoff for several months.

Color Set Buying Delay Predicted by Dr. DuMont

FOR the next year and possibly for the next two years, color tv sets will be used mainly by dealers as floor samples and by people with professional interests in color and only a few will go into the homes of the general public, Dr. Allen B. DuMont, president, Allen B. DuMont Labs, has pointed out in a letter to distributors of DuMont sets.

"If 50,000 color sets are made available in 1954, at least 30,000 of the nation's 55,000 dealers will need one each as a floor sample," he said. "Most of the remaining 20,000 receivers will be required by broadcasters, advertisers and other key people in the sales and service trade for special purposes, leaving only a few hundred, if any, for sales among today's 28 million owners of black-and-white receivers. With an increase in production in 1955, an additional limited number of people may become owners of color sets. By 1956, when the price of color sets begins to come down, a few hundred thousand more people may wish to buy color television."

In the interim, Dr. DuMont said, color can "build a tremendous amount of traffic" for set dealers, who will want monochrome sets at prices they can afford, $199 to $399, so DuMont is devoting 97% of its sets for early 1954 to open-faced consoles and table models. Dr. DuMont said that his company proposes to concentrate on large picture color receivers when such tri-color tubes are available. Present tube, giving a 125-in. picture, will cost $300 retail, he said.

BUILT-IN television receivers in the mobile homes (trailers) manufactured by the Pacemaker Trailer Co. of Elkton, Ind., account for more than 50% of Pacemaker sales, according to J. F. White, manager of contract sales for CBS-Columbia, tv manufacturing division of CBS. The tv receivers in Pacemaker units are provided by CBS-Columbia. Mr. White noted that six out of every ten mobile homes in the U. S. have tv receivers, but added that the company attended the 17th annual convention B. of the Mobile Home Mfrs. Assn. in Cleveland several weeks ago that not one out of the same ten had video receivers installed by the coach manufacturer. Mr. White said many coach manufacturers indicated built-in tv sets will become standard next year.

Interference Potential Grows Serious—Sterling

POTENTIAL seriousness of medical diathermy machinery interference to the growing television and safety of life radio services was pointed out Nov. 30 by FCC Commr. George E. Sterling at a meeting attended by representatives of the diathermy industry and the medical field.

Consensus of the session, held at the Commission and called to clarify the FCC's intention to enforce its rules forbidding such interference, was that a government-industry education program is needed to inform users of diathermy units of the problem and their responsibility. Spekeakers for the American Medical Assn. and Electro-Medical Mfrs. Assn. pledged cooperation with FCC in this project.

Part 18 of FCC's rules requires the medical equipment to meet certain radiation standards and provides frequency bands for their operation. Diathermy equipment made before July 1, 1947, was exempted until last June 30 from meeting these restrictions, but now must comply. Equipment made since 1947 has been type-approved by the Commission.

Comm. Sterling pointed out that much of this older equipment still is in use and unknowingly may be causing damaging interference to licensed services, but the Commission does not have the manpower to seek out all these units. He said FCC's enforcement drive will continue, but expressed hope that the diathermy industry and the medical profession would voluntarily help meet the problem.

Scott Radio Labs Plans $1,485 Color Video Set

COLOR receiver priced at $1,485 retail, f.o.b. Plymouth, Ind., was announced last week by John Meck, president of Scott Radio Labs Inc., Chicago. The set, utilizing a 14-in. tri-color kinescope, giving a 12-in. picture, will contain 44 other tubes, rectifiers and crystal diodes, Mr. Meck said. It will weigh 400 lbs. Sometime during the first six months of production, to start as soon as tri-color tubes are available, the price is expected to be reduced to $1,285, Mr. Meck estimated. The set has been designed under RCA patents and be allocated to dealers for display purposes for the first six months.

Following FCC approval of the compatible National Television System Committee standards, Mr. Meck figured that production of color receivers will amount to 0.5% of present black-and-white manufacture at the end of three months, 5% at the end of six months and less than 25% at the end of the first year. Mr. Meck also said he expects a yearly color market of 20% of existing black-and-white receivers about three years after the FCC approves the NTSC standards.

Jerrod Reports Success In Community Tv Test

NO "perceptible difference" between the re-radiated signal and that received from the television station was found during last month's test of satellite equipment at Clayton, Md., by Jerrod Electronics Corp., Philadelphia, a report of the tests has indicated.

Jerrod tested the 5-kw satellite before shipping it to the Azcarraga interests in Mexico for use with an existing television station there [WBT, Nov. 16]. The equipment picked up the broadcast signal of WTOP-TV Washington (ch. 9) and retransmitted it on ch. 3.

The equipment was connected to separate yagi antennas with 10-dB gain, George Petchel, engineer in charge of the test, reported. Yagis were set at 20 ft. and 15 ft. above the ground. The ch. 9 receiving antenna was located six ft. below the ch. 3 antenna, and oriented 180 degrees from it.

Mr. Pechtel reported a 20-db loss in signal strength between 2.25 miles and 5.1 miles from the transmitting site, but since the equipment is to be used on a mountain top, free space calculations can be relied on, he pointed out.

Raytheon Shows Color Sets

RAYTHEON Mfg. Co. will demonstrate four color tv receivers in Los Angeles Jan. 1 during colorcasts of the Pasadena Tournament of Roses parade. Demonstration will be for Southern California dealers and will be handled by Raytheon's distributor, James Kerwin Co.

KTLA

... ONLY FACTS

- For over six years KTLA has been acknowledged as the leading independent television station in Los Angeles. In the face of many special rating interpretations, a moment's review of the ratings will prove it to you again. For example: both ARB and HOOPER in October and again in November show that KTLA ranks above all other independent stations more than 56% of its class A time.

- ... BUT RATINGS ARE NOT THE ONLY MEASURE OF LEADERSHIP!

  KTLA leads in public acceptance and has won more awards than any other TV station in L. A.
  KTLA leads in top local personalities built to give that personal appeal which means more sales for you.
  KTLA leads in protecting its audience from false advertising and has never allowed "switch" advertisers.
  KTLA leads in strict application of NARTB standards to all of its time classes to insure audience loyalty.
  KTLA leads in commercial effectiveness because we never load up with those triple and quadruple spots which are sure death to sales.

- When you check all the facts, you, too, will agree that KTLA is truly the Leading Independent Television station in Los Angeles.

FORMER Prussian officer Frank Wisbar is now snapping to the rigorous discipline of tv filming as producer-director of NBC-TV Fireside Theater. He has completed the 44th film in this pioneer Procter & Gamble series.

Born in Lithuania Dec. 9, 1902, he ultimately centered on the technical production of motion pictures in Germany. Up through the ranks from cutter to director, he became the triple-threat combination of producer-director-writer. As such, he turned out many notable films, several of which are today in the Museum of Modern Art.

In 1936 Mr. Wisbar came under strict surveillance of the Nazis, because he was engaged in the "suspect" activity of producing films on an international, rather than a national, basis. On Nov. 9, 1938, with only the clothes on his back and carrying the film medals bestowed by various countries, he headed for Holland. While exchanging medals for money, he discovered a "gold" one, presented by Mussolini, was pure brass.

Arriving at Ellis Island with 60 cents and no knowledge of English, he was eventually identified by M-G-M's European sales department and bailed out the day before Thanksgiving. His film background led him logically to Hollywood, where the spy-conscious movie capital viewed him with suspicion. The War Dept., though, found a place for him and his advanced knowledge of gliders, his forte when a military man.

From the end of World War II to 1948, he again made films. But, instead of "art" he turned out horror pictures for Republic and Monogram. He credits this period of "Strangler of the Swamp," "Devil Bat's Daughter" and others currently playing the tv circuit, as a most important contribution to his training. He learned a "shoe-string" budget discipline.

The main topic of discussion by the end of 1948 was tv. Mr. Wisbar mortgaged his home to make a pilot film. The result, "Time Bomb," was inserted in Procter & Gamble's then live weekly half-hour Fireside Theatre.

He was signed to film the program in 1949. Business-like, he pushed the button for writers. After telling the few who showed up that he could only pay $45 for a complete script, he ended up writing the first 26 himself. When no agent would let his actors demean themselves in such a lowly medium, theundaunted Mr. Wisbar sent his crew to comb the streets for unknown talent, hungry enough to ignore the accompanying stigma.

Four years later he now derives no little pleasure from the knowledge that this shaky start has evolved into an industry which annually pours millions into Hollywood and which can command the services of top talent.

"For people who are mentally alive, tv film is the greatest challenge," he says. "You are forced into clear thinking with no time to dilly-dally. The challenge of having to come up with a different half-hour film every Tuesday night—one with a little meaning and a great deal of entertainment—is rewarding. While a top motion picture might be seen by 10 million people, we create for an audience of between 25 and 30 million each week."

A tireless worker, he is a perfectionist with a seemingly unhurried manner, who lives on Cokes during shooting and puts in an 18-hour work day. With only the cutting, editing, dubbing, etc. to be completed on the current season's series before doing the writing and paper work for next season's schedule of 44 films which goes before the cameras in March, he was recently contracted by Bing Crosby Enterprises to produce and direct six half-hour films for inclusion in General Electric's CBS-TV GE Theatre.

He and his wife, Dolores, whom he terms his "right-hand," can be found raising cattle, hogs and sheep on their ranch in northern California, when not in Los Angeles. Daughters, Maria, 19, and Anna, 17, attend Mills College in Oakland, Calif.
Not so long ago television film jobs in the movie capital attracted only those motion picture people who were starving. Now it's different. Some of the biggest names in Hollywood are making films for tv, and they like it.

Tv Film Has Joined the Hollywood Elite

By Majorie Thomas

WITHIN the past three years Hollywood television film makers have risen from the social status of an impoverished typhus carrier to undeniable respectability, a word which in that community implies the possession of a kidney-shaped swimming pool and a view of Catalina Island on smogless days.

If the tv film industry is not Hollywood's new aristocracy, it at least is knocking at the door. Today the tv film producer, director, actor or writer is solicitously seated at the choicest tables of Romanoff's or Chasen's. It was only recently that if he admitted to a connection with television, he risked ejection from all but the meanest deadfalls of Gower Gulch.

Money is the reason for this breathless transformation; there is now more of it in television film and less in motion pictures.

Tv films are no longer the province of the speculator with an idea and little else who scraped together enough for a pilot film on the outside chance a sponsor would buy it and finance a series. Corporations have replaced the man with the office in his hat, and with their sounder financier and do pay attractive salaries.

Coincident with the development of tv film has been a contraction of theatrical motion picture production. Actors, writers, technicians and production executives who might have permanently snubbed tv if the movie business had held up are now working—and admitting it—in television. What is more, they have accepted limited budgets, relentless deadlines and other limitations as challenges to their creative ingenuity.

Consider statistics obtained in recent surveys by Hollywood unions and guilds:

Of the 140 active members in the Society of Motion Picture Art Directors, 40 are in video, according to executive secretary Norman Loewenstein.

Screen Writers Guild credits tv film with employing more than 400 of its 800 active and 400 associate members. Of the working group, 125 are steadily employed or drawing the bulk of their earnings from tv alone.

American Cinema Editors reports 28% of its 173 members are working in tv, with the larger video companies employing from two to eight editors under a supervising editor. Open to not just anyone, A.C.E. stipulates that members must be employed in film editing for at least eight years and receive credit on at least 65 half-hour films, in addition to meeting the A.C.E. standards.

Still another survey shows that tv film is employing more than 50% of Hollywood's assistant directors; 40% of its directors; 40% of its film editors, cameramen and sound technicians; one-third of its established screen writers; more than 50% of its Class A actors; approximately 35% of the members of IATSE's 18 film locals.

Movie Curtailment

A motion picture production check on the curtailing of activity reveals 65 producers, 62 directors and 35 writers under contract this year, as opposed to the 117 producers, 96 directors and 134 writers under contract last year.

To illustrate how television film has absorbed talent from the movies, B*T checked several important Hollywood tv production companies.

At Sovereign Productions, Stuart Reynolds, president, believes in a "star" policy, meaning he uses many an actor and actress whose name was built up in movies. "Stars' names are sort of entertainment trademarks through which the public evaluates much of video's offering," Mr. Reynolds says.

As executive producer of CBS-TV General Electric Theatre, Your Jewelers Showcase and some of the ABC-TV Cavalcade of America films, he adds, "Of course, the story is important. But, a starring name is a saleable commodity that means certain things to the potential viewer. For one thing, the customer assumes consciously or subconsciously that starring names of sufficient heft insure good stories."

With this in mind he is signing such prominent players as Ruth Hussey, Zasu Pitts, William Lundigan, Claire Trevor, Edward Arnold, Dennis Morgan and Peter Lawford.

Additionally believing that the forgotten men are the directors, he has combed the major studios to come up with Felix Feist, associated with recently released "Donovan's Brain"; Alfred E. Green, "Disraeli" and "Jolson Story" among his movies from 1912 on; Maxwell Shane, 20th Century-Fox.

Joseph Sistrom, veteran producer who last did "Botany Bay" for Paramount, is now serving the Sovereign banner.

Jack Gross and Phil Kranser, veteran motion picture producers unique in that they own their tv production company, distribution outfit and studios, have turned to the movie technicians who can adapt themselves to the video time element.

In differentiating between producing for the two media, Mr. Gross stresses the fact that tv films must be of "A" quality but done under conditions somewhat similar to those of the old "B" and "C" movies.

Many of their crew members are going to schools to learn the variations of tv techniques which, Mr. Gross believes, will make them so much more valuable to the motion picture industry, when it ultimately goes into tv film production.

In addition to CBS-TV Big Town, four CBS-TV Lux Video Theatre films and the newly-started Lone Wolf series, which brings actor Louis Hayward in on a movie-like partnership basis and is utilizing full crew domestic location, the firm is doing outside packages. Recently completed for inclusion on CBS-TV Omnibus are three half-hour films based on the John Steinbeck novel, "Pastures of Heaven." Making his TV film debut as director is Harry Horner, Academy Award winning art director for "The Heiress."

On the Cross-Krasne roster of directors are Erie Kenton, "House of Frankenstein" and "House of Dracula"; E. A. DuPont, noted for the Emil Jannings starrer, "Variety"; Peter Godfrey, formerly with Gaumont-British and director of "Two Mrs. Carrolls" and "Forever and a Day."

Desilu Productions Inc. has practically taken over Motion Picture Center with four large stages, three of which are devoted exclusively to filming in front of an audience. The firm has developed into a $6 million property within the past two years, according to Martin Leeds, former CBS-TV director of business affairs and now Desilu executive vice president in charge of production. In addition to its own packages, CBS-TV's Love Lucy and Our Miss Brooks, the firm films outside packages, bringing the total output this year to 2 1/2 hours of TV film weekly. This is more than twice the amount turned out by any major studio.

Run as a successful money-making proposition with the profits poured back into the development of better TV techniques, Desilu maintains a top technical staff on a yearly basis. With this foundation, Mr. Leeds declares they can produce better quality films more cheaply, but cautions "you need to know if the ideas stand a chance of being sold and to whom."

Brooks and Lucy share cinematographer Karl Freund, Academy Award winner for "The Good Earth," and supervising art director Ralph Berger, whose RKO features include "Miracle of the Bells" and "Boy with Green Hair."

Filmed under the D.P.I. banner for Merterio Productions, the ABC-TV Make Room for Daddy has producer Lou Edelman, "The Jazz Singer"; Sheldon Leonard, motion picture actor turned TV film director; Robert de Grasse, RKO cameraman.

Under the same setup, for B & R Enterprises' ABC-TV Where's Raymond, the producer is Jerry Bresler, twice Academy Award winner for two-reelers, "Heavenly Music" and "Stairway to Light," and the director is Sidney Lanfield, whose movie credits include "Lemon Drop Kid" and "Skirts Ahoy."

NBC-TV Letter to Loreto, for Lewistor Enterprises, captured director Robert Florey, "God Is My Co-Pilot" and numerous others, here and abroad, and cinematographer Norbert Brodine, "The Sea Hawk" and "House on 92nd Street."

Additionally, Desilu has expanded its services to include TV commercials.

Meridian's Schedule

Now shooting 26 weeks out of the year, Meridian Pictures hopes to augment its CBS-TV Schlitz Playhouse of Stars with a non-conflicting situation comedy series. In this way, according to associate producer Bill Self, Meridian's potential output would be realized. A former movie actor who followed director Howard Hawks' advice to hold out for the very best, Mr. Self holds the theory that in TV film each individual makes more of a contribution to the finished product as opposed to theatrical film. Because of the time element, his starting premise is that each man knows his job. The cutter puts the film together his way; the cameraman shoots the scenes he knows will be good; the wardrobe department handles the costuming.

Tackling the speeded up film editing of tv is George Amy, supervising editor, Academy Award nominee seven times and Oscar winner for "Yankee Doodle Dandy" and "Air Force." Russ Harlan, Oscar nominee for "Red River" and "The Big Sky," is Meridian's cinematographer.

Meridian has opened the door to new directors and is fast developing its own. Included in the new group are Roy Kellino, former cameraman in England; Anthony Jowett, 20th Century-Fox dialogue director; Arnold Laven, script clerk; Arnold Ganzar, Paramount unit director.

Revue Productions, with MCA vice president Alan Miller in charge, started off CBS-TV Revlon Mirror with the star-spangled name of Joan Crawford. While holding one major star, Revue operates on the premise that directors grow with TV in developing their own techniques and does not seek motion picture directors who must adapt themselves. Richard Irving, with Revue since its inception, has a knowledge of film making, but was a RKO dialogue director. Robert Finkel came out of live TV and is directing ABC-TV Pride of the Family. Charles Barion, formerly associated with CBS Radio Amos 'n Andy, is directing CBS-TV Meet Mr. McNutley. Thus, Revue follows its theory that TV film finds its own.

Included in Revue's 3 1/2 hours of TV film, shot weekly at Republic Studios, are Kit Carson, City Detective, Cheyenne Theatre and ABC-TV Pepsi-Cola Playhouse.

Movie actress Arlene Dahl, who reportedly received the highest salary paid a performer for TV film, did the Pepsi-Cola commercials filmed by United World Films. No less a name than John Alton, Academy Award winning cinematographer for "An American in Paris," recorded her one woman high fashion display.

Producer John Loveton is providing a major topic of film conversation these days...
The Great Hitch-Hike

The acquiescence of some networks to Joseph R. McCarthy's demand for time to answer what he calls an 'unfair' attack on his broadcasting personality, is an attack on broadcasting's reputation for courage and hardheadedness.

Whatever else may be said of Mr. Truman's performance, it is no personal criticism of the senator.

The fact that Mr. Truman referred to 'McCarthyism,' plain disclaimer of personal reference to the senator, entitle Mr. McCarthy to some $300,000 worth of broadcasting time to get into an act which was quite completely cast without an audience.

It is hard to avoid the conclusion that Mr. McCarthy is demanding out of pure opportunistic motives. Until Mr. Truman spoke the magic word, "McCarthyism," which the senator was able to translate as meaning "Open Sesame" to the networks, Mr. McCarthy was not even in the wings. He could get back on stage in his favorite role of exposing Communists only by the unnecessary gift of a national radio-television audience.

The principles of fair play required the networks to present a legitimate answer to Mr. Truman's free-wheeling remarks. The answer was presented by both Mr. Brownell and Mr. McCarthy at the thoroughly covered senator committee hearing. Mr. McCarthy into the act is likely to be a necessity because the networks are pushovers for any aggressive politician.

In this connection Broadcasting & Telecasting, the conservative trade publication, notes in its current issue that the action of the three networks in dealing with Senator McCarthy 'is likely to imply that some broadcasters are pushovers for any aggressive politician.' That is a frightening prospect."—Jack Gould.

"... Broadcasting & Telecasting Magazine, in a recent editorial, called the McCarthy broadcasts an 'unnecessary gift' of $300,000 worth of broadcasting time' because Mr. Truman referred to McCarthyism with a plain disclaimer of personal reference to the Senator. ..."

"... Networks and radio stations made themselves 'pushovers for any aggressive politician' for allowing Senator Joseph McCarthy to make his half-hour speech last night, Joseph Taishoff, editor of Broadcasting & Telecasting, says Sol Taishoff, editor of Telecasting. ... In an editorial entitled, 'The Great Hitch-Hike.'"
For more than 20 years one of broadcasting's wisest and ablest counselors has been Sol Taishoff, editor and publisher of the weekly magazine Broadcasting-Telecasting. In yesterday's issue, Broadcasting-Telecasting carried an editorial under the headline, 'The Great Hitch-Hike,' saying: (Editorial was quoted in full.)

The power of the words that appear in the pages of BROADCASTING TELECASTING is proven once again by these comments which ran a few days ago in leading newspapers from coast to coast.

It's just another instance of the attention and respect that BROADCASTING TELECASTING's on-the-spot, observant and discerning news reporting and interpretation attract week in and week out throughout the year.

Broadcasting-Telecasting Magazine feels that the networks' acquiescence to Senator McCarthy's time demands 'did not add to broadcasting's reputation for courageous judgment.' It notes in an editorial that Mr. Truman has been answered already as demanded by the principles of fair play. 'To go beyond that and let Mr. McCarthy into the act,' the magazine concludes, 'is likely to imply that some broadcasters are push-overs for any aggressive politician.'

Sol Taishoff, editor of that weekly chronicler of radio-television affairs, Broadcasting-Telecasting Magazine, told the networks that by giving in to McCarthy they had become 'push-overs for any aggressive politician.' Taishoff, who long has been a big influence in the broadcasting world, wrote an editorial entitled, 'The Great Hitch-Hike.' (Editorial was quoted in full.)

New York Post

... It serves notice, in the words of the radio and TV trade journal Broadcasting, that 'broadcasters are push-overs for any aggressive politician.' -- an editorial.

... McCarthy ... scored what Broadcasting Magazine calls 'The Great Hitch-Hike'. Broadcasting magazine castigated the networks for their timidity in yielding to McCarthy's opportunistic motives. -- Doris Flennon. with his manipulation of the ghosts on CBS-TV Topper. To achieve one of the industry's most closely guarded secrets, he has enlisted the services of Herb Stewart, production manager who has been with most of the majors. Gert Anderson from Columbia handles the camera and Claude Williams executes the mechanical gags.

For CBS-TV Four Star Playhouse, producer Don Sharpe has enticed regular appearances out of film luminaries Charles Boyer, Ronald Colman, Dick Powell and David Niven. Academy Award winner Joan Fontaine reportedly drew $7500 for emoting in a recent film in the series. Truly gone are the days when an actor was signed on speculation or for SAG minimum.

With tv absorbing writers so rapidly, Jack Chertok maintains a writing staff, believing it "is easier to have a man on the lot who understands the characters about whom he is writing." Formerly with M-G-M, Mr. Chertok has borrowed from his alma mater for CBS-TV Private Secretary and some of the ABC-TV Cavalcade of America films. Head cameraman is Robert Pittack and sound man is Bob Lee, whose last feature was "Quo Vadis." A Howard Hawks project, Christopher Nyby directs Secretary and Austrian-born, former UFA writer-director, William Thiele directs Cavalcade. Chas Cobb, a Walt Disney product, is in charge of the Chertok-produced commercials.

Film footage, exceeding that of any major studio by at least three to one, is being turned out annually at Hal Roach Studios.

Under his ABC-TV contract, Mr. Roach Jr. has produced pilot films for four proposed series: White Collar Girl, starring Laraine Day; Guns of Destiny, Paul Cavanaugh; Tales of a Wayward Inn, Brian Aherne; Passport to Adventure, Cesar Romero.

Additionally, he is producing Duffy's Tavern for MPTV and Life of Riley for NBC-TV. In conjunction with Roland Reed Productions, this film vehicle, still in his '30's, is doing ABC-TV Trouble with Father and CBS-TV My Little Margie. CBS-TV Racket Squad is co-produced with Carroll Case.

One reason for tv film's progress, according to him, is the growing stature of the industry which enables a producer to "talk turkey" with practically any name in show business. A great selling point, he believes, is the fact that re-runs of tv films are often attracting larger audiences than the original showings. This, in turn, makes residual rights appeal to almost any talent.

Screen Gems Inc., as Columbia Pictures' tv film subsidiary, has the distinct advantage of drawing from that major's contract and staff list in addition to using the studio facilities. NBC-TV Ford Theatre has seen the video film debut of Columbia contract actors Audrey Totter, John Derek and Phillip Carey. Such name actresses as Ida Lupino, Shelley Winters, Paulette Goddard and Merle Oberon have appeared in this high-priced anthology series, costumed under the supervision of Jean Louis, made up by Clay Campbell and coiffured by Helen Hunt, all under contract to Columbia.

Screen Gems' Resources

Ross Bellah, staff art director, designs the sets and is able to draw from any set ever used by the studio. With two sound stages used exclusively for video, production executive Fred Briskin has the added advantage of 12 more in Hollywood and three at Columbia Ranch. The Ranch maintains standing sets, including a New York street, Western town and huge water tank where much of the recent feature, "Caine Mutiny," was filmed.

With movie employment of writers at an all-time low, Screen Gems currently has 12 writing on assignment. Included are such names as Frederick Road Brennan, Karen De Wolf, Gwen and John Bagni, Erna Lazarus and ex-SWG presidents, Emmet Lavery and Mary McCall Jr.

Responding to the limitations imposed by video are such cinematographers as Charles Lawton and Burnett Guffey, whose efforts for Columbia were "Miss Sadie Thompson" and "From Here to Eternity," respectively. Prohibitive salaries, commanded by top motion picture directors, have forced tv in some respects to develop its own. Under contract to Screen Gems are Jimmy Neilson, a former New York stage manager for Guthrie McClintic and then Columbia dialogue director, and Ted Post, a director of five New York tv who came to Hollywood to enter tv film. Other directors, used on assignment, are Frederick Stepani, formerly M-G-M; Phil Karlson, now directing Columbia's "The Woodhawks"; Arnold Laven, from the subsidiary to a Columbia contract for "The Killer Wore a Badge"; Richard Quine, also associated with Mickey Rooney in the actor's current movie efforts.

How One Film Company Makes a Sales Force Pay

By John Osbon

IS IT time for bearish retrenchment or for bullish expansion in the film syndication field?

The reports out of New York and Hollywood in recent weeks paint a confusing picture. There has been a noticeable trend toward cutbacks in some syndication activity, and even toward consolidation or purchase of some companies.

Out at Kling Studios in Chicago, its executives think they see the handwriting on the wall: Some firms are selling out, others are dropping valuable properties, and still others are cutting back actual production. One reason: Cost of maintaining an adequate sales force in the field.

To executives at Kling Studios, which maintains studios and offices in Chicago and Hollywood—and sales branches elsewhere—the reason is not surprising. Frederic A. Niles, vice president in charge of its television picture division, sums it up this way: "The cost of keeping a sales force on the road is so tremendously high these days—despite the valuable syndicated packages offered—that many firms are having to dig, and unless a salesman can really produce with a volume of syndication sales, they face a delicate financial position."

Two Dozen Salesmen

Kling itself maintains a force in excess of two dozen salesmen, all of whom can fall back on a variety of other services if they fail to sell its syndicated programs.

Kling Studios is convinced that it has the right approach to the high costs of salesmen on the road—arm them with a number of services which can either be sold as integrated packages or separately. "A sales force should pay its own way" is its credo, and evidently it's paying off.

Kling maintains some 14 salesmen operating out of Chicago, three out of Hollywood, three out of Seattle, two out of San Francisco, and one out of cities like Detroit and St. Louis. A Kling salesman, functioning against the backdrop of this philosophy, goes into the field fully briefed on all services Kling has to offer, as well as with samples of its syndicated programs and commercials, industrial films, manuals, brochures, etc.

If it's the type of market where new TV stations are about to take the air, or where independent stations are operating with major dependency on film, a Kling salesman will call on the local telescaper with an assortment of packages stressing kitchen, children, sports and other formats. He also will arrange for audition prints if requested.

If it's a fairly large city where there's a heavy concentration of advertisers and where agencies operate on a large scale, he will establish liaison with agency timebuyers and account executives. They will discuss the media and advertising plans of the particular client in terms of his needs and any campaigns he may have in mind.

The salesman passes on to the agency executive direct contacts at Kling with respect to the division that handles one of the required services.

An advertiser, in order, for instance, as did Admiral Corp. this summer, a series of aids including industrial training films, manuals and assorted short spot commercials. Kling is set up to handle each of these services in its mushrooming departments.

Unlike other studios, Kling does not distribute or syndicate everything it produces (like the Old American Barn Dance, which until recently had been handled by United Television Programs). And yet, heavier emphasis will be placed on syndicated activities as the future unfolds. In doing so, its executives point out that Kling does not consider itself a competitor with firms like Ziv (which syndicates mostly dramatic programs). Furthermore, Kling has a variety of services to offer the advertiser, whether it be institutional commercials or industrial films.

Kling turns out a number of special film shows and packages which are available to new tv stations at special rates, under the so-called station starter plan, with certain modifications.

Its most prominent syndications are Uncle Mistletoe, a series of 26 15-minute programs for Christmas use. The cost may be as low as $25 per unit, with a 10% discount for a 26-unit contract. Others are: Old American Barn Dance, 26 30-minute shows as low as $40 per unit; Boxing from Rainbow, 26 30-minute programs with rental as low as $35 per unit; Paradox, 26 three-minute episodes, and File Facts, 10 three-minute shows, at $10 per unit. These prices were quoted this past summer.

Its most successful have been Boxing from Rainbo, Uncle Mistletoe, and Old American Barn Dance, some of which have enjoyed repeat runs in many markets. Just recently Kling started shooting on The Referee, a series of 52 half-hour sports shows, with 13 up for immediate scheduling, and it also has completed Bert & Elmer. Still another package is Music With the Hornel Girls.

Kling commercials, now well established for syndication, can be institutional, too, as attested by an impressive group list that includes potato chip processors, electric light and power companies, appliances, beer, ice cream, banking and bakeries. All these are designed for the firm's syndication plan.

Kling maintains offices in New York and Detroit, as well as Hollywood and Chicago, and representatives in San Francisco, Seattle and St. Louis. It also maintains contacts in Louisville, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Pittsburgh and other cities.

An example of the syndication plan is a series of 52 half-hour kitchen shows now being produced by Kling for the television division of the Electrical Information Publications in Madison, Wis., with primary emphasis on individual stations by electric light and power companies or electrical appliance firms.

Purpose of the syndicated commercials plan, according to Mr. Niles, is to make it possible for the television advertiser with a limited budget to "get the same high quality in creation and production in his commercials as the big advertiser."

Kling's main Chicago studios are located at 601 N. Fairbanks Court, on the city's near north side, just across from the celebrated Chez Paree. This modern structure houses everything that is peculiar to the Kling operation—art departments, photography, public relations, film shootings, production of technical manuals and a host of other pursuits.

New Quarters Soon

Newer quarters on Washington Blvd.—the building formerly was a roller-skating armory—will be put to beaverish use. Mr. Niles envisions some commitments for the filming of daily homemaking or dramatic ("soap opera") programs, which fall within the range of the new, out-of-the-way, small city station operator who can't afford the elaborate presentations offered by the networks. The building will be utilized also for smaller tv productions and to house the art departments. Occupancy is slated for Dec. 15.

Kling Studios Inc. is headed up by Robert Lurieberg, as president, who attributes the expansion to the "rapid growth of the use of films in television and the unprecedented amount of industrial, public relations and sales training films Kling has been producing."

Kling's operations actually antedated television by over 10 years. Kling cut its teeth in photography and other pursuits.

Today, with enlarged production facilities in Chicago and Hollywood and mushrooming sales offices elsewhere, and between 700 and 1,000 accounts, the company is flexing its competitive biceps to the point where television accounts for perhaps 35% or 40% of all its revenue (which is in the millions), thanks to an aggressive and expanding sales force.

A Landmark in Radio Research

PROBABLY no more significant research has been done in the radio field in recent years than the Alfred Politz study commissioned by the 11 radio stations represented by the P. O. Donaldson Co.

Based on 4,985 personal interviews in a probability sample representing the 61,600,000 people 15 years old and over living at the time in TV areas, the Politz study produced overwhelming evidence of the pervasiveness of radio and people's reliance upon it.

A preliminary report of the results was issued last summer and presented in detail in Broadcasting, July 27. The complete report is now contained in a comprehensive booklet, "The Importance of Radio in Television Areas Today," which is being given wide distribution throughout the advertising field. What the Politz project set out to do was to find out the reasons that people have radio and their attitudes toward it. How well the Politz organization succeeded is indicated by the observations appearing below. This article is the text of comments by an impartial authority, Alfred Stanford, a veteran and respected advertising man.

The comments appear in the booklet. Mr. Stanford was asked by the sponsors of the survey to write his appraisal because of his experience in various media. He was one of the founders of Compton Advertising Agency, was later director of the Bureau of Advertising of the American Newspaper Publishers Assn., became vice president and advertising director of the New York Herald Tribune, re-entered the agency field in 1951 as director of the plans board of Benton & Bowles. Last May he resigned to publish his own magazine, Booths.

NARTB and BAB are participating with the Christal-represented stations in distributing the booklet. BAB is sending 5,500 copies to advertisers, agencies and BAB members. NARTB is sending 5,000 copies to stations that are not BAB members, to schools and libraries. The Christal stations themselves are distributing some 4,500 copies. Other stations that wish to promote the study in their own communities may obtain extra copies at the cost of printing. The Christal company has announced.

Stations sponsoring this research were WBAL Baltimore, WBEN Buffalo, WGAN Cleveland, WIR Detroit, WTIC Hartford, WDAF Kansas City, KFI Los Angeles, WHAS Louisville, WTMJ Milwaukee, WYO Schenectady and WTAG Worcester.

IN ITS preoccupation with little "measurements" for a quarter of a century, radio has not only dramatically underestimated itself, it has even failed to see itself as a medium. The true nature of the radio medium, at last suggested by this Politz survey, is important news for every advertising man in the business today.

The superficial news is that radio, confronted by the competition of television, has retained its enormous vitality. This is quite big news in itself, perhaps. Certainly it is surprising to anyone who has not understood the exclusive role radio has been filling in people's lives.

The big new concept of radio as a medium can be stated very simply indeed.

Human capacity for multiple attention is one of the basic facts of life. For example, while you drive your car through heavy traffic, you are also likely to be smoking a cigarette and conversing animatedly on a variety of matters with your companion. That is multiple attention.

Or you may be having a business lunch in a noisy restaurant. You concentrate on the conversation at your table and don't "hear" the hubbub elsewhere in the room. Yet if someone at the next table speaks your name, your ear at once catches that significant sound. That, too, is multiple attention.

Multiple attention is a workable principle and a commonplace fact in American life.

Now, if America stands for anything, it means busy, busy people. Couple this with the fact that, as another phenomenon of multiple attention, you can listen to radio while you are doing something else. You, at last, have the picture of radio as a medium in busy American life. You have the key to why radio has not been permanently hurt by that great new machine, television. Radio serves a multiple attention needed in busy American life.

This advantage of radio—that people do other things while they listen to it—has not been well enough understood, in spite of its common observability every day.

Actually, this fact establishes the exclusive characteristics enjoyed by radio alone of all media. In busy American life it is one of the hardest jobs for the salesman to force attention, to get the door open, as it were. But to a fantastic degree, as one peruses this study, we see that radio has always had this door open, no matter what else people are doing. For radio is a constant, friendly companion in people's lives, present almost wherever they go or whatever else they do, all around the clock.

This privilege is enjoyed by no other medium. Its values have not begun to be consciously exploited by the advertiser.

It is sharply ironical to see, when once a medium like radio lays aside its intra-competitive, qualitative welter of "research" (i.e., program against program) and its inter-competitive preoccupations (i.e., radio against newspapers, television, magazines), what new strengths for radio appear.

After years of being cheated by underestimation and the failure to understand itself because of narrower, so-called "measurements," radio now at last is revealed in basic new measurements that show its strength as it really is in people's lives. How shallowly spent is the hour that is spent only rating figures at the expense of a clear look at radio in full-length, living perspective!

To discover an exclusive characteristic enjoyed by one medium alone, and of which that medium had not actively been aware, should prove a great reward to those men of vision and courage who sponsored this study of radio in television areas. It could well herald a rebirth of advertising enthusiasm for radio and a substantial increase in its use.

New Concepts' Importance

The deep importance of this new concept emerges ever more clearly as we examine the qualitative details of this study and begin to think in terms of the application of this concept of radio as a constant companion, capable of multiple attention, to our present use of the medium. In detailed findings of this study, which are the subject of running comment as we go through it, we are able to unblindfold ourselves and identify to whom we are talking. What they are doing and where. What an advantage to the advertiser! To the creative radio writer! And what a rich field for further, more detailed qualitative research!

If radio was considered a "dead" medium with the arrival of television, so were newspapers when radio bloomed on the horizon. After 15 years of falling-revenues, the newspaper medium was suddenly rediscovered, just as this survey may contribute to the rediscovery of radio. What appears to be true is a rather fundamental law that should not have to be proved again in our business lives. Rather than one medium being displaced or eclipsed by another, a medium that enjoys a special and exclusive usefulness can never die.

Finally, in this area of general comment, we cannot refrain from thinking a little about the kind of research we are doing in media. Is it fundamental? Does it illuminate the heart of the matter? Or is it concerned with nits and gnats?

We have no time today for nits and gnats. We ought to have outgrown our childish appetite for figures, just as figures, and for December 14, 1953 • Page 97
Radio outranks all other important household appliances in ratio of ownership—1% ahead of refrigerators, 9% ahead of bathtubs, 16% ahead of the telephone. The cost differential, of course, is a factor. Hence the survey asked people’s opinions of such items as a “necessity” or a “luxury.” Figures at the left of the bars in chart indicated percentage of homes owning various appliances. Those at right of the bars show percentages of people who regarded the items as “necessity” or “luxury.”

RADIO IS A NECESSITY

Radio outranks all other important household appliances in ratio of ownership—1% ahead of refrigerators, 9% ahead of bathtubs, 16% ahead of the telephone. The cost differential, of course, is a factor. Hence the survey asked people’s opinions of such items as a “necessity” or a “luxury.” Figures at the left of the bars in chart indicated percentage of homes owning various appliances. Those at right of the bars show percentages of people who regarded the items as “necessity” or “luxury.”

RADIO IS RELIABLE

People were asked: “Suppose you were at home and heard a sudden rumor that war had broken out. What would you do to find out if the rumor was true?” Here’s how they responded.

1. Radio, as a constant companion of the busy, busy American people, is the only medium capable of serving in multiple attention situations.
2. The fact that television—a powerful medium, but one without this characteristic—has failed to displace radio from its fundamental role, is thereby, easier to understand.
3. A new challenge to the creative use of radio has been set up, now that its basic personality difference as a medium with an exclusive characteristic has at last been suggested.
4. More of such fundamental basic research on the further significance of this idea should immediately be undertaken; it is a very big advertising idea, worth big investment.

The original objectives of the research this study has pioneered have thus been importantly served. Through comprehensive evidence of the “who” and “where,” “how” and “why” of radio listening, as well as the sheer number of radio listeners, we now have a clearer picture and better understanding of how radio works and what it does for people.

Radio owes it to its listeners to give advertisers and their agencies this information, to show them how and why radio continues to deserve their confidence. And the radio industry itself needs this clearer picture of the medium so that it can act more surely to meet—on behalf of radio—the responsibilities that so many millions of Americans have given to this medium.

CBC Sets Up Bureau On Radio-Tv Ratings

CANADIAN BROADCASTING Corp. is setting up its own bureau of audience research for both radio and television, with headquarters at Ottawa, according to CBC

Canada General Manager Al Ouimet.

The new bureau has been under consideration for some time and is being created in answer to the need for more data on the size, composition and preferences of listening and viewing audiences in Canada. Present regular surveys only provide an indication of the number of listeners to any given station at a given time.

Mr. Ouimet said there has been a need for more specific information concerning the likes and dislikes of listeners to particular types of programs. The new department will concentrate on qualitative as well as quantitative surveys. The results are expected to provide data of value to CBC in shaping its program policies in radio and television. (Surveys for years have shown most CBC studio programs at lower ratings than U. S. imported shows and programs of independent stations.)

Neil M. Morrison, national supervisor of talks and public affairs broadcasts for CBC, has been appointed director of audience research and will move from Toronto to Ottawa to set up the new department. Mr. Morrison has been with CBC since 1939 in connection with adult education broadcasts. In the past year he has been actively engaged in television programming.

They Like American Radio In Europe, Says AFN Chief

EUROPEANS are getting a continuous sample of American-style radio via the American Forces Network. According to Lt. Col. H. G. Price, chief of AFN, they like it.

Col. Price spoke at a conference of Army public information men in Frankfurt, the first such meeting since 1947. More than 75 public information officers from Germany, France and England attended.

The AFN chief said the network receives more than 150,000 letters a year from Europeans who enjoy the friendly and informal appeal—"many complain about the stiff, unbending atmosphere of state-owned radio in their own countries."

Robert McCormick, NBC's chief correspondent in Europe, told of TV's importance and of staying “alert for stories which appeal to the eye and to the ear.”

Speakers included Jerry Schwartzkopf, CBS cameraman; Herman Blumenfeld, Fox Movietone News; Capt. Frank G. Grubbs, chief of radio-tv branch of Public Information Division, Army in Europe; Maj. Walter A. Pennington, formerly in charge of Army Home Town News Center, Kansas City, Mo.; Rolf von Maydell of Radio Frankfurt; X. Schmidt-Hansen of New German Newsreel and World in Pictures. Supervisor was Col. Robert V. Shinn, director of the Army’s Public Information Division in Europe.

Travel Bureau Head’s Remark About Radio Draws CAB Reply

CANADIAN broadcasters are disturbed by a statement attributed to D. Leo Dolan, director of the Canadian government Travel Bureau, Ottawa, that “you can’t sell travel by radio.” Through the Canadian Assn. of Broadcasters a reply has been made to Mr. Dolan and copies sent to the Minister of Resources and Development under whom Mr. Dolan’s department operates, and to the Canadian Tourist Assn.

Canadian broadcasters have for many years given much free time to helping the tourist business, and have sold time successfully for hotels, motels, resorts and transportation services, Mr. Dolan was told by CAB.

The letter was stated in part that “in our view it is wholly improper for a public official to gratuitously reflect upon the services and abilities of an industry advertising medium and a growing Canadian industry, especially when that medium has in fact clearly demonstrated its ability to sell travel and has generally cooperated with all travel agencies in the general Canadian interest. We should not take a strong view of this matter except for the fact that this is not the first time this same or some similar statement has been attributed to you. We hope, therefore, that if you are misquoted, you will say so; or, if you are not misquoted, that you spoke without full knowledge of the facts. Otherwise, it will certainly be necessary for the Canadian broadcasting industry to seriously consider the value of its present policy of full free and complete cooperation with every tourist and travel agency in our country.”

| CBUT (TV) PLANS
| DEBUT DEC. 16

CBUT (TV) Vancouver, will be the first western Canadian television station on the air, making its first telecast Wednesday. For the first few weeks the station will rely largely on CANADA on kinescope recordings from CBBL (TV) Toronto, and CBFT (TV) Montreal, which will be flown daily to Vancouver.

Station equipment includes studios and newsreel facilities, to which a mobile unit is to be added early in 1954. About 15 hours of recorded programs will be used weekly on the station in the beginning, including studio productions and national news films from eastern Canada. The CBUT transmitter is on Mt. Seymour, 2,700 feet above Vancouver, and the antenna is another 300 feet up on the mountain. On ch. 9, CBUT will be the fourth CBC tv station on the air.

| Canadian Independents
| To Carry U.S. Network Shows

U. S. TV NETWORK shows will be seen live on CBC’s tv network, or on film by independent Canadian tv stations, it was decided at an Ottawa meeting of CBC and Canadian Assn. of Radio & Television Broadcasters representatives last month. The CBC-CARTB agreement provides that (1) CBC will arrange with outside networks for all programs currently carried by outside networks, and (2) private television broadcasters will deal individually with outside networks in obtaining filmed commercial programs. Such programs would not be carried on the CBC network without agreement by a majority of the independent tv stations.

THIS IS WHAT RUST MEANS BY A COMPLETE REMOTE CONTROL SYSTEM

Illustrated on this page are what we consider to be the basic elements of a remote control system for the RCA 250 K or L transmitter. For other transmitters, different groups of elements will apply. Note that Rust not only supplies standard transmitter, control and pre-amplifier units (right) but also units for each of the functions in the table below. These units are especially designed for your transmitter. Each Rust system includes a complete interconnection diagram tailored to your equipment and your requirements. When you buy Rust you have everything you need... nothing else to buy; no units to fabricate.

What will you get for your money?

Don’t be fooled by talk of “low price” remote control systems. Check and compare before you buy any system. Find out how much a complete installation will cost... what additional parts you will have to buy or make. Does it fulfill all your requirements?

Rust considers the system illustrated on this page to be the minimum to do a satisfactory job. It will provide the following control and metering functions:

<thead>
<tr>
<th>CONTROL</th>
<th>METERING</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>Tower Lights</td>
<td>Lighting Current</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Filament &quot;on-off&quot; Reset</td>

... and provides for addition of other control and metering functions when and if desired. Of special interest is the especially designed RCA Actuator (A) which "hooks up" directly with the RCA 250 K or L front panel controls. Like other Rust Systems, it provides for resetting of manual overload breakers (so that you need not send a man to the transmitter location in the event of overload).

Let Rust quote you on a complete remote control system designed for your transmitter. You’ll find an unbeatable value. Write, wire or phone.

ACLU Notes 'Freedoms' Class

AMERICAN Civil Liberty Union paid tribute last week to Ohio State U.'s Institute for Education by Radio & Television for the addition of a new class, "Basic Human Freedoms," to the annual American Exhibition of Educational Radio & TV programs. The exhibition consists of awards in several classes of radio and tv programming.

Patrick Murphy Malin, ACLU executive director, said that he gathered from the Institute's announcement that the new class will give radio and tv stations an opportunity to bring to the American public "the grave problems concerning our bulwark of freedom, the Bill of Rights." He said ACLU is ready to assist stations desiring source material for their programs.

L.A. Teachers Rate Programs

PROGRAM rated as having most educational value for pupils is the locally-released City at Night on KTLA (TV) Hollywood, in the opinion of 397 Los Angeles county school teachers surveyed by Young Merchandising Assn. For teachers themselves, most popular program is CBS-TV Omnibus, also listed high in teachers' ratings for pupils. Other top programs in both categories include CBS-TV You Are There, syndicated City Roberts, CBS-TV See It Now and local Shakespeare on Tt over KNXT (TV) Hollywood.

'Commercial' Techniques Urged for Educators

EDUCATIONAL television stations must adapt their techniques to the commercial operating stations, they must work with the staffs of the commercial video outlets, and they should, if possible hire their own staffs from among those experienced in commercial tv.

These were the recommendations offered Dec. 2 in Seattle by Dr. Franklin Dunham, chief of the radio and television division of the U. S. Office of Education. Speaking at a meeting of the Northwest Assn. of Secondary and Higher Schools, Dr. Dunham reported that in his trip across the country he had noted with alarm a trend among those concerned with educational tv to become "very ivory tower." Best hope for success in the noncommercial channels, he indicated, is to follow the example of commercial stations in excellence of programming techniques.

Another speaker at the conference was Robert Mullen, executive director of the National Citizens Committee for Educational Television, who reported that by the end of 1954 at least 25 educational tv stations will be on the air. More than 50 already have applied or are definitely in the works, he said, most of them in big cities.

Mr. Mullen noted that while a single program such as the Milton Berle show may cost as much as $140,000, most educational stations propose a total annual budget in the neighborhood of $200,000.

Columbia U. Plans CBS Radio Series

NEW 13-WEEK educational radio series, which will be presented in observance of Columbia U.'s 200th anniversary, will be launched on CBS Radio Jan. 3 (Sun., 1-1:30 p.m. EST) with Dr. Grayson Kick, president of Columbia U. as series chairman.

Titled Man's Right to Knowledge, the series is designed to stimulate higher educational values and to project the philosophy and observations of world-eminent scholars. The initial broadcast on the series will feature Arnold Toynbee, noted British historian, who will discuss "The Ancient Mediterranean View."

The 13-week series will explore such concepts as man, the universe and the university. CBS Radio noted plans to introduce a second series of 13 lecture broadcasts later in 1954 that will examine such areas as the nature of things, human organization, the human spirit and prospects in the arts and sciences.

Hollywood Shows Settle $1,220 in AFTRA Claims

CLAIMS for $1,220 in performers’ salaries, brought by AFTRA against two Hollywood shows, were settled last week.

The largest sum went to model Patricia Stevens, who received $700 from the weekly Auction City with Sam Mannis, on KTTV (TV) and KECA-TV, both Hollywood. AFTRA claimed Miss Stevens was paid only $50 a week by Mr. Mannis over a three-month period last summer. Rather than go to arbitration, Mr. Mannis, who heads his own agency, paid a sum representing the difference between Miss Stevens’ payment and the AFTRA minimum.

The new management of Circus Gardens, beach ballroom from which another KTTV program formerly was originated, paid 16 performers who had appeared on that show a total of $520 after a state arbitrator upheld the union’s position that the present operators were responsible for debts incurred by the ballroom’s previous promoter.

AFTRA Upholds Producer; Suspends Ian Keith

IAN KEITH was suspended from membership last week in the New York local of the American Federation of Television & Radio Artists (AFTRA) for three months as a result of charges growing out of his delivery of a commercial on the Nov. 17 performance of “Dark Victory” on WOR-TV New York.

The charges reportedly developed as a result of derogatory remarks made by Mr. Keith with reference to Nash cars, a sponsor of WOR-TV’s Broadway TV Theatre series on which “Dark Victory” was presented. Nash is continuing as a sponsor.

AFTRA said the board of directors of the New York local, after holding a hearing, found Mr. Keith “guilty of conduct prejudicial to the welfare of AFTRA and of conduct unbecoming a member of AFTRA and of having acted in violation of the standards expected of the acting profession.”

The charges were filed by Warren Wade Productions, which produces Broadway TV Theatre.

WTVJ (TV) Election Ordered

ELECTION to determine if production and engineering employees of WTVJ (TV) Miami desire to be represented by IBEW, IATSE or neither has been directed by the National Labor Relations Board.

In another action the board directed WKY-AM-TV Oklahoma City not to interfere with employees in their self-organization activities and ordered restitution of pay to two employees. The NLRB findings of fact showed WKY had revenues over $1 million from sale of radio and tv time in the 12-month period ended just before issuance of the complaint to the board. About half of this came from sources outside Oklahoma, the board stated.

West Coast ‘Tv Writers’ Start

NEW regional organization of Television Writers of America began operation with election in Hollywood of Hugh Wedlock as West Coast regional president. Other West Coast officers elected are Ben Starr, vice president; Sol Stein, secretary-treasurer; Nate Monaster, Richard Powell, Joel Muncott and Robert Schiller, two-year members of board of directors; and Robert Weiskopf, William Freedman, Philip Sharp, Stanley Shapiro, Leonard St. Clair, Ed Simons, Norman Lear and Dorothy Deere, one-year board members.

NLRB Denies IBEW Hearing

REQUEST of IBEW for hearing, in which classification of senior supervisor for seven employees of WBAP-TV Fort Worth would be contested, was denied Friday by National Labor Relations Board.

Don Lee’s Quarter Century

WHEN 25 years ago KHI Hollywood and KFRC San Francisco were connected with permanent telephone lines for the interchange of programs, it became one of the nation’s first regional networks. Yesterday (Dec. 13), Don Lee Broadcasting System, which now owns and operates KGB San Diego in addition to KHI and KFRC and has 42 affiliated stations covering California, Nevada, Oregon, Washington and Idaho, celebrated its 25th anniversary.

More than nine out of every ten Pacific Coast radio homes are within twenty-five miles of a Don Lee station, according to President Willet H. Brown.

In tracing the network’s growth, Mr. Brown pointed out that by the end of 1928, it had added three stations in Fresno, Stockton and Sacramento, Calif. This was augmented soon after by stations in Portland, Seattle, Tacoma and Spokane.

Now operating as a division of General Tele radio Inc., Don Lee affiliates in 1936 became the Pacific Coast outlets for MBS, a controlling interest in which is held by General Teleradio.

Responsible for the radio debuts of many motion picture names, many broadcasting and entertainment careers also were started with Don Lee. Included are Sylvester (Pat) Weaver, newly elected NBC president; announcers Don Wilson, Bill Goodwin, Ken Niles, Art Baker, singing stars Mary Martin, Jo Stafford, Nadina Connor, orchestra conductors Meredith Wilson, Raymond Paige, Frank Devol, David Rose, Ted Fio Rito, Spike Jones, and personalities Art Linkletter, Louella Parsons and Al Pearce.

KPIX (TV) San Francisco this month celebrates its fifth year on the air. The station today airs 115 hours of programs weekly to an estimated 840,000 homes with a video power of 100 kw on its vhf ch. 5.

Don Lee’s Quarter Century

WHEN 25 years ago KHI Hollywood and KFRC San Francisco were connected with permanent telephone lines for the interchange of programs, it became one of the nation’s first regional networks. Yesterday (Dec. 13), Don Lee Broadcasting System, which now owns and operates KGB San Diego in addition to KHI and KFRC and has 42 affiliated stations covering California, Nevada, Oregon, Washington and Idaho, celebrated its 25th anniversary.

More than nine out of every ten Pacific Coast radio homes are within twenty-five miles of a Don Lee station, according to President Willet H. Brown.

In tracing the network’s growth, Mr. Brown pointed out that by the end of 1928, it had added three stations in Fresno, Stockton and Sacramento, Calif. This was augmented soon after by stations in Portland, Seattle, Tacoma and Spokane.

Now operating as a division of General Tele radio Inc., Don Lee affiliates in 1936 became the Pacific Coast outlets for MBS, a controlling interest in which is held by General Teleradio.

Responsible for the radio debuts of many motion picture names, many broadcasting and entertainment careers also were started with Don Lee. Included are Sylvester (Pat) Weaver, newly elected NBC president; announcers Don Wilson, Bill Goodwin, Ken Niles, Art Baker, singing stars Mary Martin, Jo Stafford, Nadina Connor, orchestra conductors Meredith Wilson, Raymond Paige, Frank Devol, David Rose, Ted Fio Rito, Spike Jones, and personalities Art Linkletter, Louella Parsons and Al Pearce.
It couldn't be done?

The books said it couldn't be done—but Andrew engineers went ahead and designed an antenna that gives excellent coverage mounted inside the tower! This ingenious development enabled station WTOP in Washington, DC to use their television tower for FM too—and so save thousands of dollars.

Whatever your problem in antennas Andrew ingenuity will find the answer. Be sure to consult us.
For the fourth straight year, the Mutual of Omaha Calling program over MBS on Christmas Day, 2:3 p.m. EST, will be devoted to telephone calls between U. S. Armed Forces personnel overseas with their families back home. Three MBS broadcast centers in New York, Omaha and San Francisco will be used as focal points for the interchange of conversations. Program is sponsored by the Mutual Benefit Health and Accident Assn. of Omaha.

Carolina Hookup Aids Fund NETWORK of 105 North and South Carolina radio stations carried the Dec. 5 Shrine Bowl football game at Charlotte, N. C., with all stations donating time to the Shrine fund for crippled children. Esso Standard Oil Co. made only public service announcements; its broadcast fee also went to the fund. Joseph M. Bryan, president of Jefferson Standard Broadcasting Co. (WBT-WBTV (TV) Charlotte) presented the Lee Kirby Memorial Award to a high school player. Add Penfield, WBBG Greensboro, N. C., and J. B. Clark, WBT, handled microphones at the game.

Turkeys for Doors KCCC-TV Sacramento assisted Cardinal-Inks Supermarket chain and local group in "Operation Ice Box," project aimed at eliminating hazards to children from discarded ice boxes. The grocery chain offered 1,000 turkeys in exchange for 1,000 doors from discarded ice boxes and refrigerators. An overwhelming response with more than 4,000 doors forced a temporary halt to the project until more turkeys could be obtained.

Drawing in WALK Fund Raising HIGHPOINT in the WALK-AM-FM Brookhaven, N.Y., all-day marathon held on Thanksgiving Day and which continued for a week in soliciting funds for Brookhaven Memorial Hospital equipment, was the drawing of a name of one of hundreds of contributors. An on-the-spot WALK broadcast featured the drawing at which radio commentator Norman Brokenshire, native of the area's Lake Ronkonkoma, was honored guest. Prize was a TV receiver given by CBS-Columbia and the co-sponsor, Bee Hive Department Store. Jack Ellsworth, WALK program director, handled the special broadcast. Mr. and Mrs. Brokenshire toured WALK studios as guests of Nils E. Segerdahl, station manager and president.

WHEN (TV) Donates Time for Blood WHEN (TV) Syracuse celebrated its fifth anniversary Dec. 1 by acting as host for a 24-hour Red Cross bloodmobile operation at its studios. Christmas Contributions Asked WKRC-AM-TV Cincinnati has opened its second annual drive for the "Neediest Kids of All" according to David G. Taft, executive vice president of the Radio Cincinnati stations. Listeners are being asked to contribute new toys or cash before Christmas Day. Campaign will be climaxied by two Christmas parties for 1,000 youngsters.

Student-WGAR Program THREE undergraduates of Western Reserve U. are learning about the broadcast business at WGAR Cleveland under the tutelage of Carl E. George, station vice president-general manager. The instruction, according to WGAR, is part of the reward granted the students for winning the past WGAR-Western Reserve speech tournaments for Northern Ohio high school seniors. The students are part-time employees at the station. Idea was conceived and carried forward by John F. Patt, president of WGAR and WIR Detroit, with Warren Guthrie, head of WRU's speech department. Three scholarship winners of the past three years now have regular assignments on the WGAR staff, it was explained, pointing out the program's benefit to the station's personnel policy.

WKNB-TV's 15-Hour Telethon FIFTEEN-HOUR telethon for muscular dystrophy appeal in Hartford, Conn., on ch. 30 WKNB-TV brought in $11,720 in pledges, the station reports. All-night remote, telecast from St. Joseph's auditorium, featured Henry Youngman, Toni Arden, Jack Mann and local entertainers. Controls were operated by station engineers from a 42-ft. luxury trailer adjacent to the auditorium. The telethon was fourth in a current series of public service telecasts.

Backs Blood Drive WHAS Louisville last weekend loaned its studios to the local Red Cross Bloodmobile project with station personnel making contributions. In addition, special tie-ins were made on morning shows to publicize the blood project.

KING Kicks In A TRICKY promotion play on the football field has been used by KING-TV Seattle as part of its fifth anniversary. It also served to benefit the March of Dimes fund by $450. Otto Brandt, KING Broad- casting Co. vice president-general manager, and Washington's Gov. Arthur B. Langlie agreed on the promotion-public interest stunt for half-time at the State High School Invitational football game. KING-TV announced it would give $10 for every yard the Governor could kick a football on the field. Gov. Langlie's kick went 35 yards and Sheriff Tex, KING-TV cowboy personality, mustered another 10 yards, presenting the March of Dimes with a total of $450.

And in Television it’s... how you say it?

"THE WORLD'S Tallest TOWER!"

How you say it doesn’t matter. WHIO-TV does have the World’s Tallest TV Tower! Maybe you can figure out the French for "WHIO-TV also boasts a boost in power to 316,000 watts." Or Spanish for "WHIO-TV now available to 621,000 buying families." Or Greek for "Call George P. Hollingbery representatives for information on this great AREA station."

Since set estimates are from the stations any question about them should be directed to that source. Total U. S. sets in use is an unduplicated B-T estimate.

NOT EVEN their bitterest competitors would have wished for a prolongation of the strike against the New York newspapers. For our part we are glad it's over and that the complementary balance of information and advertising media has been restored.

It is to be hoped that newspapermen, not only in New York but elsewhere, will content themselves with the recognition that the emergency has passed and that normal schedules have been resumed — and let it go at that. Unfortunately, there is an indication in a number of news stories we have read that newspapers will try to capitalize on the events of the past fortnight as a sales talk against radio and television. These stories have spoken of slumps in retail sales and of bewildered shoppers not knowing what to buy because no newspaper ads were around to tell them.

Newspapermen ought to recognize the blunt fact that nothing whatever can be proved to have happened to retail business because of the absence of newspapers. It is true that the Federal Reserve Bank reported that New York department store dollar volume was down 5% in the week ended Dec. 5, compared with the same week of 1952, but it is also true that sales were down 4% in Philadelphia the same week, according to the Wall Street Journal. It is enough for the publishers to be grateful that the strike has ended in what must be regarded as more of a triumph for them than the union. To try to take more advantage of the situation is unwise.

NBC's New Team

THE NEW order at NBC—Sylvester L. Weaver Jr. as president, Robert W. Sarnoff as executive vice president—is not strictly new, but it should make for a new order of efficiency for the team. As vice chairman of the board, Pat Weaver has stood as the generally accepted No. 2 man in the network hierarchy for some months now, with Brig. Gen. David Sarnoff at the top not only as board chairman of both RCA and NBC but also as acting president of the network. Bob Sarnoff, son of the General, has been Mr. Weaver's executive officer as well as vice president in charge of the NBC Film Division.

Thus the Pat Weaver-Bob Sarnoff advancement is a logical progression. The presidency gives Mr. Weaver a scope of operation and authority far wider than that open to him as vice chairman of the board and creative planner of tv programming and color tv development. Bob Sarnoff no longer must divide his energies between the Film Division and his functions as executive assistant to Mr. Weaver, but can concentrate on his new administrative duties. And still watching over all will be the attentive eye of Gen. Sarnoff.

The logic of the new alignment, in the 10 days since its announcement, appears to have won the endorsement of both affiliates and NBC personnel. Mr. Weaver, noted as a creative man, is left free to exercise his talents over the whole broad range of NBC affairs while the administrative burden is borne by Mr. Sarnoff, who developed the NBC Film Division and brought it to its present stature.

On first inspection the new team would appear to be primarily a television one. Mr. Weaver pioneered NBC-TV's Today, Show of Shows and Comedy Hour, among others. While his reputation has been mainly in tv programming, he also has been a creator of sales techniques: The idea of pushing participation sales and the general concept of the "magazine" or "editorial" approach to sales, calculated to bring more advertisers into tv, are attributed to him.

But Mr. Weaver made clear in accepting the new post that he is not tv-minded at the expense of radio. "I firmly believe in the value and permanency of radio," he said. "We are determined to meet the challenge of changing conditions and to take advantage of every opportunity to create new services and to increase business for sound broadcasting."

Nor should it be forgotten that he came up in radio. Aside from his years as program manager and then supervisor of the radio division of Young & Rubicam, as well as radio-tv vice president of the agency, it could hardly be said that any man is not radio-conscious who, like Mr. Weaver, has served as advertising manager of American Tobacco Co. under the fabulous George Washington Hill. Similarly, Mr. Sarnoff, although his work with NBC has been predominantly in television, gained radio experience as assistant to broadcaster-publisher Garner Cowles Jr. and also, as did Mr. Weaver, during his wartime military service.

There is another advantage in the Pat Weaver-Bob Sarnoff combination. Mr. Weaver is 44; Mr. Sarnoff 35. Noting this fact and observing that both are men of "proven ability," Gen. Sarnoff observed in his announcement of their selection: "Our organization is complete ... We are all set for many years to come." This should allay a certain restlessness that has been apparent within the NBC ranks and among NBC affiliates, and from that standpoint, too, should be welcomed.

Monumental Study

ALL broadcasters are indebted to the 11 radio stations represented by the Henry I. Christal company for sponsoring the significant Alfred Politz study and for commissioning as expert and impartial an advertising man as Alfred Stanford to write his appraisal of the work. Mr. Stanford's comments, as reported on page 97 of this issue, constitute one of the most impressive tributes to radio that we have read.

Indeed his enthusiasm is so great that it cannot help but spread to others, not only to broadcasters but also to advertisers and their agencies. For it is enthusiasm founded on provable fact and not on emotionalism. The booklet which the Politz study sponsors is distributed freely with the help of NARTB and BAB and should brighten the future of radio.

Management Has Rights Too

MANAGEMENT in radio and television will have special reason to approve the U. S. Supreme Court's ruling that WBTV (TV) Charlotte, N. C., was acting legally when it fired nine technicians who distributed handbills maligning the station. Surely in no other business is public esteem more important or its loss more damaging.

However their unions may object to the Supreme Court's decision, the employees of radio and television must realize their stake in such a case is identical to management's. To the extent that employees tear down the reputation of a station during a labor dispute, to that same extent they weaken the property upon which they depend for their own advancement.

In the Charlotte case, the handbills made unpardonable charges against WBTV (TV) programming. Although circulated during a labor dispute, they have said nothing about that. Plainly Joseph M. Bryan, president, and Charles H. Crutchfield, executive vice president of the station, were within every moral and legal right to fire the offending employees on the spot. Other broadcasters and telecasters owe them their gratitude for acting courageously and sticking by their action.

"Act quickly! This amazing offer of a rebuilt air conditioning plant for the small sum of $17.89 may be withdrawn at any time!"

For Years, The KMBC-KFRM Team has been the undisputed leader among the radio stations in the great Kansas City primary trade area. As the sixth oldest CBS radio affiliate, KMBC has enjoyed the audience that goes with the nation’s number one radio network. Arthur B. Church’s 32 years of radio know-how are the key to the Team’s leadership in local programming and the finest of facilities.

In television, KMBC-TV is the “Big I” in Kansas City—both literally and figuratively. With the CBS Television Network (KMBC-TV shares time with WHB-TV on Channel 9), KMBC-TV immediately took the spotlight and its fair share of audience. (A special promotion tie-in with TV Preview Magazine conducted before Channel 9 had been on the air a month resulted in nearly 12,000 pieces of mail). KMBC-TV originates eight live TV programs daily to add to the station’s popularity. More are to be added in the near future.
