Let the West Speak Up!

The climax of a persistent campaign against the American plan of broadcasting was reached with the introduction of the Wagner-Hatfield amendment to the Dill bill in Congress, which attempts to bring about a complete cancellation of all existing radio broadcasting licenses and reallocating all frequencies, power and time assignments in order that a special group be allotted one-fourth of all air time.

Ostensibly, the sponsors of this amendment seek “to eliminate monopoly and insure equality of opportunity and consideration for educational, religious, agricultural, labor and similar non-profit-making associations,” but actually they are veering so far toward fascist principles that, should Congress enact this legislation, we shall likely find ourselves figuratively on the other side of the ocean taking radio program a la Mussolini and Herr Hitler.

There are no people in the world more ready to accept religious enlightenment or embrace educational opportunities than the American public. The broadcasting stations and the sponsors are cognizant of this fact and if anyone will take the trouble to check the program listings in this or any other issue of Broadcast Weekly, he will find such features amply represented. And because we can get and take these programs “at will,” the listening audience is correspondingly larger. But the American radio public will not tolerate the air lanes cluttered with propaganda and if, through an act of Congress, twenty-five per cent of the most available listeners’ time is allotted to spiritual, mental and political uplift, the public will never be reached unless it straps on amplified radio ear phones. Even the dictators of Europe have been unable to devise ways to make their public listen.

Isn’t there ample evidence, even for Congressmen, in the purchase of over eighteen million radio sets in this country, that the American public is partial to its own adaptation of radio broadcasting? What then is the purpose of these lobbyists and legislators unless it be that they too are obsessed with the all too prevalent European vogue of imposing minority opinion upon the majority?

While we are loath to infer that any sinister motives lie behind the consideration of these amendments, could it be possible that congressmen see in the proposed free time assignments an allotment to them, for the purpose of political fence-building under the guise of educational development? If so, we suggest that they learn the language of the natives of Tasmania and Timbuktu, because they will be the only radio audience left who can stomach the menu.

We suggest that readers of this magazine write to their congressmen and senators and make known their wishes in regard to this proposed legislation. Broadcast Weekly will gladly print the reaction of its readers in the Open Circuit and forward copies to the authorities in Washington. Let the West speak up!
THE hue and cry by radio's big time stars for more "mazuma" is causing no end of headaches to the broadcast bosses. The heyday for the network luminaries is here, what with more sponsored chain programs on the air in the history of the industry and three and four firms bidding for the services of the top-notch mike entertainers.

Of course in the long run the sponsor pays. But it is up to the radio folk to sell the services of their stars to these companies and it isn't any easy matter explaining to Joe Bodunk, the asbestos manufacturer that a certain star is worth a lot more than what the rat trap manufacturer—I. Katchem paid last year.

Bernie's arch-enemy, Walter Winchell, casting a green eye toward the old maestro, decided that he must have a one hundred percent increase in salary if he goes back on the air again. His last sponsor is reported to have paid him $1,000 a week. George Arliss, not yet initiated as a regular air contributor, asked a sum big enough to choke an elephant recently. S. S. Van Dine, creator of the Philo Vance character on the movie screen, wants $2,000 a program for a radio version of his stuff and will take nothing less.

"But, my dear Holmes, how on earth did you do it, your intuition is phenomenal."

"Elementary, Watson, elementary. My sixth sense told me we would be back."

Such a dialogue may have passed between the great detective Sherlock Holmes and his faithful friend and assistant, Dr. Watson just before they came back on the air. Yes, folkses, this inimitable pair is back—KPO hereabouts on Monday nights from 8:30 to 9 o'clock. The roles are played by the same actors—Richard Gordon as Holmes and Leigh Lovell as Doctor Watson. We let go a couple of whoops when we heard it and trust that most of you did or will do likewise when you read this. G. Washington Coffee is backing them again.

The Fire Chief—Ed Wynn—who has just concluded his present season of broadcasts over NBC is scheduled to return to the air in Fall.

When Eddie Cantor comes back to the ether stage again this fall he'll change sponsors and networks, but only after he works out the remaining eight weeks in his present contract with Chase and Sanborn. After that he goes to the Columbia chain for Pebeo toothpaste. Joe Penner will leap into Cantor's place on the coffee program and by strange coincidence, will play opposite him, both being on the air at the same time over different networks. Incidentally according to surveys made by newspapers and magazines in various sections of the United States, Penner tops all radio comedians in popularity now.

They say the stork is winging his way toward the home of Bernice Berwin, the Hazel of "One Man's Family." He is expected to make the stopover in September. Away from the mike she is Mrs. Brooks Berlin.

The weekly broadcasts from the Byrd Expedition in Little America have been shifted from Saturdays to Wednesdays. The time—6 to 6:30 p. m. and the network—CBS.

Frank Watanabe and Honorable Archie, who have been going great guns on KNX for the past few years are now being heard on a nationwide network of the NBC five mornings a week. This does not include a release on the Pacific Coast, however.

Guy Lombardo and his Royal Canadians will shift from CBS to NBC June 7.

Paul Whiteman is said to have turned down an offer to play at the Chicago World's Fair. Too busy otherwise.

Bob Allen, ace ivory pounder of KYA these many moons and a radio vet hereabouts, has shuffled off to Spokane, Wash., his home town, for a visit and rest. Bob, you know, was hurt in a taxi accident some weeks ago and his doctor has ordered him to take a nice long rest. So he's gone up to say howdy to the folks and the old gang. He hopes to renew many old acquaintances of his college days—attended Washington State at Pullman.

Careful Maxie. You'd better win that fight with Carnera if you want to win some more radio contracts. The Goodrich folk, present sponsors of those thrice weekly appearances of the kingfish of fistiana plan to extend the radio series seven weeks if Maxie comes out favorably in the big scrap.
The Don Lee-CBS net recently sprung a new one on us monickered "The Romance of Travel" which is whisked over the ether roads Sundays 7 to 7:30 p.m. In dramatized form, it takes the listener on visits to different places of interest in the state. Claude Sweeten's orchestra and Don Stuart, narrator, are the principals.

 Dick Aurandt, KFRC organist, heard on many CBS programs on the Coast, is recuperating at the French Hospital in San Francisco from an appendectomy. Gertrude Lyne, ex-NBC, is presiding at the console during his absence.

 Studios fifty miles apart bring the artists together on the air in KQW's weekly "Twenty Minutes in Paris" program Saturday nights at 7:10 o'clock. Mme. Jean Bergerin, the narrator and mistress of ceremonies holds forth in the main studios in San Jose while the other artists, Mme. Battel, soprano; Leo Battel, violinist and Rose Manning, pianist, appear in the San Francisco studios.

 "Just my luck," KFRC's Jean Ellington, vocalist, said on missing appearing with Ben Bernie during his stay in San Francisco recently, because of illness. Jean had been chosen to be one of the guest artists with the old maestro on the stage of a local theatre, but at the last minute was taken ill. Johnnie O'Brien, the besta harmonica player in the West, didn't fare so badly, however. He appeared with Bernie on the stage and also in the nationwide broadcast and you and I should be mighty proud of him for he delivered the goods and in a huge way. Yowsuh!

 Wilbur Hall, former NBC continuity writer and author of many popular plays that went out from the network, is now penning a new event which is scheduled to be launched on KFRC and Don Lee net May 31. It deals with hobbies. It is scheduled for release every Thursday night at 8:45 o'clock.

 Madam Galli Curci, the opera diva, has been signed for an appearance on the Contended Hour over NBC facilities in the nation June 18, to 6:30 o'clock. Scratch the date on the memo pad now.

 They're telling this one on Ed Fitzgerald up around KFRC. It seems that Fitzgerald rented a penthouse in San Francisco recently and with the coming of spring decided that he must have a roof-garden, fish pond and all. So he builds himself a nice little pond and implants therein a school of shiny young goldfish. All well and good. But alas the next morning when he tip-toed out to the pond to awaken the little ones and give them their breakfast, the pond bore no signs that there ever had been any fish in it. And even the bits of seaweed that he had so carefully placed in it was gone. While still sleepily scratching his head in bewilderment, he heard a loud squawk, squawk over his head and spotted a quartet of huge seagulls just about to make a three-point landing on the roof. On espying him, however, they suddenly changed their course. The mystery was solved. Ed's pet goldfish had become a delicacy to the hungry gulls.

 Convalescing from a severe attack of homesickness, Tom Merry, is back in Los Angeles visiting the home folks. Merry plays the role of Pappy in the hill billy group known as Pappy, Zeke, Ezra and Elton, on the NBC from New York. He was one of the original members of the Beverly Hill Billies which originated in Los Angeles. He anticipates returning to Gotham soon to take up his radio duties with the group.

 You are assured of hearing Phil Harris on the NBC for another six months at least. His sponsors just renewed his contract over the network for that length of time. You can dial him Fridays at 5 p.m. on the coast over NBC stations.

 Expounding bits of philosophy, Doctor Goodcheer steps up to the KYA microphone Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 8:15 o'clock. It's a new feature.

 Pinky Lee, comedian, finally got the chance that he had been waiting and longing for—a spot on a coast to coast NBC program—and then—tragedy walked in. He made his debut on the Carefree Carnival recently. The next day he received a wire from St. Paul that his parents had been very seriously injured in an automobile accident. He left immediately by plane. It is said his folks heard his program the night before the accident.

 And speaking of orchestra changes on the air, did you know that Kay Kyser and his grand band vacate the Bal Tabarin, famous San Francisco night spot, the first of June and Happy Felton replaces them? Kyser moves to the Hotel Miramar in Santa Monica. Ted Fio-Rito, reports now say, will go into the Cocoanut Grove October 1 when Arnheim's contract runs out.
Lilah Clark of the Clark Sisters, KLX, Oakland, is to be married June 3rd, to Mr. William Parker Hand of Los Angeles. It is to be a home wedding as the girls have a lovely Spanish home up in the hills above Oakland. Lilah’s sister, Ruth, is to be bridesmaid and their brother, Merle Carlson, who directs his own orchestra at the Café de Paree in Los Angeles and broadcasts over the Don Lee Broadcasting System, will fly up from the South to sing at the big event. There will be about one hundred guests mostly radio friends.

Marie Leon, KYA soprano, has a bone to pick with her dog. Snoof is the name of her Pekinese and he’s supposed to be a very well trained little pooch. However, when Marie broadcasts, the maid at her apartment dials in and lets Snoof listen to her. As the first sounds of her voice reach his fluffy ears, the canine pride begins a terrifying yowl and runs to the door, demanding to be let out of the room. Marie doesn’t know what to think of this canine procedure and remarks that Snoof is an ungrateful hound.

Barton Yarborough—Clifford to One Man’s Family Broadcast—is a prolific free lance writer for radio.

Edward Fitzpatrick, conductor of the Magazine Melodists, the orchestra heard mornings on the NBC Woman’s Magazine of the Air, spent his vacation in Santa Monica where his son, Edward Fitzpatrick, Jr., has an orchestra at the Miramar.

Dick Aurandt, the KFRC staff organist, claims to be one of the only musicians in radio who plays two instruments at the same time, and what’s more he performs that feat nearly every day, and not as an occasional stunt.

When Sweet Music takes to the air each week day at 3:30 p.m. on KFRC and the Columbia-Don Lee chain, Aurandt sits before the huge KFRC organ. With his right hand he performs on that instrument, while with his left he plays the celeste, blending the two musical parts into the melodies supplied by Claude Sweeten, violinist, and Herman Reinberg, ‘cellist.

Raymond Paige, musical director of KHJ, and Mrs. Paige have accepted an invitation from the University of Southern California Lambda chapter of Phi Beta, national fraternity of music and dramatic art to become patrons of the fraternity. Among other patrons of the organization are Mr. and Mrs. George Arliss, Edward Everett Horton, John McCormick and Otto Klemperer. Prominent members include Helen Gahagan, Marion Claire, Ruth Page, Helen Menken, Ethel Barrymore, Kay Van Riper, Mora Martin, and Eva LeGallienne. Paige’s invitation was forwarded by Edith C. Gibb, president of Lambda chapter of Phi Beta.

George Stoll, who conducts the orchestra and plays violin solos on The Shell Show, prizes his fingers at the biggest figure insurance companies will give him. He got the scare of his life the other day in his hilltop home which overlooks Glendale and Hollywood when he jumped back just in time to miss a scorpion which had invaded his home. A few days later on his sun porch he got another thrill when he sighted a poisonous tarantula also taking a sun bath. Not taking any more chances with poison carriers of the desert country, he hired several men to search every foot of ground on the premises. They found several more of each specie and he has had air-tight weather-stripping put on every door and window to prevent future invasions. Now Georgie feels safer.

Anson Weeks, whose sensational eighteen-piece orchestra opened at the Aragon and over WGN Saturday, May 19, has specialized on long-time orchestral engagements. His longest job was at the Mark Hopkins Hotel in San Francisco where he was featured for six years, and his shortest engagement away from the West coast was at the St. Regis in New York where he kept the New York natives dancing to his rhythms for five months. The New York engagement at the smart dancing place was the direct result of his twenty-one broadcasts on the coast-to-coast “magic carpet” series.

Maestro Weeks was secured for the Aragon by President Andrew Karzas of the Aragon and Trianon, to play during the six weeks that Wayne King and his boys are vacationing in the four corners of the country. Although the period of their absence will be greatly missed by radio and dance fans as letters received well indicate, the music of Anson Weeks will be a sensational contrast from all indications on past dance engagements and radio performances.
When Jimmy "Schnozzle" Durante did his first rehearsal for his Chase and Sanborn program the evening after he arrived in Los Angeles from New York, he put so much enthusiasm and pep into his work that the producers of the show and the rest of the cast thought the climate had given him some mystic invigoration. Gradually, spectators saw he was playing to a one-man audience down in front. Investigation proved this was right. The one-man audience was his father who sat chuckling happily at his son's antics.

Elizabeth Lennox, whose contralto voice is heard with "Everett Marshall's Broadway Vanities," was one of the first six singers engaged by Columbia when the network was inaugurated back in 1927. She is the daughter of a Grand Rapids, Mich., minister, and acquired her early training as a singer, pianist and pipe organist in her father's church. Later, she studied music at the University of Chicago. Following concert work in Chicago, she came to Manhattan and immediately secured important engagements in musical plays, with the Philharmonic Orchestra, concerts, and in recordings and radio. On the new CBS program she takes both speaking and singing roles.

Harry Bechtel, KYA's chief announcer, felt rather complimented the other day on receipt of a fan letter. It concerned a program on which a real live mountain lion performed with his trainer, a big game hunter. During this feature several blood curdling screams were given by the denizens of the wilds. The fan thrilled at the broadcast but wasn't quite certain whether the sounds came from the animal or Harry who happened to be many miles removed from the studios at the time of the "Mister" lion's appearance there.

Nick Lucas, the crooning troubadour was accosted by a somewhat tipsy gentleman as he entered the Columbia Building the other evening for his broadcast, carrying four banjos under his arms. The stranger's eyes opened banjo-like when he saw the four instruments. He averred that he had always wanted a banjo and would give fifty cents for one. Nick refused to sell, but his would-be customer was persistent. He grabbed the singer by the shoulder. With the burden of four banjos, Nick was at a disadvantage. Seconds passed quickly, and it was close to air time. The passer-by seized an instrument and matters began to look bad for the crooning troubadour. Just then a musician with a big bass violin walked out of the building. Nick's assailant spied the colossal fiddle, and made for it, probably on the theory of more instrument for his money. Lucas dashed into the elevator, shot up to the 22nd floor, and made the broadcast—in the nick of time.

Signor Antonio De Grasse, celebrated violinist, heard over KTAB, was born in Italy and is a graduate of the Milan conservatory. Signor De Grasse later studied composition at Leipsig with the celebrated Dr. Jadassohn, Later, he again studied with Joachim and Ysaye in Berlin. Leaving Europe, where he was concert soloist with the London Philharmonic and the New London Symphony, Signor De Grasse came to America and further studied with Alexander Bloch in New York. Acting upon the advice of former President Hoover, De Grasse arrived in California, became an American citizen and is now associated with the musical staff of the University of California.

Donald Stuart, eminent English actor who recently joined the dramatic staff of KFRC, confesses that the most disappointing moment in his life came when, as a youngster, he discovered that his hair would be fiery red all his life. . . . Bob Bence, chief announcer of KFRC, spends all his spare hours in haunting the pawnshops that dot the Third and Howard street district of San Francisco. His wife declares he has bought thousands of old and pawned articles which he stores in every nook and cranny of the house. . . . Ed Fitzgerald, Feminine Fancies pilot, rented a penthouse atop a downtown San Francisco hotel recently, and his first act was to buy goldfish for the pool that is a part of the surrounding aerial garden. But to his horror, flocks of seagulls swooped down on the pool, made off with the goldfish. . . . Gary Cooper and Myrna Loy were grammar school classmates of Helene Hughes, KFRC soprano heard on the Jamboree, Feminine Fancies and other programs.

When Jack Benny first met Mary Livingstone, he didn't like her. Jack, who felt himself quite grown up, went to visit her older sister and Mary, who was then a maddeningly mischievous child of twelve years, was rather contemptuous of Jack's dignity. But he married Mary instead of the sister and now they're both heard in the General Tire Program.

Glen Gray's suave quiet manner and his well-tailored figure are striking contrasts to the hilarious antics and infectious rhythms of his famous Casa Loma Orchestra. And he is not the conductor—he is that dignified saxophone player in the front row of the band. It is Peter Melvin Jenssen who conducts the group of brilliant musicians, but it is Glen Gray who controls the destinies of Casa Loma and who has functioned as its President since the orchestra was first organized.

- Captain Henry's Show Boat is now being broadcast from the largest of the NBC studios. It seats 1,500. And it is crowded at every broadcast.

- Rudy Vallee signs checks with his left hand, but conducts with his right. He never uses a baton.

- "Cap" Gene Sullivan, who conducts his Sportsman's Corner on KYA Thursday evenings, has a pet superstition to which he inevitably bows. If Gene, before starting out on his weekly fishing trip, should forget and pull the right boot over his foot the day is a total loss. However, he usually remembers in the nick of time to put the left foot forward and pull the boot over it. This procedure, according to Sullivan, guarantees him the limit of striped bass.

- Ben Grauer, announcer, spends his spare time at book auctions, where he adds to his library. Those who handle his publicity, say he now possesses more than two thousand volumes.

- The chief aversion of Irene Beasley, NBC's long tall gal from Dixie, is confusion. She likes everything around her very orderly, quiet and peaceful.

- Donald Stuart has been an actor on the legitimate stage, in pictures and on the radio for a total of 25 years. But he still vividly remembers his professional debut, which was made on a London stage as the tail-end of a crocodile.

  His second play was a Greek drama in which he spoke good, authentic Greek. Now, a quarter of a century later (though he still is a young man), KFRC's newest member of the dramatic staff, can remember to a syllable every one of his Greek lines.

- Approximately twenty different colleges and universities are represented by employees of KNX.

- J. Whitcomb Nash, whose Shakespearean programs are heard on KYA Sundays, is a keen student of the works of the immortal playwright and was graduated from the Royal Academy in London. The tall stately actor has directed and appeared in many productions throughout the country, but the most unusual offer in his long career came the other afternoon in San Francisco when a certain theatrical impresario approached Nash with a contract for his portrayal of Hamlet—in black face. It is needless to relate that the contract was never signed.

- Rita Lane, NBC soprano, once had ambitions to become a film star but sometimes she thinks she is lucky she didn't... In Hollywood she was offered the principal role in a picture which was made in the African jungle, and her mother wouldn't let her make it. The actress who played the part went to the jungle with the company and there contracted a tropical disease which has completely wrecked her health.

- Yahbut and Cheerily, whose globetrotting adventures have developed some of the most unusual travel reporting of the day, have started a new fad in Hollywood. Ever since their first personal appearance at the Radio Playhouse in Los Angeles in their tropical hunting outfits and sun helmets, the demand for sun helmets has increased in the film capital. Now, with the coming of record-breaking temperatures, sun helmets are making their appearance in more numbers and in more places than ever. One man was so impressed that he sent Yahbut and Cheerily two new sun helmets to take the place of the ones they have been wearing since they began to broadcast on the Shell Show. But they stick to the old ones for luck.

- Rudy Vallee's new vocal ensemble is made up entirely of accomplished soloists. Among those included in this talented group are Helen Marshall, Ruby Mercer, Marguerite Padula, Arthur Bradley, Charles Harrison, Darrell Woodyard, and Harry Donahey.

- Claire Upshur, gentle voiced soprano on KYA several evenings a week, began her career as a pianist in New York City. She was a professional accompanist for several well-known artists and also appeared in concert work as a soloist. Miss Upshur studied voice under Paul Whiteman's father in Denver where she had as a fellow pupil, Howard Barlow, nationally known conductor, whose programs are broadcast nationally. She was a member of the old Pacific Opera in San Francisco and in radio was known as the "Singing Lady" on the NBC coast network.

- Andy Andrews, interpreter of comedy songs of The Shell Show, gets a lot of personal inspiration from the solitude offered by deep sea fishing. The other day he and a friend hired a trolling boat and went off the coast at Santa Monica. They stayed all day—and this isn't a fish story—and returned with more than a hundred barracuda and yellow-tail and one jewfish. Andy doesn't like fish himself—so he and his friend spent the evening distributing their catch to old friends in Beverly Hills and Hollywood. Andy's favorite dish is spinach.

RUSH HUGHES, "Observer" of the Shell Show, which is heard every Monday night over the NBC-KGO network at 8:00 o'clock P. S. T., has written and broadcast more than one million words on the air.

One of the most colorful microphone writers and speakers, this big, dark, good-looking chap has never run out of something to say despite the fact that he has been talking to ether listeners for seven years. Before undertaking his present work of creating and broadcasting the Langendorf Pictorial and acting as master of ceremonies for the hour-long Shell presentation, his experience included work as an announcer, program manager, news broadcaster, production manager and operator of a radio station.

His unfailing ability to find sentences at once crisp, compact and descriptive, as well as easy to listen to, carries on the tradition of his family, for he is the son of Rupert Hughes, famous novelist. His mother, the beautiful Adelaide Hughes, was a well known actress, and Rush inherited his interest in the theater from her.

Born in Jamaica, Long Island, Rush was educated at St. John's Manlius Academy, Mercersburg Academy and Princeton. He was just sixteen years old when Blanche Bates persuaded his parents to let him play in "Getting Together" with her and its cast of world-famed stars and between school terms he continued in stage and screen work.

Then the wanderlust attacked him and the young man came to California. Because he was too proud to write home for money he spent days seeking a job and finally landed one at the Hotel Mark Hopkins in San Francisco. It was a minor one at the desk, but it gave him his radio debut just the same. The sudden illness of the announcer who ushered Anson Weeks' orchestra on and off the air created an emergency, and Rush said modestly he thought he could meet it. He pinch-hitted so well that he was awarded a regular job as announcer at a local broadcasting station.

Some months later, while in the East on a pleasure trip, young Hughes was taken ill and forced to give up his Coast position. Upon recovering he went to work for a New York City station and eventually became program manager there. The major broadcasting systems had not yet been organized to their present efficiency, and it was necessary to secure talent at little or no cost. Hughes put on programs for ninety-seven hours every week, getting actors and musicians wherever and however he could.

Then followed some experience in the radio department of an advertising agency, interrupted by that well known urge to be in the West again. He came back to California in 1929 and since has been heard on various stations up and down the coast, announcing sport and other events which have developed his quick, picturesque speaking style.

Hughes comments smilingly that after his novelist father had tried unsuccessfully to get him interested in writing he found himself suddenly undertaking a job that required him to write some 3,000 words a day for his Pictorial program, and now the work of acting as observer-on-the-spot for the Shell Show Monday nights has been added to this.

Rush has little time for hobbies left in his busy working day. Luckily he enjoys doing most of the things which his work demands—such as reading all the newspapers and current news magazines, in order to keep informed on world events, and viewing in person every sports or other notable event which takes place in his locality. He takes time off now and then for a day's fishing.
HARRY VON ZELL, veteran staff announcer of the Columbia Broadcasting System, was born July 11, 1906, in Indianapolis, Indiana. He received his early education in rural and elementary schools in the Hoosier state and was graduated from high school in Sioux City, Iowa.

Harry moved to the west coast and matriculated at the Los Angeles branch of the University of Southern California. He left college after his first year when an injury sustained on the football field caused a long period of inactivity. He had been more or less successful in school and college as a boxer, so he decided to turn professional. Fighting as a lightweight, Harry won three bouts and lost and tied one each before deserting fisticuffs as a profession.

At 19 he obtained a job as a messenger boy in a Los Angeles bank, leaving after a few months to become payroll clerk of the Los Angeles and Salt Lake Railroad. He studied singing on the side and made his radio debut quite by surprise one day when he went with some friends to watch the production of a Saturday afternoon amateur hour on the air. His friends had previously arranged to have the master-of-ceremonies introduce Harry as a performer, so when he unwittingly heard himself announced there was nothing for him to do but step to the microphone and sing. This led to several “fill-in” engagements at station KMIC as a singer, and he got his first experience for his present career when announcing his own programs.

About this time Harry went on one of those casual parties which changed his entire life. He met the girl and they were married on October 20, 1925. On the marriage license her name appeared as Minerva McGarvey, but to him she has always been just “Mickey.” The von Zells now live at Bayside, Long Island, with their five-year-old son, Kenneth Harry.

After a year with the railroad, a vacancy occurred on the regular staff of KMIC. Harry got the job and has been in radio ever since. After six months there as a singer and announcer, his clear, resonant voice attracted the attention of officials at KMTR, then a Columbia outlet, which engaged him as a staff announcer. Again his voice caught the ear of a station manager and he went to KGB, San Diego, as program director. KMTR wanted him back and he returned there in the same capacity.

Harry got his first real break in 1929, when Paul Whiteman was in Hollywood filming “The King of Jazz.” Whiteman needed an announcer for his first radio series, the Old Gold Hour, a nationwide CBS feature, and Harry won the assignment, competing in auditions with 250 other aspirants. When Whiteman left the coast to return east, Harry was offered a job as a CBS staff announcer in New York. He joined the staff in May, 1930, and has been a prominent and popular member ever since.

Von Zell is well known for his work on such programs as the March of Time, the All-America Football Show, the Byrd broadcasts and from the South Pole, and many other outstanding presentations. He has appeared as announcer for a host of celebrities, including Jack Benny, the Marx Brothers, Colonel Stoopnagle and Budd, Helen Morgan, and many more. He spends his spare time writing humorous and dramatic radio scripts and has had three series sold and successfully produced.

SIDE-GLANCES: Harry is husky and athletic. . . Has brown hair and blue eyes. . . Weighs 175 and is 5-feet-10 in height. . . Affable, even-tempered, and well liked by the studio folk. . . Plays a good game of tennis, still is fond of boxing, is an expert swimmer, and recently has taken up boating. . . Also likes to take long drives in the country in his convertible phaeton. . . Has a pleasant baritone voice.

BROADCAST WEEKLY

1114 Mission St., San Francisco, Calif.
All the Way from Alabama

I’ve been reading your Broadcast Weekly regularly for several weeks now and get a great kick out of the gossip sections. I think the magazine is a peach and wish you best of success with it.

—E. M. M., Birmingham, Ala.

A Bootlift for Claptrap

First of all, I like the new Broadcast Weekly, News and Comment, Ether Etchings, and Microphone Gossip are good departments. I was so glad to see Iola McReynolds say a good word about Charles Hart and the Standard Symphony Hour. It is indeed refreshing to have someone boost, and say kind things about the few good things we get on the radio. I like the pictures of the radio artists interspersed among the pages of programs. Yes, it is a good little magazine. The editorials seems to be fair, and the advertising pages are pleasingly free from ballyhoo.

There has been some comment about your program arrangement. It must be somewhat difficult to make up the programs for an entire week. Indeed, it is almost impossible to depend on the radio column in the daily papers. You turn the dial, expecting to get a certain thing, and—it's something entirely different. There has been a change the last minute. I believe it would be fair on the part of announcers to apologize for this bit of discourtesy. Wouldn’t it be the devil if you went to see “The Life and Virtue of Ann McCoom,” and to find “The Sins of King Hokum.”

Wasn’t it a pity to have Polak, Hart, and Hornik kicked off the air in the late evening for that hour of rubbish, the Night Court? Ye gods! The trend of things seems to be in favor of the worst kind of trash. I know, it is said that this country is very young mentally; but isn’t it a pity—a pity—that the radio should attract too many of those “mentally young” who are just learning to spell.

I miss Gypsy’s Closeups. I believe that can be laid at the door of Broadcast Weekly, eh? Get those interviews back. They were good. So many enjoyed them. And they were well handled, too. We miss Gypsy’s friendly voice Sunday evenings.

And, so, that’s all. You are a power for good. Boost it whenever you can. Encourage the best in music, the best of the drama.

Give the cheap and the claptrap a bootlift every chance you have. The radio should, I believe, help us to—grow up; for, certainly, we don’t want to be “mentally young” another 150 years.

—D. E. S., Oakland, Calif.

Yours Until the Crack of Doom

While we have been enjoying your fine little magazine for the past three and a half years, I’ve always intended to write—at last I’ve gotten to it. The reason is to compliment on your “greatly improved” edition. I’ve just subscribed for another year, and you can be sure it is a mighty welcome addition to our radio. In fact, I don’t think the radio would “run” without our Broadcast Weekly right on top. We have every issue (but one) for three and a half years. It is fun to look through them to see the great improvement in programs and read about “artists” of that time. If I should begin to tell you of our favorite programs, you wouldn’t find space to print them. We have a favorite program for most every hour of the day—beginning from 7 a.m. until midnight. We enjoy our radio to the fullest extent. There are some programs we do not care for—but, Oh! so many that we do—that a turn of the dial is all that is required. My favorite programs of the afternoons are “Al Pearce Gang,” “Feminine Fancies” and “Sweeten Lovely,” an hour and forty-five minutes of the most enjoyable entertainment. I seldom miss them.

I like the idea of “Chain Programs Classified” and your new way of program listings. Surely is a great improvement over the old way. Just one thing about your little book—why not have some new pictures taken of the “Radio Artists.” Some of the pictures you are printing now are exactly the same as they were in issues of over three years ago and also in the “Album of Artists” you sold for a dollar, about two years ago. I’m sure styles and faces change some in that time. I like all your editorials and Ether Gleanings by Clarence Myers, and Microphone Gossip, also Open Circuit. It’s nice to read letters from listeners.

Our wishes for your continued success of the best little radio magazine published. You can be sure of our subscription as long as we have a radio.

—Mrs. E. C. S., Sacramento, Calif.

Behind the Baton

The best bet for dance music on the western air lanes at the present time is Irving Aaronson and his Commanders, who are heard nightly over CBS from the beautiful casino at Catalina Island. Aaronson brings to the Pacific Coast the same high type of music for which he is known throughout the Middle West. He features a scintillating four-man saxophone section and a bevy of outstanding vocal stars.

The announced personal appearance of Kay Kyser’s Carolinians at the General Motors Auto Show in San Francisco will not take place. A great many people will be deprived of the pleasure of seeing Kay and his boys, due to the last minute intervention of the San Francisco Musician’s Union, which seems to show a decided preference for local talent on these occasions.

Vic Meyer, whose band has been a feature at the Club Victor in Seattle since his musical comeback of a month ago, is now on tour with his orchestra. Hal Grayson is filling in at the Club Victor during Meyer’s absence, having come up from Santa Monica’s Casa Del Mar.

An ambitious young band is broadcasting over NBC from the new Music Box Cafe in San Francisco under the leadership of Harry Barris, popular composer of many song hits. Barris’ spectacular arrangements are somewhat beyond the capabilities of his musicians, but Loyce Whiteman’s vocal offerings help raise the standard of the cafe’s musical broadcasts.

Lennie Hayton’s NBC studio band is still tops. Hayton, on his Saturday night Terraplane commercial program, puts out the ultra in dance music presentations for a band of this type, having such musicians as the Dorsey brothers, Jimmy and Tommy, as instrumental soloists.

Flashbacks.—Kenny Sergeant, now with the Casa Loma Orchestra, did vocals a few years back with Francis Craig and his popular NBC band in Nashville, Tennessee. Two years ago, Laurence Brown, Duke Ellington’s ace trombonist, was playing for Curtis Mosby’s Blueblowers at San Francisco’s Showboat Cafe. . . . Gogo Delays, now the San Francisco NBC studio’s premiere feminine vocalist, was formerly featured with Jimmy Grier’s Coconut Grove Orchestra and on the Demi-Tasse Revue. . . . Lu Waters, Carol Lofner’s arranger and trumpet player, at one time worked with Earl Sapiro’s Orchestra at San Francisco’s Palace Hotel.

ETHER ETCHINGS
By IOLA McREYNOLDS

Our friends of the air haven't a corner on "make believe," so let's for a short time "play like" we are living in a little city on the banks of a river in the southeastern part of the United States. It is late afternoon and we are filled with expectancy. Running to the door every few minutes, listening and looking down the river. At last we see it, the smoke above the trees around the bend in the river, and there's the whistle! "Here comes the Show Boat!"

We drop everything and rush down to the landing to see her dock. What a thrill! Captain Henry waves to us and shouts greetings in his jolly, friendly voice. And as he says, "This is only the beginnin' folks, only the beginnin'!"

We get all dressed up in our finest "Sunday-go-to-meetin'" clothes, and at "lamp lightin' time" we hurry aboard the Show Boat. We get seated as near the stage as we can and wait for the first curtain call. And there it is, with Gus Haenschens' Orchestra, and Captain Henry's hearty welcome. We are delighted with the vivid pictures brought to our mind by the lovely voice of Annette Henshaw, accompanied by the orchestra, and we get a good laugh at the antics of Molasses and January.

We are entertained with the drama presented by the cast, and get a REAL thrill when Lannie Ross and Mary Lou sing a duet, their voices blending so perfectly. Mary Lou is so lovely that we can't blame Lannie for wanting to stay with the Show Boat, rather than go back to Hollywood. And when he sings his love to her we get the thrillingest thrill of all!

At last comes the grand finale and the curtain goes down with the promise that, "Just around the corner, there's a rainbow in the sky."

We leave amid the gay clamar of voices discussing the show, and soon the boat is untied from the wharf and steams away, leaving behind a little lost feeling, as with gay good byes, around the bend and out of sight, "There goes the Show Boat." But didn't we have a good time!

* * *

If there is any voice on the air that is sweeter than that of Jessica Dragonette, we have yet to hear it. It is pure, thrillingly sweet, and frankly unaffected, whether singing classics or simple ballads.

A CHARMING bit of organ music played by Paul Carson, followed by the insistent ringing of the door bell and into our home steps our "neighbor," Ann Warner. She greets us with a friendly "hello, neighbor," and sits right down to chat about this and that. She is very much informed and in a neighborly way passes helpful knowledge along on to us. Advising us about home making, the care of children, entertainment, and even how to hold a husband!

The having and keeping of beauty is of importance to every woman and our "neighbor" passes along to us some valuable secrets appertaining to this; the art of entertaining our friends in the best possible manner is a desirable one and she gives us ideas for doing that; the question of child rearing and the guiding of youth is the vital responsibility of everyone, whether there are children in the home or not, as our lives cannot help touching their's in someway; therefore Ann Warner's helpful suggestions for doing this should be much appreciated, and as so many of us are dependent upon our own efforts the employment suggestions are also timely.

All in all, Ann Warner is a real neighbor, and fortunate indeed are those who are privileged to listen to her each afternoon. And listening to her is not the only privilege accorded listeners during this half hour. Paul Carson at the organ intersperses the talks with delightful selections played in his own inimitable way.

* * *

On the dreamy music of Wayne King's orchestra we are carried, as on a "magic carpet" to scenes of widely different location.

Sometimes it were as though we are drifting on a calm lake with lazy little waves lapping against the boat while someone plays a love song that echoes sweetly across the water; sometimes we are transported to a foreign land, on the streets of Cairo perhaps, where all is vivid color and strange alluring mystery; and sometimes we are seated in a patio where the air is heavily perfumed with flowers while a lovely senorita dances to the music of muted strings. And it may be that we, in fancy, sway to the strains of a lovely, dreamy waltz, carried away as in a dream on its drifting melody.

One can imagine a lot of things while listening to music like that.
NORTHWEST POLL SHOWS
LOCAL PROGRAMS POPULAR

Programs originating in their own bailiwick received a big vote in the Seattle Post-Intelligencer's Radio Preference Poll, particulars of which were released recently.

A month of voting is over, and the Post-Intelligencer presents the favorite programs and performers selected by scores of radio fans in Seattle and vicinity.

Hal Wolf of KOMO-KJR took a commanding lead among the 36 local and national announcers who received votes.

One of the astounding features of the contest, the report states, "was the strong vote piled up by Cowboy Joe, whose plaintive and stirring songs of the range are heard regularly over KJR. Coming from all parts of the state and from British Columbia, the votes put him ahead of John Charles Thomas, NBC-KOMO baritone.

The race was close among the comedy stars, Joe ("Wanna Buy a Duck") Penner edging out Eddie Cantor by six votes after trailing the banjo-eyed comedian all through the contest.

The religious class provided another interesting contest, which saw KOMO's 'Old Songs of the Church' winning over 'Morning Reveries,' an attraction of the same station. Oddly enough, both programs are under the direction of Carl Olson, who received several votes in the announcer's class.

Henry Damski's Concert Orchestra, an exclusive KOMO-KJR feature, led all concert orchestras by a wide margin.

The closest fight for first place honors was among symphony orchestras: the San Francisco (NBC) and the New York Philharmonic (CBS) aggregations setting the pace and the latter winning by one vote.

The voting resulted in 'landsides' for such features as 'Amos 'n' Andy,' 'One Man's Family,' 'Henri Damski's Concert Orchestra,' 'Cowboy Joe,' and 'Rocky Mountaineers.'

The final results follow:

Announcer—Hal Wolf, KOMO-KJR, first.
Comedy Stars—Joe Penner, first; Eddie Cantor, now off the air, second.
Dramatic Stars—Don Ameche, first; Ted Maxwell, second.
Symphony Orchestras—New York Philharmonic, first; San Francisco, second.

Concert Orchestras—Henri Damski, first; Waldorf Astoria, second.
Dance Bands—Wayne King's, first; Rudy Vallee's, second.
Vocal Artists—Cowboy Joe, first; Arizona Joe, second.
Instrumental Artists—Paul Carson, organist, first; Ivan Ditmars, second.
Musical Features—Rocky Mountaineers, first; U. S. Marine Band "Shut-In" Hour, second.
Variety Programs—Al Pearce and His Gang, first; "Show Boat," second.
Religious Programs—"Old Songs of the Church," first; "Morning Reveries," second.

PHILLIPS LORD TO STAGE
CARIBBEAN TALKIE DRAMA

A jungle story, with Phillips Lord—Seth Parker to millions of NBC listeners—in the leading role, is soon to be filmed in the Caribbean, according to Arcturus Pictures Corporation of New York.

Lord is in the West Indies arranging details and selecting the cast. "Destination Unknown" is the tentative title for the picture. The story is the dramatic account of a modern radio star captured by natives of a South American jungle. Alice Wessler will be starred as a native girl.

Lord's visit to the West Indies is part of his tour of adventure around the world, aboard his schooner "Seth Parker." In filming the picture, the "Seth Parker" will visit Haiti, Jamaica, many of the islands in the Caribbean and the coast of Venezuela. Three months will be spent on location.

National Magazine May Use Radiovote to Poll Readers

The radio-voting system developed by Dr. Nevil C. Hopkins, of New York University, and adopted for experimentation by WOR, Newark, has attracted much attention both among set manufacturers and among national organizations interested in taking straw votes. It is understood that one of the biggest manufacturers is negotiating for the rights on the idea, with a view to including the feature in its sets, and a national magazine is considering the method for conducting polls on public questions.
Ask yourself this question

WHY should I buy a refrigerator that is already out of date when I can have the added advantages of a new-type STEWART-WARNER without additional cost, and save money every month on operation.

STEWART-WARNER

LOW PRICES EASY TERMS

INSIST on seeing a STEWART-WARNER

Prepare to change your entire conception of home refrigerators. STEWART-WARNER is a NEW TYPE. From Coast to Coast acclaimed by housewives and Home Economists alike as the greatest sensation since the discovery of electrical home refrigeration. Economy of operation that is simply amazing. Such surpassing convenience that the nation’s foremost Home Economists have come out publicly and endorsed this NEW-TYPE refrigerator. Spring some of these facts on a competitor when he tries to rush you before you have a chance to see STEWART-WARNER. DEMAND a showdown. STEWART-WARNER Dealers welcome it, challenge it. It's your money, therefore up to you to see that you get the most for it. INSIST on seeing a new-type STEWART-WARNER.
COLUMBIA BROADCASTING SYSTEM TO LINK ARCTIC WITH AN ARCTIC CIRCLES BY RADIO

A spectacular attempt to link the Arctic and Antarctic Circles through the medium of radio will be undertaken by the Columbia Broadcasting System on July 11. Preparations for the involved set-up that will carry voices from one polar region to Admiral Byrd at the other end of the world, have been in progress for many months and final details were worked out through the good graces of the Alaskan Division of the Seattle Chamber of Commerce.

A temporary Columbia Broadcasting System station will be erected well up within the Arctic Circle region of northwestern Alaska with Robert Flagler of Seattle in charge. Mr. Flagler is an experienced broadcast and telephone engineer and has had considerable experience in radio construction and communications work in Alaska. He has been granted a leave of absence by the Seattle Telephone Company to carry out the difficult assignment.

Equipment for the broadcast has been arranged for by Columbia and will include one of the latest Collins Transmitters—a duplicate of that being used by Admiral Byrd at Little America during the course of his regular weekly broadcasts. Supplementary equipment has been loaned by Station KOL of Seattle. All of this radio apparatus has been shipped to Nome, from whence it will be taken by coastwise steamers and dog teams to a remote point in the Arctic Circle. It is planned to select a location as far to the northwest as possible.

It will be necessary for Mr. Flagler to serve not only as manager and engineer of this station, but as casting director, continuity writer, and announcer. In this remote section he must gather together a cast that will be able to stage the Arctic portion of the program. Just what kind of a show he can work up and where he is going to locate his station are problems that Flagler is now worrying about while making the first leg of his long journey. One thing is certain, the last leg of his trip is going to be by dog team.

It will be a case of two extremes meeting in more ways than one. While Little America is veiled in its six months darkness, the Arctic Circle will be enjoying its midnight sun period. Both locations will have ice packs at their doors, but while in Little America it is spreading day by day, in the Arctic Circle it will be receding.

Signals of the northern radio station will be carried by shortwave from the Arctic to Point Reyes, outside of San Francisco, a distance of nearly 4,000 miles, relayed there to Buenos Aires, and thence to Little America, with Admiral Byrd’s signals taking a reverse course back as he acknowledges the greetings from The Land of the Midnight Sun.

Brunton Takes Over KQW

Control and management of KQW, San Jose, has been acquired by Ralph Brunton, owner and manager of KJBS. Mr. Brunton announced that he will take over the station on June 1, operating both KJBS and KQW as a state network to be known as the California Broadcasting System.

KQW is the oldest broadcasting station in the world and has served California listeners for more than a quarter of a century. New equipment will be installed at KQW and the present studios will be removed to a more centrally located spot in San Jose, Mr. Brunton said.

The broadcast of farm news and agriculture services, which includes weather reports, crop information and commodity quotations, will continue over KQW as heretofore, Mr. Brunton stated.

S. A. Melnicco, formerly manager of KFBK, Sacramento, and for the past year associated with KJBS, will direct the San Jose activities of KQW. Carleton Coveny has been named sales manager of the northern California Broadcasting System.

J. Clarence Myers, director of KQW’s San Francisco Studio, will have charge of all agriculture broadcasts on the chain. The Dollar Building studios of KQW in San Francisco will be closed, it was announced.

Oceanside Advertises Over Air

The city of Oceanside, in northern San Diego County, Calif., recently started a radio campaign on KFOX, Long Beach, with three 15-minute spots weekly to call attention to the beach city in the center of a rich farming district.

Protest Studio Audiences

At their annual convention recently held in Hollywood, the Motion Picture Theatre Owners of America adopted a resolution to request the Government and the Federal Radio Commission to forbid the practice of allowing large audience attendance at broadcasts in theatres and assembly halls.

A live animal offered over the radio is causing intense juvenile interest on the Dr. West “Adventures of Frank Merriwell” program. Listeners send in two Double-Quick Toothpaste cartons to receive a live Louisiana racing turtle.
