The official landing of Rear Admiral Richard E. Byrd in Washington on May 10 on his return from his second Antarctic expedition and his welcome home by President Roosevelt will be broadcast over a National Broadcasting Company network.

The reception will be held in the Washington Navy Yard where the former revenue cutter Bear, with the Admiral, his officers and crew aboard, will dock after steaming up the Potomac from Hampton Roads, Virginia. President Roosevelt and other government officials will first greet the explorers on the deck of the Bear and will then receive them aboard the Presidential yacht Sequoia. It is expected Byrd will arrive in Washington in the afternoon on Friday, May 10. The exact time and specific NBC network over which the broadcast will be heard will be announced later.

The King George V Jubilee celebration over CBS, beginning on Sunday, May 5, 10:55 a.m., offers unusual color and interest to dialers. The Sunday broadcast will be followed by King George's address to the Empire on Monday, 10:45 a.m. and Rudyard Kipling's speech at noon, Monday, May 6, at the banquet of the Society of King George.

KFRC and Columbia net stations carry the programs.

Other high spots for the week include the World Peace Foundation program, Tuesday, 6:45 p.m., over CBS. President Roosevelt's address of welcome to Admiral Byrd, Friday, May 10, over both BC and CBS net. Time is to be announced. Another outstanding highlight of the week is the National Geographic Society Stratosphere Flight program, over NBC network.

This is the season for welcoming new features and bidding an adieu to winter favorites. Among the new features over NBC:

The Sunday Forum with Dr. Ralph Sockman, 9:30 a.m., Sunday.

Paul Pendarvis makes a bow at the Palace Hotel on Sunday evening, May 5, at 10, occupying the Coakley spot, as well as every evening except Monday at 10.

Max Baer in "Lucky Smith," Monday, KPO net, 6:30 p.m.

Fanfare, a new KPO feature, 9 p.m., Tuesday.

John Charles Thomas is heard in the new dramatic series "Home on the Range," 5 p.m., Wednesday, with Carson Robison, cowboy singer, Frank Luther, tenor, Willie Morris, soprano, and Zora Layman, vocalist.

Grace Hayes, musical comedy star, is scheduled for Wednesday, 6:15, p.m., KPO net, followed at 7:30 p.m., by Gertrude Berg, in the "House of Glass."

Meredith Willson and soloist offers "The Wandering Minstrel" at 9:30 p.m., Wednesday.

Larry Larsen, airs an organ recital from Chicago via KPO net Thursday, at 1:30 p.m., and Floyd Gibbons unleashes his verbs and adjectives at 8 p.m.

Irene Rich, dramatic, actress will emote from New York at 4 p.m., Friday, over KPO.

Saturday, NBC sessions include John Kennedy and Radio City party at 5 p.m.; Al Jolson at a new time at 5:30, followed at 6:30 by National Geographic Stratosphere Flight program.

Chief Quinn returns to KGO Saturday evening, 9:30 in more "Strange Cases."

A description of the Memphis Cotton Carnival is scheduled for Columbia airing on Tuesday, May 6, between 9:30 and 10:00 a.m., P.S.T. The broadcast will originate on the riverfront in Memphis with the arrival of the King and Queen of Cotton on the royal barge.

Jack Benny to Celebrate
Third Anniversary on Air

Jack Benny will celebrate his third anniversary as a radio joker at his broadcast with Mary Livingstone, Frank Parker, and Don Bestor's orchestra from Hollywood over an NBC-KPO network on Sunday, May 5, at 7:30 p.m., P. S. T. Benny made his debut as a regular air performer during the first week of May, 1932.

Editors and Educators
Discuss World Affairs

A series of six Wednesday night broadcasts on "The United States and World Affairs," including such noted speakers as Professor Philip C. Jessup; Bruce Bliven, editor of the New Republic; Walter Lippman, editor and commentator, and Robert M. Hutchins, president of the University of Chicago, started over an NBC network April 24, from 6:45 to 7 p.m., P. S. T.

As a departure from the usual routine on the "Salon Moderne" program from KFRC, on Sunday, May 5, from 7 to 7:30 p.m., Miss Bea Benedaret will appear as Mistress of Ceremonies, presenting Claude Sweeten and his orchestra in sprightly music, supplemented with songs.

Daylight saving ushers in many new programs and changes in broadcasting time. Here are a few notes to enter in your listening log, for the week beginning May 5.

Ethel Merman and Al Goodman's Orchestra on CBS, Sunday, 4 p.m.
Max Baer appears in "Lucky Smith" drama, over KPO net, Monday, 6:30 p.m.
Al Jolson "Chateau" show, has finally settled down to a definite hour—5:30 p.m., Saturday, instead of Monday.
Radio Guild dramas over KGO-KDYL on Monday, 12:30 p.m.
Edwin C. Hill signs off with his May 6th broadcast.
Don Bestor is at the St. Francis instead of Anson Weeks and Al Morris is at the Bal Tabarin, replacing Happy Felton.
Victor Kolar's Detroit Symphony Hour is heard at 5 p.m., Sunday, instead of 6 p.m. The Philharmonic Orchestra season is over until fall. The Eddie Cantor weekly opus retires for the summer.
Don Bestor is also heard over CBS every evening except Monday; and not forgetting the new time for Jack Benny, 7:30 p.m., Sunday, and for "One Man's Family, 8:30 p.m., over KPO and network.

Arlene Francis Joins Lillie Show
Arlene Francis, striking brunette of stage and screen, has joined Beatrice Lillie's cast and will be heard on all of the comedienne's future Friday programs over a nation-wide network with Warren Hull, Lee Perrin's orchestra, and the Cavaliers Quartet. She will play supporting rôles in dramatizations of Aunty Bea-sop's Fables.

Half a Song Sufficient for Jones Boys
The Jones Boys, new NBC darky quintet whose distinctive style of singing foretells a new vogue in harmony, open a week's engagement at the Warfield Theatre May 10. The theatre management asked them for a try-out to make certain they sounded as good on the stage as on the air; the boys obliged, but got just half-way through their first song when they were halted, to sign the contract without further trial.

Food and Nutrition Subject of University of California Series
"Food and Nutrition" is the general title of a new series of radio programs inaugurated by the University of California, to be given each Monday morning for twenty weeks. The series will be directed by Dr. Helen B. Thompson, chairman of the department of home economics, on the Los Angeles campus of the University. The programs may be heard at 10:30 over stations of the Columbia-Dom Lee network.
On May 6 the topic is "The Nutritive Value of Canned Food." Maud Evans is the speaker. On May 13, Bernice Allen discusses "The Color Appeal of Food."

Garbo Breaks Silence
Jack Benny never was more enthused than he was last Sunday night immediately after his broadcast.
Greta Garbo, who seldom listens to radio, called him personally to tell him how much she enjoyed his work.
Listeners will recall that Garbo's name was used on the program when Jack introduced, as a famed Hollywood celebrity, the boy who delivers Garbo's groceries.
"I am going to listen to your program next week, too," said Garbo.

Speech Winners on Air

Winners of the fifth annual speech tournament of the National Forensic League will give their winning speeches in a broadcast from station WGAR in Cleveland to be heard nationally over an NBC network from 7 to 8 a. m., P.S.T., on Friday, May 10.

There are five winners who have survived the elimination contests of some 5,000 high schools and have been adjudged preeminent in the five different categories of speaking: original oratory, extemporaneous, humorous, dramatic, and oratorical declamation.

An NBC-KPO network will release the broadcast in the West.

Robert A. Millikan, director of the California Institute of Technology and president of the National Advisory Council on Radio in Education, will be heard over an NBC coast-to-coast network at 3:15 p. m., P.S.T., on Tuesday, May 7.

Speaking from NBC's Hollywood studios, Dr. Millikan will greet delegates attending the Sixth Annual Institute for Education by Radio, combined with the Fifth Annual Assembly of the National Advisory Council on Radio in Education, at Columbus, Ohio.

KGO will head the western network releasing his address.

Doctor Sockman in New Series

Heralding a new series of summer religious programs, Dr. Ralph W. Sockman, pastor of the three-million-dollar Christ Church in New York City, will inaugurate his Sunday Forum on May 5 over a transcontinental network from 9:30 to 10 a. m., P.S.T. The New York clergyman is noted for his stand on many issues of the day, and has been prominent in the moves for peace by the Federal Council of Churches and his own Methodist Episcopal Church. The radio series by Dr. Sockman will continue throughout May, June and July.

KPO heads the western network releasing this program.

Dramatic Shows Renewed for 1936

First Nighter and Grand Hotel, popular dramatic programs presenting original radio plays, will be brought to radio listeners over National Broadcasting Company networks for another full year under new contracts recently signed by the Campana Sales Company, sponsor of both programs.

First Nighter, starring June Meredith and Don Ameche, is broadcast over an NBC nation-wide network Friday at 6 p. m., P.S.T. Grand Hotel, featuring Anne Seymour and Ameche is heard each Sunday at 2:30 p. m., P.S.T.

Completion of the new First Nighter contract will mark a dramatic run of almost five and one-half years over NBC networks. The program, with Miss Meredith playing the feminine lead, made its debut on November 28, 1930. Grand Hotel made its bow October 1, 1933.

KPO heads the network of stations in the West broadcasting these programs.
FOR the Pacific Coast short-wave listener, the Australian stations have probably been more reliable than those in any country of the world, so far as strength and regularity of reception are concerned.

3LR, on 9.58 meg., located in Melbourne, may be heard nightly wafting a variety of programs from the National Network to listeners in remote areas of the commonwealth and to the world in general. The official schedule calls for operation daily, except Sunday, from 12:15 to 4:30 a.m., with an extra period on Friday evening from 9:30 to 11:15 p.m., when a running commentary on the horse races is broadcast direct from the Melbourne race track. On Saturday morning, an excellent short-wave chat is given between 12:15 and 12:30 a.m.

Despite the fact that a power of only 600 watts is being used, 3LR always sends a powerful signal roaring into this country that carries with it an echo of the Antipodes. This echo is a peculiar characteristic of the carrier wave and often mars what would otherwise be well-nigh perfect reception.

VK2ME on 9.59 meg., located in Sydney, is the oldest broadcast station in Australia, and shakes the antenna masts every Saturday night from 10 p.m. to midnight, and Sunday morning from 2 to 6 and 8:30 to 11:30 a.m., with a power of 20,000 watts. The call of the Kookaburra bird, the national bird of Australia, has become famous as an identification signal over this station. The programs from 2ME consist mostly of recordings, with the announcer’s taste seeming to lean toward the heavier type of music for the most part.

VK3ME on 9.51 meg., is the only other short-wave broadcasting station in Australasia at the present time. Broadcasts are carried out on Wednesday, Thursday, and Saturday from 2 to 4 a.m., and the antenna power of three kilowatts sends an excellent signal across the ocean.

In addition to these broadcasting stations, there are a number of Australian phone stations which may be heard on many frequencies and at varying times. VLK on 10.52 meg. usually phones England near midnight; VLJ on 9.76 meg. phones ZLT of Wellington, New Zealand, at 11 p.m.; and VIZ3, the latest addition to the transoceanic phone service, may often be picked up on 11.49 meg. at irregular times between 4 and 8 a.m.

Latest Short Wave News Flashes

Another star, this time in the East, has arisen in the short-wave firmament. The newcomer is located at Hongkong and the call sign is ZBW. The transmitter is being heard from 3 to 6 a.m. every morning on a frequency of about 9.09 meg. All announcements are in English and all entertainment is English in character, many well-known records being played during the early part of the program. At 4 a.m. the following announcement easily identifies the station: "This is the Hongkong broadcasting station calling. Please stand by for the 8 o’clock time signals.”

KAY, 14.98 meg., of Manila, has become very active during the past few days and has been busily engaged in sending test programs to Hongkong and San Francisco for observation. The programs originate in the studios of KZRM in Manila, and the feminine announcer handles most of the work at the microphione. Native music usually predominates until 9:30 p.m., following which the latest news bulletins are read.
JVN on 10.66 meg., is still broadcasting irregularly between 4 and 10 p. m., and is the only other station in Japan which is broadcasting on short waves at the present time. However, a number of phone stations operate at irregular times, the best being JVF on 15.61 meg., which is heard daily between 12:30 and 1 p. m., and JIC on 5.89 meg., which phones JVV (5.79 meg.) at about 11 p. m.

During the past month, a number of interesting baseball broadcasts have been relayed over JVM between 9:30 p. m. and 1 a. m.

JVM, 10.74 meg., the phantom Nipponese station at Nazaki, has again replaced JVT on the regular 10:50 to 11:20 p. m., and 1 to 4:40 a. m. relays of JOAK. The Japanese stations change frequencies so often that experienced dialers have almost given up trying to predict the future for these Oriental transmissions.

From Suva in the Fiji Islands comes the voice of VPIA on 13.07 meg on a daily schedule, except Saturday, which calls for transmission between the hours of 9:30 and 10:30 p. m. The station can easily be identified by the announcement, "This is Suva radio calling," and by the closing strains of "God Save the King." Reception is usually not particularly reliable, but under favorable conditions, a fairly good signal is forthcoming.

The Week's Special Short Wave Features

The week of May 5 to 11 is English Jubilee Week and many special programs are scheduled from the Daventry transmitters.

At 9:30 a. m. Monday morning, stations GSB on 9.51 meg. and GSD on 11.75 meg. will carry a program entitled "Twenty-five Years." The theme will entail a review of the reign of King George V, with the events and personalities of the reign being presented in terms of narrators, impersonators, sound, and music. A sequence of congratulatory messages will be delivered by the acting prime ministers and governors of the various dominions and colonies, followed by a speech from King George which will be relayed directly from Buckingham Palace. The entire program will be reproduced by means of electrical transcription at 3:50 p. m. over GSB and GSC; at 9:15 p. m. over GSB and GSD; and at 6:40 a. m., Tuesday morning over GSE on 11.86 meg. and GSG on 17.79 meg.

On Monday at 6 a. m., GSE and GSG will relay a thanksgiving service for the protection afforded to the King's Majesty during the twenty-five years of his reign. The broadcast will come directly from the Cathedral Church of St. Paul in London, and the

FANFARE

By J. Lester Malloy

We thought we'd been around until we got a tuneful earful of the places that Silva Cortesi and her violin, now featured on KFRC, have included in concert tours. Miss Cortesi speaks of Paris, London and Dublin in the manner of an East Bay commuter discussing Oakland. We mean that casually. Just the same, she's very modest about all those European triumphs. Even about such things as having been guest star with Switzerland's National Symphony Orchestra.

The four-star ideas of Manager McGill continue to build up the program features of KGGC. Recently, he signed the former KFRC playboy, Mort Werner. Now "Mae" McMahon, dynamic young sports announcer, is telling his swift-paced gossip of things athletic to a KGGC "Mike." And Mr. McGill can take another bow for signing the much-sought-after Philco program, "Short Wave Tips."

If a question and answer department could be included in this column, we'd put Dr. Seth Maker in charge of it. Dr. Maker, in case you didn't know, is NBC's Philistine. For the sake of advertising a certain molar mender, the genial Dr. Maker answers questions. And what questions people do ask. We dropped in for a visit with this wise gentlemen the other afternoon, and he brought out the morning's mail. It included such queries as: "How can I stop snoring?" "Why do wives 'go through' their husband's pockets?" "What's your best fish story?" But the Philistine knows all the answers, we should worry.

Edward Fitzpatrick, who used to make music for NBC, is beaming proudly these days. And he has every right to beam. For Eddie, Jr., has started his ambitious climb up San Francisco's musical ladder. Young Fitzpatrick was singled out for the important job of directing the orchestra at the Bay City's lavish new cocktail temple, The Deauville. He and his boys entertain radio listeners via KFRC.

"Amateur Hour" Director, Station KYA, San Francisco.

Dear Wrongdoer:—We aren't compelled to listen to your program. Some persons don’t. But you’d have a much larger audience if you’d feature the amateur talent instead of the master of ceremonies and the man with that funny voice who reads the endless commercials. Major Bowes averages five amateurs per quarter-hour. Your quota is two, sometimes three.

About those lengthy commercials again. If that’s what being sponsored means, we prefer to continue on our sustaining basis.

Yours truly,

J. L. M.

Short Waves and Remote Rumors: They say that Captain Dobbsie figures prominently in plans that concern a stage-radio show and the Orpheum Theatre. ... Sponsors may take vacations, but politicians don’t, so the radio stations can still go on playing their bills. ... Variety seems to think that "Fats" Waller has made too many records of his African ecstasies, but we're lonesome because he "ain't misbehavin'" via KFRC anymore. . .

This enterprising San Francisco station is presenting many programs that enjoy a wide following. Miss Schneider is frequently heard over the station. Miss St. John, an accomplished violinist, appears on the Yar Gypsies, one of KGGC's most popular musicals. Elizabeth Baird, coloratura of exceptional vocal ability—and charm, is heard every Tuesday evening at 7 o'clock.

Mr. McGill announces that KGGC staff has more than doubled in number, in the last few years, as have regular studios features.

KYA Throws Rice

KYA blossomed out with pink ribbon and wedding bells as Ethel Dance, veteran member of the station staff, said "yes" to W. W. Cartee at the altar on Easter Sunday.

Not to be outdone, Bill Packer gave Eileen Palmer the matrimonial rush the following Monday.

Miss Dance will be remembered for the elusive quality of her squeak as one of the "Three Little Pigs" on Uncle Harry’s Christmas programs.

The Packer-Palmer combine culminates a torrid romance with a studio locale.

The Radio Tattler

- Friends of the Dinner Concert on KYA every evening at 6 o’clock have come to welcome the soft smooth voice of Roderick Mays as an indispensable part of the program.

- One of the first appointments by Dean Maddox, KYA’s new program chief, was Rod’s elevation to the position of producer of dramatic presentations.

- Officials of KOMO in Seattle are quite proud of the fact that their stations ranked ninth in the mail count by NBC division offices and associated stations during the year 1934.

- Frances Farmer, KOMO-KJR dra-
-matic artist and student of drama at the University of Washington, has attracted nation-wide attention and comment by the trip which she is taking to Russia. Frances recently won a subscription contest which gave her a six-week trip to Moscow, where the talented young actress hopes to find inspiration and guidance in her work.

- Miss Farmer, a lovely young blond, has been heard over KJR in dramatic roles in “The Builders,” “The Purple Ray,” and other local productions.

- Agatha Turley, once a KJR artist, is slated for a part in Bing Crosby’s next picture. Miss Turley will sing two lilting Irish ballads, “I Wish I Were on Yonder Hill” and “Spring Awakening.” The scenes in which she will appear will be “shot” in San Francisco.

- Bee Lillie, NBC’s titled comedienne, has been flooded with letters from listeners requesting that she send them, if possible, a complete list of the expressions that have become identified with her on the air. They mention “coo,” “you old bachelor, you,” as being examples of the repertoire they mean.

- Believe it or not, this actually hap-
-pened to Tony Wons, host in the House By the Side of the Road. Back in the days when he was somewhat less of a radio personality, he kept body and soul reconciled by selling books. One day Katharine Cornell came to town and Tony took time off to see her show. When he got back to the office, his boss was raging and ranting. “Where ya been,” he yelled, hurling invectives to the right and left of hapless Tony.

“I don’t care if it was Notre Dame playing in purple pants,” his boss shouted, “your job is selling books, not going to football games!”

- • • • The Prosperian is a cheerful, human counselor heard daily at 10:15 a.m. on KYA. This sage of good sound sense is gaining a wide audience in Northern California because of his helpful talks on an attitude of mind that works in daily experience.

- • • • Mary Livingstone has only one major problem while she and Jack Benny are in Hollywood. It's a matter of diet. As long as Jack is only broadcasting on the NBC air waves he can eat anything he wants. But now that he is going to face the camera again, Mary will see to it that he practices girth-control.

- • • • Don Ameche plays a mean game of golf, is an excellent swimmer and is among the best handball players around the Chicago studios. The handsome star of Grand Hotel and First Nigh ter programs also is an authority on baseball statistics and batting records, and can, if asked, give you the lineup of All-American football teams for the last half dozen years.

Elmer D. Pederson, National Advertising Manager for KNX

Elmer D. Pederson, formerly of Paul Block and Associates, national representatives for the Hearst evening papers on the Pacific Coast, has been appointed National Advertising Manager of Radio KNX.

*9:30 P.M. Saturday nights.
THE WEEKLY HORDORS-COPE

By FRANK COPE

We recently encountered Frank N. Cope of the KJBS "Alarm-Klok-Klub" Copes, and requested that he write us a column between ticks. After his swoon, he gave to the world the following: Hero, World, we hope you can take it:-Ed.

Tch, tch, tch, tch!

The pink shirt my fran Paul NBC Carson wears golf-linking . . . he'll kill me for that ... while on the subject of colors about Carleton KJBS Coveny's gorgeous new green automobile, . . . If Ed Wynn is lissenin as ye SoooooooSoooooo shall we weep. . . . Dave NBC Elton recently saw a sign on a Grant Avenue window "FISH FOR LENT" . . . he entered; and was the Chinese gentleman's face red when David chirped . . . "I want some of those fish in the window but I wanna buy em outright cause we're going to eat em." . . . The graceful way Frederick Lindsey slides over mistakes in reading those CALLING ALL CARS scripts, . . . Maybeh is too good for those lads who chirp through your loudspeaker . . . "In fancy's eye we journey now to the magic island paradise of the blue Pacific for the entrancing strains of the dreamy native hula VickyWickyWukky . . . a recording by Joe Glotz and His Glotzers."

. . . If the dictionary in your home is not complete, play a round of golf with Meredith NBC Maestro Willson sumtime . . . it occurs to this column that a pen lettered more means than a fan letter . . . it's easy to listen to a program you like. . . . We once contemplated an audition at San Francisco's NBC studios but changed our mind after visualizing being kicked out of a twenty-two story window . . . speaking of II1 Sutter . . . Don Production Manager Cope is so tall that although his office is on the second floor he occasionally peeks in the windows on the twenty-second just to see how things are doin. . . . Sometime ago we heard of an announcer who was being reprimanded by his superior for being intoxicated on the job to which the announcer replied . . . on a radio announcer's salary I couldn't afford a chaser . . . he got one for nothing . . . We wonder if Ford NBC NY Bond's McNamie style and voice are pre-meditated . . . or second degree . . . no hard feelings toward either. . . .

*Cupid "Darting" Around NBC Studios

Miss Edith Lippmann of the traffic department of NBC, San Francisco, went into the Civic Center Book Shop not long ago to find a book and came out with a husband. At least he will be her husband on May 7, when Miss Lippmann becomes Mrs. Ted Fillipi. The bridegroom is the handsome young salesman who waited on her; the transaction led to a discussion of favorite books and mutual literary tastes, and these, in turn, to romance.

Miss Lippmann will be the third NBC bride within a few weeks. Miss Mary Oman, formerly of the program traffic department, was married last Monday night in New York to Harold Wilmshurst, brother of Ernest Wilmshurst, technician at Radio City. Miss Dorothy Diggles, also of the program traffic department, is planning a May Day ceremony for her marriage to Robert T. Whitten of the United States Department of Commerce.

Raymond Paige and K. C. B.

The Eastern daylight saving time is responsible for changing the hour at which "Raymond Paige and K. C. B.," popular Pacific Coast feature, will be broadcast throughout the summer months. Sunday and Wednesday night until further notice, this program will be broadcast over the Columbia-Don Lee network, from 8 to 8:15 p. m. Kenneth C. Beaton (K. C. B.), and Raymond Paige's "All-String Choir" will continue to share honors in the program which has found highest favor in the ears of West Coast listeners.
From a group of nearly fifty Scouts, Ray Goldie, of Sea Scout Ship 108, was selected as the official Boy Scout radio reporter and he will report Scout news over KJBS on Friday afternoons, from 4:45 to 5 o'clock.

* * *

"Indian Talks" is the title of a new program now heard over KFOX. Dramatic incidents taken from actual Indian-American history are utilized. 5:45 p.m., Tuesdays and Thursdays, and 6:10, Sundays, is the schedule.

* * *

His name is Joseph Rogato, and he drives a garbage truck. He was on the Major Bowes Amateur Hour recently and his baritone voice won many, many telephone and mailed ballots of appreciation. But Rogato is not thinking about giving up his regular work—he'll tell you he is a mighty good truck driver and hasn't got much confidence in his singing ability.

* * *

Regular tickets are issued and a studio audience allowed for the Paul Whiteman Music Hall dress rehearsals. This audience doesn't know it, but it is used as a "test" and the reactions, especially to Lou Holtz's comedy routine, are valuable in shaping the program that goes on the air each Thursday night. This device is the same as that used by Broadway shows which generally are opened out of town to test reactions and smooth out the rough sections.

* * *

Floyd Gibbons, back on the air with a new program for his old sponsors, has a lot of new ideas for his broadcasts. Listen to his dramatic sequences—it's a new turn for news commentators.

* * *

Lou Holtz is a favorite story teller along Broadway and most any theatrical or radio entertainer will tell you so. That's why his title of "Clown Prince of Broadway" sticks.

* * *

New wrinkle in Rudy Vallee's Variety Hour recently was a vocal chorus by the whole orchestra. Bandmen enjoyed the chance to demonstrate their singing ability as much as listeners did the novelty chorus they sang.

"The Flint Murder Mystery" is the title of the new Boy Detective series launched over KFOX by Hal G. Nichols, producer, with Herbert R. Connor as the author. "Billy Swift" is the hero. The program takes the air nightly, except Sunday, at 7:30 o'clock.
KFRC's Happy Go Lucky troupe will entertain at the Canadian Pacific Exposition, in Vancouver, B. C., late in August. The program may be broadcast over combined Columbia and Canadian Radio Commission networks, according to Ellis Levy, manager of the Thomas Lee Artists Bureau.

The Voice of Experience on May 6 will begin its third year on the air under its present sponsorship.

Pendarvis at Palace

The Palace Hotel, from all appearances, has "picked another winner" in Paul Pendarvis, who follows the popular Tom Coakley, with Warren Hull, m. c., Vocalists and piano duo, from New York. NBC net.

(Continued from Page 7) service will be preceded by a description of the arrival of the King and Queen. Electrical transcriptions of the entire proceedings will be presented at 7 p. m. over GSC on 9.58 meg., and GSL on 6.11 meg., and on Tuesday at 9:15 p. m. over GSB and GSD.

On Sunday morning, the Moscow stations RNE on 12.00 meg. and RKI on 15.00 meg., will broadcast a special program for the International DXers Alliance between 5 and 6 a. m., PST.

Join Broadcast Weekly's "Wide-World, All-Wave Radio Guild." Send in your name and address, information about your set, and tell us your reception problems. Address "All-Wave" Editor, care Broadcast Weekly, 1114 Mission Street, San Francisco.

An avalanche of mail has been the response to the poll conducted by KJBS in which listeners were invited to submit their votes of preference as to the logical site for the 1935 San Francisco Bay Bridge Exposition. Although leading at the outset of the poll, the contest in favor of a mainland selection shifted strongly in favor of holding the exposition on Yerba Buena Shoals.

William Cantwell Cowles, former accompanist and coach for the "Rounders" quartet and pianist for Alice Gentle, this week joined the staff at KIH, Los Angeles, as vocal coach.
