State Rights to Air Claimed by Dissatisfied Broadcasters

STATE rights, which once caused a Civil War, may be invoked eventually to determine whether state governments have any control whatsoever over broadcasting.

The threat that this action may be taken has recently been heard in Washington where, however, officials decline to take it seriously in view of the fact that no way has yet been found to stop radio waves at a state line.

The refusal of the Federal Radio Commission to give free rein to the ambitions of certain broadcasters is believed to be the basis for tentative efforts which have lately been made to sound out sentiment on the question of state rights with respect to radio. "Existing constitutional law," it is contended, gives a state the right both to establish any station it desires for intrastate broadcasting and to prohibit the entry of any program from outside the state.

Any fight that may be made along this line will be one of words only. Regardless of the right of a state to the air above its lands, no practical way of stopping radio waves at a particular point has yet been devised. Thus, it would be impossible both for a station to keep its programs within the confines of its own state and to keep outside programs from entering.

Those who are crying state rights apparently have not heard of Europe's efforts to maintain national rights to the air—efforts which are going on today in some countries. During the early years of broadcasting, many of the European nations sought to keep their nationals from hearing the programs of other countries, fearing that they might contain propaganda—which, as a matter of fact, was broadcast by Soviet stations in Russia. To keep such programs out, a watch was maintained on the frequency of the foreign stations and as soon as they began broadcasting, meaningless signals were emitted on the same wavelength so that nothing intelligible could be received. Even today this is being continued in certain quarters but, generally, it has been dropped as too messy for the results it accomplished.

With forty-eight states assured of their "rights" to their own air, broadcasting in the United States would soon take on a totally different complexion. In fact, there could be no broadcasting at all. As the ruin of broadcasting would be very much against the public interest, supporters of state rights who undertake litigation under "existing constitutional law" would find that law quickly defined in a way they do not now interpret it.

PERSONAL PICKUPS

BY GYPSY

C. E. P., Nevada City.—Billy Jones and Ernie Hare (NBC) are under exclusive contract to the Interwoven Company. Mr. Jones is the tenor of the team. If you have seen pictures of this jovial pair—he is the one who parts his hair in the center. His height is 5 feet 6½ inches, his weight, 171 pounds; he has merry blue eyes, brown hair, is unmarried and was born in New York City forty-one years ago. Mr. Hare is of the same height, weighs 163 pounds, has brown eyes and hair, is married and has a very pretty little daughter aged seven. His birthplace is Norfolk, Virginia, and his age is forty-seven. Both gentlemen celebrate their birthdays on March 15. Their partnership began in 1919.

N. D., Oakland.—The Arion Trio (NBC) is heard each week on Monday morning from 9 to 9:15 and on Thursday during the Standard School broadcast.

S. O. D., Novato.—The German song to which you have reference on the Vienna program over KFRC of January 7, was "Im Prater Blumen Die Baume" and was sung by Frederic Bittke. Mr. Bittke tells me that the majority of songs he offers are not obtainable in this country. I would suggest you write him personally. He would, I know, graciously advise you where to send for them.

H. H., Sacramento.—Earle Hodgins (NBC) felt the lure of the theatre at an age when most boys are concentrating on marbles. To be sure he indulged in an occasional game—he still does—loves youngsters and shares their interest wholeheartedly—but he was one of those lads who, when asked "What will you be when you grow up?" promptly answered, "An actor." He spent his boyhood in Utah, where his father, a mining engineer, planned great things for him only to be faced one day, with the execrable realization that his son had become an inveterate "hookey player." Later the family moved to California. Mr. Earle was sent to business college. His tuition was paid far in advance and—his attendance lasted exactly one week. It wasn't anybody's fault that just one block from the college there stood a theatre and to it young Earle dedicated his life without reservation, until radio came along.

R. H., San Jose.—No relationship exists between the girl and young man you mention. The girl is Irish, blue-eyed and white, while the latter is of the colored race.

P. E. G., Denair.—The young lady responsible for the six months' argument in your family is married and very happily so. Why didn't you write me sooner?

Henry, Sacramento.—Oscar Young and Dell Perry (NBC) are featured in Piano Capers each Saturday afternoon from 1 to 1:15 and Monday evening from 5:30 to 6 o'clock. Frank Galvin is now affiliated with Station KJBS. Ben Harkens and Hugh Helms make up the Tuneful Two at KOMO. The oriental impersonator who broadcasts at KFRC is Bill Seroy. You may hear Tommy Munroe with the Vagabonds over NBC.

F. M., San Francisco.—Edna O'Keefe (KFRC) is a fluffy brunette; the irresistible kind who causes husbands to preen themselves and applaud unrestrainedly. She longs to create an impression of sophistication and strives for effect with evening gowns too mature for her 19 or 20 years, but a discerning eye is not deceived. Then, too, little Edna gives herself away, for she is "simply mad" about this, "wild" about that, "ca-ra-zy" about something else and her dancing eyes betray her with "Oh! isn't it just too marvelous!" You wouldn't, knowing Edna, have her a bit different.

Maxine, Oakland.—Black and Blue (KHJ) are, respectively Charles Forsythe and Len Wright. No, your hero is not married.

Jeanne, Oakland.—Hal Shaer (Laughner & Harris, NBC) is an amiable young chap from Salt Lake City. He is 6 feet tall, weighs 160 pounds, has deep brown eyes, dark hair and such a nice profile. His taste in music is wholly modern; he is a student of psychology, a golf enthusiast, is fond of grape-nuts and wild roses (the kind that grow on bushes) and is generous to a fault.

MICROPHONE GOSSIP

• • • Elbert Bellows, KFRC tenor, once sang for the Duchess and Grand Duchess of Luxembourg. It was after the Armistice had been signed, and Bellows, who had been with the Fifth Division and had seen service on three different sectors on the western front, became a member of one of the show troops organized to entertain the soldiers still in France. He was also a member of the German Army of Occupation.

• • • Aunt Missouri, that high-yellow, richly-humored, infinitely-wise-and-kind-and-witty person of radioland, has come to KFI, Los Angeles. To be heard Wednesday and Friday at 4:15 p. m. (PST) as an added feature of Big Brother Don's children's hour.

Aunt Missouri, away from the microphone, is Bettie Sale, newspaperwoman of national experience and name.

• • • The work of Alma Morrow, poet-author, whose continuity in verse, for the "Harp Harmonies" program heard over KPO, Friday nights, 8 to 8:30, has attracted favorable comment from the program's listeners. Hundreds of letters attesting the approval of dialers to this type of continuity have been received by KPO. Miss Morrow is the author of "Lyrics in Lavender," a book of poems just off the press, in which her originative genius and beauty of expression are both to be found. Critics predict a brilliant future for her in the literary world.

• • • Elinor Gail's first radio experience was with the True Story hour and the Majestic program. She, too, had her season at Roxy's, and came west only because the climate beckoned. Her silver, clear soprano is heard every Monday over KFVB on "Broadway Reflections," a musical comedy program. Incidentally, Miss Gail played the part of Huguette in the original Broadway production of "The Vagabond King."

• • • An artist desiring to express the thought of variety need, but paint a picture of Ivan Ditmars, KJR and Northwest Broadcasting System artist and studio director. He plays the organ, the piano, is director of the Royal Loafers Orchestra, accompanies artists in their recitals, presents novelties in the "Bye Bye Blues" program with Chet Cathers, and he can do both classical and popular with equal facility, and he also announces.

• • • Josef Sampietro, musical director of KOIN, Portland, Ore., is what one might call a "transplant" in the radio world. For years Sampietro directed large concert orchestras on the Pacific Coast, and just recently the lure of radio was heeded by this superlative showman, and thus the visible audience lost an artist to the great invisible audience of listeners.

• • • A new addition to the announcing and continuity staffs of the UBC is Sam Hayes, formerly with KTAB. He gave the exciting plays of two important gridiron clashes—the East-West and the St. Mary's-Oregon games—for the United Broadcasting System before he was employed by them. Mr. Hayes has the reputation of announcing more games in one season than any other announcer. His total last fall was twenty-four.

• • • It all happened some days ago, yet it's still "news" to Loyal Underwood, the "man of mystery" at KNX, Hollywood. At about 5:30 on a recent morning Loyal was apprised that Mrs. Underwood had presented him with twin boys and all were doing nicely, thank you!

"They're just like their father," Underwood reported. "They'd hardly arrived when one popped the other on the nose." Studio confreres suggested "Amos and Andy," "Pete and Repeat," "Mike and Ike," "Frank and Ernest," and similar cognomens, but Underwood declined to make known his choice.

• • • Raymond Marlowe, tenor, a favorite of western radio has joined forces with KPO, and his dulcet voice will be heard henceforth on many of KPO's best programs.

• • • In response to many inquiries received, KJBS announces that the harmony team known as "Ray and Bob" is none other than Ray Raymond, son of Dell Raymond, pioneer radio artist, and a member of the KJBS staff, and Bob Pope, who incidentally arranges all the harmony for the popular duo.

• • • Marion Boyle, a KHQ staff pianist, is just as dainty a miss as you can possibly have imagined. Close-cropped, rich dark hair, smiling Irish eyes of blue, slender and full of dash and go, that's Marion. Marion's first birthday was October 26, 1909. She came to earth in Vancouver, B. C., but early realized her mistake, and since the age of three has been at home in Seattle. She has always specialized in music and is an accomplished dancer as well. Marion is one of the students to whom the Cornish School of Music in Seattle points with most pride. She began her radio appearances before the microphone of KHQ and is a great favorite with both the public and her fellow artists.

• • • Fresh from triumphs in Europe and California, Agatha Turley, the Irish nightingale, has joined the artists staff of the Northwest Broadcasting System (KJR, KEX, KGA).

Miss Turley was the leading soprano in seven complete grand operas which the British Broadcasting Corporation presented over its network last summer.

Following her return to this country from the British Isles, she accepted a contract with the National Broadcasting Company. Although a star with the National Broadcasting Company in San Francisco, Miss Turley severed her connections there to join the NWBS artists staff.

• • • Liborius Hauptman, musical director of the United Broadcasting Company, was a child protegee at the age of twelve. At this age he acted as guest conductor of the celebrated Hayden Symphony at the request of His Royal Highness, Prince Liechtenstein of Austria. At seventeen Mr. Hauptman was the youngest professor at the Conservatory of Music at Geneva.

• • • Baron Keyes, creator and absolute ruler of the Aircastle Family, and confidant of President Pip, Bugler Murphy, Happy Duck and Clickety-Clack, is the composer of a newly-published waltz song, "Valley of Broken Dreams."

The new number will receive its radio premiere soon from Ray Van Dyne's dance orchestra.

• • • The Three Co-Eds, featured vocal ensemble of KFI-KECA, holds the distinction of having never changed personnel since it began to work in vaudeville and radio 'way back in 1926.

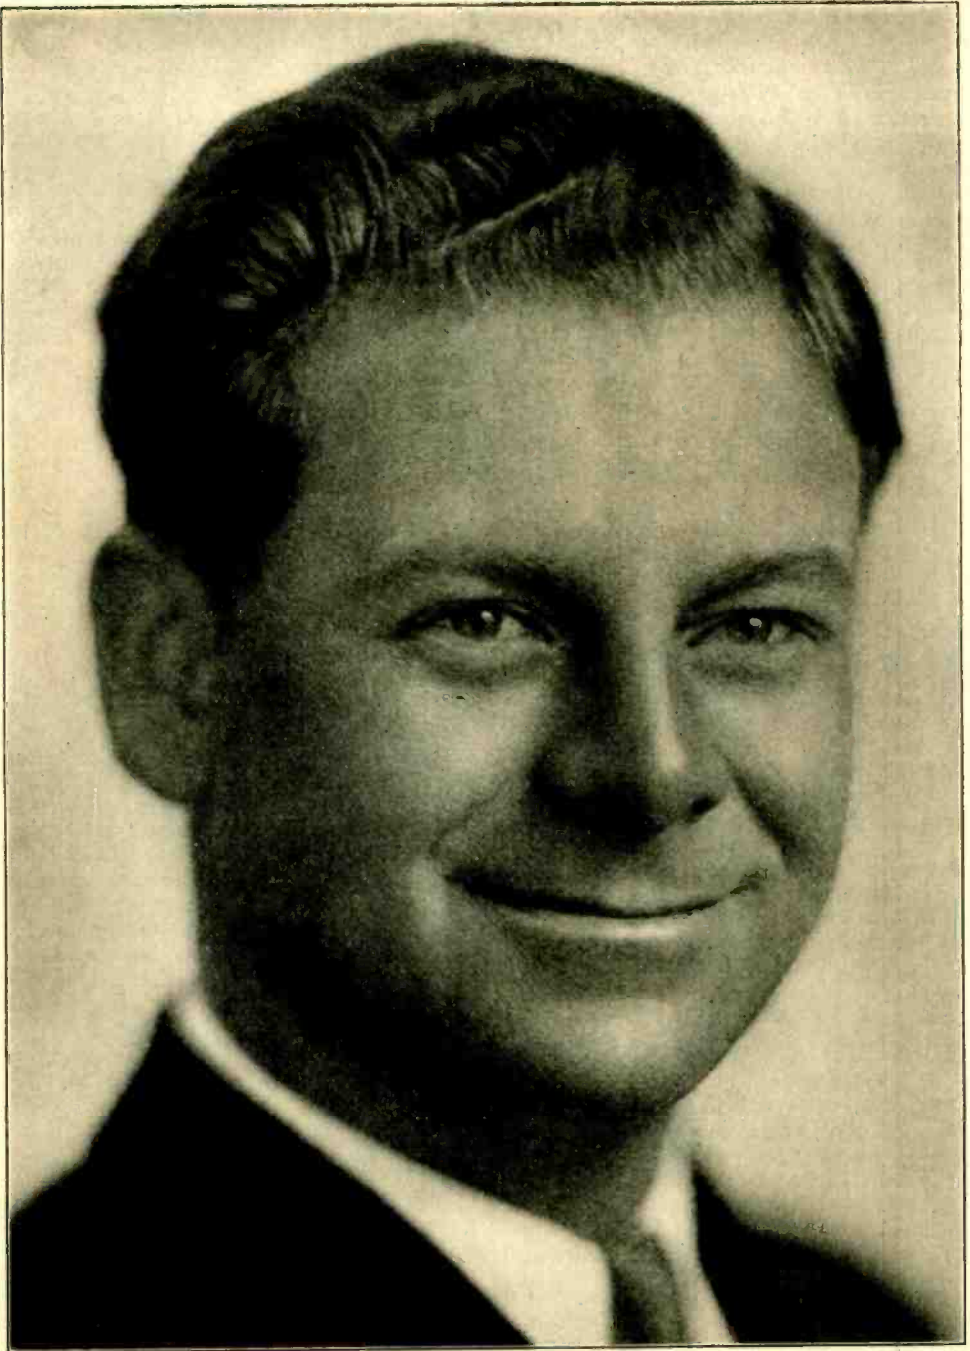

They are Marian Estelle Peck, mezzo-soprano, and Meredith Gregor and Theresa Aezer, contraltos. Miss Aezer is the pianist of the group.

Several tours in the United States and Canada and a sustained appearance in New York of three years, preceded their prolonged engagement at KFI-KECA.

• • • If Irving Kennedy, NBC lyric tenor, were inclined to complacency—which he isn't—there would be ample excuse. A large percentage of the letters he receives from feminine listeners who write to tell him how much his voice thrills them contain the request that he sing "I Love You Truly." Many of these, however, Irving hastens to explain, come from old ladies, and they always get a personal reply from him.

• • • Earl Towner, basso and organist, is back at KFRC, the station with which he began his radio career over four years ago. At that time Earl was singing basso with the Strollers, male quartet, and making vocal and instrumental arrangements. He has returned to KFRC with the Buccaneers, also a male quartet. He is making the vocal arrangements for them. Other members of the Buccaneers are Elbert Bellows, first tenor; Ray Nelson, second tenor, and Morton Gleason, baritone.

• • • Mort Harris, who recently returned from the East to associate with Coffee Dan's, has brought back many new and original ideas. He has already started off with a nightly broadcast from the famous cellar—known as "Thirty Minutes at Coffee Dan's." The feature is presented by remote control over KJBS every night at 12:01, except Saturday and Sunday. In addition to this, Mort is also crooning his songs each Monday and Friday over KJBS at 2:45 p. m.

... SILHOUETTES ...

EMILY HARDY, KPO's pretty little blonde soprano didn't aim to become a radio star—it just fell into her lap, as the saying goes. It happened thus: Emily was fulfilling an engagement with the "New Moon" Company, when Dobbsie first heard her singing—he was entranced with the beauty of her voice—its flexibility—its smoothness and its range.

EMILY HARDY

With an eye for better talent—he sought an introduction—and Miss Hardy became one of his regular staff artists.

"I like radio singing," states Miss Hardy, "you know it's more like fun than work, and then too, everyone at the studio is so pleasant and kind and helpful." "And another thing," and her dreamy green eyes seem to be looking off into space—"you know the stage takes you so far from home—but the radio with its magic of bridging distance—well, it just doesn't seem like one is far from home—and every time I sing I know mother is sitting at home in Carlsbad, New Mexico, listening," and with moistened eyes she states, "it's a great comfort—yes, I like radio—prefer it to the stage."

And in that fleeting moment, when Miss Hardy bares the grief her absence from home occasions—one can visualize her on her New Mexico ranch—astride a cowpony—or outdoing the cowboys in revolver shooting—she is an expert with firearms—the pride of a mother whom she adores.

Emily is not quite sure as to when she became interested in singing—but likely as not she believes it was in early girlhood when she used to sit on the ranch porch, after the moon had risen over the New Mexico hills and listen to the inharmonious "yip-yip" of the coyotes—"that made me certain that the world was in need of better voice production," she states, with an accompanying sly wink—"and my career is the result."

Grading from high school in 1926, Miss Hardy left the range behind and journeyed to Los Angeles to compete in several musical contests—and which meant the start of her musical career. Successful in winning the Eisteddfod contest for sopranos and also for pianists, Miss Hardy was elevated into the limelight overnight. Shortly afterward she was engaged by the Opera Guild of Los Angeles and soon blossomed out as one of the best sopranos to ever sing the role of "Gilda" in productions of "Rigoletto" staged by that company.

Aside from being a lover of outdoor sports, Miss Hardy has developed the hobby of reading medical books—the study of physiology in her high school days fascinated her to such an extent that it has remained a fascination and she reads every available book on the subject of human anatomy.

But although she has gained unusual success, Miss Hardy is still not satisfied—she realizes that the career of a singer is one of conscientious study and effort, so she is studying with Madame Beatrice Bowman, who with the knowledge of the artist as well as the ability of the teacher, is carrying her over the rough spots and creating a polish that is making her singing individual.

VEONA SOCOLOFSKY has undoubtedly one of the most brilliant soprano concert voices in the Northwest. Born in Oregon, she attended the Willamette University. She studied music in Boston, where she made her radio debut. Probably no singer has met with such immediate and spontaneous success as Miss Socolofsky.

Her hobbies tend toward the various forms of outdoor sports, particularly hiking, fishing and winter sports. She is an expert ski jumper and also an expert swimmer, holding a life-saving certificate from the American Red Cross.

Miss Socolofsky has a very dynamic personality, vibrant with activity at all times. Her microphone appearances are perhaps the most colorful incidents around KOMO.

Her great grandmother was Jennie Rupert, famous prima donna of the French '70's.

Her voice is that of a dramatic soprano and she enjoys operatic arias in radio work and oratorios in church work. Her favorite sacred solo is "I Know That My Redeemer 'Liveth," from Handel's "Messiah." She finds her favorite concert work in the selections by Wagner and counts among her favorites "Elsa's Traum" from "Lohengrin" and Senta's Ballet from "The Flying Dutchman."

VEONA SOCOLOFSKY

MMARGIT HEGEDUS, said to be one of the most talented girl students ever to have been given instruction in violin playing by the great Sevcik, is a young woman with an enviable record back of her. Yet she says, naively, that some day she hopes she can concertize again and really make a name for herself.

She comes by music naturally, although her mother and father are not musicians. Her three brothers and two sisters are all musicians of note, all now living in Europe.

After being born and reared in Hungary, where her father was a business man, Margit came to this country with her elder sister, Herma, also a violinist, and together they toured the country in vaudeville for six years, between 1921 and 1927.

After this experience on the then Keith Orpheum circuits, Margit played in theaters and picture houses in the Middle West until she came to California the latter part of 1928.

She has been with KNX for a number of months and aside from her remarkable violin solo work she directs a number of orchestras, notably the Hungarian Ensemble, so frequently heard over this station.

Hobby: Tennis, but she never get's a chance a play it, she says, because her violin takes so much time.

ANSON WEEKS, whose Hotel Mark Hopkins orchestra syncopates nightly over KFRC and DLBS save a Tuesday shift to NBC for the Florsheim Company, has a rather remarkable musical biography.

ANSON WEEKS

He has had only one music lesson in his life . . . and prior to five years ago he couldn't read a note.

At an age when most boys are just finishing high school, Weeks was at the piano conducting his first orchestra for the Hotel Sacramento. From there he took a larger band to the Hotel Oakland.

While in the navy during the war, he organized a service orchestra that enjoyed tremendous popularity at the Dugout in Hollywood. Herb Brown of "Wedding of the Painted Dolls" and "Pagan Love Song" fame was one of the gang, and Wallace Reid joined in with his saxophone occasionally.

After the war Weeks returned to Sacramento, and then to Tahoe Tavern. His next BERNICE BERWIN, leading lady of the NBC National Players, is a radio star because she presented a sensational performance of Dulcy at the University of California, and Wilda Wilson Church, nationally known radio director, happened to see her.

Bernice, then a student at the University of California, remained in Mrs. Church's memory and months later when KGO cast about for a Dulcy, the dramatic director insisted that the youthful actress have her opportunity.

That she proved a success is evidenced by her many performances now at the NBC San Francisco studios where she has been starred since 1928 in the Jack and Ethyl series, House of Myths, and many other featured broadcasts.

"And it's much more fun than appearing on the legitimate stage," Bernice volunteers, "I adore working before the microphone."

Bernice should know. She went from college to the theatre and played ingenue roles and leads with Leo Carrillo, Crane Wilbur, Marjorie Rambeau and Edward Everett Horton.

Miss Berwin studied piano, as a child, but dramatics interested her most and during her college days she was active in the Mask and Dagger Society, English Club and Players Club. She appeared in scores of campus productions and in 1924 won the leading role in the Senior Extravaganza, "But It Wasn't."

When she is not on the air, Bernice likes most to read. The feminine authors are her favorites but she does like mystery stories. She favors classical music and though she plays the piano, she likes best to hear the violin.

move was across the continent to the Hotel Roosevelt in New York. Here over WABC he broadcast for the Columbia Chain and incidentally gave the first radio presentation of "Body and Soul."

Besides personally conducting his Mark Hopkins band, Weeks has selected and trained fifteen other groups of musicians now playing at Pacific Coast Hotels, country clubs and on Matson and Lassco line steamers. But perhaps the most remarkable thing about Anson Weeks is that despite his talent, he isn't temperamental . . . and despite his success, he isn't high-brow.

KFRC's in Bad Here

I am usually not given to writing letters to newspapers, magazines and the like, but I've got to get this off my chest. I'm on the warpath against KFRC since they discontinued the "Hallelujah Hour" which used to come up from KHJ every morning (at least five days per week) between 8 and 9 a. m. This was one of the most interesting and entertaining programs given this section of the state and I think it a great loss that it is discontinued. KFRC has absolutely nothing to offer from local talent that could even compare with "Hallelujah." They have put on one of those so-called "cowboy" programs with its incessant tiresome twangy nasal tones, horrible harmonica and banjo attacks. I hope there are others of your readers who will agree with me on this matter. Maybe if we get together, we can prevail on the Don Lee Chain to let us have "Hallelujah" again.

Now that everyone is choosing his or her own favorite stations—my vote for the best all-around programs will go to KHJ and KNX. As for dance music, who can beat our own Anson Weeks and his music.

BROADCAST WEEKLY is a great help. The pictures are fine too. How about a picture of Dr. Cross of "Cross-cuts from the Log of the Day." (KGO).

Wm. E. H., San Francisco, Calif., Feb. 6.

Swifts Took Notice

KFRC's my favorite station and I listen to almost every program coming over this station. There is only one improvement that can be made and that is, the Happy-Go-Lucky hour be given twice every week in the evening. There are so many people who are working or going to school who can't enjoy this program. I am not only speaking for myself but for other people, such as W. R. of North Sacramento and many others who think the same.

I think Al Pearce's gang is about the most popular gang on the radio. Hazel Warner, Tommy and Edna Fisher can't be beat. I hope somebody sits up and takes notice concerning the Happy-Go-Lucky hour.

Too Much "Golden State"

I have been a subscriber of the BROADCAST WEEKLY for two years, and hope to continue.

Continue with the pictures. I always pick out the next program while I am listening to another.

We all enjoy the "Spotlight Review," and also like the change in time.

I agree with H. McH. (Feb. 8-14) regarding KFRC, but just the same I would like to have the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour at night at least twice a week. WDAF interferes with KFRC on our set at night.

We have lost interest in the Jamboree. Too much "Golden State." Keep business and pleasure separate.

We have no favorite station. As a rule it is a case of the station that comes in best. It is very seldom KPO does not come in good, day or night. Daylight reception in this locality is very poor in the summer time.

We are all heartily in favor of the dramas, especially the serials.

I hope the broadcast stations get their programs settled soon.

E. L. B., Maricopa, Feb. 5

Not So Hot, Says A. B. C.

I am a constant reader of your delightful BROADCAST WEEKLY. I want to have my say about two or three items on the radio. I agree with F. J. B. of Martinez, Calif., that BROADCAST WEEKLY should publish some more pictures of orchestras, especially Jesse Stafford. He is my favorite. About having the Happy Go Lucky Hour in the evening, it would be fine, but please keep it in the afternoon also. I wish that we could hear more of Al and Cal Pearce, also Lord Bilgewater. I also like Cy Trobbe's Scrap Book. The music is wonderful. I wish that one could listen to Jesse Stafford more than one hour from KPO at 10 to 11. KFRC is my favorite for funniness, but KPO and KGO have best music and best planned programs. I can certainly say that the Blue Monday Jamboree isn't what it used to be. I think Mr. Wilson's music is not so hot. Hoping for more pictures in future,

A. B. C., Biggs, Calif., Feb. 9.

Suggestions Are Always Welcome

So many times we have found that there are changes made in the programs of the different stations after BROADCAST is printed. I am sure this is more or less unavoidable, the programs being assembled such a long time before it is put on the air. Often some broadcast of special importance is inserted in the list of this or that station and if one is not just accidentally tuned in on that station one naturally misses such feature. So for instance the lecture of Prof. St. John from Pasadena about the Einstein Relativity theory.

Would it not be possible to announce changes or insertions from some main station for instance KGO every day at a certain hour? I should think that this would eliminate quite a little dissatisfaction and annoyance and it would serve your interest as well as that of the public.

(EDITOR'S NOTE: It would be impossible to choose a station and time suitable to all Pacific Coast readers of BROADCAST WEEKLY.)

K. B. W., Lakeside, Wash., Jan. 30.

You'll Hear from This One

Here are a few things which I think will make the readers of BROADCAST WEEKLY shake their fingers at me and shake their heads. As I have been a reader of BROADCAST WEEKLY for five years, even when it had another name, four or five years ago, and have been a subscriber for the last two and one-half years, I feel I am entitled to a little say in the "Open Circuit."

First of all I agree heartily, Oh, so heartily, with F. J. B. of Martinez, who says he can't understand why so many fans overlook KGO and its finer type of programs and its real artists, for several other bay region stations who insist on peddling shampoos and permanent waves and who unmercifully pepper us with almost every imaginable species of doctors and dentists selling their wares and who have everything from corned beef and cabbage to bottles of hair tonic to tell us about between phonograph records. I don't say that advertising should be abolished entirely on the radio, but two or two and a half minutes of it per fifteen-minute program is sufficient.

Why, if a visitor were to come from some other country to California and particularly to the bay region, and should this same visitor turn on a radio and listen to several stations the entire day and hear all these doctors and dentists discussing their personal merits, and mind you in California, a widely known state for its sunshine and health giving qualities—well, I'm afraid that the visitor would pack up his grips in record time, and leave the vicinity in no uncertain fashion and head straight for home, and away from a place overloaded with cripples and sick people, which from the visitor's point of view is apparently the case, as shown by the number of medicos on the air.

Ho Hum, and so it goes.

I got a smile out of the article of M. E. of Berkeley concerning Hazel Warner of KFRC. M. E. says that there isn't an artist on the air that can sing "When It's Springtime in the Rockies" as well as Miss Warner does. And I say, thank goodness, there isn't. I think we all have had enough of that tune for artists to gargle.

Am glad to see the tops of the pages lined with pictures, and keep up the good work. I am sure your magazine suits 99 per cent of your readers and hope the remaining one per cent will come into the fold before long.

H. McK., San Anselmo, Feb. 6

He's Worth the Money

I enjoy reading the BROADCAST WEEKLY and I surely am glad that you have changed the Best Bets to pictures.

KFRC and the CBS have my favorite programs, but I also like the Florsheim Frolic and the Radiotron Varieties, and wish that they could both be prolonged.

Why don't you have that popularity contest for the stations? I think that KFRC would win it by a large majority.

I certainly agree with Anne of Pacific Grove about Phil Cook. I'd shut the radio off rather than listen to him. I do like Charles Hamp, though, and I think that he deserves his salary.

E. W. H., Burke, Idaho, Feb. 8

Will F. J. B. Accept?

I do wish that F. J. B., of Martinez, would listen to KFRC for one day, then KGO, and see who has the best artists. KGO has very good artists, but that doesn't mean that KFRC hasn't real artists and announcers. What is wrong with Hazel Warner, Robert Olsen and Tommy Harris? I don't think that there is a better announcer than Fred Lane.

Wishing you continued success,

C. M. B., Sacramento, Feb. 9

P. S.—I do wish people would stop complaining about changed programs. We should realize that all that is to be expected.

Wouldn't Miss the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour

I get much pleasure in reading your BROADCAST WEEKLY, which I have taken for three years, and am for the pictures, as I have many of the artists. I like and listen to most all the stations in San Francisco, but prefer KFRC, KPO and KGO. The morning program from KGO I never miss, and I won't leave home when the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour is on the air. The North Americans are very fine indeed, and I always hear them. I like Cotton Bond very much.

I agree with M. E., of Berkeley. I think Meredith Willson deserves a great deal of credit for his good music. Walter Kelsey is splendid.

We enjoy the dramas and Spotlight Review. I hope the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour will not change its hour, as it would spoil it for the shut-ins.

Sorry that Hazel Warner has left us, as I liked her very much.

I take off my hat to the announcers that give their names, as I like to know them by their voices. We all admire Art Lindsay of KPO very much.

I like Tommy Harris, Charlie Cartier, Norman Neilsen, Al and Cal Pearce, and think the artists who try hard to please the public deserve a great deal of praise. Edna Fisher is one I admire also.

H L. C., Zamora, Feb. 9

We Agree With You

My goodness, you don't hate yourself much, do you, F. J. B., Martinez? You may be a musician, but you can't tell the difference between real and amateur artists. If you did you wouldn't say that KFRC's artists sound like amateurs. You can't tell me that Hazel Warner, Abe Bloom, Tommy Harris, Edna Fischer, Robert Olsen and Norman Neilsen don't know their stuff. They do—and how! I agree with Miss H. S. I. of Santa Clara, in regard to Henry Starr. He's just as good as Charlie Hamp, but not one bit better. I certainly enjoy them both, but why complain about their salaries? Why should we have a feud about how much our favorites get paid, just as long as we hear them regularly?

Since I go to school, too, may I also express a desire that the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour be presented on Saturdays as well as every other week day?

I heartily agree with Miss F. O. of Colfax about those pictures. That was a dirty trick. Can't something be done enabling us to get a'l the pictures with exception of those first thirty-two? I certainly want them, if this can be done. Otherwise, three cheers for this excellent little radio guide! More power to you!

Miss A. H., Pacific Grove, Feb. 12

(Editor's Note: Yes, something can be done. All who received the first thirty-two pictures may have the other sixty-four by sending us 50 cents to cover our costs.)

Makes Life Worth Living

Just to let you know that I do not agree with H. E. C., of Gridley, as to changing the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour. I do agree with H. McH., of Bakersfield, and for the same reasons. I am a shut-in, although I am not ill. I am taking care of a lady who is an invalid. I have to be there every minute, as she cannot be left alone. So you see the Happy-Go-Lucky program is the only program that helps me forget a lot of things. Tiredness, lonesomeness and many other things. Oh, I hope they do not change it. The Happy-Go-Lucky Hour and the Spotlight Review are what makes a person feel that life is worth living after all.

Miss A. J., Roslyn, Wash., Feb. 16

Now, It's Sir Al Pearce

I am a'so for good music, drama and interesting and instructive talks, B. E. R. of Novato, Calif., but I disagree with what you say about KFRC and the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour. I think that so far as radio talent goes, and there is lots of very good talent, that the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour and the Jamboree and KFRC are there with the goods every time. I think they deserve a lot of applause, especially Sir Al Pearce, the master of ceremonies on the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour. He is really splendid in every way, I think. I wish we might hear more of him.

I am sure, dear B. E. R., that the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour fans are always to be found in the front rows where there is good music, drama, interesting and instructive talks. We like all good things.

I visited KFRC's station one day, and found a crowd of about five hundred interesting, cultured people with happy faces, and there were many sweet little old white-haired grandmothers who were having such a happy time. Bless their dear hearts, and bless the Happy-Go-Lucky gang for giving them a good time. I am very young, but I hope that when I am old I will still be able to laugh at good jokes and enjoy a sweet love song. Hurray for the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour, and Sir Al Pearce, and KFRC. Long may they live.

Miss Marjorie C., Palo Alto, Calif.

A Little Love Goes a Long Way

I love the little BROADCAST WEEKLY. Get so much pleasure reading it. The radio is a late edition to the happiness of our home, but we sure do enjoy it. If the hour for the Crockett Mountaineers has been changed, please give the time they are on the air, as we failed to get them at 1:30 p. m. over KFRC. KFRC's Happy-Go-Lucky Hour and KNX's Arizona Wranglers are our favorites, but we love them all. KPO, Cecil and Sally. Those we never miss. As we have to give up Hazel Warner, why can't we have more songs by Edna Fischer? She has such a sweet voice. Norman Neilson is a wonder; what would the Happy-Go-Lucky Hour be without him and dear old Lord Bilgewater? Oh, we just love them all, even if they are all married but Al Pearce.

I love the BROADCAST WEEKLY too much to be like R. D. H., Marysville. If I don't find one program as listed I give a little sigh and immediately turn to another one and hope for better luck next time.

E. P., Stubbs, Calif., Feb. 6

May It Always Will

We have read the contents of the "Open Circuit" with interest and considerable amusement. So few of our favorites are mentioned by these letter writers. The lack of appreciation of what are considered the best programs is appalling.

Have they never listened to Eva DeVol, whose voice has the appealing note of a child, yet is the beautiful voice of a woman; to Elsa Behlow Trautner, Juanita Tennyson, Elbert Bellows, Allan Wilson, Dan O'Brien, Frederick Bittke, Virginia Flohri, Harold Spaulding, Robert Hurd, James Burroughs and other fine singers? Have they never enjoyed Joe and Vi, Benny Walker and all the San Francisco radio players, and Tom Terriss (KFI), prince of story tellers?

Do they listen to Purcell Mayer's (KFI) violin, to Calmon Luboviski (KNX) and his violin choir? And to those who sigh for more of San Francisco talent—much of it imported—we suggest you listen to Rudy Seiger's violin, the sweetest, most perfect we hear. He is a San Franciscan by birth and musical education.

These orchestras: San Francisco Symphony, the Shell Symphonists, Sir Francis Drake Hotel. Cyrus Trobber's, Edward Fitzpatrick, Parisian Quintet, and the fine concert orchestra led by Joseph Hornik, all of San Francisco; Pryor Moore's (KFI). And over NBC. Walter Damrosch, the New York Symphony, the Black and Gold, and the Sunday morning special concert? No jazz lover need to complain. There is a-plenty of it and of kindred programs. Many of them could be surpassed by high school pupils.

But why is the same kind of entertainment given over every station at the same hour—one time all jazz, at another the best of music?

After all, would it not be better to send our compliments through the BROADCAST, reserving our criticisms of artists for the station from which we hear them?

Your magazine has always pleased us.

S. S., San Jose, Calif., Feb. 14

How About It, Fans?

The UBC chain has also been unjustly criticized I think. They are rather to be commended on the high type of programs they create. They have very little popular music and are trying to educate the people with the more beautiful things of life by their excellent symphonic programs. There is too much jazz on the air today and the UBC is a great blessing because they don't play much of it.

KPO is absolutely the best station in all California, I think,, with KPSN of Pasadena running close, although they aren't on as often. KPO carries programs of unusual merit and I've yet to hear a poor program from it. I'd rather listen to their evening programs than most anything else.

BROADCAST WEEKLY is to be commended on their efficient service. I'm sure if R. D. H. of Marysville stopped to think a bit that he (or she) would say the same instead of panning you needlessly. More power to you!

D. B. B., Pasadena, Feb. 4.

Spotlight Revue Ace High

I have been a reader of BROADCAST WEEKLY for several years, and have greatly enjoyed the expressions of your readers. I agree with a great many in regard to the pictures. They should by all means remain in your pages. My favorite program is the Spotlight Review. I suggest that they come on earlier in the evening, if possible. These players certainly deserve great credit for the way they render these programs. Also I never miss the Blue Monday Jamboree, only I wish these programs would come into the Northwest for the full two hours. KFRC and KNX are my favorite outside stations. I wish that KNX was on one of the chains. Why can't BROADCAST WEEKLY publish Columbia and Don Lee programs the same as National programs? Please enlarge the "Open Circuit," if possible. Hoping your magazine the best of success,

- 1—Dr. S. Parkes Cadman: Radio choir and orchestra direction George Dilworth: KHQ, KOMO, KGW, KPO
 George Dilworth will direct the musical program, presented by a choir and an orchestra. An excerpt from Mendelssohn's well known oratorio, "St. Paul," contrasts with the simplicity of the opening and closing hymns.
- 1—Concert Jewels: Eva Gruninger Atkinson, contralto; orchestra direction Emil Polak: KGO
- 2—National Vespers: "The Futility of Borrowed Religion," Dr. Harry Emerson Fosdick; mixed sextet direction Dana S. Merriman: KGO, KHQ, KOMO, KGW, KPO

- 3:30—Doric Quartet: Male voices, direction Emil Polak: KGO
- 3—Catholic Hour: Guest speaker; The Paulist Choristers, direction Father Finn: KHQ, KOMO, KGW, KPO, KECA, KTAR
 Written in the sixteenth century by Palestrina, the most distinguished Italian composer in the a capella style, "O Gentle Death" will be sung by the Paulist Choristers during the Catholic Hour.
- 4—Musical Moods: Marion Nicholson and Betty Marino, violinists; Paul Carson, organist; vocal soloist: KGO, KOMO, KFSD
- 4:30—RCA-Victor Program: Orchestra direction Nathaniel Shilkret: KGO, KHQ, KOMO, KGW, KFI, KFSD, KTAR

 Such old favorites as "Little Grey Home in the West" and "When It's Apple Blossom Time in Normandy" are included in the program to be sung by the mixed quartet. Another interesting feature will be a four-part arrangement of "On the Road to Mandalay," one of the most popular solos in the baritone repertoire.

- 5:15—Collier's Radio Hour: KHQ, KOMO, KGW, KPO, KFI

- 8:15—Heel Hugger Harmonies: Norman Price, Steele Jamison, tenors; Edward Wolter, baritone; Earl Waldo, bass; orchestra direction Robert Armbruster: KGW, KPO, KECA, KFSD, KTAR
 A familiar hymn will introduce Heel Hugger Harmonies to NBC listeners tonight. Three old favorites are scheduled to be heard before the concluding hymn. These include the tradition "Bull Dog on the Bank" and the appealing Nevin composition, "The Rosary."
- 8:15—This Amazing Universe: KGO
- 8:30—Gunnar Johansen, Pianist: KGO, KFSD, KTAR; KGW 8:45 to 9 p.m.
 Two of the great musical "B's," Beethoven and Brahms, provide the first two compositions in the piano recital to be played by Gunnar Johansen. Schumann's name is often linked with this duo as a composer of rare creative gifts, extremely individual and original. He is represented on the program with three numbers that reflect his poetic nature, "Aufschwung," "Warum" and "Traumesswaren."
- 9—Chase and Sanborn Program: Irving Kennedy, tenor; male quartet, direction Mynard Jones; orchestra, direction Mahlon Merrick: KGO, KHQ, KOMO, KFI, KFSD, KTAR, KSL, KOA
 "Keep That Old Smile Smiling" and "Sarita" are the two numbers that will bring the four voices of the singers into close harmony. Kennedy will join the orchestra in the vocal refrains of the several programmed numbers, including a selection from the musical comedy, "The New Moon."
- 9:30—Enna Jettick Melodies: Gail Taylor, soprano; Annabelle Jones Rose, contralto; Gwynn Jones, tenor; Everett Foster, baritone; ensemble, direction Emil Polak: KGO, KHQ, KOMO, KGW, KECA, KFSD, KTAR

 Peanut Vendor," a Cuban novelty which has struck the fancy of the American public in recent weeks. The Cavaliers

SPOT NEWS FROM THE SPOTLIGHTER!

From "Gold-Miners" to "Gardening" may seem a long, long step, but that is the movement taken this week by the Associated Spotlight Revue staff, from the show of February 28 to that of March 7. Perhaps the jump was suggested by the fact that both ideas include a lot of digging. More likely it was inspired by the determination to maintain the "Spotlight" reputation for variety. The "Gardening" show, according to advance news which has leaked out of the conspirators' council rooms, is destined to be a WOW!

We might have known it, but the news has just arrived that the inimitable Benny Walker (nee McLaughlin) decided he wanted to be an actor at the tender age of 13 years. Since that time, Benny has taken on much in the way of theatrical and histrionic experience—not to say, equally much in avoiddupols. But we also have learned that Benny got "pleasingly plump" as a cook in the World War. Yeah, only the cooks got fat in THAT war!

What with its new line of Household Specialty products and that smashing-effective U. S. Navy award to Cyclol Motor Oil, the good sponsors of the "Associated Spotlight Revue" find it difficult indeed to keep from talking about themselves and their products during the show. Yet scores of radio fans write to tell them that they appreciate the brevity—and the interest—of the company's announcements during the performance. And the radio fans are becoming good customers at the red, green and cream stations and garages, too.

This "Gardening" program scheduled for Saturday night, March 7, is going to be a tough one for that swift-fingered accordion fiend, Johnny Toffoli. For Johnny comes straight from canal-bedecked Venice and they can't have gardens in Venice, can they? Or can they?

There is an energetic, singularly competent young man connected with the "Associated Spotlight Revue" who perhaps has most to do with its continuing popularity, yet whose voice is never, never heard over the air. It is none other than the "omniscient" Caryl Coleman, prize producer of radio gems. Yes, "omniscient" is the word. We think it means "all-knowing" and, if it does, that is this man Coleman all over. Doing a swell job, and determined to do a better one every week.

When you stop to think of it, it has to be a potent performance to hold a radio audience for an hour and a half. The "Associated Spotlight Revue" does it week in and week out by maintaining variety. The itching fingers of inveterate "dial-turners" somehow are stayed when Cecil Underwood, each Saturday at 9:30 p. m., steps to the mike and opens the show with his cheery

Jack and Ethyl will enact an historic skit written around Luther Burbank as part of the "Garden Idea," the theme of the program. More than a million plants a year are grown at the Santa Rosa Experimental Farms where the great horticulturist created the spineless cactus and hundreds of other wonders. In contrast to the seriousness of the Jack and Ethyl offerings, Walter Beban will call upon the Spotlight cast to enact another broad farce based upon an old melodrama laid in the great out-of-doors. Further comedy will be provided in generous proportions by Professor Kalkelbine in the weekly session of "School Days." The "Do You Remember Period" of old-time songs, of which Ted Maxwell is producer, will be another high light of the revue. Those completing the cast of the show tonight include Cecil Underwood, master of ceremonies; Bernice Berwin, Bobbe Deane, Harold Peary, Irving Kennedy, Imelda Montagne, Marjorie Primley, Annette Hastings, Captain "Bill" Royie, Bennie Walker, Richard Le Grand, the Hill Billy Boys, the Southern Harmony Four, Charles Marshall, Johnnie O'Brien, Sylvano Dale and Johnnie Toffoli.
