NEW YORK - NEW YORK... With WXRK's switch to new rock and WYNY's rumored change to dance expected soon, New York is fast becoming the market with the most format options. Classic rock, country, 70's oldies, AAA, mainstream CHR and mainstream rock are all available for the taking. WXRK has put the squeeze on WAXQ's hard rock format, and the WXRK/WYNY combo really pushes WHTZ to pick rock, dance or get out of the way for its mostly modern-leaning version of CHR. WNEW, which recently changed to a watered-down AAA/new rock mix, is now faced with active competition from WHTZ, WXRK and WDRE. With so many formats available, we wonder how long 5 stations will slug it out for the modern/young end rock audience. It is also interesting to note that if WPLJ were to add a Garth record or two it could cover the hot AC/CHR/classic hits/classic rock/70's/country position with one station, and that would be the closest thing to the Top-40 of old we have seen in a long, long time.

WASHINGTON THIS WEEK

The government shutdown has given us very little FCC news this week. Next week, there probably won't be any FCC notices. We'll continue to provide format and network changes, but next week's issue may be a little slim. When they go back to work, we'll run everything as soon as it's out, even if it means extra pages.

ELSEWHERE

Benchmark Communications will buy up urban AC WJMZ-FM, Anderson, SC in the Greenville/Spartanburg, SC market from AmCom General, giving it a third FM in that market. It already owns country and sports WESC (AM); country WESC-FM, both Greenville; and country WFNQ, Forest City, NC. It will also buy country combo KRMD-AM/FM, Shreveport, LA. Benchmark will pay $6.8 million for WJMZ-FM and $6.7 million for KRMD-AM & FM. The Greenville purchase is subject to the new ownership rules.

In Dayton, New Generation Broadcasting is buying new rock WXEG, Beavercreek, OH, from Tri-City Radio, subject to the new rules. GM Alan Gray heads New Generation, which is financed by American Radio Systems. WXEG's sales agreement with ARS' rocker WTUE, standards WONE, and hot AC WMMX, all Dayton, stays in place. Price wasn't disclosed.

Jim Ingstad Broadcasting is selling off a portion of its group. Nine stations in northern Minnesota will be sold to Robert Kommerstad's Provident Investment Counsel. No price information was available. In Brainerd, the stations are sports KLIZ, classic rock KLIZ-FM, news-talk KVBR, and country KVBR-FM. In Walker, classic rock combo KLLZ-AM & FM. In Wadena, country outlets KWAD and KKWS. In Staples, country KNSP.

ELSEWHERE (cont'd)

Osborn picks up a duopoly in Fresno as it will buy country combo KNAX and KRBT from Ralph Guild's EBE Communications for $7 million in cash and stock. The LMA begins immediately. EBE has announced plans to sell separately news/talker KFRE, which is in an LMA with news/talk KMPH, Hanford, CA.

Albany Broadcasting has entered into an LMA-to-buy with Kriscott Broadcasting's WCDA, Voorheesville, NY (Albany). Albany Broadcasting owns CHR WFLY, Troy; and soft AC WYJB and news WROW, both Albany.

Heftel may have to circle its wagons after a story in the Dallas Morning News reports Dallas-based Radio Plano and L.A.-based El Dorado Communications are teaming up to "better compete against Heftel Broadcasting Corp.'s six Dallas stations. Radio Plano owns Regional Mexican KRVA (AM), Cockrell Hill; Spanish AC KRVA-AM, McKinney, and silent KTCY, Dennison, TX. KRVA-AM has a synchronous transmitter in Ft. Worth to boost its metro coverage. El Dorado is reportedly looking at three other properties in Dallas-Ft. Worth. El Dorado owns stations in Houston and L.A.

Heftel Broadcasting's KESS, Ft. Worth (Dallas) has ruffled the feathers of the League of United Latin American Citizens after its decision to ban English from its two-hour talk show "La Voz de Texas." The program host generally responds to questions in both English and Spanish. The station decided last week to answer in Spanish only. The league feels that too many of the station's listeners feel more comfortable speaking English than Spanish.

There is some good news for Heftel. It's secured the sales and marketing rights to CNNRadio's Noticias News Service. The two-year-old Spanish-language news network claims 64 affiliates and airs weekly top-of-the-hour newscasts, as well as other programming.

CBS has named Steve Mason to be the new co-host of The Late Late Radio Show with Tom Snyder. Mason most recently did mornings at XETRA (AM), San Diego. The change took place January 1. The East Coast portion of the program moves to CBS' L.A. radio studios to take advantage of the "guest pool" there. The show claims 67 affiliates. Elliott Forest, the original co-host of the show, was not offered a new contract.

Children's Broadcasting Corp. is trying to expand its horizons. It has filed an offering of five million shares of common stock to reduce debt and buy more radio stations. In the press release, the company will soon be acquiring a New York City affiliate. Part of the offering proceeds will finance the purchase.

Media Venture Partners got some good news to start out the new year. The firm's been retained by Park Communications to sell off the radio division to reduce debt and expand the newspaper and television side of the media conglomerate. So far, Park has sold off its New York and Greenville, NC properties.

According to Inside Radio, the company which purchased Park's WPAT-FM, New York, Spanish Broadcasting System, has filed to go public, selling 7.5 million shares to help cover its purchase. The stock will trade on the NASDAQ as "SBSI."

American Movie Classics will air a unique ten-part series called "Remember WENN." The half-hour programs are set at a fictitious radio station in Pittsburgh just prior to World War II and focuses on a group of radio actors', producers', and technicians' efforts to produce live programming. The on-air stories will recreate a variety of Golden Age radio, including soap opera, drama, mystery, news, and children's programming. The first episode is set to air Saturday, January 13, at 9 pm ET, the anniversary date of the first radio broadcast to the public.

Bloomberg Information Radio has jumped on the Internet. Programming can now be heard 24-hours-a-day through Xing Technology's StreamWorks audio software. The broadcasts are delivered in real time. No Internet address was available from the press release.

M STREET BAZAAR. . . PEOPLE, PRODUCTS, AND PROGRAMMING

The publisher of radio trade newspaper "Radio World" has picked up the contract to produce the daily convention newspapers for the National Association of Broadcasters. IMAS Publishing also publishes "Computer Video Production," "Pro Audio Review," and "Tuned In," among others. The three year deal includes both the Spring NAB and the fall World Media Expo.

Westwood One is making available its audio archives to anyone who wishes to license them. The archives include news, events, and interviews from Mutual Broadcasting, as well as the other webs it's picked up.

Jim Taszarek's Taz Media will sponsor The Radio Sports Sales Academy and Idea Exchange Friday and Saturday, Feb. 2 and 3. The seminar will cover strategies, budgeting, forecasting, when to close, and how to get past pro sports rules, to name a few. It will be in Phoenix at a to-be-announced location. For more info, call (602) 970-4200.

Hal Hodgson's "Ports of Paradise," a weekly, one hour "radio postcard" offering listeners traditional and contemporary Hawaiian music, facts, and stories, is being syndicated. There are six minutes of spots in each program available for local sale. For more info, call (800) 223-2564.

A.J. Parker will be the new side-kick on ABC Radio's Doug Banks Show. She was previously on the air at Chicago's WEJM-FM, Lansing, IL, and WGCI-FM. ABC debuted the show January 1.

In the wake of the CBS/Westinghouse merger, CBS Radio Group President Dan Mason announced Ed Goldman is the new Vice President of the CBS-owned AM radio stations. Goldman succeeds Anna Mae Sokusky, who has run the division since 1988. Goldman most recently ran WBZ-AM & TV in Boston. He had also been president of Group W Television Sales. The change takes place January 8.

Westwood One has named Liz Laud to VP/Affiliate Relations/Music & Event Programming. She will report to President Greg Batusic. She was most recently Senior Director/Affiliate Relations.

SUPREME COURT UPHOLDS INDECENCY RULES. . . Even though the halls of the FCC were dark last week, the Supreme Court was busy ruling on the Commission's indecency rules. The Court upheld the Commission's restrictions of broadcasting indecency between the hours of 6 a.m. and 10 p.m. Many broadcasters were hoping the rule would be thrown out based on First Amendment violation. FCC Chairman Reed Hundt says the ruling was, "A big win for the FCC," claiming, according to Inside Radio, "Special rules to promote content good for kids are more likely than not to be held constitutional."

WHAT DO NEWT, FROSTY, AND THE PRESIDENT HAVE IN COMMON? THEY STOP WASHINGTON COLD. . . Despite a reconciliation between Congress and the President that brought federal workers back to their posts, it was Mother Nature's turn not to cooperate, as the blizzard of 1996 buried the East Coast. As soon as everything is back to normal, we'll bring you all of the Commission news and releases, even if it takes extra pages.

Kristen Cantrell's Forever Broadcasting is buying oldies WNCQ and rocker WCIZ, Watertown, NY from Watertown Radio Associates for $2.8 million. The transaction includes WRA's interest in the LMA agreement the stations have with WKGG, Cape Vincent, NY, which simulcasts WNCQ. Forever recently applied to purchase news-talker WIBX and AC WLZW, Utica, NY.

In step with industry expectations, shareholders of Disney and Capital Cities/ABC, Inc. overwhelmingly voted to merge. Even though the new entity is looking for Commission approval of the deal this month, don't hold your breath. There's a huge backlog after the shutdown and the storm. Insiders are already speculating about the future of the radio division, once the deal gets the Commission's seal of approval.

Radio's revenue growth turns 39 this week: 39 consecutive months of revenue gains, according to the Radio Advertising Bureau. However, the increase for combined local and national spot advertising was a lethargic two percent for November, 1995 compared to the same month in 1994. National spot dived seven percent for the month, but local was up five percent. Year-to-date combined revenues increased eight percent through November, 1995; national year-to-date revenues were up five percent, while local was up nine percent for the same period over 1994.

The five percent local revenue gain in November was fueled by modest increases in all regions of the U.S. National was up only in the east. RAB President and CEO Gary Fries blamed the sluggish performance on the economy saying, "Radio's performance directly reflects the retail business climate which, in the fourth quarter, has been down somewhat from 1994's aggressive holiday season." Here's how each region breaks out for November 1995 vs. 1994:

Local Revenue		National Revenue
All Markets	5%	All Markets	-7%
East	6%	East	2%
Southeast	8%	Southeast	-11%
Midwest	2%	Midwest	-8%
Southwest	8%	Southwest	-12%
West	4%	West	-11%

For the year-to-date figures, the picture isn't so bleak:

All Markets	9%	All Markets	5%
East	7%	East	10%
Southeast	10%	Southeast	7%
Midwest	10%	Midwest	5%
Southwest	10%	Southwest	3%
West	9%	West	2%

The last Arbitron book of 1995 has a lot of GM's in Los Angeles seeing red. Spanish-language station shares were up more than 20% over the four preceding books. Many are saying the rise is due to Arbitron's new policy of using only bilingual interviewers for households in High Density Hispanic Areas (HDHA's). The Fall book is the first to use this methodology, which many claim have skewed listening preference towards Spanish stations. In New York, the gain was 19%

Julian Breen's Breen Broadcast says you can't blame it on a correlational increase in population. The company says L.A.'s Hispanic population is up only 4%. New York's was up 2%. Looking at the increases by demo, Men 18-34 saw the largest increase with shares up 30% in L.A. and 37% in New York.

A DANGEROUS HABIT

by Gregg Skall, Pepper & Corazzini

(Gregg is an occasional guest columnist for M Street covering legal issues facing broadcasters.)

Many stations or their air personalities have taped segments from another broadcast station and then replayed them in their own broadcasts. This is sometimes done in news segments or in talk or zoo segments on radio. Few broadcasters know that such a practice violates both the Communications Act and explicit provisions of the Commission's Rules. Station KVI, Seattle, WA, found out the hard way.

KVI had tape recorded an interview with Washington's United States Senator that was originated over fellow Seattle station KING. KING complained to the Commission that this constituted a "rebroadcast," and the Commission launched an investigation. KVI responded to the Staff's inquiry, admitting that it had done so, but pleading that only three minutes and 58 seconds of the interview was rebroadcast and that the original KING show was identified and credited for the interview. KVI then pled a "fair use" defense that to interpret the Commission's Rules to prohibit such a use infringes its First Amendment rights. It furthermore claimed that it did not "retransmit" the signal of KING but only taped a small portion of the program and used it in its news commentary.

The Commission pointed out that Section 325(a) contains a strict prohibition against any station rebroadcasting the program or any part thereof of another broadcasting station without the express authority of the originating station. Part of Section 325(a)'s language is also restated verbatim in Section 73.1207(b) of the Commission's Rules. Indeed, the Commission has specifically held that licensees who wish to retransmit material broadcast by another station must seek or receive the express authority of the originating station, even if the program in question has been taped or recorded.

This revelation may come as news to some stations who believe that they had a right to pick up pieces of another station's broadcast and use it in their own programming. They should be advised that this practice is strictly prohibited without the originating station's consent which, according to the Rules, must be kept in writing and made available to the FCC upon request. This would be true even when using it in the context of editorial programming or news and public affairs.

As the political season approaches, it may become tempting to gather sound bites or taped quotations off the air for later use in political discussions. Every station doing this must be mindful that such segments cannot be used without the express written permission of the originating station.

MAYBE THIS TIME. . . . The Commission is limping back to action after the Blizzard of '96 which, coupled with the government shutdown, has caused a backlog of thousands of applications. Radio Business Report says Commission staffers plan to sort through four days worth of mail each day until it's all taken care of. The Commission's first open meeting since the shutdown which was scheduled for January 18 has been moved to January 31, effectively delaying a vote on the Disney-Capital Cities/ABC, Inc. merger. That is, if the temporary resolution to keep the government operating through Jan. 26 is made permanent. As soon as the FCC radio notices start coming again, we'll run them in their entirety.

IT'S STILL A NICE DAY FOR 35-44-YEAR-OLDS. . . . The 70s are here to stay according to a just-released study done by Interep and Stratford Research. Over three-fourths of the 70s audience believes that the format is NOT a fad. The study also shows that listeners tend to like the classic rock and AC cuts better than disco and the novelty records from that decade. Audience profiles and the rest of the results are on page three.

The Supreme Court refused to hear arguments from the broadcast coalition challenging the FCC's indecent broadcast restrictions. The coalition argued that the indecency ban and the Commission's definitions of indecency violated First Amendment rights.

Even though the FCC still has to think it over, the Justice Department has given its blessing to the Disney-Capital Cities, ABC, Inc. merger. It seems the only regulatory hang-up is that of Disney retaining both KCAL and KABC-TV, Los Angeles. Inside Radio reports Disney will sell off KCAL in order to get the approval.

NAB Chairman Eddie Fritts appealed to broadcasters to reaffirm their commitment to the pending telecom bill. During the NAB Joint Board meeting in La Quinta, CA this past week, the board unanimously approved a resolution where broadcasters "accept this new competitive atmosphere" created by the bill, which would virtually eliminate national ownership caps.

The board approved a budget of $36.5 million for fiscal year 1996-97. Most of the money is generated from non-dues activities, such as conventions and sales. The new budget represents an expected 8.7% increase in revenues from the previous year and a 5.6% increase in expenses.

The board reaffirmed its support for in-band, on-channel DAB by passing a resolution thanking the DAB Task Force and continuing "its strong support for the completion of IBOC development, with the aim of its expeditious adoption and deployment in this country."

The board also redefined the requirements for radio network membership status, effectively ridding itself of any network that doesn't own stations. The new requirements would require a network to own six stations directly or its owners own six stations collectively, and it must have a minimum of 100 affiliates in 35 states. Dues would also be increased by approx. nine percent for current members. The NAB membership must ratify this amendment to the by-laws in order for the changes to take effect.

During the meeting, the board also heard reports on new technology developments, the activities of STAR (Stations Target Alcohol Abuse Reduction), NAB staff and resource restructuring, and the reports of the radio and television boards.

Eddie Fritts presented an overview of the NAB building renovation project. The staff plans to reoccupy the building February 1.

Interep and Stratford Research have released the results of a study analyzing the viability of the 70s radio format. The biggest finding is that 3/4 of its core audience believes the format is not a novelty. 74% of both 35-44-year-olds and 45-54-year-olds say that they expect the format to be around for a long time. Among those with a primary interest in 70s music, 100% say they would or do listen often. Among all respondents, almost 1/2 of those in the 40-44 age cell said that they would or do listen "often" and 39% said "occasionally." There is no discernible difference in frequency of reported listening between men and women.

The demographic profile of the 70s music fan is split about 55% male, 45% female. Among respondents 18-54, the highest percentage of fans were 35-44, followed by 25-34. 15% of 70s music fans have above-average household incomes.

The study shows that 70s music provokes strong emotional responses, especially among those who grew up with the music. 83% of all respondents said that they both love and hate many songs from the 70s. The poorest response from respondents with a primary interest in 70s music comes from disco and novelty bands. AC and rock-oriented 70s artists were strongly preferred. 57% report listening "often" to classic rock artists, and 42% to oldies artists.

Secret Communications has offered $27 million for Chancellor's KTBZ, Lake Jackson, TX (Houston), but only if Chancellor's purchase of Shamrock Broadcasting closes. The LMA begins immediately. The Chancellor-Shamrock deal is expected to close in early February.

Philadelphia-based Panache Broadcasting has announced it will buy West Communications' WXTZ, Noblesville, IN, (Indianapolis) for $4 million. Panache already owns black gospel/urban WTLC and urban WTLC-FM, there. They've flipped the easy listening outlet to urban oldies as the LMA began immediately.

In a follow-up to a story we ran a few weeks ago, Los Angeles-based El Dorado Communications will buy three stations in the Dallas-Ft. Worth area to take on Heftel's Spanish network there. The company will buy Radio Plano's regional Mexican KRVA (AM), Cockrell Hill and Spanish AC KRVA-FM, McKinney and Pesa Broadcasting's Regional Mexican KXEB, Sherman, TX. Terms weren't disclosed. El Dorado began the LMA with KXEB immediately. Radio Plano's owner, Tony Rodriguez, will have an interest in the stations. His brother, Marcos, recently sold his four stations to Heftel.

Two big closings this week. Infinity closed on its acquisition of the Alliance Broadcasting properties in Dallas, San Francisco, Detroit, and Seattle. The $275 million deal includes country outlets KYNG, Dallas and KSNN, Arlington, TX; oldies combo KFRC-AM & FM and country KYCY, San Francisco; country WYCD, Detroit; and country KYCW, Seattle.

Evergreen closed on its $306.5 million purchase of Pyramid Broadcasting. The new group now owns seven stations in Chicago as well as new properties in Boston, Charlotte, Philadelphia and Buffalo.

John Douglas' Douglas Broadcasting has gotten rid of its backer Kelso and transferred its eight remaining radio stations to Par Holding Company, which is backed by Stamford, CT-based TSG Capital. According to Inside Radio, the price tag is $27.3 million.

If you want to buy radio in Colorado Springs, there's quickly becoming only one name to call: Citadel. They've entered into a sales agreement with Norm Feuer's Triathlon Broadcasting, which owns four stations in that market. Citadel has two. The combination gives Citadel the sales rights to more than a 33 share in that market. Citadel's stations are classic rock KKFM and dance CHR KKMG, Pueblo. Triathlon has standards KTWK, hot AC KVUU, oldies KSPZ, and news-talker KVOR.

American Radio Systems will file a proposed public offering of just over five million shares of class A common stock to repay outstanding debt. Four million shares will be offered by the company, while the remainder will be offered by certain shareholders.

If you're holding stock in Chris Dahl's Children's Broadcasting Corp., each share is now worth twice as much, but you now have half of what you had. The board of directors approved a "one-for-two" reverse stock split as of January 23. Dahl believes the move would make the stock more marketable to investors. CBC is the parent corporation of Radio Aahs and trades on the Nasdaq as "AAHS."

Arbitron has some good news this week as Male 18-24 sample performance is the best ever for the Fall '95 survey. Its proportionality index (or percent of goal) for the first 79 standard markets is 89.3%, up 12.5 points from Fall '94. Also, the number of markets within ten-percent of goal quadrupled from ten to 39. The company says increasing diary premiums, redesigning diary packaging, and additional follow-up calls helped the increase. Male 18-24 has been one of the most difficult groups from which to garner sufficient sample. Markets with the biggest increases over a year ago include Ann Arbor, Atlantic City, Cleveland, Manchester, Memphis, Modesto, Nashville, Nassau-Suffolk (Long Island), Oxnard-Ventura, Providence, Salisbury-Ocean City, South Bend, St. Louis, and Tampa. Biggest (and for the most part, the only) losers were Colorado Springs, Johnstown, New Haven, Washington DC, and West Palm Beach.

The final phase of Arbitron's 70% sample increase program went into effect for the recently-started Winter '96 survey. 68 continuously-measured markets received a 30% increase in 1994, 20% in 1995, and another 20% beginning this year. The sample target increases were based on Fall 1993 sample targets. Stations paid a four percent rate increase to cover some of the costs. Arbitron GM Pierre Bouvard says he'll keep the sample increase offer on the table for those markets that didn't sign up in the past.

FCC MAY MOVE AFTER ALL. . . . The Washington Post reports after nearly seven years of squabbling, both in court and among governmental agencies, the FCC has finally agreed to move the agency to the Portals Project in Southwest Washington. The Commission first put in a request to the government's General Services Administration for new space in 1989, realizing it would outgrow the 478,000 square feet it occupies. The battle began after the Portals site was chosen and the lease was signed by the GSA. The Commission argued there wasn't enough space for the 1800 employees spread among six different locations in downtown Washington, DC. The Portals owner sued the agency and won, forcing the Commission into 450,000 square feet--28,000 less than it currently occupies and almost 100,000 square feet less than it believes it will need. Construction at the new site is scheduled for March 1, 1996. By the way, the FCC will pay just over $17 million per year for rent.

Inside Radio reports that budget shortfalls may affect the pace at which work gets done at the Commission. Chairman Reed Hundt says the $166 million Congress has allocated "won't work," and warns the FCC may have to quit granting some types of licenses.

Susan Lewis Sallet has been named Acting Director of the FCC's Office of Public Affairs. Sallet moves over from the FCC's Common Carrier Bureau, where she served as Special Assistant to the Bureau Chief. She also previously served as Press Secretary for the Commission.

Karen E. Watson will move to the Office of Plans and Policy to assume a new position as Senior Analyst, Telecommunications and Education. She is currently Director, Office of Public Affairs.

ELSEWHERE

Jefferson-Pilot is spending $28.75 million to double up in San Diego. It will purchase jazz KIFM, San Diego from KIFM Broadcasting to combo with its country simulcast KSON-AM & FM. Jefferson-Pilot also has a sales agreement with SBR Broadcasting's oldies outlet KBZT.

Bob Fuller's Fuller-Jeffrey Broadcasting is buying monster-signalled CHR WZPK, Berlin, NH to add to its coverage of the Portland/Lewistown, ME market. New England Broadcasting, which is currently in bankruptcy proceedings, will sell the station for an undisclosed price. Fuller-Jeffrey covers the rest of the market with rocker WBLM, Portland and new rock simulcast WCYY, Biddeford and WCYI, Lewistown, ME. WZPK covers much of Maine and most of New Hampshire from an antenna 3,874 feet above average terrain.

The Corporation for Public Broadcasting is getting tough on federal funding guidelines for public radio stations. The CPB's board voted this week to impose minimum listening or community financial support standards stations must meet to qualify for federal funds. The station can choose which criterion it wishes to meet.

Both tests are a function of the population in the station's 1 mv/m coverage area, which includes translators, but does not include population or listening outside the U.S. The listening index is calculated by multiplying the station's AQH total week persons by 100, then dividing by the coverage area's population. The resulting percentage is the station's "listening index." The proposed minimum is 12 percent for stations with coverage area populations greater than or equal to three million, or 15 percent for those below three million.

The "Community Financial Support Index" is calculated by dividing the total of community financial support by the station's coverage area population. However, the percentages are higher here--18 percent for three million or greater, 20 percent for less than three million.

The two standards are in addition to the existing criteria a station must meet for funding.

NPR switched to their all-digital satellite distribution system January 3, replacing the analog system that was in service since 1979. The project was funded out of appropriations by Congress in 1987 to develop a system that can handle local station needs as well as future system and program requirements.

ABC Radio Networks is on target to complete its conversion of five of its 24-hour music formats to SpaceCom Systems' FM Squared digital audio transmission technology. Three of the networks, StarDust, StarStation, and Pure Gold, have already been converted. Real Country and Country Coast-to-Coast will be changed over by March.

Scientific-Atlanta is selling off its Satellite Audio Distribution unit to StarGuide Digital Networks (formerly VirteX), based in Reno, NV. The unit produces the company's DATS products using SEDAT audio compression. SA is selling the unit because "...it is no longer aligned with [the company's] core business strategies," according to a press release. The sale should occur later this month.

Westwood One is partnering with MTV's Radio Latino to expand its programming into Latin America. "Radio MTV" is a weekly package of radio features, news, and concerts for Latin American radio stations. The rollout begins in April, 1996.
