To all the speakers, many of whom appeared after lengthy travel and extensive expenditures and efforts, go the heartfelt thanks of the National Association of Broadcasters and its Program Department.

Thanks, too, to the scores of industry leaders, too many to permit a complete listing here, who have given freely of their time and efforts; whose guidance and advice have been invaluable in preparing and completing arrangements for the Program Clinic.

☆

We acknowledge with thanks the wholehearted cooperation of the faculty and staff of Northwestern University, whose assistance made possible the success of this first nationwide NAB Program Clinic. We acknowledge, particularly, the assistance of Donley Feddersen, Chairman, Department of Radio, Charles Longwell, Manager, Abbott Hall, and Ray Willemaine, Assistant Manager, Abbott Hall.
