Reception to World Fliers, Seven Foreign Broadcasts Fill Week With Entertainment

Two Programs are Booked from Paris

Jean Patou, designer, will speak Sunday Morning

In an attempted re-broadcast from Paris next Sunday (August 3) direct descendants of the Lafayette, Rochefoucault and DeGrasse families will be heard over an NBC network and WSAI when they speak in the hall of the Colonial Exposition replica of Mount Vernon, at a dinner given in their honor. The program is scheduled from 4:00 to 5:00 p.m.

Many unusual aspects are expected in the transoceanic broadcast, which will be introduced by a Paris announcer in the Mount Vernon banquet hall. The program is also expected to include incidental music by a French orchestra.

Five English programs of varied character will be relayed by the British Broadcasting Company through NBC stations this week including WSAI.

The Wireless Military Band, conducted by B. Wallace O'Donnell, which has been featured before in re-broadcasts from England, will play Monday (July 31) at 3-33 p.m.

From Queen's Hall on Tuesday (July 26), at 3:30 p.m., the concerts of the International Society of Contemporary Music will be heard.

A symphony concert, under the direction of Mr. Scheeren, will be offered next Friday (July 21) at 3:30. An orchestra concert under direction of Percy Pitt will follow on August 8 at 3:30 p.m.

The final program will consist of excerpts from Tippett's "Tatoo" on Tuesday (August 4) at 3:25 p.m.

Jean Patou, noted couturiere of Paris, will speak from the French capital over the Columbia network in the regular international broadcast hour on Sunday (July 28) at 11:30 a.m. The topic will be "Fads and Fashions." WBBN is the nearest outlet (1270 kc.).

Around the Dial

By THE DIAL TWISTER

Now The Goldhairs can be heard in Cincinnati (WJWL) at 6:55 p.m. each Sunday. That’s good news. This interesting feature is being offered in the Long Island Sunday Section. The Goldhairs are getting new voices, and this makes radio characters live.

But Amos and Andy fans needn’t be uneasy because the bewildering people on this show is new. The Fresh Air Taxi Boys will go on the air back to the same old stand, at least as long as Mr. Van Porter gives them his fishy for Mr. Van Porter seems to be taken the program among their recent producers who deserved it.

The Ken Club, announced last week as not being released locally, is now being aired by WXYC. Sunday night at 8 p.m., and Wednesday at 11 p.m. The program, which is satisfying enough for those who like daytime radio, is coming back.

Here’s more evidence that this is a banner season for the broadcasting of good music. NBC is carrying the Chicago Symphony Orchestra twice of outdoor concerts (WCKR, Sunday at 9 p.m.) and also giving the Illinois Symphony Orchestra a chance to play.

Another program at high levels is the radio of the Ken Club. WKRC, Monday at 7:15 p.m. Ernie Roper’s show being billed mightily, by Maurice Berhow, in every condition.

Mark Twain’s famous witticisms about the exaggerated reports of his death go for Dr. Arthur Tureck, who has been reported dead. Even those who have made a specialty of that form of odoriferous news may be reliable. Dr. Tureck is not dead, as we can tell by the way he gets on the air regularly and soon.

If you like to top off the evening with something restful, try The Singing Violin (WVL, Saturday at 11:30 p.m.). It’s a favorite old violin solo, the program includes playing poetry.

Mozart Serenade

Will Be Part of Levisonic Music

Mozart music to be played by five musicians under the direction of Dr. Levisonic. The quartet whose leader might hire the quartet will be called “Eine Kleine Nachtmusik,” and the entire string section of the New York Philharmonic symphony orchestra will play at the Levisonic music concert, at 8:30 Sunday night (July 26).

The Life of Riley

Herbert Newman, Fenton Pugh Will Share Recital

Fenton Pugh, tenor, and Herbert Newman, mezzo-soprano, both faculty members of the College of Music, will share the program of that school which acknowledge the 1931-1932 season.

Our Dial A Dozen

BY DON BECKER

We are back!

This is not the idle ramblings of an aimless rambling, the statement of one who knows he is.

We were back at Latonia the other day too!

My typewriter had a few domes- tories, including a couple of “Our Dial A Dozen” was neglected. The “Our Dial A Dozen” business had come out and taken over 1½ ‘word’ the word “Lover” it would turn out.

How embarrassing!

Frank Salt’s “Doll and Peanuts” deserves audience mention.

It continues to be that, for a check from the Artist’s Bureau almost, “When the clock from Fenton” asked Ralph Huberh, the Artist’s Bureau.

“New,” I heard, “Hunger!”

And then Richard Pavey asked me his name to the long list by sign- ing off. Richard Pavey is in the following manner:

I hear he has just bracedKincal, the Kentucky Mountain Dweller, and “Hound Boy Guardian” Veterans please copy.

Cliff Adams is back too! He was doing a few days with WURLK, his WRTM late at a show, and he makes radio.

On the other side, some daring dirty story to make a news item (prominent smart-aleck, Mr. Adams). Mr. Adams knew to be talking. Mr. Adams and Cliff received a broken arm.

Now he announces with our own. How different!

WHAT WE KNOW ABOUT DON BECKER

When we walked into his studio (Mother Becker’s Kitchen) he was sitting down. By this we knew he was not in the studio. We sat down. He walked away.

“Here are some of the statistics of his life. Age: Not quoted.

Eyes: Mostly black. Sometimes blue.

Hair: Sometimes black, and blue.

Doesn’t like girls—MUCH. Doesn’t like gloves—MUCH. Has only one father and one mother.

He is an incorrigible vacillator and, as we walked away, we shook our head—a man such a man, doomed to such a terrible fate for the rest of his days.

Playing a ukulele!

And by the way, have you heard the Song of the Gallopin’ Bull?”

DIALAGHILYING YOURE

DON BECKER.

Fenton Pugh, tenor. and Herbert Newman, mezzo-soprano, are two of the faculty members of the College of Music, and the program of that school which acknowledges the 1931-1932 season.

Newman’s piano solo includes the difficult Liszt number, “La Campanella,” and two Chopin numbers: “Berceuse,” and “Prelude F. Major.”
SINGIN’ SAM IS BARBOSAN MAN

SINGIN’ Sam is back on the air again, this time as Singin’ Sam, the Barbosan Man, in a Columbia network presentation. WKRC will carry at 7:15 p.m. every Monday.

Below he went on WLW a year or more ago as Singin’ Sam, the Great States Lawnmower Man, he was Harry Frankel of the radiophone troupe of Frankel and Dunleavy which for several years toured RKO and other circuits. Before that, he was a featured comedian with Al G. Fields’ Minstrels. He spent some time at WTAM last winter before it was decided to use the Cincinnati station for a few weeks this spring.

His radio voice has been so authentic that he has made a success of his first forays into that field of life. Present programs are sponsored by the hardware store of that name. Out on Singin’ Sam’s circuit and with the announcement of his next appearance, there is nothing like it. And now, let us see what this new talent is all about.

Names of New Hotel Bandmen at Reds During Week

It takes a good deal of work to pronounce the names that have sprung up at Cincinnati hotels to turn radio listeners who hate to break their jaws to talk about orchestras they like.

Hotel Gibson has imported Joseph Chirkich, a Czech, and with his band is playing at the Hotel Gibson and with his band is going to take over the Hotel Gibson and the Balalaika orchestra, playing its first engagement out of New York where they have been making records since they came to America only a few months ago. They are authentic and well received by the public.

Several titles are Miss Vinyl and is the Miss Balalaika orchestra on a recent trip to New York for that purpose. She has been accepting engagements at hotels and at other places where the orchestra performed, she said. She has been a regular at the stones, and the orchestra is held in high repute.

Three Game Home To Be Aired for Reds During Week

Three home games are slated for broadcast from Redland Field by WFBF: this week.

Friday (July 24) the Reds play New York at 1:30; Wednesday (July 29) at 8:45; and Thursday (July 31) at 1:30. They meet Brooklyn. The three presentations will begin at 1:30 p.m. Every game will be broadcast, the play-by-play account.

Mary's Cat In a Purrsonal Appearance
It "appears" Mary Charles, Columbia Broadcasting System congresswoman, is encountering difficulties in teaching the proper microphone technique to her prize-winning Persian cat, "Nasir." Miss Charles is well known on the English as well as the American stage, having appeared abroad in "Cat In a Purrsonal Appearance." In this country, she played in "Interference" and then did several specialty acts on Ziegfeld's "Show Girl." She sings on several Columbia programs heard through WKRC.
