30 Years of All News

BY SANDY WELLS

In January 1968 three announcements in three consecutive days foretold the future of news radio in the Southland. First General Manager George Nicholaw announced that KNX would adopt a news format beginning April 15. The following day, Westinghouse Broadcasting, which had recently purchased top 40 KFWB, said it would start its own all-news operation

March 11. On the third day, radio programming pioneer Gordon McLendon, who had been operating an all-news format on XTRA, a Mexican station with studios in San Diego, declared he would drop back-to-back news in favor of pop music.

"At the time, people said, 'Why don't you move up your start to March 1?'" recalled Nicholaw, who still oversees the CBS-owned station.

Tyll & Demento on Tap at KLSX

The "Dr. Demento Show" arrived along with the April showers to brighten KLSX 97.1 Sunday nights. The humorous, novelty off-beat record show originated in L.A. at KPPC in 1970.

A contract dispute between KLSX 97.1 FM management and evening

talk show hosts Tim Conway, Jr. and Doug Steckler opened the door for Ed Tyll to step into the 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. continued on 7

Robert W. Morgan Memorial

NEWS ANALYSIS BY SANDY WELLS

In the world of top 40 music radio, a moment of silence amounts to less than five seconds. That's how long oldies radio KRTH 101.1 paused in the middle of the Memorial Day Weekend Top 500 Countdown May 23 at 6:12 a.m. to acknowledge the passing of their former morning man, Robert W. Morgan. He died the night before with friends and family at his bedside at the Encino-Tarzana Regional Medical Center following a year and a half battle with lung cancer. He was 60.

After the momentary pause — it seemed like an hour in top 40 time — KRTH newswoman Joni Caryl's recorded voice came on over a soft music bed. She sadly recounted the events leading up to his death and his satisfaction in witnessing his daughter's graduation from Smith College only days before taking his last breath. It was a dream come true for him, she said.

On KNX 1070 AM, the CBS hourly news played snippets of his work on KHJ-AM and KRTH as it reported his passing for a national audience, most of whom never heard any of his shows except through a smattering of nationally-syndicated programs and TV.

Although his death was expected — his health had deteriorated dramatically in the last few weeks — the announcement was a startling one. It was one more nail in the coffin of the '60s, one more step toward that troubled decade's oblivion. Drugs destroyed some of the brightest lights of that era. A lifelong two-pack-a-day cigarette habit appears to have cut short Robert W.'s life.

For millions of radio listeners, he provided fun music and daily comic relief. On KHJ, K-100, KMPC, Magic 106 and KRTH, he was a convincing and consistent human presence amid a roar of confusion and change, especially in the late-'60s and continued on 3

Winter Ratings

Did El Niño cause oldies, talk, and Spanish station to slip and slide? The winter 1998 Arbitron rankings, based on average quarterly share estimates of listeners age 12 and up, brought good news to KCMG, "Mega 100," which seems headed to permanent top 10 status. It rose 1.3 from No. 25 to 14th place in the overall rankings (Monday-Sunday, 6 a.m.-midnight), posting a 2.7 share. Spanish Ranchera KLAX, with a new morning show and program director, recovered by the same margin as Mega 100, jumping from 19th to 8th place. Its nemesis, KSCA, beat out its sister station, Spanish "Romantica" KLVE-FM for first place.

Among music stations, hip hop KPWR, urban KKBT, modern rock KLYY, country KZLA, top 40 KIIS, rocker KLOS, oldies KRLA, classical KKGO, rock classics KCBS, were all down for the rating period, while adult contemporary KBIG alternative rock KROQ and Spanish pop KSSE showed gains. Alternative adult contemporary KYSR, smooth jazz KTWV, soul oldies KACE, urban contemporary KJLH, dance hits Groove 103.1, Mexican regional KBUE and soft rock KOST showed little or no change from last fall.

Among talk stations, KFI jumped up four-tenths into third position overall, while archival continued on 7 early '70s. With riots and upheaval at home and a war abroad that seemed to be a warm-up for the big one, Morgan had the answers, a morning benediction, marching orders for the day. His attitude suggested that it was OK to be a little nuts. It was a mad, mad world.

In his last years at KRTH, the wear and tear of life at the top began to show. An angrier Morgan emerged, one who used his greater time allowance between the songs to flaunt some reactionary political views. One of the hippest guys in radio had pulled back the curtain to reveal a harsher man behind the mike. Many entertainers make it a point never to show much of themselves. They transmit their essence through their art, which, because of their talent, magnifies their personality even as it distorts it. Morgan was bigger when he was more of a radio artist. He didn't fit into the confessional "real radio" style exemplified by Howard Stern. Morgan needed the big show, which KRTH provided for him. After all, through most of Morgan's KRTH career, "boss radio" guru Bill Drake served as consultant. Still, the strain of creating a perfectly executed music program with all the technical hassles involved while trying to keep up with the freewheeling chatterbox style of his competitors seemed to take its toll on him. Reputed to be "difficult," he went through many producers.

But Robert W. Morgan will be remembered because people loved him. He was cool, and he cared; and he was a huge part of radio magic now gone forever.

Sounding Off

Lohman Lives

Re: "Sad Milestones," Page 20, Ad Lohman is still among us, residing in Palm Springs. I talked to him last week.

KFI Wonderment

I usually turn off KFI at 11 p.m., but I left my radio on the other night as I was showering. I was suddenly reminded why I don't listen to Tammy Bruce. She was, as usual, verbally destroying the president and other individuals - if she could just get her facts straight. (Personally, I do not think this is possible) Bruce is just plain boring. Sometimes she will read from a book for a couple of hours. How much talent does that take? I would like to see KFI put Glynnis Walker in this time slot. Walker is very well-versed in all her topics. You can tell she is very well-educated and is anything but boring.

Geri Scott of Highland, CA.

I wonder if you could let the readers know what is happening at KFI on weekends? Sanchez & Walker are no longer doing their show "Bitchin'" together, but have their own shows. Sanchez has only three hours of air time and Walker, only two. Turi Ryder was replaced by a very obnoxious Debra Rich. Tim Kelly, a producer, is now on Sundays in Rodri Rodriguez' time slot. They one they should have replaced is the very illiterate and loud-mouthed Tammy Bruce. I'll appreciate any info you can give us.

Pennsylvanian Critiques L.A. Radio

I live in Northeast Pennsylvania, and my station gets your magazine by subscription. I've been to L.A. many times and have always closely followed the radio scene. Some observations:

KMPC should never have dropped adult standards in 1992. They haven't cracked a share since. Why did it take so long for "Music of Your Life" to hit via KGIL? With those L.A.-oriented personalities, that format should have been on local radio since day one. Why is KLAC still satellite? With their signal at 570, they should be live, a la KABL in San Francisco. Wouldn't a standards format work for FM? Everybody can't target 25 to 54.

I don't know Charlie Tuna's status yet, but wouldn't he be the obvious choice for a.m. drive at KRTH 101? Why the weekend auditions?

I've loved "The Wave" since I first heard it back in 1987. I loved the eclectic New Age mix back then. I get really get agitated when I hear Mariah Carey, Whitney Houston, Boyz II Men, etc. Even "Night Traxx" is using the day playlist, it seems.

KRTH always sounds great, but why the same oldies over and over? I know research dictates familiarity, but I would imagine even the average listener gets burned out on them.

I'm a non-Spanish-speaking person, but I really enjoy KSCA-FM and KLVE - must be the regional Mexican rhythms and the quality of the ballads.

Again with KRTH, Johnny Hayes sounds great, but I miss the old KRLA top 11 at noon - any chance of something similar on KRTH? He's being held back too much by the format.

I miss Gary Owens on a regular local live show. I recall he and Al Lohman in the mid-'80s on KFI on "L.A. Morning Show."

Nice to see KCMG-FM and KACE and their urban oldies formats. The more variety, the better for the listener.

I could go on and on, but as a frequent Southland visitor, I just wanted to express a few opinions. Thank you for your magazine.

Bob Gale of WHLM, Mix 106.5 FM, in Bloomburg, Pa.

Wants K-EARTH on Web

I saw your site on the Internet and would love to hear KRTH 101 again. I lived in L.A. for many years and now miss the sounds of KRTH living here in New Jersey. Do you think it would be possible to get KRTH to broadcast on the Internet the way that KBEST-95 in San Diego has been doing for the past year?

Radio Roundup

Sensuous Classical Music

radio late at night."

A pianist for 20 years, Golabek quit touring three years ago to produce classical recordings. While on tour, she discovered that relating the stories of the composers, particularly their love stories, dramatically increased the audience's involvement.

Santana suggested that she make a demo, incorporating her stories with music. KKG0 began airing the show late last year. Golabek made her syndication debut this past Valentine's Day.

"I was very influenced by the 'Wave' and by KCRW — Chris Douridas and Joe Frank," the L.A. native said. "But I've developed my own style."

"The Romantic Hours" consists of classical recordings interspersed with Golabek's readings of romantic and short stories, poetry and novel excerpts. Always striving to heighten the listeners' visceral connection with the music, she's not above using erotic material.

"Classical music is tough," she said. "A lot of the music is hard to understand or is not that accessible."

Mega 100 Builds Team

Jeff Wyatt joined KCMG 100.3 FM "Mega 100" March 23 as morning host on the new soul oldies station. Wyatt briefly served as general manager for "Groove Radio" KACD/KBCD 103.1 FM after the dance music outlet's debut in June 1996 and worked as air talent and program director at both Power 106 and KIIS-FM in the '80s and early '90s. Before his arrival, Mega 100 had briefly experimented with celebrity morning hosts, including a stint with Jerry Mathers, a.k.a. Beaver from "Leave it to Beaver."

Rounding out the schedule are: Christina Kelly in middays, Mario DeVoe in afternoon drive, Xavier the X-Man in the evening, Evan Luck from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. and Benny Martinez, overnights. Art Laboe's Killer Oldies Show, long a KRLA staple on Sunday nights, now occupies the same 7 p.m. to midnight time on KCMG-FM.

Don Parker came to the Chancellor-owned station March 16 as operations manager from KKFR in Phoenix. A month later, Mega 100's Program Director Harold Austin was out, and Parker assumed his responsibilities.

Although pleased with Mega 100's progress in the winter Arbitron, Parker said that the station still has a long way to go and that he won't be satisfied until it's in the top five among Los Angeles radio stations in the lucrative 25-54 demographic category.

KCRW Eves Revamped

KCRW-FM revised the schedule of its evening music programs in May. Garth Trinidad's "Chocolate City," serving up urban rhythm and soul music, moved from its weekend spot to weekdays, 10 p.m. to midnight. Tricia Halloran's new music showcase, "Brave New World," airs Friday and Saturday nights from midnight to 2 a.m. On "The Open Road," Gary Calamar plays an alternative pop/eclectic mix, Saturdays and Sundays, 8 p.m. to 10 p.m. Liza Richardson follows with "Que Sera Sera" — her blend of pop, soul and "Latin vibes and harmonies" — until midnight.

KCRW's Eclectic Man

From New York's sleepy Hudson Valley to the sun-drenched capital of the entertainment world, KCRW-FM's new host of "Morning Becomes Eclectic" moved into one of public radio's most coveted on-air positions.

"I really am aware that I am in the hot seat," said Nic Harcourt, successor to former music director/morning host Chris Douridas, who departed for full-time work in the record industry at DreamWorks. The new host's first broadcast in the 9 a.m. to noon weekday time slot aired April 20.

"My show is going to evolve," the British-accented host said. "I don't want people to be able to turn on 'Morning Becomes Eclectic' and know exactly what they're going to get."

Chosen from a field of nearly 500 candidates, Harcourt came from New York. He was program director and host of the morning show, "Nic in the Morning" on WDST-FM, a commercial alternative rock outlet in Woodstock, N.Y.

The post at KCRW is a highly visible one in the music industry; record company executives will scrutinize Harcourt's choices and ability to pick out the latest pop music trends.

"Nic has raised the bar eclectically," said Geordie Gillespie, promotions VP for the WORK Group, a record company.

Born in Birmingham, England, Harcourt fell under the spell of early-'70s British "glam rockers" such as T-Rex, Gary Glitter and early Elton John. He joined a rock band, in which he "played guitar badly and sang." He volunteered at an Australian station before moving to the U.S. His career at WDST took off after his offer to host an Australian music show. Although that program never materialized, he landed a weekend show and worked his way up to program director and morning host.

Now 40 and starting afresh, he is quick to put the hype about radio and the music business into perspective.

"It's just playing songs on the radio, you know," Harcourt said. "At the end of the day you know you're not finding a cure for cancer. I'd like to break some new bands here — that's exciting to me — to think that you can do that."

Nic Harcourt

One band that Harcourt has helped to nurture over the years is the Pushstars.

"I gave them their commercial radio start at WDST two years ago," he said. "They're making their major label debut on Capitol in June.

Power Shake-Up

KPWR 105.9 FM General Manager Marie Kordus and Program Director Michelle Mercer were dismissed from their positions at the urban/hip-hop station May 6.

"We've had our problems at the radio station in terms of ratings and sales for the past year," said Doyle Rose, president of Emmis Broadcasting's Radio Division. "It was our judgment that to turn the station around we had to bring in new coaches. This is the kind of format where every few years you have to reinvent it. We've done it three times since we went on the air with this in 1986. This happens with cutting-edge stations."

Kordus was offered another job within the company as director of TV sales. No replacements had been named at press time.

KIEV Sold

KIEV AM 870 was sold by the Southern California Broadcasting Company to Camarillo-based Salem Communications Corp. May 4 for $33.4 million, pending approval by the FCC.

Purchased by William Beaton in 1961, the Glendale station was a family-owned operation for more than a quarter of a century. After he died in 1985, his sons, Ron and Fred, took over. The facility has thrived by selling blocks of time — "brokered" shows — which it helps to produce.

In-house programs with well-known personalities such as Ray Briem and George Putnam are also profitable. The Beaton brothers will remain as consultants for an undetermined period after the sale goes into effect.

Salem, the country's largest Christian radio company, probably will change some of the programming. But it may carry conservative talk hosts Briem and Putnam through Salem's syndication service (which carries conservative social critic Michael Medved) and develop sports syndication deals with UCLA and Nebraska football.

"We think that the Beatons have done a great job building up what used to be a 250-watt day-timer into what it is now," said Edward G. Atsinger, president/CEO of Salem Communications.

According to Atsinger, Salem frequently combines "general market" talk stations with its more traditional Christian talk programming in cities where it owns two or more stations.

"There's a natural synergy that works well," Atsinger said. "We can cross-promote, and that can benefit the religious talk station."

Locally, Salem operates KKLA 99.5 FM in Glendale, KKLA 1240 AM in San Bernardino and KLTX 1390 AM in Long Beach.

KNX: Mystery Theater

In 1974, radio drama fans enthusiastically received the debut of the "CBS Mystery Theater." Introduced by the sound effect of a creaking door and hosted by E.G. Marshall and later by Tammy Grimes, the program enjoyed a 10-year run. Many noted actors such as John Lithgow, Celeste Holm, Richard Kiley, Fred Gwynne, Amanda Plummer, Mercedes McCambridge, Tony Roberts and Francis Sternhagen performed in 1,400-plus episodes directed by Himan Brown. KNX 1070 AM recently started airing the hour-long show weeknights at 10 p.m., after the "KNX Drama Hour." Ghost and detective stories, psychological thrillers, mysteries and adaptations of famous plays and novels are all part of the Westwood One (now part of CBS, Inc.) syndicated program.

New Voices at Y-107

Two former KROQers, Chris Hardwick and Courtland Cox, comprise the new morning team at modern rock radio station Y107. Hardwick, noted for co-hosting MTV's "Singed Out" with Jenny McCarthy, was a late-night DJ at KLYY's competitor. Cox was a producer for KROQ's Kevin & Bean Show.

Early this year Y-107 announced the completion of the upgrade of its Arcadia transmitter, strengthening the station's signal in parts of the San Gabriel Valley and the Los Angeles basin. The transmitter is one of three operated by Big City Radio as the "trimulcast" station, KLYY-FM, Arcadia, KSYY-FM, Fallbrook and KVYY-FM, Ventura.

Rock Star Interviews

Rock icon Jackson Browne was the first guest to join KLOS 95.5 FM's Jim Ladd in his new "Jim Ladd's Living Room" segment. The '60s DJ devotes time during his nightly 6 p.m. to 10 p.m. broadcast for live, in-studio performances and interviews with rock stars.

Top 40 DJ Goes Oldies

The former KIIS evening personality jumped over to KRLA 1110 AM to take over the evening request and dedication show. Val Valentine, now on his "fifth tour" at the Latino/soul-oriented oldies station, gained fame at KIIS-FM with his bilingual patter. He continues the practice in the slot formerly held by "Living Legend" Huggy Boy, who hosts the a.m. show with Karla Sifuentes.

98.7 Talent Shuffle

After a run as evening jock on KROQ-FM until Doug "Sluggo" Robert's return from New York's WXRK-FM last December, Brad Wright took over the 10 p.m. to 1 a.m. slot on alternative adult contemporary KYSR 98.7 FM. In other Star 98.7 changes, former news/traffic person Lisa Foxx now entertains in the afternoon with Ryan Seacrest. In middays, Larry Morgan replaced Merilee Kelly. Leah Brandon hosts the 7 p.m. to 10 p.m. show, and Bill Alexander spins through the night.

1230 AM Goes Gospel

KYPA-AM 1230 switched from Personal Achievement Radio network/motivational talk to a gospel music and Christian teaching format April 6. Pasadena-based Spirit Broadcasting leases the time from Douglas Broadcasting, which sold KYPA and KMIA 1220 to Multicultural Broadcasting, earlier this year.

Reginald Utley doubles as program director and morning host, while Kyle Kelly takes the mike in the afternoons.

KBIG Makeover

Fresh jingles and slogans plus a talent rearrangement marked March 2 as the start of something new at KBIG-FM 104.3. Chancellor Media Corporation bought the adult contemporary FM from Bonneville International last fall.

Former evening personalities Carolyn Gracie and Rick Diego

now entertain in the morning, along with traffic reporter Rudy Grande from the "Big Bird." Former KOST-FM overnight talent Lance Ballance is enjoying daytime work in middays. Afternoons bring Jeff Davis back to L.A.'s airwaves, ending a two-year hiatus that began when he left KBIG to pursue voice-over work. Evenings belong to syndicated Delilah Rene-Ortega — simply “Delilah” to her listeners — who takes requests and love dedications from 7 p.m. until midnight.

The music mix is an uptempo blend of hits from the '80s and '90s with some songs from the '70s. Programmers energized the sound with new vocal “imaging” and a bright jingle package.

Countdown kingpin Casey Kasem came back to KBIG. Breaking out of his contract with Westwood One, Kasem reclaimed the show that made him a household name. Chancellor Media's new AMFM Networks announced March 2 that “American Top 20 with Casey Kasem” would be carried on KBIG 104.3 FM, Sundays from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. KBIG 104.3 listeners heard Westwood One's version of the show, “Casey's Top 20,” on Sunday nights until the station dropped it last year.

KFI Refreshes Weekend

KFI's weekend wunderkinds Scott Hasick and Casey Bartholomew returned to their old stomping grounds, lighting up the phones at KFI 640 AM, Saturdays, midnight to 3a.m. and Sunday evenings from 9 p.m. to midnight. For the past year, the duo had hosted a weekday talk show at WDBO-AM in Orlando, owned by KFI's parent company, Cox Broadcasting. Debra Rich came on board for the Saturday and Sunday 6 p.m to 9p.m. gig. Tammy Bruce's producer, Tim Kelly, co-hosts with Neil Saavedra, Saturdays from 3 p.m. to 6 p.m. and Sundays from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m. Glynnis Walker solos on Sundays from 4 p.m. to 6 p.m.

New Voices at Y-107

Two former KROQ employees, Chris Hardwick and Courtland Cox, now comprise the new morning team at the modern rock radio station. Hardwick, noted for co-hosting MTV's “Singed Out” with Jenny McCarthy, also had a late-night DJ gig at KROQ. Cox was a producer for KROQ's Kevin & Bean Show. Early in the year Y-107 announced the completion of the upgrade of its Arcadia transmitter, strengthening the station's signal in parts of the San Gabriel Valley and the L.A. basin. The transmitter is one of three operated by Big City Radio as the “trimulcast” station, KLYY-FM, Arcadia, KSYY-FM, Fallbrook and KVVY-FM, Ventura.

KAZN Sold

Multicultural Broadcasting, Inc. purchased Pasadena's KAZN 1300 AM from Pan Asia Broadcasting, Inc., a local company, in March. KAZN has broadcast programs in Mandarin Chinese for nearly two years now and receives more than 200,000 calls per month on its toll-free listener feedback lines, according to Program Manager Felix Guo. Industry trade magazine, Radio & Records, reported that Multicultural Broadcasting, which operates KALI 1430 AM in San Gabriel, paid $12 million.

KKBT Musicmeisters

KKBT-FM Program Director Michelle Santosuosso has some right-hand help orchestrating the urban contemporary station. Dorsey Fuller serves as music director and Tawala Sharp as assistant music director. Fuller has a background in publicity and marketing, including a three-year stint as national promotions director for the hip-hop newspaper “Rap Sheet.” Sharp has worked his way up from intern to part-time producer for DJ Julio G to his new gig.

KRTH Oldies Adds '80s

“Dancing in the Dark” by Bruce Springsteen on KRTH 101.1 FM? “What's Love Got to Do With It?” by Tina Turner. “Billy Jean” by Michael Jackson? The tightly-formatted, thundering oldies outlet has loosened up the playlist, sprinkling '80s hits into the mix.

Charlie Van Dyke, morning man for KHJ-AM in the '70s, will try out for the morning show in the first week of June. Other June guest DJs scheduled are: week 2, “World Famous” Tom Murphy; week 3, Dave Diamond and week 4, Dan Ingram.

How about that Vin Scully imitation on the KRTH baseball contest in April? It was the voice of none other than KCRW-FM “Le Show” host Harry Shearer, who also makes a pretty good side income doing character voices for Fox TV's “The Simpsons.”

Sports Highlights

L.A.'s One-On-One Sports outlet, KXMG 1540 AM, changed its call letters to KCTD. The Chicago-based network is now hitting the Riverside and San Bernardino market on its new affiliate, KMET 1490 AM, “The Sports Hogg,” in Banning.

Sports Radio L.A., KXTA 1150 AM, boosted its power from 5,000 watts by a factor of 10 in February, taking the daytime output to 50,000 watts and up to 40,000 watts at night.

Lohman Protests Obit

In the last issue (Vol. 4, No. 3), we erroneously reported that legendary KABC morning man Al Lohman had died in 1997.

“The reports of my death are greatly exaggerated,” said Al Lohman to the Radio Guide, borrowing from Mark Twain's famous cable of 1897 to the Associated Press.

Indeed, Lohman is alive and well and living in Palm Springs. We received many letters and calls expressing dismay upon reading the notice in our year in review article. One reader said, “I just spoke with Al the other day, and he seemed fine!”

Perhaps this will be a lesson to all retired yet still beloved L.A. radio personalities. About a year ago, we tried to answer yet another reader query about Lohman's whereabouts. We left a message on what we believed to be a home phone number. With all due respect to J.D. Salinger and other reclusive geniuses, if we had heard back from the gentleman, we may have avoided the grievous mistake of reporting his premature demise. On a serious note, we apologize for any unnecessary pain caused by our error.

Dees to Host Superstars

KIIS-FM 102.7 top 40 superjock Rick Dees will host “The Wango Tango” pop music concert at the new Edison International Field of Anaheim June 13. “There's no other pop music festival like this all summer; I've upped my fee to $75 to host this one,” Dees said. Headliners include: Olivia Newton-John, Will Smith, Paula Cole, Tom Jones, Hootie & the Blowfish, N Sync, Gloria Estefan, Meredith Brooks and Mariah Carey. Tickets are available through Ticketmaster or at the Edison Field box office.

R & R Powwow

Radio and music bigwigs from around the country will converge at the Century Plaza Hotel in Los Angeles June 11 for the “R & R Convention.” Organized by industry trade publication Radio & Records, the 3-day affair boasts guest speakers such as Seagram chief Edgar Bronfman, Virgin Group founder/president Richard Branson and Jacor's Randy Michaels. Seminars will cover: deregulation, mergers, new technologies, formats and competition from other media. Among the artists slated to perform are: Lee Ritenour, George Benson and Lionel Richie. For 25 years, Radio & Records has served the industry with weekly music charts, news, analysis and job listings. For details, call Carol Holt at (310) 788-1696.

News Radio

“I said, ‘Look, there's room for both of us in this city.’ I said that then, and it's still true today.”

Before KFWB went on the air, the engineers, announcers and reporters went through a week-long dry run, “broadcasting” into the station's offices and a hotel room to get off to a smooth start. At the helm was KFWB's first news director, Herb Humphries.

“KFWB was an instant success in the L.A. market,” wrote Humphries in the second edition of Don Barrett's book, “Los Angeles Radio People.” “On the day it went on the air, there was only one client advertising on the station. That just happened to be Westinghouse Electric. KFWB was out of the red in three months.”

In 1967, Nicholaw, enjoying a successful career with CBS Television, heard that network chief William S. Paley planned to convert all CBS-owned AM stations to solid news.

“At the time, people said I was crazy to go from TV into radio,” Nicholaw said. “When I was working at WBBM-TV in Chicago, I was tuning around the dial, and I heard WNUS, which was McLendon's all-news station there. I went over to see it and find out how they do it. There were two guys separated by glass: one was the anchor and one was the field reporter.”

Although a modest operation by today's standards, the set-up intrigued Nicholaw. When Paley announced his plan, the former Monterey, Calif. DJ knew he wanted to be part of this hot development in radio.

KNX's first news director, Jim Zallian, demanded high standards from his writers and reporters. He insisted on grammatically correct field reports.

Today, although both L.A. news stations are CBS-owned, the rivalry between KFVB and KNX continues.

"They want us to be hugging and kissing each other, and at the same time, fierce competitors," Nicholaw said.

KLSX

time slot April 13. By the end of the month, however, Conway & Steckler had resolved their differences with KLSX and were back in their former time slot.

"Both parties acted in haste when negotiations broke down," KLSX Program Director Jack Silver said. "It turns out that we didn't have to accept the results as gospel, and we corrected the mistake."

After a three-month go at KABC 790 AM last fall, Tyll was fired from his daily 5 p.m. to 7 p.m. show, and his hours were returned to Larry Elder. Before coming to the Southland, Tyll hosted a daily talk show on Orlando's WTKS-FM.

Eliminating all vestiges of its former classic rock identity, KLSX has extended the gabfest to weekends. The sole rock survivor is Deidre ODonahue and her long-lived show, "Breakfast with the Beatles." Ex-KNX/KABC/KTZN recipe queen Melinda Lee serves up the two-hour "Food Talk" at 1 p.m. Fellow "Zone" refugee Norm N. Fox talks travel until 5 p.m.; and "Best of Leykis" repeats his rants until 7 p.m. when Nick Diaz' motor starts up with the hour-long "Auto Maniacs," the classic car talk show. At 8 p.m., Gene Steiner offers "Healthy Advice." Kim Komando chats about computers for an hour until Papa Joe's entertainment talk takes listeners to the "Dr. Demento Show" at 11 p.m. The syndicated program "Movies on the Radio" provides celluloid insights until Howard Stern's morning show kicks in live at 3 a.m. from WXRK-FM in New York.

Ratings

KABC dropped by four-tenths and out of the top 10 into 15th place. KLSX nudged up a tenth to 2.5, but dropped from 17th to 18th place. San Diego sports talker XTRA kept its 0.8 share, but local rivals KCTD and KXTA dropped out of the 12-plus rankings.

Although down by 1.4, KLSX's Howard Stern finished in first place among English-speaking shows. Spanish-language KSCA's Renan took top honors overall, followed by KLVE's Pepe Barretto. News station KNX with anchors Linda Nunez and Tom Haule was up 1.3, jumping into the top 10 at No. 8 from their previous No. 16 rank. KFI's Bill Handel achieved a robust gain of a point, rising from No. 5 to No. 4. KOST's Mark & Kim improved two-tenths, moving into the top 10. KRTH, apparently hurt by the retirement of Robert W. Morgan, fell by a point and out of the top 10 to No. 11. The oldies giant tied with KABC's morning team of Minyard & Tilden, which also fell out of the top 10, dropping by seven-tenths of a point. It should be noted that Arbitron's morning audience estimates measure listening between 6 a.m. and 10 a.m., which creates some distortions in the rankings. For example, Minyard & Tilden are on from 5 a.m. to 9 a.m., before ratings titan Rush Limbaugh starts on KFI, which pushes down their ranking.

For KLAX's new morning team, sharing the No. 11 spot represented a gain of 1.4. Also coming at No. 11 was all-news KFVB, which posted a three-tenths of a point gain. KRLA with former evening man Huggy Boy and Karla Sifuentes lost three-tenths, falling from No. 28 to No. 35 in the morning.

The station for kids, Radio Disney's KDIS, registered .4. Mixing show tunes and Jones' Music of Your Life, 1260 AM reappeared in the ratings for the first time since it was adult standards "K-Joy."

Musicians' Union Outreach

The 100-year-plus Musicians' Local Union 47 wants to revive the close connection of radio and local music.

In an overture to court rock musicians, the 10,000-member strong organization is sponsoring the first annual concert series for rock and alternative musicians on the last Saturday of each month.

The new radio promotions department plans to send union member musicians' CDs to radio stations around L.A. The union also provides a 24-track recording studio for its members.

The purpose of the concert series is to provide an alternative venue to the "pay to play" performances prevalent among clubs in L.A. Held in the large hall of the Musicians' Union, the first concert will take place May 30 and the second, June 27. Dues are $140 per year with a one-time initiation fee of $90.

Looney Point of View

One of the most often asked questions people ask me besides, "What do you think of Phil Hendrie?" — is, "What ever happened to the Regular Guys, Larry & Eric?" The answer? They're on the radio in Atlanta! KFI's talented weekend talker Maria Sanchez has not only left Glynnis Walker, she has packed up her bags and left Mr. Personalities Phil Hendrie. But it's not because he's a schizo. It will be a long-distance love affair now. Sanchez has landed herself a daily gig at KSTE Sacramento. Sanchez takes on Rush Limbaugh in the 9 a.m., to noon shift there. Sanchez can defend working moms on her station while Rush Limbaugh condemns them to hell on another. You go, girl!

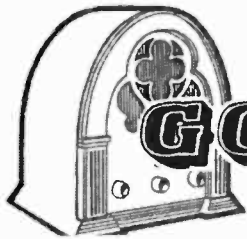

Why did KLSX ax Conway & Steckler and then bring them back two weeks later? Maybe it's because — in some demographics — their ratings went up as much as 420%! And, the same week that the ratings came in. KLSX brass tiptoed into Tulip's restaurant in fashionable Koreatown and spotted comedian Tim and the two-time Emmy winner Doug dining with KFI's PD-of-the-century David G. Hall! Within hours — literally — Conway & Steckler were back on the air waxing loquaciously about potty habits, beer, chicks and the track. Considering the wringer that the radio biz and KABC put Ed Tyll through, you should listen to him on KLSX. Plus, now that he has a permanent home (10 p.m. - 1 a.m.), his show sounds better. KABC and the L.A. Times deny the rumor that talk show host Michael Jackson's mother is the editor of the paper. However, there is truth to the rumor that MJ went out on his own and hired a PR firm — Davidson & Choy — to help organize protests, letter-writing campaigns, plant extra ink about him in the Times, etc.

By the way, KABC's Ronn Owens has a new Rocky Balboa image since he finally decided to throw counterpunches at Michael Jackson. He tore into him, and, among other things, called him "Eddie Haskell with a South African accent." Ronn Owens: He shoots, he scores! A lot of people, even Jackson fans, have a newfound respect for Owens now that he's given up on the rope-a-dope technique. I think one of the reasons people haven't fully embraced Owens is because his voice is reminiscent that of another venerable middle-of-the-road philosopher: George Bush!

KFI's 20-something twosome of Scott & Casey are back! Last year, stations in Kansas City, San Diego and Orlando were fighting over them. They finally landed at WDBO/Orlando, Florida. Now that they're here, expect some more of those funny, cutting-edge promos that Casey used to write and voice.

The opinions expressed in the Looney Point of View are Looney opinions, obviously, and not that of the L.A. Radio Guide. Tomm Looney can be reached at LooneyLA@aol.com.
