Present an Accurate, Current Media Profile

Each month, as it has for 40 years, SRDS serves you with the two fundamental types of information required for thorough evaluation and selection of media:

Listing Information — essential quantitative information on personnel, representatives, rates, special features, facilities — is basic data backed by triple-checking techniques which assure complete accuracy.

Rate Service Bulletins, sent to you in the interim between monthly issues, provide important listing changes and keep this basic information up to date.

Service-Ads — essential qualitative information, unique to specific media (market coverage, audience characteristics, merchandizing services, etc.), complete the media profiles and allow for thorough media analysis.

Listings, supplemented by periodic rate bulletins, plus Service-Ads, serve you with concise, pertinent buying information—when you need it.

... A NEW AND EXCLUSIVE POINT OF PURCHASE BONUS FROM MEMPHIS' LEADING STATION, WMC

WMC, Memphis, proudly announces one of the most dramatic point of purchase sales aids ever offered food and drug advertisers in the Memphis market area.

Now . . . more than 60 Memphis supermarkets are being presented background music through a WMC-FM affiliate transmitter, licensed to WMCF. (Soon these stores will exceed 100 in number).

Between musical selections, WMC's advertisers can present an "in-store," simultaneous 15-second commercial message, either as a jingle or as "straight-sell."

These announcements are offered to WMC advertisers as a bonus . . . on an allocated plan.

Each WMC food and drug advertiser with 100% distribution in stores carrying supercasting, will receive one bonus announcement per week for each $25.00 per week gross expenditure on WMC.

Find out how you can go into over 60 Memphis supers, with a voiced P.O.P. . . . at no extra cost! Call your nearest John Blair office now.

Minor Groups

Any combination of 3 or more stations may be purchased at slightly higher rates. To calculate minor group rates, take the unit rate per station and add the applicable extra charge below and multiply by the number of stations to be used.

10 stations add.....	5%	6 stations add.....	9%
9 stations add.....	6%	5 stations add.....	10%
8 stations add.....	7%	4 stations add.....	12%
7 stations add.....	8%	3 stations add.....	15%

For example, the cost of a 1/4 hour on any 5 stations for 156 times is the unit rate of 10.00 plus 10% or 11.00 per station which is equal to a total of 55.00 for 5 stations.

JOIN THE CAMPAIGN!

Urge media and their representatives to use more informative copy

Your job will be made easier and more pleasant if media buyers "pass the word along" to representatives and media owners that pertinent facts and figures, minus the historic frills and fluffs of media promotion, are needed to buy "opportunities" for products.

First, a brief recapitulation of what SRDS is doing to help you. Through direct mail, salesmen, bulletins, copy service department, and Service-Ads, we are hammering hard to dispel the notion that media buyers are swayed by glittering generalities and have the time to pore through mountains of media promotion digging out needed facts.

But, we need help!

Urge the representatives to tell their bosses to use factually informative copy in Service-Ads near their listing in SRDS publications. Copy containing sufficient facts to enable you to justify your choice should it be questioned.

Many media buyers have joined hands with SRDS in this campaign to foster factually informative copy in Service-Ads. These busy media buyers urge the presentation of facts and figures in a form that is easy to use—material that they can use with as much confidence, ease, and as effectively as they use the information in the listings of SRDS publications.

Join this campaign to help you buy media intelligently. Urge the representatives, media owners, radio station managers, etc., to use copy loaded with pertinent facts in Service-Ads near their listing for your guidance and convenience.

KIXL delivers an unduplicated adult audience over all other Dallas stations because of its pattern of popular music both old and new. KIXL's library contains some 175,000 musical selections—accepted as being the most extensive in the entire Southwest. KIXL plays no rock 'n roll, race, religious, hillbilly or western music. KIXL is the consistent choice of local advertisers because of this adult music policy. For this same reason KIXL runs a large share of the regional business in the market. As an added bonus KIXL-AM and FM are simultaneous during the daylight operation. Many business houses play the KIXL-FM signal through their individual speaker systems all day, creating an altogether new audience for KIXL music—and commercials!

Current Information Is Safe Information . . .

Because of frequent changes in advertising rates and other listing data that occur between monthly issues, SRDS publication subscribers receive three mailings of interim bulletins each week. Each mailing may announce changes of various kinds for hundreds of media.

Caution: It is inadvisable to use listing information from SRDS Publications for more than 30 days from their date of issue. A single mistake caused through use of out-of-date information can be far more costly than the price of a subscription. Make certain you are working with current information from the latest issue, because current information is safe information.

FARM PROGRAMMING

Another Special Feature
 To Provide a Shortcut
 in Buying Radio Time

To aid users of Spot Radio Rates and Data who are particularly concerned with reaching the farm audience, SRDS contains a section devoted especially to farm radio programming. Check the Contents page for its location.

This section enables time buyers to locate more easily those radio stations that devote part of their program time to shows for the farm audience. Information given for all or most of these stations includes the name of the farm director and the total number of hours of regularly scheduled farm programs per week. Stations are listed alphabetically by state and city.

Once the desired stations have been located in this section, the user can turn to the stations' regular listings in SRRD for rates and other data.

A similar section, on farm television programming, appears in Spot Television Rates and Data.

TEXAS

For busy media buyers:

MORE INFORMATION IN LESS TIME

In 40 years of publishing service for the people who exercise advertising's media buying function, SRDS has learned a lot about the information that media buyers want and need. And one of their needs is Service-Ads.

The agency media director, space buyer, account man, and advertising manager, all want to know what they're buying. It's impossible to keep all the information they need in their media files, and they can't afford to waste time or make errors. When they're looking for information, they want information—fast! Consequently they need complete-information ads.

SRDS publications are current and timely. The Service-Ads are not "puffs"; they are as concise and to the point as you would have them. They are up-to-date qualitative data about media to aid you in your comparisons and selections.

Service-Ads and the regular listings offer a "double exposure." The regular listings give the quantitative data while the Service-Ads give the needed information relative to editorial trends, current market trends, circulation and distribution, and other qualitative data which may not be in the regular listings. Service-Ads work with the regular listings—they give you the information you need, when you need it.

DISCOUNTS

If a contract is renewed for the same schedule without interruption beyond a 52 week period, the same earned time rate will be allowed. If a contract is continued without interruption beyond a 52 week period, but the schedule reduced in frequency, the time rate will be that which would have been earned during the preceding 52 week period had the reduced schedule prevailed throughout.

All broadcasts placed with station for the advertiser for broadcasting within one year from the date of the first broadcast shall be combined for the purpose of calculating the total amount of frequency discounts earned, provided, however, that announcements cannot be so combined with five minute or longer programs. Two or more program units of 15 minutes or more broadcast on the same day for the same sponsor within the same time bracket, may be combined to earn 1/2 hour, 3/4 hour, or one hour rate, whichever applies. All programs so combined to earn a lower rate may be scheduled contiguously at the station's option, on 28 days' notice.

For More and Better Buying Information

Standard Rate & Data Service is complimented by numerous letters from subscribers applauding (as some in effect call it) "the SRDS campaign to foster informative media promotion."

While, in a sense, the effort to inject greater usefulness into media-promotion advertising might be called "the SRDS campaign," it should, more rightfully, be known as "the SRDS subscribers' campaign." SRDS has acted, and will continue to act, merely as the clearing house of media-buying needs, with a modicum of guidance on plan and method necessary to put subscribers' needs and desires into practical, everyday workable form.

But it is the enlightened, far-seeing cooperation of users of SRDS publications that is, by every means of measure, the biggest factor in the success so far achieved.

The subscriber who continues to encourage this factually informative advertising technique by every influence short of a black-jack will get the greatest good out of the job . . . his voice will be heard the loudest . . . and finally, and justly, he will be entitled to the acclamation of both beneficiaries—advertiser and advertising media alike.

When Media Buyers Submit Proposed Schedules

they frequently are called on to justify their selections. That's when they need data to back up media claims of superiority, not generalities, vague adjectives, unqualified or unproved statements that leave them confused or doubtful.

Experienced buyers of space find that it pays to consult the informative Service-Ads of media adjoining the listings in SRDS monthly publications.

Here they find useful marketing information and other "supporting evidence," supplementing and expanding listing data, to justify their media selections. Service-Ads in SRDS publications frequently provide information that can be used in media presentations.

106 Cities . . . Zoned for Speedier Mail Service

To facilitate handling and delivery, the Post Office Department has divided 106 major U. S. cities into postal zones. This means users who zone their mail may expect speedier, on-time delivery service.

Zoning mail, however, implies more than just the placing of a zone number between city and state on the address line. The Post Office requests that everyone cooperate in the segregating, bundling and tying of mail already zoned—this applies to First, Second and Third Class Mail.

For full information regarding zoning regulations in your city, contact your local Postal Department . . . they will supply a complete set of booklets on the 106 cities having zoning schemes and zone your present mailing list free of charge.

All programs so combined to earn a lower rate may be scheduled contiguously at the station's option on 28 days' notice.

USE UP-TO-DATE SRDS INFORMATION FOR MOST VALUE

SRDS books are designed to give you more than a little knowledge . . . to give you all the information possible upon which you can make media selections. The data contained in all SRDS listings are brought up to date between issues through Rate Bulletins, thus ensuring you the latest information from one publication date to the next.

The danger that arises from the use of SRDS publications actually arises from their mis-use . . . from the continued use by some of the out-dated issues. Remember, when you use old SRDS publications, you are discarding as "unimportant" the timeliness that has been a Standard Rate must for 40 years.

Be sure the information that you are using is up to date. If you don't have your own subscription to any of the SRDS books, write immediately to Subscription Department, Standard Rate & Data Service, 1740 Ridge Ave., Evanston, Ill.

Be sure . . . be safe!

 Short Rate: Charges under each contract will be billed at the net unit rates applicable to broadcasts for the entire period covered by such contract.
 If an advertiser cancels a non-firm contract prior to its expiration date, he must promptly repay to the station the difference between the charges so billed and the net rate actually earned.
 Contract year extends from date of 1st broadcast under a given contract forward for 52 weeks.
 Application of 52 consecutive weeks rates: advertisers having earned the 52-consecutive-weeks-rates may continue beyond 52 weeks at these rates provided their broadcasting schedules continue on a consecutive weeks' basis.

All program content and advertising copy subject to station approval and must be received at least 48 hours (exclusive of Saturdays, Sundays and holidays) prior to broadcast.
 For combination rates see CBS Radio Network (Basic Supplementary Group.)

A media buyer's view of media advertising

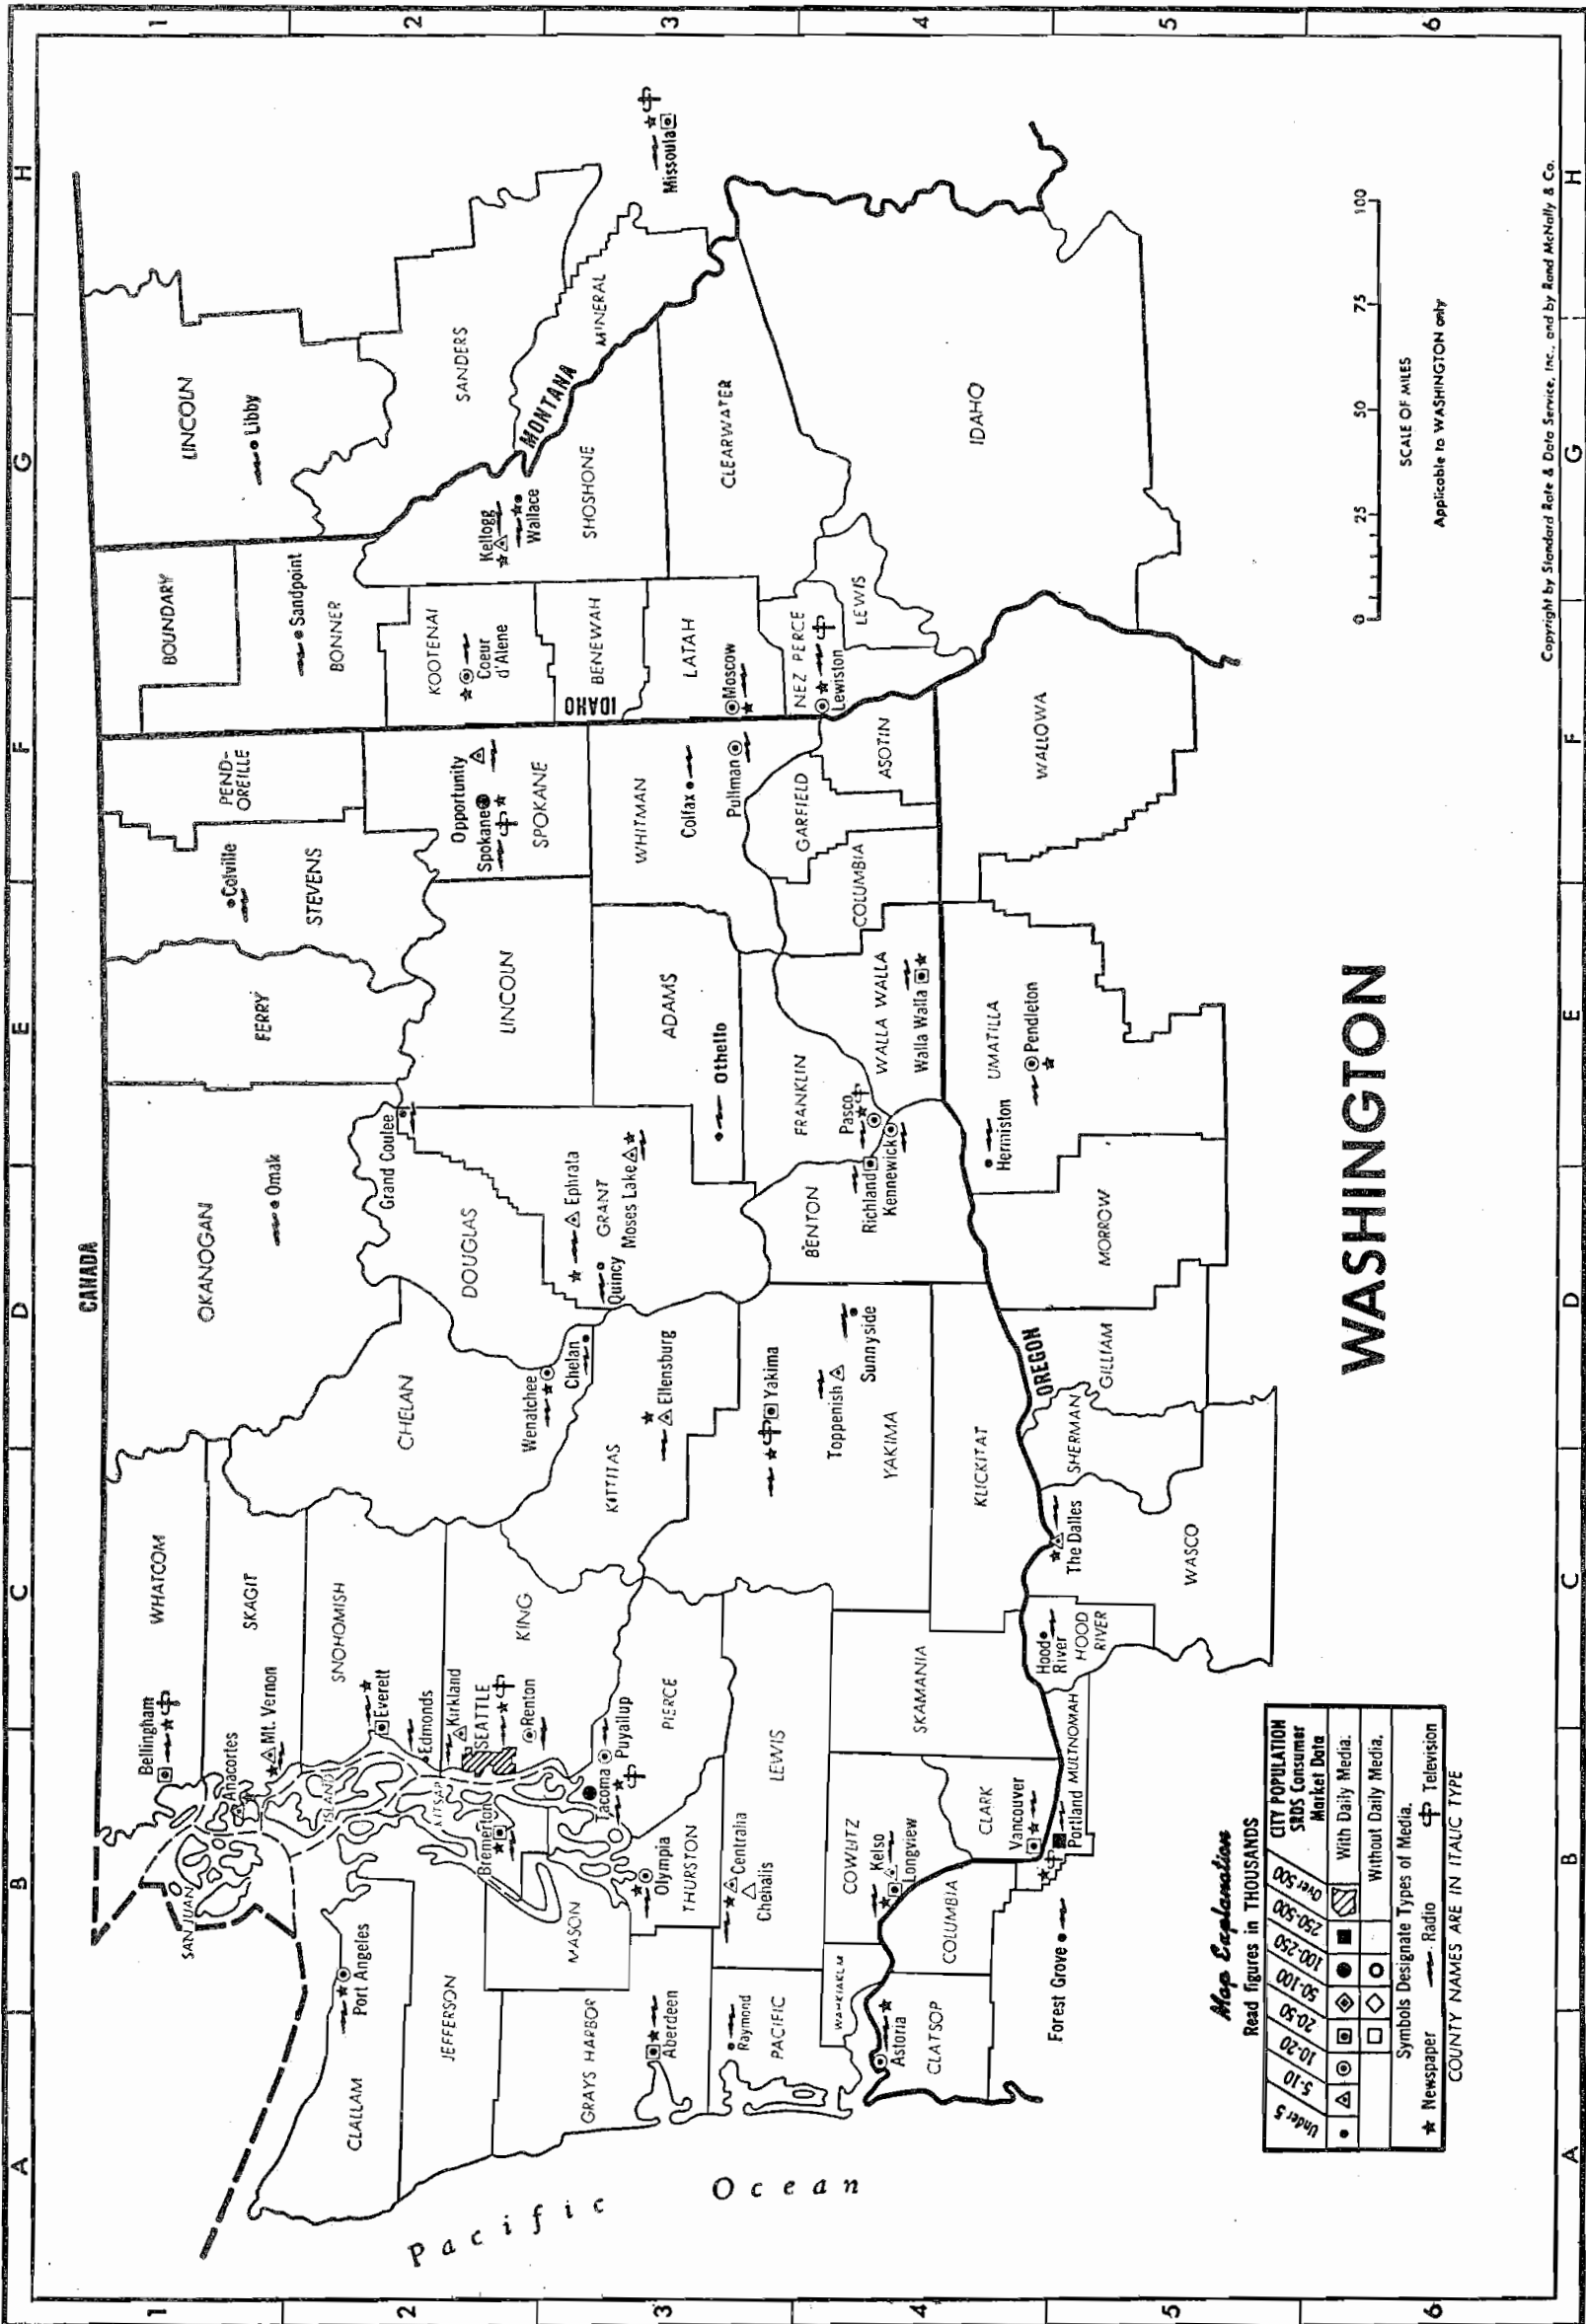

Some spokesmen for media tell us information makes poor advertising . . . that common sense is a drab motive for which advertisers grudgingly give up their cash . . . that there is no use insisting on formulae for copy which do not appeal to the emotions.

If a medium insists on appealing to this human weakness to the exclusion of telling something useful about the space or time for sale, it greatly underestimates the intelligence of SRDS subscribers.

We users of SRDS publications are not opposed to the emotional appeal in advertising . Our lives are largely guided by emotion. We do not deny that some of our purchases are and will continue to be influenced by emotion. We do not deny the right of media nor of ourselves to employ within the limits of good taste and honesty an emotional appeal that will sell advertising or goods or services at minimum cost.

But to say that the sum total of advertising is the emotional appeal is like saying that the sum total of woman is her beauty appeal. Advertising, as well as some women, would have a hard time qualifying if that was all there was to the argument.

PROMOTE IT!

As an advertiser or agency executive, you know the value of advertising. But sometimes it is necessary to overcome misconceptions other people may have about the use and cost of advertising.

That's when it pays to promote your advertising by promoting all advertising . . . by explaining to your prospects—and your employees—how advertising benefits them.

Tell them how advertising helps keep living costs down—how advertising builds sales, which make mass-production possible, which means lower production costs, lower selling costs, lower prices. Tell them how advertising helps create demand, which sustains production, which makes jobs more secure. Tell them how America lives better because of advertising.

JOIN THE CAMPAIGN!

Urge media and their representatives to use more informative copy

Your job will be made much easier and more pleasant if buyers of media "pass the word along" to representatives and media owners that pertinent information, minus the historic frills and fluffs of media promotion, is needed to buy "opportunities" for products.

First, a brief recapitulation of what SRDS is doing to help you. Through direct mail, salesmen, bulletins, copy service department, and Service-Ads, it is hammering hard to dispel the notion that buyers of media are swayed by glittering generalities and have the time to pore through mountains of media promotion digging out needed data.

But, SRDS needs help!

Urge the representatives to tell their bosses to use informative copy in Service-Ads near their listing in SRDS publications—copy containing sufficient data to enable you to justify your choice should it be questioned.

Many buyers of media have joined hands with SRDS in this campaign to foster informative copy in Service-Ads. These busy specialists urge the presentation of information in a form that is easy to use—material that they can use with as much confidence, ease, and effectiveness as they use the information in the listings of the SRDS services.

Join this campaign to help you buy media intelligently. Urge the representatives, media owners, radio station managers, etc., to use copy with pertinent data in Service-Ads near their listing for your guidance and convenience.

METROPOLITAN AREAS

Complete 7-1-58 SRDS estimates of consumer markets are shown for all Standard Metropolitan Areas defined by the Bureau of the Budget. Additional Standard Metropolitan Areas (those qualifying under official government criteria) are listed as determined by SRDS estimates.

Both Standard and Additional Metropolitan Areas are ranked in ranking tables (see contents page) and are also included in the state market data pages.

All Standard Metro Areas are full counties except 18 New England Metropolitan Areas, which by definition are on a town basis.

For More and Better Buying Information

Standard Rate & Data Service is complimented by numerous letters from subscribers applauding (as some in effect call it) "the SRDS campaign to foster factual media promotion."

While, in a sense, the effort to inject greater usefulness into media-promotion advertising might be called "the SRDS campaign," it should, more rightfully, be known as "the SRDS subscribers' campaign." SRDS has acted, and will continue to act, merely as a clearing house of media-buying needs, with a modicum of guidance on plan and method necessary to put subscribers' needs and desires into practical, everyday workable form.

But it is the enlightened, far-seeking cooperation of the users of SRDS publications that is, by every means of measure, the biggest factor in the success so far achieved.

And it is the subscriber who continues to encourage this factually-informative advertising technique by every influence-channel short of a black-jack who will get the greatest good out of the job... whose voice will be heard the loudest... and who finally, and justly, will be entitled to the acclamation of both beneficiaries—advertisers and advertising media alike.

DO YOU WANT A MONOPOLY? . . . DO WE HAVE A MONOPOLY?

Well! In a way, Yes. Kenosha, Gateway to Wisconsin, Kenosha County with 88,900 people*, interested in Kenosha news first, receive it all day every hour over WLIP only. A full, complete news department, with on-the-spot reporters, gathers local news for our people.

This makes for a monopoly because our people can't satisfy this need of local news all day through any other source. In Kenosha County and City, there is only WLIP. Survey proves you reach more Kenoshans more often on WLIP than with all 21 radio stations in Chicago and Milwaukee combined.

TRANSCRIPTIONS

Library Service—Lang-Worth.

They do it every morning...

the idea is to see who gets the current copies of Standard Rate

Absurd? Of course it is. But it's just as silly when key account men and media people don't have their own copies of SRDS. Extra subscriptions are worth so much — cost so little.

Other Stations
Are Competitors
— Not Buyers

Radio-station executives who advertise exclusively in broadcast trade magazines may impress other radio-station executives . . . but other radio-station executives buy very little time.

In fact, they don't buy any.

The advertising industry's new magazine, Media/scope, published by Standard Rate & Data Service, Inc., is 94% effective in reaching advertiser and agency executives who perform the media-buying function. (In other words, the people who do buy time.)

Media/scope is the only magazine that concentrates on ideas, methods, and techniques directly related to media selection.

In its short lifetime, Media/scope has attracted the most efficiently concentrated magazine audience ever known to advertising. It chooses its audience and delivers effective circulation far beyond the capacity of publications about advertising in general, or vertical publications about facets of radio or any other single medium.

The people who decide where dollars will be invested—in time or space or both—get Media/scope. You compete with other media as well as other stations for advertising dollars. Doesn't it make good sense to reach the people who decide which media will be used?

FOR MAXIMUM SELLING EFFECTIVENESS . . .

ADVERTISE in Media/scope, the magazine serving the media-buying function

YET KNOWN THROUGHOUT THE NATION

The Liberty Bell . . . symbol of an Independent America . . . first officially rang in Philadelphia in May of 1753. Today Philadelphia proclaims a symbol of Independent Radio—WIBG • RADIO 99, first with Philadelphians.

In the coming weeks, the sound of the Liberty Bell will ring on RADIO 99 . . . reaching more people, more powerfully . . . as it heralds 50,000 watts for WIBG!
