The Editors' Note:

ANN SOTHERN, the girl who capitalized on an unlikely character role to win stardom, forsakes her "Maisie" pose to appear as her real, charming self on Movie-Radio Guide's Jack Albin cover this week, also forsakes it in her new starring role in M-G-M's "Panama Hattie." Ann's professional success is brilliant, solid, but the success—or failure—of her marriage to Roger Pryor is the big question in Hollywood. For the truth, read Movie-Radio Guide's photo-story on Page 4.

WE WERE greatly impressed recently by the events of a fortnight and the turn they took as regards the freedom of speech and the radio networks. Of course we find it hard to be an impartial judge, because first of all we are network rooters—we like NBC, CBS and MBS and think that they could do many wrongs but seldom if ever do.

Specifically, we point to the October 27 Navy Day speech of the President and again to the clamor of the so-called "America First" committee to grab thirty minutes of precious air time on Thursday, October 30. Let's compare the record of the (1) President's address broadcast and (2) the machinations of the Senator Wheeler henchmen to get network facilities.

The President requested radio facilities on an evening, Monday, when he would not interrupt the revenue-paying programs of the networks any more than necessary; he was offered and accepted the half-hour ordinarily used by Orson Welles' "Mercury Theater," the "Carnation Contented" program, and Raymond Gram Swing. He managed to get along very well with the facilities granted him and drew, according to an audience-survey firm, over 45,000,000 listeners in the United States alone. This is considered to be approximately one-half of the total radio audience.

But in the second case, the America First Committee chairman, John T. Flynn, was vexed when he was not given the opportunity of using the combined facilities of NBC, CBS and MBS on a day and at an hour which would have meant the cancellation of half or all of the Major Bowes' amateur hour, half or all of Bing Crosby's Music Hall, and Gabriel Heatter and several other MBS programs. Mr. Flynn wanted this time-spot to air speeches against the President's policies by Senator Wheeler, ex-ambassador John Cudahy and ex-Col. Charles A. Lindbergh.

To our way of thinking, the President is far more entitled to the better radio time Flynn asked for but was denied; yet he did not even request that time, please note.

Then the annoyed Mr. Flynn, whose three proposed speakers would have continued for far longer than thirty minutes if their past performances mean anything, charged the networks with "unfair discrimination." This is not true. Two of the networks offered time to Mr. Flynn, but not at the exact hour he demanded. The third felt that it has just about given enough free time to minority groups for their free speech.

NEXT WEEK you'll meet the adolescent Shirley Temple and see striking new pictures of her as a sweet young miss in "Kathleen"; you will be shown how and why it costs a million dollars for a movie company—this time the "Jungle Book"—to go "on location," and at last the truth is told about Hollywood's daffy parties.

A $10,500.00 QUEST FOR THE GREAT AMERICAN OPERETTA

WGN PRESENTS AN OPPORTUNITY TO COMPOSERS AND AUTHORS

WHO will write the Great American Operetta? Who will win fame and fortune by giving the American scene the attention it deserves and so strikingly lacks in the light operatic repertoire today?

Today there is tremendous mounting interest in the operetta form. This is evidenced by the 318,000 letters which WGN received requesting the continuance of its operetta broadcasts this year.

Hundreds of "operetta clubs" are springing up thruout the country. And the current production schedules of the movie makers reflect the rising interest in this form of entertainment.

Last season WGN broadcast radio adaptations of twenty-one different well-known operettas. The response from audiences thruout America was instantaneous and amazingly enthusiastic. To date WGN's 1941-42 season includes eleven more. WGN will schedule others but would like to have them depict life in the American scene.

But there are available all too few operettas laid in America. All but four of WGN's thirty-two operettas are based on themes depicting life in foreign countries. Why? No other suitable American operettas were available.

At a time when American patriotism runs so high, WGN directs the attention of composers and authors to this disparity which presents both a challenge and an opportunity.

As a contribution to the advancement of radio entertainment and to stimulate creative talent to give the American scene the attention it deserves, WGN hereby launches a quest for the Great American Operetta—and more American operettas.

Set forth on this page are the rules under which WGN invites composer-authors to submit manuscripts of American operettas in competition for cash awards and other considerations offering even greater monetary return.

Here is an opportunity for composer-authors, budding or arrived, to win acclaim and recognition which can lead to large stage and motion picture revenues and royalties. It is an opportunity open to all on conditions which assure equally fair consideration to the efforts of all.

This is not just another contest. If this project develops a dozen or more manuscripts of merit, so much the better. WGN's determination to serve American interests and American tastes places it in a position to negotiate for and give radio production to all the good American operettas it can find.

If you have an operetta manuscript in your trunk or a tune and an idea in your head, you are invited to read the rules and learn how you may cash in.

THE RULES—Please Read Carefully

1. THE SPONSOR

WGN, Inc., owner and operator of Radio Stations WGN and W59C, Chicago, Illinois, herein referred to as the sponsor, announces his intention to broadcast beginning in March, 1942, a series of three one-hour radio adaptations of American Operettas based on manuscripts submitted in accordance with these rules.

2. THE PRIZES

For each of the three original manuscripts selected by the Selections Committee as the best manuscripts for radio adaptation in this series, the sponsor will pay to the composer-author $1,000.00 in cash on acceptance. In addition, the sponsor will pay an additional $5,000.00 in cash to the composer-author of the manuscript used as the basis of the radio adaptation selected as the Great American Operetta in accordance with Section 7.

3. ELIGIBILITY

Every one, everywhere, except employees of WGN, Inc., and members of their families, is invited to submit manuscripts of original operettas based on themes taken from American life during any period in the nation's history. No manuscript of any operetta which has been or will be publicly performed in any manner prior to April 15, 1942, except in connection with this contest, will be accepted. Entrants agree to submit only their own original creations as produced by themselves. Manuscripts shall be submitted in the names of individual persons only. Manuscripts submitted in the names of agents, corporations, publishers, producers, clubs, or societies will not be accepted.

4. REGISTRATION

Every person intending to submit a manuscript is required to register before midnight of January 1, 1942, his intention to do so. Registration does not obligate the prospective entrant to submit a manuscript, but is for the purpose of enabling the sponsor to send the entrant an entry blank to be used in submitting the manuscript. You may register your intention on the accompanying blank or you may supply the same information on a separate sheet of paper.

5. HOW TO SUBMIT MANUSCRIPTS

A. Manuscripts shall consist of libretto complete with lyrics and score for voice and piano. Radio adaptations are NOT wanted. The sponsor will make all radio adaptations, so present your manuscript in full, regardless of length or playing time. Note: Composer-authors whose manuscripts are selected as the basis of the three radio adaptations in the American Operetta series shall be required to submit in addition complete orchestrations for voice, chorus, and orchestra.

B. Manuscripts shall be submitted on sheets of paper not exceeding standard sheet music in size. Each manuscript shall be contained in a plain envelope accompanied by an official entry blank, properly filled out, or by a sheet of paper containing the information called for in the entry blank. This entry blank shall be placed in a plain, opaque, sealed envelope and posted securely to the envelope containing the manuscript. If the manuscript is the original work of more than one person, the name and address of each shall be enclosed, together with instructions as to how, in the event of an award, a check or checks shall be drawn. Such instructions shall state the percentage of interest of each of the persons in the manuscript. You may submit as many manuscripts as you wish, but not more than one manuscript for one operetta shall be contained in the same envelope. An entrant is entitled to receive any number of awards.

C. Envelopes containing manuscripts shall be wrapped, sealed, and addressed as follows: "American Operetta, WGN, Inc., 445 North Michigan Avenue, Chicago, Illinois," and forwarded to this address in time for receipt not later than midnight of February 10, 1942. Manuscripts with insufficient postage will be returned by the post-office. The sponsor does not guarantee the return of any manuscript. All entrants may enclose in the "entry" envelope the stamps necessary for the return of the manuscript. Envelopes containing return postage shall be marked "Return Postage Enclosed." The sponsor, however, cannot assume any responsibility for the safe custody or return of manuscripts beyond that of exercising reasonable care in their handling, wrapping and mailing.

6. ANONYMITY

The name or names of entrants shall not appear anywhere on the manuscript. To guard against misplacement of individual sheets of the manuscript the entrant shall select a working title for his operetta and this title shall appear on every page of libretto and score. All pages of the manuscript shall be numbered in sequence. As manuscripts are received by the sponsor, they will be unwrapped, the wrapping destroyed, and the envelope containing the entry blank will be detached from the envelope containing the manuscript and both envelopes will be stamped with the same serial number.

7. JUDGING

A. The sponsor will appoint a Selections Committee to consider all manuscripts. In addition, the sponsor will invite a prominent motion picture producer, an eminent composer of music, a well-known music publisher, a noted theatrical producer, a well-known radio personality, and others to form an Advisory Board to counsel with the Selections Committee in making its decisions. Judgment will be based on subject matter, originality and ingenuity in the handling of libretto and score, and suitability for radio adaptations in the American Operetta series.

B. The sealed envelopes containing the entry blanks shall be opened only after the Selections Committee has chosen all three manuscripts for use as outlined in Section 1.

C. The winner of the $5,000.00 which the sponsor will pay to the composer-author of the manuscript used as the basis of the radio presentation which is selected as the Great American Operetta will be determined as follows: Prior to the initial broadcast in the series of the three prize winning operettas, the sponsor will announce a public participation contest in which the radio audience will be invited to listen to the series and to submit a name for the Great American Operetta. In competition for $2,500.00 in cash prizes which the sponsor will pay for the best entries submitted in accordance with rules to be announced later. In submitting entries the public will be invited to vote for and give a name to the presentation in the series of three prize winning operettas which it considers best qualified as the Great American Operetta and to tell why. The presentation which receives the most votes from entrants in the public participation contest will be declared the winner of $2,500.00. In the case of ties, duplicate prizes will be awarded to tying contestants.

D. The making of radio adaptations of the three operettas, and the casting, production, and presentation of said radio adaptations shall be solely within the judgment and control of the sponsor, and no entrant shall have any right to complain with respect thereto.

B. RIGHTS

A. Sponsor only desires to acquire the exclusive right to perform by radio broadcasting and television the three operettas winning $1,000.00 prizes, but sponsor must control all other rights in said operetta for a period of two years, in order to insure their proper promotion and to prevent any use which might prejudice or interfere with sponsor's radio broadcasting and television performing rights. Accordingly each of said three operettas, including the title, plot, book, music, and lyrics, will become the property of the sponsor upon the payment of said $1,000.00, and the sponsor shall have all rights of a proprietor therein, including the right to copyright such operetta or any part thereof in the sponsor's name. Two years after the date of such payment, however, sponsor will, at the written request of the composer-author(s), grant back to the composer-author(s), by appropriate assignment or license, all rights in said operetta, except said radio broadcasting and television performing rights, subject only to grants previously made by sponsor as hereinafter provided. If during said two-year period sponsor shall deem it desirable to license, for the term of the copyright or any shorter term, any stage or motion-picture production of the operetta or any adaptation thereof or to permit it to be published in whole or in part, the sponsor may do so on such terms as it deems advisable, with or without consultation with the composer-author(s), but the sponsor will pay over to the composer-author(s) all of sponsor's receipts therefrom, after the deduction of sponsor's reasonable expenses in conducting negotiations for such licensing or permission.

B. Each entrant, in submitting an operetta, warrants that such operetta is his or their sole, exclusive and original work and that no part of such operetta infringes existing rights in any other work whatsoever and each entrant agrees to protect and indemnify the sponsor against any claims with respect to such operetta or the performance of the whole or any part thereof.

9. PUBLICITY

The names of the composer-authors whose manuscripts are selected as the three prize winning manuscripts from which radio adaptations will be made for the WGN series of American Operetta broadcasts will be made public as soon as the Selections Committee has made its decision. The sponsor will not, however, announce which operetta was submitted by a particular composer-author prize winner until after the conclusion of the public participation contest. Payment of the $5,000.00 award will be made with appropriate ceremony to the studio on the night of the rebroadcast of the operetta selected as the Great American Operetta in the public participation contest. This rebroadcast will be made as soon as possible after the result of the public participation contest has been determined. The sponsor reserves the right to publicize the names of all persons from whom it receives registrations

DESERTS WARBLING FOR WARRING!

DON AMECHE, who has been playing in musical films so long at 20th Century-Fox that he himself has almost forgotten that he rose to fame as a dashing hero, is back in his element once again.

He comes back as the old radio "First Nighter" flash in "Confirm or Deny," a London bombing thriller, in which he is a most dynamic, reckless and lovable American war correspondent, a romantic but expert newspaperman whose motto is "The story first and pretty girls, lots of them, afterward."

Don really had his long-desired chance to do some fast and furious acting in this swift-paced war story, for the number one melodrama director of Hollywood—Mr. Archie Mayo—had the production in hand. And Ameche's partner in the action story, Joan Bennett, has proved her capability in blood-and-thunder in more than one picture. Most recently she did it in "Man Hunt," with Walter Pidgeon.

Ameche is delighted over his new picture. Not that he hasn't enjoyed his musicals—"Moon Over Miami," "That Night in Rio" and "Down Argentine Way," with Betty Grable, Carole Landis and Alice Faye. But after all, Don is a man's man. And these musicals—well!

"Confirm or Deny" itself has a novel opening that is apt to confuse theater-goers unless they are forewarned. In fact, it starts as a Movietone newsreel with Lowell Thomas narrating. Then it switches to "eye-witness" accounts of refugees from German bombing-raids over England. The English insist that an invasion of the isles by the Germans had been attempted. As for the truth of that, the long lines of hospital trains which William Shirer observed pulling into Berlin in the night hours one December night in 1940 leave little doubt that some such ill-fated attempt actually was made by Hitler's army at that time. But enough of the story.

The point is that "war correspondent" Don Ameche has a role which he really enjoyed doing, because he could put the old socko into his work again—and he does it!—D. M.

DON AMECHE has a smiling face and a smiling voice that fit well into a story of light romance. But right now he's grinning because in "Confirm or Deny" he has the dashing, red-blooded kind of role he likes

THEIR RETREAT shattered during an all-out air raid, Mitch and teletypist Jennifer are trapped in the cellar with unexploded delayed-action bomb

STILL TRYING to get his invasion story through to New York, Mitch orders Jennifer to send it despite censor's previous warning against it. The English girl refuses to disobey official orders

HELP "KEEP 'EM FLYING"

IN UNIVERSAL'S "Keep 'Em Flying" Abbott and Costello portray two "grease-monkeys." The picture is comedy galore, packed with aviation thrills—has a touch of romance. From amusement-park barkers to Uncle Sam's flying air corps is the road Abbott and Costello travel, outdoing themselves with zany comedy and experiences (above) which are thrilling, side-splitting

ABBOTT and Costello, the Universal Pictures gold-strike of 1940, whose pay-dirt was first revealed by the Kate Smith radio broadcasts, have finished another zany service picture, "Keep 'Em Flying," and here's what the Government thinks about it.

The War Department has officially dedicated the week of November 27 to December 3 as "Keep 'Em Flying Week." Now that has a slight odor of Universal Studios' press-agentry, since the Abbott and Costello picture will be released that same week, but you just don't get the Government, Army, Navy or air corps to join hands in a Hollywood game of ring-around-the-box-office. No, sir. They're too dignified.

It so happened that it was the Government's idea to declare the week, and it was also the Government's request to Universal Pictures that the new service comedy be rushed through to completion and released rapidly, even before the Bud Abbott-Lou Costello "Ride 'Em Cowboy" film (which was already finished) should hit the nation's screens.

Why? The answer is easy.

Bud Abbott and Lou Costello did more to raise the morale of the selectees, their families, sweethearts and parents with "Buck Privates" than a whole regiment of U. S. O. parties and dates. The two comedians' "In the Navy" had the same effect on the preparing, rearming nation. And Uncle Sam expects "Keep 'Em Flying" to repeat.

It will, too. "Keep 'Em Flying," the most elaborate of the Abbott and Costello mirth-provokers yet to come from Hollywood, is backgrounded against the efforts of Uncle Sam to annually train an additional 50,000 officers for the air corps.

"Keep 'Em Flying" is Abbott and Costello at their best, with a neat assist from Martha Raye and Butch and Buddy, plus a romantic theme capably supplied by Carol Bruce, Bill Gargan and Dick Foran. The cast should interest radio listeners, for in its members are several stars besides Abbott and Costello who have etched their fame on microphones as well as on the screen.

—W. M.

ABBOTT AND COSTELLO land in the air corps after being fired from job running a "hit the umpire" booth (above) in amusement park. But they face future undaunted

IT'S ABBOTT'S glib tongue that gets them into the air corps, but it's Costello's remarkable ability (above) for messing up any job that is entrusted to him that gets them into trouble

MADE WITH THE cooperation of the War Department, most of "Keep 'Em Flying" was filmed at Cal-Aero Academy, Calif., where Government turned over all facilities to Universal for production. Left: Costello tests ability as pilot

IN "KEEP 'EM FLYING" 175 Army planes and six private stuntships were used for the thrilling air sequences. Work of the U. S. O. also will be shown for the first time. Right: Costello with Martha Raye, who portrays twins in the picture

The Truth About Ann Sothern's

ABOUT five years ago screen actress Ann Sothern, once known to the operetta stage as Harriette Lake and now better known as "Maisie," took fate by the forelock, twisted its hair and announced defiantly to the world:

"Roger (Pryor) and I will win together. We know we are violating every rule for a successful marriage, we realize that we are deliberately defying the codes, but we'll make out."

That was five years ago. They were modern, tolerant young people. Roger, like his father, had a famous band that kept him more away from Hollywood than not. Ann was on her way up with her cinema career, which meant she must stay in Hollywood nearly every minute at the beck and call of that ogre to happy marriages known as "production schedule."

Well, they tried. They tried and succeeded well for four years. Then rumors started around town. Even though Roger, to stay with Ann, had given up his band and taken up the work of master of ceremonies of the CBS "Screen Guild Theater," he was obviously unhappy. He had little to do. She still had too much to occupy her time—even with him near her.

There were other grating factors. Ann is a home body, a girl who doesn't care for drinking or crowds, a girl who'd rather stay home and garden, entertain a few close friends with games. Roger is more of an extrovert. He likes people, crowds, the gay spots. The two found themselves incompatible together.

Then, a month ago, Ann and Roger announced that they were embarking on a trial separation. It was expected by their friends.

They were doing the modern thing. They were going to act like two sensible people and make a test separation before going ahead with rash legal moves which would kill their romance forever. They would still be good friends.

They still are good friends. Why, even shortly after their trial separation began, they dated one another to attend a circus party given jointly by the Jack Bennys and the Robert Taylors. But it wasn't like old times. A night or two later both were out with other escorts, and it has been that way ever since.

Despite Ann's courage and her brave attempt to defy the codes, it begins to appear as if she and Roger are about to suffer the same end as did Lana Turner and Artie Shaw, Dorothy Lamour and Herbie Kay, and even Ethel Shutta and George Olsen. Somehow, nature seems to be opposed to the connubial bliss of a bandleader and a glamour girl.

Ann and Roger met in Chicago in 1932, when she was singing in a musical comedy and Roger was a handsome young juvenile lead. It was a case of love at first sight, they both admit. But they saw each other only a few times after that, as two weeks later Ann's show moved on to Hollywood and Roger was called back to New York. During the next four years they saw each other only briefly. Ann's work kept her in Hollywood and Roger was in New York. Finally they both landed in Hollywood, but fate intervened and Roger again went on tour. Returning to Hollywood, Ann and Roger were married three days before he was to leave for Chicago for his first date with his band.

That's the way it looks to the friends of both—and yet Ann and Roger wish it weren't so and still would like to make a go of it.

Right now Ann, or Maisie, as the Maisie series has made her better known on the screen, is about to make her Hollywood ten-strike in the starring role in "Panama Hattie" in the M-G-M musical of the same title. It's the role played on the stage by Ethel Merman—and it will make her more famous than she has ever been to date. It's a great part, a role that every singing, dancing actress in Hollywood would like to have had, but Ann got it.

But now, now that she has hit the top flight of screendom, now that she has proved herself as a talented musical comedy actress as well as a comedienne, Ann finds she has no man to share success with her. Or has she? Time will tell, but indications are that the old adage will soon be proved again:

Conflicting careers and happy marriages won't work in Hollywood—or, "You can't eat your cake and have it." —E. P.

BEWILDERMENT: Lovely, blond Ann Sothern (left), alone in the haze of uncertainty that surrounds her marriage to Roger Pryor, reflects pensively if her fame—top-flight stardom—is worth the price it has cost her—separation from her husband. Already famous for her "Maisie" roles, Ann scores her greatest triumph to date in M-G-M's musical comedy, "Panama Hattie." A hard worker, Ann believes in knowing her lines when she gets on the set, but keeping a marriage intact in Hollywood, Ann (inset left) has found, is a tough nut for a glamour girl to crack

Trial Separation

Will Ann Sothern and Roger Pryor be reunited? Here are the facts!

ANN SOTHERN and Roger Pryor were the center of attention when they danced together in popular cafes. Will their trial separation widen into permanent estrangement, or will they be reunited as one of Hollywood's handsomest couples?

BEFORE THEY PARTED, Ann and Roger were Hollywood's gayest and most devoted couple. Roger was interested in Ann's career, frequently visited her on the set. Ann in turn attended his CBS Screen Guild program regularly every Sunday

ON OCTOBER 4, shortly after their trial separation began, Ann (front) was escorted to Ciro's by Bob Sterling (right) in company of the Ray Millands (rear), who, like the George Murphys and Cesar Romero, are friends of Ann and Roger

ON OCTOBER 5, Roger Pryor dated Lana Turner, enjoyed an evening at the Scheherazade. For a while it seemed he had found solace in Lana, but dating soon faded. Neither Ann nor Roger, to date, have been linked romantically with others

LEFT: As Hattie Maloney in M-G-M's lavish musical comedy, "Panama Hattie," her most important starring role to date, Ann Sothern is forced to forget her own domestic troubles to play romantic scenes in gorgeous tropical settings with Dan Dailey, Jr. Right: Ann also has her troubles in the musical, "Panama Hattie." An important moment for her (in the picture) is when she has to win the love of Geraldine (Jackie Horner), little daughter of the widowed man she loves

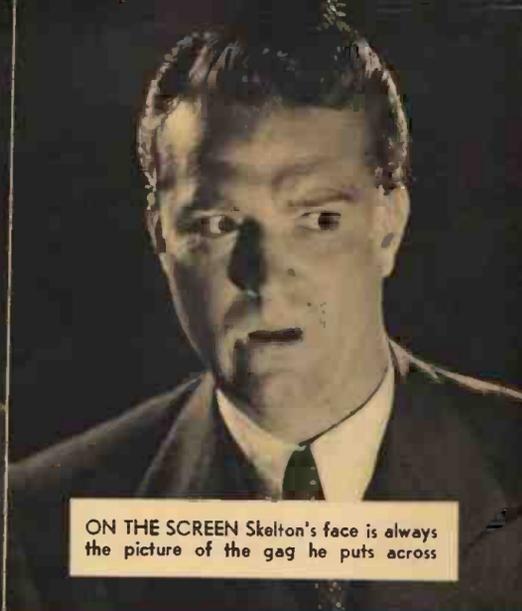

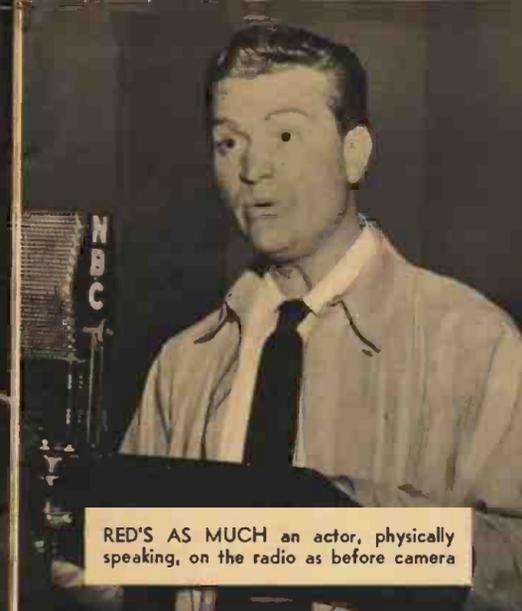

RED SKELTON with his ever expressive photogenic face is funny no matter what he does

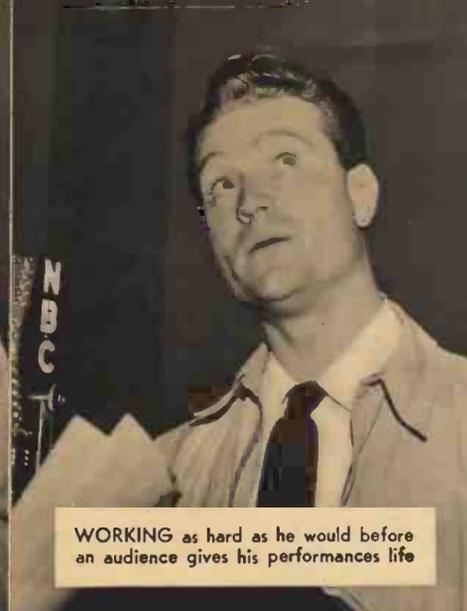

SKELTON'S FROWNS produce laughter; his bewilderment, real amusement

ON THE SCREEN Skelton's face is always the picture of the gag he puts across

RED'S AS MUCH an actor, physically speaking, on the radio as before camera

WORKING as hard as he would before an audience gives his performances life

THOUGH the radio audience can't see Red's face, they feel his comic personality

MOVIE-RADIO FEATURE: RED SKELTON

CAN'T HELP BEING FUNNY

THAT'S what his wife Edna, a Carole Lombardish blonde, told me. She said, "All Red has to be is himself and he's funnier than a box of monkeys." I was interviewing the two of them at their simple little Brentwood home. They had bought it originally as an investment against rainy days, but then Red discovered it had a secret-panel door to one of the rooms, and he just had to live in it. So there they moved from the Valley. "And at the telephone," she continued, "he's a panic. He won't answer or talk on the phone himself, but keeps asking, "What did he say, Honey?" while I do the talking. It's enough to drive me crazy. I'm going to get a phone-loudspeaker attachment so he'll quit shouting at me!" Everything is funny to Red, even himself. He knows he's screwy and detects oddities in other people which he jots down and has Edna and his other writers (yes, she heads his writer staff) turn into those delicious burlesques you hear him and his cast do Tuesday nights. Peculiarly enough, he hadn't noted his split voice was laughable. I called it to his attention. He warbled a bit and laughed. "What do you know about that?" he said, "and here I've been living with me all the time." He continued, "That reminds me of the time I was singing in 'Gentlemen Unafraid,' Kern-Hammerstein operetta, at the St. Louis Municipal Opera. They had a big chorus to cover up the high notes where I cracked, and I used a microphone. The fifteenth night, I felt in my prime, so just as we came to 'that's the time to shine' in the lyric, I shouted to the director, 'Leon, I'll take it myself.' I didn't, though. The mike was alive and the audience heard and understood my crack. They laughed so loud that the chorus wasn't needed to cover me up!" Red's still a kid in the show business, but he started early, at the age of ten, in a medicine show in his home town, Vincennes, Ind. At fourteen he joined a showboat, clowning in a circus, was a burlesque comedian at sixteen. A year later he met Edna and they were married. She was a theater usherette and had a great sense of humor, which she immediately put to work in Red's mouth. Red's career, to quote him, included "everything except carnivals and the opera." He'll never make the latter, because he probably cracked his voice announcing walkathons and roller derbies from 1932 to Rudy Vallee in 1938. His four appearances on Rudy's program brought him the Avalon and Raleigh program series of 1938, 1939 and again this year. M-G-M discovered him with his "Whistling in the Dark." While he's been in a half-dozen other pictures, his parts are getting bigger, better. In "Panama Hattie," 'tis said, Metro is sorry they didn't give him more celluloid on which to cavort. He's getting big fast. But Edna and Red are just plain folks. And she keeps him in line. "I can't let him out of my sight a minute or he's in trouble. Once he tried to pick up an injured squirrel in Lincoln Park, Chicago. The squirrel bit him. He was late for dinner because the police held him for antirabies shots. Then the papers came out with headlines: 'SQUIRREL BITES NUT.' "How do you like that?" —E. P.

IT'S TERRIFIC! Red Skelton, back on the air with a high-powered program that crackles with wit, hilariously approves the script just handed him by his chief writer —his wife, Edna. Even though she writes his gags, Edna has decided that a radio comedian's wife's place is not on the air

MARRIED ELEVEN YEARS, screwball Skelton is capable of whipping off a gag at a moment's notice. The Hoosier comedian notes oddities in others which provide him with ideas that he passes on to his wife. She whips them into riotous sequences that double his audience with laughter

ORIGINALLY purchasing this house to rent to others, Red Skelton discovered this secret door. Deciding it might come in handy sometime, he moved in himself. Now he can disappear easily when he longs to devote himself to hobbies, such as playing with miniature train system

WHAT BIG EYES you have, Mr. Skelton! But don't be alarmed, folks, Red wears this get-up only when he indulges in making amateur movies, another of his hobbies. He cuts, edits and titles his own pictures, wears this ensemble so he'll look like what he thinks movie producers resemble

RED SKELTON appeared in "Having a Wonderful Time," starring Ginger Rogers and Doug Fairbanks, Jr., but it was his sensational performance in "Whistling in the Dark" (left, with lovely Ann Rutherford) that convinced Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer they had a great find in Red Skelton

ALTHOUGH THE SIGHT of an intern's white uniform, or even that of a Good Humor man, makes him faint, Red Skelton appeared in several Dr. Kildare films. Right: Alma Kruger breaks up the flirtation in a comical scene between Skelton and nurse in "The People vs. Dr. Kildare"

CONTINUING HIS climb to stardom, Red Skelton (left) teamed with Virginia O'Brien, the dead-pan thrush, won new laurels for his hilarious performance in "Lady Be Good," supporting Ann Sothern. Red and Miss O'Brien will appear with Ann in the forthcoming "Panama Hattie"

RAILBIRDS, who have previewed "Panama Hattie," M-G-M's soon-to-be-released musical-comedy, report that Skelton's performance is so good that Metro will soon star him in a film of his own. Right: Skelton, Ben Blue, Rags Ragland (l. to r.) as they will be seen in "Panama Hattie"

GENERAL

Autographs for Defense

Coupling their Variety Club appearance with a call at the White House, Bud Abbott and Lou Costello will follow up in person an idea they've already wired President Roosevelt about, calling upon entertainment personalities of today to play the same stellar role they performed as salesmen for the Liberty Loan drive of World War I. The idea was submitted to the comedians by a selectee from Camp Roberts, Calif., during a recent appearance of the pair there. The soldier suggested to Abbott and Costello that they might lead a movement to declare a moratorium on the giving of autographs during the emergency and arrange, instead, hereafter only to write their names for fans in return for each purchase of at least a ten-cent Defense Savings stamp.

Cuba Prexy Likes Roz

President Batista of Cuba likes Rosalind Russell. He has invited her and her new husband, Fred Brisson, to visit him at his presidential palace. The newlywed couple, of course, accepted. They were honeymooning in Cuba when the invitation was proffered.

Carolyn Lee Returns

Tiny, seven-year-old Carolyn Lee, darling of the Paramount lot, has returned to Hollywood for her part in "Mrs. Wiggs of the Cabbage Patch." The youngster and her mother, who have been with her father in her home town of Martins Ferry, Ohio, since she finished her part in "Birth of the Blues" with Bing Crosby and

ROMANCE DATA

FILMDOM'S romance merry-go-round goes 'round and 'round and there's something new every day. This week, for instance: Vivacious Lupe Velez (above, left), at Mocambo, has found a new, serious heart-interest (she says) in novelist Erich Remarque, who, friends report, has tempered Lupe's uproarious ways. Lupe will soon be seen in "Playmates," with Kay Kyser. Comely Margaret Lindsay, once linked romantically with Bill Lundigan, has found new affection in Saunders Clark, was photographed with him at Mocambo (above, right). Dan Cupid really made a strike on the "Valley of the Sun" set at RKO when (right) Phillip White Cloud, of the Taos Indians of New Mexico, and Princess Why-ne-mah, of the Oklahoma Pima tribe, met, announced engagement during making of film

Mary Martin, will make tests and vacation here before returning home for the Christmas holidays. Carolyn also has been making personal appearances with the picture across the country—last appearing at Salt Lake City—and flew in for a visit with her mother, Mrs. Evelyn Copp. (See photos of Carolyn on page 11.)

Cobina Back at Career

Cobina Wright, Jr., career girl and new bride of motor scion Palmer

Beaudette, returned to Hollywood Armistice Day with her mother while her hubby went back to officers' training school at Fort Benning, Georgia. While Beaudette remains in the service, the young socialite bride said she would continue her career, and her immediate assignment at the 20th Century-Fox lot is a role in the play, "You Can't Always Tell," with Brenda Joyce, Joe Allen, Jr., and Don De Fore. The couple managed an eight-day honeymoon prior to returning to their respective obligations. When the war is over, Cobina said, she would retire from the screen.

Bing Goes to Town

Bing Crosby will sing eleven songs and Fred Astaire will dance in eight numbers of the forthcoming Paramount picture, "Holiday Inn," with music by Irving Berlin. It will be Bing's next picture after the current "Birth of the Blues." Astaire's part-

GOING ALL THE WAY, Phyllis Ruth does her own marching now in dainty, new slippers made of synthetic plastic substitutes, the idea being to conserve leather for shoes of marching soldiers ners in the film will be Marjorie Reynolds and Virginia Dale.

McCarthy Boss of Frisco

Charlie McCarthy fixed Edgar Bergen last week. He attended the world premiere of RKO's "Look Who's Laughing" at San Francisco and was named mayor for the day by Mayor Angelo Rossi of the Golden Gate city. Bergen and Lucille Ball, love interest of the screen play, which also stars Fibber McGee and Molly, also attended the affair, but all came out second best as far as the public was concerned. On his arrival at San Francisco, Charlie and his supporting cast were greeted by a special mayor's breakfast party at which he was given a wooden mallet and a key to the city.

Norma Shearer Gives Hand

Norma Shearer read lines on the set last week with a girl who was experiencing her first day in pictures. The girl was June Millard, whose father, Henry, directed "Over the Hill" and whose mother, June Caprice, played her first role in Miss Shearer's starring film, "We Were Dancing." Miss Shearer heard about the young girl, now an orphan, and went over to her and introduced herself and said, "I would like to help you." The girl was overjoyed and calmed considerably with the veteran actress' help.

Chaney, Jr., Goes Horrible

Lon Chaney was quite a horror character, all will admit. So the public expects as much or better from his son, Lon, Jr. But it took five years' research and five months' actual work before Jack Pierce, the man who created Frankenstein and a couple of other masterpieces of make-up, was able to complete his newest screen character, now being introduced by Universal Pictures in the screen play "Destiny." The play calls for a wolf-man, and, oddly enough, the role will be filled by Lon Chaney, Jr., a chip off the old block!

Katie Hepburn Takes K. O.

Katharine Hepburn, the eccentric success, took it right on the chin for a ten count last fortnight at M-G-M, but it wasn't in the script. She was supposed to walk between two boxers, practising in a gymnasium, while looking for Spencer Tracy. But one of the boxers landed a heavy right on Katharine's chin and down she went as if given a direct hit on the noggin by a demolition bomb. Director George Stevens tore his hair for a split second—and, as he was sweetly lifting the prostrate body of his leading lady in "Woman of the Year," Miss Hepburn whispered, "Pretty good acting, huh, George?" Whereupon he let her fall back on the floor with a real thud.

Bruce Chip Tests for Screen

Virginia Bruce's small son, Christopher Ruben, eleven weeks old, had his first screen test last week to see if he could approach his mother's acting ability. Curious watcher was her eight-year-old daughter, Susan Gilbert, who has many of her mother's facial beauty points. The "test" was a part of the first picture-taking of the new infant, Miss Bruce's second child.

"Citizen Kane" Hit

Blaze Hollywood, used to child prodigies who here are ten cents a dozen, crucified Orson Welles, the writer-director-producer-actor for RKO who brought in "Citizen Kane." But before they plinned him to the masthead they declared that he would be a superman if he could quadruple in his brilliant abilities and bring in a winner on his first try. Well, he released "Citizen Kane," and Hollywood likes it! The picture has been held over for its fifth week at the Hawaii Theater, where even Disney's "Snow White" would be considered a good picture if it played three weeks! Orson Welles' critics are now in hiding.

IF FIBBER McGEE and Molly—in movies now—look a bit worried (right), you can't blame them. In RKO's "Look Who's Laughing," with McCarthy and Bergen, anything could happen and most everything did. Result is a hilarious picture

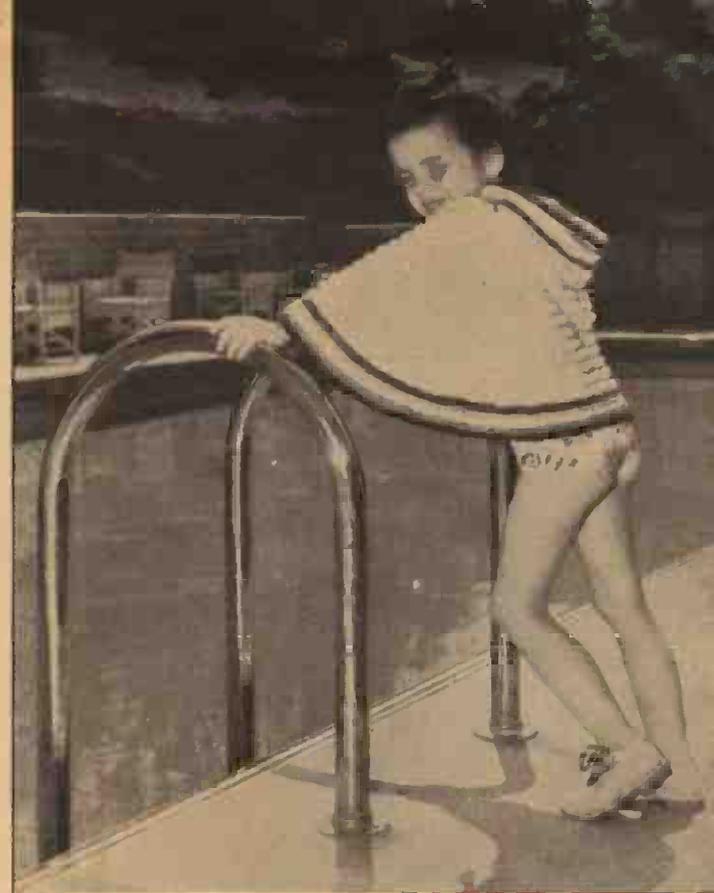

CAROLYN LEE, Paramount's talented youngster currently seen with Bing Crosby in "Birth of the Blues," demonstrates her genius for mimicry. Above: Was a glamour-girl-model ever like this?

THE WAR

Glorify Bombardiers

The thrilling story of the men in the Army Air Corps who operate the much-guarded secret bomb-sights and actually drop the bombs on targets from giant planes will be filmed shortly, it has been announced by RKO-Radio Studios. The title will be "Bombardier" and the locale of the story will be the new Army bombing school at Barksdale Field, near Shreveport, La. The film will deal with the work and training of the men in this little-known branch of the service. To date, the only screen story of real bombing has been told by the British-made short feature, "Target for Tonight," in which an actual bombing raid was enacted and dramatized by members of the R. A. F.

LIFE STATISTICS

DeMille Passes Cigars

Cecil B. DeMille, vet tycoon of the Paramount lot and the "Lux Radio Theater," became a grandfather for the fifth time Armistice Day when a six-pound boy was born to Mrs. Louise DeMille, wife of the producer's son John, a banker, at Good Samaritan Hospital in Los Angeles. The child's mother is a niece of Dr. A. H. Glanini and is the second son of the family.

Add Bulletins Re Stork

Jerilyn Jessel, three-week-old daughter of George and Lois Andrews, posed for her first pictures November 11 and didn't mind it a bit except the awakening . . . The Eddie Brackens (he was the radio Dizzy of Henry Aldrich adventure fame) deny that there is a stork hovering about their chimney. Eddie was last seen in the uproarious "Caught in the Draft" with Bob Hope.

Joan Davis Reconciliates

Joan Davis and her hubby of almost a decade, Sl Wills, made a real Armistice Day of it November 11 and, at a dinner at the Bit o' Sweden in West Hollywood, ended their ten-day "trial separation" which was supposed to last all of three months. They made up their minds, they said, before the first week was over that they couldn't quite get along without one another.

AILING

Goddard III on Plane

Paulette Goddard, who took a plane

November 11 for San Antonio, Texas, for a day's visit prior to going on to Mexico City for a vacation, was forced to leave the ship at Austin because of illness. Miss Goddard, who had just finished "The Girl Has Plans" with Ray Milland for Paramount, continued on by motor with her mother, Mrs. Alta Fleming.

ASSIGNMENTS

Joan Bennett and Franchot Tone, successful duo in "She Knew All the Answers," will soon start another comedy for Columbia titled "Highly Irregular" . . . Next adventure epic for Errol Flynn will be Warner Bros.' "The Sea Devil," which harks back to the great days of the American whaling fleet . . . Also at Warners Joan Leslie has been awarded the feminine lead in "Yankee Doodle Dandy," life story of George M. Cohan, whom James Cagney will portray . . . Janet Blair, former Hal Kemp vocalist, continues her film career in Columbia's "Trinidad."

CASTING

Three More for "FWBT"

Sam Wood has made a start on his casting job for Ernest Hemingway's "For Whom the Bell Tolls," signing Akim Tamiroff to portray the important character of Pablo, guerrilla chieftain. Previously he had cast Joseph Calleia as El Sordo, Vladimir Sokoloff in the role of Anselmo. Other roles went to Fortunio Bonanova as Gustavo, Duncan Renaldo as Lieutenant Berendo. Bonanova is a burly Spaniard who served in the Spanish army and saw action in the Riff campaign before turning to the theater and opera. Renaldo is remembered for his work in "Trader Horn."

Harold Lloyd Signs Tay Garnett

To Tay Garnett goes the directing assignment for Kay Kyser's next picture, "My Favorite Spy," which Harold Lloyd will make for RKO-Radio. Deal went through fifteen minutes after Lloyd contacted Garnett by telephone in New York when his selection was approved by Kyser.

"McGEE! DO SOMETHING!" You'd be frightened too if you were in Molly's shoes (above) and found yourself in a runaway plane with inventor McGee (no less) at the controls. This scene is a laugh riot

PICTURE FINISHED, soon to be released, Fibber and Molly relax at Wistful Vista. Molly's still worrying about tinkering with the script, but she needn't. Movie-Radio Guide predicts "Look Who's Laughing" will be a hit

CRITICS' REPORT

COMING ATTRACTION "H. M. PULHAM, ESQ.," J. P. Marquand's great novel, will be brought to the screen soon by M-G-M, starring Robert Young and Hedy Lamarr (right). As Pulham, Young portrays a young Bostonian who tries to break away from his Back Bay tradition to find romance, only to be drawn back to the life already molded for him by his family. Miss Lamarr, of course, is the heart-interest

Reviews

"APPOINTMENT FOR LOVE"

Cast: Charles Boyer, Margaret Sullivan, Rita Johnson, Eugene Pallette, Ruth Terry, Reginald Denny and support. A Universal picture, produced by Bruce Manning and directed by William A. Seiter. Screen play by Bruce Manning and Felix Jackson based on the original story "Heartbeat" by Ladislaus Bus-Fekete.

Type of Picture: A sophisticated romantic comedy in which admirer Charles Boyer falls in love with and is taken over the jumps by lady doctor Margaret Sullivan.

This Is the Story: Playwright Andre Cassil (Boyer) at a first night sees a first-row lady patron asleep in her seat as he is about to make his author's speech. He, assuming she has fainted, steps down from the stage and, crying, "Is there a doctor in the house?" lifts her from her seat to the aisle. "I'm a doctor," she, Jane Alexander (Margaret Sullivan), answers—and then, noting her plight, she starts to shout "Put me down!" At that point the blase heart of Boyer is captured by the lady doctor. Ensuing complications are hilarious, but love conquers all in the end.

Verdict: This screen comedy almost comes up to the famous Boyer-Dunne "Love Affair" but doesn't quite reach the pinnacle. Nevertheless, it is a satisfying and excellent production and one which will be enjoyed alike by young and old.—E. P.

"BIRTH OF THE BLUES"

Cast: Bing Crosby, Mary Martin, Brian Donlevy, little Carolyn Lee and support. A Paramount picture, produced by Buddy de Sylva and directed by the late Victor Schnetzinger. Screen play by Harry Tugend and Walter de Leon from a story by Mr. Tugend.

Type of Picture: This is a musical but somewhat broad version of the history of the Dixieland jazz band, with Brian Donlevy a sort of Bix Beiderbecke and Bing Crosby faking at the clarinet a la Frankie Trumbauer. Mary Martin is in there singing and being wooed by Brian and Bing, with Bing finally winning the girl. The music is great, by the way.

This Is the Story: Bing, as a lad in New Orleans, is supposed to study to be a great concert clarinetist, but instead sneaks away to the levee and teaches the darkies hot licks. As he grows up, between organizing a band and playing sharp pool, he goes flat broke until Mary Martin and her niece, Miss Lee, turn up right at the band's greatest financial crisis. Bing recruits Donlevy from the local workhouse, and off the band heads for fame.

Verdict: This is Bing Crosby's best picture to date, and Mary Martin does right well, too. Donlevy, as in "The Great McGinty," is a lovable, comical roustabout, and little Carolyn Lee is as cute as ever. You'll love the songs. —E. P.

"KATHLEEN"

Type of Picture: A tender drama built around a psychological study of a young girl with a split personality.

This Is the Story: Lonely Shirley Temple, whose mother died at her birth and whose father, Herbert Marshall, is too interested in his business affairs and sophisticated Gail Patrick to pay her more than fleeting attention, finds happiness only in her visits to junk dealer Felix Bressart. To him she pretends to be another girl, happily living with a devoted father, a story which he sees through.

When difficulties between Shirley and her nurse, Nella Walker, reach the stage of open rebellion, Marshall finally hires young doctor of psychology Laraine Day to "straighten out" his daughter. Overwhelmed by Laraine's trust and friendliness, Shirley falls in love with her, and promotes a romance between her and Marshall.

Verdict: Shirley Temple, after a year and a half away from the screen, returns to amaze even her most ardent fans with her growth into a beautiful girl and with her A-1 acting ability. This is a "must" for every member of the family.—C. S.

THIS WEEK IN RADIO

Met broadcasts return Saturday; Shirley Temple makes bow Friday

For broadcast times of the programs mentioned on this page see the program pages and "Best Listening" boxes in the program section.

Saturday, November 29

The Metropolitan Opera, under the same sponsorship as last season, returns to NBC this Saturday with an opening performance of Verdi's "La Traviata" direct from the stage of New York's famed Metropolitan Opera House. The Verdi opera, absent from the Met repertoire last season, will star Jarmila Novotna, glamorous Czech soprano, in the role of Violetta; Lawrence Tibbett, mighty American baritone, as Germont, and Jan Peerce, American tenor who has sung for years on NBC's "Radio City Music Hall" program, making his Met debut as Alfredo. Gennaro Papi will conduct. A new intermission feature, "Music in America," has been planned for the listening opera fans this season. Between the first and second acts of each broadcast matinee, a prominent speaker will discuss the history of musical performances in a large American city. Heard again by popular demand will be the "Opera Question Forum." This miniature quiz feature will be presented between the second and third acts. The cultured voice of Milton Cross, which has become an air institution to music-lovers, will again be heard in the announcing-narrating role (NBC) . . . "National Farm and Home Hour" (NBC) will feature a broadcast from the International Live Stock Exposition at Union Stock Yards, Chicago, this Saturday. Everett Mitchell, acting as master of ceremonies, will interview 4-H Club boys and girls, judges and officials of the exposition and winners of various awards . . . "What's New at the Zoo," a comedy drama about radio newshounds by J. P. Fox, is the offering of "Knickerbocker Playhouse" on NBC. It presents the ludicrous situation of a radio foreign correspondent being assigned to do a zoo-gossip program. A wrestling-match with a lion brings matters, as you might expect, to a climax . . . "Chicago Theater of the Air" will present the beloved Gilbert and Sullivan operetta, "The Mikado," over MBS, with tenor Attilio Bagglore playing the familiar part of Nanki-Poo . . . The colorful Army-Navy football classic will be broadcast this Saturday by CBS and NBC.

Sunday, November 30

Soprano Rise Stevens, sensational in both vocal and visual appeal, will be guest soloist on "Pause That Refreshes on the Air" this Sunday (CBS) . . . Kay Kyser, with his bubbling self and his sparkling orchestra—but with two other girls instead of Ginny Simms—will be heard on "Fitch Bandwagon" (NBC) . . . Soprano Helen Jepson will sing on "Ford Sunday Evening Hour" (CBS) . . . Helen Hayes will offer herself in the role which Janet Gaynor created for the screen in "A Star Is Born" (CBS) . . . "Columbia Workshop" will present a play with the intriguing title "The Fish on the Bathroom Floor" (CBS) . . . Stage actress Judith Anderson will make a special appearance in this week's "Inner Sanctum Mystery" (NBC) . . . "Screen Guild Theater" will present Bette Davis in "Stage Door," in which Katharine Hepburn starred on the screen several years ago (CBS) . . . William Wyler, distinguished movie director of such successes as "Jezebel," "Wuthering Heights" and "The Little Foxes," will be the guest on the Department of Justice's "I'm an American" program on NBC this Sunday. Mr. Wyler was born in Mulhouse, Alsace-Lorraine, where he learned to speak both French and German, because, like other inhabitants of that much-fought-over province, he never knew how long at a time his home town would be either part of France or part of Germany . . . Errol Flynn will be the guest star on CBS' "Silver Theater" . . . Tenor Jan Peerce will be a special guest on "Family Hour" (CBS).

Monday, December 1

"Scattergood Baines," popular sketch about a kindly storekeeper and his deeds and experiences in the little town of Coldriver, returns to CBS in a new series this Monday, replacing the Ben Bernie "Just Entertainment" program for the same sponsor. Veteran actor Jess Pugh again plays the title role in the radio dramatization of the celebrated stories by Clarence Budington Kelland. He is supported by a cast of prominent radio players, including Francis Trout as Pilny Pickett, the character he has portrayed also for two recent screen versions of "Scattergood Baines." Other cast members are Viola Berwick as Scattergood's wife, Mirandy; Hazel Dopheide as Letty Armstrong; Butler Manville as Letty's husband, Judd; Barbara Fuller and Jonathan Hole as Sharon and Bill Armstrong, and Arnold Robertson as Mr. Martin . . . Cowboy star Gene Autry will play a command performance before 2,500 prize-winning 4-H farm boys and girls at Thomas E. Wilson's annual luncheon party for them at Medinah Temple, Chicago, this Monday. Gene was the overwhelming choice of the 4-H youngsters in a recent popularity poll conducted by Mr. Wilson, chairman of the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work. CBS will broadcast (to Midwest only) the portion of the luncheon during which Mr. Wilson presents the annual gift of six college scholarships to young winners . . . The screen epic of almost a decade ago, "Cimarron," will be dramatized on NBC's "Cavalcade of America" this Monday, with Irene Dunne playing the feminine lead as she did in the film version . . . The Chicago Opera Company's presentation of Puccini's "Tosca," starring Grace Moore, Frederick Jagel and Richard Bonelli, will be broadcast in major part over MBS.

Tuesday, December 2

Allen Prescott, who as NBC's "Wife Saver" gives multitudinous tips to housewives though he is himself a bachelor, will give all listeners, male and female, advice on how to use their money to help America's defense when he appears as master of ceremonies of "Treasury Hour" this Tuesday night (NBC).

Wednesday, December 3

William S. Knudsen, head of the Office of Production Management, will speak before the annual convention of the National Association of Manufacturers on "Defense Production." This address on America's current number one problem by the man who knows will be aired by MBS . . . CBS will broadcast a special Russian war-relief program featuring Joseph E. Davies, former ambassador to Russia, violinist Jascha Heifetz and pianist Vladimir Horowitz.

Friday, December 5

Shirley Temple is finally to do a radio series, even though it is a brief one. She has been snared by a watch company for a reported $50,000 to do four programs beginning this Friday night in the spot usually occupied by "Hollywood Premiere," while that program takes a four-week vacation. In this special series, designed especially to suit the Christmas season, Shirley will sing as well as act in playlets (CBS) . . . Feature of the "Kate Smith Hour" this Friday on CBS will be the annual presentation of awards to the All-Collegiate Squad sponsored by Miss Smith and picked by a board of coaches headed by Jim Crowley of Fordham University. This is the sixth year for the football feature.

TODAY IN RADIO

F. D. R. crosses up Hope; Fred Allen aids blind impersonator

Artists, Public Play Together

SOME TWO THOUSAND radio artists and plain listeners got together Nov. 7 in the Grand Ballroom of Chicago's Sherman Hotel to have fun and augment the charity fund of the American Federation of Radio Artists. One of the chummy groups was that shown at top of page: L. to r., Russ Young, "Bachelor's Children" director, Mrs. Olan Soule, Olan (Sam in "Bachelor's Children"), Laurette Fillbrandt (Sydney in "Lone Journey" and Mrs. Young in private life) and Marie Nelson (Ellen in "Bachelor's Children"). In upper picture at left, Franklyn MacCormack (announcer-poetry-reader on Wayne King show) proved as skillful at ring-tossing for prizes as at word-tossing on the air. Television Girl Betty Savoy watches. Lower picture at left shows Marvin Mueller (Gil in "Helen Trent") with Mrs. Mueller (right) and Elmira Roessler (heard on "Treet-Time"). Shown at bottom of page is another "Bachelor's Children" group: Patricia Dunlap (Janet in the serial) and her husband, Richard Zeller (left), and Hugh Studebaker (Dr. Bob Graham) and Mrs. Studebaker

What—No F. D. R.?

HOLLYWOOD.—Comedian Bob Hope caused no end of kilocycle confusion on November 11 when he announced at the end of his program that President Roosevelt would be heard on "some of these stations." Listeners tuning in NBC stations heard Red Skelton, who follows Hope, and as a result flooded station switchboards with inquiries regarding the announced presidential speech. As a matter of fact the President did not speak Armistice night. A Red Cross program on other networks was the cause of the misunderstanding—and Hope's red face.

Santy's Stooges

HOLLYWOOD.—Santa Claus McCarthy was prominent in the Santa Claus Lane Parade down Hollywood Boulevard in the film city November 21. About fifty radio celebrities rode in the parade, with Edgar Bergen's wooden dummy among them, resplendent in his newest costume, a Santa Claus suit complete with everything but whiskers, which Charlie declined on the ground the girls might think he was getting old. Bergen's car was equipped with a public-address system so Charlie could greet the crowds. Bob Hope was a novelty in the parade, riding Bing Crosby's race-horse Mandrake, purchased on Bing's recent trip to South America.

Old Themes Back

NEW YORK.—Because orchestra-leaders were so insistent, NBC has withdrawn its objections to the broadcasting of old theme songs. Since the ASCAP-BMI war ceased, many orchestras have resumed the use of theme songs which serve to identify them. Among the more famous theme songs are Fred Waring's "Sleep," Guy Lombardo's "Auld Lang Syne," Tommy Dorsey's "I'm Getting Sentimental Over You," Benny Goodman's "Let's Dance," Kay Kyser's "Happy Days Are Here Again" and Wayne King's "The Waltz You Saved for Me."

Men Behind Radio News

HOLLYWOOD.—Hal Rorke, previously publicity chief of the Columbia Pacific network, is now assistant director of publicity of the entire Columbia Broadcasting System. Louis Ruppel, general director of publicity for CBS, announced Rorke as the successor to Ted Weber, who resigned to become amusement advertising manager of the new Marshall Field newspaper in Chicago. Needless to say, network publicity goes on as usual during such alterations in the personnel that dishes out the news about your favorites.

SIDELIGHTS

Mickey and Judy Entertain

HOLLYWOOD.—Right up to broadcast time for the CBS "Screen Guild Theater" broadcast of "Babes in Arms" Sunday, November 9, the studio stage looked more like the scene of a riot than like a well-ordered radio program. Two score high-school students from West Los Angeles and Beverly Hills were milling around their idols, Mickey Rooney and Judy Garland, and musicians hung onto their racks while Rooney put on a solo act with the traps and drums. The occasion was a get-together and picture-taking expedition for "Hi-School," southern California school publication.

A Costly "Consequence"

NEW YORK.—It cost $775 to stage one consequence on the early and repeat programs of Ralph Edwards' "Truth or Consequences" program. The consequence involved rushing a contestant over to the Essex House in New York, where Sammy Kaye and his band were playing. The contestant sang along with Kaye's band. The charges were $504 for the musicians; $217 for wires into the hotel, and $54 for a stand-by announcer and incidental expenses. The second most expensive consequence (the first involved hiring an elephant), it proved to be one of the most successful.

Ma Off, Madame On

NEW YORK.—A presidential speech broadcast November 6 forced NBC to request the cancellation of "Ma Perkins," a Monday-through-Friday serial. As is usual in such cases the announcer expressed the network's thanks to sponsors of "Ma Perkins," and then introduced the person who, in turn, was to introduce the President. The person was Mrs. Frances Perkins, Secretary of Labor!

Pupil Beats Teacher

CHICAGO.—William Green, who plays John Fairchild in "Stepmother" and who conducts a class on radio technique in Elmhurst, Ill., has himself learned that maybe he's too good a teacher for his own good! One of his pupils decided he was good enough to try for a radio job and took an audition, along with six other actors, for a part in "Painted Dreams." Teacher

Green himself happened to be one of the candidates. The pupil got the part!

Close Shave

HOLLYWOOD.—Bill Gould, KNX sound-effects expert, is being called the "human torpedo." He was almost called upon to make a real sacrifice the other day in preparing for a Pacific Coast CBS broadcast of "I Was There." During a fictitious submarine attack Gould simulated the compressed-air "whoosh" of a torpedo leaving its tube by filling his cheeks with air and blowing through his hand drawn across his mouth. During the rehearsal producer Russ Johnston complained of air "leakage" through Gould's mustache, ruining the effect. Gravely he ordered Gould to remove the mustache. But after half an hour's practise, the desperate sound-effects man wet his mustache, taped it down and made the sound effective.

Amos Gets Jitters

HOLLYWOOD.—Mike fright catches them all sooner or later. It caught up with Freeman Gosden, Amos of "Amos 'n' Andy," after fifteen years on the air. Gosden came from the CBS studio November 7 as nervous as if he had faced the mike for the first time. In a way he had. He had used his own natural voice in the script for the first time, portraying a Y. M. C. A. secretary. He felt undressed!

Actress Has Narrow Escape

CHICAGO.—Lois Bertram in "Road of Life," is thanking fate and her lucky stars. For several weeks the actress had commuted between her home in Joliet, Ill., and the Chicago NBC studios by bus. Recently she made a sudden decision to ride the train. That day the bus in which she had been riding crashed and burned, killing several passengers.

PERSONALS

Allen Aids Blind Student

NEW YORK.—Comedian Fred Allen has arranged for Alonzo Squires, the blind student-impersonator, to return to Morristown, N. J., sometime in the spring to receive the Seeing Eye dog which Fred gave him. Due to a rule which the Seeing Eye people have, an owner of one of their dogs must spend a month with the dog at the farm where the dogs are trained. Squires, who appeared on one of Allen's programs recently, is a student at the University of North Carolina and cannot take time off for the dog-master training until after school closes.

Lions Versus Blondie

HOLLYWOOD.—Open season on mountain lions has been declared unofficially by Penny Singleton (CBS' "Blondie") and her husband, Bob Sparks, motion-picture executive, on their recently acquired Pennybob Oaks ranch near Saugus, Calif. During the past several weeks, lions have killed three calves, a horse and many fowl. The couple will take to the hills in a hunt of their own soon.

Long-Suffering Nose

CHICAGO.—Betty Ruth Smith, star of "Lone Journey," sustained minor injuries when her car skidded on a slippery road recently. Her most uncomfortable souvenir of the accident is a broken nose—and it's the third time! Her nose was broken by a fall from a swing during her school days, again when an art easel fell on her while in college.

Long Run for A. and C.

HOLLYWOOD.—Because of their share in lifting the "Chase and Sanborn Program" to the top of the heap in current audience-survey ratings, Abbott and Costello now have a four-year contract with yearly options, the first leg of which carries them through the winter and next summer on the show. The comedy team, following Bob Hope's lead, have just written the comic story of their lives in a book titled "You're Telling Me." (See photos of Abbott and Costello, page 3.)

Substitute in "Romance"

CHICAGO.—Alice Hill had one day's taste of the "Romance of Helen Trent," subbing recently for Virginia Clark, who, because of illness, missed her first performance in eight years.

PROGRAM

Disney Gang May Have Show

HOLLYWOOD.—Plans are under way which may see Walt Disney's famous cartoon characters on the air. Disney and Lou Cowan, discoverer of the "Quiz Kids," have been working on the idea for some time. If the program becomes a reality, John Nesbitt, famous commentator, and Dan Saldenberg, orchestra-leader, will handle continuity and music, respectively.

HONORS

Huddle Girl of 1941

CHICAGO.—Mary Ann Mercer, petite songstress of "Uncle Walter's Dog House," now wears the cute title of "Huddle Girl." It was bestowed on her by the Lancers football team of the First Cavalry Division of Fort Bliss, Texas. This is one of the outstanding teams of the camps because it consists largely of drafted collegians.

—Malcolm Bullloch

RIGHT: Struttin' Hutton, they call her. She's hep from her twinkletoes to her blond ringlets. Bob Hope needed to try her only once on his show, and now little singing, dancing jitterbug Betty Hutton is a regular stooge-singer on Bob's Tuesday NBC program

ONA MUNSON, right, has had recent painful evidence of the cost of dramatic art. Make-up men taking a plaster cast of her face for a new film role became too diligent. As a result the actress has been doing her "Big Town" shows with a broken nose

Men of Many Titles

HOLLYWOOD.—Chester Lauck and Norris Goff (NBC's "Lum and Abner") recently were voted new titles, Arkansas Ambassadors, by the legislature of the state they have helped publicize with their radio skit. The team now holds titles from four states. They're Kentucky Colonels, Texas Rangers and Admirals of Virginia's Cherry River.

Uses Her Key

HOLLYWOOD.—Usually a "key to the city" is just a photographer's prop. But Irene Rich had a lock to her rumpus-room door made to fit the brass "key to the city" of Cleveland.

Next Week's Cover

Timed to her reappearance on the screen in M-G-M's "Kathleen," to her debut (December 5) as a sponsored radio star in a series of four Christmas broadcasts, MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE's cover next week presents Shirley Temple as the charming twelve-year-old young lady she is today. A photo-story inside will examine the new Shirley. Other things to look for in next week's issue: "The Truth About Hollywood's Daffy Parties," "How to Spend a Million Dollars," new, exclusive pictures of the Bing Crosby broadcast.

KGEI MAIL BAG CHEERS YANKS IN ORIENT

Did Bombs Shatter Moscow Radio? WNBI Show Charms World's Philatelists Nazi "Meditator" Talks to Far East

Edited by

Charles A. Morrison

President, International DX'ers Alliance

THE Mail Bag, weekly program of KGEI (9.67), San Francisco, broadcast Sundays from 8:45 to 11:00 a.m. EST, has been acclaimed by hundreds of Americans in the Orient.

"The several messages you have delivered over the air have been our only contact with our children and friends in America for more than three months," said Harry R. Caldwell, in Futsing, China, recently in a letter.

The program, originally designed to provide the families in the United States of missionaries working in the Far East and Africa with a means of sending up-to-date news and messages to their distant relatives, has been extended and now short-waves messages to other isolated Americans in distant lands.

SEE SHORT-WAVE PROGRAM LISTINGS OPPOSITE PAGE

"It has become necessary for my wife and children to leave China because of the world situation," J. G. McIntyre wrote recently from Kulansau, Amoy. "I am living alone here for the present and seldom see another American from one week-end to another. There are five of us temporary bachelors here. As we live quite some distance from each other, we seldom see each other during the week. But we get together at the hour of the Mail Bag program. Reception is excellent."

FROM Sumatra in the Netherlands East Indies, William McKinnon wrote: "I had the thrill of my life last Sunday evening when you read out the message from my wife and son who had just arrived in the United States. I hope to be coming along myself in a few months. The news of their safe arrival in the U. S. A. warmed the cockles of my heart."

John Marsh of Mount Silinda, in distant Southern Rhodesia, Africa, reported that on the first Sunday he had been home in weeks, he tuned in to KGEI to hear, only one minute later, a message to him and his wife from his mother in Florida. "Reception was fine," according to Mr. Marsh. "You can't imagine our excitement. The very fact of hearing from loved ones in such a short time was just almost too much for us. The tears came to our eyes and we hardly knew what we were doing. If it had all been planned out we couldn't have gotten a bigger thrill. To get a message just one minute after tuning in! It was wonderful!"

17 FM Stations Operate Commercially

In response to numerous requests I am hereby giving an up-to-the-minute list of FM stations actually on the air and operating commercially. In addition to the seventeen stations included in this list, forty-one other FM transmitters have been approved by the Federal Communications Commission, are in the process of construction and are expected on the air shortly. There are also fifty-four applications for commercial FM licenses still pending at Washington. A few FM stations are still operating experimentally preparatory to instituting commercial operations.

Program Particulars

A new Nazi speaker calling himself "Meditator" may be heard giving propaganda talks in English in the Far Eastern Service from Berlin over DJQ (15.28), Fridays at 9:15 a.m. EST. One of the most popular of NBC's international programs is the "Stamp Journal of the Air," which is broadcast over WNBI (15.15), Thursdays at 12:45 p.m. EST. Walter Law, philatelist, who conducts the program, not only announces and discusses new issues but ties up the news of the day with stamps, tracing the close connection between the political and postal histories of the countries in the headlines. Prominent guest speakers are also featured on the program from time to time. Questions of collectors are answered and a list of philatelists the world over is being prepared for mailing to those who request it.

Pecks at Personalities

Bob Trout, now in London replacing Ed Murrow as CBS' European news chief, disgustingly twiddled his thumbs in Lisbon for seventeen days before he could get a plane to England. This is not Trout's first assignment in Europe. In 1937 he was the only American broadcaster sent to London to cover the coronation. He also covered the Wally Simpson-Duke of Windsor wedding in France. Last year he made the Atlantic Clipper "press preview" flight across the Atlantic, broadcasting from the plane and from Lisbon, Marseilles and Paris. Among the odd instruments used by Xavier Cugat on the NBC "Rumba Revue," which features the gorgeous

MEXICAN-BORN MARGO'S songs on "Rumba Revue" are heard south of the border via NBC

Latin, Margo, is one that any housewife would recognize—linoleum. . . Glenn Miller, whose orchestra is one of the most popular with NBC's international audiences, added three more boosters to his millions of admirers recently when he noticed a dejected-looking trio apparently unable to get in to see him present his weekly "Sunset Serenade" program from the Pennsylvania Hotel's Cafe Rouge. The lads, who had just quit work, came tieless and wearing lumberjackets. Glenn heard their story, then ordered three of his own ties and jackets brought down so they could attend.

General Notes

Announcements have been heard twice over JZK, Tokyo, Japan, to the effect that Radio Center, Moscow, has been bombed, completely destroyed and thus off the air. This may explain the abrupt discontinuance of Moscow's transmissions to North America on about October 14. Inasmuch as Moscow is still being heard daily from 6:00 to 7:55 p.m. EST on 15.115 and 15.23 megs, but with greatly diminished signal strength, it is possible that Nazi bombs did destroy one or more of the powerful Moscow transmitters and perhaps directional aerials which had been used in the service to North America. . . The Far Eastern radio headquarters of the Soviet Union, in Khabarovsk, transmits programs daily from 1:00 a.m. to as late as 1:00 p.m.; also from 4:00 to 6:00 p.m. EST. Although many frequencies are used, the best heard at present is 9.565 megs. On this frequency from 9:00 to 10:00 a.m. EST an all-Chinese program, replete with Chinese vocalizing and much whanging on a one-stringed instrument may be heard. I am still anxious to get reports from readers hearing broadcasts from Moscow. State what frequencies you are hearing and the approximate times of the broadcasts.

MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE'S

THEATRE of the AIR

Presents

"WE, THE ABBOTTS"

PART I

THIS is the story of an American family in today's uncertain world, according to the sponsor's announcement. Specifically, the family presented consists of Emily and John Abbott and their three children, teenage twins Barbara and Jack, ten-year-old Linda.

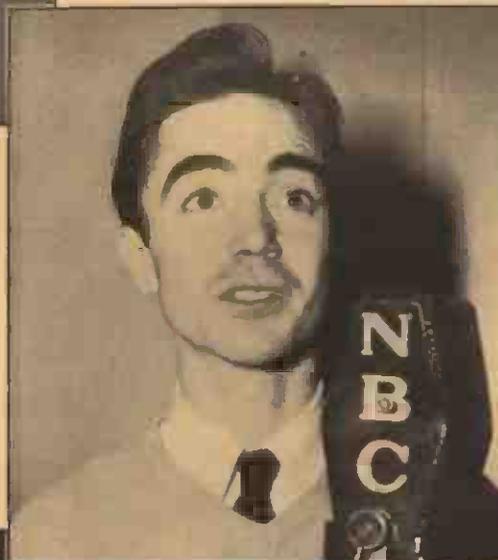

Mr. Abbott, an idealist and a realistic believer in democracy, is the editor of the house publication where he works. Mr. Abbott has unorthodox ideas about employes and employers, is faced with a conflict between what he would like to do with the paper and what he must do to keep his job. Meanwhile his wife, having established herself as manager of the high-school cafeteria, is wondering whether she should give up the job to devote herself to voluntary defense work.

The Abbott children have their own problems, also contribute to the problems of their parents. Recently Jack won a radio audition, is now excited over making a career of it. Barbara, still in her teens, has shocked her parents by announcing her intention to marry. And Linda has a serious arm injury.

In the midst of their personal lives, the Abbotts have an awareness to the world outside which is unusual in serial stories but induces a feeling of reality.

As you listen to "We, the Abbotts" this week (NBC), let these pictures help you to visualize the actors.—A. M.

ONLY WHEN EMILY ABBOTT'S (above, left) day is done does she find time to think about home problems. Wife of an incurable idealist, mother of three children, her cares are many

FOR MEN LIKE JOHN ABBOTT (above, right) life holds little happiness which cannot be shared with others. Indicative of his character is John Abbott's idolatry of Abraham Lincoln

SINCE WINNING his first radio role a decided change has come over Jack Abbott (right). What twin sister Barbara can't stand is the "ham" actor cropping out in him recently

LOVE COMES to Barbara Abbott and Arthur Anderson, but Barbara's parents don't approve their marriage plans, are bewildered when Mrs. Anderson gives her consent. The pair are still children in the Abbotts' opinion

ALTHOUGH WILLIE TOMPKINS, who spends much time in the Abbott home, worries John and Emily with his idea of giving up his job as station agent, at least one Abbott—ten-year-old Linda—thinks he's well-nigh perfect

HILDA, the Abbott maid, is something of a mystery to the family. She is cultured and gives the air of having an interesting past. Mr. Abbott has been trying to help her bring two brothers from Europe to this country

That BREWSTER BOY, JOEY

HIS voice is changing and he sounds rather like Mickey Mouse. He's the kind of kid who keeps the whole neighborhood talking and the whole family in hot water. He gets his "ideas" on Monday nights over NBC.

Joey Brewster started out as Eddie Firestone, Jr., a California lad who arrived in Chicago last year, got some radio acting jobs and met radio writer Pauline Hopkins. Miss Hopkins, working on a new dramatic series, was attracted by Eddie's personality and his outlandish lingo, invited him to her home enough times to know him very well. When she was ready to broadcast "That Brewster Boy," Eddie

Firestone seemed to fit the title role like no one else. So Eddie became Joey Brewster. Oddest thing is that Eddie likes Joey so well that he has had his name legally changed to "Joey Brewster."

Meanwhile, Joey Brewster has matriculated at Northwestern University, been pledged to Phi Delta Theta fraternity, invented a new dance step—the Brewster Boy Bounce. A bit older in real life than his radio character, the new Joey Brewster has the same personable charm, the same capacity for having fun, judging from these photos taken on Northwestern campus. —J. C.

EDDIE FIRESTONE, JR., practices writing his new name, Joey Brewster, the boy he plays Mondays. Attorney—and radio actor—Michael Romano (l.) arranged legal details

↑ BIG MOMENT for Joey came when he received his Phi Delta Theta pledge pin from fraternity president Jack Sundine (white robe). He lives at fraternity house

← JOEY'S "OUTBOARD" SHIRTS, which out-Crosby Bing, become community property at the house. He finds them in a brother's room

→ JOEY'S BIG "IDEA" is the Brewster Boy Bounce for rubber-shod dancers. At right Joe does it at Phi Delt party with Marnie Gedge

STUDIO GUESTS at a Burns and Allen show are definitely one up on average listeners, with three prize muggers like George, Gracie and bandleader Paul Whiteman there in the flesh. They can also see Bill Goodwin's antics. About 385 people witness broadcasts in Hollywood

MEET "MR. AND MRS. BURNS": This season, for the first time, George and Gracie are being presented as husband and wife. Other than opening the way for domestic comedy situations, the change doesn't affect their perennially funny act. Gracie, the Swan diva and comedienne, opens show each week with, "Hello! Are you there? Well, we're here!"

NEXT WEEK:

BING CROSBY'S VARIETY SHOW

MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE VISITS: The Burns & Allen Tuesday Night Riot

THIS year George and Gracie have upset the fruit-basket. Save for Senor Irving Lee, the Latin word-bungler, everything is new on their Tuesday night show. They have a new sponsor—Swan Soap. They have a new cast—Paul Whiteman, Bill Goodwin and tenor Jimmy Cash. There are also Hilda and her Olaf Sven, with Edith Evanson as the Swedish "k. m." and Dick Ryan, who was "Godfrey" on Joe Penner programs, as boy friend Olaf. Even George and Gracie are presented differently—as Mr. and Mrs. Burns!

This new comedy concoction is aired over 103 NBC stations Tuesdays, over thirty-one CBS and MBS stations by transcription other evenings.

If you're lucky enough to be one of 385 studio visitors you'll be admitted to studio B, Radio City, Hollywood, twenty minutes early, just in time to hear the Whiteman band swing into "Rhapsody in Blue," and afterward introductions, gags by George Burns. Says George:

"I think you are going to be our best audience. Anyhow, we want you to laugh and enjoy yourselves. And when you do laugh, please lean toward the microphone . . ."

Senor Lee is introduced as "Whiteman's guitarist," rattles off a lot of Spanish, then sings "Ma, He's Making Eyes at Me," with Spanish lyrics. Bill Goodwin and Jimmy Cash are presented, then Gracie. Gracie does a love-scene with Bill Goodwin, asking George to hold her script while she is in Bill's arms.

From the control-room comes a warning—"thirty seconds"—and there's a scramble for microphone stations.

During the broadcast George beats a trail between the control-room and his mike spot, checks timing, details with producer Glenhall Taylor and brother Willie Burns. Gracie scans her lines over and over when not at the mike. Despite the wacky pose she assumes in her radio character, Gracie is actually a precisionist, flays herself if she makes the smallest "fluff."

Most sensational newcomer to Burns and Allen program has turned out to be Paul Whiteman. His music is superb but his unique brand of "jive-talk" is more spectacular. In "jive-talk," a lingo he originated years ago and passed on to Bing Crosby, new words are coined with the greatest of ease. Much of Paul's ad-libbing at rehearsals gets on the broadcast. For example:

"Tell tacit to lay dead for one more chorus. I've got to give out a light beef to blimp a tym. Hey, buxom—drummer—you, Willie, you're dragging that last tympany roll. If you do that on the show this number's going to be like the bear at the fair—it'll get nowhere."

Between the first and second broadcasts Gracie retires to her dressing-room, plays gin rummy with Mrs. Willie Burns. George and the writers (Sam Perrin, Harvey Helm, Frank Galen, Keith Fowler, George Balzer, Willie Burns) work over the script—carefully, since the later show is heard over many more stations than the original.

George and Gracie are now well into their tenth year of broadcasting. Gracie still presents her cleverly cultivated pose of unabashed brainlessness, with George's long-suffering common sense as a perfect foil. But with a new round-up of supporting entertainers, their zany routines have taken on a new flavor, which the photographer tried to capture in these pictures.—J. C.

EVEN REHEARSALS on Sunday mornings are fun. George has the most fun of all, will interrupt the most serious conference to spring a joke. Here Paul Whiteman—"Pops" to these people—glances toward George, about to contribute his own gag. Show's final rehearsal is an all-day job on Tuesdays

HILDA AND OLAF SVEN, new B. and A. associates, are "dat vay about each udder." The light-headed romantics of Hilda, the Burns' script "k. m." and Olaf have George stymied, but not Gracie. In real life Hilda is Edith Evanson (formerly of "Myrt and Marge") and Olaf Sven is Dick Ryan

ONLY SENOR LEE (Irving is his given name) has appeared with George and Gracie before this season. New is Paul Whiteman (right), who, besides band-leading, now does a hit comedy stint

JUST TO BE IN STYLE—and because Jimmy Cash has a splendid voice—B. and A. have added a tenor to their show. Jimmy continues with his regular job—grocery-clerking in Burbank

BELOW: Bill Goodwin graduated from announcing to comedy on Bob Hope's broadcast. His capers—in addition to expertly done commercials—fit George and Gracie's act like a glove

The SECRET SIDE of WALTER WINCHELL

Everybody hears his broadcasts, reads his column—here is Walter Winchell in action

IN NBC NEWSROOM late Sundays Winchell pecks out script for evening broadcast two-finger style. No dude, Winchell looks his worst in the studio with hat slouched over his eyes, is completely absorbed in the job to be done

NO DEEP-DYED secret but still little known to the general public is the broadcasting technique of Walter Winchell. Having drawn a profile last week of the real Walter Winchell—the man who doesn't show up in a gossip column—MOVIE-RADIO GUIDE this week unveils broadcaster Winchell. Chief reason for the mystery is that Winchell has neither the time nor the inclination to spend much time at NBC's Radio City studios, where his "Jergens Journal" goes on the air Sunday nights. Trying to make a thoroughly irregular schedule operate efficiently, working at a feverish pace, Winchell tumbles into bed anytime between four and six o'clock in the morning after a night of Stork Clubbing and news-sleuthing. Day and night he drives with a police radio in his car, enjoys chasing fires and answering police calls. Sunday is no holiday. Thus, he plans to get to the studio at the last minute, just in time to bang out his script on an old portable.

At the microphone Winchell broadcasts with hat on, tie loosened, with cigarettes on the desk ready for chain-smoking. At his elbow is the telegraph key which gives out with the familiar dot-dash signals that separate news items. Winchell gets a tremendous kick from operating the "bug" himself. His reading pace is slower than formerly, but he retains the old trick of tossing script, page after page, over his right shoulder after reading, has lost none of the old fiery delivery. Odd note is the amazing adaptability of the Winchellesque style. What served to sell Broadway gossip—and still does—serves at least as effectively to sell fervent, quippy patriotics, even straight war news. Winchell, apparently, can sell anything he puts his tongue to. —J. C.

Photographs by Gus Gale

FEW PEOPLE have seen Winchell like this. With no studio audience, Winchell snuggles up in a corner, taps out his own dot-dashes on telegraph "bug," reads script, tossing pages over right shoulder as he finishes them. During commercials he sneaks cigarette

WINCHELL'S car sports a police radio which gets plenty of use. He knows New York thoroughly, spends a good part of evenings picking up calls and following them in the hope of digging up news. Jumping into the chase with all the pep and enthusiasm of a boy, he often gets to trouble spots before police or firemen

ABOVE, after answering call, Winchell learned that a man had been stabbed during street brawl in front of Knickerbocker Hospital, was there to greet detectives. Other nocturnal investigations have led Winchell to big-time criminals who have used him as contact in surrendering to police

TO OFFICER JOSEPH SAMLER, as to other New York police, Winchell is "Walter," is no interfering busybody but one of the town's ace newshawks. To average Americans, too, Winchell will always be an ace newshawk. Whether he reports Hollywood's hottest romance or Hitler's most hideous atrocity, Winchell is the man who knows all, sees all, tells all

Wrong Time

Dear Sirs:

I think that sponsor of "The Bartons" is making a big mistake in changing the time of that program. They're losing six listeners in our family. And I think many people will think the same way. Don't get me wrong. I am glad they have a sponsor. But the broadcast time is wrong.

Leonard Baylin, Chester, Pa.

Dear Sirs:

I met the cast of "The Bartons" this last summer and found them all lovely people. I'm happy for them that their program is sponsored now. But I'm very disappointed that it changed from the afternoon to the morning. I feel that I speak for my friends, too. We are school kids and "The Bartons" is our favorite program. Now that it has changed time we won't be able to hear it after school.

Martha Anne Vinz,
Mississippi City, Miss.

Many other listeners, young and old, have written the same message, applauding "The Bartons" for landing a sponsor, but decrying the fact that this fine sketch, which is chiefly about youngsters and which many youngsters consider their favorite program, is now heard on a limited network and at a morning time when school-children cannot hear it.—The Editors.

"Chin Off the Curb"

Dear Sirs:

I note Mrs. E. L. Dunbar of Kansas City, Kan., writes to ask that the air be cleaned up of "programs that prate of triangles, divorces, etc." because they insult her mentality. Well, I listen to all of them. However, I manage to get my chin off the curb long enough to listen to the Kate Smith and "Vic and Sade" types that she mentions.

I may lack in mentality but I do not judge a product until I've tried it, regardless of whether the program that advertises it is to my liking or not. If I did like a product I'd use it, regardless of the type of program.

Mrs. M. Markmann, New York, N. Y.

BANDSTAND NOTES

By MAURICE GRANGER

JAN SAVITT, known as the Stokowski of swing because he played violin with Stokowski's orchestra, is forming a string quartet which will be added to his band . . . Bandleader Blue Barron is still looking for an appropriate theme song. He's been swinging his baton for six years now and has yet to discover one that pleases him . . . Helen O'Connell, Jimmy Dorsey's blond warbler, is minus her appendix but feeling better . . . Paul Whiteman is calling his theme song "Substitute in Blue." It's a paraphrase on his former signature melody, "Rhapsody in Blue" . . . Understand Benny Goodman will have another session with the longhairs when he appears with the Cleveland Symphony on January 4 . . . Horace Heidt is another of the many bandleaders signed to appear before motion-picture cameras in the near future. The trend toward bands appearing in pictures is really something . . . A reliable authority reports that Harry James, the nation's number one trumpeter, can play 178 notes on a single breath. That's pretty good if it can be done. Another trumpeter, Louis Armstrong by name, could hit 250 high C's in succession! . . . In case your "jive" glossary isn't complete, here are some terms: A "sweet stick" is known as a clarinet, while an "agony box" is a trumpet. Swing musicians also call a saxophone a "choke stick," and a violin is labeled as the "doghouse."

Purely Personal

The Horace Heidts are expecting a Christmas bundle . . . The Les Browns are likewise expecting. It will be the second for them . . . Bandleader Harry

James and his wife, Louise Tobin, have received their legal separation papers . . . Eddy Duchin and his singer, June Robbins, are reportedly romancing . . . Another unconfirmed report has it that Helen O'Connell will soon marry Clifford Smith, a wealthy Bostonian. Apparently her much publicized romance with Jimmy Blumentstock, the Fordham football player, is over . . . Song-writer Bobby ("City Called Heaven") Warren is all eyes for Gail Robbins, Art Jarrett's vocalist . . . The Jan Savitts are celebrating the arrival of a girl . . . Andy Iona, Hawaiian bandleader, recently married Leimomi Woodd.

Vocalists

Claude Thornhill has hired Lillian Lane to do the vocals with his band . . . Helen Forrest, formerly with Benny Goodman, is now working for Harry James, also a former Goodmanite . . . Orrin Tucker signed up a girl trio recently. They are known as the Gourly Sisters. He also signed Eddie Rice as his male vocalist.

Songstuff

Meredith Willson's second hit tune, "Two in Love," is doing all right by its writer. It is getting quite a number of network plugs and may break into the "Hit Parade" before long . . . The Moylan Sisters' first song-writing effort will be introduced on the air shortly. It is called "Rippling Melody" . . . Tchaikowsky is a composer whom Tin Pan Alley evidently reveres. Thus far eight of Tchaikowsky's masterpieces have been arranged for swing. The latest one is "Concerto in B Flat Minor." As if you didn't already know!

RECORD MENDED

VICTOR: Tommy Dorsey's "Embraceable You"; Artie Shaw's "Is It Taboo?"; DECCA: Bing Crosby's "Day Dreaming"; Ella Fitzgerald's "This Love of Mine"; Frances Langford's

"Tropical Magic." COLUMBIA: Duke Ellington's "I Got It Bad"; Kay Kyser's "Popocatepetl." BLUEBIRD: Glenn Miller's "Dear Arabella"; Charlie Barnet's "Blues in the Night." OKEH: Count Basie's "Something New."

Of course, all Midwest Super Band Spread Radios are equipped with the latest-type Loop Antenna which gives excellent results. However, in order to obtain the utmost out of these wonderful sets we especially recommend the use of the Midwest "Hi-Efficiency" Aerial, which greatly improves reception by cutting down man-made interference and static. I have owned three different makes of radios, but my new Midwest tops them all. Distance does not make any difference with Midwest. I can get Berlin, Rome, London, just as clear as a local station. Its tone is excellent and I assure you that my next radio will be another Midwest.

I believe that you are very conservative in your statements. My Midwest has not met any competition even when compared with other makes of radios that cost many times more. Congratulations and more power to you and to your organization for building "Tomorrow's Radio Set Today."
