LAST NIGHT on THE AIR

LADIES and Gentlemen of the radio audience of America: This is the American Announcer and Radio Log, a publication we believe will do much to bring the various fine broadcasting stations nearer to the hearts and homes of the listener.

Radio fans of America, pardon our interest, but did you tune in last night, in any part of the country? If you did, then no matter to what station you were listening, with the exception of a very few, you were bound to listen to voices of men or women whose portraits appear on the following pages—to the voices of the American Announcers. Every radio enthusiast has wondered now and then just what his or her favorite announcer looks like; how tall he might be etc; what experiences he has had in life that prepared him for that most human profession—announcing. The compiler of this publication was no different than the average radio fan, and partaking of this pardonable curiosity, went about to supply that information. It may not be amiss to state, that only those announcers' photographs are shown in this publication, whose manner of introducing their various programs and entertainers measures up to the standard of the average American's idea of an American Announcer. Announcing is an art and only men and women of education, refinement and distinctive characteristics will be able to hold the attention of the critical American public. A true announcer is a man or woman who knows that in order to please his unseen audience, he must have absolute control of his voice; his introductions must be brief and to the point and his manner such as to put an artist about to entertain at perfect ease. Every one of the announcers presented herewith is a man or woman of that type.

Before signing off, the Publisher wishes to remark that only because of the kind co-operation and helpfulness of the studio directors and publicity men of the various stations was it possible to present this volume in its completeness and hopes with them that the American people may enjoy the result of these efforts.

James
Yancey
LeGette
JAMES YANCEY LEGETTE, First Lieutenant, 5th Field Artillery, was born in Latta, S. C., in 1895. He graduated from A. B. Wofford College in 1915. In 1917 entered the U. S. Army as a Private, serving with the Three hundred-eighteenth Field Artillery, Eighty-first Division, Camp Jackson, S. Carolina. Served in all grades up to First Lieutenant and was stationed at Fort Sill, Okla., Fort Ethan Allen, Vt., Camp Taylor, Ky., Governors Island, N. Y., Camp Knox, Ky. and Camp Stotsenburg, Philippine Islands. Has been in charge of Radio Station "AT9" Fort Bragg since March 1924.

KDKA, Pittsburgh, Pa.
Westinghouse Electric and
Manufacturing Company
309 Meters—10000 Watts

George S.
Ryan GEORGE S. RYAN, announcer of the Pioneer Station "KDKA", was born in Worcester, Mass., in 1898 and educated at the Worcester Polytechnic Institute. G. S. R. is a regular two-job man. During daylight hours he works as high-pressure efficiency expert in the production of large Westinghouse motors. When these stop humming for the day, he is ready to take his turn at the microphone. For two years he has been heard by listeners in many climes and sections of the world. Announcing, says Mr. Ryan, is a wonderful antidote for weariness, even better than musical comedy.

*Phrasing of Greeting:
"Good Evening, Friends"*

*Height—5 feet 9 inches; Weight—160 pounds
Color of Eyes—Light Blue; Hair—Brown*

KDKA

KDKA, Pittsburgh, Pa.
Westinghouse Electric and
Manufacturing Company
309 Meters—10000 Watts

Louis L. Kaufman is a rising young announcer, now using "KDKA" radio waves as a medium of disseminating his opinion regarding artists and speakers who appear at "KDKA", World's Pioneer Station. Mr. Kaufman had ample opportunity to develop his vocal powers before he went in on microphone life as he served four years a cheer leader at Pennsylvania State College. He was also director of the annual college dramatic tour and so had early in life to develop the tact that is necessary in conducting his temperamental folk. Mr. Kaufman has announced some of the outstanding broadcasts of the year and officiated during a series of North Pole broadcasts wherein "KDKA" was transmitting to missionaries, hunters, trappers, members of the Royal Mounted Police and others living beyond the Arctic Circle. L. K. was born in Pittsburgh in 1900.

Phrasing of Greeting:
"Good Evening, Friends"

*Height—5 feet 7 1-2 inches; Weight—120 pounds
Color of Eyes—Brown; Hair—Brown Black*

KDKA

KFAB, Lincoln, Nebr.
Nebraska Buick Auto Co.
340.7 Meters—1000 Watts

Gayle
Grubb

GAYLE GRUBB (Gloomy Gus), is a lovable fellow; quiet, unassuming, yet wonderfully capable. The nickname "Gloomy Gus" was given him by some amateur operator at New Orleans, which sobriquet has stuck to him and by which he is now known to many of his listeners. He was born in Creston, Ia. in 1896 and is a graduate of Nebraska University. Has been an orchestra conductor for seven years and played vaudeville throughout the United States and Canada. Has also played before English royalty and entertained Europeans during two trips over there.

Phrasing of Greeting:
"Hello Everybody,"

Height—5 feet 11 inches; Weight—150 pounds
Color of Eyes—Blue; Hair—Brown

KFJF, Oklahoma City, Okla.
National Radio Company
261 Meters—500 Watts

Robert C. Graham

ROBERT C. GRAHAM "Sergeant Bob" was born in Owensboro, Ky., in 1891. Received his education at Staunton, Va. and University of Virginia. Became a reporter and editor, sports and political writer. Jumped into theatrical publicity work and even braved fate by playing in stock. Served with the Marines during the war, enlisting in Buffalo, N. Y. After his discharge, went to Oklahoma and directed publicity in state political campaigns. Was with Southwestern Bell Telephone Company as Advertising Manager. Discovered he had "announcing voice" and was drafted into present work by American Legion.

Phrasing of Greeting:
"Howdy, Buddies, and Greetings to other friends of the Radio Audience."

*Height—5 feet 10½ inches; Weight—155 pounds
Color of Eyes—Blue; Hair—Dark Brown*

KFMX, Northfield, Minn.
Carleton College
337 Meters—500 Watts

Stuart
McKlveen
Hunter STUART MCKLVEEN HUNTER is, according to his own statement, only a beginner in the profession of radio announcing, this being his first year. A fine beginning, however, since he announces nothing but the best in music and addresses or popular lectures from Carleton College. He was born in Griswold, Iowa in 1883. Received his B. A. degree at Bellevue College in 1905 and the M. A. degree in 1908 at Princeton University.

Phrasing of Greeting: "This is the opening announcement of the broadcast from KFMX, the Carleton College Station, at Northfield, Minn.—S. M. H. announcing."

Height—5 feet 8 inches; Weight—150 pounds
Color of Eyes—Brown; Hair—Brown

KFNF, Shenandoah, Iowa
Henry Field Seed Co.
263 Meters—500 Watts

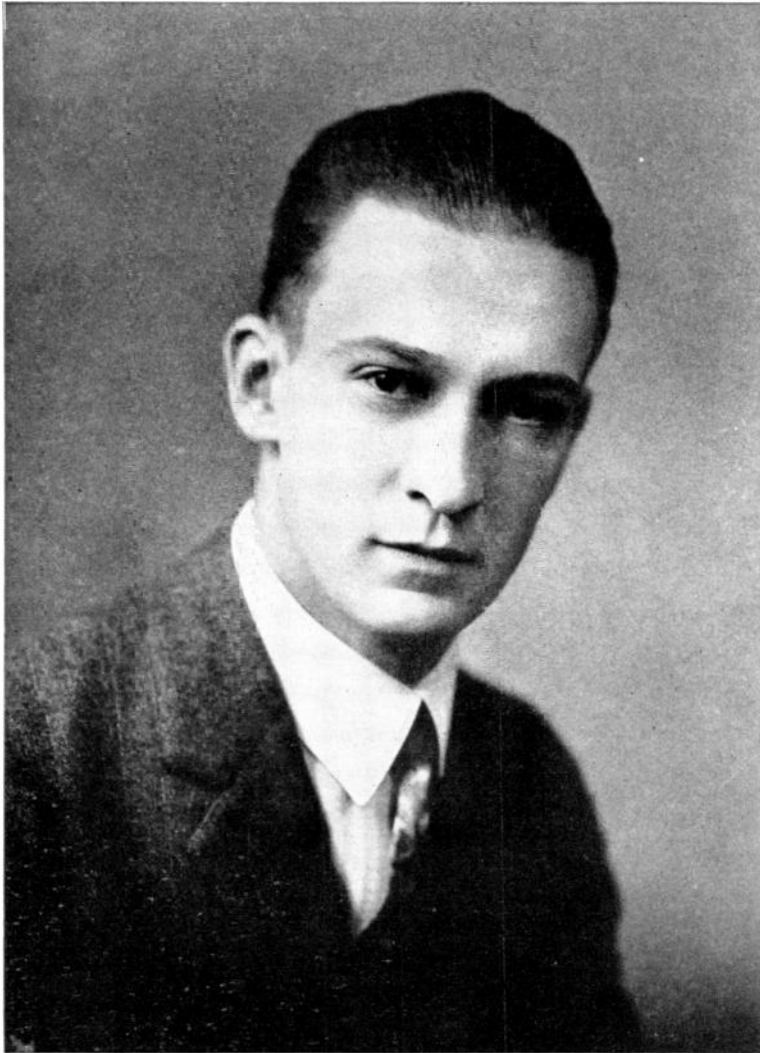

Henry Field
HENRY FIELD's life reads like a story. Born near Shenandoah. Educated in public schools there and old Western Normal College. Gained most of life's experience in the college of hard knocks. Raised as a market gardner. Rode a market wagon for 20 years. Grew into a seed and nursery business, now the largest of its kind in the world. Married. Father of eleven children, all living. Long and lean, reasonably pleasant when not peeved. A strong believer in hard work, clean living and brotherly love. The policy of KFNF is built around Gospel Hymns and Fiddling.

Phrasing of Greeting:
"Henry himself speaking"

Height—5 feet 11 inches; Weight—150 pounds
Color of Eyes—Brown; Hair—Brown

KFNF

KFOA, Seattle, Washington
Rhodes Company
454.3 Meters—1000 Watts

Wilfred K. Bert was born in San Francisco in 1897 and completed his education at the University of Washington. He comes from an old theatrical family but he himself appears on the stage only as an announcer. However, he is one of the pioneers in the radio field. During the war he enlisted in U. S. Signal Corps and served in France as chief radio instructor. He arranges and announces all programs for the Seattle Times. He is an automatic-telephone expert and inventor of various radio remote control devices. Chess, tennis and swimming are his hobbies.

Phrasing of Greeting:

"We will read a few late news bulletins from the private wires of the Times."

*Height—6 feet; Weight—167 pounds
Color of Eyes—Brown; Hair—Black*

KFQP, Iowa City, Ia.
George S. Carson, Jr.
224 Meters

GEORGE S. CARSON was born in 1907 in Iowa City and is therefore the youngest owner-announcer in the country. He is at present attending the State University of Iowa. He became interested in radio at the age of seven and since then has passed through all the stages from crystal sets and spark coil up to a "super-het" and a low power broadcasting station which he installed in June 1924. In time to come he will no doubt give vent to his continual cravings for bigger things in radio.

*George S.
Carson, Jr.*

Phrasing of Greeting:
"This is radio station KFQP at Iowa City, Iowa."

*Height—6 feet; Weight—190 pounds
Color of Eyes—Brown; Hair—Dark Brown*

Tom
Catton

TOM CATTON was born in New Haven, Conn. in 1896. 1907 found him in California where he completed his schooling, in Berkeley. After entering the Insurance field in 1916 and the Bond business sometime after, he opened the first high class radio store in San Francisco. Six months later, installed the 50 Watt station KFRC. At once, Tom Catton's individuality impressed itself upon his listeners-in. He started the fun organization, known as the "Cuckoo Club" he being the "Chief Cuckoo". Sold Station KFRC to a large department store, then organized "Radio Entertainments, Inc." Erected the 500 Watt station KFWI which after a few weeks infancy enjoys the greatest popularity on the Pacific Coast.

Phrasing of Greeting:
Varies his Greetings.

KFWO, Avalon, S. Catalina Is.
Lawrence Mott
211.1 Meters—250 Watts

Major Lawrence Mott
LAWRENCE MOTT, Major in the U. S. Signal Corps was born in New York City in 1881 and has seen every part of the globe. He was educated in private schools and belongs to Harvard's graduating class (1905). He is an author of note and a many-sided gentleman. His hobbies are radio, big game shooting, and fishing. During the war, served Intelligence Bureau in Japan and all over Far East. Was decorated by Japanese, French and Serbian governments. Station KFWO is privately owned by him and used in extensive research work for the signal corps.

Phrasing of Greeting:
"Hello, dear Everybody"

HOWARD I. MILHOLLAND, born in Roodhouse, Illinois in 1885, is the oldest announcer in years of service. How? Because he began when he was four years old. His daddy was a minister. One Sunday morning, standing right under the pulpit, Howard announced to the giggling congregation that he had on a new pair of pants. H. M. went thru Easton Illinois State Normal School and then went west. He stopped at Denver, engaged in the photographic supply business and got married. Having a rather unusually fine voice he soon found himself engaged as a choir singer and entertainer and impersonator for clubs.

Richard V. Haller RICHARD V. HALLER comes from the Buckeye state where he was born in Wooster, 1894. He studied at the University of Michigan, Wooster College, and also O. S. U. & U. of Paris, France. After college days he went into the army. He served in the signal corps of the 32nd Division during the World War. Returning to the United States, he spent a year in newspaper reporting in New York. He then accepted a position as a reporter in Portland, Oregon, which trade he plied for two years, after which he drifted into radio where he really belongs.

Phrasing of Greeting: "Hello, radio friends. This is the 'Keep Growing Wiser Order of Hoot Owls' on the Home Roost, at the Oregonian at Portland, Oregon."

*Height—5 feet 10 inches; Weight—170 pounds

EDWARD JAMES LUDS is the youngest, yet the tallest of all announcers in the country, broadcasting from the smallest station on the Pacific. But he is made of the right material.

Edward
James
Ludes

While a fire was raging beneath his studio and a few minutes after the fire department arrived E. J. L. was broadcasting a musical program as per schedule, and became San Francisco's "Hero Announcer" over night. He hails from Kansas and received his schooling in New Mexico, Texas and California. Was associated with moving pictures and has been on the stage. Has also sailed on the Pacific.

Phrasing of Greeting:
"Good afternoon Everybody. Station K-JBS"

Height—6 feet 4 inches; Weight—160 pounds

KJR, Seattle, Washington
Northwest Radio Company
384 Meters—1000 Watts

Ross W. SWIFT comes from the middle west, having been born in Charlotte, Mich. in 1903. Since finishing his education in Illinois he has continuously worked in the radio field in some capacity and is thoroughly familiar with all its branches. He has announced at three different stations in Seattle. At KJR he seems to have found a microphonic stand that just suits his six feet, two inches—but as he says: "It's hard on the little fellows."

Ross W.
Swift

Phrasing of Greeting:
"Seattle, Washington, KJR, R. W. S. announcing."

*Height—6 feet 2 inches; Weight—155 pounds

George Junkin

GEORGE JUNKIN of KMOX has no superior in the field of entertaining. As actor, dramatic organizer, producer, and traveler, he gained experience that seldom comes to any one individual. Born in Philadelphia in 1891 he attended private schools and graduated from Penn State College, where he specialized in agricultural courses and prominently interested himself in all college dramatic activities. Engaged in agricultural pursuits and promoted many county fairs. Played in pictures opposite such stars as Madge Kennedy, Peggy Hyland, Shirley Mason and others. Served as ensign in the Naval Reserve Corps during the war. Mr. Junkin is a member of the Society of Mayflower Descendants and belongs to practically every patriotic American organization.

Phrasing of Greeting:

Carlton
"Dad"
King

CARLTON "Dad" KING, was born in 1880 in the middle west, St. Louis, Mo. Received his education in the east, New York and Chicago, and is enjoying himself now by entertaining radio fans at the Pacific coast. It was during the war, while head of the Navy Club, that he received his nickname "Dad" from the boys. For many years while in the east, he was deeply interested in Masonic activities and played many important parts in furthering its work. Since he has been in Hollywood he has had his own producing company making motion pictures. All this preparatory work seems to have fitted him for that most human occupation, Radio Announcing.

Phrasing of Greeting:
"It is now just——o'clock.
This is Radio KMTR, Hollywood, Ca!"

Richard Beghtol, Denver

KOA, Denver, Colorado
General Electric Company
322.4 Meters—5000 Watts

Ralph Freese was born in Norwich, Kansas and spent his vacations working on a wheat farm and around his father's flour mill. Completing his high school education, he engaged in newspaper work and attended the Cincinnati Conservatory of Music and the University of Cincinnati. After school hours he engaged in social settlement work. Home life is what most appeals to R. F. and there he enjoys his other hobby, the study of American History, both North and South. KOA's radio audience takes an unusual interest in him and has endeavored to figure him out, but contrary to their theories, he is a lyric tenor and not a basso, medium build and average height instead of "tall and thin."

*Phrasing of Greeting:

Richard Beghtol, Denver

G. RALPH CROWDER, born in Birmingham, Ala., has his own ideas regarding "Intelligent, colorful announcing," which he says is impossible after a long trying day, unless one seeks diversion of some kind before facing the microphone. Fresh air, a brisk walk and in his own particular case "cross word puzzles" are wonderful recuperating agencies. The characteristic "sympathetic voice" which marks all announcing from KOA has won a host of friends for Crowder. Behind G. R. C.'s voice is a decided love of human nature, gained most likely during the manifold activities of his past life which range from Oklahoma oil fields to the study of the pipe organ; and more recently from studying medicine to doctoring run-down automobiles. He is an accomplished musician.

Freeman H. Talbot FREEMAN H. TALBOT, born in London, Ontario, is a profound philosopher, for he reasons that radio is greatly stimulating a universal understanding and sympathy in religion, political economy, language, morals and arts. He has a great sense of humor which expresses itself constantly in his daily activities. He is fond of automobile driving and is a lover of the great outdoors. He is an absolute believer in the incurable goodness of man and believes that all humans should dwell in peace and unity and that unselfishness pays the greatest dividends. He is president of the Musicians Society of Denver, an organization which seeks to foster better music and standardize the profession.

Phrasing of Greeting:

Wallace L. Kadderly
WALLACE L. KADDERLY, born in Portland, Oregon, was graduated from Oregon Agricultural College, 1916, and entered the employ of its extension service. He is now in charge of a department of information and exhibits within that service. Knowledge of the state, experience in journalism and long association with the college faculty aid him as program director. At college he was on the varsity track team and has closely followed all intercollegiate sports, which stands him in good stead in describing, through the microphone campus athletic contests that are a part of KOAC's broadcasting.

Phrasing of Greeting

G. C. Arnoux
G. C. ARNOUX, director and announcer for KTHS, the new Arlington Hotel station at Hot Springs National Park, is familiarly known to radio-land as "GCA," and has had a career brim full of interesting experiences. As college man, coal miner, civil engineer's handy-man, cowboy, sailor and newspaper man, he has discerned the psychology of people which stands him in good stead at the "Mike." Born in New York City he early became an adopted son of the Lone Star state, residing in Fort Worth for twelve years until he came to Arkansas a year ago last December to install and direct the New Arlington broadcaster. In his four years' broadcasting work he has served as program director, radio editor and announcer.

Phrasing of Greeting:

EDWIN A. HARPER was born in Chicago in 1902. He is one of the youngest well known announcers in the country and is known to thousands of radio fans as the "World Crier." He was the gentleman whom you heard give the thrilling account of the verdict of the Loeb-Leopold trial and the terrible experiences of Floyd Collins buried alive in Mammoth cave. Edwin Harper is the man who gives the latest news every half hour during the day. A year ago he took charge of the Sunday afternoon program, which today is known as the "Hour of Music" the most popular program broadcast from KYW.

W. Gordon Swan was born in Dorchester, Mass. in the year 1904. He attended Boston English High School. Was associated with station WGI about four years ago and after this station's discontinuance went with WBZ. For over a year and a half radio fans have had the pleasure of listening to him almost every night, announcing the many fine programs coming from this well known station at the Hotel Brunswick, Boston, Mass. He also acts in the capacity of Director.

Phrasing of Greeting: "Good Evening, Ladies and Gentlemen.

John D. Kuhns was born in the city of Dayton, Ohio in the year 1899. After his earlier training he entered Wittenberg College, Springfield, Ohio. He has also been a student at Massachusetts Institute of Technology. Due to a chance meeting with the Director of WBZ while on his way to Boston to continue his studies at the Massachusetts Institute, he landed in the announcing profession. In the radio field he has made many friends, especially as football announcer for the Harvard games.

Phrasing of Greeting:

Theodore J. Hahn is one of the most fortunate men among announcers in that he was able to practically follow his own inclinations in obtaining an education at such places as Concordia College, Ft. Wayne; Baltimore City College; University of Pennsylvania (O.M.S.) and University of Maryland where he studied law. Theodore J. Hahn is a minister's son and was born in Sturgis, Michigan in 1897. During the war he served in the navy for two years and resigned as an Ensign. He practised law until the Bell system called, and while with the Chesapeake and Potomac in Washington, D. C., conceived the idea that announcing was what he really could do better than anything else. Since December 1924 he has very successfully put this idea over at WCAP.

Phrasing of Greeting:

"Here we are again at the studio, ready to present Washington, WCAP."

PAUL JOHNSON only a few years ago was working in a large department store in Minneapolis. When this store installed a radio station he was selected to act as announcer. His Swedish dialect stories about "Sven and Ole" were the delight of his audience. Johnson's "golden" voice soon attracted wider attention and now we find him announcing for the old Twin station WLAG, afterwards the Gold Medal Station WCCO. While attending the University of Minnesota last winter an amusing incident happened. Johnson enrolled in a public speaking class. The first day Johnson did any reading, the instructor who did not know him, made several criticisms and suggested that it would be of great help to him (Johnson) if he would listen to the announcer at the Gold Medal station.

ARCHIE W. LEGRO makes the startling announcement that he began life as a baby in Lynn, Mass. in 1891, and made but little progress. He is the champion pessimist, for he doesn't expect much to come to him through radio. That's where we differ, however we believe only half he says, for a man that has advanced from Newsboy to Civil Engineer, Construction Superintendent, Landscape Architect and many other things is surely getting somewhere. And with an education like his, gained at Fordham University Law school and Boston University, he is better equipped than many a man.

GEORGE D. HAY, known the country over as "The Solemn Old Judge" was born in Attica, Indiana in 1895. Before his debut as a radio announcer he was a newspaper reporter and feature writer on the Memphis Commercial Appeal. He has the right ideas regarding broadcasting when he says: "It isn't so much what the announcer says into the 'mike' as what he doesn't say that counts for popularity." His favorite slogan: "Broadcast personality plus a smile, if you would win your way into the hearts of your radio audience," helped him win the first annual radio cup award as the most popular announcer at Radio World's Fair in Madison Square Garden, New York City in 1924.

R. O'FARRILL HERNANDEZ of Havana, Cuba has a twofold duty to perform. His countrymen expect him to address them in their native tongue while we "Anglo-Saxons" demand he speak "United States," both of which he does without the slightest hesitation. R. O. H. was born in Havana, Cuba in 1892 and educated there, as well as in the United States. A unique feature of his station is the alarm clock enclosed with a "mike" in a specially designed felt-lined box and put on the air between numbers, so that DX listeners can always keep in tune with the station.
