In the opinion of the editors, this week the following records are the SINGLE PICKS OF THE WEEK

"Why Should I Cry" (Knox, BMI) ask the Gentrys. After all this re-release will score in the rock revival sweepstakes. This one will bring back memories and sell records (Sun 1108).

The Illusion, that hard rock Jeff Barry produced group from Long Island, sound really "Together" (Broadside/New Beat/Five Illusion, BMI) on this change of pace smash (Steed 722).

"She's Ready" (Algee, BMI) for the Spiral Staircase—are you? The great "I Love You More Today Than Yesterday" group will have another hit with this one (Columbia 45-48).

Arlo Guthrie is selling albums all over the place. "Alice's Rock and Roll Restaurant" (Appleseed, ASCAP) is a commercial gem which will be his first Top 40 smash (Reprise 0877).

SLEEPER PICKS OF THE WEEK

The Buchanan Brothers who first made noise with "Medicine Man," will have a real smash with their version of the Jagger-Richard classic "The Last Time" (Immediate, BMI) (Event 3307).

The off-recorded "She Let Her Hair Down (Early In the Morning)" (Moonbeam, ASCAP) gets a fine vocal treatment from Don Young here. Could and should make it (Bang 574)!

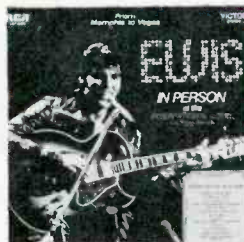

Roger Karshner produced this beautiful, driving swinger by a new artist named Dana Pearson. It's called "God Grows His Own" (Jaldi Karo, BMI) and is one of the best (Capitol 2687)!

Larry Santos successfully crosses "The Great Divide" (Michlan Five Line, BMI) in this moving message song. It will be his first big hit as an artist (Evolution 1018).

ALBUM PICKS OF THE WEEK

Elvis Presley, bigger than ever, has one of his biggest albums ever in the two-record "From Memphis to Vegas/From Vegas to Memphis" (RCA Victor LSP 6020).

The Rolling Stones, touring and tearing up America with their raunchy rock, have a nitty gritty new album platter called "Let It Bleed" (London NPS 4).

The Archies, Don Kirshner's record phenomenon, sing happy on an album named after their clicking, corking good new single, "Jingle Jangle" (Kirshner KES 105).

King Crimson, a traffic-stopper, introduces himself with some tonsil-scorching new songs on "In the Court of the Crimson King" (Atlantic SD 8245).

RCA Launches Hefty Pre-Christmas Drive

RCA Records has launched one of the largest late fall and pre-Christmas advertising and sales promotion campaigns in its history.

Two aspects of the extensive plans — a multi-media Christmas drive saturating 104 major markets, and the largest Stereo 8 push ever — were announced this week by Bill Lucas, Manager, Advertising and Sales Promotion.

The Christmas program, which will highlight best selling RCA albums and Stereo 8 cartridge tapes, will have the theme, "This Christmas Let Your Gifts Be Heard."

The newspaper campaign will include full-page ads placed in newspapers in 104 of the nation's most important recorded entertainment markets. This ad will illustrate over 70 best selling RCA albums and Stereo 8 cartridge tapes. In addition, distributors have been provided with ad mats for additional exposure at the local level in these and other markets throughout the nation.

Also, RCA has scheduled an extensive radio advertising campaign to run up to Christmas. "Since radio advertising has shown a marked influence

Sales of First Janus LPs Hit Half Million

NEW YORK — Marvin Schlachter, President of Janus Records, has announced that initial distributor orders for the new label's six debut LPs will amount to half a million dollars.

Albums by the Flying Machine, Jefferson, Johnny Winter, Canned Heat, Blonde on Blonde and Mike Cooper met with immediate approval at Janus sales meetings in New York and Los Angeles last week.

Topping the sales charts is the Flying Machine LP which includes the Top 10 hit, "Smile a Little Smile for Me," and the follow-up, "Baby Make It Soon." A film of the group performing "Smile a Little Smile" is being distributed to TV stations across the country.

Other strong selling albums include "About Blues" by Johnny Winter, "Vintage" by Canned Heat and "Jefferson" by British vocalist Jefferson, recently on the charts with

Levy Exits Paramount

HOLLYWOOD — Jack Levy, Advertising Vice President of Paramount Records for the past two years, has resigned his post due to a creative conflict.

Levy is mulling offers and expects to announce his plans shortly.

Also leaving the Paramount advertising staff are Chris Whorf and Mary Ann Rowin.

Whorf will open his own graphics firm, Assault, here.

"The Colour of My Love" and currently represented with a new Janus single, "Baby Take Me In Your Arms."

Blonde on Blonde is gaining airplay with tracks from their "Contrasts" LP, especially "I Need My Friend." The British rock quartet is being promoted

Decca Distributes MTA Label

NEW YORK — Jack Loetz, Executive VP of Decca Records, has announced that Decca will manufacture and market product for the MTA Records label. This new venture was negotiated by Loetz and Bob Thompson, President of MTA Records.

Loetz said: "MTA is a young company which has established a creative base and has a proven track record in the development of new recording talent with best-selling potential. Together with Decca Records and its revitalized and modernized marketing techniques, oriented to today's needs, the combination of Decca and MTA will successfully create consumer demand."

The first release by MTA via the new Decca distribution set-up will be a single by Arthur Godfrey, "You Can't Put the Leaves Back on the Trees," written by Johnny Hartford and Jim Glaser.

MTA Records was formed by Bob Thompson four years ago, and has a catalog of some seventeen albums currently available by a diversity of artists.

Mike Curb Named MGM President

Expected to Announce TIC Distrib Set-up

LOS ANGELES — Ending weeks of speculation, James T. Aubrey, President and Chief Executive Officer of MGM, last week announced the election of Mike Curb to the position of President of MGM Records, Vice President of MGM, Inc., and President of Robbins, Feist and Miller.

In order to accept the post, Curb has resigned his job as President of Transcontinental

Entertainment Corp., the leisure time division of Transcontinental Investing Corp.

New Distrib Set-up

Assuming his new role, Curb said, "Next week I expect to announce a revolutionary new distribution set-up in association with Robert K. Lifton, President of Transcontinental Investing Corp., and Gordon

Transcontinental Sets Exec Line-up Changes

Robert Lifton Howard Weingrow Arnold Greenhut Sol Blaine

NEW YORK — In a program aimed at strengthening Transcontinental Investing Corporation's operations, as well as broadening its corporate structure for further expansion of its two main operations, entertainment and finance, a number of executive changes have been made by the company's board of directors.

Robert K. Lifton, who has been President since the corporation's formation, has been elected Chairman of the Board and will remain chief executive officer. Howard Weingrow, Executive Vice President, has been named President.

Joining the company to fill the Executive Vice President's position vacated by Weingrow is Arnold Greenhut. Greenhut will also be Group Vice President in charge of the company's entertainment and leisure time operations, which include the merchandising, distributing and production of phonograph records, tapes and accessories as well as the producing and publishing of music, and the management of concerts and talent.

Elected Senior Vice President of Transcontinental is Sol Blaine. Blaine will continue as President of North American Acceptance Corporation, a wholly-owned subsidiary, and will also be Group Vice President of the corporation's financial services, which includes the company's interests in commercial banking.

Blood, Sweat, Tears Very Together: Col

Columbia Records has denied the rumors that Blood, Sweat and Tears have split up, and points to their successful record of concerts in recent months. Adding that they are gathering and rehearsing material for their next LP.

Epic Sales Set Record

Epic Records' gross sales for the first nine months of 1969 have far exceeded those for the entire year 1968, which up until this year, had had the best sales.

Announcement was made by Mort Hoffman, VP, Sales and Distribution, Epic and Custom Labels, who commented: "While I'm extremely pleased with the progress and growth of the label over the past year, it has only served to prove that the future holds promise for even greater growth. By concentrating on the development of new talent while retaining a consistent merchandising and promotional emphasis on existing talent, we are building a bigger and better label and strengthening our currently strong artist roster. The Epic staff and field organization, while currently successful, is by no means complacent and is looking forward to a year with even more phenomenal growth,"

Donovan continued to gain even greater acceptance during the first nine months in 1969. His "Donovan's Greatest Hits" LP achieved in excess of two million dollars in sales and was awarded a gold record. He also has several chart singles, including "Atlantis" and "Barabajagal," and his "Barabajagal" LP holds a key chart position. Donovan also made a successful tour of the United States.

Sellout concert appearances, phenomenal record sales and Armond to UA As Nat'l Promo Dir.

NEW YORK—Gene Armond last week joined United Artists Records as National Promotion Director.

Armond brings to the post a background of experience in all phases of product promotion. During nearly 12 years at Kapp Records he was instrumental in the breaking of a multitude of records and the development of numerous artists including Jack Jones, Roger Williams, Jane Morgan, the Chad Mitchell Trio, Ruby and the Romantics, the Critics and many others.

Parkhill Named RCA Manager, Artists Relations, on Coast

George Parkhill has been appointed Manager, Artists Relations, West Coast, by RCA Records.

Announcement was made by Harry Jenkins, Division Vice President, Record Operations, to whom Parkhill will report. The appointment is effective immediately.

"We are extremely pleased that Mr. Parkhill will serve in this important position after a brief leave of absence. His knowledge of the record industry and of the artists on our roster will make it possible for him to give us invaluable service on the West Coast," Jenkins said.

"In this new position, Mr. Parkhill will work closely with Joe Reisman, Manager and

He joined RCA Records in 1950 in field sales, and thereafter served in the promotion department until 1957 when he was appointed Manager, Field Sales—Record Albums. In 1958, he was appointed Manager, Advertising and Promotion, Popular Records, and in 1965 became Manager, Advertising.

Bennett Goes East

Tony Bennett returns to the East Coast for a series of five concert engagements which begin in the Metropolitan Area on Friday, Nov. 28, at the Westchester County Center, White Plains.

Bowen Forms Id Label

Id Records, a new label structured for the release of specialized and avant garde product, has been formed, announces Jimmy Bowen, President of Amos Records and Amos Productions.

First release on Bowen's new Id label will be "After Love," an LP by the Voices of Ananda. The album is scheduled to be released this week and was produced by Jimmy Bowen in association with Tom Thacker and Russell Steagall.

Bruce Hinton, General Manager of Amos Records and the new Id label, stated the "After

Laura Nyro Selling Big

Verve/Forecast's album titled "Laura Nyro" has now sold over 73,000 nationally with heaviest sales in Cleveland, Chicago, New York, Boston, Hartford, Los Angeles and San Francisco. Such cuts as "Wedding Bell Blues," "Stoney End" and "And When I Die" are all being featured out of the album on the air.

Miss Nyro's recently released single of "Goodbye Joe" is gaining middle-of-the-road, top 40 and underground air exposure. Such major stations as WNEW-FM, New York, WABX-FM and WKNR-FM in Detroit, WBCN-FM, Boston and other progressive-rock stations in Philadelphia, Los Angeles and San Francisco are on the record.

TEC to Manufacture, Distribute, AIP Label

Transcontinental Entertainment Corp. and American International Pictures have concluded a major agreement whereby TEC will manufacture and distribute all recorded product by AIP's newly formed label.

Agreement follows several months of lengthy negotiations during which time virtually every major label in the country was bidding for the American International product. American International launched the label several weeks ago as part of an increased emphasis on music. TEC has Mike Curb as President and Bud Fraser Executive Vice-President.

Curb worked on more than 70 soundtracks while heading Sidewalk Productions, the independent production company which

'Venus' Colossus Hit at KLIF

"Venus," by Shocking Blue on Colossus Records, at press time was No. 1 request on KLIF-Dallas after one night's play.

Station Music Director Jim Tabor says this is unprecedented, except for the Beatles.

Colossus chief Jerry Ross discovered the record on a trip to Germany in one of the major discothèques there. He loved it, then discovered it was No. 1 in Holland.

Reactivation at Congress

LOS ANGELES — Congress Records, a Division of MCA, Inc., has undergone a resurgence on the West Coast under the overall guidance of Russ Regan. Congress is housed in the same building as Uni.

Firmly ensconced in these offices is Pete Garris, who was brought in by Regan as National Sales and Promotion Director. Simultaneously, Garris named industry veteran Ernie Farrell as West Coast Promotion Manager.

These heretofore unheralded changes, which have taken place during the past 90 days or so, are already bearing fruit. Congress is currently in Top 5 position with their very first release, "Smile a Little Smile For Me," by the Flying Machine, a million-seller for operation. A second disk, "It's Real," is finding favor in the

Pete Garris, Ernie Farrell

R & B market and rapidly spreading throughout pop circles. The vehicle has also been an effective springboard for the artists, Tomorrow's Men. Now shipping nationally is Duane Eddy's Congress debut, "Freight Train," produced by Jimmy Bowen.

Regan said: "Our continuing policy has been the careful selection of knowledgeable executive personnel. The time honored cliché, 'quality rather than quantity,' exemplifies the thinking at Congress."

Garris entered the industry in 1948 as an RCA promo man, a position that he held for the next eight years. In an effort to diversify, he spent the next few years as owner of a New York City retail record shop, later opening his own distributorship, Cambridge, with offices in N.Y. and Philadelphia. During that period, he formed his own label, Tag Records, which produced several important hits of the day.

In early 1961, Garris accepted a post with Scepter as National Promotion Director. Dur-

Del Medico GWP Sales, Promo Post

Joseph del Medico has left his RCA Victor Records field promotion and sales representative post to join GWP Records, effective Dec. 1, as East Coast Sales and Promotion Manager.

On 12-City Tour

Jerry Purcel, President of GWP Records, said that del Medico will immediately embark on a 12-city tour to Baltimore, Washington, Charlotte, Miami, Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Chicago, Cleveland, Detroit, Buffalo, Boston and New York to promote three GWP products: 1) the new 12-album astrology series, "The Astro-musical House of . . ."; 2) Al Hirt's new single, "I Still See Elisa"; and 3) Frankie New-some's new single, "My Lucky Day."

RCA Club Ups Fuller

The RCA Record Club has announced the appointment of Jack Fuller to Manager, Repertoire and Medley, announces J. E. Balitsos, Record Club Manager, Marketing.

Selecting Product

Fuller will be responsible for selecting all product used in the club, creating special club albums and packages and supervising all copy written for Medley, the club magazine. Fuller has been associated with the club since 1958.

Correct Steppenwolf No.

The new Steppenwolf LP on Dunhill, "Monster," a Record World Album Pick last week, was incorrectly numbered. The correct number is 500066.

April/Blackwood Chart Peak

Neil J. Anderson, VP and General Manager, and Tony Orlando, General Professional Manager, reveal that the April and Blackwood Music Companies are attaining success at a "furious pace," evidenced by the fact that the companies had no less than five chart songs last week.

Anderson and Orlando explained further that although last week is the "topper" in terms of chart activity, there has hardly been a week during the past year that April/Blackwood has not had songs on the Top 100 charts.

Has New Rush Single

Two of last week's chart entries included "I'll Hold Out My Hand" by the Clique on White Whale Records (also recorded by Garv Puckett, the Box Tops, Smith and Wind), and "Any Way That You Want Me," by Evie Sands on A & M — both songs written by Chip Taylor, April/Blackwood Associate Professional Manager and Blackwood staff writer (the former song is co-authored by Al Gorgoni). Taylor, veteran hit-writer, also has the new Merrilee Rush single, "Angel On My Shoulder," a follow-up to their big success of "Angel of the Morning." The other three songs on the Top 100 are "Sunday Mornin'," the new Oliver single by Margo Guryan — a new production of the former Spanky and Our Gang hit; "Jingo," by the new Columbia group Santana, written by Michael Olatunji; and "Ballad of Easy Rider" by Roger McGuinn and recorded by the Byrds, from the picture of the same name.

Heavy chart action in the R & B markets is reported for the new Sam and Dave single, "Ooh, Ooh Ooh" (on Atlantic), written by Donnie Fritts and Jon Reid; and Walter Jackson's recording of "Any Way

That You Want Me" (on Cotillion).

In other areas, Jerry Hayes, Capitol artist and Blackwood staff writer, just had his first single released, "The Magic of Your Smile," and Bobby Prince and Dan Dillon (also on Capitol) released their first single entitled "Does She Know." Prince and Dillon are produced by Jack Grady for Daylight Productions Inc., the April/Blackwood production affiliate.

In Addition . . .

In addition to its chart successes, April/Blackwood also has the new Sergio Mendes single, "Ye-Me-Le," and the new Astrud Gilberto single, "Let's Have the Morning After," by Mickey Leonard and Dorothea Joyce; the new John Davidson single, "Ye-Me-Le," and the new Evie Sands single, "Crazy Annie," both songs by Chip Taylor and Al Gorgoni.

London Has Young Hit

London Records A & R Manager, Walt Maguire, has just completed arrangements with Phil Solomon of Major Minor Records in Britain for American release of Karen Young's current British smash, "Nobody's Child."

Mathis on 'Midnight'

United Artists Music Group, co-publisher of the "Midnight Cowboy" theme, has released the lyric version of the John Barry hit, says Murray Deutch, Exec VP and General Manager of the Publishing complex. Johnny Mathis is the vocalist of this new Columbia release, with lyrics by Jack Gold.

—Bell, Singer Bell-Ringers

NEW YORK—Simon Napier-Bell and Ray Singer make up what one impartial commentator called "the best English production team there is."

Napier-Bell is best known for his production and management of the Yardbirds who pioneered British blues and spawned such groups as the Cream, Fleetwood Mac, Jeff Beck, Led Zeppelin and Renaissance. Singer produced the English smash, "Where Do You Go To My Lovely?," by Peter Sarstedt which was released by World Pacific label here.

Ray Singer, Simon Napier-Bell, Billy Barberis of Dunbar Music, Record World's Dan Goldberg.

They have two current projects both of which have attracted attention and which they are quite enthusiastic about. One of them is the Forever More, an RCA group whose current single is called "Back In the States Again." Their newest group is called Fresh and they are in the hard rock vein.

Napier-Bell and Singer, both English, are, it seems, making a heavy impact on this country's music. If the past is any guide — it will be a positive one.

JUDY GARLAND
THE GOLDEN YEARS AT MGM

SDPI-2.

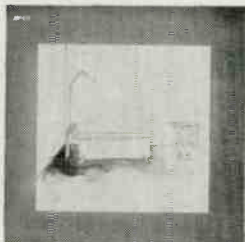

A fitting tribute to a great star. Tracks from most of the films the beloved Judy made while at MGM, when the dream factory was in its fanciest period. A booklet of stills from every Garland picture is included and is definitely a four-handkerchief affair.

ZEPHYR

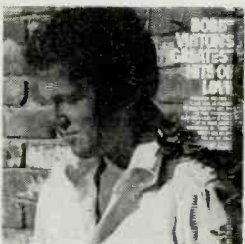

Probe CPLP 4510.

New group is already making a name for themselves. Lead vocalist Candy Givens has listened closely to her Janis Joplin and gets some of that intensity into the grooves. The group is raunchy and talented and promising.

BOBBY VINTON'S GREATEST HITS OF LOVE
Epic BN 26517.

"I Love How You Love Me," "Please Love Me Forever," "To Know You is to Love You," "Halfway to Paradise," "Take Good Care of My Baby," "Just as Much as Ever," "Sentimental Me," "Wanted," "When I Fall in Love," "For All We Know," "The Days of Sand and Shovels."

HELLO, COUSIN

CHILL WILLS—Metromedia MD 1017.

After all these years, vet character actor Chill Wills has been coaxed into the recording studio for some singing-talking sides. Could pick up the recording baton Everett Dirksen put down. "Mama," "Brazos Quick Sand," "Vision at the Peace Table."

MAYBE THE RAIN WILL FALL

THE CASCADES—Uni 73069.

Fellows should be able to turn the single of "Maybe the Rain Will Fall" into an album click, because they've incorporated the ditty into a likeable album full of pretty songs they've written themselves, for the most part.

CAPTURED LIVE AT THE FORUM

THREE DOG NIGHT—Dunhill DS 50068.

The title tells the tale. The excitement and relevance and vitality that the Three Dog Night stand for is captured in this live performance. As usual their back-up group provides tight setting for "Easy to Be Hard," "Eli's Coming" and the rest.

SECOND WINTER

JOHNNY WINTER—Columbia KCS 9947.

Johnny Winters' second album for Columbia is a strikingly packaged two-record set. Johnny, brother Edgar Uncle John Turner and Tommy Shannon play their hearts and souls out on some original and some old stuff. Specially priced.

THE BEST OF JACK JONES

Kapp KXS 5009.

Jack Jones' fans who want to have all their best Jones in one set will do nicely with this two-record collection. "Lollipops and Roses," "Wives and Lovers," "The Impossible Dream," "Lady" and the rest. Some fine crooning of the day.

SUITE FEELING

LIGHTHOUSE—RCA Victor LSP 4241.

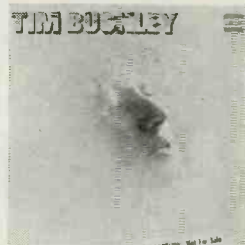

The feeling pervades this album that the 14-16 members are living a life dictated by the togetherness of their music. All tunes, with the exception of "A Day in the Life" and "Chest Fever," were written by members Skip Prokop and Paul Hoffert.

BLUE AFTERNOON

TIM BUCKLEY—Straight STS 1060.

Tim is having a happy and occasionally sad time in his mind and unfurls his flags of happiness and unties his knots of sadness on this introspective album. "Blue Melody," the title tune, is one of his prettiest compositions to date.

ERIC ANDERSON

Warner Bros.—Seven Arts 1806.

Always an interesting thinker, Andersen has had some extremely interesting thoughts recently that he has transformed into intriguing, funky songs. The album was cut in Nashville with those together musicians and singers.

CACTUS FLOWER

SOUNDTRACK—Bell 1201.

Quincy Jones wrote a few themes and some other Screen Gems-Columbia tunes were used to bring this film to flower. "To Sir With Love," "I'm a Believer," "She Hangs Out," "I Wonder What's She's Doin' Tonight." Sarah Vaughan sings the title song.

JAKE HOLMES

Polydor 24-4007.

More songs from the continuing inner journey of Jake Holmes. He cut this album, under Elliot Mazer's guidance, in Nashville. Buyers will have a hard time deciding which of the 11 songs is their favorite. "How Are You" could be a single.

LIFE GOES ON

PAUL ANKA—RCA Victor LSP 4250.

Paul Anka got together with Wes Farrell to cut the nine merry, pretty, thoughtful ditties on this album. It's a romantic package and most of the winning material is new. Includes "Life Goes On," "Eleanor Rigby."

BROTHERHOOD

THE HARVEY AVERNE BAND—
Fania SLP 379.

Harvey Averne and his band raise a toast to brotherhood via tunes that spread the theme. "Stand," "People" and Averne's own "Got to Have Brotherhood." The Latin flavor will appeal to the growing Averne fan club.

THE LITTLEST ANGEL

TELEVISION SOUNDTRACK—
Mercury SRM 1-603.

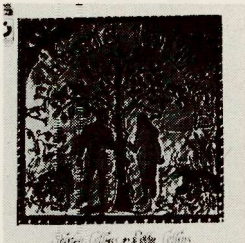

A cute new contender for perennial Christmas TV airing, "The Littlest Angel" has attractive songs by Lan O'Kun and equally attractive singing appearances by Johnnie Whitaker in the title role, Cab Calloway, Connie Stevens, Fred Gwynne, Tony Randall.

ANTHEMS IN EDEN

SHIRLEY COLLINS, DOLLY COLLINS—
Harvest SKAO 370.

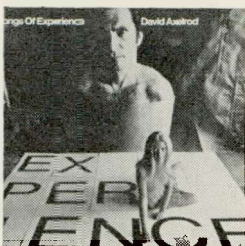

A collection of traditional English ballads woven into a musical tapestry by two sensitive ladies fair, Shirley and Dolly Collins. An orchestra containing traditional instruments has been gathered for the merrie occasion.

SONGS OF EXPERIENCE

DAVID AXELROD—Capitol SKAO 338.

A couple of months ago, David Axelrod composed a group of songs to complement William Blake's "Songs of Innocence." He matches the package with one inspired by Blake's sequel, "Songs of Experience." Moody, creative music.

SAIL ON

MUDDY WATERS—Chess 1539.

Chess has been servicing blues fans for years with the best, the most seminal blues and recently has undertaken to release some old blues. Here are important Muddy Waters sides (previously released as "The Best of Muddy Water") from '48 to '54.

SUBWAY TO THE COUNTRY

DAVID ACKLES—Elektra EKS 74060.

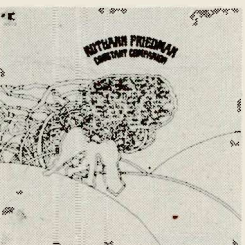

Tough folk singer Ackles (that's folk singer 1969-style) has an albumful of his uncompromising hard looks at the world. There are few pains he doesn't deal with on the package. As a come-on, Elektra has included a single of the title tune.

CONSTANT COMPANION

RUTHANN FRIEDMAN—Reprise 6363.

Ruthann is a gal who follows the tradition of Joni Mitchell, Laura Nyro, Elyse Weinberg and puts her thoughts down on acoustic guitar. Some extremely simple and moving statements on this first album. Joe Wissert, the Wizard producer, produced.

LET THE SUNSHINE IN

BUDDY GRECO—Scepter SPS 579.

The singing, swinging, winging Buddy is off to the races with this parlay of gritty ditties like "Spinning Wheel," "If You Must Leave My Life," "Yesterday When I Was Young," "From Atlanta to Goodbye." Every song is just right for his style.

JEAN

RAY CONNIFF—Columbia CS 9920.

The Conniff treatment on "Jean," "Spinning Wheel," "Aquarius," "A Time for Us," "Love Can Make You Happy," "I'll Never Fall in Love Again," "The Windmills of Your Mind," "The Power of Love," "Love Me Tonight," "A Man Without Love" and "Shadows of the Night."

BLUES MAN

LITTLE JR. PARKER—Minit LP 24024.

Blues from an expert bluesman. Little Jr. Parker calls for the good times to roll on "Let the Good Times Roll" and he gets involved with the sound of bad times on some of his blues too. Will score heavily with the fans.

AL DE LORY PLAYS "MIDNIGHT COWBOY"

Capitol ST 394.

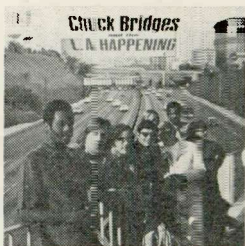

A De Lory has been known for, among other things, his warm and imaginative arrangements on Glen Campbell's list of hits. He follows up his Campbell songbook package with full and fun piano and ork treatments of currently popular motion picture themes.

CHUCK BRIDGES AND THE L. A. HAPPENINGS

Vault 132.

New group with a strong lead singer (Chuck Bridges) and many adept music-makers. They set the pace with their "L. A. Happenings" side and that kind of telling it like it is runs through the entire package. Should do well.

BOB AZZAM & THE GREAT EXPECTATION

Audio Fidelity AFSD 6228.

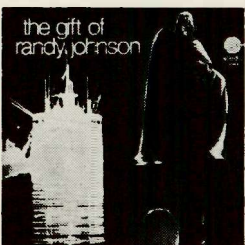

New guy from the Continent has been imported (in English) by Audio Fidelity and they might do well with him. He does a few familiars like "Mr. Dieingly Sad" and "The Last Time" and some cute new songs. Watch him take it away.

THE GIFT OF RANDY JOHNSON

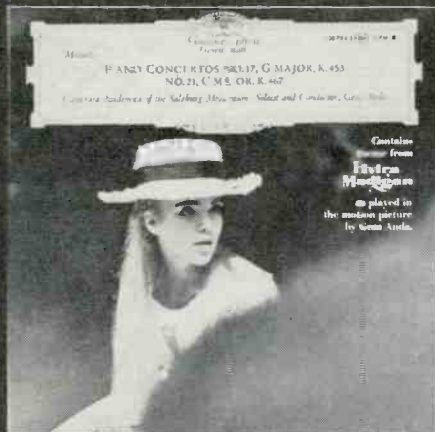

Amaret ST 5003.

A young troubador of the sort that finds favor in the eyes and ears of young buyers. Randy has written all the songs and is backed by a large rock combo and orchestra (strings, the works). "Beauty," "100 Songs in the Gutter," "Garden of Love."

Chi Heads For Europe

Columbia Records' Chicago will be embarking on a massive pre-sold 14-city tour of Europe, with a kick-off press reception on Dec. 2 at the Revolution in London.

The tour itself will include visits to seven countries, where their concert appearances for this first European visit are already sold out. Chicago will appear before over 100,000 people during the course of the 19 days. "It is a stunning achievement," states the group's manager, Larry Fitzgerald, "to have a pre-sold capacity-crowd tour in Europe for a group that has never been there."

Expect Certification

The seven-man group, which combines elements of jazz, blues, rock and symphonics is receiving heavy airplay and tremendous sales and chart reaction for their first Columbia release, a two-LP set, "Chicago Transit Authority," produced by Jim Guercio. The album is expected to be certified gold before the end of this year.

The 19-day European tour was booked by Arthur Howes and coordinated by Larry Fitzgerald and Chicago's producer, Guercio. CBS International's entire European organization proved an invaluable asset in planning the tour and will be helping during the actual visit.

Stax Names Jack Gibson National LP Promo Dir.

MEMPHIS — Herb Kole, Director of Marketing and Merchandising for Stax/Volt Records, announced the appointment of Jack Gibson as National LP Promotion Director.

Gibson, who had been the Midwest Promotion Executive for Stax/Volt Records, was previously with Decca Records as Regional Promotion Manager for three years. Prior to that he was the first National Promotion Director for Motown Records.

A pioneer radio personality, Gibson is the 1955 founder and first president of NATRA and he holds the life-time title of Founder Emeritus. He started his career as an actor in a Chicago radio series. Gibson is one of the original sixteen black djs in America, starting in 1945 at WERD in Atlanta, Ga., one of the first all black owned and operated radio stations.

Gibson will report directly to Kole in co-ordinating promotions with radio stations and sales promotions with distributors and retailers.

Cork Named RCA Coast Producer

RCA Records has appointed Ray Cork as Producer, Popular A and R, West Coast, announces Ernest Altschuler, RCA Records, Division VP and Executive Producer, Popular A & R.

Cork will report to Joseph Reisman, Manager and Executive Producer, Popular A and R, West Coast, who said: "Having observed Ray Cork's production and musical abilities for quite some time, we welcome him to our A & R staff. He has already been assigned such major artists as Zager & Evans and Jack Jones, and also will be expected to add several new and exciting acts to our roster in the near future."

A graduate of the University of Illinois with a degree in music education, Cork was musical arranger for the John Florez-produced million selling single, "Grazing in the Grass," and the chart-climbing "Going in Circles," both recorded by the Friends of Distinction.

Big 3 Names Eddie Deane Contemporary Prof. Mgr.

Completing one phase of a massive reorganization plan announced here two weeks ago, Seymour H. (Sy) Lesser, VP and General Manager of the Big Three Music Publishing Companies, has named Eddie Deane New York Professional Manager for Contemporary Repertoire.

Deane joins the Big Three after two years with Sunbury/Dunbar Music Companies, where his final position was General Professional Manager, directing activities in New York, Hollywood and Nashville. In the latter position, he was associated with the success of such million-selling hits as Three Dog Night's "One," "These Eyes" by Guess Who and "Who Will Answer?" by Ed Ames. Prior to this, Deane served as Professional Manager of United Artists Music Company and Unart Music Com-

Bob Paiva writes that Hartford was first to break Steam, Oliver and Georgio. He is probably right. Steam for sure. He ought to let a guy know. However, we are not challenging anybody. Just doing our own thing.

Strong New Records

1. "Venus," Shocking Blue, Colossus. Broke Phila.
2. "Holly Go Softly," Cornerstone. Version by Magnificent Men on Mercury selling well upstate Penna. Version by Cornerstone on Liberty sounds very commercial and potent. This should be a battle as the tune makes it.
3. "Together," Illusion, Steed. This is a powerhouse. We predict Top 5.
4. Thomas & Richard Frost, Imperial. Strong. Good follow-up. It will certainly get the shot at key stations which is all that really counts. We like both sides.
5. "To Love You," Country Store, T.A. Winning melody and hook.
6. "Hello L.A. Bye Bye Birmingham," Gainsborough, Evolution. Good reaction. Interest in Texas in the B side.
7. "Daddy's Little Girl," Chill Wills, Metromedia. Secretary Marge says it makes it with girls of high school age.
8. "Groovin' (Out on Life)," Newbeats, Hickory. Smash in Milwaukee. Strong song. (Would be a hit no matter what the artist's name).
9. "Wonderful World, Beautiful People," Jimmy Cliff. Strong.
10. "Trouble Maker," Lee Hazlewood. Lyric is too strong. Hit. Big phones!
11. "Fancy," Bobbie Gentry. Can't miss.
12. "It's Only Make Believe," Roy Hamilton, AGP. We hear it.
13. "I'm Gonna Love You," Intrigues. Sounds like another one.
14. "I Started Loving You Again," Al Martino. Full shot WIBG, Phila. On KLIF, Dallas, WCAO, Balt.
15. "Sign of the V," Bobby Bloom, Earth. Jeff Barry is hot.
16. We know Bobby Sherman and Elvis are stone smashes. Ditto Archies.
17. "You Won't Find Better," New Hope, Jamie. Fantastic airplay. Sales beginning.
Flash: We are informed that Pacific & Southern Broadcasting and Ken Palmer of KIMN, Denver, have announced a verbal agreement for P & S Broadcasting to purchase KIMN, Denver, and KYXI in Portland, Ore., for in excess of six million dollars. P & S now has 5 AM's and 2 FM's.
WQXI breakouts are: Classics 4; Tommy Roe; Band; Bobbie Gentry.
18. "When Rockets Don't Explode," Paul Hampton, WB. B side. Great!
New Smith: "Take A Look Around You."

Action At Abnak

NEW YORK—John Abdnor was in town last week with news of happenings at his Abnak Records.

First order of business was a progress report on Abnak's new country label Startime. Ray Winkler, who wrote "Welcome to My World" and has written and performed many other great songs in the country field over the past 25 or so years, has been put in charge of the label's operations. Startime's second artist (after Ray himself) is Harland Powell. Harland is backed by the Tony Douglas band and was part of Sonny James' organization for several years. Harland is an especially prized catch for Startime as he is not only a singer "but a fine instrumentalist and songwriter as well." His first release on Startime is "Bessie," penned by Winkler and the late Eddie McDuff.

In the Pop Field . . .

Over in the pop field, Abdnor relates that Robin (of John & Robin and the In Crowd fame) has married and given up show business. John, John Abdnor's son, will carry on with the In Crowd under the name the John Howard Abdnor Involvement. Their first release is "Sandy I'm Your Man" and an album, "Intro to Change," is soon to be released. John (the elder) is excited about the group and says, "They're capable of heavy, top 40 and even country material."

In the R&B field, Bobby Patterson's "Guess Who" is already starting to look big for John and Abnak.

Wax Works on Archies

Morty Wax Promotions, headed up by Joe McHugh, who handles record promotion for Barbra Streisand, Orpheus and Hilly Elkins, has been resigned by Don Kirshner to handle record promotion for the new Archie single "Jingle Jangle" in the Northeast.

Jensen Headlines PJs

NEW YORK—Dick Jensen, Probe artist and leading nitery performer, will headline at PJ's in Los Angeles Dec. 2-14. Jensen has just wrapped up a critically acclaimed two weeks at the Empire Room of the Palmer House in Chicago.

Greenberg To Liberty/UA

NEW YORK—With the aim of increased penetration into the FM, collegiate and contemporary programming areas, Stuart Greenberg has joined the Liberty/UA promotion staff to concentrate on progressive product in these exposure areas. He will headquarter in the company's New York offices and report to VP of A&R and Promotion, Bob Skaff. He also will work closely with the National Promotion Director of each label division within the company.

Specialized Promotions

Skaff noted that in addition to many established artists within the company, such as Canned Heat, Traffic, Kim Fowley, the Bonzo Dog Band and others, several recently signed acts are putting out the kind of music that lends itself to specialized and concentrated promotion. Among Greenberg's initial assignments he detailed new releases by Boffalongo, McKenna Mendelson Mainline, Pookah, Valhalla, Damnation of Adam Blessing and other groups soon to be released.

Greenberg has previously been involved in promotion and allied areas while associated with Ed Wright, representing Bobby Womack on the East Coast.

'Jean' Recorded By 34 Artists

"Jean," the theme song from 20th Century-Fox' "The Prime of Miss Jean Brodie," has been recorded by a total of 34 artists, including the current hit rendition by Oliver.

Written by Rod McKuen, who composed all the music for the film, the song has been recorded by such artists as McKuen, Lawrence Welk, Al Martino, Al Caiola, Don Tweedy, Mike Douglas, Papa Joe's Music Box, Don Cherry, Lenny Dee, Cinema Sound Stage Orch., Midas Touch, Bobby Sims, Roger Williams, Carmen Cavallero, Merv Griffin, Bobby Goldsboro, Bud Shank, Ray Conniff, Glen Yarbrough, Earl Grant, Connie Francis, Chet Atkins, Hugo Winterhalter, John Williams (in French), Bert Kaempfert, Eddy Arnold, Exotic Guitars, Herb Larson, RCA Orchestra, Midnight Strings, Orchestral Recording, Dale Robertson and Andre Kostelanetz. Additional versions are scheduled for the near future by other major artists.

Coleman on Notable

"Russian Roulette," composed by Cy Coleman, marks his first recording as an artist on his own Notable label.

Coleman came up with a new sound, which he calls the "Wah-Wah." The unique effect is brought about by a special attachment to the guitar, which combines the girls voices with the electric piano, all funnelled through a "Wah-Wah" peddle. 20 musicians and three vocalists play "Russian Roulette," with Coleman at the piano. Pistol shots are interspersed throughout.

Janice to GWP

Janice Harper has signed an exclusive three-year recording contract with GWP Records, announces Jerry Purcell, President. Miss Harper will begin a three-week engagement at the Copacabana on Thanksgiving, Nov. 27.

Fleetwood Rushed

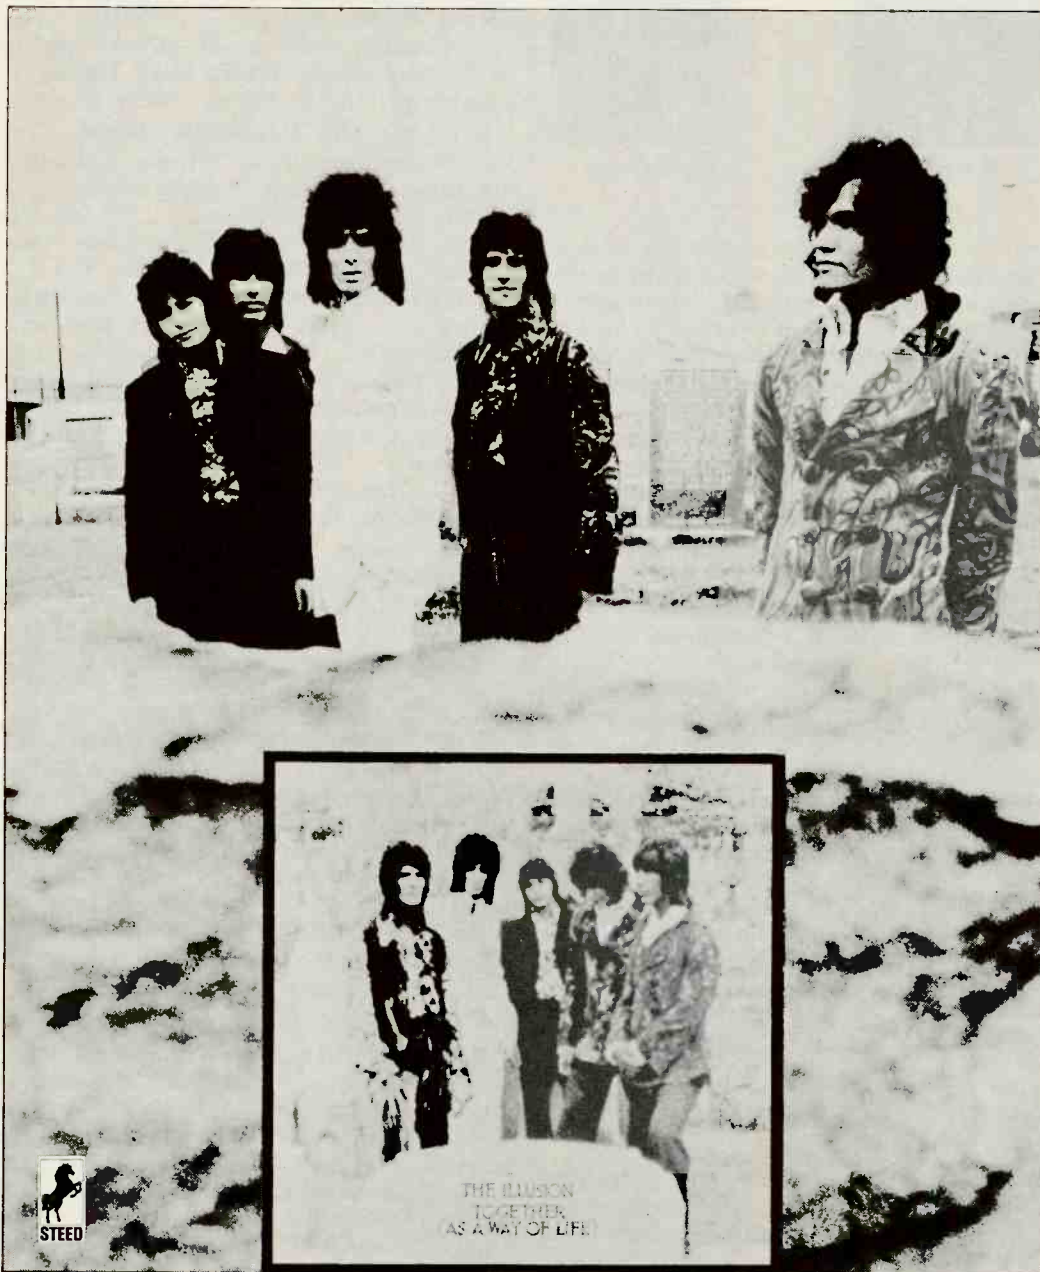

Reprise Records has rushed Fleetwood Mac's No. 1 British single of "Oh Well" into release for the United States.

Paulsen to Mercury

Davis, Grossman, Goody At B'nai B'rith Forum

Clive Davis

Jack Grossman

Sam Goody

NEW YORK—Three key industry figures, Clive J. Davis (President, CBS Records), Jack Grossman (President, Merco Enterprises), and Sam Goody (Sam Goody's, Inc.) will be the featured panelists on Tuesday evening, Dec. 2, when the Music and Performing Arts Lodge of B'nai B'rith hosts its first industry forum in the Grand Ballroom at the Grand Street Boys Club.

Believed by many to be the Lodge's outstanding programming event in recent years, the guest panelists will discuss "The Challenges that Face the Music Industry in the Seventies." Al Berman, Managing Director of the Harry Fox Agency and a past President of the Lodge, will serve as moderator.

At press time, the Lodge was awaiting final confirmation from still another industry-renowned executive who will also partake in the discussion. The forum will highlight the Lodge's current membership drive and an overflow crowd is anticipated. Bearing this in mind, Lodge executives decided to switch the December meeting place from the Friars Club to the Grand Street Boys Club (located at 135 West 56th St.) for this particular meeting.

Begins with Buffet

This special meeting is free to paid-up Lodge members and new members. It will begin with a buffet at 5:30 p.m. The actual panel discussion will start after a streamlined business meeting at 6:30 p.m. Additional membership information can be obtained from Membership Chairman, Herb Linsky (Tel: 765-4321).

Now in its sixth year, the Lodge currently boasts a membership of approximately 350 industry members and is seeking to add 126 new members via this membership drive and contest, which began on November 1st. The "126" figure coincides with B'nai B'rith's 126th anniversary this year.

"Realizing the size and scope of the Music and Performing Arts Industry, we haven't even scratched the surface yet in terms of membership," said Herb Goldfarb (London Records), the Lodge President. "I am ultimately looking forward to 1,000 members."

London Distributes Moodies' Threshold

A new label, Threshold Records, has been formed by the British group the Moody Blues, to be distributed in states and Canada by London Records, according to Walt Maguire, A & R Manager.

The label, also to be distributed worldwide by the Decca Record Company Ltd. of Great Britain and its affiliates, will offer productions by all five members of the Moody Blues, Graeme Edge, Mike Pinder, John Lodge, Justin Hayward and Ray Thomas, in association with Tony Clark, who has been producer of the group's own LPs.

Beyond this, the group itself, heretofore on the London-distributed, Deram label, will now have all its product released on Threshold, including the new LP, "To Our Children's Children's Children," now set for rush release here.

Aside from the Moodies' own new album, initial Threshold product to hit the market will be a single, "Send Me No More Letters," by Trapeze, a group just signed to the label and produced by John Lodge. A folk singer, Timon, is also in line for a first single release after the holiday period.

ASCAP Produces Friml Tribute

NEW YORK—A unique one-night show entitled "The First 90 Years with Friml" will be produced by ASCAP on Sunday, Dec. 7, at the Shubert Theater. The show will celebrate the 90th birthday of composer-member Rudolf Friml, writer of "Giannina Mia," "Indian Love Call," "Rose-Marie" and "Donkey Serenade."

Stanley Adams, President of the performing rights society, said: "Rudolf Friml is one of the outstanding talents in the musical theater, and we at the Society are celebrating his long career in terms of his own great talent; that is, with a musical tribute. Arthur Schwartz, of the famous musical team of Schwartz and Dietz and an ASCAP Board member, is producing this program. Allan Jones and Dennis King, both famous stars of Friml musicals, will head a roster of other stars."

Producer Arthur Schwartz said that the show will feature such singers as Anita Gillette, Constance Towers, Clifton Davis and a special salute by Ogden Nash. Peter Lind Hayes will serve as master of ceremonies for the program and the orchestra will be under the direction of Jay Blackton. The audience will be invited guests only, from the theater and the music world.

Rudolf Friml was born on December 7, 1879 in Prague, Czechoslovakia. At a recent meeting of Rudolf Friml and Arthur Schwartz in Paris, Schwartz was astonished to learn that at the age of 90 Friml is still concertizing throughout Europe. Before the birthday cake is presented, Friml will perform at the Steinway.

Merc Re Distrib Plans

"Our thought is that the exclusive independent distribution system is more vital to us and to the industry in general because of the cohesiveness it affords in the areas of promotion advertising and selling."

Simon went on to say that the multiple distribution system is "not sufficiently sophisticated" to perform the same services as well as can the independent distributor.

"In fact," he added, "we plan to call on our exclusive distributor even more than in the past because of the cooperative energies he can afford as related to our marketing plans."

"Marketing plans" set up between Mercury's home office and indie distributors will be co-ordinated by the corporation's regional marketing staff comprised of Jules Abramson, East; Frank Peters, Mid-West; Tom Colley, South; and George Steiner, West. At the moment, the Mercury Corporation exclusively utilizes the services of independent distributors, except in Dallas, Boston, Cleveland and Pittsburgh, where company-owned branches are maintained. In nearly all of its distribution areas whether independent or branch the corporation maintains a full-time promotion manager, who reports to John Sippel, VP for Promotion and Artist Exploitation, and Bob Scherl, his associate.

Cook to Scepter

NEW YORK—Steve Tyrell, Scepter VP in charge of product and promotion, has announced the appointment of Bill Cook as Scepter's South West Regional Promotion Director.

Cook will be based in Scepter's recently opened Houston office at 1615 St. Emanuel St., and will be responsible for New Orleans, Houston, Dallas, St. Louis, Kansas City, Nashville, Memphis, Denver, Seattle, San Francisco, Los Angeles, Phoenix and El Paso distribution areas. Cook will work closely with local distributor promotion men, Steve Rudolf, who is in charge of Pop Promotion, and Glenn Robbins, who is responsible for Secondary Market Promotion.

Cook was previously with Big State Distributors of Dallas, Texas.

Sandpipers Fly To New Heights

NEW YORK — Two of the three Sandpipers in town for their Rainbow Grill opening dropped by Record World with some literally far-out news. They had just heard that their latest album was heading for the moon with the Apollo 12 Astronauts. The Astronauts, themselves, request the tapes they want to bring with them.

Jim Brady and Michael Piano were also excited about their recently released single, "Come Saturday Morning," from the soundtrack of "The Sterile Cuckoo" starring Liza Minnelli. (Richard Shoff is the third Sandpiper who was ill with a sore throat at the time of the visit.) The "Sterile Cuckoo" soundtrack album, featuring "Come Saturday Morning," is on Paramount. The song, written by Dory Previn and Fred Carling, seems to have been written with the Sandpipers' sound in mind, and it gets maximum exposure in the film.

While in town, they hope to work on their second album in Spanish. Their first, "The Spanish Album," featured contemporary tunes in Spanish and has become a big seller internationally.

College Excitement

Their Rainbow Grill engagement is to last three weeks and ends a college tour which started early in October. Michael says that the group elicits a "fantastic response" at colleges and would like to do a live album recorded at a college to capture some of this excitement. He went on to explain that the group's albums seek to "capture some sort of a mood" while the live act tries to break away from this and is, consequently, "a lot heavier."

Michael and Jim are looking forward to a rest after their Rainbow Grill appearance and hope to do more movie work in the future. —Bob Merlis.

Armstrong to Amazon

FAYETTE, ALA. — Record/radio industry veteran Jack Armstrong joined the Amazon Promotion, Inc., staff effective Nov. 20, according to Don McGregor, General Manager.

A Miami resident and former music director for WFUN there, Armstrong will continue to headquarter in Miami, constituting a dual base of operations for the expanding firm. McGregor said Armstrong will promote all Amazon-represented record product throughout the Southeast.

Getting It Together

By DAN GOLDBERG

NEW YORK—The Beach Boys are reactivating their Brother record label. Last time around, Brother was in existence only long enough to issue one album and a few singles. Nevertheless, the album "Smiley Smiles" (by the Beach Boys, of course) containing such classics as "Heros and Villains," "Vegetables" and "Good Vibrations," would have easily immortalized the label. Actually, despite its high quality, "Smiley Smiles" was a disappointment at the time because of the big anticipation for "Smiles" which never was released.

Under the new activation there will be production efforts from Carl and Dennis Wilson, Bruce Johnston, Al Jardine, Mike Love and, of course, from pioneer Brian Wilson, who is as famous for the length of time it takes him to produce as for the influence his productions have. Once again the anticipation builds.

RECORDS: Singles. Melanie is "Beautiful People," and happily it seems as if she's going to finally have a hit with that pretty song. Melanie was singing "Beautiful People" long before she recorded it. Talking about the other side of the success coin Melanie said, "So many times people call good music 'genius,' which is really like saying that it's not enough just to make good music—you've got to be a genius, too. I really think the age of geniuses is over anyway—that's part of the past."

NRBQ is the Kentucky country rock group that played the Scene, got raves and disappeared. They're back with a single called "Down in My Heart," which is a groove, produced by Frank Scinaro. They sound like themselves here and will remind you of why they got raves in the first place.

ALBUMS: Elvis Presley's "From Memphis to Vegas" is definitely worth owning. The live Vegas part is particularly fantastic and provides a fine catalogue of Elvis old and new . . . Some new artists with notable product are: Paul Seibel on Electra, a folk singer with some good original material and a groovy country sound. Overall, it's an impressive first album which makes him a performer and writer to watch . . . The Buchanan Brothers on Event are a remarkably good and interesting group to listen to. They're produced by Cashman, Pistilli and West and with luck could get Fifth Dimension like attention . . . Zephyr on Command is a new group led by Candy Givens. The group has some interesting material . . . The Little Richard album on Buddah is a fantastic collection of Mr. Penniman's greatest hits.

Spoken Word Message Hot Item for Cassette Players

The spoken word will probably never replace music as an entertainment medium, but it's becoming an important factor in cassette sales, according to Robert Sheehy, Capitol Records Sales Manager, Custom Services Division.

"We are currently doing some $500,000 a year in spoken messages, and the potential is unlimited," he said.

Primarily, the spoken words are sales messages, correspondence school courses and sales presentations. Capitol has the capabilities of distributing a finished product in five working days, according to Sheehy.

"This makes it possible, for example, for a company with a diversified sales force across the country to be given individualized sales messages from the president or merchandising manager each week," he said.

Correspondence courses are utilizing cassette messages in conjunction with Capitol-produced players as part of the enrollment fee.

A unique application of the spoken word packaged on cassette is of a minister who is able to leave a message of inspiration or condolence with an individual or family for their use at a convenient time.

Sheehy remarked, "We find salesmen doing a bang-up job with our talking cassettes. They can make their introduction, then switch on a professionally recorded sales message with the portable player on the customer's desk. Then, ideally, they can answer any questions that are raised by the sales message on the cassette."

Capitol can record the sales message, promotion, or correspondence school lesson in its own studios, or merely edit and process tape produced by the client.

Deutsche Grammophon 'Showcase'

NEW YORK — Deutsche Grammophon has just released a cassette and 8-track cartridge "Showcase," with a suggested retail price of $3.98. This applies only to "Showcase," not to regular catalogue cassettes and cartridges, and is for a limited time only.

The all-star cast is headed by Karl Bohm, Dietrich Fischer-Dieskau, Herbert von Karajan, Fritz Wunderlich, Karl Richter, Rafael Kubelik, Adolf Scherbaum and Tullio Serafin. The introductory offering is available through participating dealers and is intended to display the wide variety of music obtainable on cassette and cartridge configurations produced by Deutsche Grammophon.

List of Cassettes

The cassette leaflet includes a list of all available cassettes imported from Europe. There is no disk equivalent.

Deutsche Grammophon intends to follow-up the release with a promotional campaign, including a window poster, plus local newspaper advertising. Label reports that it is the first cassette or cartridge available at this low price and is intended as a get-acquainted offer.

Vogues Sell-Out

The Vogues, Reprise Records group, open a sell-out engagement at the Holiday House in Pittsburgh, Pa., for two weeks starting Nov. 24. This is their third date this year at the supper club.

The Vogues have just completed a tour of 30 college and university campuses. They will head for Hollywood Dec. 13 to 18 for a recording session with producer Dick Glasser. After the holidays they will resume their college concert tour set up by their agency, the William Morris office, Elmer Willett is the group's manager.

Media Acquires Group West

LOS ANGELES — Barry Epstein, Chairman of the Board of Media Creations, Ltd. (O.T.C.), and Sid Galanty, President of Communications Group West, announce acquisition of Communications Group West by Media Creations, Ltd., for an undisclosed amount of stock and cash.

Communications Group West is a "total communications/company" creating and producing in film (live action and animation), video tape, audio tape, disk recordings, slides, film strips, educational film production and distribution and multi-media kits for educational institutions.

Trade Stirs

Len Rosen has been named VP of Bernie Ilson, Inc., New York pr organization, announces Bernie Ilson, President.

Billy Ver Planck completed scoring a one-and-a-half hour TV film entitled "Wilderness Road." His wife, Marlene Ver Planck, has just recorded the title song from the film "Real Gone Girls" called "You Never Told Me Your Name."

Charlie Fox wrote the theme for the Joe Namath show which goes into about 52 markets.

Bobby Scott has been collaborating on some songs with Danny Meehan, the first of which Wayne Newton will be recording in New York next week. Scott will arrange the session.

Kaye Joins Benny

Metromedia Records' Kaye Hart, who recently concluded an engagement at the La Concha in Puerto Rico, is being billed with Jack Benny at Chicago's Palmer House. Her engagement runs from Nov. 21 through the end of the month.

Charisma Set for U.S. Release

British promoter Tony Stratton Smith arrived in New York last week to set U.S. releases for product on his new progressive label, Charisma.

Charisma launches in the U. K. this week with a first album "Rare Bird," by a group of the same name. Joseph Eger, conductor of the Symphony of New York, has recorded a "Classical Heads" album for the label with Sinfonia of London and Shakespearean actor John Neville set for February release. Smith is also looking for U.S. indie product for release on the label in Europe.

The Nice, British hit-album group now touring the U.S., will be joined for a while by Smith, who is their manager. He also hopes to spot talent for his London Lyceum.

Charisma's North American operations are represented by attorney Martin J. Machat. Public relations is handled by Ren Grevatt Associates and talent booking by Associated Booking Corp. of New York.

GWP Astrology Series in Orbit

Jerry Purcell, President of GWP Records, reports brisk sales topping the 70,000 mark in the first four weeks of release of his 12-album astrology series, "The Astromusical House of . . ."

Purcell and Carroll Righter, the astrologer who selected the music and wrote the books which accompany each album and tell all about each zodiac sign, have been hyping sales by personally visiting 17 different cities between them to promote the albums.

'Superstar' on Decca

Tony Martell, VP of Marketing and Creative services at Decca Records, announces the immediate release in the U.S. of a record entitled "Superstar" by Murray Head and the Trinidad Singers. Single has been out one week in England and has sparked much excitement.

The record is an excerpt from a soon-to-be-released rock opera, "Jesus Christ." MCA Records International VP Dick Broderick reports that the record also will be rush released in all foreign markets.

Bridge on Tour

NEW YORK—Buddah Records' the Brooklyn Bridge have begun a 17-day tour that will last through mid-December. The Bridge, who have just had their fifth consecutive chart record with "You'll Never Walk Alone," kicked the tour off in Rutherford, N. J. (Nov. 21).

At Flack Party

THE UNDERGROUND GROOVE

Carl Perkins sang a song about a pair of shoes and changed music.

Carl Perkins, at 23, also wrote the words to "Blue Suede Shoes." Rolling Stone said, "It's one of rock and roll's fundamental songs, one that showed the way."

And Rock magazine said, "His music created a new sound. Carl Perkins is an originator whose vitality has not been duplicated by even the most talented of his imitators."

The Beatles also paid full tribute to Carl by recording three of his songs: "Matchbox," "Honey Don't," "Everybody's Trying to Be My Baby."

In recent months Carl has been written about, discussed and just been plain enjoyed by millions of kids caught up in the recent rock and roll revival.

Happily, Carl is still young, still writing hit songs ("Daddy Sang Bass"), and still growing as a performer.

His long-awaited new album includes songs from Chuck Berry, Buddy Holly, Bob Dylan and, naturally, some of his own songs.

It's called "On Top": A lot of people would say that's where Carl Perkins has always been.

NOTES FROM THE UNDERGROUND

By CARL LaFONG

The Masked Marauders, that masterpiece produced by the kings of rock and roll (or is it stone and roll . . . or maybe Roll 'n' Stone), is almost upon us.

The definitive super-session, from the archives of Diety Records, will by all indications be a huge seller. It'll be bought both by those who enjoy a well-done put-on and by those who, like the supposed death of Paul McCartney, think: "Maybe it is true." In any case, because the actual recording is a good effort (no matter who's playing on it), there shouldn't be too many feelings of being duped.

But just the opposite situation is currently happening in England. It seems, through the sheer commerciality of it, "Sugar, Sugar" by the Archies has been garnering an awful lot of air-play and has subsequently hit the top of the English charts. So, naturally, the populous was expecting some sort of promotional tour from this hitherto unknown assemblage. Deluged with inquiries about the group and not wanting to tell the record buyers that the Archies existed only in cartoon form, somebody (either the record distributor or a PR agency) gave out the names of the group, with complete bios (but no pictures, natch). It was determined that the lead guitarist was one Archie Andrews, a fiery redhead from a Midwest

American town called Riverdale. The other "bios" were equally frank.

Fan clubs soon began springing up and the Archies (whoever they were) were near legends among the teenybop contingents.

The bubble finally burst recently when word got out that the Archies were, indeed, mere cartoons and that their voices were supplied by studio singers. How do you tell a ten-year old that his heroes don't really exist?

One of the reasons for the widespread lack of information about the Archies was that the television series had earlier been offered to the various British outlets, but nobody expressed any interest. So the public never really could find out.

But all was not lost. It was revealed in Britain last week that some of the Archies' voices are members of the real group, the Cuff Links (whose "Tracy" is currently high in the U.S. charts), and that a British tour by them is highly possible.

All of this happened within the space of a couple of weeks and "Sugar, Sugar" has remained in the top chart spot through it all.

Besides the proverbial five-cent cigar, what this country needs is a good satirical rock group. With all the pseudo-intellectualism attached (like a stigma) to much of today's progressive rock, it becomes ever so refreshing to hear the latest from two of the scene's most refreshing (and funniest) groups: the Bonzo Dog (Doo-Dah) Band and the Liverpool Scene.

Both groups maintain highly competent musicianship, with the Bonzos steeped in outright slapstick comedy, while the Liverpool Scene uses poetry as a point of departure. But both use satire to accomplish their goals, and, because of this, their development is somewhat parallel.

The Bonzos perform a number called "Can Blue Men Sing the Whites?" and it's become one of the highlights of their sets. The Liverpool Scene topped it (at least the title) with the release of a British single last week entitled: "I've Got Those Fleetwood Mac Chicken Shack Mayall Can't Fail Blues."

Both groups are just coming off American tours and will have new albums due for release before the end of the year.

Book Review

Roxon Rock Must

In this age of instant American history, Lillian Roxon is music's Thucydides. Her chronicle of the fabulous cultural rise of rock and roll is called the "Rock Encyclopedia," and in its 610 pages it gives informative, chatty, subjective sketches of over 500 artists. Since it's the only item of its kind, "Rock Encyclopedia" will become a standard bookshelf item for anyone in the business. It is published by Grosset & Dunlap.

With all of its facts and figures (it includes a list of every number one record since 1950), "Rock Encyclopedia" could have been a dull reference and still have been indispensable. Happily, the book is much more than it had to be. Lillian's perceptions are real, to-the-point and meaningful. She skirts clichés wherever possible and injects her clever and sometimes profound personal comments on the artists and the scene. Having been a bonafide scenemaker for years she can separate talent from hype and does so succinctly but mercifully.

Personal, Amusing

The book is far from complete; there are annoying omissions and the emphasis is completely subjective. But it is an exhaustive effort filled with delightful writing. Rock has been a revolutionary force in this country for some time, having provided a social entrance for countless important, anti-establishment thinkers of this age. It is appropriate that rock's first encyclopedia should be as personal, and as amusing (and hence as erratic) as rock itself, and its first real historian as big a star as those she writes about. It is already as indispensable to the hip businessman as a radio and will make an always entertaining piece of nostalgia when ruthless time renders it obsolete.

—Dan Goldberg.

Winter: A Star for All Seasons

By DAN GOLDBERG

NEW YORK—For a change, the build-up couldn't do the artist justice. Following pretty good sets by Blodwyn Pig and Chicago, Johnny Winter recently showed the Fillmore why he is worth all that money.

Besides being a fine mathematical blues guitarist and one of the most recognizable performers ever to divert attention from a light show, Winter is a great musician. The first half of the show then was Johnny singing the blues, Johnny dazzling on guitar doing his new stuff, and amply rewarding the audience for their faith in filling the place. He seemed noticeably better than last year—which is saying quite a lot.

Johnny Winters has always been a great blues guitarist and a natural "underground" favorite. There has been some question about his commerciality, though. His harsh blues sound and less than operatic voice have so far made his appeal esoteric on a mass scale.

Enter his brother Edgar who has until now been a peripheral figure on the surface. He does to keyboards, sax and drums what Johnny does to guitar. Like his brother he makes his instruments sing and his voice is interchangeable with his various saxes. The sax and piano add chrome to the Winter sound and Edgar's voice, more polished and "Top 40" than his brother's, added another cylinder to the motor.

The second half of the show was all Edgar's, consisting of a fantastic version of "Tobacco Road" and ending with an incredible drum duet which actually deserved the ovation it got. For a finale, it was Johnny again doing "Johnny B. Goode," which really could have been written about him.

No Competition

The Winter show still has its rough spots and its occasional dull moments, but it has no competition in mind-blowing virtuosity or in satisfying blues showmanship. Unfortunately for Winter, psychedelic blues has passed its reign in the cultural throne and traditionally there is no avenue more difficult to conquer than yesterday's parade route. With the addition of Edgar to the image, however, the Winter group should be able to crack through the commercial traditions. Their new album, "Second Winter," will probably attain a chart status consistent with their in-person excitement. The only major Winter weakness, lack of tuneful original material, has been cleverly and effectively overcome with inventive arrangements of rock oldies like "Slippin' and a Slidin'," "Highway 61 Revisited" and "Johnny B. Goode." The latter should give him the hit single that he deserves. Either way, on stage he's a star—and not one that's likely to burn out for quite some time.

Record World's Shields On Newsmen's Tour of Israel

Eight editors and publishers — including Record World's Jazz Editor Del Shields—representing leading Negro-American newspapers are spending 10 days in Israel on a unique fact-finding tour arranged through the Urban Affairs Department of the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. Studying Economic Experience

The eight, all members of the National Newspaper Publishers Association, are studying Israel's social and economic experience for application to the black community here. As guests of the Israel government, they will examine educational institutions, youth projects, kibbutz activities, health and safety projects and the Jewish state's technical assistance programs for African countries.

According to Kenyon C. Burke, Director of ADL's Urban Affairs Department accompanying the group, interviews have been arranged with Israeli government and civic officials. In addition, Del Shields, Executive Director of the National Association of Television and Radio Announcers, will record interviews in Israel for subsequent use on black-oriented radio stations here. Shields is a broadcaster for Station WLIB in Harlem.

The newsmen making the trip are Richard Edwards, Managing Editor, Amsterdam News, N.Y.; Robert E. Johnson, Jet-Johnson Publications, Chicago; John H. Murphy, Publisher, Afro American, Baltimore; Tom Picou, Managing Editor, and John Sengstacke, Editor and Publisher, Chicago Daily Defender; Longworth M. Quinn, Managing Editor, Michigan Chronicle, Detroit; Garth C. Reeves, Publisher, Miami Times, and Howard Woods, Publisher, St. Louis Sentinel. They left from Kennedy Airport Sunday, Nov. 16.

Couzart Heads Lewis R&B

SHREVEPORT, LA. — Stan Lewis, owner and President of Jewel Record Corporation, announces the appointment of Mel Couzart as National R&B Promotion man for Jewel-Ronn and Whit Records.

Couzart will report directly to Lewis. Lewis said, "I am very happy to have Mr. Couzart with my organization. It was imperative that we add a national R&B promotion man due to the success of our labels in the soul field."

Couzart has over 10 years experience in the record promotion business, having worked with such labels as Sar, Vee-Jay, Motown and most recently the Shelby Singleton Corporation. Mel started in the business as a regional promo man, graduated to territory representative and with Jewel-Ronn embarks on the national promotion scene.

Hayes Gold Party

MEMPHIS — Stax/Volt Records last week held a champagne party on the occasion of the first RIAA gold LP for their subsidiary label, Enterprise, "Hot Buttered Soul," by Isaac Hayes.

Zell Sanders Back in Action

Zell Sanders, once a familiar figure in the music world, has returned to the business with her own labels, Zell's and J&S Records.

Zell began in 1956 with Johnnie & Joe who had, among many other hits, "Over the Mountain, Across the Sea." Zell has also worked with Freddy Scott, the Hearts, the Lonely Nights, Baby Washington, the Jaynettes and Clarence Ash.

Zell is back with two new singles, "Soul Food is What I Like" by Darlene Weeks (Zell's) and "I Know I Got a Good Thing" by Jimmy & Arthur (J&S)

Muscle Shoals Forms Pubbery

MUSCLE SHOALS, ALA. — The Muscle Shoals Sound Studios announce the formation of their new publishing company, Muscle Shoals Sound Publishing, Inc.

The company will be a part of the Muscle Shoals Sound Studios, located at 3614 Jackson Highway in Muscle Shoals, and will be run by Terry Woodford, newly appointed President of the publishing company.

O'Jays: "Xmas Ain't Xmas, New Year's Ain't New Years Without the One You Love." This will become a standard.

The secret is out. The album cut on the Sweet Inspirations in Philadelphia is a work of true genius. They are on the verge of becoming the most important girls group in the business. The R&B world may be on the quiet side lately, but big developments are about to occur . . . There are also some fantastic sides on Archie Bell and the Drells in the can . . . Look for a very heavy Christmas record by the O'Jays that could easily become a perennial favorite. (Note: You might ask Conrad Williams or Rudy Green to whisper in your ear what that Sweet Inspirations LP is all about.)

Ayers Firm Established

Cliff Ayers Ostermeyer is heading Cliff Ayers Productions at 3434 Broadway, Fort Wayne, Ind. with branch offices in Nashville and New York.

Firm is a subsidiary of Tri-state Distributors. Decks have been leased to Decca, United Artists, Roulette and K-Ark.

Brand to Infinite Management Corp.

NEW YORK—Oscar Brand has just signed an exclusive management agreement with Infinite Management Corp., a division of Infinity, as announced by Infinity's President, Vinny Testa. Brand will be personally represented by Lew Linet, President of the Management firm.

Mel, Tim Visit

Engelbert Humperdinck, Man of the Hour

Engelbert Humperdinck, star of London Records' Parrot line, has exploded on the American scene with his triple-threat smash status in disks, television and the club circuit.

The Britisher closed a 10-day engagement at New York's Royal Box Nov. 22, during which he broke all records for the room. At almost the same time, Humperdinck was signed by ABC-TV for a regular weekly, hour-long TV series to commence immediately after the first of the year, thus necessitating cancellation of a four-week stand at the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas, which was to have begun just before Christmas. The ABC signing means that Engel's own TV series will commence within weeks of his own ABC-TV special, due for airing Dec. 2. The new series is to air Wednesday evenings commencing Jan. 21.

Meanwhile, Parrot is rushing a new album, "Engelbert Humperdinck," which appears to have qualified for a gold LP on the basis of advance orders before the first copy has been shipped.

Club Review

Angel at Harlow's

NEW YORK—Jimmy Angel, Avco-Embassy pactee, appeared at Harlow's recently, bearing a striking resemblance to Elvis. He sings, dances, acts and dresses like "Mr. Double Trouble," and even graduated from the same Memphis high school that Elvis attended.

The first set featured Jimmy in black leather with a guitar slung across his back. He rarely played the instrument, concentrating more on singing and bobbing his head as much as possible. The material was taken out of the late '50s rock era (Elvis' prime) with no variation. He finished the set with what will be his next single release, "Last Train to Memphis," putting on an entertaining display of wild dance and body movements.

Appearing three more times that evening in colorful leather attire and slicked hair, Jimmy swung at a grueling pace the people at Harlow's (including his back-up band) could hardly keep up with.

There is only one Elvis, of course; but Jimmy could click. He's a hard-worker and the 1950s rock scene is currently very fashionable.

Russell-Cason, Decca In Foxx-y Signing

NASHVILLE—Russell-Cason Productions and Decca Records have finalized agreements for the release of recordings by Foxx.

The group is originally from Odessa, Texas, and is managed by Herbert Graham. Buzz Cason and Mac Gayden have already produced one set of masters which Decca purchased. Cason stated that plans were underway for a new album project with "an unusual concept" and that the group is presently in Nashville recording for a January release date.

Members are Pepper Martin, "Little Joe" Martin, Al Perkins and Butch Borgue.

The contract was negotiated by the Russell-Cason Production firm and Decca's Larry Baunich and John Walsh. Baunich said: "The signing of Foxx is the first important step in a new trend by the major labels to cultivate the potential pop talent originating from Nashville."

Lew Produces 'Together'

NEW YORK — Ralph Lew has produced a version of "Come Together" by the Love-Childs Latin-Soul Afro Blues Band, which will be released by A&M Records shortly.

SHORTS: A&M's Lee Michaels, long underrated and virtually unheard from outside of California, is finally making it the way he should. Coming off big concerts in Detroit, Boston and New York, the dynamic young organist is set for upcoming Fillmore East concerts with Blood, Sweat & Tears and a pop-classical exchange with the Boston Symphony Orchestra.

Got an original title for a live album? Last year, Ten Years After entitled theirs "Undead" and the new double album from the Grateful Dead is called "Live Dead." B. B. King's most recent was "Alive and Well" (maybe that should be the title for Paul McCartney's upcoming solo album).

One more add on McCartney: A special documentary hosted by attorney F. Lee Bailey is currently screening around the country. In the form of a 60-minute trial, the show presents all of the facts of McCartney's "situation" and brings in witnesses like Allen Klein, Peter Asher, a recording engineer, and personnel from Detroit's WKNR-FM and Cream, the radio station and the newspaper, who first publicized the "mystery."

Deutch Joins Fermata-USA

Deborah Frenkiel, Managing Director of the Fermata Publishing interests in the United States, has announced the appointment of Irving Deutch as Professional Manager.

Appointment is effective immediately and Deutch will headquarter at the firm's Hollywood offices. Deutch will be handling the placement of the Fermata catalogs with American artists and labels. Fermata is currently represented on the Brazilian charts with the top three records. Deutch was for many years the General Manager of the world-wide interests of Southern Music Publishing Co. and was instrumental in establishing Southern's foreign catalogs. He also has been associated with Les Paul and Mary Ford, and previously formed his own label, World Artists Records, with Lou Guarino, which first brought Chad and Jeremy to this country.

His most recent affiliation was with Hy Mizrahi Productions on the West Coast.

ASCAP Appoints Vega

J. M. Collins, Sales Manager of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, announces the appointment of Arsenio Vega to ASCAP Representative in Puerto Rico. Vega has served the Society in various capacities for nine years.

(This column appears first in Spanish and then in English)

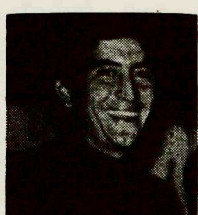

Recibieron en Colombia el Disco de Oro 1969 el conjunto Los Graduados, en el cual se destaca como cantante Gustavo Quintero, por las altas cifras de ventas alcanzadas por su primer larga duración, lanzado al mercado por Codiscos. También resultó premiado Alfredo Gutiérrez con la "Palma de Oro Costeño" por el gran volumen de venta de "Romance Vallenato." ¡Felicidades! ... Grabarán a duo Leonardo de Colombia y Carmenza Duque ... Lanzada por Fuentes en Estados Unidos, la primera grabación larga duración de Sofy Martínez ... César Castro en Estados Unidos.

Di Marie

Nos impresionó de modo notable Di Marie, en su actuación con el Show de Julio Gutiérrez en el Eden Roc de Miami Beach. Di Marie es totalmente diferente, desesperadamente diferente. Uno no sabe si aplaudirla o gritarle. ¡Así es de diferente esta intérprete! En un mundo en que artísticamente la copia de otros talentos se ha vuelto práctica general, Di Marie hace lo suyo y nos encanta. Llegará muy lejos el día en que sus promotores lleguen a esta realidad. Y ojalá sea pronto. ¡Se lo merece! ... Concha Valdés Miranda es una compositora sufrida, vivida, dolida. ¡Así son sus canciones! ... Sabemos de sus grandes quilates, pero cuando su canción sale de los labios de Tito Rodríguez, como ha sucedido con "La Mitad," ya la cosa va a caracteres impresionantes. Recomendamos a los dj's de toda Latinoamérica este tema interpretado por Tito, que ya comienza a afianzarse como triunfo notable en varias áreas. Felicitamos a ambos, intérprete y compositora. Ah! ... si no tienen su copia de promoción, pídanla a UA Latino ... Otra voz que va mereciendo gran promoción y la mejor acogida es Karina, también de Hispavox. Y eso no es culpa nuestra, simplemente que Hispavox está en algo, escogiendo talentos ... Antonio Hütt de Dicesa, El Salvador, por Uruguay ... Nos cuentan que las Hermanas Manzanero podrían grabar fácilmente "No Llegaremos Lejos." Sabemos que este número no es del talento del gran compositor mexicano ... "Bang Bang Lulu" en la voz de Don Valentino va avanzando con fuerza meteórica. El cantante venezolano logra gran impacto con esta interpretación.

Conrado González de Musical Records de Nueva York, en la Florida ... Musicor acaba de poner a la venta "New Dimensions" de Los Hispanos. En este "álbum" lucen con probabilidades "Hoy Te Ví Llorar," "Tenemos que Seguir," "Vida, Vuelte te suplico" y "Ahora yo Me Río." En esta grabación presentan Los Hispanos a su nueva voz Norman Casiano ... Lanzó Cap Latino a Lalo Guerrero, en su larga duración titulado "La Celosa y el Celoso." También de este sello, un nuevo "álbum" de Andy Russell en el cual interpreta "Ojitos Españoles," "Call Me," "Yesterday," "Enamorado" y "Guantanamera" ... Lanzará Distribuidora Nacional las grabaciones Tone Latino en República Dominicana ... Lanzó El Zarape de Johnny González, una grabación de Augustine Ramirez, interpretando "Mi Barquita de Madera." A más de presentar una excelente interpretación de música norteña, la portada de este "álbum" refleja también una presentación de primera. También de este sello, un "álbum" titulado "Los Idolos de Texas" con interpretaciones de Little Joe, Augustine Ramirez y Joe Bravo. Se destacan "Alitas Rotas," "Black Coffee," "Arrieros Somos" y "Debemos Separarnos" entre otras.

CANTA EN ESPAÑOL VOL. III

CHARLES AZNAVOUR—
Monument SLP 18122

Posiblemente el más grande de los talentos franceses en una bella y profunda grabación en Español que causa impacto en todos los mercados. Seguido, imitado y copiado, Aznavour sigue trazando pautas. "Apaga la Luz," "De Quererte Así," "Amor Eres como un Día," "Tiempo Habrá" y otras. ¡Recibiendo promoción en cuanto rincón hispano hay en el mundo!

Perhaps the outstanding contemporary French talent, Aznavour projects his music and performances in a unique way. Imitated and followed, Aznavour's style is a success. Here is the original in one of his best repertoires! "Un día," "Es la Juventud," "Lo que Fue ya Pasó."

LOS HERMANOS ARRIAGADA—
Cap Latino ST-19017

El gran conjunto vocal chileno, en una de sus mejores grabaciones. Vendedores en todas las latitudes, aquí se destacan en "Quiero Saber," "Yo Contigo," "Sin Volver," "Obsesión" y "Amor Si Vuelves algún día."

Internationally famous vocal group from Chile in an excellent repertoire. "Quiero Saber" could smash where promoted. Also, "Yo Contigo," "Dudas de Mí," "Sin Volver" and "Mi Dicha Lejana."

ORQUESTA DEL RECUERDO—
Musart DM 1453

La popular orquesta dirigida por Nacho Rosales en un repertorio integrado por 32 éxitos de todos los tiempos. Conservado en existencia venderá por largo período. "Las Mañanitas," "Silenciosamente," "Gris," "Oyelo Bien," "Mañanitas Tapatias," "El Abandonado" y "Anoche."

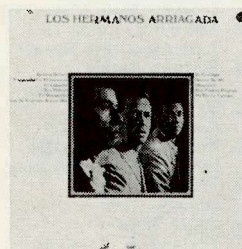

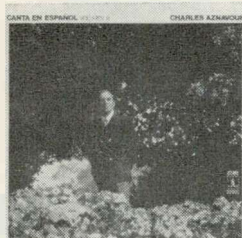

An album that will sell forever by one of the most popular orchestras in Mexico. 32 standards, including "La Borrachita," "María Elena," "Tú," "Negra Consentida," etc.

LAS GRANDES VOCES RANCHERAS—
Columbia ES-1949

Indiscutiblemente, grandes voces rancheras como Javier Solís, Los Panchos, Hermanas Huerta, Cuco Sanchez, David Reynoso, Jorge Valente, Irma Serrano, Vicente Fernandez, Alvaro Zermeno, Gerardo Reyes y Conchita Solís en un gran programa. "Borracho," "Palabra de Rey," "Nada Contigo" y "Amor de los Dos" entre otras.

Perhaps the best "ranchera" performers in one album. Superb repertoire and renditions! "Eres Casado," "Te He de Amar y te he de Dejar," "Es Amor," others.

Club Review

Zara's Pleases Shephard's

NEW YORK — The picturesque supper club Shepherds, one of New York's oldest discotheques and entertainment centers, is presenting a talented Spanish soft rock act called Zara's.

The group, which consists of a Spanish family with one British member, played some pleasant Spanish-flavored versions of American standards and included some inventive arrangements which made their show as entertaining as the originals they were taken from.

The group is half male and half female with guitarists Marino and Toto who also sings lead complemented by organist Kitty and singer Anita. Performing with a sense of humor but with obvious musical expertise, they provide one of the most enjoyable evenings in town. Other group members are singer Julie and drummer, Jesus.

Ranging in age from 21 to 28, the Zara family will probably use Shephard's engagement as a springboard for a profitable and lengthy American career in the supper club vein. An enterprising record company might take the lead from the enthusiastic Shephard's audiences and give an ear to Zara's for some solid middle-of-the-road disk entertainment.

Rush 'Our Time'

NEW YORK—Due to the excitement generated by the song that emerged from the recent three-day peace moratorium, "In Our Time," Bell Records is rush-releasing a recording by newly signed Andrea Marcovicci, the young star who introduced the song during the two day rallies held around New York.

"In Our Time" was written by the young lyricist Ray Fox, with music by Hod David. The recording was produced by Fox, who spent the weekend mastering and editing the tapes to expedite the record's release as soon as possible.

Janus Sales Soar

with underground radio spots and 10,000 full color posters of the blonde nude featured on their album cover. Folk artist Mike Cooper is making inroads into the folk market.

"The response has been phenomenal," said Schlachter. "We always thought we had one of the strongest initial LP releases of any new label, but sales have been even beyond our expectations. This unanimous approval from our distributors indicates that Janus is moving in the right direction."

'Must Maintain Image'

Janus, an independently run American label jointly owned by Rye Records of London and the GRT Tape Corp. of the U.S., is backing all product with heavy ad and promo campaigns. Schlachter believes, "In today's market, companies must mold and maintain an image. A new label must show that they have the ability to come out with hit product, and that they can follow through. They have to present a face that shows success or the firm promise of it."

Further establishing the Janus image is its distinctive modern logo, an abstraction of the ancient Roman god of good beginnings, Janus, who could see in two opposite directions simultaneously.

Janus Records is operating as a completely independent label in the U.S. Schlachter is signing artists and producers to the new company as well as purchasing masters. Available product from the Pye Records catalog is being released on Janus in this country. Several Pye artists will go to Janus once their existing contracts with American labels have expired.

GRT will have exclusive tape rights to all Janus product and Pye will have British disc rights to all product originated in America.

"Janus will be an all-around label, covering all types of music, from popular and R & B to classical and easy-listening. We will also establish a budget line. We anticipate a schedule of releases in excess of 100 singles and 50 albums per year," Schlachter said.

Before heading Janus Records, Schlachter was Executive VP and one of the principals of Scepter Records for the last nine years.

Nick Albarano was appointed Director of Marketing for Janus. He helms the label's Sales and Promotion departments. Bob Scerbo was named Production Director and Ed Fuchs became National Promotion Director.

Schlachter has made several production agreements with independent producers in this country and England, including Wes Farrell, Alan Lorber and John Madara.

Goody Stock Split, Dividends

Lifton was one of the founders of Transcontinental. Before its formation in 1961 he was a principal in the acquisition of a number of major real estate properties throughout the United States and Canada. A member of the New York Bar, Lifton is a graduate of City College of Business and Yale Law School.

Weingrow was also a founder of the company and has served as Executive Vice President since its inception. In addition to his duties as President of the parent corporation, he will also continue as Chairman of the Board of its largest subsidiary, Transcontinental Music Corp.

Diversified Experience

Greenhut has 20 years of diversified experience in operations and marketing in a number of industries. He comes to Transcontinental from Gulf & Western Industries, Inc., where he was Corporate Vice President. He was also Group Vice President in charge of the company's forest and paper products operations, a division that grossed $200 million annually.

The new Transcontinental Executive Vice President joined Gulf & Western in 1967 as Vice President to establish and direct the company's market information, planning and internal management consulting programs. Prior to that he was with Litton Industries for four years as Eastern Regional Manager of corporate consulting services. Before joining Litton, he held key managerial and operational posts in corporations engaged in electronics, distribution and aircraft manufacturing. He received his Bachelor's and Master's degrees in industrial engineering from New York University.

Blaine came to Transcontinental through its acquisition of North American Acceptance Corporation in 1963. He became President of that company in 1957 when he merged Bancplan Finance Company, a corporation he founded into North American.

Concert Review

Amber Gris Group Electric

NEW YORK—Amber Gris, a new nine-man jazz rock configuration, proves that a nine-man jazz rock configuration does not necessarily have to sound like Blood, Sweat & Tears to be a smash act. I happen to think Amber Gris is better.

The group, whose name comes from a certain whale by-product used in the making of perfume (oh well, what's in a name?), has signed with Paramount and has been playing together (very together) since July.

Amber Gris' act at the Electric Circus featured great arrangements of new and old material presented in a jazz rock motif which was tight but provided for spontaneity, a quality on which the band builds constructions which range from complex to funky.

Instrumentation is as follows: singer-conga player, keyboard man who plays organ and piano at the same time (one hand on each keyboard); an unusual horn section of two trombones and two trumpets; bass, handled by Jerry Weiss who formerly was a member of the Blood, Sweat & Tears horn section; and Billy Shay on guitar.

Their repertoire included "Walkin' on the Water," which featured fine singing and a touch of Latin flavor, and a solid soul version of Otis Redding's "Hard to Handle" most notable for some funky trombone solos.

One of the standouts of the evening is "Forget It I Got It." This one features some tricky time changes which the group executed beautifully. Heavy Latin type horn riffs could have been monotonous, but this group is all dynamism — it is inconceivable that they could ever bore. In view of the success Santana is enjoying, "Forget It I Got It" would seem to have real potential as a single.

Otis Redding's "Happy Song" was done justice by the group and Billy's choppy guitar work could easily have been mistaken for Steve Cropper's. "Chocolate Pudding" featured a heavy sound and some nifty jive lyrics, and "Home Grown" was a genuine down home (if home happens to be St. Marks Place) ode to the glories of nature.

This group has everything; all it needs is some exposure and a recording which is able

Solid State Acquires '1969 Jazz Wave'

NEW YORK — Solid State Records has acquired the recording rights to "1969 Jazz Wave," an all-star jazz and blues package slated to tour Europe from Dec. 6-15. The tour was conceived and is being produced by Sonny Lester via his Sonny Lester Productions, Inc.

Lester, long active as an A&R executive and independent producer, has had a close association with Solid State since its formation four years ago. Currently, he produces several of the label's artists including Thad Jones-Mel Lewis Orchestra with whom he recently returned from Europe where they enjoyed SRO business at each juncture. The success of their tour, coupled with what he feels is Europe's unquenchable thirst for good American Jazz and Blues, prompted his entrance into the impresario field with his "1969 Jazz Wave."

The package will total 36 all-star musicians, including the 17-piece Thad Jones-Mel Lewis Jazz Orchestra, along with Kenny Burrell, Jimmy McGriff, Freddie Hubbard, Jeremy Steig and others. Their itinerary includes: Rome, Milan, Frankfurt, Zurich, Paris, London, Manchester, Bristol and other stops.

Recordings evolved from the tour will be scheduled for future release by Solid State. Lester will tour with the package in order to supervise recording activity. He will be accompanied by attorney Howard Beldock of Beldock and Kushnick, who negotiated the terms of the deal with Peter Lane, representing the label.

Esther Marrow: Star on Rise

NEW YORK — The Village Vanguard, a darkly lit basement jazz club on Seventh Avenue, which is, in dingy atmosphere, reminiscent of Steve Paul's Scene, is playing a fantastic jazz-blues talent named Esther Marrow. She records for Bob Thiele's Flying Dutchman label and could very easily be established as a star in the Dionne Warwick tradition, although her demeanor is more intimate than Dionne's.

Miss Marrow was backed by Kenny Baron on organ, John Williams on bass and Rudy Collins on drums. The trio is talented and blended well with her voice. She sang mostly standards such as "Dock of the Bay" and "California Dreamin'," but she has the vocal ability to make every note a separate life. She combines the range of Aretha Franklin with the tact of Judy Collins. Voice comparisons are so pointless; suffice it to say that she has a unique and entrancing style, filled with soul and without a drop of pretense.

ROLAND KIRK—Atlantic SD 1534.

On the back of this album Kirk writes "We are all driven by an invisible whip. Some run, some have fun, some are hip, some tip, some dip, but we all must answer to the invisible whip." That explains the title and the musical drive that moves this funky package.

OH! CALCUTTA!

RON ANTHONY—Flying Dutchman FDS 110.

London Lowdown

By JEAN GRIFFITHS

LONDON—Andy Williams is back on our screens again once a week, and this will stimulate sales of his records here even more. His latest CBS release, "A Woman's Way," will get plenty of exploitation as Andy built up a fair store of good will on his visit to London last year among djs and the public alike . . . Executive of Major Minor Records Pat Campbell is also well known in Britain for introducing BBC's "Country Style" program. He now is making his name in another direction. He made a record, "The Deal," and it has made the charts . . . Keith Christmas has a fine sense of timing. His name won't be any handicap to him at this time of year to help his first album, "Stimulus," on RCA . . . Ian Ralfini, Managing Director of Warner/Reprise, must be well pleased that Fleetwood Mac has hit the top with "Oh Well"—their first release under the new deal with the Reprise label.

More press officers on the move—Alistair Taylor exits the Dick James Organization and Bob Houston leaves Tony Barrow International to join a daily publication, and a change of heart for Mike Housego who was going to leave the Robert Stigwood Organization but now will stay . . . Pye Records' new act Generation Gap, with members from various past hit groups, and under the direction of John MacLeod, have recorded "Reach the Top" . . . If such a thing can be imagined, Ginger Baker (in case anybody's forgotten—drummer with Blind Faith) has been offered a part in a Western. Like the man said, "Playing a cowboy appeals to me and I might find a quiet spot on the ranch for my drum kit" . . . Postponed launch of Bee Gees' new record label until the New Year . . . Members of Radha Krishna Temple wander up and down London's Oxford Street chanting happily to themselves . . . Raggae gains more impact after gather of 3,000 at a London ballroom last week to hear top names of the Raggae cult . . . Gene Vincent will star in two special concerts at London's Palladium on Nov. 23 . . . Plenty of raves for Marmalade's new Decca offering, "Reflections of My Life" . . . The Moody Blues have an hour-long radio show to themselves over the Christmas holiday and will obviously pull in top listening figures . . . A & M Executives Jerry Moss and Gil Friesen in town for Herb Alpert's Royal Variety show appearance . . . John Lennon has offered a group of hippies the use of his island off the coast of County Mayo, Ireland; rent-free—the hippies are now looking the property over.

BBC is releasing their own children's label via the BBC Radio Enterprises set-up. The label, Roundabout, will offer popular children's programs in album form at the rate of approximately one a month . . . American Rock Band Chicago start their European tour in London on Dec. 1 . . . Mixed blessing for Donovan's fans depending on whether they managed to get a ticket to his sell-out one man concert in London on Dec. 6 as a sort of welcome back after his long visit to the states . . . Philips Records is advertising to fill the post to be vacated by Managing Director Leslie Gould. The salary offered is £10,000 . . . Mel Collins, head of Active Management is winging his way to New York this week (staying at Warwick House) primarily to discuss U.K. product with RCA and finalize a deal with Epic Records for his group the Argent . . . Songwriter Barry Mason is currently engaged in making an album with South African golf champion Gary Player. The album is for MCA release early next year.

BERLIN—SEX is paying off in record sales with lyrics that give impetus to the overstocked record buyers in a singles market that is gradually being overtaken by LPs . . . White Whale's Ted Feigin & Lee Lasseff could have a single hit in Germany with their Latin-tempered version of "Love Is for the Two of Us," if the record ever gets released here . . . One of the ablest, nicest people in the music biz here, Rudy Förster, the boss of the giant UFA Pubbery, sent us a grateful letter and tremendous LP of the standards of his firm because of our feature on their 50th birthday . . . The voice of Liane Covi oozes atmosphere à la midnight in her Teldec recording of "In Einer Walzernacht" (In a night of waltzes) . . . Beatles riding high here again with "Something," and I can't wait until I hear "The Ballad of Paul" which MGM is shouting to the rooftops . . . Wilfred Jung, Prexy of Electrola in Cologne, has been continuously on the move since he stepped into the top spot, and the singles and LPs are jumping in sales here, while the wide-awake Dr. L. Veder of EMI team moves the product throughout the world.

Bibb Smooth Entertainer

NEW YORK — Leon Bibb is no folkie any longer. He has recently dedicated his efforts to becoming an involved supper club singer. His opening at the St. Regis' Maisonette recently showed his transition to be a smooth and complete one.

The opening night crowd was put at ease by Bibb's mellow baritone as he went through a basically contemporary repertoire. Numbers included Jim Webb's "Didn't We," Leonard Cohen's "Suzanne" which is fast becoming the contemporary folk song to be included in a crooner's act, and a version of "C. C. Rider" which was, perhaps, too brassy and not bluesy enough.

On the more traditional side, Bibb rendered a cute version of "Knock Me a Kiss" and put "I'm Gonna Move to the Outskirts of Town" right in the proverbial groove. One of the high points of the evening was a song/poem tribute to Ma Rainey and another tribute to Billie Holiday with "God Bless the Child." These numbers showed real inspiration and one could only have wished that Bibb had given this sort of material and approach a larger share of his program.

The closing number was "This Is My Life," and it proved to be a powerful showstopper. In encore performance, Bibb presented an emotion-packed "Oh Shennandoah" which delighted the first-nighters.

Bibb records for RCA and should be selling quite a few disks in the future if he manages to couple his great talent with more convincing material and arrangements.—Bob Merlis.

College News

By D. W. PHILLIPS

Executive Director National Entertainment Conference

Since the beginning of this academic year a great number of college students, faculty and staff have been trying to determine what the current tastes of students are related to the field of entertainment. Those who have followed the status quo have found that a poor box office or student criticism have caused many hours of discussion as to what the students want.

It is apparent that students are becoming more involved in the educational process in all levels of college life. Entertainment for entertainment's sake is still a determining factor in the life of today's college students, but there is a definite trend towards those artists and programs that extend the classroom training. Classical artists, lecturers and the theater are enjoying a new high in bookings with a great deal of emphasis being placed on the performer-student discussions outside of the standard concert, lecture or theatrical production. There is an awareness on the part of the student as to the value of informed discussions and contact that has never been realized before.

Films Another Area

The area of films is another area of entertainment that is enjoying a period of growth. Films of all types are being booked and in unprecedented numbers. Films that were collecting dust on shelves of distributors just a year ago are now being enjoyed by large numbers of students. Many classic festivals have sprung up in the past year with more being added each day. Old films of John Wayne, Alfred Hitchcock, Charlie Chan, etc. have become popular among college students and foreign films are also sharing in that popularity. Many film clubs are being formed and the members are discussing the technical qualities after the film. Faculty members and people outside of the college community are being asked to discuss the writer, producer, and/or director and out of these programs film-making clubs are evolving.

These film-making clubs are developing good student producers and are bringing to the campuses the underground movies.

Probably the most phenomenal growth in entertainment has been that of the theater. In every corner of the country there is an increase on the part of college students to book theater events. Part of the reason for this is due to the fact that more theatrical events are available to the students than ever before. There is evidence that the educational interest of students is affecting the theater going habits of college students. The old classics such as those by Shakespeare are drawing larger crowds and most of these people are college students. Even in the area of locally produced plays there is an increase on the part of the students.

There have been many reasons given for this change in emphasis in entertainment, but there are three reasons which seem to prevail over all others. Student involvement, cost and exposure are the most often heard reasons for the change in interest on the part of students when discussing the performing and visual arts.

Students are more interested in involving themselves with the artist and to take an active part in the presentation. They have become aware of the value of involvement and therefore seek out those programs that will let them get involved. In the same sense the high cost of entertainment has caused many of today's students to turn away from those artists who make it to the top, both in popularity and cost.

Schedules a Problem

Schedules or attitudes of these artists often make it impossible for the student to get involved with the artist. Coupled with this is the awareness on the part of student promoters that it is becoming harder to make a profit on big name talent. Cost and the third factor, exposure, work against the high-priced artist. Student committees argue that big name talent is so expensive that students will not attend because of the necessity of having to price the tickets too high. Therefore, the point of

High School Entertainment Service Bows

NEW YORK—A new organization, High School Entertainment Service, is being launched here by Walli Elmlark who has spent the last several years involved in the management, development and recording of new talent.

Miss Elmlark's enterprise will make young professional recording and working acts available for individual High School programs in the metropolitan area. They will be available on a basis that will coincide with the budget limitations of the various High Schools.

The kick-off for the new service is an "Ice Cream Thing" to be held at the Bitter End in New York on Dec. 6, 1969.

During the course of the afternoon 300 guests from area High Schools will see a succession of music and comedy acts who will then be available under the new plan.

"The purpose of the High School Entertainment Service is twofold," noted Miss Elmlark. "It will provide work for new acts who might not otherwise have any place to develop their talents before an audience and it will also provide quality entertainment for young people who, due to the great cost of entertainment, are not exposed to a great deal of live talent."

The High School Entertainment Service will be located at 162 West 56 St., Suite 207, New York, N.Y. 10019.

Brown Forms College Ad Service

NEW YORK — Paul Brown Promotions has formed an advertising service division dealing exclusively with commercial college stations.

The new division, to be handled through Donald Weisbrot Associates, will provide record labels with a full service, three-pronged collegiate program. Supplementing PBP's normal servicing of 565 college stations with its clients' recorded product, Brown will now take advantage of the growing number of stations who have gone commercial. To date, there are some 230 college stations accepting commercial advertising, Brown said.

Also part of Brown full service collegiate program is complete coordination between the label's radio advertising and promotion campaign and sales at college bookstores.

exposure enters the picture. An often heard point is: why would a student buy a ticket when the artist will be on television shortly? The efficiency of the television industry to develop the super specials along with several other points have caused student committees to reevaluate their programs and to look towards new avenues for programs.

There is much discussion going on around the college campuses and among campuses that should cause many changes over the next few years. The effects of these discussions are not being felt now, but if they continue the entire entertainment program on the campuses could change drastically.

Discobook A 'First'

NEW YORK — A composer and an author who have a lot in common were honored at a reception given last week (19) at the offices of the Times-Mirror Corp. and its subsidiary, the World Publishing Co. The composer is Joseph René; the author Gwen Davis; in common: "The Pretenders."

Miss Davis wrote the best seller, called by Gypsy Rose Lee, "The dirtiest book I have ever read." Joe René is the creator with Jackie Reinach of a new Philips album entitled "Music to Read the Pretenders By." The concept of an album of associative music to be used in recalling or reading portions of a book is called Discobook. "Music to Read the Pretenders By" reportedly is a "first" in the field.

The music was inspired by and specifically written for scenes in the book, but the music is good enough to be appreciated without ever having read the book. It is getting airplay at some stations and Miss Davis has been promoting the book and LP by appearing on TV talk shows and reading passages from "The Pretenders" (with bleeps in the appropriate places) over "Music to Read the Pretenders By."

To capture this experience Amos Records commissioned Ivan Nagy of Camera 5 and Bob Lockhart Graphics to create a 12-page color nude art study. The booklet will be inserted into a double fold package and will retail for $7.98.

Hinton stated that he and his staff are currently pursuing material for the new Id label. "No matter how unorthodox the concept would be material would be auditioned as potential product for the label." Hinton concluded that the pricing on all Id Records product will be flexible based upon the unique marketing and merchandising demands for albums.

on record and tape sales, we are placing heavy emphasis in this medium also," Lucas said. He added that radio spots of varying lengths have been supplied to distributors for placement with appropriate radio stations in their markets.

"With this radio and newspaper exposure, we feel we will be saturating the most important markets with an effective sales push for our best selling product," Lucas continued.

Accessories

In addition to the advertising, there will be the following point-of-sale accessories: two 4-color mobiles featuring a total of 16 pieces of product, a 4-color streamer in the shape of a wreath featuring the "This Christmas Let Your Gifts Be Heard" theme, and mounted album covers of RCA's 25 best selling albums. Additionally, distributors have been provided blanket ad mats featuring best selling product as well as an ad mat reproduction of the consumer newspaper ad for additional placement in local markets.

Epic Sales Record

television appearances all spell out Epic's Sly and the Family Stone. "Dance to the Music," "Stand" and their million-selling single, "Everyday People," as well as their best-selling chart LPs, "Dance to the Music" and "Stand," also have gained the group the reputation of being one of the hottest vocal/instrumental combos on the scene. Their latest single, "Hot Fun in the Summertime," is a chartbuster.

On their way to topping this year's success, Sly and the Family Stone will appear in concert on Feb. 13 at Madison Square Garden.

1969 was also a peak year for Epic's Bobby Vinton. This vocalist has performed in just about every top nightclub in the United States, received numerous awards from consumer and trade publications and sold more single records than any other single male artist on Epic. Bobby's recent LPs, "I Love How You Love Me," featuring the title single which was awarded a gold record; "Please Love Me Forever"; "Take Good Care of My Baby" and "Vinton" have all been out-and-out best-sellers and chart LPs. Bobby is also familiar to television audiences. There has been tremendous initial reaction to

There also is to be extensive trade advertising throughout the period.

"Tape, spearheaded by Stereo 8, now accounts for over a quarter of our total sales volume and continues to be the most dynamic growth segment of the recorded entertainment industry, so it is very natural that we also place strong advertising and promotion emphasis on tape during the very heavy buying months leading up to Christmas," Lucas said.

In line with this, he said RCA will have extensive tape trade and consumer advertising. Included are to be full page advertisements in consumer magazines.

Within the Stereo 8 campaign, strong attention is being given to RCA's recent introduction of budget Stereo 8 product lines of Victrola classical tapes and Variety 8 cartridges. RCA's stereo cassettes also will receive impressive exposure.

Point of sale accessories include an RCA Tape Center Mobile/Window-wall card and a Variety 8/Victrola mobile as well as copies of 4-color ads which have appeared in trade publications.

"Bobby Vinton's Greatest Hits of Love."

In the more contemporary vein, Epic boasts the British pop group, the Jeff Beck Group. Following the success of their best-selling "Truth" LP, their latest "Beck-ola" is creating an even greater following for the blues-rock of Beck.

New to the label this year are the contemporary sounds of Terry Reid, Jo-Ann Kelly and Keith Barbour. Reid's second Epic album, "Terry Reid," has been garnering top sales, and his appearances have been met with raves throughout the states. Jo-Ann Kelly is also British. Barbour is a multi-talented young singer whose first single, "Echo Park," received such a tremendous reaction that an LP of the same name was produced.

Epic's group roster includes the new sounds of Poco and Kaleidoscope. Poco, whose debut LP, "Pickin' Up the Pieces," held a consistently high chart position, has been acclaimed as "one of the tightest groups around." Kaleidoscope, the group that broke up the Newport Festival last year, is also part of Epic's contemporary roster. Their "Kaleidoscope" album was a best-seller, and the group's concert appearances only added to their audience and their sales.

Epic's country catalog has been a great part of the sales explosion. Tammy Wynette and David Houston have proven to be consistent best-sellers for both albums and singles. Her latest single, "The Ways to Love a Man," is receiving heavy play. "Tammy's Greatest Hits" is also a chartbuster.

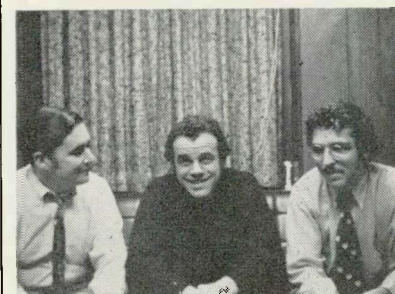

Houston's single, "Baby, Baby," holds a top position on the singles charts. His latest Epic LP, "David," is also moving upward. Both of these artists have also managed to bridge the gap between country and popular music, and their records are played by both types of stations.

There has also been consistent chart action by artists like Stan Hitchcock, Charlie Walker, Mac Curtis, Bob Luman and Tommy Cash (Johnny's brother).

With Epic's first nine months in 1969 so very successful, the label looks forward to an even bigger year in 1970. With the signing of such new groups as Catfish, Argent and McGrath and Potter, projections are that the label will have even bigger sales next year.

LaRosa Career In Upswing

NEW YORK—Julius LaRosa, currently appearing at the Persian Room, stopped off at Record World's office to say hello last week. He has a moving single out titled "Where Do I Go" on Crewe Records, produced by Bob Crewe.

Record World Editor Doug McClelland, Julius LaRosa and Record World's Bob Merlis.

Julius is active in the performing world on two fronts. He has a six-day per week radio disk jockey show on WNEW and, of course, is now making some club appearances. He recently inked a pact with the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas to appear for 14 weeks per year. He will appear when he is on vacation from his radio duties, as he sees his main activity to be radio.

Lauds Greengrass

Julius attributes the recent upswing in his career to his manager, Kenny Greengrass, whom Julius says is really a manager-administrator. As Julius puts it, "The pieces started to fit together."

Julius also has a restaurant bearing his name in Miami.

Contemporary material is used in his Persian Room show, songs by Jim Webb, Neal Diamond and John Philips. Julius will be cutting an album for Crewe following his Persian Room engagement, after, as he says, "the pipes have a rest."

King Goes Commercial

NEW YORK — Following a two-week tour of England and a concert with the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, Stax recording artist Albert King flies to Los Angeles to film a television commercial for Miller High Life Beer. King is currently featured in a series of radio ads for Miller.

Albert King headlined the "American Folk, Blues & Gospel Festival '69" which included John Lee Hooker, Otis Spahn and Champion Jack Dupree and toured England from Oct. 30 to Nov. 12.

On Sunday, Nov. 16, King appeared at Powell Symphony

Hall in St. Louis with the St. Louis Orchestra, conducted by Leonard Slotkin. The orchestra backed King in several of his own compositions.

The Miller Beer TV commercials will be filmed in Los Angeles from Nov. 17 to 21. King was selected for the ads after Miller executives flew from their home office in Milwaukee to view a performance by the dynamic blues singer/guitarist at the Kinetic Playground in Chicago.

King's latest Stax album is "Albert King Does the King's Things."

At 25, Curb is the youngest executive in MGM history to be given such a high appointment. Aubrey stated: "Curb will have significant stock holdings in MGM Records." Further details concerning these new developments will be revealed this week at a press conference in New York to be held by Curb and Lifton.

No announcement regarding the MGM plant in Bloomfield, N. J., was made at press time, but it was stated that its future will be determined by Curb.

In addition to hits with these artists he was engaged in the promotion of that label's "Man of La Mancha" cast LP which evolved into a million seller and continues as a staple catalog item, and the 1967 Academy Award winning "Born Free" by Roger Williams.

Armond will headquarter at UA's New York offices working closely with local branch promotion managers and with Stuart Greenberg, recently named to concentrate on progressive product, and with Emilio Garcia and Frank Bibilone who are responsible for the promotion of the extensive UA Latino label.

Mike Lipton, VP and General Manager, said, "We feel most fortunate in securing the services of so seasoned and experienced a man as Gene. His vast knowledge of programming policies and wide circle of longstanding friends within the broadcasting and record field will prove to be an asset of inestimable value to the company. We welcome him as a congenial associate and look forward to the contribution we know he will make."

Liberty/UA Vice President of A&R and Promotion Bob Skaff hailed the appointment as "an addition that's a plus to any staff . . . I truly look forward to working with Gene."

Prior to his long association with Kapp, Armond held posts with Everest Records and was most recently associated with Gerald Purcell in GWP Records.

Auspicious Start for Weiss

There's enough happening on the Larry Weiss front these days to make one sit up and take notice.

Weiss set up his own business a little over four months ago, starting off with a roster of three groups, Comstock, Ltd. (Bell), the Del Royals featuring Willy Johnson (Mercury) and Ithaca (Vanguard). A few weeks ago he returned from England after negotiating with EMI's publishing wing Ardmore-Beechwood Music, for worldwide representation of his publishing interests.

Now Weiss reports that the Ithaca record of "Bow Down" (a Record World cover "Pick") is building and gathering pop, R & B and FM play simultaneously in Chicago, Detroit, Philadelphia, Phoenix, San Francisco, Buffalo, Syracuse, Albany, Portland (Maine) and New York City. If it continues to get the kind of exposure it's been getting, Weiss could end up with his first chart record as in independent producer.

Action has also been heavy on the Del Royals record of "Man of Value." Last week Weiss met with the heads of sales and promotion at Mercury Records in Chicago to discuss promotion of the record, which has been enjoying top R & B play in Baltimore, Washington, Philadelphia, St. Louis, Detroit, Milwaukee and Cleveland.

Weiss made a trip to Ithaca, New York, this past weekend to meet with Bobby Comstock and go over material for a new session. Comstock, who recently appeared at Madison Square Garden's Felt Forum as part of the "1950's Rock 'n Roll Revival—Volume II," has been booked to tour with the same show.

Weiss is presently preparing new sessions for all three of the above mentioned groups and is also negotiating deals for two new acts he will be recording shortly.

New Vistas For Deutsche Grammophon

NEW YORK — Deutsche Grammophon, 75-year leader in the international classical music scene, has been seeking new vistas through which to expand and increase its image since it opened its United States office as an independent company, Polydor Inc.

In this era when classical music is supposedly reaching limited audiences, Deutsche Grammophon has succeeded in discovering new areas and techniques of exposure for its artists and product. Through constant promotion and dealer enlightenment, the label no longer is thought of as a "specialized" catalogue, and it is rapidly gaining a major share of the market.

One giant step in the "popularization" of classical music occurred last year with the spectacular success of what is now commonly known as the "Elvira Madigan" concerto of Mozart. Historically, it was the first time Mozart hit number one on the charts, and it was also the first time Deutsche Grammophon held that coveted position.

Close on the heels of this champion album, and boosted by the sensational reception given the film "2001: A Space Odyssey," came two additional chart climbers. "Also Sprach Zarathustra" introduced a whole new generation to Richard Strauss, especially those who preferred the complete work rather than just the snippet heard in the film, and on the "sound track" recording. The same film also revitalized "The Blue Danube," a work which for all its previous familiarity never achieved such volume sales before.

Another Image Changer

Another image changer has been the recently released Avant Garde series, which specializes in the contemporary music so vibrant in the field today. Headed by works of today's masters of music, including Stockhausen, Berio, Kagel, Lutoslawski, Mayuzumi, Penderecki and Ligeti, the collection has strong appeal to the youth market of today, and because of its uniqueness has frequently sold much better than standard repertoire items for which there is catalogue duplication.

Deutsche Grammophon has also been lauded for its signing of the Boston Symphony and the Boston "Pops" Orchestras to an exclusive agreement. This step was deemed essential in presenting to the record buying public a truly international image and, while recording does not begin until September, 1970, Deutsche Grammophon looks forward to recording the orchestras in a varied repertoire covering areas of music never available to the European-produced label before, as well as utilizing, along with their own roster of international soloists, many young American ones who normally perform with the orchestras.

Providing classical music for the widest possible variety of people is not a new thought on the part of Deutsche Grammophon. Several years ago, they issued the SKL series, with the Nine Beethoven Symphonies conducted by Herbert von Karajan and the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra, introducing "special editions" to the market. The latest release in the series, often imitated by the competition, is Mozart's "The Great Symphonies," which last week joined the previously issued Beethoven set on the charts.

The most recent of their "introductory" type product to bring good music and Deutsche Grammophon artists to this wide market is "A Karajan Festival." This album presents Herbert von Karajan and the Berlin Philharmonic Orchestra performing four familiar favorites, for a limited time, at the special low price of $3.98, suggested list. It is the first time Deutsche Grammophon has made such an offer, as it usually believes in maintaining its regular list price.

One of the many projects in which Deutsche Grammophon is currently involved is the recording of Wagner's "Ring" cycle, the third volume of which, "Siegfried," has just been released. As the work was slated for production at the Metropolitan Opera this season, current circumstances may prevent the production, and it is quite possible that the album version will be the only way of hearing Karajan's interpretation of the music drama. "Götterdämmerung" is the only work yet unrecorded; it is scheduled for release next year.

Of great significance in the increase of classical business has been the tremendous public awareness of cassettes. Deutsche Grammophon was a

Guercio's 'Creative Community'

When American record producer James William Guercio arrived in London a few months ago to set up the forthcoming European tour for Chicago, whom he manages and produces, the press hailed his "creative community" that is also a self-supporting business.

James William Guercio Enterprises, Inc., includes a record production company (Poseidon), a personal management firm (Epimetheus), six music publishing houses (Diogenes, Athena, Antonius, Aphrodite, Archimedes and Aurelius), a company for printed media, including posters, sheet music, program books and periodicals (Hestia Press) and another for motion picture, television and concert production (Theseus, Ltd.).

Guercio's record production credits alone establish him as one of the top talents in the music business. He has received a gold record for the #1 album "Blood, Sweat & Tears" and he produced all of the group's hit singles, including "You've Made Me So Very Happy," "Spinning Wheel" and "And When I Die."

The double record album

"Chicago Transit Authority" which Guercio produced for Chicago went into the Top 20 of the LP charts. Demonstrating the range of his abilities, Guercio produced the symphonic "Moondog" album on Columbia's classical Masterworks label.

Five Top 10 Singles

In addition, Guercio produced five Top 10 singles for the Buckingham and their first two albums. He also records the Illinois Speed Press and his Poseidon Productions records the Firesign Theatre, a quartet of writer/actors specializing in surrealist comedy.

RCA Stars Take Europe

By BOB MERLIS

NEW YORK — Four heroes and two heroines of country music returned last week (18) from an enormously successful concert tour of Finland, Germany, Denmark, Sweden, Norway and England.

Five of the RCA artists, Bobby Bare, George Hamilton IV, Connie Smith, Nat Stuckey and Skeeter Davis, left two weeks ago on the concert and promotion tour. Last week they were joined in London by Chet Atkins, RCA Country Division Vice-President and Executive Producer of RCA's Nashville operations and a living legend among guitarists. Chet was present for the stars' final concert, a sell-out at London's Royal Albert Hall.

The tour was an unqualified success, according to Nat Stuckey who pointed out that many times, towns with one concert scheduled sold out and extra shows had to be added. Connie Smith thought the Albert Hall had "a great atmosphere" in spite of its size and called the tour "a challenge."

While in Europe, Skeeter Davis was presented a silver record for sales of "The End of the World" in Norway. Bobby Bare collected a gold record in Norway for his smash "Detroit City."

George Hamilton IV enjoyed great success with foreign audiences who especially liked his recent hit "Canadian Pacific."

Country Makes Gains

The stars all brought back word that country music is making tremendous gains in Europe, especially among college students. George thought country music was enjoying this success because "it's folk music." Chet was impressed by local country groups in England and said some were as good as any he'd heard at home.

The artists were honored at a reception at LaGuardia Airport as they were between planes from London to New York and New York to Nashville. After a well-earned rest at home, George Hamilton IV and Skeeter Davis thought that they may be performing in New York.

After its success in Europe, country music should find New York an easy territory to capture.

Del Reeves To Top Billing

NASHVILLE — Dolores Smiley, VP of Top Billing, Inc., has announced that effective Jan. 1, 1970, Del Reeves & the Good Time Charlies will be represented exclusively by Top Billing and they are now accepting 1970 dates on Del and his band.

Mrs. Smiley says, "Del is one of the great showmen in country music. He is a United Artists Records superstar — his last 20 records have been in the Top 10 and 7 of these were #1 on the country charts. And now, Del is the star host of his own TV show, 'Del Reeves Country Carnival' which is already syndicated in over 50 major markets."

"Texas beauty queen Jamey Ryan (regular on "Country Carnival" and a Show Biz recording artist) has been added to Del's package for 1970.

Mrs. Smiley added, "Thanks to everyone our first year has been great." Since beginning a year ago with the Porter Wagoner Show, Top Billing has added the following acts to their roster of talent: Jim Ed Brown & the Gems, Maxine Brown, Bobby Helms & Dori Helms, Blake Emmons, Dee Mullins, Skip Gibbs, Billy Walker, Johnny Paycheck & The Cashiers, Pap Wilson, Chase Webster, Ayvon Jones, Joyce Moore and Warren Robb.

Capitol Inks Karen

HOLLYWOOD—Karen Kelly has been signed by Capitol Records in Nashville, Tenn.

Karen, who writes for Central Songs, a division of Beechwood Music Corporation, Capitol's publishing company, has performed on various USO tours. A country vocalist, she lives in Nashville.

Whitley Joins Republic

HOLLYWOOD — Charlie Adams, VP of Gene Autry's Republic Records, has announced the appointment of former Western movie star Ray Whitley as Public Relations and Promotion Chief for the newly re-activated label.

One of Most Popular Screen, Radio Singers

For the past five years before joining Republic, Ray owned and operated the Golden Valley Rifle and Pistol Range located in the Roger Jessup County Park, Calif. In 1936, Whitley was one of the most popular singing cowboys of stage, screen and radio. He made more than 50 motion pictures including 12 Tim Holt Westerns in which he became established as Holt's pal "Smokey" and starred in over 20 RKO short subjects which at that time were popular theatre attractions.

As a popular Western songwriter, Ray has written many songs including the all-time classic, "Back in the Saddle Again." According to General (Continued on page 64)

Tillis Joins Buddy Lee

Grand Ole Opry Star Mel Tillis, performer, songwriter and actor, has signed an exclusive representation contract with Buddy Lee Attractions in Nashville.

Tillis records for Kapp Records and has a current single, "These Lonely Hands of Mine." His next release was recorded last week under the direction of Kapp's Nashville A&R manager, Walter Haynes.

Known as Songwriter Outside C&W Field

Tillis is probably better known outside the country field as a songwriter. His most recent songwriting hit was the First Edition's version of "Ruby," which was a number one pop hit. Many other artists have recorded the same song, including such varied artists as Tom Jones and the Nashville Brass. Several parody versions have been released, and female answer versions were soon to follow. Tillis also wrote the country and pop standard, "Detroit City." A new piece of material was recorded recently by Glen Campbell, and Dean Martin has recorded several of this Pahokee, Fla. native's songs.

Tillis was recently signed as a regular on the projected NBC series, "Harper Valley USA," a situation comedy/variety show. The producers chose Tillis to play the local doctor. Tillis has also acted in several small budget motion pictures dealing with country music.

On His Way

"Tillis is well on his way to being one of the major stars in our business, and I'm delighted that he chose us to represent him," said Lee. "The only reason that our agency has been able to do what we've done in the last several years is because of the faith that artists like Mel have placed in us, and I hope that none of them will be disappointed."

Tillis' latest album for Kapp, "Mel's Greatest Hits," was released the first of November.

Warner Mack Cited

NASHVILLE — Decca artist Warner Mack was recently cited as honorary Lt. Governor in the State of Georgia by Gov. Lester Maddox.

The honor was bestowed on Mack at the close of his show in Gainesville, Ga., sponsored by Paul Gibson in conjunction with a local radio station.

Halsey to Coast

LOS ANGELES — Jim Halsey is in West Coast residence this week (24-28) as he accompanies his "Hee Haw" artists Roy Clark, who tapes NBC's "Bing Crosby Special" Monday (24) for Dec. 18 airing, and Archie Campbell, skedded to tape the Dec. 20 segment of "Hollywood Palace" here on Friday, Nov. 26.

New Sugarhill Label Formed

Sugarhill Records has been formed in Nashville by Cliff Williamson and Vance Bulla on a 50-50 partnership basis. They were very emphatic about this because of speculation going around that Sugarhill is part of Chart Records, since Cliff is the son of Chart's president, Slim Williamson.

National distribution has already been set up and the first releases were shipped on Nov. 14.

Planning Big Things

Although the company is planning big things, they are starting out with only two artists for the present. Both are new faces on the music scene, Dewey Howard and a 17-year-old, Jackie Day.

Sugarhill Records will be released only on the basis of what the owners feel is a good record. Djs wishing to receive Sugarhill samples should write to the label at the following address: Suite 218, 806 16th Ave., So. Nashville, Tenn. 37203.

Whitley/Republic

Manager Wes McWain, Ray plans an extensive promo tour after the first of the year personally visiting key stations and disk jockeys throughout the country as well as Republic distributors.

New Johnson Singles

Little Richie Johnson has several new singles he is working on: Ray Reeves, Dee Mullins, Jimmy Snyder, David Wilkins, Faron Young, Kari Scott, Johnny Cash, Sonny Freeze, Jackie Burns and several others.

Djs may obtain by writing: Little Richie Johnson, Box 3, Belen, New Mexico 87002.

Arnold One-Nighters

Eddy Arnold will do his annual winter one-night concert tour to about 14 cities between Jan. 16 and Feb. 21, announces Jerry Purcell, his personal manager.

HANK THOMPSON SALUTES OKLAHOMA

Dot DLP 25971.

A novel theme for a country album. Hank sings songs that are about Oklahoma exclusively, and it turns out that state has inspired some fine ditties. The only one not here is the Rodgers-Hammerstein "Oklahoma!" Ought to score heavily.

pioneer in the development of this new format, and has been prominent in producing them and constantly improving the reproduction so that their product has been heralded by many as the best in the business. Today, with a catalogue of nearly 200 selections in the classical area, it may be considered one of the reasons many domestic companies are competing for their share of the cassette market.

The fact that Deutsche Grammophon entered the cassette scene from the ground floor did not mean that they would eliminate additional configurations. Their reel-to-reel product was licensed to Ampex and has been achieving high sales figures for a good number of years; 8-track cartridges are also being manufactured by Polydor, Inc., from Deutsche Grammophon material.

Schoenbaum Guiding Force

A guiding force behind this expansion is Jerry Schoenbaum, President of Polydor, Inc. Having thoroughly familiarized himself with the product several years back when it was distributed by MGM, Schoenbaum has never ceased setting new marketing strategies and sales campaigns. Schoenbaum feels that "you must sell the product where the market is and to those that are interested. A Bach customer may not be interested in Henze or Stockhausen, just as the opera lover may not buy anything other than vocal music. It is necessary to reach these consumers at their own levels and on their own terms."

Schoenbaum, therefore, felt that it might be a good idea to handle the catalogue according to types of music, rather than as a whole. As a result, advertising campaigns are underway in the "underground" newspapers and radio stations for material that is avant garde, whereas standard clas-

Next Champ: Merle Haggard

"And in this corner, the next champion . . ."

Word from insiders is that the next "champion" to come out of country music to make an impact on the total music world will be Capitol recording artist Merle Haggard.

"Haggard is following in the footsteps of Glen Campbell and Johnny Cash. It's inevitable that he be a smash success," one knowledgeable noted.

That success is evident when you note that every single release by Merle has immediately moved up on the country music charts, all his albums, too, including his newest for Capitol, "Portrait of Merle."

Haggard's success in the music world away from the country scene is also pointed out by his appearances on the Johnny Carson show, Joey Bishop show, Lennon Sisters show, Glen Campbell's "Good-time Hour," "Music Scene," "Hee Haw" and other shows.

Next LP Dramatic

Merle's next album will perhaps be his most dramatic. It will be a "live" album recorded on his concert tour. Haggard's entire concert will be recorded and then one or two cuts taken from each location on the tour.

Merle, his wife Bonnie Owens and the Strangers are slated for appearances in Beaumont, Texas; Pine Bluff, Ark.; Muskogee, Okla.; Wichita, Kansas; Huntsville, Texas; El Monte, Calif.; Chinle, Ariz.; Phoenix; Ft. Worth and El Paso.

The Haggard story, of course, is not new. From the time he burst into the limelight with his initial recordings, the singer has built a large and enthusiastic following.

It is this large following that will catapult him from the strictly country and western field to prominence in all of popular music.

His awards include Top Male Vocalist, Top Single and Album Artist, Most Programmed Male Vocalist and Top Selling Country Artist.

He writes most of the songs he records . . . and what Merle writes are hits. Some of his chart-toppers include "Swinging Doors," "The Bottle Let Me Down" and "Mama Tried."

He's moved to the top of the country recording field. He's moved to the top in personal appearances. And he'll soon become a giant in the whole recording industry.

"And in this corner, the next champion . . . Merle Haggard."

Chappell Reps Kerr Pubbery

Grob Music, the California-based publishing firm owned by Alex Grob and his wife, Anita Kerr, will be represented on an exclusive basis in the United States and Canada by Chappell & Co., Inc., and by Chappell & Co, Ltd., in the rest of the world under terms of contracts signed this week.

The agreement marks another step for the international publishing company into the mainstream of contemporary music following its entry into the rock field with writers C.C. Courtney and Peter Ling, creators of the rock musical "Salvation" and its recent major move into the Latin American area with Mio Music Co.

Miss Kerr, whose extensive catalogue is housed in Grob Music, is one of the country's most distinguished performing artists, arrangers, composers and producers. She is also leader of the Anita Kerr singers. Her recent collaborations with poet, lyricist and recording artist Rod McKuen has resulted in the current Warner Brothers hit LP, "For Lovers," whose success is only surpassed by their previous gold record, "The Sea."

In Chappell's New York offices, Norman Weiser, VP and General Manager, remarked that "There is little that remains unsaid about Anita Kerr's enormous contribution to American popular music. Our job is to give that music the broadest possible exposure. Our domestic offices, especially in New York and on the West Coast, and the Chappell network of offices around the world, will work closely with Alex Grob to achieve this end. We are also in the process of planning the development of other writers who will be assigned to Grob Music and look forward to many exciting projects with the company in other media."

Miss Kerr, the winner of two Grammy awards, is credited with having contributed in large part to the burgeoning "Nashville Sound" through her orchestral and choral arrangements.

She returns to Europe this February to receive an award in Holland for her musical contributions, after which she will travel to London for a series of personal appearances and recording dates. She is currently under contract to Dot Records.

Long Says Thanks for Music Industry To Charlotte's Paul Buck

CHARLOTTE, N. C.—Hubert Long, President, Hubert Long International, spoke for the music industry during the recent appreciation banquet here for Charlotte's Paul Buck. Long was on a dual mission, since he also invited Buck to represent him in the Oct. 11 & 12 go around of the annual Music City Invitational golf tourney.

A long-time admirer of Buck, Long deemed it an honor to be an attending participant when Buck's "hometown of 15 years" said a hearty "Thank you, Buck" recently via an appreciation luncheon, many personal tributes and presented him with a silver bowl and tray and a color TV/stereo console.

Moved to Charlotte In 1954

Well known in the entertainment field today, Buck moved to Charlotte in 1954 to manage the city's "white elephant" Coliseum/Auditorium. Since that time, he's put the facility on the national entertainment map and enriched the city's cultural and entertainment life many times over.

Among the products were 10 AIP soundtrack LPs including such top sellers as "Wild in the Street," "Born Losers," "The Trip," "Three in the Attic" and "Wild Angels," Volume 1 and 2.

"Wild Angels" was the first soundtrack in LP history to have both a Volume 1 and 2. Both volumes account for more than 700,000 units sold. In all, the AIP Sidewalk LPs sold more than two million units and accounted for nearly 10 million dollars in retail sales.

American International Pictures expects to release close to 15 soundtracks during the next year.

Owens' 'Toys for Tots' Benefit Due Dec. 13

Buck Owens will present his annual Christmas benefit show, "Toys For Tots," on Dec. 13 at 8 p.m. at the Bakersfield Civic Auditorium, Calif.

This star-studded country music show will be presented in conjunction with the USMC Reserve's "Toys for Tots" campaign. Appearing on the program along with Buck Owens and his Buckaroos, will be "Hee Haw" songstress Susan Raye; the Hagers, also from "Hee Haw"; Eddy Fukano, Buddy Alan, Gene Price and the Sandland Brothers.

Admission for the show will consist of a new, unwrapped toy. There will be no reserved seats, and tickets will be issued at the Civic Auditorium the night of the performance. People attending the show are instructed to take their toys with them to the show where they will be traded for a ticket for admission.

The Marine Corps Reserve will be on hand to collect the toys and usher in the auditorium. All toys will be distributed by the USMC Reserve to needy families and underprivileged children in the Bakersfield area.

The "Toys for Tots" show is financed entirely by Owens, and persons not able to attend the show may send a toy or a donation to the U.S. Marine Corps Reserve Center in Bakersfield, Calif.

Campbell's Year No 'Hee Haw'

Archie Campbell's year has been anything but a hee haw!

A definitely successful, award-winning artist for a number of years, RCA's Archie Campbell soared straight to hitville this year as a writer/regular on CBS' hit "Hee Haw" show. The results have been nothing short of fantastic and "good guy" Archie is having a ball proving "good guys with clean comedy DO have more fun."

Following a series of hit records with RCA songstress, Lorene Mann—which nabbed CMA and NARAS award nominations for the duo—Archie played his annual summer stint in Gatlinburg, Tenn. to nightly sell-out crowds. Reports are the two-month session of shows will have to look for new quarters in order to accommodate the forever increasing crowds.

Consolidating Material

Just prior to his resort area undertaking, Archie was knee-deep in "Hee Haw" corn when he spent several weeks consolidating and writing material for the Nashville-filmed show. Then came a few more "over-all attired" weeks where he "moonshined" before the cameras as a story-telling, neck clipping barber, a "corn spoutin' hill-billy" and a deadpanned singer/composer of "Pfft! You Were Gone."

The show went on the air in June and Archie came off the tube as one of the most in-demand performers on today's entertainment scene.

Deutsche Grammophon

sics are being promoted through the more normal music readers' media.

James J. Frey is the Classical Division Director of Sales and Marketing. Frey was largely responsible in expanding the sales of the "Madigan" album, and the music from "2001." A firm believer in advertising and promotion, it has been under Frey's guidance that advertising and promotion have been advanced and dealers are being supplied with more point-of-purchase material than previously. Much of it is taking on a more modern look, in an attempt to give the product a contemporary feeling. Frey also is very involved in the cassette and its further development. Also under Frey's management is the merchandising of the Archive label, product of early periods of music, authentically recorded and produced in Europe, and imported by Polydor, Inc.

Planning for Future

The future of classical music in this country may be questionable to many, but Deutsche Grammophon strongly believes in it and is planning for its abundance for many years to come. The only question pertains to where the market is and how to reach it, and what the current trend may be, but it seems insane to think that Beethoven could die after two hundred years of popularity. There will always be new generations, and methods of reaching the people that want to be reached.

Vikki Lawrence Debuts on Elf

NASHVILLE — Vikki Lawrence debuted her new Elf recording "And I'll Go" on a recent Carol Burnett show (CBS), where she appears regularly.

The record was written and produced by Sonny Curtis for Elf Records, Inc. This record marks Miss Lawrence's first endeavor in the recording field.

Elf, which is distributed by Amy-Mala-Bell of New York, is planning an extensive promotion on the record.

News: "It isn't surprising that the personal qualities from which Paul has built success have won him many friends in Charlotte. He has gone at his job with prodigious hard work, endless enthusiasm and devotion—above all, devotion — to the city, the quality of its life and in more ways than many suspect, to the strength of its economy."

"I've known Paul many years," added Long. "There really aren't words enough to describe what a great man he is. He's truly a legend in his own time."

'Nashville' Film Feature Due

NEW YORK — Independent film producer's Edwin Wilson and Amram Nowak have scored a first with live, on-the-spot coverage of modern day country music during their just completed feature filming of the 44th birthday celebration of the "Grand Ole Opry" in Nashville.

Largest in History

This year's "Opry" celebration, the largest in its history, attracted over 10,000 registered participants from every corner of the globe. Both Wilson and Nowak, working in direct cooperation with the Country Music Association, assured that every important aspect of country music, including performances and backgrounds of the artists who participated, were filmed. In addition, these scenes were augmented with formal and informal sessions and tours through all the varied activities of the celebration. Johnny Cash, Charley Pride, Sonny James, Chet Atkins, Loretta Lynn and Jeanie "C" Riley have been captured on film by Wilson and Nowak.

Wilson and Nowak are currently negotiating for a major distribution deal for the feature length country music film, tentatively titled "Nashville," with a planned theatrical release in early 1970.

"Your Time's Comin'!"

(So make hay while the sun shines.)

"Your Time's Comin' " (72983), Faron Young's hot up-and-coming single, follows his chart single "Wine Me Up" (72936), both came out of his high-rising album WINE ME UP.

We think you can capitalize on this fact. So let a word to the wise be sufficient.

Somewhere between black and white, hot and cold, happiness and sorrow, lies a place where the human experience need not be antagonized by prejudice or ignorance. For the time of year symbolized by peace we would like to bring you music—a record which reflects only the joy of the season.
