TRIP-A-DAY TO HAWAII WE'LL SEND YOU TO PARADISE

How could it possibly be more appropriate? The WAVE wants to send you to the most glorious waves in the world—Hawaii.

Every single workday, we'll be awarding a trip to Hawaii to a Club Wave member. How do you join, and how does it work? If you received this copy of Air-Waves in the mail—you're automatically entered! If you are not a current subscriber, join the club by faxing your name, address and daytime phone number to: "Club Wave Hawaii," (310) 559-WAVE (9283). Or, you can log on to our website at www.947wave.com.

Then, listen to Paul Crosswhite each weekday morning at 7:45. He'll tell you what hour during your workday we'll be announcing the winner of a glorious trip to Hawaii. If it's you, you'll have one hour to call us after you hear your name at (310) 840-7177... and you'll be on your way to the incredible Princeville Resort on Kauai, "Hawaii's Island of Discovery." The Princeville ranks among the finest resort destinations in all of Hawaii. It's located on the spectacular, history rich north shore of this lush island.

Kauai is our destination all during the Spring. Our next destination is the big island of Hawaii. All Summer, every single weekday, we'll be awarding a trip to the fabulous Hilton Waikoloa Village where you can swim with the dolphins. The Fall brings trips to the romantic, exciting island of Maui and a spectacular stay at the Ritz Carlton Kapalua. Hawaiian Airlines is our official carrier for the entire year!

Join Club Wave today—you could be on your way to paradise! A Trip-A-Day to Hawaii, every single weekday from 94.7 The WAVE.

After. All.

After a heart-stopping chopper tour of the entire island, after kayaking down a jungle river, after hiking to a secret waterfall, after bringing Hawaii's No. 1 rated golf course to its knees, return to uncompromising elegance. A luxurious ocean view room,

MUSIC NOTES

Music Notes keeps its eyes on the artists that make the music. We'll let you in on what they're up to... on and off stage, so you can get a better picture of the people behind the music.

Before Peter White became known as one of the premier guitarists in Smooth Jazz, he was among the many talented musicians whose names appeared in the liner notes of albums, but not on the cover. As a side player, he appeared on all of Basia's recordings and he played Spanish guitar on some notable Al Stewart albums. If you look through the credits on Stewart's "Year of the Cat" album, you'll find Peter credited for guitar. There's also a keyboardist called Don Lobster listed. That too, is Peter White. Peter's publishing credits, to this day, are ascribed to Lobster Music. Peter began working with Al Stewart in 1975. The nickname "Don Lobster" came about during some punchy down-time when the boys in the band were amusing themselves by coming up with goofy

Peter White

How about a group hug and then we all get back to work. Well, something like that. Now that Toni Braxton has settled her differences with LaFace Records, she is in the studio working on her next project. Oddly enough, it will be released on LaFace Records. In 1997 Braxton filed suit against the record label claiming her contract was invalid. LaFace countersued Braxton for breach of contract, prompting the platinum-selling singer to file bankruptcy. It's a mad-cap business.

band names. Since Peter was the youngest, the group thought it appropriate to give him the most Lawrence Welk and his Orchestra-like name. Whelk (with an h) is a crustacean, so from that grew "Don Lobster and His Music." Peter does actually have one other thing in common with Lawrence Welk: He can play a mean accordion.

Walter Beasley

The Berklee College of Music in Boston has long been considered one of the top music schools in the world. (It was named after its founder, Lee Berk). Among the alumni are Quincy Jones, Donald Fagen, Branford Marsalis, Jeff Golub and Pat Metheny. Saxophonist Walter Beasley was not only a student there, he returned to serve as professor. As of last semester, Professor Beasley is teaching a newly added course to the Berklee curriculum: Smooth Jazz.

Before he attended Berklee, Quincy Jones grew-up in Seattle where he hung around with another kid that made it big in the music business—Ray Charles. Quincy has more than two dozen Grammy Awards and has produced everything from Frank Sinatra's classic "Sinatra at the Sands" to the biggest-selling album of all time, "Thriller" by Michael Jackson. His first love though, was trumpet.

Dizzy Gillespie once gave Chuck Mangione one of his trademark bent-up trumpets. After it was stolen, Dizzy replaced it with a trumpet pendant and told him to be more careful. Chuck still has the pendant. We expect to hear the first new Chuck Mangione album since 1989 soon.

While we're talkin' trumpets, trumpeter and flugelhornist Rick Braun is back in the studio. This time, for a collaboration album with saxophonist Boney James. Congratulations are in order for Boney. His Sweet Thing CD has just been certified gold, which means that 500,000 copies have been sold.

One last note on the trumpet: Kenny G was once booked as the opening act for trumpet legend Miles Davis, but Miles insisted that Kenny close the show.

Smooth

She is smooth.

Compared to her, silk seems itchy. Talaya Trigueros has been the mid-day host here at The Wave for the past decade. Every weekday, we Southern Californians have the opportunity to tune in to 94.7FM and hear Talaya on the air. You've seen the ads that claim people move here for the cheese. We think they're moving here so they can listen to Talaya on the radio. Thanks to the magic of syndication, those people can just stay-put now, she is coming to their town.

The Wave debuted a new radio program called Smooth Weekend on February 13th. (a day before The Wave's 12th anniversary). It is a national, two-hour weekly radio show that focuses on Smooth Jazz. Our own Talaya is the host. She not only spotlights the music, she talks to the artists who make it. She gives us all a chance to really get to know the people behind the music. You'll hear about their lives outside of the recording studio and off the stage. The show is also about fun. With a name like Smooth Weekend, the nine-to-five grind is simply not part of the program. Talaya talks with celebrities to find out what they do with their free time. She visits with world-famous chefs, makes stops at luxurious resorts and takes us away for two perfect hours of indulgence. In addition, Smooth Weekend treats us to a live performance each week. It may be an exclusive recording of Sade captured live, or it may be an artist playing an acoustic set in the studio. Either way, you have a front row seat.

We invite you to tune in to 94.7 The Wave this Saturday night at 9:00. It is a great chance to get to know the people who make Wave music. It's also a lot of fun to hang out with Talaya on a Saturday night. Have a Smooth Weekend!
