A Letter from our Station Manager...

WHO ARE WE?
GOALS FOR KUCI
FUTURE HOPES
WHO ARE YOU?

WHY THE PROGRAM GUIDE?

KUCI is growing. We are operating on the campus of the University of California, Irvine. We are completely student operated and student supported right now-- but

KUCI is intensely aware that the calibre of its programming has reached out to the community around the university.

The listening audiences in Irvine, Santa Ana, Tustin, Newport Beach, Costa Mesa, Orange, Garden Grove and the outskirts of those cities have informed us that THEY LIKE OUR STATION! Our NEW BLOCK PROGRAMMING and our unique variety of classical, jazz, contemporary and experimental music, AND, our informative, NEW PUBLIC AFFAIRS formats have attracted a wider, and very enthusiastic listening audience.

As a result of listener response, KUCI has become very interested in furthering its outreach to the residential and business community.

We hope this program guide will allow you to have a greater participation in our endeavors to serve YOU.

LOOK US OVER...COME IN FOR A VISIT...CALL IN YOUR REQUESTS...WRITE IN YOUR RESPONSES ...AND, help spread the word that KUCI is "the variety station in Irvine."

Wallace Ross, Station Manager
