Spring 1992 Program Guide

INSIDE:

WARNING!

If your granny is worth millions & she's about to croak, read this:

KUCI is Orange County's finest (and only) alternative station. So.. what exactly is alternative music? Alternative music is all about preserving the artistry and creativity in music. It's not just bands who couldn't make it to commercial radio: the bands simply don't fit the restrictive formula that the music "industry" has found profitable. When bands sell out and try to fit the marketable mold, they fall into an inevitable rut, whereas alternative bands are more free from industry demands to explore progressive styles.

Alternative music, however, is dying! Independent labels are being replaced by "alternative" branches of the two mega-conglomerates Sony & Time/Warner. The bottom line is profit, not music, as shown in the switch from albums to CDs, which cost them half as much to make and yet they cost us twice as much to buy. This is typical of the moneymaking schemes of corporate rock and what it amounts to is bullshit. The real bottom line is that music is an artform and not a product.

While "alternative" is really hard to define, I think it comes down to why one listens to music. If you prefer Louis L'Amour novels to Thomas Pynchon or Kurt Vonnegut; Frederick Negel prints to G. Klimt or Van Gogh; the color beige to purple or green; or Guns 'n' Roses to John Zorn,—listen to the bland crap that KROQ & Pirate feed you. But if you want artistic, progressive music, keep that dial tuned to 88.9 fm...KUCI!

-mary jane

MTV's "alternative" video show, 120 Minutes broadcasts about 22 music videos in 2 hours. The # of those artists affiliated with independent record labels: 3, and about 52 mind-numbing commercials are thrown in for you. An average 2 hour radio show at KUCI broadcasts about 32 songs, 27 of which are affiliated with indie labels and we have NO commercials (and we've got REAL personalities, unlike Dave Kendall)

Alternative Music is...

"...better than sex" -Chameleon

"...what you have to search for, whereas mainstream music is thrown at you." -lenny Lovejoy

"There's 2 main factors KUCI DJ's use to decide on their choices of alternative music: 1. can this music be heard elsewhere? and 2. Does the band create new, innovative, adventurous music as opposed to rehearsing the same tune over and over" -Fred

"...it doesn't have mass commercial appeal but it does have aesthetic value." -Ghizal

"Punk is dead, speed metal is boring, pop is stupid, industrial is computerized, basically, the only real alternative art form is free jazz." -Mr. Mystery

FIREHOSE is one of the most formidable power trios existing today, having toured extensively since they began in 1986. FIREHOSE, hailing from San Pedro, consists of Mike Watt (bass), Ed Crawford (guitar, singing), and George Hurley (drums). Mike and George go back even further when they played with D. Boon (who passed away prior to FIREHOSE's formation) as an extremely influential punk trio known as Minutemen. Since the formation of Minutemen, Mike Watt has been regarded as an individual who has given life to the electric bass. KUCI's own Irvine-renowned "legally insane" DJ KlzjK had time to chat with Mike inside UCI's Anthill Pub & Grill prior to FIREHOSE's performance there (March 5th, 1992).

KlziK: Well, first off, the Red Hot Chili Peppers dedicated their latest album to you...

Mike: I thought it was a very sweet thing of Flea and Anthony. I mean, I GOT to tell you about the Chili Peppers — the first Chili Peppers gig was opening for Minutemen, so we go way back.

KlziK: How many songs are done for an album before the final work?

Mike: We do about 20. But we got to hammer 'em out between the band, especially the drums. Even though I write 'em, to bring 'em to the real world takes a lot of work between me, George, and Edward.

KlziK: You also have some videos...

Mike: We've made videos since 1983. We just put out a new one called "Mannequin". I've done them because I always thought that it was worth more than an ad in SPIN. But not much more. I think that watching a band on a video is the worst way to see a band. It's a weird thing that more kids will see your video than hear your record or see you live. I just try to let kids know — ANYBODY, old dudes, too — about our band and that's why we do 'em. We do 'em very cheap — a couple of thousands of dollars at the most.

KlziK: Are you going to be touring soon or are you just having too much fun in L.A. right now?

Mike: To get this van we got now, we did 56 gigs in a row, so we do pretty major tours. The next one, we start April 7th and we play 36 straight gigs, five weeks straight. We go

KMFDM interview

This interview took place in the park on campus the last week of March during KMFDM's promotional tour for their new album Money. Sasha and En Esch are the two core members of the band; both write music and lyrics.

Roxanne: So, last year I saw you guys, touring with Brain Dead Sound Machine. Are you planning to do another tour for this album soon?

Sasha: We are going to tour in Septemberjust in America and we are going to do some European stuff in the Summer. It is too hard to do anything now.

Roxanne: Yeah? o.k. umm... I notice in this album that you go back to the more heavy, fuller sound than you did on the last album. What influenced you to do that? Was it just a natural progression..

Sasha: Right that is due to the fact that A) we are working with more guitarists and B) that our ability to handle the studio techniques is better and better. Maybe not better but more the way we want it to sound. It is not arbitrary anymore

Roxanne: How does that effect your live shows?

Sasha: It doesn't. KMFDM live and on record is completely different because live is just not technical: No computerized equipment, no sequencers, no nothing. It is just manual drums up to forty times

Roxanne: So it is not just you two on stage?

En Esch: No it is 5

Sasha: we are having two guitarists, a live drummer, and both of us singing, drumming (additional drums) and bass guitar

Roxanne: Same female backing as you had before?

Sasha: yeah but with a different person

Roxanne: I notice that you still have the pure, female voice and the distorted male sounds. Is that a statement of any kind or just how it works out?

Sasha: no.. sometimes it's cool to distort a vocal. It doesn't sound that cheezy anymore

En Esch: Yeah it changes a lot. It also changes how it is received. Radio stations sometimes wont play distorted songs but we don't give a shit. If radio stations don't want to play KMFDM then they should get the fuck out!

Sasha: It is like basically we don't do anything for any purpose. We don't think about what we can do to sell more records or be appealing to more people or reach wider audiences or get more airplay or look better or something. We just started making music so we would have something to listen to that we like. We already had stripped down our spectrum of foreign samples and started more sampling ourselves, actually discovering that the sampler has

Programming department

It's the final quarter of the UCI '91-'92 school year, and for many members of the KUCI staff, it will be the last quarter on the air. While this is sad and nostalgic for all of us, it makes the schedule stronger than it's ever been. Here are some of the highlights to expect this quarter:

- The Demo Show has expanded to 2 hours Wed. evening from 7-9, playing even more unsigned bands while running around bugging everyone in our local residence halls. There is still the Remote Show Friday evenings bugging everyone else.

- April 20-24 is our yearly Celebrate KUCI Week in coordination with all the events happening on the UCI campus. Expect the unexpected.

- To promote consciousness of our fragile environment, KUCI will celebrate Earth Day on April 22 with special interviews and information.

- While our Public Affairs department has been booming all year, this quarter it has gone CRAZY. Some of the newer shows include: Middle East Mirror (Thur. 8-8:30am), discussing Arab and Arab-American issues; In Vivo (every other Mon. 5-6pm), an alternative view of subcultures; Bridges (Thur. 6:30-7pm), with various topics of relevance to Asian-Americans; and Snapshot (Wed. 6:30-7pm), a focus on student issues. Of course Orange County's longest running public affairs show, namely Freedom of Voice (Sun. 9-12mid.), is stronger than ever, still with an open-forum, call-in format.

from the Northwest to Texas to Boston to the Mid-west and end up in Wyoming.

K!zjK: England seems to like you a lot.

Mike: England? I like the kids in England. In a way, I think there's too much control of their music scene by manipulators. Yeah, OURS TOO, but I think our punk rock scene is better than theirs. Their punk scene is too controlled. Ours is more free.

K!zjK: Is there anything you want to mention about the brand new FIREHOSE album that's being recorded in June?

Mike: I think it's going to be the most FIREHOSE-like record we've done. Yeah, less Minutemen-sounding. I think it's going to be intense. But it'll be more of the same, I mean you got to understand, me and George learned to play one way, and Edward is changing. But we'll see how it comes out, man — they're all adventures. Look, I'm very curious to see how FIREHOSE turns out, man.

K!zjK: I enjoyed the direction of the last album...

Mike: I think we got it back, because I thought FROM OHIO was a really lame record. I thought some of the songs were OK, but we recorded it really bad. I played some really lousy bass. That's why they're so many bass solos on the last one, because I was trying to overcompensate for the shitty playing.

K!zjK: About your last release, the Live Totempole EP, what's "Totempole" in reference to?

Mike: Well, um... when we have a big chow before the gig, ... and George don't go to the dumper, and we have to play the gig — he says it feels like there's a giant "totempole" inside! (Laughing)

K!zjK: Word has it that you are playing Fidel Castro in an upcoming movie...

Mike: Yeah, it's called I, Fidel, and it's a Raymond Pettibon movie. I've been in a couple of his movies. We did one on the Weather Underground, one on punk rock in the 70's, one on Patty Hearst, one on the Manson family, so Fidel was just next in line.

K!zjK: I've wanted to mention that I dig some of the art on Flyin' the Flannel, y'know, the jar of genitals?

Mike: OH YEAH, the dick in the jar. I was afraid of major labels, y'know, and that's what I feel they do to us. They put our dicks in fuckin' jars, and then CHARGE US to STARE AT THEM! MADONNA knows about this!

K!zjK: Well, THANK YOU very much for coming over...

Mike: You guys are cool to have us over... Have support. We gotta FUCK UP Orange County — then Pedro.

YO LA TENGO - MY I SING WITH ME: AVAILABLE ON ALIAS RECORDS, THIS CONTINUOUSLY CHANGING LINE-UP OF MUSICIANS HAS FOUND A SWEET HOME IN THE ALTERNATIVE REALM OF FEEDBACK! YOU'LL DIE AND GO TO HEAVEN FROM THE START OF THIS SWEET POP ALBUM THROUGHOUT ITS TRANSITION INTO A NINE AND A HALF MINUTE SONG OF NOISY HELL ENTITLED, "MUSHROOM CLOUD OF HISS". THIS ALBUM IS A WELL STRUCTURED, CREATIVE FORM OF INDIVIDUAL ECSTASY AND STIMULATING GUITAR INGENUITY.

BEWITCHED - HARSHING MY MELLOW: THIS IS AVAILABLE ON NO 6 RECORDS FROM NEW YORK, SO WATCH OUT - THIS LABEL IS HOT! IT'S THE

SUB POP OF THE EAST COAST. MOST OF ITS BANDS HAVE A NOISY-ANGST-DRIVIN'-NY-GUITAR-ATTITUDE AND BEWITCHED IS NO EXCEPTION. BOB BERT (EX-SONIC YOUTH AND PUSSY GALORE) IS THE LEADER OF THIS OUTFIT. HE FOCUSES BEWITCHED ON A POWERFUL SONIC YOUTH STYLE. MANY TRACKS CARRY A HEAVY ELECTRONIC BEAT IN ADDITION TO THE POWERFULLY CAOTIC GUITARS. IF YOU DIG THE SONICS THIS IS FOR YOU, A SIMPLY EXCELLENT RECORD WITH A NEW EDGE TO ITS SOUND.

BODY COUNT - BODY COUNT: THIS IS ICE-T WITH HIS USUAL "I'M A BAD MOTHERFUCKER, IF YOU MESS WITH ME I'LL KILL YOU" ATTITUDE. WHAT'S THE DEAL? ISN'T RAPPING ENOUGH? NOW JUST TO OUT SELL (I MEAN MARKET) HIS IMFAMOUS GANGSTER IMAGE, HE'S FORMED A METAL BAND, GROWN

HIS HAIR OUT, AND WRITTEN SOME AWFUL MUSIC. HE SHOULD STICK TO RAPPING, HIS ATTITUDE AND PAIN DON'T MIX WITH THE METAL IMAGE, ESPECIALLY SINCE HE CAN'T SING (OR SCREAM) WORTH SHIT! THE WHOLE PROJECT IS A VANITY GIMICK TO CAPTURE THE WHITE AUDIENCE AND TAKE THEIR WHITE MONEY AS HE SELLS OUT. HIS INTEGRITY IS GONE, HIS PREACHING IS OBVIOUSLY FULL OF CROCK BECAUSE EVERYTHING HE IS AGAINST HE DOES. HE HAS ALTERED HIMSELF TO FIND A NEW MARKET OF KIDS TO BUY HIS LOUSY ROCK ALBUM WHO DON'T BUY HIS RAPPING PHILOSOPHY. BODY COUNT IS COMEDY!

THE YOUNG GODS - T.V. SKY: RECENTLY RELEASED ON CAROLINE RECORDS, THE YOUNG GODS ARE A TRIO FROM SWITZERLAND WITHOUT A GUITAR PLAYER! WHAT? HOW CAN THAT BE? THEY SEEM TO HAVE SUCH A DISTINCT GUITAR SOUND. THE MAGIC IS IN THE SAMPLING. TO THE Y. GODS, SAMPLING IS CREATIVITY AT IT'S FINEST, THEY'VE EVEN BEEN KNOWN TO SAMPLE THEMSELVES. DON'T BE SCARED BY THIS DISTINCTION, THE DRUMMING IS REAL AND HARD, THE THICK VOCALS WITH A FRENCH ACCENT ENTRANCE THE LISTENER AND

THE GUITARS SHRED (THEY'RE JUST NOT PLAYING THEM)! THESE INDUSTRIAL GURUS HAVE CREATED A DISTINCT SOUND OF INTENSE ANTHEMS. "SUMMER EYES" THE FINAL TUNE ON THE ALBUM RAGES FOR 20 MINUTES OF PURE JOY.

OLD - LO FLUX TUBE: THIS RELATIVITY/EARACHE RELEASE IS GRIND-CRUSHER MUSIC AT IT'S PEAK OF HARSHNESS. THE VOCALS ARE SIMPLY AN INSTRUMENT OF THIS METAL EDGED OUTFIT. ALAN DUBIN, SIMPLY SCREAMS AT DEAFENING DECIBELS ONLY A DOG COULD DECIPHER. HOWEVER, NOT TO DISCOURAGE YOU THEIR ENERGY IS HONEST EXHILERATING GUITAR WIZARDRY. JASON EVERMAN, WHO PLAYS THE BASS FOR OLD HAS PLAYED WITH BOTH NIRVANA AND SOUNDGARDEN. HE HAS ALSO BEEN KICKED OUT OF BOTH NIRVANA AND SOUNDGARDEN. THIS IS SIMPLY AN INDICATOR TO WATCH OLD SO WHEN JASON GETS KNOCKED FROM THIS BOAT OLD WILL SKY-ROCKET TO THE TOP.

SWELL - ...WELL?: THIS IS THE SOPHMORE RELEASE FROM THESE SAN FRANCISCO BOYS WHO PUT THIS OUT ON THEIR OWN LABEL PSYCHO SPECIFIC RECORDS. THIS IS A GROUP TO WATCH! THEIR ACOUSTIC BRILLIANCE SHINES BRIGHT THROUGHOUT THIS ALBUM OF QUESTIONS AND CATCHY RYTHMNS. EVERY SONG TAPS AN ELEMENT OF PSYCHEDELIC SWIRLS WHILE BUILDING A SOLID POP FOUNDATION. KEEP YOUR EYES PEELED, THE MAJOR LABELS ARE MAKING THEIR OFFERS TO THIS AWESOME BAND. YOU CAN SAY YOU KNEW THEM WHEN.

ROLLINS BAND - THE END OF SILENCE: WHAT CAN YOU SAY ABOUT THIS MAN AND HIS ALBUM? ROLLINS IS A BITTER MAN DRIVEN BY RAGE AND FURY. HE CANNOT SING, HE SIMPLY TRIES TO SCREAM IN LINE WITH THE GUITARS. WHO CARES? HIS POWER IS IN HIS WORDS, ROLLINS CAN PREACH AND WHEN HE DOES YOU WILL LISTEN AND FEEL HIS PAIN. THE ROLLINS BAND IS A TIGHT GROUP OF MUSICIANS WHO CAN READ ROLLIN'S SPORATIC BRAIN AND ADD THE SWEETEST FINESSE OR PISSED-OFF JAM WHEN ROLLINS DECIDES TO GO OFF ON A TANGENT. HIS SONGS ARE LONG ANTHEMS SWAYING BETWEEN MOODY HOVERING DARK LAYERS TO PURE ROCK AT HIS FINEST. THE ROLLINS BAND LATEST RELEASE SHREDS, A TRUE PIECE OF POETIC ART LACED IN GUN POWDER.

SKINNY PUPPY - Last Rights

Unlike their earlier work, Last Rights relies more heavily on instrumentation and samples than it does distorted vocals. Acoustic guitar, piano, and other "conventional" instruments dominate many of the tracks. "Lust Chance" and the eleven minute "Download" which closes the album represent Skinny Puppy's sound mastery at its best. The more musical touch on Last Rights makes it a first for Skinny Puppy while their creative use of samples allows the band to live up to its reputation as the manipulators of sound. (by Jarrett Lovell)

Roxanne: I hear that you are thinking of doing something with Brain Dead Sound Machine

Yeah maybe. Nothing has been planned except for I did work and I will continue working for a band from Tijuana (Arti Facto) that plays kind of like mexican industrial. We call it taco two for two. I think that they are way dead cool. They sing in Spanish. I think that Mexican industrial could be the next thing for the next year.

Roxanne: so you guys are like staying on wax for awhile then?

yeah We are like the most important band for the label right now and that is a very good situation for us. It focuses all of the attention off everyone involved with the label and all of the followers through all of the years. They just like totally focus on KMFDM.

Roxanne:...any parting words?

EnEsch: I like the sun.
