WILLIGAN

WNYC Radio and Television celebrate the season with a month of programs filled with good cheer and holiday spirit

From Season's Griot

Season's Griot, AM820 Saturday, December 10, 10pm In African tradition, the Griot is part poet, part musician, and mostly narrator of communal history. Season's Griot is a seamless blend of word and music in the African Griot tradition, featuring stories delivered in the ageless and mystical Griot style. These traditional tales had their origins on the plantations of 18th century America.

Seasonings: December—A Season of Celebration, AM820, Saturday, December 17, 10pm; FM93.9, Friday, December 23, 8pm Vertamae Grosvenor, host of AM820's Horizons, presides over a series of special holiday programs on food. December is truly a season of celebrations, and Grosvenor offers a taste of all of them this month. She talks with Trappist monks in Kentucky who bake fruitcakes and chats with a plum pudding chef who prepares 7,000 servings each Christmas season for a taste of a traditional meal. Seasonings also offers a humorous tale of preparing potato latkes at Chanukah and visits a New Jersey Kwanzaa celebration with cookbook author Eric Copage. Copage provides a historical backdrop for recipes from the African diaspora combined with thoughtful explanation of Kwanzaa principles, terms, and rituals. The program wraps up with celebrities toasting the New Year.

The Plot to Overthrow Christmas, AM820, Saturday, December 17, 11:30pm What happens when the denizens of the underworld decide to undo the human race by rubbing out Santa Claus? Roddy McDowell, David Warner, and William Windom star in a new production of Norman Corwin's classic from the golden age of radio drama.

Rabbit Ears Radio, Sundays, AM820, and FM93.9, 7:30am Mel Gibson hosts these special holiday programs:

December 18 The Savior is Born Morgan Freeman delivers a poignant retelling of the first Christmas according to the Gospels of Matthew and Luke. The score, performed by the Christ Church Cathedral Choir of Oxford, England, dramatizes the power and beauty of the story of the birth of Jesus.

December 25 The Night Before Christmas, told by Meryl Streep, with music by Sarah W. Neil, and The Gingham Dog and Calico Cat, told by Amy Grant, with music by Chet Atkins.

Solstice Live! The Fifteenth Annual Winter Solstice Special, FM93.9, Thursday, December 22, 8pm John Schaefer hosts the concert by the Paul Winter Consort and friends as they celebrate the world spirit of the season with a holiday environmental, musical, and theatrical ritual. Live from New York's Cathedral of St. John the Divine, Winter premieres new music in a production featuring five percussionists.

Paul Winter

Jeff Day

Caroling at the Bottom Line With the Roches, FM93.9, Friday, December 23, 9pm For twelve years the Roches have led carolers through the streets of Greenwich Village, winding up at the Bottom Line. This year radio listeners join the fun as we listen in on the Roches' annual Caroling Carolers concert. Among those scheduled to join the trio are Iris DeMent and Loudon Wainwright, with the Roches displaying their great vocal harmonies in music ranging from "We Three Kings" to "Frosty the Snowman."

Skip Hines

The Roches

On Yoolis Night—The Anonymous 4, FM93.9, Friday, December 23, 10pm The vocal quartet performs English music from the 13th through 15th centuries from St. Michael's Church in New York City. The WNYC-produced concert presents the Christmas story in word and song, with legends of the Three Kings, medieval English songs, and Latin motets of English provenance.

A Prairie Home Companion Christmas Show, FM93.9, Saturday, December 24, 6pm Join Garrison Keillor as he looks at highlights of Christmas programs past. Keillor, friends, and special guests perform songs and sketches. And, it wouldn't be a Prairie Home Christmas without Keillor's sharing some of his favorite Lake Wobegon holiday yarns!

Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols, FM93.9, Saturday, December 24, 10am, repeating Sunday, December 25, noon The annual live broadcast of the Christmas service from King's College in Cambridge, England features carols and the reading of Biblical Christmas lessons, which have remained virtually unchanged since the service began in 1918.

Jonathan Winters's A Christmas Carol, AM820, Saturday, December 24, 10pm This rendition of A Christmas Carol combines the work of America's foremost improvisatory comedian with the craftsmanship and eye for detail of Dickens. Jonathan Winters narrates the story and performs all of the male roles.

A Black Noel, AM820, Saturday, December 24, 11pm Although totally original in form and content, this family- and youth-oriented play is loosely based on Dickens's "A Christmas Carol," seen from the perspective of contemporary African-American urban life. A church choir highlights the action with traditional carols.

New Fashioned Christmas, FM93.9, Saturday, December 24, 11pm Tired of the same old jingle bells? John Schaefer has the antidote with a program of very contemporary treatments of holiday standards. Don't miss seasonal favorites as they are performed by guitarist John Fahey, the Turtle Island String Quartet, and Plunderphonix.

Eaden Lilley

King's College Chorus performs A Festival of Nine Lessons and Carols

Listen for holiday programs on regular series, including Pipedreams December 11: Holiday International, December 18: An American Organist's Christmas, December 25: Christmas Joy.

St. Paul Sunday December 25: England's celebrated choir, The Sixteen, conducted by Harry Christophers from St. Bernard's Church in St. Paul offers traditional carols and Renaissance works.

Schickele Mix Holiday Special Thursday/Friday December 22, midnight: Peter Schickele celebrates the holidays with the music of many cultures, with his typical zeal and humor.

Tony Sandler Sends Seasons Greetings, Tuesday, December 6, 8pm Tony Sandler, best known as half of the popular duo Sandler and Young, performs traditional holiday favorites with guest singers and the Greg Theisen Ensemble. He uses his rich baritone voice to perform in English, French, Spanish, Italian, German, and Flemish.

Images of Jesus, Tuesday, December 6, 9pm This documentary examines how various cultures and artists have portrayed the image of Jesus. The program explores these images in painting, sculpture, weaving, and many other forms, from the time of antiquity to the present.

Paula Lyons hosts Consumer Reports

Consumer Reports Best Gifts, Wednesday, December 7, 9pm The publishers of Consumer Reports magazine reveal the season's best buys in high-ticket items, low-end bargains, and even antacids for the post-party blues! The special investigates the hidden boons and pitfalls of charge cards and the value of extended warranties, and offers advice on the increasingly popular dining discount cards.

New Beginnings With Stephen R. Covey, Wednesday, December 7, 9:30pm Motivational expert Stephen R. Covey uses dramatic presentation to draw parallels between Charles Dickens's struggle to overcome writer's block and the experiences in modern-day life. With participation from the audience, he illustrates how people can overcome life's difficulties by using their conscience and imagination. The program includes a re-creation of the events that inspired Dickens's "A Christmas Carol."

The Savior Is Born, Tuesday, December 13, 8pm Morgan Freeman narrates this animated special on the story of the birth of Christ. The tale comes to life through stained glass-like illustrations by Robert Van Nutt. The music is performed by the Christ Church Cathedral Choir of Oxford, England, one of the world's most famous choirs.

The King of Stuffed Toys, Tuesday, December 13, 8:30pm The warm and fuzzy teddy bear has earned its title, "the King of Stuffed Toys." Uncovering the history behind the warm and fuzzy friend, the program meets collectors and creators and visits Frannie's Teddy Bear Museum where thousands of bears are living happily ever after.

Elvis and his teddy bear

Swing and Sway Christmas With the Sammy Kaye Orchestra, Tuesday, December 13, 9pm Although Sammy Kaye died in 1987, the band continues to swing and sway. For this program they perform holiday favorites and Kaye's classic hits, including "Harbor Lights."

The Nutcracker, Wednesday, December 21, 9pm Mikhail Baryshnikov stars as the courageous nutcracker in Tchaikovsky's timeless ballet. This classic holiday special also features Gelsey Kirkland and the American Ballet Theatre.

From The Nutcracker

Martina Swope

Celtic Christmas, Sunday, December 25, 9pm Irish musicians take us on a musical tour of how our Celtic ancestors celebrated the festive season. Gathered around hearth and fire on a snowy evening in an Irish cottage, the program offers the music of the holiday celebrations of the Celtic nations. Narrative interludes also offer insights into the true meaning of Christmas and the origins of the songs.

Kwanzaa, Monday, December 26, 10:30pm With dancing, poetry, storytelling, feasting, and much more, this program looks at how the unique and colorful holiday is observed at home and in the community. Rooted in the rich traditions and symbolism of the African harvest, Kwanzaa is a week-long celebration of the values of family unity, self-determination, cooperative economics, collective work, purpose, creativity, and faith.

The Gospel According to St. Matthew, Wednesday, December 28, 8pm Pier Paolo Pasolini's epic film tells the life story of Jesus, in a semidocumentary filmmaking style. The director used non-professional actors, including his mother as the Virgin Mary! The austere, unconventional film is based solely on writings of the apostle, Matthew.

Britcom holiday specials:

All Creatures Great and Small Special, Wednesday, December 14, 9pm In this holiday episode of the series based on the popular books by Yorkshire veterinarian James Herriot, Tristan and Biggins battle for places on the team that rings the Christmas peal. Christopher Timothy, Robert Hardy, and Peter Davison star.

Keeping Up Appearances Specials, Tuesday, December 20, 8 and 9pm Status-conscious Hyacinth Bouquet's life revolves around climbing up the social ladder. Hyacinth is again put in an embarrassing position during the holidays. It seems that her loved ones have had a bit too much holiday cheer and engage in other untoward activities, much to her humiliation.

2.4 Children Christmas Special, Tuesday, December 20, 8:30pm It's the season of good will, and that includes reluctant families who are obligated to spend the holidays with their nearest, but not necessarily dearest. The Porters feel duty-bound to visit Bill's mum Bette for the holidays. But once at her overheated house, they suffer through a Bing Como Christmas Television Special and crispy Brussels sprouts, all in the name of familial duty.

John Green

One Foot in the Grave Christmas Special, Tuesday, December 27, 8pm

This program combines Christmas and curmudgeons, as the cranky Victor has a score to settle. Time has done nothing to cool the feud between Victor and his neighbor seven months after dozens of Victor's garden gnomes were mercilessly gunned down on his front lawn.

From One Foot in the Grave

This hilarious holiday romp is filled with...horse manure!

Waiting for God Christmas Special, Tuesday, December 27, 9pm Has the Bayview Retirement Home's holiday entertainment fund been lifted and used to purchase a very expensive jacket? What a coincidence that the entertainment fund is short exactly 300 pounds! Despite this unfortunate incident and other mischief, the true spirit of Christmas can still be found at Bayview.

RADIO

Backfire, AM820, Saturday, December 31, 10pm, This annual laugh-feast is back by popular demand! Some of the finest satiric talents, including Buck Henry, Jane Curtin, Robert Krulwich, take a humorous look at 1994.

Soundbites: Universal Un-Coverage: The Year of Living Shamelessly, AM820 Saturday, December 31, 11pm

Soundbites presents its third annual year-in-review special. It brightens our holidays, as we laugh at the year gone by.

A Prairie Home Companion New Year's Eve, FM93.9, Saturday, December 31, 11:30pm It's the party of the year, live from the World Theater in St. Paul! Garrison Keillor has invited lots of his old friends who sing and dance on the stage and in the aisles to entertain us on this very festive occasion.

Garrison Keillor

Ralph Neilson

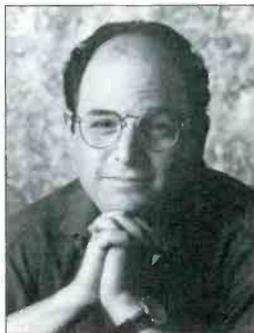

TV

Sesame Street Stays Up Late, Saturday, December 31, 8pm Filmed in several countries, this program features original songs that highlight New Year's Eve traditions in each country. Children and Muppets learn that within the world's diversity there also exist similarities.

Father Christmas, Saturday, December 31, 9pm We all know where Santa is on Christmas Eve, but what does he do the other 364 days a year? This animated special provides a behind-the-scenes look at Santa's life.

Fabletown, Saturday, December 31, 9:30pm

Fabletown is a magical place where the most important things in life are growing wheat and telling stories. Each year the citizens of Fabletown celebrate, play, dance, and tell the tallest of true stories. Fabletown is filled with wisdom and wit, and the voices of Nell Carter and Jason Alexander.

ONE MILLION OF THE BEST MINDS IN AMERICA HAVE ALREADY CHOSEN THE BEST RETIREMENT PROGRAM.

TIAA-CREF is building a sound financial future for more than 1.4 million people in the education and research communities. And over 300,000 retirees are now enjoying the benefits of their TIAA-CREF annuities.

SOLID PERFORMANCE AND TIMELY INNOVATION.

Whether you are just starting your career or nearing retirement, we can help you prepare for the future. Since 1918, we've been dedicated to making sure that people in education and research can count on a comfortable retirement. We pioneered the portable pension and we invented the variable annuity, innovations that have made us the retirement system against which others are measured.

At TIAA-CREF, we believe that steady incremental growth over the long term is the best way to build retirement income. This investment philosophy has worked well for over 75 years, making us the largest pension system in the country, with over $130 billion in assets.

SECURITY, GROWTH AND DIVERSITY.

The keys to sound retirement investing are security, growth and diversity. Security, so the resources are sure to be there when it's time to retire. Growth, so you'll have the income you need for the kind of retirement you want. And diversity, to help protect you against volatility and to let you benefit from the strengths of several types of investments.

TIAA's traditional annuity provides guaranteed principal and interest. It also gives you the opportunity for growth through dividends—which we've declared every year for the last 45 years.

Because of its stability, sound investments, claims-paying ability, and overall financial strength, TIAA has received the highest possible ratings from all four of the industry's leading independent rating agencies.*

With CREF's variable annuity you can choose from seven accounts, all managed by experts who understand the long-term strategy essential to sound retirement planning. CREF accounts invest in stocks, bonds, money markets or a combination of these investments. They are widely diversified to reduce risk and to allow you to benefit from the strengths of different financial markets. While returns will fluctuate, the CREF variable annuity has the potential for higher returns over time.

THE FIRST CHOICE IN EDUCATION AND RESEARCH.

Like the institutions that we serve, we are a nonprofit organization. Our outstanding range of services, flexible retirement and tax-deferred annuity plans, and diverse portfolio of investments are committed to one thing only—helping you build a secure and comfortable future.

That single-minded dedication is what sets TIAA-CREF apart from the other companies. It's also why over one million of the best minds in America have chosen TIAA-CREF.

For members of the education and research community.

Ensuring the future
for those who shape it.™

New York & Company

The New York Times writes, "Perhaps the shortest way to define New York and Company is to call it the radio show whose listeners don't want to hear about Michael Jackson's legal problems, of Joey and Amy." Rather, host Leonard Lopate says, "Long, interesting conversation with the most important people of our time should be considered sexy, as long as there are a few laughs thrown in as well."

Join Lopate, his guests, and these New York & Company regulars:

December 1 John Hess with commentary

December 6 Sally Goodgold of the City Club

December 7 Richard Lederer, language nut

December 8 Richard Brookhiser, senior editor of National Review

December 9 Al & Larry Ubell, the "gurus of how-to"

December 14 Dr. Alan Cooper from the grammar hotline Rewrite

To "see" New York & Company, tune in to RadioTalk TV, Tuesdays and Fridays at 10pm on WNYC TV (see page 20).

New York & Company, AM820, Monday-Friday, noon, repeating at 3am

You Saved the Day: The holiday spirit came early in 1994 with the help of 14,000 old and new WNYC members during our October membership drive. Thanks to you, we raised more than $750,000 which will go toward maintaining our outstanding programming and bringing us closer to financial independence. And, your contributions before the drive to our "Save the Day" offer enabled us to end the drive a day early. Happy holidays and many thanks.

Original Programs From WNYC TV

New Yorkers on the Line

Brian Lehrer is on the line as he hosts WNYC's live public affairs call-in program. Callers are invited to offer their opinions on timely issues in the news and to question community leaders and other guests. New York Hotline not only takes viewers' calls but also uses computervideo conferencing technology to speak to New Yorkers on issues of vital importance to them. New York Hotline has offered in-depth discussions on subjects ranging from immigration to our city's health-care crisis. Watch as timely topics in the news are explored weekly by Hotline.

New York Hotline, Wednesdays, 8pm

Best of the Best

The best of AM820's On the Line and New York & Company are captured on videotape and brought to television viewers on RadioTalk TV. Highlights from Brian Lehrer's and Leonard Lopate's daily radio programs are presented in an entertaining TV format, as the series offers "looks" at talk radio's most provocative guests. Some of the people who have already appeared on the new series are Lauren Bacall, Erica Jong, Lily Tomlin, and South African Archbishop Desmond Tutu. Tune in twice a week and see what you've been hearing! RadioTalk TV, Tuesdays and Fridays, 10pm

Lauren Bacall with Leonard Lopate

Columnists Collide

Eric Breindel and Michael Cottman provide newspaper readers with some of the most thoughtful and controversial copy in New York City. Now, the New York Post's Breindel and New York Newsday's Cottman go head-to-head in an informative and entertaining battle of conservative vs. liberal on Flashpoint. The journalists—along with top-level guests supporting either point of view—take on some of the most pressing topics of the day in a war of wits and ideologies.

New York Independents

New York City has a large and vibrant community of independent film and videomakers. These talented people and their work are celebrated in an exciting and innovative series, New York Independents. Our local independent visual artists often do not get the exposure their work warrants, and this series provides a venue for the best in documentary, drama, and experimental work.

Alan Granville at the Manhattan Bridge

From Alma Perdida (Lost Soul)

December 4 look for Pola Rapaport's Broken Meat, a stylized documentary. It follows writer Alan Granville, whose poetry illuminates the underbelly of life in the big city, in a manner evocative of Burroughs and Bukowski. On December 11 New York Independents presents Alma Perdida (Lost Soul), Pete Resto's not-too-pretty portrait of young Latinos and how they became part of the drug subculture.

New York Independents, Sundays, 9pm

Young Filmmakers Exposed

Every Monday First Exposure offers the films of young directors. The works are unique and innovative, showcasing future star filmmakers. Todd Chanko is host.

December 5 Slowest Car in Town, by Lewis Payton, Jr., Columbia University: An African-American man experiences racism during an elevator ride; Better Living, by Scott Whitney, New York University: A gay basher is redeemed by his unconscious longings.

December 12 Weakdays, by Gui Cabral, Hunter College: A TV journalist is disgusted by local horror stories on newscasts.

December 19 Carnival Moon, by Adrienne Berolsky, Columbia University: A teenager discovers that when dreams are fulfilled they can disappoint; Applause for the Best One, by Felix Portela, New York University: A performer is struck by terror as she prepares to go on stage.

December 26 Notes in a Minor Key, by Adisa, New York University: A teenager finds an old saxophone and discovers his grandfather's secret past.

First Exposure, Mondays, 10pm

Special Mix

In the Mix offers frank, issue-oriented investigative reports that provide teenagers with information they need to make thoughtful decisions and lifestyle choices. The program—of, by, and for young people—offers positive messages about the accomplishments of teens from diverse backgrounds. In December the young hosts and reporters travel to the Unity Jam, explore fitness, and take a look at monster trucks. The program also offers the hottest music videos and high-profile celebrity interviews that present refreshing angles on favorite personalities.

In the Mix, Mondays, 9pm, repeating Fridays, 3:30pm
