September 1996

To My Fellow WNYC Listeners:

The campaign season is hard upon us. As we turn our attention from the conventions to the election in November, WNYC will continue to provide you with the kind of issues-oriented coverage that's so often missing in the media. You'll hear the thorough reporting of NPR's superb correspondents and analysts, along with WNYC's own award-winning news team. And you'll be able to keep the campaign in context through programs like On the Line and On the Media.

As much needed comic relief, WNYC is delighted to welcome the Capitol Steps to Town Hall on October 3 in their New York debut. Take it from me, these six brilliant performers will have you rolling with laughter, as they skewer both sides of the political aisle with their musical satires. You can combine a good cause with a good laugh since a portion of the proceeds benefits WNYC; and special tickets include preferred seating and an invitation to a post-concert reception with the Capitol Steps.

WNYC is engaged in another campaign as well – our Independence Campaign. As we go to press, we are awaiting FCC approval on the transfer of the radio licenses from the City of New York to the WNYC Foundation. When that happens (and it is expected shortly), we will set a date for the first of six $3.3 million payments to the City. So far, more than $7 million has been pledged toward the total $20 million purchase price. We hope you will vote for WNYC and support the campaign with a multi-year pledge, which will help us leverage additional contributions from foundations and major donors. (Call the Independence Hotline at 212-669-2077 for more information.)

It's an exciting time, and a challenging time, at WNYC. We will soon unveil an improved, redesigned program guide, which will reflect opinions we received from you. There will also soon be some programming changes, inspired by your feedback, which will make good radio stations even better. We are moving into the future together. As Clyde Haberman wrote in The New York Times this summer, "...for believers in quality broadcasting, a lot rides on the question of whether WNYC can make it on its own. Probably it can." I'm sure we all would say, "Certainly it must!"

Sincerely,

Laura Walker
President & CEO, WNYC Foundation

Comedy at Town Hall: A "Capitol" Idea

The Capitol Steps perform at Town Hall on Thursday, October 3

The Capitol Steps, the only group in Washington that claims to be funnier than the Congress, will appear at Town Hall on October 3 at 8pm. WNYC presents this troupe of former Congressional staffers who travel the country satirizing the very people who once employed them. The Capitol Steps were created during the Reagan Administration on the premise that if entertainers could become politicians, then politicians could become entertainers! WNYC's Brian Lehrer, who has aired the Capitol Steps radio specials during On the Line, will join in the fun onstage. You can reserve tickets with preferred seating and a post-concert reception with the Capitol Steps for $75 each. Call 212-669-2470 today! Regular tickets at $30 each can be purchased by phone through Ticketmaster (212-307-7171) or in person at the Town Hall box office, 123 W. 43 St.

"Some people in Washington are confused, but the Capitol Steps are not."

Vice President Al Gore

During Campaign '96 keep your radio tuned to AM820 and FM93.9 for election coverage. Do these quotes get your vote?

“On the Line looks at Congressional races, as well as the faceoff between Zimmer and Toricelli to replace Senator Bill Bradley of New Jersey.” We'll cover the issues, not the horse race, of who's ahead and who's behind. We'll also give air time to every candidate on the ballot, major or minor. ” Brian Lehrer

“On the Media™ continues behind the scenes to look at how the media covers the political campaign. How does news coverage affect the political debate? How accurately do the media reflect the issues being raised – or the concerns of the voters? ” Alex Jones

“ WNYC News reporters follow the New York Presidential campaign, the contested Congressional races, and the ballot question on term limits. In addition, the state legislative races will be covered by State Capitol Correspondent Karen DeWitt. ”

Three Movements and a Wedding

Host Fred Child congratulates the happy couple

In June Around New York, the daily performance program on WNYC FM93.9 known for its eclectic musical offerings, presented something even more unexpected – a live on-air wedding! When David Carp, talent coordinator of Around New York, called concert pianist Alan Gampel to confirm his performance on the show, Alan not only confirmed but asked, “What do you think of my getting married on the air after I play?” Previously that day Alan became aware that both WNYC and the Marriage License Bureau are in the same building, and Gampel exclaimed, “Who has time these days to make two trips downtown?” In the presence of 12 friends and relatives, thousands of listeners, and with a criminal court judge performing the ceremony, Alan married Melissa Dubroff, a psychiatrist, in Studio B. As a prelude to the ceremony he played Beethoven’s Appassionata Sonata. After the performance Gampel added, “Well I must say that my heart started to quiver rather dramatically in the last movement, and I’m not sure it was only the music!”

Listen to Around New York on FM93.9 daily, at 2pm.

VOTE!

“The ballot is stronger than the bullet.”
Abraham Lincoln

“Bad officials are elected by good citizens who do not vote.”
George Jean Nathan

Fact: In 1992 only 55.1% of those U.S. citizens eligible to vote did vote.

To vote in the 1996 election on November 5 you must register by October 11. It’s easy. Call (212) 886-3800 (Board of Elections) TODAY!

WNYC AND THE PHILHARMONIC

A Classic Partnership

WNYC is honored to be the official radio partner of the New York Philharmonic's American Classics series for the 1996-97 season. We invited Kurt Masur, the Music Director of the Philharmonic, to share the philosophy behind the series with us.

Dear WNYC Listeners,

On behalf of the New York Philharmonic, I am pleased to welcome WNYC as our new official radio partner of the American Classics series this season.

As we approach the 21st century, it is appropriate not only to look ahead but also to recognize the achievements of our contemporary American masters. This season the New York Philharmonic is proud to introduce American Classics, a four-year initiative that will celebrate the diversity and vitality of American music. In the first season we will perform nine outstanding symphonies from the first half of this century.

We will launch American Classics on October 3 with Howard Hanson's Symphony No. 2, the "Romantic." Also on this program, I will conduct Dvorak's Symphony No. 9, "From the New World," and Barber's Violin Concerto with our distinguished Concertmaster, Glenn Dicterow.

We know you will find that American Classics, in a fitting and meaningful way, heralds the close of the 20th century as well as the start of a new millennium. I cordially invite you to join us.

Kurt Masur

WIN AMERICAN CLASSICS TICKETS!

How would you like to enjoy each of the eight concerts, compliments of WNYC and the New York Philharmonic? One lucky WNYC listener will win a pair of tickets to all of the American Classics concerts, including programs with Leonard Slatkin, Gil Shaham, Christopher Pincherne, André Previn, and Emanuel Ax. (For complete concert information call 212-875-5656.) To be eligible, simply send a postcard with your name, address, and daytime phone number to: American Classics, WNYC Radio, One Centre St. 24th Floor, New York, NY 10007. Entries must be received by Monday, September 23. One entry per person. Winner will be selected at random. Employees of WNYC, the New York Philharmonic, Lincoln Center and affiliated organizations are not eligible.

Summer '96 at WNYC

It don't mean a thing if it ain't got that swing!

Weekend Around New York host
Margaret Juntwait introduced Illinois
Jacquet to the Midsummer Night Swing crowd at the Fountain Plaza.

William Newmann

"You call this a crown?"

Steve Post bestowed the crown of King
Crab of New York on film projectionist
Barry Montauk with the words, "It kind of makes me sick to bestow this honor on somebody else when it is I who so richly deserve it." Mr. Montauk graciously accepted the award with a crabby,
"You call this a crown?"

from Minnesota to join Laura Walker,
Leonard Lopate, Larry Josephson, and 400
other friends of WNYC at the Summer
Supper at the Crab House.

The ties that bind

It was almost too perfect. WNYC staff-versus-listeners softball game, which climaxed the June membership drive, ended in a tie. Brian Lehrer hit a two-run homer but struck out with bases loaded next time up. Also, Steve Post managed to umpire first base without once getting into an argument.

Lend me a tenor...

Barbara Post, WNYC Membership Officer/Soprano. "I sang on stage with the choir at the Three Tenors concert at Giants Stadium. Here I am with three tenors - okay, not the Three Tenors, but I did meet Plácido Domingo backstage!"

No sounds in Saratoga

John Schaefer, host of New Sounds: "My wife, two daughters, and I made our annual pilgrimage to Saratoga Springs. Our place is right on Great Sacandaga Lake. There is no phone, no fax, no television, and the radio reception is almost non-existent! Earlier this summer I made my annual trip to the City of London Festival. I came back with hours of taped classical street theater, performances in marvelous ancient churches and guild halls which will be heard on Around New York in mid-September."

A Family Affair

Jo Ann Allen, (top, left) afternoon news anchor: "My five brothers and sisters and I gathered in our hometown of Mobile, Alabama for a family portrait with my 80-year-old parents. One brother arrived from New Orleans and another from Arizona and the sister came from Wisconsin. The others already live in Mobile."

New York's Ensemble for Early Music, Frederick Renz, director

- Foot-stomping, heart-pounding performance on period instruments
- Guest percussionist Glen Velez again works his rhythmic magic on frame drum, tambourine, and dumbek.

"Wild and wonderful medieval dance music played by the day's best medieval dance band." The Washington Post

"This is what early music is all about!" American Record Guide

"...authenticity underlying some crisp and elegant playing."

Scranton Times, 1/96

Minstrelsy!, one of Lyrichord's hottest ensembles, has a new release!

Vieni o Cara, bursting with brilliance and variety is a delightful musical romp through the Italian and English Baroque era.

WNYC 's ArtsCard is a benefit of membership.

We asked WNYC member Ellen Reynolds to share her views on the ArtsCard, including how and why she uses it. Ellen is an Assistant Director of Planned Gifts at Fordham University. She moved to New York from Boston and lives with her husband in Manhattan.

After moving to New York from Boston, I wanted to familiarize myself with different cultural activities in New York. The ArtsCard is a good resource. It allows me to take advantage of some of the unusual places in and I think the ArtsCard also helps the art community in general. It educates people about new and established organizations and opens the door to a new experience.

Ellen is using her ArtsCard for the Mediascape Exhibit at the Guggenheim Soho Museum. The museum is one of many organizations that participate.

For more information about which venues honor the ArtsCard, please call the Membership Department at (212)669-3333.
