ORIGINATED on Station WSM, and broadcast on this station every Saturday night since 1925, the Grand Ole Opry is one of the oldest and most popular programs in radio.

Its powerful appeal to so many people lies in the fact that it features the old melodies and the old songs which have been handed down through the years from one generation to another, . . . truly America's heritage of folk music.

The program may be heard on WSM every Saturday night from 8 o'clock until midnight, and during these four hours, a hundred or more of the country's best folk music artists will have participated in the program.

The audiences which attend the broadcast every week are made up of people from all over the country, who come from far and wide to see the Grand Ole Opry in person.

Pictured in this little folder are some of the best known artists who appear regularly on the Grand Ole Opry.

CARL SMITH

Long, tall and handsome Carl Smith just makes you think he is singing specially for you. He is a favorite with Opry fans and lovers of good old folk music everywhere.
