Engineering and equipment installation has been handled by the Pacific Telephone Co.
Most of the shows on May 3, 4, 5, were listed in last week's report. Changes and additions are included here for the record. Multiple and across-the-board shows are grouped together after the listing for Friday, May 10. Script identifications used are: (O) Original, (A) Adaptation, (SD) Staff-directed, (SW) Staff-written. Performers are identified as singer (S), dancer (D), comic (C), musician (M). Actors who appear regularly are listed in the premiere cast, then subsequently referred to as "regulars". Live shows are listed in caps in the left column; filmed shows are in upper and lower case letters, underlined.

Generally, only first runs of a film series are listed. Running character series (not anthology) usually staff-written shows, and other programs which use regulars, are listed only when the names of extra actors are available.

Bride and Groom returns to NBC as a half-hour show, Mondays thru Fridays, 2:30-3pm EDT, starting July 1. It replaces The Tennessee Ernie Ford Show in the time spot. The old Masterson, Reddy and Nelson package comes back, after being off the TV air since August, 1954, as packaged for NBC by Bride & Groom, Inc. Producer is the NBC staffer, Roger Gimbel, who most recently was on the Tonight show. During its previous tenure on TV -- it debuted over CBS on Jan 25, 1951 and moved to NBC on Nov 30, 1953, with its last show on Aug 27, 1954 -- it was a 15-minute program, but in its new version the program will use the first 15 minutes each day for its on camera wedding ceremonies and the second half of the program for a reception for the new bride and groom, with a roster of "surprise guests" -- friends and relatives -- present. The m.c. for the current version still has to be named. John Nelson handled the role during the show's previous four-year TV run.

Vic Damone will headline the summer show moving into the CBS Wednesday, 8-9pm, spot being relinquished permanently by Arthur Godfrey. Starting July 3, The Vic Damone Show will take over as a musical-variety-revue showcase, featuring the Spellbinders singing quintet, with guest singers, dancers and comedians. One highlight will be specialty dance numbers each week performed by a special group. Production staff for the show lists Lester Gottlieb as exec producer, Lee Cooley as producer, Charlotte Paley as assistant producer, with Byron Paul directing and Burt Farber leading the orchestra.....Sylvania Electric Products, Inc., thru J. Walter Thompson Co., will sponsor The Real McCoy, new situation comedy series starring Walter Brennan, over ABC, Thursdays, 8:30-9pm NYT, starting Oct 3. The featured players include Richard Crenna, Kathy Nolan, Michael Winkleman, Lydia Reed and Tony Martinez. Irving Pincus is creator-producer and Sheldon Leonard will direct.......Purex Corp., Ltd., thru Edward H. Weiss & Co(Chi) will be a full-hour, alternate week sponsor of the new CBS hour film series, Perry Mason, starting Sept 21, Saturdays, 7:30-8:30pm NYT. Raymond Burr stars in the title role, with Ben Brady producing with the facilities of TCF TV Productions at Fox Western Ave. studio in Hollywood. Permanent featured players will be Barbara Hale as the attorney's girl Friday, Della Street; Ray Collins as police lieutenant Arthur Tragg; William Talman as d.a. Hamilton Berger and William Hopper as Paul Drake, Mason's private detective......Schick, Inc., thru Warwick and Legler, Inc(NY) will be alternate week sponsor of NBC's new Gisele Mackenzie Show which will debut Sept 28, Saturdays, 9:30-10pm NYT. Scott Paper Company is the previously announced alternate week sponsor. Schick's commercials begin Oct 5.......The Big Record, starring Patti Page, will take regular season possession of Arthur Godfrey's Wednesday time, starting Sept 25 (see Vic Damone item at beginning of paragraph), with two of Godfrey's current sponsors taking alternate half-hours weekly on the new show -- Kellogg Co., and Pillsbury Mills, Inc. The show will feature big names of the record industry doing in person performances of their biggest hits. Lester Gottlieb will be exec producer, with Vic Schoen leading the orchestra. Separate eight-person dancing and singing groups will be regularly featured.

- Page 1 -
The Perry Como Show is completely sold out for the 1957-58 season, which will begin on Sept 14. The six sponsors (each has one-third of the program, alternate weeks), including four current advertisers, the first listed, are: Kimberly-Clark Corp for Kleenex and other products, thru Foote, Cone & Belding; Noxzema Chemical Co thru Sullivan, Stauffer, Colwell & Bayles, Inc.; Radio Corp. of America with Whirlpool-Seeger Corp thru Kenyon & Eckhardt, Inc.; Sunbeam Corp thru Perrin-Paus Co.; American Dairy Assn thru Campbell-Mithun, Inc; and Knomark Manufacturing Co., Inc., for Esquire shoe polishes thru Emil Mogul Co., Inc......Toni Company thru North Advertising, Inc(Chi) will be the alternate week sponsor with American Tobacco Co when Your Hit Parade returns next season, Saturdays, 10:30-11pm EDT, starting Sept 7.

The revamped program will have new singers Jill Corey, Virginia Gibson, Tommy Leonetti and Alan Copeland performing, with Don Walker as music director......The complete sponsorship lineup for the Steve Allen Show, Sundays, 8-9pm NYT, will have S.C. Johnson & Son, Inc., as full hour sponsor alternate weeks, starting July 7, with Greyhound Corp thru Grey Advertising Agency, Inc., (starting July 14) and Pharma-Craft Corp., Inc., thru J. Walter Thompson Co., each sponsoring one-half the program on alternate weeks.

Guy Mitchell's new ABC music-variety show starts Sept 21, Saturdays, 10-10:30pm NYT, with Revlon thru Emil Mogul Co., Inc., sponsoring. The program will be produced by Phil Cohen, with Mitchell's manager, music publisher Eddie Joy, as exec producer. The show will have a guest star each week and will also feature "fresh young talent.".......Will Hutchins will star as Tom Brewster in the title role of Sugarfoot, the new hour-long Western series that will alternate over ABC with Cheyenne, starting Sept 17, Tuesdays, 7:30-8:30pm EDT. One-half of the program will be sponsored by American Chicle Co (Dentyne, Clorets, Rolaid's) thru Ted Bates & Co., Inc. Sugarfoot producer will be Art Silver for Warner Bros. TV division, with William T. Orr as exec producer, the same team currently producing Cheyenne.

David Lowe, exec producer of NBC's Educational TV Project, has taken a three-month leave of absence to produce a special one-hour color film for Smith, Kline & French's March of Medicine, to be seen over NBC on Dec 3. Lowe leaves today (8) with writer Lou Hazam and associate producer Mike Oppenheimer for Tokyo, the beginning of a 13-country trek that will record the activities of American doctors around the world. Brice Howard takes over as exec producer of the educational programs while Lowe is out of the country.

PEOPLE GOING PLACES: H. Pierson Mapes and Gene Schiess formed Creative Merchandising Co., Inc., 535 Fifth Ave., New York 17., specializing as TV packagers, producers and agency consultants.......Barry and Enright Productions, Inc., are now exclusive packagers for NBC radio and TV, under an agreement which gave NBC rights to the firm's current packages.......Armand Grant appointed exec producer in charge of daytime programming for ABC-TV.......Darrell Ross named producer in charge of talent in Hollywood for NBC Matinee Theater, casting all shows and supervising the show's directors. He succeeds Winston O'Keefe who has moved to Screen Gema, Inc., in a programming-talent position.......Dominick Dunne named executive assistant for Playhouse 90 at CBS, covering all aspects of the weekly hour-and-a-half series.
