PART I

INTRODUCTION

Testifying before a U.S. Congressional committee on March 26, 1947, J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, stated: "The (Communist) party has departed from depending upon the printed word as its medium of propaganda and has taken to the air. Its members and sympathizers have not only infiltrated the airways but they are now persistently seeking radio channels."

Director Hoover's concise summary of Communist activities in the radio-TV field will be expanded in the following report to the broadcasting industry and to those who are both its client and its judge—the American public.

* * * * *

Basically, the Cominform (previously known as the Comintern) seeks to exploit American radio and TV to gain the following:

(1) Channels (known to the Communist Party as "transmission belts") for pro-Soviet, pro-Communist, anti-American, anti-democratic propaganda.

(2) Financial support.

(3) The great prestige and crowd-gathering power that derives from having glamorous personalities of radio and TV as sponsors of Communist fronts and as performers or speakers at front meetings and rallies (which incidentally adds to the performers' prestige).

(4) Increasing domination of American broadcasting and telecasting, preparatory to the day when—the Cominform believes—the Communist Party will assume control of this nation as the result of a final upheaval and civil war.

Let us briefly examine Communist strategy and tactics in each of these categories.

I. CHANNELS

In indoctrinating the masses of the people with Communist ideology and the pro-Soviet interpretation of current events, the Communist Party, with set purpose, uses not only Party members, but also fellow-travelers and members of Communist adjuncts and periphery organizations. It is the Party's boast that for every Party member there are at least 10 "reliables," dupes or innocents who, for one reason or another will support its fronts. Our so-called "intellectual" classes—members of the arts, the sciences and the professions—have furnished the Communist Party USA with the greatest number in these classifications.

The importance of such accomplices has been emphasized by Stalin himself. In his classic, Problems of Leninism, a standard textbook and guide for Communists throughout the world, he quotes Lenin in support of his position: "The dictatorship cannot be effectively realized without 'belts' to transmit power from the vanguard (the Communist Party) to the mass of the advanced class (the 'progressive' writers, actors, directors, etc.), and from this to the mass of those who labor (the public)" (Problems of Leninism, pp. 29, 30).

Dramatic programs are occasionally used for Communist propaganda purposes. A few documentary programs produced by one network in particular have faithfully followed the Party line. Several commercially sponsored dramatic series are used as sounding boards, particularly with reference to current issues in which the Party is critically interested: "academic freedom," "civil rights," "peace," the H-Bomb, etc. These and other subjects, perfectly legitimate in themselves, are cleverly exploited in dramatic treatments which point up current Communist goals.

Perhaps the acme of Party success in this field was reached when one program, sponsored by the advertising industry and American business and supposedly portraying the benefits of our economic system, turned out to be—in the words of one reviewer in the trade press—"more nearly a plea for collectivism"!

With radios in most American homes and with approximately 5 million TV sets in use, the Cominform and the Communist Party USA now rely more on radio and TV than on the press and motion pictures as “belts” to transmit pro-Sovietism to the American public.

II. FINANCIAL SUPPORT

In his The Secret Manual of The Communist Party, A Manual on Organization, J. Peters (formerly Comintern representative in charge of the conspiratorial apparatus of the Communist Party USA) lays down Party requirements regarding dues. Paragraph 6 under the heading, “Membership Dues,” of this manual is worth quoting:

“Members receiving over $50 per week pay, in addition to their regular $1.00 weekly dues, additional dues (Special tax) at the rate of 50 cents for each $5.00 (or fraction) of their earnings above $50.”

In other words, a party member who is a radio director, actor or singer earning $50,000 a year from American business must pay to the Communist Party minimum dues, according to this schedule, of $4,790 yearly—his contribution to the cost of destroying American business and our American way of life.

Some fellow-travelers and “reliables,” who are not members of the Communist Party, as well as many well meaning innocents, have unknowingly contributed to Party adjuncts and periphery organizations, as also must Party members. At one Communist-front meeting, a leading producer-director-announcer-actor pledged $500. A noted playwright contributed $1,000. Many $100 contributions were noted by a person who attended the meeting. And remember, this was but one of many such meetings these individuals attended during the course of a year!

It is no wonder, then, that Party organizers double and re-double their efforts to spawn front organizations, rallies, “benefits” and committees for this-and-that. No cause which seems calculated to arouse support among people in show business is ignored: the overthrow of the Franco dictatorship, the fight against anti-Semitism and Jimcrow, civil rights, world peace, the outlawing of the H-Bomb, are all used. Around such pretended objectives, the hard core of Party organizers gather a swarm of “reliables” and well-intentioned “liberals,” to exploit their names and their energies.

In sworn testimony before a U.S. Senate subcommittee, Mr. Louis Budenz, formerly managing editor of the Daily Worker, has testified how such “sucker money” is siphoned off into the secret conspiratorial fund of the Communist Party. This fund is used to finance trips abroad of high Party functionaries, to bring alien Communists into the USA, and for other secret Party work. Specifically, Mr. Budenz mentioned the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, which under its own name and under the title of “Spanish Refugee Appeal” has been a darling of scores of the most prominent names in show business.

“That is, the Joint Anti-Fascist Refugee Committee, from which Eisler (Gerhart Eisler, former Comintern representative to the Communist Party USA) functioned while here, was created by the secret fund committee in order to have a wider field of raising money.” (U.S. Senate, Communist Activities Among Aliens and National Groups, Part 1, p. 224)

The “Boost” and the “Blacklist”

If the Communist Party USA exacts a heavy financial toll of its members and dupes, it has been no less energetic in seeing to it that they get ahead in show business, while articulate anti-Communists are blacklisted and smeared with that venomous intensity which is characteristic of Red Fascists alone.

The Communist-operated “escalator system” in show business has been in force for at least 12 years—since the Spanish Civil War. Those who are “right” are “boosted” from one job to another, from humble beginnings in Communist-dominated night clubs or on small programs which have been “colonized,” to more important programs and finally to stardom. Literally scores of our most prominent producers, directors, writers, actors and musicians owe their present success largely to the Party “boost” system, a system which involves not only “reliable” producers and directors, but also ad agency executives, network and station executives, writers, fellow-actors and critics and reviewers. In turn, the Party member or “reliable” who has “arrived” gives the “boost” to others who, the Red grapevine whispers, are to be helped.

A prominent entertainer has recently confided that whenever a certain critic on one of our great American newspapers asks him to entertain for or sponsor a Communist front meeting, he always complies. Understandably so! Without favorable reviews from this important critic, his career could be jeopardized.

Contrary-wise, those who know radio and TV can recite dozens of examples of anti-Communists who, for mysterious reasons, are persona non grata on numerous programs, and who are slandered unmercifully in certain "progressive" circles.

That this system should be so prevalent is a matter for utmost consideration by those who employ radio and TV talent.

III. THE PRESTIGE OF STARS

Those familiar with show business are already sickeningly aware of the manner in which Red Fascism has exploited scores of radio and TV stars at pro-Soviet rallies, meetings and conferences. Despite the fact that numerous personalities of stage, screen and radio lent themselves to the ill-odored Scientific and Cultural Conference for World Peace (NYC, March 25-27, 1949), there has been in recent years an increasing awareness of these Red booby traps. Additionally, the Party in 1947 authorized numerous members to refrain from open participation in such front activities, for the greater over-all good of the Communist movement.

IV. DOMINATION OF AMERICAN BROADCASTING

Lenin himself urged on members of the Party "the necessity of proving to the bourgeoisie that there is not, nor can there be, a sphere or field of work that cannot be won by the Communists" (Vol. X, Selected Works of Lenin, pp. 172-173; International Publishers Company, Inc., 1943).

As a result, the Communist party has made intensive efforts to infiltrate every phase of our life, and because of its great propaganda value has concentrated on radio and television. Networks, individual stations, advertising agencies, "package producers," radio-TV unions and even the trade press have been more and more "colonized" by the Party. The "colonists" need not be party members or even deliberate cooperators. It is sufficient if they advance Communist objectives with complete unconsciousness.

At the same time, it must be remembered that the Red Fascists and their sympathizers, for all their numbers and influence, are still in the minority. The greater proportion of those in the broadcasting industry are of sturdy mind and sound patriotism. Radio-TV has erred no more than other comparable fields. The hour is not too late for those of the patriotic and intelligent majority to immediately undertake a suitable counter-attack. No time is to be lost. As one former head of a Soviet espionage ring commented bitterly, after breaking with Red Fascism: "What American businessmen and the American public do not seem to realize is that these people are playing for keeps, with no holds barred. They don't lose time just making resolutions or having meetings. They're activists! Until we Americans learn to take prompt, effective action, too, they'll win every round!"

THE COUNTERATTACK

Perhaps better than any other recent pronouncement, an editorial in Broadcasting Magazine (August 15, 1949) sums up the answer:

"Where there's red smoke there's usually Communist fire. That applies to the creative and artistic end of radio as it does to the other arts and professions.

"Therefore, efforts to gloss over talk of possible Communist infiltration of radio is dangerous . . .

"Communists and Communist sympathizers have no place on our air. It is the duty of the station licensee (and the network to which a portion of that responsibility necessarily is delegated) to ascertain that those who harbor views contrary to our form of government be denied access to our microphones.

* * * "Radio memories would be short indeed to forget the performances of the Lord Haw Haws, the Axis Sallys, and the Tokyo Roses. Or the armed guards around station transmitters and the 'no admittance' signs at studios; the bans on audience participations and Man-on-the-Street pickups.

"Can you conceive of anyone more potent when an emergency strikes than the man at the mike—the network mike? That should be sufficient to guide broadcast management in the screening of personnel."

In screening personnel every safeguard must be used to protect innocents and genuine liberals from being unjustly labelled.

Where an anti-Communist action or condemnation of Communism has been made by an individual mentioned in the following report, and known to the publishers, it has been noted in the text.

PART II

ALPHABETICAL INDEX OF NAMES

The information set forth in the following report is taken from records available to the public. The purpose of this compilation is threefold. One, to show how the Communists have been able to carry out their plan of infiltration of the radio and television industry. Two, to indicate the extent to which many prominent actors and artists have been inveigled to lend their names, according to these public records, to organizations espousing Communist causes. This, regardless of whether they actually believe in, sympathize with, or even recognize the cause advanced. Three, to discourage actors and artists from naively lending their names to Communist organizations or causes in the future.

Smith) however, sounded ashamed of the whole business as every American and most Italians are certain to be in due course. He said, 'Suppose the access of both sides to the press had been equal. Suppose election funds had been approximately equal. Suppose the most powerful church and the most powerful and richest nation on earth had not intervened on one side. There is no doubt in anyone's mind here that . . . by free choice, the Italian people would have chosen Communism. . . .' Smith concluded, 'Our national resources are great but not great enough continually to prop up governments that rule only for the propertied half of their people!'"
