Davidson Dunton is Named CBC Chairman

Ottawa. — The appointment of A. Davidson Dunton, former chairman of the Wartime Information Board, and a Montreal newspaperman, as chairman of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, has been announced in the House of Commons by Hon. J. L. Ilsley, minister of finance and acting premier. The appointment is for a three-year term. Dr. Augustin Frigon remains as general manager of the Corporation.

The present Board of Governors of the CBC, as announced in the Annual Report for 1944-45 recently issued, is as follows: Howard B. Chase, Montreal; Rene Morin, Montreal; Dean Adrien Pouliot, Quebec; Mrs. T. W. Sutherland, Revelstoke, B.C.; Frederick J. Crawford, Toronto; William J. Parker, Winnipeg; B. K. Sandwell, Toronto; Very Rev. W. Eastland Fuller, Saskatoon (term expired Nov. 1, 1944); J. Wilfred Godfrey, Halifax (term expired Nov. 1, 1944); and A. W. Trueman, Winnipeg, (appointed March 19, 1945).

Three CBC Governors Reappointed to Board

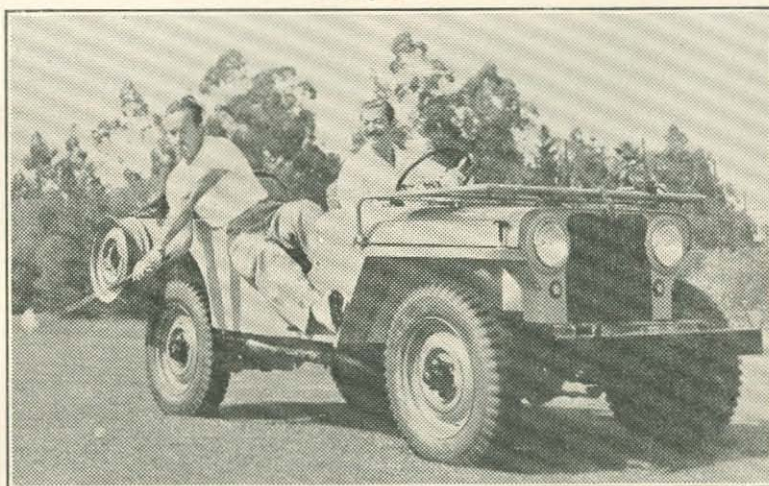

Ottawa.—Three members of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation's Board of Governors have been reappointed by recent Orders-in-Council, according to a CBC statement just issued.

The governors are Howard B. Chase and Rene Morin of Montreal, and Mrs. Mary Sutherland of Revelstoke, B.C. Mr. Chase, present chairman of the Board, and Mrs. Sutherland were first appointed in March, 1943. Mr. Morin, former chairman and now vice-chairman, has been on the Board since November, 1942.

Their reappointment is for a three-year period from November 1, 1945.

Madame Tussaud. Everyone knows the romantic history of the founder of Tussaud's—who as a young married woman modelled heads of the leaders and victims of the French Revolution. The first public exhibition of her work was in 1789 . . . Marie was arrested and imprisoned, but escaped to London with some of her collection and with the idea of the exhibition which has become world famous.—E. O. Hoppe, on BBC.

Jeepers!

Bob Hope and Jerry Colonna (CBC Dominion Network, Tuesdays, 9:00 p.m.) have discovered a new use for the post-war vehicle. Twenty new jeeps like the one in the picture are being offered on Hope's show as first prizes in a contest that stresses the importance of buying and holding Victory Bonds.

Public Broadcasting Now in Twelfth Year

CBC's Annual Report Details Year of Important Progress

Attention is drawn to the fact that publicly owned and operated radio is now in its twelfth year in Canada, and that the CBC is now in the ninth year of its existence as a corporation, in the annual report of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation for the fiscal year ended March 31, 1945, recently issued from Ottawa.

"During that period," the report adds, "broadcasting has established itself as one of the most important and efficient means of furthering the national war effort and fostering national unity; these ends are achieved by rapid and widespread dissemination of news and information, and by giving every section of the people opportunities to hear the views and opinions of others; moreover the broadcasting of entertainment programs of all kinds, from the lightest trifles to serious drama and symphony music, has helped to build and sustain morale and to prevent war-weariness."

The report covers CBC activities under nine headings: Board of Governors, Executive, Program Division, Commercial Division, Press and Information Service, Station Relations Division, Engineering Division, Personnel and Administrative Service, and Financial.

Assets Increase

The fixed assets of the Corporation were increased by approximately $255,000 during the year, and to finance these expenditures working capital was reduced by approximately $100,000, to $1,034,933, the balance being provided out of current revenues. Capital developments during the year have been the purchase and improvement of the property of the National Program Administration Building and Studios, now located at 354 Jarvis Street, Toronto; the purchase of technical equipment for the Engineering Headquarters, Montreal Studios; the International Service Studios in Montreal; CJBC transmitter at Dixie, Ont.; and CBA transmitter at Sackville, N.B. The eighth annual balance sheet of the Corporation, as at March 31, 1945, shows a net operating deficit of $72,747.09 for the fiscal year.

The work of the important program division is covered under 17 headings: News, Special Events, Overseas Unit, Talks and Public Affairs, Women's Interests, Farm Broadcasts, Religious and Institutional Broadcasts, School Broadcasts, Music, Drama, Feature Broadcasts, Children's Programs, International Exchange Programs, CBC Dominion Network, Announcing and Broadcast Language,

Radio Commercials Resented, Says Porter

Chairman of U.S. Commission Voices
Public Grievance

By PAUL A. PORTER,
Chairman, Federal Communications Commission, U.S.A.

A group of friends and I were listening the other evening to the radio. The program was interesting and in good taste, and we sat quietly as we enjoyed it. Suddenly general conversation was resumed. I realized that it was because the commercial had come on. I commented on this, and my hostess said, "Oh, yes. I've trained myself so that I never hear the commercials. So many of them are silly, anyway."

A columnist for a newspaper chain, which also operates a number of prosperous radio stations, observes that the listeners' ears "have become schooled to close automatically when the commercial comes on, and the great bulk of this synthetic verbiage is never heard at all."

But other numbers of people, to judge from complaints which reach the Federal Communications Commission, have not developed this new faculty of "tune-out ear."

On a recent summer afternoon in the New Hampshire mountains, a

CBC Men Attending Quebec Food Meet

CBC people are not only giving thorough broadcast coverage to the United Nations Food and Agriculture Conference in Quebec, but are lending assistance in the work of the conference itself. John de B. Bayne, CBC administrative officer at Station CBM, Montreal, has been lent to the organization as radio liaison officer.

Other CBC men attending the Quebec sessions are: Harry Boyle, supervisor of farm broadcasts, who is in charge of domestic broadcasts dealing with the conference; Ab Kemp, farm commentator in the Ontario and Quebec Regions, who gives a daily talk from Quebec; Mavor Moore, of the CBC shortwave service, who is in charge of international broadcasts; and Ethelwyn Hobbes, women's commentator from Montreal. Charles Miller of Station CBM is the conference announcer.

CHAMBER MUSIC (10:30 a.m.)

A new chamber music ensemble made up of three Toronto musicians will open a series of nine concerts over the CBC Trans-Canada network this morning. Included in the ensemble are Harold Sumberg, violinist; Cornelius Ysselstyn, 'cellist; and Alberto Guerrero, pianist. The series will be devoted to the performance of the complete repertoire of Mozart's trios, beginning on the opening date with the Trio No. 2 in B Flat Minor. Also to be performed on this date is the Scherzo from Schubert's Trio in E Flat Major, Opus 100. A number of romantic trios will be played either wholly or in part during the series, with the purpose of supplying contrast on each broadcast. Mr. Sumberg, the violinist of the trio, is a former concert master of the Toronto Philharmonic Orchestra, and has appeared as soloist with both the Toronto Symphony and the Philharmonic. Chilean-born Alberto Guerrero has travelled extensively on concert tours of North and South America, and for many years has been a prominent member of the Toronto Conservatory of Music. The 'cello playing member of the trio, Cornelius Ysselstyn, came to Canada from the Netherlands in 1936, following a home career of distinction both in concert and radio. He is a member of the Toronto Symphony and Toronto Philharmonic Orchestras, and of the Toronto Conservatory's teaching staff.

CANADIAN YARNS (11:15 and 12:15 a.m.)

"The Valley of Whispers" is the title of today's talk by Duncan Armbrist of Toronto.

WASHINGTON COMMENTARY (1:04 p.m.)

Charles Michie, Washington correspondent for the newspaper PM, is today's CBC speaker.

RELIGIOUS PERIOD (1:30 p.m.)

The speaker today is Rev. G. L. Blonde, of St. Peter's Seminary, London, Ont.

CHURCH OF THE AIR (3:30 p.m.)

Today's service will be conducted by Rev. F. F. Crossman, of the Baptist Church, Sydney, N.S.

Yorkshireman

Britain's globe-trotting, multilingual Jack-of-all-trades, WILLIAM HOLT, is a familiar personality to thousands of Canadian radio listeners. He is remembered for his talks in the program "Britain Speaks" and innumerable BBC broadcasts on wartime life in Britain. Currently he is providing a five-minute commentary over the CBC Trans-Canada network on Sundays, at 5:55 p.m.

MUSIC BY MOZART (6:00 p.m.)

Dr. J. J. Gagnier has chosen two quartets for string and woodwind instruments for today's program. The works are the Quartet in C Major and Quartet in D Major, and the performers are the well-known Montreal artists, Alexander Brott, violinist, Lucien Gagnier, flautist, Maurice Durieux, violist, and Roland Leduc, 'cellist. "Music by Mozart," heard from the Montreal studios, is alternating with the broadcasts of the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra.

WEEK-END REVIEW (7:30 p.m.)

Elmore Philpott, of Vancouver, will review the news.

STAGE 46 (8:00 p.m.)

A new play, taking its inspiration from the victorious and problematic year 1945, goes on the boards of "Stage 46" tonight. "All Over Again" is the title. Written by Ray Darby, Winnipeg author and radio playwright, the story deals with the return of a husband to his home, following long service overseas. The play is one of several scheduled, in which producer Andrew Allan observes the increasing preoccupation of writers with simple human relations in the every day life people are living today. The leading role in "All Over Again" will be played by Patricia Arthurs. The program will be broadcast from CBC's Toronto studios.

MUSIC FROM THE PACIFIC (10:30 p.m.)

A light half hour for Sunday evening listening originates in the CBC's Vancouver studios tonight, when another program in the series Music From The Pacific goes on the

"Singing Stars" Returns November 4

Young singers from all parts of Canada will be gathering in radio's anterooms for a coast to coast hearing on the broadcasts of Singing Stars of Tomorrow as the program's third season opens this week. The premiere broadcast will feature two sopranos, Alexandra Belugin and Jean Hayes, on Sunday, November 4, at 4:30 p.m. over the CBC Trans-Canada network.

Auditions designed to encourage the participation of young aspirants in the program have been held throughout Canada. John Adaskin, musical supervisor of Singing Stars, and Rex Battle, conductor of the program's orchestra, were among the audition judges.

The Yugoslavian-Canadian Alexandra Belugin is already familiar with radio, having appeared on a number of CBC recitals. Jean Hayes, 24-year-old widow, of Waterloo, Ontario, has also won her musical spurs as recitalist and Stratford bronze medallist. Both will compete for the three scholarships to be awarded to the three winners at the close of the series.

Whittall Back From Forum Interviews

Peter Whittall, CBC Farm Broadcast Commentator in the Prairie Region, returned to his Winnipeg headquarters last week from Saskatchewan, where he visited Saskatoon, Regina, and Landis, Sask., in connection with arrangements for the forthcoming Farm Radio Forum broadcast of November 12. On that date the subject of the Forum will be: Can We Do Without the Small Farmer? Participating will be representatives of (a) the small farmers; (b) the co-operative farmers; and (c) the power farmers.

air. Percy Harvey directs the orchestra, and Ann Watt, soprano, is the vocalist. The program starts with the orchestra playing Così Cosa. Ann Watt is next with the new hit tune Out Of This World. Other orchestral contributions are Change Partners, Lady of the Evening, Claire de Lune, and Inspiration.

NIGHT MUSIC (11:00 p.m.)

Tonight's program by Marius Benoist and the string orchestra includes; Menuet, from Quartet No. 76 (Haydn); Winton Suite (Adam Carse); Two Minuets, Serenade Op. 11 (Brahms); My Old Kentucky Home (Foster-Busch); Lullaby, from The Golden Cockerel (Rimsky-Korsakov); Hymn—O Come, Ye Servants of the Lord (C. Tyr).

Dramatic Headache. — Our own period of the war is a headache to an author. He can write an actual war play, but the public doesn't want a great deal of that. Supposing he writes a play of ordinary life, he's in trouble at once. . . . The easy way is to go right back and make a period piece.—Ivor Brown.

MORNING DEVOTIONS (9:45 a.m.)

Morning Devotions this week will be conducted by Rev. J. Leinweber, of the Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, Winnipeg.

WORLD CITIZENS (3:18 p.m.)

Four talks on the subject "World Citizens" will be broadcast over the CBC Trans-Canada network beginning today, when Catherine Steele of Toronto will open the series with a discussion of "Junior Citizenship." The purpose of the series is to emphasize the need for all human beings to comprehend and act upon the truism that they are fellow citizens in the same world—one world. Frances Loring will contribute the artist's point of view in the talks, and Mattie Rotenberg will discuss the prospects of a political rebirth in Europe toward the ideological goal of world citizenship. In her opening address, Miss Steele will point out how mothers today in Canada can supplement school training in guiding their children to be effective world citizens. The speaker is a secondary school teacher who has recently returned from London where she taught in an east end school for three years. She went to England as a member of the group of nursery school and social workers and teachers organized by Dr. W. E. Blatz for overseas service.

Recitalist

Heard in recital over CBC Trans-Canada networks in the west on Mondays at 11:15 p.m. is THELMA JOHANNES, Saskatoon pianist. Miss Johannes has been a frequent CBC performer, both as soloist and duo-pianist.

DON MESSER AND HIS ISLANDERS (5:00 p.m.)

The rhythmic old time favourites on this quarter-hour of "Down East Music" include "Jerome's Farewell to Gibraltar," "Angus Campbell," "The Honeysuckle Schottische" and "My Silvery Bell." Charlie Chamberlain, the singing Islander, will offer "There's A Home in Wyoming" and "When You and I Were Young Maggie."

MIRROR FOR WOMEN (5:15 p.m.)

F. G. C. Wood will talk about the University Players Club of Vancouver.

RHYTHM AND ROMANCE (7:45 p.m.)

Parks and Burdett, Winnipeg duo pianists, are heard in this series with Maxine Ware as vocalist. Tonight the pianos will play: No Can Do; Parade of the Wooden Soldiers (in a two-piano arrangement by Percy Burdett); That's For Me; Lady of Madrid; I'll See You In My Dreams; and Keep on Smiling.

THE PEOPLE NEXT DOOR (11:00 p.m.)

The behind-the-scenes glances into Canadian family life, as interpreted by Elsie Park Gowan in "The People Next Door," return to the air from Toronto this week. Consisting of thirteen cameos of specific family situations, the Gowan drama series has good family relationships as its motive. The Edmonton author will strive in her scripts to point the way to fair and healthy attitudes as the basis of successful living. Each episode will provide a story and a problem in 1945-46 Canadian living. The

Brochure Announces Farm Forum Subjects

In a brightly colored little brochure, the CBC, the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, and the Canadian Association for Adult Education have announced the subject matter of the forthcoming winter series of National Farm Radio Forums, to be heard on CBC's Trans-Canada network from November to March on Monday evenings at 9:30 p.m. In the Prairie Region the Farm Forum will be carried on Stations CBK, Watrous; CKY, Winnipeg; CJCA, Edmonton; CFAC, Calgary; CJOC, Lethbridge; and CFGP, Grand Prairie.

Following are the dates and subjects—speakers will be announced from week to week:

Nov. 5—How Much Food Should We Produce? Will a surplus of food mean inadequate return for the farmer?

Nov. 12—Can We Do Without the Small Farm? Can the small farm compete with the industrialized farm economically and socially?

Nov. 19—What the Forums Say About Farming.

Nov. 26—Poor Soil Produces Poor Food. The relationship between soil fertility and the nutritional value of farm produce.

Dec. 3—Are Farm People Healthy? The statement has been made that farm people have a lower health level than urban people. Is this so, and if so, why?

Dec. 10—What about Health Insurance? Will farm health be improved with a national health plan?

Dec. 17—What the Forums Say About Health.

JOHN GREGORY (5:15 p.m.)

Love poetry is the theme of the second of John Gregory's series of poetry readings, and he will deal with two aspects of this very voluminous portion of the literary heritage—first, love's agony and distress as represented by some of Shakespeare's sonnets, by Sir Philip Sidney's With How Sad Steps, O Moon, and by Thomas Hardy's Lioness. He will quote also from Keats' La Belle Dame Sans Merci; from a work by an American poetess, Irene MacLeod, Is Love Then So Simple?; and from Housman's famous lyric, When I Was One and Twenty. On the other side of the question is a realistic piece by C. Day Lewis, written on the anniversary of the poet's marriage.

ISABELLE McEWAN SINGS (6:00 p.m.)

Six o'clock, and it's time again for another half hour with Isabelle McEwan, Vancouver soprano. Her numbers today will include Who Are We To Say, Beloved, Rose Room, and As You Desire Me. As well as accompanying Miss McEwan, the ensemble under the direction of Cardo Smalley will play Love's Enchantment, Idilio, and Wedding Of The Winds.

MONTREAL SYMPHONY ORCHESTRA (8:00 p.m.)

(Dominion)

Zino Francescatti, a young French violinist who has been called "a prince of virtuosity," will be the guest artist tonight, when Anatol Dorati conducts the orchestra in Bach's Violin Concerto in E major. Other selections on the broadcast portion of the program are the Overture to "Frederic" (Beethoven) and Symphony in G major, called the "Military Symphony" (Haydn).

CLASSICS FOR TODAY (9:30 p.m.)

The theme Ich Ruf Zu Dir, Herr Jesu Christ, by Bach, introduces another in the series by the string orchestra. Adolph Koldofsky, the program's new conductor, has chosen for this occasion Grieg's Holberg Suite, and the Brook Green Suite, by Gustave Holst.

BOOKS FOR THE TIMES (11:00 p.m.)

A talk in connection with Book Week will be given on this occasion by Dr. Norman A. M. Mackenzie, speaking from Vancouver.

New Appointments for CBC Officials

Toronto.—Promotions have been extended to two senior officials of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, according to a recent announcement.

Charles Jennings, former assistant supervisor of programs, has become general supervisor of programs, and Jean Beaudet, supervisor of music, has been given the post of director of the French network.

Mr. Beaudet will continue as music supervisor in addition to carrying out his duties as network director.

PUBLIC BROADCASTING—Concl.

Traffic, and International Service. Network Mileage Larger

The obscure and seldom-heard-from Traffic Department gives the information that the CBC's network mileage has greatly increased. This is due to the operation of the Dominion Network. With only one network in operation, the mileage is 7,601 for the English and 1,477 for the French, a total of 9,078 miles. When Trans-Canada and Dominion Networks are both in operation, the mileage is increased by 4,516 to a total of 13,594 network miles. Although the Dominion network covers much the same territory as the Trans-Canada, the additional mileage does not equal the single or basic network mileage for the reason that part of the basic service is used for the Dominion network and the additional 4,516 miles represent only the parallel or duplicate mileage necessary to establish the second network. Through its combined networks the CBC now has program distribution facilities constantly available to all but a small number of the broadcasting stations throughout Canada. The Corporation can, on special occasions, distribute important programs to all broadcasting stations in the Dominion.

Hobbes Afternoon Talk To Tuesdays

Thousands of housekeepers across Canada have become familiar with Ethelwyn Hobbes' useful talks on CBC networks, which keep listeners informed of the latest things in rationing, in household management, and even in such out of the way matters as fueling and handling furnaces.

Mrs. Hobbes is heard over CBC's western networks in a five-minute morning talk at 9:30 a.m., Mondays through Fridays, and until this week she was also heard in a fifteen-minute weekly talk on Wednesdays, at 3:18 p.m. The latter series has now been changed, and Mrs. Hobbes will be heard instead on Tuesdays, at the same time.

Puck or Ariel?

In the New York Philharmonic Orchestra broadcast on Sunday (October 21), when the announcer was talking about Weber's Oberon, it seemed to me he said something about Puck, the merry little fairy of Shakespeare's Midsummer Night's Dream, creating a storm to wreck the lover's ship. I wonder whether he was confusing Puck with another Shakespearean fairy, Ariel in The Tempest? I have read Midsummer Night's Dream through, but cannot recall any instance of Puck creating a storm or wrecking a ship, while, of course, the storm created by Ariel to wreck the false Duke's ship and bring him to Prospero's retribution, is the central theme of The Tempest.—K.N., Winnipeg, Man.

The National News.

I was frankly horrified when I heard the National News announcer on Sunday night broadcasting an account of some miserable crime and jail-breaking from a small Ontario town. Must all of the Dominion's homes be compelled to listen to stories of Ontario's petty crimes? During the war, we have been happily free of crime stories on the broadcast news. Couldn't we stick to this, and not let the radio sink to the cheap sensationalism of the press? Forget these crime stories, and let the criminals suffer their proper ignominy in silence.—H.R., Calgary, Alta.

Conference of Foreign Ministers.—To judge by some newspaper comment, you would think that there had never been disputes at an international conference before. The historian takes a longer view.—A. J. P. Taylor, on BBC.

Working For Himself. The farmer can go to his organizations, like the Farm Bureau Federation and the National Grange, but he cannot strike because he is working for himself.—Clifton Utley.

DON MESSER AND HIS ISLANDERS (5:00 p.m.)

Today's session of old time music will include two new numbers "The Rambler's Hornpipe" and "Pop Corn Reel." Charlie Chamberlain's songs "My Heart's in This Letter" and "Silver Threads Among the Gold" are followed by the band's rendition of the old waltz "Scenes from the Finland Woods."

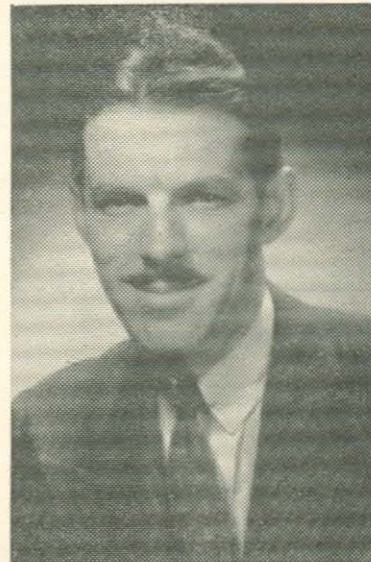

HOMEMAKERS' PROGRAM (5:15 p.m.)

"A Mother Looks at School" is the title of today's talk, which is by Jane Peterman. Mrs. Peterman lives on a farm at Grosse Isle, Man., about ten miles north of Winnipeg. She has four sons. During the war, while her husband served in the air force, she carried on the farm with the help of her small sons.

MASTERWORKS FOR THE PIANOFORTE (9:30 p.m.)

This week's featured pianist is Irene Woodburn, who will broadcast from Ottawa.

Jolly Miller

It's the fifth year for ALAN SAVAGE with "Jolly Miller Time," the CBC Trans-Canada network variety musical that goes on the air Wednesdays at 7:00 p.m. As producer and announcer for the program this season, Mr. Savage confirms his reputation for skilled performance in Canadian radio.

SPELLBOUND (11:30 p.m.)

The Three Green Keys is the title of the drama script to be heard from Vancouver. The story concerns a sea serpent, a mysterious lady in sparkling green, a fisher boy named Fishball Paul, Malice Alice, a fairy called Benevolent Evelyn, and three magic keys. These keys would unlock the present, the past and the future. Each key would open only one door, and it could be used no more. These were given to Fishball Paul in his search for happiness, by Benevolent Evelyn, and the story tells about how the other people try to get them away from him.

famous American scientist and a group of friends were listening via a local station to the broadcast of a symphony. What happened next so enraged him that he wrote a long letter to the broadcasting company, copy to the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), Washington, D.C. This copy is before me.

Squalling Dissonance

"The reception was fine," he writes. "The mood was nothing short of ecstatic as these supreme artists, working for probably five million Americans, interpreted grandly a symphony little known to me. Its conclusion left me and my myriads of listening colleagues breathless with admiration and wonder "And then suddenly . . . before we could defend ourselves, a squalling dissonant, nasty, singing commercial (from the local station) burst in on the mood."

The scientist snapped off the radio, dashed to the pantry, found some boxes of the advertised article, and hurled them into a nearby ravine. Then he swore a mighty oath never

Senators, M.P.'s, Mayors in new Women's Series

Women who are the chosen representatives of the Canadian electorate will be the speakers in a new series of afternoon talks arranged by the CBC. Beginning this week, "Women in Office" will bring a succession of senators, members of parliament, mayors, aldermen, councillors and school trustees to the microphone for a frank statement of their opinion of the duties of women as citizens.

The opening talk, on Wednesday, November 7, will be given by Nora Frances Henderson, controller of the city of Hamilton, speaking over the CBC Trans-Canada network at 3:18 p.m. The series will continue throughout the winter on Wednesdays at this time.

Miss Henderson first entered public life in 1931 when she ran for the Hamilton City Council and was elected as alderman for Ward I, heading the polls. Formerly a newspaperwoman, she was for some years a member of the editorial staff of the Hamilton Herald.

Following her political debut, Miss Henderson has been continuously re-elected. She headed the polls in 1934 when she won a seat on the board of control, and later became vice-chairman of the board and deputy mayor. Since then she has been regularly returned as controller and for the past two years has again been vice-chairman and acting mayor in the absence of the mayor.

Oberon is Guest on Final V-Loan Show

The final broadcast in radio's fanfare for Canada's Ninth Victory Loan will be presented from His Majesty's Theatre in Montreal over the combined CBC Trans-Canada and Dominion network on Wednesday, November 7, at 9:30 p.m.

Tasmanian-born British film and radio actress, Merle Oberon, is to appear among the celebrities who have accepted the National War Finance Committee's invitation to participate in the last Victory Star Show. Also in Montreal for the closing date is Earl Wrightson, popular young baritone star of concert and radio.

Percy Faith will direct the Victory chorus and orchestra in the special arrangements that he himself has written for the entire series.

again to have the offending product in his house.

Earlier this year Lewis Gannett, critic and war correspondent of the New York Herald Tribune, returning home after having been painfully injured at the front, recorded his impressions thus:

"The aspect of homefront life which most disgusted me on my return was the radio. BBC (British Broadcasting Corporation) programs may be dull and army radio programs may be shallow, but if the soldier in Europe has had a chance

SCHOOL FOR PARENTS (3:18 p.m.)

Dr. S. R. Laycock, professor of psychology at the University of Saskatchewan, continues his series of talks for parents with a discussion of family loyalty. "I suppose the reason everybody is thinking about family living," says Dr. Laycock, "is the damage war did it to it. Tens of thousands of homes had fathers away on war service. Thousands had mothers away, too, working in industry." The children, Dr. Laycock suggests, did the suffering.

DRAMA (7:00 p.m.)

There seemed nothing absurd about a journey in time to elderly, precise, pedantic Professor Wainwright, scientist extraordinary, when it was a question of a corkscrew and then a vicious bulldog which he caused to disappear into next week; but when his wife went on a "space" trip leaving only a little crumpled pile of clothes on the floor to land him in court on a murder charge, he found he had given science a pretty big order. How science came through with the solution is the startling and unexpected climax of "Moment of Inertia," a comedy by Maurice Horspol, of Yorkshire, England.

Democratic Workshop. — I think Citizen's Forum can best be described as a workshop for democratic citizenship.—Dr. Malcolm Wallace, on CBC, October 9.

New Conception of Defeat. The problem the atomic bomb has raised is the need to adjust ourselves and our enemies to this new conception of defeat in war, and to impress upon the Japanese that a country defeated in the laboratory is no less at the mercy of its victors than is a country ravaged by military and economic disaster.—BBC Listener.

SERVICEMEN'S FORUM

(7:30 and 10:30 p.m.)

(Dominion)

Two airmen and a soldier will talk about democracy in this edition of Servicemen's Forum. Flt. Lt. Frank Snowsell, of Victoria, L.A.C. M. M. Goldberg, of Toronto, and Pte. G. R. Perase, of Toronto, will be the participants; their topic is "Will Democracy Work?" The debates in this series take place in overseas camps in Britain, where they are recorded and flown to Canada for broadcast each week.

PANORAMA (9:30 p.m.)

A dramatic radio picture of Canada's capital city will be presented on the third broadcast of "Panorama" tonight. The people and the city will both be the object of Hugh Kemp's Ottawa study. The broadcast will be the first of Ontario's contributions to CBC's current trans-continental program tour of Canada, in which programs from five different regions will be presented in turn for a series of 25 broadcasts. A variety of radio media will be utilized in the course of the series to bring listeners a colorful panorama of Canada as a nation. The five Ontario broadcasts, to be presented every fifth week, will be under the supervision of J. Frank Willis, CBC supervisor of features, and Andrew Allan, CBC supervisor of drama.

DRAMA (10:00 p.m.)

Tonight's Winnipeg drama is something new for Winnipeg's gifted radio playwright Ray Darby—a character sketch of a queer, unprepossessing, rural fellow, Joey. "I don't like the way you talk," says Allie McLean, when Joey has rescued her from the angry bull. "That's all right with me. I don't like you, either; I don't like anybody, much," is Joey's reply. "Why not?" "Because people are like a bunch of dogs—sniffing around and fighting, and trying to steal bones from one another." From there on, it's anybody's fight. Darby's play is called simply "Joey."

Prairies' "Panorama" Broadcasts Outlined

Panorama, the new CBC series on Thursday nights (9:30 p.m.) in which each of the five CBC Regions in rotation has the opportunity to introduce itself to the Dominion at large, will have five contributions from the Prairie Region during the winter season.

The first broadcast, "You Can't Pigeonhole the Prairies," a play by Jean Hinds, set the general tone of these contributions, which will suggest the wide variety of scenery, of peoples, of manners and customs, in this vast territory of more than 750,000 square miles and two and a half million inhabitants.

Tentative plans have been made for four other broadcasts from this Region, on Dec. 6, Jan. 10, Feb. 14, and March 21.

The December 6 broadcast has been given the general title of "Recreation on the Prairies." The subtitle, "Introductions Aren't Necessary" gives a hint of its character. Prairie informality, especially in such matters as recreation, is emphasized.

On January 10, in the dark of the western winter, the subject matter becomes rather more serious, and the program centres about natural resources and industry. How nature has endowed the prairies, not alone with products of soil and rock, but with game and fish and fur, will be told in dramatic form.

February 14 is St. Valentine's Day, but its saintly connotations are somewhat obscured by the pagan legend which associates it with the pursuit of the nymph Syrinx by the Great God Pan in a Greek twilight long ago. Syrinx could only escape by changing herself into a reed, and thus had the ghastly alternative of being either played with or played on. Valentine's Day, in any case, has ever since demanded a feminine touch, and the broadcast follows the legend. This is to be Ladies' Day, and the feminine contribution to the amenities of prairie life, from pioneer days to the present, will take the spotlight. The broadcast may tell once more the strange old tale of Marie Anne Gaboury and the first white children born on the prairies, whose names were "La Prairie" and "La Cypress," because one first saw the light on the open plains and the other in the depth of the spruce woods. Ladies' musical clubs of the prairies may also contribute.

The final broadcast from the Prairies, on March 21, will deal with the West's greatest industry—agriculture. "The Ninety Days' Wonder" is the title, which introduces the miracle of quick-ripening wheat, the story of the discoveries of Marquis, Thatcher, etc.

Group Discussions. — Group discussions give you a chance to let off steam about issues that are bothering you, and more important, an opportunity to clarify your own thinking.—Mrs. Jarvis McCurdy, on CBC, October 9.

NATIONAL SCHOOL BROADCAST (11:30 a.m. and 3:00 p.m.)

This week's story of "Our Canadian Cities" moves to the Maritimes, to Moncton, New Brunswick. Moncton is primarily a railway centre. From its steel heart, tracks fan out like the spokes of a wheel—to Saint John 90 miles south, to Halifax 186 miles east, to the Prince Edward Island Ferry, to central Canada. Its sidings reach down to Moncton's steamship docks at the head of navigation on the Bay of Fundy, and into many factories. Other branches fan into a surrounding country of rich farms and natural gas and petroleum producing areas. Moncton is an old city, but looks new. The first dwelling on the site on the Petitcodiac River was built there by Christian Trites, a German immigrant from Pennsylvania, in 1763. In the early days the settlement was known simply as "Bend of the Petitcodiac." In 1855 it was incorporated as a town and named Moncton after one of Wolfe's brigadiers. The population is 22,763.

RECITAL (3:45 p.m.)

Today's recitalist is Egon Grapentin, Edmonton violinist, who will be accompanied by Mary Drummond, pianist. Grapentin will play: Praeludium, Sixth Sonata (J. S. Bach); Malaguena, Spanish Dance, Op. 21 (Sarasate); Scherzo, Tarantelle (Wieniawski).

And She Can Cook!

The pretty lady is MISS BEVERLEY YOUNGER, who does the part of Martha Pendleton in the Ma Perkins' serial (NBC-CBC Trans-Canada, 2:15 p.m. Mondays through Fridays). And she can cook, too—or so it says here. The trouble is, she is married, and spends most of her time keeping house for a husband and two active youngsters.

DON MESSER AND HIS ISLANDERS (5:00 p.m.)

One of the real sweethearts of old-time music—one that never grows old—is first on the program this evening "My Love Is But a Lassie Yet." Charlie Chamberlain, the singing Islander, reminisces with "Yesterday's Roses" and "Highways are Happy Ways." Continuing with two Irish favourites "Reilly's Own Reel" and "Haste to the Wedding," the Islanders conclude with "The White River Stamp" and "The Chicken Reel."

PRAIRIE COMMENT (5:15 p.m.)

The speaker today is Betty Myrick, a graduate in agriculture and a practical farmer, now associated with the Saskatchewan department of agriculture. An only child, Miss Myrick had to tackle many jobs on her father's farm. She learned to run a tractor and put herself through college by raising pigs. She was secretary of the CBC Farm Forum groups in Alberta for a time, and broadcast the Farm Forum News.

SOLILOQUY (10:00 p.m.)

Maxine Ware is again the soloist with Harold Green's orchestra in this weekly series of smooth popular music. Miss Ware's numbers are: Irresistible You, from Broadway Rhythm; and Gotta Be This or That. Both songs have orchestral accompaniments arranged by Harold Green. The orchestra will play: In The Valley, from The Harvey Girls; Some day, Somewhere; Smilin' Through; You Know You Belong To Somebody Else; The Waltz in Swing-time; The Moon Was Yellow; I'm Old Fashioned, from You Were Never Lovelier; and It's Only a Paper Moon.

CBR Symphony Will Present New Works

An impressive number of premiere performances of newly composed orchestral works will highlight the fifth winter season of the CBR Symphony Orchestra. A Vancouver musician and composer, Arthur Benjamin, who has conducted the orchestra since its inception will again be in charge.

Beginning with the first broadcast on Friday, November 9, there will be one concert of the CBR Symphony Orchestra each month from now until next April, it was stated by CBC regional representative Ira Dilworth, in announcing the new series. The program will originate before a large audience in Hotel Vancouver, and will be carried to listeners throughout the four western provinces over the Trans-Canada network from 11 p.m. to 12 midnight.

An Australian by birth, Arthur Benjamin has chosen a composition by the Australian composer Frank Hutchens as the work to be premiered on his opening concert. Entitled "Fantasy Concerto For Two Pianos and Orchestra," it will have its first performance on this continent next Friday night. At the twin keyboards will be a well-known west coast piano team, Enid Conley and John Avison.

Three other works are to be heard. They are: Handel's Polonaise, Arietta, and Passacaglia, arranged by Sir Hamilton Harty; English Folk Song Suite, by Ralph Vaughan Williams; and a Bizet suite, Childhood Games.

In succeeding concerts, Arthur Benjamin plans to direct premiere performances of many modern works, including compositions by contemporary English musicians, Gerald Finzi and Benjamin Britten, the latter a former pupil of his in London.

Staples Visiting Man. Forum Groups

Ralph Staples, secretary of the National Farm Radio Forum, was a visitor to CBC's Prairie Region program headquarters in Winnipeg last week, in the course of a western tour. With John Friesen, secretary of the Manitoba Federation of Agriculture and Co-operation, Mr. Staples visited Forum groups in Manitoba.

The National Farm Radio Forum broadcasts recommenced on CBC's Trans-Canada network on Monday, October 29, at 9:30 p.m.

VANCOUVER PLAYHOUSE (10:30 p.m.)

"Where Is Mr. Wister?" is the title of this week's drama from Vancouver, written by a west coast writer, David S. Catton. The play is about the extraordinary disappearance of a prominent financier. The attempt of police, private detectives, and amateur sleuths to find him simply drew a blank. But one person managed to find out where he was. That was Madam Asturia, who with the help of her spiritual companion Minnie, solved the mystery.

Herbert Hodge Heard on CBC Saturdays

Britain's popular cab driving radio commentator, Herbert Hodge, is now addressing Canadian listeners on current affairs during the last five minutes of the evening BBC news on Saturdays. Speaking at 5:55 p.m., the accomplished radio essayist will be heard weekly coast to coast over the CBC Trans-Canada network.

Mr. Hodge is the author of "It's Draughty in Front" and "Cab, Sir," both dealing with his professional life. For some time during the war he drove a munitions workers' bus in London and gave radio accounts on the BBC Home Service of the daily activities of England's war workers.

In 1943 Hodge addressed CBC listeners as a special guest while visiting on this side at the invitation of the Workers Educational Bureau of the United States.

Students Get Last Minute News Service

One of the features of the National School Broadcast (CBC Fridays, 11:30 a.m. and 3 p.m.) is a brief news commentary covering the background of some current news event. In order to keep this up to date, and be sure that the swift-moving drama of national and international affairs does not make it obsolete even in the brief period before broadcast time, the CBC's Central Newsroom at Toronto wires the commentary on Thursday nights to Chief Editor William Metcalfe at CBC's Winnipeg newsroom, and to other regional newsrooms affected. Mr. Metcalfe in the Prairie Region, and other chief editors in other regions, check the wired "copy" before passing it on to the school broadcast announcers. In this way, last-minute information is applied to the school commentaries, and the advantage of the CBC's world-wide news service is made available to Canadian schools and students.

The Prairie Gardener

Summary of Broadcast of October 28, 1945

Some Easily Grown House Plants

A. Plants for Foliage:

1. The common coleus belongs to the mint family and originated in Java. It likes plenty of water and full sun. May be propagated from cuttings or from seed. Young plants are more vigorous than old ones. The variety Trailing Queen is excellent for hanging baskets and window boxes. Very subject to mealy bug.

2. Boston Ferns don't like direct sun. Requires a fibrous porous soil with plenty of humus, plenty of moisture but must be well drained, foliage sprayed with luke warm water every 10 days, and temperature of 60-70 degrees without cold draughts. Propagate by divisions.

3. The aspidistra is a Chinese plant and noted for its toughness and ability to survive hardships. Full sun or shade. Plenty of water or only a little. Propagate by division.

4. Plume asparagus has fine needle-like leaves and graceful stems. Excellent table plant. Trailing asparagus has coarser foliage and makes a good hanging plant. These are grown for foliage rather than flowers. They are easily grown from seed. Require good sun at least part of each day for best results. Like plenty of water but can stand drought occasionally.

5. The Chinese rubber plant or jade tree with oval fleshy leaves comes from South Africa. Easily grown from leaves or stem cuttings. Makes a hardy house plant somewhat subject to mealy bug.

6. Wandering Jew makes an easily grown vine for either sun or shade. Will grow with roots in water. Easily propagated from cuttings. The green and the green and white varieties come from South Africa, the green and purple from Mexico. They make good trailing plants for wall pockets.

7. Baby's tears with its tiny leaves and trailing stems forms a dense mat suited to shallow pots and for ground cover with other plants. It comes from Corsica and Sardinia, belongs to the nettle family, and is easily propagated by division.

8. Mother of thousands is a saxifrage with silvery striped leaves and runners to produce new plants. It requires a fibrous well drained soil with plenty of moisture. Will stand shade. Makes a good trailing plant.

9. The Philodendron is a vigorous vine with heart-shaped leaves known as the devil's ivy in Central America. It is a jungle vine liking plenty of water and doesn't mind shade.

10. English ivy is an evergreen vine suited to sunny windows or reduced light. Some of the smaller leaved varieties make good pot plants if kept pinched back. It likes plenty of moisture and must be sprayed frequently for best results. Subject to mealy bug and red spider.

to hear at all, he had heard it straight, without the neurotic advertising twaddle which punctuates virtually every American program. "The first evening I sat by the radio at home I heard one long parade of headaches, coughs, aching muscles, stained teeth, unpleasant full feeling, and gastric hyperacidity. . . . Our radio evenings are a sick parade of sickness, and if they haven't yet made us a sick nation, I wonder why."

Such complaints are not rare. Perhaps you have heard some of them yourself. They are symptomatic of a growing body of public opinion which resents radio's commercial excesses—excesses which the wartime boom seems to have aggravated. Responsible radio executives and advertisers are themselves disturbed about it. Congress has begun to take notice of the situation.
