Toronto Prom

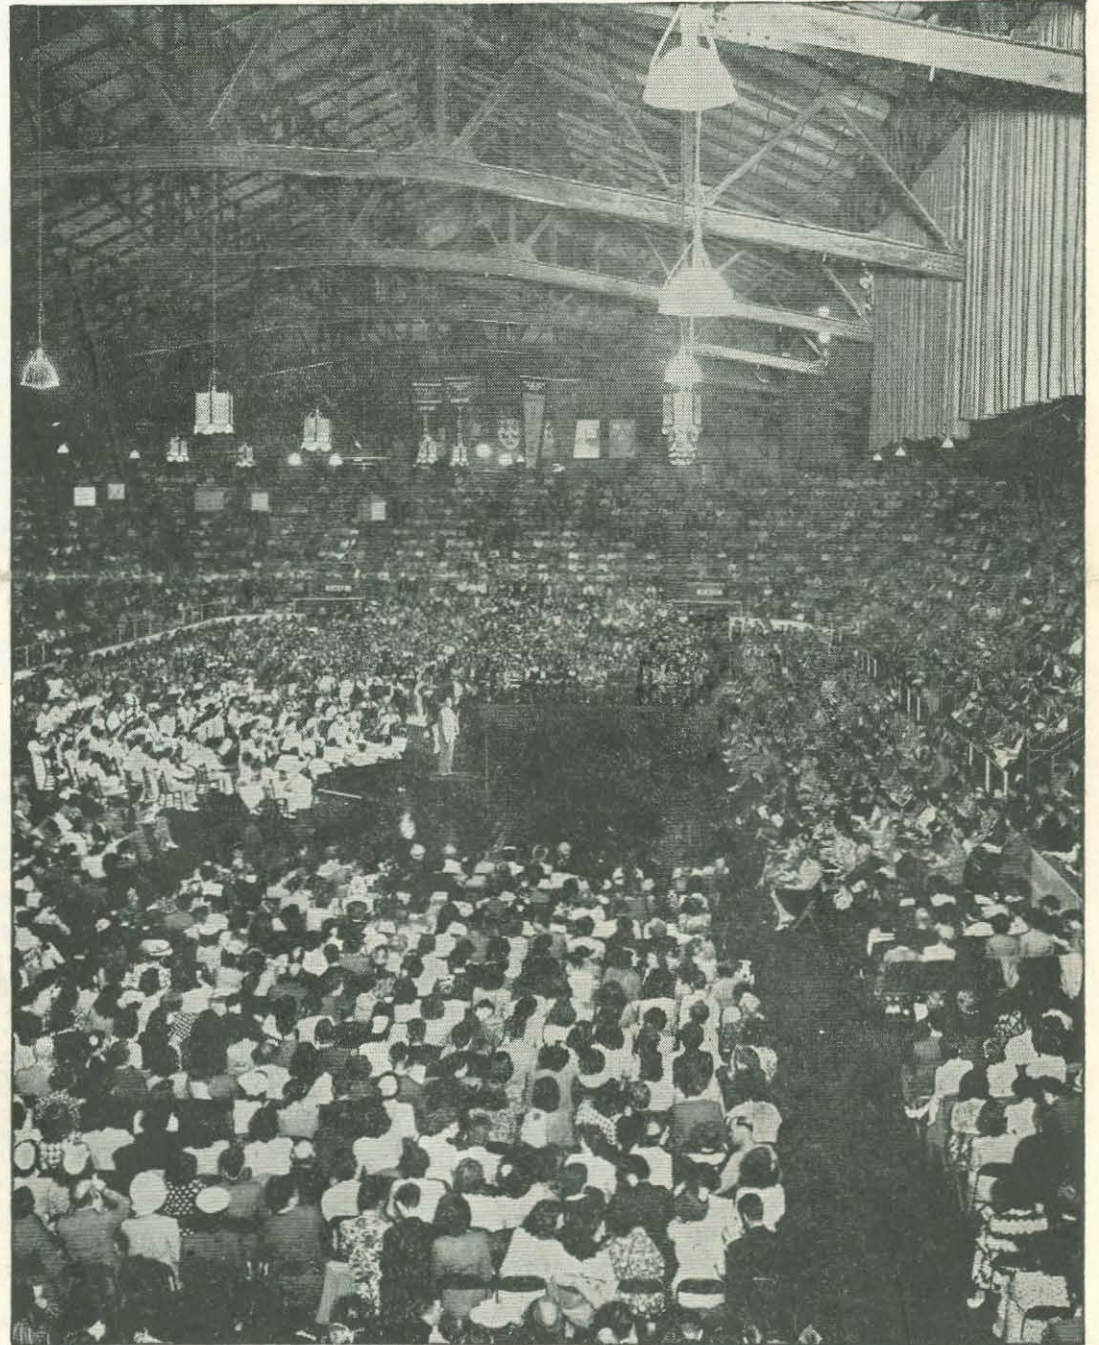

A WEEKLY institution during the summer months in Toronto, Ontario, are the Thursday "Prom" concerts, now in their sixteenth season—twelfth on the air. Considered somewhat radical at their inception, they gained favour gradually—first with the Toronto audience and then, starting in the summer of 1938, with CBC network listeners. Today they are as much a part of Toronto musical history as anything in the body of tradition on which they were resisted at first in some quarters. They are in distinguished company, with the famous London "Proms" and the Boston "Pops." The easy, relaxed atmosphere in Toronto's Varsity Arena while the concerts are in progress has something infectious about it which seems to enter the microphones with the music and brings a special brand of summer enjoyment to the network listener.

Musical Developments In Winnipeg

Possibly the most spectacular musical and artistic developments at any point along the CBC's Continent-wide networks during the past year, have occurred at Winnipeg, where, apart from the celebrated Winnipeg Ballet which has won all hearts, the growth of the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra and of the important orchestral groups associated with CBC broadcasts, have been phenomenal.

To its unrivalled reputation as a centre of choral music, Winnipeg is now able to add a strong orchestral organization. As headquarters of the CBC Prairie Region, it now contributes at least four important musical programs regularly to the networks, including the distinguished series of Winnipeg Sunday Concerts (Sundays, CBW 10:30 p.m.; CBK 9:30 p.m.; CBX 8:30 p.m.), and contributions to the Canadian Summer Concerts, on Fridays (partially interrupted until after June 27). On the lighter side, the perennially popular Prairie Schooner continues to delight listeners from Grande Prairie to Inverness (it is rebroadcast on the CBC International Service, and carried by the BBC's Scottish transmission), and the Saturday Night Red River Barn Dance packs the big No. 1 studio at CBW, Manitoba, week after week.

The re-establishment of a sound and permanent core of key instrumentalists in Winnipeg following the disruptive war years, largely through CBC initiative, has been of solid assistance to the founders and authorities of the Winnipeg Symphony Orchestra, which has shown tremendous growth, both in scope and quality of performance, during the past season. The steady employment offered these musicians on regular CBC programs has strengthened the city's musical life considerably.

the famous Winnipeg Choristers, by the Ukrainian Male Choir, and by other choral groups, have been broadcast frequently, and have delighted listeners from coast to coast.

Highly interesting from the radio standpoint have been the continued broadcasts of the Manitoba Schools' Orchestra. Here the pioneer work of the late P. G. Padwick, who is believed to have been the first musician anywhere to attempt musical education by organized broadcast rehearsals, is being carried on in regular broadcasts over CBW, Manitoba, with interesting results.

The Prairie Gardener

Summary Of Broadcast Of May 22, 1949.

Lawns and Lawn Making:

A good home requires attractively laid out grounds to give it an appropriate setting. In this outdoor living space a well kept lawn is an essential element.

Lawns are long term investments deserving of some considerable effort and expense. To make the investment likely to yield adequate dividends lawn-making should be planned with the utmost care. Guidance should be sought from competent authorities.

Reliable information can be secured from several sources. The Dominion Experimental Station at Morden, Manitoba, covered the subject in a number of weekly letters issued for distribution this spring, and will be glad to advise anyone seeking information. In cities the Parks superintendent and his staff are usually willing to advise their local residents. In Saskatchewan the University of Saskatchewan's Department of Horticulture at Saskatoon has made extensive experiments covering the best lawn-making grasses and methods. The Dominion Department of Agriculture has leaflets covering the subject.

Since the right kinds of grass seeds to use, and to some extent the best techniques to be followed vary from area to area it is wise to seek advice from successful lawn-makers and experts closest to each locality.

Preparing the seed bed for a lawn:

The land should be ploughed or dug and then graded until level and free from any hollows or soft spots. The top six inches should be made up to

MORNING DEVOTIONS

Brigadier Gage of the Salvation Army in Winnipeg will be heard on CBW. Rev. E. N. Birdsall of Central United Church in Edmonton will be heard on CBK and CBX.

CBW 8:50 a.m.; CBK 8:50 a.m.; CBX 7:50 a.m.

STU DAVIS

Stu Davis, Cowboy Troubadour, has other talents besides singing—his guitar accompanies him on every broadcast and he writes many of the songs he sings. Two of his own compositions—Mem'ries Of My Saddle Pals, and Hit The Saddle Cowboy—will be heard today, along with three other songs—A Hundred and Sixty Acres; Then I Turned and Walked Slowly Away; and Geraldine. From Edmonton Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

CBW 12:45 p.m.; CBK 11:45 a.m.; CBX 10:45 a.m.

WEST COAST WIVES

Sallie Phillips of Vancouver will conclude her series of five talks on isolated families of British Columbia's west coast with a script entitled In the Shadow of the Totem. Previously, she has spoken of white inhabitants of the west coast. Today's talk will deal with the Indians, a branch of the tribe of the Kwakiutls. She will describe their church, the community houses, the totems, how they make their living, and, in particular, the life of the Indian women. From Vancouver.

CBW 3:48 p.m.; CBK 3:48 p.m.; CBX 2:48 p.m.

TRAVELLERS' TALES

Minnie Hackett, who worked for a number of years as a public health nurse in Canada's north country, will be heard in another talk about the Eskimo. She will describe the clothing of the Eskimo, how it is made, the work of the women, and their play and recreation. From Vancouver.

CBX 3:15 p.m.

INTERNATIONAL TRADE FAIR

Descriptive commentary by Jack McCabe, CBC producer, on the second Canadian International Trade Fair, opening today at Toronto exhibition grounds; excerpts from speeches by Rt. Hon. Harold Wilson, President of the Board of Trade of Great Britain, and by Charles Sawyer, Secretary of the United States Department of Commerce. Products from 35 countries will be displayed—60 per cent of all goods from other countries. Plans are afoot to establish fairs at American cities also, making a circuit of annual trade fairs in North America. Further commentaries on CBC Trans-Canada network Saturday (Saturday Magazine, CBW 3:00 p.m.; CBK 2:00 p.m.; CBX 1:00 p.m.). Dom. 8:30 p.m.

Commission Hearings To Begin In August

Rt. Hon. Vincent Massey Heads Study Of National Development In Arts, Letters and Sciences.

The Massey Royal Commission on National Development in the Arts, Letters and Sciences—established by order-in-council on April 8—has completed its organization meetings and will begin public hearings in Ottawa at the beginning of August. Its work will take many months and will involve visits to each of the ten provinces.

The preamble to the order-in-council lists agencies which contribute to cultural ends, and says it is desirable to conduct an examination of them with a view to recommending their more effective conduct in the national interest. The agencies and activities mentioned are the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, the National Film Board, the National Gallery, the National Museum, the Public Archives, the Library of Parliament, the National War Museum, and the system of aid for research including scholarships maintained by the National Research Council and other governmental agencies.

The chairman of the Commission is the Right Honourable Vincent Massey, P.C., C.H., Chancellor of the University of Toronto, who served as Canada's High Commissioner in the United Kingdom from 1935-46.

The four members are: Dr. Arthur Surveyer of Montreal, a civil engineer; Dr. Norman A. M. MacKenzie, president of the University of British Columbia; the Reverend Georges-Henri Levesque, dean of the faculty of social sciences at Laval University; and Dr. Hilda Neatby, professor of history and acting head of the department at the University of Saskatchewan.

ORGAN RECITAL

Graham Steed, organist. Fantasy on French Folk Songs (Gustav Ferrari); Cradle Song (Brahms); Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring (Bach); Trumpet Voluntary (Jeremiah Clarke). From Saskatoon.

« « NOTES » » FARM BROADCAST

Representatives of 20 countries having national farm organizations affiliated with the International Federation of Agricultural Producers are meeting this week in Guelph, Ontario, at the Ontario Agricultural College. CBC facilities have been set up there, and on today's and tomorrow's Farm Broadcasts, and on the Farm Broadcasts of June 11 and 13, there will be commentaries direct from the sessions. Further wired reports will be heard during the assembly, which continues to June 13. There will also be a special program in the Summerfallow series on June 6, and occasional items on the CBC News Roundup. CBC International Service will carry the story abroad. After the convention, the delegates will tour Canada, reaching Winnipeg on June 14, and from there embarking on a motor trip through the Manitoba wheat-growing districts. CBC Farm Broadcast commentators will accompany them. In Alberta they will visit the Nanton Stampede, where a CBC Farm Commentator will also report the proceedings.

CBW 1:15 p.m.; CBK 1:15 p.m.; CBX 12:15 p.m.

GILBERT AND SULLIVAN

CBC Light Opera Group conducted by Geoffrey Waddington. Ernest Morgan, producer and narrator. From Toronto. The opera is Patience, first performed at the Opera Comique in London, April, 1881, but transferred to the new Savoy in October that year by D'Oyly Carte because of the huge crowds. It is a satire on late-Victorian long-haired poets. Cast: Reginald Bunthorne — Edmund Hockridge; Archibald Grosvenor and the Duke of Dunstable — William Morton (dual role); Colonel Calverley—Eric Treadwell; Patience—Jean Haig; Lady Jane — Nellie Smith; Angela and Ella—Margaret Evans and Margaret Abbott.

Dom. 7:30 p.m. CDT; 10:30 p.m. MDT; 10:30 p.m. MST.

KEEP IN TOUCH

Comedy sketches; orchestra conducted by Dixie Dean; musical arrangements by Lucio Agostini and Johnny Dobson; scripts by Ian Reid, Eric Christmas and Don Harron. Ian Reid, producer. From Toronto. The sketches deal with the hilarious misadventures of Alf Perkins (Eric Christmas), perky Cockney just out from Lunnon, and his Canadian pal, Aloysius Belvedere Barton (Budd Knapp). Alf is acquiring the Canadian way of life, and it puzzles him. Not the least of his puzzlements is his girl friend, Mary (Pegi Brown), pretty perfume salesgirl who is the niece of Alf's landlady, Mrs. Daisy Gillespie (Elizabeth Cole). A studio audience at the CBC Concert Hall, Toronto, attends the broadcast each week.

Dom. 9:30 p.m.

MUSIC BY ERIC WILD

Orchestra conducted by Eric Wild; Maxine Ware, contralto; Roy Firth, baritone. Orchestra: I Want To Be Happy; Mary Had a Little Lamb; Body and Soul; Pasado Manana; Gold and Silver Waltz. Maxine: It Had To Be You. Roy Firth: Galway Bay; Shadrack. Tom Taylor, producer; Harry Trousedale, announcer. From Winnipeg.

CBW 10:00 p.m.; CBK 10:00 p.m.; CBX 9:00 p.m.

LEICESTER SQUARE

Orchestra conducted by Harry Pryce; Belle McEwan and Bill Carr, vocalists; and the Barbershop Quartet. Program: Good Bye Boys; In the Shadows; O Promise Me; While Strolling Through the Park One Day; Now I Have to Call Him, Father; and selections from The Three Musketeers. This week's flash-back to the vaudeville stage will feature a mind-reading act. From Vancouver.

CBW 10:30 p.m.; CBK 11:30 p.m.; CBX 10:30 p.m.

HERITAGE OF MUSIC

Orchestra conducted by John Avison. Il Re Pastore (Mozart); Divertimento (Max Trapp); The Swan (Palmgren); and three Elizabethan madrigals transcribed for orchestra by Maurice Miles of Van-

CBC Announcers—(II).

Russ Carrier

Russ Carrier, CBC announcer stationed at Winnipeg, is a native of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, of French Canadian origin. Russ began his radio career as a singer, while still in high school. On a dare from his friends, he entered a radio contest, and won it. In 1937 he turned to announcing, getting a break when a speaker failed to turn up at the local station, and since then has worked on stations in Prince Albert, Yorkton, Brandon and Winnipeg. In intervals of radio work, he tried store clerking, soda jerking, pork packing, and brush selling—none of which interested him profoundly. In July, 1941, another break came when an announcer at Brandon put so much feeling into a recruiting announcement that he joined up himself. Russ, having been rejected for overseas service, got the job. He was transferred to Winnipeg in 1943, and his clear and excellent voice is now heard regularly on CBW, Manitoba, and on CBC network broadcasts originating in Winnipeg. Russ is medium tall and dark. If he has one prevailing characteristic, it is high spirits. He loves good fun, and his gaiety is infectious. Golf and swimming are his pet sports, and he goes to quite a few baseball and football games. Biography, music, and philosophy are his chief reading, but he still likes the funnies. He plays the piano and composes popular music for pure fun.

This will be the last program of this series. Conductor Avison will leave early in June for a four-month trip to England and the Continent. While in England he will attend the Cheltenham British Contemporary Festival of Music and Arts, the Three Choirs Festival at Hereford and the Edinburgh Music Festival. Next week, Heritage of Music will be replaced by a new program, Conductor's Choice, directed by Jean de Rimanoczy. From Vancouver.

STU DAVIS
Songs by Stu Davis. Open Range A-Callin'; A Penny For Your Thoughts; I'm A No Good Son-Of-a-Gun; This Ain't the Same Old Range; Back in the Saddle. From Edmonton.
CBW 12:45 p.m.; CBK 11:45 a.m.; CBX 10:45 a.m.

CBC Wednesday Night STRAUSS WALTZES

Orchestra conducted by Nicholas Goldschmidt; Louise Roy, soprano; Pierre Boutet, tenor. Excerpts from the operetta Night In Venice; Strauss waltzes. A program marking the fiftieth anniversary of the death of Johann Strauss the Younger, which falls on June 3. From Toronto. The younger Strauss is possibly the most famous of a famous family. For many years he was the undisputed "King of the Waltz," and his music was magically expressive of the spirit of Vienna, the gayest capital in the world. A few still living remember that he visited Boston in 1872, under a contract providing for a fee of $100,000 plus travelling expenses for himself, his wife, and two servants. He appeared in an auditorium designed to seat 100,000. He relates that there were 20,000 singers on the musicians' platform, and that he had 100 assistant conductors to control the massed voices. He seems to have regarded the whole performance as utterly ridiculous, and said that one performance was enough to send him back to Europe as fast as he could go.

CBW 7:30 p.m.; CBK 9:30 p.m.; CBX 8:30 p.m.

NORMAN MCBAIN, CBC announcer, paid a visit to Winnipeg's Shrine Circus last week for the benefit of CBW, Manitoba, listeners. Here he is with two of the clowns.

DISTINGUISHED ARTISTS

Jeanne Desjardins, soprano. From Montreal. Comment Louisa brula les lettres de son infidele amant (Mozart); Dans un bois solitaire (Mozart); Die Krahe, from the Winterreise (Schubert); Verborgenheit (Hugo Wolf); Wie Melodien (Brahms); Le Bestiaire (Poulenc). Jeanne Desjardins has been a long-standing favourite of concert and opera in Canada, and since 1923 a prominent radio artist both here and in the United States. She is a frequent performer with the Montreal Opera Guild, and has sung in operas conducted by Sir Thomas Beecham and Emil Cooper. She recently visited Europe for radio engagements in Paris, Geneva and Monte Carlo.

CBW 9:30 p.m.; CBK 11:30 p.m.; CBX 10:30 p.m.

ANATOL

Four sketches from Anatol, by Arthur Schnitzler; English translation by Harley Granville-Barker; radio adaptation by Irene Prado; Felix Felton, producer. Cast: Anatol—Anton Walbrook; Mitzi—Irene Prado. BBC transcription. Schnitzler's father was a famous Viennese throat specialist, and the boy was influenced by the many personages of drama and opera who came as patients to their home. He wrote a five-act tragedy at the age of nine. He followed his father as a doctor, but practised only a few years. In 1891, with Hermann Bahr, Richard Beer-Hofmann, Felix Salton and Hugo von Hofmannstahl, he formed the Young Vienna literary group. Anatol, produced in 1893, and Liebelei, in 1895, established his reputation as an author. Irene Prado, Hungarian actress, is a sister of Lilli Palmer of the films. Anton Walbrook, also of films, played Anatol in Munich and Vienna before the war.

CBW 10:00 p.m.; CBK 8:30 p.m.; CBX 7:30 p.m.

PRAIRIE GARDENER—Concluded

the character of a rich garden loam. A clay sub-soil is best for holding moisture in dry districts but in wetter areas such soil should have good drainage.

Heavy soils are benefited by the application of an inch or two of sand. Light soils should have clay added. Both are improved by the addition of a layer of pulverized acid peat. Rotted cow manure is an excellent soil conditioner.

After repeated rollings and rakings to secure a firm even seed bed the seed may be sown.

Sowing:

The last two weeks of May and the first week of June are suitable for seeding work. Early fall sowings can be made successfully if moisture conditions are favourable.

The rate of seeding varies according to the kind used and the nature of local climatic conditions, as well as the purpose for which the lawn is intended. Consult the best and nearest local authorities on this question.

If possible, keep soil moist until germination of seeds is completed. Water with a fine spray but do not flood the surface with water.

TORONTO PROM

Toronto Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Dr. Heinz Unger, Donna Grescoe, violinist. From Toronto. The Moldau (Smetana); Concerto in G Minor for Violin and Orchestra, Op. 26 (Max Bruch); Three Selections from Faust (Berlioz). This is the 329th in the 16-year-old series of Toronto Promenade Symphony Concerts, begun by Reginald Stewart, now of the Peabody Conservatory, Baltimore, Maryland, in 1934. The concerts are held in Toronto's Varsity Arena. Audiences average 4,000 a week. People come in shirt-sleeves and frocks, and are allowed to smoke. The CBC has been broadcasting the concerts since 1938. Dr. Unger will conduct three more concerts after tonight's, and the following two will be conducted by Sir Adrain Boult, musical director for the British Broadcasting Corporation.

Dom. 7:30 p.m.

MUSIC HALL

Nelson Eddy, baritone, and Dorothy Kirsten, soprano, will again appear in the Music Hall's summer series. This will be Eddy's third season and Miss Kirsten's second.

CBW 8:00 p.m.; CBK 10:00 p.m.; CBX 9:00 p.m.

WINNIPEG DRAMA

STU DAVIS

Today's program by Stu Davis will include one of his own compositions — I'm Plumb Tuckered Out. He will also sing: Sagebrush Symphony; The Crossroad Where We Said Goodbye; Down Tumbleweed Trail; and El Rancho Grande. From Edmonton. CBW 12:45 p.m.; CBK 11:45 a.m.; CBX 10:45 a.m.

PIANO'S FAMILY TREE

Talk by Margaret Ann Ireland, pianist. From Toronto. Miss Ireland

attributes the origin of the piano to the twanging of the cross-bow—men's first experience of musical sound from tautened strings. She will discuss the development of the harp, clavichord, and organ, illustrating her talk with brief passages played on the clavichord. There will be two further talks in the series, on June 10 and 17. Development of the clavichord to the piano of 1800 (Beethoven's time), and further developments from 1800 to the present, will be covered.

CBW 3:48 p.m.; CBK 3:48 p.m.; CBX 2:48 p.m.

Free Network Time Assigned To Parties

Party Representatives And CBC Officials Set Schedule.

The following statement has been issued by A. Davidson Dunton, Chairman of the Board of Governors, Canadian Broadcasting Corporation, Ottawa, May 3, 1948:

Allocation of free network time among national political parties for the federal election campaign has been decided at a meeting of party representatives with CBC officials.

On national network facilities, including affiliated private stations, a total of fourteen and one-half hours will be provided. The total is divided among the parties as follows: Liberals, 5%; Progressive Conservatives, 4%; C.C.F., 3%; Social Credit 1%.

The division of time was agreed among the party representatives with differing opinions recorded regarding the White Paper formula for setting a ratio. The agreed division differed from the ratio which would have resulted from the White Paper formula.

The series of free network time for the election campaign began May 9 and ends on June 24.

Party representatives worked for several hours at the meeting with CBC

PRAIRIE SCHOONER

Orchestra conducted by Jimmy Gowler; Maxine Miller, soprano. Orchestra: Arkansas Traveller; Peck's Schottische; The Favourite Flirtation (Scottish Country Dance); Diddle Doo (Slavic folk-dance melody); Toska (Longing), a Russian Waltz; Old French Reel; Dutch Folk-dance Melody; Druzba (Ukrainian Kolomeyka); Cascade Two-step; The Boyne Water (Irish reel). Bernard Deaville is producer, and Norman McBain, announcer. From Winnipeg. CBW 8:30 p.m.; CBK 7:30 p.m.; CBX 6:30 p.m.

WINNIPEG'S BIRTHDAY

To mark the 75th birthday of Canada's fourth city, an old-time orchestra conducted by "Pete" Couture, himself related to a famous Red River fiddler, will be heard.

CBW 10:30 p.m.

CLIMBING IN CANADA

Dr. N. E. Odell, who recently gave two talks on mountain climbing over CBC, returns tonight for the first of three more on the same general subject. Previously Dr. Odell discussed encounters with such celebrated peaks as Everest and Nanda Devi but the territory to be covered in the forthcoming talks will be strictly local. He will give the highlights of his first Canadian climbs in the Rockies in 1927 and 1930. Dr. Odell, exchange professor and world-famed mountaineer, will return to lecturing at Cambridge following a session with the Department of Geology at the University of British Columbia. From Vancouver. CBK 11:15 p.m.; CBX 10:15 p.m.

officials on the complicated details of election broadcasting. The agreed schedule includes both half-hour and quarter-hour periods, the bulk in the evening with a few in the afternoon. Some periods are scheduled on the Dominion network apart from those on the Trans-Canada network, and there are corresponding periods on the French network to all those on the English-language networks.

The remainder of the agreed schedule is as shown below:

Daylight Saving—Some New Ideas.

Daylight Saving is doubtless a great thing—for instance it fills the CBC Times up with correction lists and makes it look a lot more mathematical and complicated-looking—but I don't think it goes nearly far enough. Why stop at tinkering with the clock? Why not tinker with the calendar also? For instance, I have been for years a strong advocate of movable week-ends. You may have noticed how old Jupiter Pluvius has an uncanny way of maintaining a drought five days a week, and then starting a downpour of rain when Saturday and Sunday come around. My idea is to circumvent the old curmudgeon by shifting the week-end to Wednesday every so often, at irregular intervals. Then there is the matter of the seasons. It's absurd to call the thing we get around here a summer. When the weather goes off-beam in May, and the temperature drops to ten below or something nasty like that, I think we should advance January to that date. If we can turn a clock on, why not a calendar? There's no end to the possibilities of this thing. You can fix days, weeks, months, even years. If you don't like Blue Monday, push it on a couple of days. If this happens to be National Garbage Week, and you don't like it, shove it on to next February. As for months, why have contradictions like May, June, July and August in the calendar at all? Call 'em all January and let it go at that. And if you don't like 1949—and who does—why just skip it!—J. M. R., Winnipeg, Man.

Don Giovanni.

Let me assure you that your rendition was in every respect as good as anything I ever heard in Vienna. I wonder whether many of us Canadians realize how privileged we are in having as fine a company as this growing up in our midst.—F.K.H., Toronto, Ont.
