THE CBC spotlight (Startime, Sundays, 7-6-5:00 p.m.) moves west this week to bring outstanding Vancouver radio artists to the attention of Trans-Canada network audiences. The series originated in Toronto, then moved to Montreal, and after its Vancouver stay will come to Winnipeg (September 3). Program planners spend many hours in the Music Library before Startime is ready. Our picture shows JOHN AVISON, who will conduct the orchestra, looking on while ROBERT ALLEN, CBC producer, checks a score. KENNETH CAPLE, CBC Regional Representative in British Columbia, is at his right, with DOUGLAS NIXON, B.C. regional program director.

Radio Market For Writers

CBC producers are being allotted their operating budgets for the 1950-51 season, and now they are on the lookout for scripts—quarter-hour, half-hour, and hour—romances, mysteries, fantasies and comedies. Somewhere in Canadian radio there is a market for just about every type of play or story—provided it has sufficient listener-appeal.

In the one-hour drama, Stage 51 and Ford Theatre offer wide scope for original plays and adaptations. Alan Savage, Ford Theatre producer, is looking for more scripts by Canadian authors with a Canadian setting. He will give them priority, he says. Adaptations for Ford Theatre are always assigned to writers who have already proved their ability. Mr. Savage says there is "a crying need" for comedies and other plays with a light touch.

The Stage 51 plays are to be presented for the most part in blocks. There will be a series of

Startime At Vancouver

Canadian plays, broadcast on consecutive Sundays, a Shakespeare series, and a series representing the decades of this century. Alice Frick of the CBC drama department in Toronto says that much long-term planning was necessary for this block method, and many of the scripts needed for the coming season have already been assigned or otherwise negotiated. That doesn't leave many open dates but it does leave a few. New plays for Stage 51 are still welcomed and will be given the same careful attention as before. Writers should check with Miss Frick before going too far with work they intend to submit to her.

At the Vancouver studios of the CBC there is a ready market for half-hour plays. Producer Raymond Whitehouse says: (Turn to page 4)

INVITATION TO MUSIC

Recorded program arranged by CBS producer James Fassett. The main work on the program will be Gian-Carlo Menotti's opera The Medium. Mr. Menotti, whose second opera The Old Maid and the Thief will be heard from Vancouver on Wednesday Night this week, wrote The Medium on commission from the Alice M. Ditson Fund in New York. It was first performed at the Columbia Festival of Contemporary American Music in 1946. The Medium is scored as a tragic opera in two acts. It begins with a seance and ends with a murder. Marie Powers, who also sings in Menotti's The Consul (now on Broadway) sings the title role in this recording.

W-2:00 p.m. K-1:00 p.m. X-12:00 noon

CHURCH OF THE AIR

Rev. W. A. Mehlenbacher, Trinity Lutheran Church, Hamilton, Ontario.

W-3:30 p.m. K-2:30 p.m. X-1:30 p.m.

MUSIC I LIKE

Clyde Gilmour, CBC movie critic, will be this week's guest. From Vancouver.

W-4:00 p.m. K-3:00 p.m. X-2:00 p.m.

CRITICALLY SPEAKING

Clyde Gilmour is back from his holidays and will resume his movie reviews today. Two other westerners—Alan Crawley and Norman Newton—will review books and radio programs. Mr. Crawley, who is blind, is the editor and publisher of Contemporary Verse, a magazine devoted mostly to Canadian poetry, and he is a well known lecturer as well. He'll review two volumes of poetry: Strike Through the Mask by Peter Viereck, and The Edge of Being by Stephen Spender. Norman Newton is a freelance writer. He'll be back on the program on August 20, too.

W-4:30 p.m. K-3:30 p.m. X-2:30 p.m.

CLEARING UP THE WEATHER

The almanac grandfather pinned his faith on when planning an outing or looking for relief from rheumatism gets a bit of rough treatment from a scientific weatherman in this Sunday's broadcast. The speaker will be W. R.

W. R. Hamilton

Hamilton of the Dominion Public Weather Office in Vancouver. He will compare the almanacs issued by various concerns, including the nautical almanac.

W-5:17 p.m. K-4:17 p.m. X-3:17 p.m.

MY UNCLE LOUIS

Pierre make a profound discovery in today's episode. Clad in his father's old blue suit and wearing white gloves, he invades Sandy Hill to mingle with the elite, meet a rich cultured girl and perhaps some day marry her which would mean yachts, motor cars and jewels for all the family. He meets Betsy who lives in a mansion. As for the discovery, he learns that wealth and happiness don't always go together and that at least one resident of Sandy Hill would much prefer to live in Lower Town. From Montreal.

W-5:30 p.m. K-4:30 p.m. X-3:30 p.m.

STARTIME

MORNING DEVOTIONS

Rev. J. Propp of Christ Lutheran Church, Winnipeg, will be heard this week on CBW; Rev. R. G. Douglas, Church of England clergyman of Saskatoon, will be heard on CBK; and Rev. W. J. Collet, vice-principal, Mount Royal College, Calgary, will be heard on CBX.

W-9:35 a.m. K-11:00 a.m. X-10:00 a.m.

SAVING MONEY

Making a budget stre-c-c-tch can be fairly painless according to Dr. Alice Turner, Toronto research economist, and she'll explain why in a series of four weekly talks. In her first program Dr. Turner will discuss general problems and benefits of saving, and then on August 14 she'll get down to cases, with a talk on ways of saving for one specific purpose, such as holidays. Later she'll tell how to make the best use of nesteggs and windfalls, and plan for long-term savings.

W-3:45 p.m. K-3:45 p.m. X-2:45 p.m.

ZACHARIAS, THE ANT

A series of children's stories based on the wanderings and adventures of Zacharias, the ant, written by Dick Halhed, a producer at the CBC International Service in Montreal. Zacharias and his pal, Libby, the dragon-fly, will zoom through a series of seven adventures. The first program tells of one of the most wonderful days that

Zacharias can remember—when the wings fall off his pal, and a brand new pair grow in. There is a tense moment as they determine whether the new wings are as good as the old. But of course they are! Raymond Whitehouse, producer. From Vancouver.

K-5:30 p.m. X-4:30 p.m.
Tuesday, Aug. 8—W-5:15 p.m.

SUMMER CONCERT

Orchestra conducted by Jean Beaudet; Pierrette Dalbec, soprano. Orchestra: The Gazza Ladra overture (Rossini); Dance from La Vida Breve (De Falla); Danse villageoise (Claude Champagne); Egyptian Ballet (Luigini). Pierrette Dalbec: Dream of Love (Liszt); A Song of India (Rimsky Korsakov); Homing (Teresa del Riego). Miss Dalbec has been the featured artist on numerous French network programs and made her first Trans Canada network appearance as the Sunday morning recitalist last New Year's Day. She has sung important roles in Montreal Opera Guild productions and has given concert recitals. From Montreal.

W-7:00 p.m. K-9:30 p.m. X-8:30 p.m.

LET JUSTICE BE DONE

Reconstruction of outstanding cases of the last fifty years from the law courts of England, written and produced for the BBC by John Gough. Tonight: an example of the influence of a witness's character on the course of a trial will be given in The Case of Steinie Morrison.

W-8:00 p.m. K-10:00 p.m. X-9:00 p.m.

THE LIMERICK SHOW

Regular panel and guests. Speakers provide first four lines of a limerick, to given "snap" lines, or provide "snaps" for first four lines given. From MBS.

Dom. 8:00 p.m. MDT.

SUMMERFALLOW

Toronto playwright Max Braithwaite has written a fanciful tale centering around a rural party line for this Monday's broadcast. It's about a bachelor farmer who returns from the Royal Winter Fair with two prizes—a ribbon for cattle, and the most beautiful rider of the horse show. City bred, his new wife dislikes country life principally because of what she calls the gossipy party line—until a family emergency shows her how valuable nosy friends can be at times. Stephen Ker Appleby, producer. From Halifax.

W-9:30 p.m. K-8:30 p.m. X-7:30 p.m.

GROSNEY QUINTET

Paul Grosney Quintet; Maxine Ware, vocalist. Quintet: Charlie My Boy; Hush Little Darlin'; Begin the Beguine; Tuxedo Junction; medley—Alexander's Ragtime Band, Count Every Star, Caravan, Piano Roll Blues; Dolores; Jolson medley—Swanee, April Showers, California Here I Come, Toot Toot Tootsie. Maxine Ware: Let's Do It; With My Eyes Wide Open I'm Dreaming. Bernard Deaville, producer. From Winnipeg.

W-10:30 p.m. K-7:30 p.m. X-6:30 p.m.

HEATHER MIXTURE

A variety program from Scotland with Freda Phillips, Walter Jackson, Jimmie Elliott and the BBC Scottish Variety Orchestra conducted by Kemlo Stephen. The Anniversary Song; Dinah; Am I Blue; I'm Sitting on Top of the World; Rockabye My Baby; The Merry-Go-Round Broke Down; You Brought a New Kind of Love; Night and Day; Heather Mixture. From the BBC Transcription Service.

The Prairie Gardener

Summary of Broadcast of July 30, 1950.

August Round-up in the Garden

1. Weed control calls for one hundred per cent removal and destruction of all weeds before they drop their seeds. Careful elimination of seed bearing plants at this time reduces the weed menace and labour costs in next year's garden.

2. Fall crops of radishes, leaf lettuce, and spinach should be sown now. Winter onions sown now will provide green onions in late fall as well as bunching onions next spring.

3. Pruning tomatoes in August to limit fruit set to those formed by the middle of the month will increase yield of good size fruit. Remove all new growth and prevent further flowering after the middle of the month.

4. Hill potatoes enough to keep a protective soil layer over the tubers. This prevents sun-scald and greening, keeps out early fall frost and keeps disease spores dropped from foliage from finding a winter home on the tubers.

5. Fruit trees and flowering shrubs should have reduced water supplies during August and September in order to encourage hard wood formation, building strong flower buds for next year and preparing the plants to withstand the fall frosts. They must ripen up new growth thoroughly.

6. Now is the best time to plant iris. Next in order comes transplanting and dividing Oriental poppies as soon as the foliage is ripe.

7. Pansies and violas sown now will provide strong seedling plants more

AVENTURES SCIENTIFIQUES

Aventures Scientifiques — Scientific Adventures—is an educational series now featured every Tuesday during the French Hour. The program, produced in Montreal by Florent Forget, dramatizes great medical discoveries.

K-5:00 p.m.

CONCERT HALL

Sir Thomas Beecham, who has been largely instrumental in popularizing the music of Delius in Britain, will conduct that composer's In a Summer Garden. Other works include the overture Manfred (Schumann), and Fiffine at the Fair, Granville Bantock's musical rendering of the Browning poem. Sir Thomas will introduce each work.

Dom. 7:30 p.m. CDT; 10:30 p.m. MDT; 10:30 p.m. MST.

WINNERS' SHOW

Charles Rush, popular baritone, of Lethbridge; Bernard McKeever, tenor, of Toronto; Barbara Franklin, soprano, of Regina; orchestra conducted by Recent guests on Norman McBain's CBW program Here and There were the group of boys and girls who make up the "security council" of "Little Lake Success" at the school in Huxley, Alberta. They were on their way east on a tour which will take them to many points in the United States and to Lake Success. G. G. FELLOWES, Huxley school principal who started the juvenile security council idea, is seen at the right.

Horace Lapp. From Toronto. Rush won a grand prize in the CBC series Opportunity Knocks. McKeever and Miss Franklin were runners-up. Sandy Webster of Fort William won the announcer's prize in this series. Opportunity Knocks is off the air until September 18.

Dom. 8:00 p.m. MDT.

SCIENCE REPORTER

As an antidote to the blood-and-thunder type of cheap literature favoured by a great many youngsters, Percy Saltzman, a free-lance writer on the staff of the Meteorological Bureau in Toronto, suggests that parents interest their offspring in science books. Tonight he will give the second of two talks on what scientific authors have to offer in the way of easily-written books almost guaranteed to keep junior glued to a corner of the chesterfield. Mr. Saltzman will discuss books on the physical sciences, designed for the ten to fifteen age group.

W-10:00 p.m. K-9:00 p.m. X-8:00 p.m.

RADIO MARKET FOR WRITERS (Continued from page 1)

"Writers should heed the advice of Aristotle and write on a theme of 'sufficient magnitude'. The emphasis in Vancouver this fall will be on serious drama, melodrama and fantasy. The half-hour drama is not a dead dodo."

Much the same advice could be heeded by writers planning to send scripts to James W. Kent, who produces the Winnipeg Drama series of half-hour plays.

In the Maritime Region, Stephen Ker Appleby of Halifax expects to produce thirteen half-hour plays on Maritime Drama during the winter. Scripts with "imagination, freshness and potency" are needed, he says, and if work submitted is not up to standard everything possible will be done to help writers meet the requirements.

Rupert Caplan at CBC Montreal says he assigns most of his plays to known writers. But seven of the scripts needed for next season's Way of the Spirit series are to be written by free-lance writers and at present the field is wide open.

CBC French network producers are looking for plays—both originals and adaptations—short stories, talks scripts and so on. The market there, as everywhere, is open to writers all over the country.

Short stories and talks "articles" in English can be marketed at many CBC production points, including Vancouver, where producer Ross McLean is planning a new Miscellany series for western listeners. Humorous sketches and satiric vignettes are preferred, and they should be of about twenty-two hundred words—the normal length for fifteen minutes.

In Toronto, the Canadian Short Stories series provides still another market. The program is usually a fifteen-minute one, sometimes extended to half an hour. CBC producer Robert Weaver is looking for stories on almost any subject—with very few taboos. They must be by Canadians or writers living in Canada, but the subject doesn't have to be Canadian.

PRAIRIE GARDENER

likely to winter and yield strong blooming plants in early spring than the old plants that are bloomed out.

8. Gladioli and dahlias need plenty of moisture during August to bring them into bloom on schedule.

9. Remove the old fruiting canes in the raspberry patch as soon as all fruit has been picked to give new canes a better chance.

10. Control pests such as the cabbage worm with poison dust. Check all crops for insects and take appropriate action to eliminate them.

11. Make one more application of 2,4-D on the lawn to eliminate the new crop of dandelion seedlings.

12. Prune annuals to rejuvenate them for fall flowering.

OUR CHILDREN

In Finland there's a group of nurses, domestics and public spirited citizens—the Mannerheim League—working to secure for every child a firm foundation of health, professional skill and happy childhood memories. Sigrid Larsson, who directs this project, will describe its activities in this week's program.

W-3:45 p.m. K-3:45 p.m. X-2:45 p.m.

SHARP, FLAT AND NATURAL

The second of a series of five talks by Chester Duncan in which some serious subjects connected with music are examined with some of the seriousness which they deserve. Mr. Duncan's talk, entitled The Musician as a Romantic Character, is built around the statement "Music might tame and civilize wild beasts, but 'tis evident it never yet could tame and civilize musicians"—John Gay (Polly). Bernard Trotter, producer. From Winnipeg.

W-7:00 p.m. K-11:15 p.m. X-10:15 p.m.

CBC Wednesday Night

BRITISH POETS

The second in a series of four half-hour programs devoted to the works of four British Romantic poets. On this occasion selections will be read from the poetry of Percy Bysshe Shelley. Next week John Drainie will read poems by Byron and in the last program in the series Frank Peddie will present excerpts from Keats' works. The series is planned by Robert Weaver of CBC Toronto and produced by Helen James.

W-7:30 p.m. K-7:30 p.m. X-6:30 p.m.

THE OLD MAID AND THE THIEF

Beth Watson, recently appointed Maritime regional representative of the CBC International Service, with headquarters in Halifax. He succeeds Fred Brickenden, now IS press and information representative in Montreal. In his new work Mr. Homer is responsible for producing programs about Maritime subjects for broadcast to overseas countries over the short-wave transmitters at Sackville, N.B.

A one-hour radio opera by Gian-Carlo Menotti; Nicholas Goldschmidt, conductor, Terence Gibbs, producer. The opera was commissioned by the National Broadcasting Company and was first produced on an NBC network on April 22, 1939. It was written for four voices and no chorus. In this presentation the cast will include: Ernest Adams, baritone—Bob; Beth Watson, contralto—Miss Todd; Nora Grennan, soprano—Laetitia; Marina Jarvis, soprano—Miss Pinkerton. Gian-Carlo Menotti was born in Milan, Italy, thirty-eight years ago. His musical talent was recognized by his mother who sent him to the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia at the age of seventeen. It was there that his first opera, Amelia Goes to the Ball, was produced in 1937. The Old Maid and the Thief, his second opera, was followed by The Island God, produced by the Metropolitan Opera Company in 1942, The Medium which was first presented at Columbia University in 1946, The Telephone (1947) and The Consul which is now playing on Broadway. From Vancouver.

W-8:00 p.m. K-9:00 p.m. X-8:00 p.m.

etudes—Op. 25, No. 9 and Op. 10, No. 5 (Chopin); Nocturne No. 6 in D Flat (Faure); Moment Musical No. 2 (Rachmaninoff); Chelsea Reach, from the Set of London Pieces (John Ireland); The Juggler (Toch). Well known to CBC audiences across Canada, Thelma Johannes has won acclaim as a solo pianist and as a former member of the two-piano team of Johannes and Assaly. She received most of her musical training in Saskatoon and in 1946 won a Western Board of Music scholarship to study in France. During her two years in Paris she attended the Ecole Normale and the Paris Conservatoire and studied with Alfred Cortot and Robert Casadesus. Before her return to Canada Miss Johannes was granted the Diplome d'Etudes, the highest award available to foreign students studying at the Paris Conservatoire. She has recently completed an eighteen-month concert tour of Saskatchewan. Tom Taylor, producer. From Winnipeg.

W-9:30 p.m. K-8:30 p.m. X-7:30 p.m.

THE MAN OF LAW'S PREAMBLE AND TALE

Among the many pilgrims who paused at the Tabard Inn on their way to the Shrine of St. Thomas, in Chaucer's Canterbury Tales, one of the most colourful was "a Sergeant of the Law." The story with which he entertained the other pilgrims will be heard tonight in a one-hour dramatization, adapted for broadcasting by Nevill Coghill and transcribed in the London Studios of the BBC. Production is by Stephen Potter. Ronald Simpson will be heard as The Man of Law and Denise Bryer as Constance. Others in the cast are Cecil Troncer, Malcolm Graham, Betty Hardy and Martin Starkin.

A BOOK I LIKE

Elizabeth Musto, who works in the circulation department of the Vancouver Public Library, will discuss Canadian Unity by Abbe Arthur Maheux. As an Englishwoman who has lived in Canada for twelve years, she selected the book which had contributed most to her understanding of her adopted country. Before reading it she had continued to think of England as "home" but Maheux' stress on the need for national unity convinced her otherwise. From Vancouver.

W-3:45 p.m. K-3:45 p.m. X-2:45 p.m.

TREASURE ISLAND

Squire Trelawney, Captain Smollet and Dr. Livesey make an exciting dash in a small boat from the Hispaniola to the island in this week's episode of Robert Louis Stevenson's Treasure Island. Narrator Charles Miller tells how they got caught between a barrage of shots from the ship where five pirates, left behind, broke into the round-shot and powder and from shore where the others had already landed. In the meantime, it wasn't expected that young Jim Hawkins would be seen alive again. He had set out alone to explore the island. From Montreal.

W-5:15 p.m. K-5:30 p.m. X-4:30 p.m.

GIAN-CARLO MENOTTI, whose comic opera The Old Maid and the Thief will be heard on CBC Wednesday Night, August 9, from Vancouver. Commissioned by the National Broadcasting Company the work was written expressly for radio and was first performed in April, 1939. At present the composer is working on an opera for television.

CBC OPERA STARS

William B. Williams will be the guest this week. He will sing: Il cavallo scalpita from Cavalleria Rusticana (Mascagni); Von ewiger Liebe (Brahms); and Il balen del suo sorriso from Il Trovatore (Verdi). From Toronto.

W-6:00 p.m. X-4:00 p.m.

ON BEING BRAVE

First of three talks by Shaun Heron, Irish cleric and wit who visited Canada in 1949, and was heard on CBC Wednesday Night last fall in talks on poetry.

W-7:00 p.m. K-6:00 p.m. X-5:00 p.m.

TRUE OR FALSE

In this quiz show studio contestants compete for cash prizes by answering questions quickly—yes or no. No second guessing is allowed, and the extreme brevity of the answers means there can be more questions on a wider variety of topics. Effervescent Eddie Dunn handles the quizzing. From MBS.

Dom. 7:00 p.m.

PROM CONCERT

Toronto Philharmonic Orchestra, conducted by Guy Fraser Harrison, permanent conductor of the Rochester Civic Orchestra; King Edward orchestra conducted by Norman Harris; Gerry Travers, vocalist. From Toronto. A "battle of music" similar to the Rochester event of last year—"pops" and classics fight it out. The program includes: By the Philharmonic Orchestra—Malaguena (Lecuona); Mosquito Serenade; Skater's Waltz (Waldteufel); Serenade (Schubert), with Gerry Travers; Medley from La Traviata; Flight of the Bumble Bee (Rimsky-Korsakoff). By the King Edward orchestra—Cumana, with Vincent Boyd, pianist; Begin the Beguine, with Gerry Travers; The Johnson Rag, Our Waltz, Moonlight Serenade, 1949 Medley. The orchestras also combine in several numbers, including the Bumble Bee as Rimsky-Korsakoff wrote it, and the Bumble Boogie, which he would never recognize. The finale, by both orchestras, is appropriately entitled Slaughter on Tenth Avenue.

Dom. 7:30 p.m. MDT.

UNITED NATIONS TODAY

A report from UN headquarters at Lake Success, heard Mondays to Fridays at this time. George Movshon, writer-producer (of South Africa); Oscar Rose, program supervisor (of the United States); Lyulph Stanley, reporter, (of England). The program gives a first-hand account of proceedings at UN, with delegates' voices heard speaking to resolutions, and a closely-knit commentary. Fairness and impartiality are strictly observed. The reporting is "on the spot." When Rose, not long ago, was walking through crowds at an auction sale in the Parke-Bernet Art Galleries in New York (proceeds to UN refugee organization), he signalled to Stanley to open his mike so that he could describe the scene, and the auctioneer, seeing his raised hand, sold him a fine picture for $500! The program has won high awards in the United States.

Dom. 9:15 p.m. MDT.

PROPOSALS FOR PEACE

The last program of a discussion series which is exploring the possibility of eventual permanent peace and the ways in which it might be effected. Topic: Pattern for Peace. Speakers: Mordecai E. ### RECITAL

Kerr Wilson, baritone, will be this week's recitalist. Norman Lucas, producer. From Winnipeg.

W-11:15 p.m. K-10:15 p.m. X-9:15 p.m.

CANADIAN SHORT STORIES

The Patchwork Quilt by Rigmor Adamson. An Ottawa housewife, Mrs. Adamson is a frequent contributor to

On Dominion Day, editors of foreign language newspapers published in Winnipeg assembled at the CBC's Winnipeg studios to record commentaries (in English) on democracy, for the CBC International Service series, Canadian Chronicle. Left to right in the pictures are: MARK SELCHEN, Israelite Press; WALTER CHRISTOPHERSON, Winnipeg Tribune; PETER STANCOVIC, Croatian Voice; HENRY PROVISO, script writer; MR. JUSTICE WALTER LINDAL, president of the Canada Press Club, foreign language newspaper association; GUSTAV NEMES, Hungarian Times; FATHER RAYMOND DUROCHER, The Ensign; HENRY HYKOWAY, Ukrainian Farmer; MADELEINE HRYNIEWIECI, Gazeta Polska (secretary, Canada Press Club); HELGE PEARSON, Swedish-Norwegian press. Liston Burns, CBC IS Representative, produced the program.

Boccherini, Bach, and Basin Street

Every Saturday evening at (W-9.00, K-8.00, X-7:00 p.m.) a group of eminent musicians and musicologists gather in a padded studio at NBC, New York, to make their own unique contribution to the fine traditions of music appreciation. They are members of the Chamber Music Society of Lower Basin Street, and their deliberations on a topic dear to the hearts of many music lovers—"le jazz hot" (Dixieland preferred)—are shared with Trans-Canada network listeners.

While capable of splitting some long-hairs on the subject of Bach, Beethoven and Boccherini, the members of the Society also pay strict attention to three other important B's—barrel-house, boogie-woogie and the blues. Gene (Dr. Gino) Hamilton's erudite remarks on such topics are ably illustrated at every meeting by Professor Henry "Hot Lips" Levine and his Barefoot Dixieland Philharmonic, vocalist Jane Pickens and the six singing Escourtiers.

Although Dr. Hamilton's intermission commentary frequently includes interviews with noted musical dignitaries such as Arthur Fiedler the subjects discussed are not always musical. Sometimes they may contain references to garbage disposal in New York City and even the occasional comment on the low-cut "arpeggio" which Miss Pickens (Dixie Cup to her friends) is wearing that evening.

W-11:30 p.m. K-11:30 p.m. X-10:30 p.m.

TALK

George Woodcock grapples with Chekhov in this week's talk on Russian Novelists. From Vancouver.

W-11:45 p.m. K-11:45 p.m. X-10:45 p.m.

Take Jane Pickens, for instance. She is a graduate of the Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia and has studied voice in France and at the Juilliard School of Music in New York.

Gene Hamilton is a former NBC announcer and has been commentator for virtually every symphony organization in the United States. Another Society member who is equally at home in the concert hall is Henry Levine, who has played trumpet under the batons of Arturo Toscanini, Walter Damrosch and Howard Hansen.

The Escourtiers, too, have more than a nodding acquaintance with more serious musical forms. Lou White, the bass-baritone, is the composer of many cantatas which are played in churches throughout the world. Roy Russell and Erich Lawrence, tenors, were formerly with the San Francisco Opera Company.

Winnipeg For Wheat? — Toronto stands for trade—Montreal for money.

—John Fisher, on CBC.
