• When Pat Morgan, western vocalist with the CBC's Sunshine Society (Vancouver edition), comes into the studios for the Monday show he has to leave his horse outside. To show that he really is at home (however uncomfortable) in the saddle, he rigged up this studio mount. Morgan shares the vocals on the show with Betty Phillips; both are supported by a musical group led by Ray Norris; and announcer Ray Mackness manipulates the window shades to let the sunshine stream into the studio. There's more about all four editions of the Sunshine Society on page six.

• CBC's plans for covering the Festival of Britain—which the King in his opening message proclaimed as a demonstration of "what this old country can do"—took a forward step last week with the departure for the United Kingdom of Andrew Allan who will co-ordinate the pictures of the great event which will be broadcast frequently during the summer. There will be talks, commentaries and actualities of all kinds and a series of feature programs arranged by Allan to depict Festival activities in London; a village festival with all its rural color; the York Festival featuring the York Mystery Plays which will be performed in the city streets for the first time in 300 years; the Shakespeare Festival at Stratford-on-Avon; the Gathering of the Clans, in Edinburgh, probably the first real gathering of this kind in 200 years; the Pageant of Wales; and the Festival of the Arts at Belfast.

• Midnight of May 31 will be the "critical moment" in the ninth decennial census; it will take a whole month to gather in all the information, but all reports will be as of that time. The 1951 census will be much more than a mere counting of noses. It will be truly a national stock-taking which, in addition to population statistics, will provide facts and figures on our labour force, housing, income levels, business and farm conditions. Altogether 29 questions will be asked of every adult Canadian. To explain the census, Dominion statistician Herbert Marshall will broadcast on CBC Trans-Canada May 26 (This Week, CBW 5:00 p.m., CBK 4:00 p.m., CBX 3:00 p.m.).

« « NOTES » »

Capital Report. Alexander Uhl from Washington, Matthew Halton from London, and Anne Francis from Ottawa.

W-1:03 p.m. K-12:03 p.m. X-11:03 a.m.

Religious Period. Rabbi David Kogen of Congregation Beth Israel, Vancouver, will speak on Challenge and minister of St. John's Road Baptist Church in Toronto from 1917 to 1919, and then spent seven years in Tokyo as teacher in Waseda University and then pastor of Tokyo Union Church. Back in Canada in 1930, he was in charge of churches in Ottawa and London before he went to Hamilton in 1940.

W-6:00 p.m. K-5:00 p.m. X-4:00 p.m.

Little Symphonies. Orchestra conducted by Roland Leduc. From Montreal.

Symphony in C Major (K. 338) by Mozart.

This symphony is one of the last two Mozart wrote in Salzburg, where he spent the years 1779 and 1780 as court and cathedral organist.

W-7:30 p.m. K-6:30 p.m. X-5:30 p.m.

Trans-Canada Theatre. Hadleyburg is an imaginary city in the United States with a reputation for incorruptibility. One day a stranger in town "received an offence" insulting him so deeply that he decided to get back at the whole town—by corrupting it morally. He was surprised how completely he was able to succeed. He found that reputation is only a veneer, and that greed is a disease to which few people are immune. Mark Twain told this story over half a century ago (The Man That Corrupted Hadleyburg), departing from his usual moods of light-heartedness and nostalgia, and emerging as a bitter cynic. Story adapted by Alan King; J. Frank Willis, producer. From Toronto.

W-8:00 p.m. K-7:00 p.m. X-6:00 p.m.

St. Joseph's College Choir. Thirty-voice male choir conducted by Father Leandre Brault; from Moncton, N.B. Five hundred New Brunswick, Prince Edward Island, and Quebec boys attend St. Joseph's College, and the choir is chosen from among them. Liturgical singing has been stressed at the college since its founding in 1864 by Fr. Camille Lefebvre, and since 1946 training has been given in Gregorian chant and classical polyphony. All singing is a capella. The choir last year won the 700-year-old Lincoln Trophy, presented for annual competition in Canada by the Lincoln Music Festival of England, and considered the outstanding musical trophy in Canada. The marks given were among the highest ever awarded—95 each for two Gregorian chants; 90 for two folk songs. The choir does all its rehearsing in after-school hours and during holidays.

Dom. 8:30 p.m. MDT.

Concerto. CBC orchestra conducted by Geoffrey Waddington; Mary Shore, pianist. From Toronto.

Piano Concerto in A Major (K. 414) by Mozart.

W-9:30 p.m. K-8:30 p.m. X-7:30 p.m.

Overture Please. Orchestra conducted by Eric Wild; Mary Gynn, soprano; Kerr Wilson, baritone. Norman Lucas, producer. From Winnipeg.

Orchestra: Selections from Chu Chin Chow—Robbers March, sung by Kerr Wilson (Frederick Norton); Sweethearts—Sweetheart Waltz, sung by Mary Gynn (Herbert); Veronique (Andre Messager); Stepping Stones (Kern). Mary Gynn: You and the Night and the Music, from Revenge with Music (Schwartz). Kerr Wilson: Thine Alone, from Eileen (Herbert). Kerr Wilson and Mary Gynn: Look for the Silver Lining, from Sally (DeSylva-Kern).

W-10:00 p.m. K-9:00 p.m. X-8:00 p.m.

This Week's Composer. Guest conductor Clifford Evans will direct the orchestra in a program of works by Orchestra: To Music; Fugue in E Minor; selections from Rosamunde. Nora Grennan: Die Fiorelle; Sere-nade; Shepherd on the Rock (accompanied by clarinet and piano).

Mr. Evens is a member of the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra as well as concertmaster of the Victoria Symphony Orchestra. Just recently he was also appointed assistant conductor for next season of the Victoria Symphony.

W-11:00 p.m. K-10:00 p.m. X-9:00 p.m.

Music by Schubert. Jean de Rim-anoczy, violinist, Audrey Piggott, cellist, and Norman Abernethy, pianist, will play Schubert's Trio in B Flat Major. From Vancouver.

W-11:30 p.m. K-10:30 p.m. X-9:30 p.m.

Dividend. Family Reunion, one of T. S. Eliot's best known works, will be presented in a two-part version this Sunday and next. It is a BBC feature with John Gielgud in the leading role. The setting of the play is a large English estate, and it is centered around the Greek myth of the Eumenides. The underlying theme is of eternal vengeance and the transmission of the responsibility for sin from generation to generation. From Vancouver.

K-12:00 mid. X-11:00 p.m.

Rabbi David Kogen

Response during this Sunday's broadcast. Assisting will be the Beth Israel Choir under the direction of Cantor Fred S. Gartner.

W-1:30 p.m. K-12:30 p.m. X-11:30 a.m.

Church of the Air. Rev. W. Oliver Nugent, First Presbyterian Church, Brandon, Manitoba.

W-3:30 p.m. K-2:30 p.m. X-1:30 p.m.

Critically Speaking. Clyde Gilmour on movies, and Nathan Cohen on the Dominion Drama Festival held in London, Ontario.

W-4:30 p.m. K-3:30 p.m. X-2:30 p.m.

Sunday Evening Hour. Rev. P. P. W. Zeimann of James Street Baptist Church, Hamilton, will be the speaker. He was born in Preston, Ontario, and educated at Woodstock Baptist College, McMaster and Yale. He was

Clifford Evens

Schubert, with Nora Grennan, soprano, as guest soloist. From Vancouver.

Favourite Classics.—The orchestral portions of the final Toronto "Pop" Concert of the season, on April 13, were selected by the listeners—those who go to the concerts at Massey Hall in Toronto and those who heard parts of them broadcast on the CBC Trans-Canada network. About 1,000 letters were received, giving the listeners' choice for the special concert. Most votes went to the waltz from Khatchachurian's Masquerade Suite; other works near the top of the list (and presented by the orchestra on April 13) were: selections from H.M.S. Pinafore by Sullivan; Schubert's Unfinished Symphony (first movement); the Emperor Waltz by Johann Strauss; Finlandia by Sibelius; Jamaican Rhumba by Arthur Benjamin; The Dream of Olwen by Charles Williams; and the overture to Semiramide by Rossini.

A Booming Two-way Trade in Music

The story of CBC's part in a flourishing exchange scheme which sends Canadian music echoing around the globe

Morning Devotions. Professor A. R. Cragg of United College, Winnipeg, will be heard on CBW this week; Dr. J. B. Corston of St. Andrew's College, Saskatoon, will be heard on CBK; and Rev. Charles E. Reeve of St. Michael and All Angels Church, Calgary, will be heard on CBX.

W-3:35 a.m. K-11:00 a.m. X-10:00 a.m.

Composers I Know. Toronto pianist Isabel Woodward talks about composers she knows, with keyboard illustrations of their work. Today's subject: Harry Somers.

W-3:45 p.m. K-3:45 p.m. X-2:45 p.m.

The Choristers. Choral group conducted by W. H. Anderson, from Winnipeg. A program of European folk-songs.

A Violin Is Singing In the Street (Ukrainian); The Merry Time of Maying (German); The Nightingale

With the signing of an agreement between the CBC and the Polydor Recording Company, permitting this French firm to distribute a recording of Claude Champagne's Symphonie Gaspesienne for sale throughout the world, a new development in the exporting of Canadian music to other countries was concluded. The agreement is a direct result of the work of the CBC International Service in this field. The recording was by a CBC Montreal orchestra conducted by Jean Beaudet.

Champagne's work was first performed for a Voice of Canada short-wave broadcast to Europe in 1949. It has since been performed by Les Concerts Symphoniques of Montreal, under Desire Defauw's direction.

This is the first time that a Canadian symphonic work has been distributed commercially on a world-wide scale. The French firm expects to sell it in Europe, Canada, the United States, Latin America and Australia.

The symphony is in one movement and takes 24 minutes to perform. Champagne's Suite Canadienne, also broadcast by CBC IS, was released for commercial distribution in Canada some years ago by agreement between the CBC and RCA Victor.

(Hungarian); Robin Loves Me (French); Love Me Truly (French); The Silver Moon Is Shining (Italian); Mary, Dearest, Come Quickly (Polish); The Golden Day Is Dying (Finnish); Prayer Of Thanksgiving (Dutch); Praise the Lord (old Ukrainian Church Melody). Ladies' Chorus: Good Night, Beloved (Czechoslovakian); Katerina (Ukrainian).

W-10:00 p.m. K-9:00 p.m. X-8:00 p.m.

Although Canadian composers may feel that they are prophets without honour in their own country, it is in fact their own country which is making their music known abroad, and the agent is the CBC International Service.

For some time broadcasting systems in Europe have been exchanging programs. The CBC receives a regular flow of transcriptions from the BBC. It has also in its libraries transcriptions from various other countries of Europe. Two years ago Canada, through the International Service, joined the company of nations interested not only in receiving but also in exporting material for broadcast. It opened a transcription service which supplies radio stations abroad with recordings of Canadian music. It started the service in November, 1949, in a modest way with a set of 12 programs, but by next September it will be able to supply 38 countries with weekly half-hour or quarter-hour programs.

CBC listeners in Canada are now learning how this exchange of cultural programs works. They are hearing the music Canada is sending abroad and

« « NOTES » »

British Concert Hall. The Liverpool Philharmonic Orchestra conducted by Sir Malcolm Sargent. From the BBC. Two Slavonic Dances (Dvorak); Air on the G String (Bach); Variations on an Original Theme (Enigma Variations) by Elgar.

Dom. 7:30 p.m. CDT; 10:30 p.m. MDT; 10:30 p.m. MST

Mr. Glencannon. Captain Snotty off the Yacht, is the title of tonight's drama. It is not given to many men who drink Duggan's Dew of Kirkin-tilloch to meet its distiller face to face. But Mr. Glencannon does and the said Major MacKenzie Duggan pays and pays and pays.

W-8:30 p.m. K-7:30 p.m. X-6:30 p.m.

Albert Pratz

Links with Life. The second of a series of ten weekly talks by Dr. S. R. Laycock, Dean of Education at the University of Saskatchewan. Tonight: A Girl and Her Dad—Does a father help to provide his daughter with emotional security? If he encourages her to identify herself with her mother, does he then influence her essential femininity? Will this pattern of masculinity affect her choice of a husband?

Dom. 9:30 p.m. MDT

Recital. Albert Pratz, 37-year-old conductor-violinist (often described as one of Canada's foremost), is home for the summer after making a big name for himself with NBC in New York. From his native Toronto he is broadcasting in solo recital every Tuesday night and as concert-master in Lucio Agostini's Whispering Strings program every Sunday (CBW 7:00 p.m., CBK 6:00 p.m., CBX 5:00 p.m.). During the last two years he has been recording for Decca, Columbia and RCA Victor, as well as playing at NBC. He toured the United States with Toscanini last year. Pratz was last heard over the CBC in May, 1949, when he performed as guest in the Distinguished Artists series. Before that he had been heard frequently in CBC programs and was concert-master of the CBC String Orchestra in Toronto and on Melodic Strings.

Dom. 9:45 p.m. MDT

Miscellany. Aunt Isabel believed in reincarnation—but she also believed that humans went back to animal form. She said she could even tell by looking at a person what animal they would turn into, and went so far as to predict that she herself would be a porpoise in the next life. Tonight Alan Offer tells about The Life Cycle of Aunt Isabel, and leaves the listener wondering whether, after all, there wasn't something in what Aunt Isabel believed. From Vancouver.

K-11:15 p.m. X-10:15 p.m.

U.S. Awards for CBC Regional Shows

PROGRAMS heard on western networks of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation won three first awards this year at the 15th American Exhibition of Educational Radio Programs, held at Ohio State University, Columbus, Ohio. The CBC International Service won an honourable mention, the only category of award given, in the field of programs designed to further international understanding.

The Institute for Education by Radio-Television, which sponsors the exhibition, announced that this year, for the first time, it was not considering programs produced by either the American or Canadian national networks, but only regional or local programs.

In announcing the change, the Institute recommended that Canadian programs should be included in the considerations of other United States agencies giving awards to national network programs. The Institute said that Canadian programs "frequently illustrate superb quality in both content and production, and provide wholesome competition to American networks."

One of the three first awards won this year by Canadian regional programs went to "The Seven Joys of Mary," a CBC religious program. In their citation, the judges said "CBC has devoted effort and time in research to present the story of a religious holiday that is meaningful and of spiritual value to all listeners."

The two other first awards went to school broadcasts produced by the CBC in co-operation with the western provinces. "Health Highways" was cited for "imaginative and unusual scripting and production in a field in which dull programs are common." "Listening Is Fun" was cited for "a colourful and imaginative use of fantasy in titles, scripting and production of a thoroughly comprehensible and educational series."

An honourable mention to the CBC International Service was for "Canadian Primer, the ABC of Canada," a program cited for "the courage to approach international problems with sprightliness and humour; for bringing to bear the best of radio techniques in this area (furthering international understanding) and refusing to allow its mood to be weighted down by the challenge of international relations."

Summer Picnic. All over Canada thousands of families will be going on their first picnic of the season on May 24th. Today Myriam van der Elst of Belgium is going to describe what sort of an outing they would have if they lived in her country. She is sub-editor of the Overseas Service of the Belgian Radio. Born in Amsterdam she taught school for a while and then was private secretary to Minister of Foreign Affairs Spaak, until 1940. During the war she was one of the first of the Belgian National Radio associates to broadcast from London. This won't be her first broadcast to Canadian listeners. In 1949 she took part in the CBC talks series for women called Our Countrywomen, and last year she was heard in the series A Good Wife. W-3:45 p.m. K-3:45 p.m. X-2:45 p.m.

Jimmie Shields. Jimmie Shields, tenor; Leo Barkin, piano accompanist. From Toronto. Tonight: a program of songs made famous by John McCormack.

Cockles and Mussels; I Mio Tesoro from Mozart's opera Don Giovanni; and one of the few Scottish songs ever recorded by McCormack—Oh Sing Me the Old Scotch Songs. W-6:00 p.m. X-4:00 p.m.

The Latest Thing. Recorded program featuring some of the latest records received in CBX's library. From Edmonton. K-6:30 p.m. X-5:30 p.m.

CBC Wednesday Night

Rumpelstiltskin. The story of Rumpelstiltskin by the Brothers Grimm, adapted for radio by the English writer Frank Dillon and produced by the BBC.

Felix Felton — Rumpelstiltskin; Cherry Cottrell—the miller's daughter; and Eric Phillips—the King. This radio production by the BBC won an award at an international contest in Venice in 1949. W-7:00 p.m. K-9:00 p.m. X-8:00 p.m.

The Little Sweep. The Little Sweep from Benjamin Britten's Let's Make an Opera, conducted by Geoffrey Waddington; Terence Gibbs, producer. From Toronto.

Eric Tredwell—the sweep-master; Zilba Georgieva — the governess. Youthful singers taking part: Peter Purvis—Sam, the sweep-boy; Edward Long, Graeme McDougal, Patsy Brookes and Donald Saunders—all Toronto school children.

Part of the fun will be provided by a studio audience which will join in the choruses indicated by the composer for them. Producer Gibbs will instruct the audience briefly in the four special songs before the show goes on the air. The Little Sweep is the story of a group of children who discover a terrified sweep-boy wedged in their nursery chimney His name is Sam and he is eight years old. They look after him, hide him from the cruel sweep-master and from their own governess—and finally smuggle him away to a happier life. W-8:00 p.m. K-10:00 p.m. X-9:00 p.m.

Distinguished Artists. Ross Pratt, Winnipeg-born pianist, is this week's recitalist. From Montreal.

Ballade Op. 118, No. 3 (Brahms); Song without Words Op. 21, No. 2 (Mendelssohn); Sarabande (Debussy); Etudes Tableaux Op. 33, Nos. 2, 1, 8 and 7 (Rachmaninoff). W-9:30 p.m. K-8:30 p.m. X-7:30 p.m.

Nature of the Universe. Talks by Dr. Fred Hoyle of Cambridge University. Tonight—The Stars; Their Future and Their Fate. W-10:00 p.m. K-7:30 p.m. X-6:30 p.m.

Latin American Serenade. Vocalist Joan Fairfax makes her CBC debut tonight as guest on this program. She started off, as many singers do, with classical voice studies at the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto but bandleader-vocalist Art Hallman advised her to switch from coloratura soprano to straight "pop" singer. By late 1949 she was singing with a small Toronto band, at conventions and club dinners, and at night clubs in and around Toronto. Then she met Johnny Wayne and Frank Shuster, casting for their three-week road show (Montreal and London) Mother Goose. She was auditioned and got the part of the girl lead. Later she appeared with Eddie Cantor on his search-for talent show at Massey Hall and was one of the finalists. She auditioned for the CBC in March. Dom. 9:30 p.m. MDT International Concert. Recorded program featuring works by Canadian composers. CBC Choir conducted by Geoffrey Waddington; Frances James, soprano, with Earle Moss at the piano.

Choir: two choral works by Canadians, which won prizes last year in the song contest sponsored by the CBC International Service — The Birds' Lullaby (Janis Kalnins of Fredericton) and Ils ont détruit la ville (Pierre Mercure of Montreal). Frances James: song cycle of Time and the World (John Weinzweig); She Weeps over Rahoon and The Lent Lily (Charles Jones); Lean out of the Window and I Hear an Army Marching (Lorne Betts); Wheat and Mountains (Barbara Pentland); Rain Has Fallen All the Day and All Day I Hear the Noise of Water (Jean Coulthard); Look Down Fair Moon and After the Dazzle of the Day (Harry Somers).

Janis Kalnins came to Canada three years ago; before the war he was for many years director of the Latvian National Opera in Riga. His Lullaby, for female voices a capella, is a setting of a poem by Pauline Johnson. W-10:30 p.m.

some of the finest music which is being sent to us from different parts of the world, in the program International Concert (on the Trans-Canada network on Wednesday nights CBW 10:30 p.m.).

The opening broadcasts in this series are featuring Canadian music, more of which will be heard during the summer, but the last of the first group of Canadian programs will be heard May 23.

Beginning May 30, the series will present transcriptions received from Denmark, Sweden, Norway, Switzerland, Germany, Italy, Holland, Belgium and France.

The International Service's transcription department is the result of much labour and thought on the part of its director, CBC producer Patricia Fitzgerald, formerly of Winnipeg. Within a few weeks of its inauguration in 1949 with a set of 12 transcriptions, special Christmas and New Year's programs were added and sent out to 35 countries.

In March, 1950, the department's first catalogue was issued. It listed all music recorded up to that time and was set up with half and quarter-hour programs and with scripts in English, Spanish and Portuguese. At this time the service was given the name "Canadian Concert."

A second catalogue was issued in June, 1950.

The policy is to use Canadian artists exclusively and as much Canadian music as possible. Two dozen composers, six conductors, 13 solo artists, the Parlow String Quartet and various choirs including the Leslie Bell Singers are listed in the catalogues.

A Book I Like. Besides being one of Canada's outstanding authors, 78-year-old Nellie McClung is respected for her work in raising the political, social and economic status of women in this country. Her name is inscribed on a plaque erected to five women who helped open the doors of the Senate to women, placed in the wall of the entrance to the Senate Chamber in Ottawa. In 1945 she published her autobiography under the title The Stream Runs Fast. Elsie Park Gowan will discuss the book today in her contribution to this series.

W-3:45 p.m. K-3:45 p.m. X-2:45 p.m.

Sunshine Society. Orchestra conducted by Eric Wild; Janine, vocalist; Marsh Phimister and Bob Byron, singers and comedians; from Winnipeg.

Orch.: Cherry (Redmond-Gilbert); I Got Rhythm (Gershwin); Garryowen (Irish dance); Firemen's Reel. Janine: Candy (David-Whitney-Kramer); M'sieu, vous oubliez votre cheval. Marsh Phimister: At the Jazz Band Ball. Bob Byron: That Lucky Old Sun. Phimister and Byron: What'll and Mine's A; Side by Side. W-6:00 p.m. X-4:00 p.m.

Radio Cartoon. It is a curious fact that the button, although as old as man, served in a purely ornamental capacity for the greater part of its existence. No one could find a practical use for it. This fact and a number of other curiosities about the lowly button will be revealed tonight by Frank E. Fleming of Vancouver. Charles I of France had 13,600 buttons on his cloak and not one of them was in use. The exciting discovery of the button's utility was made by an obscure baronet, thereby bringing the Dark Ages to an optimistic conclusion.

W-7:00 p.m. K-9:00 p.m. X-8:00 p.m.

Suspense. Jeff Chandler, who is featured as Mr. Boynton on CBS' "Our Miss Brooks" series, stars in Fresh

Sunny Side Up!

DAYLIGHT saving time and the CBC Trans-Canada network are combining forces these days to provide extra sunshine at the time of day when it is most appreciated by most people—in the early evening after the day's work is done.

The Toronto branch of the CBC's Sunshine Society—until recently the only branch—had been brightening the network since October, first once a week, then on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

But new chapters of the strictly non-exclusive club were developing in other cities. A week or two ago they blossomed forth on the Trans-Canada network, and now "sunshiners" in four centres are helping to brighten the radio listeners' after-supper mood. The time is CBW 6:00 p.m., CBX 4:00 p.m. The days: Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday.

The Sunshine Society week tees off on Monday from CBC Vancouver. Apparently there was some skepticism about this arrangement. What does the west coast know about sunshine?—somebody asked. The story goes that Calgary drains the last dregs of shine from the setting sun each night.

Well, the west-coast entertainers in their Monday show generate so much sparkle that pianist Chris Gage finds

Air, Sunshine and Murder, by Richard George Pedicini. From CBS. Dom. 7:00 p.m. MDT

Winnipeg Drama. Krista by Weldon Hanbury of Vancouver. Krista was a beautiful creature but quite impossible. It took David two weeks and any number of hectic situations to find out she wasn't for him. J. W. Kent, producer. From Winnipeg. W-9:30 p.m. K-11:30 p.m. X-10:30 p.m.

he has to wear dark glasses during broadcasts. (Vocalist Pat Morgan, one of the cheering rays on the Vancouver show, is pictured on our cover this week.)

Much has already been said about the veteran Toronto branch, now concentrating its beam on a single program on Tuesdays. Bruce Smith continues in the role of ringleader-cum-referee. Studio members include singers Dorothy Alt, George Murray and Billy O'Connor (Billy also plays piano); Bert Niosi and the Sunshine Society band which includes Joe Niosi on bass and Jimmy Reynolds, trumpeter.

A feature of the Winnipeg edition on Thursdays is the new singer, Janine. With her in the Prairie sunshine are singing comedians Marsh Phimister and Bob Byron, and the band under Eric Wild's direction.

Montreal's contribution, on Fridays, is exceed by Lamont Tilden, who is among old radio friends. Only newcomer to Montreal in that city's Sunshine Society team is baritone Ken Harris. All the others were born in Montreal and have long been getting top billing in night clubs there, or on the air. They include orchestra leader Art Morrow; Peter Barry, singing comedian; Joyce Hahn, vocalist, and Bob Hahn, accordionist.

« « NOTES » »

CBC Symphonette. Orchestra conducted by Jean de Rimanoczy in a new program of light, symphonic music. The program is a successor to Classics For Today which, until last autumn, ran continuously for more than fifteen years under de Rimanoczy's direction. During the past winter the program has appeared as Music In the Night. The orchestra will be made up mostly of strings, as it has been for years. Woodwinds and brass will complete the ensemble to a total of 22 pieces under ordinary circumstances with an augmented orchestra for special music as the occasion demands. From Vancouver.

W-7:30 p.m. K-12:15 a.m. X-11:15 p.m.

Rythmes de Paris. Muriel Millard, French Canadian chanteuse, is currently being heard on this program.

Muriel Millard

In addition to her extensive radio experience, chiefly in Quebec, Miss Millard has also sung in television; she is one of the few Canadian singers who have been chosen to sing for American viewers, who saw her introduced as "the atom bombshell." Last year the Montreal magazine, Radio Monde, picked her as its 1950 radio queen. Rythmes de Paris, a newcomer to the English audience, has been heard on the CBC's French network for over a year and Miss Millard has been a frequent guest soloist. She has also been starring in a French network show of Latin American songs. From Montreal.

W-8:00 p.m. K-7:00 p.m. X-6:00 p.m.

Piano Parade. Bela Boszormenyi-Nagy, pianist, in the second of a series of programs of contemporary Canadian piano pieces. From Toronto.

Sonatina (Robert Fleming of Ottawa); Cosmic Serenade (Basil Hunter of Vancouver); Three Sonnets—Prelude, Lullaby to a Dead Child and Primeval (Harry Somers of Toronto); Habitant Sketches (Violet Archer of Montreal); Prelude in F Minor (Ernest Dainty).

Robert Fleming has been writing and conducting an average of one film-score a month since joining the National Film Board staff in 1946. Basil Hunter is a young Welshman who came to Canada with his parents at an early age. Ernest Dainty was a household name in Canadian radio before his death in 1947. The prelude is dedicated to his actress-daughter Gwendolyn. All the works heard in this series have been published and are available through music dealers.

W-9:30 p.m. K-8:30 p.m. X-7:30 p.m.

Here Comes the Band. Continental band conducted by W. J. Park; Tot Vann, vocalist. Alfred Parr, producer. From Winnipeg.

Band: Na Tej Nasi Porci (On Our Porch Polka by H. Jungmann); Kir-ness Waltz; Mountain Belle (G. Kinde); Gob Stick Polka; La-La-La Polka (B. Ross); Tief im Bocherwald (In the Greenwood Shade); Julida Polka. Tot Vann: By the Side of the Zuyder Zee; Lili Marlene; Pompe a Bras (Fracha).

W-10:00 p.m. K-9:00 p.m. X-8:00 p.m.

Eileen Arnold

W-11:00 p.m. K-10:00 p.m. X-9:00 p.m.

Recital. Eileen Arnold, pianist. Tom Taylor, producer. From Winnipeg.

Passacaglia (Aaron Copland); Sonata No. 2 (Hindemith); The Prince (Frank Bridge); Triana (Albeniz).

Vocal Gems of France. Orchestra conducted by Jean Beaudet; Andre Rousseau, baritone. From Montreal.

Andre Rousseau: La premiere danse (Jules Massenet); Trois poemes d'un jour (Gabriel Faure); Les metamorphoses (Francis Poulenc); Chant hindou (Herman Bemberg).

When Andre Rousseau was in the R.C.A.F. he discovered that he had a baritone voice people liked to listen to. It became a popular feature of many informal gatherings. By the time he doffed his uniform, Rousseau had decided to make singing his career and since then has put in six years of training and singing in lesser roles with the Montreal Opera Guild and in Montreal Festivals productions. Last year he was assigned leads in two Montreal Minute Opera productions and was starred in several Theatre Lyrique shows on the CBC French network.

W-11:30 p.m. K-11:30 p.m. X-10:30 p.m.

Music From the Past. Vocal music of the old German school, some for four voices, and five voices. Kathleen Dry-dale, soprano; Ruth Kyle, contralto; Len Hayman, tenor; Thomas Wright, baritone; and Doreen Hayes, second soprano. Allard de Ridder directs the group. From Vancouver.

Es Ist Ein Ros' Entsprungen (Michael Praetorius); Joseph, Lieber Joseph Mein (Leonhardt Schroeter); Soll Denn So Mein Herz Bezahlt Werden?; O Koenig Aller Ehren (Melchior Teichner); Bergreigen (Melchior Frank); Vom Himmel Hoch Da Komm Ich Her (Johann Eccard); Beschluss (Heinrich Schuetz); Once I Saw a Fuller Fulcing Cloth (Roland de Latre).

W-12:15 a.m. K-11:15 p.m. X-10:15 p.m.

The Prairie Gardener

Summary of Broadcast of May 13, 1951.

Mother's Day and Bouquets for Mother

A bouquet for mother is just about the most perfect way of expressing our love and appreciation, for mothers and flowers have so much in common. Both live to bring joy and happiness to others, and both hold up ideals of beauty to lift our thoughts above the grass and material things with which our days are cluttered.

A few ways to make every day Mother's Day:

1. Mother's view from the kitchen window needs a group of flowering shrubs, a choice perennial or two and a border of annuals.

2. Mother's window views in winter should include colour against the snow—blue spruce, red-twigged dogwood and birch.

3. Mother's backyard cutting garden should contain such things as sweet sultans, clarkia, bachelor buttons, calendula, etc. Include some choice varieties of gladioli (Red Charm, Corona, Elizabeth the Queen, etc.),

U.S. AWARD FOR CBC REGIONAL SHOWS

In the local program category, station CKAC, Montreal, won honourable mention for "Reports on Rome Holy Year Ceremonies." Among organizations distributing transcribed series, the Bureau of Publications, Government of Saskatchewan, won honourable mention for "Farmer Co-operators."

Speakers at the Institute meetings this year included Kenneth Caple, B.C. Regional Representative of the CBC, and T. V. Dobson, CBC Assistant Supervisor of School Broadcasts.

"Don't Overdo It!"

Don Wright's golden rule for introducing youngsters to music and encouraging them to keep up their interest is: "Never let music interfere with growing up." He has put it into practice with the three Wright children, Timothy, 12, Priscilla, 10, and Patrick, 8. They practice their instruments for half-an-hour each day, but only in ten-minute sessions. There's plenty of time left for school work, friends and hobbies. With a teaching background, Don knows lots of modern methods which he puts into practice not only with his family but with his 14-voice chorus, heard until recently on Sunday nights. Rehearsals are held frequently but are never allowed to drag on to the point of exhaustion. Result: the singers' enthusiasm runs high, and they sound confident and full of life.
