Chalmers/Lefort/Miller figure in London hubub

London's head office has been humming with activity over the past few weeks with appointments, signings and the winning of awards. Kicking it all off was the announcement by the label's Product Exploitation Manager, Ken Verdoni, of the appointment of Gary Chalmers to the post of National Promotion Manager. Chalmers will be responsible for the coordination of all phases of promotion as well as handling the label's existing Canadian distribution labels.

Chalmers joined London six years ago as Winnipeg sales and promotion rep and last year moved into head office as Canadian Label Manager.

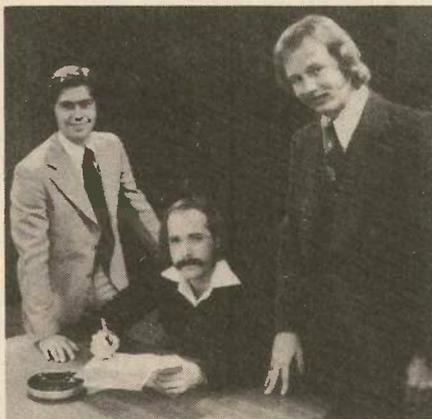

London's A&A (Montreal main store) display for Phillips' 10 CC product.

Dick Riendeau, London's National Sales Manager has good news - for his sales staff. Pierre Lefort of Deram, made such an outstanding sales effort that he was presented with the London Salesman of The Year Award for 1974/75. The award is given to the salesman who achieves the highest percentage over quota during the year.

Deram is the division handling the majority of London's French product.

On the artist front, London copped the exclusive signing of Joey Miller to a worldwide recording contract. A Montrealer, now living in Toronto, the multi-talented singer, composer and arranger is currently completing tracks at RCA's Toronto studios for his first release.

London's Ken Verdoni (I) and Gary Chalmers flank newly signed London artist Joey Miller.

To cap off the London excitement comes news of the Canadian tour of 10 CC. Kick-off date is at Toronto's Massey Hall (October 23) followed by University of Montreal Sports Centre (26), the Convention Centre in Quebec City (27) and in Vancouver Nov. 13. The tour is the icing on the cake for the label that did so much in making the group's single "I'm Not In Love" Canada's No. 1 single for two weeks running (August 23 and 30) on the RPM 100 Singles Chart. The popular British group have three albums available in Canada - "10 CC", "Sheet Music" and "The Original Soundtrack" and London is now preparing a new album, "100 CC", a compilation of their first two albums which contain their major British singles and several of the items they had success with in North America. An entirely new album is expected for release to coincide with their North American tour.

A&M's top management into regional meetings

Rather than bring national personnel into head office for one general meeting, A&M's Gerry Lacoursiere took top management into the field. Regional meetings involving the Calgary, Montreal and Toronto branches of A&M Records of Canada have now been concluded.

From September 7th to the 17th, A&M national, promotion and sales personnel covered a wide range of subjects including the discussion of new product by artists Lelly Boone, Gerry Niewood, Firefly, Shawn Phillips, Billy Preston, Bazuka, Gap Mangione, Esther Satterfield, Dan McGafferty, Bim, Susan Jacks, Chilliwack, Andy Fairweather Lowe and flautist Tim Weisberg.

Meetings were centered around the discussion of advertising and promo campaigns, disco and radio outlets, internal executive communication, artist appearances and distribution agreements.

Highlight of the meetings was the bannered rally-call of A&M's "We Give A Damn."

All A&M accounts will be offered special benefits and bonuses including display suggestions, promo radio tags and other unspecified discounts. The "A&M National Lottery" will culminate at the end of the co-op fall program and will provide winning accounts with the services of a member of the A&M national and local sales or promo staff for work in a record or retail outlet. Date for this service has been set for December 20th. Details should be worked out with the assigned A&M representative.

Incentive programs, utilizing a "point system" will result in monthly "branch awards" geared towards a "Branch of the Year" award. January 1976, is the date for selective three branch meetings.

A&M national, sales and promo staff, along with their guests, will fly to Acapulco Mexico for seven days of meetings.

It seems that at A&M, "They Do Give A Damn."

Quality's George Struth and Ed Cowan of Thunder Sound seated with Bryan Way (r) and Quality's Bob Morten.

Way first on board Mitre Prod's roster

A new production company called "Mitre Productions" has been formed by Will Webster and Ed Cowan of Thunder Sound.

The first artist signed to a contract under the new team is singer/songwriter Bryan Way, originally from Stephenville, Newfoundland. The deal with Quality Records calls for an album in addition to the single product. One of Way's songs "Say My Goodbyes To The Rain" has been picked up by RCA's Roger Whittaker.

Way's music is co-published by Chappell Music (CAPAC) and Thunder Sound's new publishing wing, Davenport Music (CAPAC).

"... Bryan has signed a long-term situation with our new production company, and we, in turn, have signed him to Quality", said Cowan.

"We are looking forward to our association with Quality, and in particular with their A&R director, Bob Morten."

a couple of days and let them talk about country music and its problems.

The first response we got was, "Oh the same thing all over again."

Yessir. The same thing all over again. Still not solved or resolved. All the same problems and it looks like possibly some of the registrants will arrive with the same attitude.

I would like to direct my remarks now to those who won't be there and I know that very few of them will be interested in what I say. So right there we have a problem.

The problem with country music in Canada is a big one. There seems to be no promotion of country music. There is an illusion of promotion, but if you really analyse it, it turns out to be each act promoting itself and it turns out to be a loud rumble and grumble that leads country music nowhere. United we stand. Divided we fail.

A long time ago I found that most country people were "countryfied." We may have adapted some of the Nashvilleisms, but that one was short lived. We have tried so hard to be Nashville artists, that we forgot that Hank Snow and Wilf Carter didn't know about the Nashville sound when they made their move into prominence.

Throughout the organization of the Awards weekend and the Awards we constantly heard about how other Awards are run and how other associations conduct themselves in the United States.

Well, this isn't the United States and the population of Canada proves that. This is Canada and this is the Canadian country music scene and any resemblance to Nashville or the United States is only in the minds of (I'm afraid) too many of the Canadian country artists.

You want to do it? Do it here and do it now! Find that attitude that will lead to something distinctively here (right here in Canada) and something that the rest of the world will imitate.

If the sound of Canadian country is an imitation of the Nashville sound, then that isn't the Canadian country sound and so be it . . . it should be done in Nashville. If the idea is to come up with something new and different, that's different.

Whatever we are trying to do, we must do it together. United.

So we gathered you all here in this beautiful place and set up a chance for a dialogue and some entertainment on the side and opened the door for a helluva lot of promotion and business to be done. At the end of it we arranged for some Awards to be given out to some deserving artists, but that's not what it's all about.

We have presented to you the unique opportunity to talk, discuss, further and promote the Canadian country music industry. How you do it is up to you. You will see throughout this weekend that we have formulated this Big Country Awards Weekend to stimulate your thinking and get you all together.

We have formed an Academy of over 300 country people. We have gathered the funds to launch something that is uniquely Canadian and we are anxious that those in attendance realize that what we are trying to do is get a Canadian outlook on Canadian country.

In the past two meetings we haven't got very far. I hope this time, the time is right and the place is right for Canadian country artists to look at Canadian country music and say that we ALL want to work together to make it BIG!!!

If you are looking for something foreign, you can take this from the Nashville people. They did work together to create the mystic

A&M's Herb Alpert aboard hoaxed flight

An eight-city Canadian tour by A&M boss Herb Alpert and his Tijuana Brass, was delayed due to an Air Canada flight bomb scare . . . prompting the flight to return to its starting point of Regina.

Flight 226 to Winnipeg turned back 20 minutes after leaving Regina airport and was thoroughly searched by RCMP officers.

When nothing was found, the flight was allowed to continue. No comment from Alpert.

 that became the Nashville Sound. After you have resolved that . . . forget Nashville and think Canadian country. Always remember the 49th parallel and remember if we hadn't needed it . . . it wouldn't be there. It is what divides Canada from the United States and it should divide our thinking from theirs.

I'm sure that no one in Nashville would admire Canadians who imitate Nashville. They are people who believe in creative innovation and would admire something uniquely apart from what they are doing.

London signs Becaud for English & French

London Records announces the signing of a long-term "exclusive" with Gilbert Becaud, for both English and French recordings.

Becaud was the first French song-writer to top both American and English charts. Becaud's latest, "A Little Love And Understanding" is currently being aired in Canada on CFRB, CKEY, CKFM, CKPC, CKNX, CKBB, CHML, CHYM, CFPL, CKWW, CKNW, and according to London, "the list keeps on growing."

London's newly acquired Gilbert Becaud

Many of the programmers attending Big Country will tell you that if any artist can come up with a good Canadian country sound, that's the pot at the end of the rainbow. If imitations were well thought of, the art galleries and museums would be full of them.

As Big Country progresses, bear in mind, we must do it here and do it now. We can be pro-Canadian without being anti-American. That's our birthright.

Let's just see what progress we can make this year.

Gregorash & Ben Kaye pact long term deal

Publisher/producer Ben Kaye, has announced the signing of Joey Gregorash, Jay Nine and Dollar Bill Music, to a long-term agreement. Kaye's vinyl-output includes Trini Lopez, the Bells, Tinker's Moon, Marty Butler, and Patsy Gallant as well as an extended host of other music-talents.

The acquisition of Gregorash and his catalogue "is a giant step in the development of Joey's career as a writer and an all-round entertainer." Kaye has been working on two French-translated recordings by Gregorash, and has secured two U.S. recordings, T.B.A.

Mills-Cockell performs for World Music Week

September 28th, is the date slated for the John Mills-Cockell Band to stage a concert commemorating the Pop portion of World Music Week.

The show will be performed in the Harbour-front Bohemian Embassy and recorded on location by Heartbeat Studios (Toronto) for the CBC. Delegates of the International Music Council will be hosted by the Music Council, for the weeks events.

Charles-Dunne and Owens promoting Jethro Tull

Joe Owens of PR Firm Charles-Dunne and Owens, reports that Jethro Tull's Ian Anderson, coining himself "The Minstrel" is back once again on the music-scene.

The title of the new Tull release is "Minstrel In The Gallery", distributed by WEA Canada on Ian Anderson's Chrysalis label. At last notification, the Jethro Tull concert scheduled by Concert Productions International for Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens, October 7th should be completely sold out by curtain time.

Jethro Tull is still incredible for concert-viewing, even if one has to sit behind a wall of speakers . . . better than the Rolling Stones at any rate.

"Come Back Mick Jagger" - British Tory spokesman

A top British politician sprang off his soap-box to scream out the plea, "Come back, Mick Jagger."

The outburst was triggered by what opposition Conservative spokesman Sir Geoffrey Howe has termed as the "fame drain." The plea was delivered at Nottingham University, in which Sir Geoffrey urged a drastic cut in the British income tax structure. He lamented that rock-stars and other British celebrities are being driven out of Britain because of "punitive" tax laws that can take up to 98% of a star's earnings.

"There is little doubt that most of the stars concerned . . . the Rolling Stones, Slade, Ringo Starr and Rod Stewart for example, would prefer to make the United Kingdom their financial base", Sir Geoffrey told the students.

"If we had a top rate of, say 50%, they would almost certainly do so." The former Tory cabinet minister said that it is self-defeating for the tax-man to demand 83% of earned income and 98% of investment income from top earners, since Britain loses greater amounts of tax when the famous decide to live abroad.

England seems like the worst place to live these days, what with pub-hurled bombings and the high rate of unemployment.

The people and the government it seems, are tired of seeing megastars reap millions for single albums, when their mothers are busy char-womaning the floors of their studios.

Hagood Hardy's "Homecoming" "The biggest instrumental hit ever"

Hagood Hardy, former Doug Riley jingleman cohort and now a cross-over monster maker, has had his Canadian Talent Library LP and single "The Homecoming" as "shaping up to be the biggest instrumental hit ever to come out of Canada", - and it's not a fluke.

Featuring the Canadian jazz-scene's who's-who, including Eugene Amaro and Ed Bickert, domestic sales on both the single and LP indicate probable gold records.

Originally recorded on Hardy's Isis Records, Attic Records Limited released the single and LP, simultaneously in July. Capitol's Al Coury and Bob Young negotiated the U.S. release with Attic's Al Mair.

RPM as well as dozens of Canadian programmers knew of the instrumental impact that a heavy-weight string-layered Canadian jazz line-up could produce . . .

From RPM's August 2nd album review, Michael Dolgy had written that, "Hagood Hardy has written, produced and arranged over one-half of this release's layer-lush instrumentals, with his 'Homecoming' (at 2:29) furrowing itself towards a comfortable niche in the Canadian MOR-programming. Many progressive FM-outlets would be well advised to listen to the soothing benefits this production affords . . . the collection of the 12 instrumentals recall the supremacy of relaxation that some sounds are able to induce . . . the 'Homecoming' succeeds to score with an imagery, coupled to a measure of collective talent."

Programmers across the board have usually regulated instrumentals to an MOR-programming . . . Vibraphonist Hardy has broken the top-40 Seventies rock-sound with an easy-going effort, proving that good music can communicate his jazz-bent "raw-emotion. MD

Tom Gallant shapes up as CBC-TV's new country star

"You don't know what you think about a thing until you write a song about it", says Boot's Tom Gallant in his simple soul-search fashion. The Gallant single "Cathy's Wedding Song" enters the RPM Country playlist at No. 47 this week.

Earlier on the CBC this summer July 11th, Tom Gallant played host on Tommy Hunter's summer replacement with a series entitled "Down Home Country."

"It's the first time I've ever been interpreted by somebody else", said Gallant of starring in a CBC-Stan Jacobson produced series.

The 29 year old Maritimer felt confident of the series, as he was backed by the talents of the trio, Blue Jane-Stephanie Taylor, Dianne Miller and Judy Richards. Comic interludes were provided by yet another trio, comprised of volatile Peter Cullen, Harvey Atkin, and straight-lady Nancy White.

If today, Gallant can't fully recover over the fortune of having his own show, it's because he broke into television in a one-camera station where he had to learn to handle all the knobs himself.

"I was the fastest camera in the east", he once told reporters.

While at college in Charlottetown, P.E.I., Gallant became involved in little theatre both as actor and playwright and not applying to his studies. He spent a year in Portugal writing plays, and played guitar on weekends. "The Closet" was made back in Canada and he began to get guest shots on various television specials.

Last April, Stompin' Tom's Boot label released his first album "Down Home." "Cathy's Wedding Song" is a sure pick-up with all the country programmers.

Foldy's Bondi Music into Beechwood fold

Beechwood Music's Joey Frechette, following a recent "get-together", of composers, producers, artists and co-publishers at the Beechwood 42 Scollard Street offices announced that Peter Foldy, Australia to York University good-guy and recently signed on with Capitol Records, has finalized a co-publishing agreement between his Bondi Music and the Beechwood group.

Cliff Edwards, recently completing four Beechwood copyrights, dropped by to discuss his single "Singer Of Songs" distributed by A&M. Gene MacLellan and Joey Frechette rounded the social-sphere by discussing future plans for MacLellan's forthcoming Capitol release, on which production has begun.

Other Beechwood copyrights include Susan Jacks, Bruce Miller, Lynn Jones, Catharine McKinnon, Dick Damron, and Suzanne Stevens . . . all are in current-release or will be in the near-future.

CANADA IS CAPAC COUNTRY

CAPAC – the Composers, Authors and Publishers Association of Canada – has always been involved with the world of Canadian country music.

Some of the great veteran stars – men like Wilf Carter, the late Don Messer, Stu Davis and Hal Lonerne – have long been part of CAPAC.

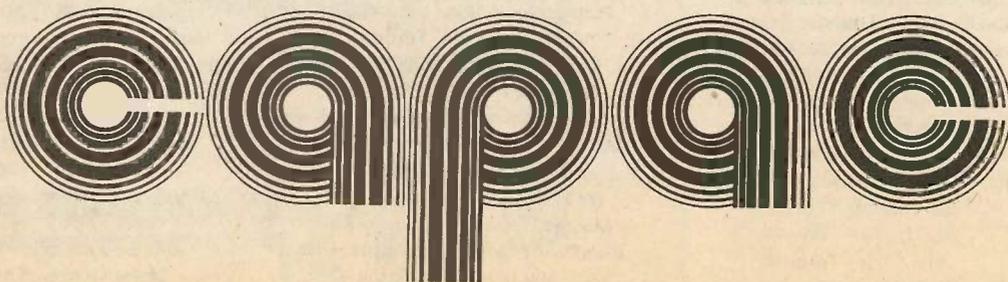

CAPAC continues to represent their interests, just as it represents those of a new breed of Canadian country star – people like Stompin' Tom Connors, Roy Payne, Fred McKenna, Murray McLauchlan, Tom Kelly, Stevedore Steve Foote, Tom Gallant, Harry Hibbs, and the Family Brown.

CAPAC's main role is to collect performing rights royalties from the organizations which use music in Canada, and distribute the money to the people who write and publish it.

Last year, CAPAC members – and members of foreign societies affiliated with CAPAC – shared close to $10 million. That, as they say in the country, ain't hay.

If you write or publish country music – or any kind of music – you need to know more about how CAPAC can help you. We'll be glad to hear from you.

A CIT spectacular showcase

Ross White, president of Canadian International Talent (CIT), presented a showcase-spectacular, Sept 14, at Toronto's Ramada Inn. The showcasing began in the Zodiac Room at 12 noon with a healthy booze opener. The stage show began at 2:15 with an array of ten lounge acts presenting their talent to an estimated 225 music buyers and nightclub operators from across North America.

White's purpose for the presentation was that "...there are literally thousands of groups playing across the country who are not recording stars, but are working and making a name for themselves. This show gives the buyer a chance to see what they are going to get".

Conditions were suitable for a pleasurable viewing/sound experience...tight-bottomed Zodiac waitresses hopped-about each table filling out all liquor-orders and escorting all attended to a buffet dinner of cold cut delicacies piled sky-high.

Estimated by Ross in the vicinity of $7500, the Showcase burst-energy as the band Accompaniment, managed by Wayne Baguley, blasted alto sax on Average White Band and Downchild disco-melodies. According to sources, the band consists of "seven fine young gentlemen, ready to get down and get it out".

The other acts, singing and pounding out their music included Goody Two Shoes, a "white funk and rock 'n roll" band, comprised of four instrumental back-up and the dynamic vocal-chords of Lydia Taylor; Copperfield, featuring "two high steppin" front men whose energetic choreographics and fine vocals make a power-packed evening's entertainment; Nicholas Sloan, featuring songs from the rock-opera "Tommy"; Northern Dancer, comprising five pieces of "blue-eyed funk" as well as a front-man, secret agent-goggled in sun-peepers; and then came dinner.

The Great Rufus Road Machine made their showcase with a "vaudeville" routine; High School Show; Fifties Show; and a chart-busting Dance The Night Away presentation.

From Wright Management in Bay Ridges, Ontario, flashed the Barry Hall and Delegation troupe of leader Barry, Bruce Gordon, Bruce Douglas, Wes Burton, Randy French and Leigh Robinson. Delegation had previously co-billed with Al Martino at the Beverly Hills Hotel.

Bitter Blue, probably the fastest rising lounge act to arrive on the Canadian music scene, thrilled the audience with their brand of easy-listenin'; and Canada, "five vigorous Canadians from Sudbury, Ontario, whose roots and inclinations show a remarkable propensity to good ol' fashioned fun-music" got the crowd whooping and calling back for more.

Neannette Brantley and the Arrangement came up-front with the lady's flute and added dimension to her rhythm section of guitar, bass, drums and organ.

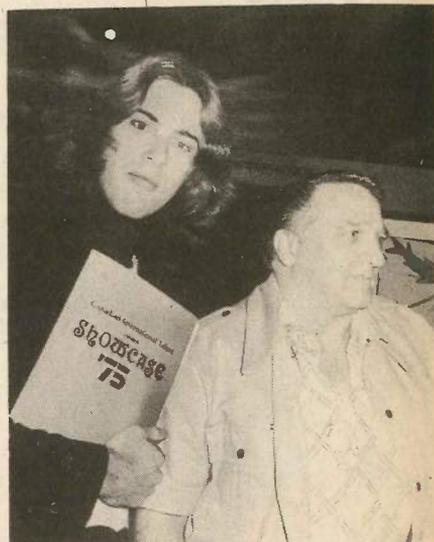

Crackers, from Burlington, Ontario, are a band comprised of three dancing guys and a cute young blonde. As the people say: "...Crackers is a state of mind".

The Showcase rounded off with Montreal's Terry Dee, a talented keyboarder and versatile singer; and Tabloid of "the five part harmony and unbelievable instrumentation" who were able to swing with funk, Dixieland, big band and Top-40 sounds.

Ross then door-prized an AM/FM radio, colour portable television and a grand prize of a trip for two to Las Vegas.

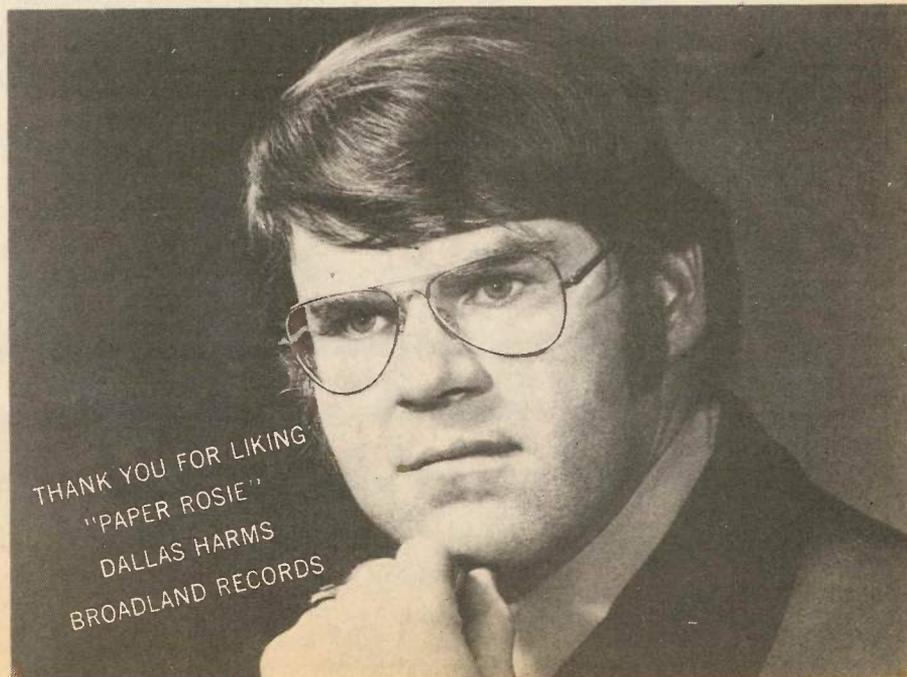

All in attendance then left the club in order to be wine 'n cheesed at a hospitality suite set aside by CIT.

"This year we wanted to do something with a little class", said Ross - and according to RPM's General Manager, Prince Romanoff, "...our lounge acts could be our star-acts of tomorrow".

RPM's Sammy-Jo (r) and Michael Dlogy enjoying the CIT spectacular showcase.

The Starship and other Labour Day "miracles"

Sound . . . the final frontier.

This is a voyage of the Starship Jefferson.

Their ten-year mission, to seek out new arrangements for music's-expression, to explore new dimensions for harmonious-acceptance, to bodily go where no band has gone before.

It was to be a welcoming Labour Day Weekend with a three-headlined concert scheduled for a work-free Monday night. Concert Productions International, CHUM-FM-Toronto, and SAC determined to showcase at Toronto's Varsity Arena.

Marty Balin of the Jefferson Starship at Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens

by Michael Dolgy

The members effected magicians, commanding explosions for sound-energy . . . good band, tight unit. Lights blaze-on . . . all faces are smiling, with many shoulders touching. An amazing thing to see for never has the Gardens been so-free of hard-heel atmosphere.

Truly a creation of definite event.

Lights-out . . . Peter Wolfe, hairy entity of J. Geil's Band, screams growl of "Yeahhhh . . . allright!"

Time for some greaser-rock action, playing double-encore to second-case of brew. The crowd was still munching on their popcorn though, determined to see their ticket-price through.

Lights-on again to reveal a not quite sold-out full-house, but what's to be expected for a last-minute theatre-switch? There seemed enough people to make it enjoyable.

Suddenly years overdue, come the Jefferson Starship, worth all that strain of waiting.

Grace is butch and dumpy but very lush-lipped and legendary . . . worth all the neck-crane to see.

Marty Balin plays to crowd with voice so sweet on his "Miracles" . . . Papa John was not there . . . sorry Charlie for the absence of some Hot Tuna, but Kantner cooked and the stew layered thick,

The crowd loved it all, and the Starship bashed for hours . . . the original Bay Area band . . . and then they're gone . . . time to go home kids.

J. Geils, guitarist of the J. Geils Band at recent Maple Leaf Gardens' concert.

Gentle Giant, jazz/rock progressives, the J. Geils Band, blues/rock demonstratives, and the Jefferson Starship formerly hinged with Airplane-glue and now holding time for the Seventies-chic.

Fearing that a rain would dampen the electric-action, concert-goers were advanced by notices of re-direction on the walls of the Arena . . . sorry kid, but ya' gotta go down to Maple Leaf Gardens.

This might have presented a mass-exodus and promoter-problem . . . the problem being that all tickets sold were distributed on a first-come first-served arrangement.

Maple Leaf Gardens was ringed-in by the swarms, with all total-wasted and in dilemma as to how this one would turn out. The Gardens' floor was without seats, but the kids galloped-in for the wide-open spaces with enough room on the floor for everyone's participation to a squatter's-rights. There was no hassle and no divine-right of location . . . everyone was an eligible for the equal-opportunity. Thousands scattered among the tiers of seats . . . all intelligent enough to seek out their own place without intrusion from house of usher-security.

The feeling was euphoria due to freedom of movement . . . a true atmosphere and one comforting environment. Gentle Giant, Capitol's baby crackled down with flash-intensity . . . fantastically-intricate arrangements with charts revealing knowledgeable musicians who score with audience by instrument-craft and lightening-show.

Living the past again "just about anything and everything the music scene's now into is dated."

by Peter Goddard

About once a month I get this strange urge to become a rock and roll star. It's not the artistic freedom I crave; it's the money, the chicks, the fame, I want. Seeing the futility in all this, I take, first, a long Manhattan (with bitters), then a trip to the nearest rock club.

This always does it. Ten minutes watching your typical we're going-to-make-it-as-soon-as-our-album-comes-out kind of band is an instant cure.

It's like stepping in to a time warp and finding yourself in 1967 all over again. Now, 1967 wasn't a bad year as years go. But again? No thanks. Too much of a good thing is still too much.

The problem is rock is frozen in 1967, or thereabouts. Sure, some bands are into tone-rows and duodecaphony and stuff, and it sounds pretty far out. But it isn't. It's 1967 only with a new pair of fins and some chrome.

I'm not talking about the music, primarily. Good rock is good rock, and if some band now wants to sound like some band back then, that's fine. I mean, Bachman-Turner Overdrive (taken in moderation) sounds almost as good as did Creedence Clearwater. But the scene itself is locked into the '67 groove and refuses to get out. And things are starting to atrophy.

Consider: Long hair is dated; short-haired reaction to long hair is even more dated. Four-minute-long drum and/or guitar solos are/is dated. Four (five, six) guys standing on stage is dated. A stage filled with amplifiers is dated. Lyrics about teleporting to Mars and/or getting laid are dated. Groupies are dated. Analysing Bob Dylan is a dated activity. Tight crotches are dated. Having famous session men on your album is dated. Waiting for the next Beatles is dated. Waiting for the old Beatles is dated. Waiting for anybody is dated. Platform shoes are dated. Dark sunglasses at night are dated. Worrying about the state of the recording industry is dated. Going to rock festivals is dated. Being laid back is dated. Going bananas at a rock concert (fist waving; standing up when lead singer says so) is dated. Hip is dated. Hiring a limo is dated. Superstar --- both the word and the idea --- is dated. Rock movies are dated

In short, just about anything and everything the music scene's now into is dated. Finished.

Now, this wouldn't be so serious if every one knew it. After all, we live in a re-cycled culture and another bit of re-cycling from the music biz wouldn't hurt much. But the music biz has always seen itself to be in the vanguard of things cultural. And because it once was the growth industry, the newest kid on the block, it's still locked into the idea that it's still coming up with novelty.

Well, in a way, novelty is the only thing rock has to offer now. Novelty, not something new. David Bowie is novel: he's not anything new. Synthesizers are novel, not new (at least the way rock uses them). So rock has created a fake sense of progress, of re-newing itself, with novel little tricks.

Unfortunately, rock needs to be new, not novel. It's the only street art we have. It's the only thing we have to really tell us what's happening to us when we're not thinking Great Thoughts. It should be day-to-day disposable, radical.

But it isn't. And, I suggest, a lot of people are going to be hurt, financially or otherwise when the people out there --- the ones who suddenly realize that rock has become old hat --- look for something new. Because they'll find it. It may be in politics, or poetry, or surfing. And then they'll turn around and see this long-haired industry and all these long hair musicians and wonder what the hell it's all about.

You'll know it's officially all over when some stockbroker and his wife throw a party, hoping for the same success their Gatsby party had last year, and all their guests rush out to get long wigs and their Elton John sunglasses. That will be it.

Jeez, I just remembered. Such a party was given in Toronto less than two weeks ago.

Wall and friends set to coordinate Mosport '76

Due to the financial success of this summer's Mosport music event, billed as "Beyond The City", Jack J. Wall has been given exclusive rights to produce and co-ordinate a Mosport '76.

The promo team of Lip Service David Marsden and Ian Ross will once again supervise all administrative and promotional functions, as well as retaining the services of Jack Morrow.

Five more projects have been tentatively scheduled, and according to that usually reliable source, "there will be a considerable financial backing" to insure "even greater" music events.

Pagliari breaks "easy" from coast to coast

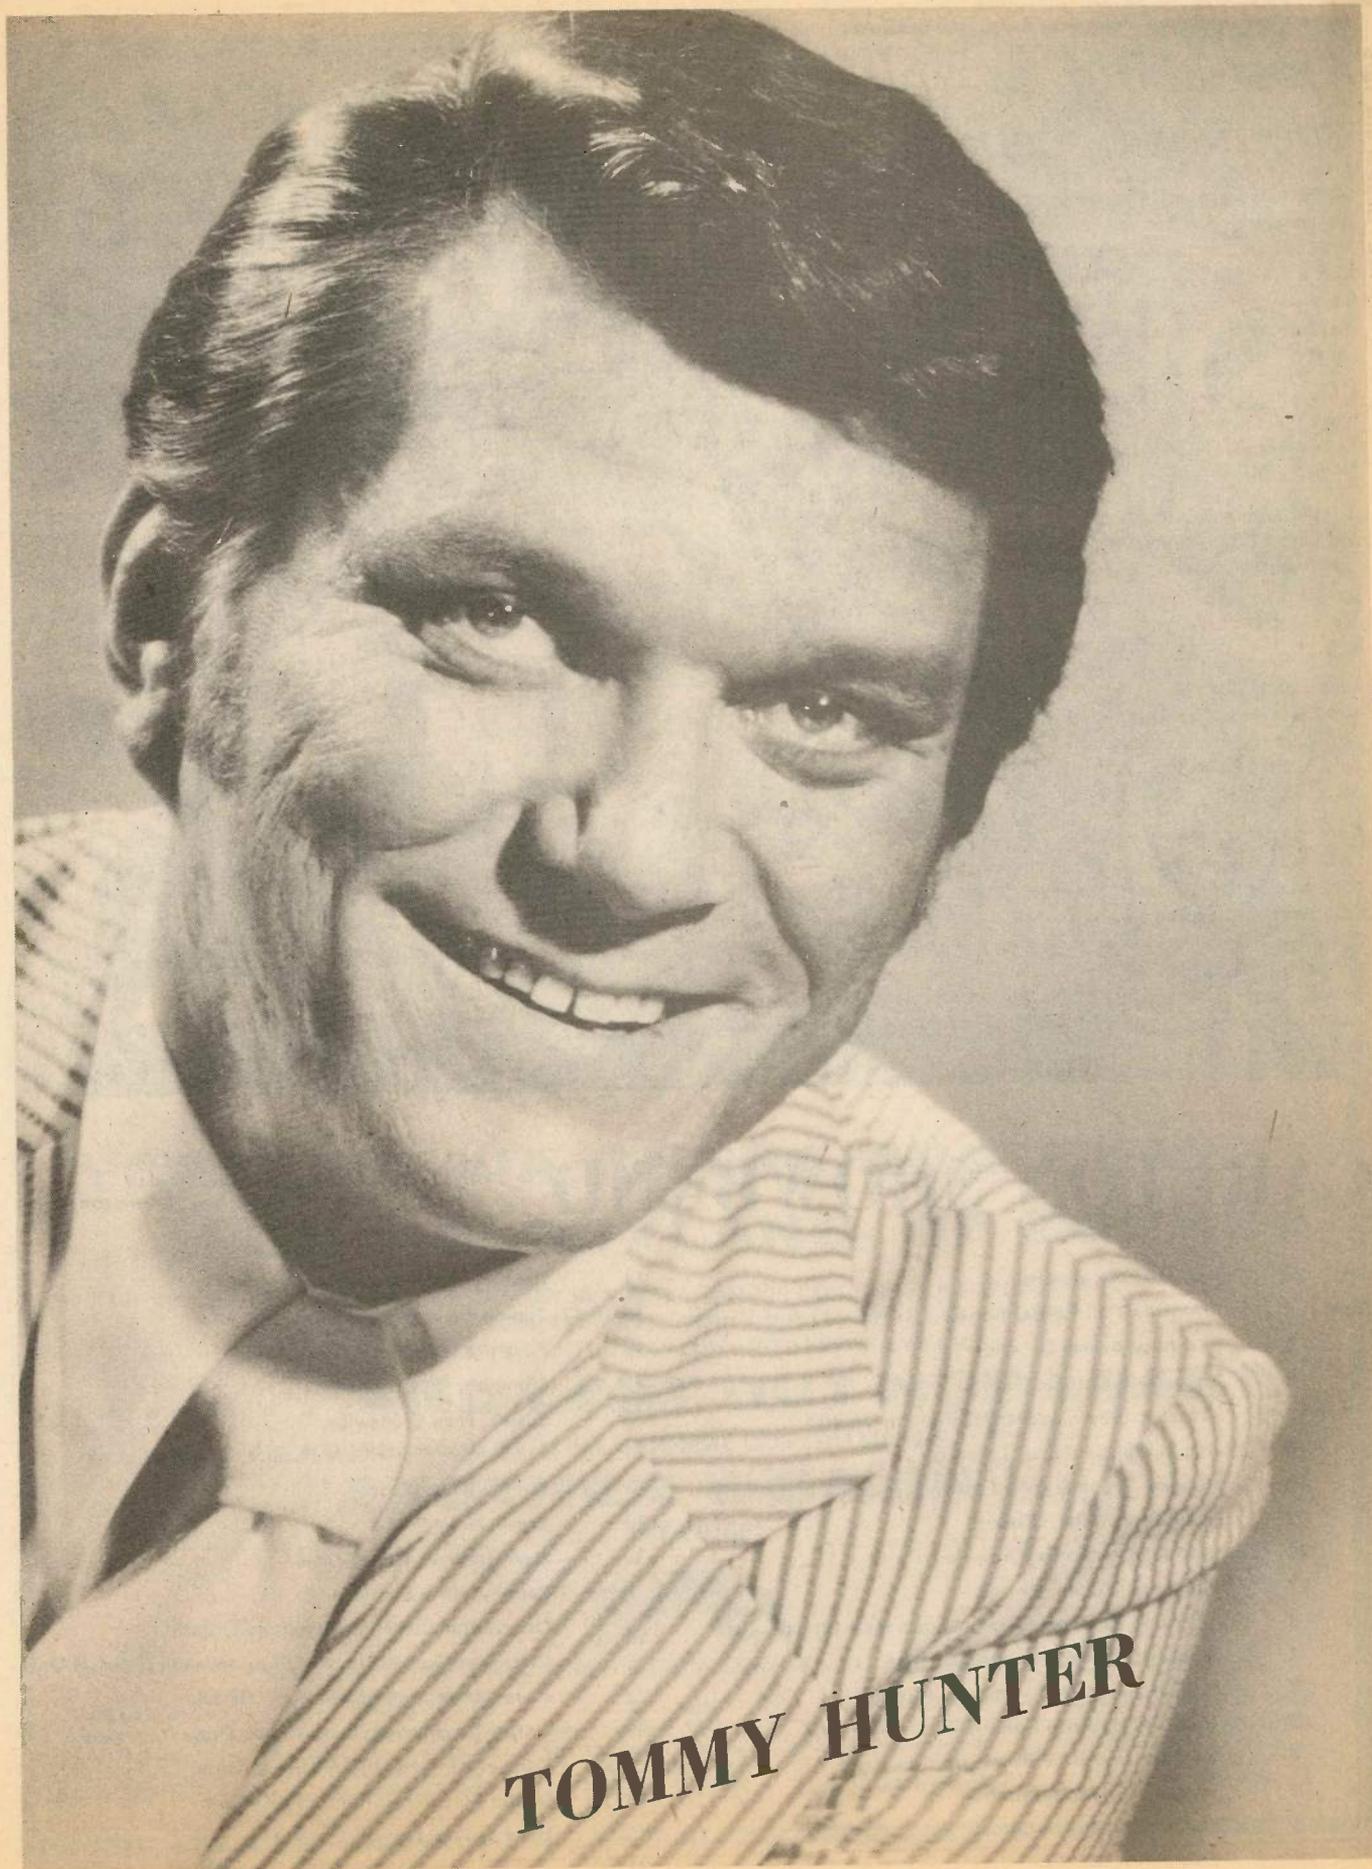

Moving in quickly with a high-powered promotion campaign on the initial Pagliari single release, Columbia has succeeded in breaking the single in many of the major and breakout markets across Canada. The single, "What The Hell I Got", is now enjoying numbers at CKLW, CFUN, CJMS, CKGM, CFGO, CHUM and CFRW.

Pagliari is now working on a new album in French expected for release sometime in October.

OUT IN THE COUNTRY

Hank Smith, holder of a new Quality single release, "If You Don't Laugh, I Promise I Won't Cry" flew into Toronto for the Big Country Weekend and managed to score a three niter at the Concord, Toronto's newest fast-becoming-popular country showplace. Remember, it was Hank Smith who organized the Country Music Association of Canada in Edmonton a few months ago, and chances are, this group could form a powerful chapter for CACMA.

Tom Gallant, host of his own CBC TV country show (which was nominated for a Big Country Award) has shown early indications of catching the national ear of Canadian programmers. His Boot single, "Cathy's Wedding Song", which he wrote and published through Critique Music (CAPAC) enters the RPM Country Playlist this week.

Ronnie Burla, Royalty recording artist, has broken through with his single, "Rainin' In My Heart". Initial reaction came from the Edmonton area.

Bill Hersche, who recently released "Rainin' In My Mind" on the Train label, has been getting some interesting comments from programmers on the single with several play-listing the single.

Michael T. Wall, well-known Singing Newfoundlander, is off with his new Rodeo single "Ode To The Newfie Bullett" which was culled from his album, under the same title.

Reg Watkins, another self promotin' Newfoundlander, wasn't happy with what was going down with his "Badger Moose" single so he took stock and after making a tally of what was happening with the single in Newfoundland, was confident he has the makings of a hit. Seems like a lot of mainland programmers agreed and Reg is now looking good.

Ronnie Prophet is receiving his dues from south of the border and maybe we can lay a little credit for his recognition on the exposure he received on his CBC-TV series. Anyhooo, his single, "Sanctuary" has the RCA Canada people oöing and ahing. It's a Canadian production you know, which just might turn off some of the Nashville purists (shades of Olivia Newton-John).

What's the state of the country music business in Canada? Well, judging by this week's Big Country issue of RPM "pretty damn good." But, here's some food for thought. An American giant in country music recently had a No. 1 hit across Canada. She was lucky to have her sales top the 5000 mark. We got trouble with a capitol "T" right here in Toronto where there are three high-powered country radio stations pumping the best in Canadian and foreign country into a population that exceeds three million and represents almost 55% of the entire Canadian market. You know how effective that is on the retail level? Don't ask, on the other hand, ask - and Big Country is the place to start the asking.

The Royalty gang will be at Big Country - well Chris Nielsen and R. Harlan Smith, and Cheryl Kryla anyway and they've got good news from their label. Cheryl, Chris and Harlan have singles sizzling - "Too Much Love", "Lady From Virginia" and "Momma's Voice", respectively and Jimmy Arthur Ordge is doing it with "Storytime and Prayers." If labels like Royalty, Condor, Broadland, Train, DMG, Quality, Gaiety, PLP, Cloud Burst, Gincin, Westmount, Little Guy, Casino and . . . MY GAWD . . . that's a helluva large and impressive list and you know, we just might have a country music industry sizzling. I'll bet I left out a few labels too (and we'll hear about it). Anyway, if they keep it up, we'll have to come up with an RPM Country Playlist with a hundred numbers.

VOCM's Johnny Murphy and Ron McNeill, owner of a couple of St. John's record stores called Records Unlimited, will be sitting on the Big Country panel Saturday the 27th and you might like to ask them about a recent promotion that proved the consumer who listens to country radio - would like to buy the product, if it was available. Ron bought a spot campaign on Murph's Saturday morning country show.

Murph played the records, talked about them and advised his listeners they were available at Records Unlimited. Ron was ready for the crush and, he was right. VOCR listeners contributed significantly to the sales picture of both stores. Remem-

RCA readies Milsap for October release

Male vocalist of the Year, Ronnie Milsap, has just finished up a session for RCA.

As produced by Tom Collins and Jack D. Johnson, the album is scheduled for an October release and contains newly-recorded material.

Ronnie, who signed with RCA in '73, has had a successive string of number one chart-busters including "The Girl That Waits On Tables", "A Legend In My Time", "Pure Love" and "Please Don't Tell Me How The Story Ends."

The new release will be entitled "Night Things", and was prompted by the overwhelming success single "Daydreams About Night Things" . . . eight weeks on release to a number one chart position.

Abner out - Gordy returns to active helm of Motown

With the resignation of Ewart Abner, stepping down as president of Motown Records to become consultant to the organization, Berry Gordy, chairman of Motown Industries, has retained the additional appointment of the Motown Records presidency.

Barney Ales, has been chosen by Gordy to act as the firm's executive vice president as well as vice president of the parent company.

Ales had formerly been a Motown executive, until 3 years ago when he left to oversee his personal investments.

Gordy said of Ewart Abner, "Abner has made invaluable contributions to Motown's growth and we are happy to take advantage of his services as consultant . . ." Gordy was also overjoyed that friend Barney Ales had come out of his semi-retirement.

Ales duties will include the supervision of all marketing activities including sales, distribution/promotion as well as looking after Motown's publishing and international operations.

Crosby & Nash without Stills pact record deal with ABC

According to Jerold H. Rubinstein, chairman of ABC Records, David Crosby and Graham Nash have signed a long-term recording contract with his label.

First release by the duo will be an album entitled "Wind On The Water." Crosby, formerly of the Byrds and Nash, late of the Hollies, have been thunderously received in the past as part of the Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young team.

An acoustic tour has just been completed and an electric road tour has been scheduled for October.

Jerry Greenberg, president of Atlantic Records stated that his company was "looking forward to" the completion of Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young releases in the near future.

Well, you "sour grapes", they're part of the Canadian country music industry and a few of the people who were nominated for the first Big Country Music Awards. Remember, this is a first time effort and if you can't roll with the punches or, as one of our most famous folk heroes, John Diefenbaker once said: "If the heat's too much - get out of the kitchen."

Baker's "Land Of Maquinna" was featured on some Saturday night half-hour special programs which I hosted on CHEK-TV Channel 6, Victoria a few months ago called "Coast Country." Work is going on for an hour long radio documentary on Dave Barker and more television work is being planned for him.

Patti Macdonnell was the feature performer at the Cowichan Valley Exhibition in Duncan, north of Victoria and some 10,000 people cheered the singing of her "Yellow House Of Love" hit . . . Van Los recording artist Doug Rutledge has recorded a new song to follow up his recent hit "Freedom, Riches, Peace of Mind." The new one is a very up-tempo number called "Bring It On Home. . ."

Condor's Country Gold Winner, Smiley Bates.

Five Gold records to Condor's Bates

Smiley Bates, Condor recording artist, was presented with five company Gold Awards at the label's hospitality suite during the Big Country weekend (Sept 27-28). Condor's new president, Lonnie Salazar had discovered that sales figures on Bates from 1969 through to the present revealed that out of his twelve album releases, five had actually exceeded the magic gold figure of 35,000 copies each. These were "Golden Guitar", "Path Of Memories", "Flat Top Instrumentals", "In The Mood For Pickin'" and "Country Tears."

Bates' latest album effort, "History Of Sadness", will be given a national promotion push by the Condor crew with heavy emphasis on the single, "My Daddy's Eyes", which has been culled from the album.

A native of North Bay, Ontario, Bates took up the guitar at the age of seven and boasted his own CJKL radio show at age twelve. By the time he was sixteen he graduated to a weekly television series on Kirkland Lake's Channel Two. He restricts his activity now to primarily one nighters with a tour of the eastern provinces at least once a year.

A highly professional instrumentalist, Bates is also known for his Electric Baseball Bat gimmick. No description on this one, but the next time you see him perform - ask for a demonstration.

The single, listed on the RPM Country Playlist, has reportedly experienced above average demand with action at the retail sales level growing significantly.

MISSION TO MOSCOW

...WORLD'S TOUGHEST TEST FOR THE NEW SHURE SR SOUND

When Opryland undertook the recent, eminently successful U.S. State Department five-city, 27-performance tour to Russia, soundman Tom Moores faced an overwhelming array of uncommon problems that called for an extraordinary sound system. Fail-safe reliability was a must due to time factors and remoteness—the nearest source of U.S. repair parts or equipment was often over 1,000 air miles away. Sound quality requirements were a matter of International Prestige. The system he chose consisted 100% of Shure SR Professional Sound Reinforcement Components and Shure SM54 microphones!

"... SIZE TO PERFORMANCE, THE BEST I'VE EVER SEEN!"*

Years of research and development—plus four years of field-testing in every conceivable big sound application, coupled with in-depth consultations with a Who's Who of sound installers, soundmen, road managers, and auditorium technicians went into the design of this rugged, reliable, professional equipment. SR components can be used as a system (or inserted as individual links within a system of quality componentry) in virtually unlimited combinations with assurance of uncompromising quality—in power, intelligibility, musical purity and controlled coverage. SR is already in use as the main sound system in many Vegas hotels, Chicago auditoriums and hotels, churches, and giant amusement parks.

A WHOLE NEW SPECTRUM OF AUDIO TOOLS
The Shure SR101 audio console accepts eight balanced low impedance microphones (two channels switch to high level inputs), each with individual controls for volume, reverb, high- and low-frequency equalization, and input attenuation. The SR105A 200-watt continuous (RMS) power amplifier with bridging capabilities to obtain 400 watts (RMS) permits either direct speaker coupling or direct- and transformer-coupled output for 70-volt lines. The SR108 is a wide-response, wide-dispersion speaker system, has biamp capability, and is suitable for permanent or temporary installations. And an array of custom accessories add further flexibility.

RCA and Charley Pride agree to another term

Charley Pride one of the biggest sellers in the country fold, has just signed a new long-term contract to record exclusively for RCA. Mel Iberman Division Vice President, Nashville Operations for RCA Records, made the announcement at a New York reception in Pride's honour.

The contract continues an association which bloomed in 1965 with Chet Atkins, Division Vice President, Country Music.

Pride possesses at least eleven gold albums and one gold for a single. Currently Pride has an album released entitled "Charley" and a new single "Hope You're Feelin' Me."

Anne Murray and friends named in U.S. action

Canadian heavy-weight Anne Murray is being sued to the tune of $2.5 million. According to Wichita Kansas promoter Harry Peebles, Anne Murray and her co-defendants, Allan Strahl of Beverly Hills, Marvin Josephson Associates Inc. of Los Angeles and the New York-based Alive Enterprises Inc., engaged in "an illegal and unlawful conspiracy" to break a contract they entered into last January, so that the singer "could appear elsewhere under more advantageous terms."

Peebles, who maintains booking agencies in Wichita and Kansas City, insists that Murray broke her contract to appear Aug. 21st at the Missouri State Fair.

Hefty Columbia promo on Springsteen release

A nation-wide promo campaign for Columbia's Bruce Springsteen is coinciding with his new LP-release "Born To Run."

Scott McNeill, National Merchandising Manager for the Columbia group, said that "This promotional campaign is designed to stimulate interest at both retail and radio levels . . . Springsteen has been receiving outstanding critical acclaim . . . 1975 will undoubtedly be the year of Bruce Springsteen."

"Greetings From Asbury Park, N.J." and "The Wild, The Innocent and the E Street Shuffle" are Springsteen's other Columbia releases.

Elements of the campaign will stress radio-time, print-ads, a poster highlighting the three albums and in-store displays.

Steinberg to temporary head of giant Polydor Inc.

Wornall (Bill) Farr resigned as president of Polydor Inc., which became effective Sept. 9. Farr had also served as president of Phonodisc, a U.S. company, not connected in any way with the Canadian firm of the same name.

Irwin Steinberg has reported that on an "interim basis", he (Steinberg), will serve as president of Polydor Inc., as well as serving in that position at Phonogram, Polydor and Polygram.

In a statement, Steinberg expressed "regret" over Farr's resignation. At present, discussions are taking place among Polydor International, Polygram Corporation and the Polydor Record Group concerning expansion-plans for Polydor Inc.

CHIQ-FM - new sound for Winnipeg market

Bob Laine, once renowned as the "expletive delative" red-light flashing program, director of CHUM-FM-Toronto, breaks with the news that CFRW-FM-Winnipeg will sign off to make way for Winnipeg's first 24-hour outlet, to be known as CHIQ-FM.

Six fifteen minute info programs will be aired seven days a week at 6:30, 7:30, 8:30, 11:30, 2:30 and 5:30 and will be known as "Report", similar to Larry Wilson's headlined at CHUM-FM.

"94Q" will also feature afternoon interviews and special evening programming. Six "live" announcers will do the shift . . . Reid Dickey, of CFRW-FM, Mike Drake, formerly with CHUM-FM-Toronto, Steve Young, formerly with CKLC-FM-Kingston, Andrew Mitchell of Winnipeg, Paul Nathan of CJOM-FM-Windsor, and John O'Brien, formerly with two Alberta stations.

Rene Jamieson will head the news operation.

CHIQ-FM, will have begun their airing Monday, September 15th, according to General Manager Laine.

CHYM radio reserves a Kitchener landmark

The "CHYM Clock", a $5,000 time-piece was officially unveiled in the heart of the city of Kitchener, Thursday Sept 11 at 12:00 noon. The clock stands eleven feet high, featuring a double-sided community information board. Her Worship Mayor Edith MacIntosh, and the vice-president and general manager of CHYM Kitchener, Mr. John E. Larke, attended the unveiling.

The clock is being donated to the city by the Kitchener radio outlet.

Capitol/EMI's Gosewich to European rendezvous

Arnold Gosewich, president of the Capitol-EMI group will participate in a two-week visit to Europe . . . objective being to meet with EMI-affiliate executives in Germany, Denmark, France and Britain. Gosewich intends to promote Capitol's Canadian artists on an international level. France will see Gosewich, co-ordinating with Pathe-Marconi-EMI for Beau Dommage promotion, and to discuss future-plans for the French release of the band's second LP-effort.

EMI retail operations in Denmark will also be looked after with a Gosewich view to incorporate some of the Danish methods into Capitol's Sherman/Mister Sound stores throughout Canada.

Quebec's A&R Manager Pierre Dubord will accompany the president to France and in England they are scheduled to be joined by the Director of A&R, Paul White.

George Hamilton IV to set U.K. record

George Hamilton IV embarks on the longest concert tour ever undertaken in the British Isles. There will be 42 dates beginning Oct 2nd at Fairfield Halls, Croydon with the tour capper Nov 30 at the Civic Hall in Wolverhampton. The dates will include England, Scotland and Ireland - says George: "We're gonna' be all up and down the countryside and videotaping our 5th annual BBC-TV series as well."

Credit for much of the success of George Hamilton IV in the U.K. and Europe goes to the Mervyn Conn Organization who have now taken over the exclusive personal representation of Hamilton in Europe. Conn has been associated with Hamilton for more than seven years - as promoter of his major tours throughout the British Isles and Europe. He was responsible for opening the "iron curtain" resulting in a tour of the Soviet Union and Czechoslovakia in the spring of 1974. A similar tour has now been arranged for March and April of next

You don't have to read too far to discover the esteem in which Valdy is held in Canada. He's been hailed as "A musical poet laureate... a giant among Canadian story tellers... He could become a legend in his own time, in fact he's almost there." RPM; "More than anyone around today, Valdy reflects Canada. His songs are... gentle, perceptive, and sincere." — Ottawa Journal; "An almost tangible magical quality of music played simply and honestly. And beautifully." — Edmonton Journal; "... without a doubt the best folksinger in Canada today..." — Truro, N.S. News; "Valdy is for real." — Toronto Sun.

A legend and a symbol is not something that Valdy dreamed of becoming; he didn't make a deliberate aim at stardom. Valdy has built up his following simply by doing what comes most naturally to him, and that has consisted of travelling from coast to coast in Canada, singing for anyone who cares to listen.

He's won two Juno awards and has critically acclaimed albums and several hit singles to his credit, and his latest album, "SEE HOW THE YEARS HAVE GONE BY" has just been released internationally (except in Canada) to even more praise from critics and radio broadcasters.

He's an anacronism, an unlikely success story in an industry where hard-sell artistry and glitter take a front seat to mere talent. Valdy is virtually a natural resource in his homeland—we need him here now more than ever.

Dick
Damron

Singer of Songs. Cliff Edwards. He was the warm and husky voice that distinguished The Bells' hits. His solo singing career launched him onto the charts with "Uncle Dad and Auntie Mom," and "Carpenter of Wood." Cliff's broad appeal took him to television, where he hosted his own series and an hour long music special.

Singer of Songs. Cliff Edwards' first A&M single release. The intimacy of his voice has been set to an infectious beat. The result has been a hit that spans all of the chart categories. Singer of Songs is breaking fast right now on AM Top-40 radio, with strong positions in country and MOR already secured. A record with that kind of universal appeal is the mark of an exceptional artist. And a singer of songs.

A GUIDELINE AS TO HOW THE RPM 100 IS COMPILED

The RPM 100 is a national chart compiled weekly from national sales and radio station replay and chart action. The top 50 records are computed from sales and airplay.

The computation of the records from 51 to 100 is based on early airplay, chart action and regional sales and breakouts.

The chart is based on samplings from markets across Canada and indicates trends that may not be prevalent in all areas of Canada.

Shaded numbers indicate a strong upward trend and gains in airplay or sales. This chart is offered as a guide to new product and an indication of trends in Canadian markets.

The RPM 100 singles and album chart (or any part thereof) may be reproduced with a proper credit.

The growth of country music in Canada has been very, very encouraging, but the industry recognizes there are still problems — problems of promotion, of distribution, and others.

Big Country is encouraging the segments of the business to get together and to work together to solve common problems. The enthusiasm is sure to result in another positive step for country music.

Country music people in Canada recognize the role BMI Canada has played since the formation of the performing right organization in 1940. Its open-door policy has allowed young and inexperienced music creators to grow with the industry. We are here to continue our assistance and encouragement and we thank you for the support you have given us in return.
