RPM Magazine tops all trades in Canada

Attic Records promo mailing "Under The Eaves" reported recently on their trade magazine survey which was conducted by them across Canada. The survey found that "more people receive RPM than any other trade (magazine)". A U.S. trade magazine stood second in the survey.

In the report, Attic states "What really surprised us is how few receive some of the publications and how many stations had never even heard of some of them."

RPM has been publishing for 13 years and our own survey revealed that with few exceptions every radio station in Canada receives RPM each week. RPM also maintains a controlled circulation outside of Canada of approximately 500 hitmaking radio station music directors. This foreign distribution has been maintained by RPM for the last six years in an effort to promote Canadian recordings outside of Canada.

Another survey of record dealers conducted by SRO indicated that RPM was at the top of the list.

Direction signs Montreal's Workman

John J. Williams of Direction Records has announced the signing of Billy Workman as the first in a series of new signings. Workman, former lead guitarist/vocalist with Michel Pagliaro, is a native of Mississippi who has been living in Montreal for a number of years. His sister Nanette Workman is already an established act in Quebec.

In its first few months of existence, the Montreal-based label has experienced success with a number of singles, particularly in the Toronto and Montreal disco scene, with reports of unit sales over 10,000 each for product by Gloria Spring, Jackie Robinson, Bumblebee Unlimited, Amanda Lear and Kebekelektrik. A number of albums have also been released, including the first English language product by Quebec notable Yvon Deschamps.

Other Direction signings include New York cabaret and concert band Gotham, Toronto singer and bandleader Grant Smith, and Atlanta R&B act Crystal Brandy. Product from all three acts is slated for release within the next two months.

Canadian Recording Studio Directory in preparation

RPM's annual Canadian Recording Studio Directory will appear in the July 30th edition.

This directory of recording studios across Canada includes information on personnel, studios size, equipment, hours and rates and is a valuable reference to record companies and producers.

In the fall of the year, this information is updated and used in the RPM Canadian Music Industry Directory.

Forms are currently in the mail to studios across Canada asking them to update their information for this important issue.

New studios or studios that might not have replied to last year's forms are asked to phone or write to RPM and request that information be sent to them.

The deadline for this issue has been set for July 8th with copies available on July 18th which will be dated July 23rd.

Are we starting to believe . . . in Canada?

The recent trade publication survey conducted by Attic Records showed RPM at the top of the heap. This comes as a surprise because Canadians usually don't endorse Canadian enterprises.

I just answered a telephone that was invented (we are told) in the U.S. I'm surrounded by things that are foreign. So far the only thing I've spotted in my office that is Canadian is my copy of The Canadian Establishment by Peter C. Newman. Why should we believe in anything that's wholly Canadian?

But then you look at the record business and suddenly you realize that Attic is Canadian. Most of the records that RPM has been writing about for 13 years are Canadian and more and more compositions that are being recorded in Canada are Canadian and we see something that 13 years ago didn't exist.

When RPM began, we were told that the combined circulation of both U.S. music trade magazines was 1000 copies. We were told that the Canadian record industry amounted to about 2000 potential subscribers and when we got that many, we had everybody.

Thirteen years later we can boast about a circulation of just under 5000 (and we really can't hit that 5000 figure).

So the industry has grown and the Canadian industry struggles to even get bigger.

Someone once said that records and movies are the best vehicles to promote Canadianism. Records are still the most convenient form of nationalism and isn't it surprising that Secretary of State and the other departments of government take very little interest in Canadian recordings?

Thirteen years ago, the concepts of promotion were far from what they are today. Most promotion men also did sales. Trade promotion didn't exist. There wasn't a weekly source of information on the industry. The few groups that recorded could do little more than ask a local station to play their records. There was no weekly trade chart that would indicate the success or failure of a Canadian record. Very simply, there were no hits and even more simply it was embarrassing to put out a Canadian record.

Less than 5% of the records sold in North America were sold in Canada.

There was a need for a Canadian trade weekly and RPM met that need.

U.S., South African release for A&M's Raes

New single Que Sera Sera by A&M recording artists Robbie & Cherrill Rae has been slated for an early July U.S. release. Recently out in Canada, the single was added at Toronto's CFTR and CJBK London in its first week. The single is also slated for a South African release on the RPM label (no relation).

Robbie Rae, a native of Wales, began his career managed by Gordon Mills (Tom Jones, Engelbert Humperdinck) and recorded with MAM. He achieved a major U.K. hit with a cover of The Lord's Prayer, which reported sales of 200,000. Now based in Toronto with wife Cherrill, a St. Thomas, Ontario native, they are managed by Artists Management Associates, a division of Dixon-Propas.

The duo have toured extensively throughout North America, doing primarily resort work. Booking is being handled through major New York-based agency ICM. Negotiations are currently under way for appearances on the Johnny Carson and Merv Griffen shows on U.S. network television.

Another AMA-managed act, Toronto-based Mighty Pope, has also achieved a U.S. single release with Heaven On The Seventh Floor, out June 14 on the Private Stock label. RCA is releasing the single in Canada on the 22nd. RCA is also finishing graphics for his debut album, due for release in Canada in August.

Travelling Youth Disco opens in Toronto

David Horner has recently opened a new large disco offering the youth of the city of Toronto a place to go for an enjoyable, trouble-free evening. Called Opus, it is Canada's largest youth disco, operating from three different sites in the Toronto area on a once-a-week basis. The disco takes place in Scarborough at 991 Kennedy Road every Friday, the Thornhill Community Centre on Sundays and St. Mary's Hall in Mississauga every Wednesday. Times run from 7:30 to 11:30 p.m. and admission is three dollars.

The opening, which took place Friday, June 10, featured CFTR disc jockey Paul Godfrey, who announced afterwards that he would be sitting in frequently in the future.

The recorded music is played on cassette but Horner will also have a turntable present for co-operative promotions with record companies. Jerry Hochberg of Motown reports he is already interested in such promotions, and that he is impressed with the quality of the set up, particularly with the lighting system and the professional attitude of the management.

Hochberg also notes if the project is successful, Horner intends to move his equipment into the studio for a television special.

WEA tops RPM's singles charts in June

For the 18th consecutive month, WEA Music topped the RPM Top 100 Singles chart for total chart listings in the month of June. In the four June issues of RPM, WEA singles appeared on the chart a total of 84 times, for an average of 21 chart singles per week.

CBS Records, which slipped below third place last month for the first time in the 18-month study, rallied to overtake Capitol and GRT for second spot with 59 chart singles. Capitol, which had held second since March, slipped to third with 55, and GRT to fourth with 36.

RCA finished fifth with 26 chart singles, edging out Polydor and A&M, which tied for sixth with 25 chart listings each.

In the top 25, WEA rallied for the strongest month ever since the survey began, and finished with 34 listings over the four weeks, for an 8.5 average. Capitol finished very strongly in second with 26, totalling 60 percent of all top 25 singles between the two distributors. Finishing a distant third was Motown, which placed eight of its 14 total listings in the top 25. GRT finished fourth with seven, followed by RCA with six.

Phonodisc's Frontenac releases first single Phonodisc's new French Canadian label, Frontenac, has released their first single and is expecting smash sales. Rush released is the new Gilles Girard et Super Classels song, Les Trois Cloches. Actually, this is a re-working of an old hit by Girard from the late 60's when his group, Les Classels, were the biggest seller on the Quebec record racks.

Brought back to produce the session was Ben Kaye, the man responsible for the incredible success of Girard's original group. Les Trois Cloches was recorded at Montreal's Studio Six.

Warner Bros. signs Toronto's Marc Jordan

by J.J. Linden

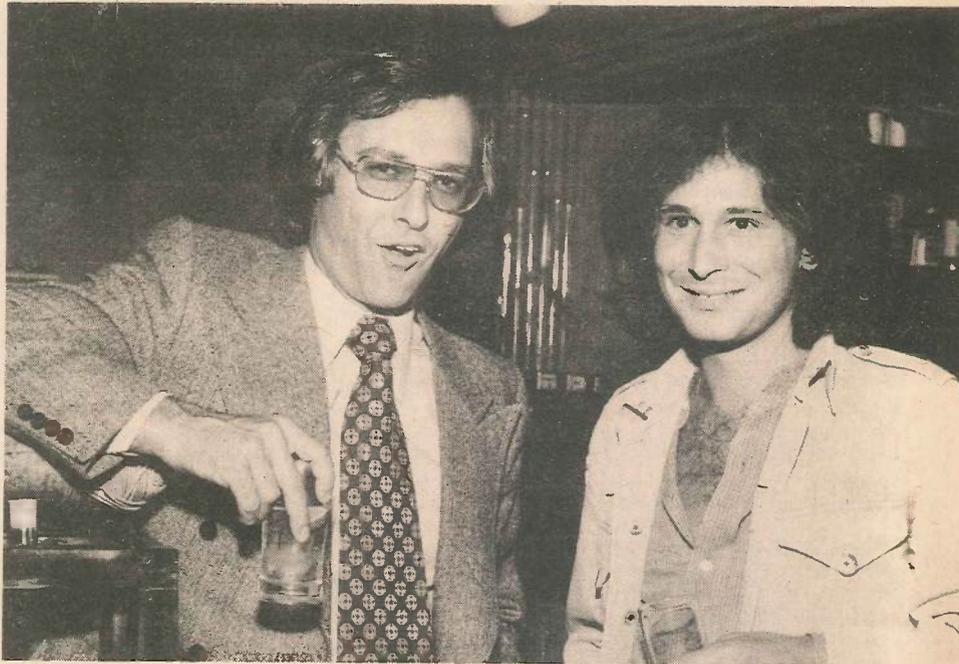

Toronto singer-songwriter Marc Jordan has signed a major recording contract with Warner Bros. Records (U.S.) The deal, firmed in Los Angeles, calls for two albums over an 18-month period, options for future albums, and heavy promotion and tour support commitments from the company.

The contract, considered exceptional for a new artist, was negotiated by Toronto lawyer Peter Steinmetz and Jordan's manager Bernie Schaeffer.

Jordan has already begun work on the first album at Sound Lab Studios in Los Angeles. The album is being produced by Garry Katz of Steely Dan fame, and features a number of notables on the sessions. Musicians include Steely Dan co-founder Donald Fagan, drummer Jeff Baccara from Boz Scaggs' band, guitarist Davey Johnstone, formerly with Elton John, Toronto's William (Smitty) Smith, former leader of Motherlode on keyboards, and bassist Chuck Rainey.

Also in Los Angeles on the session are Jordan's regular band members Tony Laviola on bass and Tim Wynveen on guitar and arranger/pianist John Capek.

Jordan took a mid-session break to return briefly to Toronto to announce the deal at a party at local disco Cooley's. He intends to remain living in Toronto.

CBS' Mahogany Rush
signed by The Agency

Toronto-based booking firm The Agency has signed CBS group Frank Marino & Mahogany Rush for exclusive booking representation in Canada. The Montreal-based trio consists of guitarist/leader Marino bassist Paul Harwood and drummer Jim Ayoub.

The group has been together since 1969, and was originally booked by Ed Smeall, now with The Agency. They recorded their first album in 1971 on the Kot'ai label, and joined CBS several years later. CBS has released the group's fifth album World Anthem, their third with CBS.

The trio is an established act in the U.S., having broken out of the Detroit market several years ago. A concert level band, they do most of their work in the U.S. Their last Canadian appearance was on tour across the country with A&M group Nazareth last fall. They are managed by New York firm Leber/Krebs, who also manage such notables as Aerosmith, Ted Nugent and the Blue Oyster Cult.

Smeall reports a concert tour being firmed for headline dates across Canada throughout August and into September, beginning in the Maritimes. The complete itinerary will be announced when dates are finalized.

Triumphant tour of Japan for Capitol's Anne Murray

by Ron Proulx

Eight-time Juno Award winning artist Anne Murray recently arrived back in Canada after what has been regarded as a highly successful concert tour of Japan. Ms. Murray visited six cities for eight concerts that sparked incredible reviews from the Japanese press. Following are a few samples of the comments bestowed on the Capitol artist.

"She wove her female sensitivity, softness and mellowness with her skill as a singer, subtly revealing her emotions - the performance came to a close with everyone wrapped up in the good vibes." (Mainichi Newspaper - June 1, 1977).

"Anne Murray's arrival and performances in Japan were wonderfully refreshing, blowing away the gloom of the rainy season." (Sankei Newspaper - June 1, 1977).

"The Canadian singer Anne Murray's concert warmed the hearts of her audience like a summer breeze coming over from North America." (Yomiuri Newspaper - June 6, 1977).

"... Anne Murray's concerts have been tremendously popular, to the point where the audience wouldn't get up to leave even after the final curtain call." (Evening Fuji Newspaper - June 7, 1977).

"... through her skill and richness of emotion and the concert into which she breathed so much life left a refreshing feeling." (Tokyo Times - 1977).

The complete list of cities and concerts for Ms. Murray included Tokyo (2), Osaka (2), Nagoya, Fukuoka, Kumamoto, and Yokohama. Highlights of the tour included the FM broadcast of one of her Tokyo concerts at the Sun Plaza Auditorium, and a press conference held at the Canadian Embassy in Tokyo. Hosted by Ambassador and Mrs. Bruce Rankin, this meeting with the press is a tremendous honour for a visiting entertainer. Various cultural and music industry representatives attended the gathering and speaking through an interpreter, she dazzled reporters.

Kyodo Productions of Japan, promoters of Ms. Murray's tour, claim that no other international artist has been treated with such a high level of respect in the 25 year history of the company.

Murray received numerous presents from the estimated 20,000 people who saw her. Of the total number, it has been estimated that around 60% were males between the ages of 16 and 22.

All of her fourteen albums have been released in Japan, including her Greatest Hits LP which was released to coincide with the tour. Also involved was a re-release of her early hit Snowbird which had already made a substantial mark in the Japanese record industry. Since returning, both the Greatest Hits and Snowbird orders have completely sold out of stock.

As Murray's manager Leonard Rambeau notes, the entire reaction to the singer's tour is very reminiscent of her early years as a performer in Canada. Basically, both the audience as well as the media loved her.

Plans are tentatively calling for another Anne Murray tour of Japan in the fall of 1978.

Presently, work is being done in Toronto's Sound Interchange studios for Ms. Murray's next CBC special.

Yumi Mattoyo, Japan's leading female singer, welcomes Ms. Murray to the reception.

Canadian Ambassador, Bruce Rankin, along with his wife welcome Ms. Murray to Japan and the reception held in her honour.

BYRON LEE & THE DRAGONAIRES

Art Of Mas
Dynamic DY 3366

Byron Lee has that sound of all seasons but this album is top fare for the sun months and should rekindle many thoughts among tourists of their stay on the Islands. No political overtones with Lee, just straight entertainment and pleasing lyrics, Byron can take a Beethoven's 5th or a Piano Concerto by Tchaikovsky, add a synthesizer and bring the old Masters into the realm of today's music. Lee and his Dragonaires have changed their pace somewhat, after a long absence from the record scene. The Island sound (oil drums) are still there but there's been an effort to expand the sound which should capture an even greater audience.

GENE MacLELLAN

If It's Alright With You
Capitol ST-11535-F

There's obviously a good chemistry mix between writer/performer MacLellan and producer John Capek. Produced at Toronto's Captain Audio and Toronto Sound studios, set has already been enjoying heavy national exposure with the adult oriented and country programmers. Contains MacLellan's current RPM Country Playlister, Shilo Song and, if you listen carefully, you just might pick up the voice of Gene's very dear friend, Anne Murray, although it was probably her very presence on this cut as well as Put Your Hand In The Hand, that gave Gene that much needed confidence. A shy man, at the best of times, MacLellan gains in stature as he performs on wax with his sincere brand of lyrical communication. Besides Annie, MacLellan has a host of friends all too anxious to lend a hand and they include: Prakas John, bass; Pentti Glan, producer Capek on keyboards, Bob Lucier on steel, Eugene Amaro on soprano sax and background vocals by Annie, Tommy Ambrose, Steve Kennedy Ken Marco and Ed Wideman. Don't lock MacLellan into any one format, he's got that gospel, country blues feel that fits all formats.

NORTON BUFFALO

Lovin' In The Valley Of The Moon
Capitol ST-11625-F

Buffalo Norton has a sizeable following even before the release of this set, mainly because of his associating with some of the big names in the business: Commander Cody, Elvin Bishop, Boz Scaggs, Steve Miller and more. His Eighteen Wheels is included on Commander Cody's live album recorded during their farewell tour to Europe and he was an important addition to Steve Miller's Fly Like An Eagle and Book Of Dreams albums. He also opened Miller's west coast tour, which added to his following. Described as "a virtuoso on any type of harmonica", Buffalo tops his harp playing with a unique brand of vocalizing that should sit well with the adult-oriented programmers as well as those into progressive rock. Stretch it a little, with Hangin' Tree, and country programmers could become interested. Produced by Buffalo with an executive production assist from Steve Miller.

BERT KAEMPFERT

Safari Swings Again
Polydor 2310494-Q

Whatever happened to the big band Kraut sounds of the late sixties and early seventies? Names like James Last and Bert Kaempfert? They're both alive and well at Polydor and Kaempfert surfaces with a somewhat nostalgia kick. Produced by Kaempfert, this set is strictly for the Kaempfert fans - and they number in the thousands so this album could be an important release, particularly for the adult-oriented programmers who have had to lean more into the contemporary field for their programming material. The Kaempfert touch is still there and the big plus factor, of course, is trumpeter player and flugel-hornist Ack van Rooyen. Contains Henry Mancini's Baby Elephant Walk but much of the material is Kaempfert originals.

BONFIELD-DICKSON

Portage
Ahmek 8D-101-K

This isn't a new release but the reissue could bring this talented duo back into prominence. Produced at Zaza Sound by Ron Harrison with an assist by Paul Zaza, Ginny Ridpath's discoveries were just this side of breaking through with their original go 'round. They have a pleasant summer sound that should please the adult-oriented programmer, particularly the cut, Ten Thousand One Twenty Days and if you're into album programming don't overlook Gypsy Saviour or Born Dead. If you're interested in getting in on the "unity kick" Bonfield-Dickson supply a cute little ditty, Champs Elysees. Lots of big sound and lush strings with standout performances by Jack Zaza on English horn, alto sax, clarinet, flute, harmonica and oboe. Not included on this set but certainly a boost for Bonfield-Dickson is their new release If You Want

Bonfield-Dickson

Me, a Jules Freedman penning published through Chappell and co-produced by Harry Hinde and Paul Zaza.

GARY AND DAVE

14 Greatest Hits
Axe AXS 519-K

Whatever happened to this pair, could certainly be asked today. A success story of the early 70's, Gary and Dave resurface once again through the wonderful world of the "master tape". Producer Greg Hambleton added the necessities to the songwriting and performing talents of this duo and they both won, becoming an important part of the discbiz a few years ago. This is the sound of Gary and Dave at the height of their success. The reissuing of the single, It's Alright My Darling, a Dave Beckett and Gary Weeks' original, could spark interest once again. The adult-oriented programmers will find much satisfaction in their interpretation of producer Hambleton's penning of I Think I Know You and, of course, their big hit of It Might As Well Rain Until September.

Broadcast Music Inc. announces new payment schedules

Royalty increases for local FM, network television and some radio performances and a new song bonus system are among the highlights of a new payment schedule from U.S. performing rights society Broadcast Music Incorporated. The new schedule, which takes effect July 1, outlines the increased minimum rates to be paid by BMI for popular songs and concerts on radio television feature performances, themes and background music.

Among the new features of the payment plan are a rate of one cent per feature FM performance, and popular song feature performance increases for U.S. television of $2.25 from 36 cents for prime time and $1.25 from 24 cents for other times. Prime time includes 7 to 11 p.m. and musical or variety programs between 11 p.m. and one a.m. Other new rates include prime time network television themes, which will receive 22 cents per half-hour show, and 18 cents for non-prime time show, and television background music, which will pay 22 cents per minute prime time and 16 cents per minute non-prime time.

Also effective July 1, BMI will incorporate a song bonus system of payment, multiplying royalties given out after that date for any song which has received over 25,000 performances since January 1, 1960. Future royalties on songs which have been performed between 25,000 and 99,999 times will be paid at 1½ times the base rate; 100,000 to 499,999 performances at two times the base rate; 500,000 to 999,999 performances at 2½ times the base rate, and one million performances or more at 3.8 times the base rate. This bonus system will apply to every feature broadcast performance of any song in the BMI repertoire on July 1.

Material dating back before January 1, 1960 is also eligible for bonus payments provided its number of performances can be documented prior to December 31, 1977 on a BMI form with supporting statements which can be obtained by writing the Song Bonus Department, Broadcast Music Inc., 40 West 57th Street, New York 10019.

The new payment schedule and bonus plan apply only to performances in the U.S. However, BMI Canada artists whose material is broadcast in the U.S. are eligible under the schedule.

A three day passport will be available to registrants on August 1st which will entitle registrants to all three days of activities. Day by day registration and single event registration will be available as well.

Application forms are now available for showcasing. Contact RPM at 6 Brentcliffe Road, Toronto, Ontario M4G 3Y2 or telephone (416) 425-0257.

Kenny Rogers' U.A. album goes gold in Canada

United Artists Records reports Kenny Rogers' U.A. album release, titled after his name, is gold in Canada with sales of over 50,000 units. U.A. reports continued sales are moving the album well on its way towards platinum status.

The album contains Rogers' current major single hit Lucille, which is reportedly nearing gold status itself. The single has reached number one in a number of markets across Canada, and is top five in many others. It has also achieved the unique distinction of reaching number one on all three RPM singles charts.

Lucille, which began as a country force, reached number one in the April 16 RPM Country Playlist and remained there the subsequent week. It began to cross over heavily into both Adult Contemporary and Top 40 markets, topping the RPM Adult Oriented Playlist in the June 18 issue and reaching the top position in the Top 100 Singles chart last week.

The album, Rogers' second with U.A., is also moving rapidly up RPM's album chart, and is currently located at 28 after four weeks on the chart.

The band, which is based in Rochester, New York, consists of singer Annie Woods, a North Carolina native, Rochester area musicians Scott Kreyer on keyboards, Nick Costello on bass, and guitarist Jeff Gilhart. Drummer Rick Rakozy hails from Hamilton, Ontario.

Grandstand stage smaller, more advanced

The new CNE Grandstand, which has been in its fabrication stages since March of 1977, will be more technically advanced, smaller, and more durable. While the old stage had a floor area of 180' X 90', the new one will cover but 120' x 60'. While being only two-thirds the size, the new stage is more suited to use on Astro-Turf, the playing surface within the stadium. Sixty-four pneumatic flotation tires (aircraft type) will carry the 100 ton stage across the turf giving a pressure of less than 3 pounds per square inch, thus damage to the field is virtually non-existent.

The new CNE Grandstand stage is 90% Canadian content.

Music Shoppe and its publicist, Bigland Advertising, will be promoting the dates as the group's Toronto premiere. Shiver will be performing substantially in Canada throughout the summer, in an attempt to establish themselves in Canada as a new market. Music Shoppe is planning a U.S. tour for the fall.

Annie Woods & Shiver are managed by Chuck Leone of Rochester-based Skyhigh Management, whose other two bands, Mother Freedom Band and Terry Whipple & Strider, are also booked in Canada by Music Shoppe. Music Shoppe's Ralph Jolivet is directive agent for all three groups.

Motown, Keeble Cable
co-op CATV success

Motown Records and Keeble Cable, a CATV company which services western Toronto and outlying areas, recently staged a co-operative special promotion event on Keeble community program Dance Machine. The May 28 edition of the show, which is taped every second Saturday, featured a contest where contestants lip-synced to Thelma Houston's Don't Leave Me This Way.

Motown supplied the prizes, which consisted of Houston's album Any Way You Like It, Marvin Gaye's Live At The London Palladium and the new Commodores' album, titled after their name. Singles Sir Duke by Stevie Wonder and Houston's new single If It's The Last Thing I Do were given to non-writing contestants. Singles were also given to the best dancers on the show.

The contest was planned by the show's producer and host Harold Johnson of Keeble and Motown's Jerry Hochberg, who also served on the judges panel. Johnson and Hochberg both report excellent response and turnout to the contest, which was advertised on previous programs.

The two planned a second contest (June 18), this time for boys, lip-syncing to Marvin Gaye's Let's Get It On. Motown again supplied the prizes, which included Gaye's and the Commodores' albums and Smokey Robinson's Deep In My Soul.

Direction announces two releases

Montreal based Direction Records has announced the release of two albums on the label. Yvon Deschamps, a leading entertainment figure on the Quebec scene has made his first English recording, entitled en anglais, which features some of his most popular monologues in the English language. Montreal-based Direction Records has firmed a deal with U.S. company TK International for the U.S. distribution of a current Direction single release by Kebekelektrik. The single, titled Journey Into Love, will be retitled Magic Fly, for U.S. release because of a copyright situation.

The single is Direction's first Canadian disco record ever to make the U.S. trades as an import, receiving action in disco pools in Florida and Long Island, New York. Its Canadian sales are reported at 19,000 units total for 12-inch and seven-inch, with a total of 15,000 more units on order.

Kebekelektrik is a Montreal-based studio band. The single was produced in Montreal by Tony Green and Pat Deserio. Deserio is also Direction's director of promotion for Eastern Canada.

Canadian Spaces succeeds despite many obstacles

Despite the general lack of cooperation by virtually every major record label, save A&M Records of Canada, Canadian Spaces, an exclusively Canadian book and record store, has become a successful trading post for home grown product. Opened in April, 1977, by Barbara Bell and Lucy Kaczmarek, and located on Toronto's Queen Street near Spadina Avenue, this tiny but comfortable store features albums by such artists as, Valdy and The Hometown Band, David Bradstreet, Charity Brown (all of A&M), and Wooden Nickel artists Willie P. Bennett, David Essig, and The Original Sloth Band.

Due to the initial lack of product in the store Treble Clef Distribution, Round Records, and Rebel Record Company agreed to distribute to Canadian Spaces, thus another small victory for Canadian recording artists was made possible.

At the same time, the group's management, Franklin House, is working with Donald K. Donald and CPI to set up an extensive summer tour.

GRT National Promotion Co-ordinator, Jeff Burns, reports strong reaction on the FM band in Vancouver, Montreal, and Toronto concerning the bands first album, titled The Hunt.

An announcement in conjunction with American release will be made sometime in the not too distant future.

Maple Sugar comprises champion North American fiddlers Graham and Eleanor Townsend, King of the Banjo Maurice Bolyer, champion Ottawa Valley stepdancers les danseurs quebécois (led by Gilles Roy), and the Maple Sugar folksingers, Dorothy Hogan and James Gordon.

Maple Sugar have two albums available on the Springwater label, Maple Sugar: Songs of Early Canada, and The Great Canadian Fiddle.

Lineup set for bluegrass fest

The Waterford Bluegrass Festival, being sponsored by the Waterford Lions Club and being held at the Waterford Lakes Conservation Area, has announced the lineup for its three-day camping fest. The Dixie Flyers, the Wildwood Express, the Dodge City Boys, the Humber River Valley Boys, and Bob Webb & Outta Town Band.

The festival will be held from July 15-17 with a three-day admission charge of $15. Camping is available at the additional charge of $4 per day. Waterford is west of Toronto.

Co-ordinators for the event are Elwood Saracuse Productions.

El Condor Supper Club hosting gong show

Peter Nanos, manager of the El Condor Supper Club in suburban Toronto, has been hosting a weekly gong show every Tuesday night at the club. Contestants, primarily comprised of aspiring country singers, have been singing their songs before a panel of judges from within the music industry. The judges are armed with what Nanos describes as a "fantastic gong", who rate the contestants if they are good and gong them if they are not. At the end of the evening, scores are tallied and the winner is chosen.

In July, a final contest will be held among the weekly winners. The grand prize will be a choice of an expense-paid trip to Nashville or a sum of money.

Nanos reports the show has been very successful, with a large number of contestants and a lot of fun. Judges from the industry have included RCA's Marghi Cocks, producer Cy True (Ronnie Prophet Show), and RPM's Sammy Jo Romanoff and J.J. Linden.

DOLLY PARTON
New Harvest... First Gathering
RCA CPL1-2188-N

Not a new album but timely in view of this country giant playing the concert scene in Canada with Mac Davis. Produced by Parton she is currently hot with her single, Light Of A Clear Blue Morning and the set has other single potential and in particular, Applejack, written by Parton as are most of the cuts. Parton doesn't worry about crossing over, it usually comes natural but the adult-oriented programmers will be interested in her version of My Girl (My Love) a co-writing by Bill Robinson and Ron White.

Put America's two country giants together and you've got an immediate smash. They are currently represented on the RPM Country Playlist with I Can't Love You Enough, contained here and there could be other releases from this Owen Bradley

CARROLL BAKER
I'd Go Through It All Again
RCA KNL1-0227-N

Canada's biggest name in country has a go with a bit of nostalgia. These are previous releases on her old Gaiety label with the exception of Half The Time, which she co-wrote with producer Don Grashey and her solo penning of Can't Get Enough Of You Baby. Includes her very tender, Little Boy Blue, Ten Little Fingers and I'd Go Through It All Again. This album is just another continuing chapter in the successful upward production. Although their roots are pure country, there's a possible crossover with the Bill Rhodes/Rayburn Anthony co-penning of We Can Try It One More Time. Powerful as single touring acts, it's unfortunate that these two superstars can't hook up together for touring purposes.

JERRY PALMER
RCA KKL1-0207-N

Jerry Palmer may be out but he's still kicking and this release of some of his older Gaiety material could bring the young Thunder Bay country chanter back into the fold. His talent is too good to waste on real estate. Producers Don Grashey and Chuck Williams had a close relationship with Palmer for many years and were able to take his well written songs and mold them into acceptable country and adult-oriented material through their own recording studio. In a way, Palmer represents a disappointing past where his future depended on Canadian programmers who, at the time, didn't listen too kindly to Canadian product. Palmer shines with his cute and well delivered One Way Ticket To A Lady and for pure country pickin' try One More Song.

Daniels a hit with the Bluejays

Tim Daniels, one of RCA's newest country stars, was set to sing the two national anthems at Exhibition Stadium (6/27). He couldn't have picked a better time either. The game was the opening of the long-awaited series between the Toronto Blue Jays and the New York Yankees. While the Jays aren't exactly raising hell with the rest of the American League, they continue to draw the fans in droves. This first appearance for the Bronx Bombers has been a virtual sell-out since last April, and attendance predictions were nudging the forty thousand mark as the handsome young native of Georgia, now a Canadian by choice, stepped up to the plate to sing the Star Spangled Banner and O Canada. His debut single Cheater's Kit, on RCA was released only a week prior.

KEEP IT COUNTRY by johnny murphy

The Family Brown is the subject matter of a new, forty-minute, radio special produced by Paul Kennedy of CHFX-FM in Halifax for the Canadian Association of Broadcasters. Paul included interviews with all of the Family plus no less than fourteen of their best tunes, some of those in medley form. The production is entitled: The Family Brown Words And Music.

Carroll Baker is well into her tour of Canada's west in the company of Ronnie Prophet and Dickey Lee. And if ever there was a Canadian, country, super-star it has to be this lady. The album that established a new bench mark in Canadian country record sales, her debut set on RCA, that only recently won the great gal singer a gold record for fifty thousand sales, is now well on the way to the platinum plateau. Exact figures are hard to come by officially, but I hear that the set is past the half way mark on its second fifty thousand sales. Then, just to keep things interesting, her former Gaiety, best-seller, only recently re-released on RCA, is a strong contender for a gold record. Based on RCA sales alone, the re-issue could easily hit the fifty thousand mark. While you bounce those figures around in your head, I'd like to go on record with a prediction with respect to Carroll's yet-to-be-released second RCA album. I've heard her do some of the numbers live and if what I have heard is any indication, I wouldn't be at all surprised if the new set, her second since becoming an RCA artist, ships gold in the first go-round. How do you like them apples, neighbour? She has added I Can't Stop Loving You and The Morning After Baby Let Me Down to her stage act. Both tunes, according to reliable sources, are in the still unreleased LP. The way she handles those two classics on stage will make you forget they were ever recorded by any other artist. She's also working on an adaptation of Dick Dameron's Waylon's T-Shirt that'll blow even Dick's black sombrero right into the creek.

For my money, what little there is of that commodity, one of the absolute top instrumentalists on the country scene in this part of Canada, if not the whole country, has to be Mickey Andrews. Mickey plays steel and dobro like to make 'em talk. He's the leader of a real good group on the club scene locally by the name of Cabbage Town. I caught their act at El Condor the other evening and they have a super-together sound. Other members of the bunch, evenly divided between two Newfoundland natives and two good ol' boys from Cape Breton, are: John Wells, Don Jarrett and Randy MacDonald. Mickey tells me the group is booked solid for the balance of the year and that comes as no surprise at all. Mickey is the strong, silent type. His instruments do his talking. Vocals are split between the three remaining guys in the group and they all do creditable performances in this department. Mickey records as a solo performer on Periwinkle Records. His last two album releases Velvet Dobro, and Passport To Dobro have been acquired by Stallion Records of Great Britain for release there and in Italy. Meanwhile Cabbage Town has also released their first album as a group.

Just in case this one some how slipped by, I'd like to mention a single that came to my attention last week on the JJS label out of B.C. The group involved is Country Odyssey, offering a pair of very commercial tunes, Loving You Comes Easy f/s Daddy Sang To Me. I hope that whoever is involved does some deejay promo work across the country for this pairing. It sounds like a hit to me, especially Loving You.

Enjoyed a long confab with Don Haggart formerly fifty percent of the act known as The Haggart Brothers. He and brother Jimmy went their separate ways some eight or ten months ago. Don has been more or less in semi-retirement since. Now he's back into the spotlight in a big way. He expects to have a new album released in the near future, and he and his new manager Devora Morrissey of Halifax, are accepting bookings for Don's new, single act. The act is now billed as Don Haggart and Last Generation.

My big ol' buddy, Dallas Harms, has written yet a third tune for Gene Watson. Being as how his second effort for Gene, The Old Man And The Horn, is only just on the market, any prognostications with respect to a third hit from this extremely compatible team have to be premature. Suffice it for the time being for me to lay the title on you, it's called Cowboys Don't Get Lucky All The Time. And if writing all these hits for Gene weren't enough. Dallas sold him one of his personal guitars for the absolute, bargain-basement, price of one dime. "Big D" wanted to give him the guitar as a souvenir. Gene wanted to pay what he figured the instrument was worth, with the aforementioned, mutual, satisfactory transaction resulting.

Stan Campbell tells me that some solid developments have transpired insofar as the Opry North Road Show is concerned. Twenty-one, consecutive, one-niters have been arranged. The show will feature one or two headliners and utilize regional talent in addition to the travelling biggies. Some of the names that I have heard banded about as headliners will make this venture one of the best things that has happened to country music in Canada yet.

Bill Anderson, host of St. Clair Productions' Big Country, syndicated show, has joined the CB Committee of the Academy Of Country Music Entertainment. The ACME CB'ers are planning a telephone conference meeting involving their group, other committee chairpersons and President Hank Smith for July 10th. The response to their recent questionnaire was not anything like complete, but it wasn't a lost cause either. Joe Lefresne reports that they received five returns on their mailing of nineteen questionnaires to country radio stations.

A review in the June issue of the British fan magazine, Country Music People, had little praise for the Easter Sunday concert at the recent Wembley Festival but the critic, Alan Cackett, did have this to say about one part of the show: "After the interval the show picked up a little with a lively spot from Tex Withers and a great debut from Carroll Baker. She built her act sensibly and left the audience wanting more. One of the few acts to have achieved that."
