WEA top distributor over first half of 1977

WEA Music is the top charted distributor in Canada over the first half of 1977, according to a study of the RPM Top 100 singles charts over the first six months of the year. In the 25 issues of RPM in the half, WEA singles placed a total of 558 times in the top 100, an average of 22.32 listings per chart. Capitol was a strong but distant second with 369 listings, averaging 14.76, and CBS was a close third with 327 (13.08 per week).

These three distributors repeated in the same order in which they finished 1976, and in roughly the same proportions. However, in a striking turnaround in the statistics, GRT raised its standing from tenth all the way to fourth. Its 235 listings in the first six months, many coming from the ABC group, bettered its 203 total for the entire year in 1976.

Repeating in fifth position was RCA with 204, followed by Polydor and Quality with 181 and 163, respectively.

WEA also topped the top 25 over the first half of the year, finishing with 161 listings, for an average of 26.8 percent of all records listed in the top 25. WEA also topped the distributors in this department every month except April, when they were edged by Capitol. Capitol finished second over the half with 117 top 25 listings, an average of 19.5.

The top six distributors also finished at the top of the top 25 listings in the same order. CBS was third with 83 top 25 listings, followed by GRT with 52, RCA with 44, and Polydor with 42. Motown, who finished 11th over the top 100, was seventh in the top 25 with 37. Of their total of 90 listings, 41 percent were in the top 25, highest of all distributors.

WEA also had the highest number of number one singles over the six month period, placing ten number ones in 25 weeks. Capitol and CBS each placed three, with Motown and RCA each placing two. London, MCA, A&M, GRT and Quality each placed a single at the top of the RPM chart.

In number one albums, A&M edged out WEA for the honours, with strong showings by Supertramp and Peter Frampton leading the way to nine chart toppers. WEA placed eight number one albums, including product by Fleetwood Mac, the Eagles and Leo Sayer. Motown placed three top albums, followed by Capitol and CBS with two each and MCA with one.

Ixtilan to distribute western sampler in east

Ixtilan Records has acquired eastern Canada distribution to Prairie Grass, Prairie Sky, a sampler album involving material by five artists from Saskatchewan on the Caragana label. The artists involved are Bob Evans, currently performing with the Dumptrucks in their bluegrass opera Cruel Tears, Glenn Koudelka, who has released product on Ixtilan, Rob Bryatan, Connie Kuldor and Jeff Ursel.

The album was produced by Rhody Blancher of CBC Regina at the Collingwood Studio in Esterhazy, Saskatchewan. It was partially funded by a Canada Council grant. It is distributed by the Thunder Creek Co-op in western Canada, and has sold over 2,000 copies in Saskatchewan alone to date.

Ixtilan is very excited to be distributing the album in eastern Canada. They feel it is an excellent cultural record, and is suitable for use in schools and libraries.

A number of Ixtilan artists are natives of western Canada, including Ron Baumber, Koudelka and Bill Findlay, from Saskatchewan, and Peter Mathieson, who hails from Calgary, Alberta.

Audiofidelity to release Bill Badgley LP in U.S.

Phonodisc Records has signed a licensing agreement with New York distributor Audiofidelity giving the U.S. firm manufacturing and distribution rights to Bill Badgley's album Gonna Fly Now in the U.S. Audiofidelity will also be promoting the album there.

The album is a production of the Canadian Talent Library. It was arranged and produced by Jim Pirie at Toronto's Manta Sound, and engineered and mixed by Manta's Hayward Parrott. CTL's Mal Thompson acted as executive producer. The album features Toronto pianist Bill Badgley performing a number of current covers and classic hits, including the title theme from Rocky, plus two original selections.

The album was leased by CTL to Phonodisc for Canadian manufacturing and distribution directly on the Phonodisc label, the first Canadian product ever to be released directly on Phonodisc. The deal with Audiofidelity marks Phonodisc's first deal with a U.S. company for the licensing of Canadian product. Phonodisc president Elizabeth McKim reports she is particularly pleased with having successfully completed such a deal in the company's first attempt.

Phonodisc is the exclusive licensee for Audiofidelity product in Canada.

McKim reports the album is receiving continuing and steady sales, as well as solid airplay on CTL subscription stations. Badgley himself will be making a promotional appearance at the Simpson's store in Toronto's Yorkdale Mall July 9 from one to two p.m. He will be meeting people and signing copies of his album.

Kiss firmed for 14-stop cross-Canada tour

Casablanca recording group Kiss, whose current single Calling Dr. Love is charted on RPM's Top 100 at .2, are firmed for a major cross-Canada concert tour throughout July and into August. Dates include stops in 14 major centres across the country, with options for additional dates at many sites in the event of sufficient demand.

The first date on the tour is a July 7 option for the Halifax Forum if the original scheduled date, July 8, is an early sellout. Further dates include the Moncton (N.B.) Coliseum (9), the Montreal Forum (12), Ottawa Civic Centre (14), Kitchener Auditorium (16), an optional second Kitchener concert (15), London Treasure Island Gardens (18), Sudbury Arena (19), Winnipeg Arena (21), Vancouver Coliseum (24), Victoria Arena (25), Edmonton Coliseum (27), Lethbridge Sportsplex (28), optional second Edmonton concert (29), Calgary Corral (31, with an option for the 30th), and Regina Stadium, August 2 and 3. An optional second Winnipeg concert, if necessary, will take place August 4.

The Regina concerts will mark the first time rock music has ever been performed at the Regina Stadium. Notably absent from the itinerary is Toronto, where the group performed a much publicized Varsity Stadium concert last September.

Quality Records, who distribute Casablanca product in Canada, are releasing a new album by the group, titled Love Gun, in time for the tour. The album will be the eighth album release by the group.

Capitol ships new Parsons

Capitol Records has shipped the new Arista recording of the Alan Parsons Project, titled I Robot. In conjunction with the release, Capitol held a Canadian preview/premiere of the disc at Toronto's Thunder Sound Studios. On hand for the evening were Parsons and executive producer Eric Woolfson.

I Robot is the second concept album by the team of Parsons and Woolfson. Their first was an adaption of Edgar Allan Poe works entitled, Tales of Mystery And Imagination, which is presently gold on the GRT label. I Robot utilizes the same basic group of musicians as Tales' and is based on the rise of the machine and the decline of man. Both were recorded at London's Abbey Road Studios.

Parsons past credits include Pink Floyd's Dark Side Of The Moon, for which he received a Grammy nomination, Al Stewart's hit album, Year Of The Cat, The Beatles Abbey Road, and many others.

Rush completes first U.K. tour

Anthem artists Rush, have just completed their first tour across the Atlantic Ocean which saw them do seven dates on the British Isles and one date in Sweden. All of the dates were as headliners with five of them complete sell-outs.

The dates included: Sheffield, Manchester, Birmingham, Hammersmith/Odeon, London, Stockholm, Sweden, Newcastle, Glasgow, Scotland, and Liverpool.

The sold-out dates were Manchester, Birmingham, London, Stockholm, and Newcastle with the halls in the two to four thousand seat range.

Straight Music and the top-rated Bron Agency, both of London, co-ordinated the tour for Rush, who have now achieved a sizeable following across the pond. Record sales have not made any real dent in the band's economic pocket however, even though all five of the band's LPs have enjoyed release on the Phonodisc label in the U.K.

If the attendance at these concerts is of any bearing though, Rush should begin to enjoy the sales success which they are accustomed to in North America.

Most of the top British Rock magazines gave space to the Rush tour. Following are a few excerpts of critic reaction.

"Rush released is an experience, one that I am looking forward to repeating over the weekend when the band plays London."
- Sounds Magazine.

"Rush's ability in their chosen field is unquestionable . . . The degree of technological sophistication involved in (their) stage show simply reflects the single-mindedness with which they approach their music."
- New Musical Express.

"Most impressive."
- Record Mirror.

"Rush will undoubtedly be back."
- Music Week.

"... audience reaction was extraordinary . . . delivered everything that was expected . . . more than competent."
- Melody Maker.

It is with this sort of reaction that Rush is already planning another, more extensive, tour of Europe in the early months of 1978. Included in this tour will be twelve British dates, six German dates, two in the Netherlands, two in Brussels, and one in Paris. After a short rest the band will then do various dates in the Scandinavian countries of Norway, Sweden, and Denmark. Plans are also in the works for a tour of Japan, Australia, and New Zealand in the fall of 1978. On top of all of this is the word from Anthem's Vic Wilson that Rush has been confirmed as one of Brazil's favourite heavy-metal bands. Rush could soon be confirmed as one of the world's most popular heavy-metal bands if the aforementioned tour plans are a success.

Presently, Geddy Lee, Alex Lifeson, and Neil Peart are in Monmouth, Wales, recording their sixth effort at Rockfield Studios. To be called A Farewell To Kings, it is being produced by the band and Terry Brown. Anthem is calling for an early September release.

At the same time, Anthem has released a single from Rush's second album, Fly By Night, entitled Making Memories.

A Cross-Canada tour is in the making for the fall and they are slated to headline the CNE Grandstand August 23.

All The World's A Stage, their double-live album, is approaching gold status in the U.S. It enjoys the honour of being the first double-live Canadian content album to have gone gold in Canada.

Anthem is distributed by Polydor in Canada, and Mercury in the U.S.

A happy MCA crew surround Trooper gold which occurred during this year's Three Days In March Communication Meeting.

Trooper

by J.J. Linden

MCA Canada has been involved for a number of months in a massive promotion and publicity campaign in an effort to break Vancouver-based group Trooper across Canada. Recently, with the release of the group's new album Knock 'Em Dead and single We're Here For A Good Time, that campaign has begun to pay off with the sudden airplay breaking of the single from coast to coast. In its first two weeks, it has been added at virtually every major market station across Canada, and has been given chart numbers at many, particularly in western Canada where the group is an established concert act. It is currently bulletted on RPM's Top 100 singles chart at 72.

The campaign began within the industry, in accordance with MCA's belief that the industry itself must be convinced of the group's saleability and of the company's belief in its act, in order for the act to break.

Trooper producer Randy Bachman.

MCA vice-president Scott Richards explains: "There seems to be a need to get one's message across to all categories of the business, especially the accounts. We all want those Supertramps, and for sure MCA has had its share in various musical categories, but it seems that the groups or LPs that can be exploited to the widest range of potential buyers have to be promoted to the industry. This product has to have the same wide appeal to the already heavily hyped trade person as it will eventually have to the consumer being influenced. In other words, our trade, on the average, doesn't appear to be any more or less sophisticated than the buyer."

The first major step in the campaign occurred at RPM's Three Days In March, where MCA used its hospitality suite as a Trooper tribute, presenting the band with a gold album for their previous MCA effort Two For The Show and featuring a major display exhibiting the various steps involved in the making and breaking of the album. The Three Days, which was attended by many of the top people in every aspect of the industry, served as an excellent opportunity to sell the band to the industry. The group was there, discussing their careers and the industry in general with the many guests who attended.

- - - fastest gun in the west

MCA discovered the response to the promotion indicated the tribute was highly successful. Richards notes: "The response we got from our Trooper tribute at the Hotel Toronto in March opened our eyes and really reinforced MCA's interest in Trooper to Canada's music business. The awareness in eastern Canada, especially southern Ontario, has increased 100 percent for Trooper over the past year, and the extra effort really helped."

At the time of the new release, MCA promoted the album and single with what Richards describes as an "unprecedented blitz." The company serviced every account in its computer's memory with a copy of the album, bio and photo of the group. They also mailed out similar material to every radio station in Canada, regardless of size or format. In addition, large quantities of posters, slicks, stickers and mobiles were distributed to the accounts.

The result of the campaign can be evidenced graphically in the early success of the single. Richards points out, "The radio industry's acceptance of Trooper is evident. We're Here For A Good Time is the fastest added single I've seen in several years at MCA."

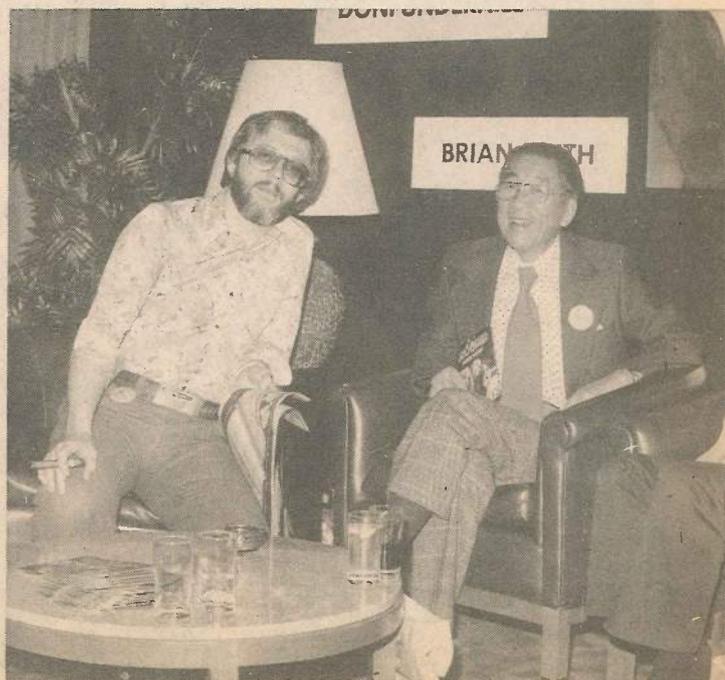

The album and single are also beginning to receive action in the U.S., where they have recently been released. They have been given picks by one U.S. trade, which also featured the band on its front cover. MCA national promotion manager Bob Johnston is very enthusiastic about its possibilities in the U.S. market, and reports, "I would hope to see it a big hit in the U.S. by mid-summer."

Another facet in the group's success is their image. The members are eager to cooperate in the promotional efforts held on their behalf, and they work hard to make their stage presentation and personal appearances exciting and entertaining: "Trooper's overall industry and public image is good. They do their interviews and spend the time on the details we ask them to take care of. Their album graphics are the best in the business and the product looks great sticking out of a rack."

Trooper themselves have been keeping busy with a performance schedule that was highlighted by a June 26 Calgary concert opening for WEA's Alice Cooper in front of 20,000 fans. They are slated for concert dates in July in Saskatoon (14) and a variety of B.C. venues (22, 23, 24). MCA feels those who see them will understand the basic reason for the group's current appeal across Canada: "People love their music. They sound like they've arrived. They're good!"

A portion of MCA's 3 Days In March promotion at the Hotel Toronto where Trooper's album, Two For The Show went gold.

Quality frogman promotes The Deep with Jim Elaine of A&A Records.

Quality director of promotion Joe Owens getting a feel for The Deep.

Quality Records promotes soundtrack for The Deep

Quality Records has joined forces with Columbia Pictures, Odeon Theatres and Bantam Books in a massive cross-Canada promotion of new Casablanca Records and Filmworks movie The Deep, which opened at theatres throughout North America June 17.

The film is being shown throughout Canada at Odeon Theatres. Quality Records, which distributes Casablanca product in Canada, is involved in an intense coast to coast promotion of the soundtrack album, which includes the singing of the Theme From The Deep by Casablanca artist Donna Summer. The score was composed and arranged by John Berry.

Quality, Columbia Pictures, who distribute the film in Canada, Odeon and Bantam are jointly sponsoring a group of giveaways and contests.

Prizes include copies of the book and soundtrack album, admissions to the movie, and expense-paid trips to island locations, including Bermuda, complete with scuba diving lessons.

One of the major promotions, held in Toronto prior to the opening of the film, took place at the Manulife Centre, featuring calypso music by the Winston Hewitt Band and a contest featuring the giveaway of keys to open a treasure chest. Key holders were on hand at the opening of the film at the Odeon Hyland Theatre, where the contestant with the correct key won a trip for two to Bermuda. Similar contests were held in Montreal and London.

Quality's most recent promotion of the soundtrack was in the form of a frogman who toured Toronto delivering the album to key buyers, trade press and radio stations. The frogman also stopped in at a local McDonald's to order a filet of fish lunch, creating a scene of substantial proportions. He looked and sounded vaguely like Quality's own Nick Panaseiko.

Ontario dates for Blindness and Lynx

Quality recording groups Lynx and Sweet Blindness are each looking forward to a joint concert at Toronto's City Hall as a highlight to a series of Ontario dates. The concert is being sponsored by Toronto station CFTR at Nathan Phillips Square July 3.

Lynx recently completed a week-long booking at Toronto's Picadilly Tube (June 13-18), followed by bookings into Toronto's Queensbury Arms (20-25) and Hamilton's Rockpile prior to the concert (27-July 2). Another highlight date is an Ontario Place Forum concert July 7. Quality has just released a new single, Caught In Her Spell, from their debut album Missing Lynx.

Sweet Blindness, also on release with a new single, Sunshine Sunshine from their second Quality album Energize, are slated for the New Shamrock in Toronto June 27-July 2. Following the concert, they are firmed for a one-nighter at the University of Waterloo (7) and a week at the Ascot Inn in Toronto (11-16).

Keith Dancy purchases CJJD

Ted Rogers, President of Rogers Telecommunications Limited, has announced the sale of radio station CJJD Hamilton to Keith J. Dancy. Dancy has most recently filled the position of President of Rogers Radio Broadcasting Limited, and will continue to hold that position until August 31st. Dancy will continue to serve on the Board of Directors of Rogers Radio Broadcasting Limited.

Dancy was once a station manager at CJJD, and while serving as President for Rogers Radio acquired new studios, improved technical facilities, a contemporary format and a reputation for community involvement for the station.

CTI's Washington scores at Ontario Place Forum

RCA Records reports a June 3 Ontario Place Forum concert by CTI artist Grover Washington Jr. was a complete success. Performing in front of 6,000 people, the sax player was accorded an Ontario Place record triple encore.

RCA promotion personnel were on hand to arrange interviews and to welcome the artist to Toronto. RCA distributes the CTI label in Canada, owing to an agreement between the two companies made earlier this year.

Curtola hosts Telethon, named Autistic chairman

RCA recording artist Bobby Curtola recently hosted the annual Autistic Children's Telethon on Toronto's CITY-TV, televised for 22 hours from ten p.m. Saturday June 18 to eight p.m. the 19th. The telethon netted almost 250,000 dollars. Other performers and celebrity guests on the show included Milton Berle, Joseph Campanella, Lloyd Nolan and Bob Newkirk.

Honouring his work with autistic children, Curtola was named Honorary Chairman of the Autistic Children's Association for Canada.

The honour was the second received recently by Curtola in connection with CITY-TV. Last March, he was elected to the Who-Knows? Hall of Fame, as announced on the CITY-televised Who-Knows? Awards. When the award was presented to him, it was predicted that he would be nominated for a most promising male vocalist Juno in 1978. Curtola has been considered one of Canada's top artists for over a decade.

DON'T MISS BIG COUNTRY

Island's Pritchard goes to Ottawa to promote LP

Island recording artist David Pritchard is embarking on a promotional trip to Ottawa and Montreal to promote his Island debut album titled Nocturnal Earthworm Stew. While in Ottawa, Pritchard will be doing an on-air interview with radio station CKCU-FM. Interviews are also slated with CHEZ-FM and Hull's CIMF-FM.

In addition, Pritchard will be making personal appearances at Treble Clef record stores in Ottawa, where he will be playing the album and discussing his production techniques.

The outing marks Pritchard's and Island's first official attempt to break the album into those markets. Accompanying Pritchard will be Stuart Raven-Hill of Finkelstein-Fiedler, Island's Canadian representative.

In addition to his new career as an artist, Pritchard is maintaining his broadcasting career, having recently been named program director at CFNY-FM Brampton, Ontario, a station which is currently in the process of boosting its power.

Charlottetown Festival announces Fest line up

The Charlottetown Festival, held on P.E.I., has announced the lineup for its Festival Of Stars program. As previously reported in RPM, Anne Murray opens the series with two concerts on July 10th, with John Allan Cameron (17), Carroll Baker and Jean Shepard (24), Keath Barrie (31), the New Brubeck Quartet (Aug 7), Glen Yarborough and The Limelites, The Kingston Trio (14), Gary and Dave (21) and Herbie Mann and The Family Of Mann (28).

The Festival Of Stars program runs for eight consecutive sundays amidst the Charlottetown Festival.

Holborne Distributing Byron Lee on Dynamic

Holborne Distributing has recently acquired the rights to distribute the Dynamic label in Canada. The major artist on the label is Byron Lee, who claims to have discovered/created Reggae music. Dynamic will be Holborne's largest label.

As a distributor, Holborne has the bulk of Calypso/Caribbean music distribution for Canada. As rep Ray Johnson remarks, "I wouldn't say we've cornered it, but we have a very big piece of it". The reason for this is that larger companies can't afford the smaller sales and labels which need to be dealt with.

Holborne also distributes the international Fiesta line throughout Canada as well as their Canadian label, Island Series. The firm's head office is in Mount Albert, Ontario with a sales rep in Montreal. They utilize other larger distributors for the Western provinces.

Originally called Caravan Distributors, Holborne has been in business for more than 12 years.

Attic single by Tobias picking up charts

Attic Records reports single Dancer by Attic artist Ken Tobias is showing signs of becoming a hit in Canada. The single has been charted by the entire Moffat chain in western Canada and is starting to spread eastward with adds at CKGM Montreal and CJBK in London, Ontario.

The single is the third released from Tobias' current Attic album Siren Spell, which, added to the four singles released from his Attic debut album Every Bit Of Love, totals seven singles on the label.

Tobias made a recent live television appearance on the Loto Canada show June 19. He is currently preparing material for a third Attic album, slated for recording later in the summer for a fall release.

Steve Propas, John Mawell (Ont. Place) Grover Washington Jr. Maggie Spalding (Ont. Place) and RCA's Linda Dawe.

RCA artist Bobby Curtola receives Who-Knows? Hall Of Fame award and handshake from CITY-TV representative.

Harvest SW-11645-F

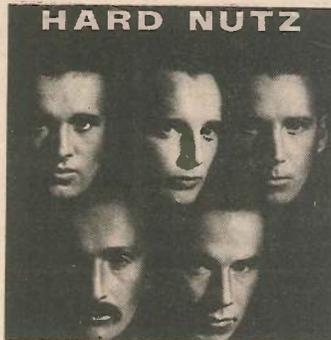

A Canadian West Coast Bob Roper project that had experienced some difficulty with the Rockies' barrier but, like their initial cuts says, "Help is on its way". The Capitol network of promotion people arr now gearing for a national push that could put these talented Aussies into chart prominence. Recorded in Australia and remixed in Los Angeles by John Boylan. Contains their big Australian hits, Everyday Of My Life and Help Is On Its Way, both of which should be considered as singles. There's enough rock for the rockers and certainly enough funk for the progressives and enough pleasantries for the adult-oriented crowd.

HARD NUTZ
A&M SP-4673-W

From England where most of today's innovative rock is created, comes another tightly produced group to enter the North American competition. They say Nutz is "a five-man, pile driving, red-hot English rock band", dishing out "good-time, get-down and get-it-on brand of superdynamic rock". Producers John Sinclair and Gary Lyons probably just miked the group and let the tape roll and, paced by guitarist Mick Devonport, Hard Nutz jammed from cut to cut. In spite of their heavy metal direction, Nutz have mastered the art of communication interpreted by lead vocalist Dave Lloyd.

Knock 'em Dead Kid
MCA 2275-J

One of Gastown's (Vancouver) most progressive recording units, Trooper tees off on Hogtown with an interesting and perceptive, Cold, Cold Toronto, a co-penning by group members Ra McGuire and Doni Underhill. Perceptiveness is perhaps the most important factor Trooper has going for it, in the area of lyrics with McGuire obviously the anchor man when it comes to writing with other members of the group. Another plus factor for Trooper is producer Randy Bachman who fashions the group's innovative approach into a marketable product - a little to the left at times but always coming full circle back to rock respectability. A prime example of the group's innovativeness is the Frank Ludwig's Waitin' On Your Love and in particular the Smith/McGuire writing of Most Of The Country. The latter has enough of the adult-oriented appeal to make that important crossover as well. Produced at Toronto's Phase One.

True North TN-29-H

Regarded as Canada's only urban folksinger, Murray McLauchlan really can't be pigeonholed with this set. He's singing the blues: "He talks about the whiskey, He talks about the smack. Talks about the monkey, But there's nothin' on his back. He hands you a dollar but the ink stays on your hand. There's nothing about anything he'll ever understand. Whiskey to the Indians and dynamite to the Jews. He's the man who sings the blues." It's still the magic of storytelling that makes McLauchlan stand tall in the music business. His Silver Tractors group, Jorn Andersen, Eugene Martynec, Ben Mink and Dennis Pendrith add to the overall professional delivery on what must be his best album release to date and one that McLauchlan and manager Bernie Finkelstein take bows as producers. A vocal assist is given on the Love Comes And Goes and Straight Outta Midnight cuts by fellow True North artist Ronney Abramson and the flute assist to McLauchlan on piano on the Well Well Well cut was supplied by Kathryn Moses. McLauchlan, to date, has been ignored by the U.S. market, but this album has the built-in international sound that can't be sidestepped easily - this time around.

PERCY THRILLINGTON

Thrillington
Capitol ST-11642-F

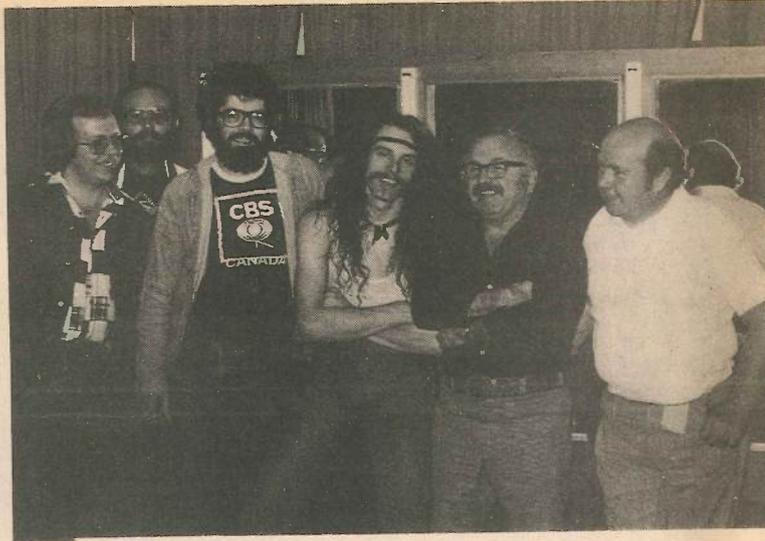

The British may not be commanding the release front with quantity but they've got it quality-wise and Thrills Thrillington has come up with a unique music situation that commands attention. He has taken the themes from Paul McCartney's Ram set (catch the artwork by Jeff Cummins and Hipgnosis) and with his own production wand, emerges with a big band sound that should be highly appealing to the adult-oriented programmer and record buyer. Thrillington is an innovator. He's obviously experimenting with this, his first album, and he could be tantalizing the market. Monkberry Moon Delight and Long Haired Lady are the better examples of Thrillington's music wit.

Ixtlan promoting new Peter Mathieson single

Toronto-based Ixtlan Records is promoting a new debut single by Ixtlan artist Peter Mathieson. The single, a self-penned song titled Yonge Street, was released June 7 and has been added at 25 stations. Ixtlan is excited about the single, which is getting crossover air on Top 40, MOR and country stations.

Mathieson, a Calgary native now based in Toronto, will be assisting in the single's promotion personally. He recently dropped in at CHOW Welland, who went on the single immediately, and will also be promoting it during his personal appearances. Keynote appearances include a July 7 concert at the new Eaton's Centre in Toronto and a showing at the Calgary Folk Festival.

He will also promote the single at the Ixtlan booth at the CRIA Pavilion at the CNE in August and September.

Ixtlan is also launching its first major distribution campaign with the single, supplying product directly to the major chains.

Mathieson is also completing recording on his debut album, to be released on Ixtlan within a few months. Some of the sessions were completed at Sundown Recorders in Edmonton with producer Gaye Delorme of Cheech & Chong and Bruce Miller fame. The remainder are being produced at Hamilton's Grant Avenue Studio by Mathieson and fellow Ixtlan artist Ron Baumber.

Former Canadian jock in Middle East role

Rick Dennis, who formerly worked at CFVR, Abbotsville, is now on a boat in the waters surrounding Tel Aviv broadcasting radio shows at a power of 50 kilowatts. The 490-ton former Dutch coaster broadcasts music and talk 24-hours a day at a non-profit making level.

In a personal letter to RPM, Dennis explained the way in which things are done around the station, VOP, The Voice Of Peace. All announcing is presently being done in English although the norm is Arabic and/or Hebrew. The pay is cheap and shifts are six hours per day for three weeks with one week shore leave.

Surprisingly enough is the distance from which VOP is heard. Not only do the people of Israel, Lebanon, and Syria receive the station, but so do people as far away as Finland.

Many Canadian artists are featured in the small but "electric" library. Included are such artists as Chilliwack, Burton Cummings, Gordon Lightfoot, Anne Murray, Ian And Sylvia, and The Hans Staymer Band.

Dennis reports that anyone wishing to experience such work should send a tape to P.O. Box 4399, Tel Aviv, but to expect to be asked to arrive almost immediately afterwards if you are hired.

BBC film crews have recently spent two months doing features on the ship.

CMA publishes C&W listener info

The Country Music Association (U.S.) has published results of a survey which they commissioned concerning the habits of country and western listeners. Conducted in 26 markets throughout the U.S. in October, 1976, the Association has come up with some interesting finds: C&W listeners spend 79% of their radio listening time on the AM band compared with 50% for the general listening audience; more C&W listeners are in the higher income ($50,000+) than the average radio listener; C&W listeners enjoy outdoor recreation moreso than the average listener; and the C&W listener drinks more beer, soft drinks, and milk than the average listener. These finds and others are available directly from the Association in Nashville.

Attic re-releases Frank single - - for the 5th time

Attic Records is re-releasing single S'Cool Days by Attic artist Stanley Frank. This marks the fifth time the single has been released. The cause of the current release is good reaction to the single in Germany, France and England, where it was recently released on the Power Exchange label.

The single is the first product for the Montreal-based Frank. Plans are currently underway for him to go into the studio to record a debut Attic album.

Mick Fleetwood to manage former Mac

Mick Fleetwood, of Fleetwood Mac, has signed former Mac member Bob Welch to an exclusive management agreement. Fleetwood and Gabriele Arras are in the process of working out future plans for the singer/composer/guitarist.

Welch is signed to Capitol Records and is presently recording a solo album with another Capitol band, Paris. The sessions are being produced by John Carter and the release date will be some time in the fall.

U.S. release, Carson

TV spot for A&M's Raes

Toronto-based Artist Management Associates, a division of Dixon-Propas, reports excellent reaction to new single Que Sera Sera by A&M recording act Cherrill & Robbie Rae. The single, out two weeks, is receiving strong early airplay and chart sales indicative of a major hit. The single is slated for U.S. release on A&M July 1.

AMA reports the duo is being kept very busy throughout the summer. A highlight date is an appearance on the Johnny Carson Show on the NBC network, being slated for late in the summer. The Raes are thoroughly booked throughout the summer in Canada, including the week of June 27 at Toronto's Hook & Ladder and July 17 at the Ontario Place Forum. Extensive tours are being planned for the U.S. in the late summer and throughout the fall to perform and promote the album.

The Toronto-based duo are booked by the Bud Matton agency, which is also based in Toronto.

AMA signs London artist John David Redmond

Artist Management Associates, a division of Toronto-based firm Dixon-Propas, has signed a personal management deal with London recording artist John David Redmond. Redmond's current London single You Satisfy Me, roughly six weeks after release, is receiving solid airplay and chart figures across Canada. His debut single You Can't Stop Me Dancin', released last October, also received excellent airplay.

Robbie Lane of AMA reports the company is building an act around Redmond, to be ready for touring in mid-July, in conjunction with the release of Redmond's next single and debut album. The single is a remake of the Roy Orbison classic Pretty Woman. The album is not yet titled. It is being recorded in Nashville with producer David Kastle of Acuff-Rose, whose credits include Orbison and Ray Stevens.

Redmond is a native of Guelph now residing in Toronto. A veteran of 16 years in the music business, he began as a classical pianist and now plays what Lane describes as "a mixture of rhythm & blues and rock with gospel influence."

Troubador's Raffi selling nationally

Troubador Records artist Raffi's Singable Songs For The Very Young has reached sales of 9,000, according to the label. Distributed by TCD Records on a national basis, as is Raffi's first work, Good Luck Boy, Troubador reports U.S. release is waiting in the wings.

Raffi's itinerary calls for his spending the next two months working on two upcoming albums as well as performances at various folk festivals in Ottawa (July 1-3), Owen Sound (August 19-21), and in Faro, Yukon (September 16-18).

"That's the best interview I've had in more than a year" said Alice Cooper, speaking about his short conversation with CBC's As It Happens' Barbara Frum. "She's salty as hell". Frum was interviewing Cooper regarding the Canadian Immigration's decision to bar Coop's boa, Angel, on the grounds he couldn't supply them with enough parental background material on the exotic beast. Frum questioned Coop about his Canadian tour and the fact he's "brushing his act clean", referring to the giant molars included this tour.

It is open to comments, viewpoints and opinion by our writers and interested parties from the recording and broadcasting industries. So you re-write Broadcast News, use some irrelevant voicer, do a cop and fire check and zap - - - you have a newcast. Right? Unfortunately, that's what has been allowed to happen. Radio news in most, if not all effort to get back on our feet and start running. At the same time, we must re-define news to make it applicable to a society not surprised or shocked by anything anymore.

IN MY OPINION by Jeff Ansell (CFTR)

markets (including the biggies) is little more than a PR vehicle for politicians and the like.

Let's be more discriminat. Let's start thinking about the content of our news. If we continue the way we're going, we have no business wondering why our potential listeners aren't tuning in.

A recent Roper survey in the U.S. (certainly applicable in Canada) best reflects our stagnating state. The survey indicated more people read magazines for news, than listen to the radio. As a radio newsman I'm distressed by this study because there's no excuse. We've allowed radio news to become a second hand medium, taking a back seat to TV, magazines and newspapers. It's obvious we can't compete with these mediums on every level, however we can re-define our strong points and make every News used to be the unusual, but today what is so unusual about the crimes and the murders we're hearing about. Do people REALLY want radio newscasts to be filled with those items? Do they really care about things which don't touch their lives at all?

Now this is not to say radio news has neglected meaning. The opposite is true, but the fact is we have to concentrate more on our audiences needs.

Let's fill our newscasts with energy.

What better way to capture an audiences interest than to lead with a story about a 49 year old Philadelphia woman who regains her eyesight after being blind for 25 years. That's news. If you can have tape of that woman - - - better yet. A newspaper account of this same story can't capture the voice of this woman as she emotionally tells you her experience. A radio strong point.

Perhaps, radio should offer more of a news alternative. There's really nothing wrong with that because something has to be done to get the people back.

Folk fests keep summer hummin'

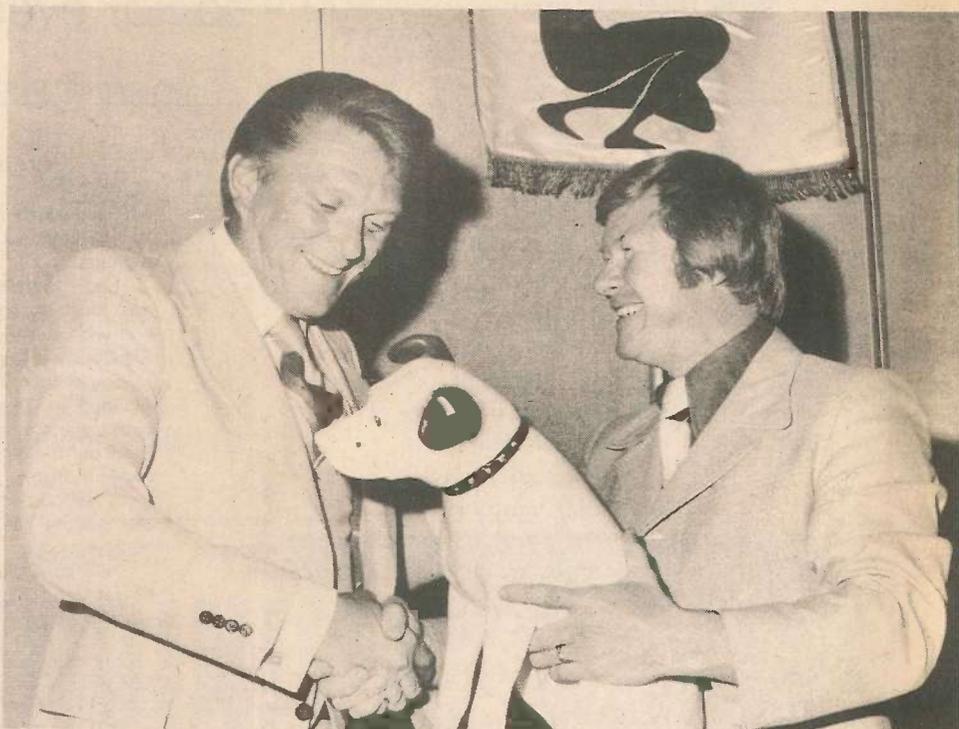

The Summer season of the folk festivals across Canada is upon us. Proceedings got underway last weekend (6/24) with the Mariposa crowds flocking to Toronto's Centre Island. Two more big shows were scheduled for the July 1st holiday weekend. They were the Festival For The Folks in Ottawa, and a newcomer this year, Summerfest staged at Cayuga Speedway near Hamilton. One of the biggest of these annual bashes for the folkies is the ninety-performer-strong Winnipeg Folk Festival scheduled for Birds Hill Park in the Manitoba capitol on the second weekend in July. Following that session the performers and fans will be flocking to Sudbury, Owen Sound and Hamilton for weekend-long sessions of music, workshops, craft displays and outdoor entertainment of the highest order.

With his new record, Turning Thirty, coming in for heavy airplay in several key markets, Ian Tyson played a week at Toronto's Horseshoe (6/27). Before he even walked out on stage at the Shoe, Ol' Eon gave folks a preview of his act, and his great new band, Second Hand Rose, on Opry North. The band sure is together as they also backed Keith Hitchner, and received heavy applause for their licks on his behalf. Hitchner has a super hit song himself, Lonestar And Coors, which he did on his Opry North stint together with a number or two more that really seemed to impress the full house at Minkler. He's very cool on stage, this big fella from Alberta, and I, for one, believe he has everything he needs to become one of the brightest stars in our kind of music in Canada.

James Talley is headed for the Horseshoe. The rising young Capitol star will appear there week of July 18th. He too will kick off his week in Toronto with a guest spot on Opry North. Talley is set for the July 17th Opry show.

By the way Opry North is now not only coast to coast in Canada but has accomplished it's first international market penetration with the conclusion of a deal to put the show on WXRL, Buffalo/Lancaster, New York. That station has a special feeling for Canadian country music thanks to it's owner, "Ramblin' Lou" Schriver.

Ryan's Fancy stars of their own CBC network TV series, will be on stage again this year at the Winnipeg Folk Festival. Dermot O'Reilly of the Ryan's group recently realized a life-long ambition to visit his idol's home. Dermot has been a fan of Buddy Holly's since he was only a tad over in Ireland. At the personal invitation of Buddy's parents, Dermot recently visited with them at their Lubbock, Texas homestead.

The First Annual Dick Damron Country Music Festival, Clambake and Three Legged Race, like to make y'all forget about Willie's Texas Picnics has some kind of a talent lineup. The July 31st one-day, outdoor show at the Medicine Lodge Ski Hill, ten miles west of beautiful, downtown Bentley, Alberta, will present a host of top name entertainers. There'll be Dick himself, plus R. Harlan Smith, Chris Nielson, Hank Smith, Keith Hitchner, Gustafson, James Lee Hitchner and no less than three bands.

And how about that young fella from Orillia, Rudy Meeks who took first prize this year at the CMA's Grand Masters

There's a track on Denis LePage's new Boot album that just flipped me out altogether. It's bluegrass rendition of - are you ready - Santa Claus Is Comin' To Town. Jury Krytiuk says that it will be released as a single for sure when the new crop of Christmas tunes start to hit the nation's turntables.

That Dallas Harms never seems to stop. Like they say, those hits just keep on comin'. His effort on behalf of Orval Prophet, Leroy Can't Go Home, is a confirmed hit on several key, country stations including CFGM and CKLW-FM. Meanwhile, Gene Watson does all kinds of business with The Old Man And The Horn, his second hit by Harms, and there's a third warming up in the bullpen, as it were, for Gene and Dallas, Cowboys Don't Get Lucky All The Time, could be a third Harms-penned release in a row by Watson. If Capitol, in their wisdom, decide in favour of another story-type, ballad, Dallas has a beaut already recorded by himself in Nashville, but I believe he could be persuaded to turn it over to Gene Watson, all things considered. This newest Harms, story-song is called The Master Of The Classical Guitar. Big D will soon have to give up the car-selling business altogether and work on those super hit tunes full time. Can you imagine some of the results he'll get when he has only songwriting to occupy all of his time? Dallas will join Mike Graham and Blake Emmons to headline the Opry North Road Show as it begins its concert tour right after Big Country in Ottawa.

A timely entry on a brand new label this week that seems to me as if it will have general Maritime appeal, but particularly in the Newfoundland market. The VOXM hit maker, John Reynolds, has already been alerted to a new tune by an artist billing himself as The Musical Mummer, Ode To The William Carson. The recent, so-far unexplained sinking of the C.N. Ferry off the coast of Labrador is still very much in the news, and the tune will benefit from the continuing headlines. Not that it really needs headlines to make it a hit. It's a lively tune, with some of the top pickers in the country featured on the session. Flip side of the new White Coat label release is another item with down-east impact, Norma And Gladys Sail On. The Musical Mummer, is in reality Reg Watkins. He wrote the tunes, produced the sessions, was featured vocally and instrumentally on the two takes, published the two songs, originated the label, and intends to handle the distribution all by his lonesome. And he did all of the aforementioned while performing regularly at the Newfoundland Pavilion during Toronto's recently completed Caravan. By the way Reg sold a couple of hundred of the first records to come off the press at that Newfoundland Caravan pavilion.

The new album by Par Three features their soon-to-be-released single, Seven Times Last Week. The tune, written by Ray Griff, is an uptempo outing that could very well put these guys back on the country's play-lists. They introduced their new member, Jimmy Stedman, as they appeared on Opry North (6/26). He really fits right in with the act. He's a fine singer and gets his share of the solo spots, and newcomer though he may be, the ladies have taken to him in a big way. He was mobbed at the autograph session that follows all performances at Minkler Auditorium, home of Opry North. The group looks and sounds as good as it ever did.
