SAM HARRIS MAKES IMPRESSIVE DEBUT

"I think I've always had a sense that I was meant to be different. At least from the time I was three. That's when I started listening to Judy Garland. By the time I was six, I had a whole repertory of dramatic songs and torch ballads that I used to sing around the house." The speaker is Sam Harris - the Motown recording artist currently on release with his self-titled debut LP. Sugar Don't Bite, the first single, is experiencing action on North American pop and dance charts and is making impressive gains up the RPM A/C survey.

Harris' career success to date is the result in part of his appearances on the American Star Search TVer. While performing in a Santa Monica, California club, Harris was approached by a talent scout for the nationally telecast program, and subsequently auditioned for a berth in the male vocalist competition.

The show's producers turned him down - thinking his 'show' material and emotional presentation unsuitable - but the program's personnel lobbied on his behalf until the decision was eventually reversed.

Harris went on to win the competition for 13 weeks running, and ultimately won the Star Search finals - an accomplishment that won him $100,000.

Based on the Star Search performances and concert appearances, recording contracts were offered to Harris by six different record labels. He decided to sign with Motown - the legendary home for artists such as The Supremes and Smokey Robinson, distributed in Canada by Quality Records.

The motivation behind this decision is one revelation by the young native of Sand Springs, Oklahoma, as he relaxes at lunch with this writer. The current promotional tour will take him to Montreal, and then back into the U.S. to resume concert dates.

"The other companies wanted me to do this, or act like that," Harris explains over a cup of hot water laced with honey. "I didn't want to be a puppet. Motown understood what I needed to be. They didn't have any trouble releasing a record with several different styles on it. As far as they were concerned, it wasn't as if the idea hadn't been thought of before, it was simply that they had never encountered someone inclined to do different types of songs."

Were his parents understanding of a youngster who liked to sing torch ballads? "My parents were very, very good about my singing," Harris responds, continuing with "they were always encouraging me. It's been difficult for them to understand a lot of what has happened to me since, but I think that they've come around."

Quitting school at 15, Harris later completed his degree by correspondence. Moving to Los Angeles in 1979, he enrolled at UCLA. In 1981, he came out on top at the school's Frank Sinatra Pop Vocal Competition, and co-produced a musical entitled Hurry, Hurry Hollywood.

On leaving college, Harris met Jerry Blatt, a director and writer for Bette Midler. He cites Blatt as being the greatest influence on his career to date.

"Jerry helped me to understand what being myself was all about," Harris explains, continuing with "he made me realize that in the long run, what I wanted to be was what counted. He's had the biggest influence on me, without a doubt."

A Patti LaBelle arrangement of the Arlen/Harburg composition Over The Rainbow - a song popularized by the late Judy Garland - has become something of a signature tune for Harris - indicative of his love for Garland's singing, as well as the music of other female vocalists such as Billie Holiday and Aretha Franklin.

The Sam Harris album was produced by Steve Barri and Tony Peluso, and recorded at various studios in California. The album has gone gold in the U.S., with Canadian sales exceeding 10,000 units at press time. Hearts On Fire is slated as the second single from the album.

The 1984 Juno Awards, held in the Automotive Building of Toronto's Exhibition Park (Dec. 5) was a glitzy affair that turned out to be good television but a poor setting for an audience. One observer noted: "The audience is merely a prop and they weren't given much for their money."

Bryan Adams, predictably, made a sweep of the awards: Male Vocalist, Album, Producer, and Composer, the latter he shared with Jim Vallance. The complete list of winners are as follows:

New Atlantic LP for Alan Thicke

Canadian producer, writer and recording artist Alan Thicke, perhaps best known as host of the late Thicke Of The Night, expects to release an album on Atlantic in the new year.

David Foster will co-produce the album, tentatively titled End Run, along with Jay Graydon and Alan Pasquel.

Thicke's first single did reasonably well and as a result Atlantic has offered him an LP.

"I've been in a period of upheaval and challenge with a divorce and a show cancellation," Thicke admitted. "But it's opened up some marvellous opportunities. However, I still have to focus things."

Thicke is also involved in another project involved a major movie. "It's a feature film development," he explains, "to make a film with a rock soundtrack. We're calling it Rockshot and it's similar to a musical version of Rocky or Prince. It's semi-autobiographical, about a guy in his '30s and I would play the lead."

Rockshot is also the name Thicke tagged his band, which he hopes can tour once the first album is released.

Expected to guest on the Thicke LP will be Stephen Bishop, Graham Shaw, Bill Champlin, keyboardist Foster, and possibly Frank Zappa.

The Canadian Academy Of Arts & Sciences (CARAS) created a new award this year, The Walt Grealis Special Achievement Award, which will recognize those who have contributed significantly to the music industry. The first recipient of this award was Lymon Potts, who has had a distinguished career in the radio/record business, and who was instrumental in creating a radio market for Canadian talent.

Chaka Khan boosted with Prince penning

Chaka Khan, who played for several years with Rufus before launching her solo career in the late '70s, has burst into the limelight with her Warner Bros single, I Feel For You, now in the Top 20 of the RPM 100 singles chart. The single is also the title of her current album.

After many years as a band member and solo artist, Chaka Khan's current chart gains represents her most successful efforts to date. WEA attributes the sudden rise in popularity to Prince, who they report as "seeming to have the Midas touch these days", with his own career and those of Sheila E. The Time, Apollonia 6, and now Chaka Khan, whose real name is Yvette Marie Stevens.

With production by Arif Mardin, Khan gets assistance on I Feel For You from the harmonica work of Stevie Wonder and Grandmaster Melle Mel.

Industry tribute to Shirley Harrison

A packed Leaside Room of Toronto's Inn On The Park (Nov. 26), was the setting for a music industry tribute to Shirley Harrison. Shirley is celebrating her 25th year with Eaton's (Toronto) where she is Assistant Buyer.

The evening revealed many surprises

A Bud Farquarson buss to Shirley Harrison after presentation of industry tribute.

for Shirley, probably the most important being the gathering of many of the original sales and promo reps, several of whom started in the business the same time as Shirley. These included Joe Pariselli, Eddie Colero, Charlie Camilleri, Bill Kearns, Jack Robertson, Maurice Zurba, Bud Far-quarson, Clyde McGregor, Gord Edwards, Kenny MacGregor, Joe Fox, Stan Klees, and Art Pappone, to name just a few. There was also a large group of fellow workers and admirers from Eaton's.

A few of the original promo and sales reps who called on Shirley in the early days.

Pindoff's Bud Farquarson, who hosted the evening, made a presentation of a trip to the East Indies for Shirley and her husband Fred. The trip was a presentation made on behalf of the record/video and record services.

L.A. & Toronto firms pact publishing deal

A publishing agreement between Modern Art Music of Los Angeles and Mister Chris Music of Toronto was recently inked. The agreement covers all of the material on Australia's Wicketty Wak's first album, New Horizons. The first single from the LP is due shortly.

WASH SAYS

Well shut my mouth!!!

My remarks about a dailies cub reporter in last week's RPM were considered rude, crude, vulgar, childish and, uncalled for by his friends, who, by the way, are rude, crude, vulgar, childish, and uncalled for.

Where's the translator???

I heard Red Rider were upset over the improper use of their name the other night (EC: and I hear that Red River were upset that they didn't win the award!!).

History repeats itself!!

Loud talking and rude behaviour during last year's Junos were considered scandalous and there was a great move to reorganize and change the Junos so it would never happen again. This time the TV audience was spared, as the same obnoxious behaviour cast a shadow on the Academy's attempt to honour one of the pioneers of the industry. I would like to suggest that the pre-show awards at the Junos be presented at the Variety Club's Salute to the Junos Luncheon, the day before the Junos, and only be announced during the telecast. The Variety Club attendees seem a little more . . . civilized.

Numb! Numb! Numb!

How would you like to pay $150 to sit for two hours in a broken stacking chair at the Junos . . . or anywhere else for that matter? It nearly happened to one of the paying customers, but instead it happened to one of the creators of the Junos. Mr. Class became Mr. Soreass!

MIDEM not far off!!

They tell me that if you book your flight to Cannes for MIDEM before the end of the year, you will be able to fly return for just over $800. If you wait until the New Year, expect to pay twice that. In this business, the airlines will be the winners. Most of the bookings will be last minute. It's called "Flying by the seat of your pants".

Over "herd" at the Junos!!

"Every year it's becoming a better and better television variety show." But at what cost to the industry? "The Academy would like to build to 3000 people over the years to come". Bigger is better . . . I guess. "The whole thing seems to cater toward the television cameras and ignores the audience". Mistreats the audience would be a better word. It seems like the audience is a prop that misbehaves and gets moved, insulted and stepped on. What happened to the original idea of the Junos? The whole thing is too long".

I didn't believe it!!!

Did someone in the Juno audience boo when Anne Murray won her 25th Juno

Award, this one for Country Female Vocalist? Tell me that no one was that rude. Good thing he wasn't sitting near me, or he would have been sitting outside in the snow . . . and wasn't the production staff anxious to indicate that no one was there to receive the award? CBC would never have put up with that. They probably like getting Anne's specials, which really bring in those very important ratings. I was just a little disappointed guys . . . it lacked professionalism.

Prince debut of 1978 released in Canada

Prince's debut of 1978, For You, has now been released in Canada. Most of the tracks on the LP, which was released in the U.S. in 1978, were produced, arranged, and written by Prince.

"There was no interest in Prince here at that time," explains Warner Brothers Product Manager Bill Johnston. "Prince was just another artist. The album didn't exactly set the world on fire in the U.S. either, although it did do okay in the black markets. Radio didn't get into Prince here until the third or fourth LP. He became a phenomenon starting with Little Red Corvette. We have a pretty good idea what programmers want."

Johnston explained that the early Prince LP has been issued basically to fill a hole in the star's discography. "Logically, it should be available," adds Johnston.

Prince's Purple Rain LP, has just surpassed the six times platinum mark. The title track single has also attained gold and he sold out two Toronto dates, his only Canadian performances.

I Would Die 4 U, has been taken as the second single from his album, with Another Lonely Christmas, a non-album track on the flip. WEA anticipates airplay for both sides, in view of the Christmas period approaching.

"... the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

Staples produces new radio ID package

Curtis Staples, Producer/Creative Director at Vancouver's Pinewood Recording Studios, reports completion of a radio station I.D. package he has been producing at Pinewood.

"Before joining Pinewood, I spent about 8 years with the CHUM organization," Staples explains. "I often wondered why Canadians didn't seem able to produce a jingle package for stations that came close to product being generated by companies in Dallas. One of my projects has been to try and change that situation."

Staples continues: "The result is our first package, Segue, using Vancouver's top session players and singers. Segue's level of quality is being praised by those programmers who have heard it. It seems we may have hit a hot spot with them."

A 're-sing' on Segue - the station can specify the vocal style they desire - is available for about 40% less than a U.S. package, and there is no exchange rate with which to deal. A custom package, produced from scratch to meet all the station's criteria, would run about 50% of the U.S. counterpart. Staples is currently in the planning stages of such a production.

ALBUMS

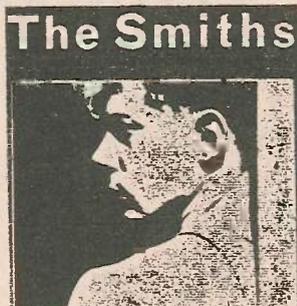

FOREIGNER - Rock
Agent Provocateur
 Atlantic - 78-19991-P

This is Foreigner's first studio LP in over three years, and the wait appears not to have been in vain. A pared-down lineup and some simple but hard-hitting songs demonstrate guitarist/principal writer Mick Jones' intelligence in keeping the band's sound current. Great material here: I Want To Know What Love Is (pre-released as the first single), the brooding anger of Tooth And Nail, and the AC/DC-esque Reaction To Action. Overall, a strong return to the market from a band responsible for many of rock's better moments. Produced by Mick Jones and Alex Sadkin. Recorded in New York City at The Hit Factory and Right Track Studios. Libretto included.

PREFAB SPROUT - Pop
Swoon - Epic - FE-39872-H
 Debut LP for a critics' favourite. Key are Couldn't Bear To Be Special, and Elegance. Produced by David Brewis and Prefab Sprout. Libretto included.

THE SMITHS - Pop
Hatful Of Hollow - Sire - 25-16421-P
 Compilation of previously released material as well as B-sides and BBC Radio sessions. All tracks are key. Various production credits. Libretto included.

TEENA MARIE - Pop
Starchild - Epic - FE-39528-H
 Dance vibes following up the success of the Robbery LP. Key is Lovergirl, pre-released as a 7" and 12". Produced by Teena Marie.

PAUL ZAZA & HIS ORCHESTRA - Orchestral
Images - Parasol - PSL-8002
 Composer/conductor Zaza renders 12 tracks, 7 of them his own. Produced by John Parry and Zaza. Key are Summer Evening and Lake Louise.

Kick Axe's Criston gets it in the end

Kick Axe lead singer George Criston experienced the true meaning of a "pain in the butt", when on Nov. 23, in front of a standing room only crowd at Tony's East (Toronto), he sat down on the drum riser and a large glass of water. The glass shattered, ripping a large gash in Criston's thigh. He was able to finish the song and exited the stage with blood pouring from the wound.

He was rushed to the hospital where he underwent plastic surgery. The crowd, obviously waiting for an explanation, was promised that Kick Axe would return to Tony's on Monday night (Nov. 26) for a free show. It should be mentioned that the Kick Axe set was being taped for a live broadcast.

Meanwhile, Apple Viper, the opening act, and the remaining members of Kick Axe, finished the evening, "Jamming Kick Axe tunes and old favorite cover songs," reports Peter Budge of CBS, "that seemed to keep the fans on the feet and satisfied."

Budge caps his report with "George (Criston) was last seen standing on the tour bus Saturday, on the way to his next gig in the U.S. By returning for the free show, George proves he can turn the other cheek and the show must go on."

ONSTAGE

JAMES COTTON
Brunswick House - Toronto - Nov. 26/84
 After 40 years of playing the blues, Cotton has more than likely seen it all - but the adulation evident here for the man's stylish mix of blues, boogie, and funky rock 'n roll still managed to elicit a bemused smile from his face on more than one occasion. Propelled by a 3-piece horn section, Cotton's band opened both sets, providing solid backing for his driving harp riffs and pained vocals. The current series of Canadian dates supports a recent Alligator release, High Compression, distributed in Canada by WEA Music. - KCW

IRON MAIDEN
Maple Leaf Gardens - Toronto - Dec. 2/84
 Iron Maiden is, without a doubt, a class heavy metal act, a handle that doesn't fit too comfortably with most acts flying this banner, and certainly not the opening act. Capitol's Iron Maiden are currently happening with their Powerslave album, which was obviously familiar to the packed house, as they sampled the crowd with tracks from this as well as their older material, the latter being the most popular. The backdrop (staging) was effective, particularly their lighting system, not to mention the sound system - one of the better ear assaults heard at the Gardens. The strutting of Maiden's lead vocalist Bruce Dickinson and the searing guitar work of Dave Murray set the pace for a heavy metal extravaganza that left no doubt that Iron Maiden were still the best in the field, actually the first to bring meaning to this music form. Their energies weren't contrived - they were real - and respectful of the audience. Opening act, Twisted Sister, was another story all together. Lead singer Dee Snyder seemed uncomfortable as an opening act and set out to goad the audience with his grotty patter that fired up a portion of the audience, who were obviously into the band's music, particularly We're Not Gonna Take It, and other material from their Atlantic Stay Hungry LP. - Sean LaRose

Paget Sound release for Baker

Ginger Baker makes a solo pitch for the charts with his first original release, A Thousand Words, described as "the story of a man's love for his woman and home." The single was produced by Ron Nigrini and Brian Good at Rich Dodson's Marigold Studios, which tallies up to three good reasons to give this single a listen to. Instrumental background was supplied by Brian (acoustic guitar), Larry Good (banjo), Bruce Good (dobro, auto harp), Ron Dann (pedal steel), Mike Love (bass), Peter Davidson (drums), and Ron Nigrini (acoustic guitar, and harmony vocals, plus yodel). The single is released on the Bolton, Ontario-based Paget Sound label.

A challenge from CJXX

In response to television images of the horror of starvation in Ethiopia, CJXX organized and broadcast a 29-hour radio-thon. The amazing aspect of the broadcast was that it was organized in four days.

The first concern was to locate the broadcast somewhere away from the radio station, to give the event a high profile and an aura of an event removed from regular radio fare. This criterion was quickly met by the donation of an empty store in Grande Prairie's Towne Centre Mall. Next, to lend an air of credibility, Mayor Oscar Blais was contacted, and he readily agreed to launch the broadcast with a city endorsement speech. Everything else, broadcast loop, 11 phones, staff from the Volunteer Services Bureau, just fell into place, since everyone contacted wanted to do something tangible to help.

The broadcast ran from 1 pm Friday (Nov. 16) until 6 pm, Saturday (17). In that time CJXX solicited pledges totalling $36,000. The International Red Cross was chosen as a suitable agency for distribution of funds and their conversion into food and medicine.

CJXX challenges all other Canadian radio stations to toss their formats aside and gather their communities together to help Ethiopians.

Program Director,
CJXX Radio,
Grande Prairie, Alberta.

ACME rolling in money???

Walt Says, RPM October 20th, 1984 in part, "Country artists are heaving a sigh of relief knowing that now that ACME is rolling in money they won't have to do anymore of those benefit concerts for the Academy." It's a shame that such rumours should be spread. The country artists may believe this and thus put their guards down. Some B.C. country promoters felt the need to bring the annual country music week to Vancouver during the 1986 World's Fair.

The requests to ACME in regards to this event to be staged in Vancouver, produced documents containing unbelievable demands on the local country music community. A hefty deposit is to be made to the account of ACME as an advance against the Academy's share of the net profits. ACME's share of the profits is to be 75% of the net profits, the remaining 25% net profit to be returned by (not to) the host committee. To ACME? This 25% must serve as a start-up fund for a future convention in the "host city of origin." If a convention is not held within five years, the 25% plus interest "will revert to the Academy."

It further complicates matters by advising that the host committee should be composed of non-paid volunteers from the media, radio, TV, CBC and/or CTV, agencies, record companies, artists, and the list goes on.

The entire affair is to be under the auspices of ACME, and ACME holding the final word on all.

When these documents were presented to the interested promoters, a hearty laugh was heard, and an instant rejection followed. The whole matter was settled in less than five minutes from the time of presentation. The Academy's creed is to foster and promote Canadian Country Music the world over. A world's fair with an expected 15 million spectators is cast aside. Again, the industry, performers and record companies suffer alike . . . suffer at their own elected hands. When will the Academy acknowledge the importance of worldwide promotion? Or is it money in the bank for ACME that represents a healthy industry?

The Academy is a national body representing our music, while operating against its own creed. Get on it Country Music Canada . . . it's your business.

Ken left the tape with Brad Donnelly at CFQM-FM and Ken has been advised that the single has been on 'QM's chart for 12 weeks and has moved up to No. 21 and it looks like it's going to go higher. New Foreigner LP gets WEA boost WEA Music Canada have shipped the first Foreigner album in over three years. The LP, titled Agent Provocateur, was produced by Alex Sadkin of Island Records, who has become well-known for his work with Duran Duran.

The album, which entered the RPM 100 this week, was preceded by I Wanna Know What Love Is, the first single from the album, and now showing as a national breakout on the RPM 100 singles chart. WEA reports the new single is similar in style to the band's hit of Waiting For A Girl Like You.
WEA has issued four studio albums and one Greatest Hits package over the years from Foreigner. All five have surpassed the double platinum mark in Canada and all five were released on the Atlantic label.

The winner was the 6-member East End Breakers crew.

Mel Cooper again heads AIMS
C-FAX President Mel Cooper has been re-elected to another term as Chairman of the Association of Independent Metropolitan Stations (AIMS). He is the lone Canadian member of the international radio group, which is a program, promotion, sales and management idea exchange. AIMS was formed in the late '40s by a group of leading U.S. broadcasters "who saw the emergence of the new medium television as a potential danger". The group has been meeting three times a year and exchanging thoughts and ideas via newsletters ever since.

Sheila Kay, National Publicity & Video for Quality Records has been experiencing a very fast-paced November/December, as she explains below.

In case you hadn't heard, Can't Slow Down, is now diamond in Canada, the 12th album to do so, and Lionel is still hot - the fifth single, Penny Lover is now racing up the charts, with the video in hot rotation on MuchMusic. On other fronts, Lionel has songwriting and producing credits on Diana Ross' new single, and also assisted Commodore-mate Thomas McCleary with his solo debut LP, Thin Walls. Lionel is currently fulfilling his sponsorship commitments to Pepsi-Cola, and plans to head back into the studio after Christmas.

Vanity is off and running with Mechanical Emotion, the second single from her solo debut LP Wild Animal. Vanity (a.k.a. Denise Mathews) was in Toronto and Montreal recently promoting the album, and even managed a day off to go see her folks in St. Catharines.

Stevie Wonder's single, I Just Called To Say I Love You is now Quality's all-time best selling single, with sales just shy of 300,000. The new single is available in 7" picture sleeve and a double-A 12" with picture sleeve (f/s The More You Live remix). A stand-in was found on very short notice, and Paul hopes to rejoin the band in Japan.

Star Search winner Sam Harris was in Vancouver, Toronto, and Montreal recently, promoting his debut album on Motown, and wanted to set the record straight. He did not "win" his Motown contract from Star Search. The contracts were signed before Sam entered the finals of the nationally-televised Talent Search. The second single from the self-titled debut is Hearts On Fire, and will be available soon. Sam has put together a dynamite stage show, which he intends on taking to the road in the
