PARACHUTE CLUB DISPLAYS MATURITY

The Parachute Club are currently on release with their second Current/RCA LP, At The Feet Of The Moon. Produced in Toronto at Sounds Interchange by Michael Beinhorn, the LP has cracked the RPM Top 30 after only 8 weeks of charting. The title track - taken as the first single - is rising rapidly into the RPM Top 30. RPM spoke with Club members Laurie Conger, Lorraine Segato, and Billy Bryans, shortly after the LP was released.

Bryans, a drummer and producer, and Segato, a vocalist, met in Toronto in 1979. Bryans had played with local acts such as The Government and Time Twins, and had produced sessions for Downchild, Cameo Blues Band, and The Bopcats (now Rock Angels). He also produced an EP for Mama Quilla II, a Toronto band in which Segato was lead vocalist. Parachute Club first played together at a film festival, with the band's name decided on in half an hour. Signed worldwide to RCA through Current Records, the band's self-titled debut LP included the exuberant and subtly political Rise Up. The song - taken as the first single from the LP - became a Top 10 record in late 1983.

How long did the new record take to complete? "I guess it took us maybe 9 or 10 weeks over the course of 2 or 3 months," Bryans remembers, "because we were in and out. At one point we went to Europe on a promotional tour . . . at another point we went off to Dawson City to do a gig."

Did your approach to this LP differ drastically from the first one? "One of the major differences was that we were more unified as a band," says Bryans, continuing with "we put the first album together as the band went on. Dave Gray, our guitar player, was brought in on the original sessions as an extra guitar player. This year, we had the luxury of touring . . . and getting to know each other. You'll hear a far more unified vocal sound because Laurie, Lorraine, and Julie have had the opportunity to sing more together."

How important is U.S. success for the band? "Artistically, Europe presents more of an interest than the United States," explains Bryans, continuing with "but I think though - if I can be so bold - that America could use a taste of what we do. It represents a challenge in a way."

At The Feet Of The Moon, while demonstrating Parachute Club's maturity and development as a band, also brings home the prevalence of African and other similar rhythms in much of current popular music. The title track brims with a propulsive funk base common to many of the LP's tracks. Swirling harmony vocals add depth to what are surprisingly simple melodic structures. Sexual Intelligence and Act Of An Innocent display the percussive kick-snap and full bottom end that lend the set not only to the listener's ears, but to the club crowd's feet as well. This is very danceable music, yet intended to stimulate the heart and soul as well. Although the band's unrepentant espousal of egalitarian ideals can wear occasionally, there is an overall sense of decency and commitment here that is rare among even the most socially conscious of us.

"Essentially the new record has incredible momentum at retail nationally," says Jim Campbell of RCA. "Sales are very steady at this point. We have a strong national pattern with the LP, whereas with the first record, there was more of a regional response. At The Feet Of The Moon Goes out to the U.S. Feb. 1st. and our meetings with the U.S. people have resulted in a real commitment on their behalf. As for the Junos . . . they can only help, especially with the sales on the first record."

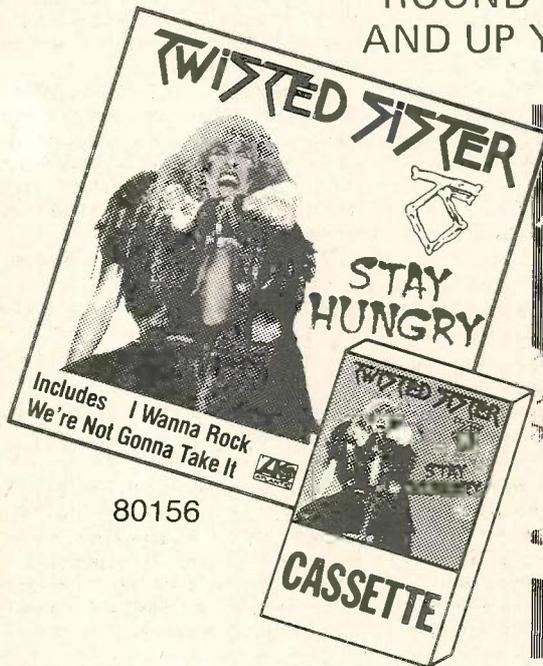

Lorraine Segato's response to a question regarding the importance of touring for the band. "It's alternately totally and utterly exhausting," she confides, "and feels endless . . . and also really inspiring: I think that live is where you really see the band happening; that kind of contact you never want to lose . . . and we see ourselves as essentially a live performance band."

A positive endorsement of The Parachute Club's impact on the industry came this month at the Juno Awards. The band walked away with 2 key awards - Most Promising Group and Single. - KCW

Hefty initial demand for Band Aid single

Initial Canadian demands for the Band Aid single, Do They Know It's Christmas, has now topped 50,000. CBS, who will be distributing the release in Canada, have a "rush release" situation for the record, which is now the fastest-selling single in the history of British pop.

The single was written by Bob Geldof of the Boomtown Rats, who also organized the project to aid the famine victims in Ethiopia. Geldof was apparently moved by the shocking television coverage of the plight of these people and assembled 37 musicians representing some of the hottest acts in the music business. The one-day supergroup was tagged Band Aid.

Included in the group are Duran Duran, who came in from West Germany, Boy George, who flew in from New York, Jon Moss of Culture Club, Bono of U2, WHAM, Bananarama, Police's Sting, Phil Collins, and Nick Rhodes to name a few.

"It's difficult to know how much to send to Ethiopia when you're a millionaire,"

Mackowycz pilots Q's 6 O'Clock Report

Bob Mackowycz is the host - with John Derringer - of CILQ-FM's The 6 O'Clock Rock Report. The program is one hour of foreground programming which has evolved from a 3-minute concert review segment that Mackowycz hosted in 1977 at the station, known in Toronto as Q-107. "The show is essentially in a 'magazine-type' format," says Mackowycz.

Bob Mackowycz

"People want their information in shorter chunks, so I've tried to quicken the pace of the program as it's developed. The idea is to delight and educate."

A perceptive and articulate spokesman for himself, his program, and by extension Q-107, Mackowycz was a lecturer in English Lit. at the University of Toronto when he signed on with Q-107 in 1977.

"I like the show to be outrageous, certainly, but you have to keep an eye on the boundaries of good taste," says Mackowycz.

The program's format includes such diverse elements as Believe It Or Rock, an "off-the-wall" feature comprised of surprisingly strong comedic writing, Hot Trax, "the best new records of the week", and Psychedelic Supper, "the creation of a mood incorporating old TV themes and news actualities interspersed with music from the era".

The only syndicated feature is Off The Record, which originates in Los Angeles.

"The key to radio is the 'lifestyle tie-in,'" Mackowycz concludes. "There is truly a rock and roll ethos - it's more than just an ethical framework. Radio truly takes a stand for peoples' lifestyle. It becomes a cultural reference point."

says Sting. "This is going to raise enough money to mean something, but it's a statement as well. We're hoping for a No. 1 record for Christmas." The single has already sold more than 600,000 copies in the U.K. alone.

The single will be released in Canada in both 7" and 12" formats and will be housed in four-colour custom sleeves. The 7" single will carry a suggested list of $2.49. A video is expected to follow.

The flip contains messages from several name artists who were unable to attend the session including David Bowie and Paul McCartney.

AIRA executive includes Calgarians

The board of the Alberta Recording Industry Association (ARIA) elected two members from the city of Calgary - Rhoda Taylor and Rose Collins - at their recent general meeting and election.

Elected as new executives by the directors were Maurice Fritze (President), Rhoda Taylor (First Vice President), Steve Graupe (Second Vice President), Larry Wanagas (Secretary), and Craig Elder (Treasurer).

The ARIA is beginning its second year of operation as a non-profit organization formed to "help build and promote the music industry in Alberta." A newsletter has been mailed, launching a province-wide membership drive. Other activities include the second annual David Foster Songwriting Contest.

Every fourth meeting of the ARIA's Board of Directors will be held in Calgary, with a mid-year meeting also held in Calgary to facilitate updating the membership on current activities. The latter will be a general meeting.

CBS gold designations for Gould and Boyd

In a ceremony immediately following the recent Juno Awards (Dec. 5), CBS Records presented two Canadian classical artists gold record awards - only the 3rd and 4th such awards to be presented in the history of the Canadian Recording Industry Association.

The gold awards signify sales in excess of 50,000 units - a very significant accomplishment for classical artists in Canada.

Bernie DiMatteo, President of CBS Records Canada, and Norman Miller, Director of CBS Masterworks in Canada, made the presentations: one to classical guitarist Liona Boyd for her Best Of Liona Boyd LP, released in October of 1982; the other to the Glenn Gould Estate, representing the late Glenn Gould. Gould's recording of Bach's Goldberg Variations was released in November of 1982, a scant one month after the pianist's death. The posthumous award to Gould will be housed at the National Library of Canada, in the newly established Glenn Gould Collection.

For Boyd, the award represents her second such metal honour - her first being for A Guitar For Christmas, which achieved gold status in December of 1982.

New agency protects video rights of labels

As a result of Canadian labels' perceived need to create a central agency for the licensing and protection of music videos, the VLA Music Video Licensing Agency has been launched. The new agency becomes effective Jan. 1, 1985.

According to CRIA President Brian Robertson - currently supervising the new agency - the agency's mandate includes enforcing the rights of the various participating record labels, as well as monitoring the centralized duplication and distribution of music videos.

The agency will initially license video pools, clubs, and road shows.

Robertson says that the concept parallels the work of similar bodies in other countries, and came about as the result of "massive" demand from the record labels.

Honeydrippers set for Saturday Night Live

The Honeydrippers, Es Paranza/Atlantic recording act - notorious for their constantly varying incarnations - have been firmed for a Dec. 15 appearance on the American TVer, Saturday Night Live. The date will mark the band's live network TV debut in North America.

The appearance coincides with the success of a 5-song mini-LP, The Honeydrippers - Volume One, released in Canada by WEA Music. The Volume One release is quickly approaching double platinum status in Canada, with Sea Of Love - taken as the first single - closing in on the Top 5 of the RPM 100.

Included in the lineup for Saturday Night Live are Robert Plant (lead vocals), Brian Setzer (lead guitar), Paul Shaffer (piano), Buddy Williams (drums), Tom Barney (bass), George Wadenius (rhythm guitar), Jon Faddis and Tom Malone (trumpet), Michael Brecker and Lou Marini (tenor sax), Ronnie Cuber (baritone sax), and Fourteen Karat Soul (backing vocals).

Produced by Nugette and The Fabulous Brill Brothers, the Volume One release features renditions of R&B classics from the '40s, '50s and '60s.

Saturn's first gold - for selling 50,000 units of Stevie Wonder's I Just Called To Say I Love You from Motown's Karen Spencer-Sherlock, Quality's George Struth, Art Papapone and Ned Talmey. Saturn's Leonard and Chris Kennedy, Ron Boudreault, Terry Trojek and Mary Wadington accept.

WATCH SAYS

Losing out on all those millions!!

A certain Canadian star, who keeps resigning contracts for millions and millions must really be bothering a certain ex-record executive, who had her under contract for her original recordings. He would be a millionaire now if he had treated her fairly, and . . . honestly must regret his folly, not to mention a few other artists who slipped through his fingers. (EC: Yawn!!!)

Speaking of losers!!!

I can't wait for Saturday's Toronto Star to see if they are still running The Charts on their trashy Audio Video page. What a great and inventive feature. I hope they never get rid of it. There is nothing better than insulting the intelligence of your readers. I love it! Never miss it! Keep it up. Please don't discontinue this marvelous piece of newspaper creativity. (EC: Wake me when it's over!).

The girls are getting heavy!!!

The girls at a certain major label are getting heavy . . . or is it heavier. Could it be they are getting paid too much?

"... the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership." - Pierre Juneau

Trouble in Lotusland???

Quick rumour. There is trouble in Lotusland. Those who joined the movement to take over the world are being pieced off (EC: Watch your language!!). Seems that the world isn't rosy when you take off the pink-tinted shades. There's more to come.

Just asking for an accounting!!!

It seems that a certain country association in Canada doesn't have all the money the members think it has . . . or should have. A few concerned members . . . and there aren't many, want an accounting. There are also more than a few country artists, who did benefits and donated their hard-earned funds, who want to know how it was spent. Confirm or deny that this is true!!! I think we are talking some big bucks here.

Another question . . . ?

I understood it was the policy of this country association to wander all over the country like gypsies for their yearly shows . . . one year in the east, the other in the west. It looks like they don't have a policy any longer. They will follow their western date this year with another western date the following year.

Stop the presses!!

Didn't the Star rush to get a review into Thursday's paper on the Wednesday night Juno Awards, and didn't the new and improved Star do a follow-up on Friday, at which time they published the names of the winners? Yes, the winners were announced on Friday. That's news, and that's the newspaper business. They have a very funny little paper.

After Juno promo?

All that great promo that came out before the Junos was one thing, but after the Junos, the PR people couldn't come up with photos on Thursday. Too bad. They dropped the ball. I guess the TVer is everything and after that . . . they seem to say . . . who cares.

Taking a swipe at the Junos!!

One really nasty comment you can make about the Junos is that the presenters didn't all wear tuxedos when they appeared on camera. That causes many of us to wonder why CARAS made the event "black tie" and then allowed presenters to appear on camera in their street clothes. A number of industry people just won't bother renting or buying or wearing tuxedos next year. The glitter and the glamour is fading!!!

An encore of the Felix Awards??

About 8:45 pm on the night of the Junos, a great many people in Western Canada reached for the dial. They obviously didn't want to see an encore of the Felix Awards. If the Felix winners were really smart, they would submit nominations for as many of the categories as possible, and in a few years, they would control a healthy chunk of the Junos. Then they would have a much more important award to try for. Why not? If the rules permit, why not take everything you can grab!!!

Shedding some light on the subject!

The lighting at the Junos was pretty bad. Cameras shooting around in the dark, the hosts not being lit at all. The show was jerky and had no flow. It isn't often when Canadians try live television and we haven't mastered the art (except when it comes to hockey). The Junos need a lot of work, and this year was just another indication that there is still a long way to go.

Pindoff adds bucks to Band Aid

Kris Pindoff, known for his charitable acts, particularly with children, will donate the profits from the sale of the Band Aid single to the fund raising project organized to aid the famine-stricken in Ethiopia.

The courage of their convictions!!

You can't help but admire a certain record company who chose, a number of years ago, to disagree with our policies at RPM and continue to refuse to advertise in RPM, unless it's embarrassing not to. They have stood by their guns over the years, even to the point of possibly losing millions of dollars of extra business. That's tenacity. One thing that does bother me is that they continue to send their press releases, photographs, review copies of their albums and singles. We have to use them as long as they keep sending them. I think they should be more adamant and stop sending them. They should have the courage of their convictions. I could admire that.

Compact Discs are moving!!!

Contrary to what many thought, including me, the Compact Disc market is heating up. WEA's Garry Newman tells me they are selling right across the board, pop, rock and classical. No country yet and no heavy metal, but wait till the metal people start stealing CD hardware. Can you imagine Twisted Sister on Compact Disc?

Last minute Telex news!!!

The Headpins have been signed to MCA. Fred Boiley, who purchased his Fixx LP at Kelly's in Winnipeg, discovered the phantom message recorded on Fixx's Phantoms LP. He wins a weekend in NYC to see the Fixx live in concert at the Felt Forum, plus $300. spending money!!

Another Juno - another year and still good copy

Yes, we've seen yet another passing of another Juno Awards presentation and, in spite of written and verbal abuse, the Junos are still a major promotion factor for the Canadian recording industry.

How did this year's event fare? Not too bad, really. It was obvious there was more emphasis on the television show, much to the discomfort of the paying audience (some paid as much as $150 per ticket). Many of these patrons sat behind pillars, which could have been tolerated had their been monitors set up as there were in previous years. The television show was much better than it has been, but even here there could be much tightening up, probably down to a 90 minute event which would fall nicely within the attention span of the purported 2½ million viewers. The musical numbers were staged and paced well, so the drag was obviously with the presenters, most of whom had nothing of note to say and wasted valuable air time saying it. The hosts, Andrea Martin and Joe Flaherty were excellent and should be asked to host next year's show.

Legendary producer/songwriter/performer David Foster presents Juno to Bryan Adams.

How did the record industry like this year's Junos? For the most part the comments were honest and the criticism well founded, considering that representatives from major and independent labels were committee and sub-committee members and/or advisors for the Canadian Academy of Recording Arts & Sciences (CARAS).

"I'm more than convinced than ever," says WEA President Stan Kulin, "that the Junos should take place in a true theatre setting. I also believe that the record company people have to become more mature in their attitude towards the Junos and acknowledge the recipients of the pro-Juno Awards with the same attention as they do the televised portion."

Probably the most harm done to this year's Juno event, from the paying customer standpoint was the setting, the Automotive Building of Exhibition Place. This is a building constructed mainly for good weather events, and certainly not conducive to the serving of a gourmet meal, which was trucked in. The food lost most of its appeal as it was hustled to the 1,400 patrons, a monumental task in itself, and one finds it difficult to fault the caterers - but there has to be a better way.

"I was quite pleased with this year's Junos", says Joe Summers, Executive Vice Anne Murray chalks up another Juno, her 25th, this time as Top Country Female.

President of A&M Records Canada. "It was a giant step this year, but there are still more steps to be taken to tighten up some of the loose ends. I'd like to see the Junos go from a dinner to a theatre setting. Costs have to be reduced and the television time has to be reduced."

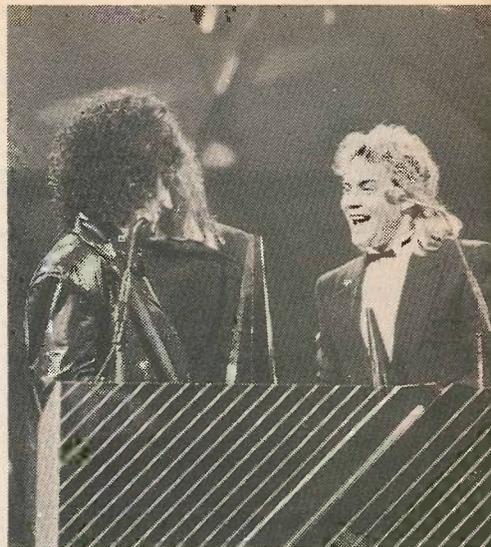

George Struth, President of Quality Records, had only one word to describe his impressions of this year's Junos, and that was "disappointing".

Says Ross Reynolds, President MCA Records (Canada). "Great television... not so great as a spectator event."

Dave Evans, President Capitol Records-EMI of Canada, found this year's Junos "Somewhat disappointing. We should be going back to the drawing boards to see how we can do it better."

"It appeared that the Junos this year were not produced with the live audience in mind," says CBS Canada President Bernie DiMatteo, "but primarily as a television show. I think the producers went too far to the other end of the spectrum. There were several little inconveniences, but it had its balancing points as well."

Don Kollar, General Manager RCA Canada's Record Division, notes: "I liked the new approach, with the separate dining room and the theatre in the round. Outside of a few minor technical problems it was a great evening."

Capitol's Zappacosta presents Juno to Carole Pope - Female Vocalist of The Year.

A major coup for the Junos this year was the turnaround in attitudes by critics from the dailies, most of whom appeared to be on their best behavior. Of course, they have been centred out in recent weeks by the "specialized" trade press (RPM), which obviously has its clout. The coverage by the press this year was excellent, and, considering the battle of words going on between the producers of the show and one giant Toronto daily, the overall critique was a refreshing and welcome change.

The Junos came into being as an industry event, and it was hoped that as these awards went to television, they would remain an industry event, with the television viewer watching Canada's best being honoured by their peers. Unfortunately, bigger replaced better and ego stroking became top priority, neither of which makes for good television, a star system, nor sells records - the real purpose of the Juno Awards. - WG

Anne Murray resigning top priority at Capitol

PROMO PROFILE - by Steve McAuley and Stephen Young

Capitol finishes up the year with much excitement - the resigning of Anne Murray plus the success of Corey Hart's First Offense LP, just a couple of the items reported as follows by Steve McAuley, promo rep for the Capitol label, and Stephen Young, who looks after promotion for allied labels.

Anne Murray has resigned to a 5-album deal. This is another worldwide commitment for Capitol-EMI. Anne's LP, Heart Over Mind, is well over gold status (50,000), and the forthcoming single will more than likely bring the LP to platinum (100,000). Anne recently completed a very successful tour of Western Canada, and was presented with a citation by Capitol President Dave Evans signifying Canadian sales in excess of 3,500,000.

Luba's new single, Storm Before The Calm, is picking up well nationally. The LP, Secrets And Sins, is above 30,000 units. Judging from the success of Let It Go - the first single - we should do well with this record. Capitol is very pleased that Luba has been invited to open as special guest on the forthcoming Bryan Adams tour. This will be good national exposure for Luba.

David Bowie's new single is the title track from his latest LP, Tonight. Five of Tonight's songs were written with Iggy Pop.

The LP is closing in on triple platinum status (300,000), and represents what people have come to expect from David Bowie, frequent change. The single is a reggae-influenced ballad with Tina Turner singing parallel vocals.

Corey Hart's LP, First Offense, is a little over 120,000 units currently, and we're Iron Maiden and manager Ron Smallwood received gold and platinum awards for their Powerslave LP from Capitol's Dave Evans.

Grammys, Junos and Jazz look good on you. Congratulations expecting a new LP probably in the summer of 1985. He'll be touring here with Hall & Oates, and is on a bill New Year's Eve at Toronto's Maple Leaf Gardens with Platinum Blonde and The Spoons. The video for Corey's first single, Sunglasses At Night, won in the Best Video category at the Junos this year. The director was Robert Quartly. It Ain't Enough, the second single from the First Offense LP, looks like it could be Corey's second Top 10 single stateside. Sunglasses went to No. 7 last summer. Canadian action is strong as well. In October, Corey was awarded a Felix, Quebec's achievement award for artists in that province. The label is committed worldwide to this act.

All in good time

Sheena Easton's Strut single has gone gold. The LP is close to platinum status (100,000).

Tina Turner's Private Dancer LP is Capitol's best selling record for 1984 - close to quintuple platinum (500,000). The Better Be Good single helped the LP sales. Private Dancer is the new single. The 7" will be an edited version of the album track with a concurrent video release.

Helix have left on a European tour. The Walkin' The Razor's Edge LP is in excess of 120,000 units currently, and the band recently put down five tracks for their upcoming LP. The new single - Gimme Gimme Good Lovin' - should help take the LP to double platinum.

January '85 will see new releases from Strange Advance and George Thorogood, as well as a film soundtrack - That's Dancing, the sequel to That's Entertainment.

Bankrupt Saint-Tropez Fest may have another year

What began as an excellent idea in a splendid setting has turned into a receiver's nightmare. The costs for the first International Saint-Tropez Music Video Festival were apparently too much. Left holding the bag unfortunately, were the local restaurants and hoteliers, plus a host of local residents who had worked for the festival.

John Martin - Director of Programming for the MuchMusic Network - spoke to RPM about his experience as a jury member at this year's festival. "It was a fascinating exercise to finally get to meet all the people that we've been dealing with for so long," said Martin. "I think that you can see how the festival does the job of bridging the gap between the American and European markets."

John Martin

Did Martin see any obvious changes that could be made for next year's festival? "It had its problems," he said. "The event really needs a decent meeting place, and I don't think that the problem of judging guidelines was foreseen - the 'longform' category could be split up into documentary, compilation, etc. I think also that the organizers could look to providing more of a forum for the sale of longform videos. A greater emphasis on the trade side of things overall would be good. Overall though, it parallels the record industry. There's a massive amount of American product - but we also saw some fabulous European material - and the jury was very representative of the industry internationally."

In spite of the giant loss and embarrassment, there are plans by Saint-Tropez municipal officials to stage a second festival about the same time next year.

Final attendance figures for the first festival, which was held Oct. 8 through 11 of this year, stood at 1,800 participants from 381 companies in 21 countries, with more than 500 music videos entered in competition.

The festival was host to 405 members of the media, representing 148 publications, 54 radio stations, and 17 television stations.

The large turnout of media reps and registrants from North America was due the efforts of the New York-based John Nathan, a veteran in this type of project, having been associated for many years with the highly successful MIDEEM outing.

For what it's worth, if the festival could be moved ahead a couple of weeks, the weather might be kinder; there should be an effort to remove the irritating factor of the predominance of French in dealing with delegates and the media; and there should be a central meeting place.

It's expected that within a short time a full report will be available on what went down at this year's festival and what might be expected for next year.

The longform videos honoured with awards were Gold to The Cars for Heartbeat City; Silver for The Compleat Beatles, compilation; and Bronze to Styx for Caught In The Act.

Those awarded Clip Awards were Gold for You Might Think by The Cars; Silver for Paul McCartney and Michael Jackson's Say Say Say; and Bronze for Michael Jackson's Thriller.

The International Awards saw Frankie Goes To Hollywood's Two Tribes honoured as Best U.K. Video; The Cars' You Might Think, as Best U.S. Video; Axel Bauer's Cargo, Best French Video; Makromad's Tausend Tages Sete, Best German Video; and Elton John's Sad Song, Best Australian Video.

North American representative for the International Music Video Festival of Saint-Tropez is John Nathan in New York, phone 212-223-0044.

Moonshadow single for B.C.'s Mossop

Maquinna Talent Promotions is currently touting the single release of Theo Mossop's Political Images. Produced and engineered by Mossop for his Moonshadow label, the song is described as 'an intelligent spoof depicting the frustrations of the common man with our system.'

Mossop's credits include supporting acts such as Loverboy, production, engineering and songwriting.

Distribution of the single is being handled by various independents as well as by the Nanaimo-based Moonshadow label.

Impressive lineup on Dr. Music LP

The Canadian Talent Library (CTL) has issued a five-song mini-LP by Dr. Music, entitled Dr. Music (Circa '84). The album features keyboardist Doug Riley and highlights the talents of several well-known Canadian artists.

The mini-album follows the single release of Two Can Play, which is included in the package which was produced by Riley.

Besides Riley, other names contributing to the session were keyboardist Lou Pomanti, bassists Tom Szesniak, Dave Piltch, drummer John Anderson and Bob MacLaren, plus guitarists Dom Troiano and Bob Mann. The latter also engineered the session.

Vocalists were Terry Black, on synthesizer, John Rutledge, on guitar, Wayne St. John, who doubles on percussion and pan flute, and Bill Ledster.

The session was produced at Toronto's Eastern Sound.

BOB DYLAN - Pop
Real Live - Columbia - FC-39944-P

Dylan has never been an easy artist to categorize - but pop will suit, because the man has bridged any number of gaps in peoples' thinking regarding what music is supposed to consist of, and how we should respond to it. Real Live - as an authorized release - represents Dylan at his best. The tracks here are taken from a tremendously successful U.K./European swing that certainly put the lie to any talk of creative burnout or commercial death. The importance of the performer here equals the presence of the writer. Highway 61 Revisited, Tangled Up In Blue, and It Ain't Me Babe will live long lives as representations of the poet/musician/songwriter who changed the face of folk - and by extension, pop - music in the '60s. Support here from a stellar band (Ian McLagan, Colin Allen, Mick Taylor, Greg Sutton) make this a 'must have' not only for Dylan fans, but for anyone who appreciates great live renditions of simply great music. Produced by Glyn Johns. Excellent jacket photo.

VANITY - Dance
Wild Animal - Motown - M6102-M

Club numbers from another Prince protege. Key is Pretty Mess. Three parts Cancon. Produced by Bill Wolfner and Vanity.

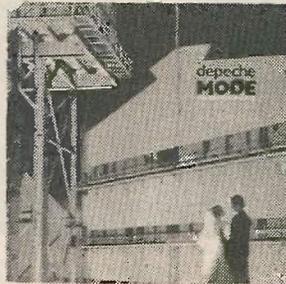

TANGERINE DREAM - Electronic rock
Poland - Jive Electro - JV-6612/2-M

Born in Germany in 1967 during the height of the psychedelic era in rock, this trio is regarded as one of the pioneering bands of synthesized music. Written, performed and produced by band members Edgar Froese, Johannes Schmoelling and Christoph Franke. Each side of the double set is divided into one track each - Poland, Tangent, Barba-kane, and Horizon. The package represents the ultimate in quality head music and should appeal to the same audience which is into very early Pink Floyd.

JAPAN - Pop
Exorcising Ghosts - Virgin - VMD-2259-Q

Double LP compilation containing vocalist David Sylvian's "personal favourites" from Japan's career up to its demise in 1982. Key are Gentlemen Take Polaroids, and Ghosts. Various production credits. Beautiful jacket art. Black and white inner sleeves contain libretto.

Further testament to the genius of Mike Oldfield. All tracks are key. Produced by Mike Oldfield.

THE KINKS - Pop
Word Of Mouth - Arista - AL-88264-Q

Not really pop, mind you, but The Kinks on record never do their live shows any justice. Still, a fun set all round. Produced by Ray Davies. Arista is in a flux situation, which may cause delays in shipping.

More good news for Murray

Besides resigning a multi-million dollar deal with Capitol, Anne Murray's latest single, Nobody Loves Me Like You Do, a duet with Dave Loggins, has topped all U.S. record charts, including the major trades. The single also placed in the Top 10 on the pop adult charts throughout the U.S. Earlier this year Anne won both Single and Album of the Year honours at the Annual Country Music Awards for her recording of A Little Good News. She also won his year's Juno as Female Country Vocalist of The Year.

Jacks' move to Nashville aids career direction

Compleat recording artist Susan Jacks has followed up her Tall Dark Stranger single with Another Woman's Man. The new single, distributed in Canada by Quality Records, qualifies as 3-parts Canon (MAL).

Jacks was a member of the Poppy Family in the late '60s and early '70s, a duo that delivered such hits as Evil Grows, and Which Way You Goin' Billy?

In a recent telephone conversation with RPM, Jacks alluded to the changes in her career bolstered considerably by a move to Nashville.

"There was an element of country in The Poppy Family," Jacks remembers, "and to be honest, I never felt like I fit into a 'rock' category. When I went to Nashville, I was amazed that people were aware of my career. For me, country music has opened up - it even includes adult contemporary."

Jacks notes the feeling of 'family' in Nashville, and the professionalism of the session players with whom she has dealt.

"Almost everything has been affected by my move," she explains, "my confidence, my attitude; they really accept you with open arms down here, and the level of musicianship is incredible. After all, this is Music City U.S.A. I've done two singles (mentioned above) and we've got five tunes prepared for an LP which we hope to have out in the spring."

Another Woman's Man is moving steadily up the RPM Country 60 after four weeks of charting.

singles along with 4 successful albums, along with a television show in 1981 on the mid-Canada network, plus many major concerts and special events, Harold MacIntyre will be performing his last date on Dec. 31 at the Dallas Club in Hamilton, as a member of the Area Code 705 Band."

A mutual agreement has apparently been reached between Larry Coad and Harold wherein the two members will go their separate ways for the time being. Peever points out however that "there are several negotiated dates for the summer of '85 which might bring them back together for several days. Harold will be working with various bands throughout Canada for his dates and will be based in the Maritimes.

Christmas Boy from Dominic

New from Ottawa Policeman Dominic D'Arcy is his Diana single, Christmas Boy, a team writing effort by Ralph Mongeau, Enes Colautti, and Walter Munroe. The single is obviously for the holiday season

Big Peach's Bechamp featured on CBLT

The winner of CBLT's (Toronto) Look Out World . . . Here We Come competition was country singer Debbie Bechamp. The competition attracted more than 1,000 enquiries, with 500 auditioning and 75 becoming finalists for a chance to star in their own television show.

CBLT (Channel 5) will present Debbie in three holiday season specials called: And The Winner is . . . Debbie. The debut special will be broadcast Dec. 18 at 7:00 pm, and the remaining two specials will air Christmas Day at 6:30 pm and January 1st at 6:30 pm. Guests will include Ronnie Hawkins, bluegrass group Whisky Jack, Carole Pope and Holly Woods, two rockers singing Christmas Carols, and Juno Award winners The Good Brothers.

Debbie, who has enjoyed chart listings on the RPM Country 60, her most recent being I'm Gonna Love You More, was obviously beside herself when she won the contest. "When I heard my name announced as the winner," she comments, "I couldn't believe it. I was numb. Having the opportunity to work with so many incredibly talented people has definitely made this the high point in my career."

The TV specials are being produced by Tim Williams.

but the flip, Stop And Let Love In, could carry D'Arcy into the new year. The flip was co-written by the late Ben McPeck and C. Alexander Brown.

Artisan release for Eastman

The Nashville-based Artisan label has signed a recording deal with Eddie Eastman. First release is Dreaming All Over Again. The single and production was through the team effort of Eastman and Gilles Godard. The MAPL logo is incorrect on the label copy, and should read MAL. The production only took place in Nashville.

Clements single on Book Shop

I've Been Goin' Home, a new single by Vassar Clements, has been released in Canada on the Cornwall-based Book Shop label. Vassar will be in the studio shortly to complete a new album which will include two duets with Bobby Lalonde, who also releases on Book Shop and who was voted Instrumentalist of the Year at the 1984 ACME Awards in Moncton.

Christmas single release for A. Frank Willis

A. Frank Willis is on release with Hello Mom And Dad (We're Coming Home For Christmas). Available on the 16th Avenue label, the plus side was penned by Willis and qualifies as 4-parts Canon.

A multi-instrumentalist, Willis has performed across Canada, and appeared on several television shows including That's Life, The New Music, and Bob McLean.

The single was produced by Albert MacDonald.

ONSTAGE

U2 Massey Hall - Toronto - Dec. 7/84

This Island recording group performed before a packed audience in what will probably be remembered as one of the best shows of 1984. The Irish quartet gave their fans a flawless performance beginning with I Will Follow. The sound of this new wave guitar-based band is unmistakable. All this can be attributed to the axe-work of The Edge, who was obviously inspired by British guitar greats like Jeff Beck and Eric Clapton.

WEA sees year out with precious metal awards

WEA Music of Canada will finish the year with one of the largest tallies of gold and platinum awards in their history. Leading the list is Prince, whose Purple Rain LP has gone six times platinum (600,000 units) and says WEA's Garry Newman, "This is just the beginning. With the release of Prince's latest single, I Would Die 4 U, the album sales will continue for some time."

WEA gold to Honeymoon Suite for their self-titled debut LP after the Juno Awards (Dec. 5). WEA's Stan Kulin, Garry Newman, and Bob Roper presented the awards to the band and their producer Tom Treumuth.

Van Halen - 1984, has scored five times platinum and is the band's biggest selling album to date.

The Cars' Heartbeat City has gone four times platinum, which marks their third 400,000 plus selling album.

Twisted Sister has become one of the top priorities in the WEA camp. Their Stay Hungry LP is already three times platinum. "Selling so fast," says Newman, "we can hardly keep up". Sales for this group skyrocketed after their Toronto date where they lent themselves to wild promotions that contributed to album sales.

Madonna's Like A Virgin has gone platinum after only three weeks and makes good gains up the RPM 100. The title track, taken as a single is also making good chart gains.

Prince's protege Sheila E. has come home with gold for her Glamorous Life LP, and the WEA people feel good vibes for her latest single, The Belle Of St. Mark.

Linda Ronstadt's Lush Life, "should be gold by Christmas" boasts Newman. "This should be the Christmas gift of the year."

Chicago 17 had a bit of a late start but the LP is now gold. "Chicago's metal situation will improve dramatically with the release of You're The Inspiration, their latest single," concludes Newman.

The Edge however, has gone further in adapting his own style in his use of harmonics. As a whole, there's a military feeling about U2's sound, yet their music is very positive. They let loose with material from their familiar Boy, War and Unforgettable Fire albums, with Pride (In The Name Of Love) from the latter, generating the greatest reaction. Opening the show was another Island recording band, The Waterboys, who showcased material from their debut, A Pagan Place. The band can be described as new wave meets brass, having managed to combine both in an original fashion. - PM

PRINCE

Maple Leaf Gardens - Toronto - Dec. 2/84

When Prince strode on stage, he left little doubt that here was today's new royalty of rock, although it took him 7 years to attain this plateau (For You - released in 1978). He moved his 5'2" frame with an overbearing cockiness that made him look much taller. The swagger and confidence was an imposing part of his act. The sold out house was ready and as he launched into Let's Go Crazy, the place turned into a zoo. Although his records are appreciated by all ages - male and female - he concentrated his attention on the females, which didn't go down too well with the males. His performance was spectacular - pure showbiz, but the effects were tedious and overdone. A little less talking and a little more dancing and it would have been a total crowd pleaser instead of a woman's night out. His repertoire was familiar (his Purple Rain album has now gone six times platinum), and he milked every number, closing with Purple Rain. It's obvious the Prince fever will continue for some time. Opening for Prince was Sheila E., currently moving up the RPM 100 singles chart with The Belle Of St. Mark. Her concentration was on the males, which didn't have much of a balancing effect, considering the status of both. Nevertheless, Sheila E. carried her portion of the show well with a dynamic performance that closed with her hit of The Glamorous Life. - Sean LaRose

WHITE WOLF

Tony's East - Scarborough - Dec. 8/84

A false start due to equipment failure didn't stop this RCA metal group from launching into a blistering attack that rammed home the message from their debut LP, Standing Alone. They highlighted many of the tracks including Shadows Of The Night, the first single taken from the set. White Wolf is '70s heavy metal re-visited, but one must remember that we are in the midst of a current revival for this music form. Like many other metal bands, White Wolf performs loud, high-energy rock, smacked with frantic guitar breaks. At times the group comes off sounding just a little too good, right down to their covers of such numbers as Heaven & Hell, You've Got Another Thing Coming, and Smoke On The Water. The band has every note and riff down pat, but that raw edge so essential to hard rock and metal, seems to be missing. Nevertheless, White Wolf is good and they have a lot of confidence. - PM
