Island lends weight in war against drunk drivers

Teenagers, and they really don't know how lucky they are, today enjoy the benefits of many intense and elaborate awareness campaigns delivering the simple message that drinking and driving do not mix; it's an all too often fatal combination, an accident just waiting to happen.

Those who are sincerely fortunate enough to survive an accident, involving people who decide to drink and drive, can only emphasize that if all the time and money spent saves just one life then those efforts are indeed justified.

For many though, there was a time when throwing (literally) a case into the back seat and driving off down the road was a Friday night norm. Hopefully, times are changing.

This month Island Records are releasing a single titled This Is Life, recorded by past Grammy winner Barbra Streisand, and hopefully programmers and the music industry in general will take notice. The singer's brother-in-law, a flier who, was killed by a

A&M hopes consumers will pick the Raisins

The commercials produced for the California Rainier Board are pure marketing genius. When I Heard It Through The Grapevine was aired, no one would have predicted "The California Raisins" would spur not only sales of raisin but also sales of record as well.

Agremely "extremely" popular with North American audiences, A&M have rush-released a compilation of songs by The Raisins; a disc which includes classics - and recent hits - such as Lean On Me, Don't Let Me Be Misunderstood, Money Money, as well as When A Man Loves A Woman.

The album shipped close to gold, as retailers across the country expect heavy demand, while MacLeod has been assisting both Loverboy - a tornado interrupts the show. Again, directed by David Fincher (with Jeff Goldblum and James Remar) - and shot entirely at L.A.'s Propaganda Studios) and shot entirely at a Vancouver soundstage.

Another upcoming release is Don't Drink And Drive, a compilation of songs by The Isley Brothers, which is expected to be released in March.

To roll in new year

Loverboy, following a recent two-week press tour of Europe, are putting up for a world tour, also set to commence next month.

Loverboy's latest video, Love Will Rise Again, directed by David Fletcher (with L.A.'s Propaganda Studios) and shot entirely at a Vancouver soundstage, depicts the band's live performance, but with a "twist" - a tornado interrupts the show.

Former Headpin Brian "Too Loud" MacLennan has been assisting both Loverboy guitarist Paul Deacon with the production of his first solo album, expected next summer, as well as Billy Newsom-Davis on his second Columbia effort.

1987 - a year of pleasant

The new year started off with Paul McCartney's album Cruel Tropic topping the chart until Feb. 21, justly displaying the buying power of the upper demographics, but moving quickly over the Christmas season was Bon Jill's Slippery When Wet, and after finally capturing the top spot remained there till it was eventually bumped by the Joshua Tree in mid-April.

While the consumers of Graceland and Slippery When Wet were relatively remote to the end of the retail spectrum, U2's diamond-selling effort has a "universal" appeal and hence has stayed in the Top 5 throughout the year.

Other key releases entering the charts during this period included Steve Earle's Guitar Town, Crowded House, K.D. Lang's Angel With A Lariat, Club Nouveau's Life & Paris, Gowan's Great Dirty World, Bryan Adams' Into The Fire and Whitewash's self-titled album.

It wasn't until Whitney Houston's new album No. 1, on late Feb., that the Joshua Tree was displaced from its lofty position, and Whitney didn't budge until a movie release called La Bamba eclipsed it, on the strength of the film and its runaway smash hit of the same title.

During these months other albums that did remarkably well included some of this current holiday season's strongest sellers, such as Chicago's not to overlook now product from Prince, David Bowie, The Cult, The Nylons, Suzanne Vega, Heart, Glenn Medeiros, Kenny G, Gino Vannelli and The Grateful Dead. Fleetwood Mac's Tusk In The Night, Elton John's Live In Australia, Def Leppard's Hysteria and Whitney's Don't Tell Me.

Recently released albums, and now signed to Atlantic soundtrack, Blue Rodeo's Outskirts album charted in September, though released in April, and has proven to be one of the year's most pleasant surprises. Yet in the very same month the success of Rita MacNeil's amazing album cannot be overlooked either.

But the great flood certainly hasn't been stemmed. There's now "that" new album from Loveboy, Aerosmith, REM, Rush, Jack Jagger, Ken, Van Morrison, Jefferson Airplane, Supertramp, George Harrison, INXS, Robbie Robertson, Bryan Ferry, Triumph, George Michael, Steve Wonder, Madonna, Paul McCartney, The Eurythmics and Foreigner.

Yes perhaps the biggest album released lately, and quite a potent collaboration of many of these artists, is to the album A Very Special Christmas for the Special Olympics. After reading through all those names, it's obvious a lot of quality product was released this past year. The top-selling acts were always, and seemingly, offset by a variety of "up and comers" throughout the course of the entire year, and criticisms of radio not helping break "new" artists have somewhat dissipated.

Jackson's Bad certifies quintuple platinum

Leading the CRIA November certifications this month is Michael Jackson's Bad album, which has now surpassed the quintuple platinum. As well as there were three triple platinum and seven platinum certifications, ten gold albums, one platinum single and five gold singles.

Def Leppard (Hysteria), John Cougar Mellencamp (The Lonesome Jubilee) and Bruce Springsteen (Tunnel Of Love) all have their respective albums surpass the triple platinum mark this past month.

Four Canadian projects led the way in the platinum category: Pasie Partout (La Noe De Pratres Et De Candie), Platinum Blonde (Contrario, Maria (Celle Qui Va) and The Box (Closer Together). Also hitting this level were Kiss (Crazy Nights), Billy Idol (Vital Idol) and George Michael (Faith).

Reaching gold were Campfire (Mem. Wall), Edith Butler (Party Pour Pour), Cealie Diane (Incognito), T'Pau (El- tined), Staccato (No Protection), Roger Waters (Radio KAO), ABC (Alphabet City), Belinda Carlisle (Heaven On Earth), Enigma, Annoy (Wow), Paul O'Kane (Love An Angel), Carly Simon (Coming Around Again), Billy Idol (Vital Idol), Jennifer Rush (Heart Over Mind) and George Michael (Faith), as well as Reba McEntire (Quantum Hifi) and George Strait (Ocean From Proper- ty), a good boost for country programmers.

Single sales well included Los Lobos' version of La Bamba which has now eclipsed platinum, while Joey Greco's Together, T'Pau's Heart And Soul, Los Lobos' La Bamba, Billy Idol's 'Mony Mony and U2's I Still Haven't Found What I'm Looking For have all sold in excess of gold.

Shechtman leaves CBC to reactivate indie label

Returning to the private sector, following seven years with CBC Enterprises, noted industry veteran Alan Shechtman has recently reopened Truly Fine Records and Silver Bullet Productions. The former was active in "pre-Cancon" days through to the late '70s, while the latter produced the masters and provided "demos and CD." Truly Fine Records, last becoming their Vice- President of Business Affairs, accepted a position with CRC Marketing in 1979 and created their commercial and mail-order marketing record division, the SMS/BC "mascarine and jazzing" Stee.

Truly Fine, according to Shechtman, will ostensibly release classic and jazz artists' work. The first release for the label is titled Paul Brodie and Eric Robinson, a collection of classical saxophone and organ material, recorded by Anton Kwieciowsky at the Humandere United Church in Toronto.

FROM EVERYONE AT CAPAC:

A very Happy Holiday!

From all CAPAC's 17,000 songwriters, composers and music publishers - and the staff - at our offices in Toronto, Montreal and Vancouver - our best wishes for a happy holiday season, and our hopes for a peaceful, prosperous and harmonious 1988.

To the people at Canadian radio and television who program music represented by CAPAC, special greetings. To those at record companies (large and small) who release music by Canadian writers and artists, our appreciation, and to the retailers who sell it, our gratitude.

MuchMusic to air special
This Dec. 27 (6 pm EST) MuchMusic will be airing a half-hour special detailing Haywire's recent trip to Japan for the World Popular Song Festival, and featuring material shot by the band, as well as their gold medal winning performance at the annual event.

Amie Record's Steve Waxman, Director of Publicity and Promotion, says, "with Dance Desire a hit, Black And Blue climbing charts, and their tour with Helix about to end; this special should maintain the momentum for the album (Don't Just Stand There), which by the way has just gone platinum."

Canada-only release for new de Burgh package
A&M Records have released a Chris de Burgh specially priced EP containing a new single, The Simple Truth, as well as tracks from previous albums and a live version of The Head And The Heart.

The other tracks are The Girl With April In Her Eyes, The Ecstasy Of Flight (I Love The Night) and his smash single Lady In Red.

CBS release single to help "man made" star
This January 28, 1988, marks the second anniversary of the U.S. space shuttle Challenger's explosion and subsequent disaster. A teacher at Concord High School, Christa McAuliffe, was aboard that day.

Through the Quebec-based Traffic label, a share of the monies raised by the sale of a CBS-released single, performed by the Concord High School Chorus, will be forwarded to the Christa McAuliffe Scholarship Fund at that New Hampshire school.

Also, a "portion" of the proceeds from the sale of the single Christmas On The Moon, written by Michel Blanchard and Pierre Robichaud, will be channeled into "Project Arsat Christa-R1," a huge inflatable reflector, capable of orbiting the Earth & Sky.

"Project Arsat Christa-R1," is being helped to "float" by Pierre Comeau over six years ago, is being helped to "flatable" by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their faith in space and their capacity for inspired leadership. "... Pierre forever"

COVER STORY - by Graeme Boyce

The Mistletoes - a three year game plan in effect

It’s been several years since there’s been an album released by a group whose members were all former students of St. Michael’s Choir School in Toronto; yet The Mistletoes and their album, Acappella Christmas, now join the esteemed crowd of The Four Lads and The Crowns.

Released on their own label, Holly Records, and distributed nationally by Trend, the album - as opposed to their previous effort - features the talents of guesting vocalists: Liberty Silver, Salome Bay, Sibbsan Crawley and Sherry Kraus, as well as the production skills of Peter Maun, who produced the previous Nylons albums.

Whereas three years ago, when the group last recorded an album (for Duke Street), there were no female singers; this time around the group wanted a “distinguished” sound.

“The ladies went really quickly,” Kenny recalls, “it was the 24-track work on the bedtracks that took 500 hours in the studio. But these girls came in and walked away a couple of tracks and Peter edited the best of what he liked.”

“Unlike The Nylons,” explains the group’s Paul Kenny, “because we have choral training, and we have two guys in the group who have perfect pitch, we would come into this room and recreate what we have on the album.”

“The Nylons are definitely a 34-track band,” he continues. “When The Nylons appear live, they’re singing in a stage track. When we appear live, we’re singing live. We can actually sing live. No memories, all live.”

After the various record companies and FACTOR had passed on approving funds for their project last summer, The Mistletoes, a 12-member group, went to the bank and then into the studio, and the recording was completed six months later. Although Kenny is still seeking a “bonus file” distribution deal, he believes the product is timeless and can be sold over the next three years.

“We’re not making records to capitalize on Christmas,” he stresses, “we’re making Christmas records.” Hence, paying for the album itself has allowed for some creative marketing strategies, such as corporate premiums. For instance, with every fill-up, a free copy of Acappella Christmas.

“The offers we get are fairly pathetic. I mean no advance, 12 percent and ‘You pay your producer’... We wanted to make a quality album and if you want to make a quality album, you have to be able to make it. You’re paying for a deal like that, you should have to use the album.”

“Kenny believes there are at least 100 corporations that would pay 30,000 albums each, as either staff Christmas presents or as promotional gifts. That’s triple diamond.”

“It’s unfortunately we have to pursue these methods of handout our product for free but in order to offset the cost of making a quality product,” he adds, “you have to take what you can get.”

“We were a little worried about the dilution of the product by selling it out at a corporate premium but after we saw the bottom line costs, and the bank loan we had to get,” Kenny concludes, “we quickly twisted our concerns about the negative impact of having one album distributed by a camera store.”

Pacific Wave signs guitarist Camerin

Vancouver native Sandro Carlo Camerin, whose track Happiness is heard daily on the CBC as the theme song for Peter Gzowski’s Morningside program, has released his latest recording, Shadows In The Dark, on the Pacific Wave label. The guitarist’s last release, Real To Reel, was nominated for a CASBY and received airplay on many jazz programs across the country.

Distributed by Electric in Canada, the album, says The Province’s Tom Harrison, “is a shining example of soft, mainstream jazz,” that ventures into “classical and Spanish stylings.”

THE RADIO MARKET IS TO MIDEM WHAT MUSIC IS TO YOUR PROGRAMS.

Radio people all know that the success of their stations depends on the quality of the programs they broadcast. These programs are created, bought and sold like any other product. But not just anywhere: it all happens at MIP Radio, care of MIDEM. Which is hardly surprising, since when we talk about radio programs we usually mean music; and since MIDEM is the international music market, it's quite naturally the international radio program market. A market that's bound to keep on developing, as good programs become even more sought-after and audiences more discriminating. At MIP Radio, programmers meet the decision-makers: record producers, program producers and other radio executives, to make direct and useful contacts, but also to make deals.

MIP Radio is the place to present yourself and your programs. From the 25th to the 29th of January, 1988, your address should be Cannes, MIP Radio, care of MIDEM.

Because music is your business.

Sleight appoints Gross as VP
Standard Radio System's Warren Sleight has appointed Howard Gross, formerly Manager of Seltech, to the position Vice-President and General Manager of the radio syndication division, St. Clair Showcom. Gross will now be responsible for "substantially enhancing" the division's activities and "presence" in the field of radio syndication, in both Canada and internationally as well.

CHED wins crime prevention award
Edmonton radio station CHED was recently handed both the Provincial and Federal Solicitor General Crime Prevention Awards, presented annually to businesses that have made outstanding contributions to crime prevention in their respective communities, for their "extensive and innovative" campaign against impaired driving: If You Drink, CFTR's annual toy drive for needy underway

Since its initiation during the holiday season of 1975, Toronto's annual Gift of Christmas Toy Drive has delivered 45,000 children an estimated 117,000 toys; a collaborative effort between CFTR, McDonald's, North York's estimated 117,000 toys; a collaborative effort between CFTR, McDonald's, North York's "Christmas Bureau", who work with various social agencies to distribute the collected toys.

This year's toy drive for the under-privileged was "kicked off" on Dec. 2 at the Toronto Eaton Centre McDonald's by Mayor Art Eggleton and Santa Claus. Also on hand were Don Chisholm, Blue Rodeo, FM's Ken Venus (with microphone), hosted the event.

Campaigning since May 1986 against drinking and driving, 630 CHED Program Director Kevin McKenna (r) receive their special awards from Sgt. Phil Bamott of the city's police department.

Don't Drive. CHED has committed over $50,000 towards the success of the campaign, which involved producing a nationally distributed special radio commercial for use by other stations.

The station's Director of Creative Services, Larry Fedoruk, says past response has been "heartwarming and generous," and to continue they "have every intention of maintaining the integrity of the new music format."

Warren Sleight, after 17 years with CHEM Limited, has been named the station's Operations Manager, says Sleight, who will assume the responsibilities of President and CEO of 92.7, which will be known as DARE 92.7 (92 seven).

Radio veteran Denis McNamara, who served previously as Program Director with WLIR for over a decade, has signed on as the new PD. From 1985 to 1986, he was the Album Rock consultant for Billboard and served previously as Program Director with "Suburban Slimiders." This year's CFNY Christmas party (Dec. 17, at Toronto club, The Copa) will benefit Foodshare; not only are proceeds being handed over but listeners are to bring along two cans of unperishable food also. The band, reveals the station's Darren Wasylyk, comprises staffers Dave Hamilton, Skip Preppop, Alan Cross, Fred Patterson and "Captain" Phil.

Warren Sleight, after 17 years with CHEM Limited, has been named the station's Operations Manager, says Sleight, who will assume the responsibilities of President and CEO of 92.7, which will be known as DARE 92.7 (92 seven).
A trip for two to the Olympics is offered for the most outrageous Christmas costume.

Q-94's Franklin attempting marathon Winnipeg's "lite rock" Q94 listeners are being solicited for toys during morning man Geoff Franklin's on-air radio marathon attempt of 34 hours this Dec. 11 and 12th. Franklin, broadcasting from The Sofa Shop's front window, is also asking office party-goes to "drop by" and leave new unwrapped toys with him, for this, the station's 5th annual such Christmas Miracle marathon.

Z99 plans to adopt DAT system Red Deer radio station CIZZ FM99, already completely laser disc, plans to "quickly adopt a DAT system as the technology advances," says the station's Paul Clancy. Z99, now

Jarad assemble cast of veterans for WDRE Following approval of his license to operate radio station WDRE (formerly WLIR), Ron Morey, owner of the Long Island-based Jarad Broadcasting, has made several key appointments, effective immediately, while confirming they "have every intention of maintaining the integrity of the new music format."

Warren Cosford, after 17 years with CHUM Limited, has been named the station's Operations Manager, says Morey, who will assume the responsibilities of President and CEO of 92.7, which will be known as DARE 92.7 (92 seven). Radio veteran Denis McNamara, who served previously as Program Director with WLIR for over 10 years, has signed on as the new PD. From 1985 to 1986, he was the Album Rock consultant for Billboard and later that year put WXXP-Pittsburgh's first new music station - on the air. Also appointed are Abe Goren, as General Sales Manager, and Stan Feinblatt, Local Sales Manager. The latter broadcast Mets baseball games for 18 years.
Toronto’s Dream Auction now a memory
According to CJJE-FM’s Assistant Manager Bill Ballentine, the 1987 Toronto Symphony Dream Auction “is now a memory.” But what an auction it was. The auction’s 2-day run on Nov. 2 and 3 was successful in raising over $275,000. This was the first year the event was broadcast live on the station, with long-time Dream Auction associate Don Cameron reporting live from Oct. 31 through to Nov. 8 and profiling over 160 “dreams” up for bid.

President of new comedy service, Willy’s Comedy Shack and Burger Emporium, Tim McLarty presents brochure to 061-FM’s PD Ian Davies recently on a promotion swing for the service.

OM-FM’s announcer wins with big lungs
Kicking off this year’s Christmas Seals campaign in Windsor was the area’s “Lung Power Challenge,” and the Lung Association’s winner was Pat McKenzie, an announcer with station OM-FM, who defeated over 25 local media personnel by filling a lung capacity bag with 6.3 litres of air and in the process earning himself a CJTT’s trophy and Over $3,000 ar owned by the newly created Shaw Radio Group, a subsidiary of Shaw Cable, is Central Alberta's only "rock source". Clancy continues, and they have planned a series of contests and promotions designed to enter the market "with a vengeance", which included on Nov. 2 giving away $25,000 cash and a Nissan ZX300.

Toronto's Dream Auction now a memory According to CJFT-FM's Assistant Manager Bill Ballentine, the 1987 Toronto Symphony Orchestra Auction "is now a memory." But what an auction . . . over the 9-day run the annual fundraiser - its 13th consecutive year - was successful in raising over $275,000. This was the first year the event was broadcast live on the station, with long-time Dream Auction associate Don Cameron reporting live from Oct. 31 through Nov. 8 and profiling over 160 "dreams" up for bid.

President of new comedy series, Willy's Comedy Shack and former reporter, Tim McCarthy, receives the annual fundraiser's 'Rock Source' plaque. The station was recently on a promotion swing for the service.

OM-FM's announcer wins with big lungs Kicking off this year's Christmas Seals campaign in Windsor was the area's "Lungs for Power Challenge," and the Lung Association's winner was Pat McKenzie, an announcer with station OM-FM, who defeated over 25 local media personnel by filling a lung capacity bag with 6.3 litres of air in the 10-minute period. The "elite athlete" then helped announce the event and was selected from 24 winners of the promotion.

OM-FM's announcer Pat McKenzie (l), seen with his trophy and a cheque, looks a record by filling a bag with 6.3 litres of air.

CFMO kicks off Xmas Exchange drive Held this past week (Dec. 6), again in conjunction with newspaper The Ottawa Citizen, Ottawa-Carleton area listeners contributed over $147,420 this year to CFMO's 19th Annual Christmas Exchange broadcast, the event which kicks off the holiday season's fundraiser for needy children. Special guests at the station's broadcast included Mayor Jim Durrell, Senator Royce Frith and Charles Lynch, who helped urge the public to phone in pledges. Over 7,000 families benefitted from last year's drive ($51,000), and received turkey dinners from the Christmas Exchange program recalls Linda Spalding, Promotion Director for the station.

CFRA continues Xmas fundraising Organized with the assistance of, and on behalf of, the West Ottawa Lions club, SCV CFRA's 37th Annual Christmas Cheer Broadcast (Dec. 15), which last year raised over $51,000, will also support the region's Christmas Exchange program, offering families help during the holiday season. Informs Promotions Coordinator Janet Burns.

CKWW to present Up With People Up With People, an international organization offering young people "year-long opportunities for cross-cultural education, diverse community service, on-stage musical performance experience and extensive world travel," will be presented in Windsor this Dec. 15 & 16 by CKWW. Featuring a cast of 125 students, the station's Promotion Coordinator Debra Tessier says it's "one of the few live musical shows in production that provides family type entertainment to audiences of all ages."

WEATHERBIRD AMERICAN MUSIC FESTIVAL

Battling winds, Sundays are not always the best days for local music festivals, but that doesn't necessarily mean that any time spent in the fresh air is a waste. If you're a true lover of American roots music, the Weatherbird Music Festival at the Towneplace Inn in Standish, Maine, could offer a unique opportunity to enjoy the sounds of this genre in a new setting.

LA 107 morning personality, Mark Campbell (who turns one this April) sends tickets to Dave Scallan, owner of the victim's Wings To Movie contest.
