Jackson's release to hit retail November 25

Michael Jackson's new Epic album, Dangerous, the follow-up to the eight-times platinum Bad, will be available at retail outlets around the world on November 25. From all indications, it would appear this long-awaited release will be supported by an unprecedented advertising and marketing campaign.

Black Or White, the first single taken from the album, features Guns N' Roses' guitarist Slash. The song was penned by Jackson, who was credited with writing or co-writing 13 of the 14 tracks. The single was expected to be aired simultaneously via Broadcast News' SNAP on November 6th, but was leaked in New York during the weekend (Nov. 2), resulting in the official service to radio upped one day (5). Don Oates, Senior Vice President, Sony Music Canada explains, "the initial response to the single is very positive, the retailers who have already ordered copies of the album, feel more comfortable with the numbers now that they have heard the single."

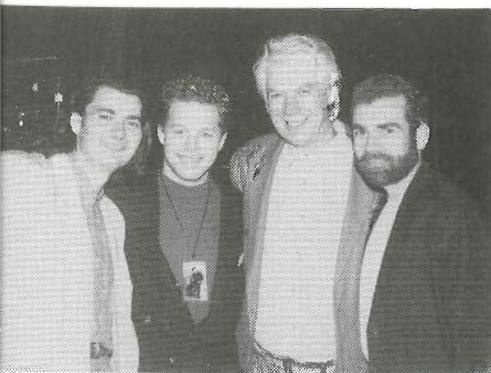

Black Or White will be supported by a video that will premiere on November 14 at approximately 8:25 pm, immediately following the Simpsons, on Global TV in Canada. John Landis, who directed the film An American Werewolf In London, and directed Jackson's Thriller video, took on similar chores for the new 11-minute short film. It is not known at time of writing whether Slash appears in the video, but it has been revealed that it does include appearances from Bart Simpson, Macaulay Culkin (Home Alone) and George Wendt (Cheers).

In addition to the elaborate video release, there is also a 30 second animated television spot which was directed by David Lynch. The

Lori Chappell upped at A&M to label coordinator

Lori Chappell has been appointed to the position of Independent Label Coordinator for A&M Records. Chappell will also continue as Executive Assistant to Lee Silversides.

Chappell's new responsibilities will include the scheduling of all independent labels product, and for the channelling of marketing and new release information to the National Marketing Group and to the field.

spot is currently running in 200 Cineplex-Odeon theatres across Canada and is expected to be aired on television 10 days prior to the release of the album.

Dangerous, produced by Jackson and his long-time engineer Bruce Swedien, will be available on cassette, CD and as a two-record set. Oates explains, "Obviously we're not going to release the CD and cassette simultaneously with the vinyl on the 25th, we're going to wait and see what the demand for vinyl will be at retail, and then go ahead. However, Dangerous will definitely be available on vinyl as a 2-record set to accommodate record collectors." Also available at retail will be a specially packaged, limited edition 9" x 9" pop-up CD. An estimated 10,000 copies will be available in Canada.

There are no predictions for sales as yet, but the out-of-the-box numbers have been growing increasingly since the single shipped to radio. Taking into consideration the economy, the initial shipment was purposely held down to a conservative 200,000. However, with the added excitement over the airing of the single and the confidence from the retailers, it's expected this figure will be closer to the 300,000 mark. Oates wasn't ready to supply official figures, leaving it at "we'll be shipping multi-platinum."

Certifications up almost 50 percent over last year

What could be an indicator of the recording industry recovering from the recession are the latest statistics from the Canadian Recording Industry Association (CRIA), revealing an increase of almost 50 percent over last October. There were 57 certifications, including one diamond, for October '91, up from 30 last October. It was also encouraging to see the certifications surpass last month's 41.

Leading the pack with a diamond award was George Michael's Faith album. The album entered the RPM 100 at No. 62 on Nov. 28, 1987 and topped the chart on Jan. 23, 1988, continuing a run of 70 weeks through April 17, 1989. Sony also certified the album for nine times platinum and Michael's Listen Without Prejudice Volume I as double platinum.

Certifying as triple platinum were R.E.M. (Out Of Time) and Metallica's self-titled album. Both albums were also certified as double, solo platinum and gold. Also certified as double platinum were Crash Test Dummies (The Ghosts That Haunt Me), Dire Straits (On Every Street) and Natalie Cole (Unforgettable).

Solo platinum certifications were made for Skid Row (Slave To The Grind), Van Halen (For Unlawful Carnal Knowledge), Lenny Kravitz (Mama Said), Cher (Love Hurts), John Mellencamp (Whenever We Wanted), The KLF (The White Room), Clint Black (Put Yourself In My Shoes), Tom Cochrane (Mad Mad World), The Original Broadway Cast of Les Miserables, Ricky Van Shelton (Wild-Eyed Dream), Bob Seger (The Fire Inside), Hammer (Too Legit To Quit), and Amy Grant (Heart In Motion).

Skid Row, Van Halen, Cher, John Mellencamp, The KLF, Tom Cochrane, Ricky Van Shelton and Hammer also certified for gold

Jackson is slated to appear on the MTV Tenth Anniversary Special on November 10. Only four acts have been confirmed for the show to date, George Michael, Madonna, Aerosmith and Jackson.

Charitable contributions honour Barney Samuels

The name Barnett "Barney" Jule Samuels will long be remembered in the Canadian music industry. Mr. Samuels, who passed away in Toronto on Oct. 19, was the founder and Chairman of the Board of the Winnipeg-based National Record Distributors Ltd. and Music City Stores.

Born and raised in Winnipeg, Mr. Samuels cultured many friendships in the business when he launched his much-needed distribution company. His chain of Music City retail stores became an important part of Western Canada and Northern Ontario's record industry. The chain now numbers over 70 stores.

A highly respected retail marketer, Mr. Samuels moved to Toronto in 1970 where he operated the Dr. Denton children's wear operation and the business needs of National.

In lieu of flowers, Mr. Samuels' family requests that memorial contributions be made to the Reena Foundation for the Developmentally Handicapped, 75 Dufflaw Road, Suite 200, Toronto, M6A 2W4.

along with Bad Company (Holy Water), Jane's Addiction (Ritual De Lo Habitual), Tesla (Psychotic Supper), Robbie Robertson (Storyville), Sarah McLachlan (Solace), The Judds (Love Can Build A Bridge), The Commitments Soundtrack, Ricky Van Shelton (R.V.S. III), Motley Crue (Decade Of Decadence), the self-titled Color Me Badd, Vince Gill (Pocket Full Of Gold), Mark Chestnutt (Too Cold At Home), Harry Connick Jr. (Blue Light, Red Light), Ozzy Osbourne (No More Tears), Anthrax (Attack Of The Killer B's), Hot Country Hits by Various Artists), Ice-T (O.G. Original Gangster) and Lee Aaron (Some Girls Do).

Metallica was the solo gold single certification with Enter Sandman.

The Capitol Canada crew, headed up by Deane Cameron, welcomed Anne Murray to a post Capitol/Balmur O'Keefe reception.

The huffers and puffers . . . ! Canada's $700 million record industry will continue to make a lot of money for the emperors of the retail empires in spite of their huffing and puffing in trying to blow each other's houses down. It's interesting to read how an outsider views the record industry's battle zone, the Yonge Street strip. Mathew Ingram, writing in the Financial Times (Nov. 6) pits "the old-timer" (Sam Sniderman), against "the brash young upstart" (HMV's Paul Alofs), and it's a well-written, in-depth piece. (EC: If it were any deeper Sam wouldn't read it . . . !)

Is Jason having his way . . . ? I dropped down to the Yonge Street Strip this week to take a peek at the new addition to Sam's empire, which grew from the purchase of the bank on the corner of Yonge and Gould. They've done a nice job . . . bright and airy, but still distinctively Sam's. On the way out, there was Jason, stripped down to a t-shirt, cleaning up the window area of the old portion of the store. He's not saying, but it's pretty obvious Jason is having much more to say about the operation and how it should look. His new office is the old vault of the bank. Is there a hidden message there? If Sam gives the kid a little more muscle room, he can sit back and not worry about the competition. Take it easy Sam. Your empire's in good hands. (EC: What's that line about the Emperor's closet . . . ?)

Just in the nick of time . . . ! I understand the 5th Annual People's Choice Juno Award (sponsored by Molson Breweries) has announced the following nominees: Bryan Adams, Blue Rodeo, Celine Dion, Colin James and The Tragically Hip. Representatives of Canada's entertainment media came up with this short list. Now, the brewery and CARAS will make ballots available where young record fans can find them. (EC: Now that we've been threatened by the Juno people . . . I guess I have nothing to add . . . !)

A little bit of knowledge . . . ! Howcum, the president of a well-known organization, whose initials are CARAS, can criticize what's in RPM, when that organization doesn't even have a subscription to RPM? (EC: That's a fair question, but will you get a fair answer or a lawyer's explanation . . . ?)

Hey! Big time for U2 . . . ! Predictions are that U2's new single, Mysterious Ways, is going to be a scorcher. Radio stations have been asked explicitly, not to report the action on the single until next week. Some stations have already reported it, but retreated quickly when they got the record company advisory. (EC: Watch the chart action next week . . . ?)

People With A Purpose . . . ! HMV's Yonge Street Superstore will be the setting on Nov. 16 for the launch of the Toronto-based Not-For-Profit, Pro-Youth, Anti-Drug Organization's Straight Up Concert Tour '91. Lots of great Canadian talent will be on hand including Paris Black, Debbie Johnson, Acosta-Russell, Alanis, Lisa Lougheed, Top Secret, Porsha-Lee, Kristine Morrel, Self Defense, Kim Esty and more. (EC: No brewery sponsorship here . . . !)

More money from the trough . . . ! Watch for a government-sponsored songwriting contest to honour Canada's 150th birthday. The big prize is estimated to be $50,000. One question. Will that be in English or French . . . the winning song, I mean. (EC: We may only have English when that birthday comes around . . . ?)

Don't believe those reports . . . ! The dailies like to paint a picture of doom and gloom. They are now predicting that we're going to have a pretty dismal Christmas. Bad sales! No sales! Bankruptcies by the dozen! Well, check out your local record retail store. Records, in whatever form . . . CDs, cassettes or vinyl, if you can find it, are still the best buys in the world of retail, particularly at the four stores where A&A offers top line CDs and cassettes for $10.88 and $6.88, respectively. (EC: Respectively . . . ?)

No chart holds for Jackson . . . ! Those stations who have added Michael Jackson's new single, Black Or White, don't have to worry about reporting the chart action. This one could be as big as Beat It . . . so why not report on it. YOU could be the first, and you know how record companies like to reward radio stations. (EC: Major, secondary . . . and don't forget the thirddandary and fourthandary markets . . . !)

SOME GIRLS DO

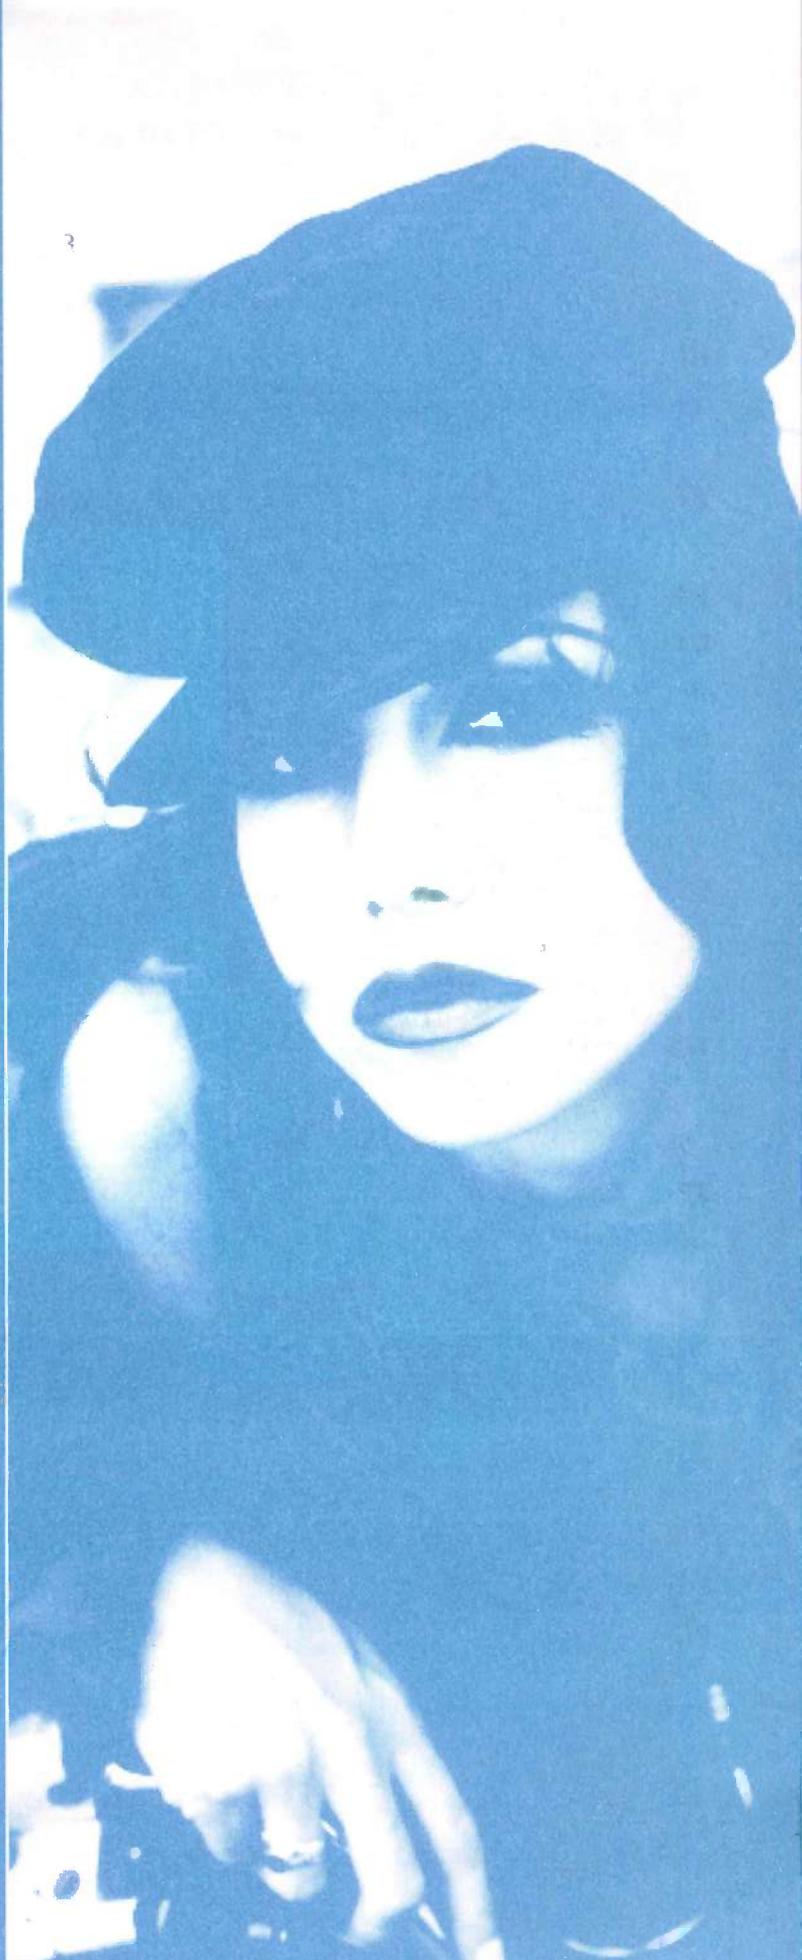

"If Aerosmith had a female singer and lived in Canada, this is the kind of track they would write.

Solid groove, kick-ass beat, melodic sensibility, and power of conviction playing make 'Some Girls Do' a natural pick for album radio. Throw in some killer production and a proven track record and what more could you ask for?"

MCA's COUNTRY CHRISTMAS BELLES' AND 'BEAUS'

REBA MCENTIRE For My Broken Heart

A near-gold ship out, For My Broken Heart follows Reba's first ever Country platinum recording, Runaway Hiss II. The first single and title track is destined for #1 and with Reba's extensive U.S. talk show airplay, awareness and forthcoming I.V. Christmas Special, consumer awareness of For My Broken Heart will be extraordinarily high.

JOAN KENNEDY

Candle In The Window

Her MCA debut release has already yielded 3 consecutive Top 20 hits and Joan's fourth, "Candle In The Window", is already lighting up country radio. Recently nominated for Best Female Vocalist and Best Album by the CCMA, Joan Kennedy is now regarded as one of the premier Canadian country artists.

PATSY CLINE

The Patsy Cline Collection

The definitive anthology of Patsy Cline captures all of the memories of this legendary performer with a 4 cassette or 4 CD collection of 104 songs and a 68-page booklet of liner notes and rare photos. Beautifully packaged and attractively priced, this 4 1/2 hour tribute to Patsy Cline will be one of the most sought after Box Sets during the Holiday season.

TRISHA YEARWOOD

Trisha Yearwood

Trisha's accomplishments with her debut release have firmly established her as a star of the future. Her first single, "She's In Love With the Boy", was the first by a female artist has scored a #1 hit with her debut single. Her second album is already close to #1 in Canada and with her second single "Life We Never Had" Broken Heart" sitting near the top of the chart, sales on this album will continue through the Christmas season.

PATTY LOVELESS

Up Against My Heart

Up Against My Heart is only Patty's fifth MCA recording and already she ranks high in Nashville's inner circle of female vocalists. The first single "Heart Like Mine" is the first of many Top 10 singles to come from this stellar release, one that is sure to expand Patty's sales base beyond the established gold level.

DESERT ROSE BAND

True Love

Always a strong seller in Canada, Desert Rose Band's latest release features ten new songs from the Academy of Country Music's Best of the Year. The first single "You Can Go Home" is receiving heavy airplay on Canadian radio and the new album will be featured on Desert Rose Band's city western Canada tour in November.

JOEL FEENEY

32 Western Front

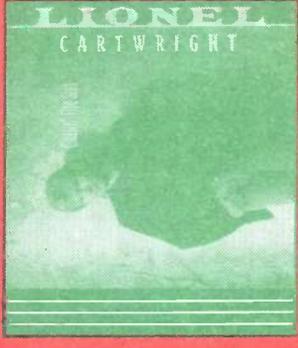

Joel Feeney's success story is just starting and after one listen to this album, everyone will want to be a part of it. Joel's first two singles have reached Top 20 on the Canadian charts and the third release "Diamonds" along with a video will be released in November. Feeney, a recent CCMA Horizon nominee, recorded the hitmaker of Eagles and Poco, of the same time retransmitting the sound into what will be a radio industry for years to come.

VINCE GILL

Pocket Full of Gold

This is Vince Gill's year. Vince Gill recently received three CMA awards including Male Vocalist of the Year. His current release Pocket Full of Gold is already #1 in Canada and has yielded two top ten hits. The latest single "Look at Us" is currently top ten here and the heavily played video features his wife Lorie (Sweethearts of the Rodeo). With the recent success, Pocket Full of Gold is now #1 on both the Country Album chart and the Top 100 Pop chart.

LIONEL CARTWRIGHT

Chasin' The Sun

Chasin' the Sun, Lionel's third release for MCA, has already produced a #1 single and video with "Keep of Faith". The album is stock full of hits and destined to be his biggest release yet. Lionel will start a Western Canada tour of the end of November.

GEORGE JONES

And Along Came Jones

The majority of today's top country stars including Garth Brooks cite George Jones as a major influence in their careers. George live up to his reputation with the release of his debut MCA album, And Along Came Jones. The first single "You Couldn't Bet the Picture" is riding the airwaves with heavy airplay across Canada. With a fresh outlook on his career, George will also be handling video and publicity support to this new project.

COVER STORY - by David Pierson

Jazz is a "King size" passion for piano player

There was probably no one more disappointed than Bill King when the CRTC no longer required radio broadcasters to program specialized music formats under the Promise of Performance commitment.

King, a Toronto writer, performer and on-air personality watched with dismay as his syndicated show, The Jazz Report, was in his own words, "killed right across the board."

But his love of jazz remains undiminished as he and his partner, Greg Sutherland, continue to publish a quarterly entitled The Jazz Report and a compilation of his recordings called The Night Passage Years has just been released on Justin Time Records.

"In the years between '84 and '86 I recorded three albums, Ice, Avenue B and City of Dreams. The masters had been put away for several years until Jim West of Justin Time Records decided to help me preserve them on CD."

Featuring a stellar cast of musicians, including saxophonist, Pat LaBarbera, bassist Dave Young and drummer Joe LaBarbera, King further enhances his collection with the vocal talents of Liberty Silver. The chanteuse can be

Headbangers and rockers make mark at MuchMusic

A cursory glance at RPM's top 100 albums chart the last few months would reveal the continued popularity of heavy metal and hard rock. Never one to ignore trends, combined with a desire to keep on the cutting edge of musical tastes, MuchMusic has made some recent programming changes to reflect Canada's more hard rocking tastes.

"The Power Hour was always one of our most popular shows, so it made sense to go with a nightly show, so we came up with the Power 30, which plays the top 30 of metal," explained John Martin, MuchMusic's Director of Music Programming.

And for people who like to rock out but not bang their head, a new weekend show has been created entitled Start Me Up, where for three hours each Saturday and Sunday, tunes by groups like the Black Crowes and Rolling Stones will be featured.

In keeping with MuchMusic's philosophy of interactive street programming, the network recently had Bruce Cockburn in for a live 90-minute broadcast where viewers could ask questions by either video via satellite, phone or fax to Cockburn right across the country.

"The concept is new, but it worked well with the Cockburn show, so hopefully we can do the same for some more bands in the near future."

In terms of new VJ's, Martin said that Simon Evans, a producer at MuchMusic for the last seven years, will be one of the new VJ's, with an "anti-VJ attitude."

For the future, Martin said that MuchMusic has no plans to expand its eight hours of original broadcasting a day, but promises those eight hours will continue to be the most original and entertaining hours of music video on the continent.

heard on Sugar, God Bless The Child and Loverman.

Born in Jeffersonville, Indiana, King won scholarships to Boston's Berklee College of Music and Oscar Peterson's Advanced School of Contemporary Studies in Toronto. Through the '60s and '70s most of his work was in the world of rock. He backed people like Freddie Cannon, The Shangri Las, Chuck Berry and The Raelettes, as well being Musical Director and

Hallmark Christmas album a tradition

Hallmark Cards' 1991 Christmas music offering will feature Harry Belafonte and Jennifer Warnes. The Tradition of Christmas, the seventh album in Hallmark's highly successful Christmas album series, also features the American Boychoir and the London Symphony Orchestra.

Hallmark retailers are offering cassette formats for $2.95 and CD for $6.95, with any Hallmark purchase.

In vintage style, Belafonte sings, The First Noel, I Heard The Bells On Christmas Day, What Child Is This, as well as the West Indian carol, The Baby Boy and a Caribbean reprise of Mary's Little Boy.

Warnes' vocal versatility is evident in the selections of God Rest Ye Merry Gentleman, O Little Town of Bethlehem and I'll Be Home For Christmas. The American Boychoir sings, Deck The Halls, The Twelve Days of Christmas, Joy To The World and We'll Sing You A Christmastime.

The first Hallmark Christmas album was released in 1984 and sold over 500,000. Last year's album, The Sound of Christmas, featuring Julie Andrews, sold nearly 2 million.

Industry heavies keep an eye on the Watchmen

Watch out for The Watchmen. The quartet from Winnipeg created a real buzz of excitement when they recently performed a showcase in front of a large crowd of music industry heavies at Toronto's Ultrasound Showbar.

Tireless touring, progressive songwriting and constant exposure has propelled The Watchmen into a band well worth its current reputation as one of Canada's best unsigned acts. The group has further enhanced its name by appearing as regional finalists in two national music competitions - 1989's Rock Showdown and last year's Band Warz '90 battle.

Guitarist Joey Serlin writes the band's driving pop songs which are executed with manic energy by frontman Danny Greaves, while the rhythm section of bassist Peter Loewen and drummer Sam Kohn provide a rock solid backbeat.

The Watchman has recently recorded an eight-song demo at Manta Sound with producer Chris Wardman. On the strength of this demo and their strong live performances The Watchman will no doubt be losing the unsigned adjective when it comes to describing the band.

pianist for Linda Ronstadt and Janis Joplin.

By the early '80s King had done a stint managing Axis Recording Studios in Atlanta, recorded with The Mighty Clouds of Joy and Sonny Criss, written for Chaka Khan, worked as Musical Director for comedian Craig Russell, recorded his band China on Epic Records and spent some time playing piano with Ronnie Hawkins and The Hawks.

Now with the release of his compilation, King is eager to get his quintet back in front of an audience again. "We've got a gig coming up at the Blue Note, which is a great place to play. People really know their jazz there."

It's that love of jazz that King feels will continue to grow and find a larger audience. "Look at the sales of people like Harry Connick Jr. and Holly Cole. There is a market for jazz out there and it's exciting to see those numbers growing."

Capitol's Tom Cochrane touting Life Is A Highway

Tom Cochrane is taking his Life Is A Highway tour right across Canada, along with a hot warmup group in the Infidels. After seven dates in B.C., Cochrane performed in Alberta at Calgary's Jubilee Theatre, Nov. 12, the Centrum in Red Deer, Nov. 13 and the Convention Centre in Edmonton, Nov. 15. Saskatchewan saw him perform at Regina's Centre of the Arts, Nov. 16 and Saskatoon's Centennial Auditorium on Nov. 17.

Cochrane's Manitoba appearances were limited to a two-night stand at Winnipeg's Walker Theatre on Nov. 19 and 20. Cochrane concludes his tour with dates at Thunder Bay's Community Auditorium on Nov. 22, Montreal's St. Denis on Nov. 25 and finally a two-night stand at Toronto's Massey Hall Nov. 27/28.

Dropping the Red Rider name hasn't affected album sales for Cochrane as his Mad Mad World album has climbed to the number two position on RPM's top 100 album chart after only six weeks. Cochrane says after the departure of guitarist Ken Greer, a name change was inevitable. "I tend to put a lot of emphasis on integrity and with Kenny gone, he was the last original member, I just didn't feel it was fair to call it Red Rider anymore."

COUNTRY

Laura Vinson and Dave Martineau will have a new single released by the end of November. The release will be coupled with the re-release of Vinson's Christmas album, released last year. The new single entitled Road Hard, will be presented at an Edmonton media/industry party at Molson House on Nov. 20. Fred LaRose of the Stereotype label, also reports the finishing touches being made on the Vinson/Martineau album to be titled Rise Like A Phoenix. A video grant has been secured and work is now being done on a video of the title track. Vinson and Martineau made a good impression at the recent COCA conference at Winnipeg and a solid slate of bookings at colleges is expected for next year.

Gerry King's Heartwreck is beginning to take hold. The single is being given a promotion push by Saddlestone Records of Surrey, B.C. King has been nominated as Male Vocalist in the Country category for this year's West Coast tribute awards (Nov. 10). He has also been nominated for Nashville's International Independent Country Music Awards set for Feb. 6 through 9, where he has also been asked to perform three songs from his Boots & Jeans album. King has just finished up an engagement at the Overlander Inn, Williams Lake, B.C., and is currently working Prince George's Yellowhead Inn (Nov. 4 through 16, followed by the Flamingo Hotel in Surrey, B.C. (19 to 23). King's video of Heartwreck debuts on MuchMusic's Outlaws & Heroes on Nov. 24 in medium rotation.

Larry Mercey gets the CD treatment for his Full Speed Ahead album, previously only available as a cassette. The CD contains Mercey's four past chart items. His latest, True Blue, now at No. 29, will shortly be followed by Hold That Thought.

CKNX AM 920 Wingham scored another first by broadcasting live from Opryland in Nashville over the Thanksgiving weekend (Oct. 12). Opryland's Andrew Heyman revealed that CKNX was the first Canadian radio station to use the on-site facilities at Opryland for a live broadcast. Bonnie Holliday, co-host of the station's Saturday Morning, interviewed Opryland personnel, musicians and random Opryland visitors, some of whom were Canadians, during the three-hour broadcast. A number of CKNX listeners accompanied Holliday to Nashville for the weekend. An added bit of excitement was Holliday's appearance with Porter Wagoner on the Nashville Network prior to the Grand Ol' Opry.

Johnny Murphy, Music Director at Selkirk's (Winnipeg) QX104, gives the nod this week to the Brooks & Dunn outing of My Next Broken Heart (No. 39) and to Ron Crosby's Still Burning For You (No. 40). Patricia Conroy's Why I'm Walking jumps from 38 to 29. Another big jumper is the Davis Daniel track, For Crying Out Loud, up to No. 24 from No. 34.

Morgan and Manderson's duet, In The Mind Of My Woman, gets an Honourable Mention in Robert K. Oermann's Disc Claimer in this week's Music Row out of Nashville. Both Paula Manderson and Lindsay Thomas Morgan are charting with their solo singles, Tall, Dark & Lonesome and Love Is respectively. Programmers are now picking up on the duet which is released on Roto Noto's CD compilation Border De-Fences.

Vancouver's Talent Inc. are now the exclusive Canadian representatives of the producer, arranger, writer, musician team of Ralph Murphy and Bobby Wood. Murphy is currently signed with Howlin' Hits Music, a subsidiary of Hamstein Music, whose roster includes Clint Black and ZZ Top. Recent productions include Anita Perras, T.M. Harding, Susan Jacks, Jess Lee and Rocky Swanson. Wood's name has appeared on the credits of many in the pop/country field. He has played keyboards for Elvis Presley, Wilson Pickett, Merle Haggard, Charlie Rich, B.J. Thomas, Garth Brooks and more. He is currently the keyboardist and musical director for The Highwaymen (Johnny Cash, Willie Nelson and Waylon Jennings).

Weird Harold gives the chart nod this week to Tanya Tucker's What Do I Do With Me (No. 26) and Reba McEntire's For My Broken Heart (No. 3). His Pick Hit is Brooks and Dunn's My Next Broken Heart. New adds to the WX1130 RealCountry Playlist include Right On Time by the Johnner Brothers, Mark Koenig's Pretend and Hold On Partner by Clint Black with Roy Rogers.

Lisa Logan's latest Roto Noto release, Gotta Get My Love To You, got the attention of Joel Christie, Music Director of 820 CHAM Hamilton. The track is included on Roto Noto's CD compilation Border De-Fences. Also listed are Vince Gill's Look At Us, Some Guys Have All The Luck by Little Texas and Life's Too Long (To Live Like This) by Ricky Skaggs.

Dick Damron will be featured on CBC-TV's Country Beat on Nov. 16. The show airs Saturdays at 10 pm, but it must be the best kept secret the CBC has. No information as to who hosts or who the upcoming guests are. Patricia Conroy will be on the same show. Apparently CBC did an interview/profile bit on Damron at his home in Bentley, and taped him in concert at Edmonton's Texas Bull. Damron's new track, Hold On Tight, is included on the latest Bookshop CD compilation. His final Canadian dates for this year will be at Calgary's Country Roads (Nov. 14 through 16), after which he is off on his annual pilgrimage to Mexico and Las Vegas.

Pharis Christmas single to be released by ATI

ATI, a Toronto-based independent label, is readying the release of The Littlest Christmas Angel, co-written by Alberta's award-winning writers Dawna Roskies and Jo Hanson. The song, a narrative, was recorded by Hod Pharis. Pharis became famous in the fifties, through his writing of I Heard The Bluebirds Sing. The song was recorded by The Browns (Jim, Maxine and Bonnie), who for years dominated the charts with their RCA hits.

The Pharis session was recorded at Edmonton's Beta Sound Recorders. Gary Koliger produced. The single comes complete with Christmas card and lyrics.

Lindsay Thomas Morgan and the band at Lulu's (l to r) bassist Brian Wiltner, keyboardist Ian Tanner, Morgan, lead guitarist Wendall Ferguson, and drummer Scott Bruyaa.

Oldies 990 and Discus teamed to challenge Montrealer's music trivia knowledge with the Oldies 990/Discus Music Trivia contest. Over $6,500 in prizes were awarded during the Sept. 23 to Oct. 18 promotion. Trivia questions were asked three times daily with Gary James and the James Gang between 8:30 and 9 am, in the All-Request Cafe from noon to 1 pm, and during the Five O'Clock Traffic Jam at 5 pm. The first caller with the correct answer was instantly awarded a $25 Discus Gift Certificate. On four Fridays throughout the contest, one name was selected from among the week's winners and that listener won a brand new CD player and $990 of CDs from Discus. The contest concluded with a live broadcast at the Discus Cavendish Mall store on Oct. 17, 18 and 19.

Winnipeg's 92 CITI FM once again offered listeners the chance to win thousands of dollars in cash, trips and cars. "Just for having a 92 CITI RockSticker," says CITI FM Promotion Director, Jody Elle. The prizes included trips to the first

by Tim Evans

One-two twice! Bryan Adams' Can't Stop This Thing We Started easily holds on to the No. 1 spot atop the Hit Tracks chart. Tom Cochrane's Life Is A Highway moves into the No. 2 spot, marking the first time in 13 years Canadian artists have been one-two. The scene is the same on the Albums chart, with Adams and Cochrane one-two.

Queensryche could be next . . . With the recent visit to Canada by Chuck and Di, and then by Fergie, Royalty has been abundant. In honour of their visits, name the artists with royal-sounding names who have had a No. 1 song. Hint: there are five but the KINGbees and Patty DUKE aren't on the list.

The third so far. Bryan Adams becomes the third artist this year to have two No. 1 songs (Rod Stewart and Mariah Carey are the others). Last year, only Wilson Phillips and Phil Collins managed to accomplish that (although Phil Collins did it twice with four No. 1s).

You spell it tomato . . . Hammer (hold the MC) enters the Hit Tracks chart with 2 Legit 2 Quit or is it Too Legit To Quit? It depends where you look. The album lists the song being spelled out. However, on the CD single and on the compilation, it's spelled with the numerals. According to the Capitol folks, the album title is spelled out, but the song title is with numerals.

Off to a fast start! No Son Of Mine from Genesis jumps to No. 15 in just its second week. That's higher than any other song has been this year in its second week. The only other song which came close was Robbie Robertson's What About Now which went to No. 16.

The Kings and Queens. The five royal-sounding artists to have a No. 1 song are: the Kingsmen, Ben E. King, Carole King, Prince, and Queen. Honourable Mentions to the Buckingham, Royal Dragoons, Royal Guardsmen and Billy Joe Royal.

San Jose Sharks home game, prime seats at the American League Baseball Final, a trip to Vancouver to appear in Neon Rider, the TV series, and one winner off to see the Rocket Ismail when the Toronto Argonauts played the Winnipeg Blue Bombers, then off to Cape Canaveral to see the rockets take off. Elle also reveals that Brian and Larry's Jokermobile, "a 1972 Cadillac hearse with a paint job that would make Andy Warhol blush and $6,000 was given away on Halloween. With this list of prizes plus a mountain of other daily gifts of cash and concert tickets, it's difficult to drive down a street in Winnipeg and NOT see a 92 CITI Rock Sticker on a listeners vehicle."

Rooster McGee, evening personality at CHNO Sudbury, had the opportunity to do a live interview with Attic recording artist Lee Aaron, prior to her concert at the Grand Theatre. Aaron is currently charting with both her album, Some Girls Do, and first single, Sex With Love.

Mix 99.9 goes all Canadian with a new special, 49th Parallel. The station's Miriam Sakoor describes the all-Canadian one-hour entertainment show as one that "dares not to be dull." Hosted by Dan Williamson and Maureen Holloway and produced by John Masecar, the one-hour show, which went to air Oct. 26, is heard twice weekly (Saturdays at 11 pm and Sundays at 8 am). The show "takes a slightly irreverent, tongue-in-cheek look at the Canadian entertainment scene," says Sakoor. Although

OV63 turns 60 and celebrates with gifts

CKOV (OV63) Kelowna, B.C. in celebrating 60 years of broadcasting has made a very special give to the Kelowna community. A promotional advertising campaign totalling $60,000 has been awarded 12 organizations that are also serving the community.

Over the next year, each of the organizations will be allowed $5,000 in advertising time. The twelve organizations selected to receive the special awards are: Big Brothers, Boys and Girls Club of Kelowna, the Elizabeth Fry Society, the Central Okanagan Indian Friendship Society, Salvation Army, Kelowna Centennial Museum, Crisis and Information Centre and the United Way.

CKOV went on the air at 2:50 pm on November 4, 1931, and as the station's Dean Cooper and Bill Barnes jointly boast, "continues to be a vital part of the Okanagan Valley.

the show will feature entertainment interviews with Canadian film makers, writers, travel experts and more, the focus will be mainly on Canadian music (mainstream/CHR/rock) previewing new releases and checking the charts. Tom Cochrane, Neil Young and Bruce Cockburn were featured in the first show. Sakoor explains, the show was developed "after an overwhelming number of Mix 99.9 listeners expressed a desire to hear Canadian music featured more prominently. With this in mind, Mix 99.9 management plan to go national with the show in the near future."

Wayne Isham will be the subject of a MuchMusic Director Profile on Nov. 20 at 5 and 9 pm and again the next day (21) at 5 am. Isham, a Grammy nominee and MTV Michael Jackson Video Vanguard Award winner, has been one of the leading lights in the video music industry.

LOOKING TO GET BACK IN THE GAME

From August '88 to October '89 I worked overnights and evenings in a Top 25 market. Then a family crisis forced me to quit my job and kept me on the sidelines for a year and a half. Now I want back in the game! Shift, unimportant, market size, irrelevant. If you're a Gold/AC/CHR/AOR anywhere in the country with a jock position open, call me now and I'll Fedex a tape and resume faster than it takes to count Dan Quayle's IQ. Phone: 204-338-1208

He specializes in live videos. His work includes Bon Jovi's Blaze Of Glory, Billy Joel's Soviet Union Concert, Bryan Adams' Heat Of The Night, and Rock And A Hard Place by the Rolling Stones and many more.

C-FAX is named official station of the two major Christmas Boat Parades in the Victoria area. This is the second consecutive year for the honour which is held off Sidney waterfront on Dec. 7 and in the Victoria Inner Harbour on the 14th. The parades have become highlights of the Christmas season in the Victoria area. Boat owners decorate their craft with streamers, lights and tinsel and many install sound systems that play seasonal music through loudspeakers on deck. C-FAX provides extensive publicity and technical support as well as serving as Registration Headquarters for both parades.
