STEW POTS LOOK-OUT

On November 20, 1972 the Queen and Prince Philip celebrate their 25th Wedding Anniversary. To mark this very royal occasion, as many as 35 countries and territories will be issuing celebration stamps.

This is the second time ever that a Royal Silver Wedding has been 'stamped' by the British Post Office. The first time was in 1948 for the King George VI and Queen Elizabeth Silver Wedding.

It's fitting that the occasion should be marked in this way for the Queen inherited the world's finest and most valuable stamp collection —the Royal Collection—which was started by her grandfather King George V. The collection is considered to be the most comprehensive and valuable of its kind.

The British Silver Wedding stamps were designed by Jeffrey Matthews and the new profile photographs were taken by Norman Parkinson, the leading fashion photographer. Jersey's Silver Wedding stamps, on sale earlier than the remainder (Nov. 1st) were designed by Gordon Drummond—these stamps are the first to depict the princes Andrew and Edward.

Special Souvenirs

Other Silver Wedding stamp souvenirs include: Special Silver Wedding stamp album; Silver Wedding stamp album complete with every stamp being issued; a British Post Office souvenir booklet. This booklet, priced at 40p contains one each of the two British stamps and is lavishly illustrated. The text highlights the Royal Wedding as well as recalling notable Royal occasions during the past 25 years.

A 28p presentation pack will be available—contents are 2 stamps with background details. These will be obtainable from over 600 main post offices.

The Goal-Getters

Goals are what football is all about and, fortunately for spectators, there are a few top-class strikers who have found a way through the tight marking and hard tackling of modern, well-drilled defences.

There are few followers of football who would deny that GEORGE BEST is the best of them all. His destructive body swerve and quicksilver change of pace can unsettle most defenders. His intelligent running into position to receive a pass, his electrifying dribbles and ability to take on and beat opponents are hallmarks of a great player.

Turn to page 8 for more 'Goal-Getters'...

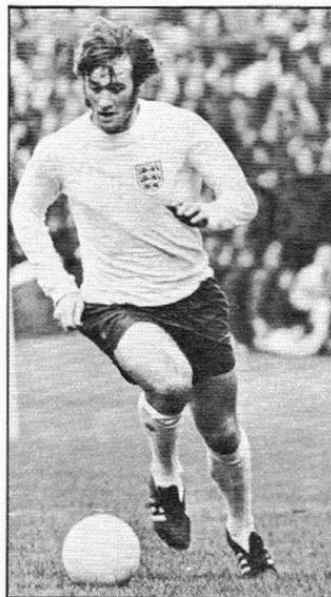

Martin Chivers heads in Spurs' first goal in the First Division match against Huddersfield Town in August, 1971.

The Goal-Getters

George Best may be the pride of Old Trafford, but RODNEY MARSH (below, right) is rapidly winning the respect and admiration of Manchester City fans. His delicate footwork and ball control hide the fact that he is a dangerous and determined player, ready to invite and resist the fiercest of challenges.

Marsh is at his best by the far post, waiting for the cross, when he times his jump to perfection. He's still going up when the rest are on the way down! On the other hand, MARTIN CHIVERS (above) would probably admit that he is weakest going for centres on the far post. He prefers the ball played short to the near post where he can try a shot at goal.

Big 'Chiv' has a strong physique and power to fight his way through defences; with an explosive shot in both feet and skilful in the air, he is one of our finest all-round players. CHARLIE GEORGE (left) still to reach his peak, burst upon the soccer scene in 1969 and, ever since, his uncanny knack of being in the right place at the right time, knowing what to do with the ball even before he gets it, and his supreme confidence in his own ability make him a constant threat.

Whereas Charlie is direct and aggressive, it is ALLAN CLARKE's (right) positional sense, his ghosting into empty spaces and his immaculate ball control which make him such a prolific scorer. With 100 League goals to his credit before joining Leeds Utd., he formed a quick understanding with twin striker Mick Jones and dramatically changed the team's style of play.

England's Allan Clarke snatches the ball from the goalkeeper in the match against Scotland in July, 1971.

Like George, MIKE CHANNON (right) is a one-club player, signing for Southampton in 1964 and taking over the main striking rôle when Chivers moved to Spurs. This season his skills both in the air and on the ground are being fully recognized. The near perfect player off the ball, he teamed up fluently with Joe Royle in the England v. Yugoslavia match at Wembley recently.

These, and players like them, can be relied upon to do the unexpected and add excitement and atmosphere to our national game.

HELLO, readers, Kathie Webber here again. Just look at those gorgeous lamb cutlets — they certainly make my mouth water.

That's the recipe this week, and Ferdie Fingers gives you some very important safety information.

Chef Cat and Mouse present some more cookery words.

HI THERE . . . Chef Cat and Mouse here— boy, oh, boy! It's nice to be back with you in LOOK-IN. Just two words for you this week:

GRATING: To grate means to rub food against a grater. The sharp edges cut off small pieces. You can grate cheese and lemon rind.

PEELING: Apples, potatoes, carrots and other root vegetables need peeling. Using a sharp knife, cut away a very thin outside layer. (But be careful. Make sure you read what old Ferdie Fingers has to say elsewhere on the page before you start).

TAKE A TIP FROM FERDIE

FERDIE, FAMOUS THROUGHOUT THE WORLD FOR HIS SKILL WITH THE KNIFE, WILL NOW DEMONSTRATE WITH THE HELP OF CHOP-CHOP HOW HE WASHES HIS COVETED OSWALD AWARD FOR THE SAFEST KNIFE WIELDING CHIEF OF THE YEAR.

CAREFULLY TAKING CHOP-CHOP FROM THE DOUBLES, FERDIE HOLDS HIM FIRMLY BY THE HANDLE AND GRABS HIM DOWN BY HIS SIDE TO THE TABLE WHERE HE IS TO PERFORM THE FEAT THAT BROUGHT HIM FAME.

AS SOON AS HE HAS FINISHED FERDIE FINISHES GRABING SAFELY AND PUTS HIM SAFELY BACK IN HIS COZY DRAWER READY FOR HIS NEXT APPEARANCE WITH FERDIE IN ANOTHER ABSORBING FEAT.

FERDIE SOMETIMES FORGETS WHAT HE WAS GOING TO DO, BUT HE NEVER FORGETS THAT A KNIFE MUST TELL THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN A CARROT AND HIS FINGER. BUT YOU CAN.

GRILLED CUTLETS

8 lamb cutlets    1 large packet of instant potato
4 large tomatoes    8 cutlet frills

Wipe the cutlets then arrange them on the grid of the grill-pan. Grill the cutlets for about 10 minutes. Turn them over once or twice during the cooking and if, after 10 minutes, they're not done as well as you would like, cook them for 2 or 4 minutes more.

You can grill the tomatoes at the same time. Wash the tomatoes and cut them in half. Brush them with a little of the fat from the cutlets and put them on the grill-pan to grill. Make up the instant potato according to the instructions on the packet and make a mound of it in the centre of a hot oval serving dish.

Arrange the cutlets around the potato with the bones standing up. Put one cutlet frill on each lamb bone. Add the grilled tomato halves. Enough for four people.

Look-In/New World Young Cooks' Club is presented by arrangement with New World (Gas Cookers) Ltd. Chef Cat, Ferdie Fingers and The Mouse are the copyright of New World (Gas Cookers) Ltd. This feature is based on Kathie Webber's New World Young Cooks' Book.

STAR LETTER

A few days ago, my brother and I decided to bury some 'treasure'. Our valuable hoard included: one 1/2p piece; one 1p piece; a newspaper clipping about world affairs; and the front cover of LOOK-IN Number 36. We are hoping that someone will dig up our 'treasure trove' around the year 2500. I wonder what the lucky finder will think of LOOK-IN?

Peter Morrill,
Mansfield, Nottinghamshire.

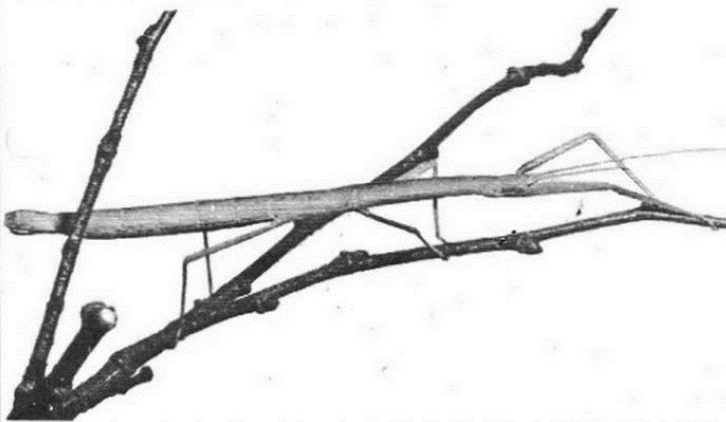

★ He'll probably be very disappointed to find only the cover!

BIG STICK

About a year ago I was given a stick insect, which feeds on privet leaves. Then it was about one inch long, but now it has grown to six inches. Recently it laid a large number of eggs—and now I have more than fifty stick insects.

Alison Frame,
Irvine, Ayrshire, Scotland.

★ Will you be giving some away, Alison—or do you want them all to stick together?

This adult stick insect is well camouflaged against its natural background.

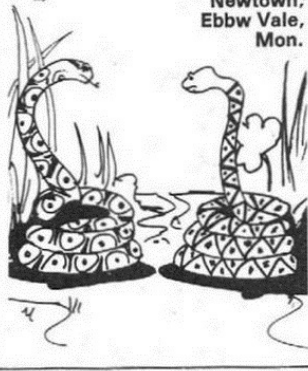

Leigh Barten,

"I'm glad I'm not a poisonous snake, I've just bitten my tongue!"

UNEASY RIDER

My grandad asked grandma for a clean shirt, so she gave him one that had been washed, ironed and aired. Driving to work, he felt very 'uncomfortable': he decided that the springs of his car seat were to blame, and arranged to have them repaired. But that night, at home, he took a closer look at his shirt. There on the end of it was a large clothes-peg which grandma had forgotten to remove!

Rosemary Johnson,
Meriden, Warwickshire.

★ And so ends the 'tale' of a shirt!

OLD SONG

In a recent LOOK-IN, 'Stan' in 'On The Buses' was shown singing a song called 'Black-Eyed Susie'. Please do you know of any singer who has made a record of this song?

Maria Shermann,
Girton, Cambridge.

★ Someone with a long memory tells me that 'Black-Eyed Susie' was a big hit way back in 1952 or thereabouts, sung by Guy Mitchell. Good hunting!

HOW

HOW did the words 'husband' and 'wife' originate?

Carol Ramsden, Bradford, Yorkshire.

Husband comes from the Old English (pre-Norman Conquest) word hus, meaning house, and an old Norse word, bondi, from the same period, meaning freeholder. And bondi comes from bua, to dwell! The origin of wife is less complicated. It comes from the Old English word, wif, meaning woman!

HOW did hockey get its name, and who first played it?

Peter Dakin, Penby, Wirral, Cheshire.

Today, hockey is played both by men and women.

Apparently, Peter, in Ancient Egypt they were playing a sort of hockey in 2000 B.C. But the modern game as we know it dates from the early 19th century, and the Hockey Association was formed in 1886 to govern the game. The actual word dates from the 16th century, but nobody seems to know its precise origin.

HOW true is it that Red Indians never have hair growing on their faces?

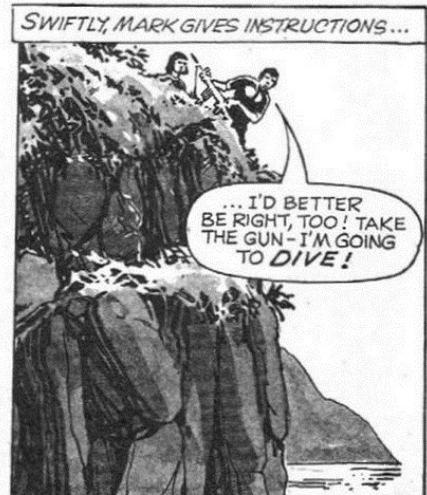

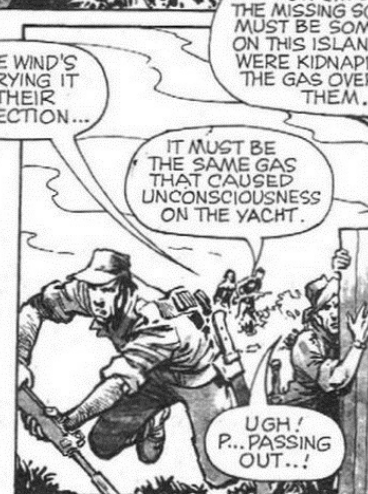

J. Paterson, Bolton, Lancs.

Though it is not true, the fact remains that Indians as a rule have little facial hair and almost always pluck out what there is; but not quite always. There are early photos of Navahos with moustaches!

More fun with Four 'C' next week!

THE SWEET FACTS

★ When Brian Connelly and Mick Tucker got together to form the group, Mick had to sell his car to raise the cash. ★ Only Mick Tucker had not played with any other group before The Sweet. Brian Connelly had been with 'The League of Gentlemen'; Steve Priest with 'Countdowns' and 'The Army'; and Andy Scott with 'Elastic Band', 'Mayfield's Mule' and 'Scaffold'. ★ Brian Connelly made his debut as an entertainer in the then-famous 'Carol Levis' Discoveries' radio show. Brian appeared as a Country-and-Western guitarist—at the age of five! ★ Mick Tucker learned to play drums when he was working in a garage: he used to pound out rhythms on an old tyre! ★ The Sweet originally planned to call themselves 'Sweet Shop' — but another group released a record under that name before The Sweet's first disc ★ When 'Co-Co', the group's Golden-Disc-winning single was released, the boys were presented with their own weight in cocoa!

Steve Priest played with two other groups before joining The Sweet

Two Men in Touch...

... are Mike Chapman and Nicky Chinn, the song-writing team responsible for such Sweet hits as 'Funny, Funny', 'Co-Co' and 'Alexander Graham Bell'. (Nicky Chinn is also The Sweet's manager.) They are so closely in touch, in fact, that Nicky believes they are telepathic, able to communicate by thought transference. He says: "One time I was in Putney and Mike was in Mayfair. We both woke up at the same time, eight-thirty, with the same idea for a song in mind!"

Chance, or fate, brought them together: Nicky was a customer in the restaurant where Mike was temporarily working, and they just happened to get into conversation. Before that Nicky was working with Mike D'Abo, while Mike Chapman belonged to the 'Tangerine Peel'.

Brian Connelly says: "In this day of musical progress, not many people can sit down and say they've written a string of hits like Mike and Nicky. It must be a million-to-one chance to write five hits in a row. But I don't think they'll dry up for years, because they love writing."

Look-in YOUNG FOOTBALLER'S CLUB

Hi, there, all young footballers! Here's a page specially to tell you all about our new Young Footballer's Club. We know you will want to join and take part in the GOLD STAR Award scheme — a great idea to help you be a better player. There are super badges to be won when you pass the GOLD STAR tests — and with Every badge you win there's a handsome proficiency certificate just right for framing! Doug Organ, Editor of Football Academy, the magazine which sponsors the Award scheme, will be writing for you every week.

GOLD STAR AWARDS

by Doug Organ

I'm very pleased that LOOK-IN has started the Young Footballer's Club because it means that all club members will be able to take part in the GOLD STAR Award scheme. Let me tell you something about it. With the help of a panel of experts headed by Sir Matt Busby, we've devised a whole series of tests which every keen young footballer between the ages of under-11 and under-17 years can take to win a GOLD STAR badge. Can you head a football into goal from the penalty spot? Can you keep the ball in the air for five bounces without touching it with your hands or arms? And can you kick it from the corner flag to land in the goal area first bounce? You can? Good! Because these are just three of the GOLD STAR tests which have been approved by the Football Associations of England, Ireland and Wales. When you send in the coupon to join the LOOK-IN Young Footballer's Club, you'll receive a membership card and your own copy of the GOLD STAR Wallchart setting out all the different tests you can take within your age group. You'll see that, whatever your age, there are five different grades of tests, each with their own badge and star rating — from One Star to Five Star — and you may enter for whichever tests you think you can pass. So practise them by yourself or with a few friends. I know you'll be surprised how quickly you improve your skill with a football, and it won't be long before you're proudly wearing one of the splendid GOLD STAR badges to prove how good a footballer you are! Next week, and every week from now on, I'll be writing for you and I hope I can suggest some tips which will help you become a still better player.

1. No. Unlike finger-prints, blood has no unique characteristics. Human blood can be divided into groups, and evidence can sometimes prove that blood could not have come from a certain person. 2. Just over 400. 3. Eight. 4. 67 in all, 47 in England and Wales, 20 in Scotland. 5. No. Each force has its own badge or badges.

Out of Town

Edited by Jack Hargreaves

Weather-wise ...and foolish

If you're planning to spend a day outdoors, how do you check on what weather you're likely to have?

Do you study the colour of the evening sky; finger the piece of seaweed hanging outside the back door; rush to the nearest field to see if the cattle are standing in corners with their backs to the wind; or, if it's the right time of year, count the number of days since St. Swithin's? Jack Hargreaves, like most countrymen, has a less picturesque method than any of these: he switches on the radio for the Meteorological Office's forecast.

Mind you, not all the traditional methods of foretelling the weather, and not all the old 'weather-wise' sayings, are wrong. "Red sky at night, shepherd's delight" is often a good guide, for clear skies mean fair weather, just as a 'halo' or misty ring around the moon —caused by the refraction of frozen crystals of moisture in high cirrus cloud formations—is a reliable omen of rain. And "Rain before seven, fine before eleven" often proves true as well, if only because local weather conditions tend to alter in four-to-six hour cycles.

Rain of displeasure

Poor old Saint Swithin, whom the proverb holds responsible for inflicting forty days' rain on us if it should happen to rain on his festival day of July 15, has been treated unfairly for almost exactly one thousand years: although perhaps the dedication of a new shrine to him at Winchester in 1962 makes up for it.

Swithin, who was Bishop of Winchester, died in the year 862, and is said to have asked to be buried outside the cathedral so that the "sweet rain of heaven might fall on his grave". In 964, when he was canonized and made a saint, the monks of Winchester decided that the body of so holy a man ought to lie inside the cathedral. The removal was to take place on July 15, but it rained so hard on that day and for the next forty days, as a sign of the saint's displeasure, the ceremony had to be put off. At least, that's the legend.

Weathercocks, which can help amateur weather-forecasters by showing the wind direction, date from about the same time as Saint Swithin. In the mid-ninth century, the Pope ordered that every church should set up the image of a cock on its steeple. This was intended to remind men of their weakness by recalling the story of how Saint Peter denied Christ three times before the cock crowed thrice.

Next week: Out of Town tells you about some of the hibernation habits of the creatures around us.

Rock Hudson in 'McMillan and Wife' few movie stars of today have the audience-attracting powers of the superstars of the 1930s and 1940s. On the other hand, the huge success of such films as LOVE STORY or WOODSTOCK proves that there is still a big audience for 'special' movies.

The relationship between cinema and television has sometimes been good for both. Some major movie stars—like Steve McQueen and Ryan O'Neal—have turned to the cinema after their first successes on television. The process works both ways: movie stars like Glenn Ford ('Cade's County'), Henry Fonda ('The Smith Family'), Rock Hudson ('McMillan and Wife') and Shirley Maclaine ('Shirley's World') all star in popular television series. Many full-length 'feature' films are now made in Hollywood for screening on television rather than in cinemas.

JUNIOR CINEMA

XXI: And Then There Was Television

This series has covered the important developments in the movie world from the very beginning to the coming of 'talkies' and colour films. Now, to round the story off, we take a look at the future of the movies.

In some ways, the prospect isn't very bright. Ever since the television set became as much a part of the average home as the cooker, cinema audiences have been dwindling. Very

TIMESLIP

LIZ SKINNER AND SIMON RANDALL HAVE THE INCREDIBLE ABILITY TO PASS THROUGH THE INVISIBLE TIME-BARRIER, ONE WINTRY AFTERNOON...

JUST THEN, LIZ BRUSHES AGAINST PART OF AN OLD WALL...

THE FIRST SNOW OF THE WINTER. HANG ON, LIZ, I'M GOING TO GIVE YOU A PRESENT.

DON'T YOU DARE, SIMON RANDALL! IF THAT SNOWBALL HITS ME...

HA! ROTTEN SHOT! I NEEDN'T HAVE WORRIED...

HEY, LOOK ON THAT WALL! THERE'S SOME SORT OF STRANGE MARK WHERE THE SNOW WAS KNOCKED OFF.

NEXT INSTANT...

IT'S SOME KIND OF SIGN CARVED DEEP INTO THE BRICK. AND THERE'S ALSO PART OF A DATE - EIGHTEENTH CENTURY, BY THE LOOK OF IT! WONDER WHAT IT'S ALL ABOUT?

I'D LIKE TO KNOW! NOW, IF WE WERE TO CONCENTRATE HARD...

WE'VE DONE IT! WE'RE GOING THROUGH THE TIME-BARRIER.

KEEP THINKING HARD, LIZ! IF WE'RE LUCKY, WE'LL LAND UP IN THE RIGHT TIME!

THE NEXT THEY KNOW...

WE HAVE, TOO! AT LEAST, I'D SAY WE'RE BACK IN GEORGIAN DAYS.

WELL, FIRST THINGS FIRST, WE'D BETTER HEAD FOR THE NEAREST COTTAGE! I'M COLD!

EVEN AS THEY DO...

WHAT NEXT? JUST KNOCK AND TELL THEM WE'RE FROM THE TWENTIETH CENTURY? THAT'LL START SOMETHING.

... LIKE US BEING ACCUSED OF WITCHCRAFT! FUNNY, THOUGH, THERE'S NO SMOKE FROM THE CHIMNEY, BUT THERE OUGHT TO BE A FIRE - IT'S FREEZING!

SUDDENLY UNEASY, THEY FINALLY PUSH OPEN THE DOOR...

IT'S EMPTY! THAT'S STRANGE - THE OCCUPANTS SEEM TO HAVE LEFT IN A TERRIBLE HURRY.

I DON'T LIKE IT - SOMETHING'S WRONG! MAYBE IT WASN'T SUCH A CLEVER IDEA TO TRAVEL HERE!

© 1972 ATV Network Ltd. Based on the ATV programme.

A GRIM SHOUT MAKES LIZ AND SIMON SPIN ROUND...

COME OUT OF THERE! BY MY OATH, A COUPLE OF YOUNGSTERS, YOU CHOOSE A BAD PLACE IN WHICH TO STRAY.

OH!

SIR, I CAN ASSURE YOU WE'RE DOING NO HARM.

THE STERN FACE OF SQUIRE BRIGGS RELAXES...

STRANGERS, NO DOUBT! YOU'D BETTER COME TO MY HOME LIKE THE OTHER FUGITIVES. WE DON'T WANT OUR FAMED DEVIL BIRD CARRYING YOU YOUNG PEOPLE OFF...

SOON...

... AYE, MY TENANTS ARE SCARED OUT OF THEIR WITS. THEY SAY IT'S A GIANT BIRD - SOME DEVILISH CONTRIVANCE OF WITCHCRAFT.

REMEMBER THE MARK CARVED IN THE WALL?

THEY RECEIVE THE SQUIRE'S HOSPITALITY...

SIMON, DO YOU BELIEVE IN A DEVIL BIRD? IT SOUNDS SO CREEPY!

AND FAR-FETCHED! THAT'S THE ADVANTAGE OF BEING FROM THE TWENTIETH CENTURY. I WISH WE COULD SOLVE THE MYSTERY FOR THEM, THOUGH!

LATER, WHEN THE HOUSEHOLD SLEEPS...

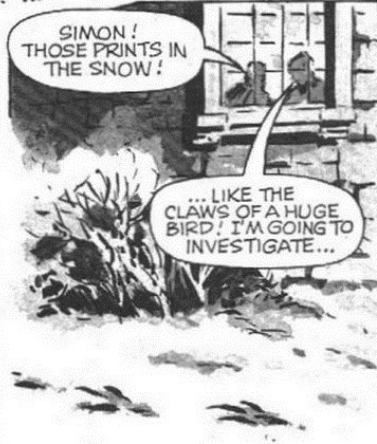

WHAT'S WRONG WITH THE DOG? HE MUST HAVE HEARD SOMETHING...

HOWL!
HOWL!

... DON'T TELL ME YOU'RE GETTING JUMPY, LIZ? IF IT HELPS, WE'LL TAKE A LOOK FROM THE WINDOW...

SIMON! THOSE PRINTS IN THE SNOW!

... LIKE THE CLAWS OF A HUGE BIRD, I'M GOING TO INVESTIGATE...

... WELL, YOU'RE NOT LEAVING ME BEHIND. IT'S SAFER IF WE STICK TOGETHER!

GOOD FOR YOU, LIZ! I COULD DO WITH SOME SUPPORT.

CLICK!

THE CHILL NIGHT AIR ENVELOPS THEM...

I DON'T BELIEVE IT! THOSE PRINTS AGAIN - AND THEY GO UP A SHEER WALL!

SIMON, I'M REALLY SCARED! THERE'S NO BIRD I KNOW OF THAT CAN WALK UP WALLS.

AFAR, SOMETHING MOVES...

S... SIMON! LOOK - WHAT'S THAT?

Next week: a trap by the time-travellers!
