inside!

One of the new things you'll have noticed in this series of Tiswas is that lots of youngsters are travelling round the country making films about fascinating things. They're looking at all sorts of sports and hobbies and over the weeks you can see how they get on. The film that's shown on the screen is, of course, the finished article when all the bits that didn't quite work have been cut out. Lots of funny things happen when the Tiswas team go out filming and we'll be telling you some of those "inside" stories . . .

Lisa Takes The Plunge!

Twelve year old Lisa Hopton from Sutton Coldfield in the West Midlands didn't know a thing about wind-surfing — but she soon found out all about it! She was given a quick lesson on dry land and then suddenly found herself being shoved into a wet suit. It was a very cold, windy and wet morning, and she got even colder and wetter when it was discovered that the only wet suit that would fit her, had already been worn earlier on and was full of cold, muddy water from the lake!

Somehow she managed to struggle into it and was then told to step into the freezing cold water. She had to wade out a few yards then climb onto a rocking sail board and try and repeat what she'd just learnt on dry land. She admitted she was terrified, and promptly fell in. But after she'd 'taken the plunge' a few more times she started to get the hang of it and began enjoying herself.

When all the filming was over, the crew couldn't get Lisa out of the water because she was having such a great time she wanted to stay in. Then, when she was rehearsing the final words that she had to say to the camera — balancing on the board — she fell in! The director decided it looked so funny that he asked her to do exactly the same thing on the actual take (below). As the final words were shot from five different angles, Lisa had to pretend to fall in five times (below right) — she got very good at it by the end!

FLAN YOUR FOLKS

Taking it in the face this week are Howard Graff (above) from Winchmore Hill, London, as requested by his brother Vincent, and Paul Randell's dad (left) from Twickenham, Middlesex. Paul says that with a face like his dad's, he deserves a custard pie in it! He also adds that it might improve his looks . . .

SPIT LOOK-ALIKE

Paula Wilding of Birkenhead, Merseyside, has sent in this photo of her dog, Liza — a sure Spit specimen. Remember, if you have a canine who resembles our mangy mutt, then send its picture to: Spit Look-alike, Look-in, 247, Tottenham Court Road, London, W1P 0AU.

THE BENNY HILL PAGE

MY OLD UNCLE MATT AND THE PRESENT PRIME MINISTER HAVEN'T MUCH IN COMMON EXCEPT THAT THEY BOTH HAPPEN TO BE THATCHERS....

OUR NEW WITH-IT VICAR HAS CERTAINLY MODERNISED THE OLD VICARAGE!

HE HAS THAT! I WAS BANKIN' ON THATCHIN' IT! NOW I'VE A WHOLE LOAD OF STEAM AND NOTHIN' TO USE IT FOR!

WHY DON'T 'E CHANGE THE VENUE! INSTEAD OF FLOWIN' ROBES, THEY CAN WEAR GRASS SKIRTS IF YOU MAKE IT HAPPEN ON A SOUTH SEA ISLAND!

SORRY! I'M TOO BUSY! THE DRAMATIC SOCIETY ARE PUTTING ON "THE DESERT SONG" THIS EVENING AND THE COSTUMES HAVEN'T ARRIVED! IT'S THE LAST STRAW!

I'VE GOT PLENTY OF THAT!

THAT EVENING....

BUT WHAT ABOUT THE COSTUMES? AND I CAN'T QUITE SEE THE LADIES OF THE DRAMATIC SOCIETY DOING A HULA-HULA!

DON'T 'E WORRY VICAR - LEAVE IT TO ME!

MY MISSUS SAYS THE VICAR BE TICKLED PINK WI' THE GRASS SKIRTS YOU MADE FOR THE LADIES!

HEH! HEH! SO WILL THE LADIES!

HA! HA! HA! THEY BE MORE DUSTY THAN DUSKY!

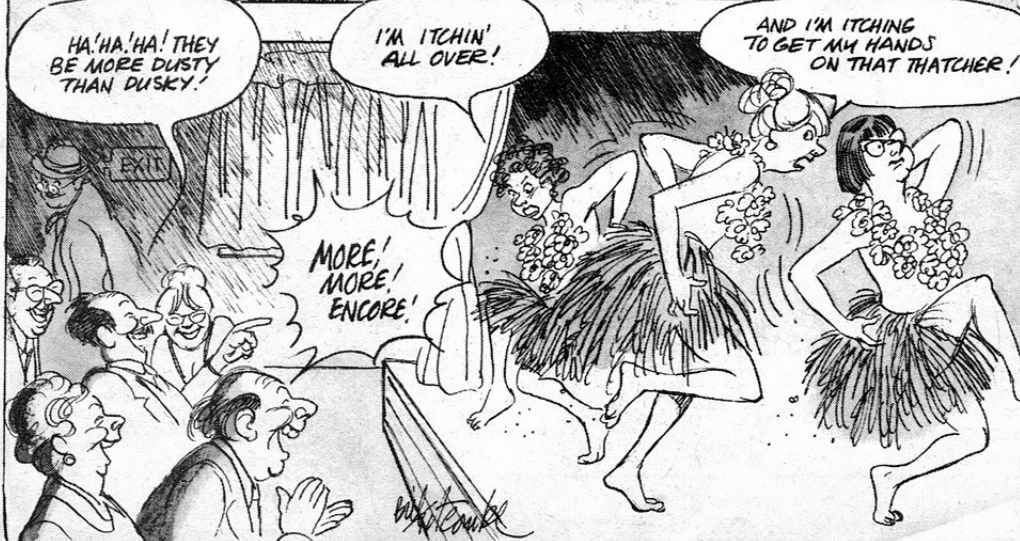

I'M ITCHIN' ALL OVER!

AND I'M ITCHING TO GET MY HANDS ON THAT THATCHER!

SOUNDS LIKE THE VILLAGE HALL IS IN AN UPROAR! THEY'LL BE RAISING THE ROOF!

HEH! HEH! I KNOW! THEN I'LL HAVE TO THATCH IT!

MORE! MORE! ENCORE!

CARICATURE CORNER

A few weeks ago, you may remember, I told you that I'm a great fan of caricatures — cartoons of people with exaggerated features — and invited you to send me your own caricatures of your favourite personalities. Well, Look-in readers have turned up trumps again and I've received so many excellent drawings that I've devoted this whole page to some of the best ones and I'll be printing some more next week. There's a £3.00 postal order and Junior Reporter's Certificate on the way to all of these young artists. Congratulations!

STAMP NEWS

This Friday (10th), the Post Office is issuing a special set of stamps to mark four major British sporting centenaries.

The 12p stamp celebrates 100 years of the Amateur Athletics Association which was founded in Oxford in April, 1880. It shows the closing stages of a middle-distance race.

The 13½p stamp shows two international rugby players, one in the red shirt of Wales running in for a try, with a French opponent in hot pursuit. This marks the centenary of the Welsh Rugby Union which was formed in Neath towards the end of the 1880-81 season.

The 15p stamp records the formation of the Amateur Boxing Association in February, 1880, and the 17½p stamp commemorates England's first cricket Test match against Australia, played at the Oval in September, 1880.

STAMP ADVISORY SERVICE

If you're keen on stamps and live in London, then you'll be pleased to know that Stanley Gibbons now operate a free advisory service at 391 Strand, London, WC2.

The Stanley Gibbons Advisor will answer questions and give guidance on all aspects of stamp collecting including how to start a basic collection, how to sort and mount your stamps, things on stamps to look out for and what makes stamps valuable. The service is available from Monday to Friday 9.00 a.m. to 5.30 p.m. and Saturday 9.30 a.m. to 12.30 p.m.

STAR SNAP

This is a picture of Duncan McKenzie (right), the Blackburn Rovers footballer, and Tommy Boyd, who used to be a presenter on Maggie, with me in the centre. It was taken at a charity cricket match at Riversdale College, in aid of raising money for minibuses for handicapped people. I enjoy reading Look-in every week and I like Screen Quiz very much.

COMPETITION WINNERS

Here are some more of the winners of our major competitions. Unfortunately, there won't be enough room every week to publish the name of every runner-up or of the winners of our smaller competitions, but rest assured that if you are a winner of a competition in Look-in you will be notified and your prize will be sent to you. If you see your name here and you haven't received your prize within a few weeks please get in touch with us. There'll be more winners soon.

REBECCA'S HOBBY

I had to write and tell you about my terrifying hobby. I have been collecting rubber animals for about four years and I must have about one hundred different insects and animals. They lie about all over my room: spiders hanging from the ceiling (plastic ones!), flies and bats emerging from under books, etc. and skeletons, crocodiles, reptiles and other things sprawled out everywhere.

The unusual thing about my hobby is that I hate spiders and creepy crawlies — I really can't stand them! Anyway, I am going to build a sort of model jungle in the corner of my room to keep my collection in, so that people will keep out because they'll be too scared to come in!

BUCK ROGERS IN THE 25th CENTURY

...IN Look-in

Yes, from next week you will be able to follow the exciting adventures of the legendary comic book hero Buck Rogers in our exclusive new weekly picture strip based on the already successful TV show, Buck Rogers In The 25th Century. Buck will, of course, be joined in his futuristic escapades by the lovely Colonel Wilma Deering, the knowledgeable Directorate Computer Theopolis, and his cheeky drone Twiki, plus many other weird and wonderful characters from five hundred years hence.

Buck Rogers In The 25th Century arrives here next week . . .

START  STOP

If you like music, you will like it even more if you can spot the musical instruments hidden in this week's Starchart. I'll give you clues to find them all. When you've done so, you will have one word left over. Your job is to send me just that one word, not the completed chart, and you might win our £3 postal order prize.

To solve the clues, all you need to do is fill in the vowels where I have left blanks and in each case you will have the name of a musical instrument. Find these names in the chart by linking together letters in any direction except diagonally. That means — starting and stopping as directed — you can form the names by moving forward, backward, upwards or down in every word. You must use every letter just once, including the prize answer.

Now fill in the vowels and get the instruments. Each dash indicates one letter.

If you can find all those musical instruments in the Starchart, you've then got one word left which very nearly spells out one of the instruments in the puzzle, but you'd much prefer to eat it hot! Send me just that one word and you could be a winner. The address: Starchart, Look-in, 247 Tottenham Court Road, London, W1P 0AU. The sender of the first correct entry pulled from the postbag will receive the prize.

Here are last week's answers

Cress; Marrow; Beans; Spinach; Brussels; Lettuce; Cabbage; Cucumber; Olive; Gooseberries; Leaves; Clover; Greengage; Apple; Greenhouse; Lawn; Golf; Cats Eyes; Traffic lights; Lizard; Frog; The Incredible Hulk; Cubs. Prize answer: Red.

EVERYBODY LOVES A MUPPET!

Now that Kermit, Miss Piggy, Fozzie Bear, Gonzo, Animal and the rest of the crazy team that make up The Muppet Show are back on our television screens (the first one was last Sunday) we thought that, as we are all already well-acquainted with the lovable little characters, we'd find out just what their human co-stars in this series think about them.

If you saw last week's show, you'll know that Kermit's special guest was actor Roger Moore. "My children are devoted to the show," he says, "and so am I. I adore Miss Piggy — she's gorgeous because she's so outrageous, though I think my loyalties really lie with Kermit. Besides, I know I don't have a chance with Miss Piggy because I'm not green and I don't eat flies!"

Guesting on this week's show is American actress Loretta Swit, famous for her role as 'Hot Lips' in the late-night BBC comedy series M.A.S.H., and the week after that American tough-guy actor James Coburn will be treading the Muppet Theatre boards. Whilst recording the show, James became close friends with the craziest drummer in the world, Animal, who is filled with admiration for him: "He's my kind of guy," he explains. And says James Coburn: "Animal is my kind of guy, too. He's one of my favourite Muppets. I understand him, so there's a kind of sympathy between us. My other favourite is Gonzo. Anyone who has experienced the ups and downs of life must feel the way I do about him. He wins my sympathy right the way through!"

If you're a fan of super-group Blondie, as well as of the Muppets, then watch out for the last show in January when Debbie Harry joins in the fun. "I've been looking forward to working on the show for ages," says Debbie. "I didn't suggest anything in particular that I wanted to do on the show — I left the choice of sketches and songs to the experts. After all, they know the show better than I ever could, even though I am a devoted fan. My only regret is that I don't have a scene with Miss Piggy. I thought it would be nice if we could fight over a feather boa or something but I'm told that she doesn't really like working with the lady guests. She saves herself for guests like Roger Moore — not that I blame her.

Pirate Glenda Jackson and friend.

She's a very astute lady!"

You'll be able to see Debbie singing one of Blondie's many hit singles, Call Me, on which she is accompanied by Doctor Teeth and the Electric Mayhem Band. After recording the scene Debbie said: "I really enjoyed that. I think the members of the band are really cute. They really remind me of so many musicians I know in real life!"

At the end of December the Muppets will be joined by actress Glenda Jackson. "I was asked if there was anything I particularly wanted to do on the show," says Glenda, "and I explained that my two principal fantasies were to appear in a western and to make a Ginger Rogers/Fred Astaire-type musical. The writers came up with me as a pirate taking over the Muppet Theatre, so there's a kind of logic to all the craziness."

Glenda admits that she's very partial to the show: "I like its sharp humour, which is very rare. My stock went up at home when I told my son Daniel that I was doing the show, but I fell in his estimation when he heard that I was going to sing!"

Watch out for Glenda after Christmas and see what you think!

ANIMAL ALLSORTS

TORTOISES AND TERRAPINS

Some of you may own a pet land tortoise or a European pond tortoise (which is really a terrapin), and you may have noticed that in the autumn they become rather slow and inactive.

Make sure these animals eat well during the summer because they spend October to early April in a kind of sleepy condition which we call hibernation.

Tortoises and terrapins are not, however, British wild animals. They have been captured while living in the wild in a country with a much warmer climate. Our cold British winter will be a new and uncomfortable experience for them, and they will need your help if they are to hibernate safely.

TORTOISES

Half fill a large box such as a tea chest with dry leaves, hay, sphagnum moss or shredded paper. Put the tortoise into a smaller, well-ventilated box and place this in the centre of the tea chest and cover with more packing. Fix a wire netting to the top to keep out mice and rats. Cover the box with some sacking and put it on a shelf in a dry, cool, frost-proof outhouse. Make sure all packing is loose so air can get in.

EUROPEAN POND TORTOISE

Terrapins from tropical areas are normally kept in-

193,664 tortoises were imported into Britain alone in 1978 (you can read more about this in the RSPCA leaflet The Tortoise Trade, price 25p). They are imported into other European countries, too. Tortoises can also sometimes suffer through transportation from one country to another. Tortoises and terrapins are not really suitable animals to keep as pets in Great Britain but if you are already looking after a tortoise or terrapin you might like to see the RSPCA leaflet Tortoises and Terrapins, price 25p.

Animal Allsorts is prepared with the help of the RSPCA. If you are interested in becoming a Junior RSPCA Member, you can write for further details to: RSPCA, Causeway, Horsham, Sussex, RH12 1HG.

SWALLOW THIS!

TVTimes cookery editor
Kathie Webber introduces Look-in's weekly fun food spot...

Did you know that the banana plant is, in fact, a giant herb?! When ripe, the fruit (which grows in clusters, or hands, of ten to twenty 'fingers' pointing upwards) is made up of nearly a quarter of carbohydrate, mainly sugar, has a high content of ash and is rich in vitamins. This makes the banana a valuable source of food. When cooked, bananas are very soft and creamy which makes a nice change from eating them raw. This recipe is quite simple to make and ideal as an unusual dessert.

Honey Baked Bananas

(serves four)

4 bananas

15g (½oz.) butter

30ml (2 tablespoons) clear honey

10ml (2 teaspoons) lemon juice

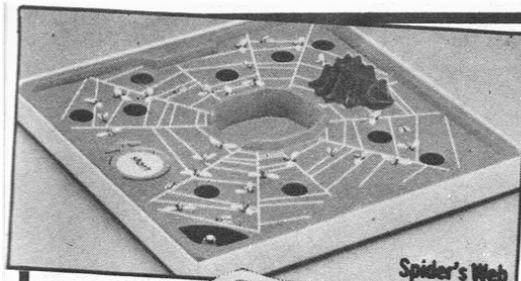

25g (1oz.) flaked almonds

Peel the bananas and place them in a buttered baking dish. Cut the butter into small pieces and dot over the bananas. Stir the honey and lemon juice together and pour over the bananas. Cover with foil and bake for 15 minutes at 180 deg. C (350 deg. F) or gas mark 4. Remove the foil, and spoon the honey mixture from the dish over the bananas — this is called basting. Return to the oven, without the foil, and cook for a further 5 minutes. Toast the almonds under the grill until they are golden brown, but watch them carefully as they will burn very quickly. Allow them to cool down a little before sprinkling over the bananas. Serve immediately!

SUPER Suchard COMPETITION

20 SETS OF FANTASTIC WADDINGTONS GAMES MUST BE WON!

Spider's Web

Wizard

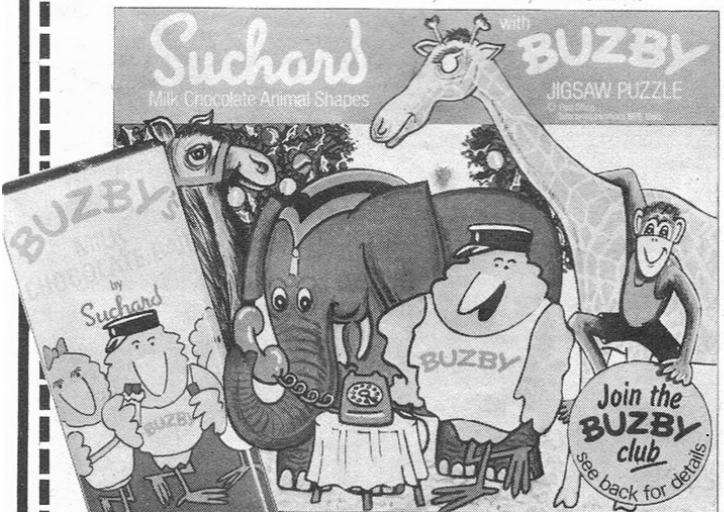

Buzby Animal Pack

Plus 100 Suchard Buzby Chocolate Animal Packs with Chocolate Bars for runners-up

Send to: Look-in, Suchard Competition, P.O. Box 141, London, SE6 3HR.

Closing date: October 27th, 1980.

If you're a Buzby fan, then this is the chance for you to communicate with your yellow-winged favourite — and you don't even need a telephone.

Suchard, the chocolate people, have brought out a super new Buzby milk chocolate bar, and we're featuring it as part of this week's exciting competition.

But first, let's tell you about the smashing first prize that we have on offer. Waddingtons Games have two fantastic and fun-filled games out now; one's called Spider's Web and the other's Wizard.

In Spider's Web, which is described as "a tantalising game of manual dexterity", you have to guide the spider around his web by tilting the board to control his scurrying movements. But beware! Scattered along his path are holes that will stop the Spider in his tracks and force him to begin again.

Wizard is electronic fun for 1-4 players, containing four entertaining and baffling games in one. Match Me is a memory game with four levels of difficulty; Music Makers memorises and plays back any 30-note tune; Break Out is a mind-bending, competitive maze game; and Hot Corners is an all-action game for four players.

We have 20 sets of Spider's Web and Wizard games for the winners of our competition, while for 100 runners-up we're offering Suchard Buzby Chocolate Animal/Jigsaw packs (due in the shops at Christmas time) which contain four delicious chocolate animals plus a colourful Buzby jigsaw; and we'll include a new Suchard Buzby Milk Chocolate Bar in our runners-up package, too!

Actually, that very runners-up prize is the basis of our spot-the-difference competition . . .

TO ENTER, take a look at the two pictures on the left of the Buzby Jigsaw and chocolate bar. At first glance, both reproductions look alike, but actually the second contains eight slight differences from the first, and you have to mark each one with a cross on the second picture. When you have found all eight changes, cut out the picture containing the marked differences, together with the completed coupon, and send it in an envelope to: Look-in, Suchard Competition, P.O. Box 141, London, SE6 3HR.

The senders of the first 20 correct entries pulled from the postbag after the closing date, Monday, October 27th, 1980, will each receive a set of Waddingtons' Spider's Web and Wizard games, while 100 runners-up will each receive a Buzby Chocolate animal/jigsaw pack, plus a Buzby chocolate bar.

RULES: Entry is free and open to all Look-in readers aged sixteen and under living in the United Kingdom with the exception of families of employees of ITV Publications Ltd., Towler Suchard Limited, Waddingtons House Of Games Ltd., and their agents. The editor's decision will be final and no correspondence can be entered into. The closing date for the receipt of entries will be first post on Monday, October 27th, 1980.

M. NOBLE

TRUST JOHN TO SAY THE WRONG THING!

SO I AM AN OLD RAG-BAG, EH? HERE I AM, AN' HERE I STAY, SO'S I DON'T OFFEND NOBODY'S EYES!

AS THE YOUNGSTERS WALK AWAY...

I DO FEEL SORRY FOR HIM. I SUPPOSE WE COULDN'T FIND SOME NEW CLOTHES...?

AS IT HAPPENS, THEY DRAW A BLANK. BUT MEANWHILE, WORZEL HAS COME TO A DECISION...

'TIS SILLY TO MOPE. WON'T HELP A SCRAP. RECKON I'LL PUT ON ME THINKIN' HEAD...

AND IN THE OLD BARN...

ARR! THE ANSWER BE SIMPLE! I'LL GO TO THE TAILOR'S SHOP IN MARFORD!

SO, LATER...

GOOD DAY, SIR. CAN I HELP YOU?

WANT A SUIT.

CERTAINLY, SIR: WALK THIS WAY!

ANYTHING YOU SAY, MISTER...

HOW'S THIS?

THAT IS NOT WHAT I MEANT! JUST FOLLOW ME, TO THE FITTING ROOM. IF YOU PLEASE.

AIN'T NO NEED FOR ALL THAT HOCUS-FOCUS. I'LL TAKE THIS 'UN. GIVE YOU TEN RABBIT SKINS AN' A DOZEN EGGS FOR IT.

OUT! AND DON'T SHOW YOUR FACE IN HERE AGAIN, YOU - YOU TRAMP!

GUHH! I'D 'AVE MADE IT TWENTY RABBIT SKINS, IF YOU'D ASKED!

THE DOOR SLAMS ON HIM, BUT WORZEL DOESN'T GIVE UP SO EASILY!

I KNOWS THESE YEWMAN'S PREFER MONEY, BUT I AIN'T GOT ANY. MAYBE HE'D GIVE ME A SUIT IF I OFFERED TO WORK FOR IT...

RAPPARAPPARAPPA

'ERE YOU LOT IN THERE! ASK YOUR GUV 'NOR FOR ME IF I CAN JOIN YOU! I DON'T MIND STANDIN' IN HIS WINDOW!

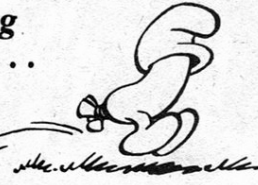

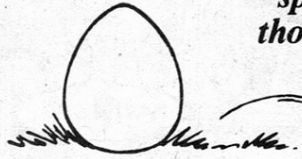

HULLO? POLICE? I'M HAVING SOME TROUBLE WITH A VAGRANT: A LUNATIC, I WOULD THINK - AND POSSIBLY DANGEROUS...!

Now Worzel's for it! Don't miss the action next week!

Starting this week: a brand new fun-filled story in our special picture strip starring those lovable little blue folk...

THE SMURFS AND THE EGG

THERE IS EXCITEMENT IN THE AIR. TOMORROW IS SMURF DAY, THE ANNUAL SMURF CELEBRATION...

What are we going to Smurf?

We've got to Smurf something nice!

And how! Smurf day is the Smurfiest day in the year!

Maybe we can Smurf some fireworks!

I hate fireworks!

How about a parade?

I hate parades!

Or maybe a dance with an orchestra and things!

I hate things!

No fireworks! No parade! No dance! What the Smurf do you want to Smurf for Smurfs day, then?

I hate Smurf day!

What a temper he has!

Yes, Grouchy Smurf sounds crabby sometimes, but he has a heart of... of stone!

Here comes Papa Smurf! Let's ask his advice!

Hmm... Yes, I think I have an idea!

Find out what Papa Smurf's idea is next week!

Olivia Newton-John has swapped 70s' superstar John Travolta for the vintage talents of Gene Kelly in . . .

THE MAGIC OF XANADU

If Grease made Olivia Newton-John a star, then Xanadu looks set to make her a superstar. Born in Cambridge but raised in Melbourne, Australia, Olivia took great interest in singing and dancing from a very early age. Although a group she formed with three girlfriends, called The Sol Four, had to disband when it began to interfere with school work, Olivia was already convinced that her future lay in the world of entertainment. Even so, it must have come as quite a shock to her academic family (her grandfather was a Nobel prize winner, and her father headmaster of Ormond College in Melbourne) when she decided to pursue her music career full-time rather than go to college.

Winning her first talent contest at 15, Olivia was awarded a trip to England, and for the next two years stayed here, successfully performing as part of a duo with another Australian girl, Pat Carroll. Things could have worked out very differently had Pat's visa not expired, forcing her to return to Australia. For Olivia stayed in England alone, turned solo and recorded her first single (Bob Dylan's tune If Not For You). The record was a hit and suddenly everyone wanted to know who she was.

AWARDS

Her next single, Banks Of The Ohio, won her an English Silver Disc and an Australian Gold Disc, while at the same time she was charming audiences throughout Europe while touring with the Cliff Richard Show. She then became a regular guest on the BBC TV series, It's Cliff Richard, and continued to collect music awards. In 1971 and 1972, she was voted the Best British Girl Singer by the readers of a top weekly pop newspaper.

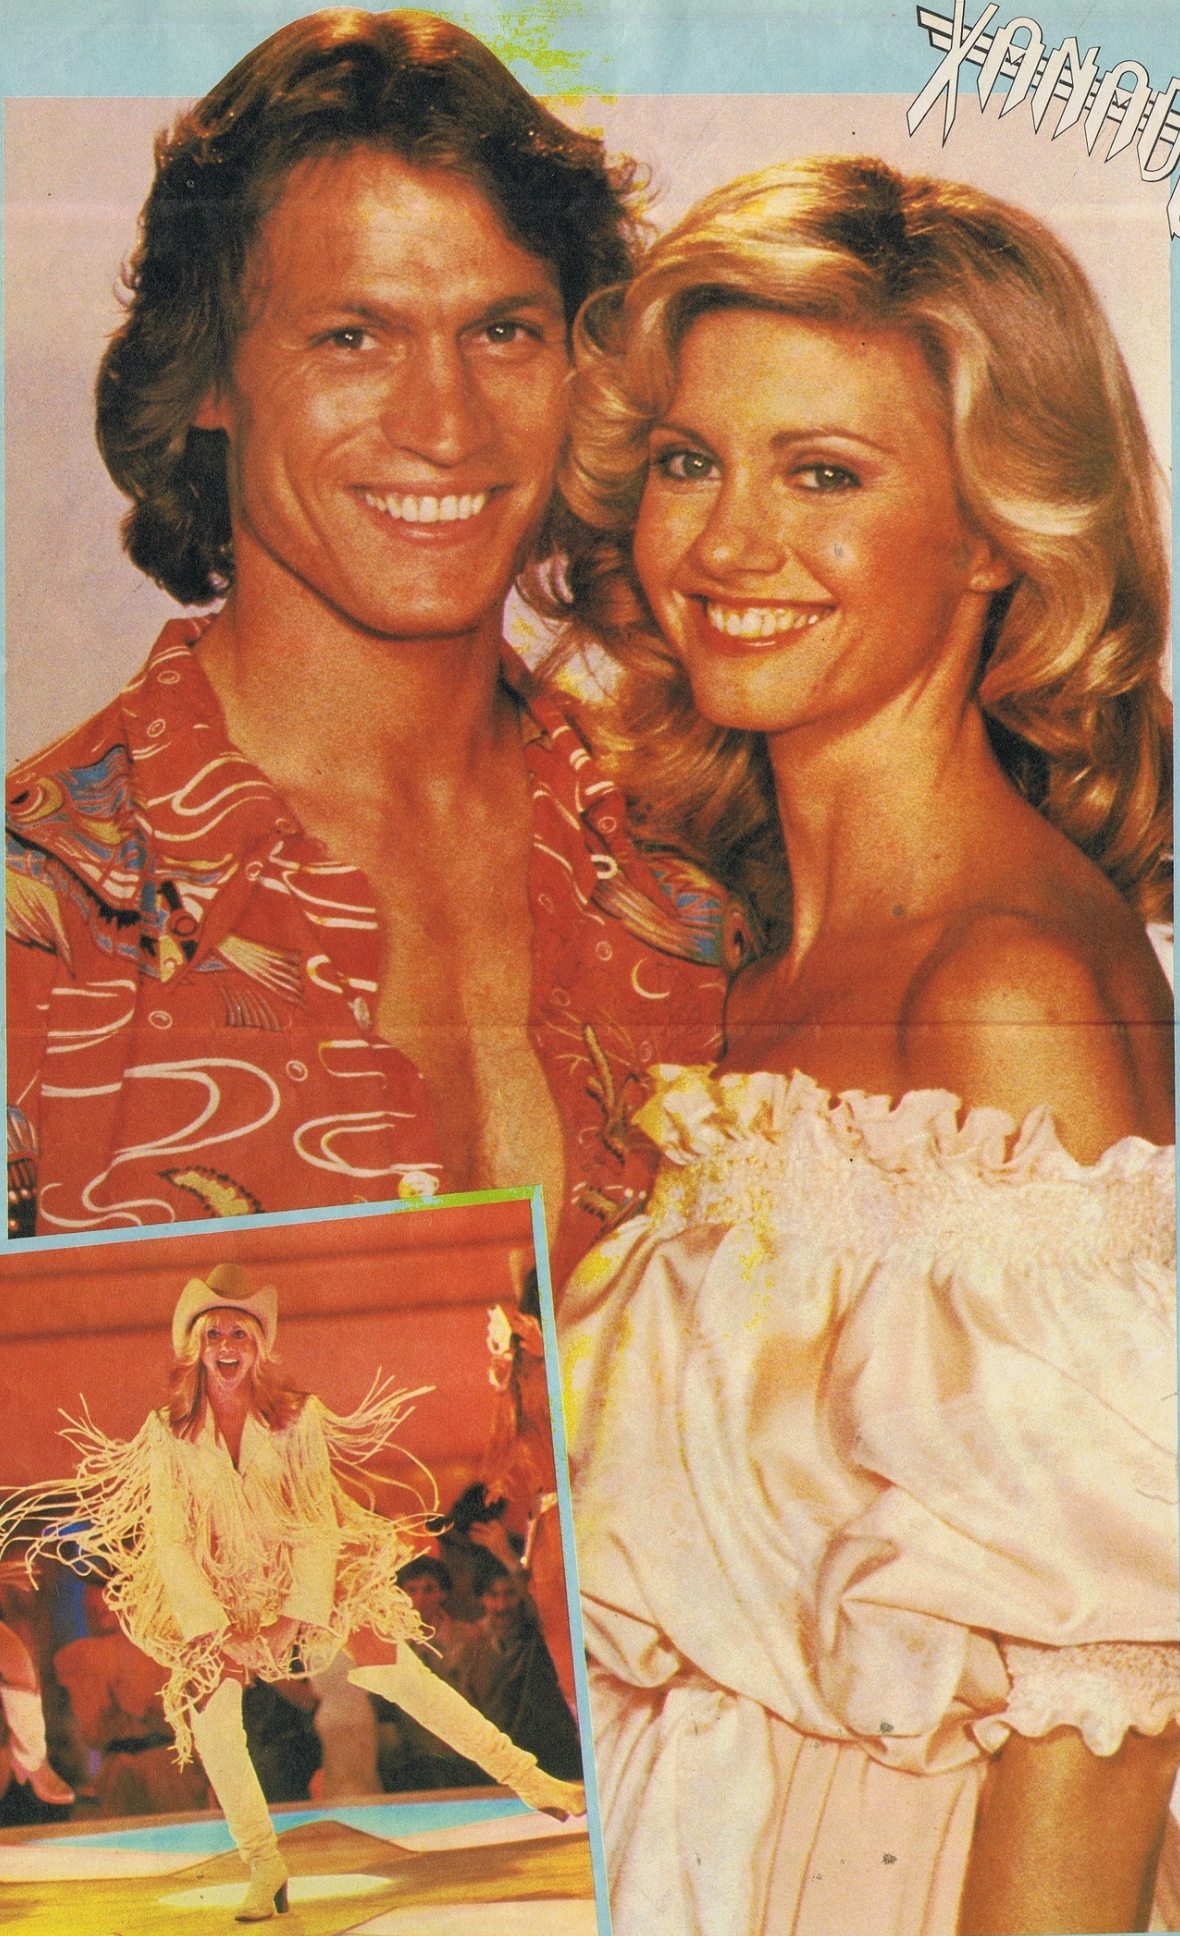

Olivia's world-wide acclaim continued to grow in 1973 with her first Grammy as Best Country Vocalist for the song Let Me Be There. Since then, her list of awards has multiplied each year, with two more Grammys in 1974, a total of eight American Music Awards since 1973, and honours from all corners of the globe — too many, in fact, to mention here.

However, Olivia has managed to keep a steady balance in her life. She has settled in Malibu, California, where she can relax with her two cats, four dogs and six horses, because next to her love for music is her interest in, and love of, animals. As a child, she once thought of becoming a vet, such was her devotion to animals, and one of her greatest priorities today is her involvement with animal care and preservation of endangered species. To protest against the killing of dolphins by Japanese fishermen, Olivia cancelled a Japanese concert tour and did not re-schedule it until the government had assured her that steps were being taken to rectify the situation.

It's been a hectic few years for Olivia since she began filming her first major movie, Grease, co-starring with John Travolta. The most successful musical film ever made, Grease has broken box office records all over the world. Olivia earned rave reviews from even the toughest film critics, who described her debut as "very funny and utterly charming."

However, Grease's successes have not been limited to the film world — the soundtrack album »»» to p.18

►► from p.15 was at the top of the charts for months, and awarded multi-platinum honours. Olivia's three releases, You're The One That I Want, Summer Nights, and Hopelessly Devoted To You, went gold and remained in the pop charts throughout 1978. They were just as successful around the world, too, topping most of the international charts.

After Grease, it took Olivia almost two years to find another film script that captured her imagination, although new projects were presented to her almost daily. She read Xanadu and immediately liked the story. Instinctively, she chose it from all of the other stories because she believed it would make a marvellously entertaining film. Olivia, though, was still a little worried about Xanadu, explaining: "In my first movie people weren't expecting anything from me. For the second they're expecting a lot."

Just think, though: at one time it was touch-and-go whether this money-spinning movie would ever get into production. Explains producer Lawrence Gordon: "Co-producer Joel Silver and myself had the idea to make a real old-fashioned musical. We developed the story for Warner Brothers who declined to go ahead. Maybe they were right to do so. A musical fantasy is chancy, and at the time we didn't have Olivia or Gene (co-star Gene Kelly). Joel and I still believed in the project, so we took it to Universal and they decided to do the film."

GENE KELLY

Co-starring with Olivia and Michael Beck (who plays her star-crossed lover Sonny) is, of course, Gene Kelly (one of the greatest dancers in the history of the movies) who readily admits that the film needed a star of Olivia's stature, explaining: "Foreign movie sales are more difficult unless you get someone who's a huge record seller like Olivia. I don't think they could've attempted this movie without her."

In fact the film could have been specially designed for Livvy, with John Farrar — who has produced her albums and written most of her songs over the last nine years — writing much of the film's musical score. Already, as you will know, the film's title song, recorded by Livvy and the Electric Light Orchestra, has topped the charts with the soundtrack album completing a No. 1 double.

When Gene agreed to be in the film, he told Gordon he wouldn't 'touch a toe'. He would strictly be a dramatic actor. Fortunately, it was possible to persuade the fabulous Kelly to dance in several of the production numbers, one of which was the colourful scene staged at Fiorucci's fashion store in Beverley Hills, with Gene dancing his way through more than half a dozen costume changes.

"The man is not just an actor and dancer," says director Robert Greenwald, "he's also a producer, director, choreographer, and writer. It's not only a challenge to direct him on my first picture — it would be the same on my fiftieth!"

With Olivia and Gene signed to star in Xanadu there remained just one major role to cast, that of the romantic lead opposite Olivia. Lots of names came up, but the one everyone kept coming back to was Michael Beck, who had starred in the X-rated movie The Warriors. It was felt by everyone involved that the chemistry between him and Olivia would be very exciting. And how right they were!

Livvy's skating is strictly for the birds!

SUPER COMPETITION

10 COPIES OF 'XANADU' MUST BE WON!

Even if you haven't yet seen the film, you've probably by now heard most of the songs featured in Xanadu, and available on the soundtrack album. These include, of course, the title track — a number one hit — Magic, I'm Alive, and All Over The World. There are ten tracks featuring Olivia Newton-John and the Electric Light Orchestra.

We're offering 10 copies of Xanadu to lucky winners of our competition. To enter, take a look at the five questions printed on the right and write your answers to them in the spaces provided on the coupon. Then send it, on a post-card please, with your name, address and age, to: Look-in, Xanadu Competition, P.O. Box 141, London, SE6 3HR. The senders of the first 10 correct entries pulled from the postbag after the closing date, Monday, October 27th, 1980, will receive a copy of Xanadu.

QUESTIONS

1. Olivia Newton-John was brought up in which country?
2. At what age did she win her first talent contest?
3. What was the name of Olivia's first major movie?
4. Olivia's boy-friend in Xanadu is played by which actor?
5. Which American film company originally turned down Xanadu?

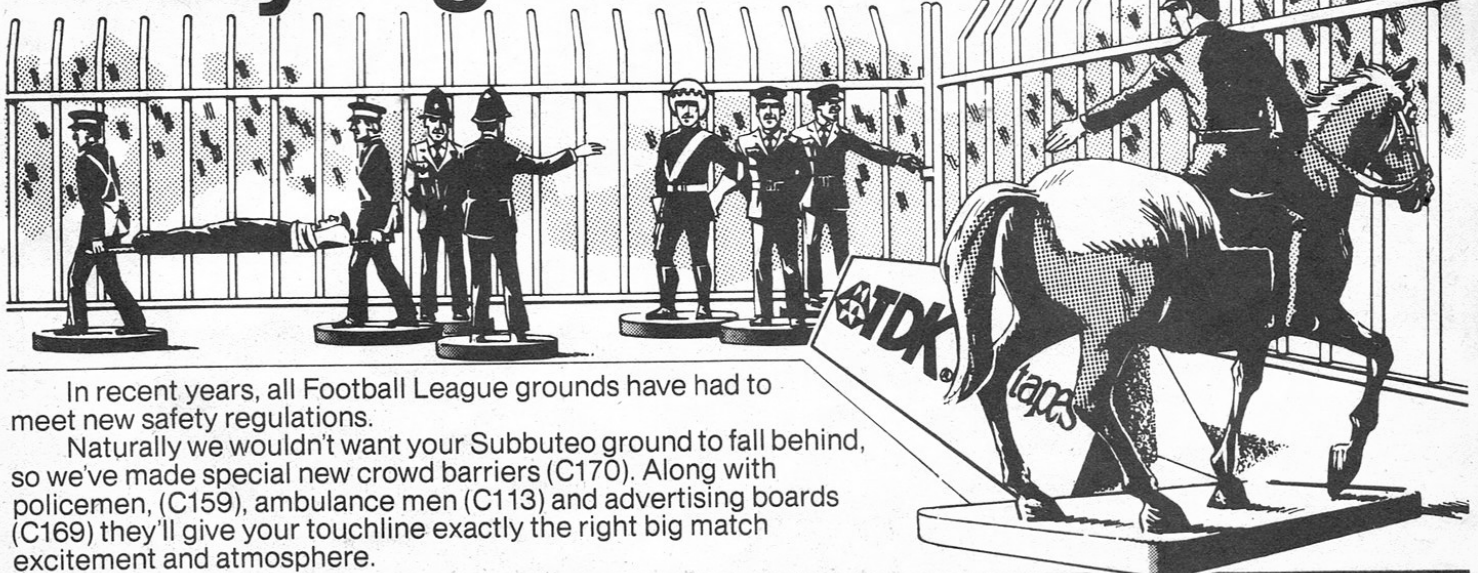

Send, on a postcard, to:
Look-in, Xanadu Comp.,
P.O. Box 141, London, SE6 3HR.

BIG ENOUGH FOR BATTLESTAR GALACTICA AND ITS CONVOY OF SHIPS TO CONTINUE EXPLORING...NO MATTER WHAT THE PERIL.

SHUTTLE ONE? THIS IS ADAMA. WELCOME BACK...

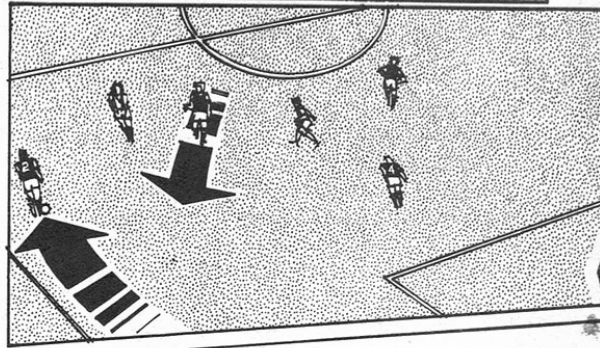

In the week that England meet Rumania in a World Cup Qualifying match we focus on one of Ron Greenwood's brightest young stars, Arsenal's Kenny Sansom . . .

REAR GUNNER

Will Kenny be able to go forward on those runs and get back to cover the class forwards he is likely to come against, for England; or will Greenwood have to include a midfield player to drop back and cover for him?

One of Kenny's assets is his pace. Over two or three yards, he can leave most other players for dead from a standing start.

Kenny can finish off those piercing runs with accurately flighted crosses, something that goes down well with Frank Stapleton and Alan Sunderland!

England Boss Ron Greenwood could be looking to Kenny Sansom to fill a fullback berth on a regular basis in the coming World Cup qualifying campaign.

Arsenal Football Club were at the centre of several sensational transfer deals in the close season. Their gifted midfielder Liam Brady said goodbye to Highbury, as he looked forward to a new career with Juventus in Italy. Million pound teenager Clive Allen moved across the capital from Queen's Park Rangers and looked ready to add more punch to the Gunners' attack, a deficit in their play that could well have cost them victories in two cup finals last season.

The biggest transfer story of the summer was still to come. With just a handful of pre-season matches under his belt Clive Allen was on his way out of Highbury, along with 'keeper Paul Barron, in exchange for Crystal Palace's Kenny Sansom, in a million pound-plus rated deal.

Arsenal's defence was beginning to get a little long in the tooth and the successful managerial team of Terry Neill and Don Howe realised that the injection of youth and skill provided by Kenny could do the Gunners back four nothing but good. Kenny's style of play, highlighted by those foraging bursts up the wing, has always been encouraged at Highbury and Kenny has slotted into the side with little difficulty.

With Arsenal always a good tip to qualify for European competition, Kenny's experience of top class international football with England will hold him in good stead, and hopefully be a contributing factor in his new club's efforts to achieve the success that has recently eluded them at the final hurdle.

Only by playing against the best will Kenny develop the world class potential he possesses. Hopefully he can; England will need him showing his best form to help qualify for the 1982 World Cup in Spain.

TAKEN TO NEW YORK TO STAY WITH A FRIEND OF MINDY'S, MORK IS ACCIDENTALLY EXPOSED TO A CRAZY SCIENTIST'S EXPERIMENTAL RAYS, AND VANISHES. HE'S THERE - BUT PEOPLE CAN NEITHER SEE NOR HEAR HIM. ORSON, HIS CONTROL FROM HIS HOME PLANET, GUIDES HIM BACK TO DOCTOR ZYZYCZKI'S BASEMENT...

I SHOULD BE ABLE TO FIND THE MACHINE AND REVERSE IT IN WHICH CASE I'LL BE BACK TO NORMAL...

NORMAL? WHEN WAS I EVER NORMAL? GEE, BUT THAT'S A DIFFERENT STORY, READERS!

BUT WHEN MORK ENTERS THE BASEMENT ROOM.....

OH, NO! I AM TOO LATE, NOT A SOUL HERE - AND I SEE NO MACHINE!

IN FACT, THE DOC AND HIS DEVICE HAVE BEEN SNATCHED.... BY NAPOLEON NERO, WHO HAS AMBITIONS TO BE THE GREATEST CROOK IN THE WORLD.

MY DISCOVERY AFFECTS ONLY INSECTS, I TELL YOU!

SURE, IT MAKES 'EM INVISIBLE! SO I'M GONNA FILL THE BANKS WITH MOSQUITOES, AN' HORSEFLIES...

LOOK OUT FOR NEXT WEEK'S Look-in

★ Buck Rogers and Wilma Deering are our cover stars, along with Cliff Richard, and inside you'll find the first instalment of our great new Buck Rogers In The 25th Century picture strip. As for Cliff, there'll be a super feature and colour pin-up, with an easy-to-enter record competition, too. ★ Sports Spotlight focusses on Birmingham City's talented young striker, Keith Bertschin (above left). ★ Vocalist Neville Staple (above right) is the fifth pin-up in our Collect-A-Page series on The Specials. ★ You'll also be able to read a fascinating feature on the Survival Special programme that's being shown next week: Two In The Bush. ★ Learning to swim? Then next week's competition is for you — there are lots of RF Aquasport Float Trainers to be won! ★ All this plus your regular features and picture strip favourites.

IT'S ALL IN THE NEXT ISSUE OF Look-in # ORDER YOUR COPY NOW!

★ Your newsagent will happily reserve or deliver your copy of Look-in each week. Just think — no more sold-out issues, no more missed pin-ups, competitions, stories etc.! ★ If you'd like to order your copy complete the form on the right (with the signature of your parent or guardian) and hand it to your newsagent. He'll do the rest!

Make a date with a Smurf.

1980 is a bumper year for Smurf-collectors, with 21 happy Smurfdays on the calendar. Many of these have already happened but it's not too late to start your collection. 17 of these bright young Smurfs can be found at National petrol stations and the rest will be joining them soon.

To make sure you don't miss any, put this picture somewhere you can see it. Then you can tick off your Smurfs as you go along. (And don't forget, there are some 40 Smurfs from other years just waiting to be collected).

Happy Smurfing!

XANADU
