Peter Bland and friend in Jukes Of Piccadilly:

Ben the treasure-hunter (Dexter Fletcher).

B.B.B.C. campaigner and private detective Brinsley Jukes (Nigel Hawthorne).

JUKES OF PICCADILLY

If you saw someone cycling the streets 'plugging' the B.B.B.C. you might wonder what you had stumbled across. Maybe a stutterer advertising a certain famous broadcasting company?

Actually, those initials stand for the Bring Back The Bicycle Campaign, and its leading advocate is one Brinsley Jukes (played by Nigel Hawthorne), a tea importer by trade, with premises in Piccadilly, which have been owned by his family since 1887.

But there's more to our Mr. Jukes than meets the eye. For he is also a private detective, concerning himself in various hair-raising escapades. Eccentric in dress, he travels everywhere by his faithful bicycle — hence his involvement with the B.B.B.C.

And so we have the background to Jukes Of Piccadilly, Thames TV's brand new series beginning at 4.45 on Monday next. The series is split into three two-part stories and the first one you can see is The Corcelli Medallion, which tells the story of Ben, a teenage treasure-hunter, who, on one of his 'escapades', finds half a medallion, which turns out to be part of a map showing the location of hidden Roman treasure. Brinsley becomes involved when he witnesses the kidnapping of Ben, by a ruthless Italian gang, who have the matching half . . .

Future stories involving our intrepid detective are entitled The Case Of The Arabian Kidnap, and The Dulverton Green.

For Nigel Hawthorne, playing Jukes comes as "light relief" from some heavier roles he has played with great distinction.

For instance, he was Walter Monckton in the highly-praised Edward And Mrs. Simp- son a couple of years ago, while more recently he played the part of the stern teacher telling potential taxi drivers which London streets were where in the much-acclaimed play The Knowledge.

But it's hardly been instant success for Nigel. He says: "I came up rather late in life, like Penelope Keith. I thought I was an outsider. People used to say, 'Why not do something else?'. Acting was the thing I thought I could do so I hung on to it, hoping I might make it one day. I was 20 years in the wilderness before I got my chance."

And to prove that he takes his bike-loving seriously . . . Nigel always cycles to work!

Finally, a reminder for younger viewers — your favourite bear, Sooty, is back, causing Matthew Corbett more laughs — and headaches — every Wednesday at 4.15.

THE BENNY HILL PAGE

YOU'VE ALL HEARD THE FABLE ABOUT KING ARTHUR'S ROUND TABLE, AND THE TALE OF THE YANK AT HIS COURT. WELL, HE WASN'T A YANK, HE WAS A HANK, A RELATION OF MINE AND KING ARTHUR'S CARPENTER....

YE COST OF THAT TABLE MADE A HOLE IN YE MINT!

LIKE YE MINT THE TABLE WILL HAVE A HOLE IN YE MIDDLE WHEN I AM THROUGH!

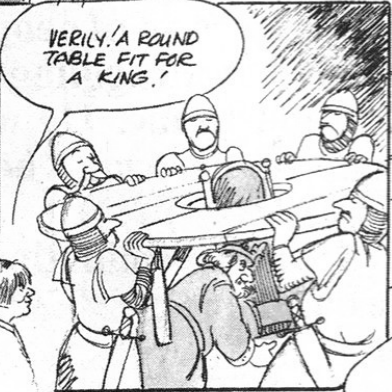

YE TABLE IS DONE, SIRE!

AND SO WILL YOU BE. I'VE NOWHERE TO SIT!

NOW YOU CAN SIT IN THE MIDDLE AND BE SURROUNDED BY YOUR KNIGHTS!

DOST THOU EXPECT ME THE KING TO CRAWL UNDER YE TABLE TO GET THERE?

VERILY, A ROUND TABLE FIT FOR A KING!

IT'S A BIT OF A TIGHT FIT!

HOW STRANGE, NO GRUMBING FROM WITHIN AS TO WHO SHOULD SIT NEXT TO THE KING!

THAT'S BECAUSE OF THE ROUND TABLE THAT I HAVE JUST MADE!

THIS I MUST SEE!

STAND UP! HERE COMES YE QUEEN. MIND YOUR TABLE MANNERS, LADS!

SOMEBODY HAND ME MY SWORD!

VERILY, YOUR ROUND TABLE IS A KNOCK OUT!

GLONNK!

PAH! LIKE YE MINT AND YE TABLE YE'LL HAVE A HOLE THROUGH YE MIDDLE WHEN I CATCH UP WITH YOU!

More Hill humour next week.

For a few moments the other day I really thought I was a bit of a superstar. I was in a crowd of people after a soccer match, when I saw a tiny boy struggling like a superman through the hordes, to get to me. He was clutching an autograph book. "Hello Mr Stewart," he panted, "would you mind signing, please?"

Full of admiration for his determination I took the book and signed. He looked at the page. "Ed?!" he exclaimed. "I thought you were Jackie!"

Well, at least he could read my hand-writing, which is more than I can say for quite a few people these days. Teachers tell me that marking homework is like deciphering tangled cotton. Some blame sloppy ball-point pens for the untidiness, so here's a chance for those of you who take a pride in your handwriting to win a superb Waterman Graduate Fountain Pen, worth nearly £5.00. I'm offering ten of these beautiful instruments to the senders of their own autographs! I'd like to see the most legible, stylish and original signatures. Just send them on a postcard, with your address, to: Pen Name Competition, Look-in, 247 Tottenham Court Road, London, W1P 0AU.

LOOK ALIKE

I think that Phil Thompson, (top) the Liverpool defender, looks like Mork, from the TV series Mork And Mindy, played by Robin Williams. Please could you print pictures to prove it?

Thanks for writing to me, Toni. Would you please let me know what your full postal address is so that I can forward your £3.00 postal order and Junior Reporter's Certificate? Thanks, and I look forward to hearing from you...

STAMP NEWS

Those of you who are keen stamp collectors, or who would like to start their own collection, will be pleased to know that the International Stamp Exhibition 'London 1980', which opens on Tuesday 6th May (and finishes on Wednesday 14th May) will include a special junior section. Arranged by the Stamp Collecting Promotion Council, there will be lots of stamps to see, demonstrations of how to prepare stamps for the collection, films and a free competition for which all young visitors may enter.

Watch out for more details.

FAN CLUB NEWS

Fans of Star Trek will be pleased to know that there is a club they can join to receive all the latest on the series, the film and its stars. The name of the club is OMICORN (Authorised Star Trek Appreciation Society), and the address to write to for details of how to join is: 67 Eden Grove, Horfield, Bristol, BS7 0PQ. Please enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope for reply.

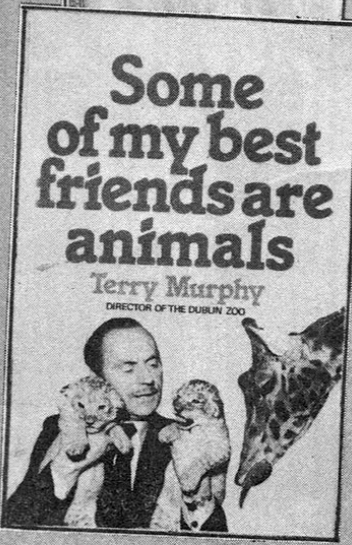

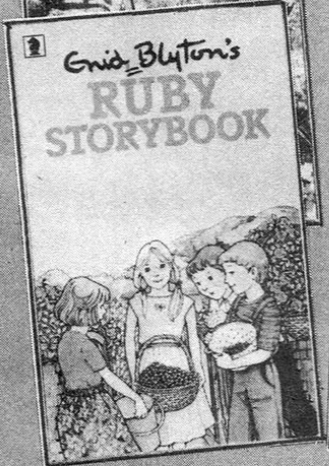

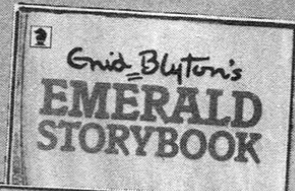

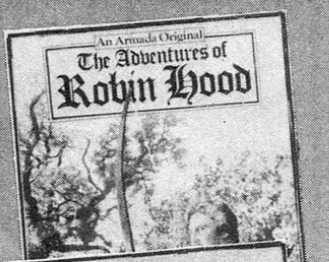

BOOKSHELF

I've got just four books for you this week, kicking off with one from Armada called The Adventures Of Robin Hood. It tells the story of the legendary nobleman, Robin of Loxley, who becomes a fugitive in Sherwood Forest and devotes his life to righting injustice. By Patricia Leitch, it's full of excitement and costs 65p.

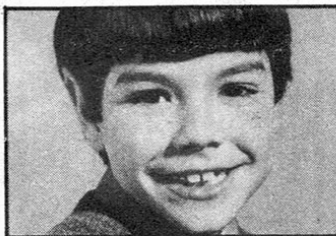

Next are two for younger readers by one of the best-loved children's authors of all time, Enid Blyton. Her Ruby Storybook and Emerald Storybook, published by Knight Books, are collections of her short stories which include tales of fantasy, adventure and family life. Attractively illustrated by Angie Sage, they each cost 60p.

Some Of My Best Friends Are Animals, published by Paddington Press, has been in the bookshops for several months now but is still worth a mention if it hasn't come to your notice yet. Written by Terry Murphy, Director of the Dublin Zoo, it's a collection of his memories of his thirty years there, including anecdotes about all the animals from a clumsy kangaroo to an armful of tiger cubs. Illustrated with many black-and-white photographs, it costs £4.95.

This week Arena's focus falls on WBA's Bryan Robson.

ALBION'S AGE IN THE PACK!

One of the biggest shocks in the first division this season has been the failure of West Bromwich Albion to maintain the devastating form that made them serious championship contenders for much of last season.

The side has lost the blend that made them so exciting to watch. As yet the new faces of Peter Barnes and Gary Owen have failed to match the contributions that Laurie Cunningham and, especially, Len Cantello brought to the side. Losing Cyrille Regis through (Right) Bryan will often play the ball deep in midfield, set off at a steady pace to turn up in the box, unmarked, and slot the return away with great accuracy.

Albion skipper John Wile (above) pleased that players like Bryan have fought their way up from West Brom's junior side.

injury certainly didn't help and again John Deehan, another expensive purchase, hasn't yet settled in. However, with lads like midfield star Bryan Robson in the side, still performing well, week in, week out, all is not gloom for boss Ron Atkinson. Still a comparatively young player, Bryan has had a see-saw career. Recently it touched one of its peaks when he was awarded the captaincy of the England Under-21 side. It has also had its lows, for Bryan has broken a leg on no fewer than three occasions. Each time he was just getting nicely established in the first team and each time he had to fight his way back, with great success, too. Let's hope that the only breaks Bryan gets in future will be 'lucky breaks!'

Ron Atkinson (left) is the fifth manager that Bryan has played under at Albion. First there was Alan Ashman, who signed Bryan on schoolboy forms; Don Howe, now coaching at Arsenal; Johnny Giles, who played Bryan in defence, a position he didn't like. When Ronnie Allen took over for a short period, Bryan was used as a striker. Finally came Ron, who allows Bryan to operate in midfield, the position he prefers and one he could well be starring in for the full England team soon.

MATES AT SCHOOL, DANNY LEWIS AND GEOFF FOSTER SHARE A COMMON INTEREST — COLLECTING MILITARIA. IT'S ACTUALLY GEOFF WHO TURNS UP THE BADGE — THE OLD CAP-BADGE DESTINED TO AFFECT DANNY'S WHOLE EXISTENCE!

WHAT DO YOU MAKE OF THIS, DANNY?

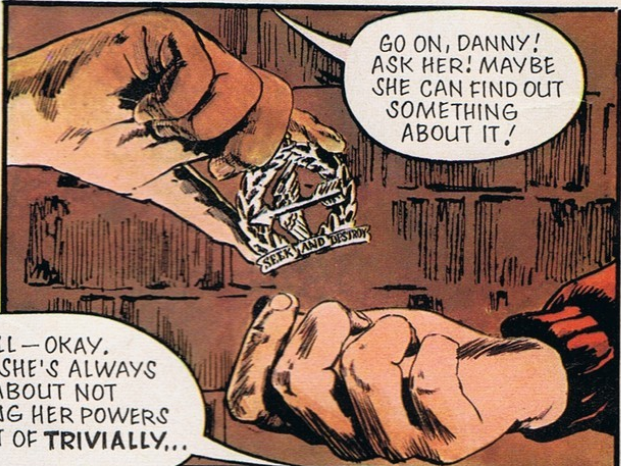

CRUMBS, I'VE NEVER SEEN ONE LIKE THAT! BRITISH. SECOND WORLD WAR, BY THE STYLE OF THE CROWN.

IT'S NOT IN ANY OF THE REFERENCE BOOKS. I SENT A DRAWING OF IT TO THE WAR MUSEUM, BUT THEY DIDN'T KNOW EITHER.

POINT IS, DANNY, YOUR MUM'S A CLAIRVOYANT, RIGHT? SHE CAN HOLD OBJECTS IN HER HAND AND GET — SORT OF VIBRATIONS...

YEAH, BUT...

GO ON, DANNY! ASK HER! MAYBE SHE CAN FIND OUT SOMETHING ABOUT IT!

WELL — OKAY. BUT SHE'S ALWAYS ON ABOUT NOT USING HER POWERS SORT OF TRIVIAALLY...

IN FACT, DANNY'S MOTHER PROVES PERFECTLY WILLING TO HELP...

LET'S SEE NOW. WHAT CAN I TELL YOU ABOUT THE SOLDIER-BOY WHO ONCE OWNED THIS...

GEOFF'LL BE JOLLY PLEASED IF YOU CAN, MUM!

SUDDENLY, IT HAPPENS...

UURRH... GURRH...!

MUM!

IT'S MY MUM, MISTER! MY MUM!

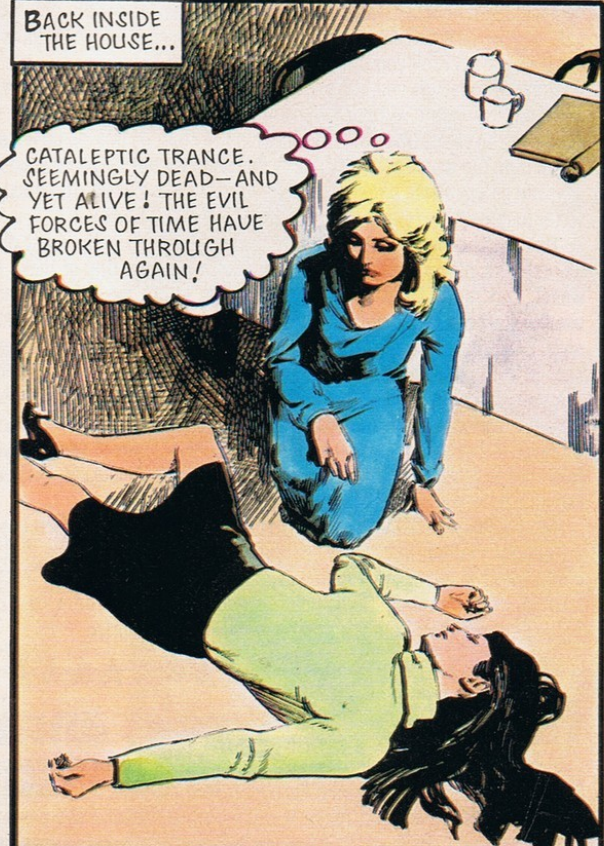

YES, DANNY. WE KNOW. THAT'S WHY WE'RE HERE. BE CALM... WE CAN HELP...

IT— IT WAS WHEN SHE HELD THE BADGE...

TAKE CARE OF HIM, STEEL. I'LL GO ON AHEAD.

BACK INSIDE THE HOUSE...

CATALEPTIC TRANCE. SEEMINGLY DEAD— AND YET ALIVE! THE EVIL FORCES OF TIME HAVE BROKEN THROUGH AGAIN!

Can they be beaten? Follow the drama next week.

TRAVELLING in cars is pretty commonplace these days. Let's see how much you keep your wits about you by asking you to identify items connected with driving or with cars. I'll give you lots of clues, all of which have one word answers unless I tell you otherwise. If you find all the answers in the chart and eliminate the letters you will be left with one word. All you do is send me that word and you might win our £3 postal order prize.

Solve the clues, then find the words in the chart by linking up letters to spell them out. You can link letters in any direction except diagonally, which means you can go up, down, backwards or forwards in every word. You must use every letter just once, including those needed for the prize answer.

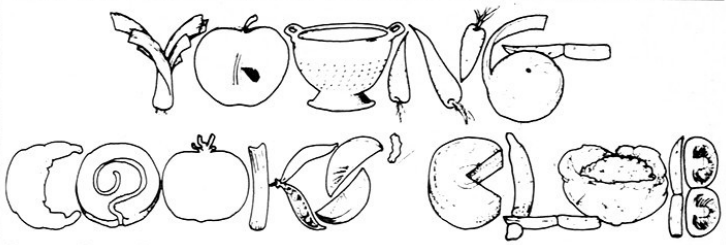

Now for the clues. This is used to make the car go in the right direction (2 words). This blinks to show which way you're turning. One of these is on each wheel. This metal covers the engine. This is where the luggage goes. This is used to start the car (2 words). These are in the road to reflect the headlights at night (2 words). This goes front and back to take bumps. This keeps going back and forth to clear rain (2 words). This is used to see at night. This shows how fast you are going. This is the car's power unit. This enables you to stop. This is used to go into reverse (2 words). These glow in the headlight beams. This strap protects in the event of a crash (2 words). Here's where the gases come out from the engine. This provides power when the engine is off. This goes in the radiator. And this makes you go faster when you press it.

Now that's all the clues. Solve them and you will be left with one word... something that got put out because of the motor car! Send me that one word and you might be a winner. Send your entry, on a postcard only, to: Starchart. Look-in, 247 Tottenham Court Road, London, W1P 0AU. The sender of the first correct entry pulled from the postbag will receive the prize.

Here are last week's answers

England; Scotland; Northern Ireland; Eire; United States of America; Russia; France; Italy; Sweden; Norway; Australia; New Zealand; Yugoslavia; Portugal; China; Canada; Cambodia; India; Morocco; Libya; Israel. Prize place: Berlin.

Introduced by Kathie Webber, Cookery Editor of TVTimes

Bacon and soured cream add a delicious flavour to baked potatoes, but they need some forward planning as they take about 1½ hours to cook.

BACON STUFFED BAKED POTATOES

(serves 4)

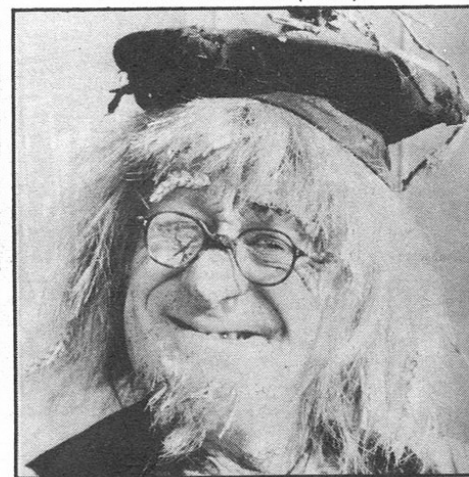

- 4 medium-sized potatoes
- 1 medium-sized onion
- 175g (6oz.) bacon
- 25g (1oz.) butter
- 150ml (5 fl. oz.) soured cream
- salt and pepper
- 2.5ml (½ level teaspoon) dried mixed herbs
- 10ml (2 level teaspoons) mustard
- small bunch of parsley

Scrub the potatoes well, prick with a fork and bake near the top of the oven at 200 deg. C (400 deg. F) or Regulo gas mark 6 for 1-1½ hours or until soft when gently pinched. Skin and slice the onion. Reserve 4 nice lean pieces of bacon and cut the rest into small pieces with scissors. Heat the butter in a frying pan and fry the onion and bacon together until crisp. Stick the reserved pieces of bacon onto cocktail sticks and grill until crisp. Cut a 'lid' from each of the potatoes, scoop out the potato carefully, so as not to split the skin, place into the frying pan and mix with the bacon, onion, salt and pepper and mixed herbs. Add the soured cream and heat gently. Refill the potatoes. Top each with 2.5ml (½ teaspoon) of mustard and the grilled bacon rashers. Garnish with parsley and serve immediately.

Worzel with his ladylove, Aunt Sally (Una Stubbs).

WORZEL'S NO ORDINARY SCARECROW

The dictionary definition of a scarecrow reads: "a figure set up to frighten away crows and other birds from crops; anything terrifying but without real danger; a miserable-looking person in rags."

But there's no way that description could be applied to Southern Television's lovable character Worzel Gummidge. He's the walking, talking scarecrow who lives in Ten Acre Field and who's the star of our new weekly picture-strip that starts this week on page 12. So what better time to take another look at Worzel and his friends at Scatterbrook Farm . . . ?

Worzel is played by Jon Pertwee, without whom the series would never have got off to a start. When Keith Waterhouse and Willis Hall acquired the rights to bring a turnip, a few bales of straw and some wooden poles to life there was no difficulty at all in deciding who should play the part.

"But," says Keith, "if it had turned out that Jon had an aversion to scarecrows, or if he had complained in a huff that he couldn't possibly see how his distinguished head could be mistaken for a turnip, we would probably have dropped the project there and then. Worzel Gummidge was Jon Pertwee and Jon Pertwee was Worzel Gummidge. That was apparent from the start."

There were problems convincing 'the men with the money' that they could make Worzel do the things that no ordinary scarecrow can do without coming up against technical difficulties. Like changing his head in the middle of a programme. But Jon, Keith and Willis worked on it for three-and-a-half years and came up with all the answers.

Aunt Sally, a haughty fairground coconut shy with whom Worzel falls hopelessly in love, is played by Una Stubbs. With a creaking, stiff-jointed walk who would believe that she isn't really made of wood?!

Barbara Windsor, however, had rather more of a trying time when playing the part of Saucy Nancy in a recent episode. Saucy Nancy, you see, is a ship's figurehead, and figureheads don't have legs. But as this particular one has wanderlust it was necessary to fit Barbara up with a set of wheels that moved along tracks while she was pulled along by a rope or rolled downhill. (The first contraption, operated by remote control, had to be abandoned because it became jammed by radio messages from ships at sea to the nearby coastguard station!)

So the humans appearing with Worzel should consider themselves lucky! Most important of these to Worzel are the Crowman, played by Geoffrey Bayldon, who gives his scarecrows life and makes Worzel new heads when he fancies a change, and, of course, Worzel's two young friends who share his secret and do their best to keep him out of trouble, Sue and John Peters, played by Charlotte Coleman and Jeremy Austin.

But why is it that Worzel Gummidge appeals to such a wide audience? The best answer to that comes from Keith Waterhouse: "In a word, because he's a rascal!"

★ Now turn to page 12 to follow Worzel's latest hilarious adventure.

WORZEL GUMMIDGE

IT'S SATURDAY MORNING ON SCATTERBROOK FARM, WHERE JOHN AND SUE PETERS LIVE WITH THEIR FATHER IN A CARAVAN PARKED ON FARMER BRAITHWAITE'S LAND. AS USUAL, THE YOUNGSTERS HAVE HELPED OUT WITH THE EARLY CHORES...

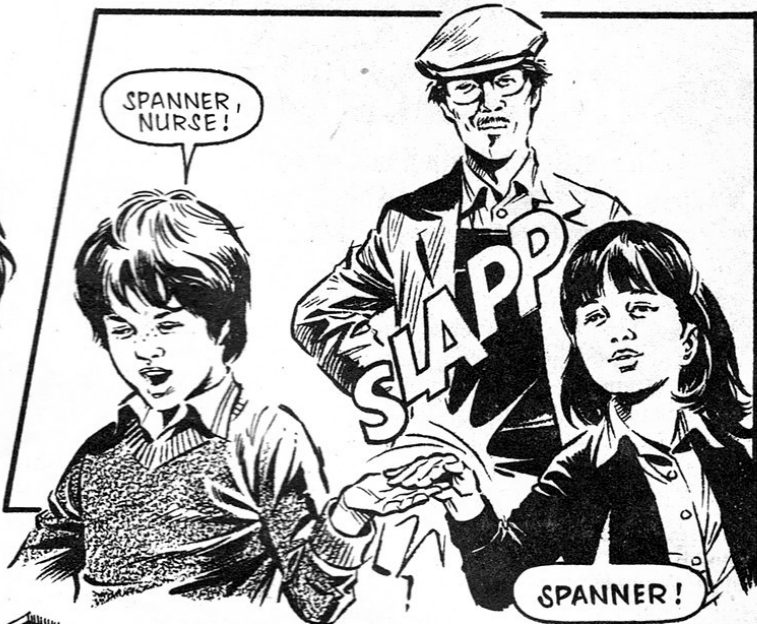

HERE'S THE EGGS FROM THE HENHOUSE, MR. BRAITHWAITE!

THANKS, LASS. YOU'LL BE OFF TO PLAY NOW?

HUH. HE'S THINKING OF THE TIME I ACCIDENTALLY SWITCHED ON THE ELECTRICITY WHEN HE WAS FIXING THE LIGHTS DOWN AT THE HALL.

NEVER MIND. COME ON - LET'S GO AND SEE WORZEL.

WORZEL GUMMIDGE - THE SCARECROW WHO LIVES IN TEN-ACRE FIELD...

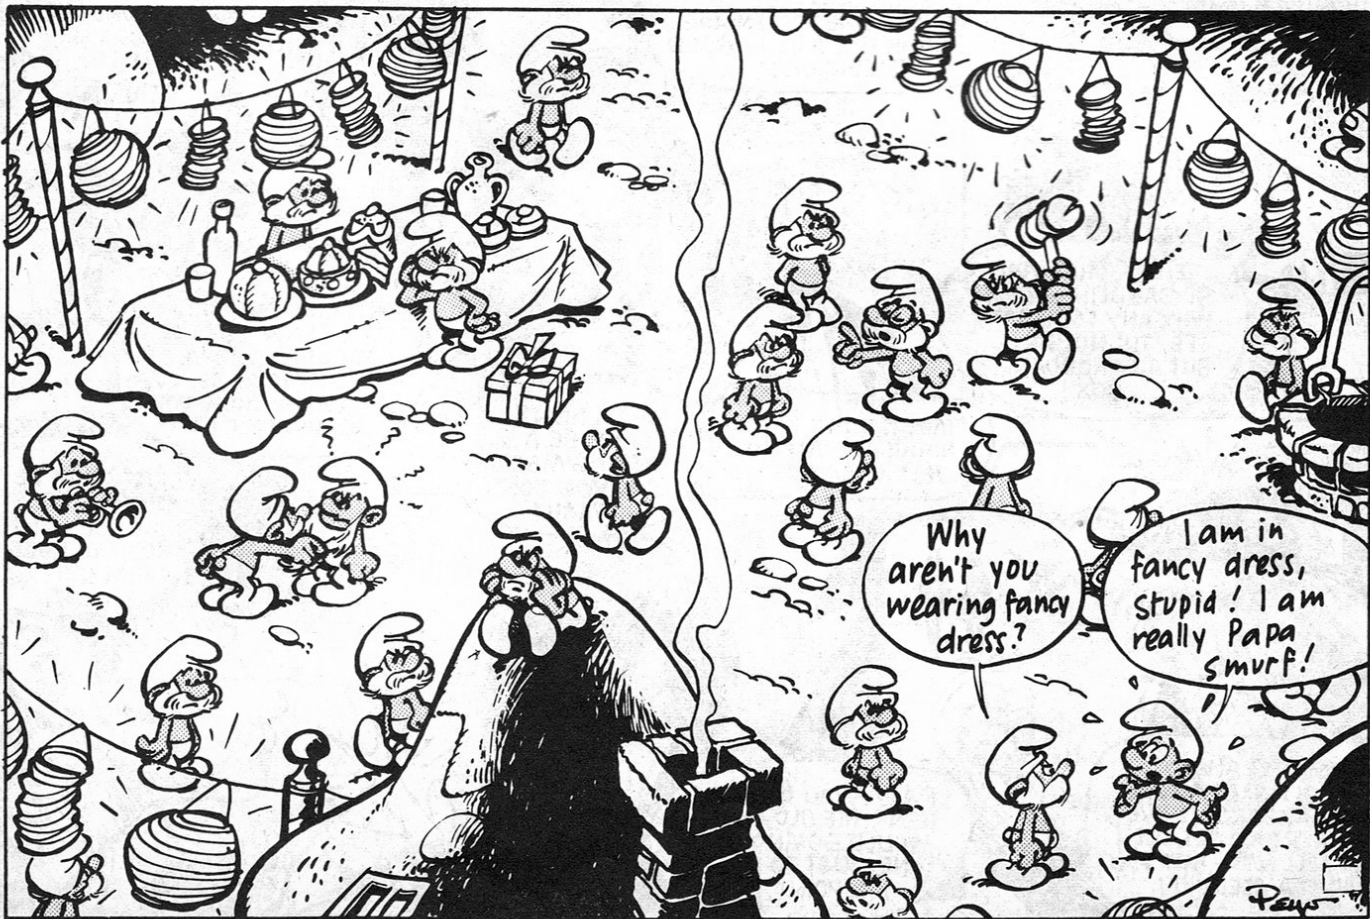

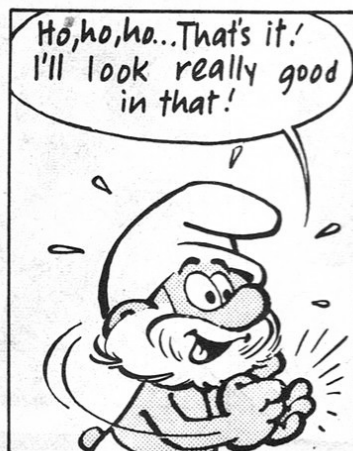

OH-OH! HE'S NOT THERE!

GOLLY, I HOPE HE'S NOT UP TO ANY OF HIS MISCHIEF! WE'D BETTER TRY THE OLD BARN...

Find out what Sue's idea is next week.

MEET THE SMURFS!

He's been singing since he was five years old, his records have sold well over sixty million copies, he's won more awards than he can remember, and he's also a movie star . . . he's Michael Jackson.

JUST A JACKSON!

Michael was born on August 29th, 1958 in Gary, Indiana, but his career began in harmony with his four brothers, Jacko, Tito, Marlon and Randy, when as the Jackson Five they began singing as soon as they could walk. As children the brothers performed in America's biggest and most prestigious showrooms like the world famous Apollo Theatre in New York, Chicago's Regal Theatre and the Uptown in Philadelphia before they were signed up by Motown Records. There they were to rise to become one of the label's biggest acts along with names like Diana Ross and The Supremes, Marvin Gaye, and The Temptations.

In 1970 I Want You Back, featuring Michael's unique searing vocals, bombarded charts the world over and the Jackson Five had arrived. With Michael fronting the band in their time at Motown, they become a pop phenomenon, their talent, charm and charisma winning them friends and fans wherever they performed, and they received keys to cities from virtually all fifty states in America, plus assorted tributes from every continent in the world.

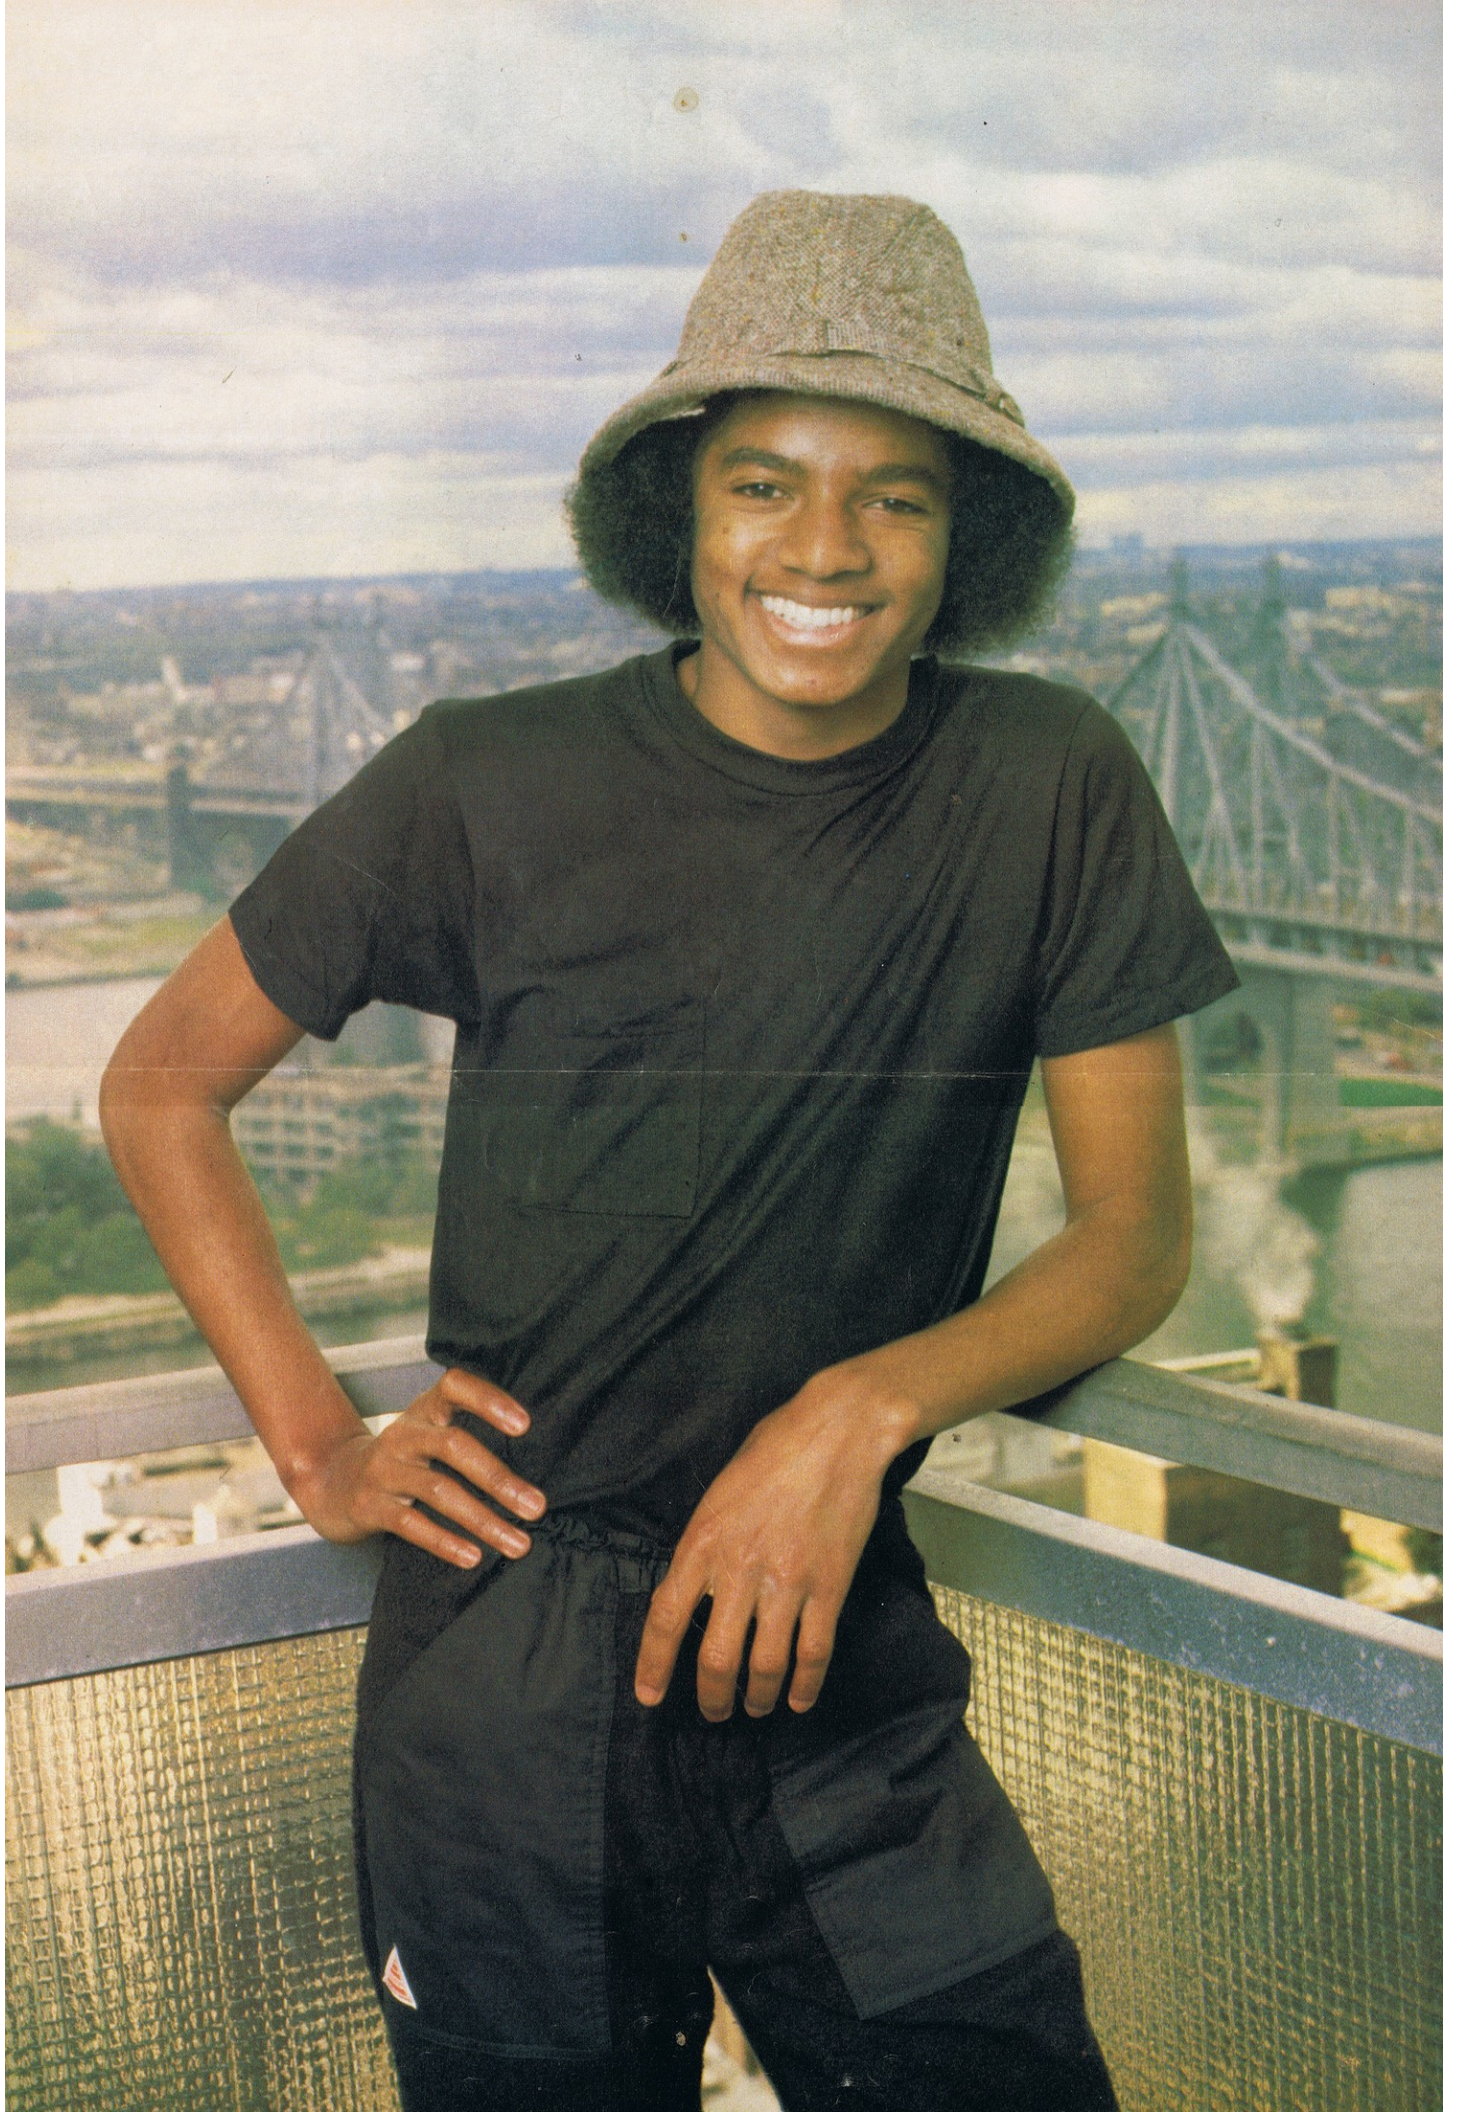

Among hundreds of awards, the Jacksons are recipients of Sixteen Magazine's Group Of The Year Award, Soul Publication's Group Of The Year, two-time nominees of the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences Grammy Awards for the best pop song of 1971 (ABC), and the best Rhythm and Blues song of 1976 for Dancing Machine. In 1972 they even received commendations from the United States House of Representatives and the United States Senate for their contributions to America's youth!

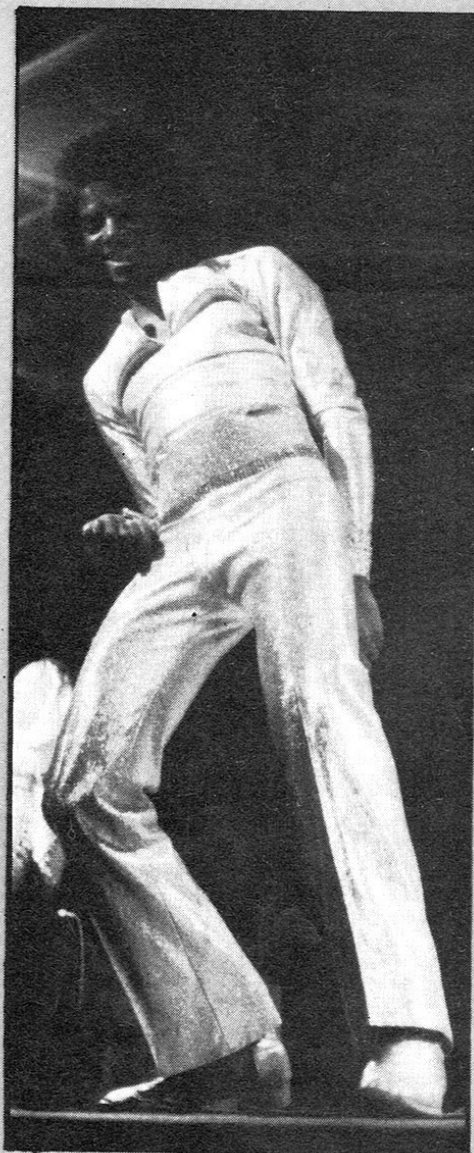

As you can imagine, there was no shortage

Off the wall and in the studio . . . Michael Jackson: the old (below) and the new (above), and with The Jackson Five (below right).

Michael (above) as you see him on stage, and (right) as he appears in The Wiz.

➤ either of gold or platinum record awards for hit single like I Want You Back, ABC, I'll Be There, Mama's Pearl, Maybe Tomorrow, Never Say Goodbye, Dancing Machine, Lookin' Through The Windows and Little Bitty Pretty One.

While the Jackson Five were notching up these hits, Michael was also having some personal success with his solo numbers, including Classics like Got To Be There, Rockin' Robin, Ain't No Sunshine and Ben, from the film of the same name.

Last year saw one of his major ambitions fulfilled when he played a starring role in The Wiz, the all-black re-make of The Wizard of Oz. He played the brainless Scarecrow opposite Diana Ross as Dorothy. Critical acclaim was heaped on him from all sides and after his classy singing and dancing performance he was inundated with many more film offers, including lots of musicals. Says Michael: "I love the film, I loved making it, the things I learned! I just hated to end it! The fact that it was my first film didn't bother me at all, in fact a lot of the people involved were old friends anyway. Diana I've known since I was seven years old. Being around with such brilliant people as Sidney Lumet, the director — just conversing with them you learn so much.

"It's a new challenge for me, another world. That's what I love about showbusiness, you never run out of things to do. I always want to go on working all night, work myself to death."

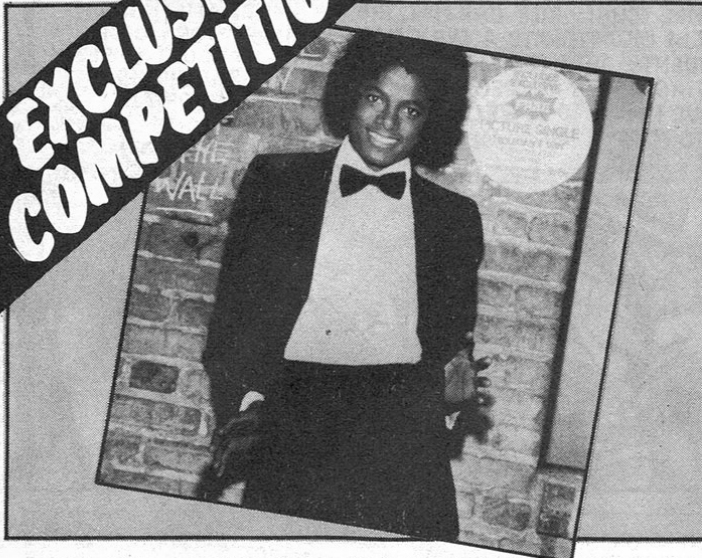

Along with his music, of course, and even before The Wiz, films were Michael's great love. "I adore films," he enthuses. "I wish I could eat them, really. Sometimes I hate to face the reality of everyday life. There's a reality, of course, in films but it's more of another life. Like playing the scarecrow, when I put on the costume, it wasn't me, it was another person. I look at him on the screen and I see another person. Oh, I hated it when they said 'OK, curtain, time to go home'."

But never fear, Michael is not going to neglect his singing. With the boom of Disco Music over the last few years the Jacksons as a group have become even more popular with foot-tapping hits like Blame It On The Boogie, Shake Your Body (Down To The Ground), and an outstanding album, Destiny, while Michael's solo career is at this moment stronger than ever. Last year his debut solo album Off The Wall was released and it is probably the best thing he's done to date. Michael says about Off The Wall: "We had a ball making the album. It was the smoothest album I have ever been involved in. There was so much love, it was incredible. Everybody worked so easily." But even so, Michael has his own ideas about the disco scene. "I know disco music is bigger than it's ever been but I don't need discos to dance. I dance everywhere — especially around the house. It's always been like that with me. I remember when I was younger and used to watch the old Fred Astaire movies. Whatever he'd do — like dancing on top of tables and up walls — I'd imitate.

"To tell the honest truth I really don't like the term 'disco music'. It's Rhythm and Blues music, and it's been going for years through stars like James Brown and Marvin Gaye. But I am really glad that people are dancing so much these days. Because it really does get rid of all your troubles."

EXCLUSIVE COMPETITION

20 COPIES OF 'OFF THE WALL' MUST BE WON!

Off The Wall is Michael Jackson's superb debut solo album. Produced by famous jazz composer Quincy Jones, it is undoubtedly one of the best disco LPs around (it was in many people's lists of Top LPs of '79!). With tracks written by Paul McCartney, Stevie Wonder and Carol Bayer Sager mingled with his own classy tunes, this is an album you certainly shouldn't miss, and this week we're giving away twenty copies to the winners of our super record competition.

TO ENTER: All you have to do is read the five questions below, and when you think you have the correct answers enter them in the spaces provided on the coupon. Then add your name, address and age and send it, on a postcard only, to: Look-in Michael Jackson Competition, P.O. Box 141, London SE6 3HR. The senders of the first twenty all-correct entries drawn from the postbag after the closing date, Monday, 25th February, 1980, will each receive a copy of Michael Jackson's Off The Wall.

QUESTIONS:

- 1 What was the title of The Jackson Five's first hit single?
- 2 Name two of Michael's early solo hits.
- 3 What part did Michael play in The Wiz?
- 4 Name two of Michael's singing brothers.
- 5 Michael was born in which American state?

Send, on a postcard only, to: Look-in, Michael Jackson Comp.,
P.O. Box 141, London SE6 3HR.

CHARLIE'S ANGELS

ENROLLED AS 'COWGIRLS' IN THE WILD WEST SHOW RUN BY CHARLIE'S FRIEND COLONEL 'CURLY BILL' CARSON, THE ANGELS INVESTIGATE A SERIES OF 'ACCIDENTS' THAT LOOK LIKE DELIBERATE SABOTAGE. THEY SUSPECT THAT THE MOTIVE IS NOT TO WRECK THE SHOW BUT TO KEEP IT FROM MEETING ITS TOUR SCHEDULE...

COLONEL! I KNOW THE AFTERNOON PERFORMANCE IS ABOUT TO BEGIN, BUT THIS IS IMPORTANT!

MAKE IT QUICK. I HAVE TO ADDRESS THE AUDIENCE...

SO?

YEAH! THE AUDIENCE IN THIS TOWN, BUT BY SCHEDULE, YOU SHOULD HAVE BEEN PLAYING TWIN FALLS TODAY— FIVE HUNDRED MILES NORTH OF HERE!

CHARLIE'S CHECKED OUT! A SECRET GOVERNMENT GOLD-SHIPMENT WAS DUE IN THE TWIN FALLS BANK TODAY, IT'S BEEN HELD BACK UNTIL NEXT WEDNESDAY!

CARSON'S WILD WEST SHOW

COMIC-BOOK FICTION! CATCH ME LATER— I'VE GOT TO GET THIS SHOW MOVING!

I'D BUY IT, WOULDN'T YOU, BOS?

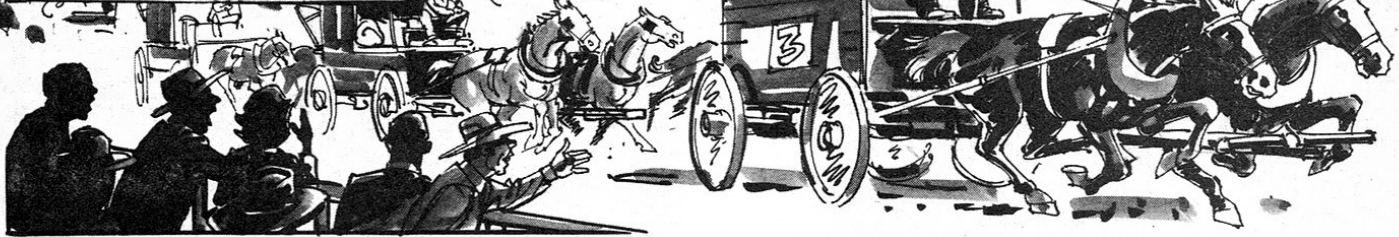

A WILD WEST SHOW IN TOWN... EVERYBODY AT THE PERFORMANCE... AND THE BANK ALL QUIET — READY TO BE RAIDED, MAYBE BY A TEAM ON YOUR PAYROLL!

IT ADDS. THE MORE FANTASTIC THE SCHEME, THE BETTER THE CHANCE OF SUCCESS!

SO THE CROOKS, WHOEVER THEY ARE, HAVE HELD THE WILD WEST SHOW BACK... UNLESS WE THROW ANOTHER ACCIDENT THAT KEEPS IT HERE! AND IT'LL ARRIVE IN TWIN FALLS WEDNESDAY!

WAIT A MINUTE! IT'S DOWN TO ME BOSLEY. I'M GOING TO PRETEND TO BREAK YOUR NECK — AND KRIS WILL SHOW YOU WHERE TO STAND!

THE PERFORMANCE GETS UNDER WAY. FIRST, THE INEVITABLE COWBOYS AND INDIANS, AND THEN THE CHUCK-WAGON RACE...

THE BUCKING BRONCOS...

AND THEN KELLY, AS A STAR SOLO TRICK-RIDER...

REMEMBER! WHEN IT HAPPENS — ALL EARS OPEN FOR ANYONE WHO RECKONS IT'S BAD NEWS!

EARS AND EYES! BUT TAKE CARE — DON'T BLOW IT, KELLY!

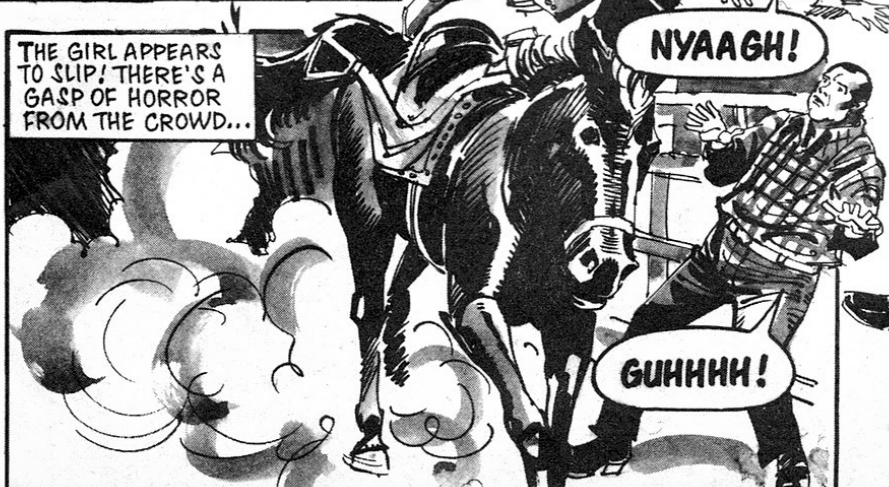

ON A REALLY SPIRITED HORSE, KELLY MAKES A COUPLE OF WILD CIRCUITS AS GOOD AS ANY CIRCUS ACT!

HER EYE IS ON BOSLEY, PLACED STRATEGICALLY BY THE HOME CORRAL...

HERE WE GO, BOS! WE'VE GOT TO MAKE IT LOOK GOOD!

THE GIRL APPEARS TO SLIP! THERE'S A GASP OF HORROR FROM THE CROWD...

Have they been hurt? See next week.

GOLD TOP BENNY!

If you saw Benny Hill's latest TV extravaganza last Wednesday (February 6th) you won't need reminding that he's still one of the funniest men on the small box.

What you may not realise, though, is that Benny — real name Alfred Hill — has been tickling the nation's funny-bone for a quarter of a century. He was voted Top TV personality of 1954, and since then, instead of having to make two or three 'comebacks', he's remained at the top of the tree with a regular diet of four shows a year.

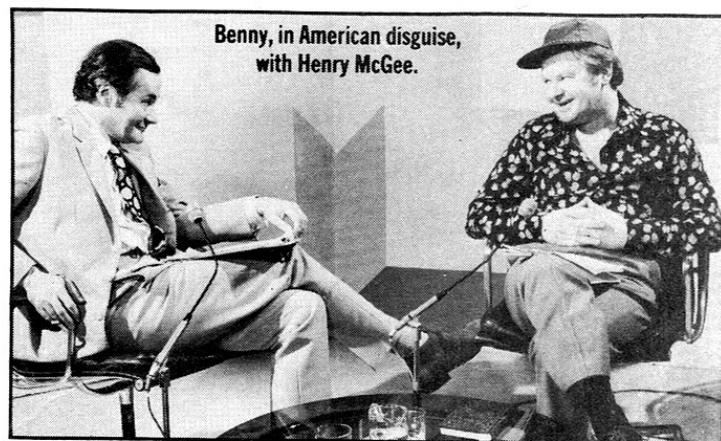

The rest of the time he travels. Australia, France, Germany. Off at the drop of a hat. But his life, away from the successful glare of the TV cameras, doesn't reflect the good fortune of the last 25 years.

His flat, although a vast luxury apartment, is acres of bare carpet, and Benny sits in it like a man awaiting the removal firm. He was once burgled. "If they came back," he says, "the only item worth stealing would be the television set!"

He has four or five inexpensive suits. He saves up his frayed shirts and worn shoes and wears them when he is on his travels around the world. He doesn't smoke or drink, and has only one rich man's weakness — but unfortunately he's unable to indulge in it. He loves eating, but is obliged to live on a strict diet, so that the cuddly charm doesn't turn to being plain overweight. Says Benny: "I come from a family of balloons."

"I'm not really a money person. In fact, I'm a very un-money sort of person. I don't care about possessions. I don't even have a car."

"If I'm going anywhere in London, I almost always walk, and if it's raining, I'll take the bus or the tube. I don't like taking taxis. Somehow it seems wrong to me to take up a man's time and his petrol just to make a journey."

"I've always been like that. I can't waste anything. I can't even throw away the leaves off the celery. If I'm leaving a really de-luxe hotel, I'll take my soap with me even if there's only a quarter of the bar left."

"I was brought up to be thrifty, and I still am."

TURNING POINTS

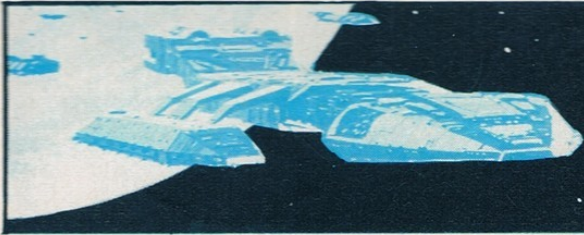

Two turning points led Benny to stardom. The first was when he was 16, and he came to London and slept for three nights on Streatham Common while he tried to get a job in the theatre — and did.

The second was when he was Reg Varney's straight man in a show in Sunderland. He also had his own comic spot in the show, and when he was told it was being dropped he walked out. Says Benny: "Everyone told me I was a fool and said I was a really great straight man, but I still walked out."

He came back to London, wrote some funny sketches, and took them along to the BBC. "Very funny," they said. "Would you like your own show?"

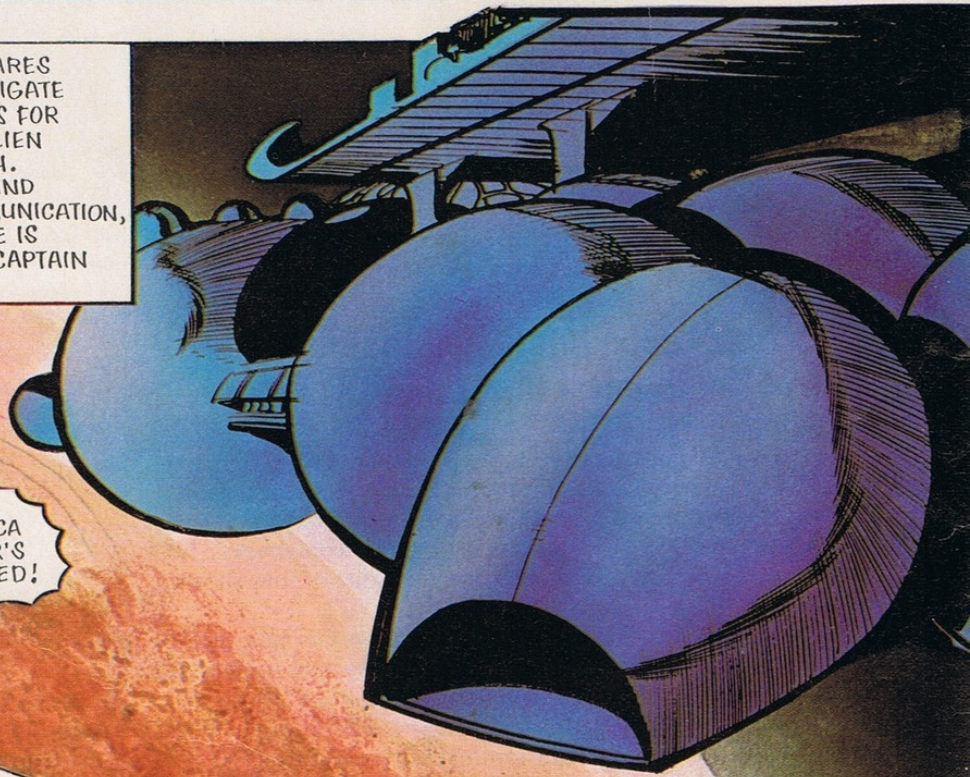

Now, all these years later, Benny is not just a big hit in Britain — he's conquered half the world, including America. 50 shows have been bought from Thames Television by United States TV to be shown to 80 million viewers. And Benny laughs when asked the secret of his success: "It must be because I've kept my figure. I haven't let myself go like some others."

Apollo and the Shuttle prepare to investigate . . .

Battlestar GALACTICA™

AS BATTLESTAR GALACTICA PREPARES TO SEND DOWN A TEAM TO INVESTIGATE A PLANET WITH IDEAL CONDITIONS FOR COLONISATION, A MYSTERIOUS ALIEN SHIP APPEARS, BARRING HER PATH. THERE IS NO RESPONSE OF ANY KIND TO ADAMA'S ATTEMPTS AT COMMUNICATION, AND SO AN EXPLORATION SHUTTLE IS DETACHED TO THE PLANET, WITH CAPTAIN APOLLO FLYING ESCORT...

KEEP WATCHING THAT SHIP, GALACTICA CONTROL! MY REAR'S KIND OF UNGUARDED!

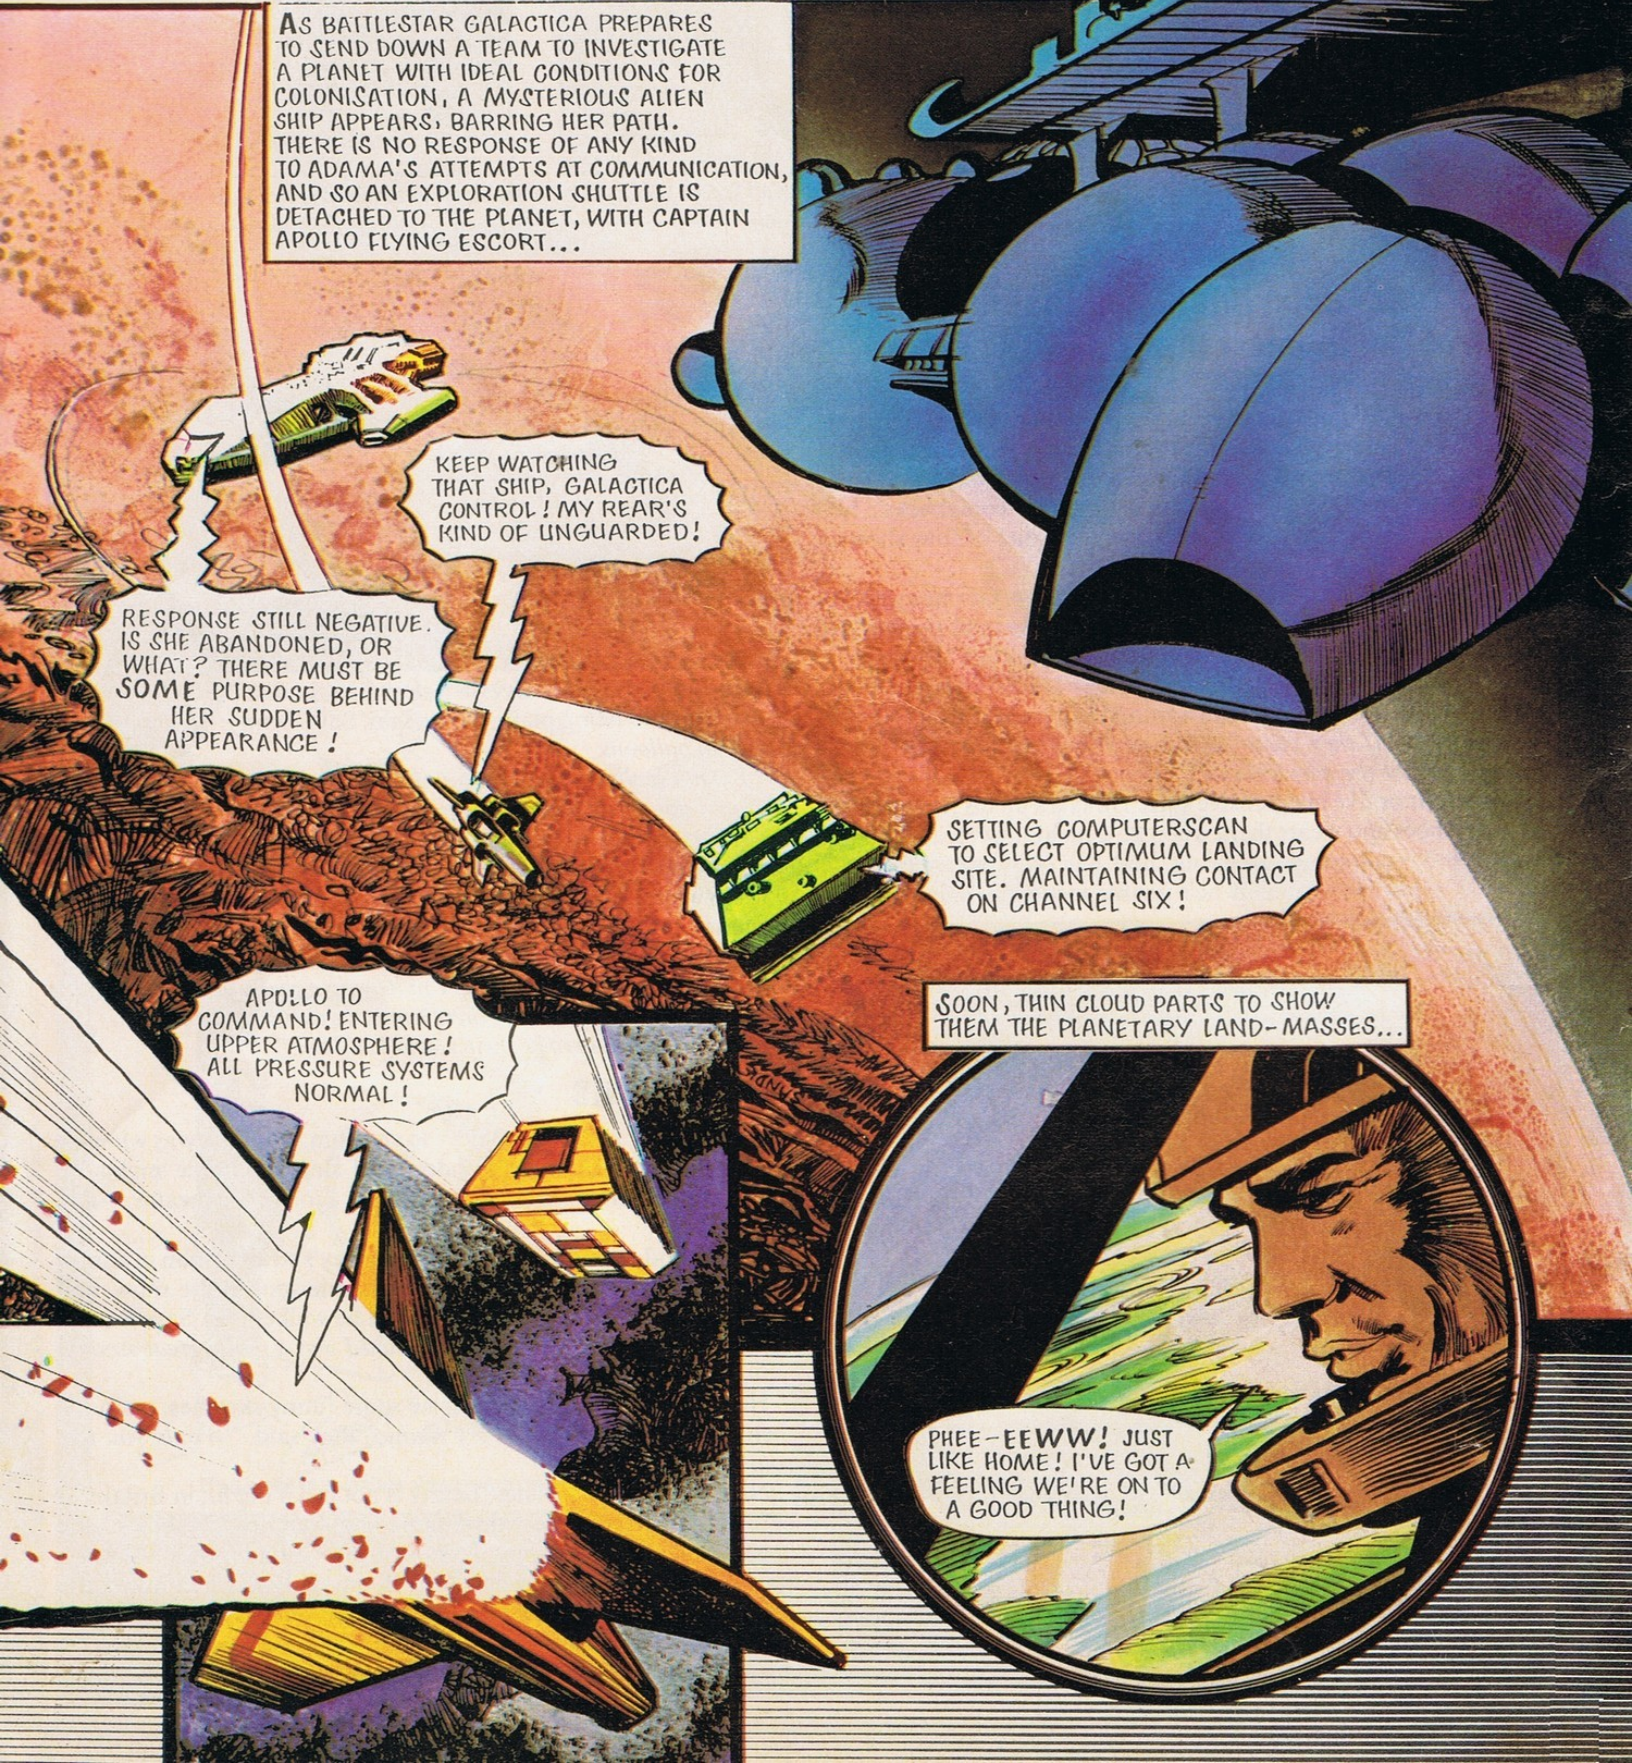

RESPONSE STILL NEGATIVE. IS SHE ABANDONED, OR WHAT? THERE MUST BE SOME PURPOSE BEHIND HER SUDDEN APPEARANCE!

SETTING COMPUTERSCAN TO SELECT OPTIMUM LANDING SITE. MAINTAINING CONTACT ON CHANNEL SIX!

APOLLO TO COMMAND! ENTERING UPPER ATMOSPHERE! ALL PRESSURE SYSTEMS NORMAL!

SOON, THIN CLOUD PARTS TO SHOW THEM THE PLANETARY LAND-MASSSES...

PHEE-EEWW! JUST LIKE HOME! I'VE GOT A FEELING WE'RE ON TO A GOOD THING!

I'D FEEL HAPPIER IF I KNEW WHAT THAT ALIEN SHIP WAS ABOUT. TAKE GOOD CARE BEFORE YOU LAND, CAPTAIN!

SURE, WE DON'T WANT YOU TO RUN INTO ANY KIND OF AMBUSH...

THE SHUTTLE AND THE VIPER MAKE SEVERAL PASSES OVER THE SELECTED SITE...

IT'S LIKE A KIND OF PARADISE! DO YOU SEE ANY MOVEMENT DOWN THERE, APOLLO?

NO WAY. IT'S SO UNSPOILED, MANKIND CAN NEVER HAVE BEEN NEAR IT!

BOTH CRAFT TOUCH DOWN...

THIS IS JIM-DANDY! COOL, CLEAN AIR TO BREATHE...

THE WHOLE PLACE TO OURSELVES...

C'MON, LET'S GET SOIL SAMPLES AND SO FORTH...

THEN, AS APOLLO WANDERS ABOUT ON HIS OWN...

WHA...? WHERE DID YOU SPRING FROM?

DO NOT BE AFRAID CAPTAIN. PLEASE BELIEVE THAT I MEAN YOU NO HARM!

Who is she? Find out in the next exciting instalment.

Miss Courtney is in the chair!

MIND YOUR LANGUAGE.

A 'MAN IN THE STREET' INTERVIEW FOR TELEVISION LANDS JEREMY AND SOME OF HIS STUDENTS IN DEEP, DEEP TROUBLE WHEN A FISTFIGHT DEVELOPS WITH SOME WORKMEN, AND THE POLICE ARE CALLED TO BREAK IT UP. THE RESULT - THEY'RE ALL BOOKED TO APPEAR IN COURT!

THIS IS MOST EMBARRASSING!

BUT YOU KNOW IT WAS A MISUNDERSTANDING! I SIMPLY SAID THAT TODAY'S JOE SOAP PREFERS FREE GOVERNMENT HANDOUTS TO WORKING!

SI, AN 'A MAN NAMED JOSEPH SOAP GET ANGRY, AND MAKE A THUMP AT SENOR BROWN!

I SHALL DISCUSS YOUR CASE WITH MY COLLEAGUES BEFORE WE SIT TOMORROW. REMEMBER - I HAVE TO BE IMPARTIAL!

YES, MISS COURTNEY. COME ON, YOU LOT!

SHE WOULD HAVE TO BE CHAIRING THE BOARD OF MAGISTRATES!

HEY, MEBBE SHE SEND US TO JAIL TO SEW UP PILLAR-BOXES!

IN CLASS, JEREMY IS NATURALLY RATHER SUBDUED!

I SUPPOSE WE'D BETTER TACKLE SEPARABLE VERBS. OPEN YOUR BOOKS AT PAGE THIRTY, WILL YOU?

TEACHER-SAHIB IS DOWN IN THE RUBBISH TIPS, ALI.

OH BLIMEY YOU ARE MEANING IN THE DUMPS, RANJEET. I AM PUTTING ON MY STINKING-CAP FOR AN IDEA TO HELP HIM!

I HAVE IT!

WELL, YOU KEEP IT! I AM NOT WANTING YOUR STINKING CAP!

NEXT MORNING, JEREMY AND HIS FRIENDS MEET UP WITH THEIR ERSTWHILE COMBATANTS OUTSIDE THE COURT....

LOOK, CHUM. WE KNOW IT WAS ALL A MISTAKE. IF WE TELL THE BENCH WE'RE SORRY, WE'LL PROBABLY GET OFF WITH A WARNING!

THAT'S OKAY BY US, MATE. FEEL A BIT DAFT LOSIN' ME TEMPER LIKE THAT!

MY FAULT ENTIRELY, MR. SOAP. SHAKE ON IT?

WIN PLEASURE! PUT IT THERE!

AND SO...

ER - RATHER THAN WASTE THE COURT'S TIME, YOUR HONOUR, WE'VE ALL DECIDED TO PLEAD GUILTY AND ASK FOR CIRCUMSTANCES TO BE TAKEN INTO ACCOUNT.

VERY WELL... I SHALL BIND YOU OVER TO KEEP THE PEACE, IN THE SUM OF...

BE WAITING, PLEASE! AT GREAT EXPENSE, I AM PERSONALLY HIRING MY COUSIN, WHO IS A SOLICITOR, TO BE DEFENDING MR. BROWN!

'ERE WHAT'S YOUR GAME? YOU'RE A FLIPPIN' SNAKE IN THE GRASS, MOOSH!

IT'S ALL ANOTHER MISUNDERSTAND-ING! IT'S ONE OF MY BARMY PUPILS!

TOO LATE...

GNNFF!

TAKE THAT!

LATER - MUCH LATER - AND AFTER FIFTY QUID FINES ALL ROUND....

YOU AND YOUR BRIGHT IDEAS, ALL! IF THEY DON'T GET US FIRST, IT IS ME WHO WILL BE BASHING YOU!

OH BUMMEY!

An hilarious new story starts next week.

LOOK OUT FOR NEXT WEEK'S Look-in

Dick Turpin is our cover star and inside you can find a terrific interview with the highwayman himself, Richard O'Sullivan, on the return to TV of London Weekend's popular adventure series. ★ For pop fans there's an exclusive interview with The Tourists (above). Watch out for a great two-page colour pin-up too. ★ Brian Moore's Sports Arena focuses on the world of Rugby Union and includes a super action pin-up of Welsh international star Gareth Davies. ★ All this plus your regular features and picture-strip favourites like Charlie's Angels, Battlestar Galactica and Mind Your Language.

IT'S ALL IN THE NEXT ISSUE OF Look-in ORDER YOUR COPY NOW!

★ Your newsagent will happily reserve or deliver your copy of Look-in each week. Just think — no more sold-out issues, no more missed pin-ups, competitions, stories etc! ★ If you'd like to order your copy complete the form on the right (with the signature of your parent or guardian) and hand it to your newsagent. He'll do the rest!
