INTRODUCTION TO A THEME...

by ERNEST BORNEMAN

TWO generations ago, the only instrument that was really associated with jazz was the saxophone. That was because the collar broke down so much in that period that the clarinet was almost abandoned. Today, the feeling prevails that the major instrument for modern jazz is the saxophone, but the clarinet is making a comeback. The theme of this article is that the clarinet is still the most expressive and versatile instrument in jazz.

KENTON talking

There has been a great deal of interest in the clarinet in recent years. It has been used by many artists, including Duke Ellington, Charlie Parker, and Kenny Clarke. The clarinet is a versatile instrument and can be played in a variety of styles, from swing to bebop.

How to write letters to a jazz columnist...

STEVE RACE ADVISES ON-

Each morning the postman poots through my letter-box an average of 15 letters, of which 14 are to do with the jazz province. The one remaining letter asks me for something to write about...For instance:

Worried Eddie?

'Since I wrote you a year ago I've been really deep in the woods. What with the war being on, I decided to take a trip to some of the old haunts of the Doctor, and I came across this place called Broadway. However, I managed to find a few old friends and was able to spend a bit of time with them. I'm not sure if I've found the answer to my problem, but I'm hoping to find something useful soon.'

Another moan

Not too much!

"Dear Steve, I'm really fed up with the way things are at the moment. Every time I think I've got a break coming up, something comes along to spoil it. I've been worrying about this for a while now, and I'm not sure what to do. I've been looking for a job, but I haven't had any luck. I'm really feeling down at the moment, and I don't know what to do."

Ten-point plan

1. Stop worrying and start enjoying life.
2. Find a new job.
3. Take a break and do something different.
5. Travel to new places.
7. Volunteer for a good cause.
8. Exercise regularly.
9. Eat healthy.
10. Take care of yourself.

The discovery

"I just wanted to tell you about a discovery I made the other day. I was out walking in the park and I came across a hidden gem that I never knew existed. It was a small, charming café where the coffee was delicious and the atmosphere was cozy. I've been going there every day since and I can't get enough."

The Trumpet YOU would be proud to play... The Benson "NEW CREATION"

"I've been wanting to learn the trumpet for a while now, but I haven't had the chance to do so. I've heard that the Benson "NEW CREATION" is a great instrument. Can anyone who owns one tell me about their experience with it?"

The answer:

"I recently bought a Benson "NEW CREATION" and I have to say, it's fantastic! The intonation is perfect, the tone is rich and full, and it's really easy to play. I would definitely recommend it to anyone looking for a great trumpet."
