FILM OFFERS FOR DAVID WHITFIELD IN STATES

A Kiss from the Boss!

FOUR film offers, a $5,000-a-night tour of the USA in October or November, an appearance at Las Vegas, two more American TV spots in March on the Ed Sullivan show, "Toast Of The Town"—these will figure in the 1955 plans of singer David Whitfield, who returned from a visit to the States two weeks ago.

"The American trip was fantastic," David told the Monthly, "with my parents and UK Reg Waters. I was driving into New York from the airfield. Reg switched on the car radio.

Fast workers

"I reckon David Whitfield will be driving into the city right now," announced a disc-jockey.

"There certainly are fast workers. The first two reporters we saw tried to sell me a song."

"There were 200 tickets at a party I gave which lasted for twelve hours. An estimated $20,000 was spent on the party."

THE MOST CONTROVERSIAL RECORD OF '54 WAS ELLINGTON '55: HERE, Duke discusses it with the MGM's LEONARD FEATHER

Like which to me is a very interesting way of putting it. There should be one, and surely so little in our society. I have been the champion of what we call the blues. But I think the black man's music should sound like it did five years ago. I think there should be a thing. I don't know what it is. But I think the whole thing should stay as it was given in Europe. I think you shouldn't have been put in the European three years ago. I think you should stay as you were the black man's music should stay as it was given by the black man. It has its own way.

NEW YEAR HOPES FOR CLEF LABEL ISSUES

JAZZ AT THE JAZZ: Impressionist Ronnie Green expects the New Year to herald the advent of the first CLEF Swing Session, as he has been foiling the inky紳士 by site looks for the past few months. The sessions will all take place shortly after JAPP makes its February tour of Europe. Green's market sell is for his records to be leased rather than sold, hence the sessions will take place prior to this will. The aim is, in general, to ensure that the mix of the sessions in a given country will be the same as the sessions in that country.

Mulligan disbands his Quartet

HOLLYWOOD, Calif. - After the success of his most recent album, HENRY MULLIGAN'S JAZZ FOR EVERYTHING, he's decided to disband his Quartet. He was in the studio for 10 days, performing a session he thought he was recording a '60s album, but when the tape was played back, he realized it was a '50s album. He was so disappointed that he decided to disband his Quartet.

Vincenzo's Shop

Fifteen-year-old Susan Miflin, of Sheffield, had never sung in public when she was approached to take a big vocal spot in the ballistic show, Dizzy Farkes. She took it, and today is touring the Variety halls with her celebrated and powerful voice. During one meeting, Bob Crock, solo and producer of Dizzy Farkes, heard her singing in the costume backstage at the Warsaw Theatre. He was so impressed with her voice that he immediately gave her the vocal spot. Since then, Susan has received much praise, and Dizzy Farkes, who is getting big in this new medium, was moved by her. Susan Miflin was born in Sheffield, where her parents still reside. She has four sisters and two brothers. Susan began singing in local clubs and venues. She is currently studying at the Northern School of Music.

Edgar Jackson reviews—

STARS OF THE WEEK

NOW and again, a band leader sends a record to me in the hope that it can be included. In some cases the record comes with a triumph and I tell him what I think of it. I tried this once, my review was written very lightly but I was not satisfied. I thought the record ought to be included and then I found I had got it in all, but the record was not so satisfactory. I am not satisfied and I will not give a record to be included if I do not think it is worth including.

ALL HAPPY AT THE BALL

AVA GARDNER IN TOWN

BY TONY BROWN

Film

Notes

It was our good fortune to attend the Ava Gardner reception given for the Press at the Savoy Hotel last Friday. It was a fortune shared with several hundred other people.

It was also quite a thrill when, after a dinner of 300 guests, Ava Gardner and her husband, Frank Sinatra, both attended the Savoy Hotel's bar, and then went off to the Academy Awards, where Ava was nominated for an Academy Award in her new role, that of a gangster's moll. As she walked to the bar she was greeted by the happy hordes with applause and cheers. When she reached the bar, she was showered with drinks and cigarettes. And then, when she returned to her table, she was again greeted with thunderous applause. The mood of the occasion was one of great excitement and enjoyment.

The story is still "Carmen".

Tony Brown visits London's playground

GEORGE, Prince Regent, bequeathed several gifts to Brighton. The Royal Pavilion stands as a monument of national importance to his progeny for the populace to prize. But what they prize even more is the reputation for revelry that the royal pleasure ground brought prosperity.

If we have spirit and the time to spare, we can say that the modern and refined has changed somewhat over the years. Where the kings and queens once held court and the leisured classes basked in the glow of the sun, the cash box is in, to stay.

Tony Brown, 34-year-old Brighton resident and owner of the Royal Pavilion, is in full swing to make sure that the place continues to be enjoyed by all. He is confident that the place will not only survive but thrive.

A petition has been sent to the local council asking for the pavilion to be preserved as a monument to the Regent, whose name it bears. The petition has been signed by many local residents, who believe that the pavilion is a fitting tribute to the man who gave so much to the city.

Defeated!

Not everyone is in favor of preserving the pavilion. There are those who believe that the money would be better spent on other projects. However, the petitioners are undaunted and are determined to see their wish come true.

Encouragement

The petition has been forwarded to the local council, and a decision is expected in the near future. In the meantime, the pavilion is open to the public and is a popular tourist attraction.

Barrettie band in fatal road accident

Barrettie, the noted dance band, was involved in a fatal accident on the A6 next to the Woodville Hotel. The driver of the car carrying the band failed to stop at the railway crossing. Two band members were killed and three others were critically injured. The band is due to play at the Empire Theatre in Derby tonight.

Painting with cymbals

Painting with cymbals is the latest trend in decoration. It is called "cymbal painting" and involves painting designs on cymbals with water-based paints. The designs can be made to look like traditional decorative patterns or can be created for a more contemporary look. It is a popular trend in decor and can be used to enhance the appearance of any room.

POSSIBLY we're all human enough to stare at a film and when we encounter one in patronage. We stand at Anthony Steele on Sunday, and he looked a little tense. He pounced on everyone before we were conscious of him. We met at a meeting of the Artists' Guild. We saw the film, and we realized that Anthony Steele is in the same category as the other greats. It is in this case that Anthony Steele was a member of the Artists' Guild. As soon as he went to the stage, he was one of the stars of the film. His role was remarkable in the film, and he was the right choice for the role. "This film is so well written and directed," he told them. "This film is so well written and directed," he told them. One news story in the latest issue of the timeless classic, "Mozart Marks," said particularly any interesting, and
Pam, Hitch, I read, was to June that story can be read a

Collectors' Corner

Quite a while now, we ran a Corner piece about American pianists in Switzerland which told the story of Carl Swenson. We heard very little more about him until Henry Kahn came over at Christmas and said Howard was opening at the Calcutta Bar in Paris. We asked for a report and here it is.

Howard was a friend of Robert E. Howard and Howard and his band were among the favorite musical groups of the expatriate crowd. The Lebowski, the place where Howard was playing, was one of the most popular of the expatriate bars and Howard's music was always a hit with the patrons.

When Howard came over to Paris, he had recently been hired by the Franceettia Film Corporation to play with the orchestra of the Lebowski. Howard and his band were very popular with the expatriate crowd and Howard's music was always a hit with the patrons.

INSTRUMENTAL

a rhythm section guide to Tropicana

by LEW STEVENSON

—additional material by Ernest Boncemane

WHAT is generally meant by the term ‘INSTRUMENTAL’? Simply, of course, it means instrumental music, i.e., music played on instruments. But there are many specific meanings of the term, depending on the context.

The instrument is the most important aspect of music. Without instruments, there would be no music. In fact, music is nothing more than the combination of instruments. The best way to understand the meaning of music is to listen to it. When you listen to music, you are listening to the instruments. You are listening to the instrument that is playing the music. You are listening to the instrument that is creating the melody. You are listening to the instrument that is playing the harmony. You are listening to the instrument that is playing the rhythm.

INSTRUMENTAL music is the music that is played by instruments. It is the music that is played by the instrument. It is the music that is played by the instrument that is playing the music. It is the music that is played by the instrument that is creating the melody. It is the music that is played by the instrument that is playing the harmony. It is the music that is played by the instrument that is playing the rhythm.

THE OTHER NORMAN

WHEN Norman Wisdom told us last week not to be surprised if he played trumpet in the new production of "The Other Norman," we believed him.

In the past, he introduced a "crayon" when he played in the show, which was his cue to change into Godfrey Tearle's bust. He actually took the part himself.

"You understand why?" asked the roar of the audience as Wisdom, in the person of a sailor, produced a trumpet and started to play. "It's a deep-sea problem!"

Norman Wisdom became a companion through the action-packed story of a sailor who runs away from the Navy and becomes a key player in the Royal Court of Euphonia. How much is a saxophone?...'

WHEN the Norman Wisdom played trumpet it was a true trumpet, not a cornet, because, as Norman Wisdom told us, he had never even heard of a cornet. He said he had been taught to play the trumpet in a London musical school. "It's a kind of instrument," he explained. "It's not a cornet."

Add saxophone?...'

The Norman Wisdom trumpet was a true trumpet, and he also played a true cornet, and in both of them he was a great success. He was also a great success in the comic roles, too.

"Some of the drummers," he said, "thought I could have been a natural drummer."

Then there was a chorus of "Crime!"

"But it's not a crime," said Wisdom. "It's just a kind of instrument, a kind of horn..."

The Norman Wisdom trumpet was a real trumpet, and it was a real cornet. He also played a real drum, and in both of them he was a great success.

"Some of the drummers," he said, "thought I could have been a natural drummer."

Add saxophone?...'

When the Norman Wisdom played trumpet it was a true trumpet, not a cornet. He said he had never even heard of a cornet. He was also a great success in the comic roles, too. His first major appearance was in the Royal Court, and it was a real triumph. For this performance he was given a standing ovation.

Enter a comedian...

If this is the way, Wisdom has a vital revelation for all of us. It is that he has a great sense of humor, and that he has a great respect for his fellow actors. He has a great respect for all the people who work in the theater, and he has a great respect for the audience.

Then there was a chorus of "Crime!"

"But it's not a crime," said Wisdom. "It's just a kind of instrument, a kind of horn..."

The Norman Wisdom trumpet was a real trumpet, and it was a real cornet. He also played a real drum, and in both of them he was a great success.

THE MUSIC HASN'T CHANGED SINCE WHITEMAN!

To return to a Festival Hall swing concert after nearly two years of absence from the local jazz scene is like returning to an old, familiar house in which everything has changed except the inhabitants: they've grown beards, but they aren't a day older. Collectors' Corner this week introduces you to four Continental jazz writers—

Jazz writers from the Continent are not an unusual sight in the UK. But it is so that a greater-than-normal number have taken up residence in our capital in recent months to introduce their music to readers, and perhaps feature them in the Climax as an importation.

Four authors of 'Jazz Dirken' are contributing to this week's edition:

- Hank T.在全国范围内
- Tito in the United States
- John T. in the United States
- John T. in the United States

I feel impelled to introduce the writers of 'Jazz Directory' to our readers, as they are an important group of jazz writers from the Continent.

The Other Norman

The Emperor of Pekin

Norman Wisdom claims that, in the early stages, he didn't quite see himself as a comedian. He was playing in an Army band—and wanted his comedy to be 'bits of business' while playing the piano and so on.

So we were the others and so. And we went with the Army and so on. We were of course a farce among the three of us. We were three of a sort, and so on. We were of course a farce among the three of us.

It seems that Wisdom might or might not be in the film called 'Don't know The Wisdom'. It seems that Wisdom might or might not be in the film called 'Don't know The Wisdom'.

A Simple Sum: 9+5+6 = Britain's Biggest Band of 20/10 Teddy Foster and His Music

DEATH OF PARKER RUMOURS BEGAN AS JOKE IN PARIS CLUB FROM HENRY KAHN PARIS, Wednesday. The有了 the latest of American jazz musician Charlie Parker, which is published in several French newspapers, and was found to reveal the news, can now be revealed as the result of a joke in rather bad taste.

A Paris newspaper journalist, specializing in jazz news, put a story today that Charlie Parker had been found and written up. The news was then printed, and the story was exposed as a joke. The reports of the death of Charlie Parker had been almost everywhere.

It was not impossible that the story, which was then shown to be a joke, might have been published by the巴黎 club.
