TURNTABLE TIPS

Blancmange - Manga Tout - London
Although their first 33 went gold in the UK, the continent was not yet ready for them. With this tasty menu, nothing can go wrong this time. The album contains their last 3 singles, incl. the Eurodance smash Don't Tell Me. The rest of the material is quite a surprise, that it is. A clever mix of electro dance (All Things Are Nice), ballads (I Sent The Train and even a capella in the C&W tune See The Train). After The Day Before You Came, gets an interesting new version while My Baby Is Catchy Synthloop. We ate them all.

Roger Waters - The Pros And Cons Of Hitch-Hiking - Harvest
Musicwise things haven't changed that much since his last ambitious project the Final Cut. The same sudden moves between soft acoustic parts and complete walls of sound. Roger is assisted by a lot of famous session musicians a.o. Eric Clapton. The lyrics give a thorough analysis of the illusions of the sixties. Although it is doubtful if there more hits apart from the title track, the album as a whole stands firmly upright.

The Waterboys - Pagan Place - Island
The group is centered around the 'new boy wonder of pop/rock' (as one our correspondents aptly called him) Mike Scott, who is responsible for the vocals, guitar, compositions and production. They had a small hit last year with A Girl Called Johnny and wrote the intriguing My Soul Should Have Been You. All of Scott's music falls into the same category: inspired and almost possessed music and lyrics which will please the Dylan, Van Morrison and N.Y. Dolls fans. Strongest tracks: The Big Music, Somebody Might Wave.
The EUROPEAN AIRPLAY TOP 50 is compiled through all our correspondents tips received this week. (*) Records of the week receive extra points. The airplay lists of the airplayreport organisations within some of the European countries are also used in the calculations, as well as playlists of the major radio stations.

(*) Please note that not all received tips appear in EUROTIPSHEET but they are all used for the calculation of the AIRPLAY TOP 50.
