RADIO GUIDE

A lot of new releases are out this week. Culture Club's new single The War Song is heavily tipped by our correspondents (new entry at nr. 19 in the Airplay Top 50) as is Paul McCartney's latest No More Lonely Nights (new at nr. 31 this week). Ex Babysinger John Waite makes a very strong impact this week with his solo single Missing You, new at nr. 10 in our Airplay Top 50 and there's a new single out for German band Nena (Irgendwo, Irgendwie, Irgendwann) (Somehow, Somewhere, Someday), expected to do well all over Europe again. Freddie Mercury's contribution to Giorgio Moroder's film Metropolis is appearing at nr. 29 this week. It's obvious that record companies are now in full swing after the summerbreak. The definite cross-over composition Kalimba De Luna is showing in 3 different versions in Germany. Boney M., Pepe Goes To Cuba and Tony Esposito (the original version) are all high in the German charts this week (respectively 25, 39 and 32). Boney M.'s version is picking up the most response, it came in at nr. 99 this week in the European Singles Chart and is on its way to become a European hit. His album is already up to nr. 49 this week in the European Album charts. Malcolm McLaren has made another step in his remarkable career. Being the brains behind the Sex Pistols and the Burundi beat of Bow Wow Wow, being the first artist to make the 'hip-hop' culture internationally wide spread with the release of his solo single Buffalo Gals, he now recorded the classical opera piece Madame Butterfly from his forthcoming album One Fine Day (which will feature mere opera pieces from Carmen to Nabucco). The accompanying video is remarkable as well, slow and arty pictures of women in steambaths. The single is nr. 43 at the moment in the European Top 100 Singles Charts but with other countries to follow this will go up again very soon.

Your Dance Record of the week could be the latest release of Chaka Khan I Feel For You (featuring Stevie Wonder and Grandmaster Melle Mel; the song was written by Prince). Arif Mardin who also did recent productions for Scritti Politti, was again the producer for this one. Chaka's next album will have the same title and will be produced by John Robie, Russ Titleman and Arif Mardin.

We know that many of you don't particularly like Breakdance Music but you won't be able to turn away from it as it's been a very logical step for pop and rock artist to have their products remixed by exponents of the 'hip-hop' culture. Dj/mixer Arthur Baker (Freeeze and recently John Rocca's nr. 1 USA Disco/Dance smash I Want It To Be Real) is very much in demand these days. His latest production credits include Bruce Springsteen's Dancing In The Dark and two hot charted hitsingles from the European charts: Bowie's Blue Jean (currently nr. 9 from 16) and Diana Ross' guitar and snare dominated Swept Away (making a big move this week from 50 to 19 and the album new at 37). Less well known is his production for the English duo Naked Eyes. Their single (What) In The Name Of Love is a very nice synth pop song which should receive far more attention on the radio. John 'Jellybean' Benitez (New Order, Cabaret Voltaire and recently Madonna), another famous mixer who started as a dj in Manhattan, was responsible for the remix of the A-side of Blue Jean.

REVIVAL

Recycling seems to be a very favourite trend in popmusic. Every year has another Rock & Roll or Fifties revival, we're now in the middle of a psychedelic Sixties revival with recent albums of the Dream Syndicate and R.E.M.; there's a new wave in country music (Rank And File, Jason & The Scorpions, Violent Femmes etc.) and the English band Matt Bianco is giving a new twist to Forties music. Their first album Whose Side Are You On contains a string of hits. Apart from the title track it further contains Get Out Of Your Lazy Bed and Sneaking Out The Backdoor. Another recommended track is the song More Than I Can Bear, a very nice and charming little pop song. It's a pity that Peter Wolf's single Lights Out doesn't seem to happen at the moment, though it initially was tipped heavily by our correspondents. His album with the same name is a cooperation with Michael Jonzun, member of The Jonzun Crew and shows a surprisingly good collection of R&B, dance and pop tracks. Perhaps the album track Baby Please Don't Let Me Go (Wolf's tribute to Motown?) should be released as follow-up, it's catchy and simple melody line can appeal to Pop Format Radio.
