a lot of new hot releases were pouring in on our desks this week. Duran Duran released their eagerly awaited The Big Boys, an unusual sounding track after their last one The Reflex; old timers Status Quo have a new one out called The Wanderer, a rocking remake of an earlier recorded song. New releases from Steve Miller Band (Trinigga-là and the Popog Shivers (I'm So Excited), Pat Benatar's We Belong is just out and already picking up airplay in Germany. Biggest jump this week on the singles side is for the Jermaine Jackson & Pia Zadora song, moving very strong in Germany, Holland and having new entries in the UK, France and Belgium. On the album front new releases for Hall & Oates (Big Barn Boom), Culture Club (Waking Up With The House On Fire) - another perfect combination of LK-flavored rock, pop and calypso), Paul McCartney's Give My Regards To Broadsheet, XTC (The Big Express) and Barbra Streisand's latest Emotion (already her third album this year after the successful Yentl soundtrack and the compilation Memories). The album sleeve lists 7 producers (a.o. Richard Perry, Maurice White and Jim Steinman), a list only to be defeated by Chaka Khan's latest I Feel For You for which no less than 9 producers were cooperating, each one on a different track and creating a different sound. Big Country, the Scottish band that caused such waves with their unique 'bagpipe' sound are back with this follow up for The Crossing. Steadfast coming in at nr. 1 this week in England only one week after its release.

NO-ONE COULD
Following a lot of contractual fights with his former employer Frank Zappa is now back on a new label (EMI) with his god knows how many-iest album Them Or Us which is best moving album this week in The European Album charts. Further strong moves for Roger Hodgson (jumping from 70 to 40 this week due to the UK, Germany, Holland and Switzerland, Chaka Khan and Richard Clayderman, the French piano player who sells such an amount of romantic love albums in Germany at the moment. Watch out for the new albums of Kim Wilde, Tees And Bars, release date 2nd of November), Paul Young (The Secret Of Association), Wham! (Make It Big), Steve Miller Band (Italian X Rays), Alson Moyet (All) and how could one ever ignore the new Frankie Goes To Hollywood Welcome To The Pleasure Dome (released in the world October 29). No-One Could.

YET ANOTHER VERSION
France has its own way of making hits. They have now another version of Kalimba De Luna sung by the artis Dalida, cautiously creeping in the lower bottom of the French charts this week. That makes it the fifth version of the song after earlier versions by Tony Esposito, Boney M. and Pepe Goes To Cuba ... While whole of Europe is having successes with Purple Rain, When Doves Cry finaly starting to get some traction in the French market, same goes for Chris De Burgh and Phil Collins. New product coming from this market and suitable for a cross-over are the latest releases of Jean Jacques Goldman and Telephone. Mr. Goldman's album Etoile Cook has earlier yielded his hits as Encore Un Matin and Envole-Moi but his new one Long Is The Road (Amencan) on Epic/CBS deserves your attention: a catchy mainstream pop track with a sophisticated production. France's first official 'punk' band Telephone has a very successful album out called Un Autre Monde (Virgin), produced by Glyn Johns (Who, Jim Armatrading, Eagles etc.). The little track is riding the French charts at the moment and is worth a listen to ... A closer look at the Finnish charts discloses the popularity of hard rock bands albums from Iron Maiden, Dio, Quiet Riot, ZZ Top, W.A.S.P. and (of course) Hanoi Rocks (they come from Finland themselves) are all high in the charts Up North.

see you next week ... and oh. Thanked We are being overwhelmed by the number of positive replies to our questionaire and of course, we plan to inform you about the results in one of the November issues of Eurotipsheet. Those of you who have not yet returned this form, we would appreciate hearing from you so that we know how to serve you better. On December 27th"}
