LONDON CALLING

by Howard Marks

Well, in London during the last couple of weeks, we have seen all the top hits and they have been on the air at all the top stations all over the place. We have also had the "10 Times Readers Awards and also the Music Week Awards. All the usual names come, such as Wham!, Frankie Goes To Hollywood, Paul Young, etc. My award of the year so far goes to Howard Jones, who is the most exciting new artist I have ever seen. (I suggest that the music records that are used in the style of the same name.)

Nice to see some recognition for reggae music in the charts and on the radio at the moment. After Service Culture and Urban League, there are also records by Maxi Priest, Tipperary and Paul Blake which could all reach the national chart.

New singles appear at the shops at the moment from Paul Young, Howard Jones, The Cars, Jim Diamond, Tina Turner, UB40, The Alarm, Matt Bianco and a band called Starvation which boasts members of The Specials, Madness, UB40 and many more. Once again all processes will be going to Elopa.

Up and coming during the next few months are tours and gigs from Howard Jones, who will be playing Wembley Arena, also playing dates at the same venue in May will be the Thompson Twins. Jim Diamond will be coming dates in Ireland and the UK, The Pretenders will be taking their show out on the road, and the Alarm.

There is news of a new television series for Channel 4! The series is put together by well-known video director Keith MacMillan and will play host to live heavy rock acts only. Each show will feature 4 acts a week, and will include both established names and new bands. Keith is well respected in the video business and has directed many videos by leading bands, and also many live concerts. He is also well known for writing odd colour socks, (again something that our editor could think of doing, but of course everyone knows that hippies don't even wear socks). There is also talk of another brit series coming to the screen of television soon, but we have not been able to contact my spy for any further information.

For all you European folks, Ivan Chandelier at Jukebox Music in London has been making a lot of money with the re-release of "I Want To Know What Love Is". Anytime you want the answers to any more questions Martin, just ask.

Also a team of personalities from TV-AM have all been on the radio, and there have been quite a few parties too, which is also quite a sure hit: Paul Young- Everytime You Go Away; Tina Turner- I Can't Stand The Rain; Alvin Stardust- Gotta Little Heartache; Roman Theme From Shaft; Hazel! Dean- No Fool For Love; Dead Or Alive- You're Wrong.

ALEXANDRA'S NEWS CORNER

Well, there has been a lot of action in the biz for the last couple of weeks, as you probably guessed with the enormous amount of space I had in the last full report. As for this week, I want to spoil you as much as before, but also provide you with the best information I can.

This evening, Tracey Ullman's video My Guy is specially for Jamie, which will be on his debut album later this year. DON HENLEY's album Building The Perfect Bike turned gold in The States. A new single has just been released entitled All She Wants To Do Is Dance, also taken from the album. SECOND NATURE are soon releasing their 2nd album for MCA. First though a single will be released called Sing And Shout. A new band on the jungle path of rock, THE ROARING BOYS, just released their debut single on Epic, entitled Every Second Of The Day, produced by GLYN JOHNS. Great expectations for these boys. Back to our favourite boy, BILLY IDOL. He starts recording his 3rd album in New York, from Hull based band NYAM NYAM called The Architect. To coincide with this release, they've played a mini tour in Britain 18th - 28th February. One of the dates (in London) is a benefit for the unemployed.

The Last Dragon (featuring Vanity in the leading role). Another song out of this movie is by DEBARIE, entitled Rhythm Of The Night produced by RICHARD PERRY & THE ARMOURY SHOW are currently in the studio to mix their new album which was produced by NICK LAUNEY (NKG etc.). All titles on the album have been written by the band. MAZE just released their new single called Back In The Shins. Their album Can't Stop The Love will be out soon. Produced and arranged by FRANKIE BEVOLLY. To support this release Maze will be playing a few gigs in the UK. Including 6 nights at The Lyceum in Earend and 24th, 25th and 26th of February. At all three dates Paul Young is also on the bill, playing the Lyceum on 24th, 25th and 26th.

To all RAMONES fans. They've added an extra date to their UK tour, the 1st single entitled Walking On Sunshine (I wouldn't mind a bit of it, selftitled album will soon be released. But right now they've just released a new signing to EMI/Capitol. KATRINA & THE WAVES, a 4 piece English musicians (I will spare you all details of whom is what!). Their first single, entitled Sunshine I mean! (2) has been quintiple platinum in the States (5 million copies sold). David Bowie & Pat Barry Group (BMI America)
The EUROPEAN AIRPLAY TOP 50 is compiled through all our correspondents tips received this week. (*) Records of the week receive extra points. NEW ZEALAND CALLING

by Fabio Santino/Claudio Buja/Lidia Borgiordi

It is common belief that the true winner of the San Remo Festival is not the one who walks away with the prize, but the leader of the sales charts a couple of weeks later. Infact the way his record are being sold, there is no doubt that Eros Ramazzotti with the song Uno Storia Importante is the real winner of this years edition. Eros with his Matt Matt look was the winner last year in the 'new faces' section and since then, his first debut, has not stopped once.

Thank you for the guests, San Remo this year seemed to return to the era when the Beatles used to do a couple of shows. Duran Duran fans has not stopped once. Town. I heard of one energetic fan who fell from the roof in extacy. Speaking of injured bodies...hope your foot has healed. Simon. Some essay night party.

Because of the large presence of the international guests this year there are 3 San Remo compilations, EM's which is called Superremo has already entered the charts. CSO has put out a double album and has combined the promotion with CBST's compilation.

Mila Tessa with their song Souvenir won the music critics award for the best song of the festival. Radio Babboleo has followed with particular attention this Italian Festival. Our correspondents Giorgio Baccio, Andrea Chesse and Flavo Vichi described with lots of interviews, with singers and journalists the 'heat' behind the curtain. The three correspondents pointed out the names that between the big and small categories in their opinion were the best: the 2 friends from Garova, New Trolls and Milla Bata, Eugenio Finardi and Eros Ramazzotti, between the entrants they underlined the names of 3 brilliant hopes for the future of the Italian music: Cristiana De Andre, Marco and Rodofo Mantelli.

After the termination of the distribution contract with Ricordi, the Virgin label will now be distributed in Italy by EMI.

Last but not least I would like to wish all the best to Alberto Crupa, ex-radio Montestella who is now the international label manager at CBST Italy.

A VALUED MARKET

Britain has always been a valued market for developing talent for English speaking countries the world over. Its actual selling market is relatively small when compared to America and Japan, but the prestige of securing a hit record here is next only to the States. If a single sells well in the UK, then usually Europe follows, depending on promotion and distribution services available for that single.

And as mentioned at the start of this article, only a small percentage of British acts can be included here. But just think, if these mentioned few can succeed internationally, and if the standard of British music and talent continues - and there’s no reason to suppose it won’t - a new batch of artists will replace them, that new batch will be replaced, and so on.

DO YOU KNOW THIS MAN

Working Week (Virgin)

One of Virgin’s big hopes for 1985 is the trio Working Week who had their new single Inner City Blues released this week. The group operates around a nucleus of Simon Booth, Larry Stabbins and Julie Roberts. Although the trio is joined in performance and on record by an extensive variety of musicians, for this single Julie Roberts is featured as the new lead vocalist. She was introduced to the group by Billy Russel of Blue Bird Records and sang the lead on the Funkmasters’ Top 10 single It’s Over.

Inner City Blues is a re-working of the closing track of Marvin Gaye’s What’s Going On album of 1971. What’s Going On marked a departure for Gaye, leaving his usual lovesongs and addressing himself to the social issues of the day. The track was produced by Robin Millar while the flipside No Cure No Pain was the work of Simon Booth. A different version of the A-side will appear on their forthcoming album called Working Nights.

Mother promising Virgin act is Dark City. Their first release False Alarm is taken from their debut album produced by the renowned American studio wizard Stewart Levine. Their music can be best described as a blend of rock, reggae and jazz.

TV & video news

This is the first of our regular bi-weekly VideoNews column. We hope to keep you up-to-date on new video productions and major news around European and American programming. First of all congratulations are in place for Producers Kevin Godley and Lol Creme for winning the English Music Week award as Top Video Directors for the second year running, this time for Two Tribes for Frankie Goes To Hollywood. Runners up in the Top British Promo Video Awards were Ultravox (Love’s Great Adventure), directed by Midge Ure and Chris Cripps and Culture Club’s The War Song (By Russell Mulcahy). CARLY SIMON’S new video has been directed by JEREMY IRONS. DAVID CASSIDY’S The Last Kiss has been shot by MIKE BRADY for Picture Music Inc. Some of it was shot in Richmond Park, a beautiful scenery.

It Hurts, new single by the LOTUSLETERS, features clips from a 1923 film called Parsonage’s Box (starring Louise Brooks.) The video was directed by Tony Van Den Ende. A new video Got A Little Heartache by ALVIN STARR/DX. Director was STUART ORME. A new promoclip of HURY LEWIS & THE NEWS Bad Is Bad is also available, directed by TIM NEWMAN. There’s live material on video available from BILLY BRAGG’s forthcoming EP. It was filmed last December in Amsterdam’s Micky Way Club. Live video of Between The Wars is now available. Nicos to see that the Video Aid Clip is selling so well helping the good cause. New clip for NICK HEWERTON to his new single More It Up. This video is directed by ANDY MORAHAN & MATT HINCH. They also directed Nick’s last 2 videos. A new video will be shot for the follow-up to We Close Our Eyes this week, with director RUSSEL MULCAHY.

NARADA MICHEL WALDEN’S clip for Gimme Gimme Gimme was produced by GUMMINS & BROOKLY. A video is available from JACk WAUGH, whom she’s haunted by a muse, produced by ALEXIS ONETCHENKO & SIMON STRAYER. The new clip for You Think You’re Tough by RATT features footage of a live performance with scenes of Ratt touring Hollywood in a rolls royce. It was produced by KRIS MATHUR & ALDUS ONETCHENKO. Fashion photographer ANDY EARL completed his 2nd video clip. This time he directed Hotline by ROBIN GEORGE. The clip was shot at Dover Castle and was directed by LEE LAYNE (Associates)

MTV, the major U.S. music cable is cutting back on broadcasting heavy metal videos. A complete show of MEATLOAF will be filmed at the Academy Bramton. MIKE APPLETON is producing and director will be TOM CORCORAN. The video to Meatloaf’s new single Piece Of The Action will feature clips from this production. GODLEY & CREME have just finished working on the new ERIC CLAPTON video, entitled Forever Man.

There is also a video by MADONNA for her single Material Girl. She recreates the scene from Monochrome Set’s Diamonds Are A Girl’s Best Friend, complete with a copy of Marilyn’s pink evening gown, elbow length gloves, miles of rhinestones and lots of tuxedoed dancing men. VideoClip Jukebox firms are doing well across the Atlantic with many new machines placed in shopping arcades, nightclubs, restaurants and even movie theaters. KATRINA & THE WAVES are in the middle of shooting their video to their single Walking On Sunshine, director to this clip is CHRIS TOCKEY. It’ll be shot in London. There will be a 60 min. live video of QUEENSRYCHE mainly shot in Japan available soon. Please send your video news to us on a regular basis.

Radio Guide

Because of this week's special issue on UK Talent, we will talk mainly about new releases from the UK and there is too much to enjoy... We are going to talk about the second album of The Kane Gang, a 3 piece band from the Northern part of England, Newcastle.

The album is entitled The Bad And Lowdown World Of The Kane Gang (Kitchenware, dirt, London) and it contains their 2 earlier hits successes: the beautiful ballad Closer Thing To Heaven and the rendition of the soul classic of the Staples Singers, Respect Yourself. The whole album is a very commercial and spontaneous sounding mix of blue-eyed soul, R&B and rock 'n' roll. And his talent was spotted in our magazine earlier this year.

The second single for Parachute and the song is 'Tired, fast and just a bit rude. A love song, sounding of falling in love, baby oil, latex and leather - to be played long and loud.'

Swampcandy, the label that earlier this year released the raw sound of James King and the Lonewolves, now comes up with a single of Paul Quinn. And Hall Has Always The Way. Although the melody line and production are simple and stripped down to its basics, there is still something quite unusual about this pop song...

JOLLY FUNKY

Billy Bragg, who wrote Kirsty MacColl's latest hit in New England, is out with a new EP called Between The Wars (GG Discs/Chrysalis). Another example of Bragg's unique way of song writing...

Lovel is a new band who has a single out called In The Sand, it is a nice sunny and slow reggae sound (Virgin). Dave Rodigan of the scene love Bad Band have a new single out called I'm A Woman (Full Moon/Vanier).

The Bad And Lowdown World Of The Kane Gang
- Kitchenware (UK)

Eric Clapton
- Forever Making Money (Century)

Beggars Banquet
- Emotional Jungle (Beggars Banquet), entitled Emotional Jungle.

L'Amour Toujours
- Eurythmics (Columbia)

Good Morning World
- From The Lost World (Columbia)

Dead Or Alive
- You Spin Me Round (Mercury)

Joan Armatrading
- Closest Thing To Heaven (EMI)

Paul Quinn
- Ain't That Always The Way (Swamplands, the label that earlier this year released the raw sound of James King and the Lonewolves, now comes up with a single of Paul Quinn. And Hall Has Always The Way. Although the melody line and production are simple and stripped down to its basics, there is still something quite unusual about this pop song...

A SALUTE TO THE MAJOR U.S. RADIO STATIONS!

We salute the most powerful and progressive American Radio Stations, which are receiving their complimentary sample of Eurotipsheet this week. Eurotipsheet is a weekly trade paper from and for the top radio stations, program directors and producers of European Radio and Television. Every week over 400 of the top media people from 18 European countries give their tips to Eurotipsheet. They advise which records they add to their playlists and which are the prime movers, hot entries etc. Every week we publish contents of the most important European Television programs and present the European Top 100 Singles and Albums, the only Pan-European hitparades purely based on sales. We further indicate which singles are best played on Euro Radio (The Airplay Top 50) and which videos are most broadcast on the 52 leading TV networks around Europe (Euroclips).

Why, you may ask yourself, is it important to follow the trends in Europe for an American Radio Station? Surely you know that an average of 36% of the hits as shown in Billboard's Hot 100 are produced in Europe. It is therefore very important to know what is coming up in Europe. Already for more than one year you can read it all in Eurotipsheet published every week. You can also follow the fast developments of the European Media, the rise of across-the-border programming and the change of radio formats in many European countries. You might pick up new ideas, new records, new videos, new sounds and get to know your colleagues from Europe. Please read the special one-time offer to U.S. Radio Stations as presented on the extra form in this issue.

SPOTLIGHT ON U.K. TALENTS

Very regularly Eurotipsheet presents special features on new medias, countries and talents. This week we present our second Eurotalent Special, this time completely devoted to U.K. talents. In Pop and Rock history there has always been a strong presence of artists originating in England. And the last few years we can certainly speak of an increasingly strong British influence around the Globe. When we study the charts from all over the world we find an enormous number of "British bred acts" making it big. Especially the last 2 years many new worldstars popped up from Britain with 1984 marked as a vintage pop/rock year. Names that made it really big in Great Britain with 1984 marked as a vintage pop/rock year. Names that made it really big. Names that made it really big. Names that made it really big.

In this Special we present the still newer artists, some of the new hopefuls for 1985 and we do so with support from well-known English writer Sharon Davis. Also we spotlight some of those new artists which are regarded by their creative record companies as the strongest contenders for World Fame, originated in Great Britain. Eurotipsheet will obviously keep a close watch on the developments of these new talents and will bring another U.K. Talent Special later this year.

BRITISH ACTS ...

ANOTHER TALENT BOOM

Once again British acts are taking a stranglehold on American and European charts. Not all the acts are long established names now due to the advent of a whole new spate of young stars bringing into the industry a fresh, energetic sound and a much needed injection of indi-spirit. Young names that have excelled British music high in foreign charts are many and include Wham!, Frankie Goes To Hollywood, Thompson Twins, Sade, U2, Paul Young, Nik Kershaw, Howard Jones, The Eurythmics and Duran Duran. And these are comfortably on their way to resistor status despite their relatively short careers so far when compared to stalwarts like Paul McCartney, Cliff Richard and so on.

There's room now for everyone - this has been proven - and each month sees yet another UK band in the recording studio, or another British act hitting home and foreign charts. It's a talent boom, no doubt about it, largely brought on by the original and inventive sound of these young stars breaking down conventional musical barriers. If that talent can be recognised and nurtured by a sympathetic record company it cannot fail to reap rewards on an international level.

However, the problems are many. First a band has to get signed to the company. Once secured, the band's product has to get to the public and the restrictions of the British radio circuit does present a situation of an act actually making it but not. With the introduction of a second commercial television station, popular music is now no longer restricted to the BBC's Top Of The Pops programme, which now screens, by and large, only charted material. The position for new bands getting public exposure is better than it was five years ago, but there's still a very long way to go yet. After several years of wandering in a musical wilderness, the British industry is now fighting back in a way that'll override the attack of the Sixties. It's not content to allow itself to be dominated, or influenced by, American music for example. Out of interest now, during 1983 British acts accounted for thirty-five per cent of the American charts, whereas US acts on the British listing totalled a mere eighteen per cent.

However, certain artists have managed to achieve this. From the same management as Imagination comes Haywood, who is not only a singer, but dancer (she's appeared in Bubbling Brown Sugar), and actress (having played in Superman 2, The Muppet Movie and Ragtime). "My father was a founder member of The Fairfield," she told me "and my background is show business, so I've got no illusions." Her debut single A Time Like This (written by Bryan Adams)周意 her on a big single. Meanwhile Haywood is the female vocalist on The Fantastics' new album. Waste The Time, in the UK charts. This was hotly followed by Heaven Knows and Once More With Feeling (from Birmingham) experimented with music and was fortunate enough to find a manager who cared. Jaki Graham, one of six children, is not a stranger to the studios having been a session singer for a variety of acts like UB40, Alexei Komer and David Grant. Before this Jaki was a member of Medium Wave, and during one of the gigs she was spotted by manager Brian Freshwater. "I kept me under wraps until it was my time," she explained. "I was kept busy working with David Grant who's Brian took a look at the song for me".

However, like all artists on the brink of success, Jaki is still a great friend of ours. She's still a great friend of ours. She's still a great friend of ours.

OVERSEAS ACCLAIM

Now with the recently established names like those listed above opening the doors to overseas territories, a flurry of even newer acts are finding it comparatively easier to leave home base; and it's with a handful of these acts that, for the first time, British acts now producing high quality and crossover appeal in years with their Anything single. "Paul is still a great friend of ours," commented Helen. "He actually programmed the synthesizers on the single, then lent us his studio while he went outside and fiddled around with his car!"

The eye-catching theatrical clothes of Strawberry Switchblade.

CROSSOVER APPEAL

Another club and radio dj, Robbie Vincent, manages the funk group Second Image who have tasted minor club chart success, but that crossover appeal hasn't happened. It will happen as we did it before, but the staying power presents problems all of its own. With British acts now producing high quality and immensely irresistible dance music, American artists are slowly finding themselves up against strong opposition. American artists, however, never give up, and always have the edge because they have the facilities and the ability to reproduce the 'feel' for the music, yet the Dutch band, The Limit (who have been accepted in England before their home country) is currently standing alongside James Ingram, Thelma Houston And The Temptations at the top of the club chart.

Paul Hardcastle is possibly one of the most inventive UK acts when it comes to getting the 'feel' and atmosphere of sound, although he'll probably be the first to credit American music as his influence. What the UK loses out to America on the dancefloor, is made up for in popular sound. It has taken a long time to get black music recognized in the same way as white on promotion levels. The situation is by no means equal but headway is being made slowly but surely as more black product, American and British, makes the charts. And it's interesting to note that on the current pop album chart home names of Alison Moyet, Bananarama, The Big Sound Authority and Ultravox are forcing Tina Turner and Lionel Richie to fight for placings.

A very hot and much discussed topic in the press at the moment is the project, The Power Station. Duran Duran's bass player John Taylor and guitarist Andy Taylor lined up in New York City with Robert Palmer and Chic drummer Tony Thompson. The four have recorded eight tracks with Robert Palmer on lead vocals. The entire project has been produced at New York's Power Station Studio's by Chic's Bernard Edwards.

Their debut single entitled Some Like It Hot has just been released and first reactions are overwhelming. The initial idea for this creative diversification involving John and Andy Taylor was originally spawned three years ago when John first met Robert Palmer in Birmingham. Shortly after, another meeting occurred between John, Andy and Chic drummer Tony Thompson during Duran Duran’s first US tour supporting Blondie in 1982. The circle was finally complete in 1984 when John and Andy met Bernard Edwards during the Duran Duran 1984 US tour.

SOME of you may remember the name of Betouis Some, who had a minor hit last year with the song Target Practice on EMI or may have seen him last year on a Nik Kershaw tour. Early March will see the release of his new single Imagination on which famous names like Carlos Alomar, Tony Thompson and Bernard Edwards are featured.

level and support work. One of this country's top units, Tension relied on the independent Streetwave Records to give them the chance they needed so badly, as Ken explained "The big difference is that we were not treated by Streetwave simply as product but we were treated like people". And this is a policy that maybe some of the major companies should adhere to. Reconciling isn’t obviously only confined to singers, for comedian extraordinaire Lenny Henry has, despite, being in show business for several years, only first released his first album, to great critical acclaim. The twenty-six year old has now secured his own television series which is in its second run, and a touring schedule that is fixed for months at a time. Certainly Lenny’s humour is an acquired taste, and this could be a stumbling block overseas.

Go West (Chrysalis)
One of the major bands that Chrysalis recently signed, is the new band Go West. Their debut single We Close Our Eyes is a lively dance track, very well received by the media people and already in the English charts. Go West are Peter Cox (vocals, guitars and keyboards) and Richard Drummie (keyboards, vocals and bass).

On hearing a rough demo of We Close Our Eyes master producer Al Mardin described their sound as "Modern Motown" and the highly selective award winning video directing team of Godley and Creme produced the video for their single. This is, in fact, the first time ever that Godley and Creme have been involved with a new band’s first single promo and it was only their third video production of 1984. Their debut album is to be released early Summer.

Other new names for Chrysalis in 1985 include The Colourfield (Thinking Of You), Billy Bragg (see our news section) and the Dublin band Les Enfants with their powerful single Slipaway.
