- Jason & The Scorchers
- The Mask (Polydor)
- Paul Young
- The Secret Of Association (CBS)
- Go West
- Go West (Columbia)

Memorandum

With regards to our Euro-Crossover recommendations the major additions to this list are for The Limit and Julien Clerc. The Limit, or more correctly Oattes & Van Schaik (there was already one other Limit existing in the U.S. so they had to change their groupname into that of their surnames), impress again with the American sounding discosingle Love Attwoc, ready for crossover is Julien Clerc's latest American sounding discosingle Love Attwoc,

Brainchild

The English RAH Band enters our European Top 100 at no 75 because of a very high UK position. It will be interesting to see whether Richard Hudson's brainchild will finally have a cross-European success. The RAH band already had several UK hits only, but this one seems suitable for more countries. Highest new entry is for Flash And The Pan (no 72) with their Midnight Man. It is as most of you will know an Albert Productions (AC/DC, Rose Tattoo) from Down Under and is doing well in Scandinavia, Belgium and Germany. And it is good to see that our favourite Matt Bianco track More Than I Can Bear makes it in the remix version at no 84. Super groups are not always a guarantee for quality and success but in the case of The Power Station (John and Andy Taylor from Duran Duran, Chic drummer Tony Thompson and vocalist Robert Palmer) it works. One of the best albums we have heard in the last few weeks. The idea behind it goes back to John Taylor's original idea for Duran Duran, to mix the energy of The Sex Pistols with the hardcore, rhythms of Chic, tracks like Murder, Lies, Communication, Go To Zero and our favourite Harvest For The World (an old Isley Brothers' tune) have exactly those ingredients, the logical and smooth combination of raw energy with a hard driving drum sound. A must for your station!

The long awaited second album of Paul Young The Secret Of Association comes in straight at no 1 in the English charts this week. It basically presents the same sound as on his debut album with the prominent bassguitar and the full production (Laurel Latham). Airplay favourites should include Bette The Hand That Feeds, I Was In Chains and One Step Forward and it is obvious that this album will rule the charts for quite some time.

Southern Accents Go West

Another hot album is Go West's debut album on Chrysalis. They already scored considerably on both sides of the Atlantic with the single We Olive Our Eyes and it is to be expected that this stunning album will establish them as a band to watch for the future. Maybe the whole of the album is heavy with good hooks and infectious tunes. Try the sophisticated sounds of Don't Look Me Down, S.O.S. and Goodbye Girl.

Another album soon to enter the European Top 100 albums is Tom Petty's latest Southern Accents album, an exciting album where the songs and his earlier recordings. Together with a.o. Dave Stewart (Eurythmics) and ex-Band members Garth Hudson and Robby Robertson, Petty tries for many new musical territories (Mary's New Car, Southern Accents) and while remaining true to rock 'n roll (Neatbeats, Dogs On The Run).
