The Damned ###

The USA FOR AFRICA video continues to be the most aired video all over the world, which isn't surprising with 46 superstars singing together. All in all the various support records and videos have raised vast amounts of money for this good cause, let's hope that every dollar will reach its final goal! ★ Apart from the successful start of MTV's second video cable channel VH-1 there also is a trend towards music on 'over-the-air' tv stations. More and more US cities have local stations presenting sometimes 24 hours of music videos available for everyone and this could present MTV with heavy competition. At the same time it makes clip promotion more difficult for the major record labels as they can no longer give so easily exclusivity to the cable giants ★ Talking about MTV, (in spite of their more limited airtime for heavy rock) German group ACCEPT has been added to the playlist with their tune Midnight Mover, as did artband YELLO with Vicious Games. Telegenics, a US company specialising in Video club promotion is even organising an April-Yello campaign including 5 Yelloclips to be presented in major US clubs! Is there a new German boom on its way? ★ Although talks continue and several proposals are being studied, there still is no real solution to the "video-crisis" in France, so that clips are still only seen on the coded and decoded programs of Canal Plus. This pay channel is however facing problems of its own as subscription figures are well below expectations. There are rumours that the French (Socialist) government will open Canal Plus for all to watch, so in fact creating a fourth national channel. More on this in our French special April 29th ★ It will be interesting to see whether DAVID BOWIE's new clip Loving The Alien (directed by Dave Mallet) can equal the stunning success of his This Is Not America ★ According to the Nielsen research bureau Cable TV in the US has reached a National penetration level of 44.6%, an improvement of 8% over one year ★ No one will see that ALISON MOYET was 8 months pregnant while shooting her clip to the Billie Holiday original That Ole Devil Called Love. The video directed by Vaughan Arnell and Anthea Benton includes humorous animation shots ★ CHICAGO's latest video Along Comes A Woman is a black and white masterpiece directed by Jay Dubin. It must have been a very expensive production with many different settings including jungles and historical Morocco shots ★ Could anyone in Europe show the uncensored 9-minute version of FRANKIE GOES video Welcome To The Pleasure Dome? ★ With such a brilliant video backing, it surprises us that Mick Jagger's solo debut single did not make it to the Top 3 in Europe ★ One shouldn't be surprised when someday very soon, the compact disc will include the videos of the artists making it a miniature videodisc ★ JAKI GRAHAM & DAVID GRANT have a clip available to their single Could It Be I'm Falling In Love. This one was filmed on the Stage of Brixton Academy in London. Directed by Dee Tratton, who worked with the THOMPSON TWINS ★ KEVIN KITCHEN's video to his debut single Put Your Arms Around Me is available now, it was directed by Peter Care ★ Castles In The Air is the title to the follow up of THE COLOURFIELDS first single Thinking Of You. It's said to be very 60's in overall feel and director was Bill Batt ★ FREEEZ have just shot their clip for the single That Beats My Patience, produced by Pete Wilson, directed by John Scariet- Davies ★ Sky Channel are running a Sky Trax famine in Africa Telethon on May 25th for 3 hours. This event will raise money for Save The Children's Sudan Appeal. A host of stars supporting this event are donating personal items. All Sky Channels VJ's will work to raise as much money as possible on the 25th ★ RATT have a clip available to You Think You're Tough, the single taken from their latest album. Great video! ★ TOM PETTY's new video Don't Come Around Here No More is well worth the long wait. Scenes from Alice in Wonderland. Great clip (eventhough THE CARS seem to have started off a new trend). Also available the new BILLY OCEAN clip to his single Suddenly. It was shot in LA, just like the song it's beautiful and very romantic showing a lot of sunrises and sunsets. Director was Morris Philips known from his previous works with Loverboy ★ ROBIN GEORGE's video to his single Heartline has been added on TV again. This version of the clip was re-edited and features more close-up's of Knight Sir Robin. The story of a Knight In Battle is running through it as the red thread. Great clip and so much better than the first version ★

RADIO USA ^{for} AFRICA

RADIO WILL MAKE A DIFFERENCE

As "We Are The World" firmly establishes itself on radio station playlists across the country, we're overwhelmed by the immediate response from American radio to the April 21 Radio USA For Africa special.

The simple desire to help make a difference in the war against hunger is now being shared by the most influential broadcasters and radio stations in the same way that 45 of the biggest stars in American music selflessly gave us "We Are The World."

We're pleased to announce that the biggest names in national radio will be joining forces as hosts of the Radio USA For Africa special—Dick Clark, Dr. Demento, Dan Ingram, Casey Kasem, Bob Kingsley, Jim Ladd, John Leader, Walt Love, Sid McCoy, Scott Muni, Scott Shannon and Mary Turner.

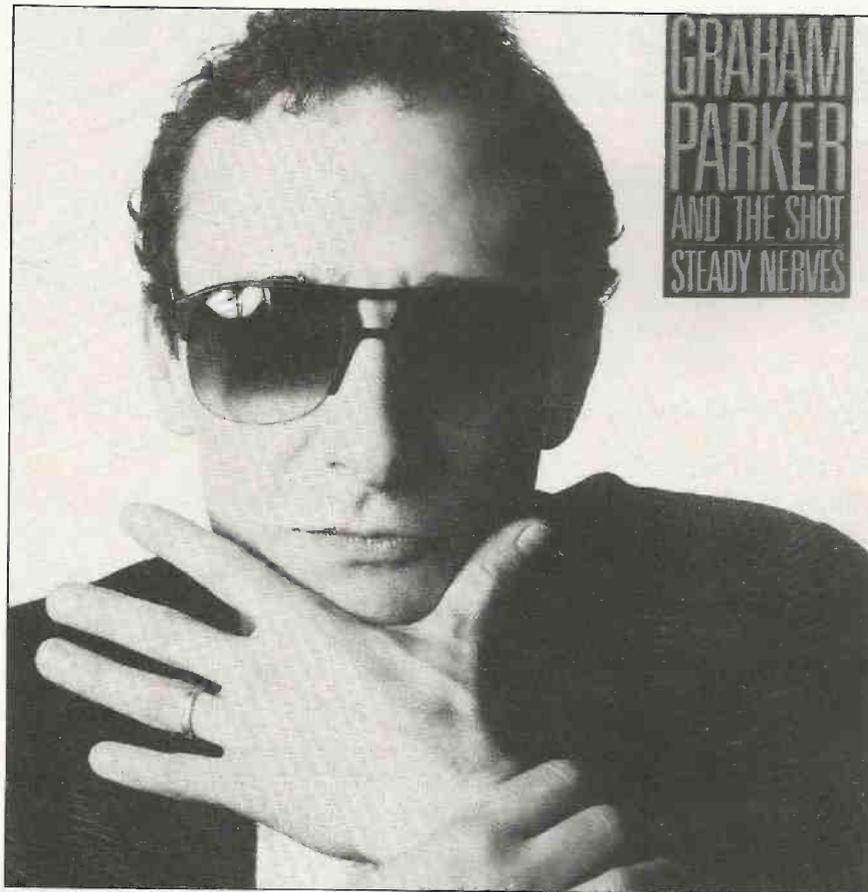

You'll hear the candid, heartfelt comments of the artists as recorded during the historic "We Are The World" session, plus live interviews with in-studio guests sharing their emotions about the cause of hunger relief and what motivated them to contribute their time and talent.

Now it's up to you to commit your station's time and talent. This incredible three-hour event is available to every radio station wishing to participate and able to receive the digital stereo signal from the Satcom 1-R communications satellite.

To find out how you and your listeners can contribute to the success of the Radio USA For Africa broadcast and become a part of history, contact your Westwood One representative at (213) 204-5000.

RADIO GUIDE

Although we expected a good run for the USA For Africa single, we didn't foresee that this single would make the biggest ever jump in our European Top 100, namely from 94 to 4 in its second week only. So it was not only Euroradio reacting positively on this good-cause release, but also the record buying public especially in the UK, Germany and Benelux went out to acquire this single instantly. With so many of these 'help' productions doing well and originating from countries like Canada, UK, Germany, France, Australia, we again credit Bob Geldoff for making us all contribute!

And what good music brings the Eurotipsheet frontpage to you this week!?! Already tipped by us in 84 and breaking now is Los Lobos single Don't Worry Baby, so it was appropriate to make it our 'sleeper of the week'. Originally this song was a B-side coupled with Will The Wolf Survive which actually failed to make big impact in the UK. So start playing this tune now... and if you were looking for a way to introduce the Los Lobos sound to your audience how about: "this critically acclaimed Chicano dance band from East L.A. sounds like the complete history of American Rock & Roll smothered in Mexican hot sauce!". Our two records of the week were easily decided and well earned; Bronski Beat meets Soft Cell's Marc Almond turned into a high energy rendition of the Giorgio Moroder discovered sound with a medley of Love To Love You; I Feel Love and the Johnny Leyton '61 hit Johnny Remember Me. The other Record Of The Week spot is for The Eurythmics with Would I Lie To You on RCA. This full blown production couples a Kinks' sounding guitar riff with a driving drum backing (Satisfaction). In our European Top 100 Glen Frey is the second Eagle making it big solo. His The Heat Is On (MCA) moves up strongly to no 16(48). It also proves how well the Beverly Hills Cop soundtrack is doing even though the film is just exploding on the continent now! Highest new entries this week include P.C. with One More Night at 12; Foreigner with That Was Yesterday at 42 (and well timed for their major European tour starting later in spring!); and Agnetha at 59. The Southern part of Europe takes a long time breaking Welcome To The Pleasure Dome by Frankie Goes (UK 2; Germany 11; Holland 20; Belgium 40; Ireland 3).

THRILLING VOCALS

Tears For Fears are establishing themselves as a major force with their new single Everybody Wants To Rule The World moving up to 17 (from 28). Right on the heels of their stunning Shout success this brings their lp Songs From The Big Chair in the European Album Top 5. And while on the subject of Albums, the enormous success of Capitol's Tina Turner should not be underestimated! Her Private Dancer album is the longest running album in the European Top 10 presently holding the no 4 position (after 42 wks). The lp not only contains 5 hitsingles (Help, Let's Stay Together, What's Love Got To Do With It, Private Dancer and Better Be Good To Me) and a sixth one on its way (Anne Peebles' I Can't Stand The Rain) but has been marketed very cleverly by the recordlabel over a long period of time. And with her current incredibly successful European tour this result will only be prolonged. Her live performance is an absolute delight for all media experts, as many of our correspondents who went to her gigs reported. She brings down all sold-out houses not only with her sexy, dynamic presentation and thrilling vocals, but also with the help of a very strong band including Jamie West-Oram (of Fixx fame!) and an emotional encore with Bryan Adams.

WORKING WEEK WORKS

Referring to one of our earlier Radio Guide's, cool soulful pop continues to fill the European airwaves and brings good turnover for the record dealers; Sade's debut album stays at no 2 on the European Top 100 Albums, while Working Week moves up to 34 (from 69) due to good positions in the UK, Germany and Holland. And WEA's Matt Bianco maintains its Top 25 run. The Paul Young album is presently at 19 but with the new single Everytime You Go Away spreading all over the Continent we have no doubt that the album will go much higher. We are somewhat disappointed about the slow improvement on The Power Station, only going up from 55 to 50. Go West enters expectedly high at 59, proving again that Chrysalis always breaks new acts.

ALEXANDRA'S NEWS CORNER

G'morning-g'day-g'evening-hi! Q: what is SEX AND A SINGLE MAN? A: Well it's RAY PARKER JR's new album to be released mid May ★ JERMAINE JACKSON is (as we all know) a very busy man. His new album though is out on the market May 30th. After this release, Jermaine will be touring the States with his own band. A European tour is in the pen around October ★ KENNY G has a new album out now with the title: Gravity (I don't know what it means, will someone PLEASE tell me?) ★ FREDDIE MERCURY's solo album has been given the title Mr. Bad Guy ★ Rumours have it that the legendary BEACH BOYS, will soon be going into the studios to record a new album with Mike Levine as their producer ★ The long awaited and selftitled debut album by LONE JUSTICE has been completed and is set for a mid April release on Geffen Records. This was produced by Jimmy Iovine. (Springsteen, Petty, etc.) The album features guest appearances from Benmont Tench (Tom Petty & The Heartbreakers keyboardist), Steve Van Zant and others. LONE JUSTICE are supporting U2 on their current US tour ★ His Royal Purpleness Prince will have his new and already 7th album released in a few weeks time, it's titled Around The World In A Day. There will probably be no singles taken off this album. (Value for money!) ★ By the way, his live concert by satellite which was broadcast by Rockpalast was outrageous. Say what you will, whether you like him or not, he is a hell of a performer I can tell you that! ★ Now as we are on the subject of concerts I saw a great one by ROBIN GEORGE & DANGEROUS MUSIC. Some of you may not know him or his music YET. But in any case go and see them, it's well worth it. Robin has just finished a tour with ULLI JON ROTH (see the tourdates!). Unfortunately he and his band were supporting so it was a shame that not everyone was able to see them as they started very early. For a band as good as them they should not support anyone! Needless to say that ULLI JON ROTH is worth seeing. Watching a gig by him and his band, in Germany, was great. Even though they've suffered a bit from a bad sound as it was too loud. But they've played a homematch, which made it all worthwhile, seeing the punters enjoying themselves was nice. This tour has just a few more days to go in Scandinavia, then it's off to America for Ulli and his band ★ To follow up their huge success with You Spin Me Round, Dead Or Alive released a new single entitled Lover Come Back To Me. Their debut Soon to be released is the new CLASH single entitled This Is England (I thought they didn't live there anymore?) ★ Lovin' Every Minute Of It, that's the title to LOVERBOY's new album, although they are still in the studio recording it, so I guess we'll have to wait a while ★ COREY HART will have his new album released approximately end of April. The title is Boy In The Box. First release will be a single called Never Surrender. LISA DALBELLO is guesting on several tracks on the album album is due in late May. It was recorded at the Marquee Studios in London and only took about four weeks to complete (I reckon this proves they are more Alive than Dead!), the album is titled Youthquake ★ If you haven't heard from them YET, their name is TOBRUK. Their debut album has just been released and it's called Wild On The Run. The first single Falling is bubbling under in the UK charts. The boyzz just recorded a Radio One In Concert, they're currently on the UK tour, and they're new, they're wild and they're great. All in all you will hear lots more from them, believe me! ★ Just released is the JO BOXERS new single entitled Is This Really The First Time (You've Been In Love) (No not really) ★ News about BILLY OCEAN! It never stops these days. He will have his new single released April 25th entitled Suddenly, that same day he'll be appearing in the Dutch Countdown TV ★ Jive Records signed RUBY TURNER worldwide. Yippee! Currently they are looking for a producer to work with RUBY. I'll definitely keep you informed on what's happening ★ KATRINA & THE WAVES just recently released their debut album produced by Pat Collier. Obviously this will be a great follow up to their single Walking On Sunshine which is doing well everywhere. Have a listen to the album, it's smashing ★ Back to concerts. This info was given to me by wonderful Robin Vaik and shows that not everything always is happening in London. TINA TURNER had sold out concerts in Birmingham (while FRANKIE GOES TO HOLLYWOOD played around the corner that same evening and also was sold out). One of the concerts was videorecorded by camera's hanging on reels, which enabled them to move above and sweep over the audience from side to side. Anyway, all of a sudden DAVID BOWIE himself was walking on stage doing his duet with Tina Tonight, as an encore. You can imagine the crowd going crackers. But then Tina (the wonderful lady that she is) brought on BRYAN ADAMS (who's supporting her on all dates) to sing their duet it's Only Love, again the audience went bananas. It's unnecessary to mention what a Grand Lady she is, to bring on a support! The camera's worked and zoomed on high speed ★ Alright, me being serious most of the time, I guess it's time for a little joke. Have you heard the one about the masochist who loved taking cold showers? Well he had a hot one! (Ta, John! Couldn't survive without your jokes!) Love to all of you, will write soon! Bye bye Alexandra ★ ★
