spotlight on

In our Spotlight we'll feature important radio or television personalities and their stations. One by one this will become a book of the top media people in Europe.

TOP[®] ITALIA RADIO

This week we want to put the spotlight on Top Italia Radio (TIR), very loyal correspondents to Eurotipsheet.

At the moment there are more than 2,500 private radio stations in Italy. Most of the stations have an American way of programming with their programs filled with music games and news. Heavy discussions have been going on in the media the last few months to reduce the number of private stations, but until now there is still no legislation controlling them. Top Italia Radio is the first radio circuit in Italy which ties together 100 radio's on a national level and the influence of TIR on the Italian radio world has grown substantially. The national production is divided into 4 daily sections: BUONGIORNO TIR (7:00 - 8:30); GRAN MATTINO (10:30 - 12:00); TUTTI INSIEME RADIOFONICAMENTE (14:30 - 16:00) and GRAN SERATA (17:30 - 19:00). This hour division leaves space for each local radio to program its own airplay. The cast of professional animators organize various programs on music, shows, news and holidays. These animators are more than DJ's. Their interest is the direct contact with the listener and with the vast selection of programs, to satisfy every type of person.

Gianni de Berardinis Program Director, divides his time between radio TIR and the private TV network Canale 5. Antonio De Via is the animator for Gran Mattino. He used to be part of the cast of Radio and TV Montecarlo and further to that, he is a highly quoted journalist, speaker and dubber. Mauro Micheloni is one of the most known announcers for the national TV RAI (Discoring). For the section Buongiorno there is the sparkling Nicoletta Zema and the Italian Parade is under the thumb of Simona Ruggeri. Then there is Dido, Technical Director for TIR and Maurizio Palmeri with his particular musical verve. Last but not least the p.r. man Guido Robustelli, who takes care of the contacts with EUROIPSHEET and is on the air every afternoon.

DANCIN' WITH

CHRIS ISAAK

Prince is this week's best played album in Europe and despite some loss of places in the UK, he is climbing up the European Top 100 'ladder', from 19 till 10 in its second week. The USA For Africa album is the second best played album in Europe and moves further up to 19 in the European Top 100 Albums (from 33). The single by the way has a Top 3 position in no less than 11 European countries! Due to high positions in the UK, Germany and Holland, Mr. Bad Guy Freddy Mercury is new at 24, while the Eurythmics are second highest entry at 46.

Following the success of the So Far Away single and the upcoming world tour, Dire Straits' Alchemy is a re-entry this week at no. 50 due to France and the UK. But you should all receive your sample of their new lp Brothers In Arms (See our CD page!) this week. One of the hottest singles and albums in France at the moment is the French charity collective Chanteurs Sans Frontieres, with Ethiopie. It is France's 2nd Band Aid project and this one is exceeding the sales of the earlier single for Ethiopia, Tam Tam Pour l'Ethiopie (For details see our Radio Guide issue no. 13). New to the weekly listings of our Album Route are, first of all, Miles Davis, world's greatest fusion artist; Lone Justice, cow-punk from L.A. and Nomo, an album filled with good songs (see also our review section). Chris Isaak (with his remarkable Roy Orbison diction) was already one of our favourite albums the last few weeks, we are therefore very happy that some European stations are now picking up on this one. The single Dancin' was first heavily played on VARA and VPRO Radio in Holland, is this week's powerplay on AVRO Holland and is getting tips from Italy as well.

Just in time to make our deadline is David Grant's first solo album Hopes And Dreams. Grant teamed up with Jaki Graham for the duet smash Could It Be I'm Falling In Love and has now re-united with his former partner in Lynx, Sketch, who plays bass on one of the tracks. Another Chrysalis act, the English duo Go West also make an appearance as co-writers with David on the track Crime Of Passion.

We were fortunate to hear the first single released in the USA from the forthcoming Robert Plant album Shaken 'n Stirred. Of course you are all watching out for this one. Note! in Europe a different single will be released first, entitled Pink And Black. Now let's hear your plays!

TURNTABLE TIPS

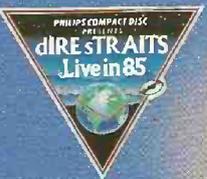

Jody's Private Luxury - Aztec
With a solid and professional backing band, coupled with sophisticated arrangements, the vocals of lead singer Jody make a lasting impression. Especially with the track Berlinetta this new Dutch band could do well abroad. Band operates in the traditional pop/rock tradition and Jody sounds like a cross-breed between Ronstadt/Pat Benatar and Patty Smyth (Scandal). Other memorable tracks include State Of Mind, Stop and Private Luxury.

Lone Justice- Lone Justice - Geffen
Strong debut of this L.A. based band who get a lot of media excitement and are currently on tour with U2. Lead vocalist Maria Mckee fronts the group and has a strong and direct vocal power best exemplified in tracks like Ways To Be Wicked (their strongest single candidate), the country-tinged Don't Toss Us Away, Sweet Sweet Baby and Soap, Soap And Salvation. Street-level rock in its most exciting dimensions.

Miles Davis- You're Under Arrest - CBS
The man is 59 and still is the greatest innovator into today's jazz music. Just like his last album Decoy, this time he opts for funk, street music and melodious tracks and again crosses musical borders. Try the pulsating rhythms of the Talking Heads-like track You're Under Arrest or the atmospheric Something On Your Mind or his beautiful version of the Cyndi Lauper hit Time After Time. The ultimate fusion of pop, funk, jazz and MOR!

MORE NEWS

CHRIS HUGHES, NEIL HUBBARD, SIMON HOUSE, ANNE DUDLEY and DAVID RHODES. Before this lp will be released, there's a single first, entitled Circus Ring. A week ago they supported TEARS FOR FEARS on their gig in Utrecht, Holland ★ JOE WALSH has come up with a new album which is called The Confessor and it's real good ★ Also just out is the new BON JOVI album 7800 Degrees Fahrenheit, the just released single is called Only Lonely. But there's more, the band is currently on a European tour (see our dates). Just a note aside, I'm pleased that some of my favourites are doing quite well. SURVIVOR with their current single The Search Is Over. ROBIN GEORGE with Heartline and his album, REC SPEEDWAGON with One Lonely Night, GIUFFRIA with Lonely In Love and the lp, etc. You've probably guessed by now what kind of music I prefer (Please don't hold it against me, besides my taste of music I'm really nice, honestly! Ask my Boss) Okay, I've run out of news therefor you can all start with those sighs of relief. Have a good week luv'
 ALEXANDRA ★★

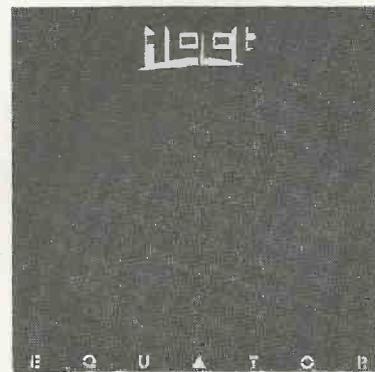

TURNTABLE TIPS

Giuffria- Giuffria Camel/MCA
 The first time I've heard a song from this band, I was totally taken by the track Call To The Heart. Having heard the album I must say, there's a lot more to them than only a couple of good ballads and good looks. Actually all tracks are equally good; they're powerful, subtle, well played and well produced. Sink your teeth in it and let it grow on you.

Nomo- The Great Unknown - Alco
 David Bateau fronts this new American band who make their debut with a collection of strong pop songs. Bateau has worked for artists like Donna Summer, Chaka Khan and Michael Sembello and he sure knows how to write catchy melodies. We recommend titles like Facts Of Live, Red Lipstick, Slave For Love and the title track.

Uriah Heep- Equator- Portrait/Epic
 After a bit of absence, Heep are back. Different than before, less banging, more sophisticated, with an album well worth all the attention it gets. The tracks are excellent, if only listen to Poor Little Rich Girl and Lost One Love. But also worth mentioning are the bit rougher songs, such as Fools Burning and Partytime. Produced by Tony Platt.

MUSICBOX has added Amsterdam to its already impressive list of cities and becomes more and more a force to reckon with in Europe. Its marketing director, ex-A&M European Vice President, Marcus Bicknell will preside a panel at IMIC, the Billboard sponsored music industry gathering which will take place in Munich early June. The discussion subject Will Video Kill The Audio Star, is likely to attract very opposing views. In the meantime MTV was honouring the Women Of Rock during last weekend with special attention each hour for artists such as Chrissie Hynde, Madonna, Pat Benatar, Annie Lennox, Tina Turner, The Go-Go's and The Bangles ★

Not too many new videos this week. The KATRINA & THE WAVES video is very nice. With 4 different shots, featuring the Band performing & walking in a sunny park, walking on sunshine; which is also the title to their single ★

QUEENSRYCHE finally had their 50 minute Live In Tokyo video released, featuring an outstanding good concert ★ HELIX have a mini video out on the market, which features 4 phantastic clips: Gimme Gimme Good Lovin', Rock You, Don't Get Mad, Get Even & Heavy Metal Love ★ QUEEN's clip to Radio Ga Ga has been voted best UK promo clip of the year. The Video Business Awards are given to recognise creative achievement and sales performances in the UK. This year's presentations saw Queen collect 3 trophies. Received by Brian May on behalf of the group. Also Queen got 2 silver cassettes, given for outstanding sales for their full length concert video We Will Rock You and The Works EP, a compilation of 4 1984 promoclips. (Both achieved a no 1 position on the video chart. Well done Boys!) ★

DAVID LEE ROTH. He is amazing! Striked again with a great and very funny video for his latest single Just A Gigolo. Dave is featured as "the crazy gigolo" appearing in video clips of others like Cyndi Laupers' Girls Just Want To Have Fun were in he jumps to the kitchen window; Billy Idol- knocking poor billy of the roof (actually it's all scenes from the stars while Dave is borging in); Culture Club etc. Very funny! ★

Have you seen the new MICK JAGGER clip for Lucky In Love. Very nice ★ A lot of new clips on the Hardrock front. Giuffria Call To The Heart, King Cobra, Madam X. ★

Stop Press: DURAN DURAN just shot a new video to their forthcoming single A View To A Kill. It was filmed in Paris (of course, it's springtime). The location was The Eiffeltower. Directors were Godley & Creme ★ PAUL HARDCASTLE- 19, parts of documentary about the Vietnam War, with very shocking parts of shootings, planes taking off, bombings, without any shots of Paul in it. It's all in colour ★ The new GO WEST video to Call Me is another masterpiece by Russel Mulcahy- very much 50's S.F. in colour ★

New videos by: REO SPEEDWAGON- One Lonely Night; JULES SHEAR- Steady; WANG CHUNG- Fire In The Twilight ★ NEW MODEL ARMY shot a videoclip for their new single No Rest. It's a live concert recorded at London's Marquee. Director was John Moulde. The single is doing very well only 3 weeks after release ★ MARILLION will be filming a video for their forthcoming single Kayleigh on May 2nd/3rd 1985 in Berlin on location. The director is Clive Richardson

Singles Guide

First of all, congratulations should go out to the Bobbysocks' La Det Swinge, the Norwegian winner for this year's 30th Eurovision Song Contest held in Gothenburg. This cheerful poppy tune even defeated this year's favourites Germany, (Wind- Fuer Alle) and Sweden (Kikki Danielsson- Bravi Prationer). Spanish, German and English (Let It Swing) versions have already been made and the original, very small record company (Bahama Records) suddenly sees itself in the middle of all attention. This year's contest was finally again a festival in which quality prevailed: of the 19 competing songs, no less than 14 got the maximum of 12 points from one of the voting countries.

Apart from Norway, the other Scandinavian countries Sweden and Finland both recieved high ratings of the jury (Sweden was 3rd and Finland 9th).

Let's see how international singles are doing in Scandinavia. The USA For Africa single is obviously the most popular single in the Scandinavian countries, charted high in 3 of the 4 countries. Although it is not charted in Finland yet, this is mainly due to the fact that Finland only publishes a monthly hitparade and we have no doubt this single will enter high next month. It is surprising to see that only two international singles are doing well in all 4

Scandinavian countries at the same time! Billy Ocean's Loverboy is popular in Sweden, Denmark and Finland, as is Foreigner's I Want To Know What Love Is.

GOSPEL-TINGED DISCO

This week's hottest additions to the European Airplay Top 50 are Paul Hardcastle (who's single 19 was our Sure Hit last week) and Steve Arrington. Feel So Real is the first single of the ex-Slave member that breaks in Europe. First only available through import until Atlantic picked it up. The single is already a hit in the UK and is now spreading to the Benelux and Italy as well. This gospel-tinged disco song has a very danceable beat and was already for weeks at the top of our Maxi Route. We recommend you to check out his album Dancin' In The Key Of Life (thank you Stevie Wonder?), with other favourites such as Gasoline, and the titletrack. Other Hot Radio Adds are Bailey's new single, Modern Talking latest You Can Win If You Want and our favourite record, Marcia Baila by Rita Mitsouko (No, we will not stop talking about them!). A View To A Kill is Duran Duran's latest single, the theme song to the forthcoming James Bond movie of the same name. This commercial medium-tempo song has a very memorable chorus and was composed by the group together with long-time Bond musicmaster John Barry, who also produced the instrumental B-Side. The group now join other renowned international talents, including Shirley Bassey, Tom Jones, Paul McCartney & The Wings, Sheena Easton, Rita Coolidge and Carly Simon, who have all contributed to 007

Soundtracks over the past 23 years. Supertramp have a new single out entitled Cannonball, a slow rocky tune, not quite like their earlier works and France was the first country to report on this one. Go West's latest Call Me has all the chances of becoming the second European hit for them, a superb single!

YEARNING TO FALL IN LOVE

The song writing team of Status Quo, Francis Rossi and Bernard Frost, have teamed up to record their own single called Modern Romance and although they are the world's oldest 12 bar rockers, they're still yearning to fall in love. Jules Shear (ex-leader of the defunct formation The Polar Bears) goes 'Steady' with Cyndi Lauper, who co-wrote this beautiful single.

Other Sure Hits for Re-Flex (another militant and powerful single following last year's hit The Politics Of Dancing), Joe Walsh (the ex-Eagle in a very raw and old fashioned beat), David Cassidy (another good and solid love song with Jane Birkin-like vocals on the end) and Depeche Mode's latest Shake The Disease. Our Maxi Route has some new good 12 inches, the most significant one by Nile Rodgers, his single Let's Go Out Tonight is catchy, very danceable and contains some interesting rhythmic vocal dubs.

A GROWING PROGRAMMING PHENOMENON

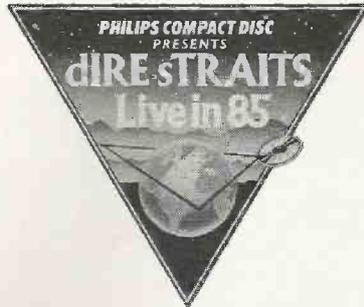

The terrific boom in compact discs sales around the world in 1984 has led to a strong interest from the European media experts. There is no doubt amongst the leaders of the record industry that this new carrier will be of growing importance in the next few years. There are already those saying that the traditional lp will vanish but we believe this is still a long way off. Obviously there are a great number of advantages to compact disc and they are certainly not limited to the better sound quality alone. During the first years of CD existence record companies mainly pushed this "quality-sound" factor in all their marketing and advertisement campaigns. But lately more and more emphasis switched to the many other advantages of CD. The worldwide sales of CD's could have been almost double already, if production capacities would have been sufficient, but no one could foresee the immediate impact on the public. Although during the first year of CD, sales mainly came from classical music, this picture is now drastically changing as the major labels succeed in releasing albums, cassettes and CD's of their major artist simultaneously. With the growing number of Eurostations using CD, we have decided to have a special CD section in Eurotopsheet every month. We will inform you about the progress of CD programming on radio and television. We will give you background on the technical development of CD hardware and spotlight good new CD product. As you can see we also print a recommendation list for CD's in popular music. The choices we make for that list are not too adventurous. This is because various European countries will only have their CD's a few weeks later than the major territories due to the production problems.

START OF A NEW SOUND ON RADIO

Various European radio stations were pioneers in programming CD's. Probably the first chain of stations to have a special CD program every week was Italian Radio Montestella, a chain of 80 stations. Alberto Crippa who was then head of programming introduced the new sound carrier to the Italian public and since then various other Italian stations have followed. Another major station which was concentrating on CD at a very early stage was TROS, Holland, still today they present a weekly CD program. There is no doubt that many other countries have followed and we will inform you not only who has jumped on the CD band wagon but also how they use CD's, what special tracks they are playing and what kind of news they present to the audience of this new medium.

SPONSORING DIRE STRAITS

Phillips has been the biggest force to push CD, like in the old days they did with cassettes. Not only have they developed popular hardware and also developed excellent machines for professional use by radio stations (see separate story). Due to their direct link with various production facilities they have been able to maximize sales through the availability of a wide range of repertoire. While last year there was still a very strong publicity specially focused on CD, the Polygram companies are now incorporating CD in their normal publicity for product. This also acknowledges the fact that CD is now an integral part of sound carrier turnover. However there are still special ways of promoting CD to a new audience and in one of their biggest campaigns ever, Polygram spending multi million dollars, sponsor the year-long world tour of Phonogram group Dire Straits, an act that already had very healthy sales on CD. A special marketing team has been formed to follow the world tour on a day-to-day basis and Philips is planning extensive television advertising campaigns in key markets. There is also a Philips' demonstration team accompanying the tour and they will arrange player demonstrations at the concert halls. A special CD including 4 Dire Straits' songs is presented to the retailers backed with an enormous amount of merchandising material including special stickers, posters, etc. etc. As you all know sponsoring rock tours has become quite fashionable in recent years but so far they were mainly done by companies involved in jeans, beers, and soft drinks. This is the first sponsorship involving various sides of the music industry. Continued on Page 7

CBS

The portable sound machine including CD.

GRAPHIC DISPLAY

The CD system also makes it possible to record additional text and graphic information on the disc which can be shown on a TV screen during replay, adding an extra dimension to the music. This information could show the words of a song, or a translation of them, for example. Supporting graphics such as a picture of the performer or animations could also be included. Information of this type can be recorded on channels on a CD which are at present not fully used, so it will have no effect on the disc's music capacity.

CD COMBINATION UNITS

The new Philips CD Sound Machine (see separate photo) brings the benefits of CD to conveniently transportable integrated music systems. This attractively priced unit combines a built-in CD player with an auto-reverse cassette deck, radio tuner, amplifier and detachable 2-way loudspeakers. Compact dimensions and a handy carrying handle make the entire unit easy to carry around the home, or to any other location where a full-function, high-quality sound centre is needed. It can also be connected to an existing HiFi system by means of a line output.

No doubt many other companies will follow this popular trend but there are also many in the music industry fearing an increased home-taping problem as obviously the CD player and high-quality cassette deck in one machine makes good quality recording extremely easy.

PROFESSIONAL CD SYSTEMS FOR BROADCAST

In addition to their successful range of CD players for use in the home, various companies have introduced highly specialised professional reproduction systems for use in recording and broadcast studios, as well as in discotheques and other professional situations. This system meets the increasing demands from professional users who wish to take advantage of the CD system's outstanding sound reproduction quality and convenience of operation.

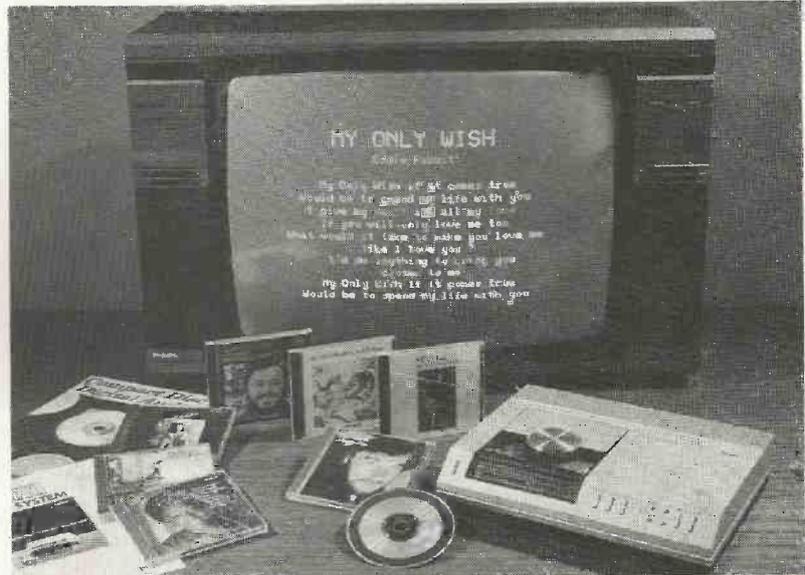

The professional CD reproduction system uses two CD drives or player units, and a computerised control system. Commands are entered via a separate low-profile keyboard, which has two identical keypads, one for each of the CD drives. In addition, the keyboard has a combined numeric keypad and a quicksearch dial.

One of the major requirements of the professional CD system is the ability to locate any desired part of a recording precisely and very quickly. The point to be accessed can be defined in terms of track number, time from track start or time to track end, and is then found to an accuracy of within 13.3 milliseconds.

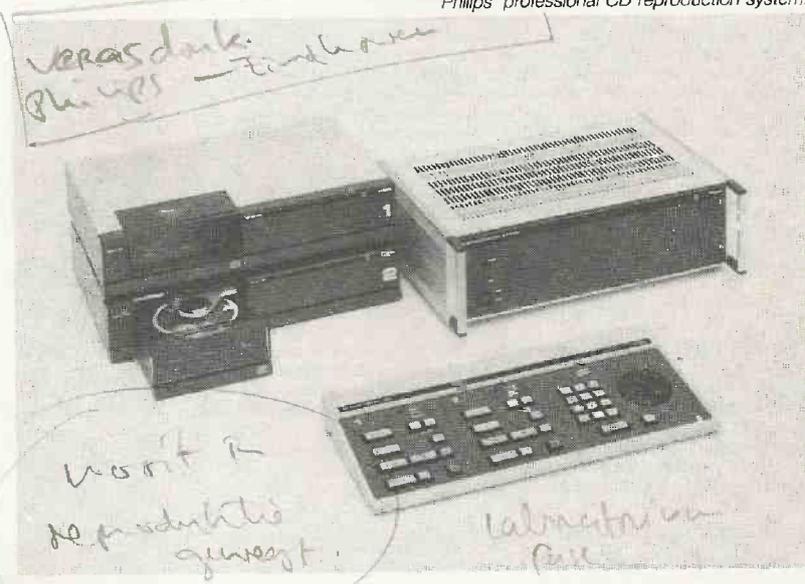

Information is displayed to show the operator the exact status of both CD drives, including absolute time, absolute time left, the ISRC code number of the music, the catalogue number of the disc and a contents list of the disc.

Using the search dial on the keyboard, an entire disc can be scanned in either fast or slow modes, both forwards and backwards, to allow any desired cueing points to be selected. Pre-programming of operation is also possible, through which any tracks or parts of tracks can be played in any sequence. To do this, the appropriate commands are simply entered into the system's memory via the control keyboard. This new professional CD reproduction system provides outstanding editing and replay facilities for broadcast and recording studios, as well as other professional users of the CD system. The CD drives and control system can also be rack-mounted.

LONDON CALLING

by Howard Marks

As mentioned in the last column, the record industry held a party for former Radio One man Derek Chinnery. The party was at the "gardens" here in London. In attendance were people such as Errol Brown of Hot Chocolate, and various Radio One jocks Mike Read, Jimmy Savile, Bruno Brooks, Peter Powell, Gary Davis, Janice Long, Simon Bates etc. There were also some very important people from the record companies too. I splined Michael Levy of Magnet Records. Derek Green and Bob Grace from China Records/Music were also there. Maurice Oberstein made a speech, and a presentation to Derek and Mrs. Chinnery. The evening was a great success.

It was sad to hear the other day of the recent death of D.J. Jerry Floyd. Although he never made it to radio, he has been a well respected jock in clubs and music festivals for many years. He was up until his death the resident dj at the Marquee Club here in London.

While on the subject of the Marquee Club, a man who knows a fair bit about music, one Billy Gaff esc. is to become a partner in the club, and it will be completely re-furbished soon. In case you do not know who Billy Gaff is, maybe the names Rod Stewart, Limahl and John Cougar may mean something to you.

Gwent Radio, one of the U.K.'s smallest commercial radio stations closed down recently. This is only the second commercial radio station in the country to have had this happen, the first being Centre Radio up in the midlands some months ago. It's sad to see a radio station close it's doors for many a reason, but for a country that was so starved of commercial radio for so many years, it is even sadder when some areas of the country do not support their own local station.

Invicta Radio which serves various areas of Kent, has also had some problems recently too. There have been some staff changes, and I do believe that former Capital Radio producer and dj Kerry Jubby has joined the station. Former Capital man Duncan Johnson remains with the station too.

Over at Capital Radio, Gary Crowley has recently played host to some new bands playing live on his show. The Fruits Of Passion, Alone Again Or, Jimmy Jimmy to name but a few. Gary has also played host recently to such names as Paul Weller & Mick Talbot of Style Council, and Smiley Culture. Also at Capital, Dave and Annie of the Eurythmics came in for a chat about their fab new album. They also have a book out about themselves too.

Making a big noise for himself at the moment is Edwin Starr. He has been living in the U.K. for some time now, and has a great new single on release. He was on Soultrain recently, and also won the peoples choice vote on Capital Radio. Gary Crowley also interviewed him too.

Lots of good concerts coming up in London over the next month or so. Unless you can get your name on the guest lists, it will be an expensive time ahead. We have Mr. Soul himself, James Brown doing concerts. I don't think that I will be watching too much television over the next short period.

Over at Sky Trax recently they had a live third birthday party show, if you looked very closely you may have seen yours truly in the studio talking to Gary Davis. Some guests popped for in the show, Coolnotes were there, so too was Jonas, and David Grant. David Cassidy phoned in live, and do believe that Dan Hartman was there too.

The new single from Go West is just brilliant. It's called Call Me, and it must surely be a future no 1 record. The Stylistics make their comeback record with their new label, Virgin. I also heard a brilliant single the other day by (Dutch group) Mai Tai, it's called History, and is also on Virgin. Now the question is, are you old enough to remember the great Dusty Springfield? I know that Michael our dearly beloved editor remembers her, because he still wears thick black eye make up just like Dusty used to do. He also wears his wig in the same swept back fashion. Poor old Michael, no-one understands him really, he is one of lifes real mis-fits! Anyway back to Dusty, she gave her first show here in London for many years recently, and it was filmed for television. She will start recording soon.

Steve Norman of Spandau came back to London recently after busting his leg on stage in The States, various concerts have had to be postponed in Europe.
Gosh, I just realised that I have completed a whole London Calling without one mention of John Sachs at Capital, or one mention of Culture Club. This must be a first. Before I go, please spare a thought for the journalist on news at Ten recently, when reporting on a Russian news item, he had trouble with the names, and was heard to say quite clearly "Oh shit". Always remember the golden rule of broadcasting, make sure that your mike is switched off when you use those naughty words!

ALEXANDRA'S NEWS CORNER

Hi out there, how's life? Here at this front it's alright. Not really what one could call a spectacular week but it had its charms. Mind you, it'll be better soon with all these festivals and good gigs coming up. Will tell you all about it plus all my moves, afterwards, if it was worth mentioning anyway. (And that's not necessarily guaranteed!) ★

Now, let's move to the States, that is with that little finger on the map. This will probably interest some of you, The NEW MUSIC SEMINAR has been re-scheduled, it's all happening now Sep. 26th-29th in the Big Apple. Instead of the beginning of August, a lot of you guys will welcome this wise decision. Me myself, made an unforgivable mistake. I should have been nagging a bit more, louder and longer in my Bosses ear, but being such a nice girl, well I'm not going! That's why I'll start the nagging bit for next year RIGHT NOW (Sanny and me really wanted to go to New York, anyway the two of us nagging makes this certainly look stronger). See you next time ★

On to the artists now. FLESH FOR LULU signed to Hybrid Records May 3rd saw the release of a new mini-album, 5 tracks, it's titled Blue Sisters Swing and was produced by the band, whereas 3 tracks were re-mixed by CRAIG LEON. They are touring the UK from May 5th till May 25th ★

Oh boy, another beautiful ballad by REO SPEEDWAGON is on the market called One Lonely Night. C'mon let's play it! ★

Ways To Be Wicked, (no not another advice for the weekend!) is the title to the new LONE JUSTICE single, just released ★

A new album from our OZZY OSBOURNE can be expected in the very near future, called Ultimate Sin. And Ozzy knows damn well what he's talking about. Great to see him in Battle again. I watched him being interviewed on Skytrax a couple of weeks ago and he's such a sympathetic bloke ★

EXPOSURE had their 3rd single via Statik released. This one's called Still The Wind Blows Still. The 12" version has a previously unreleased track called Time Is On Our Side. The band just finished a mini UK tour incl. a gig in London's Marquee ★

Another great gig I've missed out on was SIMON F, supporting KING at Hammersmith Odeon. It was stunning, the telex said and I quote: Simon gave a performance that had the girls in the audience going wild and screaming for more at the front of the Auditorium, until the bouncers turned them away! This Simon seems to be the Eighties answer to MICK JAGGER. Thank Carol for the info, but WHY do I always miss out on things like that? Well, never mind, at least I can listen to his debut album Gun Control, which has just been released on Chrysalis ★

Who Knows What Love Is that's STRAWBERRY SWITCHBLADE's new single. Taken from their selftitled debut album. The track was written by the girls and produced by PHIL THORNALLEY. Hope you've all got the album! ★

DIZZI HEIGHTS, newly signed to Parlophone, had his first single released entitled The Gospel, which actually was written by PAUL WELLER and first appeared on THE STYLE COUNCIL's debut album. Dizzi has now totally reworked the song and used musicians such as PAUL HARDCASTLE, CHAZ JANKEL, STEVE WHITE and the DYNAMIC DUO Brass section ★

Talking about PAUL HARDCASTLE, he's doing marvellous with his current single, 19. Watch that boy ★

Yet another Parlophone signing are THE PET SHOP BOYS. Their first single will be released May 13th in the UK. The single has been given the title Opportunities (Let's Make Lots Of Money) Yeah, let's just do that. In case you're wondering who they are, here's the answer to all questions: NEIL TENNANT and CRIS LOWE. Production was handled by NICHOLAS FROOME and J.J. JECZALIK. (he's the producer of ART OF NOISE) ★

GO WEST goes Nassau, soon to work with ROBERT PALMER following a USA promo trip. The boys just released their second single, entitled Call Me. I think it's very good, and a lot of others agree with me as it looks that this track will become a smash hit ★

CHAS & DAVE are in the studio recording a new double album for the autumn, but September sees them back in Australia on tour ★

May 17th sees the release of DEL AMITRI's debut album which was produced by HUGH JONES. The band's on a UK tour from May 1st till 23rd, currently supporting LLOYD COLE, THE MONOCHROME SET and one night headlining at the Marquee. ★

And finally it happened, BILLY BRAGG's lp "Lifes A Riot" has hit gold in the UK. This is a first for both BILLY and GO! DISCS. Congratulations ★

Top MCA act THE OAKRIDGE BOYS are appearing in a one-off concert during the opening celebrations of the Acropolis, Nice, on May 14th. This is their first European appearance for 5 years ★

I wonder how long it will take until the new STEVIE WONDER album is released. Up till now, it has been delayed so many times because STEVIE isn't satisfied with the way it sounds. Motown has a team of people stand-by worldwide, who are just waiting for the word GO to release that album. It will be Mr. Wonder's first lp in a long, long time if one does not count the Soundtrack Woman in Red, Secret Life Of Plants and the Double Greatest Hits. Let's hope the sign will be on green soon, as I'd love to hear it ★

If you're around London May 19th you might go to see PALLAS supporting URIAH HEEP at Hammie Odeon ★

VITAMIN Z have just finished recording their album, which is called The Rites Of Passage. Being a due really, the boys had a helping hand from some very wellknown musicians, JERRY MAROTTA,
