DENMARK

PALLAS released a new EP titled The Knightmoves, consisting of 5 tracks: Strangers, Nightmare and Sanctuary. A new full length album is scheduled for an early summer release. More info on that, when I have it! * PICTURE: one of Holland's best heavy metal bands are still in the studio finishing the recordings of their 5th album titled Trailer, slated for an early June release. As you know or don't know - 1965 is the year of the youth! Anyway, in Holland there seems to be little help for young talented bands, especially hard rock or heavy metal where many talents are to be found. Picture, who I have just mentioned, are trying to change all this by taking many new discoveries with them on their tour. In every show two new bands will play, in this way picture hope to stimulate and give the bands more publicity of their own. Nice one boys! * TEARS OPERA - that's for all know! 2 guys from London who made a very good single, very different and unorthodox. They've also written and performed it themselves with the ROYAL PHILHARMONIC QROD-ES/11A. And - its released throughout all their own label Tearς Opςer. Have a listen to it for I ought to do well in Europe (as Tony Newman predicted, and he's right most of the times, so watch it! * While I'm finishing writing this it occurred to me that I've never introduced my favourite Christie, who most of the time helps me a hard working (only when she is in a sane mood!). If she's not sane, she sometimes get's...

GLORY DAYS
The Dire Straits album is happening and the overall European response is enormous! 73% of our correspondents added the album this week! Their first studio album since Love Over Gold (1982) is loaded with airplay favourites. Real consensus is hard to find, although the rockers like Money For Nothing, Walk Of Life (with its funny Sir Douglask kortish-type of organ part) and One World seem to fit best for rock radio. The title track may not be the most logical choice for rock radio but it is one of our favourites (very suitable for nighttime play)!

On first hearing you may have decided (very suitable for nighttime play!) Preceded by the single Pink And Black (although we are more in favour of the American single Little By Little) this album should get a fair chance and needs some collective album radio support. Try Secess and Secessors and Trouble Your Money 2:4 This week's most played albums on European Radio.

Although the USA For Africa supersession continues to be one of Europe's hottest played albums, Supertramp's new album Brother Where You Bound is shooting up as prime contender for next week's Eurotipsheet Albumsmash. It will be interesting to see if Euro Radio is willing to play the sixteen minutes long 'Brother' track in its full length (that radio can work with extended tracks has been proven earlier with the success of Private Investigation by Dire Straits).

With the upcoming European Tour in mind, Bruce Springsteen still gets heavy coverage on album programs. Some deejays are even playing the Glory Days track in celebration of Bruce's new bride! Now, deejays are always accused of never attending Rock concerts. It will be interesting to know who of you out there are going to see the Boss on his European tour. We anxiously await your reports on his performance.

MAI TAI MAKING HISTORY

The Dutch three girl band Mai Tai is slowly making inroads on the European market and are at the moment one of Europe's hottest Crossover acts. Their new single History (Injection/CNR Holland) is moving up the European Airplay Top 50 due to heavy airplay in England, the Benelux and some parts of Italy and the latest news (very hot just in time to make the deadline) is that the single is new entry in the UK at 47.

For Holland, though, it is not their first single. Their debut Keep On Dancin' was released in October '83 and was a club favourite although chart action did not follow. Their follow-up What Goes On was a modest success in Holland in April '84. But real acclaim came with their 3rd single Body And Soul, a very swinging co-tempo dance track where the vocals of the three ladies came to full power. And their next one Am I Losing You Forever only confirmed their status as one of Holland's best vocal bands at the moment; the ballad was for weeks and weeks a favourite on the Dutch channels.

They all were born in Dutch overseas countries (two come from Curacao and one from Surinam) but came at an early age to Holland. All have back grounds in the music field, but this is their first real successful band. Special mention should be made to Eric Van Tijn and Jochem Fluitsma, who wrote, arranged and produced all the songs. Their recently released self-titled album contains all the above mentioned singles with the exception of Keep On Dancing. From this debut album we further recommend you to check: The Rules Of Love, a delightful piece of funky action. Comparisons with the American Pointer Sisters are constantly made and we think that this unique talent needs to be nurtured for a very long time to come!

INTER-BEAR DIALOG

We are now used to African, Cuban, South American and recently Mexican (Los Lobos etc.) influences in today's pop music. But who would have thought that music from the Balkan could mix with pop? The Three Mustaphas Three make it happen! Their mini album Barn! Mustaphas Play Stereo (Globe Style Records) is a very peculiar and unusual combination of ethnic Balkan music with 'modern' Western rhythms.

The Three Mustaphas Three are six family members from a place called Szegedeli, the heart of the Balkan. The music they play is traditional cheerful folk music, however, with some very strong leanings on Western music. Somehow, they seem to be able to place their music into a very accessible (and almost commercial) frame. With instruments like cymbals, cello, violin, accordion and various percussion instruments, the Three Mustaphas Three create a very hypnotizing atmosphere and one only wonders where they picked up such influences.

In the moody track A Chilling Tale Pt. 4/Belz, Uncle Patrell Mustapha tells us about the importance that the bear has for the people living in Szegedeli; a story 'about the day Szegedeli lost it's memory': imagine yourself to be amongst the people of this little town for a gathering for the annual bear seminar, set up for the promotion of inter-bear dialog. The bottles are many, the glasses full, the food hot, the speeches short... and the young Mustapha's are starting to play this very same bear-dance music. And all the people and all the bears started to move to the delicate rhythms. Soon however, it is noticed that the friendliness of the bears exceeds all expectations... The day Szegedeli lost its memory.

A charming and beautiful little story accompanied by an accordion and a must for those programmers always on the look out for something new and exciting. Be careful and play this mini album at 45 rpm cause the label states different! As the inserted leaflet says: "Please excuse our confusion label, we don't know yet the system of rotation speeds for your country."

... The unique talents of Mai Tai ...

Best regards, H. Mustapha (by order of the Balkan Music (Rotation) Regulation Committee)².

Switch into something new, try the Balkan beat of the wonderful Three Mustaphas Three.

VIDEO NEWS

Big news this week comes from France where from June 1st videos will again be allowed on the French national TV channels. Negotiations between all interested parties were dramatic, as this the French organization of record companies needed to beat a deadline. As we reported earlier the SNEP had already an agreement with the CMTV Plus pay channel which was already paying for video rights for the last 6 months. However, the agreement with Canal Plus specifically mentioned that they would not have to pay any rights anymore if the SNEP would not have reached an agreement with the national channels before June 1st 1985. Because of budget reasons the French channels will not have to pay for the video rights in the first months, this caused a last minute major problem. Although the record companies agreed to provide the video's free of charge for this first month only, the French musicians union demanded payment for this first month too. This would have meant that record companies would have had to pay the musicians union on videos that they deliver free of charge to French TV. Anyway, a little more than 1500 FF, will be paid for each clip to be shown on French TV. This will help the declined sales on international repertoire. Talking about payment for video rights; it looks like this issue is now also be under heavy negotiation in the USA. Major labels CBS and WE are expected to be charging the MTV's soon, which is a great lumявление. The US First Lady Nancy Reagan is an active campaigner against drug use in the USA. One of the initiatives from her organization is a 3:1/2 minute video entitled "Just Say No", which has a strong anti-drug message. The video will be aired by all national and regional music channels including MTV and will be pushed strongly in clubs, schools and movie theatres too. It looks like in spite of the bad results of last year, the second St. Tropez Video Music Festival will still be held. It will most probably take place the first week in October, probably just before the Vidcom festival in Cannes.

David Bowie's new clip Loving The Alien should get enormous showing all around Europe now that the single is added to a lot of European radio stations. Eric Carr has a new clip for his single I'm Through With Love from his debut Geffen album. And also Nina Hagen is back again, striking with a video for Universal Radio from her new album Entry, which is available in German and English. Shé'll be out touring Europe in July. Tight Connection To My Heart is the title to the new Bob Dylan video. It's been a while since he has been in the spotlight. The new WNB TV video for Everything Is Alright is very nice, but not so is the song. Honey Moon Suite are currently working on their promo clip to their upcoming new single Wise Riddim. A great song, actually the whole album is very good. I wonder what happened to Europe? Unfortunately they didn't get the attention that they deserve over here, while the lp went Gold in the States and Canada. Is there a possibility to still pick up on this? Bryan Ferry's latest clip to Slave To Love is quite a sophisticated masterpiece, just like the song. So we are all looking forward to say our hails on his new album. Oog mates Phil, Lynnot & Gary Moore teamed up to make a real good record Out In The Field. The video accompanying that is also just released. Both should do well.

- Paul Hardcastle / You Can Win If You Want (Hansa, Germany)
- Sandy Marton / You Got It (A&M)

Notes:
- We are very proud of one of our correspondents: Claudio Cecchetto, program director of the Italian cable Deejay Television has co-produced the new single by Sandy Marton, Come By Carreli A poppy song with good chances to repeat the Euro success of 1984 (People From Ibiza). 33
- The Eurovision Song Contest winners are releasing a lot of radio and airplay and we expect the single to come in the European Top 100 Singles next week (presently 104).
- The European Airwaves show strong movement as well this week. The greatest number of adds are for Hardcastle, Duran Duran (see above) and Supertramp's Caravan's. This slow rock tune gets heavy radio coverage mainly in France and Holland but a chart position hasn't materialised yet (though the album comes in at 23 this week). Anticipating the release of the new Bryan Ferry album, the single Slave To Love jumps to no 9 in our Airplay Top 50 and the original version of Around My Dream by Sandy Marton, charted in France, Germany and Denmark and currently at 22 (from 54), is suddenly picking up more sales than the cover version by Kasino (30-37).

Maxi route

Most recommended 12 Inch records for programming as chosen by the editorial team:

LONDON CALLING
by Howard Marks

God, did I get a telling off last week. No, it wasn't from the editor although that makes a change. No this time it was from the Tony Blackburn show over at BBC Radio London, having read the column recently, they feel that they should be getting a few namechecks. And quite rightly too. Tony is doing a great job for soul music fans, and has a huge following on the show, and the Soul Night Out which he presents too. Tony was recently a guest on TV-AM, and his book will be out in the shops this month. He also has his weekly soul show on Sky as well. Over at Radio One, Janice Long recently interviewed Samantha Fox, I wonder which lucky engineer got to pin the mike on her blouse, or did they use a mike stand, and if so how far away from her face did they need to place the stand. For those of you in Europe who may not have heard of Samantha, she is a 19 year old model, whose main attraction defies the laws of gravity. She made Dolly Parton look like a novice! Also at Radio One, Andy Peebles has just completed a deal with Tina Turner, and when I last saw Andy, he had a huge smile on his face. It seems that one of the mikes didn't work properly, and Tina had to share it with the lovely lady, and had to wave at Andy. I told you not to wear such tight jeans now Andy, don't! Due to recording commitments, Madness have had to pull out of the Glastonbury Festival planned for June. They will be replaced by Style Council, whose new album will be in the shops as you read this. Lots of publicity for Bruce Springsteen and his wife in the press and on the radio. The man will be here soon for concerts. Meanwhile, it is rumoured that Capital Radio's Roger Scott was very unhappy not to be invited to the wedding. And there is no truth in the rumour that Roger has been recording songs on the weekend and knicked into them intravenously.

Some good new singles out at the moment from Boggsa Rankant. They have singles from: The Cult Pink Rhythms, which features John Roccio formerly with Freezeze, and a great new version of the old Strawberry Alarm Clock single Incense & Peppermints by a new band who called themselves The Adult Nat. Recent guests on Soul Train have been Malai, Imagination, Phil Call, Locace Ends and Aura. The show is getting lots of viewers, and has just had its run extended to the end of October. Recent guest on TV-AM have been Tony Black (as mentioned above), Gary Fitter, Boemt Uteusens and Stewart Copsewen. Breakfast Time recently played host to Edwin Star. The Tony Wogan show has recently featured Duran Duran, Rick Springfield and Rick Oskason. Taking of Rick Springfield, he played his first ever live concert here recently, and did a fine interview with Kid-jensen over at Capital Radio. His new single is great, and should be huge in this U.K. In town recently was Nicky Lofgren, he has just completed a deal with Towerbell Records. He will be also touring in June with Bruce. New singles in the shops at the moment from China Crisis, Talking Heads, Prince, Dave Bowes, Elton John, and Thereze Bazar (remember Dolar & Guys N Dolls). New albums from Kenny G., Chris Rea, Toy Dolls, Robert Plant, New Model Army and The Truth. Capital Radio's resident Roland Rat, my mate Gary Crowleys is to host a new pop quiz for Central Television. The show will run in six weeks, and is to be called Populous. It will be screened on a Wednesday afternoon. Gary has been away on holiday recently and his show has been hosted by various members of OMG). Go West, UB40, Spandau Ballet, Madness and Deso Boys. You may remember from time to time that I have mentioned the band with the least favourite name of all time (The Jesus & Mary Chain)... well, they are about to unleash their new single upon us. God help us all. His new single is great, and should be huge in the U.K.

Hello again, and a very good day to you. Lots to write about (forget it - when and where haven't been confirmed either, what has been confirmed is the gig he's doing at London's Dominion Theatre on June 7th, which is sponsored by Capital Radio. Obviously it will be recorded. More details on the road when I get them (Hi Joan). BRMB - Birmingham are also sponsored by Capital Radio. Obviously it will be recorded, More details on the road when I get them (Hi Joan).

I have finished recording their new album which is called Humanication, to be undertaken a large tour called The Humanication World Tour covering North America, Japan, Australasia, plus a worldwide deal for all future material. We may be running about too much, therefore a little explanation. We had a few bank holidays which is all very nice, but also left us with time-pressure, as we had to get things together in three days instead of the usual five. Nevermind, chugging over that let's get going.

Now do you remember PUSSYCAT from Holland? Okay, then you're surely remember their singer TONY WILE, she had her first solo album released called Privilege. A fast single taken from the album is available now and entitled Hungry Nights. A host of well known musicians lend her a helping hand. On keyboards TON SCHERPENZEEL (ex-KAYAK), a German rhythm section CURT, CRESS and DIETER PETEREIT (SPLIFF & MURRAY HEAD - MCA) and the master of their sound PAUL HARDCASTLE's single 19 is the fastest no. 1 in the UK Chrysalis and entitled EveryBody Wants To Rule The World. The 19p was produced by Maurice Starr with partner Arthur Baker.

A few days ago the STYLISTICS had their first Virgin album on the market, which also features their current single Give A Little Love For Love. The lip was produced by Maurice Starr with partner Arthur Baker acting as executive producer. Have you heard OMD's new single So In Love? I think it's great! WELL RED is a new trio signed to Paul Hardcastle and entitled You Spin Me Round. The single was released called Privilege. Another new single to be released is taken from their forthcoming album which bares the title Humanication, to be undertaken a large tour called The Humanication World Tour covering North America, Japan, Australasia, plus a worldwide deal for all future material. We may be running about too much, therefore a little explanation. We had a few bank holidays which is all very nice, but also left us with time-pressure, as we had to get things together in three days instead of the usual five. Nevermind, chugging over that let's get going. But little time to do so. You may ask yourself why that is and whether this girl here has been running about too much, therefore a little explanation. We had a few bank holidays which is all very nice, but also left us with time-pressure, as we had to get things together in three days instead of the usual five.
