EUROPEAN SUPERCHANNEL LAUNCH SERIOUS RIVAL TO SKY CHANNEL

by Peter Jones and Nick Robertshaw

Britain's 16 commercial TV companies have decided in principle to go ahead with plans for an entertainment-led European Superchannel in competition to Rupert Murdoch's Sky Channel, which recently reported losses of 8.6 million pounds for the year to July 1985.

The decision has yet to be endorsed by the board of directors of each company, but the Independent TV Contractors' Association says it will be 'very disappointed' if all 16 do not participate in the venture, which is expected to cost around 20 million pounds.

The scheme was devised following the collapse of efforts to set up a joint BBC/ITV Direct Broadcast by Satellite project in Britain. Initially the BBC was seen as a potential partner in Superchannel, but instead it has opted for indirect involvement, supplying programmes for payment and lending its considerable reputation to the project, as well as taking a share of the eventual profits, if any.

The channel will go on air next autumn, or possibly even sooner, (continued on page 3)

FRENCH TV PROGRAMMING MORE ON MUSIC AND CLIPS

Amidst the liberation of the French TV channels and new possibilities for French organisations to enter the TV world, the 3 major channels have started their new season '85'86 with a renewed large number of musical shows. Now that the problem Pay For Play has been solved and video clips are again allowed to be shown on French national TV, the amount of international artist shown on TV has again increased.

The president of the national channel TF1 is Herve Bourges and the "directrice de varietes" is Marie-France Briere. The most popular music programmes handling international artists on the first channel include Cocoricoco-boys, a daily 15 minute programme, and the weekly Tapage Nocturne, produced by Gilbert Foucault, on the air on Friday evenings 2330 till 01.00. This programme has artists in the studio and shows new clips.

Antenne 2 is headed by president Jean Drucker and the producer responsible for 'Des Grandes Varietes'; the big French names, is Nakache while Patrice Blanc-Francard is responsible for (continued on page 3)

NEW DANCE TALENT

With the ever growing importance of dance music crossing over to the general pop charts, the inclusion of a separate page on dance music in Eurotipsheet is a logical step. Every fortnight we will present the best of the European and American dance releases that have good possibilities of charting.

This Disco/Dance section will be on page 6 next to the New Talent pop/rock section. Eurotipsheet will also feature in detail some Hot 12 inches which are recommendable for programming and are about to be released in Europe. Where necessary we print telephone numbers as well, in order to make our service as complete as possible.

MALIBU PROMO ON CREOLE TOUR

by Peter Jones and Nick Robertshaw

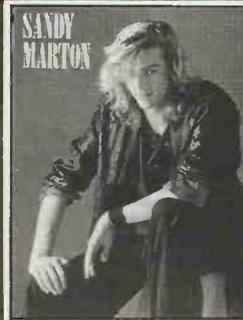

Kid Creole and the Coconuts' self-styled 'tropical blend' and Malibu's tropical coconut drink: it sounds like a sponsorship marriage made in heaven, and so it proved during the group's European tour this summer, which played to packed houses in ten countries.

Super-star Barry Manilow Pacts With RCA Records Worldwide - Barry Manilow was recently signed to RCA for whom he recorded a new album entitled 'Manilow'. The new studio album was preceded by the single 'In Search Of Love', just out on the European market. Manilow, seated at the piano, is pictured here surrounded by (left to right): Garry C. UNITED KINGDOM

Picking up good airplay in the UK this week are UB 40's Lloyd Cole and The Waterboys with The Whole Of The Moon. The recently released Queen's One Vision, which entered the UK charts last week at the high position of no. 9 is also receiving good airplay, as is David Grant & Jaki Graham's Mated, last week's Hot Radio Add. The greatest surprise in this week's chart is the new entry by Wham! (I'm Your Man) straight in at no. 2. Climbing fast are Dionne & Friends (19-33); the new Lionel Richie; Say You Say Me (14-34) and Dee C Lee's See The Day (18-38).

20% of the chart consists of new entries, the highest after Wham! being Collins & Martin in at 25, Go West's Don't Look Now (41); Amazulu's Don't You Just Know It (50) and Simply Red's Holding Back The Years (51) amongst others.

GERMANY

Starship's We Built This City is picking up very good airplay as is local singer Sandra with the follow-up to Magdalena, In The Heat Of The Night. The newly released Fine Young Cannibals' Blue is bubbling under (what a great single, by the way!), together with Black Foeeess' Bye Bye My Love. Although The German Top 3 remains static, several singles are rushing up the charts, amongst which Elton John's Nikita (5-18); Cock Robin's When Your Heart Is Weak (18-35) and Colonel Abrams' Trapped (32-48). New entries this week for Two Of Us, Black Foeeess and Kate Bush with Cloudbusting.

FRANCE

Very little change airplay-wise in France this week, though Jean-Jacques Lafon's Le Geant De Papier and Pierre Bachelet's L'An Deux Mille Un are both picking up well. Century tops the charts yet again with Lover Why, while Madonna has risen two notches to reach second position with Groove. Fast movers include Jean-Jacques Goldman's Je Te Donne (11-16); Stevie Wonder (15-25); with A-Ha (28-51) rising dramatically.

BENELUX

Simple Minds are again topping the Benelux charts, followed by Sandra and Grace Jones, both having risen one place each. Following the pattern throughout most of Europe, the fastest climbers are Elton John (8-21); Dionne Warwick (17-40) and Lionel Richie (21-47) with UB 40's Don't Break My Heart (25-52) also doing well in the Benelux.

Airplay-wise, Grace Jones is best played single in Holland this week, followed by the ever-more popular Cloudbusting by Kate Bush. Other strong airplay for Dire Straits' Walk Of Life; Madonna's Dress You Up and local teeny band Roberto Jaccetti's So I Say.

ITALY

Simple Minds has replaced Madonna from the no. 1 spot in the Italian charts. She is now in 2nd place, followed by Arcadia rising to no. 3. There are 2 dramatic increases for King with Alone Without You (6-28) (in the UK the Taste Of Your Tears single is faring well) and Madonna's Gambler (10-32); while other climbers include Propaganda and Matt Bianco.

SWITZERLAND

With A-Ha still on top and other Euro-productions following it (Cheri at 2, Round One's In Zaire at 6, Falco at 8 and Jennifer Rush's Destiny at 10) it is more than clear that Euro-records dominate the Swiss charts. Highest new entry for Elton John's Nikita and Arcadia is new at 21.

AUSTRIA

No change this week in the Austrian Top 3, but several new entries: Round One (In Zaire); Bad Boys Blue (Pretty Young Girl) and Midge Ure. Tina Turner is a popular choice with 2 singles in the charts at the moment, her Hero and new in at 24, One Of The Living.

Airplay-wise Kool & the Gang have best played single with Cherish and increased airplay for Dire Straits' Money For Nothing and Matt Bianco's Yeh Yeh.

SPAIN

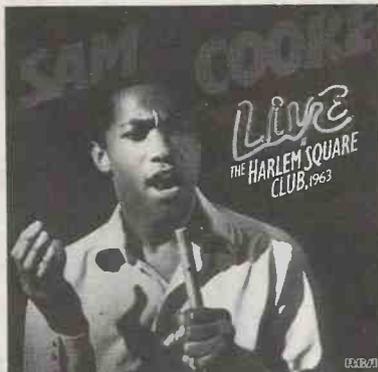

The Spanish top 10 is almost completely taken by non-Spanish artists; with Stevie, Tina and Madonna on top, and the rest of the top 10 filled by either European or American artists, the position of Sergio Y Estibaliz at 9 is a rather lonely one.

DENMARK

The Top 3 in the Danish charts again feature the two African-Aid charity singles, both by local artists and both called Afrika. Highest entries this week for A-Ha in at 12, Katrina & The Waves's Que Te Quiero (14); Belouis Some's Imagination (25) and the new Paul Hardcastle Just For Money (26).

SWEDEN

Local product Tone Norum's Can't You Stay is a likely contender for the no. 1 spot in the near future, having risen to no. 2 from 15. There is however strong competition, with Modern Talking's Cheri Cheri Lady climbing steadily (6-9) and A-Ha leaping to no. 4 from 12. Highest new entry this week for The Monkees with Cheerio followed by local band Imperiet in at 13 with Briggen Blue Bird. As well as the Swedish Metal Aid charity single the charts now feature a second one with the new entry of Dionne & Friends.

Sam Cooke - Life At The Harlem Square Club '63 (RCA)

One of the most legendary soul artists in a re-release of RCA. A magnificent live set featuring hits like Bring It On Home To Me, Chain Gang, Twisting The Night Away and Cupid; all very well recorded and backed up by a good live band. A historical recording that should be part of any record collection.

Starship - Knee Deep In The Hoopla (Guant/RCA)

Strong collection of AOR-type of material of which the single We Built This City is currently no.1 in the US. Produced by 6th band member Peter Wolf, the band shines best in tracks like Rock Myself To Sleep, a Joan Jett like anthem, the power ballad Desperate Heart and the rock song Private Room.

Joni Mitchell - Dog Eat Dog (Geffen)

Probably Joni's most commercial and accessible effort to date. This is not to say however that fans of the old star will be disappointed as her unique style of songwriting has lost nothing of its impact. Produced by Thomas Dolby, she is joined by Ralph McDonald on the track Good Friends and other keycuts include Shiney Toys and Tax Free.

TEENAGE KICKS

Lots of moves and changes mark the European Hot 100 Album charts this week. Dire Straits and Madonna continue their fight for the no. 1 spot; this week Dire Straits again at no. 1. Simple Minds make a dynamic move to no. 3 (from 6) and Iron Maiden's double live-album creeps up 2 notches (5-7). Last year Maiden were able to have their album Powerslave charted 1 week at the no. 1 spot.

With new positions in France, Belgium, Switzerland and Sweden and remaining top positions in the UK (still no. 1); Germany, Holland and Denmark, Sade's 2nd album Promise jumps in its 2nd week straight to no. 7 and this makes the album of all the highest album entries in 1985 (Tears For Fears and Alan Parsons's) the fastest mover (in their 2nd week Tears For Fears were stuck at no. 13 while Alan Parsons only moved up 1 place). The album airplay on the Promise album continues and she is still the favourite album on the European album shows. The sophisticated sounds continue to fill European radio and this will be prolonged in the coming weeks.

The Dire Straits album remains a fave air-play album as well and the Straits Sounds mix very well with Sade and are frequently played in conjunction with each other.

Grace Jones in her 3rd week up to no. 12 and Elton John in his 2nd week to no. 13 (from 31). Highest entry this week for Echo & The Bunnymen: their compilation Songs To Learn And Sing (Korova) is new at 55. The album is a classic set of all their English hits (hardly any of them actually crossed over to the Continent) including Seven Seas, The Killing Moon and their latest Bring On The Dancing Horses. The album has a splendid package, includes a lyric book and the initial quantities of cassettes contain 4 extra tracks.

Feargal Sharkey has 2nd highest entry this week, his self-titled debut album is new at 58. The career of the ex-Undertones singer has taken a strange course. In '79 The Undertones were responsible for a string of cheerful and innocent popsongs like Teenage Kicks and Here Comes The Summer. The group broke up in '83 and now Feargal Sharkey is back on his own with a commercially arranged and very accessible white soul album. In a production by Dave Stewart (of Eurythmics fame) Sharkey's current work is a complete deviation from the past and the rebellion has grown into more of an Adult Contemporary stance.

Bubbling under the Album chart (no. 102) is the debut album by L.A. based band Cock Robin. Their music is not directly related to the current boom of AOR coming from America (Starship, Mr. Mister); but definitely comes into that direction and could have a good chance to crack Europe.

There are many new good albums out in Europe at the moment. The 2nd album by Lloyd Cole & The Commotions; Easy Pieces (Polydor) is a fine set of acoustic based compositions. The production of Langer & Winstanley (Madness, Costello) surely helps make this a very accessible and commercial LP. The Everly Brothers have a new one, Born Yesterday; again produced by Dave Edmunds. Other tips include the new Ray Parker Jr., Joni Mitchell and Magnum.

VIDEO NASTIES RECLASSIFIED

Just three months after Britain's Video Recordings Act, designed to outlaw so-called video "nasties" was actually set in operation, the authorities in London admit it could take up to three years to clear and classify the backlog of films * At least 12,000 films, of all kinds from musicals to horror, are involved. The classification board is issuing certificates to up to 80 films a week and is training new staff to cope * The problem is that under the law the "censors" have to look at all films which are now on video release, even though they've previously been classified for cinema showing * The act doesn't allow a cinema certificate to cover a video release. One official says: "We hope that in three years, we will have covered the backlog and about 3,000 new titles. We should have classified about 20,000 films by then." The reason for the slow progress is that some films are subtly altered for the video market, with maybe violent scenes recut to have more impact. Around five in a hundred are given classifications different to those for the cinema versions * The classification board charges 4.60 pounds Sterling a minute for new English-language films and 2.30 pounds Sterling a minute for those previously classified for the cinema *

MIDEM-CREATION OF INTERNATIONAL BUREAU

An international record and music publishing market is to be held in Cannes at Midem between 27-31st January 1986. During the congress, the creation of an International Audio Productions Bureau (I.A.P.B.) will be announced. The bureau will centralize and publicize propositions coming from all participants in order to help them negotiate contracts, exchange programmes and reach co-productions agreements. The programmes will be broadcast over Minitel to all the stands and to various meeting points within the Palais des Festivals.

A programme catalogue will also be published and provided free of charge to all Mip-radio participants. In order to give this radio programme market the means required for its development and internationalization, Midem will this year be inviting for the first time 50 programme directors from all over the world, as well as media directors from advertising agencies and major advertisers.

To the band, Malibu's support meant the difference between losing money and making a modest profit on the tour. To the drinks company it meant Europe-wide publicity and, as marketing director Elaine Laws frankly admits, a way round some of the restrictions on alcohol advertising in Europe.

Apart from the 250,000 fans who actually watched the concerts, there was a ten million TV audience for a two-hour Spanish special on the band's open air Barcelona show, national TV coverage in Denmark of a publicity stunt promoting the tour, an hour-long video recording made at the Zenith in Paris, and much more in the way of personal appearances by Kid Creole and other members of the band at party nights, disco events, talent contests and the like, all contributing to the overall exposure level for the tour and for Malibu.

To Angela Davies and Arch Dyson of the Promotion Company, which negotiated and coordinated the sponsorship deal, the tour demonstrated how important it is to bring sponsor and artist together at an early stage. Too many such deals, they believe, come down to little more than a company credit on a tour programme note.

In the last few years tour costs for major bands have rocketed. With many tours running at a loss, big company sponsorship has become increasingly common, ranging from Malibu's relatively modest investment in the Kid Creole tour to Phillips' seven-figure backing of the year-long Dire Straits trek.

"Quite a few companies are getting on the bandwagon," says Angela Davies. "Our fear is that it may lead to overkill and affect the whole image of this kind of sponsorship. You can't insult the public: we want sponsorship to be seen as being mutually beneficial, not just as a way of making money. Tour sponsorship is not a kind of musical advertising campaign, it needs a responsible approach and a lot of careful planning."

Sire act Kid Creole and The Coconuts - European tour sponsored by Malibu.

ROGER WHITTAKER GERMANY'S MILLION SELLER

Roger Whittaker, born in Kenya, established as a hit-making pop singer in England and unable to speak German, has become West Germany's most popular and successful recording artist singing in the German language.

In recent months, he has sold over 3.5 million records in German in this country, his last four albums all reaching gold or platinum status. "Typisch Roger Whittaker" sold over 900,000 copies, "Ein Glueck Dass Es Dich Gibt" more than 1.1 million (and in the charts for eight months), "Weihnachten Mit Roger Whittaker" more than 400,000. And his current LP, "Du Gehoerst Zu Mir" went gold before going on sale, with advance orders of 400,000-plus.

Whittaker records his German songs phonetically, parrot-style. His run of English-language hits in Germany, and other European countries, started in the late 1960's, and his first two chart-topping albums were in English.

He started recording in Germany in 1979 and says: "It pays to work on a territory-by-territory pattern. It makes sense to record in different languages." His new album is being produced in London's Abbey Road Studios, in English as a starter, by Bruce Welch of the Shadows.

RAVERA CONTRACT WITH SAN REMO

Music business veteran Gianni Ravera recently renewed his contract with the Italian San Remo Festival for another 3 years. This year the festival will be held from 13-15th February 1986 and it will be presented by Pippo Baudo. 20 established artists and 6 new artists (chosen from 40 entries) will be presented to the audiences and all the artists in the race will sing live on backing tapes. There will also be 10 special guests, of which 5 foreign.

Last year the San Remo Festival (broadcast by national channel RAI) reached a peak of 90 million viewers. Ravera has been in the music business for 45 years of which 22 as festival organizer.

and will carry the best of British broadcast television's output, making it a serious rival to Sky Channel, whose programme mix has been criticised for over-dependence on bland American series. Unlike Sky however, Superchannel will not originate any of its own programming.

Despite its accumulated losses of 17 million pounds, Sky Channel has built an audience of around four million cable homes in Europe, half of them in Holland, and hopes to reach seven million by the end of the year. Advertising revenue, though modest, is still growing, and British television chiefs have watched the progress of the pioneering service with some anxiety.

Because it will be supplied free to cable networks, Superchannel will be dependent on advertising sales for income, and no one is yet sure whether there will be enough European advertising to go round. In fact it seems likely that Sky, which has done all the hard work in persuading major multi-national companies to advertise on cable and is just beginning to see the fruits of its efforts, will be the one to lose out, though Sky's chief executive Patrick Fox has said he welcomes the competition.

For Superchannel's backers much remains to be done. A chief executive has to be found, formal approval from the Independent Broadcasting Authority must be sought, satellite transponder arrangements have to be finalised, and agreement with the talent unions has to be reached. In addition the exact composition of the 18-hour-a-day service must be decided. No details are available, but it seems certain that the schedule will include a music segment to compete with Sky's 'Sky Trax' strand.

rock programming. Antenne 2 has a couple of very popular music programmes. First of all the 1 hour and 45 minute programme C'Est Encore Mieux A Midi, the weekly Super Platine (produced by a.o. Catherine Puech); the daily Georges Lang produced Bonsoir Les Clips (a half hour of music videos); plus the renowned Les Enfants Du Rock, a production of Blanc-Francard, (including the special sections Rockline and Sex Machine).

Canal Plus is headed by Mr. Rousselet and the artistic director is Pierre L'Escur. By far the most popular programme on the Canal Plus channel is the Top 50, the French national Top 50 produced in co-operation with Europe 1 and the Tele 7 Jour television weekly magazine. Other popular programmes include 4C+ (a daily music programme with live artists in the studio) and the daily Zenith.

LOST IN THE STARS

A&M's latest project Lost In The Stars is an interesting multi-artist interpretation of the works of a single composer, the legendary Kurt Weill, of The Threepenny Opera fame.

Born in 1900 in the Jewish community of Dessau, Germany, Weill was steeped in music from his childhood. He was already writing symphonies and operas by his early twenties. His famous association with Brecht began when Weill, commissioned to write a one act opera, set to music a series of Brechtian poems. From that moment, their partnership, with the poet's social and topical issues put to Weill's simple, melodic music, was a tremendous success. The political situation was however worsening and Weill soon had to flee the country, for fear of arrest by the Gestapo. His new life in America, on Broadway, brought him success after success.

Lost In The Stars, a Broadway "musical tragedy", was received enthusiastically in the States. And now, in the '80's the appeal of these moving and charming songs has not lessened. Lost In The Stars is an interesting blend of classical, jazz and folk music. The sounds at times appear harsh and even dissonant, but the lyrics are compelling, emotional and strangely haunting.

The album is made up by such diverse artists as Lou Reed, Marianne Faithfull, Tom Waits and Sting. Lou Reed's version of September Song is an unusual and striking rendering of the well-known ballad. Mac The Knife, from The Threepenny Opera, originally a hit for Louis Armstrong, is here interpreted by Sting in a smoother, more melodious rendering than is usual for this song with its harsh lyrics. The contrasts continue throughout this musically varied album. There is much to choose from for all tastes - from Marianne Faithfull's insistent rendering of the Ballad Of The Soldier's Wife, to the lyrical, violin-filled sounds of Youkali Tango, performed by the Armadillo String Quartet. There are the sophisticated jazz sounds of Lost In The Stars, and the more contemporary rock interpretation of Alabama Song.

All in all, Lost In The Stars is a unique homage to Weill's remarkable musical flexibility.

JUST FOR MONEY

Paul Hardcastle had an enormous hit earlier this year with 19, which, in addition to being number 1 in the UK charts for five weeks, also stayed 26 weeks in The European Hot 100 (reaching highest position of no. 3). He has now come up with a new single Just for Money, this week new in the European Airplay Top 50 at 42.

Paul began working on it while 19 was still at the top of the charts. After researching his subject matter - The St. Valentine's Day Massacre and The Great Train Robbery - thoroughly for several weeks, he then set about finding the right voices to play the various parts written into the script - and much to his delight, two of his heroes, Bob Hoskins and Lord Laurence Olivier both accepted the challenge happily. In fact Lord Olivier had heard 19 and had said that he would like to be involved in a similar kind of pop record! So having recorded the very distinctive voices of Hoskins and Lord Olivier in two separate sessions in London and Newcastle, Paul set about putting the whole lot together. The result is Just For Money, a veritable pot-pourri of noises which chronicles the events surrounding the two infamous crimes in question, and gives a wry comment on the things that some people will do... just for money. Both Just For Money and 19 appear in his new album, Paul Hardcastle just out on Chrysalis.

TURNTABLE TIPS

Cock Robin - Cock Robin (CBS)
Strong debut album by this new LA Band, produced by guitarist/producer Steve Hillage (a.o. Simple Minds). Features the single When Your Heart Is Weak which is getting a lot of air-play attention at the moment. The combination of dramatic duet vocals and a groove/rock instrumental base works out best on tracks like: Just When You Have Fun, More Than Willing and Thought You Were On My Side.

The Replacements - Tim (Sire)
This Minnesota band quartet, formed in '79, releases their 4th album (their 1st for Sire) produced by former Ramone member Tommy Erdelyi. The 11 songs on this album are a mixture of Fast 'n' Furious speedy tracks (in the best garage rock setting tradition) and some ballads. Fave tracks: I'll Buy, Kiss Me On The Bus and Here Comes A Regular.

Christopher Cross - Every Turn Of The World (Warner Brothers)
New album by the man who once started his music career as a roadie for Fleetwood Mac. Produced by Michael Onartian, the album features the hit single Charm the Snake and 9 other fine tracks of which It's You That Really Matters, Swing Street and I Hear You Call stand out best.

ALEXANDRA'S NEWS CORNER

G'day to everyone! STARSHIP are co-headline on NIGHT RANGER's US tour. Both bands have had, and are still scoring, big hits with their new albums as well as their current singles * A brand new SHEENA EASTON single, Do It For Love, has been issued only recently but is already doing very well * JACK MILLER, the very first and only white artist who has ever been invited to perform at Jamaican festival Sunsplash is also the first non-coloured artist, signed to Bob Marley's Tuff Gong label. JACK's album Kingston Calling is now released. He produced it himself with some help from the well-known duo Mr. SLY & ROBBIE *

COCK ROBIN have just finished a real Marathon promotour of Europe. That will most likely pave their way in '86 * MARILLION can't go wrong anymore, all concerts are sell-outs and a new single has just been released entitled Heart Of Lothian. Wanna bet it's going to be a hit too? * Flamingo is the new 5 track EP of JEFFREY LEE PIERCE produced by CRAIG LEON. In January JEFFREY will go into the studio to record his 2nd solo album *

JIMMY CLIFF had done some major TV shows in Europe as well as an extensive promotour all over the place * THE SOUND have finally committed one of their live shows to vinyl. The LP features 15 tracks. In The House, was recorded at the Marquee in London. There were no overdubs or effects added *

WALTER BECKER has produced the new CHINA CRISIS single The Highest High, taken off the album Flaunt The Imperfection. The Band is currently writing songs for a forthcoming film: Playing For Keeps * PETER MURPHY has his solo single out now, called Final Solution * As for the fairly new American band AUTOGRAPH, (coz' apparently there's a band with the same name in Russia, slightly different music though!) they are joining MOTLEY CRUE on their American tour, after finishing off their support dates to HEART *

End of this month will most likely see the release of a long awaited 12" by DAVID SILVYAN, entitled Word With The Shamman. It consists of 3 songs. About a week later the cassette will be issued: Alchemy- An Index Of Possibilities, which has an extra 20 minutes worth of instrumentals * ANDY PRATT's new single is out now and titled It Will get Better. Just a little reminder for those who need it: he does also have a new LP out - Not Just For Dancing! *

Moving Heaven And Earth is the new single effort by THE BIG SOUND AUTHORITY. Get it! * After a silence of 2 years, German band ELEPHANT has made a strong return with their second album called Just Tonight. Listening to the tracks it's for sure that one could actually bear it any night * JOHN PARR will have a new single issued at the end of this year. It's a track also featured on his album, called Don't Leave Your Mark On Me. DAVID FOSTER was responsible for the total new remix of the song * JENNIFER RUSH, currently enjoying great success with her single, is touring her homeland Germany, and will receive a gold award at her gig in Frankfurt on Dec. 2nd *

While the duet of Phil Collins & Marilyn Martin, Separate Lives, is on its way to no.1 in the States, sales in Europe stay very much behind *

And now: the concert review of the week. GARY MOORE and Guests. Power and passion at the Gary Moore & Mama's Boys concert. Starting the gig was AVALON, then the 3 brothers from Mama's Boys were thundering away. Playing a lot from their last album, their 2nd. They are brilliant & solid as a brick wall. The same can be said about Gary Moore & his band. They took the stage - storming into a steaming: Run For Cover as a starter. A very impressive gig with a wonderful version of Empty Rooms and one of the oldest songs, Wishing Well. One could sense that Gary & his boys just love to play live. I actually felt sorry when it had ended. But Mama's Boys & Gary Moore continue their tour together so don't miss them when they're around. Well that's all for this week. Luv' Alexandra *

LONDON CALLING

by Howard Marks

No sooner do I mention hot import track Mr. DJ by Concept in the last issue, than it gets snapped up for UK release by Fourth & Broadway. The record should be in the shops, as you read this word. Also check out a great little reggae record that gets it's UK release here this week. The record is called Girlie Girlie by Sophia George. It could do as well as Althia & Donna did some years ago. Well done that man. The man in question is radio One producer, Jeff Griffin, he produces the Andy Peebles show on a Friday night. The show recently went up to Manchester to catch cricketer Ian Botham on a nationwide charity walk to raise money for research into Leukemia. Jeff walked twenty miles with Ian, and helped to raise some money. It is rumoured that certain Record Pluggers have actually opened their wallets for the first time in years, to let the moths out, and give Jeff some money towards the charity.

Radio One producer Phil Ward Large leaves the Beeb at the end of the year to become programme director at Radio Luxembourg, he replaces Richard Swainson. Radio One producer Dave Tate moves to BBC World Service at the end of the year. All the best to both in their new positions.

Former BBC radio publicity officers Dan Kirby & Alan Monahan have formed their own PR company. Problems between Spandau Ballet, and Chrysalis Records still abound. It seems that Chrysalis broke a high court ruling not to TV advertise the 'singles collection' by the band. While on the subject of courts, Wham!'s George Michael was cleared in court of nicking one of Barry Manilow's hits of years gone by for the Wham biggie "Last Christmas". As the saying goes: Where There's a hit, there's a writ. Finally, Tears For Fears have been doing the rounds of radio interviews, and maintain that they will be keeping a low profile in the UK during 1986.

DISCO/DANCE

The Star Sisters - The Duke Of Dance (CNR)
Female trio sparking off high media interest and a regular guest on the UK cable channels. This track is certainly the best of their recently released album and the re-mix by Rutger 'Rutty' Kroese is very to the point with its extended vocal effects. For more info contact CNR Holland 35-133356/44551

Jimmy Bo Horne - Spank (Streetheat)
'85 re-mix done in Miami by Joe Galdo and Larry Dermer, producers and band members of Miami Sound Machine. Outtakes are edited in Holland by re-mixer Peter Vriends. For more info contact Holland 10-821592.

Rochelle - My Magic Man (Warner Brothers)
Follow up to her debut Warner single Love Me Tonight with soulful and poppy vocals over driving electronic layers. About to be released in Europe. Could be very big.

Isley Jasper Isley - Caravan Of Love (Epic) U.S.A.

publ. April Music/JI Publ. Master owner: Epic, tel. 212-9754321
Marvin, Chris and Ernie Isley, have split from the original members of the Isley Brothers and formed a group on their own. Caravan Of Love is from the album of the same name and shows the three-some in a medium-paced and restrained ballad, reminiscent of some of the older Temptations doo-wop style. Song is a fave on Racio London's Tony Blackburn Show.

Brass Construction - Give And Take (Capitol) U.S.A.

publ. One To One Music. Master owner: Capitol, tel. 213-4626252
8-Piece Brooklyn-based funk band. Give And Take is a sultry and polished ballad with Lisa Fischer on lead vocals. A well arranged and produced melodic track from their latest album Conquest.

Tramaine - Fall Down (Spirit Of Love) (A&M) U.S.A.

Jocelyn Brown - Love's Gonna Get You (Jelly Bean/Warner Bros.) U.S.A.

Publ. House Of Fun Music. Master owner: Warner Bros, tel. 213-8469090
Jocelyn Brown, who made such an overwhelming impression with last year's Somebody Else's Guy and I Wish You Would, now debuts for a major label. Producer John 'Jellybean' Benitez gives Brown enough space to hit the groove. Check out the Fun House Mix.

Princess - After The Love Has Gone (Supreme) UK

Publ. Allboys Music. Master owner: Supreme, tel. 1-4030007
Follow-up to the highly successful Say I'm Your No. 1. Continues in the same poppy-disco style with Princess in a casual voice.

Poussez - Come On And Do It ('85 Erotic Mix) (High Fashion Music) U.S.A.

publ. not listed. Master owner: Dureco, tel. 2940-15321
Typical 'Euro-disco', insipid chorus and ditto lyrics, but the kinky vocals and good remix by Ben Liebrand (who recently did such a good job on Tavares' Heaven Must Be Missing An Angel) make up for it.

Fat Boys - Hard Core Reggae (Sutra) U.S.A.

Publ. Amber Pass/Kuwa/Fools Prayer. Master owner: Sutra, tel. 212-7579880
High-tech reggae rap from these street artists. Irresistible vocals over a demanding production (done by Kurtis Blow) combine to give a contagious dance track.

Evelyn 'Champagne' King - Your Personal Touch (RCA) U.S.A.

Quality disco in an Allen George/Fred McFarlane production (whose credits include a.o. Jocelyn Brown's 'Guy'). From the A Long Time Coming album.

Jellybean - Sidewalk Talk (EMI America) U.S.A.

Publ. House Of Fun/Webo Girl Publ. Master owner: Capitol, tel. 213-4626252
Sharp and lively dance track from the 1984 album Wotupski!?. Street pop vocals are arranged by Madonna (she's also featured on background vocals) and the lead vocal is done by Catherine Buchanan.

LW5 - Kill Or Be Killed (Virgin) UK

Publ. Virgin Music. Master owner: Virgin, tel. 1-2291282
Follow-up to the Paul Hardcastle produced Ripe For The Picking (incidentally, Hardcastle picked out LW5 as the band to watch in 1985 in Black Echoes' Year-end poll!) Funky track with a catchy beat, a good rap and heavy guitar solo in the middle. Third World meets Slave.

Eddie Murphy - Party All The Time (CBS) U.S.A.

Beverly Hills Cop Murphy in a pop/disco production by Rick James. The track doesn't really set the world on fire, but Murphy's fame and James' backing vocals will surely help to make this a chart topper.

The Team - We Are The Team (EMI) UK

Publ. Copyright Control. Master owner: EMI, tel. 1-8366699
Follow-up to their no. 1 dancefloor Wicky Wacky Houseparty, composed by Teamleader Gee Bello. Party party atmosphere all over in a 15 minute dancefloor delirium. Massive appeal.

Five Star - R.S.V.P (Tent/RCA) UK

Publ. Inter Song Music. Master owner: RCA, tel. 1-4372468
Yet another polished and fashionable pop/disco tune by UK's own Jackson 5-a-like family bunch: the Pearsons. Produced and arranged by the in-demand team of Nick Martinelli (a.o. Loose Ends) and John Morales. No real surprises but a guaranteed hit.

Andre Cymone - The Dance Electric (CBS) U.S.A.

Former Prince bass player Cymone in a sensual dance cut that sounds like an outtake of the Around The World sessions. Prince wrote the track, can be heard on guitar and Lisa & Wendy on background vocals all ensure the track has a definite Paisley Park touch all over.

The Housemartins - Flag Day (Go! Discs/Chrysalis) UK
publ. Go Discs Music. Master owner: Go! Discs, tel. 1-7433845
Band from Hull, UK, with a very fresh and innocent pop song. The charming melody lingers along, long after hearing it.

Via Verdi - Diamond (Ibiza/WEA) Italy
publ. Creamus. Master owner: Ibiza Records, tel. 2-3450312
Poppy disco on a well arranged electronic base. With its typical 'Euro-feel' this Italian 4 piece band (originally a hardrock outfit) could do well in Europe.

Microdisney - Birthday Girl (Rough Trade) UK
publ. Warner Bros, tel. 1-5810261. Master owner: Rough Trade, tel. 1-8332133
Anglo-Irish indie band with an impressive catchy melody which should bring them the deserved mass appeal. Watch the strong vocals.

TUNING IN

Fritz Egner - BR
Fritz Egner is dj/producer for the BR in Munich. He has a daily evening show from 20.00 - 21.00 hrs from Monday to Friday entitled 'Hithouse', subtitled 'Fritz Got The Hits'. The picture shows Egner with the Godfather Of Soul, James Brown.

"Hithouse is a mixture of black music and Top 40 material with a feature of a 12" every day (chosen by the listeners). Sixty percent of my programme is dance-orientated and the rest is filled with Top 40 material. I think this mixture really appeals to my target audience which is not older than 25. At the moment black music has a similar stimulance to the German youth compared to that of The Stones and The Beatles in the 60's. In my youth, music had a function of shocking one's parents, the more they liked a particular record, the more we disliked it. Nowadays you can't shock your parents with the Hooters or Sandy Marton, but if you play e.g. Doug E Fresh they probably won't like that. And as the kids are constantly looking for something new, black music still has this function of rebellion.

Very often I'll have artists live in the studio. My recent guests included a.o. Huey Lewis, Boy George, Robert Palmer, Sting and Dio. In these 1 hour specials the artists talk about their favourite records and why in particular they like that record.

As my programme is on TV prime time I face a rather heavy competition, but recent ratings indicate that our evening programme attracts one million people plus a shadow audience from East Germany, Austria, and Switzerland. When it comes to trends, it is rather obvious that danceable rock is coming up. Mainly the recent flood of American AOR-material is very striking with examples of Starship and Mr. Mister.

It is quite striking to see here in Germany a new generation of producers. Producers like Harold Faltermeyer, Michael Cretu and Gunther Mende (Jennifer Rush) are all German producers who grew up with modern UK and US music and for the first time ever they can compete with foreign examples. One of the most promising new acts according to me is Charlie Sexton, a 17 year old guy from LA who debutes on the MCA-label with an album produced by Keith Forsey.

Singles Guide

A new no. 1 in the European charts! After 8 weeks the Norwegian duo A-Ha have accomplished it; with top positions in 12 European countries they put Stevie Wonder back to no. 2 this week, making it the 3rd time this year that a Euro-production is ruling the charts.

Earlier this year Opus' Life Is Live was for 6 weeks the no. 1 in Europe (only once interrupted by Duran's A View To A Kill) and Baltimore's Tarzan Boy (8 consecutive weeks at no.1) was the other Euro topper. There are no serious competitors at the moment, the difference with Alive And Kicking and Nikita is still considerable (although Jennifer Rush's The Power Of Love - yet another Euro production - is a very steady climber to the top: this week moving to no. 2). And with the Take On Me single in Europe as well, the Norwegian domination of Europe is complete.

And talking about duos, last week Wham! had the highest entry in the European Airplay Top 50. This week they have highest entry in the Hot 100: with new entries in the UK (straight in at no.2!), Holland and Ireland, I'm Your Man enters at 27. With this new single, Wham! continue their blue-eyed soul interpretation of the Motown sound, making it the most copied pop sound in the world.

With the duet of Collins & Martin., Separate Lives currently on its way to the top of the American charts (no. 3 at the moment); Europe has stayed a bit behind so far. And although the success in Europe will not happen on the same scale as in the States, the sultry ballad is this week's 2nd best entry at 62 (due to good positions in the UK, Italy and Norway) other entries for Whitney Houston (70); Michel Sardou; (87) Cock Robin(88) and Round One (89).

Moving over to the European Airplay it was to be expected that the new Lionel Richie single would be the hottest addition on all European stations this week. A Hot Radio Add last week, Say You Say Me now highest entry in the European Airplay Top 50 at 16. Especially the UK stations have nearly all added the new Nik Kershaw single entitled When A Heart Beats: this week new at 36. No doubt it will make a big jump next week when the Benelux and German stations have added it as well. Other entries for Paul Hardcastle (see separate article on page 4); Doug E Fresh; Chrysalis act Go West.; Slade (new single Do You Believe In Miracles); the single has a definite x-mas feel all over) and another Hot Radio Add of last week, Grant & Graham with their 2nd duet Mated (a Todd Rundgren cover).

A very likely candidate for next week's entry in the European Airplay charts (and Hot 100) is the new McCartney single Spies Like Us. Not all our correspondents however seemed to be keen on this one. Many think it sounds too raucous and chaotic for their formats, although they have no other alternative than playing it. Yet others think this is McCartney's best rock & roll effort as to date.

With the recent negotiations between Reagan and Gorbachov, the Sting single Russians will be the exact single to accompany documentaries and news items, we sincerely hope however Sting will not be the only one who will profit from this top meeting.

Italian artist Claudio Baglioni has a no. 1 album in the Italian charts at the moment. A single from that album (Strada Facendo) has just been released on CBS outside Italy. His warm and sensual vocals could also do well in the rest of Europe, we think.
